

THE

HISTORIE

OF THE

WORLD,

IN FIVE BOOKS.

THE FIRST.

Intreating of the Beginning and first Ages of the same, from the Creation unto Abraham.

THE SECOND.

Of the Times from the Birth of ABRAHAM to the destruction of the Temple of SALOMON.

THE THIRD,

From the destruction of Jerusalem to the time of Philipof Macedon.

THE FOURTH

From the Reign of PHILIP of MACEDON, to the establishing of that Kingdom in the Race of Antigonus.

THE FIFTH.

From the settled Rule of ALEXANDERS Successors in the East, untill the ROMANS (prevailing over all) made Conquest of ASIA and MACEDON.

By Sir WALTER RALEOH, Knight.

LONDON,

Printed for Robert White, John Place, and George Dawes; and are to be fold by Thomas Rookes at the Lamb and Ink-bottle at the East-end of St. Pauls,

M DC LX VI.

THE MIND OF THE FRONT.

Rom Death and dark Oblivion (neer the same)
The Mistris of Mans life, grave H 1 S T O R Y, Raising the World to good, or evil F A M E, Doth vindicate it to E TERNITY.

High PROVIDENCE would so: that nor the Good Might be defrauded, nor the Great secur'd, But both might know their wayes are understood, And the reward and punishment assur'd.

This makes, that lighted by the heamy hand
Of TRUTH, which fearcheth the most hidden springs, And guided by EXPERIENCE; whose straight W and Doth mete, whose Line doth sound the depth of things;

She cheerfully supported what she rears:
Assisted by no strengths, but are her own.
Some note of which each varied Pillar bears,
By which, as proper Titles she is known,

Times Witness, Herald of Antiquity, The Light of Truth, and Life of Memory.

The true and a lively nortraiture of the bonourable Raley Raley Raley R. Raley D. Ra

The Contents of the Chapters, Paragraphs, and Sections, in the first Book of the first Part of the Hiltory of the World.

CHAP. I.

Of the Creation and Preservation of the WORLD.

S.I.

In tres.

S. II. That the wises of the Heathen, whose 5. X. That nature is no Principium per se;

Anthority is not to be despised, have acknown nor Form, the giver of being: and of our igno-6.111. Of the meaning of In Principio, portion with their effects.

Genesis 1. ver. 1.

ven and Earth] Gen. I. i. 6. V. That the Substance of the Waters, as mixt in the body of the Earth, is by Moses understood in the word [Earth :] and that the Ford, is described as the Chaos of the ancient some things that seem to be by Fortune, and a §. VI. How it is to be understood, that the Spirit of God moveth upon the Waters, and that this is not to be searched curiously.

§. VII. Of the Light created, as the material Substance of the Sun; and of the nature of it, and Of Mans estate in his sirst Creation, and of lency and use of it : and of motion, and heat annexed unto it.

S. VIII. Of the Firmament, and of the Waters above the Firmament: and whether there be any Crystaline Heaven, or any Primum Mo-

9. IX. A conclusion, repeating the sum of the works in the Creation, which are reduced to "Hat the Invisible God is seen in his Creathree heads: The creation of matter, The forming of it; The finishing of it.

ledged the World to have been created by God. rance, how second causes should have any pro-

S. XI. Of Fate, and that the Stars have §. 1V. of the meaning of the words [Hea-great influence: and that their operation may diversly be prevented or furthered.

S. X II. Of Prescience, S. XIII. Of Providence.

gainst Reason and Providence.

CHAP. II.

Gods reft.

s. T.

OF the Image of God, according to which Man was first created. $.11.0f

6.11. Of the intellectual mind of Man, in which there is much of the Image of God: of Havilah. and that this Image is much deformed by

§. III. Of our base and fraile bodies: and for Cush, 2 Chron. 21.16. 5. IV. Of the spirit of life, which God seathed into man in his Coasts that the care thereof should yield to the immortal foul.

breathed into man in his Creation.

§. V. That Man is (as it were) a little World: with a digression touching our mortality.

his first Creation to dispose of himself.

§. VII. Of Gods ceasing to create any more: and of the cause thereof because the Universal created was exceeding good.

CHAP. III.

Of the place of Paradise.

"Hat the feat of Paradife is greatly miftaken , and that it is no marvel that men should erre.

§. II. A recital of strange opinions touching

Paradise. S. III. That there was a true local Paradife East-ward, in the Country of Eden.

6. IV. Why it should be needful to intreat diligently of the place of Paradise. S. V. That the Flood hath not utterly defaced the marks of Paradise, nor caused Hills in the Earth.

S. VI. That Paradise was not the whole Earth, as some have thought, making the Ocean to be the Fountain of those four Rivers.

§.V I I.Of their opinion which make Paradise as high as the Moon: and of others which make it higher than the middle Region of the air.

6. VIII. Of their opinion that feat Paradife under the Aquinoctial; and of the pleasant habitation under those Climates.

§. IX. of the change of the names of places; and that besides that Eden in Coelosyria, there is a Country in Babylon once of this name, as is proved out of Esay 37. and Ezech.27.

s. X. Of divers other testimonies of the Land of Eden: And that this is the Eden of Para-

§. XI. of the difficulty in the Text, which feemeth to make the four Rivers to rife from onc §.XII. Of the strange fertility and happiness of the Babylonian soile, as it is certain that Eden was such.

S. XIII. Of the River Pifon, and the Land

S. XIV. of the river Gehon, and the land of Cush: and of the ill translating of Æthiopia

S. XV. A conclusion, by way of repitition of

5. VI. Of the free power which Man had in Of the two chief Trees in the Garden of Paradise.

6. I.

Hat the Tree of Life was a material tree ; and in what sense it is to be taken, that Man by his eating the forbidden fruit, is made subject to death.

§. II. of Becanus his opinion, that the tree of Knowledge was Ficus Indica.

5. III. of Becanus his not unwitty allegorizing of the story of his Ficus Indica.

S. IV. of the name of the Tree of Knowledge of good and evil: with some other notes touching the story of Adams sin.

CHAP. V.

Of divers Memorable things between the fall of Adam, and the Floud of Noah.

s. I.

OF the cause and revenge of Cains sin: and of his going out from God. S. II. of Cains dwelling in the land of Nod, and of his City Enoch. s. III. of Moses his omitting sundry things concerning Cains generation.

§. IV: Of the diversities in the Age of the Patriarchs, when they begat their children. §. V. of the long lives of the Patriarchs: and some of late memory.

5. VI. Of the Patriarchs delivering their knowledge by Tradition: and that Enoch writ before the Floud.

§. VII. Of the men of War before the Floud. §. V III. That the Giants, by Moses so called, were indeed men of huge bodies: as also divers in later times. CHAP

CHAP. VI.

Of Idolatrous corruptions, quickly rifing, and hardly at length vanquishing in Noah among the Heathen. the World: and of the Reliques of Truth touching these ancient times, ob- ter fashion and name. scurely appearing in Fables and old Legends.

6. I.

Hat in old corruptions we may find some figns of more ancient truth.

6. II. That the corruptions themselves mere very ancient: as in the Family of Noah, and in the old Egyptians.

S. III. That in process of time these lesser crrours drew on greater, as appeareth in the the Ark refred upon some of the Hills of Armegrols Superstitions of the Egyptians.

6. IV. That from the Reliques of ancient Records among the Egyptians and others, the first Idols and Fables were invented; and that the first Jupiter was Cain, Vulcan, Tubalcain. Oc.

§. V. of the three chiefest Jupiters, and also the strange story of the third.

S.VI. Of Cham, and other wicked ones, whereof some gat, some affected the name of gods.

§.V I I. That the wifer of the ancient Heathen had far better opinions of God.

6. VIII. That Heathenism, and Judaism, after many wounds, were at length about the same time under Julian miraculously confoun-

§.IX.Of the last refuges of the Devil, to maintain his kingdom.

CHAP. VII.

Of Noahs Floud.

6. I.

F Gods fore-warning : and some humane Itestimonies : and some doubting touching name of Ararat taken for Armenia; and the the truth of Noahs Floud.

S. II. Of the floud in the time of Ogyges: and that this was not Noahs Floud.

§. III. of Deucalions Floud: and that this was not Noahs floud; nor the Umbri in Italy a remnant of any universal Floud.

$. IV. Of some other Records testifying the universal Floud: and of two ancient Deluges in Egypt: and of some elsewhere.

S. V. That the Floud of Noah was Supernatural, though some say it might have been fore- led Ararat. feen by the Stars.

§. VI. That there was no need of any new Creation of matter to make the universal Floud: and what are Cataractæ Cœli, Gen.7.11.

§. VII. Of some remainder of the memory of § VIII. Of fundry particulars toucking the Ark : as the place where it was made; the mat-

§. 1 X. That the Ark was of Inflicient capa-

S. X. That the Ark rested upon part of the Hill Taurus (or Caucaius) between the East Indies and Scythia.

A Preterition of some questions less materiall: with a note of the use of this question, to find out the Metropolis of Nations.

II. A proposal of the common opinion That

| . III. The first Argument against the common opinion: They that came to build Babel, would have come fooner, had they come from fo neer a place as Armenia.

| IV. The second Argument, That the Eastern people were more ancient in populosity, and in all humane glory.

V. The third Argument; From the wonderful resistance which Semiramis found in the East-Indies.

VI. The fourth Argument : From divers considerations in the person of Noah.

. VII. Of the sensless opinion of Annius, the Commenter upon Berofus, That the Ark refted upon Montes Caspii in Armenia; and yet upon Gordiai, which are three hundred miles distant also in Armenia, and yet in Scy-

. VIII. The fifth Argument . The Vine must grow naturally neer the place where the ark

IX. An answer to an objection out of the words of the Text, The Lord scattered them from thence upon the face of the whole

X. An answer to the objection from the height of the Hills there.

XI. Of Caucasus, and divers far higher Hills than the Armenian.

||. XII. of divers incongruities, if in this Story we should take Ararat for Armenia.

XIII. Of the contrary situation of Armenia unto the place noted in the Text: and that it is no marvel, that the same ledge of Hills running from Armenia to India, Should keep the Same name all a-long, and even in India be cal-

XIV.

|| XIV. of the best Vine naturally growing en the South fide of the Mountains Caucafi, and toward the East-Indies, and of other excellencies of the foile.

|| XV. The conclusion, with a brief repeat-

CHAP. VIII.

ing of divers chief points.

Of the first planting of Nations after the Floud: and of the Sons of Noah; Shem, Efay 18.1. Ham, and Japhet, by whom the Earth was re-peopled.

Hether Shem and Ham were elder than Japhet.

u.II. Of divers things that in all reason are to be presumed, touching the first planting of the World; as that all Histories must yield to Mofes: that the World was not planted all at once, nor without great direction: and, that the known great Lords of the first ages were of the iffue of Ham.

n. III. Of the Isles of the Gentiles in Japhets poritin: of Berofus his too speedy feating. Gomer the son of Japhet in Italy; and another hundred years after the Creation: at least, that of Japhets fons Tubal, in Spain: and also of both it, and the most parts of the world were the antiquity of Longinque Navigation.

u. I V. of Gog and Magog, Tubal, and Mesech, seated first about Alia the less, out of nion of Pererius. Ezech. 38.39.

r. V. Again't the fabulous Berofus, his Fi-Jion, that the Italian Janus was Noah.

n.VI. That Gomer also, and his son To-gorma, of the posterity of Japhet, were first seated about Asia the less: and that from thence they spread Westward into Europe, and Northmard into Samaria.

n. VII. of Javan the fourth fon of Japhet; and of Mesech of Aram, and Meshech of with the names of his eleven sons. Japhet.

n. VIII. of Ascanez and Riphath, the two elder fons of Gomer.

u. IX. Of the four fons of Javan: and of the kites. double signification of Thansis, either for a proper name, or for the Sea,

u. X. That the feat of Chush, the eldest fon of Ham, was in Arabia, not in Æthiopia: and of Grange Fables, and ill translations of Scripture, grounded upon the mistaking of this point.

OF Josephus his Tale of an Æthiopesse, wife to Salomon.
to Moses; grounded on the mistaking of | | II. Josephus the feat of Chush.

phus.

| . III. Chush ill expounded for Æthiopia, Ezechiel 29.10.

| IV Another place of Ezechiel, chap. 30. verf. 9. in like manner mistaken.

I.V. A place, Efay 18. v.1. in like manner corrupted by taking Chush for Athiopia.

|| V I. That upon the like miftaking , both Terhaka, the Story of Sennacherib, and Zera in the story of Ala, are unadvifedly made Æ-

||. VII. A farther exposition of the place, of the Plantation and Antiquities of Egypt.

| I.

THat Mizraim the chief Planter of Egypt, and the rest of the sons of Ham were seated in order one by another.

| II. Of the time, about which the name of Egypt, began to be known: and of the Egyptians Lunary years, which made their Antiquities seem the more fabulous.

1. III Of certain vain affertions of the Antiquity of the Egyptians. IV. Against Pererius, That it is not unlikely, but that Egypt was peopled within two peopled before the Floud.

||. V. Of some other reasons against the opi-

|| VI. Of the words of Moses, Genes. 10.ver. ult. whereupon Pererius grounded his opinion.

VII. A conclusion, resolving of that which is most likely, touching the Egyptian Antiqui-ties: with somewhat of Phut, another son of Ham, which peopled Lybia.

§. XII. Of the eleven fons of Canaan, the fourth fon of Ham.

| 1. Of the bounds of the Land of Canaan;

1. II. Of the portions of Zidon and Heth.

I. III. Of the Jebusites and Amorites. . IV. of the Gergefites, Hevites, and Har-

V. of Sini and Arvadi.

VI. of Zemari. VII. of Hamathi.

6. XIII. of the fons of Chush, excepting Nimrod, of whom hereafter.

I. That the most of the sons of Chush were feated in Arabia the happy, and of the Sabæans that robbed Job: and of the Queen that came

| . II. Josephus kis opinion of Dedan, one of the iffue of Chush, to have been feated in the West I. II. A dispute against the Tale of Jose- Ethiopia, disproved out of Ezechiel and Hies.X IV. of §. XIV. Of the iffue of Mizrains and of the place of Hieremie, ch. 9. v. 7.

§. X V. Of the iffue of Sem.

of Elam, Assur, Arphaxad, and Lud.
||. II. of Aram and his sons.
||. III. of the division of the earth in the time of Phaleg, one of the fons of Heber, &c. | IV. of the fons of Joctan, the other fon of Heber.

|| V. of Ophir, one of Joctans sons, and of Peru: and of that voyage of Salomon.

VI. Of Havilah the son of Joctan, who also passed into the East Indies : and of Mesha, and Sepher, named in the bordering of the Families of Joctan: with a conclusion of this Discourse, touching the Plantation of the World.

CHAP. IX.

Of the beginning and establishing of Government.

OF the proceeding from the first Govern-ment under the eldest of Families to Regal, and from Regal absolute to Regal tempered §. II. Of the three commendable forts of Government, with their opposites : and of the degrees of humane fociety.

§. III. Of the good Government of the first Kings.

§. IV. Of the beginning of Nobility: and of the vain vaunt thereof without vertue.

CHAP. X.

Of Nimrod, Belus, and Ninus: and of memorable things about those times.

"Hat Nimrod was the first after the Floud that reigned like Soveraign Lord: and that his beginning seemeth to have been of just Of the memorable buildings of Ninus: and

5. II. That Nimrod, Belus, and Ninus, were three distinct persons. S. III. That Nimrod, not Affur, built Ni-

nive: and that it is probable out of Esay 23.13. that Affur, built Ur of the Chaldees.

far as now they are known.

§. V. That we are not to marvel how so many mis. Kingdoms could be credied about thele times: §. II. Of the end of Ninus: and beginning and of Vexoris of Egypt; and of Tanais of of Semiramis reign.

§. VI. Of the Name of Belus, and other Names affine unto it.

§. VII. Of the worshipping of Images, begun from Belus in Babel.

§. VIII. Of the Wars of Ninus: and lastly, of his War against Zoroaster.

CHAP. IX.

Of Zoroaster, supposed to have been the chief Author of Magick Arts: and of divers kinds of Magick.

6. I.

Hat Zoroaster was not Cham, nor the first Inventer of Astrology, or of Magick: and that there were divers great Magicians of §. II. Of the name of Magia: and that it was anciently far divers from Conjuring and Witchcraft.

§. III. That the good knowledge in the ancient Magick is not to be condemned; though the Devil here, as in other kinds, hath fought to obtrude evil things under the name and colour of good things.

5. IV. That Daniels mishing Nabuchodonofors condemning of the Magicians, doth not justifie all their practices.

S. V. The abuse of things, which may be found in all kinds, is not to condemn the right use of them.

S.VI Of the divers kinds of unlawfull Ma-

§. VII. Of divers ways by which the Devil seemeth to work his wonders.

§. VIII. That none was ever raised from the dead, by the power of the devil: and that it was not the true Samuel which appeared to

CHAP. XII.

of his wife Semiramis: and of other her

6. I.

9. IV. Of the acts of Nimrod and Belus, as

F the magnificent building of Nimive by Nimus: and of Babylon by Semira-

§. III. of

tion : and Adetamorpholis of her Mother. S. IV. Of her Expedition into India, and §. III. of Semiramis Parentage, and educa- death after discomfiture: with a note of the improbability of her vices.

§.V. Of the Temple of Belus, built by Semi-ramis: and of the Pyramides of Egypt.

The Contents of the Chapters, Paragraphs, and Sections, in the fecond Book of the first Part of the History of the World.

CHAP. I.

and of the use of this question, for the ordering of the flory of the Affyrian Empire.

F some of the successionrs of Semiramis: with a brief transition to the question, about the time of the Birth of Abraham.

§. II. A proposall of reasons or arguments , that are brought to prove Abraham was born in the year 292. after the Floud, and not in the phel was Ninias, nor trouble our felves with

6. III. The answer to one of the Objections proposed, shewing that Abraham made but one journey out of Mesopotamia into Canaan, and it, after his fathers death.

S. IV. The answer to another of the Objectiens proposed, shewing that it was not unlikely, that Terah should beget Abraham in his hundred and thirtieth year.

§. V. The answer to two more of the Objections, shewing that we may have certainty of A-brahams age from the scripture, though we make not Abraham the eldest son: and that ham his two brethren should be respected.

6. VI. That the naming of Abraham first prove that he was the eldest: together with divers reasons, proving that Abraham was not the eldeft fon of Terah.

on, that they which shorten the times, make all ancient stories the more unprobable.

§. VIII. A computation of the times of the Affyrians and others, grounded upon the times noted in the story of Abraham.

S. I X. That Amraphel, one of the four Kings whom Abraham overthrew, Gen. 14.may and the two Sefoftrees, fuccessively reigning afprobably be thought to have been Ninias the son ter Mizraim: and of divers errours about the

and that Ellas, whereof he is said to have been Of the time of the birth of Abraham: King, lies between Coclosyria, and Arabia

§. XI. of Tidal, another of the four Kings. §. XII. That Chedorlaomer, the chief of the four Kings mas not of Assyria, but of Persia; and that the Assyrian Empire at this time was much impaired.

§. XIII. That it is not unprobable, that the four Kings had no Dominion in the Countries named, but that they had elsewhere with their Colinies planted themselves, and so retained the names of the Countries whence they came: which if it be so, we need not to say that Amramany other difficulties.

CHAP. II.

Of the Kings of Egypt, from the first peopling of it after the Flood, to the time of the delivery of the Ifraelites from thence:

Brief of the Names and Times of the first Kings of Egypt: with a note of the cauthere was great cause, why in the story of Abra- ses of difficulty in resolving of the truth in these §. II. That by the account of the Egyptian of the three Brethren, Gen. 11. v. 26. doth not Dynastes, and otherwise, it appears that Chams reign in Egypt began in the year after the Flood 191.

6. III. That these Dynasties were not divers 5. VII. A conclusion of this dispute, noting Families of Kings, but rather successions of Rethe Authors on both sides: with an admoniti- gents; oft-times many under one King.

§. IV. of Cham, and his fon Mizraim, or

§. V. of the time when Ofiris reign ended: and that Jacob came into Egypt in the time of Orus the fon of Ofiris.

§. VI. of Tiphon, Hercules Egyptus, Orus, former Scholtrees.

S.X. Of Arioch another of the four Kings: | S VII. of Businis, the first oppression of the If raelites: and of his successor Queen Thermutis, with divers commendations of the invention of

S.VIII. Of the two brethren of Queen Ther-6.VIII. Of the two brethren of Queen Ther-mutis: and what King it was under whom Mo-words Law, and Right.

CHAP, III. Of the delivery of Ifrael out of Egypt.

F the time of Moses birth: and how long the Ifraelites were oppressed in Egypt. S. II. Of divers Cities and places in Egypt, mentioned in this story, or elsewhere in the young children in Egypt: and of Moses his preservation and education.

S. IV. Of Moles his flying out of Egypt; and the opinions of certain ancient Histori. of the Decalogue: and that the difficulties ans: of his War in Historia, and of his mar-not in reflect of the Commandement, but to riage there: Philo his judgement of his Pasto- our default. rallife : and that of Percrius of the Books of nor Judgement to come, yet the Decalogue

S. V. of Pharaohs pursuit of the Israelites : and of their passage towards the Red Sea, so far

S. V I. Of the Solary and Lunary years, and how they are reconciled with the form of the from humane Laws, and in what fort. Hebrewyear, and their manner of intercala-

§. VII. Of the passage of Israel, from Suc-5. V 11. Vy toe payinge vy coth, towards the Red Sea: and of the divers The Story of the Israelites, from the recei-

5. VIII. Of their passage over the Red Sea: and of the Red Sea it self.

S. IX. That the passage through the Red Sea was miraculous, and not at low ebb.

CHAP. IV.

Of the journeying of the Israelites from the Red Sea, to the place where the Troups. Law was given them: with a discourse of Laws.

Transition, by way of recapitulation of turning back to the Red Sea. A fome things touching Chronology, with a continuation of the story, untill the Amalekites the punishment thereof; and of divers accimet with the liraelites.

§. II. of the Amalekites, Madianites, and Kenites, upon occasion of the battel with the A- the accidents while they abode there. malekites, and Jethro's comming, who being a Kenite, was Prieft of Madian.

§. III. Of the time when the Law was given:

§. V. Of the definition of Laws, and of the Law eternall.

§. VI. of the Law of Nature.

S. VII. Of the written Law of God. §. VIII. Of the unwritten Law of God given to the Patriarchs by Tradition.

§. IX. Of the Morall, Judiciall, and Ceremoniall Law: with a Note prefixed, How the Scripture speaketh not alway in one sense, when it nameth the Law of Moles.

§. X. A proposall of nine other points to be considered; with a touch of the five first.

S. X I. of the fixth point, to wit, of the dif-5. III. Of the cruelty against the Ifraelites ference and agreement of the Old and New uno children in Fount and of Moses him to Testament.

§. XII. Of the rest of the points proposed. §. XIII. Of the severall Commandements of the Decalogue: and that the difficultie is were most necessary to be observed.

S. XV. of humane Law, written, and un-

S. X VI. That onely the Prince is exempt ving of the Law, to the death of Moses.

CHAP. V.

§. I.

F the numbring and disposing of the host of Israel, for their marches through the Wilderness: with a Note of the reverence given to the worship of God, in this ordering of their

§.II. The Offerings of the twelve Princes: The Passover of the second year: The departing §. IH. The voyage from Horeb to Kades: the mutinics by the way: and the cause of their §. IV. of their unwillingness to return with dents in the return.

S.V. Of Moses arrival at Zin Kades: and

S. V I. Of their compassing Idumæa and travelling to Arnon the border of Moab.

S. VII. Of the Book of the Battels of the Lord, mentioned in this Story, and of other and of the promifes touching this land. Books mentioned in Scripture, which are loft. §. VIII. of Moles his Sparing the issue of Lot, and of the Giants in those parts: and of Sehon and Og.

S.IX. Of the troubles about the Madianites, and of Moses his death.

§. X Observations out of the Story of Moses, How God disposeth both the smallest occasions and the greatest resistances, to the effecting of his purpose.

CHAP. VI.

Of the Nations with whom the Israelites had dealing after their comming out of Asher. Egypt: And of the men of Renown in other Nations, about the times Of Moses and Josua: with the sum of the History of Josua,

6. I.

Tow the Nations with whom the Israelites were to have war, were divers waies (as Decapolis. it were) prepared to be their Enemies .

§.II. of the Kings of the Canaanites and Madianites, mentioned in the Ancient wars of the Israelites.

5. III. of the Amalekites and Ismaelites. §. IV. of the instauration of civilitie in Europe about these times; and of Prometheus and Atlas. §. V. of Ducalion and Phaeton. §. VI. Of Hermes and Trismagistus.

6. VII. Of Jannes and Jambres, and some others that lived about those times.

S. VIII. A brief of the History of Josua: and of the space between him and Othoniel: and of the remainders of the Canaanites; with a Note of some Contemporaries to Josua: and of the breach of Faith.

CHAP. VII.

Of the Tribes of Israel that were planted in the borders of Phoenicia: with fundry Stories depending on those places.

S. I.

He Proem to the description of the whole Land of Canaan; with an exposition of the name of Syria.

| I.

He bounds of the Tribe of Asher.

1. 11. of Zidon.

III. of Sarepta, with a brief History of Tyre in the same coast.

II. IV. of Ptolomais, or Acon.

V. of the Castle of S. George. . VI. of Acziba, Scandalium, and o-

VII. of Thoron, Gifcala, and some other

|| VIII. of the Rivers and Mountains of

§. IV. of the Tribe of Nephthalim.

| I.

the bounds of Nephthalim: and of Heliopolis and Abilia.

I. II. of Hazor.

.III. of Cæsarea Philippi. .IV. of Capernaum, and the Cities of ||. V. of Hamath. VI. of Reblatha, and Rama, and divers other Towns.

S. V. The Tribe of Zabulon. S. V I. The Tribe of Islacher. §. VII. The half of the Tribe of Manasse.

F the bounds of this half Tribe: and of Scythopolis, Salem, Therfa, and others. ||. II. of Cafarea palestina, and some other

CHAP. VIII.

Of the Kingdom of Phoenicia.

6. I.

THe bounds and chief Cities and Founders, and name of this Kingdom: and of the invention of Letters ascribed to them.

§. II. of the King of Tyre. §. III. of Bozius his conceit, that the Edumwans, inhabiting along the Red Sea, were the Progenitours of the Tyrians: and that the Tyrians from them received and brought into §.II. Of the bounds of the Land of Canaan, Phoenicia the Knowledge of the most true God.

CHAP, IX.

Of the Tribe of Ephraim: and of the Kings The History of the Syrians; the cheif borof the Ten Tribes, whose Head was E. phraim,

S. I.

F the memorable places in the Tribe of F the City of Damascus, and overthrow of Ephraim. Ephraim. §. II. Of the Kings of the ten Tribes, from Jeroboam to Achab.

§. 111. Of Achab and his successours: with the Captivity of the ten Tribes.

CHAP, X.

Of the memorable places of Dan, Simeon, Juda, Reuben, Gad and the other balf of Manasse.

F Dan: whereof Joppea, Gath Accaron, Azotus, and other towns. 5. 11. The Tribe of Simeon. S. 111. The Tribe of Juda.

$. IV. The Tribe of Reuben, and his borderers.

HE feats and bounds of Machan, and Ammon; part whereof, the Reube-THE feats and bounds of Midian, Moab nites wan from Schon King of Hesbon.

| .II. of the memorable places of the Reubenites.

| III. of divers places bordering Reuben, belonging to Midian, Moab, or Edom. . IIII. of the Dead Sea.

V. Of the Kings of Moab, much of whose Country within Arnon, Reuben possest.

§.V. Of the memorable places of the Gadites, and the bordering places of Ammon.

§ VI. Of the Ammonites part of whose Territories the Gadites wan from Og the King of &VII. of the other half of Mannalle.

CHAP. XI.

derers of the Israelites, that dwelt on the East of Jordan.

§. I.

S. II. Of the first Kings of Damascus, and of the growing up of their power.

S. III. of the latter Kings, and decay, and the divers fortunes thereof.

S. IV. Of other leger Kingdoms of the Syrians which being brought under the Affyrians, never recovered themselves again.

CHAP. XII.

Of the Tribe of Benjamin, and of Jerusa-

s. I.

OF divers memorable Places in the Tribe of Benjamin, where, of Hiericho, Gilgal, Mitspa, Bethel, Rama, Gobah, and Gibba. S.II. Of divers memorable things concerning Jerusalem.

S.III. Of the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans.

S. IV. Of the vaine and malicious reports of Heathen Writers, touching the Ancient Jews.

CHAP. XIII.

Of the memorable things that hapned in the world, from the death of Tosua to the War of Troy: which was about the time of Jeptha.

§.].

OF the Inter-regnum after Josua's death: and of Othoniel.

§. II. Of the memorable things in this Age in other Nations: and of the difficulty in the computation of times.

§. III. of Ehuds time; and of Proserpina. Orithya, Tereus, Tantalus, Tytius, Admetus, and others that lived about these times.

9. IV. of

s.IV. of Debora, and her contempora-

§. V. of Gideon, and of Dedalus, Sphinx, Minos, and others that lived in this age. s. VI. of the expedition of the Argonauts.

s. VII. of Abimelech, Tholah, and Jair, and of the Lapithæ, and of Theseus, Hyppolitus, &c.

S. VIII. Of the war of Thebes which was

s. IX. of Jephtah: and how the three in this Age. hundred years which he speaketh of Judges 11. verse 28. are to be reconciled with the places, Acts 13. 20. 1 Reg. 6. 1. together with some other things touching Chronology about these times.

CHAP. XIV.

Of the War of Troy.

OF the Genealogy of the Kings of Troy: with a note touching the ancient Poets how they have observed Historical truth.

§. II. Of the Rape of Helen, and of the firength of both fides for the war. 6. III. of the Grecians journey and Embassage to Troy: and of Helena's being detained in Egypt: and of the sacrificing of

§. IV. of the Acts of the Grecians at the §. V. of the taking of Troy: the woodden Horse: the Book of Dares and Dictis: the Colonies of the reliques of Troy.

S. V 1. Of the diffresses and dispersions of the Greeks, returning from Troy,

CHAP. XV.

Of Sampson, Eli, and Samuel.

OF Sampson. 6. 11 of Eli, and of the Arktaken: and of Dagons fall: and the sending back of the

6. III. of Samuel, and of his government.

CHAP. XVI.

Of Saul.

OF the deliberation to change the government into a Kingdom.

5. II. of the election of Saul.

6. 111. Of the establishing of Saul by his first

S. I V. of Sauls disobedience in his proceedings in the wars with the Philistims and Amakites, which caused his final rejection.

§. V. of the occurrents between the rejection of Saul and his death.

§. VI. of such as lived with Samuel and Saul; of Hellen and Hercules, and also of their Isues upon occasion of the Dores, with the Heraclida, entering Peloponnesus about this

S. VII. of Homer and Hefiod, and many changes in the world that hapned about this

CHAP. XVII.

Of David.

§. I.

F Davids estate in the time of Saul. 6.11. Of the beginning of Davids reign: and the War made by Abner for Isboseth.

S.III. Of the death of Abner flain by Joab: and of Isboseth, by Rechab and Baanah.

§. IV. of the flourishing time of Davids Kingdom: the taking of Jerusalem: with two overthrows given to the Philistims: and the conduction of the Ark to the City of David.

§ V. The overthrom of the Philistims and Moabites. §. VI. The war which David made upon the Syrians.

6. VII. of Davids troubles in his reign:

and of his forces. §. VIII. of the last acts of David : Adoniah's Faction: the revenge upon Joab and

S.IX. of the Treasures of David and Salo-

S. X. of the Philistims, whom David absolutely mastered: and of sundry other Contemporaries with David.

CHAP. XVIII.

Of Salomon.

ş. I.

F the establishing of Salomon: of birth-right: and of the cause of Adoniah's death: and of Salomon's wisdom.

§. II. of Salomon's buildings and glory. S. III. Of Salomon's fending to Ophir: and of some seeming contradictions about Salomon's Riches : and of Pineda's conceit of two strange passages about Africk.

he lived.

§. V. Of Solomon's Writings.

s. V I. of the Contemporaries of Solomon.

CHAP, XIX.

Of Solomons Successors untill the end of Tehofaphat.

5. I.

F Rehoboam his beginnings; the defe-Ition of the ten Tribes : of Jeroboam's I-

S. II. of Rehoboam his impiety, for which than, he was punished by Sesac: of his end and contemporaries.

§. III. Of the great battell between Jeroboam and Abia; with a Colorarie of the examples feek to destroy Joas, if he were her own Grandof Gods judgements.

§. IV. of Afa, and his contemporaries.

§. V. Of the great alteration falling out in the liberty of using conjectures in Historie. the ten Tribes, during the reign of Afa.

§. V I. A conjecture of the causes, hindering the re-union of Israel with Juda, which might partson of her and Jezabel. have been effected by these troubles.

§. VII. of Jehosaphat and his Contempo-

CHAP. XX.

Of Jehoram the fon of Jehosaphat; and Ahazia.

6. I.

Hat Jehoram was made King fundry

§. II. Probable conjectures of the metives inducing the old King Jehosaphat to change invading Juda in the dayes of Joas. bis purpose often, in making his son Jehoram

S. III. The doings of Jehoram when he reigned alone; and the rebellion of Edom and the Aramites: and of his death.

and of his death.

S. V. Of the reign of Ahazia: and his businesse with the King of Israel.

s. VI. How Ahazia perished with the house phot. of Ahab: and how that Family was destroyed

CHAP. XXL

s. IV. of the fall of Solomon, and how long Of Athalia, and whose son he was that succeeded unto her.

9. I.

F Athalia her usurping the Kingdom: and what pretences she might forge. S. II. How Jehn Spent his time in Ifrael, so that he could not molest Athalia. e. III. of Athalia's Government.

6. IV. Of the preservation of Joas. §. V. Whose son Joan was.

W Hether Joas may be thought likely to have been the fon of Ahazia. † I I. That Joas did not descend from Na-

t. III. That Joas may probably be thought to have been the fon of Jehoram. 1. 1 V. Upon what reasons Athalia might §. VI. A digression, wherein is maintained

S. VII. The conspiracy against Athalia. S. VIII. The death of Athalia, with a com-

CHAP, XXII.

Of Joas and Amazia: with their contemporaries; where somewhat of the building of Carthage.

§. I.

F Joas his doings whileft Jehojada the Prieft lived.

5. II. The death of Jehojada, and Apostacy of Joas. S. III. The causes and times of the Syrians

S.IV. How Zachariah was murdered by Jo-

S. V. How Joas was shamefully beaten by

S. VI. Of the Princes living in the time of §. IV. Of the miseries falling upon Jehoram: Joas: Of the time when Carthage was built: and of Dido.

S VII. The beginning of Amazia his reign. And of Joas King of Ifrael, and Elifha the Pro-

S. VIII. of Amazia bis mar against Edom! his Apostacy and overthrow by Joas.

S.IX. A

Joas from uniting Juda to the Crown of Ifrael, history of the Bible. when he had won Hierusalem, and held Amazia prisoner. The end of Joas his reign.

X. The end of Amazia his reign and life. kingdome of Juda, after the death of Amazia. lated him.

8. X 11. Of Princes contemporary with Ama-zia: and more particularly of Sardanapalus.

CHAP, XXIII.

Of Uzzia.

§. I.

He prosperity of Uzzia, and of Jeroboam the second, who reigned with him in If rael, Ó-с.

s. II. The end of Uzzia, his reign and life. S. III. Of the Prophets which lived in the time of Uzzia, &c.

§. IV. of the Assyrian Kings descending from Phul, O.c.

6. V. of the Olympiads, and the time when they began. 5. VI of Jotham, and his contemporaries.

6. VII. of Achaz, and his contemporaries.

CHAP.XXIIII.

Of the Antiquities of Italy; and foundation of Rome in the time of Ahaz.

9. I.

of the old Inhabitants; and of the name of the pame

S. II. Of the Aborigines, and other Inhabitants of Latium : and of the reason of the names of Latini and Latium.

S. III. Of the ancient Kings of the Latines, untill Eneas his coming.

S.IV. of Encas, and of the Kings and Governours of Alba.

s. V. of the beginning of Rome: and of Romulus birth and death.

CHAP. XXV.

Of Ezechia and his contemporaries.

agreeing of Ptolomies Nabonasiar, Na- enlargement of Manasies, &c.

8.1 X. A discourse of the reasons kindering jbopolassar, and of Mardocempadus, with the §. II. Of the danger and deliverance of Judaa from Senacherib.

§. III. Of Ezechias his sicknesse and recove-§ XI. Of the Inter-regnum that was in the ry; and of the Babylonian King that congratu-

6. IV. The Kings that were in Media during the reign of Ezekia, &c;

CHAP, XXVI.

Of the Kings that reigned in Egypt; between the deliverance of Israel from thence, and the reign of Ezekia in Juda, when Egypt and Juda made a league against the Assyrians.

"Hat many names of Egyptian Kings found in History, are like to have belonged onely to Vice-royes: An example, proving this, out of William of Tyre, his Hiftory of the $. II. of Acherres; whether he were Uchoreus that was the eight from Ofymandyas: Of Ofymandyas, and his Tombe.

$.111. of Cherres, Armeus, Ramesses, and Amenophis: Of Myris, and the Lake that bears his name.

§.IV. of the Kings that reigned in the Dynastie of the Larthes.

§. V. of Egyptian Kings, whose names are found scattering in fundry Authors, their times being not recorded, &c.

§. VI. of Chemmis, Cheops, Cephrenes, and other Kings recited by Herodotus and Diodorus Siculus, which reigned between the times of Rehoboam and Ezekia.

§. VII. of Sethon, who reigned with Ezekia, and sided with him against Senacherib.

CHAP. XXVII.

Of Manasse, and his contemporaries.

€. I.

He wickednesse of Manasses: His imprifonment, repentance, and death. §. I I. of troubles in Egypt following the death of Sethon: The reign of Psammiticus.

§. III. What reference these Egyptian F the beginning of Ezechias: and of the matters might have to the imprisonment and $.1V.0f

S. IV. of the first and second Messenian S. III. of the Kings of Babylon and Media: Wars: which were in the reigns of Ezekia How it came to pass that the Kings of Babel and Manasles, Kings of Juda.

Media: whether Deioces were that King Ar- vince. phaxad, mentioned in the hiftory of Judith.

were in those times.

CHAP. XXVIII.

Of the times from the death of Manasses to the destruction of Jerusalem.

OF Ammon and Josias. §. . Of Pharo Neco, that fought with in these Ages. Josias: Of Jehoahaz, and Jehojakim, Kings could not give attendance on their befiness in 6. V. Of the Kings that were in Lydia and Syria: which cansed them to lese that Pro-

S. IV. The great expedition of the Scythi-S. VI. of other princes and actions that ane who ruled in Afia twenty eight years.

| I.

He time of this Expedition. II. What Nations they more that brake into Asia; with the cause of their jour-

||. III. of the Cimmerians war in Lydia. IV. The War of the Scythians in the higher Älia.

S. V. Of Princes living in divers Countries

S. VI. The oppression of Judæa, and destru-Gion of Jerusalem by the Chaldwans.

$\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2

The Contents of the Chapters, Paragraphs, and Sections, in the third Book of the first Part of the Hiltory of the World.

CHAP. I.

Of the time passing between the Destruction of Jerusalem, and the fall of the Assy. rian Empire.

§ . I.

F the connexion of sacred and prophane History,

S. II. A brief rehearful of two opinions touching the beginning of the Captivity: with which action is uncertain. an answer to the cavils of Porphyrie; inveighing against S. Matthew and Daniel, on whom zar, his buildings, madness, and death. the later of these opinions is founded.

9. III. That the 70. years of Captivity are to be numbred from the destruction of Jeru- ferving to make good those things which are ci-reigned in Babylon, during the 70. years.

5. V. A more particular examination of one opinion touching the number, perfons, and reigns of the Babylonian Kings.

S. VI. What may be held as probable of the Persons and Times of Nabuchodonoser for his Successors,

S. VII. of the victories which Nabuchodonofor obtained, between the destruction of Jerusalem and conquest of Egypt.

s. VIII. That Egypt was conquered, and the King therein reigning, flain by Nabuchodonofor, contrary to the opinion of most Authors: Who following Herodotus and Diodorus, relate it otherwife.

S. IX. How Egypt was fubdued, and holden by Nebuchadnezzar.

§. X. Of the fundry accompts drawn from fundry acts of Nebuchadnezzar: and of the destruction of Nineve by him: the time of

E. XI. of the later time of Nebuchadnez-

§. XII. of Evilmerodach.

6. XIII. A private conjecture of the Author: falem: not from the migration of Jechonia. ted out of Berofus, concerning the fuccessors of §. IV. Sundry opinions of the Kings which Evilmerodach, without wrong unto the truth : the quality and death of Balthafar.

> € 2 CHAP

CHAP. II.

Of the Original and first greatness of the Perfians.

Hat the Medes were chief Allors in the Jubwersion of the Babylonian Empire. §. 11 By what means the Empire was tranflated from the Medes to the Perfians.

8. III. Xenophons relation of the War rope, after the Scythian war. which the Medes and Perfians made with joint Forces upon the Affyrians and others.

in times fore-going this great war.

CHAP. III.

Of Cyrus.

F Cyrushis name, and first actions. c. 11. of Crocfus the King of Lydia, who made war upon Cyrus.

6.111. Crocius lis Expedition against Cy-

S. IV. The conquest of Lydia by Cyrus. 6. V. How Cyrus mon Babylon.

6. VI. The end of Cyrus.

§. VII. of Cyrus his decree for building the Temple of God in Jerusalem.

6. VIII. of Cyrus his ifue: and whether Atossa was his daughter, or (as some think) were the same with Queen Hester.

CHAP. IV.

The eftate of things from the death of Cyrus to the reign of Darius.

Of the number and names of the Persian Kings. 6. II. of Cambyses; and the conquering of Egypt by him. $.111. The rest of Cambyles his acts.

s. IV. of the Inter-regnum between Cambyses and Darius.

CHAP. V.

Of Darius the fon of Histaspes.

6. I.

OF Darius his Linage. $. 11. of Darius his Government; and Suppressing the Rebellion of Babylon. 8. Ill. of Davius his favour to the Jews in building the Temple.

S. IV. of Darius bis Scythian war.

§. V. Some actions of the Perfians in Eu-

S.VI. The first occasion of the War which Darius made upon Greece; with a rehearfal of $.1V. The effate of the Medes and Persians, the Government in Athens, whence the quar-

S. VII. Of the Ionian Rebellion, which was the principal cause of the wars ensuing between Greece and Perlin. §. VIII. The war which Darius made on Greece: with the battel of Marathon, and Darius his death.

CHAP. VI.

Of Xerxes.

 I.
 He preparation of Xerxes against Greece. S. II. Xerxes Army entertained by Pythius: his cutting off Mount Athos from the Continent : his bridge of Eoats over the Hellefpont: and the discourse between him and Artabanus upon the view of his Army.

s.III. of the fight at Thermopyla, and $. IV. The attempt of Xerxes upon Apollo's Temples, and his taking of Athens.

S. V. How Themistocles the Athenian drew the Greeks to fight at Salamis.

s. VI. How the Perfians confulted about giving battel: and how Themistocles by policy held the Greeks to their refolution; with the vi-Clory at Salamis thereupon ensuing.

§. VII. Of things following after the battel of Salamis: and of the flight of Xerxes.

S. VIII. The negotiations between Mardonius and the Athenians; as also between the Athenians and Lacedæmonians; after the flight of Xerxes.

§. IX. The great battel of Palatax. S. X. The battel of Mycale: with a strange accident that fell out in the beginning of it: and examples of the like. S. XI. Of the barbarous quality of Xerxes: with a transition from the Persian affairs to matters of Greece, which from this time grew more worthy of regard. CHAP

CHAP. VII.

Of things that passed in Greece from the deposed. end of the Perfian War, to the beginning of the Peloponnefian.

Ow Athens was re-built and fortified. ereatness, and prosperous wars made by that State upon the Perlian.

s. III. The death of Xerzes, by the treason of Artabanus.

8. IV. The baniflement of Themistocles; his flight to Artaxerxes newly reigning in Perin, and his death.

S. V. How the Athenians, breaking the Peace which to their great honour they had made with the Persian, were shamefully beaten

S.VI. Of other Wars made by the Athenians (for the most part) with good success about the

6. VII. of Arraxerxes Longimanus, that he was Ahashucrosh, the Husband of Queen rants: and their disposition.

s. VIII. of the troubles in Greece, forcgoing the Peloponnesian War.

CHAP. VIII.

Of the Peloponnesian War.

Fon what terms the two principal Cities first entry into the war, of Greece, Athens, and Sparta, stood at $111. How Cyrus the beginning of the Peloponnefian War.

8. M. How Sparta and Athensentred into

§. III. The beginning of the Peloponnesian received at Pylus. . 9. V. How the Lacedamonians hardly and homewards.

to their great disadvantage, obtained a peace, that was not well kept.

§. V 1. Of the negotiations and practices Greeks. held between many States of Greece, by occasion of the peace that was concluded.

S.VII. How the peace between Athens and off Safely.

to fack Syracuse, are put to flight, and utterly Carduchi. discomfited.

S. X. How Alcibiades wan many important Victories for the Athenians; was re-called from exile; made their General: and again

S. XI. The battel at Arginusæ, and condemnation of the victorious Athenian Captains by

s. XII. The battel at Ægos Potamos, wherein the whole State of Athens was ruined, with the end of the Peloponnesian War.

CHAP. IX.

Of the matters concurring with the Peloponnefian War, or shortly following

€. I.

How the affairs of Persia stood in these

S. II. How the thirty Tyrants got their Dominion in Athens.

S. III. The conspiracy against the thirty Ty-

CHAP, X.

Of the expedition of Cyrus the Younger.

§. I.

The grounds of Cyrus his attempt against his brother.

S.II. The preparations of Cyrus, and his

S. III. How Cyrus took his journey into the higher Asia, and came up close to his brother. S. IV. The battell between Cyrus and Artaxerxes.

S. V. The bard estate of the Greeks after the fight: and how Artaxerxes in vain fought to 9. IV. Of the great loss which the Spartans have made them yield unto him.

S. VI. How the Greeks began to return

S. VII. How Tiffaphernes, under colour of peace, betrayed all the Captains of the

$. VIII. How Xenophon heartened the Greeks, and in despight of Tillaphernes, went

Sparta, was ill kept, though not openly broken. " S. IX. The difficulties which the Greek Ar-§. VIII. The Athemans sending two Fleets my found, in passing through the Land of the

S. X. How Teribazus Governour of Arme-§.1 X. Of the troubles whereinto the State of nia feeking to entrap the Greeks with terms of Athens fell, after the great loss of the Fleet and seigned peace, was disappointed, and shamefully the River of Phasis, and other obscure Na- of Antalcidas.

S. XI. The

de to provide a Fleet, wherewith to return son, and Olynthus by famine.

Lome by Sea. my, and how it was embarqued.

S. XIV. Another great diffension and destruction of the Army. How the Mutiners were beaten by the Barbarians, and rescued by Xenophon.

S. XV. Of divers pieces of service done by Xenophon, and how the Army returned into Greece. The occusions of the War between the Lacedæmonians and the Perfian.

CHAP. XI.

Of the affairs of Greece, whilest they ans.

9. I.

or the Lacedamonians took courage by example of Xcnophous Army, to make war upon Artaxerxes.

S.II. The prosperous beginning of the War

S.III. How the Lacedamonians took revenge upon the Eleans for old displeasure. The discontents of the Corinthians and Thebans, conceived against the State of Sparta.

S. IV. The passage of Agelilaus into Alia: His War with Tillaphernes. How Tillapherinto another Province, through perfination and gifts of Tithraustes his successour. How careless the Perlian Lieutenants were of the Kings

s. V. The War and Treaty between Agesilaus and Pharnabazus.

S. VI. The great commotions raised in Greece by the Thebans and others, that were bired with gold from the Perlian.

S. VII. How Agefilaus was called out of Afia to help his Country. A victory of the Spartans. Conon the Athenian, affifted by Pharnabazus, overcomes the Lacedamonian Fleet:recovers the mastery of the Seas: and re-builds the walls of Athens.

e. VIII. Of fundry small victories gotten on each part. The Laced monians lose all in Asia. The Athenians recover some part of their old Dominion.

§. IX. The base conditions offered unto the

S. XI. The puffage of the Army to Trabi- Persian by the Lacedamonians. Of Sundry zonde, through the Country, bordering upon fights, and other passages in the war. The peace

S. X. The War which the Lucedamonians 8. XII. How the Army began at Trabizon-made upon Olynthus. They take Thebes by trea-

S. XI. How the Thebans recovered their S. XIII. Of diffension which arese in the Ar- liberty, driving out the Lacedamonian Gar-

CHAP. XII.

Of the flourishing estate of Thebes, from the Battel of Leuctra, to the Battel of Mantinæa.

e. I.

Om Thebes and Athens joyned together against Sparta. How the Athenians make peace for themselves and others : out of were managed by the Lacedamoni- make peace for incompenses and orders. one of which the linebass were excluded. The battell of Leuctra, and beginning of the Theban

S. II. How the Athenians took upon them to maintain the peace of Greece. New troubles hence arifing. Epaminondas invadeth and wasteth the Territory of Lacedamon. S. III. The composition between Athens and Sparta, for command in war against the Thebans; who again invade and spoile Peloponnefus. The unfortunate prefumption of the Arcadians. S. IV. The great growth of the Thebane Bstate. Embassages of the Greeks to the Persian; with the reasons why he most favoured the Thebans. Troubles in the Perfian Empire. The

S. V. How all Greece was divided between the Athenians and Lacedæmonians, on the one fide, and Thebans on the other. Of the great tumults arifing in Arcadia.

s. VI. Aterrible invalion of Peloponnelus by Epaminondas. S. VII. The great battel of Mantinæa. The honourable death of Epaminondas, with his commendation.

§. VIII. of the peace included in Greece after the battel of Mantinæa. the voyage of Agesilaus into Egypt. His death and qualities : with an examination of the comparison made between him and Pompey the Roman.

The

The Contents of the Chapters, Paragraphs, and Sections, in the fourth Book of the first Part of the Hillory of the World.

CHAP. I.

Of Philip, the Father of Alexander the Great, King of Macedon.

Hat Kings reigned in Macedon, before Philip.

S. II. The beginning of Philips reign; and how he delivered Macedon from the troubles in which he found it entangled.

8. III. The good success which Philip had in many enterprizes.

S. IV. Of the Phocian war, which first drew Philip into Greece.

S.V. Of the Olynthian war. The ambitious practices of Philip.

8. VI. How Philip ended the Phocian War. s. VII. How Philip with ill success attempted on Perinthus, Bizantium, and the Scy-

§. VIII. How Philip, overthrowing the Greeks in the battel of Cheronaa, was chosen Captain General of Greece. The death of S.IX. What good foundations of Alexanders greatness were laid by Philip. Of his laudable qualities and issue.

CHAP. II.

Of Alexander the Great.

Brief rehearfal of Alexanders doings be-A Brief rehearfal of Ales fore he invaded Afia.

S.II. How Alexander passing into Afia. fought with the Persians upon the River of

S.III. A digression concerning the defence of hard passages. Of things following the battel

S. IV. Of the unwarlike Army levyed by Darius against Alexander. The unadvised courses which Darius took in this Expedition. He is vanquished at Issus, where his Mother, Wife, and Children, are made Prisoners. Of some things following the battel of Illius.

e. V. How Alexander besieged, and wan the City of Tyre.

S. VI. How Darius offered conditions of peace to Alexander. Alexander wins Gaza, and deals graciously with the Tews.

S. VII. Alexander wins Egypt: and makes a journey to the Temple of Hammon.

S. VIII. How Alexander, marching against Darius, was opposed very unskilfully by the E-

5. IX. The new provisions of Darius. Accidents fore-going the battel of Arbela.

S. X. The battel of Arbela: and that it could not be so strongly fought as report bath

S. XI. Of things following the battel of Arbela. The yielding of Babylon and Susa.

S. XII. How Alexander came to Persepolis, and burnt it.

S. XIII. The treason of Bessus against Darius. Darius his death.

S. XIV. How Alexander purfued Beffus, and took into his grace Darius his Captains. S. XV. of Thalestris, Queen of the Amazons, where by way of digression, it is shewed, that fuch Amozons have been, and arc. S. XVI. How Alexander fell into the Per-fians Luxury: and how he purfued Beffus. S. XVII. A conspiracy against Alexander. The death of Philotas and Parmenio.

S. X VIII. How Alexander Subdued the Bactrians, Sogdians, and other people. How Bessus was delivered into his hands. How he fought with the Scythians.

5. XIX. How Alexander flew his own friends.

§. X X. Of Alexanders journey into India: The battel between him and Porus.

S. XXI. How Alexander finished his Expedition: and returned out of India. §. XXII. of Alexanders riot, ernelty, and

S. XXIII. of Alexanders person and qua-

CHAP. III. The Reign of Aridaus.

ŝ. 1.

F the question about succession to Alex-

S. H. The election of Aridaus, with the in Pydna. Olympias yields to Callander. trouble thereabout arising: the first division of

6. Li I. The beginning of the Lamian War. S. IV. How Perdiceas employed his Army.

s. V. The process of the Lamian War. S. VI. of the peace granted to Athens by Antipater. Of Demosthenes bis death.

S. VII. How Craterus and Antipater were drawn from their Etolian Wars into Asia. The grounds of the first Civill War between the Macedonian Lords. S. VIII. Perdiccas his voyage into Egypt, and his death.

S. IX. Victories of Eumenes in the lower

S. X. Quarrels between Euridice the Queen, and Python the Protector. Python resigns his office, into which Antipater is chosen.

S. XI. Antigonus, Lievtenant of Alia, wins a battel of Eumenes, bestegeth him in him: Nora. He vanquisheth other sollowers of Per-

S. X.H. Ptolemy wins Syria and Phænicia.

The death of Antipater. S. XIII. of Polyipercon, who succeeded unto Antipater in the Protectorship. The insurrection of Cassander against him. §. XIV. The unworthy courses held by Polyspercon, for the keeping down of Cassan-

S. XV. Of the great commotions raised in Athens by Polysgerchons deeree. The death of tigonus, and flain.

dition against Cassander.

s. XVII. Antigonus fecks to make himfelf carrying away Peuceltes. Eumenes, who disappointed him. Phrygia and bylon by Antigonus. The great riches of Anti-Lydia won by Antigonus.

s. XVIII. Antigonus pursues Eumenes. Eumenes having Authority from the Court Faiseth great War against Antigonus, in defence of the Royal house. &. XIX. How the Princes of Macedon food affetted mutually. Olympias takes Aridæus and Eurydice, whom she cruelly puts to death. S. XX. How Caffander was revenged upon Olympias.

He great Expedition of Cassander. Olympias stats her self into Pydna, where Cassander besiegeth her. Hacides King of Epirus, coming to faccour Olympias,is forfaken, and banified by his own sobjects.

7. 1.

t. II A continuation of Olympias her Story. Polysperchon defeated. Extreme famine

t. III. The death of Olympias, and her

t. IV. Cassander celebrates the Funerall of Aridaus and Eurydice: and feeks to make himfelf King of Macedon.

CHAP. IV.

Of the great Lordship which ANTIGONUS got in ASIA.

6, 1.

"He journey of Eumenes into Persia. His wise dealing with those that joyned with

S. II. How Antigonus coming to fet upon Eumenes, was driven off with losse.

S. II I. of Eumenes his cunning. A battell between him and Antigonus.

S.IV. Of divers stratagems practised by Antigonus and Eumenes, one against the other. S.V. The conspiracy of Peucestes and others against Eumenes bis life.

§. VI. The last Battell between Antigonus and Eumenes.

6. VII. How Eumenes was betrayed to An-

S. VIII. How Antigonus flew Python, and 6. XVI. of Polyspherchon his vain Expe- occupied Media. How he removed Governous of Provinces, and made himself Lord of Persia,

S. IX. How Seleucus was chased out of Ba-

CHAP

CHAP. V.

Of the great Civill War between Alexanders Captains: and how they assumed Of the Wars between the Kings of Egypt, the name and state of Kings.

6. I.

He combination of Ptolomy, Caslander and others, against Antigonus. Their demands, and his answer.

§. II. The preparations and beginnings of the Wars.

§. III. How each part fought to win the affistance of Greece. Antigonus his declaration by Demetrius. against Cassander. Alexander the son of Po. against Cattainder. Mexander the jon of Policification Demetrius prevated in Greece. Interchon revolteth from Antigonus who had Cattainder descriptions of Antigonus, and canfet him up.

$. IV. The Ætolians rife against Caffander, in favour of Antigonus, and are beaten. A Fleet and Land-Army of Antigonus utterly defeated by Prolomies Lieutenant. In what whole estate was loft. terms the War food at this time. Antigonus draws nearer to Greece.

quisked some Enemies, raised against them by Fortune, and shortly entring into new quar-Antigonus. The good successe of Antigonus in rels. Asia and Greece: with the rebellion of many Cities against Cassander.

S. VI. Victories of Ptolomy by Sea. A great battell at Gaza, which Ptolomy and Seleucus wan against Demetrius the son of Antigonus:

6. VII. How Seleucus recovered Babylon, and made himself Lord of many Countries in the higher Alia. The Æra of the kingdome his war against Pyrrhus, and in his civil Goof the Greeks: which began with this Domini- vernment; and prepares to win Alia. How all on of Seleucus.

S.VIII. How Ptolomy loft all that he had won in Syria. What the causes were of the qui- thus; who shares the Kingdom of Macedon et obedience performed unto the Macedoni- with Lysimachus. ans, by those that had been subject unto the Persian Empire. Of divers petty enterprizes, taken in hand by Antigonus and Demetrius, with ill successe.

§. IX. A generall peace made and broken. How all the house of Alexander was destroyed.

S. X. How Demetrius, the fon of Antigonus, gave liberty to Athens, expelling the Garrisons of Cassander out of those parts. The immoderate honour decreed by the Athenians to Andrigonus and Demetrius.

S. XI. The great victory of Demetrius against Ptolomy in Cyprus. How Antigonus and Demetrius took on them the file of Kings.

CHAP. VI.

Afia, Macedon, Thrace, and others, untill all Alexanders Princes were consumed.

s. I

"He expedition of Antigonus against Egypt, with ill success.

$. II. How the City of Rhodes was befreged

S. III. How Demetrius prevailed in Greece. not obtain it. Great preparation of War against

S. IV. How Antigonus was flain in a great battel at Ipsus, near unto Ephesus; wherein his

S. V. How Demetrius, for saken by the Athenians, after his overthrow, was reconciled § V. How Lyfimachus and Caffander van- 10 Seleucus and Ptolomy: beginning a new

> S. VI. How Demetrius wan the City of Athens; and prevailed in Greece, but lost in Afia. Of troubles in Macedon, following the death of Cassander.

> S. VII. of Pyrrhus, and his doings in Macedon. The death of Cassander's children. Demetrius gets the Kingdom of Macedon prevails in war against the Greeks; loseth reputation in conspire against Demetrius. Pyrrhus and Lyfimachus invade him; bis Army yields to Pyr-§ VIII. How Demetrius, gathering forces, enterprised many things with ill success, in Greece and Asia. How he was driven upon Seleucus, and compelled to yield himself. His imprisonment and death.

S.IX. The death of Ptolomy, of Lyffmachus, and of Seleucus, that was the last of Alexanders Captains; with other accurrences;

CHAP

CHAP. VII.

Eastern Kingdoms.

6. I.

on the Romans enlarged their Dominions Pyrrhus mo Antigonus. In Italy from the death of Tullus Holtilius, unto such time as they were assailed by S. H. How Pyrrhus warred upon the Ro- death.

mans, and vanquished them in two Battels.

S. III. The great troubles in Macedon and Sicily, how Pyrrhus being invited into Sicily, for fook Italy; wan the most of the Isle; and lost The growth of Rome, and settling of the it in short space. Pyrrhus returns into Italy, back into his own Kingdom.

S.IV. How Antigonus the fon of Demetrius, delivered Macedon from the Gaules. How Pyrrhus mon the Kingdom of Macedon from

§. V. How Pyrrhus affailed Sparta without success. His enterprise upon Argos, and his

The Contents of the Chapters, Paragraphs, and Sections, in the fourth Book of the first Part of the History of the World.

CHAP. I.

Of the first Punick War.

Discussion of that Probleme of Livy A whether the Romans could have refifted the great Alexander. That neither the Macedonian nor the Roman Souldier, was of equal valour to the English. S. The eftate of Carthage before it entred into war with Rome. s. III. The beginning of the first Punick war. That it was unjustly undertaken by the §. 1V. Of the Island of Sicily.

He quality of the Island, and the first Inhabitants thereof.

cily before Dionysius his tyranny.

t. IV. of Dionyfius the Tyrant; and others Seas again. following kim in Syracuse.

6. V. Arecontinuation of the Roman War fook the Carthaginians, and made his peace having emptyed their common Treasury, build with Rome.

§. VI. How the Romans besiege and win Agrigentum. Their beginning to maintain a Fleet. Their first loss, and first victory by Sea. Of Sea-fights in general.

§. VII. Divers enterfeats of war between the Romans and Carthaginians, with variable success. The Romans prepare to invade Africk : and obtain a great victory at Sea.

§. VIII. The Romans prevail in Africk. Atilius the Conful propoundeth intollerable conditions of peace to the Carthaginians. He is utterly beaten and made prisoner.

S. IX. How the affairs of Carthage profpered after the victory against Atilius: How the Romans, having loft their Fleet by Tempest, resolve to for sake the Seas: The great advantages of a good Fleet in war, between Nations divided by the Sea.

S. X. How the Romans attempt again to get the mastery of the Seas. The victory of Cocilius the Roman Conful at Panormus: The Jiege of Lilybæum. How a Rhodium Gally entred Lilybæum at pleasure in despight of the † II. The Plantation of the Greeks in Si-Roman Fleet. That it is a matter of great difficulty to stop the passage of good ships. The Rot. III. Of the Government and affairs of Si- mans by reason of grievous losses received under Claudius and Junius their Confuls abandon the

S. XI. The City of Eryx is surprised by the Romans, and recovered by Annilcar, who frontly holds war with them five years. The Romans, a new Fleet at the charges of private men. The great victory at Sea of Luctatius the Conful; whereby the Carthaginians are forced to crave peace. The conditions of the Peace between Rome and Carthage.

CHAP. II.

and second Punick Wars.

§. I.

OF the cruel War begun between the Cartha- of Spain and Africk. His journey into Iginians and their Mercenaries.

s. Il. Divers observations upon this War with the Mercenaries.

1. I.

use help of Mercenaries.

† II. That the tyranny of a City over her Subjects, is worfe than the tyranny of one man: Cifalpine Gauls into Hetruria. Flaminius the and that a tyrannical City must likewise use mer- Roman Consul stain: and his Army destroyed cenary Souldiers.

t. III. The dangers growing from the use mene.

the Romans, gave them assurance to use service Horse, honoured and advanced by the people, of their own subjects in the wars. That in for bold and successful attempting adventures, mans nature there is an affection breeding ty-rashly upon Hannibal, and is like to perish with ranny, which hindereth the use and henesis of the his Army but restruct by Fabius. like moderation.

ries, was diversty managed by Hanno and Conful. Great forces levyed against Hannibal. Amilicar, with variable success. The blondy Hannibal taketh the Romans provisions in the compels of the Mercenarics, and their final Caftle of Canna. The new Confuls fet forth adestruction.

S. IV. How the Mercenaries of the Carthaginians, that were in Sardinia, rebelled: and man Confuls. Whether it be likely, that Hanniwere afterwards driven out by the Islanders. bal was upon point of slying out of Italy, when The faithless dealing of the Romans with the the Romans pressed him to fight. The great bat-Carthaginians, in taking from them Sardinia, tel at Canna. contrary to the peace.

S. V. How the affairs of Carthage went, be- ne. tween the African rebellion, and the second Punick War.

S. VI. The estate of Greece from the death of Pyrrhus, to the reign of Philip the fon of Demetrius in Macedon.

S. VII. How the Illyrians infefted the Coast of Greece: and how they were subdued by the §. VIII. of the War between the Romans and Gaules, somewhat before the coming of ries in Spain before Asdrubal the son of Amil-Hannibal into Italy.

CHAP. III.

Of the fecond Punick Wars.

"He wars of Hannibal in Spain, Quarrels between the Romans and Carthaginians. Of divers actions passing between the first Hannibal besiegeth and taketh Saguntum, while eft the Romans are busied with the Illyrians. War proclaimed between Rome and Car-

8. II. Hannibal takes order for the defence taly:

s. III. How the Romans in vain follicited the Spaniards and Cauls to take their part. The rebellion of the Cifalpine Gauls against the Ro-

6. IV. Scipio the Roman Conful, overcome by Hannibal at Ticinum. Both of the Roman OF tyranny: and how tyrants are driven to Confuls beaten by Hannibal in a great battel at Trebia.

> S. V. The departure of Hannibal from the by the Carthaginians, at the Lake of Thrasyof mercenary souldiers, and sorraign auxili-g. VI. How Q. Fabius the Raman Dill ator, sought to consume the force of Hannibal, by †. IV. That the moderate government of lingring war. Minutius the Master of the §. VII. The Roman people, desirous to finish 6. III. How the war against the Mercena- the War quickly, choose a rash and unworthy gainst Hannibal.

§. VIII. Diffention between the two Ro-

s. IX. Of things following the Battel of Can-

S.X. Of the great supply that was decreed at Carthage, to be fent to Hannibal in Italy. How by the malice of Hanno, and floth or parfimony of the Carthaginians, the Supply was too long deferred. That the riches of the Carthaginians grew faster thanlof the Romans.Of Fabius and other old Roman Historians, how partial they were in their writings.

S X I. Strange reports of the Roman victo-car followed thence his brother Hannibal into §. XII. The great troubles that Hannibal raised in all quarters, to the City of Rome. Posthumius the Roman Generall, with his whole Army, is flain by the Gaules, Philip King of Macedon enters into a League with Hannibal, against the Romans. The Romans joyning with the Ætolians, make war upon Philip in Greece: and afterwards conclude a peace with him, the better to intend their businesse against the Carthaginians.

S. XIII. How the Romans began to recover their Arength by degrees. The noble affecceffities of their Common-weale.

The siege of Capua. Two Victories of Hannibal. and Macedon, and are invaded at home by The journey of Hannibal to the gates of Rome. | Philip. Capua taken by the Romans.

6. X V. How the Carthaginians, making a the Romans in those Islands: and were over-

S. X VI. How the war passed between the them. Romans and Hannibal in Italy, from the taking of Capua to the great victory at Metaurus. S. X VII. How P. Cornelius Scipio, the Roman, made entire conquest of Spain.

t. I.

Gades.

t. II. Funerall games held by Scipio. A Du- and grows hateful to the Achaeans. el between two Spanish Princes. A digression concerning Duels.

return to Rome, where he is chosen Consul.

s. XVIII. Scipio obtains leave to make who joyned with Scipio.

and do break it. S. X X. In what fort Hannibal fent the time, after the battell of Metaurus. The doings the instance of Prusias King of Bythinia, and of Mago in Italy. Hannibal and Mago cal- cruelly destroyed, by this and the like actions, led out of Italy. How the Romans were di- Philip, grows hateful to many of the Greeks; versly affected by Hannibals departure.

S. XXI. Hannibal in Africk prepares to mus, and by the Rhodians. fight with Scipio ; treats with him about peace | S. VIII. The Romans, after their Carthe peace granted from Rome to Carthage.

CHAP. IV.

Of Philip the Father of Perseus King of Macedon, his first acts and war with the Romans, by whom he was subdued.

s. I.

Tow the Romans grew acquainted in the East Countries, and desirons of war there. The beginning of many Princes, with great tion of the Romans, in relieving the publick ne- Wars, at one time. The Æiolians over-run Peloponnesus, Philip and his affociates make S. XIV. The Romans win some Towns back war against the Ætolians. Alterations of the from Hannibal. Hannibal wins Tarentum, state in Sparta. The Æsolians invade Greece

§.II. How Philip was mif-advised by ill Counsellors: who afterwards wrought Treason party in Sardinia and Sicil, held war against against him, and were justly punished. He invadeth the Atolians a fecond time: and forceth them to sue for peace; which is granted unto

> 6. III. Philip, at the persivasion of Demetrius Pharius, enters into league with Hannibal against the Romans. The tenour of the League between Hannibal and Philip.

S. IV. How Philip yielded to his naturall vices , being thereunto foothed by Demetrius Pharius, his desire to tyrannize upon the free Ow the Carthaginians were driven by States his affociates: with the troubles into Scipio, from the Continent into the Isle of which he thereby fell, whilst he bore a part in the fecond Punick War. He poisoneth Aratas :

S. V. of Philopæmen, Generall of the Achæans, and Machanidas, Tyrant of Lacedæt.III. The last acts of Scipio in Spain. His mon. A battell between them, wherein Machanidas is flain.

S. VI. Philip having peace with Rome, and war in Africk: His preparations: Of Malanisla with all Greece, prepares against Asia. Of the Kings of Pergamus, Cappadocia, Pontus, Pa-5, XIX. The Carthaginians desire truce: phlagonia, Bythinia; and their Linages. Of the Galatians.

5.VII. The town of Ciostaken by Philip, at and is warred upon by Attalus King of Perga-in vain , loseth a battell at Nadagara, and per- thaginian War, seek matter of quarrel against fivades the Carthaginians to five for peace. Of Philip. The Athenians, upon flight cause, proclaim war against Philip; moved thereto by Attalus, whom they flatter. Philip wins divers Towns, and makes peremptory answer to the Roman Embassadour. The furious resolution of the Abydeni. 6. 1 X. The $.IX. The Romans decree mar against Philip, and fend one of their Confuls into Greece, as it were in defence of the Athenians their confederates. How poor the Athenians were at this time, both in quality and

§. X. The Town of Chalchis in Eubwa, taken and fackt by the Romans and their Associates. that lay in Garrison at Athens. Philip attempeth to take Athens by surprize: wasteth the Countrie about: and makes a journey into Peloponnesus. Of Nabis the Tyrant of Lacedamon, and his wife. Philip offers to make war against before Antiochus the Creat. Nabis for the Achaens. He returneth home through Attica, which he spoyleth again: and his reign. Of Ptolomy Evergetes, and Phiprovides against the enemies. Some exploits of lopator, Kings of Egypt. War between Antithe Romanes. Divers Princes joyn with them. ochus and Philopator, The rebellion of Malo: Great labouring to draw the Étolians into the an expedition of Antiochus against him: The manes, and shirmifling with them and his bor-victory of Ptolemy, and peace concluded. Of ders. The Ætolians invade his Dominions, and the Roman fleet.

S. X II. Villius the Roman Conful wastes a year to no effect: War of the Gauls in Italy. An of the great Alexander. Embasse of the Romanes to Carthage, Massanissa and Vermina, The Macedonian prepares Flamius is fent against him.

by Negotiation. T. Quintius wins a passage a- in preparing for divers wars at once: his voygainst Philip. Thessaly masted by Philip, the age towards the Hellessont. He seeks to hold a-Romanes, and Atolians. The Achaens for fak-mity with the Romans, who make friendly shew ing the Macedonian, take part with the Ro- to him, intending nevertheless to have war mans. A treaty of peace, that was vain. Phi- with him. His doings against the Hellespont; lip delivers Argos to Nabis the Tyrant, who which the Romans made the first ground of presently enters into league with the Ro- their quarrel to him.

tolians, and grants truce unto Philip, with flight unto the King Antiochus: the Ætolians conditions, upon which the peace is ratified, murmure against the Romans in Greece. The Liberty proclaimed unto the Greeks. The Ro- war of the Romans and Achaens, with Nabis. mans quarrel with Antiochus.

CHAP. v.

The Wars of the Romans with Antiochus the Great, and his Adherents.

§. I.

W Hat kings of the races of Scleucus and Ptolomy reigned in Asia and Egypt,

§. I I. The beginning of the great Antiochus recontinuance of Antiochus his Eg sptian war, S. XI. The meeting of Philip with the Ro- with the passages between the two Kings: The Achous, and his rebellion; his greatness, and and are beaten home. Some doings of Attalus his fall. Antiochus his expedition against the Parthians, Bactrians, and Indians Somewhat of the Kings reigning in India, after the death

s. III. The lewd reign of Ptolomy Philopator in Egypt: with the tragical end of his for defence of his Kingdom, and T. Quintius Favourites, when he was dead. Antiochus prepares to war on the young childe Ptolomy Epi-§ XIII. The Romans begin to make war phanes, the son of Philopator. His irresolution

S. IV. The Romans hold friendly correspon-S. XIV. The battell at Cynoscephala, dence with Antiochus, during their war with wherein Philip was vanquished by T. Quin- Philip: after which they quarrell with him. The doings of Hannibal at Carthage: whence he is S. XV. T. Quintius falls out with the A- chaled by his enemies, and by the Romans: His the tyrant of Lacedamon. The departure of the Romans out of Greece. T. Quintius his Triumph. Peace denyed to Antiochus by the Romans.

§. V. Of the long wars which the Romans had with the Gauls, Ligurians, and Spaniards. CHAP Of M. Porcius Cato. Injuries done by Massanissa to the Carthiginians; that sue unto the Romans for justice in vain.

6. VI. The Ætolians labour to provoke Antiochus, Philip, and Nabis to war upon the Romans; by whom they hold themselves wronged wastesh ome part of Achea. The exact skill of and faction among the Roman Nobility. Philopoemen in his advantage of ground; whereby he atterly vanquished Nabis. Antiochus being denied peace by the Romans, joyns with the Ætolians. The Ætolians Surprize Demetrias; and by killing Nabis, their Confederates seize upon Sparta. But they are driven out by the Citizens: who at Philopoemen his perswasions annex themselves to the

S. VII Antiochus persmaded by Thoas ed, Sundry passages between him, the Etolians, was finished. the Romans quarrell with Phi-Chalcidians, and others. He wins Chalchis, lip. They deal infolently with the Acheans. and thereby the whole Isle of Eubwa. The vani- The Macedonian being unready forwar, obty of the Kings Embasadours, and the Ætoli- tains peace at Rome, by his son Demetrius; ans: with the civill answer of Titus to their of whom thenceforth he becomes jealous. discourse, before the Ackaans. That it concerned the Greeks to have defired peace between the bal, and Scipio. That the Military profession Romans and Antiochus: as the best assurance is of all other the most unhappy: notwithstandof their own liberty. Of many petty Estates that ing some examples, which may seem to prove fell to the King. Of Amainder and an idle va- the contrary. nity, by which King Philip was loft. Hanni bal gives good counsel in vain. Some towns gainst the Romans, deals hardly with many of won in Thessay, the King retires to Chalchis his own subjects. His Negotiations with the where he married a young wife, and revels a- Bastarnæ. His cruelty. He suspected his son way the rest of Winter, upon the coming of the Demetrius. Demetrius accused by his Brother Roman Conful, all forfake Antiochus. He Perseus: and shortly after slain by his Fathers with two thousand Atolians kept the straights appointment. Philip repenteth him of his of Thermopyla. He is beaten and flees into A- fons death, whom he findeth to have been infia, leaving all in Greece unto the Victors.

s. VIII. Lucius Scipio, having with him feus, he dieth. Publius the African his elder brother, for his In what fort the Romans used their victory. L. Warring upon him. Cornelius Scipio, after a most sumptuous Triumph over Antiochus, is surnamed The Asia- bussed with Pharnaces, the Rhodians, and o-and diferaced. Nabis befiegeth Gyttheum, and of Rome to the two Scipios: and that beginning

CHAP. VI.

The second Macedon War.

§. I.

He condition wherein those Princes and Estates remained, which were affectates the Etolian, comes over into Greece, ill attend- of the Romans, when the war with Antiochus

S.II. The death of Philopæmen, Hanni-

S. III. Philip making provision for war anocent, and intending to revenge it on Per-

§. 1 V. How the Baftarnæ fell upon Darda-Licetenant, is sent into Greece. He grants long nia. The behaviour of Perseus in the beginning truce to the Atolians, that so he might at leisure of his reign. Some wars of the Romans: and passe into Asia. Much troublesome businesse by how they suffered Masanilia cruelly to oppresse Sea, and divers fights. An invasion upon Eu- the Carthaginians. They quarrelled with Persemenes his Kingdome: with the fiege of Perga- us. They allow not their confederates to make mus, raised by an handfull of the Acheans. L. war without their leave obtained. The treason of Scipio the Confull comes into Asia, where An- Callicrates, whereby all Greece became more tiochus most earnestly descres peace, and is de- obnoxious to Rome, than in former times. nied it. The battell of Magnelia: wherein An- Further quarrels to Perseus. He seeks friendtiochus being vanquifted, yieldeth to the Ro- Ship of the Acheans, and is withflood by Calmans good pleasure. The conditions of the peace. licrates. The Romans discover their intent of

§. V. How Eumenes King of Pergamus was tique, as his brother was sliled, The Afri- thers. His batred to the Macedonian: whom he accuseth to the Roman Senate. The Senate §. IX. The Ætolians and Gallo-Greeks, honours him greatly, and contemns his enevanquished by the Roman Consuls Fulvius and mies the Rhodians with the causes thereof. Manlius. Manlius hardly obtains a Triumph: The unufual frontness of the Macedonian Embeing charged (among other Objections) with bassadours. Perseus his attempt upon Eumeattempting to have passed the bounds appointed nes, the brotherly love between Eumenes and as fatal to the Romans by Sibyl. Of sibyls Pro- Attalus. Perseus his device to posson some of phelies; the Books of Hermes; and that in the Roman Senators: whereupon they decree Gription Simon Deo Sancto. The ingratitude War against him, and send him defiance, other things concerning the justice of this Tempe, the Town of Dium quitted by Marti-joyn with them in the war against Perseus, tius a cunning and a bad man, How the Greeks flood affelled in that war. S. VIII. of L. Æmylius Paulus, the Con-The timeronfiest of Perseus. Martius a Roman ful. His journer. He forceth Perseus to discamp. have had, but loft by his fear. Perfeus braves is fent prisoner to Emylius. the Romans, fights with them, knows not how to $. 1 X. Gentius King of the Illyrians, taken use his victory, sues for peace, and is denied it by the Romans. by the vanguished. Perfeus having the worst in a | §. X. How the Romans behaved themselves skirmish, forsakes all the Country lying without in Greece and Macedon, after their victory Tempe. The Beatians rebell against the Ro-over Perseus.

mans, and are victorionsly punished. The Ro
5. XI. The war of Antiochus ngon Egypt man Commanders unfortunate in the war a- brought to end by the Roman Embassadors. gainst Perseus. They vex the Greeks their S. XII. How the Romans were dreadfulunfriends; for whose ease the Senate makes pro- to all Kings. Their demeanour towards Eumevision, having heard their complaints. The nes, Prusias, Masanista, and Cotys. The end flattering Alabanders.

extrem difficulty and danger enters into Tem- cius, and Octavius : With the conclusion of the pe. The Comardize of Perseus in abandoning Work.

us, repaired and fortified by the King. The Ro-$. VI. The Romans folicite the Greeks to mans attempt many places, with ill fuccefs. Mar-

Embassadour deludes him with the hope of peace. He will not hazzard battel with any disadvan-His forces. He takes the field, and wins part of tage. Of an Ecclipse of the Moon. Emylius his fu-Thesialy. The forces of Licinius the Roman perstition. The battel of Pydna. Perseus his Conful: and what affiftance the Romans had flight. He forfakes his Kingdom; which haftily in this war. Of Tempe in Thessaly; and yields to Æmylius. Perseus at Samothrace. what advantages the Macedonian had, or might He yields himself to the Roman Admiral: and of Perseus and his children. The instability of S. VII. Q. Martius the Roman Conful, with Kingly Estates. The triumphs of Paulus, Ani-

THE

THE PREFACE

Ow unfit, and how unworthy a choice I have made of my felf, to undertake a Work of this mixture; mine own reason, though exceeding weak, hath sufficiently resolved me. For had it been begotten then, with my first dawn of day, when the light of common knowledg began to open it self to my younger years, and before any wound received, either from Fortune or

Time: I might yet well have doubted, that the darkneß of Age and Death would have covered over both It and Me, long before the performance. For, beginning with the Greation, I have proceeded with the History of the World; and lastly, purposed (some sew sallies excepted) to consine my Discourse, with this our renowned Island of Great Britain. I consess that it had better sorted with my disability, the better part of whose times are run out inother travels, to have set together (as I could) the unjointed and scattered frame of our English assairs, than of the Universal: in whom, had there been no other desect (who am all desect) than the time of the day, it were enough: the day of a tempessions life, drawn on to be very evening ere I began. But those inmost and soul-piercing wounds, which are ever aking while uncured, with the desire to satisfy those sew friends, which I have tried by the streof Adversity; the former ensorcing, the later persuading; have caused me to make my thoughts legible, and my self the subject of every Opinion, wise or weak.

To the World I present them, to which I am nothing indebted: neither have others that were (Fortune changing) sped much better in any Age. For Prosperity and Adversity have evermore tyed and ontyed vulgar affections. And as we see it in Experience, That Doggs do always bark at those they know not, and that it is their nature to accompany one another in those clamours: so it is with the inconsiderate multitude; who, wanting that Vertue which we call Honesty in all men, and that especial gift of GOD, which we call Charity in Christian men; condemn without hearing, and wound without offence given: led thereunto by uncertain Report only; which His Majesty truly acknowledgeth for the Author of all lies. I is a monoing to the support of the support only; which His Majesty truly acknowledgeth for the Author of all lies. I is a monoing to the support only; which His Majesty truly acknowledgeth for the Author of all lies. I is a monoing to the support only; which His Majesty truly acknowledgeth for the Author of all lies. I is a monoing to the support of the suppo

Rumour is without Witness, without Judge, malicious, and deceivable. This vanity of vulgar Opinion it was, that gave S. Augustine Argument to affirm, That he feared the times or amari praise of good men, and detested that of the evil. And herein no man hath given a better Rule, a milis deasters than this of Seneca; Conscientiæ satisfaciamus: nihil in samam laboremus, sequatur sen deins.

A:

vel 5. 21

vel mala, dum bene merearis; Let us satissie our own Consciences, and not trouble our selves with same; be it never so ill, it is to be despised, so we deserve well.

For my self, if I have in any thing served my Country, and prized it before my private: the general acceptation can yield me no other profit at this time, than doth a fair Sun-shine day to a Sea-man after Shipwrack; and the contrary no other harm, than an outragious tempest after the Port attained. I know that I lost the love of many, for my stdelity towards tempest after the Rort attained. I know that I lost the love of many, for my stdelity towards there whom I must still bonour in the dust; though surther than the desence of Her excellent Her whom I must still bonour in the dust; though surther than the desence of Her excellent Person, I never persecuted any man. Of those that did it, and by what device they did it, He that is the Supreme Fudg of all the World, bath taken the accompt: so as for this kind of suffering, I must say with Seneca, Mala opinio, bene parta, delectat.

As for other men; if there be any that have made themselves Fathers of that same, which hath been begotten for them; I can neither envy at such their purchased glory, nor much lament mine own mishap in that kind; but content my self to say with Virgil, Sic vos non vobis, in many particulars. To labour other satisfaction, were an effect of phrenzie, not of hope, seeing it is not Truth, but Opinion, that can travel the World without a Pass-port. For were it otherwise; and were there not as many internal forms of the mind, as there are external sigures of men; there were then some possibility to persuade by the mouth of one Advocate, even Equity alone.

But fuch is the multiplying, and extensive vertue of dead Earth, and of that breathgiving life which God hath cast upon slime and dust, as that among those that were, of whom we read and hear; and among those that are, whom we see and converse with; every one hath received a several Picture of face, and every one a divers Picture of mind; every one of form a-part, every one a fancy and cognitation differing: there being nothing wherein Nature so much triumpheth, as in dissimilitude. From whence it cometh, that there is sound segreat diversity of Opinions; so strong a contrarity of inclinations: so many natural and unnatural; wise, soolish, manly, and childish affections and passions in mortal men. For it is not the visible sashion and shape of Plants, and of reasonable Creatures, that makes the difference of working in the one, and of condition in the other; but the form internal.

And though it pleased God to reserve the Art of reading mens thoughts to himself; yet, as the fruit tells the name of the Tree; so do the outward works of men (so farr as their cogitations are acted) give us whereof to ghess at the rest. Nay, it were not hard to express the one by the other, very near the life, did not crast in many, sear in the most, and the World's love in all, the other, very near the life, did not crast in many, sear in the most, and the World's love in all, teach every capacity, according to the compass it hath, to qualifie and mass over their inward teach every capacity, according to the compass it hath, to qualifie and mass over their inward teach every capacity, according to the compass in hath, to qualifie and mass over their inward teach every capacity, according to the compass in that, no qualifie and mass over their inward teach every capacity, according to the compass the teach every capacity. No man can long conticito in naturam fuam residunt, quibus veritas non subset : No man can long conticito in naturam suam residunt, quibus veritas non subset : No man can long conticito in naturam suam residunt, quibus veritas non subset : No man can long conticito in naturam suam residunt, quibus veritas non subset : No man can long conticito in naturam suam residunt, quibus veritas non subset : No man can long conticito in naturam suam residunt, quibus veritas non subset : No man can long conticito in naturam suam residunt, quibus veritas non subset : No man can long conticito in naturam suam residunt, according to the residuation in the resid tongues end.

In this great discord, and dis-similitude of reasonable Creatures, if we direct our selves to the In this great discord, and disserting the common People are with Multitude; Omnes honester rei malus Judex est vulgus: The common People are will Judges of honest things, and whose Wisdom (saith Ecclesiastes) is to be despised:

The Preface.

to the better fort; every understanding bath a peculiar judgment, by which it both censureth other men, and valueth it self. And therefore unto me it will not seem strange, though I find these my worthless Papers torn with Rats; seeing the slothfull Censurers of all Ages have not spared to tax the Reverend Fathers of the Church, with Ambition; the severess men to themselves, with Hypocrissis; the greatest lovers of Justice, with Popularity; and those of the truest Valour and Fortitude, with Vain-glory. But of these natures, which lie in wait to find fault, and to turn good into evil, seeing Solomon complained long since; and that the very Age of which selves the World renders it every day after other more malicious; I must leave the Prosessor their quant relations.

easie ways of reprehension, than which there is nothing of more facility.

To me it belongs in the first part of this Preface, following the common and approved custom of those, who have left the memories of Time-past to after-Ages; to give, as near as I can, the same right to History which they have done. Yet, seeing therein I should but borrow other mens words; I will not trouble the Reader with the repetition. True it is, that among many other benefits, for which it bath been honoured; in this one it triumpheth over all humane knowledg, That it hath given us life in our understanding, since the World it felf had life and begining, even to this day; yea, it hath triumphed over time, which, befides it, nothing but eternity hath triumphed over: for it hath carried our knowledg over the vast and devouring space of many thousands of years, and given so fair and piercing eyes to our mind; that we plainly behold living now (as if we had lived then) that great world, Magni Dei sapiens opus, The wife work (saith Hermes) of a great God, as it was then, when but new to it self. By it (I say) it is, that we live in the very time when it was created: we behold how it was governed; how it was covered with waters, and again re-peopled; how Kings and Kingdoms have flourished and fallen, and for what vertue and piety God made prosperous; and for what vice and deformity he made wretched both the one and the other. And it is not the least debt we ow unto History, that it bath made us acquainted with our dead Ancestors; and, out of the depth and darkness of the earth, delivered us their memory and fame. In a word, we may gather out of History a policy no less wise than eternal; by the comparison and application of other mens fore-passed miseries with our own like errors and ill deservings. But it is neither of Examples the most lively instruction, nor the words of the wisest men, nor the terror of future torments, that bath yet so wrought in our blind and stupisted mindes, as to make us remember, That the Infinite Eye and Wisdom of God doth pierce thorow all our pretences, as to make us remember, That the Justice of God doth require none other accuser, than our own consciences; which neither the false beauty of our apparent actions, nor all the formality, which (to pacific the Opinions of men) we put on; can in any, or the least kind, cover from his knowledg. And so much did that heathen Wisdom confess, no way as yet qualified by the knowledg of a true God: If any (faith Euripides) having in his life committed wickedness, think he can hide it from the everlasting gods, he thinks not well.

To repeat GOD'S Judgments in particular, upon those of all degrees, which have played with his Mercies, would require a Volume a-part: for the Sea of Examples hath no bottom. The marks, set on private men, are with their bodies cast into the Earth; and their fortunes written onely in the memories of those that lived with them: so as they who succeeded, and have not seen the fall of others, do not sear their own faults. GOD'S Judgments upon the greater and greatest have been left to Posterity; first, by those happy hands which the Holy Ghost hath guided; and secondly, by their vertue, who have gathered the acts and ends of Men mighty and remarkable in the World. Now, to point farr off, and to speak of the conversion of Angels into Devils, for Ambition: Or of the greatest and most glorious Kings, who have gnawn the grass of the earth with Beasts for pride and ingratitude towards GOD: Or, of that wife working of Pharaoh, when he flew the Infants of Israel, ere they had recovered their Cradles: Or, of the policy of Jezabel, in covering the murther of Naboth by a trial of the Elders, according to the Law, with many thousands of the like: what were it other, than to make an hopeless proof, that far-off Examples would not be left to the same far-off Respects, as heretofore? For who hath not observed, what labour, practice, peril, bloud-shed, and cruelty, the Kings and Princes of the World have undergone, exercised, taken on them, and committed; to make themselves and their Issues Masters of the World? And yet bath Babylon, Persia, Egypt, Syria, Macedon, Carthage, Rome, and the rest, no fruit, no slower, grass, nor leaf, springing upon the face of the earth, of those seeds: No, their very roots and ruines do hardly remain. Omnia quæ manu hominum facta funt, vel manu hominum evertuntur, vel stando & durando deficiunt: All that the hand of man can make, is either overturned by the hand of man, or at length, by franding and continuing confumed. The reasons of whose ruines, are diversly given by those that ground their Opinions on second causes. All Kingdoms and States have fallen (say the Politicians) by outward and forein force, or by inward negligence and diffention, or by a third cause arising from both. Others observe, That the greatest have sunk down under their own weight; of which Livie bath a touch: eo crevit, ut magnitudine laboret sua: Others, That the divine Providence (which Cratippus objected to Pompey) hath set down the date and period of every Estate, before their first foundation and erection. But hereof I will give my self a day over to resolve.

. 2

ha

For seeing the first Books of the following Story, have undertaken the Discourse of the first Kings and Kingdoms: and that it is impossible for the short life of a Preface to travel after, and over-take far-off Antiquity, and to judge of it; I will, for the present, examine what profit bath been gathered by our own Kings, and their Neighbour Princes; who having beheld, both in divine and humane letters, the success of infidelity, injustice, and cruelty; have (notwithstanding) planted after the same pattern.

True it is that the judgments of all men are not agreeable; nor (which is more strange) the affection of any one man stirred up alike with examples of like nature: But every one is touched most with that which most nearly seemeth to touch his own private; Or otherwise best sutab with his apprehension. But the judgments of GOD are for ever unchangeable; neither is be wearied by the long process of time, and won to give his blessing in one Age, to that which he hath curfed in another. Wherefore those that are wise, or whose wisdom, if it he not great, yet is true and well grounded; will be able to discern the bitter fruits of irreligious policy, well among those examples that are found in Ages removed farr from the present, as in those of later times. And that it may no less appear by evident proof, than by affeveration, That ill doing bath always been attended with ill success; I will here, by way of Preface, run over some examples, which the Work ensuing hath not reached.

Among our Kings of the Norman Race, we have no sooner passed over the violence of the Norman Conquest, than we encounter with a singular and most remarkable example of Gods Fustice, upon the children of Henry the First. For that King, when by force, craft, and cruelty, be had dispossess, over-reach'd, and lastly made blind, and destroyed his elder Brother, Robert, Duke of Normandy, to make his own Sons Lords of the Land; GOD cast them all, Male and Female, Nephews and Neeces (Maud excepted) into the bottom of the Sea. with above an hundred and fifty others that attended them; whereof a great many were Noble, and of the Kings dearly beloved.

To pass over the rest, till we come to Edward the Second; it is certain, that after the murther of that King, the iffue of bloud then made, though it had some times of stay and stopping, did again break out, and that so often, and in such abundance, as all our Princes of the Masculine Race(very few excepted) died of the same disease. And although the young years of Edward the Third, made his knowledg of that horrible fact no more than suspicious; yet, in that he afterwards caused his own Uncle, the Earl of Kent, to die, for no other offence, than the delire of his Brothers redemption, whom the Earl as then supposed to be living; the King making that to be Treason in his Uncle, which was indeed Treason in himself, (had bis Uncles intelligence been true) this, I say, made it manifest, that he was not ignorant of what had past, nor greatly desirous to have had it otherwise; though he caused Mortimer to die for the same.

This cruelty, the secret and unsearchable Judgment of GOD, revenged on the Grandchild of Edward the Third; and so it fell out, even to the last of that Line, that in the second or third descent, they were all buried under the ruines of those buildings, of which the Mortar had been tempered with innocent bloud. For Richard the Second, who faw both his Treasurers, his Chancellor, and his Steward, with divers others of his Counsellors, some of them slaughtered by the people, others in his absence executed by his enemies; yet he always took himself for over-wise, to be taught by examples. The Earls of Huntington and Kent, Montagu and Spencer, who thought themselves as great Politicians in those days, as others have done in these; hoping to please the King, and to secure themselves by the murther of Gloucester; died soon after, with many other their adherents, by the like violent bands; and farr more shamefully than did that Duke. And as for the King himself (who, in regard of many deeds, unworthy of his Greatness, cannot be excused, as the disavowing bimself by breach of Faith, Charters, Pardons and Patents:) He was in the prime of his youth deposed, and murthered by his Cousin-Germane and Vassal, Henry of Lancaster, afterwards Henry the Fourth.

This King, whose Title was weak, and his obtaining the Crown trayterous; who brake faith with the Lords at his landing, protesting to intend only the recovery of his proper inheritance, brake faith with Richard himself, and brake faith with all the Kingdom in Parliament, to whom he force, that the deposed King should live. After he had enjoyed this Realm some sew years, and in that time had been set upon on all sides by his Subjects, and never free from Conspiracies and Rebellions: he faw (if Souls immortal see and discern any things after the Bodies Death) his Grand-child Henry the Sixth, and his Son the Prince, fuddenly, and without mercy, murthered; the possession of the Crown (for which he had caused so much bloud to be poured out) transferred from his Race, and by the Iffues of his enemies worn and enjoy'd; enemies, whom, by his own pra-Elice, he supposed that he had left no less powerless, than the succession of the Kingdom questionless, by entailing the same upon his own Issues by Parliament. And, out of doubt, humane reason could have judged no otherwise, but that these cautious provisions of the Father, seconded by the valour and signal victories of his Son Henry the Fifth, had buried the hopes of every Competitor, under the despair of all re-conquest and recovery. I say, that humane reason might so have judged, were not this passage of Causabon also true; Dies, hora, momentum, evertendis dominationibus sufficet, quæ Adamantinis credebantur radicibus esfe fundatæ; A day, an hour, a moment, is enough to overturn the things that feem to have been founded and rooted in Adamant.

Now, for Henry the Sixth, upon whom the greatest storm of his Grand-father's grievous faults fell, as it formerly had done upon Richard, the Grand-child of Edward; although be was generally esteemed for a gentle and innocent Prince, yet, as he resused the Daughter of Armaignac, of the House of Navarre, the greatest of the Princes of France, to whom be was affianced (by which match he might have defended his inheritance in France) and married the Daughter of Anjou (by which he lost all that he had in France) so in condescending to the unworthy death of his Uncle of Gloucester, the main and strong Pillar of the House of Lancaster; He drew on bimself and his Kingdom the greatest joint-loß and dishonour, that ever it sustained since the Norman Conquest. Of whom it may truly be faid, which a Counsellor of his own spake of Henry the Third of France, Quil estoit une fort gentile Prince; mais son reigne est advenu en une fort mauvois temps: That he was a very gentle Prince; but his Reign happened in a very unfortunate Seafon.

It is true, that Buckingham and Suffolk were the practicers and contrivers of the Duke's death: Buckingham and Suffolk, because the Duke gave instructions to their authority, which otherwise under the Queen had been absolute; the Queen, in respect of her personal wound, spretæque injuria formæ, because Gloucester disfuaded ber marriage. But the fruit was answerable to the seed; the success to the counsel. For after the cutting down of Gloucester, York grew up so fast, as he dared to dispute his Right, both by arguments and arms; in which quarrel, Suffolk and Buckingham, with the greatest number of their adherents, were diffolved. And although for his breach of Oath by Sacrament, it pleased God to strike down York; yet his Son the Earl of March, following the plain path which his Father had troden out, despoiled Henry the Father, and Edward the Son, both of their lives and Kingdom. And what was the end now of that politick Lady the Queen, other than this, That she lived to behold the wretched ends of all her partakers; that she lived to look on, while her Husband the King, and her onely Son the Prince, were hewen in funder; while the Crown was fet on his head that did it? She lived to see her self despoiled of her estate, and of her movables: and lastly, her Father, by rendring up the Crown of France, the Earldom of Provence, and other places, for the payment of 50000 crowns for her Ransome, to become a flark Beggar. And this was the end of that subtilty, which Siracides calleth fine, but unrighteous: for other fruit hath it never yielded fince the World was.

And now it came to Edward the Fourth's turn (though after many difficulties) to triumbh. For all the Plants of Lancaster were rooted up, one onely Earl of Richmond excepted; whom also he had once bought of the Duke of Britain, but could not hold him. And yet was not this of Edward such a Plantation, as could any way promise it self stability. For this Edward the King (to omit more than many of his other cruelties) beheld & allowed the flaugh ter which Gloucester, Dorset, Hastings, and others, made of Edward the Prince in his own presence; of which tragical Actors, there was not one that escaped the Judgment of GOD in the same kind. And he, which (besides the execution of his Brother Clarence, for none other offence than he bimself had formed in his own imagination) instructed Gloucester to kill Henry the Sixth, his Predecesfor; taught him also, by the same art, to kill his own Sons and Successors, Edward and Richard. For, those Kings which have fold the bloud of others at a low rate; have but made the Market for their own enemies, to buy of theirs at the fame price.

To Edward the Fourth, succeeded Richard the Third, the greatest Master in mischief of all that fore-went him; who, although, for the necessity of his Tragedy, he had more parts to play, and more to perform in his own Perfon, than all the reft; yet be so well fitted every affection that plaid with him, as if each of them had but acted his own interest. For he prought to cunningly upon the affections of Hastings and Buckingham, enemies to the Oueen, and to all her Kinred, as he easily allured them to condescend, that Rivers and Grey, the Kings Maternal Uncle and half Brother, should (for the first) be severed from him: Secondly, he wrought their consent to have them imprisoned: And lastly (for the avoiding of future inconvenience) to have their Heads severed from their Bodies. And baving now brought those his chief instruments to exercise that common Precept which the Scelera Scele Devil bath written upon every Post, namely, To depress those whom they had grieved, and to bus tuenda. destroy those whom they had deprest d; He urged that Argument so farr, and so forcibly; as nothing but the death of the young King himself, and of his Brother, could fashion the conclusion. For he caused it to be hammered into Buckingham's head, That, whensever the King, or his Brother, should have able years to exercise their power, they would take a most severe revenge of that cureless wrong offered to their Uncle and Brother, Rivers and Grey. But this was not his manner of reasoning with Hastings, whose fidelity to his Masters Sons was without suspect; and yet the Devil, who never disfuades by impossibility, taught him to try him. And so he did. But when he found by Catesby, who sounded him, that he was not fordable, he first resolved to kill him sitting in Council; wherein having failed with his Sword, he fet the Hangman upon him, with a weapon of more weight. And because nothing else could move his appetite, he caused his head to be stricken off, before he eat his Dinner. A greater Judgment of God, than this upon Hastings, I have never observed in any Story. For, the self-same day that the Earl Rivers, Grey, and others, were (without trial of Law, or offence given) by Hastings advice, executed at Pomtret; I say, Hastings bimself, in the same day, and (as I take it) in the same hour, in the same lawless manner, had his Head struck off in the Tower of London. But Buckingham lived a while longer; and with an eloquent Oration perfuaded the Londoners to elect Richard for their King. And having received the Earldom of Hereford for reward, besides the bope of marrying his Daughter to the Kings onely Son; after many grievous vexations of mind, and unfortunate attempts, being in the end betrayed and delivered up by his trustiest servant; he had his Head severed from his Body at Salisbury, without the trouble of any of his Peers. And what success had Richard himself after all these mischievs and murthers, policies, and counter-policies to Christian Religion; and after such time as with a merciles hand he had pressed out the breath of his Nephews and Natural Lords, other than the prosperity of so short a life, as it took end, ere himself could well look over and discern it? the great out-cry of innocent bloud obtained at GOD'S hands the effusion of his; who became a spectacle of shame and dishonour both to his friends and enemies.

This cruel King, Henry the Seventh cut off; and was therein (no doubt) the immediate instrument of Gods Justice. Apolitick Prince be was, if ever there were any, who by the engine of his wisdom, beat down and overturned as many strong oppositions, both before and after be wore the Crown, as ever King of England did; I say, by his wisdom, because, as he ever lest the reins of his affections in the hands of his profit, fo he always weighed his undertakings by his abilities, leaving nothing more to hazzard than so much as cannot be denied it in all humane actions. He had well observed the proceedings of Loys the Eleventh, whom he followed in all was royal, or royal-like; but he was farr more just, and begun not their processes whom he hated or feared by the execution, as Loys did.

He could never endure any mediation in rewarding his servants, and therein exceeding wife; for whatfoever himself gave, he himself received back the thanks and the love, knowing it well, that the affections of men (purchased by nothing so readily as by benefits) were trains that better became great Kings, than great Subjects. On the contrary, in whatsoever be grieved bis Subjects, he wifely put it off on those that he found fit ministers for such actions. Howseever, the taking off of Stanlies Head, who fet the Crown on his, and the death of the young Earl of Warwick, Son to George Duke of Clarence, shews, as the success also did, that he beld somewhat of the errors of his Ancestors; for his possession in the first Line ended in his Grand-child, asthat of Edward the Third, and Henry the Fourth had done.

Now, for King Henry the Eighth, if all the Pictures and Patterns of a merciles Prima were lost in the World, they might all again be painted to the life, out of the Story of this King. For, how many servants did he advance in hast (but for what vertue no man could suspect) and with the change of his fancy ruined again; no man knowing for what offence? To how many others, of more desert, gave he abundant flowers from whence to gather Honey, and in the end of Harvest burnt them in the Hive? How many Wives did he cut off, and cast of, as his fancy and affection changed? How many Princes of the bloud (wherof some of them for age, could hardly crawl towards the block) with a world of others of all degrees (of whom our common Chronicles have kept the accompt) did he execute? yea, in his very death-bid, and when he was at the point to give his accompt to GOD for the abundance of bloud already spilt: He imprisoned the Duke of Norsolk the Father; and executed the Earlof Surry the Son; the one, whose deserving he knew not how to value, having never omitted any thing that concerned bis own bonour, and the Kings service; the other never having committed any thing worthy of his least displeasure; the one exceeding valiant and advised; the other no less vislant than learned, and of excellent hope. But besides the sorrows which he heaped upon the Fatherless and Widows, at home; and besides the vain enterprises abroad, wherein it is thought that he confumed more treasure, than all our victorious Kings did in their several Conquells; what caulless and cruel warrs did he make upon his own Nephew King James the Fifth? What Laws and Wills did he devise to establish this Kingdom in his own Issues? using his sharpest weapons to cut off, and cut down those Branches, which sprang from the same root that himself did. And in the end (notwithstanding these his so many irreligious provisions)it pleased God to take away all his own, without increase; though, for themselves in their severalkinds, all Princes of eminent vertue. For these words of Samuel to Agag King of the Amalekites, have been verified upon many others: As thy Sword hath made other women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among other women. And that bloud which the same King Henry affirmed, that the cold air of Scotland had frozen up in the North, God hath diffused by the Sun-shine of his grace; from whence his Majesty now living, and long to live, is descended. Of whom I may say it truly, That if all the malice of the World were infused into one eye; yet could it not discern in his life, even to this day, any one of those foul stots, by which the consciences of all the fore-named Princes (in effect) have been defiled; nor any drop of that innocent bloud on the Sword of his Justice, with which the most that fore-went him have stained both their hands and same. And for this Crown of England, it may truly be avowed; that he hath received it even from the Hand of God, and hath staied the time of putting it on, how soever he were provoked to hasten it: That he never took revenge of any man that fought to put him befide it; That he refused the assistance of Her enemies, that wore it long with as great glory as ever Princess did : That His Majesty entred not by a breach; nor by bloud; but by the Ordinary Gate, which his own right fet open; and into which, by a gene-Tal love and obedience, He was received. And how soever His Majesty's preceding title to this Kingdom, was preferred by many Princes (witness the Treaty at Cambray in the year 1559.) get he never pleased to dispute it, during the life of that renowned Lady his Predecessor; no, notwithstanding the injury of not being declared Heir, in all the time of her long Reign.

Neither ought we to forget, or neglect our thank fulness to God for the uniting of the Northern parts of Britanny to the South, to wit, of Scotland to England, which, though they were severed, but by small brooks and banks, yet, by reason of the long continued Warr, and the cruelties exercifed upon each other, in the affection of the Nations, they were infinitely severed. This, I say, is not the least of God's blessings which His Majesty hath brought with him unto this Land; No, put all our petty grievances together, and heap them up to the height, they will appear as a Mole-Hill, compared with the Mountain of this concord. And if all the Historians since then have acknowledged the uniting of the Red-Rose and the White, for the greatest happiness (Christian Religion excepted) that ever this Kingdom received from God, certainly, the peace between the two Lions of Gold and Gules, and the making them one, doth by many degrees exceed the former; for by it, besides the sparing of our British Bloud, heretofore, and during the difference, so often and abundantly shed, the state of England is more assured, the Kingdom more enabled to recover her antient honour and rights, and by it made more invincible, than by all our former alliances, practices, policies, and conquests. It is true, that hereof we do not yet find the effect. But, had the Duke of Parma, in the year 1588. joined the Army which he commanded, with that of Spain, and landed it on the South-coast; and had His Majesty at the same time declared himself against us in the North, it is easie to divine what had become of the Liberty of England; certainly, we would then, without nurmure, have brought this Union a farr greater praise than it hath since cost us. It is true, that there was never any Common-weal, or Kingdom in the World, wherein no man had cause to lament. Kings live in the World, and not above it. They are not Instinite, to examine every man's cause, or to relieve every man's wants. And yet, in the later (though to his own prejudice) His Majesty hath had more compassion of other mens necessities, than of his own Cossers. Of whom it may be said, as of Solomon, Dedit Deus Solomoni latitudinem cordis; Which, if other mendo not understand with Pineda, to be meant by Liberality, but by Latitude of knowledg; yet may it be better spoken of His Majesty, than of any still the mendo had; who, as well in divine, as in humane understanding hath exceeded all that fore-went him, by many degrees. I could say much more of the Kings Majesty, without slattery: did Inot fear the imputation of presumption, and withall suspect, that it might befall these Papers of mine (though the loss were little) as it did the Pictures of Queen Elizabeth, made by unskilfull and common Painters, which, by her own commandment were knock'd in pieces, and cast into the fire. For ill Artists, in setting out the Beauty of the external; and weak Writers, in describing the Vertues of the internal; do often leave to Posterity, of well formed faces, a deformed memory; and of the most Perfect and Princely minds, a most defective Representation. It may suffice, and there needs no other discourse; if the honest Reader but compare the cruel and turbulent paffages of our former Kings, and of other their Neighbour-Princes (of whom, for that purpose I have inserted this brief Discourse) with His Majesties temperat, revengeless, and liberal disposition; I say, that if the honest Reader weigh them justly, and with an even band; and withall, but bestow every deformed child on his true Parent; He shall find, that there is no man that bath so just a cause to complain, as the King himself hath. Now, as we have told the success of the trumperies, and cruelties of our own Kings, and other great Personages; so we find, that GOD is every where the same God. And, as it pleased him to punish the usurpation and unnatural cruelty of Henry the First, and of our Third Edward, in their Children for many Generations: so dealt he with the Sons of Loys Debonaire, the Son of Charls the Great, or Charlemain. For after such time as Debonaire of France bad torn out the eyes of Bernard his Nephew, the Son of Pepin, the eldest Son of Charlemaine, and Heir of the Empire, and then caused him to die in Prison, as did out Henry to Robert his elder Brother; there followed nothing but murthers upon murthers, poisoning, imprisonments, and civil Warr; till the whole Race of that famous Emperor was extinguished. And though Debonaire, after he had rid himself of his Nephew by a violent death, and of his bastard Brothers by a civil death (having inclosed them with sure guard all the days of their lives, within a Monastery) held himself secure from all opposition; yet God raised up against him (which he suspected not) his own Som, to vex him, to invade him, to take him prisoner, and to depose him; his own Sons, with whom (to satisfie their ambition) he had shared his estate, and given them Crowns to wear, and Kingdoms to govern, during his own life. Tea, his eldest Son Lothaire (for he had som, three by his first Wife, and one by his second; to wit, Lothaire, Pepin, Loys, and Charles) made it the cause of his deposition, that he had used violence toward his Brothers and Kinsmen; and that he had suffered his Nephew (whom he might have delivered) to be slain. Eo quod, saith the Text, fratribus & propinquis violentiam intulerit, & nepotem sum, quem sup possible liberare poterat, intersici permiserit; Because he used violence to his Brothers and Kinsmen, and suffered his Nephew to be slain, whom he might have delivered.

Tet did be that which few Kings do; namely, repent him of his cruelty. For, among many other things which he performed in the General Affembly of the States, it follows: Post hac autem palam se errasse consessus, & imitatus Imperatoris Theodosii exem-Pass. Holden, plum, poenitentiam spontaneam suscepit, tam de his, quam quæ in Bernardum proprium nepotem gesserat: Aster this, he did openly consess himself to have erred, and following the Example of the Emperor Theodosius, he underwent voluntary penance, as well for his other offences, as for that which he had done against Bernard his own Nephew.

This he did, and it was praife-worthy. But the bloud that is unjuftly spilt, is not again gathered up from the ground by repentance. These Medicines, ministred to the dead, have but dead rewards.

The King, as I have faid, bad four Sons. To Lothaire his eldest, he gave the Kingdom of Iraiy, as Charlemaine his Father had done to Pepin, the Father of Bernard, who was to succeed hin in the Empire. To Pepin, the second Son, he gave the Kingdom of Aquitaine; to Loys, the Kingdom of Bavier; and to Charls, whom he had by a second Wife, called Judith, the remainder of the Kingdom of France. But his second Wife, being a mother-in-law to the rest, persuaded Debonaire, to cast his Son Pepin out of Aquitaine; thereby to greaten Charls, which, after the death of his Son Pepin, he prosecuted to effect against his Grand-child bearing the same name. In the mean while, being invaded by his Son Loys of Bavier, he dies for grief.

Debonaire dead, Loys of Bavier, and Charles afterward, called the Bald, and their Nephew Pepin of Aquitaine, join in league against the Emperor Lothaire their eldest Brother. They fight near to Auxerre, the most bloudy battel that ever was strucken in France; in which, the marvellous loß of Nobility, and men of Warr, gave courage to the Saracens to invade Italy; to the Hunns to fall upon Almaine; and the Danes to enter upon Normandy. Charles the Bald by Treason seizeth upon his Nephew Pepin, kills him in a Cloyster; Carloman rebels against his Father, Charles the bald, the Father burns out the eys of his Son Carloman; Bavier invades the Emperor Lothaire, his Brother, Lothaire quits the Empire, he is affailed and wounded to the heart by his own conscience, for his Rebellion against his Father, and for his other cruelties, and dies in a Monastery. Charls the bald the Uncle, oppresseth his Nephews, the Sons of Lothaire, he usurpeth the Empire, to the prejudice of Loys of Bavier, bis elder Brother; Bavier's Armies, and his Son Carloman, are beaten, be dies of grief, and the Ulurper Charles is poisoned by Zedechias a Jew, his Physician, his Son Loys le Beque dies of the same drink, Beque had Charles the simple, and two Bastards, Loys and Carloman; they rebel against their Brother, but the eldest breaks his neck, the younger is slain by a wild Boar; the Son of Bavier had the same ill destiny, and brake his neck by a fall out of a Window in sporting with his companions.

Charls the gross becomes Lord of all that the Sons of Debonaire held in Germany; wherewith not contented, he invades Charles the simple; but being for faken of his Nobility, of his Wife, and of his Understanding; he dies a distracted Beggar. Charles the simple is held in Wardship by Eudes, Major of the Palace, then by Robert, the Brother of Eudes; and lastly, being taken by the Earl of Vermandois, he is forced to die in the prison of Peron. Loys the Son of Charles the fimple breaks his neck in chasing a Wolf; and of the two Sons of this Loys, the one dies of poison, the other dies in the Prison of Orleans; after whom, Hugh Capet, of another Race, and a stranger to the French, makes himself King.

These miserable ends had the Issues of Debonaire; who after he had once apparelled Injustice with authority, his Sons and Successors took up the fashion,, and wore that Garmen so long without other provision, as when the same was torn from their shoulders, every man despifed them as miserable and naked Beggars. The wretched success they had (saith a Learned French-man) hens, Que en ceste mort il y avoit plus du fait des hommes que de Dieu, ou de la justice: That in the death of that Prince; to wit, of Bernard the Son of Pepin, the true Heir of Charlemain, men had more meddling than God or Justice had.

But to come nearer home; it is certain that Francis the First, one of the Worthiest Kings (except for that Fact) that ever the French-men had, did never enjoy bimfelf, after he had commended the destruction of the Protestants of Mirandol, and Cabrieres, to the Parliament of Provence, which poor people were thereupon burnt and murthered; men, women, and children. It is true that the faid King Francis repented himself of the fact, and gave charge to Henry his Son, to do Justice upon the murtherers, threatning his Son with GODS Judgments, if he neglected it. Butthis unseasonable care of his, God was not pleased to accept for payment. For after Henry was flain in sport by Montgomery, we all may remember what became of his four Sons, Francis, Charles, Henry, and Hercules. Of which, although three of them became Kings, and were maried to beautiful and vertuous Ladies; ye were they, one after another, cast out of the World, without Stock or Seed. And notwithstanding their subtilty, and breach of Faith; with all their Massacres upon those of the Religion, and great effusion of bloud, the Crown was fet on his Head, whom they all laboured to dissolve; the Protestants remain more in number than ever they were, and hold to this day more strong Cities than ever they had.

Let us now see if God be not the same God in Spain as in England and France. Towards whom we will look no further back than to Don Pedro of Castile, ; in respect of which Prince, all the Tyrants of Sicil, our Richard the Third, and the great Evan Vafilowick of Moscovia, were but petty ones: this Castillian, of all the Christian and Heathen Kings, having been the most merciless. For besides those of his own Bloud and Nobility, which be had caused to be slain in his own Court and Chamber, as Sancho Ruis; the great Master of Calatrava, Ruis Gonsales, Alphonso Tello, and Don John of Arragon, whom be cut in pieces, and cast into the streets, denying him Christian burial: I say, besides these and the flaughter of Gomes Mauriques, Diego Peres, Alphonso Gomes, and the great Commander of Castile; he made away the two Infants of Arragon his Cousin-Germans, his Brother Don Frederick, Don John de la Cerde, Albuquergues, Nugnes de Guzman, Cornel, Cabrera, Tenorio, Mendes de Toledo, Guttiere bis great Treasurer, and all bis Kinred; and a world of others. Neither did he spare his two youngest Brothers, innocent Princes, whom after he had kept in close Prison from their Cradles, till one of them had lived fixteen years, and the other fourteen; he murthered them there. Nay, he foared not his Mother, nor his Wife the Lady Blanch of Bourbon. Laftly, as he caused the Arch-bishop of Toledo, and the Dean to be killed, of purpose to enjoy their Treasures; so did he put to death Mahomet Aben Alhamar, King of Barbary, with thirty seven of his Nobility, that came Hist of Spices. unto him for succor, with a great summ of Money, to levy (by his favour) some Companies of Souldiers to return withall. Yea, he would needs affift the Hangman with his own hand, in the execution of the old King; in so much as Pope Urban declareth him an enemy both to God and Man. But what was his end? Having been formerly beaten out of his Kingdom, and re-eliablished by the valour of the English Nation, led by the famous Duke of Lancaster; He was stabled to death by his younger Brother, the Earl of Astramara, who disposses all his Children of their Inheritance, which, but for their Fathers injustice and cruelty, had never been in danger of any such thing.

The Preface.

If we can parallel any man with this King, it must be Duke John of Burgoign, who, after his trayterous murther of the Duke of Orleans, caused the Constable of Armagnac, the Chancellor of France, the Bifbops of Conftance, Bayeux, Eureux, Senlis, Saintes, and other religious and reverend Church-men, the Earl of gran Pre, Hector of Chartes, and (in effect) all the Officers of Justice of the Chamber of Accompts, Treasury, Requests (with fixteen others to accompany them) to be suddenly and violently slain. Hereby, while he hoped to govern, and to have mastered France; He was soon after strucken with an Axin the face. in the presence of the Dauphin; and, without any leisure to repent his misseeds, presently slain. These were the lovers of other mens miseries; and miseries found them out.

Now, for the Kings of Spain, which lived both with Henry the Seventh, Henry the Eighth, Queen Mary, and Queen Elizabeth; Ferdinand of Arragon, was the first, and the first that laid the foundation of the present Austrian greatness. For this King did not content himself to hold Arragon by the usurpation of his Ancestor; and to fasten thereunto the Kingdom of Castile and Leon, which Isabel his Wife held by strong hand, and his assistance, from her own Neece, the Daughter of the last Henry; but most cruelly and crastily, without all colour or pretence of right, he also cast his own Neece out of the Kingdom of Navarre; and, contrary to Faith, and the Promise he made to restore it, fortified the best places, and so wasted the rest, as there was no means left for any Army to invade it. This King, I say, that betrayed also Ferdinand and Frederick, Kings of Naples, Princes of his own Bloud, and by double alliance tied unto him; sold them to the French; and with the same Army, sent for their succour under Gonfalvo, cast them out; and shared their Kingdom with the French, whom afterwards he most shamefully betrayed.

This wife and politick King, who fold Heaven and his own Honour, to make his Son the Prince of Spain, the greatest Monarch of the World; saw him die in the slower of his years; and his Wife great with child with her untimely birth, at once and together buried. His eldest Daughter married unto Don Alphonso Prince of Portugal, beheld her first Husband break his neck in her presence; and being with child by her second, died with it. A just Fudgment of God upon the Race of Alphonio, now wholly extinguished; who had not onely left many disconsolate Mothers in Portugal, by the slaughter of their children; but had formerly slain with his own hand, the Son and onely comfort of his Aunt the Lady Beatrix, Dutchess of Visco. The second Daughter of Ferdinand, married to the Arch-Duke Philip, turned fool, and died mad, and deprived. His third Daughter, bestowed on King Henry the Eighth, be faw cast off by the King; the Mother of many troubles in England; and the Mother of a Daughter, that in her unhappy zeal, shed a world of innocent bloud; lost Calice to the French; and died heart-broken without increase. To conclude, all those Kingdoms of Ferdinand have masters of a new name; and by a strange Family are governed and possess'd.

Charls the Fifth, Son to the Arch-Duke Philip, in whose vain enterprises upon the French, upon the Almans and other Princes and States; so many multitudes of Christian Souldiers, and renowned Captains were confumed; who gave the while a most perillous enrance to the Turks, and suffered Rhodes, the Key of Christendom, to be taken; was in conclusion chased out of France, and, in a fort, out of Germany; and left to the French, Mentz, Toule, and Verdun, places belonging to the Empire, flole away from Inspurg; and scaled the Alpes by torch-light, perfued by Duke Maurice; having hoped to swallow up all those Dominions; wherein he concocted nothing, save his own disgraces. Subardia 1.7. And having after the flaughter of fo many Millions of men, no one foot of ground in either, He crept into a Cloyster, and made himself a Pensioner of an hundred thousand Duckets by the year, to his Son Phillip, from whom he very flowly received his mean and ordina-

His Son again, King Philip the Second, not fatisfied to hold Holland and Zeland, ry maintenance. (wrested by his Ancestors from Jaqueline, their lawfull Princess) and to possess in peace many other Provinces of the Netherlands; persuaded by that mischievous Cardinal of Granvile, and other Romish Tyrants; not onely forgot the most remarkable services, done to his Father the Emperor, by the Nobility of those Countreys, not onely forgot the Present made bim upon his entry of fourty Millions of Florens, called the Novaile aid; nor onely forgot that he had twice most solemnly sworn to the General States, to maintain and preserve their antient Rights, Privileges, and Customs, which they had enjoyed under their thirty and five Earls before him, Conditional Princes of those Provinces: but beginning first to constrain them, and enthral them by the Spanish Inquisition, and then to impoverish them by many new devised and intollerable Impositions, he lastly, by strong band and main force, attempted to make himself not only an absolute Monarch over them, like unto the Kings and Soveraigns of England and France; but Turk-like, to tread under his feet all their Natural and Fundamental Laws, Privileges, and antient Rights. To effect which, after be had easily obtain from the Pope a dispensation of his former Oaths (which Dispensation was the true cause of the Warr and Bloudshed since then ;) and after he had tried what he could perform, by dividing of their own Nobility, under the Government of his base Sister, Margaret of Austria, and the Cardinal Granvile; He employed that most merciles Spaniard, Don Ferdinand Alvarez of Toledo, Duke of Alva, followed with a powerful Army of strange Nations; by whom he first slaughtered that renowned Captain, the Earl of Egmont, Prince of Gavare; and Philip Montmorency Earl of Horn; made away Montigue, and the Marquess of Bergues, and cut off in those six years (that Alva Governed) of Gentlement and others, eighteen thousand and six hundred, by the hands of the Hangman, besides all his other barbarous murthers and maffacres. By whose ministery, when he could not yet bring his affairs to their wished ends, having it in his hope to work that by subtilty which he had failed to perform by force, He sent for Governour, bis bastard Brother, Don John of Austria: a Prince of great hope, and very gracious to those people. But he, using the same Papal advantage that his Predecessors had done, make no scruple to take Oath upon the holy Evangelists, to observe the Treaty made with the General States; and to discharge the Low-Country's of all Spaniards, and other strangers therein garrisoned; Towards whose Pay and Pasport, the Netherlands strained themselves to mak a payment of 600000. pounds. Which Moneys receined, he suddenly surprised the Citadels of Antwerp and Nemures, not doubting being unsuspected by the States) to have possess d himself of all the mastering places of those Proninces. For whatsoever he overtly pretended, he held in secret a contrary counsel with the Secretary Escovedo, Rhodus, Barlemont, and others, Ministers of the Spanish Tyranny for merly practifed, and now again intended. But let us now see the effect and end of this perjury, and of all other the Duke's cruelties. First, for himself; after he had murthered so mane of the Nobility; executed (as aforesaid) eighteen thousand six hundred in six years, and most cruelly slain Man, Woman, and Child in Mecklin, Zutphen, Narden, and other places: and after he had confumed fix and thirty Millions of treasure in fix years, notwithflanding his Spanish vaunt, That he would suffocate the Holanders in their own Butterbarrels, and Milk-tubs; He departed the Countrey no otherwise accompanied, than with the curse and detestation of the whole Nation; leaving His Majesties Assairs in a ten-fold worse estate than he found them at his sirst arrival. For Don John, whose haughty conceit of himfelf overcame the greatest difficulties; though his judgment were over-weak to mannage the least: What wonders did his fearful breach of faith bring forth, other than the King his Brothers jealousie and distrust, with the untimely death that seized on him, even in the flower of his youth? And for Escovedo his sharp-witted Secretary, who in his own imagination had conquered for his Master, both England and the Netherlands; being sent into Spain upon some new project, he was at the first arrival, and before any access to the King, by certain Ruffians, appointed by Anthony Peres (though by better warrant than his) rudely murthered in his own lodging. Lastly, if we consider the King of Spain's carriage, his counsel and success in this business, there is nothing left to the memory of Man more remarkable. For be bath paid above an hundred Millions, and the lives of above four hundred thousand Christians, for the loss of all those Countreys, which, for beauty, gave place to none; and for revenue, did equal his West-Indies; for the loss of a Nation which most willingly obeyed bin; and who, at this day, after fourty years Warr, are, in despight of all his forces, become a free Estate, and farr more rich and powerfull than they were, when he first began to impoverish and oppress them.

The Preface.

Oh! by what plots, by what for-swearings, betrayings, oppressions, imprisonments, tortures, possings, and under what reasons of State, and politick subtilty, have these fore-named lings, both strangers, and of our own Nation, pulled the vengeance of G.O.D upon themdoes, upon theirs, and upon their prudent ministers I and in the end, have brought those lings to pass for their enemies, and seen an esset so directly contrary to all their own counsels and cruelties; as the one could never have hoped for themselves; and the other never have succeeded; if no such opposition had ever been made. GOD hath said it, and performed it ever: Perdam sapientiam sapientum; I will destroy the wisdom of the wise.

But what of all this? and to what end do we lay before the eyes of the living, the fall and fortunes of the dead; seeing the world is the same that it hath been; and the children of the present time, will still obey their Parents? It is in the present time, that all the wits of the World are exercised. To hold the times we have, we hold all things lawfull; and either we hope to hold them for ever; or at least we hope, that there is nothing after them to be hoped for. For, as we are content to forget our own experience, and to counterfeit the ignorance of our own knowledg, in all things that concern our selves; or persuade our selves, that GOD bath given us Letters Patents to perfue all our irreligious affections, with a Non obstance: so we neither look behind us what hath been, nor before us what shall be. It is true, that the quantity which we have, is of the body: we are by it joined to the earth; we are compounded of earth; and we inhabit it. The Heavens are high, farr off, and unsearchable; we have sense and feeling of corporal things; and of eternal grace, but by revelation. No marvel then that our thoughts are also earthly; and it is less to be wondred at, that the words of worthless men cannot cleanse them; seeing their doctrine and instruction, whose underflanding the Holy Ghost vouchsafed to inhabit, have not performed it. For, as the Prophet Efay cried out long agone, Lord, who hath believed our reports? And out of doubt, as Esay complained then for himself and others: so are they less believed, every day after other. For, although Religion, and the truth thereof, be in every man's mouth, yea, in the discourse of every woman, who, for the greatest number are but Idols of Vanity; what is it other than an universal dissimulation? We profess that we know GOD, but by works we deny him. For Beatitude doth not confift in the knowledg of divine things, but in a divine life; for the Devils know them better than men. Beatitudo non est divinorum cognițio, sed vita divina. And certainly, there is nothing more to be admired, and more to be lamented, than the private contention, the passionate dispute, the personal batred, and the perpetual warr, massacres, and murthers, for Religion among Christians; the discourse where of bath so occupied the World, as it bath well near driven the practice thereofout of the World. Who would not soon resolve, that took knowledg but of the religious disputations among men, and not of their lives which dispute, that there were no other thing in their desires, thanth purchace of Heaven; and that the World it self were but used as it ought, and as an Inne, or place wherein to repose our selves in passing on towards our Colestial habitation? when on the contrary, besides the Discourse and outward profession, the Soul bath nothing but hypocrisie. We are all (in effect) become Comædians in Religion; and while we act in gesture and word, divine vertues, in all the course of our lives, we renounce our Persons, and the parts weplay For Charity, Justice, and Truth, have but their being in tearms, like the Philosophers Materia prima.

Neither is it that wisdom, which Solomon defineth to be the School-Mistress of the Knowledg of God, that hath valuation in the World; it is enough that we give it our god word: but the same which is altogether exercised in the service of the World, as the get thering of riches chiefly, by which we purchase and obtain honour, with the many respect which attend it. These indeed be the marks, which (when we have bent our consciences to the highest) we all shoot at. For the obtaining whereof it is true, that the care is our own; the care our own in this life, the peril our own in the future; and yet, when we have gathered the greatest abundance, we our selves enjoy no more thereof, than so much as belongs to one man. For the rest, He that had the greatest wisdom, and the greatest ability, that ever man had, bath told us, that this is the use: When goods increase (faith Solomon) they also easily s. 16. increase that eat them; and what good cometh to the Owners, but the beholding thereof with their eyes? As for those that devour the rest, and sollow us in fair weather: they again for lake us in the first tempest of missortune, and steer away before the Sea and Wind: leaving us to the malice of our destinies. Of these, among a thousand Examples, I will take but one out of Master Dannet, and use his own words: Whilest the Emperor Charles the Fifth, after the refignation of his estates, stayed at Uloshing for Wind, to carry him his last journey into Spain; He conferred on a time with Seldius, his Brother Ferdinand's Embaffador, till the deep of the night. And when Seldius should depart; the Emperor calling for some of his fervants, and no body answering him, (for those that attended upon him, were some gone to their lodgings, and all the restasseep) the Emperor took up the Candle himself, and went before Seldius, to light him down the Stairs; and fo did, notwithstanding all the refistance that Seldius could make. And when he was come to the Stairs foot, he faid thus unto him; Seldius, remember this of Charles the Emperor, when he shall be dead and gone, That Him, whom thou hast known in thy time environed with so many mighty Armies and Guards of Souldiers, thou hast also feen alone, abandoned, and for faken, yea, even of his own fervants, &c. I acknowledg this change of Fortune to proceed from the mighty hand of GOD, which I will by no means go about to withstand.

But you will say, that there are some things else, and of greater regard than the former. The first is, the reverend respect that is held of Great Men, and the Honour done unto them by all forts of people. And it is true indeed: provided, that an inward love for their Justice and Piety, accompany the outward worship given to their places and power; without which, what is the applause of the Multitude, but as the out-cry of an Herd of Animals, who, without the knowledg of any true cause, please themselves with the noise they make? For, seeing it is a thing exceeding rare to distinguish Virtue and Fortune; the most impious (if prosperous) bave ever been applauded; the most vertuous (if unprosperous) have ever been despised. For, as Fortunes man rides the Horse, so Fortune her self rides the Man. Who, when he is descended, and on foot; the Mantaken from his Beast, and Fortune from the Man; a base Groom beats the one, and a bitter contempt spurns at the other, with equal liberty.

The second is, the greatning of our Posterity, and the contemplation of their glory whom we leave behind us. Certainly, of those which conceive that their Souls departed take any comfort therein, it may truly be said of them, which Lactantius spake of certain Heathen Philoso- Last defails phers; Quod sapientes sunt in re stulta. For, when our spirits immortal shall be once sparate from our mortal bodies, and disposed by GOD; there remaineth in them no other joy of their Posterity which succeed, than there doth of pride in that stone, which sleepeth in the Wall of a King's Palace, nor any other forrow for their poverty, than there doth of shame in that, which beareth up a Beggars cottage. Nesciunt mortui, etiam sancti, quid agunt vivi, etiam eorum filii, quia animæ mortuorum rebus viventium non interfunt; The dead, though holy, know nothing of the living, no, not of their own children; for the Souls of those departed, are not conversant with their affairs that remain. And if we doubt of Saint Augustine, we cannot of Job; who tells us, That we know not if our Sons shall be honourable; neither shall we understand concerning them, whether they shall be of low degree. Which Ecclesiastes also confirmeth; Man walketh in a shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain ; he heapeth up riches, and Pfal 39 cannot tell who shall gather them. The living (faith be) know that they shall die, but the dead know nothing at all; for, who can shew unto man, what shall be after him under the Sun? He therefore accounteth it among the rest of worldly vanities, to labour and travel in the World; not knowing after death, whether a fool or a wife man should enjoy the fruits thereof; which made me (faith he) endeavour even to abhorr mine own labour. And what can other men hope, whose bleffed or sorrowfull estates after death, God bath reserved? Mans knowledg lying but in his hope specing the Prophet Esay confessel of the Elect, That Abraham is ignorant of us, and Israel knows us not. But hereof we are assured, that the long and dark night of death of whose following day we shall never behold the dawn till his return that bath triumphed over it) shall cover us over till the world be no more. After which, and when we shall again receive Organs glorified, and incorruptible, the feats of Angelical affections; in fo great admiration shall the Souls of the bleffed be exercifed, as they cannot admit the mixture of any second or less joy; nor any return of forgone and mortal affection towards Friends, Kinred, or Children. Of whom, whether we shall retain any particular knowledg, or in any sort distinguish them, no man can affure us; and the wifest men doubt. But on the contrary; If a divine life retain any of those faculties, which the Soul exercised in a mortal body; we shall not at that time so divide the joys of Heaven, as to cast any part thereof on the memory of their felicities which remain in the World. No, be their estates greater than ever the World gave, we shall (by the difference known unto us) even detest their consideration. And whatsoever comfort shall remain of all forepast, the same will consist in the charity, which we exercised living: and in that Piety, Justice, and firm Faith, for which it pleased the Institute Mercy of God to accept of us, and receive us. Shall we therefore value honour and riches at nothing? and neglect them, as unnecessary and vain? Certainly, no. For that Infinite Wisdom of God, which bath distinguished his Angels by degrees; which hath given greater and less light and beauty to beavenly bodies; which bath made differences between Beasts and Birds; created the Eagle, and the Flie, the Cedar, and the Shrub; and among Stones, given the fairest tincture to the Ruby, and quickest light to the Diamond; half also ordained Kings, Dukes, or Leaders of the people; Magistrates, Judges, and other degrees among men. And, as Honour is left to Posterity, for a mark and enses of the vertue and understanding of their Ancestors; so (seeing Siracides preferred Death before Beggary; and, that Titles, without proportionable estates, fall under the miserable succour of other mens pity) I account it foolishness to condemn such a cart; milerable succour of other mens pity) I account it sould bright to condens for thing for thing for thine) change thy nature (though impossible) and forget to be a just God; out of other mens ruines. For, as Plato doth first preserr the persection of bodily health; second-pendeteg 1.2. ly the form and beauty; and thirdly, Divitias nulla fraude quæfitas: fo Jeremy cries, Wo 6.00 m George unto them that erect their houses by unrighteousness, and their chambers without Jer 12-13equity; And Esay the same, Wo to those that spoil, and were not spoiled. And it was significant out of the true wisdom of Solomon, that he commandeth us, not to drink the Wine of violence; not to lie in wait for bloud; and not to fwallow them up alive, whose riches we 3, 8, 825. covet; for fuch are the ways (faith he) of every one that is greedy of gain.

And, if we could afford our selves but so much leisure, as to consider, That he which bath most in this world, hath, in respect of the world, nothing in it; and that he which hath the longest time lent him to live in it, hath yet no proportion at all therein, setting it either by that which is past, when we were not, or by that time which is to come, in which we shall abide for ever; I say, if both, to wit, our proportion in the World, and our time in the World, differ not much from that which is nothing, it is not out of any excellency of understanding, that we so much prise the one, which hath (in effect) no being; and so much neglect the other, which bath no ending; covering those mortal things of the World, as if our Souls were therein inmortal, and neglecting those things which are immortal, as if our selves, after the World, were but mortal.

But let every man value his own wisdom, as he pleaseth. Let the rich man think all fools, that cannot equal his abundance; the Revenger effeem all negligent, that have not troden down their opposites; the Politician all groß, that cannot Merchandize their faith: Tet, when we once come in fight of the Port of death, to which all winds drive us, and when, by letting fall that fatal Anchor, which can never be weighed again, the navigation of this life takes end ; Then it is, I say, that our own cogitations (those sad and severe cogitations, formerly beaten from us by our Health and Felicity) return again, and pay us to the uttermost for all the pleasing passages of our lives past. It is then that we cry out to God for mercy; then, when our selves can no longer exercise cruelty to others; and it is onely then, that we are strucken through the Soul with this terrible Sentence, That God will not be mocked. Gal. 6.7. For if, according to S. Peter, The righteous scarcely be saved: and that God spared 1 Fee 4. not his Angels; where shall those appear, who, having served their appetites all their lives, presume to think, that the severe Commandments of the All-powerfull God were given but in sport; and that the short breath, which we draw when death presset us, if we can but fashion it to the sound of Mercy (without any kind of satisfaction or amends) is sufficient? O quam multi, saith a reverend Father, cum hac spe ad æternos labores & bella descendunt! I confess, that it is a great comfort to our friends, to have it faid, That we ended well; for we all defire (as Balaam did) to die the death of the righteous. But, what shall we call a dif-esteeming, an opposing, or (indeed) a mocking of God; if those men do not oppose him, dis-esteem him, and mock him, that think it enough for God, to ask him forgiveness at leifure, with the remainder and last drawing of a malicious breath? For, what do they otherwise, that die this kind of well-dying, but say unto God, as followeth? We befeech thee, O God, that all the falshoods, for swearings, and treacheries of our lives past, may be pleasing unto thee; that thou wilt for our sakes (that have had no leisure to do that thou wilt love injuries and oppressions, call ambition wisdom, and charity foolishness. For I shall prejudice my Son (which I am resolved not to do) if I make restitution; and confess my felf to have been unjust (which I am too proud to do) if I deliver the oppressed. Certainly, these wise worldlings have either found out a new God, or made One; and in all likelihood, such a Leaden One, as Lewis the Eleventh ware in his Cap; which, when he had caused any that he feared or hated, to be killed, he would take it from his head, and kiss it; beseeching it to pardon bim this one evil all more, and it should be the last; which (as at other times) he did, when, by the practice of a Cardinal, and a falfified Sacrament, he caused the Earl of Armagnac to be stabbed to death; mockeries indeed, fit to be used towards a Leaden, but not towards the Everliving GOD. But of this composition are all devout lovers of the World, that they fear all that is dureless and ridiculous; they fear the plots and practices of their opposites, and their very whisperings; they fear the Opinions of men, which beat but upon shadows; they flatter and for sake the prosperous and unprosperous, be they Friends or Kings; yea, they dive under water, like Ducks, at every pebble-stone, that is but thrown towards them by a powerful band; and on the contrary, they shew an obstinate and Giant-like valour against the terrible judgments of the All-powerfull God; yea, they shew themselves Gods against God, and Slaves towards men; towards men, whose bodies and consciences are alike rotten.

Now, for the rest; If we truly examine the difference of both conditions; to wit, of the rid and mighty, whom we call fortunate; and of the poor and oppressed, whom we accompt wretch ed; we shall find the hapiness of the one, and the miserable estate of the other, so tied by God to the very instant, and both so subject to enterchange (witness the sudden downfall of the greatest Princes, and the speediest uprising of the meanest persons) as the one hath nothing so certain, whereof to boast; nor the other so uncertain, whereof to bewail it self. For, there is no man fo affured of his bonour, of his riches, health, or life; but that he may be deprived of either, or all, the very next hour, or day to come. Quid vesper vehat, incertum est; What the evening will bring with it, it is uncertain. And yet ye cannot tell (faith S. James) what shall be to morrow. To day he is set up, and to morrow he shall not be found; for he is turned into dust, and his purpose perisheth. And although the air which compasseth adversity, be very obscure; yet therein we better disease God, than in that shining light which environeth worldly glory; through which, for the clearneß thereof, there is no vanity which escapeth our fight. And let adversity seem what it will; to happy men ridiculous, who make themselves merry at other mens missortunes; and w those under the cross, grievous: yet this is true, That for all that is past, to the very in flant, the portions remaining are equal to either. For, be it that we have lived mun years, and (according to Solomon) in them all we have rejoyced; or be it that me han measured the same length of days, and therein have evermore sorrowed; yet, looking back from our present being, we find both the one and the other; to wit, the joy and wo, falled out of fight; and death, which doth perfue us, and hold us in chace, from our infancy; hit gathered it. Quicquid æratis retro est, mors tenet; Whatfoever of our age is path death holds it. So, as whosever he be, to whom Fortune hath been a servant, and the Time a friend; let him but take the accompt of his memory (for we have no other keeping our pleasures past) and truly examine what he hath reserved, either of Beauty and Touth or fore-gone delights; what it hath faved, that it might last, of his dearest affections, or of whatever else the amorous Spring-time gave his thoughts of contentment, then unvaluable; and he shall find that all the Art which his elder years have, can draw no other vapour out of these dissolutions, than heavy, secret, and sad sagss. He shall find nothing remaining, but those sorrows, which grow up after our sast-pringing youth, over-take it, when it is at a siand; and over-top it utterly, when it begins to wither; in so much as looking back from the very instant time, and from our now being, the poor, diseased, and captive creature, hath as little sense of all his former miseries and pains, as he, that is most bless of in common Opinion, bath of his fore-passed pleasure and delights. For whatsoever is cast behind us, is just nothing; and what is to come, deceitfull hope hath it: Omnia quae eventura sunt, in incerto jacent. Onely those sew black Swans I must except; who, having had the grace to value worldly vanities at no more than their own price; do, by retaining the comfortable memory of a well-acted life, behold death without dread, and the grave without fear, and embrace both, as necessary.

For my felf, this is my confolation, and all that I can offer to others, that the forrows of this life are but of two forts; whereof the one hath respect to GOD; the other to the World, In the first, we complain to GOD against our selves, for our offences against him; and confest, Et tu justus es in omnibus que venerunt super nos; And thou, O Lord, art just in all that hath befallen us. In the second, we complain to our selves against GJD; as if he had done us wrong, either in not giving us worldly goods and honours, answering our appetites; or for taking them from us having had them; forgetting that bumble and just acknowledgment of Job, The Lord hath given, and the Lord hath taken. To the first of which, S. Paul hath promised blessedness; to the second, death. And out of doubt, he is either a fool, or ingrateful to GOD, or both, that doth not acknowledg, kow mean soever his estate be, that the same is yet farr greater, than that which God oweth him; or doth not aknowledg how sharp soever his afflictions be, that the same are yet farr less, than those which are due unto him. And if an Heathen wise man call the adversities of the World but tributa vivendi; the tributes of living: a wife Christian man ought to know them, and bear them as the tributes of offending. He ought to bear them man-like, and resolvedly, and not as those whining Souldiers do, Qui gementes sequuntur Imperatorem.

For feeing God, who is the Anthor of all our Tragedies, hath written out for us, and appointed us all the parts we are to play; and bath not, in their diffibution, been partial to the most mighty Princes of the World; That gave unto Darius the part of the greatest Emperor, and the part of the most miserable Beggar; a Beggar, begging Water of an Enemy to quench the great drought of death; That appointed Bajazeer to play the Grand Seignior of the Turks in the morning, and in the same day, the Footstool of Tamerlane (both which parts Valerian had also played; being taken by Sapores) that made Bellisarius play the most visitorious Captain, and lastly, the part of a blind Beggar; of which; examples of many thousands may be produced: why should other men, who are but as the least Worms, complain of wrongs? Certainly, there is no other accompt to be made of this ridiculous World, than to resolve, That the change of Fortune on the great Theatre, is but as the change of Garments on the less. For, when on the one and the other, every man wears but his own skin, the Players are all alike. Now, if any man out of weakness prise the passages of this world otherwise (for, saith Petrarch, Magni ingenii est revocare mentem a sensibus) it is by reason of that unhappy fantasie of ours, which forgeth in the brains of Man all the miseries (the corporal excepted) whereunto he is subject. Therein it is, that Misfortune and Adversity work all that they work. For, seeing Death, in the end of the Play, takes from all, what soever Fortune or Force takes from any one; it were a foolish madness in the shipwrack of worldly things, where all finks but the Sorrow, to save it. That were, as Seneca saith, Fortunæ succumbere, quod tristius est omni sato; To sall under Fortune, of all other, the most miserable destiny.

But it is now time to found a retreat, and to defire to be excused of this long persuit; and withall, that the good intent, which hath moved me to draw the Picture of time past (which we call History) in so large a Table, may also be accepted in place of a better

The examples of divine Providence, every where found (the first divine Histories being nothing else but a continuation of such examples) have persuaded me to setch my beginning from the beginning of all things; to wit, Creation. For, though these two glorious astions of the Almighty be so near, and (as it were) linked together, that the one necessarily implies the other; Creation inferring Providence (for what father for saketh the child that he hath begotten?) and Providence presupposing Creation; Tet many of those that have feemed to excel in worldly wisdom, have gone about to dis-join this coherence; the Epicure denying both Creation and Providence, but granting that the World had a beginning; the Aristotelian granting Providence but denying both the Creation and the Beginning.

Now, although this doctrine of Faith, touching the Creation in time (for, by Faith, we understand that the World was made by the Word of God) be too weighty a work for Aristotle's rotten ground to bear up, upon which he hath (notwithstanding) founded the Defences and Fortresses of all his Verbal Doctrine; yet that the necessity of Infinite power, and the World's beginning, and the impossibility of the contrary, even in the judgment of Natural reason, wherein he believed, had not better informed him; it is greatly to be marvelled at. And it is no less strange, that those men which are desirous of knowledg (seeing Aristotle bath failed in this main point; and taught little other than tearms in the rest) bave so retrenched their minds from the following and overtaking of Truth, and so absolutely subjected themseves to the law of those Philosophical Principles; as all contrary kind of teaching, in the fearch of causes, they have condemned, either for phantastical, or curious. But doth it follow, that the Positions of Heathen Philosophers are undoubtedly Grounds and Principles indeed, because so called? Or, that ipsi dixerunt, doth make them to be such? Certainly no. But this is true, That where natural reason hath built any thing so strong against it self, as the same reason can hardly assail it, much less batter it down: the same in every question of Nature, and infinite power, may be approved for a fundamental Law of bumane knowledg. For, saith Charron, in his Book of Wisdom, Tout proposition humaine a autant d'authorite quel'autre, si la raison n'on fait la difference; Every humane proposition hath equal authority, if reason make not a difference: the rest. being but the Fables of Principles. But hereof, how shall the upright and impartial judge ment of man give a Sentence, where opposition and examination are not admitted to give in evidence? And, to this purpose, it was well said of Lactantius, Sapientiam fibi adimunt, qui fine ullo judicio inventa majorum probant, & ab aliis pecudum more ducuntur: They neglect their own wisdom, who without any judgment approve the invention of those that fore-went them; and fuffer themselves, after the manner of Bealts, to be led by them. By the advantage of which sloth and dulness, ignorance is now become so powerfull a Tyrant, as it bath set true Philosophy, Physick and Divinity in a Pillory; and written over the first, Contra negantem principia; over the second, Virtus specifica; and over the third, Ecclesia Romana.

But for my self, I shall never be persuaded, that God hath shut up all the light of Learning within the Lanthorn of Aristotle's brains; or, that it was ever said unto him, as unto Esdras, Accendam in corde tuo Lucernam intellectus; That God hath given invention but to the Heathen, and that they onely invaded Nature, and found the strength and bottom thereof : the same Nature having consumed all her store, and left nothing of price to afteraves. That these, and these, be the causes of these and these effects, Time hath taught us; and not Reason; and so bath Experience without Art. The Cheef-wife knoweth it as well as the Philosopher, that sowre Rennet doth coagulate her Milk into a Curd. But, if we ask a reafon of this cause, why the sowreness doth it? whereby it doth it? and the manner how? I think that there is nothing to be found in vulgar Philosophy, to satisfie this, and many other like vulgar questions. But man, to cover his ignorance in the least things, who cannot give a true reason for the Grass under his feet, why it should be green rather than red, or of any other colour; that could never yet discover the way and reason of Nature's working, in those which are farr less noble Creatures than himself; who is farr more noble than the Heavens themselves: Man (saith Solomon) that can hardly differn the things that are upon the wift. 1. 9. Earth, and with great labour find out the things that are before us; that bath for short a time in the World, as he no fooner begins to learn, than to die; that hath in his memory but borrowed knowledg; in his understanding nothing truly; that is ignorant of the Essence of his own Soul, and which the wifest of the Naturalists (if Aristotle be he) could never so much as define, but by the Action and Effect, telling us what it works (which all men know as well as he) but not what it is, which neither he, nor any else doth know, but GOD that created it (For though I were perfect, yet I know not my Soul, faith Job.) Man, I say, that is but an Idiot in the next cause of his own life, and in the cause of all actions of his life: will (notwithstanding) examine the Art of GOD in creating the 10 10. World; of GOD, who (faith Job) is so excellent as we know him not; and examine the beginning of the work, which had end before Mankind had a beginning of being. He will disable God's power to make a World, without matter to make it of. He will rather give the Motes of the Air for a cause; cast the work on necessity or chance; bestow the bonour thereof on Nature; make two powers, the one to be the Author of the Matter, the other of Form; and lastly, for want of a work-man, have it Eternal; which latter Opinion Aristotle, to make himself the Author of a new Doctrine, brought into the World; and bis Setiators have maintained it; Parati ac conjunati, quos fequentur Philosophorum animis invictis opiniones tueri. For Hermes, who lived at once with, or food after Moses, Zoroaster, Musaus, Orpheus, Linus, Anaximenes, Anaxagoras, Empedocles, Meliffus, Pherecydes, Thales, Cleanthes, Pythagoras, Plato, and many others (whose Opinions are exquifitely gathered by Steuchius Eugubinus) found in the necessity of invincible reason, One Eternal and infinite Being, to be the Parent of the Universal. Horum omnium sententia quamvis sit incerta, eodem tamen spectat, ut providentiam unam effe consentiant: five enim Natura, five Æther, five Ratio, five Mens, five Fatalis Necessitas, five divina Lex, idem est quod a nobis dicitur Deus; All these mens Opinions (faith Lactantius) though uncertain, come to this; That they agree upon one Providence, whether the same be Nature, or Light, or Reason, or Understanding, or Destiny, or divine Ordinance, that it is the same which we call G O D. Certainly, as all the Rivers in the World, though they have divers rifings, and divers runnings; though they sometimes hide themselves for a while under ground, and seem to be lost in Sea-like Lakes; do at last find, and fall into, the great Ocean: so after all the searches that humane capacity bath; and after all Philosophical contemplation and curiosity, in the necessity of this Infinite power, all the reason of Man ends and dissolves it self.

Ead. S.

As for others: and first touching those which conceive the matter of the World to have been eternal, and, that God did not create the World, ex nihilo, but ex materia præexistence; the Supposition is so weak, as is hardly worth the answering. For (saith Eusebius) Mihi videntur qui hoc dicunt, fortunam quoque Deo annectere; They feem un-Estate de prese to me, which affirm this, to give part of the work to God, and part to Fortune; in so much as if God had not found this first matter by chance, He had never been Author, nor Father, nor Creator, nor Lord of the Universal. For, were the Matter or Chaos eternal, it then follows, That either this supposed Matter did fit it self to God, or God accommodate bimself to the matter. For the first; it is impossible, that things without sense could proportion themselves to the Work-mans Will. For the second; it were horrible to conceived God, That as an Artificer he applied himself, according to the proportion of matter which

But let it be supposed, That this matter hath been made by any Power, not Omnipotent, be lighted upon. and infinitely wife; I would gladly learn how it came to pass, that the same was proportion able to bis intention, that was Omnipotent, and infinitely wife; and no more, nor no less, than ferved to receive the form of the Universal. For, had it wanted any thing of what was sufficient; then must it be granted, That God created out of nothing so much of new matter, as fervied to finish the work of the World: Or, bad there been more of this matter thin sufficed, then God did dissolve and annihilate whatsoever remained and was superstitution And this must every reasonable Soul confess, That it is the same work of God alone; to create any thing out of nothing, And by the same Art and Power, and by none other, and those things, or any part of that eternal matter, be again changed into Nothing; by which this things, that once were nothing, obtained a beginning of being.

Again, to far that this matter was the cause of it self ; this, of all other, were the greatel Idioisim. For, if it were the cause of it self at any time; then there was also time when it self was not; at which time of not being, it is easie enough to conceive, that it could neither procure it felf, nor any thing elfe. For to be, and not to be, at once, it inposible. Nihil autem seipsum præcedit, neque seipsum componit corpus; There is nothing that doth precede it felf, neither do bodies compound themselves.

For the rest, Those that seign this matter to be eternal, must of necessity confess, that Infinite cannot be separate from Eternity. And then had infinite matter left no place for infinite form; but that the first matter was finite, the form which it received proves it. For conclusion of this part, whosever will make choice, rather to believe in eternal deformity, or in eternal dead matter, than in eternal light, and eternal life; let eternal death be his reward. For, it is a madness of that kind, as wanteth terms to express it. For what reason of man (whom the curse of presumption bath not stupisted) hath doubted. That infinite power (of which we can comprehend but a kind of shadow; quia comprehensio est intra terminos, qui infinito repugnant) bath any thing wanting in it self, either for matter or form; yea, for as many worlds (if fuch had been Gods will) as the Sea hath fands? For where the power is without limitation, the work hath no other limitation than the workman's will. Yea. Reason it self finds it more easie for Infinite power, to deliver from it self a finite world, without the help of matter prepared; than for a finite man, a fool and dust, to change the form of matter made to his hands. They are Dionifius his words; Deus in una Cab. 16 w. 21. existentia omnia præhabet; and again, Esse omnium est ipsa Divinitas, omne quod vides, & quod non vides; to mit, causaliter, or in better terms, non tanquam forma, sed tanquam causa universalis. Neither hath the World Universal closed up all of GOD: For the most part of his works (faith Siracides) are hid. Neither can the depth of his Wisdom be opened by the glorious work of the World; which never brought to knowledg all it can; for then were his infinite power bounded, and made finite. And hereof it comes. That we feldom entitle G O D The All-shewing, or The All-willing; but the Almighty, that is, infinitely able.

But now for those, who from that ground, That out of nothing, nothing is made, inferr the Worlds eternity; and yet not so salvage therein, as those are, which give an eternal being to dead matter: It is true, if the word [Nothing] be taken in the affirmative; and the making, imposed upon Natural Agents and finite power; That out of nothing, nothing is made. But feeing their great Doctor, Aristotle himself confesseth, Quod omnes Antiqui decreverunt quasi quoddam rerum principium, ipsumque infinitum: That all the Antient decree a kind of beginning, and the same to be infinite; and a little after, more largely, and plainly, Principium ejus est nullum, sed ipsum omnium cernitur esse principium, ac omni complecti ac regere: it is strange, that this Philosopher, c. 9. ex sar se with his followers, should rather make choice out of falshood, to conclude falsly; than out conclude falsly; of truth, to resolve truly. For, if we compare the World Universal, and all the unmeasureable Orbs of Heaven, and those marvellous bodies of the Sun, Moon, and Starrs, with infunt Infinitum, it may truly be said of them all, which himself affirms of his imaginary Materia prima, That they are neither quid, quale, nor quantum; and therefore to bring smite (which bath no proportion with infinite) out of infinite (qui destruit omner proportionem) is no wonder in Gods power. And therefore, Anaximander, Meliffus, and Empedocles, call the World Universal, but, particulam Universitatis & infinitatis; a parcel of that which is the Universality, and the Infinity it self: And Plato, but a shadow of God. But the other, to prove the World's eternity, urgeth this Maxime, That, A fulficient and effectual cause being granted, an answerable effect thereof is also granted, Inferring, that God being for ever a sufficient and effectival cause of the World, the effect of the cause should also have been for ever; to wit, the World universal. But what a strange mockery is this in so great a Master, to confess a sufficient and effectual cause of the World (to wit, an Almighty God) in his Antecedent; and the same God to be a God restrained in bis Conclusion; to make God free in power, and bound in will; able to effect, unable to determine; able to make all things, and yet unable to make choice of the time when? For this were impiously to resolve of God, as of natural necessity; which hath neither choice, nor will, nor understanding; which cannot but work, matter being present: As Fire, to burn things combustible. Again, he thus disfuteth, That every Agent which can work, and doth me work, if it afterward work, it is either thereto moved by it felf, or by somewhat else; and so it passets from power to act : But God (saith he) is immovable, and is neither moved by bimself, nor by any other; but being always the same, doth always work. Whence he concludeth, If the World were caused by God, that he was for ever the cause thereof; and thenfor eternal. The answer to this is very easie; For that God's performing in due time that, which he ever determined at length to perform, doth not argue any alteration or change, but rather constancy in him. For the same action of his will, which made the World for even, did also with-hold the effect to the time ordained. To this answer, in it self sufficient, others add further, that the Pattern or Image of the World may be said to be eternal; which the Platonicks call Spiritualem mundum; and do in this fort distinguish the Idea and Creation in time. Spiritualis est mundus, mundi hujus exemplar, primumque De Mar. Fiela de opus, vita æquali est Architecto, suit semper cum illo, eritque semper. Mundus immert. in autem corporalis, quod secundum opus est Dei, decedit jam ab opisice ex parte med. 18.c. i una, quia non fuit semper: retinet alteram, quia fit semper futurus: That reprefentative, or the intentional word (fay they) the famplar of this vifible world, the first work of GOD, was equally antient with the Architect; for it was for ever with him, and ever shall be. This material world, the second work or creature of $G \theta b$, doth differ from the Worker in this; that it was not from everlafting, and in this it doth agree, that it shall be for ever to come; The first point, That it was not sa ever, all Christians confess: The other they understand no otherwise, than that after the confumnation of this world, there shall be a new Heaven, and a new Earth, without any new creation of matter. But of these things we need not here stand to argue; though subopinions be not unworthy the propounding, in this confideration, of an eternal and unchange able cause, producing a changeable and temporal effect; Touching which point, Proclusth Placonist disputeth, That the compounded Essence of the World (and because compounded, therefore dissipable) is continued, and knit to the Divine Being, by an individual and in separable power, slowing from Divine unity; and that the World's natural appetite of side sheweth, that the same proceedeth from a good and understanding divine; and that this wetue, by which the World is continued and knit together, must be infinite, that it may infinite, and everlastingly continue and preserve the same. Which infinite Vertue, the finite Wall (faith he) is not capable of, but receiveth it from the divine infinite, according to the temp The Pretace.

ral Nature it hath, successively every moment by little and little; even as the whole material World is not aliogether; but the abolished parts are departed by small degrees, and the varts yet to come, do by the same small degrees succeed, as the shadow of a tree in a River, seemeth to have continued the same a long time in the Water, but it is perpetually renewed in the continual ebbing and flowing thereof.

But to return to them, which denying that ever the World had any beginning, withall denv that ever it shall have any end, and to this purpose affirm, That it was never heard, never read never seen, no, not by any reason perceived, that the Heavens have ever suffered corruption; or that they appear any way the older by continuance; or in any fort otherwise than they were; which had they been subject to final corruption, some change would have been discerned in so long a time. To this it is answered, That the little change as yet perceived, doth rather prove their newness, and that they have not continued so long, than that they will continue for ever as they are. And if conjectural arguments may receive answer by conjectures; it And if the conjectures it And if then seemeth, that some alteration may be found. For either Aristotle, Pliny, Strabo, Beda, strait, 1. Aguinas, and others, were großly mistaken; or else those parts of the World, lying within two. 11.632. the burnt Zone, were not in elder times habitable, by reason of the Sun's heat, neither were the quot and Seas under the Equinoctial navigable. But we know by experience, that those Regions so situate, are filled with people, and exceeding temperate; and the Sea, over which we navigate, passable enough. We read also many Histories of Deluges; and how that in the time of Phae-ton, divers places in the World were burnt up, by the Sun's violent heat. But in a word, this Observation is exceeding feeble. For we know it for certain, That Stone-walls, of matter moldring and friable, have flood two or three thousand years; that many things have been digged up out of the Earth, of that depth, as supposed to have been buried by the general Flood; without any alteration, either of substance or figure; yea, it is believed, and it is very probable, that the Gold which is daily found in Mines and Rocks, under ground, was created together with the Earth.

And if bodies elementary, and compounded, the eldest times have not invaded and corrupt. ed; what great alterations should we look for in Celestial and Quintessential bodies? And yet we have reason to think, that the Sun, by whose help all creatures are generate, doth not in these later Ages assist Nature, as heretosoxe. We have neither Giants, such as the eldest World had, nor Mighty Men, such as the elder World had; but all things in general are reputed of less vertue which from the Heavens receive vertue. Whence, if the nature of a Prefacewould permit a larger Difcourfe, we might eafily fetch store of proof; as that this World sball at length have end, as that once it had beginning.

And I see no good Answer that can be to this Objection: If the World were eternal; why not all things in the World eternal? If therewere no first, no Cause, no Father, no Creator, m incomprehensible Wisdom, but that every Nature bad been alike eternal; and Man more rational than every other Nature; Why had not the eternal reason of Man, provided for his eternal Being in the World? For, if all were equal, why not equal praditions to all? Why should Heavenly bodies live for ever, and the bodies of Men

Again, who was it that appointed the Earth to keep the Centre, and gave order that it

some efficient cause, by which it is bounded. Now, for Nature; As by the ambiguity of this name, the School of Aristotle hath buth commended many errors unto us, and fought also thereby to obscure the glory of the high Moderator of all things, shining in the Creation, and in the governing of the World; of the best definition be taken out of the second of Aristotle's Physicks, or primo de Coelo, or out of the fifth of his Metaphyficks, I say, that the best is but nominal, and serving onely to difference the beginning of Natural motion from Artificial: which yet the Acade micks open better; when they call it, A Seminary strength, infused into matter by the Soul of the World; who give the first place to Providence, the second to Fate, and but the third to Nature. Providentia (by which they understand GOD) Dux & Caput; Fatum, medium ex providentia prodiens; Natura postremum. But be it what h will, or be it any of these (God excepted) or participating of all; yet that it had choice or understanding (both which are necessarily in the cause of all things) no man hab avoned. For this is unanswerable of Lactantius, Is autem facit aliquid, qui aut voluntatem faciendi habet, aut scientiam; He onely can be said to be the doer of a thing, that hath either will or knowledg in the doing ir.

But the will and science of Nature, are in these words truly express d by Ficinus: Potest ubique Natura, vel per diversa media, vel ex diversis materiis, diversa sacere; sublata vero mediorum materiarumque diversitate, vel unicum, vel similimum ope ratur, neque potest quando adest materia non operari; It is the power of Na ture by diverfity of means, or out of diverfity of matter, to produce divers things: but taking away the divertity of means, and the divertity of matter, it then works but one or the like work; neither can it but work, matter being present. Now, Nature made choice of diversity of matter, to work all these variable works of Heaven and Earth, it had then both understanding and will; it had counsel to begin; reason to distrole; wertue and knowledg to finish, and power to govern; without which, all things had been but one and the same; all of the matter of Heaven; or all of the matter of Earth, And, if we grant Nature this will, and this understanding, this counsel, this reason, and nower; Cur natura potius quam Deus nominetur? Why should we then call such a Last delira Dei cause rather Nature, than God? God, of whom all men have notion, and give the first and highest place to divine power: Omnes homines notionem deorum habent, omnesque fummum locum divino cuidam numini assignant. And this I say, in short, that it is a wine 3.7.22. true effect of true reason in man (were there no authority more binding than reason) to acknowledg and adore the first and most sublime power. Vera Philosophia, est ascensus ab his quæ fiuunt, & oriuntur, & occidunt, ad ea quæ vere funt, & semper eadem: True Philosophy is an ascending from the things which flow, and rife, and fall, to the things that are for ever the fame.

For the rest; I do also account it not the meanest, but an impiety, monstrous, to confound God and Nature; be it but in tearms. For it is God, that onely disposeth of all things according to his own will, and maketh of one Earth, veffels of honour and dishonour: It is Nature that can dispose of nothing, but according to the will of the matter wherein it worketh. It is God that commandeth all; it is Nature that is obedient to all. It is God that doth good unto all, knowing and loving the good he doth. It is Nature that secondarily doth also good, but it neither knoweth, nor loveth the good it doth. It is God, that hath all things in bimself; Nature nothing in it self. It is God which is the Father, and hath begotten all things; it is Nature which is begotten by all things, in which it liveth and laboureth; for by it self it existeth not. For, shall we say, that it is out of assection to the Earth, that heavy things fall towards it? Shall we call it Reason, which doth conduct every River into the salt Sea? Shall we tearm it knowledg in Fire, that makes it to consume combustible matter? If it be Affection, Reason, and Knowledg in these; by the same Affection, Reason, and Knowledg it is, that Nature worketh. And therefore, seeing all things work as they do (call it by Form, or Nature, or by what you please) yet, because they work by an impulsion, which they cannot resist; or by a faculty, insused by the supremest power; we are neither to wonder at, nor to worship, the faculty that worketh, nor the Creature wherein it worketh. But herein lies the wonder; and to him is the worship due, who hath treated such a Nature in things, and such a faculty, as neither knowing it self, the matter wherein it worketh, nor the vertue and power which it hath; doth yet work all things to their last and uttermost persection. And therefore every reasonable man, taking to himself for a ground that which is granted by all Antiquity, and by all men truly learned that ever the World had, to wit; That there is a power Infinite, and eternal (which also neußity doth prove unto us, without the help of Faith and Reason; without the sorée of Authority) all things do as eafily follow which have been delivered by divine Letters, as the waters of a running River do successively persue each other from the sirst sountains.

Thus much, I fay, it is, that Reason it self hath taught us; and this is the beginning hwwledg. Sapientia præcedit, Religio seguitur; quia prius est Deum scire, con-tall 1 s.c. 18 equens colere; Sapience goes before, Religion follows; because it is first to know God, and ben to worship him. This Sapience, Plato calleth absoluti boni scientiam, The Science of the absolute good: And another, Scientiam rerum primarum, sempiternarum, perpetuarum. For Faith (faith Ifidore) is not extorted by violence; but by reason and examples persuaded: Fides nequaquam vi extorquetur, sed ratione & exemplis suadetur. I confest it, That to enquire further, as of the Essence of God, of his Power, of his Art, and by what mean he created the World; Or of his secret judgment, and the causes, is not an affect of Reason; Sed cum ratione infaniunt; but they grow mad with reason, that enquire after it: For, as it is no shame nor dishonour (saith a French Author) de saire arrest au but qu'on nasceu surpasser; For a man to rest bimself there, where he finds it impossible topass on further: so whatsoever is beyond, and out of the reach of true reason, it acknowledgeth it to be so; as understanding it self not to be infinite, but according to the Name and Nature it bath, to be a Teacher, that best knows the end of his own Art. For, seeing both Reason and Necessity teach us (Reason, which is pars divini spiritus in corpus humenter 2 frientitie manum merfi) that the World was made by a Power infinite; and yet how it was made, it entitle manum merfi) that the World was made by a Power infinite; and yet how it was made, it cannot teach us: and feeing the same Reason and Necessity make us know, that the same infinite Power is every where in the World; and yet how every where it cannot inform us: our belief hereof is not weakned, but greatly strengthned by our ignorance, because it is the Same Reason that tells us, That such a Nature cannot be said to be God, that can be in all conceived by Man.

I have been already over-long, to make any large Discourse, either of the parts of the sollowing Story, or in mine owne excuse; especially in the excuse of this or that passage; seeing the whole is exceeding weak and defective. Among the groffest, the unsutable division of the Books, I could not know how to excuse, had I not been directed to enlarge the building after the foundation was laid, and the first Part finished. All men know, that there is no great Art in the dividing evenly of those things, which are subject to number and measure. For the rest, it suits well enough with a great many Books of this Age, which speak too much, and yet say little, ipsi nobis furto subducimur; We are stollen away from our selves, fetting a high price on all that is our own. But hereof, though a late good Writer, make complaint, yet shall it not lay hold on me, because I believe as he doth; That who so thinks bimself the wifest man, is but a poor and miserable Ignorant. Those that are the best mend Warr, against all the vanities and fooleries of the World, do always keep the strongest guards against themselves, to defend them from their selves; from self-love, self-estimation, and Generally, concerning the order of the Work, I have only taken counsel from the Argufelf-opinion. ment. For of the Assyrians, which after the down-fall of Babel take up the first Part, and were the first great Kings of the World, there came little to the view of Posterity; some feet enterprises, greater in Fame than Faith, of Ninus and Semiramis, excepted.

It was the Story of the Hebrews, of all before Olympiads, that overcame the confuming disease of Time, and preserved it self from the very Cradle and Beginning to this day; andy not so entire, but that the large Discourses thereof (to which, in many Scriptures, we are no ferred) are no where found. The Fragments of other Stories, with the Actions of those King and Princes which shot up here and there in the same Time, I am driven to relate by way digression; of which we may say with Virgit:

The Preface.

Apparent rari nantes in gurgite vasto; They appear here and there, floting in the great gulf of Time.

To the same first Ages do belong the report of many Inventions therein found, and from them derived to us; though most of the Authors Names have perished in so long a Navigation. For those Ages had their Laws; they had their diversity of Government; they had Kingly rule; Nobility; Policy in Warr; Navigation, and all, or the most of needful Trades. To beak therefore of these (seeing in a general History we should have left a great deal of Nakedneß by their omission) it cannot properly be called a digression. True it is, that I have also made many others; which, if they shall be laid to my charge, I must cast the fault into the great heap of humane error. For, seeing we digress in the ways of our lives; year seeing the life of Man is nothing else but digression; I may the better be excused, in writing their lives and actions. I am not altogether ignorant in the Laws of History, and of the kinds.

The same hath been taught by many, but by no man better, and with greater brevity. than by that excellent learned Gentleman, Sir Francis Bacon. Christian Laws are also taught us by the Prophets and Apostles; and every day preach'd unto us. But we still make large digressions; yea, the Teachers themselves do not (in all) keep the path which they point out to others.

For the rest, after such time as the Persians had wrested the Empire from the Chaldwans, and had raifed a great Monarchy, producing actions of more importance than were elsewhere to be found: it was agreeable to the Order of Story, to attend this Empire; whilest it so flourished, that the affairs of the Nations adjoining had reference thereunto. The like observance was to be used towards the Fortunes of Greece, when they again began to get ground upon the Persians; as also towards the affairs of Rome, when the Romans grew more mighty than the Greeks.

As for the Medes, the Macedonians, the Sicilians, the Carthaginians, and other Nations, who refished the beginnings of the former Empire, and afterwards became but parts of their composition and enlargement: it seemed best to remember what was known of them from their several beginnings, in such times and places as they in their slourishing estates opposed those Monarchies, which in the end swallowed them up. And herein I have sollowed the best Geographers; who seldom give names to those small Brooks; whereof many joined together, make great Rivers; till such time as they become united, and run in main stream to the Ocean Sea. If the Phrase be weak, and the Style not every where like it self; the first shews their legitimation and true Parent; the second will excuse it self upon the Variety of Matter. For Virgil, who wrote his Eclogues, gracili avena, used stronger pipes, when he sounded the wars Eneas. It may also be laid to my charge, that I use divers Hebrew words in my first book, and elsewhere in which language others may think, and my self acknowledgett, that am altogether ignorant; but it is true, that some of them I find in Montanus, others in atine Characters in S. Senensis; and of the rest I have borrowed the interpretation of some my friends. But say, I had been beholding to neither, yet were it not to be wondred at, wing had an eleven years leifure to attain the knowledg of that, or of any other Tongue;

Howsoever, Iknow that it will be said by many, That I might have been more pleasing to the Reader, if I had written the Story of mine own Times, having been permitted to draw water as near the Well-head as another. To this I answer, That whosever in writing a modern History, Ball follow Truth too near the beels, it may haply frike out his teeth. There is no Mistress or Guide that bath led her followers and servants into greater miseries. He that goes after her too far off, loseth her sight, and loseth himself; and he that walks after her at a middle distance; I know not whether I should call that kind of course, Temper, or Baseness. It is true, that I never travelled after mens Opinions, when I might have made the best use of them; and I have now too few days remaining, to imitate those, that either out of extreme ambition, or extreme cowardife, or both, do yet (when Death bath them on his shoulders) flatter the World, between the Bed and the Grave. It is enough for me (being in that state I am) to write of the eldest Times; wherein also, why may it not be said, that in speaking of the past, I point at the present, and tax the Vices of those that are yet living, in their persons that are long since dead; and have it laid to my charge? But this I cannot help, though innocent. And certainly, if there be any, that finding themselves spotted like the Tigers of old time, shall find fault with me for painting them over anew, they shall therein accuse

For, I protest before the Majesty of God, that I malice no man under the Sun. Impossible themselves justly, and me fally. I know it is, to please all; seeing few or none are so pleased with themselves, or so assured themselves, by reason of their subjection to their private passions, but that they seem divers pafons in one and the same day. Seneca bath said it, and so do I: Unus mihi pro populo erat: and to the same effect, Epicurus, Hoc ego non multis, sed tibi; (or as it bath fince lamentably fallen out) I may borrow the resolution of an antient Philosopher, Satiselt unus, Satis est nullus. For it was for the service of that inestimable Prince, Henry, the successive hope, and one of the greatest of the Christian World, that I undertook this Work. I pleased him to peruse some part thereof, and to pardon what was amiss. It is now left to the World without a Master; from which, all that is presented, hath received both blows and thanks: Eadem probamus, eadem reprehendimus: hic exitus est onnis judicii, in quo lis secundum plures datur. But these Discourses are idle. I know, that as the date ritable will judg charitably; so against those, qui gloriantur in malitia, my present advasity bath disarmed me. I am on the ground already; and therefore have not farr to fall; and for rifing again, as in the Natural privation, there is no recession to babit; so it is selden feen in the privation politick. Ido therefore forbear to stile my Readers, Gentle, Courteous, and Friendly, thereby to beg their good Opinions, or to promife a second and third Volume (which I also intend) if the first receive grace and good acceptance. For that which is already done, may be thought enough; and too much: and it is certain, let us claw it Reader with never to many courteous Phrases, yet shall we evermore be thought soils, the write foolighly. For conclusion, all the hope I have, lies in this, That I have already found more ungentle and uncourteous Readers of my Love towards them, and well-deferving of the than ever I shall do again. For had it been otherwise; I should hardly have had this light HT bod on the west years he to have made my self a Fool in Print.

THE OFTHE OFTHE

Intreating of the Beginning and first Ages of the same, from the CREATION UNTO ABRAHAM.

The FIRST BOOK.

CHAP. L.

Of the Creation, and Preservation of the World.

§. I.

That the Invisible God is seen in his Creatures.

niverfal Nature, which cannot be defined. In these motions, their Almighty Maker. the glorious Lights of Heaven, we perceive a

OD, whom the wifeft making existent the World universal, by the men acknowledg to be absolute Art of his own Word, his Power a Power uneffable, and and Almightiness; which Power, Light, Ver-Vertue infinite, a Light tue, Wisdom, and Goodness, being all but by abundant clarity in- Attributes of one simple Essence, and one visible; an Understand- God, we in all admire, and in part discern ing which it felf can per speculum creaturarum, that is, in the dispoonely comprehend; an Effence eternal and spiritual, of absolute pureness and simplicity; was, and is pleased to make himself known by the Work of the World; in the worders and magnitude; which in their worders are made and simplified and spiritual. wonderful magnitude whereof (all which he imbraceth, filleth, and fulfaineth) we behold the Image of that glory which cannot be measured, and withall, that one, and yet universely live and the imbraceth filleth. The measured is the measured of the measured in the measur

In these more then wonderful works, God shadow of his divine Countenance; in his (faith * Hugo) speaketh unto man: and it is * Hugo fits * Hug merciful provision for all that live, his mani- true, that these be those discourses of God, Homil. 8. fold goodness: and lastly, in creating and whose effects, those that live, witness in them-

Mor. Herm. according to * S. Gregory, Omnis bomo eo iplo que falte sint queque sint & gubernantur, ob-Tal. 1. quad rationalis conditus est, ex issa ratione, il- servatione & collatione; velex issues to service the property of the property of the condition of th ingentian.

The wind of the condition of the common of the control of the common of th o not of Every man, in that he is reasonable out of the parts of fame reason may know, that he which made or beginning (faith Montanus) but either by Not. His immerification may know, that he which made the observing and conferring of things which fat, omits the observing and conferring of things, which fat, omits the observing to the Fathers. Does he hath or doth create and govern or alle (flut, omnia minis Job) which is according to the Fathers, Dohe hath, or doth create and govern; or elfe mifelan minationem illius conspicere in creaturis, To by the word of God himself.

his omia dicens him in his providence by his creatures. per ounid discern him in his providence by his creatures. in omnibus. That God hath been otherwise seen, to wit, Apparenta with corporal eyes, exceedeth the small proportion of my understanding, grounded on these places of S. John and S. Paul, Te have not apparitio heard his voice at any time neither have ye seen his shape. And again, Whom never man saw. Joh. 5 3. nor can see.

And this I am sure agrees with the nature Ongent 2. of Gods simplicity, of which S. Augustine, Ipfa க்றிழ்ஒன் enim natura, vel substantia, vel quolibet alio noe. 23. mine appellandum eft, id ipsum quod Deus eft, cyril. o mine appenantum ep., to typum invo sens ep., linean an those who are intered by 5. Magn. peniloberts in corporaliter videri non potest. That nature, or fline, Summi Fhilosophi, Philosophers of high- or in corporaliter videri non potest. That nature, or fline, Summi Fhilosophi, Philosophers of high- or in corporaliter videri non potest. That nature, or is considered that full flance, or by what loever name that is est judgment and understanding. Mercurius with Greg. Nat. to be called which is God, whatfoever that be, the same cannot be corporally perceived. And of this opinion were Origen, Cyril, Chryso-Aug. 1. 2. stom, Gregory Nazianzene, Hierom, Augustine, de Trin. Gregorythe great, Evariftus, Alcuinus, Dionysius Gree, Mag. Areopagita, Aquinas, and all others of authori-L. 18. Mor. ty. But by his own Word, and by this visible Ever ep.1 World, is God perceived of men; which is Decret. WOTIG, is God perfect anguage of the Almighde Trin. ty, vouchsafed to all his Creatures, whose Hie-16. D. roglyphical Characters are the unnumbred cal Hie Stars, the Sun and Moon; written on these yar. Thosa, darge Volumes of the Firmament: written al-p. 1, q 11. c fo on the Earth and the Seas, by the letters of of one fire. alibi. Deus all those living creatures, and plants, which qui natura introduction inhabit and refide therein. Therefore faid en us vi that learned Culanus, Mundus universus nihil fibilisus possessin, dind est, quam Deus explicatus; The World posse seri, universal is nothing else but God exprest. And omnia Jupiter summus, deinde in lumen graopus few universalis nothings of God (faith S. Paul) are tum emift, ex facro corde operans cogitata of tum emift, ex facro corde operans cogitata of tum emift. Of which I conceive this fende; following feen by the creation of the World, being committee in the conceive this fende; nighten. fidered in his creatures. Of all which, there When great Jupiter had hidden all things in as per cere was no other cause preceding then his own himself, working out of the love of his sared tum feire- Will, no other matter then his own Power, no tur, o ille other Workman then his own Word, no o-Deux annui-um efferre ther confideration then hisown infinite good-derein, ness. The example and pattern of these his Creatures, as he beheld the same in all eterreput. as to be the Father and Creator of all things; culan. de it at length in the most wise order, by his ungen illus. changed Will moved, by his high Wisson disposed, and by his Almighty Power perfeditioned, and by his Almighty Power perfeditions. Red, and made visible. And therefore (faith Mirandula) we ought to love God, ex fide, & felves; the sensible in their sensible natures; ation: Neque enim qui causa caret,ex causa & "Gra, in the reasonable, in their reasonable fouls: for, origine siri, cognosciq; potest, sed vel ex rerum,

6. II.

That the wifest of the Heathen, whose authority is not to be despised, have acknowledged the World to have been created by God.

His work and creation of the World. did most of the antient and learned Philosophers acknowledg, though by divers terms, and in a different manner exprest; I mean all those who are intitled by S. Augu-Pernal Trismegistus calleth God, Principium univerforum, The original of the Universal; to whom he giveth also the attributes of Mens, Natura. Aclus, Necessitas, Finis, & Renovatio. And wherein he truely with S. Paul, casteth upon God all power; confessing also, that the World was made by Gods Almighty Word, and not by hands : Verbo, non manibus, fabricatus est mundus. Zoroaster (whom Heraclitus followed in opinion) took the word Fire to express God by (as in Deuteronomy, and in S. Halls Paul it is used) Omnia ex uno igne genita sunt, All things (faith he) are caused or produced out

So did Orpheus plainly teach, that the World had beginning in time, from the Will of the most high God; whose remarkable words are thus converted; Cum abscondisset heart, he sent thence, or brought forth, into grateful light, the admirable works which he had fore-thought.

Pindarus the Poet, and one of the wifest, acknowledged also one God, the most High, Unus Deus, Pater, Creator summus, Plato calland reason of the universal; Totius rerum via natura, causa, & origo Deus. But hereof more at large hereafter.

Now, although the curiofity of some men Word, and by the effects of the Worlds Cre- have found it superfluous; to remember the opinions of Philosophers in matters of Divinity: (it being true, that the Scripture hath not want of any forrain testimony) yet as the Fathers, with others excellently learned, are my examples herein; so S. Paul himself did not despise, but thought it lawful and profi-table, to remember whatsoever he found agreeable to the word of God among the Heathen, that he might thereby take from them all escape, by way of of ignorance, God rendring vengeance to them that know him not: as in the Epistle to Titus he citeth Epimenides against the Cretians, and to the Corinthians, Menander; and in the seventeenth of the Acts. Aratus &r. For, Truth (faith S. Ambrofe) by whomsoever uttered, is of the holy Ghost; that is, Thou hast made the world of a matter Veritas à quocunque dicatur, à Spiritu sancto without form; which matter thou madest of eft: and lastly, let those kind of men learn nothing, and being made, it was little other this rule ; Que sacris serviunt, prophana non funt; Nothing is prophane, that serveth to the use of holy things.

5. III.

Of the meaning of In Principio, Genef. 1. 1.

This visible world of which Moses writeth, God created in the beginning, or first of all: in which (faith Tertullian) things began to be. This word Beginning (in which the Hein the Jews Targum is converted by the word Sapientia) cannot be referred to fuccession of time, nor to order, as some men have conceived, both which are subsequent: but only to Creation then. For before that Beginning, there was neither primary Matter to be informed, nor Form to inform, nor any Being, but the Eternal. Nature was not, nor the next Parent of Time begotten, Time properly and naturally taken: for if God had but disposed of Matter already in being, then as the word Beginning could not be referred to all things, fo must it follow, that the institution of Matter proceded from a greater power, then that of God. And by what name shall we then call fuch an One (faith Lactantius) as exceedeth God in potency: for it is an act of more excellency to make, then to dispose of things made? whereupon it may be concluded, that Matter could not be before this Beginning: except we fain a double creation, or allow of two Powers, and both infinite; the impoffibility whereof scorneth defence. Namimpossibile est plura esse infinita : quoniam alterum effet in altero finitum; There cannot be more Inone: eyes in astero pristing, there cannot so mil. limit, finities then one: for one of them would limit the other.

did e e e e V bler e e skiple gelgiet e e de ke e V bler e e skiple gelgiet e e e

§. IV.

of the meaning of the words Heaven and Earth, Genef. 2. 1.

He Universal matter of the world (which Moses comprehendeth under the names of Heaven and Earth) is by divers diverfly understood; for there are that conceive, that by those words was meant the first matter, as the Peripateticks understand it; to which S: Augustine and Isidore seem to adhere, Fecisti mundum (faith S. Augustine) de materia informi ; quam fecisti de nulla re, pene nullam rem : then nothing.

But this potential and imaginary materia prima, cannot exist without form. Peter Lombard, the Schoolmen, Beda, Lyranus, Comestor, Toftatus, and others affirm that it pleased God first of all to create the Empyrean Heaven: which at the succeeding instant (faith Beda and Strabo) he filled with Angels. This Em- Beda Hes. pyrean Heaven Steuchius Engubynus calleth Strabo fupyrean rieaven stements Engaging Called Per Gen.

Divine clarity and uncreated: an errour, for Eng. Cof. which he is sharply charged by Pererius, or denat. though (as I conceive) he rather failed in the in corp. brews seek some hidden mystery, and which subsequent, when he made it to be a place, and the feat of Angels and just Souls, then in the former affirmation; for of the first, That God liveth in eternal Light, it is written, My Pf. 104.122 foul, praise thou the Lord, that covereth himself Clania diwith light: and in the Revelation, And the vina non est City hath no need of the Sun, neither of the fed sapien-Moon to Shine in it: for the glory of God did tia Dei, non light it. And herein also John Mercer upon nata, Apoc, Genesis, differeth not in opinion from Eugu- 21. 23. bynus: for as by Heaven created in the be- Gen. 7. 7. ginning, was not meant the invisible or supercelestial; so in his judgment, because it was in all eternity the glorious feat of God himfelf, it was not necessary to be created; Quem Mundum Super-colestem meo judicio creari (faith Mercer) non erat necesse.

But as Moses forbare to speak of Angels, and of things invisible and incorporate, for the weakness of their capacities, whom he then cared to inform of those things which were most manifest, (to wit) that God did not only by a strong hand deliver them from the bondage of Egypt, according to his promile made to their forefathers; but also that he created, and was the fole cause of this aspectable, and perceivable Universal: fo on the other side I dare not think, that any supercelestial Heaven, or whatsoever else (not himself) was increate and eternal; and as for ex effectibus (that is) both perfwaded by his

the finite wisdom of mortal men hath no perception of it, neither can it limit the feat of infinite power, no more then infinite power it self can be limited: for his place is in Himfelf, whom no magnitude else can contain: Bar. 3. 14, How great is the house of God (faith Baruch) how bath no end, it is high and unmeasurable.

But leaving multiplicity of opinion, it is more probable and allowed, that by the words Heaven and Earth, was meant the folid matter and substance, as well of all the Heathe Earth and Waters, which covered it over, (to wit) that very matter of all things, Materia, Chaos, pollibilitas, five posse fieri. Which matter (faith Calvin) was fo called, quod totius mundi semen fuerit; Because it was the feed of the Universal: an opinion of antient Philosophers long before.

6. V.

That the substance of the Waters, as mixt in the body of the earth, is by Moses understood in the word Earth: and that the Earth, by the attributes of unformed and void, is described as the Chaos of the antient Heathen.

prest: and by the name of Earth and Waters, given to the Earth, while it was consused; all was meant, whatloever is under the norto the Heavens, before they had motion, Moon, and subject to alteration. Corrupt and adornment. God fam that it mas good, that feeds bring forth corrupt plants; to which the is, made perfect for perfection is that to which pure heavens are not subject, though subject nothing is wanting. Et perfett Dei perfett a fant Plio. 26, to perishing. They shall perish (saith David) and the heavens shall vanish away like smoak, faith Efay. Neither were the waters the matter of Earth; for it is written, Let the maters under the heavens be gathered into one place. and let the dry land appear: which proveth, that the dry land was mixt and covered with the waters and not yet distinguished; but no way, that the waters were the matter or feed of the Earth, much less of the Universal. Ini-Ph. 104.6. tio tu, Domine, terram fundafti, Thou, O Lord, in the beginning hast founded the Earth: and again, The Earth was covered with the Deep (meaning with waters) as with a garment, faith the place of God before the world created, David. And if by natural arguments it may be proved, that water by condensation may become earth, the same reason teacheth us also, that earth rarified may become water: water, air: air, fire: and lo on the contrary.

Deus ignis substantiam per aerem in aquam convertit, God turneth the substance of fire by air large is the place of his possession; it is great, and intowater. For the Heavens and the Earth were created, as touching their substance, though there was afterwards added multiplicity of perfection, in respect of beauty and ornament. Cælum verd & terra in statu creati- Gal 1 vens, and Orbsfupernal, as of the Globe of onis remanserunt quantum ad substantiam, licet 600. multiplex perfectio decoris & ornatus eis postmodum superaddita est. And the word which the Hebrews call Maim, is not to be underftood according to the Latine translation fimply, and as specifical water; but the same more properly fignifieth liquor. For (according to Montanus) Est autem Maim liquor ge- A. Ma minus. & hoc nomen propter verborum penuri- de un am, Latina lingua plurali numero Aquas fecit; For Maim (faith he) is a double liquor (that is, of divers natures) and this name or word the Latines, wanting a voice to expressit, call it in the Plural, Aquas, Waters.

This Mais, or indigested matter, or Chaos, created in the beginning, was without form, that is, without the proper form, which it af-Moles first nameth Heaven and Earth terwards acquired, when the Spirit of God (putting waters but in the third place) had separated the Earth, and digested it from as comprehending waters in the word Earth; the Waters. And the Earth was word, that is, call but afterwards he nameth them apart, when not producing any creatures, or adorned God by his Spirit began to diffinguish the with any plants, fruits, or flowers. But after confused Mass, and (as Bask saith) Preparare the Spirit of God had moved upon the waters, naturam aque ad fecunditatem vitalem 5 To and wrought this indigested matter into that prepare the nature of water to a vital fruit- form, which it now retaineth; then did the earth bud forth the herb, which feedeth feed, and For under the word Heaven, was the mat- the fruitful tree according to his kind, and God ter of all heavenly bodies, and natures ex- fam that it mas good; which attribute was not opera; The works of the perfect God, are perfect.

From this lump of imperfect Matter had the antient Poets their invention of Demogorgon; Hesiodus and Anaxagoras the knowledg of that Chaos: of which ovid; Ante Mare, & Terras, & (quod tegit omnia) 11.1.

Cælum,

Unus crat toto natura vultus in Orbe, Quem dixêre Chaos, rudis indigestaque moles. Before the Sea and Land was made, and Heaven, that all doth hide,

In all the World one onely face of Nature did abide: Which Chaos hight, a huge rude heap.

6. VI.

How it is to be understood, that the Spirit of God moved upon the waters; and that this is not to be fearched curioufly.

Athen void and without form, the Spirit past finding out. O righteous Father, the world of God moved upon the Waters. The seventy Interpreters ule the word superfereba-tur, moved upon or over: incubabat or soout of a Syrian Doctor; Equidem non meam tibi, sed viri cujusdam syri sententiam recensebo (faith Bafil:) which words incubare or fovere, importing warmth, hatching, or quickning, have a special likeness. Verbum translatum est ab avibus pullitici suæ incubantibus, quamvis spirituali, & plane inenarrabili, non autem corporali modo; The word is taken of birds hatching their young, not corporally, but in a spiritual and unexpressible manner. Some of the Hebrews convert it to this effect, Spiritus Dei volitabat; The Spirit of God didflutter: the Chaldean Paraphrast in this sense, Ventus à conspectu Dei sufflabat : or, as other understand the Chaldean, Flabat, pellebat, removebat : The wind from the face of God did blow under, drive, or remove, or did Plat 147. blow upon; according to the 147. Plalm. He caused his wind to blow, and the waters increase: but there was yet no wind nor exhala-Ar. Mont, tion. Arias Montanus in these words, Et Spiph.in cof. ritus Elohim Meracheset, id est, efficaciter motitans, confovens, ac agitans super facies gemini liquoris; The Spirit of God effectually and often moving, keeping warm, and cherishing, quickning and stirring upon the face of this double liquor. For he maketh four originals, whereof three are agents, and the last passive and material, to wit, Causa, which is the di-Mr. Mont. vine Goodness . Jehi, which is, fiat, five erit, nura, pag. Let it be, or, It shall be. Que vox verbo dei prima prolata fuit: Which voice (saith he) was the first that was uttered by the Word of God. The third, Spiritus Elohim, the Spirit of God, id est, Vis quædam divina, agilis ac præsens, per omnia pertingens, omnia complens; that is, A certain divine power, or strength every where active and extending, and stretching through all, filling and finishing all things. The fourth he calleth Maim, id est, Materies ad omnem rem conficiendam habilis; Matter apt to becom everything. For my felf, I am refolved (Cum Deus sit super rationale omni ratione; Seeing God is in all reason above reason) that although the effects which follow his wonderful waies of working, may in a measure be perceived by mans understanding, yet mee maketh Animammundi, The foul of the the manner and first operation of his divine power, cannot be conceived by any mind, or spirit, compassed with a mortal body. Animalis homo que Dei sunt non percipit : For my thoughts (faith the Lord in Efay) are not Efa. 55. 8. your thoughts, neither are your waies my waies. And as the world hath not known God him-Fter the Creation of Heaven and Earth, self: fo are his waies (according to S. Panl) hath not known thee, faith Christ. And therefore, whether that motion, vitality, and operation, were by incubation or how elfe, the vebat (faith Hierome) out of Basit; and Basit manner is onely known to God. Quomodo in omnibus sit rebus vel per essentiam, vel per potentiam, intellectus nofter non capit; For how God (faith S. Augustine, speaking of his Ubi-Trest. 16, quity) is in all things, either by essence, pre-motion sense, or power, our understanding cannot com- 17.25. prehend. Nihil inter Deum hominemque distaret, si consilia, & dispositiones illius Majestatis Lat. in aterna, cogitatio assequeretur humana: There would be no difference between God and man; if man's understanding could conceive the counsels and disposing of that eternal Majesty; and therefore to be over-curious in fearching how the all-powerful Word of God wrought in the Creation of the World, or his all-piercing and operative spirit distinguishing gave form to the Matter of the Universal, is a labour and fearch like unto his, who not contented with a known and fafe Foord, will presume to pass over the greatest River in all parts, where he is ignorant of their depths:

for fo doth the one lose his life, and the other his understanding. We behold the Sun, and enjoy his light, as long as we look towards it, but tenderly, and circumspectly: we warm

our selves safely, while we stand neer the fire;

but if we feek to out-face the one, to enter into the other, we forthwith become blind

or burnt. But to eschew curiofity: this is true, that the English word (moved) is most proper and fignificant: for of motion proceedeth all production, and all whatfoever is effected. And this omnipotent Spirit of God, which may indeed be truly called, Principium motus, and with Mirandula, Vis cause efficientis. The force of the efficient cause; S. Augustine sometimes taketh for the Holy Ghoft: fometimes for a wind or breath, Sub nomine Spiritus, under the name of a Spirit, which is sometimes so taken: or for virtualis creatura. For a created virtuality: Tertullian and Theodoret call it also a breath or wind : Mercurius nameth it. Spiritum tenuem intelligibilem, A pure or thin intelligible Spirit: Anaxagoras, Mentem : Toftatus Voluntatem & mentem Dei . The will and mind of God; which Mens, Plato in Ti-calleth it the Law of Heaven; in his Epistles, The Leader of things to come, and the presence of things palt. But as Cyprian wrote of the incarnation of Christ our Saviour, Mens deficit, vox filet, & non mea tantum, sed etiam Angelorum ; My mind faileth, my voice is filent, and not mine onely, but even the voice of Angels: fo may all men else say in the understanding and utterance of the waies and works of the Creation; for to him (faith Nazianzenus) there is not one substance by which he is, and another, by which he can, sed confubstantiale illi eft, quicquid ejus eft, & quicquid eft; Whatfoever attribute of him there is, and whatfoever he is, it is the very same substance that him-

But the Spirit of God which moved upon wind, nor for any other creature, separate living Creatures. from the infinite active power of God, which then formed and diffinguished, and which now fustaineth and giveth continuance to the Universal. For the Spirit of the Lord filleth all the world; and the same is it which maintaineth all things, faith Solomon. If thou fend forth thy Spirit (faith David) they are created: And Gregory, Deus suo prasentiali esse, dat omnibus rebus esse, ita quòd si se rebus subtraheret, sicut de nihilo facta sunt omnia, sic in nihilum defluerent universa; God giveth being to all things, by being present with all things, so then as of nothing the world was made, it would Virgil hath exprest excellently:

Principio Cœlum ac Terras, camposque liquentes, Virg. E- Lucenténiq, globum Luna, Titaniaq, aftra, Spiritus intus alit : totamq; infusa per artus, Mens agitat molem. & magno se corpore miscet.

The Heaven, and Earth, and all the liquid

The Moon's bright Globe, and Stars Tita-

A Spirit within maintains: and their whole

A mind, which through each part infus'd doth pais,

Fashions, and works, and wholly doth transpierce

All this great Body of the Universe.

And this was the same Spirit, which moved in the Universal, and thereby both diral motion; motion brought forth heat; and called the Chaos, or material substance of world: and in his fixth Book de Republica, he | heat rarifaction, and fubtilty of parts. By this Spirit (which gave heat and motion, and thereby, operation to every nature, while it moved upon the waters, which were in one fuperiour, as lighter then the waters; through whose vast, open, subtile, Diaphanick, or transparent body, the light, afterwards created might eafily transpierce: Light for the excellency thereof being the first creature which God called good, whose creation immediately followed. This Spirit Chrysoftom calleth a vital Operation, Aquis à Deo insetam, ex qua aque non solum motionem, sed & vimprocreandi animalia habuerint. He calleth it, A vital Operation given by Godunto the waters, whereby the waters had not onely mothe waters, cannot be taken for a breath or tion, but also power to procreate or bring forth

s. VII.

Of the Light created, as the material substance of the Sun, and of the nature of it, and difficulty of knowledg of it: and of the excellency and use of it: and of motion, and heat annexed unto it.

Hele Waters were afterwards congregated, and called the Sea: and this Light afterwards (in the fourth day) gatheas if he should withdraw himself from them, red and united, and called the Sun, the Organ and Instrument of created light. For again fall away and vanish into nothing. And this first and dispersed light did not (as I conthis working of Gods Spirit in all things, ceive) diftinguish the night from the day, but with a reference to the Suns creation, and the uniting of the dispersed light therein. This is proved by these words, Let there be Gen. 1.14 lights in the Firmament, to separate the day from the night: which lights in the Firmament of Heaven, were also made for signes, and for feafons, and for daies, and for years, implying a motion instantly to follow, by which, days and years are diftinguished; after which succeeded Time, or together with which, that Time (which was the measure of motion) began. For that space of the first three days which preceded the Suns creation, or formal perfection, when as yet there was not any motion to be measured, and the Day named in the fifth Verse; was but such a space, as afterwards by the Suns motion made a civil or natural day. And as Waters were the matter of Aire, of the firmament, ftinguished and adorned it. His spirit hath and of the lower and upper waters, and of garnified the Heavens; faith Job. So then the seas, and Creatures therein; Earth, the Spirit of God moved upon the waters, and matter of Beafts, Plants, Minerals, and Mans created in them their spirituality, and natu- body: so may Light (for expression sake) be the Sun, and other lights of heaven: How- ons of Beda, Hugo, Lombard, Lyranus, and obeit, neither the Sun, nor any thing fenfible, thers: fo is his own judgment herein, as berg needs is that light it felf, Quæ caufa eft lucidorum, weak as any mans; and most of the Schoolmen which is the caufe that things are lightfone men were rather curious in the nature of moved upon the waters, which were in one of indigefred lump, and Chaos, difpoied to all offing and in the nature of the same of the luminateth the Moon, by whom the neight then discoverers of any thing hidden, either 4.0 bouring Region (which the Greeks call A. in Philosophy or Divinity: of whom it may ther, the place of the supposed Element of be truly said, Nihil sapientia odiosius acumine fire) is effected and qualified, and by it all nimio; Nothing is more odious to true wifbodies living in this our ayr. For this light dom, then too accute sharpness. Neither hath Avicenna calleth Vehiculum & fomentum omnium colestium virtutum, & impressionum: The conducter, and preserver, or nourisher of all brought forth and devoured) resolved us. celestial virtues and impressions, nothing defcending of heavenly influences, but by the medium, or means of light. Arifietle calleth because then it could neither pierce the ayr, light a quality, inherent or cleaving to a Di- nor those hard, solid, and Diaphanous bodies, aphanous body, Lumen eft qualitas inhærens which it doth; and yet every day we fee the Diaphano: but this may be better avouched ayr illightned: Incorporal it cannot be, beof the heat, which it transporteth and bring- cause it sometime affecteth the fight of the eth with it, or conducteth: which heat (fay eye with offence, and therefore by most of Min 1b. the Platonicks) Abeunte lumine residet in sub- the Fathers so esteemed. Others say (as Pajecto, The light being departed, doth reside in tricius) that it cannot be matter, because no the subject, as warmth in the ayr, though the form so excellent as it self to inform it: neifame be deprived of light. This light Plotinus ther can it be any accident, which is not feand all the Academicks make incorporal, and fo doth Montanus, Cui nec duritia relistit, nec spatium : Which neither hardness resisteth, nor Space leaveth.

> of light; but it is but by way of repetition of these, lucid or bright, dark or opake, Dia imperois M. de fait. other mens opinions, faith Picolomineus. De- phanous or transparent; but darkness cannot plens fais mocritus, Leucippus, and Epicurus, give mate- be parent of light; and things Diaphanous tembris aliriality to light it felf, but improperly: for it (being neither light nor darkness, but capamalicity at an infrant from the Heaven to the ble of either learners by the ble of either learners. ranky to ngut it iest, but improperly: 101 h ble of either) cannot be the cause of either, remarks be of either, cannot be the cause of either, remarks be and therefore must the matter, or form, or behavioral therefore must be matter, or form, or behavioral therefore must be matter. cause it passeth through the solid body of both, be lucid and shining. Lucid and shi event six glass, or other Crystalline matter; and whereas it is withstood by unclean and unpure therefore if we derive this being of light in or laearthy substances, less hard, and more easie to from a former, then would the progress go on mine or 100 invade then the former, the same is, 200d infinitely and against nature; and therefore metric perobstaculum natura terreum atq; sordidum, non he concludeth, that light in the Sun hath his sed. so. capit candidam luminis puritatem; Because an being primarily, and immediately of it self, ex. 71. obstacle by nature earthy and soul, doth not and is therefore the Suns form, and the form receive the pure clearness of light: alluding to of all lucid and shining bodies: but what is that most divine Light, which onely shineth taught hereby, let others judge. on those minds, which are purged from all worldly drofs, and humane uncleannefs.

taught thereby. Thomas Aquinas (not inferi-

the length of time, and the search of many learned men, (which the same time hath whether this light be fubstantial, corporal, or incorporal: Corporal they fay it cannot be, parable without the destruction of the subject: for light being taken from the Sun, the Lucidator-Sun is no more the Sun in existence. Second-pora funt ly, if light were proceeding from matter and plena fua Ariftotle findeth corporality in the beams form, then either, or both must be one of mitteteris

But in my understanding, Lumen (which may be Englished by the word shine) is an But of this created light, there is no agreement in opinion 3, neither do I marvel at it, Englished by Light; and so, this shining which for it cannot be found either in the Fathers, proceedeth from the Sun, or other lights of Philotophers, or School-men, or other anti-Heaven, or from any other light, is an Image, ent or latter Writers, that any of them underftood either it or themselves therein: all tional Species may be understood by exammen (to cast off ignorance) have disputed ple of a red or green colour, occasioned by thereof, but there is no man that hath been the shining of the Sun through red or green our to any in wit) as he hath flewed little cast upon any thing opposite; which redness frength of argument in refuting the opini- or other colour, we call the intentional Spe-

Снар.

what way is the Light parted, and where is the may where Light dwelleth? we thereby know, that the nature thereof falleth not under mans understanding; and therefore let it fuffice, that by Gods grace we enjoy the effects thereof. For this light is of the treasure do invisibili; in mundo visibili umbræ rerum:

Things themselves are in the invisible World;

in the world visible, but their shadows. Surely.

if this Light be not spiritual, yet it approach-eth neerest unto spirituality; and if it have any corporality, then of all other the most fubtile and pure; for howfoever, it is of all things feen, the most beautiful, and of the fwiftest motion, of all other the most necesfary and beneficial. For it ministreth unto men, and other creatures, all celestial influences; it diffipateth those sad thoughts and forrows, which the darkness both begetteth and maintaineth; it discovereth unto us the glorious works of God, and carrieth up with an Angelical swiftness, our eyes unto Heaven, that by the fight thereof, our minds being informed of his visible marvels, may continually travel to furmount these perceived

Heavens, and to find out their omnipotent rebus creatis; Our knowledg doth not quiet it tera mundi membra digna sint laudibus, cum suam bonitatem & decorem omnibus communi-cet; It is the Light (Saith Saint Ambrose) that maketh the other parts of the world so worthy of praise, sceing that it self communicateth its goodness and beauty unto all. Of which, Ovid

Cause and Creator. Cognitio non quiescit in Filis of God (faith Efdras:) And those which inha- Eft.

dro) certainly is not a mind, but the cause that properly for the waters above the ayr, or in the mind hath his being; nor spirit, but the the uppermost region of the same.

cause by which every spirit is; nor light, but the cause by which the light existeth.

gies of the colour in that glass. And again, as this light, touching his simple nature, is no way yet understood: so it is disputed, whether this light first created, be the same which the Sun inholdeth and cafteth forth, or whether it had continuance any longer than till the Suns creation.

bite the Heavens, do onely know the Essence . 6.0 But by the most wise and unchanged orthereof. Nihilignotum in calo, nihil notum in Him. der, which God observed in the works of the terra: Nothing unknown in Heaven, nothing World, I gather, that the Light, in the first perfectly known on Earth. Res veræ funt in munday created, was the substance of the Sun: for Mofes repeateth twice the main parts of the Universal: first, as they were created in matter; fecondly, as they were adorned with form: first, naming the Heavens, the Earth, the Waters, all confused; and afterward the Waters congregated, the Earth made dry Land; and the Heavens distinguished from both, and beautified. And therefore the Earth, as it was earth, before it was uncovered, and before it was called Arida, or dry Land; and the Waters were waters, before they were congregated and called the Sea, though neither of them perfect, or inriched with their virtual forms: So the Sun although it had not its formal perfection, his circle, beauty, and bounded magnitude, till the fourth day, yet was the substance thereof in the first day (under the name of Light) created; and this Light formerly dispersed, was in the same fourth day united, and set in the Firmament of Heaven: for, to Light created in the first day God gave no proper place or fixation; and therefore the effects felf in things created. Et ipfa lux facit, ut canamed by Anticipation (which was to separate day from night) were precisely performed after this Light was congregated and had obtained life and motion. Neither did the wisdome of God find cause why it should move (by which motion, days and nights are distinguished) till then: because there was not yet any Creature produced, to which, by moving, the Sun might give light, heat, and operation.

But after the Earth (distinguished from Waters) began to bud forth the bud of the herb &c. God caused the Sun to move, and (by interchange of time) to visite every part of the inferiour World; by his heat to stir up the fire of generation, and to give actiquemadme vity to the feeds of all natures : For, as a dum Rex King, which commandeth fome goodly builer. Pro ding to be erected, doth accommodate the cop. in Gen. fame to that use and end, to which it was ordained; so it pleased God (saith Procopius) to command the Light to be; which by his all-powerful Word he approved, and approving it, disposed thereof, to the use and comfort of his future Creatures.

But in that it pleased God to ask of Job, By out of Orpheus: Ille ego sum, qui longum metior annum, Omnia qui video, per quem videt omnia

Mundi oculus. The world discerns it self, while I the World behold,

By me the longest years, and other times are told,

I the worlds eye.

Lastly, If we may behold in any creature, any one spark of that eternal fire, or any far-off dawning of Gods glorious brightness, the same in the beauty, motion, and virtue of this Light, may be perceived. Therefore was God called Lux ipfa; and the Light, by Hermes, named Lux fancta; and Christ our Saviour said to be that Light which lightneth e- 3th very man that cometh into the world. Yet in

6. VIII.

Of the Firmament, and of the waters above the Firmament: and whether there be any Crystalline Heaven, or any Primum mobile.

ded, and those of the Earth and Sea.

respect of Gods incomprehensible sublimity, and Æsher, then for the heavens, as the and purity, this is also true, that God is neibest Hebricians understand them, Quo suprether a mind, nor a Spirit of the nature of o- ma ac tenuia ab infimis crassis diducta, interther Spirits; nor a light, such as can be di- sett aque distarent, for that whereby the supreme scerned. Deus profecto non mens est, at vero and thin bodies were placed in distance, being ut lit mens causa est; nec spiritus, sed causa severed and cut off from low and gross matters: qua firitus extat; nec lumen, sed causa qua and the waters above the firmament, exprest lumen existit: God (saith Hermes in Poeman- in the word Majim, are in that tongue taken

And that the word Heaven is used for the con. 45. Ayr, the Scriptures every where witness; as 25. So then the Mass and Chaos being first cre- in the blessings of Joseph, and in the 104. ated, void, dark, and unformed, was by the Pfalm: * By these springs shall the foul of the * rfal. operative Spirit of God, pierced and quick-ned; and the Waters, having now received rahit rained brimflone and fire out of the Heat-14. Co. Spirit and motion, resolved their thinner ven; and in Isaacs bleffing to Jacob; God 17.18. parts into Ayr, which God illightned: the give thee therefore of the dew of Heaven: and Job 38 29, Earth allo by being contiguat, and mixt with in Deuteronomy the 11. But the land whither Manh. 6. waters (participating the same divine virtue) you go to possess it, is a land that drinketh mater brought forth the bud of the herb that feed- of the rayne of Heaven; and in Job, Who hath eth feed, &c. And for a mean and organ, ingendred the frosts of Heaven ? and in S. Matby which this operative virtue might be them, Behold the Fowls of Heaven, for they fow continued, God appointed the Light to be not. So as in all the Scriptures of the Old united, and gave it also motion and heat, Testament throughout, is the word Heaven which heat caused a continuance of those se- very oft used for Ayr, and taken also hyperverall species, which the Earth (being made | bolically for any great Height, as, Let us Gen. 11.4. fruitful by the Spirit) produced, and with buildus a Tower, whose top may reach to Heamotion begat the time and times succeeding. | ven &c. And in this very place Basil avoucheth, that this appellation of Heaven for the Firmament, is but by way of similitude: his own words be thefe; Et vocavit Deus firmamentum cœlum. Hac appellatio alii quidem propriè accommodatur, buic autem nunc ad similitudinem; And God called the firmament Heaven: This appellation (faith Basil) is pro-A Fter that the Spirit of God had moved perly applied to another (that is to the Starry Heaven) but to this (that is, to the firmament God faid, Let there be a Firmament in the mid- dividing the waters) it is imposed by similitude. dest of the waters, and let it separate the waters | And if there were no other proof, that by from the waters: that is, those waters which the Firmament was meant the Ayr, and not by rarifaction and evaporation were ascen- the Heaven, the words of Moses in the eighth verse, conferred with the same word Firma-But these waters, separate above this Ex- ment in the twentieth verse, make it manitension, which the Latine Translation calleth fest: for in the eighth verseit is written, firmamentum, or expansum (for so Vatablus, that God called the Firmament, which divi-Pagninus, and Junius turn it) are not the Cry- ded waters from waters, Heaven; and in the stalline Heavens created in the imaginations twentieth verse he calleth the Firmament of of men; which opinion Basilius Magnus call- Heaven, Ayr; in these words, And let the eth a childish supposition, making in the same Fowl five upon the earth in the open sirmament place many learned arguments against this of Heaven. And what use there should be of infancie. For the waters above the firma- this ycie, or crystalline, or waterie Heaven, I ment, are the waters in the ayr above us, conceive not, except it be to moderate and where the same is more folid and condense, temper the heat, which the Primum mobile which God separated from the neather wa- would otherwise gather and increase: though ters by a firmament, that is, by an extended in very truth, infead of this help, it would distance and vast space: the words Raquia add an unmeasurable greatness of circle, (which Montanus writeth Rakiagh), and Sha- whereby the swiftness of that first Moveable majim, being indifferently taken for the hea- would exceed all possibility of belief. sed ven and for ayr, and more properly for the nemo tenetur ad impossibilia; but no man ta; cum verò tot temporibus, tot ingeniis in eius inquisitione contritis, non sit comprehensa, time, and so many wits have been worn out in the inquiry of it, it appeareth, that there is no wildom there to be had. Nam ft de una re prænecessario haberetur: If the precise knowledg of any one thing were to be had, it should necessarily follow, that the knowledg of all things were to be had. And as the Phylosophers were ignorant in Nature, and the waies of her working; so were they more curious, then knowing, in their first matter and Phisical form.

For if their first matter had any being, it were not then the first matter: for, as it is the first matter, it hath only a power of being, which it altogether leaveth, when it doth subsist.

And feeing it is neither a fubstance perfect, nor a substance inchoate, or in the way of perfection, how any other substance should thence take concrescence, it hath not been taught, neither are these forms (saith a leartentia aug nibil eft. Again how this first matter should be subjectum formarum, and passive, is hard to conceive: for to make form, which caused (to wit, to the first matter) is contrary not subsist without the other, but in a kind of rational confideration. Leaving therefore these Riddles to their Lovers, who by certain Scholastical distinctions wrest and per-

Aristotle hath laboured to prove a false eternity of the World, I think it farr fafer to af-ffirm with Saint Augustine, That all species and kinds are from God, from whom, what soever is natural proceedeth, of what kind or estimation soever; from whence are the seeds of all motions; A quo est omnis species, à quo est quicquid naturaliter est, cujuscunq, generis est, cu-juscunq; estimationis est; à quo sunt semina for-Albertus upon Dionysius.

mente 1.3. cisa scientia haberetur, omnium rerum scientia

CHAP. I

felf (which furmounteth the height of all humane reason) hath for a forcible conductor the Word of Truth, which also may be called lumen omnis rationis & intellectus; the that this supposed first Moveable, turneth it culty, any first or sole power, have therein felfe formany hundred thousand miles in an no other understanding, then such a one hath instant(seeing the Scriptures teach it not)let those that can believe mens imagination, apprehend it; for I cannot. But of these many Heavens, let the Reader that defireth fatilfaction, search Orontius; and of this waterie 40,41. e. c. and Matth. Beroaldus, in his fecond hand: forgetting in this and in all elfe, that Heaven, Basilius Magnus, in his Hexam. fol. Book and fixth chapter. For my felf, I am by the virtue of the first act, all Agents work perswaded, that the waters called, The waters above the Heavens, are but the clouds and waters engendred in the uppermost ayr.

6. IX.

A Conclusion, repeating the summ of the works in the Creation, which are reduced to three heads: The creation of matter, The forming of it, The finishing of it.

O conclude, it may be gathered out of the first Chapter of Genesis, that this was the order of the most wife God in the beginning, and when there was no other nature, or Being, but Gods incomprehensible eternity. First, he created the matter of all things: and in the first three dayes he distinguished, and gave to every nature his proper form; the form of levitie to that which afcended; to that which descended, the form of gravity: for he separated light from darknels, divided waters from waters, and gathered the waters under the firmament into one place. In the last three days, God adorned, beautified, and replenished the World: he fet in the Firmament of Heaven, the Sun, Moon, and Starrs; filled the Earth with Beafts, the Ayr with Fowl, and the Sea with Fish, giving to all that have life a power generative, thereby to continue their Species, and kinds;toCreatures vegetative and grow-6.1.14 ing, their Seeds in themselves, for he created all things, that they might have their being: and the generations of the world are preserved.

6. X

That Nature, is no Principium per se; nor Form, the giver of being: and of our ignorance how second causes should have any proportion with their effects.

Acall Nature, the beginning of motion tis knic studio subjaceret, aliquando esset inven-

ought to be held to impossibilities: and faith it | and rest, according to Aristotle, the same is which God hath infused into every creature, having no other felfe-ability, then a Clock, after it is wownd up by a mans hand, hath. Those therefore that attribute unto this fafinding it guided by the Helm and Rudder, doth ascribe some absolute virtue to the peece of wood, without all confideration of the hand that guides it, or of the judgment, which also directeth and commandeth that agunt agentia omnia quicquid agunt: for as the mind of man feeth by the Organ of the eye, heareth by the ears, and maketh choyce by the will: and therefore we attribute fight to the eye, and hearing to the ears, &c. and yet it is the mind only, that giveth ability, life, and motion to all these his instruments and Organs; fo God worketh by Angels, by the Sun, by the Starrs, by Nature or infused properties, and by men as by feveral Organs, several effects; all second causes whatsoever, being but instruments, conduits, and pipes, which carry and disperse what they have received from the head and fountain of the Universal. For as it is Gods infinite power, and everywhere-prefence (compaffing, embracing, and piercing all things) that giveth to the Sun power to draw up vapours, to be made clouds; clouds to contain rain, and rain to fall: fo all fecond and instrumental canses together with Nature it self, without that operative faculty which God gave them, would become altogether filent, virtueles, and dead: of which excellently Orpheus; Name Per te virescunt omnia, All things by thee spring minimal forth in youthful green. I enforce not these of pull things, thereby to annihilate those variable division virtues which God hath given to his creatures, animate and inanimate, to heavenly Lat. and earthly bodies, &c. for all His workes fall his in their virtues prayse him: but of the man ner how God worketh in them, or they in or with each other, which the Heathen Philosophers, and those that follow them, have taken on them to teach: I say, there is not any one among them, nor any one among us, that could ever yet conceive it, or express it, ever enrich his own understanding with any certain truth, or ever edific others (not foolish by selfe-flattery) therein. For (saith Lastantius, speaking of the wisdom of the Nd for this working-power, which we Philosophers) si facultas invenienda verita-

apparet nullam ibi esse sapientiam; If in this studie (faith he), were means to find out the Of Fate; and that the Starrs have great intruth, it had ere this bin found out : but seeing fluence: and that their operations may diit is not yet comprehended, after that so much verfly be prevented or furthered.

> Nd, as of Nature, fuch is the dispute and contention concerning Fate or Destinie, of which the opinions of those learned men that have written thereof, may be fafely received, had they not thereunto annexed and fastened an inevitable necessity, and made it more general, and univerfally powerful then it is, by giving it Dominion over the mind of man, and over his will, of which Ovid and Tuvenal:

Ratio fatum vincere nulla valet. Servis regna dabunt, captivis Fata triumphos. 7. 201.

'Gainst Fate no counsel can prevaile. Kingdoms to Slaves by Destinie, To Captives triumphs given be.

them of the Stoicks, the Pharisees, Priscillian- 4. nedAuthour)any thing, si ex ea exprimatur po- lists, the Bardisanists, and others, as Basil, An- beref. 10. gustine, and Thomas have observed: but that c. 35. Fate is an obedience of second causes to the Gent 3. which is understood to precede the form, it first, was well conceived of Hermes, and A- cap. 8. 31 puleius the Platonist. Plotinus out of the A. Ficin. in is the cause, to be subsequent to the thing stronomers calleth it a disposition from the cit. defet. acts of celestial Orbs, unchangeably workto all reason, divine and humane; only it ing in inferiour bodies, the same being also may be faid, that originally there is no other true enough, in respect of all those things difference between matter and form, then which a rational mind doth not order nor between heat and fire, of which the one can- direct. Ptolemie, Seneca, Democritus, Epicurus, Chrysippus, Empedocles, and the Stoicks, fome of them more largely, others more strictly, ascribe to Fate a binding and inevitable necessity; and that it is the same which vert the truth of all things, and by which is spoken and determined by God (quod de unoquoq; nostrum fatus est Deus) and the definite lot of all living. And certainly it cannot be doubted, but the Starrs are instruments of far greater use, then to give an obfoure light, and for men to gaze on after Sunfet: it being manifest, that the diversity of forms, and the forms of all seeds and their feafons, the Winters, and Summers, more hot and cold, are not fo uncertained by the Sun and Moon alone, who alway keep one and the same course; but that the Stars have also marum, formæ seminum, motus seminum atq; formarum. And thus much Averrois is forced And if we cannot deny, but that God hath to confess. For all forms (faith he) are, in given virtues to Springs and Fountains, to primo motore; which is also the opinion of cold Earth, to Plants and Stones, Minerals, Aristotle in the twelfth of his Metaph, and of and to the excremental parts of the basest living creatures, why should we rob the beautiful Stars of their working powers? for feeing they are many in number, and of eminent beauty and magnitude, we may not doubted. Corpora caleftia (laith Damascene) think, that in the treasury of his wisdom, who constituent in nobis habitus, complexiones, & is infinite, there can be wanting (even for e- dispositiones. The heavenly bodies (saith he) as every herb, plant, fruit, and flower adornas every nero plant, truit, and nower adorning the face of the Earth, hath the like. For further) hath undoubtedly a kind of draw-ing, as these were not created to beautifie the ing after it the affections of the mind, especiearth alone, and to cover and shadow her dufty face, but otherwise for the use of man virtues; for those of cholerick complexions and beast, to feed them and cure them; so are subject to anger, and the surious effects were not those uncountable glorious bodies thereof; by which they suffer themselves to fet in the Firmament, to no other end, then be transported, where the Mind hath not reato adorn it; but for Instruments and Organs fon to remember, that passions ought to be of his divine Providence, fo far as it hath her Vassals, not her Masters. And that they pleafed his just will to determine. Origen up-on this place of Genefit, Let there be light in folved: For all those which were created Gen. 1.151 the Firmament, &c. affirmeth, that the Starrs mortal, as birds, beafts, and the like, are left are not causes (meaning perchance binding to their natural appetites; over all which, causes;) but are as open Books, wherein are celestial bodies (as instruments and executicontained and fet down all things what soever to come; but not to be read by the eyes of humane wisdom: which latter part I believe well, and this faying of Syracides with-Ecclus. 42, all: That there are kid yet greater things then And though, for the capacity of men, we tue and piety prepared, putteth himself altothese be, and we have seen but a few of his works. most virtues of herbs and plants, which our tite; Vincitur fatum fi resssar, vincit si confelves fow and fet, and which grow under our feet, we are in effect ignorant; much it; if thou neglett, it conquereth. more in the powers and working of celestial bodies. For hardly (faith solomon) can me discern the things that are upon the Earth, and with great labour find we out those things that are before us: Who can then investigate the things that are in Heaven? Multum eft, de re-Anfolie. bus calestibus aliquid cognoscere: It is much to know a little of heavenly things. But in this question of Fate, the middle course is to be followed, that as with the Heathen we doe not bind God to his creatures, in this suppofed necessity of Destriny; so on the contrary, we do not rob those beautiful creatures of their powers and offices. For had any of these fecond causes despoiled God of his Prerogative, or had God himself constrained the mind and will of man to impious acts by any celestial inforcements, then sure the impious excuse of some, were justifiable; of whom S. Augustine, Impia perversitate in malis factis points And orem Syderum, quam commissionem fame, and weaken their operation; and drifterum; Where we reprehend them of earl stolle himself confession, that the Heavens do Aug 10. rectissime reprehendendis ingerunt accusandum spor Gen. potius shelorem Syderum, quam commissorem ad in.

6. XI.

An errour of the Chaldeans, and after Ball. Ella. their working therein.

CHAP. I.

The first Book of the first Part

then the door of the evil, is to be accused. dies incline the will by mediation of the fenconstitution and complexion, it cannot be the Fathers virtue is, and so the contrary, Pafitive appetite, which is also stirred by the ally bodies strong in humour, and weak in oners of Gods providence) have absolute dominion. What we should judge of men, who little differ from beafts, I cannot tell; for as he that contendeth against those inforcements, may easily master or resist them; so whosoever shall neglect the remedies by virgether under the power of his fenfual appe-

But that either the Stars or the Sun have any power over the minds of men immediately, it is abfurd to think, other then as aforesaid, as the same by the body's temper may be effected. Lumen solis ad generationem sensibilium corporum confert, & ad vitam ipsam movet & nutrit, & auget, & perficit: The light of the Sun (faith S. Augustine) helpeth the ge- control neration of sensible bodies, moveth them to life, il. and nourisheth, augmenteth, and perfecteth them: yet still as a Minister, not as a Master: Bonus quidem est Sol, in ministerio, non imperio, The Sun is good to serve, not to sway (faith S. Ambrose.) And S. Augustine. Deus re- und git inferiora corpora per superiora, God ruleib the bodies below by those above; but he avoucheth not, that superiour bodies have rule over mens minds, which are incorporal.

But howfoever we are by the Stars inclined at our birth, yet there are many things both in Nature and Art, that encounter the deeds, they again with wicked perverfness urge, not always work their effects in inferiour bothat rather the Author and Creator of the Stars, dies no more then the figns of rain and wind But that the Stars and other celectial bocounter-working to these inclinations. Est in an Juvencis Patrum virtus, In the young Off fring ol, trum vitia: and herein also there is often vere execution, as that there should be nemen, by an ill constellation become inclinable to vice, and of vicious men to virtue.

Egregia est soboles scelerato nata parente:

A worthy fon is born of a wicked father.

But there is nothing (after Gods referved power) that so much setteth this art of influence out of square and rule, as Education doth: for there are none in the World fo wickedly inclined, but that a religious instruction and bringing up, may fashion anew and reform them; nor any fo well disposed, whom (the reins being let loose) the continual fellowship and familiarity, and the ex- but that God (which only knoweth the opeamples of diffolute men, may not corrupt ration of his own creatures truly) hath affuand deform. Vessels will ever retain a savour red us, that there is no inclination or temptaof their first liquor : it being equally difficult tion so forcible, which our humble Prayers either to clense the mind once corrupted, or to extinguish the sweet savour of virtue first received, when the mind was yet tender, open, and eafily feafoned; but where a favourhappily arrive, or the contrary in both, thereby it is that men are found so exceeding virwere) running together and agreeing in one : without hope. for as the feeds of virtue may by the art and hulbandry of Christian counsel produce better and more beautiful fruit then the strength of Self-nature and Kind could have yielded them; fo the plants apt to grow wild, and to true God of the one, and the imaginary gods change themselves into weeds, by being set of the other, would thereby be despoiled of in a foyl futable, and like themselves, are made more unfavoury and filled with poyfon. It was therefore truly affirmed, Sapiens adjuvabit opus Astrorum, quemadmodum Agricola terra naturam; A wife man affifteth the work of the Stars, as the Husbandman helpeth the nature of the foyl. And Ptolemy himself con-fesseth thus much, Sapiens, & omina sapientis Medici, dominabuntur Astris; A wise man and the ominous art of a wife Physician shall prevail against the Stars. Lastly, we ought all to know, that God created the Stars, as he did the rest of the Universal; whose influences may be called his referved and unwritten Laws. But let us confider how they bind: even as the Laws of men do; for although the Kings and Princes of the World have by their Laws decreed, that a Thief and a Murderer shall suffer death; and though their Ordinances are daily by Judges and Magistrates (the Stars of Kings) executed accordingly; yet these Laws do not deprive Kings of their natural or religious compassion, or bind them without prerogative, to such a se-found an enterchange; the Sons of virtuous thing left of liberty to judgment, power, or conscience: the Law in his own nature, being no other then a deaf Tyrant. But feeing that it is otherwise, and that Princes (who ought to imitate God in all they can) do fometimes for causes to themselves known, and by mediation, pardon offences both against others and themselves; it were then impious to take that power and liberty from God himself, which his Substitutes enjoy; God being mercy, goodness, and charity it felf. Otherwise that example of Prayer by our Saviour taught; And let us not be led into Mat. 6.13. temptation, but deliver us from evil, had been no other but an expence of words and time; and Defires may not make frustrate and break afunder: for were it (as the Stoicks conceive) that Fate or Destiny, though depending upon eternal power, yet being once able constellation (allowing that the Stars ordered and disposed, had such a connexion incline the will) and a virtuous education do and immutable dependency, that God himfelf should in a kind have shut up himself therein; How miserable then were the condituous or vicious, Heaven and Earth (as it | tion of men (faith S. Augustine) left altogether

And if this strength of the Stars were fo transferred, as that God had quitted unto them all dominion over his creatures; be he all worship, reverence, or respect.

And certainly, God which hath promifed us the reward of well-doing, which Christ himself claimed at the hands of the Father, (I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do:) and the same God, who hath threatned unto us the forrow and torment of offences, could not, contrary to his merciful nature, be founjust, as to bind us inevitably to the Destinies or Influences of the Stars, or subject our souls to any imposed necessity. But it was well faid of Plotinus, that the Stars were fignificant, but not efficient, giving them yet something less then their due: and therefore as I do not consent with them, who would make those glorious creatures of God virtueless: so I think that we derogate from His eternal and absolute power and providence, to ascribe to them the same dominion over our immortal fouls, which they have over all bodily substances, and perishable natures: for the Souls of men loving and fearing God, receive influence from that divine light it felf, whereof the Suns clarity, and that of the Stars, is by Plato called but a shadow. Plat pol 6. Lumen est umbra Dei, Deus est lumen luminis; Light is the shadow of Gods brightness, who is the light of light: But to end this question, because this Destiny, together with Providence, Prescience, and Predestination, are often confounded, I think it not impertinent to touch the difference in a word or two; for every man hath not observed it, though all learned men have.

CHAP. I.

14

6. XII.

of Prescience.

Rescience, or fore-knowledg (which the Greeks call Prognosis, the Latines pracognitio, or prescientia) considered in order and nature (if we may speak of God after the manner of men) goeth before Providence: for God fore-knew all things, before he had created them, or before they had being to be Apostles assure us hereof; and besides the cared for; and Prescience is no other then Scriptures, Hermes, Orpheus, Emripides, Pythaan infallible fore-knowledg. For what foever goras, Plato, Plotinus, and (in effect) all learnour felves fore-know, except the same be to ed men acknowledg the Providence of God; fucceed accordingly, it cannot be true that we fore-know it. But this Prescience of God therein, as they refuse not to accompany and (as it is Prescience onely) is not the cause of visit each other in the most pestilent diseases, any thing futurely succeeding: neither doth nor shun any peril whatsoever, though death Gods fore-knowledge impose any necessity, therein do manifestly present it self. or bind. For in that we fore-know that the Sun will rife, and fet; that all men born in the World shall die again; that after Winter, ticular, as I shall need to repeat but a few of the Spring shall come; after the Spring, Sommer, and Harvest; and that according to the feveral feeds that we fow, we shall reap feveral forts of grain; yet is not our fore-knowledg the cause of this, or any of these: neither doth the knowledg in us bind or con- Joung Raven that cries: All these wait upon are otherwise manifest and known to all. The eth (faith God to Eliah) and I have commandeye of man (faith Boetius) beholdeth those things Subject to fense, as they are; the eye feeth that fuch a beaft is an horse, it seeth men, trees, and houses, &c. but our seeing of them (as they are) is not the cause of their so being, for such they evenirent ex necessitate, pramia bonorum, G. pæna malorum periret; Divine Providence (faith lie) imposeth no necessity upon things that are to exist; for if all come to pass of necessity, there (bould neither be reward of good, nor punishment of evil.

6. XIII.

of Frovidence.

Ow Providence (which the Greeks call Pronoia) is an intellectual knowledg, both fore-feeing, caring for, and ordering all things, and doth not onely behold all paft, all present, and all to come, but is the cause of their fo being, which Prescience (simply taken) is not: and therefore Providence by the Philosophers (saith S. Augustine) is divided into Memory, Knowledge, and Care: Memory of the past; Knowledg of the prefent; and Care of the future: and we our selves account such a man for provident, as, remembring things past, and observing things present, can by judgment, and comparing the one with the other, provide for the future, and times fucceeding. That fuch a thing there is as Providence, the Scriptures every where teach us; Moses in many places, the Prophets in their Predictions, Christ himself and his yea the Turks themselves are so consident

The places of Scripture proving Providence, are so many, both in general and parthem in this place: Sing unto God (faith David) which covereth the Heavens with clouds, Pfalia and prepareth rain for the earth, and maketh 8. the grass to grow upon the Mountains, which giveth the beafts their food, and feedeth the ther doth the knowledg in us ding or con- joung Raven that cries: All these wast noon frain the Sun to rise and set, or men to die; thee that thou mayest give them food in due sea- 27,9,0 for the causes (as men perswade themselves) on: And thou shalt drink of the River Chear-14,15 ed the Ravens to feed thee there. Behold, the I Reg !!! Forels of the Air, they fow not, nor reap, and yet your heavenly Father feedeth them : Again, Luketh Are not two Sparrows fold for a farthing? and 6,7. one of them shall not fall on the ground without be in their own natures. And again out of the your Father: yea, all the hairs of your head are fame Author; Divina providentia rebus gene-randis non impanti recollinatem ania li camaia. randis non imponit necessitatem, quia si omnia him, for be careth for you: And his judgments passis de are written, faith David.

God therefore, who is every where prefent, Who filleth the Heavens and the Earth, Just whose eyes are upon the righteous, and his countenance against them that do evil, was therefore by Orpheus called oculus infinitus, an infinite eye, beholding all things; and cannot therefore be esteemed as an idle looker on, as if he had transferred his power to any o- Destinare, of praparare; and of the same opiand all livings, for their young ones. If Pro- rans, cur non videat, rationem videt; He that vidence be found in second Fathers, much seeth no reason in the actions of God, by consider more in the first and Universal: and if there ration of his own insirmity, perceiveth the reabe a natural loving care in men, and beafts, son of his blindness. And again, with S. Auguginning, and is the bond of the Universal: Amor divinus rerum omnium est principium. vinculum universi (saith Plato:) Amor Dei est nodus perpetuus, mundi copula, partiumque ejus immobile sustentaculum, ac universa machine fundamentum; The love of God is the perpetual knot, and link or chain of the world. and the immovable pillar of every part thereof. and the Basis and foundation of the Universal. God therefore who could onely be the cause of all, can onely provide for all, and fultain all; so as, to absolute power; to every where 1 Joh. 4.1. presence; to perfect goodness; to pure and divine love; this attribute transcendent ha-bility of Providence is onely proper and belonging.

S. XIV.

Of Predestination.

Ow for Predeftination, we can differcareth for, and hath respect to all creatures, perly, in the common use of Divines; or perthe Devil; for according to Nonins Marcellus, whereof Athenaus:

ther; for it is contrary to his own word, Glo-nion are many Protestant Writers, as Calvin, Cal. inc 9. eso 41. 8. riam meam alteri non dabo, I will not give my Beza, Bucanus, Danaus, and such like : and de Rom, glory to another. No man commandeth in the as for the manifold questions hereof arising, see, in Kings presence, but by the Kings direction; I leave them to the Divines; and why it hath myen and, but Cod is every where present and King of pleased God to create some vessels of her incore. but God is every where prefent, and King of pleafed God to create some vessels of ho-ad king. Kings. The example of Gods universal Pro- nour, and some of dishonour, I will answer Domental Pro-Kings. The example of Gods universal Providence is feen in his creatures. The Father with Gregory, who faith, 2ni in fact is Dei rades Salat. provideth for his children: beafts and birds tionem non videt, infirmitatem suam consider Job 9. much more in God, who hath formed this fine, Occulta effe causa potest, injuste effe on Polin est. notice that the subject to nature, and whose Divine love was the be- potest; Hidden the cause of his Predestination 59. may be, unjust it cannot be.

§. XV.

Of Fortune: and of the reason of somethings that seem to be by Fortune, and against Reason and Providence. Aftly, feeing Destiny or Necessity is sub-

_fequent to Gods Providence, and feeing that the Starrs have no other dominion, then is before spoken and that Nature is nothing, but, as Plato calleth it, Dei artem, vel artificiolum Dei Organum. The art, or artificial Organ of God: and Culanus, Divini pracepti instrumentum; The instrument of the divine precept: we may then with better reason reject that kind of Idolatry, or God of fools, called, Fortune or Chance; a Goddess, the most reverenced, and the most reviled of all other, but not antient: for Homer maketh her the Daughter of Oceanus, as Paulanias witneffeth enceit no otherwife, from Providence in his Messeniacks. The Greeks call her Toylor, and Prescience, then in this; that Prescience signifying a relative being, or betiding, so as onely fore-feeth; Providence fore-feeth and | before Homers time this great Ladywas scarce heard of; and Hesiodus, who hath taught even from the brightest Angels of Heaven to the birth and beginning of all these counthe unworthiest Worms of the Earth: and terfeit gods, hath not a word of Fortune; yet de Perind Predestination (as it is used specially by Diagrams of the grew so great and omnipotent, as vines) is onely of men, and yet not of all to men belonging has of the first of the men belonging, but of their falvation pro- Cottages, she ordered all things; resilting the Paliorette perly, in the common rule of Divines; or per-dition, as fome have used it. Yet reter Lom-bard Thomas. Permanental in the folly of often bard, Thomas, Bernensis Theologus, and others, the most foolish, by making the success pro-thanges of take the word Predestination more strictly, sperous: insomuch as the actions of men were tune, is and for a preparation to felicity. Divers of laid to be but the sports of Fortune, and the bid to be but the sports of Fortune, and the bid to be better. the Fathers take it more largely fometimes: variable accidents happening in mens lives, to ey among whom Saint Augustine speaking of two but her pastimes: of which Palladius, Vita ho- out upon Cities, and two Societies, uleth these words, minum ludus fortune est; The life of man is Formac, but Quarumest una, que predestinata est in ater-the play of Fortune: and because it often fall-to her a num regnare cum Deo; altera aternum supplici- eth out, that enterprises guided by ill coun. Vette of um subjection Deby after a everyum supplier-etti out, that enterprises guided by in country and subject to those by the best Etchilus, is predestinated to assess the supplier to the supplie is predestinated to reign for ever with God, but judgment conducted, therefore had Fortune with the other is to undergo everlasting torment with the same external figure with Sapience; dem mit the same external figure with Sapience; dem mit

Longi simè

CHAP. II.

Longissime à Sapientia Fors dissidet. Sed multa perficit tamen simillima:

From Wisedom Fortune differs far, And yet in works most like they are.

But I will forbear to be curious in that, which (as it is commonly understood) is nothing else but a power imaginary, to which the fuccesses of human actions and endevours were for their variety ascribed; for when a manifest cause could not be given, then was it attributed to Fortune, as if there were no cause of those things, of which most men are ignorant; contrary to this true ground of Plato, Nibil est ortum sub Sole, cujus causa legitima non pracesserit; Nothing ever came to pass under the sun, of which there was not a just preceding cause. But Aquinas hath herein anfwered in one distinction, whatsoever may be objected; for many things there are (faith he) which happen, befides the intention of the Inferior, but not beliefes the intention of the Superior; Prater intentionem Inferioris, fed non prater intentionem Superioris (to wit, the ordinance of God;) and therefore (faith Te facimus Melanchilon) Quod poet e Fortunam, nos Deum appellamus; whom the Poets call Fortune, we know to be God. And that this is true, the Scripture in many places teacheth us; as in the Law of Murther, He that smiteth a man, and he die, shall die the death; and if a man hath not laid wait, but God hath offered him into his hands, then I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee. Now, where the Scripture hath these words, God hath offered him verf. 33. Proverbs the fixteenth, The lot is cast into the lap, but the whole disposition thereof is of the ordinance of God, as all things elfe; and hereof the wifer fort, and the best learned of the Philosophers were not ignorant, as Cicero of Aristotle and his Sectators, with those of Plato, and the Academicks, to this effect, That the same power which they called Animam mundi; The foul of the World, was no other then that incomprehenfible Wisdom, which we express by the name of God, governing every Being aswell in heaven as in earth; to which Wifdom and Power they fometime gave the tirle of Necessity or Fate, because it bindeth by incvirable ordinance: fome-effects there appear unto us no certain causes. To this effect speaketh S. Augustine in his questions upon Genesisthe first Book: the fame hath Scneca in his fourth of Benefits; which was also the doctrine of the Stoicks. of which Sett he was: For whatfoever (faith Sente, Le he) thou callest God, be it Nature, Fate, or For- 6.7. tune, all are but one and the same, differenced by divers terms, according as he useth, and exerciseth his power diversly.

But it may be objected, That if Fortune and Chance were not fometimes the causes of good and evil in men, but an idle voice, whereby we express success; how comes it then, that so many worthy and wise men depend upon so many unworthy and emptyheaded fools? that riches and honour are given to external men, and without kernel; and so many learned, virtuous, and valiant men wear out their lives in poor and dejected estates? In a word, there is no other inseriour, or apparent cause, beside the partiality of mans affection, but the fashioning and not fashioning of our felves according to the nature of the times wherein we live : for who foever is most able, and best sufficient to discern, and hath withal an honest and open heart and loving truth; if Princes, or those that govern, endure no other discourse then their own flatteries: then, I fay, fuch an one, whose virtue and courage forbiddeth him to be base and a dissembler, shall evermore hang under the wheel; which kind of deserving well and receiving ill, we alwayes fallly charge Fortune withal. For whosoever shall into kis hands, we say, If he hurt him by tell any great Man or Magistrate, that he is Chance: and in Deuteronomy the nineteenth, not Just; the General of an Army, that he is where the flipping of an Ax from the helve, not valiant; and great Ladies that they are whereby another is flain, was the work of not fair; fhall never be made a Counfeller, God himself; we in our phrase attribute this a Captain, or a Courtier. Neither is it sufficiaccident, to Chance or Fortune: and in ent to be wife with a wife Prince, valiant with a valiant, and just with him that is just, for such a one hath no estate in his prosperi-Lord: fo as that which feemeth most casual ty; but he must also change with the succesand subject to Fortune, is yet disposed by the for, if he be of contrary qualities; fail with the tyde of the time, and alter form and condition, as the Estate or the Estate's Master changeth: Otherwise how were it possible, witnefieth for them, gathering the opinion that the most base men, and separate from all imitable qualities, could so often attain to honour and riches, but by such an observant flavish course? These men having nothing else to value themselves by, but a counterfeit kind of wondering at other men, and by making them believe that all their vices are virtues, and all their dusty actions crystalline, have yet in all ages prospered equally with the most virtuous, if not exceeded them. For, according to Menander, Omnis instpiens, time, the fiyle ci Fortune, because of many arrogantia & plaisibus capitur, Every feel is wonne with his own pride, and others flatter- What more foolish then for him that despairs (eing applause: so as who soever will live alto- specially of the effect) to be entangled with endfuch a one is often the author of his own mifery; but best it were to follow the advice, which the Pope gave the Bishop of that age, out of Ovid, while the Arian Herefie raged:

ovid Met. Dum furor in cursu est, currenti cede surori. While fury gallops on the way, Let no man furie's gallop stay.

And if Cicero (then whom that world be-He might then have died the death of nature, one God, the Father, of whom are all thing, v. 6.6.13. sertim de effectu) litibus perpetuis implicaris fame which workethall in all.

gether out of himselfe, and study other mens less contentions? Whosoever therefore will humours, and observe them, shall never be set before him Machiavel's two marks to shoot unfortunate; and on the contrary, that man at (to wit) Riches, and Glory, must set on which prizeth truth and virtue (except the and take offa back of yron to a weak woodfeason wherein he liveth be of all these, den Bow, that it may ht both the strong and and of all forts of goodness, fruitful) shall net the feeble; for as he who first devised to add ver prosper by the possession or profession says to rowing vessels, did either so proporthereof. It is also a token of a worldly wise tion them as being fastened aloft, and toman, not to war or contend in vain against wards the head of his Mast, he might abide the nature of times wherein he liveth: for all winds and ftorms, or else he sometime or other perished by his own invention: fo that man which prizeth virtue for it selfe, and cannot endure to hoyse and strike his fayls, as the divers natures of calmes and stormes require, must cut his sayls and his cloth of mean length and breadth, and content himself with a slow and sure navigation, (to wit) a mean and free estate. But of this dispute of Fortune, and the rest, or gat not a man of more reputed Judgment) whatfoever Lords or Gods, imaginary powhad followed the counsel of his Brother ers, or causes, the wit (or rather foolishness) Quintus, Potnisset (saith Petrarch) in lectulo of man hath found out: let us resolve with fuo mori, potuisset integro cadavere sepeliri; S. Paul, who hath taught us, that there is but 1 cor. e. 8;

and been with an untorn and undiffevered bo- and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by dy buried; for, as Petrarch in the same place whom are all things, and we by him; there noteth Quid stultius quam desperantem, (pre- are diversities of operations, but God is the

CHAP. II.

Of Man's estate in his first Creation, and of God's rest.

§. I.

Of the Image of God, according to which man was first created.

"He creation of all other creatures be- | Santius his animal, mentifa; capacius alta, ing finished, the heavens adorned, and the earth replenished, God said, Let us make , man in our own Image, accordingto our likeness.

Man is the last and most admirable of Gods works to us known: Ingens miraculum Ald. homo; Man is the greatest wonder (faith Plato out of Mercurius:) Natura ardentissima artikg. ficium, The artificial work of the most ardent or fire-like nature (as faith Zoroaster) though the same be meant, not for any excellency external, but in respect of his internal form, both in the Nature, Qualities, and other Attributes thereof: in nature, because it hath an effence, immortal, and spiritual; in qualities, because the same was by God created holy and righteous in truth; in other attributes, because man was made Lord of the world, and of the creatures therein.

Deerat adhne, & quod dominari in catera prin im poset: Natus homo est.

in mortali. More holy then the rest, and understan- In locum ding more,

A living creature wants, to rule all made before:

So man began to be.

Of this Image and Similitude of God, there is much dispute among the Fathers, Schoolmen, and late Writers: Some of the Fathers conceive, that man was made after the Image of God, in respect chiefly of Empire and Dominion, as S. Chrysoftom, Ambrose, and some others: which S. Ambrose denieth to the woman in these words, Ut sicut Deus unus, ab eo fieret homo unus; & quomodo ex Deo uno omnia, faciem totius terræ: unus igitur, unum fecit, qui unitatis ejus haberet imaginem; That as God is one, one man might be made by him, and that in what manner all things are of one God, likewise of one man the whole kind should be upon the face of the whole earth: Therefore he being one, made one, that should have the Image of his unity. But whereas it is gathered out of the following words of the same Verse, that man was after the Image of God in respect of rule and power; it is written Dominamini in the plural number; and let them rule over the fish in the Sea, &c. and therefore cannot the woman be excluded. Others conceive, that Man is faid to be after the Image of God in respect of his immortal soul onely: because as God is invisible, so the soul of man is invisible; as God is immortal and incorporal, -fo is the foul of Man immortal and incorporal; and as there is but one God which governeth the world, fo but one foul which governeth the body of man; and as God is wholly in every part of the world, fo is the foul of man wholly in every part of the body: Anima est tota in toto, de tota in ding to Aristotle; though Chalcidius, and other learned men deny that doctrine; which that it is otherwise then potentially true, all prove. These and the like arguments do the Jews make (faith Toftatus) and these resemblances, between the infinite God, and the finite Man.

CHAP. II.

18

The School-men refemble the Mind or Soul of Man to God, in this respect especithree diffinct powers, or faculties (to wit) they distinguish between Imaginem Dei, and plainness and fincerity of the Scriptures: foul doth not therefore leave to be the Image racides it is written, He made them according omnia, ita ex uno bomine omne genus esset super of God; but it hath not his Similitude, except it be holy and righteous. S. Augustine also against Adimantus the Manichee affirmeth, that by fin, the perfection of this image is lost in man; and in his Retractations maintaineth the same opinion, and also affirmeth that the Similitude is more largely taken. then the Image.

But howfoever the School-men and others diftinguish, or whatsoever the Fathers conceive; fure I am, that S. Paul maketh the same fense of the Image, which Villorimus doth of the similitude, who saith: As we have born the image of the earthy, so shall we bear the i- 49. 19 mage of the heavenly; and it cannot be gathered out of the Scripture, that the words Image and similitude were used but in one sense, and in this place the better to express each other; whatfoever Lombard hath faid to the contrary. For God knows, what a multitude of meanings the wit of man imagineth to himself in the Scriptures, which neither Moses, the Prophets, or Apostles, ever conceived. Now as S. Paul useth the word (Image) for both: fo Saint James useth the word (Similitude) for both, in these words: qualibet parte; The foul is wholly in the whole Therewith bless we God even the Father, and body, and wholly in every part thereof, accortherewith curse we Men, which are made after Jass Augustine seemeth, out of a kind of elegancy in writing, to make some difference: as the Aristotelians in the world shall never where he writeth, Confitemen imaginem in e- miga ternitate, similitudinem in moribus inveniri; we confess that this image is found in eternity, but his similitude in manners, that is in the spiritual dispositions and qualities of the mind; yet thus he elsewhere speaketh plainly: Quasi verò possit esse imago aliqua, in qua similitudo son ally; because that as in the Mind there are non sit: stenim omnino similis non est. proculdubio nec imago est; As if (faith he) there could Memory, Understanding, and Will; and yet be any image, where the similitude is not: no, all thele, being of real differences, are but out of doubt, where there is no likeness, there is one Mind: foin God there are three diffinet | no image. The very words of the Text make persons, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, this most manifest, as, Let us make man in and yet but one God. They also make the our image, according to our likeness: which Image and Similitude diverse; and again, is Let us make man in our image, thathe may be like us: and in the next Verse folad Imaginem Dei; and spin into small threds lowing, God himself maketh it plain; for with subtile distinctions, many times the there he useth the word (Image) only as thus: God created the man in his image, in the image their wits being like that strong water, that of God created he him. And to take away all eateth thorow and dissolveth the purest dispute or ambiguity, in the first Verse of gold. Vittorinus also maketh the Image of the fifth Chapter, the word (Similitude) is God to be fubfiantial, but not the similitude: used again by it self, as, In the day that God Sed in substantia nomen qualitatis declarati- created Adam, in the likeness of God made be vum; A word declaring quality in the sub-fiance. Out of which words, and that which followeth, it is inferred, that as the Image new man which is renewed in knowledg after and Similitude do greatly differ, so the sinful the image of him that created him. And in 85-

to his image. Now if we may believe S. Paul stance, the image of such a nature or wherebefore Peter Lombard and other Schoolmen, in can man be faid to refemble his unexcogithat the mage and manufacture words directly in be the Prince of this World, and the Kingof a corruptible man.

2 mile de Zantein about a parts and than a franching and Will; for the Devils are also body and mind: Nulla pars in komine, que immortal, and participate those faculties, beh Gon. hominis lineament a refert (faith S. Augustine:) clude Reason, as it is the ability of Under-

Surely Cicero, who was but a Heathen, had yet a more divine understanding then these groß Hercticks: Ad similitudinem Dei propiùs accedebat humana virtus, quàm figura; The virtue which is in man (faith he) came nearer the similitude of God then the figure. For God is a spiritual substance, invisible, and most simple; God is a just God, God is Merciful, God is Charity it felf, and (in a word) Goodness it self, and none else simply good. And thus much it hath pleafed God himfelf then it is as manifest as words can make it, table power and perfectness? Certainly, not that the image and fimilitude is but the same; in Dominion alone; for the Devil is said to fee 612. one sense. For they turned the glory of the in- dom of Christ was not thereof, who was the corruptible God, to the similitude of the image true and perfect image of his Father : Neither because man hath an immortal foul, and Zanth de Zanckius laboureth to prove, that Man therein the faculties of Memory, Undernon fuerit kujusce imaginis particeps; No part ing called Damones, because scientes of know-P'a in in a man (faith he) which was not participa- ledg and fubrilty: Neither because we are ting God image for God said, Let us make man reasonable creatures, by which we are distinaccording to our own image. But the foul a- guiffied from beafts: For who have rebelled lone is not man, but the Hypoftasis or whole against God? Who have made gods of the Man compounded of body and foul. The vilest beasts, of Serpents, of Catts, of Owls. body of man (faith he) is the image of the yea, even of shameful parts, of lusts and pleaworld, and called therefore Microcosmus; but stures, but reasonable men? Yet do I not conthe Idea and exemplar of the world was first demn the opinion of S. Chrylostom and Am- of ories de in God, so that man, according to his body, brose, as touching Dominion, but that, in remust needs be the image of God. Against spect thereof, man was in some fort after the which opinion of this learned man, his own image of God, if we take Dominion, fuch as objection seemeth to me sufficient, where he it ought to be, that is, accompanied with Juallegeth that it may be faid, that Mofes spake | stice and Piety; for God did not onely make by the figure synechdocke, As when a man is man a Ruler and Governour over the Fishes called a mortal man, yet is not the whole of the Sea, the Fowls of Heaven (or of the man mortal, but the body onely: so when air) and over the Beasts of the Field; But God said, Let us make man after our image, he God gave unto man a dominion over men.he meant the foul of man, and not the body of appointed Kings to govern them, and Judges earth and dust: Maledissus qui Deitatem ad to judge them in equity. Neither do I ex-Curfed is he that referreth the Deity of God to standing. For I do not conceive that Ireneus the lineaments of mans body: Deus enim non did therefore call Man, the image of God, est humane forme particeps, neque corpus hu- because he was animal rationale onely; but manum droine (faith Philo;) God is not parthat the understood it better, with Sybilla; taker of humane form, nor humane body of the Imago mea est homo, rectam rationem habens, form divine. The Hebrew word for ittiage, is Man that is endued with right reason is said to Ifelem, which fignifieth a shadow or obscure resemble God (that is) by right reason to know refemblance: In imagine pertransit homo; and confess God his Creatour, and the same Man passeth away in a shadow. Let us then God to serve, love, and obey: and therefore know and confider, that God, who is eternal faid S. Angustine (who herein came nearer the and infinite, hath not any bodily shape or Truth) Fecit Deus hominem ad imaginem & composition; for it is both against his Nature similitudinem suam in mente; God made man and his Word; an etrour of the Anthropo- in respect of the intellect after his own image morphite, against the very essence and Ma- and similitude; and Reynerius, Homo, and babet mentem, factus eft ad imaginem Dei ; Man was made after the image of God in mind, Reyn. de or, in that he hath a mind.

9. II.

Of the Intellectual mind of man, in which there is much of the Image of God: and that this Image is much deformed by Sin.

But Mens is not taken here for anima phy-fica, according to Aristotle, which is, forma to teach us, and to make us know of himfelf. velnatura hominis, The form or nature of man; What then can be the shadow of fuch a sub- but this faculty or gift of God, called Mens;

The first Book of the first Part is taken for prima vis animi, the principal bitual in wife men, and in mad men this frength of the mind, or foul, enjur altus eft (mens) is extinguished, and not the foul; for perpetua veritatis contemplatio ; whose all, ex- mad men do live, though distract. ercife, or office, is the perpetual contemplation of truth; and therefore it is also called Intellectus divinus, intellectus contemplativus, & Pamend. anima contemplativa, A divine understanding. and an intellect or mind contemplative. Est au-De mente tem mens nostra (saith Cusanus) vis compre-1dios. h. 3. hendendi; & totum virtuale ex omnibus comprehendendi virtutibus compositum: Our intellectual mind (faith he) is a power of comprehending; even the whole, that is in this kind powerful, compounded of all the powers of comprehension: unto which Mercurius attribuwords) that he esteemeth it to be the very effence of God (which was also the errour of the Manichees, and others) and no otherwise feparate from God (faith he) then the light from the Sun: for this Mens or understand-Sen. ep. 65. ing (faith Mercurius) eft Deus in hominibus, f. o 31.f. Is God in men; or rather (and which I take to Lib 9. 6.5. be his meaning) is the image of God in man. For, as the Sun is not of the same effence or nature with the divine light, but a body illightned, and an illumination created; so is this Mens or understanding in men, not of the essence of Gods infinite understanding, but a power and faculty of our fouls the pureft; or, the lumen anima rationalis, by the true and eternal light illightned. And this Mens, others call Animam anima, The foul of the foul or, with S. Augustine, the eye of the soul, or re-

Que amorem sapientie tanquam ducem sequi-

Therefore this word being often used for the Soul giving life, is attributed abusively to mad men, when we fay that they are of a distract mind, in stead of a broken understanding: which word (Mind) we use also for Opinion, as, I am of this mind, or, that mind: and sometimes for mens conditions or virtues, as, He is of an honest mind, or, a man of a just mind: sometimes for affection, as, I do this for my mind's fake: and Ariftotle fometimes useth this word (Mens) for the phantalie, which is the strength of the imagiteth fo much (if his meaning accompany his nation: formetimes for the knowledg of principles, which we have without discourse: oftentimes for Spirits, Angels, and Intelligences: but as it is used in the proper signification, including both the understanding agent and possible, it is described to be, A pure, simple, substantial act, not depending upon matter, but having relation to that which is intelligible, as to his first object: or more at large, thus; A part or particle of the Soul, whereby it doth understand, not depending upon matter, nor needing any organ, free from passion coming from without, and apt to be differered, as, eternal from that which is mortal. Hereof excellently Mercurius ; Anima est imago mentis, mens imago Dei. Deus menti præcst, mens animæ, anima corpori; The Soul (meaning that which giveth life) is the image of this understanding, or Mens; and this (Mens) or understanding is the Image of ceptacle of Sapience and divine Knowledg, God. God is President or Ruler over this underflanding, this understanding over the Soul and this Soul over the body. This division and ditur, Which followeth after the love of sapience as her guide (saith Philo;) between which and stinction out of the Platonicks and Peripatereason; between which and the mind, called ticks, I leave to the Reader to judge of. That anima; between which and that power which Mens humana hath no need of any organ, zadd the Latines call animus, there is this diffe-Marsilius Ficinus in his ninth Book of the out. rence: Reason, is that faculty by which we Soul's immortality, laboureth to prove. Zanjudge and discourse; Anima, by which we chius doth not differ from Ficinus in words; live. Hereof it is said, Anima corpus animat, for (faith he) Ad facultatem intelligentem exid eft, vivificat; or, The foul is that which doth ercendam,non eget Mens organo ; tanquam meanimate the body, that is, giveth it life; for dio, per quod intelligat : quanquam eget objedeath is the separation of body and foul: and the same strength (saith Philo) which do in quod intuatur, & ex quo intellectionem concipiat. Hoc autem objectum sunt phantas-God the great Director hath in the World, mata, seu rerum à sensibus perceptarum simulathe same hath this Anima, or mind, or, soul in chra ad phantasiam prolata : To exercise the fa-Man. Animus, is that, by which we will and culty of understanding, the mind of man (faith make election; and to this Bafil agreeth, he) needeth no instrument, as a mean, by which which called this Mens, or divine understanding, Perspicacem anima partem, The perceiving it may understand: but it needeth an object, whereon to look, and whence to conceive the part of the mind, or, The light by which the act of understanding. This object are the phan-tasms, or the resemblances of things received foul discerneth: Dormientum mens, non anima, sopitur; & in furiosis mens extinguitur, afrom the sense, and carried to the phantasie. But nima manet : In men that fleep it is this (mens, in effect, his conclusion seemeth to carry a or) understanding, and not the mind or soul, which resteth, during which time it is but ha- contrary sense, when he maketh the Phanta-fie, in representing the object to the under-) we are made capable of this print; but chiefflanding, to be a corporal Organum; neither can it be understood to be an Organum of any thing, but of the understanding. And he addeth, that the refemblance of things in mans imagination, are to his understanding and it felf is to the faculty of understanding, as Pre. 185. the eye is to the faculty of feeing: and as this of featent, is an Organium, so that. Of this question, How and pinging is the mind in all her actions maketh use of the manit il body, and hath communion with the body, [win, id eff.] I refer the Reader to a most grave and learnvirtuiti, at ed Discourse in the last Reply of M. D. Bilson, besited:

late Bishop of Winchester, unto Henry Jacob.
wisis in Howsoever the Truth be determined, we must conclude, that it is neither in respect of reason alone, by which we discourse, nor in Jaures, alque respect of the mind it self, by which we live, mitan, nor in respect of our souls simply, by which mii, proq; we are immortal, that we are made after the infloritatis, Image of God. But most safely may we refor ratione, semble our selves to God in mente, and in refpect of that pure faculty, which is never feparate from the contemplation and love of God. Yet this is not all ; For Saint Bernard maketh a true difference between the nature and faculties of the Mind or Soul, and between the infusion of qualities, endowments and gifts of grace, wherewith it is adorned and enriched, which, being added to the nature, essence, and faculties, maketh it altogether to be after the Image of God: whose words are these, Non proptered imago Dei est.

quia sui meminit Mens, seque intelligit & dili-git (which also was the opinion of S. Augustine;) sed quia potest meminisse, intelligere, ac

diligere eum à quo facta est, (that is) The Mind

(or Mens) was not therefore the Image of God, because it remembreth, understandeth, and loveth it self; but because it can remember, understand, and love God, who created it. And that this Image may be deformed and made unprofitable, hear Basil; Homo ad Imaginem

& Similitudinem Dei factus est Peccatum verd

Imaginis hujus pulchritudinem deformavit, &

inutilem reddidit, dum animam corruptis concupiscentia affectibus immersit: Man was made after the Image and Similitude of God, but Sin corrupt concupiscence. of Immortality, nor in Reason, nor in Dominion, nor in any one of these by it self, nor in all these joyned, by any of which, or by all ly, in respect of the habit of Original righteoulness, most perfectly infused by God into the Mind and Soul of man in his first Creation. For it is not by nature, nor by her liberality, that we were printed with the feal of mind, as colours are to the fight; whence it fo Gods Image (though Reason may be said to followeth, that the imagination or phantafy be of her gift, which, joyned to the Soul, is a part of the Effential Constitution of our proper Species) but from the bountiful grace of the Lord of all goodness, who breathed life into Earth, and contrived within the Trunk of Dust and Clay, the inimitable hability of his own Piety and Righteousness.

So long therefore (for that refemblance which Dominion hath) do those that are powerful retain the Image of God, as according to his Commandments they exercise the Office or Magistracy to which they are called, and fincerely walk in the ways of God, which in the Scriptures is called, walking with God; and all other men fo long retain this Image, as they fear, love, and ferve God truly, that is, for the love of God alone, and do not bruise and deface his Seal by the weight of manifold and voluntary offences, and obstinate fins. For the unjust mind cannot be after the Image of God, feeing God is Justice it self; The bloud-thirsty hath it not, for God is Charity and Mercy it felf; Falfhood, cunning practice, and ambition, are properties of Satan; and therefore cannot dwell in one foul, together with God: and 2 cor. 6. to be short, there is no likelihood between 14. pure light and black darkness, between beauty and deformity, or between righteouf ness and reprobation. And though Nature, according to common understanding, have made us capable by the power of reason, and apt enough to receive this Image of Gods goodness, which the sensual souls of Beasts cannot perceive; yet were that aptitude natural more inclinable to follow and imbrace the false and dure-less pleasures of this Stageplay World, then to become the shadow of God by walking after him, had not the exceeding workmanship of God's Wisdom, and the liberality of his Mercy, formed eyes to our fouls, as to our bodies, which, piercing through the impurity of our flesh, behold the hath deformed the beauty of this Image, and highest Heavens, and thence bring Knowmade ii unprofitable, by drawing our minds into ledg and Object to the Mind and Soul, to contemplate the ever-during Clory, and It is not therefore (as aforefaid) by reason term-less Joy, prepared for those which retain the Image and Similitude of their Creation to the Image and Similitude of their Creation to the Image and Similitude of t tour, preserving undefiled and unrent the which we refemble, or may be called the mage of God, is created in Righteoufines, garment of the new man, which, after the Ishadow of God, though by reason and under and Holiness, as faith S. Paul. Now whereas standing, with the other faculties of the Soul, it is thought by some of the Fathers, as by S.

5 Ambrofe Augustine, with whom S. Ambrofe joyneth, away leifure) the imprisoned immortal Soul, these natural gifts:) or, the Image of God is confidered, according to supernatural gifts, which is indeed the perfection and accomblotted out, and destroyed by Sin.

22

6. III.

Of our base and frail Bodies: and that the care thereof should yield to the immortal Soul.

THE external man God formed out of the dust of the Earth, or (according to the fignification of the word, Adam) of Adathe flime of the Earth, or a mixed matter of Earth and Water. Non ex qualibet humo, fed ex ghaphar adamath (id est') ex pinguissima & mollissima: Not that God made an Image or Arias Moni, moltiffina: Not that God made an image of denal f. Statue of Clay, but out of Clay, Earth, or Duft, Cod formed and made flesh, blond, and bone, with all parts of man.

That, man was formed of Earth and Dust did Abraham acknowledg, when in humble fear he called unto God, to fave sodom: Let not my Lord now be angry, if I speak, I that am but dust and ashes: And, In these Houses of Gen. 18. 17. Clay, whose foundation is in the dust, do our fouls inhabit, according to Job. And though our own eyes do every where behold the Job 4. 27. sudden and resistless assaults of Death, and Nature affureth us by never-failing experience, and Reason by infallible demonstration, that our times upon the Earth have neither certainty nor durability; that our Bodies are but the Anvils of pain and difeafes, and our Minds the Hives of unnumbred cares, forrows, and paffions: and that (when we are most glerified) we are but those painted posts, against which Envy and Fortune direct their darts; yet such is the true unhappiness of our condition, and the dark ignorance trust to make at parting, is no other then a which covereth the eves of our understanding, that we onely prize, pamper, and exalt this Vaffal and Slave of death, and forget al- ing to fcorn, and deriding of God, his Laws together (or onely remember at our cast- and Precepts. Frustra sperant qui sic de miserithat by fin, the perfection of the Image is lost, which can neither dye with the Reprobate, and not the Image it felf: both opinions by nor perish with the mortal parts of virtuous this diffinction may be well reconciled (to men: feeing Gods justice in the one, and his wit) that the Image of God, in man, may be goodness in the other, is exercised for evertaken two wayes; for, either it is considered more, as the ever-living subjects of his reaccording to natural gifts, and confifteth ward and punishment. But when is it that we therein; namely, to have a reasonable and examine this great account? Never while we understanding nature, &c. and in this sense, have one vanity left us to spend: we plead the Image of God is more loft by fin, then the for Titles, till our breath fail us; dig for very reasonable or understanding nature &c. Riches, while our strength enableth us; exis loft, (or fin doth not abolish and take away ercise Malice, while we can revenge; and then when time hath beaten from us both youth, pleafure, and health, and that Nature namely, of divine Grace and heavenly Glory, it felf hateth the house of old age, we remember with Job, that we must go the way Job. 10 11 plishment of the natural Image; and this man- from whence we shall not return, and that our ner of fimilitude and Image of God is wholly bed is made ready for us in the dark; And then, I fay, looking over-late into the bottom of our conscience (which Pleasure and Ambition had locked up from us all our lives,) we behold therein the fearful Images of our actions past, and withal this terrible Inscription: That God will bring every work into judgment, that man hath done under the Edling

But what examples have ever moved us? what perswasions reformed us? or what math, of red Earth, or exlimo terra, out of threatnings made us afraid? we behold other mens Tragedies plaid before us, we hear what is promifed and threatned: but the World's bright glory hath put out the eyes of our minds, and these betraying lights, (with which we onely see) do neither look up towards term-less joyes, nor down towards endless forrows, till we neither know, nor can look for any thing elfe at the Worlds hands. Of which excellently Marius Victor:

> Nil hostes nil dira fames, nil denique morbi Egerunt, fuimus, qui nunc sumus; iisque periclis Tentati: nihilo meliores reddimur unquam; Sub vitiis nullo culparum fine manentes.

Difeases, famine, enemies, in us no change have wrought,

What er'ft we were, we are; still in the fame fnare caught:

No time can our corrupted manners mend; In Vice we dwell, in Sin that hath no end.

But let us not flatter our immortal Souls herein; for to neglect God all our lives, and know that we neglect him; to offend God voluntarily, and know that we offend him, casting our hopes on the Peace, which we rebellious prefumption, and (that which is the worst of all) even a contemptuous laughcordia Dei sibi blandiuntur; They hope in vain, up the Ghost, or Spirit; (which was) that his faith Bernard, which in this fort flatter them- life and foul left his body dead. And that of the Spirit of Life, which God breathed into man in his creation.

CHAP. II.

§. IV.

N this frame and carcassGod breathed the Soul: (that is) God gave a body of Earth and of corruptible matter, a Soul spiritual and incorruptible; not that God had any fuch bodily inftruments as men use, but God | solved into the same first matter, whence they breathed the Spirit of Life and Immortality into man, as he breatheth his grace daily into which God breathed into Man, shall, accor-(faith Elihu in Job) hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life: In qua sententia (saith Rabanus) vitanda est paupertas lensus carnalis, ne forte putemus Deum, velmanibus corporeis de limo formasse corpus hominis, vel faucibus aut labiis suis inspirasse in faciem formati, ut vivere possit & spiraculum vita habere: Nam & Propheta cum ait, Manus tua fecerunt me, &c. tropica hac locutione magis quam propria, (id est, juxta consuetudinem, qua solent homines operari) loquutus eft: In which sentence (faith he) the beggarliness of carnal sense is to be avoided, lest Animam, que vivificat corpus, & animat; to man: and therefore (faith Gregory Nazi-Earth, out of which it was taken; according man called Microcosmos, or the little World. 11. to Eeclesusses: And dust shall return to the Dens igitur hominem factum, velut alterum Ang. Lan. fall return to God that gave it. Neither 1s this igno totum, in terris statuit; God therefore c. 1. word (Spirit) usually otherwise taken in the placed in the Earth the man whom he had made, Scriptures, then for the foul; as when Ste- as it were another World; the great and large a, 750, Poet cried unto God: Domine, fulcipe spiri- World in the small and little World: for out of 1936. Imm menm; Lord Jesus receive my spirit: and the Earth and Dult, was formed the slesh of in S. John, And Jefus bowed his head and gave man, and therefore heavy and lumpish: the

the immortal foul of man differeth from the fouls of beafts, the manner of creation maketh it manifest: for it is written, Let the Gen. 1. 10. waters bring forth in abundance every creeping 24. 26. thing, and let the earth bring forth the living thing according to his kind, the beaft of the Earth &c. But of man it is written, Let us make man in our own Image, &c. and further, that breath of life; and the man was a living the Lord breathed in his face the breath of life, Gen. 2.7. Wherefore, as from the Water and Earth were those creatures brought forth, and thence received life; so shal they again be difwere taken but the life of breath everlasting, such as love and fear him. The Spirit of God ding to Ecclesiastes, return again to God that Ecd. 12.7.

6. V.

That man is (as it were) a little World: with a digression touching our mortality.

An, thus compounded and tormed by God, was an abstract or model, or brief Story in the Universal: in whom God concluded the Creation, and work of the World, and whom he made the last, and most excellent of his Creatures, being internally enduperhaps we foould think either that God with bo- ed with a divine understanding, by which he dily hands made mans body of slime, or breath- might contemplate, and serve his Creatour, ed with jaws or lips upon his face (being form- after whose Image he was formed, and endued that he might live, and have the Spirit of ed with the powers and faculties of Reason life: for the Prophet also when he saith; Thy and other abilities, that thereby also he rather then properly (that is) according to the custom which men use in working. Quantum off God created three forts of living natures, (to periculi his, qui Scripturas sensu corporeo le-gunt? In what danger are they that read the to Angels an intellectual, and to Beasts a sen-Scriptures in a carnal sense? By this breath sual nature, he vouchsafed unto Man, both was infused into man, both life and soul, and the intellectual of Angels, the sensitive of therefore this (Soul) the Philosophers call Beasts, and the proper rational belonging un-Which doth animate and give life to the body, lanzene) Homo est utriusque nature vinculum, 1.8.22.

The inspiration of the Almighty giveth under-Man is the bond and chain which tieth together 1.1.5.6. flanding, faith Job; and this spirit, which both Natures: and because in the little frame Gree Nor. God breathed into man, which is the reaso of man's body there is a representation of the with hominable foul of man, returneth again to God Universal, and (by allusion) a kind of parti-merculant or column that gave it, as the body returneth unto the cipation of all the pars there, therefore was creature. Earth, out of which it was taken, and the spirit quendam mindum in brevi magnum atque ex-83.84.07.

CHAP. II.

and durable; of which Ovid:

The first Book of the first Part quid. Met. Inde genus durum sumus, experiensque laborum, Et documenta damus qua simus origine nati:

From thence our Kind hard-hearted isenduring pain and care, Approving, that our bodies of a stony nature are.

His bloud, which disperseth it self by the branches of veins through all the body, may be resembled to those waters, which are carried by Brooks and Rivers over all the earth; his breath to the Air, his natural heat to the inclosed warmth which the Earth hath in it felf, which firred up by the heat of the Sun, affifteth Nature in the speedier procreation of those varieties, which the Earth bringeth forth; Our radical Moisture, Oyl, or Balfamum (whereon the natural heat feedeth and is maintained) is resembled to the fat and fertility of the Earth; the hairs of mans body, which adorns, or overshadows it, to the grass. which covereth the upper face and skin of the Earth; our generative power, to Nature, which produceth all things; our determinations, to the leight, wandring, and unstable clouds, carried every where with uncertain winds; our eyes to the light of the Sun and Moon; and the beauty of our youth, to the flowers of the Spring, which, either in a very fhort time, or with the Sun's heat, dry up and wither away, or the fierce puffs of wind blow them from the stalks; the thoughts of our mind to the motion of Angels; and our pure understanding (formerly called Mens, and intellectual Natures, which are always prefent with God; and lastly, our immortal fouls Image and Similitude. And although, in refpect of God, there is no man just, or good, or righteous (for, In Angelis deprehensa est fulfitia, Behold, He found folly in his Angels, ments of new Leaves and Flowers. faith Job); yet, with such a kind of difference, as there is between the substance and Redditur arboribus florens revirentibus atas, the shadow, there may be found a goodness in men: which God being pleased to accept, hath therefore called Man, the Image and Similitude of his own Righteousness. In this also is the little World of man compared, and made more like the Universal (man be-Arif. io. ing the measure of all things; Home off men-Met. 1. f. fara amnium rerum, faith Ariftotle and Pytha-goras) that the four Complexions resemble the four Elements, and the seven Ages of man the seven Planets; Whereof, our infanbones of his body we may compare to the cie is compared to the Moon, in which we hard Rocks and Stones, and therefore strong seem onely to live and grow, as Plants; the fecond Age to Mercurie, wherein we are taught and instructed; our third Age to Venus, the days of Love, Defire, and Vanity; the fourth to the sun, the strong, flourishing, and beautifull age of mans life; the fifth to Mars, in which we feek honour and victory, and in which our thoughts travel to ambitious ends; the fixth Age is ascribed to Jupiter, in which we begin to take accompt of our times, judge of our felves, and grow to the perfection of our understanding; the last and seventh, to Saturn, wherein our days are fad, and over-caft, and in which we find by dear and lamentable experience, and by the loss which can never be repaired, that of all our vain passions and affections past, the forrow onely abideth: Our attendants are ficknesses, and variable infirmities, and by how much the more we are accompanied with plenty, by so much the more greedily is our end desired, whom when Time hath made unsociable to others, we become a burthen to our selves: being of no other use, then to hold the riches we have from our Successors. In this time it is, when (as aforefaid) we, for the most part, and never before, prepare for our eternal habitation, which we pass on unto with many fighs, grones, and fad thoughts, and in the end, by the workmanship of death, finish the sorrowfull business of a wretched life; towards which we always travel both fleeping and waking: neither have those beloved companions of honour and riches any power at all to hold us any one day, by the glorious promise of entertainments; but by what crooked path soever we walk, the same that which always looketh upwards) to those leadeth on directly to the house of death, whose doors lie open at all hours, and to all persons. For this Tide of mans life, after it (while they are righteous) are by God him- once turneth and declineth, ever runneth felf beautified with the title of his own with a perpetual Ebb and falling Stream, but never floweth again: our Leaf once fallen, springeth no more; neither doth the Sun or the Summer adorn us again, with the gar-

Ergo non homini, quod fuit antè, redit.

To which I give this sense.

The Plants and Trees made poor and old By Winter envious, The Spring-time bounteous Covers again from shame and cold: But never man repair'd again His youth and beauty loft, Though Art, and care, and coft, Do promise Nature's help in vain.

And of which,

CATULLUS, EPIGRAM. 53. soles occidere & redire possunt : Nobis cum femel occidit brevis lux, Nox est perpetua una dormienda.

The Sun may fet and rife: But we contrariwise Sleep after our fhort light One everlasting night.

For if there were any baiting place, or reft, în the course or race of mans life, then, according to the doctrine of the Academicks, the same might also perpetually be maintainjuyce, wherein the life of Plants is preferved, increasing towards ripeness and perfection, or declining and decreasing towards rottenness and dissolution.

6. VI.

Of the free power, which man had in his first Creation, to dispose of himself.

"Hele be the mileries which our first Parents brought on all Mankind, unto whom God in his creation gave a free and unconstrained will, and on whom he bestowed the liberal choice of all things, with one onely Prohibition, to try his gratitude and obedience. God fet before him, a mortal and immortal Life, a nature celestial and terrene, and (indeed) God gave man to himfelf, to be his own Guide, his own Workman, and his own Painter, that he might frame or describe unto himself what he pleafed, and make election of his own form. tels, 15, God made man in the beginning (faith Siraci-des) and left him in the hands of his own counfel. Such was the liberality of God, and man's felicity: whereas beafts, and all other creatures reasonless, brought with them into the they first fell from the bodies of their Dams, the Nature, which they could not change; and the supernal Spirits or Angels were from the beginning, or foon after, of that condition, in which they remain in perpetual eternity. But (as aforesaid) God gave unto man all kind of Seeds and Grafts of life (to wit) the vegetative life of Plants, the fenfual of Beafts, the rational, of Man, and the intelforth fruit, agreeable to his own choice and plantation. This freedom of the first man Adam, and our first Father, was anigmatically described by Asclepius Atheniensis (saith Mirandula) in the person and Fable of Proteus, who was faid, as often as he pleased, to change his shape. To the same end were all those celebrated Metamorphoses among the Pythagoreans, and antient Poets, wherein it was fained, that men were transformed into divers shapes of beasts, thereby to shew the change of mens conditions, from Reason to Brutality, from Virtue to Vice, from Meekness to Cruelty, and from Justice to Oppression. For by the lively Image of other creaed; but as there is a continuance of motion tures did those Antients represent the variain natural living things, and as the fap and ble passions, and affections of mortal men; as by Serpents were fignified Deceivers, by doth evermore ascend or descend; so is it Lyons, Oppressors, and cruel men; by Swine, with the life of man, which is alwayes either Men given over to lust and sensuality; by Wolves, ravening, and greedy men; which also S. Matthew resembleth to false Prophets, Manh. 7. which come to you in sheeps clothing, but in- 15. wardly they are ravening Wolves: by the images of stones and stocks, foolish and ignorant Men; by Vipers, ungrateful Men; of which S. John Baptist, O ye generation of Vipers, &c.

§. VII.

Of God's ceasing to create any more: and of the cause thereof, because the Universal created was exceeding good,

N this work of Man, God finished the Creation; not that God laboured as a man, and therefore rested: for God commanded, and it was finished, Cui volnisse est fecisse; With whom, to will is to make, faith Beda. Nei- John 5. 17. ther did God so rest, that he left the World made, and the Creatures therein to themfelves: for my Father worketh to this day (faith Christ) and I work; but God rested (that is) he created no new fpecies or kinds 21, 24. of creatures, but (as aforefaid) gave unto man a power generative, and so to the rest of living creatures, to Plants and Flowers, their World (faith Lucilius), and that even when feeds in themselves; and commanded Man to multiply and fill the Earth, and the Earth and Sea to bring forth creatures according to their feveral kinds: all which being finished, God faw that his works were good; not that he foreknew not, and comprehended not the beginning and end before they were; for God made every Plant of the field before it was in the Earth; but he gave to all things which he had created the name of Good, lectual of Angels; whereof which foever thereby to teach men, that from fo good he took pleasure to plant and cultive, the a God there was nothing made, but that same should futurely grow in him, and bring which was perfect good, and from whose fimple fimple purity and from fo excellent a cause | mans heart, was the Earth afterward cursed. there could proceed no impure or imperfect and all creatures of the first Age destroyed. effect. For man having a free will and liberal but the righteous man Noah and his Family, choice, purchased by disobedience his own with those creatures which the Ark containdeath and mortality; and for the cruelty of ed, referved by God to replenish the Earth.

26

CHAP. III.

Of the place of Paradife.

That the feat of Paradise is greatly mistaken: and that it is no marvel that men should erre.

Oncerning the first Habitation of man, | they were men; Et humanum est errare. And out all regard of the Worlds Geography, the way how to find out and judg, in what Region of the World this Garden was by God planted, wherein he was exceeding respejudgments, understood one place for anogetteth a thousand Children, if the licenti- upon our salvation depended not. oulness thereof be not timely restrained. And thirdly, those Writers which gave themfelves to follow and imitate others, were in all things fo observant Sectators of those Masters, whom they admired and believed in, as they thought it fafer to condemn their own understanding, then to examine theirs. led and persmaded. And it is true, that many those four Rivers Fifon, Gekon, Hiddekel, and of the Fathers were far wide from the under- | Perath, the Tree of Life, and the Tree of Know-

we read, that the Lord God planted a to the end that no man should be proud of Garden Eastward in Eden, and there he himself, GOD hath distributed unto men put the man whom he made, Gen. 2.6. Of this such a proportion of Knowledg, as the wisest feat and place of Paradife, all Ages have held may behold in themselves their own weakdispute; and the opinions and judgments ness: Nulli unquam dedit omnia Deus; God have been in effect, as divers, among those never gave the knowledg of all things to any that have written upon this part of Genesis, one. Saint Paul confess d that he knew not, 2011. as upon any one place therein, feeming most whether he were taken up into the third " obscure: Somethere are, that have conceiv- Heaven in the slesh, or out of the slesh; ed the being of the terrestrial Paradise, with- and Christ himself acknowledgeth thus much, that neither Men, nor Angels knew of Man and without any respect of the East and the latter day; and therefore, seeing know-36 West, or any consideration of the place ledg is infinite, it is God (according to S. where Moses wrote, and from whence he | Jude) who is only wise. Sapientia ubi inve- Jula directed (by the quarters of the Heavens) nitur, (faith Job) But where is wisdom found ? 71.1. and where is the place of understanding? Man 11,15 knoweth not the price thereof, for it is not 4.1% found in the Land of the living. And therefore tive and precise. Others, by being them- seeing God found folly in his Angels, mens felves ignorant in the Hebrew, followed the judgments (which inhabit in houses of Clay) first Interpretation; or trusting to their own eannot be without their mistakings: and so the Fathers, and other learned men, excuther; and one Errour is fo fruitful, as it be- fable in particulars, especially in those where-

9. II.

A recital of strange Opinions touching Paradife.

Ow touching Paradife, first it is to be Ow touching Paradife, first it is to be enquired, Whether there were a Para-For (faith Vadianus in his Epistle of Paradise) dise, or no? or whether Moses description Magnos errores, magnorum virorum authori- were altogether mystical, and allegorical? tate perfual, transmittimus; We pass over ma- as Origen, Philo, Fran. Georgius, with others, my großerrours, by the authority of great men have affirmed; and that under the names of flanding of this place. I speak it not, that I ledg, there were delivered unto us other my self dare presume to censure them; for I mysteries and significations; as, that by the reverence both their Learning and their Pie- four Rivers were meant the four Cardinal ty, and yet not bound to follow them any Virtues, Juflice, Temperance, Fortitude, and sold further, then they are guided by truth: for Prudehce.; or (by other) Oyle, Wine; Milks, 1,144 and and Honey. This Allegorical understanding | by God in one certain place, and peculiar of Paradise by Origen divulged, was again by Senensis;) whose frivolous imaginations sixtus himself doth fully and learnedly answer, in the 34. Annotation of his fift Book, fol. 338. the last Edition.

CHAP. III.

S. Ambrose also leaned wholly to the Allegorical conftruction, and fet Paradife in the third Heaven, and in the virtues of the mind, of Origen, or rather Origen theirs who would & in nostro principali, which is, as I conceive either make Paradise a figure, or Sacrament it, in mente, or in our fouls: to the particu- onely, or else would have it seated out of lars whereof he alludeth in this fort. By the this fensible world, or raised into some high place or garden of Paradise, was meant the and remote Region of the Air. Strabus, and Soul or Mind; by Adam, Mens, or, Under- Rabanns, were both fick of this vanity, with in direct words alloweth both of a celestial | ly marvel at the learned men, who so grossly and terrestrial Paradise; the one into which and blindly wandred; seeing Moses and after S. Paul was wrapt; the other, into which A- him the Prophets, do so plainly describe this dam was put by God. Aug. Chrysamensis was place, by the Region in which it was planted, of opinion, that a Paradise had been; but by the Kingdoms and Provinces bordering that there was not now any mark thereof it, by the Rivers which watered it, and by on the earth: the same being not onely de- the points of the Compass upon which it lay, faced, but withall the places now not so in respect of Judea, or Canaan. much as existing. To which Luther seemeth lum Adæ, & posteritatis futuræ suisse ; These words (faith he) in which God said, Bring forth it not out of the Fountain of the Ocean. fruit and multiply, and fill the earth, and jubdue it, and rule over every creature, do clearly shew, that the Universal earth, set or filled with all forts of fruits (as then it was,) was the garden and seat of Adam, and of his future posterity. And afterward he acknowledgeth the place, out of the Acts, Cap. 17. Apostolus ex uno sanguine omne genus humanum ideo factum docet, ut habitarent super universam faciem terræ: tota igitur terra Paradifus ille erat; The Apostle Garden; which place Goropius findeth near Franciscus Georgius received (faith Sixtus the River of Acesines, in the Confines of India.

Tertullian, Bonaventure, and Durandus, Bart. 16. make Paradise under the Equinoctial; and Postellus, quite contrary, under the Northpole: the Chaldeans also for the most part, standing; by Eve, the Sense; by the Serpent, Origen, and Philo: fo was our venerable Beda; Bed. in Delectation; by the Tree of good and evil, Sapience; and by the reft of the Trees, the virtues of the mind, or in the mind planted, or from thence springing. Notwithstanding all which, upon the first of the Corinth. c.6. he is discovered all which, upon the first of the Corinth. c.6. he is discovered all which, upon the first of the Corinth. c.6. he is discovered all which, upon the first of the Corinth. c.6. he is discovered all which and the state of the Corinth corintal corinth corinth corintal corinth corintal corin

Noviomagus also upon Beda, De natura rerum, believeth that all the Earth was taken The Manichees also understood, that by for Paradise, and not any one place. For the Paradise was meant the whole Earth; to whole Earth (saith he) hath the same beauty which opinion, Vadianus inclineth, as I con- ascribed to Paradise. He addeth, that the Oceive his words, in two feveral places. First, cean was that Fountain from whence the upon this; Fill the earth, Gen. 10. Of which | four Rivers, Pifon, Gehon, Tigris, and Euphrahe gives this judgment. Hoc ipso etiam quod tes, had their beginning; for he could not dixit, Replete terram, dominamini universis think it possible, that these Rivers, of Ganges, animantibus, subjicite terram, clarissime docet, Nilus, Tigris, and Euphrates, (whereof the one totam terram extantem, & omnigenis (ut tum ran through India, the other through Egypt, erat) fruitibus consitam, sedem & hortum il- and the other through Mesopotamia and Armenia) could rife out of one Fountain, vvere

§. III.

That there was a true local Paradife Eastward, in the Countrey of Eden.

O the first therefore, that such a place there was upon the earth, the words of Moses make it manifest, where it is written, And the Lord God planted a Garden Eastward Gen. : (faith he) teacheth, that God hath made of one in Eden, and there he put the Man whom he had blond all mankind, to dwell over all the face of made: and howfoever the vulgar translatithe earth: and therefore all the earth (faith he) on, called Jerom's translation, hath convertwas that Paradife. Which conjectures I will ed this place thus, Plantaverit Dominus Deus. answer in order. Goropius Becanus differeth Paradisum voluptatis à principio, The Lord God not much from this opinion, but yet he ac- planted a Paradise of pleasure from the beginknowledgeth that Adam was first planted ning; putting the word (pleasure) for Eden Pleasure, or, that a River went out of plearadile of Eden; and so doth the Chaldean Para-Region, in respect of the fertility of the Soil, Pleafure.

Fathers, as Bafil, Chryfoftom, Theodoret, Gregoplace marvelloufly planted by the hands of God I will answer hereafter. in Eden, toward the East.

me prodit, Paradifum à Deo consitum in regione | the Egyptians and Chaldeans.

and (from the beginning) for Eastward: it is terræ Orientalis, quæ dicitur Heden: Heden manifest, that in this place Eden is the proper autem esse proprium nomen, apparet ex quarto name of a Region. For, What sense hath this | capite Gen, ubi legimus, Cham habitaffe ad Oritranslation (faith our Hopkins, in his Treatise entalem plagam Heden; For Moses (faith he) of Paradise) that he planted a Garden in doth shew most clearly, that Paradise was planted of God in a Region of the East Countrey, fure to water the Garden? But the Seventy | which is called Heden: but that Heden is a pro-Interpreters call it Paradifum Edenis, The Pa- per name, it appeareth by the fourth Chapter of Vultu Genesis, where we read, that Cham dwelt on the phrast truly take it for the proper name of a | East border of Heden. Pererius endeavoureth Place, and for a Noun appellative; which to qualifie this Translation; for this particle (faith he) ab initio, is referred to all the time of the many beautiful Rivers and goodly of the Creation, and not to the very first Woods, and that the Trees (as in the Indies) day; alledging this place of Christ, that aldo always keep their leaves, was called Eden, though the Devil was faid to be a Man-flayer John which fignifieth in the Hebrew, Pleasantness, from the beginning, yet that was meant but or delicacy; as the spaniards call the Coun- after the fixth day. But furely, as I think (retry, opposite to the Ille of Cuba, Florida: ferring my self to better judgment) the Deand this is the mistaking, which may end the vil was from the instant of his fall a Mandispute, as touching the double sense of the slaver in disposition, though he had not word, That as Florida was a Country, fo cal- | whereon to practife till mans Creation. And led for the flourishing beauty thereof; fo for conclusion, S. Hierom (if that be his tranwas Eden a Region, called Pleasure, or Deli- flation) adviseth himself better in the end of cacy, for its pleasure or delicacy: and as the third Chapter of Genesis, converting the Florida fignifieth Flourishing; fo Eden figni- word (Eden) by (ante) and not (a principio) fieth Pleasure: and yet both are the proper as, God did set a Cherubin before the Garden of names of Countries; for Eden being the pro- Eden; Collocavit Dens ante Paradifum volupper name of a Region (called Pleasure in the | tatis, Cherubin; and Pererius himself acknow-Hebrew) and Paradise being the choise seat ledgeth, that this is the true sense of this of all that Region, Paradise was truely the place, precisely taken, according to the He-Garden of Eden, and truely the Garden of brew, Posuit à parte Orientali horti Heden, Cherubin; He set on the East-side of the Garden Go. 14 Now, for Eastward, to translate it, from the of Heden, a Cherubin. Becamus affirmeth, that beginning, it is also contrary to the transla- the Hebrew word (Be) signifieth (with) as tion of the Seventy; to the ancient Greek | well as (in) and so the Text beareth this fense: That God planted a Garden with pleary; and to the Rabines, as Ramban, Rabbi | fure (that is to fay) full of pleasure. But Be-Solomon, R. Abraham, and Chimchi; and of canus followeth this construction, onely to the Latines, Severims, Damascenus, &c., who the end to find Paradise upon the River of plainly take Eden for the proper name of a Asecines; for there he hath heard of the In-Region, and fet the word (Eastward) for ab dian Fig-tree in great abundance, which he initio; for Damascene's own words are these, supposeth to be the Tree of knowledg of Paradifus est locus Dei manibus in Eden ad 0- good and evil and would therefore draw Parientem mirabiliter consitus; Paradise is a radise to the Fig-Tree: which Conceit of his

Now, because Paradise was seated by Mo-And after all these Fathers, Guilhelmus Pa- Jes toward the East, thence came the custom risions, a great learned man, and sixtus se- of praying toward the East, and not by iminensis, of latter times, do both understand tation of the Chaldeans: and therefore all these words of Eden and of the East, con- our Churches are built East and West, as to trary to the vulgar Translation; Parisiensis, the point where the Sun riseth in March, as indifferent to both, and Sixtus Senensis, which is directly over Paradise (faith Damadirectly against the vulgar. of which these scenus:) affirming, that we always pray toare their own words: After this I will be- wards the East, as looking towards Paradife, gin to speak of Paradise terrestrial, which God whence we were cast out; and yet the Templanted from the beginning, or Eastmard, &c. ple of Solomon had their Priests and Sacrist-Post hac incipiam loqui de Paradiso terrestri, ces, which turned themselves in their service quem plantaffe Deum ab initio vel ad Orientem and divine ceremonies, always towards the &c. And then senenfis; Moles enim clariffi- West, thereby to avoid the superstition of

But

But because East and West are but in re- | most excellent kinds, pleasant to behold, and towards the East, may remember thereby to befeech God, that as by Adams fall we have Paradise celestial, and the Kingdom of Heaven. To conclude, I conceive, that there was Truth and Story of the Scriptures into Alleno other mystery in adding the word (East) to Eden by Moses, then to shew, that the Retures alwayes called the people of those Na-

Eurus ad Auroram, Nabathaaq; regna recessit, Persidaque, & radiis juga subdita matutinis.

The East wind with Aurora hath a biding Among th' Arabian and the Persian Hills, Whom Phabus first falutes at his first rising.

And if it be objected, that Jeremy the Peter Comeftor giveth best satisfaction: for he Trees, under the Rules of Allegory. useth the word From the beginning, that is, from the first part of the World, (à principio) cipio idem est quod ad Orientem.

But to return to the proof of this place, and that this story of Mankind was not Al-Tree pleasant to the fight, and good for meat, Adam else-where as in the World at large, spect of places; (for although Paradise were (withal) good for meat: which proveth that East from Judea, yet it was West from Persia Paradise was a terrestrial Garden, garnished and the ferving of God is every where in the with Fruits, delighting both the eye and world; the matter is not great, which way tafte. And to make it more plain, and to per is. we turn our faces, fo our hearts stand right, take away all opinion of Allegorical conother then this, that we who dwell West struction, he affirmeth that it was watered from Paradife, and pray turning our felves and beautified with a River; expreffing also the Region, out of which this River sprang, which he calleth Heden; and that Heden is lost the Paradise on earth; so by Christs death also a Country neer unto Charon in Mesopo- Each. 17. tamia, Ezekiel witnesseth.

But to all these Cabalists, which draw the gories, Epiphanius answereth in these words; Si Paradisus non est sensibilis, non est etiam gion of Eden, in which Paradife was, lay East- fons; si non est fons, non est flumen; si non est ward from Judea and Canaan: for the Scrip- flumen, non funt quatuor principia, non Pifon, non Gehon, non Trigis, nec Euphrates; non est tions, the Sons of the East which inhabited ficus non folia, non comedit Eva de arbore, non Arabia, Mesopotamia, Chaldea, and Persia: est Adam, non sunt homines, sed veritas jam fabula est. & omnia ad Allegorias revocantur; If Paradise be not sensible, then there was no fountain, and then no river; if no river, then no fuch four heads or branches, and then not any such river, as Pison, or Gehon, Tigris, or Euphrates; no such fig-tree, or fruit, or leaves; Eve then did not eat of the fruit, neither was there any Adam, or any man, the truth was but a fable, and all things esteemed are called back Prophet, threatning the destruction of Jeru- into Allegories. Words to the same effect hath falem, doth often make mention of Northern S. Hierome upon Daniel: Contitescant corum Nations, it is to be noted, that the North is deliramenta, qui umbras & imagines inverithere named, in respect of those Nations that tate sequentes, ipsam conantur evertere veritafollowed Nabuckodonozer, and of whom the tem. nt Paradisum & sumina, & arbores pugreatest part of his Army was compounded; tent Allegorie Legibus se debere subruere: Let not that Babylon it felf stood North from Je- the dotage of them be filent, who following sharusalem, though inclining from the East to- dows and images in the Truth, endeavour to Subvert the Truth it self, and think that they Now to the difference of this Translation, onght to bring Paradise, and the Rivers, and the

Furthermore, by the continuation and order of the Story, is the place made more maidest, (aith he) à prima orbis parte; and af nisest. For, God gave Adam free liberty to terward he affirmeth, that à principio, and ad eat of every Tree of the Garden, (the Tree Orientem, have the same signification: From of knowledg excepted) which Trees Most. the beginning and East-mard is all one; à prin- in the ninth Verse saith that they were good to eat; meaning the fruit which they bare. Besides, God left all beasts to Adam to be named, which he had formerly made; and legorical, it followeth in the Text of the 2. these beasts were neither in the third heaven; Chap, and 9. Verfe, in these words: For out | nor neer the circle of the Moon, nor beasts of the ground made the Lord God to grow every in imagination: for if all these things were Enigmatical or mystical, the same might also Oc. fo as first it appeared that God created | be faid of the creation of all things. And Eand then put him into the Garden: and the Kings, wieth this speech: All the Trees of Eden, Ezek 31.9. zechiel, speaking of the glory of the Assyrian end why, is express d: that he might dress it which were in the Garden of God, envied him; and keep it; Paradije being a Garden or Or- which proveth both Eden', and Paradije chard filled with Plants, and Trees, of the therein seated, to be terrestrial: for the Pro-

Moses wrote plainly, and in a simple style, fit for the capacities of ignorant men, and he was more large and precise in the description of Paradise, than in any other place of Scripture; of purpole, to take away all scruple from the incredulity of suture ages, whom he knew (out of the gift of Prophecy) to be apt to fabulous inventions; and that if he had not described both the Region and the Rivers, and how it stood from Canaan, many of the unbelieving Israelites, and others after them, would have misconstrued this Story of Man-kind. And, is it likely, there would have been so often mention made of Paradise in the Scriptures, if the same had been an Utopia? For we find that the Valley, wherein sodome and Gomorrah stood, Gen. 13.10 (fometimes called Pentapolis, of the five principal Cities therein) was before the destruction (which their unnatural sin purchafed) compared to the Paradise of the Lord, and like to the Land of Egypt toward Zoar: In like manner was Ifrael resembled to the Paradise of God, before the Babylonians wasted it: which proveth plainly, that Paradife it felf, exceeded in beauty and fertility, and that these places had but a resemblance thereof: being compared to a feat and foil of far exceeding excellency.

Besides, whence had Homer his invention of Alcinous Gardens as Justin Martyr noteth, but out of Moses his description of Paradise? Gen. 2. And whence are their praises of the Elizian fields, but out of the Story of Paradise? To which also appertain those Verses of ovid. Met. the Golden Age in Ovid:

Ver erat æternum; placidique tepentibus auris, Mulcebant Zephyri natos sine semine flores.

The joyfull Spring did ever laft, And Zephyrus did breed Sweet flowers by his gentle blaft, Without the help of Seed.

And it is manifest, that Orpheus, Linus, Pindarus, Hesiodus, and Homer, and, after him, Ovid, one out of another, and all these together with Pythagoras and Plato, and their Sectators, did greatly enrich their Inventions, by venting the stoln Treasures of Divine Letters, altered by prophane additions, and disguised by poetical conversions, as if they had been conceived out of their own speculations and contemplations.

But besides all these testimonies, if we find what Region Heden, or Eden was; if we prove the River that ran out of it, and that Branches; together with the kingdoms of Egypt: and these two Rivers so far distant, as phets made no imaginary comparisons. But | Havila, and Cush; and that all these are Eastward from Canaan, or the Defarts of the Amorites, where Moses wrote; I then conceive that there is no man that will doubt, but that fuch a place there was. And yet I do not exclude the Allegorical sense of the Scripture; for as well in this there were many figures of Chrift, as in all the old Testament throughout : the Story being directly true not withstanding. And to this purpose (faith Saint Augustine) Tres sunt de Paradiso generales sententiæ: una est corum, qui tantummodò corporaliter Paradisum intelligi volunt : alia eorum, qui spiritualiter tantum (id est) Ecclesiam: tertia eorum, qui utroque modo Paradisum accipiunt; (that is) There are three opinions of Paradife: the one of those men, which will have it altogether corporal: a second of those, which conceive it altogether spiritual, and to be a sigure of the Church: the third of those, which take it in both senses; which third Opinion, S. Augustine approveth, and of which Suidas giveth this allowable judgment : Quemadmodum homo sensibilis, & intelligibilis simul conditus erat : sic & hujus sanctissimum nemus sensibile simul & intelligibile & duplici specie est An a præditum; (that is) As man was created at one com M time, both sensible, and intelligible; so was this Suidain holy Grove, or Garden, to be taken both ways, verben and endued with a double form.

§. IV.

Why it should be needfull to intreat diligently of the place of Paradise.

But it may be objected, that it is needless, and a kind of curiosity to enquire so diligently after this place of Paradise, and that the knowledge thereof is of little or no use. To which I answer, that there is nothing written in the Scripture, but for our instruction; and if the truth of the Story be necessary, then by the place proved, the same is also made more apparent. For if we should conceive that Paradise were not on the Earth, but lifted up as high as the Moon; or that it were beyond all the Ocean, and in no part of the known World; from whence, Adam was faid to wade through the Sea, and thence to have come into Judea, (out of doubt) there would be few men in the World, that would give any credit unto it. For what could feem more ridiculous than the report of such a place? and besides, what maketh this feat of Paradife so much disputed and doubted of, but the conceit that Pishon should be Ganges, which watereth the East the same afterwards was divided into four India; and Gehon, Nilus, which enricheth (except all the World were Paradife) these embrace the whole Earth, and is so set beyond freams can no way be comprifed therein?

GHAP. III.

death of our Saviour, were faid to have been Moon doth embrace the Moon. To the end in some such Countrey, of which no man ever therefore that these ridiculous Expositions heard tell, and that his Miracles had been and Opinions do not bring question unto known: I assure my self, that the Christian doubts or disputes, it is necessary to discover Religion would have taken but a flender the true place of Paradife, which God in his root in the minds of men: for times and wifdom appointed in the very Navel of this to the judgment of some Writers upon this place of Genesis (though otherwise for their doctrine in general, they are worthy of honour and reverence) I fay that there is no Fable among the Grecians or Egyptians more ridiculous: for who would believe that there were a piece of the World fo fet by it felf, and separated, as to hang in the Air under to conceive, that from thence the four Ri-Comestor's own words. Est autem locus amanissimus, longo terra & maris tractu a nostra ad lunarem globum attingat, &c. (that is) It is a most pleasant place severed from our habitable Zone, by a long trast of Land and Sea, elevated So, that it reacheth to the globe of the Moon.

And Moses Barcephas upon this place inted by writeth in this manner : Deinde hoc quoque responsum volumus, Paradisum multo sublimiore positum esse regione, at que hac nostra extet terra, esque fieriut illine per præcipitium delabantur fluori tanto cum impetu, quantum verbis exprimere non possis; edque impetu impulsi pressique Sub Oceani vado rapiuntur, unde rursus prosiliant ebulliantque in hoc a nobis culto orbe: which have this sense: Furthermore (faith he) deformed; or rather annihilated this place, in we give this for an answer, that Paradisc is set such sort, as no man can find any mark or in a tegion far raised above this part which we memory thereof (of which opinion there inhabit; mereby it comes to pass, that from were others also, ascribing to the Floud the thence these Rivers fall down with such a head-cause of those high Mountains, which are long violence, as words cannot express; and found on all the Earth over, with many owin that force so impilsed and press, they are ther strange effects:) for mine own opinion, carried under the deep Ocean, and do again I think neither the one nor the other to be rife and boil up in this our habitable World: true. For although I cannot deny, but that and to this he addeth the opinion of Ephram, the face of Paradile was after the Floud wiwhich is this: Epbram diett, Paradisum anthire thered, and grown old, in respect of the first terram, atque ultra Oceanum ita positium esse, it beauty (for both the ages of men, and the totum terrarum orbem ab omni circumdet Re- nature of all things Time hath changed:) yet the Ocean Sea, as it environeth the whole Orbe Secondly, if the birth and works, and of the Earth on every fide, as the Orbe of the performed in the Air, or no place certainly Truth it felf, or make the fame subject to places are approved witnesses of worldly our World, and (as Melanthon saies) in parte Terræ meliore, in the best part thereof, that Thirdly, if we should relie, or give place from thence, as from a Center, the Universal might be filled with people and planted; and by knowing this place, we shall the better judge of the beginning of Nations, and of the Worlds inhabitation: for near unto this did the Sons of Noah also disperse themselves after the Floud, into all other remote Regions and Countreys. And if it be a generous defire in men, to know from whence their own the circle of the Moon? or who so doltish forefathers have come, and out of what Regions and Nations; it cannot be displeasing to vers of Ganges, Nilus, Euphrates, and Tygris, understand the place of our first Ancestor, fhould fall down, and run under all the Oce- from whence all the streams and branches of an, and rife up again in this our habitable Mankind have followed and been deduced. world, and in those places where they are If then it do appear by the former, that such now found? Which left any man think that I a place there was as Paradife, and that the enforce, or ftrain to the worst, these are Peter knowledge of this place cannot be unprofitable, it followeth in order to examine feveral Opinions before remembred, by the habitabili Zona sceretus, aded elevatus, ut usque Truth it self; and to see how they agree with the sense of the Scripture, and with common Reason; and afterward to prove directly, and to delineate the Region in which God first planted this delightfull Garden.

5. V.

That the Floud hath not utterly defaced the marks of Paradise, nor caused Hills in the

And first, whereas it is supposed by Ang. Achssamensis, that the Floud hath altered, gione, non aliter atque Luna orbis Lunam ein- if there had been no fign of any such place, git; (which is) That Paradife doth compas or or if the foil and feat had not remained, then CHAP. III.

32

feribed it fo particularly, and the Prophets and when there were no Indraughts, Bays, or long after Moses, would not have made so often mention thereof. And though the very Garden it self were not then to be found, but that the Floud, and other accidents of time made it one common field and pasture with the Land of Eden, yet the place is still the fame, and the Rivers still remain the fame Rivers. By two of which (never doubted of) to wit, Tygris, and Euphrates, we are fure to find in what longitude Paradife lay; and learning out one of these Rivers, which afterward doth divide it felf into four branches, we are fure that the partition is at the very border of the Garden it felf. For it years old at the erection of them; and Jo-Gen. 2.10. is written, that out of Eden went a River to Seph himself to have lived some fourty or fifwater the Garden, and from thence it was ty years after Christ: of whom, although divided, and became into four heads; Now, whether the word in the Latine Translation wrote, yet that which he avouched of his (Inde) from thence, be referred to Eden it own time, cannot (without great derogatifelf, or to Paradise; yet the division, and branching of those Rivers, must be in the it may be possible, that some foundation or North, or South fide of the very Garden (if ruine thereof might then be seen. Now, that the Rivers run as they do, North and South) such pillars were raised by Seth, all Antiquity and therefore thele Rivers yet remaining, hath avowed. It is also written in Berofus and Eden manifeltly known, there could be (to whom, although I give little credit, yet I no fuch defacing by the Floud, as is fup- cannot condemn him in all) that the City of posed.Furthermore, as there is no likelihood, Enoch, built by Cain about the mountains that the place could be so altered, as future of Libanus was not defaced by length of ages knew it not, so is there no probability time: yea, the ruines thereof, Annius (who that either these Rivers were turned out of commented upon that invented fragment) their courses, or new Rivers created by the saith, were to be seen in his days, who lived Floud which were not, or that the Floud in the reign of Ferdinand and Isabella of Ca-(as aforelaid) by a violent motion, when it stile. And if these his words be not true, began to decrease, was the cause of high then was he exceeding impudent : for, speak-Hills, or deep Valleys. For what descent of ing of this City of Enoch, he concludeth in Gen. 8. 1. to pass upon the Earth, and the waters ceased. So that the City of Joppa was built before the outragious winds, and beat down, and level than the time denying it. the swelling and mountainous billows of the Sea: for any Ebbs and Flouds there could not the cause of mountains, but that there would not Moses, who wrote of Paradise | be none, when the waters were equal, and about 850 years after the Floud, have de- of one height over all the face of the Earth, Gulfs to receive a Floud, or any descent, or violent falling of waters in the round form of the Earth and Waters, as aforefaid: and therefore it seemeth most agreeable to reafon, that the Waters rather stood in a quiet calm, than that they moved with any raging or overbearing violence. And for a more direct proof that the Floud made no fuch destroying alteration, Josephus avoweth that one of those pillars erected by seth, the third from Adam, was to be seen in his days; which pillars were fet up above 1426 years before the Floud, counting seth to be an hundred there be no cause to believe all that he on) be called in question. And therefore waters could there be in a Spherical and this fort: Cujus maxima & ingentis molis round body, wherein there is nor high nor fundamenta visuntur, & vocatur ab incolis low? feeing that all violent force of waters regionis, Civitas Cain, ut nostri mercatores, is either by the strength of wind, by descent of percerini referent; The foundation of which from a higher to a lower, or by the Ebb or luge mass is now to be seen, and the place is Floud of the Sea. But that there was any wind called by the people of that Region, the City of (whereby the Seas are most enraged) it ap- | Cain, as both our strangers and Merchants repeareth not rather the contrary is probable: port. It is also avowed by Pomponins Mela for it is written, Therefore God made a wind (to whom I give more credit in these things) as it appeareth not, that, untill the waters Floud, over which Cepha was King: whole fank, there was any wind at all, but that God name, with his brother Phineus, together afterward, out of his goodness, caused the with the grounds and principles of their Rewind to blow, to drie up the abundant slime ligion, was found graven upon certain Altars and mud of the Earth, and make the Land of stone. And it is not impossible, that the more firm, and to cleanse the Air of thick ruines of this other City, called Enoch by Anvapours, and unwholfome mifts: and this we niw, might be feen, though founded in the know by experience, that all downright first age: but it could not be of the first City rains do evermore diffever the violence of of the World, built by Cain; the place rather were mountains from the Creation, it is writ- 1 of the Manichees, of Novionagus, Vadianus, fifteen Cubits the highest Mountains. And Mafins Damascenus, speaking of the Floud, writeth inthis manner: Est supra Minyadam ex-celsus Mons in Armenia (qui Baris appellatur) in quo confugientes multos, sermo est, Diluvii tempore liberatos. And upon Minyada there is an high Mountain in Armenia (called Baris) unto which it is faid, that many fled in the time of the Deluge, and that they faved themfelves thereon. Now, although it is contrary avouch, but by report) yet it is a testimony, that fuch Mountains were before the Floud, it is generally received, that the Ark refted: rity, either divine or humane.

And to prove directly that the Floud was

which succeeded him: both which I take the Ocean be taken for the Well, and the for my warrant, and to guide me in this Dif- World for the Garden. covery.

That Paradise was not the whole Earth, as some have thought: making the Ocean to be the fountain of those four Rivers.

ten, that the waters of the Floud overflowed by Goropius, Becamis, and all those that understood, that by Paradise was meant the whole Earth. But in this I shall not trouble the Reader with many words, because by those places of Scripture formerly remembred, this Gen 1. 28. Universality will appear altogether impro- 26. per. The places which Vadianus alledgeth, Ering forth fruit and multiply, Fill the Earth, and Jubdue it, Rule over every Creature, &cc. with this of the Acts, And bath made of one blond all Mankind, to dwell on all the face of to Gods Word, that any more were faved the Earth, do no way prove fuch a generathan eight persons (which Massius doth not lity: for the World was made for man, of which he was Lord and Governour, and all things therein were ordained of God for his which were afterward, and ever fince, known use. Now, although all men were of one and by the same names; and on which Mountains | the same sountain of bloud originally; and Adam's Posterity inhabited in process of but untruly, as I shall prove hereafter. And time over all the face of the Earth: yet it again it appeareth, that the Mount sion disproveth in nothing the particular Gar-(though by another name) was known be- den, affigned to Adam, to drefs and cultive, fere the Floud; on which the Thalmudists in which he lived in so blessed an estate be- Gen. 1. 8 report, that many Giant's faved themselves fore his transgression. For if there had been also; but, as Annius saith, without all autho- no other choice, but that Adam had been left to the Universal's Moses would not then have Lastly, it appeareth that the Floud did said, Eastward in Eden, seeing the World Gen 3. 24. not so turn upside down the face of the earth, hath not East nor West but respectively, as thereby it was made past knowledge, af- And to what end had the Angel of God ter the waters were decreased, by this, that been set to keep the East-side, and entrance when Noah sent out the Dove the second time, into Paradise after Adam's expulsion, if the she returned with an Olive leaf in her mouth, Universal had been Paradise's for then must which she had pluckt, and which (until the Adam have been chased also out of the Trees were discovered) she found not: for World. For if all the Earth were Paradise, otherwise she might have found them floting that place can receive no better construction the water; a manifest proof, that the Trees on than this, That Adam was driven out of were not torn up by the roots, nor fwam up on the waters, for it is written: folium, olivae radije into Paradije, except we should beraptum, or decerptum, a leaf pluckt, (which lieve with Metrodorus, that there were inis) to take from a Tree, or to tear off. By finite Worlds. Which to deny, he thinks all this it is apparent, (there being nothing writ- one, as to affirm, That in so large a field, as the ten to the contrary) that the Floud made Universal, there should grow but one Thisle. no fuch alteration, as was supposed, but that | Noviomagus upon Beda, seemeth to be led by the place of Paradise might be seen to suc- this, that it was impossible for those three ceeding Ages, especially unto Moses, by Rivers, Ganges, Nilus, and Euphrates (which whom it pleased God to teach the truth of water three portions of the World so far the Worlds Creation, and unto the Prophets | distant) to rise out of one Fountain, except

And it is true, that those four Rivers, being so understood, there could be no conjecture more probable; but it shall plainly appear, that Pifon wasfallly taken for Ganges, and Gehon fallly for Nilns, although Ganges be a River by Havila in India, and Nilus run through Ethiopia. The Seventy Write Chus for Ethiopia, and thereby the errors of the Mani-His concert of Ang. Chylamenlis being chees, and the miltakings of Novionagus, Goanswered, who onely giveth his opinion ropius, and Vadianus, with others, are made for reason, I will in a few words examine that manifest. Yet was their conjecture far more probable.

33

CHAP. III

ny years after the Floud, yet Adam's thinbones must have contained a thousand fanceds no argument to difprove it.

9. VII.

Of their opinion which make Paradise as high as the Moon: and of others which make it higher than the Middle Region of the Air.

THirdly, whereas Beda faith, and as the School-men affirm, Paradife to be a Place altogether removed from the knowledge of men, (locus à cognitione hominum remotissimus) and Barcephas conceived, that Paradise was far in the East, but mounted above the Ocean, and all the Earth, and near the Orbe of the Moon (which opinion, though the School-men charge Beda withall, yet Pererius lays it off from Beda, upon Strabus, and his Master Rabanus:) and whereas Rupertus, in his Geographie of Paradife, doth not much differ from the rest, but finds it seated next or nearest Heaven; It may seem, that all these borrowed this doctrine out of Plato, and Plato out of Socrates: but neither of them (as I conceive) well understood; who (undoubtedly) took this place for Heaven it felf, into which the Souls of the blefled were carried after death.

True it is, that these Philosophers durst not for fear of the Areopagites (in this, and many other divine apprehensions) set down what they believed in plain terms, especially Plato: though socrates in the end fuffered death for acknowledging one onely powerfull God; and therefore did the De-Jul. Mart. vil himself do him that right, as by an Oracle. adm. ad to pronounce him the wifest man. Justine Gent. Aug. Martyr affirmeth, that Plato had read the Scriptures; and S. Augustine gave this judgment of him, as his opinion, that (few things changed) he might be counted a Christian. And it feemeth to me, that both Tertullian and Eusebius conceive, that Socrates, by that place aforefaid, meant the celestial Paradise, probable, than that of Ephrem, Cyrillus, and | ing above all Clouds of Rain, or other in-Athanasus, That Paradise was seated far be- convenience, the people (by reason of their yond the Ocean Sea, and that Adam waded fo many years) are called Macrobici (that is) through it, and at last came toward the Long-livid. A further Argument is used, for Countrey in which he was created, and was proof of the height of this place, because buried at Mount Calvary in Hierusalem. And therein was Enoch preserved from the viocertainly, though all those of the first Age lence of the Floud: approved by Isidore, and were of great stature, and so continued ma- Peter Lombard: in which place also Tertullian conceived, that the bleffed Souls were preserved till the last Judgment; which Irethome, and much more, if he had foorded the naus and Justine Martyr also believed. But Ocean; but this opinion is fo ridiculous, as it this opinion was of all Catholique Divines reproved, and in the Florentine Council damned; of which Saint Angustine more modestly gave this judgment: Sicut certum eft, Enoch & Eliam, nunc vivere: ita ubi nunc funt, an in Paradifo an alibi, incertumest; (that is) As it is certain that Enoch and Elias do now live; so where they live, in Paradise, or ellewhere, it is uncertain. But Barcephas gives a third cause, though of all other the weakeft. For (faith he) it was necessary that Paradise should be set at such a distance and height, because the four Rivers (had they not fallen so precipitate) could not have had fufficient force to have thrust themfelves under the great Ocean, and afterward have forced their paffage through the Earth, and have risen again in the far distant Regions of India, Egypt, and Armenia.

These strange fancies and dreams have been answered by divers learned men long fince, and lately by Hopkins, and Pererius, writing upon this subject; of whose arguments I will repeat these few: (for to use long discourse against those things, which are both against Scripture and Reason, might rightly be judged a vanity in the Answerer, not much inferiour to that of the Inventer.)

It is first therefore alledged, that such a place cannot be commodious to live in: for being set so near the Moon, it had been too near the Sun, and other heavenly bodies. Secondly, because it must have been too joynct a Neighbour to the Element of fire. Thirdly, because the Air in that Region is so violently removed, and carried about with fuch fwiftness, as nothing in that place can confift or have abiding. Fourthly, because the space between the Earth and the Moon (according to Ptolemie and Alfraganus) is feventeen times the Diameter of the Earth, which makes in a groß account about one hundred and twenty thousand miles. Hereupon it must follow, that Paradise, being raifed to this height, must have the compass and not this of Eden. Solinus, I grant, re- of the whole Earth for a Basis and soundaporteth, that there is a place exceeding de- tion. But had it been so raised, it could lightfull, and healthfull, upon the top of hardly be hidden from the knowledge, or Mount Atho (called Acrothonos) which be- eyes of men, feeing it would deprive us of the Sun's light, all the fore-part of the day, But this I dare avow of all those Schoolbeing feated in the East, as they suppose, men, that though they were exceeding witty, Now, to fortifie the former opinions, Tofta- yet they better teach all their Followers tus addeth this, that those people which to shift, then to resolve, by their distinctidwell neer those fals of waters, are deaf from ons. Wherefore not to stay long in answertheir infancy, like those that dwell neer the ing this opinion of Toftatus, I confess that it lus, and yet the people dwelling neer them standing) there is found on the heads of the those things either in Basil or Ambrose.

1 (18. 15. it grow, yet we shall not all die (saith Saint | feeling of her wings, or any sensible resistance Paul) but all shall be changed: which change in of ayr to mount her self by. Enoch and Elias, was easie to him that is Almighty. But for the rest, the Scriptures are manifest, that by the Floud all perished on the earth faving eight persons; and therefore in the terrestrial Paradise they could not be. For Tostatus his own opinion, who soared not altogether so high as the rest, but believed that Paradise was raised above the middle Region of the Ayr, and twenty cubits Catadupe, or over-fals of Nilus. But this I is written, that the Mountains of Olympus, hold as feigned. For I have seen in the In- Atho, and Atlas, over-reach and surmount dies, far greater water-fals, then those of Ni- all winds and clouds, and that (notwithare not deaf at all. Toftatus (the better to Hills both springs and fruits; and the Pagan ftrengthen himself) citeth Basil and Ambrose Priests, sacrificing on these mountain-tops, together: to which Pererius, Sed ego hac apud do not find the afhes (remaining of their fa-Bafilium & Ambrofium in eorum scriptis, que crifices) blown thence, nor thence wash'd off nunc extant, nulquam me legere memini; But by rains, when they return: yet experience Ido not remember (faith he) that I ever read hath resolved us, that these reports are sabulous; and Pliny himfelf (who was not sparing But for the bodies of Enoch and Elias, in the report of wonders) avoweth the con-God hath disposed of them according to his trary. But were it granted, yet the height wildom. Their taking up might be into the of these Mountains is far under the supposed celestial Paradise, for ought we know. For place of Paradise; and on these self-Hills the although flesh and bloud, subject to corrup- ayr is so thin (saith S. Augustine, whom heretion, cannot inherit the Kingdom of Heaven, in I mistrust) that it is not sufficient to bear and the feed must rot in the ground before up the body of a bird, having therein no

9. VIII.

Of their opinion that seat Paradise under the Æquinoctial: and of the pleasant habitation under those Climats.

Hose which come neerer unto Reason, find Paradise under the Equinoctial above all Mountains, that the Floud did not line, as Tertullian, Bonaventure, and Durantherefore reach it (which scotus and other dus: judging, that there-under might be latter School-men also believed; for, say found most pleasure, and the greatest fertilithey, there were no finners in Paradife, and ty of foil: but against it Thomas Aquinas obtherefore no cause to over-whelm it:) this jecteth the distemperate heat, which he supposed is also contrary to the express letter of the Scripture, which directly, and without ad- the Sun. But this is (non causa pro causa,) mitting of any distinction, teacheth us, that | for although Paradise could not be under the the waters over-flowed all the mountains under | Line, because Eden is far from it, in which heaven. And were it otherwise, then might | Paradise was; and because there is no part of we aswell give credit to Massus Damascenus, Euphrates, Tygris, or Ganges under it (Ganand the Thalmudists, who affirm, that there ges being one of the four rivers, as they supwere of the Gyants that faved themselves on pose) yet this conceit of distemper (being the Mountain Baris, and on Sion. But to help but an old opinion) is found to be very unthis, Scotus being (as the rest of the School- true, though for the conjecture not to be men are) full of distinction, saith; That the condemned, considering the age when those waters frood at Paradife, as they did in the Fathers wrote, grounded chiefly on this: Red Sea, and at Jordan; and as the Floud that whereas it appeared, that every Counwas not natural, so was Paradise saved by mi- try, as it lay by degrees neerer the Troracle. And Thomas Aquinas qualifieth this pick, and fo toward the Equinoctial, did fo high conceit with this supposition, That it much the more exceed in heat; it was therewas not believed, that Paradise was so fore a reasonable conjecture, that those feated, as Beda and others feem to affirm in Countries which were fituated directly unwords, but by Hyperbole and comparatively, der it, were of a diftemper uninhabitable: for the delicacy and beauty fo refembled. but it feemeth that Tertullian conceived better, and fo did Avicenne, for they both Nature being liberal to all without labour, thought them habitable enough; and though necessity imposing no industry or travel. (perchance) in those days it might be thought | idleness bringeth forth no other fruits then a fantastical opinion (as all are which go against the vulgar) yet we now find, that if that, to conclude this part, Tertullian and there be any place upon the earth of that nature, beauty, and delight that Paradise had, the same must be found within that supposed misliked this opinion, and followed a worfe; uninhabitable burnt Zone, or within the Tropicks, and neerest to the Line it self. For were gross in this particular. hereof Experience hath informed Reafon, and Time hath made those things apparent, which were hidden and could not by any contemplation be discovered. Indeed, it hath fo pleafed God to provide for all living creatures, wherewith he hath filled the world, that fuch inconveniences which we contemplate a far off, are found by tryal and the witness of mens travails, to be so qualified. as there is no portion of the earth made in vain, or as a fruitless lump to fashion out the 1950 45.1. reft. For God kimfelf (faith Esay) that formed it followeth that now we discover and find the earth and made it, he that prepared it, he out the feat thereof, for init was Paradise by created it not in vain, he formed it to be in- God planted. The difficulty of which fearch habited. Now we find that these hottest Regions of the world, scated under the Equi- have often changed names with their Manotifial line, or neer it, are so refreshed with a sters; so are most of these places, by Moses daily gale of Easternly wind (which the spa- remembred, forgotten by those names of all niards call the Erize) that doth evermore Historians and Geographers, as well antient blow strongest in the heat of the day, as the as modern. down-right beams of the Sun cannot fo much master it, that there is any inconvenience or lonians, Medes and Persians (Cyrus only and distemperate heat found thereby. Secondly, a few other excepted) sought to extinguish the nights are so cold, fresh, and equal, by the Hebrews. The Grecians hated both their reason of the entire interposition of the earth, Nation and their Religion; and the Romans as (for those places which my felf have feen, despised, once to remember them in any of neer the Line and under it) I know no other their Stories. And as those three Monarchies part of the World of better, or equal temper: fucceeded each other: fo did they transrence of foils we find also in all other parts inthralled. of the world. But (for the greatest part) those Regions have so many goodly Rivers, tes and Tygris, the better to find the way Fountains, and little Brooks, aboundance of which leadeth to the Country of Eden, we high Cedars, and other stately trees, casting are to take for guides these two Consideshade; so many sorts of delicate fruits, ever rations (to wit) That it lay Eastward from bearing, and at all times beautified with Canaan and Judaa; and, that it was of allobloffom and fruit both green and ripe, as it ther the most beautiful and fertile. First then may of all other parts be best compared to in respect of situation, the next Country to the Paradise of Eden: the boughs and bran- Judea Eastward was Arabia Petraa; but in ches are never unclothed and left naked, this Region was Moses himself when he wrote: their sap creepeth not under ground into the and the next unto it Eastward also was Araroot, fearing the injury of the frost: neither | bia the Defart, both which in respect of the vain thoughts, and licentious pleasures. So those of his opinion, were not deceived in the nature of the place: but Aquinas, who and (to fay the truth) all the School-men

CHAP. III.

G. IX.

Of the change of the names of places: and that besides that Eden in Colosyria, there is a Country in Babylon, once of this name, as is proved, out of Efa. 37. and Ezek. 27.

Hese opinions answered, and the region of Eden not found in any of those imaginary worlds, nor under Torrida Zona; resteth chiefly in this, That as all Nations

Besides, we find that the Asyrians, Baby-Only there are some tracts, which by acci- form the names of all those principal Places dent of high Mountains are barr'd from this and Cities in the East: And after them, the ayr and fresh wind, and some few sandy parts Turk hath sought (what he could) to extinwithout trees, which are not therefore fo guish in all things, the antient memory of well inhabited as the rest; and such diffe- those people, which he hath subjected and

Now befides those notable marks, Euphradoth Pomona any time despise her withered infertility could not be Eden; neither have Husband Vertumnus, in his winter quarters any of the Arabians any such Rivers, as are and (ld age. Therefore are these Countries express d to run out of it: So as it followeth called Terra vitiofa, Vicious Countries: for of necessity, that Eden must be Eastward,

But because Eden is by Moses hamed by it felf, and by the fertility, and the rivers only described, we must seek it in other Scriptures, and where it is by the additions of the neighbour-Nations better described. In the Prophet Isay, I find it coupled and accompanied with other adjacent Countries, in these words, spoken in the person of senacherib by Rabsakeh: Have the gods of the Nations delivered them, which my Fathers have destroyed, as Gosan, and Haran, and Reseph, and the children of Eden, which were at Telassar? and in Exechiel, where he prophecieth against the Tyrians: They of Haran, and Canneh, and Eden, the Merchants of Sheba, Afbur, and Chilmad, were thy Merchants, &c.

But to avoid confusion, we must underfrand that there were two Edens, one of which the Prophet Amos remembreth, where co.1.v.1 he divideth Syria into three Provinces, whereof the first he maketh Syria Damascene, or Decapolitan: the fecond part is that Vallev called Avenis, otherwise Convallis, or the tract of Chamath, where Afgria is joyned to Arabia the Defart, and where Ptolemie placeth the City of Averia: and the third is Calo-Syria, otherwise Vallis cava, or the holand Anti-Libanus, take all the length of it on both fides; and border it: for cale in Greek is Cava in Latine. But this is not that Eden, which we feek: neither doth this Province lie East from Canaan, but North, and so joyn-Beroaldus, in that he confoundeth this Eden, with the other Eden of Paradife, though, to gris, and from the City of Terredon, (built or give Beroaldus his right, I conceive that he enlarged by Nebuchodonozor, now called Baling there two Regions, both called Eden: body of Emphrates, as far as it bended Westand that he altogether mif-understood two ward, and afterward by a branch thereof, of the four Rivers (to wit) Pijon and Gehon, which reached within three days journey of as shall appear hereafter. Now to find our Eden, (which as Moses teacheth us) lay Eastward from the Defatts, where he wrote, af- Hieropolis) and thence to Alexandretta, as ter he had passed the Red-Sea; we must confider where those other Countries are found, which the Prophet Isaiah and Ezechiel joyneth with it, For (faith Ifaiah) Gofan, Haran, and Reseph, and the children of Eden, which were at Telassar. Also Ezechiel joyneth Haran with Eden, who together with those of sheba, and beyond both Arabia Petrea, and Deferta. traded with the City of Tyre, which was then (faith Ezechiel) The Mart of the people for mamy Ifles. And it hath ever been the cuftom. that the Persians conveyed their Merchandise to Babylon, and to those Cities upon Euphrates, and Tygris, and from thence transported them into Syria, now Soria, and to the Port of the Mediterrane Sea: as in ancient times to the City of Tyre, afterward to Tripoly, and now to Aleppo, from whence they imbarque them at the Port of Alexandretta, in the Bay of Isicus, now Lajazzo. Ezechiel in the description of the magnificence of Tyre, and of the exceeding trade that it had with all the Nations of the East, as the onely Mart-town of that part of the World, reciteth both the people, with whom they had commerce, and also what commodities every Country yielded; and having counted the several People and Countreys, he addeth the particular Trade, which each of them exercised: They were thy Merchants (saith the Prophet) in Verse 14, all forts of things, in rayments of blue silk, and of broydered works, fine Linnen, Coral, and Pearl: and afterwards speaking of the Merchants of Sheba and Raamah, and what kinds they traded, he hath these words: The knowen by the name of Domus Edenis, or Merchants of Sheba, and Raamah were the Merchants, they occupied in thy Fairs, with the low Valley, because the mountains of Libanus chief of all spices, and with all pretious Stones, and Gold. Now, these be indeed the riches which Persia and Arabia Fælix yield: and because sheba and Raamah are those parts of Arabia, which border the Sea, called the Persian Gulf, therefore did those Nations both eth unto it, as it could not be unknown to vent such Spice, sweet Gumms, and Pearls, as the Hebrews. Yet, because there is a little their own Countries yielded: and (withall) City therein called Paradife, the Jews be- having trade with their Neighbors of India, lieved this Celo-Syria to be the same which had from them also all forts of Spices, & plen-Moses describeth. For the same cause doth ty of Gold. The better to convey these com-Hopkins in his Treatise of Paradise reprehend | modities tothat great Mart of Tyre, the Shebans, or Arabians entred by the mouth of Tyled the way to Hopkins, and to all other later fara) thence fent up all these rich Merchan-Writers, faving, That he failed in distinguish dizes by Boat to Babylon, from whence by the Aleppo, and then over Land they past to Tyre, as they did afterward to Tripoly, (formerly aforesaid. Now, the Merchants of Canneh, which Exechiel joyneth with Eden, inhabited far up the River, and received this trade from Arabia and India, besides those proper commodities which themselves had, and which they received out of Persia, which bordered them. Saint Hierome understand-Assur, and Chilmad, were the Merchants that eth by Canneh, seleucia, which is seated upon Euphrates.

Euphrates, where it breaketh into four heads, | and therfore they are by the Prophet Ezechiel and which took that name from Seleucus, who made thereof a magnificent City. Hierosolymitanus thinks it to be Ctesiphon: but ctesiphon is seated down low upon Tygris, and Canneh cannot be on that fide. I mean, on the East-side of Tygris; for then were it leth it in his Commentaries upon Genesis; the out of the Valley of Shinar. Plinie placeth name by time and mixture of Languages bethe Schenita upon Euphrates, where the same beginneth to be foordable, which is toward the bound of Arabia the Defart, and where the River of Euphrates reflecteth from the Defart of Palmirena: for these people of Canneh (afterward schenita) inhabited both borders of Euphrates, stretching themselves, from their own City of canneh in Shinar, far as the City of Thapfacus, where Ptolemy appointed the Foords of Euphrates: which al-To agreeth with the description of the Sche-Strabo.1.16 nite by Strabo, whose words are these: Mercatoribus ex Syria Seleuciam, 🔗 Babyloniam which travel from Syria to Seleucia and Babylon, take their way by the Schenites. There-Gen. 11. fore those that take Canneh for Charran, do much mistake it. For Charran, to which Abraham came from Ur in Chaldea (called by God) standeth also in Mesopotamia; not uppon Euphrates it self, but upon the River of Chaboras, which falleth into Euphrates: and the Merchants of Charran are distinctly named with those of Canneh in Ezechiel (as) chants of Sheba, Asher, and Chilmad, were thy (which is the mid-way against Nineveh) the Merchants. Wherefore Charran, which is eleventh day. fometimes called Charre, and Haran, and A-mia, to the schenita, who also inhabited on both fides of Euphrates, and were in after-ages accounted of these Arabians which inhabit Batanea, and the North part of the Defarts, stretching themselves toward the inhabited folitude of Palmirena, which li-

So as these of Canneb lay in the very highway from Babylon to Tyre, and were neigh-coupled together, They of Haran, and Canneh, and Eden, &c. But S. Hierome made a good interpretation of Canneh, or Chalne, by Seleucia: for Seleucia was antiently called Chalanne (witness Appian) and so Rabanus Maurus caling changed from Chalne, or Canneh, to Chalanne: of which name there are two other Cithe border of spria, after it leaveth to be ties, standing in Triangle with selencia, and almost the next unto it (as) Thelbe-Canne, and Mann-Canne, the one a little to the West of Seleucia, and the other opposite unto it; where these Rivers of Tygris and Euphrates are ready to joyn. Therefore, which of these the ancient Canne was (being all three with-Westward along the banks of Emphrates, as in the bound of the Valley Shinar) it is uncertain: but it is a note as well of the importance of the place, as of the certain feat thereof, that so many other Cities did retain a part of the name in fo many ages after. Neither is it unlikely, that these additions euntibus, iter est per Schenitas; The Merchants of Thelbe and Man to the word Canne, were but to make difference between the East and the West, or the greater and the less Canne, or between Canne the old and the new: which additions to distinguish Cities by, are ordinary in all the Regions of the World.

Now of the other City joyned with Eden, as Haran, or Charran, S. Hierome on the Judges Judges speaketh thereof in these words: Cumque reverterentur, pervenerunt ad Charran, quæ est in medio itinere contra Ninevem, undecimo They of Haran and Canneh, and Eden, the Mer- die; When they returned, they came to Charran

This City is by the Martyr stephen, named Atti ran, is but the same Charran of Mesopotamia; | Charran (speaking to the High-Priest:) 10 and when it is written Aran, then it is taken Men, Brethren, and Fathers, hearken : the God for the Region of Mesopotamia; or Aranslu- of glory appeared to our Father Abraham, while viorum, the Greek word (Mesopotamia) im- he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in porting, A countrey between Rivers: for Charran. But the feat of this City is not Mesos in Greek, is medius in Latine, and Po- doubted of: for it is not only remembred in tamos, fluvius. And when it is written Haran many Scriptures, but withall exceeding faor Aran, it is then taken for the City it felf, mous for the death and overthrow of Crassius to which Abraham came from Vr (as afore- the Romane, who for his unfatiable greedifaid.) For Strabo in the description of Ara- ness, was called Gurges avaritie; the Gulf of bia, giveth that tract of Land from the bor- avarice. Whereof Lucan: ders of Calofyria, to the edge of Mesopota-

Asyrias Latio maculavit sanguine Carras. With Roman bloud th'Assyrian Carre he defil'd.

But this City Canne, or Chalne, is made manifest by Moses himself, where it is written 600,10 of Nimrod: And the beginning of his King- 16. doms was Babel, & Erech, and Acad, and Chain, eth between Syria, and Arabia the Defart. in the Land of Sinaar or Shinar: where Moles sheweth the first composition of the Babylonian Empire, and what Cities and People bours (indifferent) to Charran, and to Eden: were subject unto Nimrod; all which lay in the faid Valley of Shinar, or near it; and | Frankincenfe is gathered which people have this Valley of Shinar is that Tract afterwards an interchange or trade with Elana, lying on nion, and also named by Moses to be in Shiof Senacherib against Jerusalem (with other Nations that Senacherib vaunted that his Faceffary to describe those other Countreys, which Ezechiel joyneth therewith, in the fense: Reges Shebe & Sabe. places before remembred, as, those of Sheba tenth: Moreover the Sons of Ham were Cush, and precedence of birth; who inhabited that part of Shinar, where Babel was built, afterwards Babylonia. His brother Raamah or Regma took that part adjoyning to Shinar, toward the Sea fide and Perlian gulf (called afterwards Raama and sheba, by the Father and his Sons, which possessed it.) For (saith Exechiel) the Merchants of Raamah and Sheba were thy Merchants, they occupied in thy fairs with the chief of all spices, and all precious Stones, and Gold. So as Sheba was that Tract of Countrey, which parteth Arabia Deserta from drabia Felix, and which joyneth to the ed; and this place of Telaffar lay most conve-Sea where Tygris and Euphrates fall out, and render themselves to the Ocean. This and Arabia, and also to convey it over into called Babylonia and Chaldea, into which the East-side of the Fersian gulf. By this it lania, sinar, idem sunt (faith Comester.) Three by Executed, and said to have been the Mernames of one Country: which Region of Ba- chants of Tyre, for Gold, Spices, and precious bylonia, took name of the Tower Babel; and Stones: of which they had not onely plenty the Tower of the confusion of Tongues. And of their own, but were also furnished from that Shinar was Babylonia, it is proved in the that part of India (called Elana, according eleventh Chapter of Geness, in these words: 10 Strabo) for exchange of their Aroma-And as they went from the East, they found a tiques, and other proper commodities. For, Plain in the Land of Shinar, and there they as Strabo reporteth out of Eratofthenes, In abode: in which Plain Babylon was built (as Persica ora initio Insula est, in qua multi & orcfaid.) Now Shinar being Babylonia, and Canneh, pretiof uniones gignantur: in alise were, clarify the series of in the first beginning of Nimrod's greatness, bo) affirmeth, that, In the beginning of the and before he had subdued any strange, or Persian gulf, there is an Island, in which there far-off Nations, being one part of his Domi- are many precious Pearls bred: and in other, very clear and shining Stones. Now, the difnar, it proveth that Canneh joyneth to Ba- ference between sheba the Son of Raamah, bylonia; which also Ezechiel coupleth with and Seba the Son of Cush, is in this, That Eden, and (further) affirmeth that those of seba is written with the Hebrew (Samech;) Eden were also the Merchants which traded and Sheba with (Schin:) but whatsoever with the Tyrians: and Isaab in the threats the difference may be in the Hebrew Orthography, their Countreys and Habitations are diverse. For sheba is that which bordereth thers had destroyed) nameth the children of the Persian Sea, and Saba (whence the Queen Eden which were at Telassar. But before I of saba) neighboured the Red-Sea; and so conclude where Eden it self lyeth, it is ne that place of the 72 Palm expounded Reges Arabum & Sabæ, hath in the Hebrew this

The shebans, Ezechiel nameth together and Raamah. It is written in Geness the with the Edenites, because they inhabited upon the Out-let of the same River, upon &c. And the sons of Cush were seba, and which the Edenites were seated: and so those thavila and sabtah, and Raamah, &c. And of Sheba, towards the Sea-coast, and upon it, the Sons of Raamah were Sheba, &c. and past up the Countrey, by Tygris and Emphraanon after; Culb begat Nimrod: so as Sheba tes, being joyned in one mainstream, and so was the grand-child of Cush, and Nimrod the through the Region of Eden, which Tygris Son of Culb, whose elder brother was Sebab: boundeth, thereby the better to convey though fome there are that conceive to the their merchandife toward Tyre. And as the contrary, that Nimrod was the elder in va- Cities of Charran, and Channeh, border Eden lour and understanding, though not in time on the West and North-west: so doth sheba on the South, and Chilmad on the North-east: Chilmad being a Region of the higher Media, as appeareth in the Chaldean Paraphrast; which Countrey, by the Geographers is called Coromitena, (L) placed by exchange for (R) which change the Hebrews also often use.

Thus much of those Countries which border Eden, and who altogether traded with the Tyrians: of which, the chief were the Edenites, inhabiting Telaffar: for these Senacherib vaunted, that his Fathers had destroy-Part, and the confining Countrey, strabo Syria, and to Tyrus. Now, to make these calleth Catabria, where the best Myrrhe and things the more plain; we must remember, parts of the Babylonian Empire fell from his obedience, and after his death these Monar-chies were utterly dif-joyned. For it appeareth both in Esay the 37. and in the second of Kings, by the threats of Rabfache, the while the Army of Assyria lay before Jerusalem, that the Cities of Gosan, Haran, Reseph, and the Edenites at Telassar, had refifted the Afgrians: though by them Eley 37. v. Gods of the Nations delivered them whom my and Mescopotamia took the name of Babylonia. (in a fort) mastered and recovered. Have the Fathers have destroyed as Gosan, and Haran, Reseph, and the children of Eden, which were at Telassar? But it appeared manifestly after senacherib's death, that these Nations formerly contending, were then freed from the 2Kingst 9 others subjection: for Efar-Haddon held 35.20.12. Afgria; and Merodach Baladan, Babylonia. And after that the Army of senackerib, commanded by Rabfache which lay before Jeru-Esy39. falem (Hezekias then reigning) while Sena-cherib was in Egypt, was by the Angel of God kias, both to congratulate the recovery of his grow in Eden, an Eastern Region in the borders destroyed; the King of Babel sent to Hezehealth, and his victory obtained over the of Arabia and Mejopotamia. Afgrians. After which overthrow, Senacherib himself was slain by his own sons in the Temple of his Idols, Efar-Haddon succeeding him in Afgria. To the Babylonian Ambassa-Efty 39.1. dours fent by Merodach, Hezekias shewed all his treasures as well proper as consecrate, which invited the Kings of Babylon afterward to undertake their conquest and subversion. So as, the suspition of war encreasing between Babylon and Asyria, the Edenites which inhabited the borders of shinar towards the North, and towards Aßyria, were Junius, fignifying as much as a Bulwork against the Asyrians. This place Hierofolymithis Telassar is the same, which Am. Marcellinue in the History of Julian (whom he folupon a freep and unassaultable Rock, in so the left hand; and Cannels, (which he call- it hath Mofal or Mofel, from which (as in that that before the death of senacherib, many eth Thelbe-Canne) on the right hand; not far from whence, is also found the City of Mann-Canne, upon Tygris; and all these feated together, as Esay and Exechiel have forted them. But the understanding of these places is the more difficult, because Asyria (which the Chaldeans call Atturia,) and Mefopotamia, were so often confounded; the one taken for the other by interchanging of Colmon Dominion. Asyria & Mesopotamia in Babylonia nomen transierunt (faith Niger,) Asyria ons by the Prophets named, in what part of the World Eden is seated, as, by Charran or Haran in McCopotamia: also by Canneh and Resept, according to the opinion of Vatablus, who in these words translateth this place: Plantaverat autem f EHOV AH Deus hortum in Eden, ab Oriente; The Lord God planted a Garden in Eden Eastward: that is (saith he in his Annotations) Jusserat nasci arbores in Eden, Regione Orientali, in finibus Arabia & Mesopotamia; He commanded Trees to of divers other testimonies of the Land of Eden; and that this is the Eden of Paradile.

CHAP. III.

Nd for a more particular pointing out of this Eden, it seemes by the two Epiftles of the Nestorian Christians, that inhabit Mesopotamia: which Epistles in the year 1552. they fent to the Pope about the confirming of their Patriarch, and Andreas Maemployed to bear off the incursions of the sins hath published them, translated out of Afgrians; and their Garrison-place was at Syriae into Latine. By these Epistles (I say) Telassar: and the very word (Telassar) saith it seemes we may have some farther light for the proof of that, which we have faid about the Region of Eden in those parts. For in tanus takes for Resem, others for selencia: but them both, there is mention of the Island of Eden in the River Tygris, or at least, Tygris in both these Epistles is called the River of lowed in the enterprize of Persia) calleth Eden. This Island, as Massins in his Preface to Thislutha in stead of Telassar, who describe the these Epistles saith, is commonly called Gothe exceeding strength thereof in his 24, zoria (as it were, The Island, by an eminen-Book: It is scatted in an Island of Emptrates cy.) It hath (faith he) ten miles in circuit, and was fometimes walled round about, which much as the Emperour Julian durst not at name of the Illand Eden may (doubtles) retempt it; and therefore it was a conveni- main to this day; though in the reft of the ent place for a Garrison against the Asyrians, Region so called, this name be swallowed being alio a patiage out of Mesopotamia into up with the same of those flourishing King-Babylonia, and in which the Edenites of the doms of Melopotamia, Afgria, Babylonia, and Country adjoyning were lodged to defend | Chaldea. This Illand of Eden hath up the Rithe same. This place Ptolemy calleth Teridata, ver, and not far beyond it, the City of Hahaving Resepb (which he calleth Resepba) on San-Cepba, otherwise Fortis Petra: belowit, by Marius Niger is remembred among the on of other Languages, received new and Cities higher up Tygris, in these words, Juxta differing names. For the South part of Christians that dwelt there (the Seat of cns, otherwise by Plutarch and Atheneus call-whose Patriarch it is) ought to be of credit, ed Istri, who lived in Egypt in the Reign of City, which Ptolemy and Tacitus call Ninus, River of Tygris.

den, and that the name of Eden in those parts to come) cannot be unknown. Now that is not yet quite worn out, though the Regi- Hiddekel and Perath, were Tygris and Euphra-which followeth it shall appear out of Mass- on hath been subject to the same change us) it is not above twelve miles distant. Neithat all other Kingdoms of the world have ther is it to trouble us, That Mofal or Mofel, been, and hath by conquest and corruptiautem Tygrim, Civitates sunt Dorbeta prope Eden, which stretcheth over Enphrates, was Taurum montem, que nune Mosel dicitur; after the Floud called shiner, and then, of magna sanè, &c. (that is) By Tygris are these the Tower of Babel, Babylonia; and the Cities, Dorbeta neer unto mount Taurus (which North part of Eden is that Tract of Mesopotais now called Mofel) which is a great one, &c. mia, Afgria, and Armenia, which imbraceth This opinion of Niger, displacing Mosel, and both the banks of Tigris between Mount making it to be Darbeta (Hay) needs not Taurus, and Sciencia. And of this Region of here to trouble us: seeing for this matter, Eden that antient Ethicus maketh mention, the testimony of Masins, informed by the (not that latter Æthicus, Disciple of Galliniavowing that this Mofal (or Mozal) is in the Philadelphus; but another of a far higher Confines of Mesopotamia and Asseria, scated and remote time) the same being made Laupon Tyeris, and in the neighbour-hood of tine out of the Greek by Saint Hierom. And Nineve; and that it is the famous Seleucia though by corruption of the antient Copie Parthorum. The Nestorian Christians in their it be written, in Athicus, Adonis for Edenis: former Epistle, call it Attur in these words: yet Adonis being a River of Phanicia, can-Ex omnibus civitatibus & pagis que funt cir- not be understood to be the Region named cum Civitatem Mosel (hoc est) Attur, in vici-nia Nineves; Of all the Cities and Townes try, and not a River, and joyneth it with which are about the City of Mosal (that is) At- Mesopotamia and Æthiopia, calling the land tur in the neighbour-hood of Nineve. As also of Chus Æthiopia, after the Vulgar, and Sep-Niger acknowledgeth Ctefiphon a City there- tuagint. And lastly, the River which waterabout to be called Affir, (which is the same eth the Regions (saith Æthieus) salleth in-as Attur, after the Dialect of those Nations, to the Gulf of Persia. which River he called which change shinto T.) Neither is it much | Armodius for Tygris; Tygris being but a that he should mistake Ctessphon, (which is name imposed for the swiftness thereof. And not sar off seleucia) for seleucia, to be Assur. out of Armenia, both Tygris and Euphrates By this then we may come somewhat near have their original: for out of Eden came a the end of our purpose. For the Isle of Eden, River, or Rivers, to water the Garden, both which lieth in the brest of Tygris, is but | which Rivers (to wit) Tygris and Euphrates, twelve miles from Mosal, and that antient come out of Armenia, and both of them traverse Mesopotamia, Regions first of all known and the Scriptures Nineve; Philostratus, and | by the name of Eden, for their beauty and Simeon Sethi, Mofula, and John Lean, Mofal, | fertility. And it is very probable, that Eden others Mosse, (though it be not the same contained also some part of Armenia; and with Mosal) is set but a little higher upon the excellent fertility thereof in divers places the same River of Tygris, near Mosal: so that is not unworthy the name of Eden. For in we are like to find this Isle of Eden herea- some part thereof (saith strabo) the leaves bout. For the same Andreas Massus, which are alway green, and therefore therein a perplaceth it above Mosal, makes it to be be- petual Spring. Also Stephanus, de Urbibus, low Hasan-Cepha, which is upon the same mentioneth the City of Adana upon Euphrates: and the name of Eden was in use in A-The only difficulty is this, that fome per- mos's time, though he spake not of Eden in haps may think, that the words of the Ne- the East, but of Eden in Calo-Syria. But to florians in both their Epistles, speak not of a- the end I may not burthen the Readers pany îsle in Tygris, called the Isle of Eden, but tience with too long a Discourse, it may sufof an Ile in Tiggris, a River of Eden. But this fice to know, that Enphrates and Tygris (once fense of their words in my opinion seemeth joyned together, and afterward separate) the more unprobable. And yet, if this were are two of those four heads, into which these the meaning here, we have a testimony from Rivers which are said to water the Garden the Learned of those parts, that not only of Paradise, were divided: whose courses be-Emphrates, but also Tygris was a River of E- ing known, Eden (out of which they are faid

CHAP. III

43

Hiddekel, Tygrim omnes exponunt; And all Tygris. And in a second Epistle at the same men understand Hiddekelby Tyeris (faith Va- time fent, they used these words: Neq. superfunt tablus.) And because that which I have said apud nos Metropolite, quorum est ordinare Caof the Isle of Eden shall not be subject to the tholicum: sed foli panci Episcopi, Episcopus Arbela, censure of self-invention, Thave here-under Episcopus almasti. Episcopus Adurbeigansen è vefet down the words out of the two general figio convenimus in Insulam, que est intra Ty-Epistles of the Nestorians, as Massus (ad ver- grim slumen, Eden, secimusq, compactum inter bum) hath converted them into Latine. The nos, &c. (which is) Neither are there remaining occasion of those Letters and Supplications among us any Metropolitan Bishops, to whom it to the Pope, were, That the Nestorian Christi- belongs to ordain a Patriarch, but only a few Bians, which inhabit Mesopotamia, Afgria, Per- Sops, as the Bishop of Arbela, the Bishop of Salfia, Babylonia, and have to this day (at least massus, and the Bishop of Adurbeigan: but lo, in Queen Marys time they had) fifteen Chur- we assembled speedily in the Islandof Eden, which ches in one City called seleucia Parthorum, is in Tygris, and agreed between our felves, &c. or Mosel upon the River of Tygris; having no fufficient authority to choose themselves eth with other places; which being well a Patriarch (which cannot be done without conceived, the Nefforian Epiftles, and the four or three Metropolitan Bishops at the state of the Church may be in those parts leaft) fent to the Bilhop of Rome, in the year (faith he) the better understood. And after of Christ 1552. (as afore-said) a Petition to he hath distinguished the four forts of Christians and the said of Christians (Article State obtain allowance unto such an Election, as stians in those parts of the World, and in the themselves had made: having three hundred South part of Africa, which he calleth Nestoyear before that, upon the like defect, fent rians, Jacobites, Maronita, and Cophii, he goone Marius thither to be confirmed; and eth on in these words: Mox, and it illins in this negotiation they made known to the morte, concurrisse aichant immultuario in illam Bishop of Rome the state of the Christian quam mode dixi Tygris Insulam, que duodecim Church in those parts: for, upon the death circiter passium millibus supra Mosal posta, deof their Patriarch (who of a covetous defire to enrich himself, had forborn to institute Metropolitan Bishops, when the places fell void) they all assembled themselves together to confult of the Church-government. And because all the Patriarchs for an hundred years had been of one House and Family to the prejudice of the Church, and that there yet remained one Bishop of the same Stock and Kindred, who aspired to the same dignity which his Predecessors had held; the rest of the profesiors resuled to allow him. Upon which occasion, and for the choice of a Governour more sufficient, the Teachers in all the Churches affembled themselves. The words of the general Epiftle to the Pope are these, about the middle of the said Epistle; Verum nos non acceptavimus, neq; proclamavimus ipsum; sed subità convenimus ex omnibus locis Orientalibus, & ex omnibus Civitatibus & Pagis que sunt circum civitatem Mosel (hoc est, Attur)in vicini à Nineves, ex Babylonià, ex Charrà, ex Arnis Eden, Sc. i.e. But we did neither accept of toute l' Afie 3 Geserta or Gestre is in the middle belå, ex Infulå quæ eft in medio Tygris, flumithis man, neither pronounced him: but suddenly of Tygris, the soyle the most fertile of all Asia. me affembled our selves out of all parts of the East, and out of all the Cities and Villages which den liveth; and of that Eden which lyeth npon Nineve; and out of Babylon, Carrha, Ar- where Moses wrote, and that Eden which bella; and out of the Island which beth in the bordereth Carran according to Exechiel, and

tes, it is agreed by all: for the Severty and | middle of Tygris, a River of Eden, or rather all others convert Perath by Euphrates: 6 out of the Isle of Eden, which lyeth in the River

Now this Island of Eden, Masins describcem fere millia passium suo ambitu continet, muris undiq; cincta, & à paucis aliis quam Christianis hominibus habitata: which is. Now hearing of the death of the Patriarck, (as those that came to Rome reported) they ran tumultuously together into that Island of Tygris or Eden before spoken of, which Island is situated about twelve miles above Mosal, containing very neer ten miles in compaß, and every where invironed with a wall, inhabited by few other men then Christians. And afterward, he maketh a recapitulation of the Christian Churches; among the rest he addeth the Isle of Eden by the name of Geserta, Insula Iggris; five Geserta. Furthermore, describing the City of Hosan-Cepha, or Fortis Petra, he placeth it supra prædict am Tygris Insulam, rupi aspera impositam; Above the aforesaid Island of Tygris, being seated on a steep Rock. Of this Island of Geferta, Andrew Thevet maketh mention in his tenth Book of his general Cosmography, in these words: Geserta ou Gesire est au milieu de la Riviere du Tygre, & pense que c'est une terre des plus fertiles de

By this we see that the antient name of Eare about Mofel (or Attur) neighbouring Eastward from Arabia Petrea, and the Defart that Eden which is feated according to the stead of (Trees:) And thirdly, The man effection of the said Prophet, and joyned and his wife hid themselves from the presence with those Nations of Reseph, Ganneh, and Charran, and the rest which traded with the Tyrians, and is found at this day in the parting of the two Regions of Affyria, and Babylonia, where the Edenites in Thelassar were garrifoned to refift the Affrians, whose difplantation Senacherib vaunted of (as above written;) and lastly, the same Eden, which embraceth Tygris, and looketh on Euphrates, two of the known Rivers of those four, which are by all men ascribed to Paradise.

6. XI.

Of the difficulty in the Text, which feemeth to make the four Rivers to rife from one fiream.

DUt it may be objected, that it is written in the Text, That a River went out of Eden, he, hath these words: Et fluvius egrediebatur de loco voluptatis ad irrigandum Paradisum, qui inde dividebatur in quatuor capita: Que verba melius consentient cum rei narratione, & ejusdem explicatione, sita reddanturs | where it is noted, that following the River Et fluvins erat egrediens ex Edene (hoc est) fluvii procedebant ex Edene regione ad riganin quatuor capita: which is, And a River to Assyria) were up Tygris. went out of the place of pleasure to mater Paraof Eden, and not to the Garden it felf.

of God; In medio ligni Paradifi; In the middle of the tree of the Garden, for (Trees.) And of this opinion is David Kimchi, and Vatablus, who upon this place of Genesis say, that the Hebrews do often put the Singular for the Plural, as illud, for unumquodq; illorum; and he giveth an instance in this question it self, as, A River (for Rivers) went out of Eden.

And this answer out of divers of the Learned, may, not without good reason, be given to the objection, That Moses speaketh but of one River, from which the heads should divide themselves. Howbeit I deny not, but with as good (and perhaps better) reason, we may expound the four heads, to be four notable passages into samous Countries. And so we may take the word (River) Verse the tenth for one River, (to wit) Enand not Rivers in the plural: which scruple phrates, as this name comprehendeth all the Matthew Beroaldus hath thus answered in his | branches thereof. For this River (after he Chronologie: The Latine Translation, saith is past the place, where we suppose Paradise to have been) divides it felf, and ere long vieldeth four notable paffages into feveral Countries, though not all the way down stream (for this is no where in the Text) downward, there is conveyance into the Countries named in the Text, though part dum pomarium; & inde dividebatur, & erat of the way to one of the Countries (to wit,

To this end the Text speaking of Hiddedise, and thence was divided into four heads: kel, as it riseth from the River of Eden, doth Which words (faith Beroaldus) do better a- not fay, it compasseth or washeth the whole gree with the narration and explication of Region of Assyria (as it had used this phrase the place, if they be thus translated; And a of Pison and Gehon) but that it runneth to-River was going forth of Eden (that is) Rivers | wards Afgria. The first branch Pifon, is Nawent forth, and ran out of the Region of Eden har-malcha (by interpretation) Basilius, or to water the Orchard; and from thence it was flumen regium, which runneth into Tygris undivided, and they became four heads. The Ty- der Apamia; whence rifeth the name of Pasigurine differs from the Vulgar or Latine; for Tygris, as it were Pifo-Tygris. This leadeth to it converts it thus, Et fluvius egrediebatur de the Land of Havila or Sustana. The second deliciis; And a River went out of pleasure, in branch Gehon, is that which in Historians is stead of Eden; and the Latine addeth the Nabarfares or Narragas; for Nahar-ragas: word locus, or place, Et fluvius egrediebatur both which names fignific flumen derivatum de loco voluptatis; And a River went out of (a River derived,) also Acracanus, quasi Rathe place of pleasure: and so the word (place) nosus, by reason of the Froggie Fens which may rightly be referred to Eden, which was it maketh: this Gehon leadeth to the first (of all other) a Region most delightful and seat of Chus, about the borders of Chaldea fertile; and so also the word (inde) and thence, and Arabia, and it is lost at length in the was divided, hath reference to the Country | Lakes of Chaldea. The third branch Hiddekel, may be expounded the upper stream of And for the word (River) for Rivers, it is Pison, or Basilius, which runneth into Hiddekel, usual among the Hebrems: for it is written: properly io called (that is, into Tygris) above Let the Earth bud forth the bud of the Herb | Selencia, where it sheweth a pallage up Tythat feedeth Seed, the fruitful Tree, &c. Here gris into Affria: where, because at length it the Hebrew meeth the Singular for the Plural, is called Hiddekelor Tygris, having before no Herb and Tree, for Herbs and Trees; and a known proper name, the Text in this place gain, We cat of the fruit of the Tree, in calleth it Hiddekel from the beginning. The be spoken of the beginning of their division Meats and Wine, and Honey, ordering them from the first stream. Caput aque (faith Ulpinascatur, fons; si ex slumine, vel ex lacu, pri- the East-India, Strabo and Niger add a fourth for the head: if out of a Lake, then the Lake; parate and divided, then where that branch of the River.

6. XII.

Of the strange fertility and happiness of the Babylonian Soyl, as it is certain that Eden

TT may also be demanded, whether this Region of Eden, by us described, be of fuch fertility and beauty, as Eden the feat of Paradise was: which, if it be denied, then to any part of the Earth, nor the same virhad before the Floud; and therefore this Region of Eden may be now no fuch flouit self; for the Isle of Eden is but twelve between Tygris and Euphrates, of so fruitmiles, or thereabout, from Nineveh, and so full and fat a foil, that they are faid to drive fourth Perath, or Euphrates, fo called per ex- from Mofal. Ex Euphrate exiens in Tygrim, cellentiam, being the body of the River Eu- alterum flumen, juxta quod Orbs Nini sita phrates, which runneth through Eabylon and erat. Hac Regio, omnium quas nos vidimus, Otris. But be it a River or Rivers, that come optima eft, &c. Where Euphrates runneth out out of Eden, feeing that Tygris and Euphrainto Tygris, not far from the place where Niter are noted in the Text, there can be no nus is feated. This Region, of all that we have doubt, but that Paradise was not far from seen, is most excellent: and he addeth afterthese Rivers: for that Ferath in Moses is ward; Cereris autem fruin procreando aded Euphrates, there can be no question; and ferax est, ut nunquam non fere ducenta red-(indeed) as plain it is that Hiddekel is Tygris. dat, &c. (that is) It is fo fruitfull in bringing For Hiddekel goeth (faith Moses) Eastward forth Corn, that it yieldeth two hundred fold: towards Affir, as we find, that Tygris is the The leaves of Wheat and Barley, being almost River of Affria proprie dieta, whole chief four fingers broad. As for the beight of Millet City was Nineveh, as in Genesis the tenth it is and Sesame, they are even in length like unto written: That out of that Land (to wit) Trees; which although I know to be true, yet I Babylonia, Nimrod went into Asim; and build-forbear to speak bereof, well knowing, that ed Nineveh, which was the chief City of those things which are reported of this finitful-And as for the kind of speech here used in never were in the Countrey of Babylon. They the Text, speaking of four heads; though the have commonly in all the Countrey Palm-Trees heads of Rivers be (properly) their Fountains, yet here are they to be understood, to bearing finit, out of which they make both

To this Palm-Tree, fo much admired in mainitia, &c. If the beginning of the mater be excellency, which is, that it yieldeth bread; out of a Fountain, then is the Fountain taken Ex quibus panem, & mel, & vinum, & aceand if from a main River any branch be se- Bread, Wine, Honey, and Vineger. But Antodoth first bound it self with new banks, there not inseriour to any of those four, which is, is that part of the River, where the branch that from this self-same Tree, there is drawn forfaketh the main stream, called the head a kind of fine Flax, of which people make they prepare the cordage for their Ships. And that this is true, Athanasius in the life of Antonius the Eremite, confesseth, saying: That he received a garment made thereof from the Eremite himself, which he brought with him out this Region. So therefore those Trees which the East Indies so highly esteem and so much admire (as indeed the Earth yielded no plant comparable to this) those Trees (I fay) are in this upper Babylon, or Region of Eden, as common as any Trees of must we also consider, that there was no the Field. Sunt etiam (faith Strabo) passim per ty and pleasure, that it had before the Curse: There are of Palms over all the whole Region, neither can we accibe the same fruitfulness growing of their own accord. Of this place, Quintus Curtius makeththis report : Euntitue to any Plant thereon growing, that they bus à parte læva Arabia (odorum fertilitate & Euphratem jacens, tam ubere & pingui solo, rishing Countrey, asit was when it was first ut d pastu repelli pecora dicantur, ne satietas created in his perfection. Yet this I find written of it: First, in Herodotus, who was an hand of Arabia (famous for plenty of sweet 0eye-witnes, and speaketh of the very place dours) there lieth a Champain Countrey placed their Cattel from pasture, lest they should perish | world: the Scriptures making it so plain, by satiety. Bis in anno segetes Babylonii fecant; The Babylonians cut their Corn twice a pear (faith Niger.) And as Countreys gene- Reason, and Experience bearing witness. rally are more fruitfull to the Southward, There is no errour which hath not some slipthan in the Northern parts: fo we may pery and bad foundation, or fome appearjudge the excellency of this by that report ance of probability, resembling truth, which which Strabo maketh of the South parts of when men (who study to be singular) find America, which is the North border of Eden, out (straining Reason according to their or a part thereof. His words be these in the fancies) they then publish to the world mat-Latine: Tota enim hac regio frugibus & arboribus abundat mansuetis, itemque semper virentibus; This Region aboundeth with pleasant minds, to find some partakers or sectators, fruits, and Trees always green: which wit- the better by their help to nurse and chenefleth a perpetual Spring, not found elfewhere but in the Indies onely, by reason of tions have begotten. the Sun's neighourhood, the life and stirrer up of Nature in a perpetual activity. In brief, of Pison) seemeth to have grown out of the fo great is the fertility of the ground, that not-diffinguishing of that Region in India, the people are constrained twice to mow called Havilah, from Havilah which adjoyndown their Corn-fields, and a third time to eth to Babylonia, afterward known by the eat them up with Sheep: which husbandry name of Susiana. For Havilab upon Tygris, the Spaniards wanting in the Valley of took name from Havilah the Son of Culb; fruitless. Besides, those fields are altoge- Moses setteth down the generations of Noah, ther without weeds (faith Pling) who adden the sons after the Floud. For the Sons deth this fingularity to that foil, That the of Culb were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, and Ra-Gun, 10.77 ling down of the feeds again) yieldeth them and Havilah, &c. of which latter (to wie) a harvest of Corn without any further la- of ophir and Havilah the Sons of Jodan, that 1 nd. bour: his words are these, Obertatis tante Island of Ophir, (whence Solomon had Gold)

6. XIII.

Fter the discovery of Eden, and the te-A stimonies of the sertility thereof, it resteth to prove that Pison and Gehon are branout: for Euphrates, or Tygris, or both, be chosen than Ganges: for the River Indus on that River or Rivers of Eden, which water this fide India, for beauty, for nearness, and Paradife; which River or Rivers, Moses wit- for ability, giveth no way place to Ganges, neffeth afterward divided into four heads, but exceedeth it in all. And how can any whereof the one is called Pilon; the other reasonable man conceive, that Ganges can be Gehon, &c. Could there be a stranger fancy of the four heads, seeing Indus cometh bein the world; than when we find both these tween it and Tygris? and between Tygris (namely) Tygris and Euphrates in Afgria and and Indus is all that large Empire of Perfua, Melopotamia, to feek the other two in India confifting of many Kingdoms. And again, farand Egypt, making the one Ganges, and the ther towards the East, and beyond Indus, are Other Milus? Two Rivers as far distant as all those ample Dominions of India intra any of fame known or discovered in the Gangem, which lie between those two proud."

that these Rivers were divided into four branches, and with the Scriptures, Nature, ter of contention and jangling; not doubting, but in the variable deformity of mens rish such weak Babes, as their own inven-

But this militaking (and first for the River Mexico, for the first fourty years, could and Havilah in India; from Havilah the Son not make our kind of Wheat bear feed, but of Jostan; the one remembred by Moses in it grew up as high as the Trees, and was the description of Paradise, the other where fecond year, the very stubble (or rather fal- amab; and the Sons of Jost an were Ophir, HILLIE funt, ut sequenti anno sponte restibilis stat and Havilah adjoyning, had their names. Now, because Ganges is a great and a famous Gen. 10. River of the East India, and Havilah a Coun-19 try of the same, and is situated upon Ganges, hence it came that Ganges was taken for Pi-Of the River Pison, and the Land of Havilah. Son, which River is said by Moses, to water the Land of Havilah. Or perhaps, it was fup- Gen. 111 posed, that those four Rivers named by Moses, must of necessity be four of the greatest in the World; whence (supposing that ches of Tygris and Euphrates: For, that the Ganges was the next great and famous Riknowledge and certainty of these two Ri- ver after Tygris and Emphrates) they chose vers should trouble so many wise men, it is out this River to make one of the four. And strange to me; seeing necessity it self (Tygris | yet certainly there is another River, whom and Emphrates being known) findeth them in these respects they should rather have

Kingdom of Mogor. So as if Indus be not accounted for any of the four, because it is Son of Jostan, who inhabited with his broremoved from Tygris by all the breadth of Persia, then how much less Ganges, which falleth into the Ocean, little less than fourty degrees to the Eastward of Indus? Surely, whosoever readeth the Story of Alexander, shall find that there is no River in Asia, that can exceed Indus. For Hydaspis was of that breadth and depth, as Alexander thereon in great Gallies transported himself, and the greatest part of his Army, and in sailing down that branch of Indus, found it so large and deep, and by reason thereof so great a billow, as it endangered his whole Fleet, which was ready to be swallowed up therein: Hydaspis (as aforesaid) being but one of many branches of Indus, comparable to it, and as great as it, having befides this, the Rivers of Coas, of Suaftus, Acesines, Adris (otherwise Hirotis,) Hispalis, and Zaradus, all which make but one Indus, and by it are swallowed up with all their children and companions, which being all | before. incorporated and made one stream, it cross-eth the Ocean Sea. But because Pison, which compasseth Ha-Gen. 2.15. vilab, as also Gehon, which watereth Cufb, which the other two heads do proceed; the other be Ganges, or Nilus: For Nilus rifeth in the uttermost of the South, and runneth Northward into the Mediterran Sea: and the River Ganges rifeth out of the Mountain Imaus, or (as others will have it) Cauher own India, and Nilus through Ethiopia and therefore could not at any time from thence be separated, or divided into sour heads or branches, according to Moses.

Therefore the River Pison, which inrichfelf with Tygris, was therefore called Pifi-Tygris or Pifo-Tygris, of Pifon and Tygris, Gen. 2. v. which River watereth that Havilah, which rath: Josephus, Phorah; Eusebius, Zozimus:

Rivers of Indus and Ganges, now called the | Havilab the fon of Cufb gave name unto, and not Havilah of India, so called of Havilah the ther Opkir in the East. And this Havilah of the Cushites had also Gold, Bdellium, and the Onyx stone. This Bdellium is a Tree of the bigness of an Olive, whereof Arabia hath great plenty, which yieldeth a certain Gum fweet to fmell to, but bitter in tafte, called also Bdellium. The Hebrews take the Loadstone for Bdellium. Beroaldus affirmeth, that Bdela in Hebrew fignifieth Pearl: fo doth Eugubinus; and Hierom calls it Oleaster: be it what it will, a tree bearing Gum or Pearl, Havilah or Susiana hath plenty of both. Now this Country of Susiana or Havilah, stretcheth it felf towards the North as far as the Altars of Hercules, and from thence imbraceth all the Tract of Land Southward, as far as the Persian Gulfe, on the East side thereof: from which East side had the shebans (which traded with the City of Tyre according to Ezekiel) their great plenty of Gold; which strabo also witnesseth, as was shewed

. The Greeks had a conceit, that Pifon was sunh. Danubius: the Rabbins take it for Nilus. 1804. Aben-Ezra (saith Hopkins) out of Rabbi Saaeth athwart Asia, and then at Cambaia visitdia, translateth Pison into Nilus: But Nilus findeth the same impossibility that Ganges must somewhere be joyned with the rest in doth: and Danubius hath the Sea of Helleone body, or at least be found to proceed foont, and all Asia the less between it and out of the same Country of Eden, out of Tyeris. Now Pison, which runneth through Havilah or Susiana, doth to this day retain out of doubt they cannot either the one or some signe of this name; for where it and Tygris embraceth each other under the City of Apamia, there do they agree of a joynt and compounded name, and are called Pifo-Tygris. And it is strange unto me, that from fo great antiquity there should be found recasus, which divides the Northern Scythia | maining any resembling sound of the first from India. and runneth from North to South name: for Babylon it felf, which dwelleth so many into the Indian Ocean. And as for Perath and | near these Rivers, is by some writers known Hiddekel (that is, Euphrates and Tygris) the by the name of Bandas, as, by Postellus: by one of them is begotten in Armenia, near | Castaldus, of Balduch: by Barins, of Bagdadi, Them. Georgiana or Iberia, the other is not far off in the same Armenia, by the Georgian Moun-yet all those that have lately seen it, call it specified the same Armenia, by the Georgian Moun-yet all those that have lately seen it, call it specified the same Armenia, by the Georgian Moun-yet all those that have lately seen it, call it specified the same Armenia, by the Georgian Moun-yet all those that have lately seen it, call it specified the same Armenia, by the Georgian Moun-yet all those that have lately seen it. tains; so as Ganges, who only travaileth in Bagdet. To this River of Pison Ptolemy indeed with many others give the name of Baand Egypt, never faw the land of Eden, or silins or Regins, and Gekon they term Maharjoyned themselves in one channel, either fares, and Marsias, and Baarsares. So is Euwith themselves, or with either of the other; | phrates, near the Spring and Fountain, by Strabo and Pliny called Pixirates: by Junius, Puck-perah, out of the Hebrew (that is) The profusion, or coming forth of Euphrates: where it breaketh through the Mountain eth Havilah, is the same which by joyning it Taurus, it takes the name of Omyra. Plutarch calls it Medus and Zaranda: the Hebrens Parath (faith Ar. Montanus:) Pagninus, Pe-

Ammianus, Chalymicus: Giftilianus and Co- did the Uraelites and Amalekites polles all limities, term it Cobar: which Exechiel call- the interjacent Countries: for Saul Imore as Diglito and Diglath, Seilax and Sollax : of the Hebrews it was called Hiddekel: now of the inhabitants, Teail.

CHAP. III.

But Mercer upon Genesis conceiveth rightreason why these two Rivers, joyned in one (below Apamia,) lose their names and are called Pist-Tigris, and the memory of Euphrates extinguished, is, because the best part of Euphrates running through the channel of Gehon, finketh into the Lakes of Chaldea, not far from Ur, the City of Abraham, and fall not entirely into the Persian Sea, as Tygris, accompanied with Pifon, doth.

This errour, That Pison was Ganges, was first broached by Tolephus, (whose fields, though they be fertile, yet are they exceeding full of weeds) and other men (who take his authority to be sufficient in matter of defeription, whereupon depended no other important consequence) were not curious in Pison so far out of his way thither, so I feription, whereupon depended no other and of Havilah, the Son of Cush did that Region take name, which Pison compasseth; and the Land (called Cufb) which Gekon watereth, took name of Cuff himself. For as the division he findeth in Strabo, out of Homer. Sons of Jostan, Ophir, and Havilah, seated Babylonia, where Nimrod built Babel: for Havilah, or Chavilah, was first Chusea, of Cush; then chusa, Susa, and Sustana.

Frem this Havilah unto the Defarts of Sur,

eth Chebar; but this is but a branch of Eu- the Amalekites from Havilab to Sur: which phrates. The Afgrians know it by the name Sur, the Chaldean Paraphrast converteth Haof Armalchar, or Nahor Malcha: but now gra, and Hagra bordereth the Red-Sea. But 15am. 15. this was not meant from sur upon the Red-7. The same confusion of names hath Tygris, Sca, to Havilab in the East India, for Sant was no fuch Travailer or Conquerour, and therefore Havilah must be found nearer home, where the Sons of Ismael inhabited, and which Country saul wasted: for Amaly of these Rivers: for Euphrates and Tygris lek and the Amalekites possess d that neck of (faith he) ftream into four branches; two Country, between the Persian Sea, and the of which keep their antient names, and the Red Sea; Havilah being the extream of the other two are called Pijon and Gehon. The one, towards the East, and Sin of the other, towards Egypt and the West, leaving that great body of Arabia felix towards the South, and they spread themselves with the Midianites and Edumeans, from the Eastpart, or backfide of the Holy Land, to the banks of Euphrates, comprising the best part of Arabia Petraa, and Deferta.

S. XIV.

Of the River Gehon, and the Land of Culh, and of the ill translating of Ethiopia for Cush, 2 Chron. 21. 16.

the examination thereof. For, Epiphanius, fay did Cuff (being by the Seventy translated Augustine, and Hierom, take this for currant; Ethiopia) force Gebon into Africa. For Custo whereof it followed, that as Pison was trans- being taken for Ethiopia by the Greeks, whom ported into the Eaft India to find out Havi- the Latines followed, Gehon confequently lab: fo was Gebon drawn into Africa to com- was effeemed for Nilus. But Ethiopians are, pals Æthiopia. But if Havilab, whereof Mo- as much as black or burnt faces, whose proper see more fer speaketh in the description of Paradife, be Country called Thebaider, lyeth to the South-of this found to be a Region, adjoyning to Babylon on the one fide and confidentials in Solution ward of all Egypt. And although there be Sed, 10. on the one fide, and Culb (which is falfly in many other Regions of Elbiopians, and far terpreted Athiopia) faltned to it on the o- South in Africa; yet those of Thebaides are ther fide, we shall not need then to work those so often remembred in the Egyptian wonders (that is) to impose upon menthe stories, and out of which Nation they had transportation of Rivers, from one end of the many times their Kings of Egypt: all which World to the other, which (among other Ethiopians are very near, or elfe directly unuses) were made to transport men. Now it der the Equinodial line, which is very far was in the Vally of shinar, where Cush the from that Land inhabited by the Chuster, Son of Ham first fate down with his Sons 8ke- who are neither black of colour; nor in any bab, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, Nimrod, &c. fort neighbouring Torrida Zona. But this translation of the Septuagint, Penerius doth qualifie in this manner: There are (saith he) two Ethiopia's, the East, and West: and this themselves as near rogether as they could in Chus Ethiopia in Africa, Perevius will make India, fo did the Sons of Cuff in Shinar, or Chush and the land of the Chustes (which is Arabia Petraa, and part of Arabia the Happy, with the Region of Madian) to be the East Ethiopia.

Now, if it be granted, that Chufb, and the

CHAP. III.

Land of the Chushites be that Tract from Sur | Book, and eighth Chapter, citeth Homer for to Havilah, according to the Scriptures: Habitavit Ishmael ab Havilah usque Sur, qua reficit Agyptum introcuntibus Affrios, Ismael lus to the South of Egypt, and is the South dwelt from Havilah unto Sur, that is, towards border thereof; now a part of the Em-Egypt, as thou goest toward Assyria. The same pire of the Abissims under Prester John; fufficeth to prove that Gehon cannot be Nilus, but a River that watereth cush, and not Æthiopia. But this place of Scripture, Habitavit call Senega and Gambra: for thereabouts Imael,Sec. hath this sense: Imael dwelt from are these Athiopians called Perors, Dararites, Havilah, which is the way of Affria, or the with divers other names, which Pliny num-Countrey bordering Affyria; and Sur, which lieth toward Egypt, which is as much to say, as, The issues of Issues (whereof there were Agrips and Juba; which Regions indeed (1). as, The mucs of Appmaer Whitelet the twelve Princes) whom God had promifed to mean that of Niger, and that of Treffer John, make a great people, inhabited all those Regions between the border of Egypt and Afyria. And that they were (according to the elites, &c. they are extended directly North Word of God) so increased and multiplied, it well appeared, when Zearah the Chusite, which others call Tharantha, brought an Armie of ten hundred thousand against Asa King of Juda. Which Armie came not out of against the Æthiopians: for in that (to make Æthiopia beyond Egypt; for that had been a Chus, Æthiopia) he transporteth Madian by strange progress for such a multitude, as ten hundred thousand, having so mighty a King as the King of Egypt, between Palestina and Æthiopia. But these were the Chusites, Amalekites, Madianites, Ismaelites, and Arabians. For it is written, that after Asa (strengthened by God) had defeated this world of an on of the Greek Copie, than otherwise. And Armie, he in following his Victory took some of the Cities of King Zearah round about, as Gerar. Now, that Gerar is a City of the Æthiopians, it cannot be suspected : for these drink the mater of Nilus? Quid tibi vis in via be the words of the Scripture disproving it: Exod. 17.8. And Abraham departed thence, toward the South Countrey, and dwelt between Kadesh and Sojourned in Gerar : Now Sur is that part upon which Moses and the Ifraelites first set their feet after they passed the Red-Sea, where brew, but Sichor; which signifieth black and the Amalekites in Rephidim fet on them, suppofing that they had been weary, and unable Exod. 10. to relift. Again, in the Story of Isaac it is written: Wherefore Isaac went to Abimelech, and the Philistines unto Gerar: and I am

The first Book of the first Part

an Authour of these two Æthiopia's. But the East Æthiopia is that which compasseth Nieth it self with the River Niger, which we and the Troglodites) lie due East and West. But as for Cufb, and the Region of the Imafrom that Æthiopia, which is beyond Egypt. Now, that Josephus was exceeding gross herein, it appeareth by that fiction which he hath of Moses when he served Phar aoh, in the Wars miracle over the Red-Sea, and beyond all Egypt, and setteth it in Æthiopia, as shall be shewed more at large in the Chapter of the World's Plantation. Again, that Gehon was improperly translated Nilus, Pererius confesseth, and layeth it rather to the corruptiwhereas the septuagint have converted this place of the Prophet Hieremie; And what hast thou now to do in the way of Egypt, to Egypti, ut bibas aquam Gehon? To this saith Pererius, profecto Hebraice ibi non est vox C. 1. 11 Gehon, sed Sichor, que significat Nigrum & turbidum: Truly (faith Pererius) the word Gehon in this place, is not found in the Hetroubled water. fure Abimelech and the Philistines were no Æthiopians. And lastly, Moses himself, where he describeth the bounds of Canaan, hath these words: Then the border of the Canaanites was from Sydon, as thou comest to Gerar: for sy-North, and Gerar by Gaza towards the South. But indeed, howsoever Pererius doth, with an honest excuse, salve this Translation of Chus for Æthiopia; yet it appeareth plainly, that the septuagint and Josephus did altogether mif-understand this place. And first, for

Furthermore, this is a manifest and unanswerable argument, that Chus was ill taken for Æthiopia. Moses married the daughter of Jethro, Prince and Priest of Madian, Exelus whom both the Greek and Latine call a Ma- &3-1. diante, and not Æthiopissan, as (with Jo- 1. sephus) the Geneva converts it, though it help it a little with a marginal Note. Now it is without dispute, that Zipporah was of don was the frontier of Canaan towards the the Countrey of Madian, which is that part of Arabia Petraa, bordering the Red-Sea; for it is written in the fecond of Exodus, that Moses fled from Pharaoh into the Land of Midian, and fate down by a Well, &c. And again, in the third of Exodus; When Moses kept the vest Sheep of Jethro, his father-in-law, Prieft of Homer's East and West Athiopia, they are Madian, &. Indeed, these four Nations are both found ellewhere: For Pling in his fifth every where mixt in the Scriptures, because

Madianites, the Ismaelites, the Amalekites, and the Chustes, which were all, in one general word, Arabians; and in the Scriptures fometimes called by one of these names, and fometimes by another; as in Gen. 37. v. 25. 27, and 28. that Toleph was fold to the Ilmaelites; and in the same Chapter, v. 36. it is written, that the Midianites fold Joseph to Potiphar, Pharaoh's Steward. The Genevians, in a marginal Note (to avoid this confounding of the Nations) fay, that Moses wrote according to their opinon, who took the Madianites and Ismaelites to be all one. But Moses wrote not after any mans opinion, he wrote the truth; and these were all Arabians: and so in this very place it appeareth by their Merchandise, which they brought with them, when they bought foleph: for 29 Chapter, it is faid: That Potiphar bought Joseph of the Ismaelites, which the Chaldean Paraphrast in the same place calleth Arabians. Now to make this the more manifest, it is Vos. 10 written, Judg. 6. That when Ifrael had fown, then came up the Madianites, and the Amalekites, and they of the East, and came upon them: they of the East were Arabians of the Delart; so as where before in the buying of Joseph, the Madianites and the Ismaelites were confused, here the Madianites and Amalekites of the Story of Gedeon, the Madianites onely are named, as comprehending both Nations; (a. 7. and in the eighth Chapter, v. 24. cic. (c. 8. v. 14. tions are called Ifmaelites, and neither Madiand in the eighth Chapter, v. 24. these Naanites, nor Amalekites. As when Gedeon deof Gold, it is written: For they had golden 60 16.11. Ear-rings, because they were Ismaelites. And rided them: for they had lived there all these Ijmaelites were a great and valiant Nation, and ever in action of War. Manus ejus contra omnes, & manus omnium contra cum;

they dwell confusedly together (to wit) the do. Toward the South-east are the Madianites, and Chusites: and beyond them towards the Defarts of Arabia, the Amalekites, and all are one Nation, and all Arabians.

Lastly, the ill Translation of Æthiopia for Chus, is among other places, made most apparent in the fecond of Chronicles, in these words: So the Lord stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and the Arabians, 2chro. 21. which confine the Æthiopians; fo Hierome reads it : the Geneva Translation hath it, which were besides the Æthiopians. Now,how far it is off between the Philistines and the Negro's or the Æthiopians, every man that looketh in a Map may judge. For the Philistines and Arabians do mixe and joyn with the Land of the Chustes, and are distant from Æthiopia about two and thirty, or three and thirty degrees; and therefore not their their Camels were loaden with Spicerie, and next neighbours; but all Egypt, and the De-Balm, and Myrrhe, which are the trades of fart of Sur and Pharan are between them. Arabia fælix: from whence chiefly, and So as this place of the second of Chronicles. from the East India, all the World is served should have been translated in these words: with Myrrhe and Frankincense; and their So the Lord stirred up against Jehoram, the Spices they received from the East side of spirits of the Philistines, and the Arabians, the Arabian Gulf, as aforesaid. And in the which confine and border upon the Chusites, who indeed are their next neighbours. * Nulla superest dubitatio quin Æthiopia in sa- Steuch. cris literis sit Arabia propinqua; There remain- Gen. c. 2. eth no doubt (faith steuchius) but Æthiopia in the Scriptures, is taken for that Countrey which joyneth to Arabia.

Now, may we think, is it probable, or posfible, that Moses could be ignorant of Nilus? No, he knew it, no living man fo well, and therefore would never have named Gehon for Nilus, or Nilus for Gehon. Surely, if Moses are made one Nation. For in the profecution | had meant Nilus, when he named Gehon, he would have called the River (into which he was cast upon Reeds, and preserved by God, working compassion in the Daughter of Pharaoh) a River of Egypt, wherein he was born Exod. 1. and bred, and wrought fo many miracles. fired that every man would give him the Besides, the River of Nilso is often named golden Ear-rings, which they had taken af-in the Scriptures, but never by the name of in the Scriptures, but never by the name of ter the victory against Zeba and Zalmunna, Gebon. And if Moses had told the Israelites, Kings of Arabia, amounting to 1700. shekels that Nilus had been a River of Paradife, they might justly have thought, that he had dedays of their lives, and found no fuch Paradisc at all, nor any memory, or speech His hand (faith God, of Ifmael) shall be against dist of Hesperides, where (faith Plins) there Plins 15. thereof, except we shall believe the Paraall men, and every mans hand against him. Of was nothing found in his time, but wilde 5.16.53, these some state of the sound of the sou these Imaclites come the Mahometan Arabi- Olives in stead of golden Apples. But Nilus v. 18. ans, though some Writers think Mahomet to is twice called Sichor, once in Haiah, and once be of the schenita. And these Ismaelites, in the Prophet Jeremie; and yet in those which inhabit chiefly in Cedar, and the Deplaces it is not faid to be a River of Æthiopia, farts of Sur and Pharan (faith Josephus) use but of Egopt. For in a word, the Ifraelites poyson upon their Arrows, as the Indians had never any communion or affairs with

the

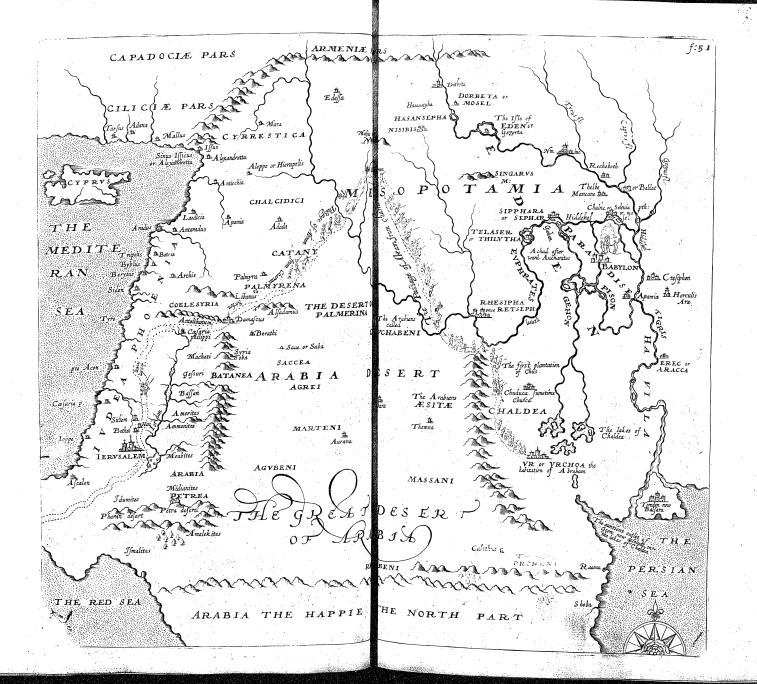

Reguli, were diffinguished in names, according to the Fathers or Heads of those Nations; but in one general name were all Arabians. On the North fide of Canaan, they were afflicted with the Calc-Syrians, with the Magogians, Tubalites, and others their adherents. And thirdly, within themselves, the Nations which remained of the ancient Canaanites, held the strongest Cities upon the Sea-coast, as Tyre, Sidon, Acon, Gaza, and Jebusites.

That which now remaineth of most difficulty, is, that it doth not appear that any part of Gehon watereth that part of Arabia the stony, which the chustes inhabited in the times of the Kings of Ifrael: and in this Defart it was, that Matt. Beroaldus loft himfelf in feeking out Paradife: for he was driven (to my understanding) to create two Rivers, and call them Gehon and Pison; to the end that the one might water chus, and the other Havilah; for I find none such In rerum Natura, as he hath described : by which Rivers he also includeth within Paradife, even Arabia the Defart.

And as he well proved that Pison was not Ganges, nor Gehon Nilus; fo where to find them elsewhere, it seemeth he knew not. Certainly, this River of Gehon, which he maketh to fall into the Mediterran at Gaza, and whose Springs he findeth far East in Aramiles, as shall appear hereafter. But questionless, hence it comes that many were mistaken. They all confidered of the habitations the state of Israel stood, and when it floucalled Havilah, (now Susiana:) Raamah, and the Æthiopians, nor any intelligence or trade Lelf in the best of the Valley, where he built beyond Egypt, to the South; but the enemies Babel, whereof that Region had afterwards which they had on the South, and East parts, the name of Babylonia. Chus himself and his were these Nations of the Chustes, Philistines, brother Mizraim first kept upon Gehon, Imaelites, Amalekites, and Madianites: who which falleth into the Lakes of Chaldea; and being often governed by many little kings or in process of time, and as their people increased, they drew themselves more Westerly towards the Red or Arabian Sea: from whence Mizraim past over into Egypt, in which Tract the Chastes remained for many years after. Now, because there could be no fuch River found in Arabia the stony, which they might entitle Gehon, they translated Chus, Æthiopia; and Gehon, Nilus. And if we do examine this mistaking by example, we ihall the better perceive it as it was. For let many others; yea, Jernfalem it felf was us suppose, that Brute, or whosoever else that with-held from Israel, from the days of sirst peopled this Island, had arrived upon the Moses, even unto the time of David, by the River of Thames, and called the Island after his name Britannia, it might be faid that Thames or Tems was a River that watered Britannia: and when afterwards, in process of time, the same Brute had also discovered and conquered scotland, which he also entituled by the same name of Britannia, afterages might conclude that Scotland was no part thereof, becuse the River of Tems is not found therein. Or let us suppose that Europa, the Daughter of the King of Tyre in Phani- Hundl cia, gave the name to Europe, according to and to Herodotus, and that the first discoverers thereof arrived in the mouth of the River in Thrace, which then watered as much of Europe, as he first discovered; Shall we in like fort resolve that France, Spain, and Italy,&c. are no pars of Europe, because that River is not found in them, or any of them? In like manner was it said by Moses in his description of Gehon, that it watered the whole Land of Chus; but not the whole Land which the bia, is but imaginary; for the Current by Chultes should, or might in suture time con-Gaza, is but a small stream, rising between quer, people, and inhabit; seeing in after-ages it and the Red-Sea, whose head from Gaza they became Lords of many Nations, and it self is little more than twenty English they might (perchance) have been Masters in time, (as the Saracens, which came of them, were) of a great part of the World. For, though the Babylonian Empire which of the Chustres, as they were planted when took beginning in Nimrod the Son of Chus, confifted at the first but of four Cities, (to rished, being then their near neighbours, and wit) Babel, Erech, Acad, and Chalne; yet we never looked back to the first seats and plan- find, that his Successours within a few years tation of chis. For after the Floud, chis after, commanded all the whole World in efand his children never rested, till they found sect: and the same of Babel consumed the the Valley of Shinar, in which, and near memory of Chusea. For of this Tower of Conwhich himself, with his Sons, first inhabited. fusion did all that Land take the name of Havilab took the River-side of Tygris chiefly | Babylonia: and the greatness of that Emon the East, which after his own name he pire founded by Nimred a younger Son, obscured the name and Nation of his Father sheba farther down the River, in the en- | cush in those parts, until they crept farther trance of Arabia-falix. Nimrod feated him- off, and in places not yet entituled, and far-

Chustres retained their names, which also they of the Region of Eden, afterward called fastned to the Soil and Territory, by them- Aram fluviorum, or Mesopotamia, which takfelves afterwards inhabited and held. And eth into it also a portion of Shinar and Arwe may not think, that Chus, or any of his, menia: this Region standing in the most excould in hast creep through those desart Re- cellent temper of all other (to wit) 35. degions, which the length of 130. years after the Floud had (as it were) fortified with North-pole: in which Climate, the most ex-Thickets, and permitted every Bush and cellent Wines, Fruits, Oyle, Grain of all Bryar, Reed and Tree, to joyn themselves forts, are to this day found in aboundance. (as it were) into one main body and Forrest. For if we look with judgment and reafon into the Worlds Plantation, we shall find, that every Family feated themselves as near together as possibly they could; and though wherein soever the Earth, Nature, and the Sun necessity enforced them, after they grew full can most vaunt that they have excelled; yet times refort and fuccour one another by River, the fields being then (without all doubt) Rivers, which watered Paradise: for thither thence had they again their increase. The former habitation: The second Father of the other. Mankind, Noah, began from thence his difperfion.

Now as Nimrod the youngest, yet strongest, made his choyce of Babel (as aforesaid) which both Tygris and Euphrates cleanfed and enriched; fo did Havilah place himself felves to the Rivers fides: for Ninive, Char- of fo grant a Lord. ran, Reseph, Canneh, Ur in Chaldea, and the ten remembred.

s. XV.

A conclusion, by way of repetition of something Spoken of before.

Out now to conclude this Dispute; It ap-B peareth to me by the testimonies of the ther from the Babylonian Empire, where the habitable World, feated in the lower part And there is nothing that better proveth the excellency of this faid soil and temper, then the abundant growing of the Palm-trees, without the care and labour of man. For of people, to spread themselves, and creep shall this Plant be the greatest wonder of all out of Shinar, or Babylonia; yet did they it their works: This Tree alone giveth unto with this advice, as that they might at all man whatsoever his life beggeth at Nature's hand. And though it may be faid, that these Trees are found both in the East and West impassible. So Nimrod, who out of wit and Indies, which Countries are also blessed with ftrength usurped dominion over the rest, a perpetual Spring and Summer; yet, lay fate down in the very confluence of all those down by those pleasures and benefits, the fearful and dangerous Thunders and Lightit was, to which the greatest troups of Noah's | nings, the horrible and frequent Earthchildren repaired; and from the same place quakes, the dangerous diseases, the multiwhence Mankind had his beginning, from tude of venimous Beafts and Worms, with other inconveniences; and then there will first Father of men, Adam, had therein his be found no comparison between one and

What other excellencies this Garden of Paradise had, before God (for man's ingratitude and cruelty) curfed the Earth, we cannot judg; but I may fafely think, that by how much Adam exceeded all living men in perfection, by being the immediate workupon Piso-Tygris; Ramah and his Son Sheba manship of God, by so much did that chosen farther down upon the same River, on the and particular Garden exceed all parts of Sea coast of Arabia: Chush himself upon Ge- the Universal World, in which God had hon, the fairest branch of Euphrates. And planted (that is)made to grow the Trees, of when they began to spread themselves far- Life, and of Knowledg; Plants only proper ther off, yet they alwaies fastened them- and becomming the Paradise, and Garden

The fum of all this is; That whereas the other first-peopled Cities, were all founded eys of men in this Scripture have been dimupon these navigable Rivers, or their bran- fighted (some of them finding Paradise beches; by which the one might give fuccour | youd our known World: fome, above the and affistance to the other, as is already of | middle region of the ayr: some, elevated near the Moon: others, as far South as the Line, or as far North as the Pole &c.) I hope that the Reader will be sufficiently satisfied, that these were but like Castles in the avr. and in mens fancies vainly imagined. For it was Eaftward in Eden (faith Mofes;) Eaftward, in respect of Judea, that God planted this Garden; which Eden we find in the Prophets where it was, and whereof the name (in Scripture, that Paradife was a place created some part) remaineth to this day. A River by God, and a part of this our Earth and went out of Eden to water this Garden, and thousand miles, yet they both rise in the same better.

CHAP. IV.

from thence divided it self into four bran- | quarter of the World; but Nilus is begotten ches; and we find that both Tygris and Eu- in the Mountains of the Moon, almost as far phrates swimming through Eden do joyn in off as the Cape of good hope, and falleth into one, and afterward taking waies apart, do the Mediterrane Sea: and Euphrates diwater Chus and Havilah, according to Moses, stilleth out of the Mountains of Armenia, and the true feats of Chus and his Sons being then falleth into the Gulf of Persia: the one riseth in the Vally of Shinar, in which Nimrod built in the South, and travaileth North; the o-Babel. That Pison was Ganges, the Scripture, ther riseth in the North, and runneth South, reason, and experience teach the contrary: threescore and three degrees the one from for that which was never joyned, cannot be the other. In this leaf following, I have addivided; Ganges, which inhabiteth India, ded a Chorographical description of this cannot be a branch of the Rivers of Eden, terrestrial Paradise, that the Reader may That Gekon was Nilus, the same distance thereby the better conceive the precemaketh the same impossibility; and this Riding Discourse; and this is the reward I ver is a greater stranger to Tygris and Eu- look for, that my labour may but receive phrates, then Ganges is: for although there an allowance suspended, until such time as are between Tygris and Ganges above four this description of mine be reproved by a

CHAP. IV.

Of the two chief Trees in the Garden of Paradise.

6. I.

That the Tree of Life was a material Tree; and in what sense it is to be taken, that man by his eating the forbidden Fruit, is made subject to death.

most religious and learned Writers: altile as nothing can fix them, and fo flippery as nothing can fasten them, have in this aldoctrine.

it must once perish and rot, by the unchanged have been translated and glorified. Law of God imposed on his creatures; Man (notwithstanding) should have enjoyed Life was, no man hath taken on him to teach?

Or eating the forbidden fruit of the tree | thereby a long, beautiful, and ungrieved of Knowledg, was Adam driven out of life: after which (according to the opinion Paradise, In exilium vita temporalis, Into of most Divines) he should have been tranthe banishment of temporal life, faith Beda. Ilated, as Enoch was. And, as before the That these Trees of Life and Knowledg were | Floud, the days of men had the long meamaterial Trees (though Figures of the Law | fure of eight hundred or nine hundred years; and of the Gospel) it is not doubted by the and soon after the Floud, of two hundred years and upwards, even to five hundred: though the wits of men, which are fo vola- fo if Adam had not disobeyed Gods first and easie Commandment, the lives of men on earth might have continued double, treble, fo delivered to the World, an imaginary or quadruple to any of the longest times of the first age, as many learned men have con-The Tree of Life (say the Hebrews) hath a Plural construction, and is to be under-others were of belief, that (but for Adams flood, Lignum vitarum, The Tree of lives, be- fall and transgression) Adam and his Postecause the fruit thereof had a property, to rity had been immortal. But such is the infipreserve both the growing, sensitive, and ra- | nite Wisdom of God, as he foresaw that the tional life of man; and not only (but for earth could not have contained Mankind; Adam's transgression) had prolonged his or else, that millions of Souls must have been own daies, but also given a dureful continu- ungenerated, and have had no being, if the ance to all his posterity; and that, so long, as first number wherewith the Earth was replesom sope a body compounded of Elements could last. nished, had abode thereon for ever: And And although it is hard to think, that therefore that of Chrylofton must be underflesh and bloud could be immortal, but that stood of immortality of bodies, which should in which respect many have conceived, that | Muburgenfis, and others, whose very words cometh to eat of the Tree of life which is in the Paradise of God. But to this place Saint Authe one doth not exclude the other, but that, as there was a terrestrial Paradise, so there was a celestial. For although Agar and Sarah were Figures of the Old and New Teflament; yet to think that they were not Women, and the Maid and Wife of Abraham, were meer foolishness. And so in this place, the sense of the Scripture is manifest; For God brought out of the Earth every Tree fair to the light, and sweet to the taste; the Tree also of Life in the midst of the Garden: which Earth by God's commandment produced, the Tree of Life was one, and that the fruit faid to be the meat and drink of the gods.

5. II.

Of Becanus his opinion, that the Tree of Knowledg was Ficus Indica.

fumed farther, especially Goropius Becanus, But as he had an inventive brain, fo there per root, this cord maketh it felf a Tree exnever lived any man, that believed better ceeding hastily. From the utmost boughs thereof, and of himself. Surely, howsoever of these young Trees, there fall again the like or their young a rees, there im again the machine praife due to others at leaft if the invention be at that price at which he fetteth it.

Trees of the bigness of the neather part of Trees of the bigness of the neather part of the praife due to others at each price at which he fetteth it. For Mofer Bar-Cephas, fastened on this conjecture above fix hundred years before Be- make any thing, casting such a shade, and canus was born: and Bar Cephas himself re-making such a kind of Grove, as no other

the same was not material, but a meer Goropius uleth, both concerning the Tree, Allegorie : taking their strength out of solo- and the reasons wherewith he would induce mon, where Wildom is compared to the Tree other men to that belief. For Moses Bar-Ce-of Life, and from other places, where also phas in his Treatise of Paradise (the first Part Christ is called the Tree of Life; as out of and sol. 48) faith, That the Tree of Knowthe Apocalyps, I will give to him that over- ledge was Fiews Indica, The Indian Fig-Tree; of which the greatest plenty (faith Becanus) are found upon the banks of Acesines, one of gustine's answer may suffice, (which is) That | the Rivers which salleth into Indus, where Alexander built his Fleet of Gallies, in or near the Kingdom of Porus.

This Tree beareth a fruit of the bigness of Pin. I.t. a great Peaze, or (as Pliny reporteth) former Plin. what bigger; and that it is a Tree, se femper serens, Always planting it self; that it spreadeth it self so far abroad, as that a troup of Horse-men may hide themselves under it. Strabo faith, that it hath branches bending downwards, and leaves no less than a shield. Aristobulus affirmeth, that fifty Horse-men Lib. t. sheweth, that among the Trees, which the may shadow themselves under one of these 42.4. Trees. Onesieritus raiseth this number to four hundred. This Tree (faith Theophrastus) thereof was also to be eaten. The report of exceeded all other in bignels, which also this Tree was also brought to the ancient Pliny and Onescritus confirm: to the trunk Poets: for as from the indigested matter or of which, these Authours give such a magni-Chior, Hefiod, Homer, Ovid, and others, steal tude, as I shame to repeat. But it may be, the invention of the created World; so from they all speak by an ill-understood report. the Garden of Paradise they took the Plat- For this Indian Fig-tree is not so rare a Plant form of the Orchard of Alcinous, and ano- as Becams conceiveth, who, because he found ther of the Helperides: and from the Tree of it no where elfe, would needs draw the Gar-Life, their Nettar and Ambrosia; for Nettar, den of Paradise to the Tree, and set it by the according to Suidas, fignifieth making young; River Acesines. But many parts of the world and Ambrossa, immortality; and therefore have them, and I my self have seen twenty thousand of them in one Valley, not far from Paria in America. They grow in moist grounds, and in this manner: After they are first shot up some twenty or thirty foot in length (some more, some less, according to the foil) they foread a very large top, having no bough nor twig in the trunk or frem : for Now, for the Tree of Knowledge of from the utmost end of the head-branches, there issued and evil, some men have prewho giveth himself the honor to have found and within a few moneths reacheth the hangeth downward like a cord or finew, out the kind of this Tree, which none of ground; which it no fooner toucheth, but the Writers of former times could ever it taketh root, and then being filled both gueß at, whereat Goropius much marvelled. from the top-boughs, and from his own proferreth the invention to an antiquity more Tree in the world can do. Now, one of these remote, citing for his Authour Philoxenus Trees confidered, with all his young ones, thousand Hors-men, if they please; for they cover whole Valleys of ground where these Trees grow near the Sea-bank, as they do by thousands in the inner parts of Trinidado. The cords which fall down over the banks cere, Aliam arborem inveniri posse, que cum illa into the Sea, shooting alway downward to find root under water, are, in those Seas of nate, if he compare these things which we have the Indies where Oysters breed, intangled reported of this Fig-tree, and out of ancient in their beds, so as by pulling up one of these cords out of the Sea, I have feen five hundred Oysters hanging in a heap thereon; whereof the report came, That Oysters grew on Trees in India. But that they bear any fuch huge leaves, or any fuch delicate fruit, I could never find, and yet I have travelled a dozen miles together under them. But to return to Goropius Becanus: This Tree (faith he) was good for meat, and pleafing to the fight, as the Tree of Knowledge of good and evil is described to be.

CHAP. IV.

trunk (as the former Authours report, and Adam and Eve hid themselves from the prefence of God; for no other Tree (faith he) cis obedientie bonum; Being forbidden, not for that this Tree hath no extraordinary magni- goodness of pure and simple Obedience. tude, as touching the trunk or stem: for among ten thousand of them, it is hard to find any one bigger than the rest, and these are all but of a mean fize. Secondly, the words of Moses translated, In medio lignit are by all the Interpreters understood in the plural number (that is) In the midst of the Trees. But his third argument (or rather the argument of Moses Bar-Cephas) word for word, Gen. 3. 7. is, That when Adam and Eve found themfelves naked, they made them breeches of Fig-leaves; which proveth (indeed) that either the Tree it felf was a Fig-tree, or that a Fig-tree grew near it: because Adam being poffeft with shame, did not run up and down the Garden to feek out leaves to cover him, but found them in the place it felf; and these leaves of all other were most commodious, by reason of their largeness; which Pliny avoweth in these words; Latitudo foliorum pelof which Targets Virgil toucheth: Virg. An. Ducit Amazonidum lunatis agmina peltis 1. 1. 494 Penthefilaa furens.

> The Amazons with Crescent-formed shield Penthesilea leads into the field.

Here Becams desireth to be believed, or rather threatneth us all that read him, to tue, and unperceived Knowledge among may (indeed) shroud four hundred or four | give credit to this his borrowed discovery, using this confident (or rather cholerick) speech : Quis erit tam impudenter obstinatus, si hac à nobis, de ficu hac, ex antiquis scriptoribus cum Moisis narratione comparet, ut audeat dimagis quadret? Who will be so impudently obsti-Writers delivered, with the narration of Moses, as to dare to avow, That any other Tree can be found, which doth more properly answer, or agree therewith? But for my self, because I neither find this Tree, forting in body, in largeness of leaves, nor in fruit to this report; I rather incline to the opinion of Philo. That the Earth never brought forth any of these Trees, neither before nor after. But I leave every man to his own belief, for the matter is of no great weight as touching his kind; onely thereby, and by the easie Com-Secondly, This Tree having so huge a mandment by God given to Adam, to fors Becanus believeth) it was in this Tree that trial of his obedience: Probibita non propter aliud quam ad commendandum puræ ac simplicould contain them. But first it is certain, any other respect, than thereby to commend the

§. III.

of Becanus his not-unwitty allegorizing of the Story of bis Ficus Indica.

OUt in this I must do Becanus right, that he hath very wittily allegorized this Tree, allowing his supposition of the Tree it felf to be true. The effects whereof, because his discourses are exceeding ample, I have gathered in these few words. As this Tree (faith he) fo did Man grow straight and upright towards God, until such time as he had transgressed and broken the Commandment of his Creatour; and then like unto the boughs of this Tree, he began to bend downward, and stooped toward the Earth, which all the rest of Adam's Posterity after him have done, rooting themselves therethe effigiem Amazonia habet; The breadth of the in, and fastning themselves to this corrupt leaves bath the shape of an Amazonian shield. world. The exceeding umbragiousness of which also Theophraft confirmeth; the form this Tree, he compareth to the dark and shadowed life of man, through which the Sun of justice being not able to pierce, we have all remained in the shadow of death, till it pleased christ to climb the Tree of the Cross for our enlightning and redemption. The little fruit which it beareth, and which is hard to find among fo many large leaves, may be compared (faith he) to the little virfo large vanities, which obscure and shadow | conceive, that Adam being made (according it over. And as this fruit is exceeding fweet, to the Hebrew phrase) by the workmanship and delicate to the tafte and palate: so are of Gods own hand, in greater perfection

9. IV.

Of the names of the tree of Knowledg of good and evil: with some other notes touching the story of Adam's fin.

what operation the fruit thereof had, and as touching the propertie of the Tree it felf, Moses Bar-Cephas, an antient Syrian-Doctor (translated by Massus) giveth this judgment: That the fruit of this Tree had no fuch virtue or quality, as that by the tasting thereof, there was any such knowledg created in Adam, as if he had been ignorant before; but as Junius also noteth: Arbor scientia boni &

the delights and pleasures of the World most than ever any man was produced by genepleafing, while they dure. But as all those ration, being (as it were) the created Plant, things which are most mellistuous, are soon-out of whose seed all men living have grown est changed into choler and bitterness: fo up; and having received immortality from the breath or spirit of God; he could not to the bitterest sorrows and repentances. (for these respects) be ignorant, that the dif-That the leaves are so exceeding large, the obeying of Gods commandment was the fruit (for fuch leaves) exceeding little; in fearfullest Evil, and the observation of his this, by comparison we behold (saith he) the Precepts the happiest Good. But as men in many cares and great labours of worldly perfect health do (notwithstanding) conmen, their follicitude, their outward shews, ceive, that sickness is grievous, and yet in no and publick oftentation, their apparent pride such degree of torment, as by the suffering and large vanities; and if we feek for the and experience in themselves they afterfruit, which ought to be their virtuous and wards witness: so was it with Adam, who pious actions, we finde it of the bigness of could not be ignorant of the punishments, the finallest peaze; glory, to all the world due to neglect and disobedience; and yet apparent; goodness, to all the World in- felt by the proof thereof in himfelf another wifible. And furthermore, as the leaves, bo- terrour than he had fore-thought, or could dy and boughs of this Tree, by so much ex- imagine. For looking into the glass of his ceed all other Plants, as the greatest men of own guilty soul, he beheld therein the horpower and worldly ability surpass the mean- rour of Gods Judgments; so as he then knew, eft: 60 is the little fruit of such Men, and (the feelingly knew) and had trial of the late fuch Trees, rather fitting and becoming the good, which could not be prized, and of the unworthieft Shrub, and humbleft Eryar, or new purchased evil, which could not be exthe porest and basest Man, then such a flou- press d. He then saw himself naked both in rishing statelyness, and magnitude. Lastly, Body and mind; that is, deprived of Gods whereas Adam, after he had disobeyed God, grace and former felicity: and therefore and beheld his own nakedness and shame, was this Tree called the Tree of Knowledg, fought for leaves to cover himself withal; and not because the fruit thereof had any this may serve to put us in mind of his and such operation by any self quality or effect: our fins, as often as we put on our garments, for the same phrase is used in many places of to cover and adorn our rotten and mortal the Scriptures, and names are given to Signs bodies: to pamper and maintain which, we and Sacraments, as to acts performed, and use so many uncharitable and cruel practices things done. In such fort, as this Tree was called the Tree of Knowledg, because of the event, as is aforesaid: so was the Well Num. 20. of contention therefore called Efek, and the 13. Well of hatred Sitnath, because the Heards Gen. 16. ness, between Jacob and Laban; not that 48.

men of Isaac and Gerar contended for them: 20, 21. and the heap of Stones called the heap of mit- cap. 31. Ow. as touching the sense of this Tree of Knowledg of good and evil, and of God Bethel; and Hagar, the Well in the 14the Stones bare witness, but for a memory Cap. 18. of the Covenant. So Jacob called the house cap. 16. Defart, Viventis, & videntis. But Adam being both betrayed and ma-stered by his affection, ambitious of a farther knowledg then he had perceived in himself, and looking but slightly (asall his iffue do) into the miseries and sorrows incident; and greatly affecting the supposed glory which he might obtain by tasting the wenth. The Tree of Knowledge of good and evil has the another the Experience of good and the state of the experience of good and the experience of go evil by the event. For thus much we may of Sathan, who laboured to poyson mankind

Снар. V.

56 in the very root, which he moistened with obedience? even a desire to know what was himself perished for ever.

But what means did the Devil find out, or Woman; so as by Adams hearkning to the of labour, forrow, and death: the woman being given to man for a comfort and companien, but not for a counsellor. But because thou hast obeyed the voice of thy wife, &c. (said God himself) Cursed is the earth for thy sake, tempted; even by the most ugly and unentred and perswaded.

the liquor of the same ambition, by which most unsitting for her knowledg; an affection which hath ever fince remained in all the posterity of her Sex. Thirdly, what was it that what instruments did his own subtilty pre- moved the man to yield to her persuasions? fent him, as fitteft and apteft to work this even the same cause which hath moved all mischief by? even the unquiet vanity of the men since to the like consent; namely, an unwillingness to grieve her and make her voice of his wife, contrary to the express and, lest she should pine and be overcome commandement of the living God, Mankind with forrow. But if Adam in the state of by that her incantation became the subject perfection, and solomon the Son of David, Gods chosen servant, and himself a man endued with the greatest wisdom, did both of them disobey their Creator, by the perswasion and for the love they bare to a woman it is not so wonderful as lamentable, that other in forrow shalt thou eat of it all thy life. It is men in succeeding ages have been allured to alfo to be noted, by whom the woman was fo many inconvenient and wicked practices by the perswasions of their wives, or other beworthy of all beafts into whom the Devil loved darlings, who cover over and fladow many malicious purpofes with a counterfeit Secondly, what was the motive of her dif- paffion of diffimulate forrow and unquietness.

Снар. V.

Of divers memorable things, between the Fall of Adam, and the Floud of Noah.

§. I.

Of the cause and the revenge of Cains sin: and of his going out from God.

For the same offence chiefly (wherewith the Noah and his Family: for it is written, The Gen. 6 v. Earth also was corrupt before God: of which in the same place, Moses giveth a reason: for faith he, The Earth was filled with cruelty : and anon after, God himself made the cause known unto Noah, faying; An end of all flesh is come before me, for the Earth is filled with cruelty through them, and behold, I will destroy them with the Earth, or from the Earth. Neither was this cruelty meant to have been in taking away the lives of men onely, but in all forts of Injustice and Oppression. After

THe same Pride and Ambition which | this Murther of Abel, Cain went out from the began in Angels, and afterward pof- presence of the Lord, and dwelt in the Land of fels d Adam, Cain also inherited: for Nod, towards the East-fide of Eden: in which Cain (envious of the acceptation of his Brothers Prayer and Sacrifice) llew him, mak-fence of the Lord, is not to be understood ing himself the first Manslayer, and his Bro- after the literal sense, God being wholly in ther the first Martyr: the revenge of which all parts of the World: Totus in callo eff, tounnatural murther, although it pleased God tus in terra, non alternis temporibus, sed uto mitigate, when Cain cried out that his trumque simul; God (saith S. Augustine) is the punishment was greater then he could bear. wholly in Heaven, and wholly in Earth, not by the enterchanged times, but all at once; And that Sons of Adam, as it were, urged and provo- this is true, David witnesseth: If I be in Hear span ked God) he destroyed all Mankind, but ven (faith David) thou art there; if in Hell, thou art there also. But what is meant thereby? Exitt à facie Dei (faith Chrysoftom) Cain went out from the presence of the Lord; (that went is) he was left of God, disfavoured and berea- Has ved of his protection.

§. I I.

of Cains dwelling in the Land of Nod: and of his City Enoch.

His word Nod or Naid, S. Hierom and Hith. many others understand to signific wandring, or uncertain habitation : vexation | following : Thus he cast out man, &c. and at the or agitation, faith Junius; but the Seventy East-side of the Garden of Eden he set the Chernproper name of a Countrey, and so doth Jofephus. But it feemeth to me, that Cain was and for the word (Vagabond) which Cain by the name of his first-born, Enoch; which bond) is taken for a man without protectitheweth that he feared to wander, and ra- on, and cast out from the savour of God. ther fought to fortifyhimfelf against revenge. tain Estate, Common-weal, or Prince of their possetion of his Father Adam; for thus it is main any print or footsteps to Posterity.

Written, Genes. 3. Therefore the Lord God sent

In * Pliny, P. Mela, 3traho, Valerius: Flace Sub 111:

Val. Pluc.

convert it otherwise, and take Ned for the bims: which sheweth that the entry into Paradise was from the East, by which entrance Adam was cast out, and therefore inhabiting rather a Vagabond or Wanderer in his co- on that fide of Paradife which was Eastward, gitations, than any thing else; and that his according to the Text. Cain also in the same thoughts and confcience had no quiet or reft, Region fought his dwelling place. Now, if in regard of the Murther committed, justly the word Nod, or Naid, do fignific profugue, fearing (by his own words) the like viothat is, a Fugitive, we can give no longer lence: And whofoever findeth me (faith Cain) time to this uncertain habitation of Cain, final flay me. Now, that Nod or Naid was a then till he built the City of Enoch, the first Region wherein Cain inhabited, appeareth of the World, which he enclosed, either for by the word (drelt) for dwelling lignifieth his own defence, or (as Josephus writeth) to an Abiding: and we call those people Wan-oppress others thereby. So as, for mine own derers and Vagabonds that have no dwel- opinion, I am refolved with the Septuagint, ling place. And to make this dwelling and that Nod was the proper name of a Region; what part of the earth this his habitation was ufeth of himfelf, it feemethby the perclofe of which he affirmeth towards the East-side of the same Verse, that (Vagabond) is therein Eden. Secondly, it is faid by Mofes, that af understood for such an one as travelleth in ter Cain departed from the presence or fa-fear of revengement: For whosever findeth vour of God, he built a City, and called it me (faith Cain) shall flay me; or else (Vaga-

And because these Henochians, so called Cyrillus faith, that Cain and Abel were figures of the City of Henoch, were the first society of Chrift, and of the Jews; and that as Cain and civil affembly of all other, it is likely after that he had slain Abel unjustly, had that the same of these People (either for thence-forth no certain abiding in the cruelty, strength, or other actions) lived in World: fo the Jems, after they had crucified memory of Noah and his Sons: fo that after the Son of God, became Runnagates: and it the Floud (as there were of all forts of nais true that the Jews had never fince any cer- tures, fome vertuoully, fome impiously difposed, and every active mind setting before own upon the Earth. Now, this Land of Nod, it whom to follow or imitate) those People, Junius taketh to be in Arabia Deserta, a Re- which delighted in cruelty and oppression, gion of the Nomades; but Arabia the Defart took on them their names whole natures is not Eastward, or on the East part of Eden, they most liked and allowed; of whom neither are these Nomades any particular these Henochians were not the least. Per-People or Nation. For all these, in what chance the place it self, where Henseh stood part of the World foever, which in old time before the Floud, and whereof Monuments lived by Pastorage, and fed (as we call it in might remain (as the pillars or foundation of fundation of fund Treland) upon white meat, without tilling of the ground are called without tilling of Joppe did) gave occasion to the Planters of liquid in the ground are called without tilling of Joppe did).

the ground, are called by the Greeks No- that place, to call themselves by the same order must mades, and by the Latines, Paftores vagi, as name: for of thole Henochians there were winner whim the Northern Tartarians, the Getulians, and many Nations in the borders of Pontins; and Jandenses Numidians in Africa, the ancient Britains, and Colchis in Iberia, Segdiana, and Balfria; of the signing the Northern Irifi. Yea, such were the Infame name many mountains, as those which continued the such as the such a habitants of taly it felf, till fuch time as talus are otherwise call'd Coraxio. And seeing that months of talks are otherwise call'd Coraxio. (who gave them that name) taught them the it is hard tofind out the truth of these things, tails no. bulbandry of Tillage, used at this day. But which the most aged Time hath covered proring the Region Eastward from Eden is that part over, or defaced, we may (according to the orienter. of Affria, called by Prolemy, Calena; which counfel of Plato) exceedingly rejoyee; and Sance at allo might be desired them. also might be derived of Carena, the Countries of the cou trey of Cain. And that Cain inhabited in and almost worn-out Antiquity; of the el-2911. those parts, it may be gathered by the first dest Peoples names and nations, there re- Mal. I.

him forth from the Garden of Eden to till the cws, Lucan, Stephanus, we find those Henochei, t. Earth whence he was taken: and in the Verse described, though diversly written: as in Lucan, 1.1. Pliny, in Flaccus, Heniochi; in Lucan, Eniochi: All (according to their fabulous inventions of which inhabit upon the Sea Euxinus, but yet all things else) out of the word (Heniochi) none of these are on the East side of Eden, or which signifieth Cart or Coach-men, make Eden For Moses, in all places where he descrias sometimes he useth the word East or South without borrowing or addition; at other times with a borrowing, as Eastward, or the Land of shinar; but in this of Cain, he ad- fuch an open Boat, which could hardly carry deth the word (towards) as, in the land of Nod, taken, as inclining tome one point or two,ei- Waggoners. ther to the North or to the South of the East. But, as we may conjecture that these Nations took name of Henoch the City of Cain; or of the Region wherein it stood, when the fame was re-peopled after the Floud: fo it is probable that these Henochii of Colchis, and other parts adjoyning, were not the first of that name after the Sons of Noah began to fill the World again: because, had this Henoch the City of Cain stood in any of these parts, it had then been feated North, and not East or Eastward from Eden. But as Pliny fifth Chapter of Genesis: against which, for findeth their habitation towards Pontus. fo afterwards he goeth on Eastward, till he track fible for Cain (having no other assistance them or trace them out to their original. For than his Son Henceh) to perform such a he calleth these of Colchis (now, Mengrelia) Sanni Heniochi; Ptolemy, Zani; beyond which an hundred & fifty mile Eastward, he findeth another Nation of them about Iberia and Albania; and beyond these he again discovereth a third Nation, from whence all the rest | Parent of an impious Race) Moses useth no took beginning, which inhabited on the West side of the mountains of Paro-panisus; and these Henochii are due East from the Region of Eden, and Eastward from the very may every man borrow of his own weakest Garden it felf.

Annias the Frier, who fets Henoch in Phani-

Pliny, sometimes Henochii; in Mela, Enochii; | na, of the same name. Onely the Grecians note of the leaf of the leaf that of the leaf of the l beth any Region, was so exceeding precise, and Telehius, who attended them in the interprize of Jason into Colchis. And though I do 12 not deny, but that Jajon, with other Greeks, smile ranged the coasts of Asia the less, in an open Southward, or towards the East or South. In Boat or kind of small Gally, * of whom I shall ! "Indeed to the south of small Gally, and the same of the the place of Genesis the eleventh, he writeth speak in his own time: yet no man doubteth Book the word (East) simply and directly. And as but that the tale of the golden Fleece was for distill they went from the East, they found a Plain in the most part Poetical; and withall, that in 12.56 their own Rowers, being fifty four, there was towards the East-side of Eden; which may be no place, and less use, of Coach-horses or of Moses his omitting fundry things concerning Cain's Generation.

6. III.

DUt of the remembrance and testimonies D of the name of the City of Henoch in prophane Story, thus much may fuffice: Now it followeth to answer some few Objections against certain particulars in the fourth and the first, it is demanded, How it was pos-Work as the building of a City, feeing there is thereto required to many hands, and fo great a mass of all forts of materials? To which it is answered, that we are first to confider, That of Cain (because he was the ample declaration; and fo it best agreeth with his divine Reason, seeing that he conbetween them and the great River of Oxno, taineth the whole Story of the first Race, which bordereth Badria on the North fide; which lasted, by the least account, 1656. years, in five fhort Chapters: Yet thus much reason, That seeing it pleased God to bestow And although we cannot be assured that on the first generations of mens lives so long these Henochii took name from the memory | a measure as 800. and 900. years, that in such of the City of Enoch directly; yet because a space Cain had not want of leisure and they inhabited due East from Paradise, and means to build many such Cities as Henoch. afterwards spread themselves Westward (as be the capacity answering to what other of all Noah's Sons did that came into Shinar) the the World foever: for in what Age of Cain's conjecture is far more probable than that of life he built it, the Scriptures are filent : as of whose times, and the times of his islues, Mocia, quite contrary to Moses word: Phænicia ses had the least care. And as it is said of from all parts of Eden, being directly West. | Cain, that he built a City: so it was said of And besides these several Nations of the Noah, that his three Sons peopled all the Henochii, Stephanus findeth a Region called World; but in both, the process of time Henochia, and the same also in the East, with required is to be understood: which advice, divers mountains about Battria and Sogdia- feeing Moses useth where the space less re-quirethit, as knowing that he writ the Scriptures to reasonable men, we may easily understand, that such was his meaning also in all reports of like nature. For in making but a difference between the birth of Abel, and the oblation of Cain, he spake it in this fort, Fuit autem post dies multos, or à fine dierum (that is) in process of time, it came to pass that Cain brought an oblation. And therefore it is in like fort to be understood of Cain, that many vears foregone, and when his people were increased, he built the City of Enoch or He-

And where it is written, as of Cain, that he built Enoch, fo of Solomon, that he built the Temple of Jerusalem; yet it is well known of solomon, that he imployed in that freech is common with our selves to say, the be made: and he built, when he commandwe find that Moses had no regard to the ages, in a word the building of Enoch, without addition of any circumstance: for of Cain, Moses 24.17. writeth in this manner: Cain also knew bis Heavens, the other the Earth. wife, who conceived and bare Henoch, and he built a city, and called the name of the city after the name of his son Henoch. And to Henochwas born Irad, and Irad begat Mehujael, and Mehujael begat Methusael, and Methusael Lamech.

Now, of seth, Moles writeth far otherwife, and in this manner. And Seth lived an bundred and five years, and begat Enoch, and Seth lived after he begat Enoch 807. years, and begat sons and Daughters: so as all the days of Seth were 912. years, and he dyed: as for the years and times of the wicked, they were not numbred in Libro viventium. faith Cyril. But in Seth was the Church of God established; from whom Christ descended, as touching his manhood: and therefore this way and work Moses walked in, and finished it with care, paffing over the reprobate Generation, (as aforesaid.) Of the Line of Adam by Cain, Moses remembreth but eight Generations, reckoning Adam for one; and of the Line of Adam by Seth ten, counting Adam also therein, as followeth.

I. ADAM.

2 Cain. 3 Henoch.

4 Irad. 5 Mehujael. Methusael. 7 Lamech, who by Adab had

8 Jubal, and Tubal; and by Silla, Tutal-Cain and Noema.

I. ADAM.

2 Seth. Henoch. 3 Enosh. 8 Methusalem. 4 Cainan. 9 Lamech. Mahaleel. 6 Fared. 10 Noah.

These be the Generations of Adam by Cain, which the Scriptures mention: but Josephus giveth unto Lamech threescore and seventeen Sons and daughters, by his two Wives, Ada and Sylla: and to these three Sons of Lamech, Moses ascribeth the invention of Pastorage, of Musick, and the working in Metal; for it seemeth that Jubal first gathered together, and made familiar those beafts which formerly were untamed, and Work 150000. labourers: for this phrase or | brought them into Herds and Droves: Tubal Gm.4.16, invented Musick, and Tubal-Cain the work- 21, 12. King invaded, when he caused an invasion to ing in Brass and Iron: the one being addicted to Husbandry, the other was Mechanical, the ed such a building. And therefore seeing that third given to idleness and pleasure. In whom began these three meaner degrees, of birth,or death of any of Cain's iffues, it is not | Shepherds, Handy-crafts-men, and Musicito be marvelled at why he also passeth over ans. And in the issues of Seth began the Services of God, Divinity, Prophecie, and Aftronomy: the Children of the one beheld the

9. IV.

Of the diversities in the Ages of the Patriarchs when they begat their Children.

Second scruple hath been made, How it came to pass that the Patriarchs begat their children at so divers Ages, as Cainan or Cenan at seventy years, Mahaleel and Enoch at threescore and five years, whereas Jared begat not any of his untill he was 162. years old: Methusalem begat at 187. Lamech at 182. and Noah at 500. years. Now this difference hath been the more enforced, because it cannot be conjectured, that either Tared Methusalem, or Lamech abstained from Marriage out of the Religion of Abstinence, feeing that Enoch, who was translated by God for his fingular Sanctitie, begat children before he was threescore and ten years

The apparent difference hereof ariseth in this, that Moses did not number the Generations before the Floud precifely, according to the first-begotten and eldest Sons of the Patriarchs, but he drew down the Line of Noah from Seth, and afterward from Noah to Abraham, by their true Ancestours, were they elder or younger, as he found them: for it is likely that Henoch was not the eldest of Jared, nor Lamech the first-born of Me-thusalem.

CHAP. V.

were onely named, and furviving, and which first Son of Kenan, and then reckon that Methusalem begat Lamech in the 187. year of his life, the difference seemeth strange, where Lamech is taken for the eldest. But Moses rejecteth all the other Sons of Methusalem but Lamech onely, because he was the Father of Noah, as aforesaid. Of this Saint Augustine hath somewhat else in his twentieth, and one and twentieth Chapters, De Civitate Dei.

But as Moses counted the Generations of the first Age, and so to Abraham, and the children of the promise after him; so doth St. Matthew recite the Genealogy of Christ, not by the eldest Sons, but from those whom God had chosen and blessed, without respect of the first-born, who have hereby the prerogative in Estates, worldly and transitory only; and therefore the Evangelist Mai. 1. 2. nameth Isaac, and not Ismael, though Ismael the younger, and not Esan the elder; neither is Christ derived from any of the three eldest Patriarchs, Reuben, Simeon, or Levi, but from Juda a fourth Brother, and so from David a younger Son of Jessai; and lastly, we find, that the Kingdom it felf of Juda man, created in highest perfection, should was not given to the Heir in Nature, but to 1 Kings 2. the Heir of Grace, namely Solomon.

§. V.

Of the long lives of the Patriarchs, and some of late memory.

the same measure as in after-Ages, seeing that foon after the Floud, men lived not a third and to this day, not the tenth.

They that have hereon resolved that those years were but Lunary years (to wit) of a moneth or thereabouts, or Egyptian years, are eafily confuted. For whereas seth begat Enosh in the year of his life an hundred and five, if those years be taken but for mereths, then had Seth lived but eight years and one cleanfed matter, shall wax old as a garment;

thusalem, nor Noah of Lamech; neither is moneth when he begat Enosh; and if the there any thing known to the contrary, but time of Enosh have the same allowance when that Noah might have had many Sons before he begat Kenan, then could Enosh at that shem, Ham, and Japhet, though these three time have been but six years and sourty eight weeks old; and so it may be gathered of by God were reserved to be the Fathers of the rest, excepting only Adam, who was cremankind after the Floud; and therefore ated perfect in his kind, as were the trees in when we find Mahaleel to be begotten by Ke-their kind, bearing Fruit and Seed. But this nan at three core and ten years, who was the were too ridiculous to imagine. For to give an ability of generation at fix, feven, or eight years, agreeth with the short lives of the Pigmies, and not with the constitutions of our first Fathers, who being descended from Adam, the workmanship of Gods hands, and begotten and born in the strong youth of the World, had length of daies, and ability of body agreeable. Again, if we allow this idle conceit of the Lunary years, then there would follow this extremity, that those which lived longest, and upwards of nine hundred years, had by that account but the time of fourscore and ten and odd years; which were not only less by far then the Patriarchs lived after the Floud, but fhort of many mens lives in this decrepit Age of the World, wherein many exceed fourscore, and some an hundred years. Further (if need be) to disprove this reckoning, whereas it is written, Gen. 25. That Abrawere first in time: so doth he take Jacob ham died in a good Age, an old man, and of great years: all which (if the former accompt were of Lunary years) makes but feventeen and an half of our years.

And if we feek for a cause of this long life in Nature, then is it reasonable, that the first also beget children of equal strength or little differing: for of the first and purest seed there must of necessity spring up the fairest and fruitfullest plants. Secondly, the Earth it self was then much less corrupt; which yielded her increase, and brought forth fruit and food for man, without any fuch mixture of harmful quality, as fince that time the curse He third Objection is, that the great of God, for the cruelty of mans heart, difference of years between those of brought on it and mankind: Neither had the first Age, whereof some of them had well | the waters of the Floud infused such an imneer seen a thousand years, makes it disputa- purity, as thereby the natural and powerful ble, whether the account of times were of operation of all Plants, Herbs, and Fruitsupon the Earth received a qualification and harmful change. And as all things under part of that time; and in succeeding Ages, the Sun have one time of strength, and another of weakness, a youth and beauty, and then age and deformity: so Time it self (under the deathful shade of whose wings all things decay and wither) hath wasted and worn out that lively virtue of Nature in Man, and Beasts, and Plants; yea the Heavens themselves, being of a most pure and plan and then much more the power generative ducing many examples to the contrary. In how far doth our education and simplicity fifty of an hundred and ten: two of an hunof living differ from that old time? The ten- dred and five and twenty: four of an hunder bringing up of Children, first fed and dred and thirty: as many that were an hunnourished with the Milk of a strange Dugges | dred and five and thirty, or an hundred and an unnatural curiofity having taught all Women (but the Beggar) to find out Nurses, three men of an hundred and fourty: and which necessity only ought to commend unto them: The hasty Marriages in tender years, wherein, Nature being but yet green and growing, we rent from her and replant | Escans, gave them long account of many her branches, while her felf hath not yet a- years: fo did it to the Secretaries of Egyptiof strong Waters, hot Spices, and provoking

— 0 Prodiga rerum

Luxuries, nunquam parvo contenta paratu; Et quasitorum terra pelagoque ciborum Ambitiosa fames, & lauta gloria mensa. Discite quam parvo liceat producere vitam: Et quantum natura petat.

Non auro myrrháque bibunt : scd gurgite puro Vitaredit : satis est populis fluvinsque Ceresque.

O wastfull Riot never well content With low-priz'd fare; hunger ambitious Of Cates by Land and Sea far fetcht and fent;

Vain-glory of a Table fumptuous, Learn with how little life may be pre-

In Gold and Myrrhe they need not to caroufe.

But with the Brook the peoples thirst is ferved;

Who fed with Bread and Water are not fterved.

time of man's life is an hundred years, because the heart in a perfect body waxeth and groweth to strength fifty years, and afterwards by the same degree decayeth and withereth. Epigenes findeth in his Philosophy, that the life of man may reach to the period of an hundred and twenty years, and Berofus to an hundred and seventeen years. These opinions Pliny repeateth and reproveth, pro-in inferiour Creatures, who by the ordinance the last taxation, number, and review of the of God receive operative Virtue from the eighth Region of Halp, there were found in the Roll (faith Pliny) four and fifty per-Plin. 1. But besides the old Age of the World, sons of an hundred years of age: seven and "". feven and thirty years old: and last of all, this fearch was made in the times of Vefpatian the Father, and the Son. The simple diet and temperate life of the ny root sufficient to maintain her own top; an Ceremonies, to the Persian Magicians, and fuch half-ripe feeds (for the most part) and Indian Brachmans. The Greeks affirm 10f. and. in their growing up wither in the bud, and out of Homer, that Neftor lived three Ages, 113 c.g., and Timber growing up wither in the bud, and out of Homer, that Neftor lived three Ages, 113 c.g., and Timber growing hand were wax old even in their Infancy. But above all and Tirestas six, sybilla three hundred years, c, 48. things, the exceeding luxuriousness of this Endymion of the less Asia, little less: Asia gluttonous age, wherein we press Nature | Majanissa of Numidia lived very long, and with over-weighty burthens, and finding her Dando of Illyria. Among the Kings of Arftrength defective, we take the work out of cadia many lived three hundred years (latch her hands, and commit it to the artificial help | Ephorus.) Hellanicus affirmeth of the Epeians, that some of them lived full two hun-Sawces; of which Lucan hath these elegant | dred years; and so doth Diodorus Siculus of the Egyptians: and that these reports are not fabulous, Josephus bringeth many witnesses with himself; as Marethon, Berosus, Mochus, Estius, Hieronymus, Egyptius Hecataus, Ephorus, and others. And Anthony Fume, an Historian of good reputation reporteth, that in the year 1570. there was an Indian presented to solyman, General of the Turks Army, who had out-lived three hundred years. I my felf knew the old Countess of Desmond of Inchiquin in Munster, who lived in the year 1589, and many years since, who was married in Edward the Fourth's time, and held her joynture from all the Earls of Desmond since then; and that this is true, all the Noblemen and Gentlemen of Munster can witness: Strozzius Sicogna, out of Torquemada, Maffeus, and the like Authours, telleth of some that have not onely farr exceeded the term prescribed by Epigenes; but been repaired from the withered estate of decrepit age to fresh youth. But for length of life, if we note but the difference be-The Egyptians affirm, that the longest tween the ability of men in those days wherein Galen the Physician lived, it may casily prove unto us, what Reeds we are in respect of those Cedars of the first Age. For Galen did ordinarily let Bloud fix pound weight, whereas we (for the most part) stop at fix ounces. But to conclude this part, there are three things (not counting Constellations) which are the natural causes of a long and healthfull life; (to wit) strong Sal Cal bifl. c. 3. Macrob. Satur lib. use of diet, pleasure, and rest: for those the other is ascribed to Zoroaster, Mercurius, which are built of rotten timber, or mouldring stone, cannot stand long upright; on Ayr we feed alwaies and in every instant, and on meats but at times: and yet the heavy load of abundance, wherewith we oppress and overcharge Nature, maketh her to fink unawares in the mid-way; and therefore with a good constitution, a pure Ayr, and a temperate use of those things which Nature wanteth, are the only friends and companions of a long life.

9. VI.

Of the Patriarchs delivering their knowledg by Tradition: and that Enoch writ before the Floud.

Fourth scruple hath been made, How A the certain knowledg of the Creation came to Moses, seeing there was no Story thereof written; and if any fuch had been, yet it is conceived, that all memory of Antiquity perished in the Universal Floud.

But if we consider the curiosity and policy of elder Ages, we shall find, that knowledg was the greatest treasure that men sought for, and which they also covered and hid from the vulgar fort, as Jewels of inestimable price, fearing the irreverent construction of sie and ordinary way might come to Israel, the ignorant and irreligious: fo as whatfoever was attained unto concerning God, and his working in Nature, the same was not left to publike dispute, but delivered over by heart and tradition from wife men to a posterity equally Zealous; Ex animo in animum fine literis, medio intercedente verbo: From mind to mind without Letters, by way of Tradition or word of mouth. And it was thought by Efdras, Origen, and Hilarius (as Mirandula conceiveth) that Moses did not only upon the Mount receive the Law from God, but Authors,) he delivered by mouth to Joshua. and Joshua to the Elders: for, to teach these mysteries, which he called secretiora, to the rude multitude, were no other quam dare Sanclum canibus, & inter porcos spargere Margaritas; then to give holy things to Dogs, and to cast Pearls before Swine. In succeeding times this understanding and wisdom began to be written in Ciphers and Characters, and | before he wrote the Scriptures) make more Letters bearing the form of Beasts, Birds, and manifest. other creatures; and to be taught only to Kings and Priests. Of the first the Cabala of that Tertullian, Origen, Augustine, Beda, Proce Bush

Parents, a pure and thin ayr, and temperate | the Jews was an imitation: the invention of Cadmus, and others; but fallely.

This Cabala importeth a Law, received by Cabalage tradition and unwritten. Cabala in Hebrew Theologie is Receptio in Latine, and a Receiving in En-nonress. glish. And this custome was also held by the lata. P.M. Druids and Bards of our antient Brittains, 110 M. and of latter times by the Irish Chroniclers called Rimers. If then fuch as would feem wifeft in the use of reason, will not acknowledg, that the story of the Creation or beginning of all things, was written by inspiration, the Holy-Ghost guiding the hand of Moses; yet it is manifest, that the knowledg thereof might by Tradition (then used) be delivered unto him by a more certain prefumption, then any or all the testimonies which prophane antiquity had preserved and left to their fuccessors: which their wise men (as they terme them) did lay up and defend from the injury of the time and other hazards. For, leaving to remember that Adam instructed seth, and seth his children and fucceflors, which cannot be doubted of, it is manifest, that Methusalem lived together with Adam himself two hundred fourty and three years, and Noah with Methusalem no less then five hundred years: and before Noah died, Abraham was fifty and eight years old: from whence this knowledg by an eaand fo to Mofes.

But besides this Tradition, it is questionless, that the use of Letters was found out in the very infancy of the world, proved by those Prophecies written on Pillars of Stone and Brick by Enoch: of which Josephus affirmeth, Josephus that one of them remained even in his time (meaning belike fome ruin or foundation thereof) which Pillars by others are ascribed to Seth. But of these Prophecies of Enoch, St. Jude testifieth; and some part of his Books suits (which contained the course of the Stars, 1.14 withal, feretiorem & veram legis enarratio- their names and motions) were afterward nem; a more secret and true explanation of found in Arabia felix, in the Dominion of the Law; which (faith he, out of the same the Queen of Saha (faith Origen) of which original Tertullian affirmeth, that he had feen, and Hand read some whole Pages. It is not therefore strange, that Moses came to the knowledg of the Creation, and ftory of the first Age, seeing he might receive it both by Tradition and Letter, had not the spirit of God instructed and inspired him as it did: which also his many and strange Miracles (performed

Now for the Books of Enoch, howfoever Hamiltonia fuch as ferved in their Temples, and to their fome men make mention of them, fure lam pius, Gazeus (with others) cite them in their writings: although Medina, for an argument to prove them unwritten Traditions, Geof dif. alledgeth that Pope Gelasius among other the Apocryphal Scriptures (which he rejecteth) named not these of Enoch; but that whatsoever was remembred out of them, the same was delivered by Tradition from the Jews. the diligence of the Hebrew Priests in Armario Judaico (saith Tertullian) who yet afly, that so exquisite knowledg therein (as else, makes it manifest, that Henoch was not these men had) was suddenly invented and dissolved as the rest. For to all the rest of found out, but left by seth to Enoch, and by the Patriarchs, Moses useth these words, And Enoch to Nonh, as hath been faid before. And he dyed; but of Henoch he fpake otherwise, therefore if Letters and Arts were known faying only, He was milling, or, he was not lived with Methylalem, who lived with Adam, to the Hebrews) quia Deus eum transsituit; and Abrakam lived with Noah; it is not strange And he was not found, for the Lord took him (Ifay) to conceive how Moses came to the away. In the same place it is expressly added, knowledg of the first Age, be it by Letters, that he saw not death. or by cabala and Tradition, had the un-

CHAP. V.

9. VII.

Of the men of renown before the Floud.

? Ow let us consider the relation of Associa who nameth feven descents of Cains children: and of Adam by Seth, ten; Seth But I rather think with Percrius, that fuch a being given by God in flead of Abel: And of Book there was, and that the same was cor- seth was Enelly begotten, in whose time men rupted after the death of the Apostles, and began to profes Religion, and to offer sacrimany things added thereunto by Hereticks, fice in publick. For although Adam instruwho took occasion upon the antiquity there- ceed his Children in the knowledg of God of, and out of that place of Michael contend-their Creator, as appeared by the Sacrifice ing with the Devil about the body of Moses, offered by Cain and Abel; yet it seemeth to frame and add thereunto many inventions that after the death of Enolb, men began of their own. One of the greatest arguments publickly to call on the Name of the Lord, against these Books, is, that neither Philo nor that is, they served and praised God by Com-Josephus (the most diligent searchers of Anmunion and in publick manner, or calling tiquity) make mention thereof. But against upon the Name of the Lord; and thereby is I will fet this opinion of St. Augustine, were the Sons of God, or the Godly, diftinscrifffe quidem nonnulla divina Enoch, illum guished from the wicked. From the birth of feptimum ab Adam, negare non possimus: That Enosh the Son of Seth, to the time of Henoch Enoch the seventh from Adam, did write di- the Son of Jared, there is nothing rememvers divine things, we cannot deny. Now his bred by Moses, but their owne births, the writings which came afterwards to light, birth of their Sons, the length of their lives, writings which came antiquity, and and deaths. But of Henoch it is written: That Gen. 5. 24. of fables of Giants, supposed to be begotten he walked with God, and he was no more seen: of Angels, and others; and by so much the for God took him away. By that, that he more, because no such Book was found a- walked before God, was meant, that he was a mongst those Canonical Scriptures, kept by just and upright man, and that he feared, loved, and obeyed God. For the same phrase Moses useth of Noah; Noah was a just and V.1. firmeth, that this Book might be preserved upright man in his time, and Noah walked by Noah. Surely, that Enoch wrote the Pro- with God. The Seventy convert it, Enoch pheties remembred by Jude, no man can de- placuit Deo; Enoch pleased God. And alny 5 how they were delivered to posterity, though Aben-Ezra, and others, understand I know not; whether by the Jews Cabala, or this place, (tulit eum Dens) scilicet, mortuus by what other means, the same is but mans est; God took bim away, (that is) ke dyed, conjecture. And (certainly) by the know- which (indeed) agreeth both with the phrase ledg ascribed to Noah of the motions of the of the Scripture, and with our manner of Heavens, and of the natures and conjuncti- speech to this day, to say, God took him aons of the Stars; and afterwards to some of way when he died; yet the difference which his Sons, to Zoroaster, and then to Abraham, Moses maketh between the piety of Henoch, it is very probable that Noah had feen and and the rest of the Patriarchs, and by omitmight preserve this book. For it is not like- ting the word (death) which he useth to all from the time of seth to Enoch, and that Noah feen. Et non inveniebatur (laith the Apostle doubted Word of God need of any other were not with the same kind of changing which St. Paul promifeth, when he faith, that, when the end shall come, we shall not all die, 51.

CHAP. VI.

God.

learned Divines.

After Enoch, Moses passeth over to Methufalen and Lamech, remembring (as of the rest) the times of their birth and death: saving that Lamech prophefied of his Son Noah, Gen. 5. 29. faying, This same shall comfort us concerning our work, and forrow of our hands, as touching the earth which the Lord bath curfed. Of Noah, Moses writeth more amply than of any of the rest of Adams children by seth, being the last Gen. 6. 9. of the ten generations of the first Age, whom God (with his Family) preserved, because he was an upright man in his time, and feared policy of those strong and mighty men, so

able both in body and wit, there is no memory remaining: whose stories, if they had been preserved, and what else was then performed in that newness of the world, there could nothing of more delight have been left to Posterity. For the exceeding long lives of men (who to their strength of body and natural wits, had the experience added of 800. and 900. years) how much of necessity must the fame adde of wisdom and undertakings? Likely it is, that their works excelled all | cules | hath written a large Difcourfe, intially in respect of this old age of the world, to prove, that there were never any such Aphor. 1. begin to die; according to Hippocrates: Vita brevis, ars longa, tempus praceps; (which is) Life is flort, art is long, time is headlong. And many things worthy admiration, it may be gathered out of these words of Moses; These Gen. 6. 4. were mighty men, which in old time were men for strength of body, and cruelty of mind) trusted so much to their own abilities as they forgat altogether the piety of seth, and the ways wherein Henoch walked: for all the ima-Sons of God (or of the godly)were corrupted and mif-led by their Idolatrous Wives, the Daughters of Cain, or of those other men, loving themselves and the world onely.

That these sons of God were Angels, which being taken with the beauty of women, accompanied them, and begat Giants, some of the Fathers supposed; namely, Last antius, and Ensebius, mif-led by Josephus : of whom I can not doubt, but that they afterward changed their former opinions. And of this miftaking many Writers have taken greatad-but all feall be changed, I leave it to the vantage, and have troubled themselves with large answers, and very needless: the question being uncapable of dispute, especially fince S. Chrysoftom and S. Augustine have anfwered it largely long ago. For, that good and godly men were honoured with the title of Gods children, it doth every where appear in Scripture; and on the contrary, to think that Angels, who (as Christ witnesseth) behold the face of God, (that is) always attend his commandments, should after a separation from the rest which fell with Lucifer, forfake the glorious presence of their Creatour, and become Incubi, or Succubi, contrary both to Nature and Grace, were more than madness to imagine. But of the war, peace, government, and

6. VIII.

That the Giants, by Moses so called, were indeed men of large bodies: as also, divers in

F these Giants which Moses calleth mighty men, Goropius Becanus an Antuerpian (who thought his own wit more Gigantical than the bodies of Nimrod, or Herwhatfoever can be told of aftertimes, especi- tuled, Gigantomachia; and strained his brains when we no fooner begin to know, but we men: his reasons (whosoever defires to lose time) he may find them in the Treatifes before named. It is true, that Cyrillus reproves the Grecian Poets for their monthat those people of the first Age performed strous fictions: who affirm shamelessly. That the Giants have in elder times, not onely cast up Mountains upon Mountains, but removed Islands out of the Sea, with like of renown. But these men of renown (whom fooleries. And for that invention of castthe Scripture afterwards calleth Giants, both ing up Hills, and making War with the gods, no doubt but that the same was borrowed out of the Story of Nimrod, as before remembred; and even out of this Scripture. That the Sons of God faw the Daughters of ginations of their hearts were evil, onely evil Men, of whom the first Giants were begotten, and continually evil. And this wickedness was was that conceit, taken from Orpheus and Henot onely found in the issues of Cain, but it | sodus, That Giants were the Sons of the Heawas then universal, when the children and ven and the Earth; meaning by the Heavens the sons of God, and by the Earth, the Daughters of Men: which verses of Orpheus are by John Cassam (who hath written a very witty Discourse of this Subject) thus changed in to Latine:

> Nomine calestes illos dixère Gigantes, Orti quod terrà fuerint & Sanguine cœli.

From th' Earth, and from thy bloud, O heaven, they came. Whom thereupon the gods did Giants But

But what will not Opiniators, and felf-be- | four hundred years after the Expedition of lieving men dispute of, and make doubt of, if Chedorlaomer. Moreover, those Discoverers there have been in all times fince; feeing the Scriptures avow the one manifestly, and common experience the other?

And for that superlative straining of words, and the meaning of them, that the name of Giants was given to Oppressors and Tyrants, fav, That they were called Giants onely, beftrength surpassing others: and afterwards to endure their former flavery, than to fall general Floud, then might this place of Moles and yielded to interpretation.

and without all Allegorical construction, aof these Giants in the time of Abraham, of Moses, of Josuah, and of David; namely, even four and twenty. the Rephaims in Afteroth; the Zuzei, or Zandwelt anciently in the Land of Moab; whom Moses (for stature) compareth with the Anakims which dwelt in Hebron; for they also were taken for Giants as the Anakims. Like-Ammon, he useth these words: That also was taken for a'Land of Giants, for Giants dwelt therein afore-times: and, whom the Ammonites call Zanzummims; a people that was great, and many, and tall as the Anakims. And these Giants called Rephaims in Afteroth and Karnaim, and the Zuzai or Zanzummims, Chederlaomer, King of Elam, overthrew, affifted by other Kings his affociates. Also the Prophet Amor found among the Ammonites, men curse and corruption) brought forth her of Giant-like stature, whom he compareth to young ones more strong and beautifull, than the Cedar, and whose strength to the Oaks: it did in after ages: so also those Giants, and the Prophet Barneth, These were the Gi-those mighty men, and men of renown, as far ants famous from the beginning, that were of exceeded the proportion, nature, and So great flature, and so expert in warr. Partir strength of those Giants, remembred by cularly, it is written of og King of Basan, that his bed of Iron was nine Cubits long, and four Cubits broad: for onely og King of Basan remained of the remnant of the Gi-

they cannot conceive that there were in the and Searchers of the Land of Promite (fent first Age such kind of men; and of which by Moses from Cadesbarne in Paran) made report at their return of the great stature of those people in general, and especially of the Sons of Anak, in these words: All the people Numb. 13. which we saw in it, are men of great stature : for v. 34. there we faw Giants, the Sons of Anak, which come of the Giants, so that we seemed in our and not to ftrength of body, and eminent sta- fight, like Grashoppers, and so we were in their ture: such men might with better reason call sight (that is) the Searchers sound in their them Oppressors, because they were Giants; own judgments a marvellous difference beand therefore had ability to oppress, than tween the Anakims and themselves: insomuch that the Ifraclites were so stricken with cause Oppressions. For first, Moses himself fear, as they rather sought, and defired, to recalleth them mighty men; which sheweth a turn again into Egypt, and were more willing men of renown (that is) of great under- by the strokes of those fearfull Nations, Furtaking and adventurous actions. And if the thermore, the Scriptures put us out of doubt, fame stature of body, and ability, had not that Goliab the Philistine of Gath, was a Giant been found among divers Nations after the of fix Cubits and a span long: the Armour 1 Sam, 17. which he wore, weighed five thousand she- v. 4. have more willingly heark ned to a dispute, kels of Brass: the shaft of his spear was like a Weavers beam, and his spear head weighed But besides all these samous Giants sound six hundred shekels of Iron. Also in Samuel 2 Sam 21. in prophane Histories (which I will referve there is mention of another Goliab, furnamed v. 19. to accompany the Giants of Albion, in the Getheus, because he was of Gath: and of Story of Eritany) the Scriptures do cleerly, three other Giants; of which the furft was flain by Jonathan, David's Nephew, who had 10.7. vow, That befides Nimrod, there were found twelve fingers, and as many toes: a man of great stature, and his fingers were by fixes,

Also that Sampson was of surpassing zummims in Ham, and the Emims which strength, no man doubteth, who tore a Lion Jul. 14.6. as it had been a Kid, and after flew thirty of 16. 3. the Philistines, and (after that) a thousand more of them with a Jaw-bone of an Afs: And lastly, he took the gates of Azzah, and wise where Moses speaketh of the Land of the two posts, and lifted them away with the barrs, and put them upon his shoulders, and carried them to the top of the Mountain before Ebron. If then it be approved by every judgment, that both Nature, and the Heavens wax old, and that the great age of Time hath (with it felf) infeebled and almost worn out the virtue of all things, then, I say, That as in all other kinds the Earth (before that Sin had increased the Moses of his own time, and after him their fuccessors, as the ordinary proportion of men in general, foon after the Floud, and in ants who commanded the Kingdom of Bafan of men which are now born, in the withered and oppression) of these men was such, as doth not repent him of any thing which he hath God therefore by the Floud, gave end to done (as men use to do) but if the Scripture all flesh, but to the just Noah and his Fadid not use those words, or the like, it mily. And God repented him that he had should not (in a sort) insimuate it self fa-Del. 1.5. made man: which Saint Augustine thus ex-miliarly to all forts of men, for whom it poundeth; Neque enim sicut hominem, ita would provide: that it might terrifie the Deum facti sui penitet, cujus est de omnibus proud, stir up the negligent, exercise the omnino rebus tam sixa senienta, quam cer- searchers of the truth, and nourish those that ta præscientia. Sed si non utatur Scriptura understand.

CHAP. VI.

ing youth and newness of the World.

quarter and Winter of the World. If there-, talibus verbis, non se quodammodo familiafore Giants were common in the third and rius infinualit omni generi hominum, quibus fourth Age, much more in the first flourish- vult effe consultum : ut & perterreat superbientes, & excitet negligentes, & exerceat qua-But the wickedness (especially in cruelty rentes, & alat intelligentes; God (faith) he)

CHAP. VI.

Of Idolatrous corruptions, quickly rifing, and hardly at length vanishing in the World; and of the Reliques of Truth touching these ancient Times, obscurely appearing in Fables and old Legends.

6. I.

That in old Corruptions, we may find some signs of more ancient Truth.

Ere, before we proceed any That the Corruptions themselves were very ancient, as in the Family of Noah, and in the further, the occasion offereth it felf for us to confider how the Greeks, and other more lous inventions, and by breaking into b from God, which was first found in Anparts the Story of the Creation, and by gels, and afterwards in men (the one having delivering it over in a myftical fence, erred but once, the other ever) as concernwrapping it up mixed with other their own ing Man-kind, it took fuch effect, that there trumpery, have fought to obscure the truth by (the liberal Grace of God being withthereof; and have hoped, that after-ages, drawn) all the posterity of our first Parents being thereby brought into many doubts, were afterwards born and bred in a world, might receive those inter-mixed Discourses suffring a perpetual Eclipse of spiritual light. of God and Nature, for the inventions of Hence it was that it produced Plants of fuch of God. But, as a skilfull and learned Chy- out or depure, but that the same defection mist can as well by separation of visible hathhad continuance in the very generation elements draw helpfull Medicines out of and nature of man-kind. Yea, even among trary to the purpoles and hopes of the Hea- of seth, Enoch, and Noah; fo the Sons of Cham old Egyptians. ancient Nations, by fabu- DUt this defection and falling away Poets and Philosophers, and not as any imperfection and harmfull quality, as the thing borrowed or ftoln out of the Books waters of the general floud could not fo walk poison, as poison out of the most health- the few Sons of Noah, there were found full Herbs and Plants (all things having in strong effects of the former poison. For as themselves both life and death) so, con- the children of shem did inherit the virtues then, may those that feek after God and did posses the vices of the Sons of cain, and Truth, find out every where, and in all of those wicked Giants of the first Age. the ancient Poets and Philosophers, the Whence the Chaldwans began, soon after the Story of the first Age, with all the works Floud, to ascribe divine power and honour and marvels thereof, amply and lively ex- to the Creature, which was onely due to the Creatour. First, they worshipped the Sun, and then the Fire. So the Egyptians and Phænicians Phonicians did not onely learn to leave the true God, but created twelve feveral Gods, and divine powers, whom they worshipped, and unto whom they built Altars and Temples. For Herodotus faith, Duodecim Deorum nomina primos Ægyptios in usu habuisse, atque Gracos ab illis cepisse mutuatos, eosque prius Aras, & Imagines, & Templa Din, sibi erexisse; The Egyptians (saith he) first devised the names of the twelve gods, which the Greeks received from them, who first erected unto themselves Altars, Images, and Temples, for the gods.

6. III.

That in process of time, these lesser errours drew on greater: as appeareth in the groß superstitions of the Egyptians.

T)Ut as men once fallen away from undoubted truth, do then after wander for evermore in vices unknown, and daily travel towards their eternal perdition: fo did these groß and blind Idolaters, every Age after other, descend lower and lower, and shrink and flide downwards from the knowledg of one true and very God; and did not thereby erre in worshipping mortal men onely, fame respect to Beasts, Birds, Fishes, Fowls, Winds, Earth, Water, Ayr, Fire, to the Morning, to the Evening, to Plants, Trees, and Roots, to Passions and Affections of the Mind, to Paleness, Sickness, Sorrows, yea, to the most unworthy and basest of all these. Which barbarous blasphemy, Rhodius An-But com, axandrides derideth in this manner:

Bovem colis, ego Deis macto bovem. Tu maximum Anguillam Deum putas: ego Obsoniorum credidi suavissimum. Carnes suillas tu caves, at gandeo His maxime : canem colis, quem verbero Edentem ubi deprehendo fortè obsonium.

I facrifice to god the Beef which you I broyl th' Egyptian Eeles, which you (as god) implore: You fear to eat the flesh of Swine; I find it fweet. You worship Dogs; to beat them I think

When they my store devour.

And in this manner Juvenal. Porrum, aut cape, nefas violare aut frangere morfu: O sancias gentes quibus bæc nascuntur in kortis The Egyptians think it fin to root up, or

Their Leeks or Onyons, which they ferve with holy rite: O happy Nations, which of their own

Have store of gods in every Garden growing!

6. IV.

That from the relicks of Ancient Records among the Egyptians and others, the first Idols and Fables were invented: and the first Jupiter was Cain, Vulcan, Tubal-Cain, &c.

Dut in fo great a confusion of vanities, where among the Heathens themselves there is no agreement or certainty, it were hard to find out from what example the beginnings of these inventions were borrowed, or after what ancient pattern they erected their building, were it not certain that the Egyptians had knowledge of the first Age, and of whatsoever was done therein, partly from some inscriptions upon stone or metal remaining after the Floud; and partly from Mizraim the Son of Cham, who had learn'd but they gave divine reverence, and had the the fame of Cham, and Cham of his Father Noah: for, all that the Egyptians write of their ancient Kings, and date of times, cannot be fained: and though other Nations after them had by imitation their Jupiters alfo, their Saturns, Vulcans, and Mercuries, with the reft, which S. Augustine out of Varro, Eusebins out of many prophane Histories; Case Lis. Cicero, Diodorus Siculus, Arnobius, and ma- civii. Dei. ny more have observed, to wit, the Phanici- Enfet. L. I. ny more nave observed, to wit, the rmenter de Prap. ans, Phrygians, Cretians, Greeks, and other Evang c.7: Nations; yet was Cain, the Son of Adam, (as o 1.2. fome very learned men conceive) called and 6.23. reputed for the first and ancient Jupiter; and denat. De-Adam for the first Saturn: for Jupiter was said orum. to have invented the founding of Cities; and Arnob 4, the first City of the World was built by Cain, Gent. which he called Enoch, of whom were the Henochii, before remembred. And fo much may be gathered out of Plato in Protagoras, which also Hyginus in his 275. Chapter confirmeth. For besides that many Cities were founded by diversmen; Tamen primam latilsimam à primo & antiquissimo Jove ædiss-catam: yet the first and largest was built by the first and most ancient Jupiter, seated in the East parts, or in India, according to that of Mofes: And Cain dwelt towards the East fide of Eden, Oc. where also the Henockii were found after the Floud. And therefore was Jupiter by the Athenians called Policus, Gen. 4. 16.

a Foun-

a Founder of Cities, and Herceios, an Inclo-Phorn I de fer, or strengthener of Cities (say Phornutus NAMES DE and Paulanias;) and that to Jupiter Herceios, Description 14, there were in very many places Altars and 5. 00 10.1 Temples erected. And, that there were Ciin Protago ties built before the Floud, Plato also witneffeth, as may be gathered in this his affirming, that, foon after mankind began to increase, they built many Cities; which, as his meaning, he delivereth in plain terms, in his third Book of Laws: for he faith, that Cities were built an exceeding space of time before the destruction by the great Floud.

This first Jupiter of the Ethnicks was then the same Cain, the Son of Adam, who marrying his own Sifter (as also Jupiter is said to God took him away. have done) inhabited the East, where Stephanus de Urbibus placeth the City Henochia. 611. 4. 10, And besides this City of Henoch, Philo Juda-11, 22. His conceiveth that Cain built fix others, as Maich, Jared, Tehe, Jesea, Selet, and Gebat: but where Philo had this, I know not. Now, as Cain was the first Jupiter, and from whom also the Ethnicks had the invention of Sacrifice : fo were Jubal, Tubal and Tubal-Cain (inventors of Pattorage, Smith-craft, and Mufick) the same which were called by the ancient prophane Writers, Mercurius, Vulcan, Lat. 1.4. and Apollo. And as there is a likelihood of name between Tubalcain and Vulcan: fo doth Augustine expound the name of Noema, or Naamath, the Sifter of Tubalcain, to fignifie Venusta, or beautifull, Voluptas, or pleasure; as the Wife of Vulcan is faid to be Venus, the Lady of pleasure and beauty. And as Adam was the ancient and first saturne; Cain, the eldest Jupiter; Eva. Rhea, and Nomea, or Naamath the first Venus: so did the Fable of the dividing of the World between the three Brethren, the Sons of Saturne, arise from the true Story of the dividing of the Earth between the three Brethren the Sons of Noah: so also was the fiction of those golden Apples kept by a Dragon, taken from the Serpent which tempted Evah: fo was Paradise it self transported out of Asia into Africa, and made the Garden of the Hesperides: the Prophecies, that Christ should break the Serpents head, and conquer the power of Hell, occasioned the Fables of Hercules killing the Serpent of Hesperides, and descending into Hell, and captivating Cerberus: so out of the taking up of Henoch by God, was borrowed the conversion of their Heroes (the inventors of Religion, and such Arts as the life of man had profit by) into Stars, and heavenly Signes, and (withall) that leaving of the World, and ascention of Astrea: of which Ovid; ouid. Met. Ultima cœlestum terras Astrea reliquit. Aftraa last of heavenly Wights the Earth did leave.

The first Book of the first Part For although thereby the Ethnicks would understand Justice it self to have failed, as Natha it is a vertue abstract, and may be considered without a person, yet, as it is usual among the ancient Poets to describe Vertues and Vices by the persons of men and women, as Defire by Cnpid, Valour by Mars, Beauty or Lust by Venus; so do they also the persons of men by like Vertues and Vices: and therefore by Justice and Aftrea, Enoch; the justice and piety of Enoch being in the same manner exprest, as that of Noah was by Moses: for Noah Gun, was faid to be a just man; And Noah malked out a with God. And of Enoch it is written, That he 14. walked with God, and he was no more feen: for

From this Story also of the first Age, and from that part where Moses remembreth the Giants begotten by the Sons of good men upon the Daughters of the wicked (whom Moses calleth mighty men, and men of renown) did they steal those wondrous great acts of their ancient Kings, and powerfull Giants; and again, their Warr undertaken against the Gods, from the building of the Tower of Babel by the Giant Nimrod, as S. Augustine termeth him. Which war of their man Giants, Cornelius Severus thus describeth.

Tentavere (nefas) olim detrudere mundo Sydera, captivique Jovis transferre Gigantes Imperium, & victo leges imponere cælo.

The Giants did advance their wicked

Against the Stars, to thrust them headlong

And robbing Jove of his Imperial Crown, On conquer d Heavens to lay their proud command.

Whereby was meant that Nimrod purposed to raise the building of Babel to that sim height, as God neither by drawing waters from the deep, nor by any conjunction of the Stars, should bury them under the moisture of a second Floud, but that by this building (if they had been herein victorious) they would have given the Law to Heaven it self. Also the making of leagues peace and covenants among Heathen Nations and Kings, confirmed by Sacrifice, whereof Virgil both in the eighth and twelfth of his Eneids hath a touch, was (as it feemeth) borrowed, from Moses, Exod. 24. who, when he read the Book of the Covenant, sprinkled the people with bloud.

We find also many remembrances of seth, the paternal Ancestor of Henoch and Noah for Amenophie, the same King of Egipt which reigned at such time as Moses carried thence the children of Ifrael (as of late some learned 1 they were, or were not with those virtues men, mistaking his time, supposed) called inriched, yet by imitation, all Kings in the ment have granted) were the Princes of of honour and reputation in the world(howmany very famous. But herein was the memory of seth most manifestly preserved, that antient Parent, and of the first Tradition: Province Setheitica. We also find in Bithynia the City of Sethia, and others of the same name elsewhere. And sure, from the Egyptians did the Grecians borrow this kind of Theologie, though they fcorned to acknowledg any antiquity preceding their own: and that they might not feem to learn elsewhere, they gave the same names to their own Idols, which the Egyptians did to theirs.

§. V.

Of the three chiefest Jupiters, and the strange story of the third.

Dut of all those Armies of Jupiters, remembred by the Antients, Cicero maketh but three, because those were of most fame: which other Writers have also done, who fought out, and laboured in their originals.

The first was Jupiter, the Son of Aether and Dies, so called because the one had reference to his Celestial conditions (for ather is as much as shining or pure fire:) the other discovered his natural virtues, which daies and times make more perfect, and are the witnesses of mens actions.

The fecond was faid to be the Son of Cahim or Heaven, for the same former respect; and this Jupiter was an Arcadian, and King of Athens.

The third, of whom all the Grecian fables were devised, was of crete (now Candie,) the Son of saturn and ops. The name derived from the Latine is taken of Juvans pater, from the Greek word Zeus ; it lignifieth life, but somewhat strained. Boccas in his Genealogie of the Gods, conceiveth, that his but whether that Star had such a name before the same was given to men, I know not. Jupiter is hot and moist, temperate, modest, honest, adventurous, liberal, merciful, loclinations. And therefore those antient Kings his Son and Successiour setho, of seth: and eldest times assumed those Titles and Sirof the same Seth (as many men of good judg- names: great Princes affecting as high Titles Thrace, called Seuthes, whereof there were foever deserved) as the worthiest that ever were, acquired by their well-defervings, Joves omnes Reges vocarunt antiqui, The anthe Egyptians worshipped Seth, as their most tients called all Kings Jupiters, as Tzetzes in his varia historia confirmeth; Reges olim Join honour of whom they called a principal ves vocarunt omnes; In old times all Nations call'd their Kings Jupiters. But where this last and most remembred Jupiter was born, it is uncertain. Some there are that make him of Crete: others that he was but fent thither by his Mother Ops, or Opis, to be fostered Nat Coil. and hidden from the fury of Titan his Uncle: because it was conditioned between Saturn and Titan, that Saturn being a younger Brother, and reigning (for his own life) by Tratans permission, he should put to death all his male children, left the Titans might be interrupted by any one of them in their succession; which agreement, because saturn performed in his first born, it is feigned that Saturn devoured his own children. Hereof Lycophron, thus turned into Latine :

> Hand fit pinguior, Crudis sepulchrum quod sit ipse filiis.

Saturne to be the father is not known, By being the grave and burial of his own.

This composition between Titan and Saturns Sybilla also witnesseth in these words;

Conceptis verbis, Titan jurare coëgit Saturnum, de se natum ne nutriat ullum, Quò possint regnare, senis post fata, Nepotes.

Things thus agreed; Titan made Saturn fwear

No Son to nourish, which by reigning

Usurp the right of Titans lawful heir.

But Opis the Mother of Jupiter, being des livered at once both of Jupiter and Juno conveyed Jupiter (first called Lyfanias) into Crete, as she did afterwards his two Brothers, Neptune and Pluto: where he was brought up in Gnossus, the chief City of that Island, name was borrowed from Jupiter the Planet; by Cresta the King, or by the Curetes, a peo- Euleb. in ple and nation thereof.

Others challenge him to be of Thebes and a Thebane: others call him an Arcadian: 0thers make him of Messena. The like contenving, and faithful (that is) giving these in- tion is found among the Greeks touching his education and first fostering. Some affirm beautified with these conditions, might be that he was fed by Hony-bees: in recomcalled thereafter Jupiter: but howlocver pence, whereof he changed their black coats fuch a God; others, that he was nourished by Bears: others, by Goats: and of all these the idle Greeks have many pretty tales. But in the end, when Titan had knowledg that Saturn had broken his faith, he fet on him, and took him and his wife prisoners, whom Jupiter again rescued and delivered.

CHAP. VI

But lastly, the Father and the Son equally ambitious, the one doubted the other. Sa turn being the less powerful, fled into Italy, and left his Kingdom in Greece to his Son. And although this Prince at the first purchased great honour, and for his many virtues. the name of Jupiter was given him: yet after he was once fetled, and became potent, he gave himself over wholly to palliardize and adultery, without all respect of Honour, Law, or Religion. And it is reported by such as do ascribe the actions of many to one Jupiter, that not therewith fatisfied, he was afterwards known to offend in the fin of sodom with Ganimedes and others: and did not only begin with incest, marrying his owne Sifter Juno, but he ravished, betrayed, stole away, and took by strong hand all the beautiful women born in his time, within the limits of his own Kingdoms, or bordering them. Among whom these hereafter written were of greatest fame; Niobe, Laodamia, and Alemena, the Wife of Amphytrion, by whom he had Pelalgus, Sarpedon, Argus, and Hercules: by Taygete he had Taygetus, of whom the Mountain Taggetus took name; with another Son called saon, of whom savonas; by Antiope he had Amphion and Zetus: by Lada, Caftor and Pollux, Hellen and Clytemnestra: by Danae, Perseus; by Jordana, Deucalion: by Charme (the daughter of Eubulus) Britomartis: by Protogenia, he had Athlius the Father of Endymion: and by Iô (the daughter of Inachus) Epaphus, the founder of Memphis in Egypt: which Epaphus, married Lihya, of whom that Country took name, for fo the Greeks afterward called Africa. He ravished Aegina the Daughter of Aesopus, and carried her into the Island Oenopia or Oenotria, afterward called Aegina, on whom he begat Aeacus: by Torrhebia he had Archesilausand Carbius: by Ora, Colaxes: he had also Dardanus by Eledra, who built Dardanium, afterward Ilium or Troy. He begat the Brothers Talici, on Thalia; and on Garamantis, Hiarbas. He had besides these (if they bely not their chief God) Phileus and Pilimmis, inventers of the Bakers craft : and I know not how many more; but I And of these his several ravishments, succession: wherefore they took the Boy and and fkins into yellow; a reward well fitting | betrayings, ftealing away of mens Wives, the like, came in all those antient fables of his transformations into showers of Gold, Eagles, Bulls, Birds, and Beafts; and of him. and by him (in effect) all that rabble of Grecian forgeries. And yet did not the Greeks and Romans fear to entitle this Monster Optimus Maximus, though Cicero in his fecond Book, de natura Deorum, affirm, that he deserved nothing less; and in his Oration, pro domo sua, reprocheth Clodius for his incest, by the name of Jupiter. His burial was in Crete (saith Lucian.) Cretenses non solum Sans. natum apud se, & sepultum Jovem testantur. Sed etiam sepulchrum ejus ostendunt; The Cretians or Candians do not only avow that Inpiter was born and buried among them, but they flew his Grave and Sepulchre: which Epiphanius also confirmeth; for in his time there remained the Monuments of his Tomb in the Mountain Jasins. This, Callimachus in his Hymns also witnesseth; but, as offended thereat, faith thus:

The Cretians ever lyars were, they care not what they fay: For they a Tomb have built for thee, O

King, that liv'ft alway.

Diodorus Siculus tells by way of report Didly from the Libyan Fables, confirmed (as he confirmed) faith) by some Greek Writers, that the original of these Gods was from the Western parts of Africa. For there among the Atlantida reigned one Vramus (which fignifieth Heaven) called fo, for his great skill in Aftrology; and for his knowledg, and benefits to the people, honoured by them as a God after his death. He had by many Wives fourty five Sons; but by his principal Wife Titea, he had seventeen Sons and two Daughters, all which were called after their Mothers name, the Titanes. Of Titea, likewise it is said, that the for her goodness was Canonized as a Goddess, being dead, and called the Earth, as her Hutband was styled Heaven But of all the children of Titea, her Daughter Bafilea (which name founding as Queen in English, fhe is by the Latine translatour of Diodorus called Regina) excelling the rest as far in virtue as in years, was by general confent of her Brethren, and of the People, appointed to rule as Queen after her Father's death, being as yet a Virgin. She took to husband her Brother Hyperion, to whom she bare a Son and a Daughter, called Sun and Moon. The beauty and towardliness of these chilknow well that he could not be father to all | dren moved her Brethren to envie, and bred these, who were born in Ages so far differ- in them a fear of being excluded from the drowned him in the River Eridanus, now cretly, for fear of his life, to be brought up called Poe. The loss of this child, caused his at Nysa, an Island in the River Triton, under both her children, made the mother to play after a wild fashion, in fight of all the people, before whom she is said to have vanished should become immortal; that also the sun and that their death should be revenged upon the Murtherers. According to which it is faid, that the people did so call those two Planets, and withall held her felf as a goddess; and tearmed her the great Mother, which name they had formerly given to her. for her motherly care in cherishing her brethren whilest they were young. Hyperion and his Race being extinguished, the other Sons of Eranus divided the Kingdom. Of these, Atlas and Saturn were chief. Atlas reigned over the Countries lying about the Mountains, which afterward bare his name; a just and wife Prince, deeply skilfull in Afirologie: and, for invention of the Sphere, faid to have supported Heaven. He had fifter to break her own neck; and the loss of the tuition of his Daughter Minerva, and certain Nimphs. To Amalthea he gave in remany mad prancks, dancing with Cymbals, ward a goodly Country, that lay on the Seacoast, bending in form like a Horn, whence grew the tale of Amalthea's plentifull Horn, away. Ere she died, her Son (as the Fable famous among the Poets. When Rhea heard hath it) fignified unto her in a Dream, that these news, the fled from her Husband to her he and his fifter, by the providence of God, brother Saturn, who, not onely entertained her as a fifter, but took her to Wife, and at and Moon should be called by their names, her instigation, made warr upon Hammon, vanquished him by the assistance of the Titans, and made him flee into Crete. The Curetes, Jupiter's children before mentioned, held the Island at that time; which was new named Crete by Hammon, after the name of Creta the Kings Daughter, whom he took to Wife, and had with her (women, as may feem, being very gracious in those names) the Kingdom. Bacchus was grown a proper young man, had found out the making of Wine, the art of planting of Trees, and many things else commodious for man-kind, before the flight of his Mother-in-law. Now therefore, hearing report of all that had hapned, and that Saturn was coming against him with the Titans; he levied an Army, to many Sons; but the principal of them called which the Amazons, living not farr from Helperus, being of his Fathers qualities and Nyla, added great forces, in love of Minerus, ftudies, was faid to have been carried away who was entred into their profession. So Bacby the Wind, from the top of an high Hill, in | chus leading the men, and Minerva the wothe middeft of his contemplations; and his men, they fet forward against saturn, met name, in honour of him, imposed by the him, and overthrew him, and taking many people upon the morning Starr. The feven of the Titans prisoners, returned to Nya; Daughters of Atlas were also said to have where pardoning the prisoners, that probeen excellent Ladies, who accompanying mifed to become his true followers, he prefuch as came to be Deified, or registred a- pared for a second Expedition. In the semong the Worthies, brought forth children, cond Expedition he behaved himfelf fo well, answerable in quality to those that begat that he wan the love of all the people by them. Of these it is held, that the seven Stars, whom he passed ; in so much, that partly for called Pleiades, took name. Saturn, the bro- good affection to him, partly in hatred of ther of Atlas, reigned in Sicilia, part of Africk Saturn's rigorous government, he was greatand Haly. Jupiter, another of the Sons of ly strengthened, and the Enemy as much en-Uranus, reigned in Crete; who had ten Sons, feebled by daily revolts. Coming to the City which he called Curetes: he called that Island of Hammon, he wan a battel of Saturn beafter his Wives name, Idea; in which Ille he fore the very walls. After which, Saturn, died, and was buried. But this Jupiter must with his Wife Rhea, fled by night, setting the not have been that great one, but Uncle to Town on fire, to despight Bacchus. But they the great Jupiter, if these Fables of the Lybi-ans were true. Saturn (as these Lybians tell Bacebus, and kindly entertained. Saturn had the tale) was a great Tyrant, and fortified a young Son by thee, called Japiter. This frong places, the better to keep his people child Bacchus took with him in a great Exin hibjection, His fifter Rhea was married to Hammon, who reigned in some part of Africk. treys: and coming into Egypt, he left this Hammon loving others as well as his Wife, or better, got a Daughter called Minerva, the Country; but appointed unto him as neer to the River Triton, who thereupon was an Over-feer, one Olympus, of whom Jupiter called Tritonia. He also begat on Amalthea, grew to be called Olympus. Whilest Bacchus a Son, called Bacchus, whom he caused se-travelled through all Nations, as farr as into

72

ges of some one true History. For the Expe- Terrenus, or Indigena, and of Illus to Saturn, ditions of Ofiris and of Backus; the warrs of but omitting Jupiter of Crete. the Giants in the one Story, of the Titans in India, doing good in all places, and teaching the other; the Kingdom of Egypt given by many things profitable to the life of man; the Hercules Lybicus to Orus, by Bacchus to Jupi-Titans had found out his father Hammon in ter, the rattles of Iss, and the Cymbals of Bass-Crete, and began to wat upon him. But Bac- lea, with many pretty circumstances, neerly chus returned out of India, with whom Julier from Fight, and his fifter Minerva, together with the reft, that afterwards were held (as Eufchins cites him) would have all these to gods, joining all their forces, went into Crete, be Phenicians, and is earnest in saying, That overthrew the Titans, chaicd them, took and it is a true Story, and no Allegory. Yet he flew them, and freed the World of them all. makes it feem the more allegorical, by giving After all this, when Hammon and Bacelius to Uranus or heaven for daughters, Fate, and were dead, they were Deified; and the Beauty, and the like, with addition of much great Jupiter, the Son of Saturn, succeeding sabulous matter, omitted by Diodorus, them, reigned Lord alone over all the world, though Diodorus have enough. To the Gehaving none of the Titans left alive, nor any nealogie, he adds Elius, or the Sun, as father other to diffurb him. Between this tale of the of Vranus, and among the children of Vra-Lybian gods, and the Egyptian Fables of Ofiris, nu, Japetus, Batilus, and Dagon (whom Diothere is a rude refemblance, that may cause dorse doth not mention by their names) givthem both to be taken for the crooked Imaling withall to Vranus, the proper name of

The Pedigree of them is this:

5. VI.

of Cham, and other wicked ones; whereof some gat, some affected, the name of God.

F Jupiter Belus, the Son of Saturnus Babylonicus, otherwise Nimrod, it seemeth that Cicero had not heard, (at least by that name;) who was more ancient than any of the former three by him remembred : for long after these times were the Greeks but Salvages, if they feek no farther off for their

But the Egyptians, even after the Floud, began (somewhat before this Chaldean Jupiter)to entitle cham, the Parent of their own Mizraim, Jupiter Chammon, or Hammon. For the Etymologie of this word (Hammon which the Greeks deduce ab arenis, from the fands, is ridiculous (faith Pencer;) neither yet is his own much better, who brings it from fcorching. And as for the Antiquity of the latter Jupiter (among the Greeks and Romans born not long before the War of Troy, as by many of his Sons is made manifest; namely, Caftor, Pollux, Hercules, Sarpedon, and others, whom, and with whom, Troy was destroyed.

was given to Venus? seeing they were as notorious and famous Harlots, as the was.

5. VII.

That the wifer of the ancient Heathen had far better opinions of God.

he fained that they were perpetually stung him worthily. And what can be more agreeand pinched with Serpents. Yet it cannot be able to the Majesty of Gods Nature, than doubted, but that Homer had read over all this property by Plato acknowledged? Dens the Books of Moses, as by places stoln thence, almost word for word may appear; of which Justine Martyr remembreth many in that Treatise converted by Mirandula. As for Plato, though he diffembled in some things for fear of the Inquisition of the Areopagites, yet S. Augustine hath already answered for him(as before remembred) Et mirifice iis delectatus est, qua de uno Deo tradita fuerant; And he was greatly delighted in the dollrine of one God, faith Justine Martyr. Now, howsoever Lactantins pleased to reprehend Plato, because (saith he) Plato sought knowledge, Eusebing from the Egyptians, and the Chaldeans, ne. Prop. E. glecking the Jews, and Books of Moses, * Eu- Cyril. cont. Jebius, Cyrillus, and Origen, find reason to be- Julian. lieve the contrary, thinking that from thence contra he took the grounds of all by him written of celfum. God, or favouring of Divinity: and the same Ambr. ad Irea. Ep. 6. opinion had S. Ambrose of Pythagoras.

But whether it were out of the same vanity, which possessed all those learned Philo-gus seu Hammath, which fignifieth Heat: because the sophers and Poets, that Plato also published won Mar-Temple of Jupiter Hammon was feated in (not under the right Authours names) those in Morr the right Authours names) those in Mill; a Libya, where the ayr is exceeding hot and things which he had read in the Scriptures; bout or fearing the severity of the Areopagites, wherein and the example of his Moster Securities has capital and the example of his Master socrates, by matters the most renowned) it is certain that he was them put to death by poyfons I cannot judge, are used. Justine Martyr (as it seemeth) ascribeth it so called wholly to Plato's fear, whose words among cause Mars many other of the same effect, are these; sherein which lived in that Age of Priamus, under Plato, Moss mentionem facere, ob id, quod ed his cauf Now, seeing that mortal men, and the most wicked, were esteemed immortal among the Plato, fearing the Areopagites, thought it not realist Heathen; it was not to be wondred at, that safe for him among the Athenians, to make Passon in Alexander Macadon Tahanin Nova Calicula, mention of Macadon the Athenians, to make Michael Heathen; it was not to be wondred at, that Alexander Macedon, Tyberius Nero, Caligula, mention of Moles, that he taught there is but comits, and others, fought to be numbred among one God. But for that Divinity which he 6.7.761. them, who were as deformed Monsters as the hath written in Timao, Id ipsim de Deo disse ou so so. rest: for by what reason could the same Dei- ruit quod & Moses; He discoursed and taught the usper ty be denied unto Laurentia and Flora, which the same of God (saith Justine Martyr) which Exed 3.14 Moses did. For, where it pleased God by his Angel to answer Moses, Ego sum existens, (which is) I Am; and, Existens miss me ad vos; I am hath sent me unto you; herein did Plato (faith Justine Martyr) no otherwise differ than that Moses used the word (qui) and Plato the word quod: Moses enim, qui existit (inquit;) Plato, quod existit; for Moses But that ever Pythagoras or Plato, or Or-latth, He who is Plato, That which is. Now, of Gods incomprehensible nature, and of the cellently learned, believed in any of these difficulty either to conceive, or express the fooleries, it cannot be suspected, though some same, he given this testimony: Genitorem In Timas. of them (over-bufly) have mixed their own inventions with the Scriptures: for, in puallment for their fictions, did Pythagoras hard to find out the Creator of the Universal, hang both Homer and Hessed in Hell, where nitus est, non solum loci exclusione, sed etiam eri potest mortalium, sed ipse nihilominus natura dignitate: & nihil est Deo similius & omnes intuctur. gratius, quam vir animo perfecto bonus ; The most high God is also an infinite God, not onely by exclusion of place, but by the dignity of nature: neither is there any thing more like, or more acceptable to God than a Man of a perfect heart. Thales affirmeth, that God comprehended all things, and that God was of all things the most ancient: Quia nunquam esse capit-because he never had any beginning. Zeno, that God beheld even the thoughts of men; Athenodorus, that therefore all men ought to be carefull in the actions of their life, because God was every where prefent, and beheld all done. But what can be more agreeable to Moses story of the Creation, than this opinion and description of the Worlds beginning in Euripides, Scholar of Anaxagoras?

74 De legib.

Calum terraque unius forma fuit: Sed cum fuissent abjuncta amplexu mutuo, Emersit omnis in lucem res progenita; Arbores, aves, fera, quasque affert mare, Genusque mortalium.

Heaven and Earth one form did bear: But when dif-joyned once they were From mutual embraces, All things to light appeared then; Of trees, birds, beafts, fishes, and men The still-remaining races.

And as in Pythagoras, in Socrates, and in Plato; fo we find the same excellent understanding in orpheus, who every where exprefled the infinite and fole power of one God; though he use the name of Jupiter, thereby to avoid the envie and danger of the time: but that he could attribute those things to the Sons of men, and mortal creature, which he doth to this fupiter, there is no man, who hath ever heard of God, that can imagine.

Nomina Deorum (faith Mirandula) quos Or-bonus, & quidem Deus causa bonorum: malo- that he reacheth higher, and speaketh of vonus, o quiuem Dens canga vonoi nm. maio-rum autem omnium non canga; God is abjolute-God himself, this his instruction to Museus, Inmanient community and a good, and for (assured) the cause of all that and the Hymn following, teach us: Respici-1780000, and 10 (again easy) the camp of an total and the verb ad divinum hunc fermonem, et dilicause at all. And again, Charitas Dei suit genter animum adverte, intendens cordis raticansa factionis mundi, & originis omnium onis capax conceptaculum: rectam autem ascenrerum; The love of God was the cause of the de viam, & solum aspice mundi regem. Unus worlds creating, and the original of all things. eff ex se genitus, ex eo omnia nata sant : ipse Apuleius the Platonist; Summus Deus inst- verd in illis versatur, nec quisquam eum intu-

Then marking this my facred speech, but truly lend

Thy heart, that's reasons sphere, and the right way ascend,

And fee the worlds fole King. First, he is fimply one,

Begotten of himself, from whom is born

All else; in which he's still: nor could it ere befall

A mortal eye to fee him once, yet he fees all.

And again the same Authour,

Jupiter omnipotens, et primus, et ultimus idem, Jupiter est caput & mediu: Jovis omnia munus. Jupiter est fundamen humi, & stellantisOlympi. Jupiter & mas est, & famina nescia mortis. spiritus est cunctis, validi vis Jupiter ignis. Et pelagi radix, Sol, Luna est Jupiter ipse. Rex & origo simul rerum est, & terminus idem. Nam prius occuluit; magno post numine sacrum Cor reserans, bonus in dulce dedit omnia lucem.

The first of all is God, and the same last

God is the head and midst, yea from him all things be, God is the base of Earth, and of the starred fkie.

He is the Male and Female too, shall ne-

The Spirit of all is God, the Sun and Moon, and what is higher.

The King th' original of all, of all the end, For close in holy breast he did all comprehend, Whence all the bleffed light, his wondrous power did fend.

Now (besides these former testimonies) that all the learned men of antient times were not so stupid and ignorant, as the Egypheus canit, non decipientium Damonum, à tians, Grecians, and other Nations by them quibus malum & non bonum provenit; fed na- infected were, I will only repeat two or three turalium virtutum divinarumque sunt nomina; other opinions, and leave the Readers to The names of those gods whom Orpheus doth those large and learned Collections of Justine fing, are not of deceiving Devils, from whom Martyr, Clemens, Lastantius, Eusebius, Euevil comes, and not goodness; but they are the gubinus, Pencer, Plessis, Daneus, and others, names of natural and divine Vertues. Yea, For Cleanthes the Stoick, being demanded in that everlasting Country, whose image thou order their common people. hast none at all. Hereof also Xenophanes Colophonius: Unus Deus inter deos & homines maximus, nec corpore nec mente mortalibus similis; There is one God among gods and men most powerful, neither corporally nor mentally like unto mortals: and Xenophon, Deus qui omnia quatit, & omnia quiescere facit, magnus potensque, quod omnibus patet : qualis autem forma sit, nemini patet, nisi ipsi soli, qui summus animi genitor, eternus animantium so- and that time which hath devoured it self, spirator, affiduus munds sui opifex, sine propa- hath also eaten up both the Bodies and Imagatione genitor, neque loco, neque tempore ullo ges of him and his: yea their stately Tem-Father of the foul, the eternal preserver of liv- any Monument of that glorious Temple coning creatures, the continual framer of his secrated to Diana. There are none now in world, a begetter without any propagation, Phanicia that lament the death of Adonis; comprehended neither in any place, nor time; nor any in Lybia, Creta, Theffalia, or elletherefore few can conceive him in thought, none where, that can ask counfel or help from Jucan express what he is. Therefore was it said by Saint Hierom, Si enim cundos Philosopho Pipes, Apollo's Priess are become speechless; rim revolves libros, necesse est ut in eis reperies and the trade of riddles in Oracles, with the in aliquam partem vasorum Dei : ut, apud Plato- Devils telling men's fortunes therein, is taken nem, fabricatorem mundi Deum: apud Zeno- up by counterfeit Egyptians, and couzening nem, Stoicorum Principem, inferos & immor- Aftrologers. tales animas, &c. If thou consider all the books of the Philosophers, thou canst not but find these his over-throws and dishonours: for of what nature God was, described him by Prince of the Stoicks, Hell and immortal Souls, these Attributes and properties: Eonus, ju- &c. And this is certain, that if we look infins, fantius, seipsum possidens, utilis, speciosus, to the wisdom of all Ages, we shall find that optimus, severus, liber, semper commodus, tutus, there never was man of folid understanding gloriosus, charitas, &c. Good, just, holy, post or excellent judgment; never any man selfing himself, prositable, beautiful, best, severe, whose mind the Art of education hath not free, alwaies doing good, safe without fear, glo-bended; whose eys a foolish superstition rious, and felf-charity. Epicharmus affirmed, hath not afterward blinded; whose apprethat God who beheld all things, and pierced hensions are sober, and by a pensive inspectievery Nature, was only and every where on advised; but that he hath found by an powerful: agreeing with Democritus: Rex unresistable necessity, one true God, and eomnium tiple solus; He is the only King of verlasting Being, all for ever causing, and all kings: and with Pindarus the Poet, Deus for ever sustaining; which no man among unus, Pater, creator summus atque optimus ar- the Heathen hath with more reverence actifex, qui progressus singulis diversos secundum knowledged, or more learnedly express d. merita prebet; One God, the Father, the most then that Egyptian Hermes, howsoever it faihigh Creator, and best artificer, who giveth to led afterward in his posterity: all being at every thing divers proceedings according to length by devilish policy of the Egyptian their deserts. This God (faith Antisthenes) Priests purposely obscured; who invented cannot be resembled to any thing, and therefore new gods, and those innumerable, best fortnot elsewhere known; Niss in patria illa peren- ing (as the Devil perswaded them) with vulni, cujus imaginem nullam babes: Save only gar capacities, and fittest to keep in aw and

§. VIII.

That Heathenism and Judaism, after many wounds, were at length about the same time under Julian miraculously confounded.

DUt these are again vanished: for the in-Dyentions of mortal men are no less mortal Ince fina omnia perlustrat; God who spaketh then themselves. The Fire, which the chalall things, and setteth all things at rest, is great deans worshipped for a god, is crept into eand mighty; as is manifest to all: but of very mans chimny, which the lack of Fuel what Form he is , it is manifest to none, save starveth, Water quencheth, and want of only to himself, who illuminateth all things with Ayr suffocateth: Jupiter is no more vexed his own light. Finally, Plato faith, Totius re- with Juno's Jealouses; Death hath perswarum nature causa, & ratio, & origo Deus, ded him to chastity, and her to patience; comprehensus, eoque paucis cogitabilis, nemini ples of Stone and dureful Marble. The houeffabilis; God is the cause, ground, and origi- ses and sumptuous buildings erected to Baal, nal of the whole nature of things, the most high can no where be found upon the Earth, nor

But it was long ere the Devil gave way to in them some part of the Vessels of God, as, in after the Temple of Apollo at Delphos (one of Plato, God the Creatour of the world: in Zeno, his chief mansions) was many times robbed,

CHAP. VII.

76

re-edified again, till by the hand of God creep into the minds of men; and inhabitand Ornaments therein by the Eubwan Pyrates: Secondly, by the Phlegians utterly fack'd: Thirdly, by Pyrrhus the fon of Achilles: Fourthly, by the Army of Xerxes: Fifthly, by the Captaines of the Phocenses: new made, and therein again set up at the common charge. But whatfoever was gathered between the time of Nero and Conflantine, the Christian Army made spoil of, defacing as much as the time permitted time as Julian the Apostata sent thither to know the fuccess of his Parthian enterprise, at which time it was utterly burnt and confumed with fire from Heaven, and the Image of Apollo himself, and all the rest of the Idols therein, molten down, and lost in the Earth. The like success had the Jews in the same Julians time, when by his permission they of Jerufalem: for while they were busied to in the narrow passage leading to his divine lay the foundations, their buildings were o-Am. Mar. thousands of the Jews were overwhelmed trance of manifold vanities; the other desoverthrown by an Earthquake, and many Mm. Mar. with the ruines, and others flain and scatter- late and over-grown with grass, by which ed by Tempest and Thunder: though Am. Marcellinus report it more favourably for the Jews, ascribing this to the nature of double and twofold opening, worldly mifeple, flaming Balls of fire isluing neer the foundation, and oft confuming the Workmen, made the Enterprize frustrate.

s. IX.

Of the last refuges of the Devil to maintain his Kinedom.

Ow the Devil, because he cannot play upon the open stage of this World, (as burnt, and destroyed; yet by his diligence | in those daies) and being still as industrious the same was often enriched, repaired, and as ever, finds it more for his advantage to himself it received the last and utter subver- ing in the Temples of their hearts, works fion. For it was first robbed of all the Idols them to a more effectual adoration of himself then ever. For whereas he first taught them to facrifice to Monsters, to dead Stones cut into faces of Beafts, Birds, and other mixt Natures; he now fets before them the high and shining Idol of glory, the All-comman-Sixthly, by Nero: who carried thence five ding Image of bright Gold. He tells them hundred brazen Images: all which were that truth is the Goddess of dangers and oppressions, that chastity is the enemy of Nature, and lastly, that as all virtue (in general) is without tafte; fo pleasure satisfieth and delighteth every sense: for true wisdom (faith he) is exercised in nothing else, then them: notwithstanding all this, it was again in the obtaining of power to oppress, and of glorioully re-built, and to remained till such riches to maintain plentifully our worldly delights. And if this Arch-Polititian find in his Pupils any remorfe, any feeling or fear of God's future judgments, he perswades them that God hath so great need of men's Souls, that he will accept them at any time, and upon any condition: interrupting by his vigilant endeavours all offer of timeful return towards God, by laying those great blocks affembled themselves to rebuild the Temple of rugged poverty and despited contempt presence. But as the mind of man hath two Ports, the one alwaies frequented by the enenter our charitable thoughts and divine contemplations: so hath that of Death a that Element. For, faith he, Allypius and the ry passing by the one, worldly prosperity by Ruler of the province of Judea, being by the other: at the entrance of the one we Julian bussed in the re-edifying of this Tem- | find our fufferings and patience to attend us: (all which have gone before us to prepare our joys) at the other our cruelties, covetousness, licentiousness, injustice, and oppressions (the harbingers of most fearful and terrible forrow) ftaying for us. And as the Devil our most industrious enemy was ever most diligent: so is he now more laborious then ever; the long day of Mankind drawing fast towards an evening, and the Worlds Tragedy and Time neer at an end.

CHAP.

CHAP. VII.

Of Noah's Floud.

of Gods fore-warning: and some humane Testimonies: and some doubting touching the truth

F this distruction it pleased God Hereof Nicolas Damascenns writeth in this len. 14. served themselves in the Arke. This Arke Mount Sion. God commanded Noah to prepare: And God faid unto Noah, Make thee an Arke of Pine- the most antient, howsoever he hath been and his family excepted. But this universal grave of Waters, and Wives(in all eight persons) were only saved. general Deluge hath not been received by all: for divine testimonies do not perswade all natural men to those things to which their own reason cannot reach: Dum obvoluta in obscuro veritas latet: Whilest the truth lieth wrapt in obscurity. Many there are who have disputed against the universality of this Overflowing, and have judged that this floud of Noah fell but in some particular places and Kingdoms: moved to to think, because in elder Ages there have been many to give warning unto Noah: manner, as his words are cited by Josephus, Jos. ani. who (faith Josephuis) fearing to Eff super Minyadam excelsus Mons in Armenia, 1.1 c. 4. perish among the rest, Decedens qui Baris appellatur, in quo multos consugioni- pres. L.g. cum suis in aliam regionem mi- tes sermo est distributivo tempore liberatos, & quen- c. 4. gravit: He departed with his children, and dam simul in Arca devection in hujus vertice travailed into another región. And of these hassife, lignorumque reliquias multo tempore Giants from whom Noab withdrew himself, conservatas, qui sortasse is fuit de quo citam Berosu writeth in this manner; That they ex- Moses Judaorum legislator scribit: thus sar ceeded in all forts of inhumane and unnatural this Author. There is (faith he) above Minyada wickedness, and that they were contemptores or the Country of Minya an exceeding high & religionis & deorum; contemners of reli- Mountain in Armenia, called Baris: on which gion and of the gods: among which mighty it is reported, that many having fled thither, men (faith Berofus) unus erat qui deorum vene- were faved in the time of the Deluge; and that rantior, & prudentior cunctis, &c. bnic no one was carried in an Ark, and rested upon the men erat Noah: There was one more wife top of the Mountain, whereon there remained and reverencing the Gods then the rest, whose along time after certain pieces thereof; and name was Noah: who with his three Sons, this might be the same of which Moses the Law-Sem, Japhetus, and Cham, and with their given of the Jews makes mention. And of this Wives, and the wife of Noah, (namely, Titea opinion were the Talmudiffs (faith Annius) the great, Pandora, Noela, and Noegla) pre- that many Giants faved themselves upon

But Berosus (who, after Moses, was one of trees: thou shall make cabins in the arke, and since deformed and corrupted) doth in the shalt pitch it within and without with pitch. Substance of all agree with Moses as touching For God made Noah to know, that an end of the general Floud, taking from thence the all flesh was at hand, and that the graves of beginning of his History in these words: Ante the rebellious and cruel Generations were aquarum cladem famojam, qua universus perialready falhioned in the Clouds, which foon it Orbis, &c. Before that famous destruction after should swallow up and cover all living of Waters, by which the World universal perishcreatures which breathed in the Ayr, Noah ed: witnessing withall, that Noah with his Wife Titea, and his three Sons with their

6. II.

Of the Floud in the time of Ogyges: and that this was not Noahs Floud.

But from the vanity of the Greeks, the Corrupters of all truth (faith Lactantius,) who without all ground of certainty vaunt their Antiquity, came the errour first of all: otherFlouds(as they suppose) of that nature. | fought to perswade the World that there CHAP. VII

Caygium id appellant Poeta, tanquam pervetus dixeris ab Ogige vetustissimo: The Poets gave the name of Ogygia to things exceeding ancient, as of Ogyges the most ancient.

But let Ogyges be as ancient as those men Enfeb. de can make him, yet it is manifest that he lived Prop. L. but in Jacobs time (though Eufebius makes him later, and in Moses time) and was born 67. years after him. There is also an opinion that Og yees was Cadmus (and then was he farr later) as Rhodiginus in the ninth Book of his Antiquities remembreth: Sunt tamen qui in Ægypto regnasse autumant hune ; unde sit Cadmus,qui in Graciam profettus Thebas condidit, à Bove jugulato sic nuncupatas; quoniam Syrorum lingua Bos dicitur Thebe. There are (faith he) who think that this Ogvges did reign in Egypt, whereby he should be Cadmus, who travelling into Greece, built Thebes, so named of a Beef slain: because in the Syrian Language, a Beef is called Thebe.

But this Floud of Ogyges fell in the year of the World, 3440. according to Eusebius. who followed the account of the septuagint: and the Floud of Noah in the year 2242. after the same account: and so there came 1200. between these Flouds, wanting but two, though herein Eusebius was much miftaken, and corrected this opinion in his Chrotime of this overflowing in Achaia, or rather Attica, be not precifely fet down, but that there is a great difference among Writers yet wholoever makes it most ancient, finds above 500, years difference between that and the general Floud. fore Rome was built. Bucholzerus faith, it ed (according to the same Bucholzerus) in the worlds year, 3219. though after the acyears, to which we (allowing 60. more) find same of Noah (except we call Noah, Og yges Prifcus, as some do) it appears by this, that the Floud of Ogyges then King of Attica, or

The first Book of the first Part was no Floud preceded the Floud of Ogyges, then the banks of Archipelago, or the Ege-Madi was not rough preceded the riods of ogress, the last state of the Thebans in Beotia, or rather of an Sea. For, whereas Mela, Pliny, and Soli-Paul King of the Inebans in Beosta, or rather of an oct.

Attica; and therefore (faith Rhodiginus) nus witness, that the City of Joppe in Judea of act to the found and that (not beauty of the found and that (not beauty of the found). withstanding the height of waters) there quites remained on certain Altars of Stone, the other parts of the standard of the st Title of the King, and of his Brother Phineus, insules with many of the grounds of their Religion: Munn fure it is no where found among prophane tom, si Historians, nor in the Scriptures, that ever in the Floud of Ogyges spred it self over any part of Syria, much less over all the Earth, But that it drowned both the Regions of Attica about Athens, and that of Achaia in Peloponnesus, it is very probable. For it seemeth that at that time it was, when Helice and Bura were swallowed up (Cities seated on the North part of Peloponnesus): of which

> Si quæras Helicen, & Buran, Achaidos urbes, out Invenies sub aquis.

Bura and Helice, on Achaian ground, Are fought in vain, but under Sea are found.

Of this Floud of Ogyges, was invented the we Fable of Apollo and Diana. For Latona, the Island Daughter of Caus, the Son of Titan, being beloved, and forced by Jupiter, and by him gotten with child, Juno thereat enraged, permitted her (as they fay) no part of the nologie. Now, although the very year and Earth to be delivered on; and withall, caused the monstrous Serpent Python, to follow and affright her, wherefoever she travelled; till at length arriving at the Isle of Ortygia, she was there received; in which she was delivered, first of Diana, and then of Apollo, being Twins; whereof Barlaam makes this ex-For, Paulus Orosus, affirms that this tempest | position: That at such time as the Deluge fell upon the Athenians, but 1040. years be- | (which happened in Og year his reign) ceased, out of the abundant moisture of the Earth was 1043 elder than Rome; wich was found- (heat by putrefaction being thereto mixed) there were exhaled such thick mists and fogs, that in Attica, and along the coasts of the Æcount which I follow (and whereof I wil give | gean Sea, neither the beams of the Sun by my reasons in the Story of Abraham) it was day, nor of the Moon by night, could pierce built in the Worlds year, 3280. Now, the general Floud preceded the building of 60 as when at length (the Earth being dried, Rome (faith Bucholzerus) 1563. years: and and these vapours diffipated) the ayr began the Floud of Ogges, (as before) 1043. Hence to be clear, the people of Ortygia espied the it followeth by easie calculation, that (if he light of the Moon somewhat before day, and collection) place Ogyges in his true age) the difference in the same morning the Sun also appeared: between these two Flouds must be 520. fabulously (because Diana represented the Moon, and Apollo the Sun) they were report-580. And that this of Ogges was not the ed to be born in the Isle of Ortygia, thereof afterwards called Delos; which fignifieth Manifestation.

And furely it is not improbable, that the Oggia, did not extend it self any farther Floud of Ogjger, being so great, as Histories have reported it, was accompanied with \int were eating and drinking, when the Floud L_{Rde-17} . much alteration of the ayr, fenfibly discerned in those parts, and some unusual face of Skies. Varro in his Books, de gente populi Romani (as he is cited by S. Augustine) reports out of Castor, that so great a miracle happed twin.bei. in the Star of Venus, as never was feen before, in the Star of Venus, as never was feen before, ness, the figure, and the course of it, were changed. This fell out, as Adrastus Cyzicenus, and Dion Neapolites, famous Mathematicians affirmed, in the time of Ogyges.

Now, concerning the course of that, or have any were read of so good Astrologers, Cecropis (ut autem nostri, Eusebius & Hieflourishing among the Greeks, or elsewhere ronymus) adhuc eodem Cecrope permanente, in those days, as were likely to make any calculation of the revolutions of the Planets, fo exact, that it should need no reformation: eth) Cranous the successor of Cecrops governed Of the colour and magnitudes I fee no rea- the Athenians, or, (as our Eusebius and Hiefon, why the difference found in the Star of rome fay) Cecrops yet living, that Floud (cal-Venus, should be held miraculous; consider- | led Deucalions) happened. ing, that leffer mifts and foggs than those which covered Greece with fo long darkness, do familiarly present our senses with as duxit ergo Moses ex Ægypto populum Dei no great alterations in the Sun and Moon. That viffimo tempore Cecropis Athenienfium Regis, the figure should vary, questionless it was cum apud Assyrios regnaret Ascatades, apud very strange: vet I cannot hold it any prodi- Sicyonios Marathus, apud Argivos Tripas: gie: for it stands well with good reason, that Moses led the people of God out of Egypt about the fide of Venus which the Sun beholds, be- the latter time of Cecrops, King of the Atheing enlightned by him, the opposite half nians, Ascatades reigning over the Assyrians, should remain shadowed; whereby that over the Sicyonians Marthus, and over the Planet would, unto our eyes, descrying one | Argives Triopas. So as leaving the curiofity ly that part whereon the light falleth, appear to be horned, as the Moon doth feem; this Floud of Deucalion was either at the if distance (as in other things) did not hin- egression of the children of Israel out of Eder the apprehension of our senses.

in the Stars many things unknown to the Ancients, affirmeth so much to have been disco-Whether some watry disposition of the ayr | World 2356. according to Codoman; then might represent as much to them that lived giving unto Dencalion 40. years of age when with ogyges, as Galileus hath seen through this Floud happened, it falleth within one his instrument; I cannot tell: sure I am, that the discovery of a truth formerly unknown, doth rather convince Man of ignorance, than Nature of errour. One thing herein is worthy to be noted, that this great, but par- Floud of Dencalion, and the conflagration ticular Floud of Ogyges, was (as appeareth by this of S. Augustine) accompanied with fuch unusual (and therefore the more dreadfull, though natural) figns, testifying the concurrence of causes with effects in that inundation; whereas the Floud of Noah, which was general, and altogether miraculous, may feem to have had no other token, or fore-came fuddenly, and took them all away.

§. III.

of Deucalions Floud: and that this was not Noahs Flond: nor the Umbri in Italy, & remnant of any universal Floud.

Second Floud of great fame, and of A second Floud of great tame, and of which the time is more certain, was that of Deucalion in Theffalia; of which S. Augustin out of Varro: His temporibus (ut Varro scriany other Planet, I do not remember, that I bit) regnante Atheniensibus Cranao, successore Diluvium fuit, quod appellatum est Deucalionis: (that is) In these times, (as Varro report-

And in the beginning of the 11. Chapter of the faid 18. Book, he useth these words: Eof a few years, more or less, it appeareth, that gypt, or near it: and then after Noah 753. A worthy Astrologer now living, who by years, according to Functius, who makes Cethe help of perspective Glasses, hath sound | crops to live in the year of the World, 2409. or if we follow Mercator, then 739. years after Noah, and in the year of the World 23054 vered in Venus, by his late observations. But if Deucalion were born in the age of the year of Mercators account. But Deucalion, by all approved Historians, is said to have been 82. years old at that time. Now, Clemens Alexandrinus dates the time of this and burning in Phatton's time, by the Reign of Crotopus, King of the Argives; but Crotopus lived King of the Argives fix years after. Ifrael departed Egypt, which makes twenty years difference, according to Functius, who will have this Floud and Burning to have fallen 14. years before Moles left Egypt: for shewing, than the long preaching of Noab and Burning, the year 2440, and to Moles. he gave of the Worlds years to the Floud himself, which was not regarded: for they egression the year 2454. And yet Cedrenus

thinks that Mojes was more ancient, and | Antiquities) findeththis floud of Deucalion cedren 1.1. lived with Inachus; but that cannot be true: for then had the Floud of Deucalion, and the Burning of Phaëton preceded the Floud of Ogges, which is denied by all: for that of The flaly (called Deucalions) followed that of Attiva (called Og ggia) at least 250. years, or thereabouts. Eusebius in his Chronologie, makes it 230. and fo doth P. Orofius: Eufebius about the 30. year of Moles life, and Cyril-Ins about the 67. and both after Noahs Floud clem. A. 770. years: for these be Clemens Alexandrilex.1. Stro. nus his words: Fuit autem in Grecia tempore quidem Phornei, qui fuit post Inachum, inundatio que fuit tempore Ogygis: There happened in Greece, in the time of Phorneus, who lived after Inachus, the Floud of Ogyges. Now, if the Floud of Ogyges in Attica were 1020. or 1016. years before the first Olympiad, according to Eufebius and Orofius (as before;) then it is manifest, that taking 763.out of this number of 1020 it falls out, that Ogyges Floud happened before the Hebrews left Egypt 250. years, or 260. years, according to the difference between the opinions of Eusebius and Orofius. And for my felf (who rather follow those Chronologers, which give 60. years more to Abraham after the Floud. than the rest) I reckon the times which come between these Flouds in this fort. The general Floud was in the year of the World 1656. Jacob was born in the year of the World 2169. so as from the beginning of the Floud to Jácobs birth, there were consumed 513. years. Ogyges Floud happened 100. years after Jacob was born; and therefore after the general Floud 613. years. Now, Deucalion was born in the year of the World 2356.and had lived 82.years, when his kingdom of Thessaly was overwhelmed; (which added to 2356. make 2438.) his floud was after Noahs Floudended, 782. years. And hereto Annius his Xenophon agreeth, who makes 700, years between the general Floud and Dencalions birth; to which adde 82. years of his Age (as before) and then the floud of Thessaly followed the general 782. years. The words of that Xenophon are these: Ab inundatione terrarum ad ortumDeucalionis, secundo anno Sphæri, septingenti supputantur anni, qui natus annos duos & octoginta Theffaliam vidit inundatam: From the drowning of the World to the birth of Deucalion, in the second year of Spharus, are numbered 700. years, and when Deucalion was 82.years old, he saw Thestaly drowned. This Floud hapned in the Winter time about Parnalius: witness Aristotle, in the first of his Meteors. And Varro (whom S. Augustine so often citeth for his excellent Learning, especially in to have hapned in the time of Cranaus, who fucceeded Cecrops: Orofins thinks it fomewhat later, Amphitryon reigning in Athens, the third from Cecrops: Onely this of Deucalion was very great, and reached not onely over Thessaly it self, and the Regions adjoyning Westward, but it covered the greatest part of Italy: and either the same, or some other particular floud then hapning, opprest Egypt. faith Eusebius. And therefore did the Greeks either think it, or feign it to be universal; and Deucalion the King, faving himself, and some others on the Mountain of Thessaly (of all other the highest, saith Solinus) was by reafon thereof (as Strabo witnefleth) faid to be Strably the preserver of man-kind. That this floud Plink covered a great part of Italy, Pliny, and Soli-Salas nus make it probable, who affirm, that the Plant people then inhabiting Italy, were therefore called "oucein : quia ab imbribus diluvii superfuisient; and therefore also were they esteemed the most ancient Nation, as Strabo confirmeth in his first Book, and Trezenius in his fecond: which Umbri these Authours make the Parents of the Sabines, and the Sabines to be the Parents of the Samnites, Piceni. Lucani, Brucii, and all other inhabiting anciently the banks of the Mediterrane Sea. But that these Umbri were not the Inhabiters of Italy before the Floud of Noah, and so took name by faving themselves upon the Appenine Mountains, the Scriptures teach us; shewing who. & who only then were preferved, which is sufficient. Report hath adventured further, telling us, that the first people which after the general Floud inhabited Italy, were the Cato in Originibus, another of Annius his Au-Camesenes; (so named from Camese, whom people lived altogether a favage life; till of Dun fuch time as Saturn arriving on those Coasts, with and Thallus among the Greeks; Nepos, Caffins, of and and Varro among the Latines, have preferved; and of whom Virgil:

Primus ab æthereo venit Saturnus Olympo, Arma Jovis fugiens, & regnis exul ademptis. 319 Is genus indocile, ac dispersum montibus altis Composuit, legesque dedit; Latiumque vocari

Saturn descending from the heavens high Fearing the Arms of Jupiter his Son, His Kingdom loft, and banisht thence, doth fly, Rude people on the Mountain tops he won To live together, & by Laws: which done, He chose to call it Latium.

And afterwards in the Verses following he speaketh of the Ausones; and after them, of the Sicani: Nations, which again fought to dif-plant the antient Inhabiters:

Ving. 1. 8. Tum manus Aufonia, & gentes venere Sicani.

CHAP. VII.

Then came th' Ausoniam Bands, and the Sicanian Tribes.

that of Ogyges; and therefore (according to Januar ex those Gauls of France, but of those of Seythia, eaten, or) of defaced date. But as all the Pling, and Dionysius have assured us: and ly again, before the Umbri were ever heard and twenty Sons, the youngest called Oenoqual. 8. trius invaded Italy, who gave it the name of Ant. Pol. Oenotria. This name it held until Italus of the fame Nation changed it into Italy, after Giants faved themselves upon the Mountain fall of Troy. After these, came the Pelasgi, of whom Pliny in his third Book and fifth Chapter, and Strabo in his fifth, Thucydides in his fixth, speak at large: and after them ing thence the Umbri, took from them three Hils of Armenia by ship, ad Armeniam navigio hundred Castles, and built therein twelve | configiebat: who the third day (after the Cities; to which (after they had pollefs'd and past over the Appenine Mountains) they added divers others, whereof Telfina (afterward Bononia) was one.

Now that there was not antiently fuch a Nation as these Umbri in those parts, I do not sebius's words out of Abydenus, which may affirm; having respect to the testimonies before repeated. And stephanus thinks, that the name was derived from the Greek word Ombros; but that these Ombri of Italy were maketh mention of this general Floud. And descended of the Nation of Scythians (called Galli) it shall be shewed hereafter.

§. IV.

Of some other Records testifying the universal Floud: and of two antient Deluges in Egypt: and of some elsewhere.

Aint Augustine out of Varro affirmeth, that the Greeks and Latines made not any mention of the Universal Floud, because Of these sicani (which left spain, and sate they had nothing of Antiquity foregoing ftimony: who were again expelled by the Rhodoginus, before remembred) were all Ligii, laith Thucydides. After all these Planthings among the Greeks (which antiquity rations and re-plantations, came the Umbri, had worn out of knowledg) called Oggia, defeended of the Gauls (faith Annius) not of which we in English commonly call (wormwho commanded a great part of Italy, even parts of the Earth were successively planted all Hetruria and Campania; as Herodotus, and peopled; and as all Nations had their therefore this Floud of Dencalion, was long once and at the instant: so did every Family, proper times, and not their beginning at after that of Noah. For all those Nations which afterward became a great people, with whom the knowledg of divine Letters was not received, find no Parent of more anof, or had being. So that Kingdom was first | tiquity, then such as they had themselves, nor called Camasene, then Latium or Saturnia, allow of any before their own; and as the then Ausonia, then Sicania; before the Um- Grecians, so did others vaunt themselves to bri (in whose time Dencalions Floud happe- be indigene, and growing out of the Earth, ned) possess d the same, about 306. years be- or invent some other prophane or ridiculous fore the War of Troy; Lycaon then govern beginning. But the Chaldeans had certain ing Arcadia: who being the Father of two knowledg of Noah's Floud, as Berofus witnesseth; and Nicolaus Damascenus maketh particular mention thereof (as is aforefaid) Baris in Armenia, but speaketh not thereof as from any authority approved: using the word sermoest; That such a speech there was. And Enfebius remembreth a place out of the Euf. de the Lydi, under Tyrrhems their Captain, that sissifishers, to preserve himself from a chathat gave name to the Tyrrhem; who cast-floud, fore-told him by Saturnus, fled to the antient Historian Abydenus: who writeth vang. 1. 4. waters were fallen) fent forth Birds, that finding no Land to rest on, returned again; which he also did a second time; but at the third return, the Birds feet were covered terms) of Noahs Floud.

Plato in Timeo produceth an Egyptian Priest, who re-counted to solon out of the holy Books of Egypt, the story of the Floud universal, which (saith he) happened long before the Grecian Inundations. Frier Annius his Xenophon remembreth a third Floud, which allo Diodorus Siculus confirmeth, fowewhat biod 1.11 which happened (laith he) under the old vers times and Ages, not inferiour to any of Oggges; Jub prisco Ogrge, which was Noah. He these two last remembred, Niliaca and Phacalled the fecond, Niliaca; Hercules and Pro-ronica in Egypt: as in the year of our Remetheus then living, 44. years before that of demption 590. when in Odber of the fame Attica, in the 34. year of Belochus King of year, Gregory then being Bishop of Rome, the Afgrians, though I do not believe him as there happened a marvellous Overflowing touching the time. But this Floud covered in Italy, and especially in the Venetian Terria great part of the nether Egypt, especially tory, and in Liguria; accompanied with a all the Region subject to Prometheus; and most fearful storm of Thunder and Lighthereof came the fable of the Vulture on Proof Egypt: which fiction Diod. Sieulus deli- pents cast up and left upon the land after the vereth in these words: Fluvium propter cursus velocitatem, profunditatemque aquarum, Aquilam tunc appellatum, Herculem, tum consilii cursum convertisse: Unde & Graci quidam Poeta, rem gestam in fabulam vertentes, Herculem tradunt Aquilam Promethei jecur depafcentem occidifie: This Floud (meaning of Nilus) for the swiftness of his course, as also for the depth, was in those dayes called the Engle: so far extended and over-spread, turning it into the old channel: Whence certain Greek Poets (converting this labour and work of meaning that he delivered Prometheus of that forrow and torment, which for the loss of his people and Country (by the Waters destroyed and covered over) he suffered.

CHAP. VII.

82

A fourth Floud chanced about Pharus in Egypt, where Alexander Macedon built Alexmoneths; and this happened under the first O- ded that Province, in the year 1156. gyges: the second was Niliaca, and of one moneths continuance, in the time of Hercules and Prometheus, Egyptians: a third of two moneths, under Ogyges Atticus: the fourth of three moneths, in Thessalia under Deucalion : and a fifth of the like continuance, (called Pharonica) under Proteus of Egypt, about the time of Helen's rape. Diodorus, in his fifth Book and eleventh Chapter, taking the Samothraces for his Authors, remembreth a Floud in Afia the less, & esse where, of no less destruction then any of the other particular | I have learned of some ancient Southsayers Inundations, faying, that the same happened among them) may be ascribed to natural before that of Dencalion; the Sea of Pontus causes and accidents; yet that universal more antient then that of eggges in Attica. and Hellespont breaking in over the Land. For henamed the general Floud for the first, But there have been many Flouds in dimethens his Liver, afterward flain by Hercules at Rome, by reason of the many dead Ser-Waters decreased and returned. And in the year 1446. there perished 10000. people, by the breaking in of the Sea at Dordrock in Holmagnitudine, tum virtute, volunt è vostigio land: of which kind I take that Floud to be Magle compressisse, & aquarum impetum ad priorem of Achaia or Attica. Before that, in the year 1238. Trithemius speaketh of an Earthquake, Ediffe which fwallowed many thousands: and af-united ter that of a Floud in Friseland, in which there perished 100000. persons. Strozius Si-min gog, in his Magia omnifaria, telleth of an Inmilitin undation in Italy, in the time of Pope Damanifus the depth, was in those dayes cauce the Lagrebut Hercules by his great judgment and wirtue sum his River, fivallowed: another in the Papacie of Alexidate did again compress and straighten this River, swallowed: ander the fixth: also in the year 1515. Max. pulls imilian being Emperour. He also remember. pull etha perilous over-flowing in Polonia, about many Hercules into a fable) devised, that Hercules flem the Eagle which fed on Prometheus livers, Likewise Viginier, a French Historian, speaketh of a great Floud in the South part of Languedoc, which fell in Anno Domini 1557. with fo dreadful a tempest, as all the people attended therein the very end of the World, and Judgment-day; faying, That by the violent descent of the Waters from the Mounandria, as Annius conceiveth out of his Xe- tain, about Nifmes, there were removed dinophon, who in this brief fort writeth of all vers old heaps and mountures of ground, Xemp de these limindations: Inundationes plures fu- and many other places torn up and rent: aquin. comm. per ere: prima novimestris Inundatio terrarum by which accident there was found both Annian, Jub priso Ogyge: scunda Niliaca, &c. There coyn of Silver and Gold, divers pieces of fol. 37. mere many immediations (with the form V. were many Inundations (faith the same Xeno- Plate and Vessels of other Mettal, supposed phon:) the first, which was universal, of nine to be hidden at such time as the Goths inva-

6. V.

That the Floud of Noah was supernatural; though some say it might have been foreseen by the Stars.

70w, howfoever all these Flouds, and many other, which have covered at feveral times, several Regions, not only in these parts of the World, but in America also, (as the whole face of the Earth by a power above Nature, and by the especial commandment of God himfelf; who at that time could effect, or any fecond causes by whatfoever union, could perform, without receiving from the Fountain of all power, ftrength and faculties supernatural. Henricus Mechliniensis, a Scholler of Albertus Magnus, in his Commentaries upon the great coniunctions of Albu Masar, observeth, that before the Floud of Noah, the like Conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn happened in the last degree of cancer, against that constellation, fince called the ship of Argos; by which the Floud of Noah might be fore-told, because Cancer is both a watry Sign, and the House of the Moon, which is the Lady of the Sea, and of moisture, according to the Noah did well know this Floud by divine revelation, (yet this conjunction being notorious)he could not be ignorant of the fecond from the first cause, which is God himself: and further, that by * Catarracta celi, English-Catarracta, fignifying flowing down, or comthey walked, and call unto God for mercy. understood, that the words Catarracta Cali, or Windows of Heaven, were to be taken for the former Conjunction, or for those watry greatest Inundations. His own words are these: Nondum intelligo Prophetam Hebræorum Catarractas Cæli vocâsse, nisi partes illas celi, que generative sunt pluviarum & inundationum Aquarum quales sunt signa aquatica, ut Cancer, &c. as aforesaid. As yet (faith he)

Floud (in the time of Noah) was poured over maters fuch as are the watry ligns of cancer, over But, in a word, as it might please God, that in the course of his unsearchable wisdom this Conjunction should at such time be : fo gave strength of influence to the Stars, and did he (as aforesaid) adde vigour and faculabundance to the Fountains of the deep: ty, and gave to every operation increase of whereby the irruption of Waters was made vertues, violent eruptions to Springs and more forcible than any ability of nature Fountains, commanding them to cast out the whole treasure and heap of their waters: taking retention from the clouds, and condenling ayr into water by the ministery of his Angels, or whofoever elfe best pleased his All-powerfulness.

§. VI.

That there was no need of any new Creation of matter to make the universal Floud: And what are Catarracte Celi, Gen. 7. v. 11.

Ow, if it be objected, that God doth not create any thing of new; (for God refted the seventh day: (that is, he did not then after create any new species) which granted, rules of Aftronomy, and common experience. it may feem that then all the Earth and Ayr had not waters sufficient to cover the habiness confirmeth, affirming, that although table World affect cubits above the highest mountains. Of this proposition, whether God had so restrained himself, or no, I will not dispute; but for the consequent (which causes thereof: for those were not only signs, is) that the World had want of water to but alloworking causes, by strength receiv'd over-cover the highest mountains, I take that conceit to be unlearned and foolish; for it is written, That the Fountains of the great deep ed the Windows of Heaven) Mofes meant were broken up, (that is) the waters for fook this great and watry Conjunction; the word the very bowels of the Earth; and all whatsoever was dispersed therein, pierced, and ing down Now (laith P. de Altaco) it pleased brake through the face thereof. Then let Cod to ordain by the course of the Heavens us consider, that the Earth had above one fuch a Constellation, by which all men might and twenty thousand miles, the Diameter of behold therin their destruction towards, and the Earth, according to that circle, seven thereby forfake those wicked ways wherein thousand mile, and then from the Superficies to the center, some three thousand five hun-Of this judgment was Gul. Parifiensis, who dred miles. Take then the highest mountain of the World, Caucasus, Taurus, Olympus, or Atlas, the mountains of Armenia, or Scythia, or that (of all other the highest) in Tennerif; figns, Cancer, Pifces, Pleiades Hyades, and Oriand I do not find, that he that looketh highm; and of the Planets, Mars, Venus, and the est, stretcheth above thirty miles upright. Moon: which are the forcible causes of the It is not then impossible, answering reason with reason, that all those waters mixed within the Earth three thousand five hundred miles deep, should not well help to cover the space of thirty miles in height; this thirty miles upright being found in the I Perceive not what the Prophet of the Hebrews times: for the Fountains of the great deep were meaneth by those words (Catarratta celi, or broken up, and the waters drawn out of the Windows of Heaven unless be thereby under-bowels of the Earth. Secondly, if we configuration. fandeth those celestral powers, by whose instruder what proportion the Earth beareth to ences are ingendred the rain and inundations of the extension of the Ayr over and above it, we shall find the difference exceeding great. If then it pleased God to condense but so much of this Ayr, as every where compasseth and imbraceth the Earth, which condensation is a conversion of Ayr into Water, a change familiar in those Elements; it will not feem strange to men of judgment, yea, but of ordinary understanding, that the Earth (God so pleasing) was covered over with Waters, without any new Creation.

Lastly: For the opinions of Gulielmus Parisensis, and Aliacensis, to which I may adde there was, fore-shewing that destruction by Waters which followed; and that by the word Catarracta Cali, or Windows of Heano other answer than that observation of Lu-(faith he) there was never a more fair, dry, not be any fuch conjunction at that time.

formerly condenfed into drops.

s. VII.

of some remainder of the memory of Noah among the Heathen.

70ah, commanded by God, before the fall of those Waters, entred the Ark which he had built, with his own Wife, and his Sons, and his Sons Wives, taking with them of every Creature which took life by generation, feven of the clean, and of the unclean, two. Noah, according to Philo, figni-Berofus, and others, That such a conjunction fleth Quietness: after others, and according to the Prophecie of his Father Lamech, Ceffation'; to whom aftertimes gave many Names, answering his Antiquity, Zeal, Virven, was meant this conjunction; there needs | tue, and other qualities: as, The first Ogyges, because in the time of the Grecian Ogyges, dovicus Vives, who affirmeth, That by the there was also a great Floud of Achaia: 84gravest Aftrologian it was observed, that in turn they called him, because he was the Fathe year 1524, there should happen the like ther of Nations: Others gave him the Name conjunction as at Noah's Floud; than which of Prometheus, who was faid to steal away Jupiters fire; Fire in that place being taken and feafonable year: The like destruction and understood for the knowledge of God was prophefied, of the year 1588. But Pieus and heavenly things. Others think, that he Earl of Mirandula proveth, that there could was so called for his excellent wisdom and forefight. He had also the Name of Janus, To conclude, I find no other mysterie in the (id eft) Vinosus, because Jain signifieth Wine word Catarratta Celi, than that the clouds in the Hebrew. And so Tertulian finds him were meant thereby: Moses using the word written in libris Ritualibus, in the Books of Windows of Heaven (if that be the fense of Ceremonies, preceding both Saturn, Uranus, the word) to express the violence of the and Jove: which three enjoyed an elder Rains, and pouring down of Waters. For time then all the other ancientest feigned whosoever hath seen those fallings of Wa- gods. And this Name Jain is taken from the ter, which sometimes happen in the Indies, Hebrew and Syrian, and not from the Latine: which are called the Spouts, (where clouds for it was in use before there was any Latine do not break into drops, but fall with a Nation, or any Kingdom by that Name refiftless violence in one body) may properly known. Of the antiquity of Janus, Fabius use that manner of speech which Moses did; Pictor giveth this testimony : Jani etate nul-That the Windows, or Floud-gates of Hea- la erat Monarchia, quia mortalibus pettoriven opened: (which is) That Waters fell bus nondum haserat ulla regnandi cupiditas, contrary to custom, and that order which &c. Vinum & Far primus populos docuit Jawe call natural. God then loosened the nus ad sacrificia: primus enim Aras & Fopower retentive in the uppermost ayr, and maria & Sacra docuit; In the time of Jathe Waters fell in abundance: Behold (fays nus (faith he) there was no Monarchy : for the Job he withholdeth the Waters, and they dry up defire of rule had not then folded it self about (or better in Latine, Et omnia siccantur; And the hearts of men. Janus first taught the people to all things are dried up) but when he sendeth facrifice Wine and Meal : he first set up Altars, them not, they defiroy the Earth: And in the inftituted Gardens, and solitary Groves, where-26 Chapter: He bindeth the waters in the in they used to pray; with other holy Rites and clouds. But these Bonds God loosed at that Ceremonies. A greater testimony than this time of the general Floud, and called up there cannot be found among all the Heathe Waters which slept in the great Deep; then, which in all agree so well with the Scriand these joyning together, covered the ptures. For first, whilest Noah flourished, Earth, till they performed the work of his there was not any King, or Monarch; Nimwill: which done, he then commanded them | rod being the first that took on him soveto return into their dark and vast Caves; and raign Authority. Secondly, Noah, after the the rest (by a Wind) rarified again into ayr, Floud, was the first that planted the Vine, and became an Husband-man; and therefore des offered the first-fruits of both (to wit) Wine and Meal. Thirdly, he was the first that raised an Altar, and offered sacrifice to God plainerth in his fourth Book and sifth Chapter. a thanksgiving for his merciful goodness to-Arn. cont. Name of Bifrons (which was given to Janus)

CHAP. VII.

and after the Floud. Quia praterita noverit. & futura prospexerit, saith Arnobius: Because he knew what was past, and provided for what was to come. He was also in the person rested after the Floud. of Janus shadowed by the Name of Chaos, and Semen Orbis, The feed of the World: because, as out of that confused Heap was drawn all the kinds of Beafts and Plants; fo ond de MeChaos antiqui (nam sum res prisca) vocabant: Aspice quam longi temporis acta cano!

The Antient call'd me Chaos: my great

By those old times, of which I fing, ap-

He was also intituled Calum and Sol, Heaven and the Sun, for his excellent knowledg in Astronomy: Vertumnus, Bacchus, and Liber Pater; not that latter, which Diod. Siculus and Alex. Aphrodiseus so call, because he was the restorer of the Greeks to their former liberty, but in respect of the Floud. For the Greeks called Liber 27, and his Nurfes Hyades, of Rain, because Noah entred the Ark when the Sun joyned with the Stars Hy-Taurus, and ever after a Monument of Noah's Floud. He was also by others surnamed Triton, a Marine god, the Son of Neptune; because he lived in safety on the Waters. So was he known by the name of Dionysus, quasi Sopiarar, mentem pungens, Bite-brain, or Witfinger; though Diodorus conceive otherwife, and derive that name à Patre & Loco; Of his Father and the place of his Birth, (to wit) of Jove, and Nifa, a Town of Arabia Noah became an Husbandman. Now howsoever the Grecians vaunt of their Theban Bacchus, (otherwife Dionylus) it is certain, that the Name was borrowed, and the Invention stolen from Naah. But this name of was built in some part of the Eastern World;

This first Bacchus (to wit) Noah, was furwards him. Noah was also signified in the named Nisus, of the Mountain Nya in India; where the Grecian Bacchus never came, because he beheld the times both before whatloover themselves seign of his enterprises: and these Mountains of Nysa joyn with those of Paropanisus, and those other Eastern Mountains, on which the Ark of Noah

Furthermore, to the end that the memory of this fecond Parent of Mankind might the better be preserved, there were founded by his Islues many great Cities, which bear his from Noah came all Mankind. Whereof Ovid Name, with many Rivers and Mountains; which oftentimes forgat that it was done in his regard, because the many Names given Plin 1. 6. him, brought the same confusion to places as Trh. to himself. Notwithstanding all which, we Herod I. 4. find the City of Noah upon the banks of the Strabol. 7. red Sea, and elsewhere: the River of Noas in Thrace, which Strabo calleth Noarus; Ptolemy, Danus; dividing Illyria from Panonia. Thus much for the Name.

6. VIII.

Of fundry particulars touching the Ark: as the place where it was made, the matter, fashion, and name.

Ow in what part of the World Noah built the Ark, it doth not appear in ades, a constellation in the Brow or Neck of the Scriptures, neither do I find any approved Author that hath written thereof; only Goropius Becanus in his Indo-Scythia conceiveth, that Noah built his Ark neer the Mountains of Caucasus, because on those hills are found the goodlieft Cedars: for when Alex. Macedon made the war among the people, called Nysai, inhabiting the other side of Caucasus, he found all their Burials and Sepulchres wrought over with Cedar. To this place (faith Becamus) Noah repaired, both to felix, faith Suidas, out of Orpheus. He had feparate himfelf from the reprobate Giants, who rebelled against God and Nature, as because he first yoaked Oxen, and Tilled the also because he would not be interrupted in ground: according to that of Moss; and the building of the Ark; to which also he addeth the conveniency of Rivers, to transport the Timber which he used, without

Only this we are fure of, that the Ark Bacchas, more antiently Bokens, was taken and to my understanding, not far from the (faith Gal. Stuckins, and out of him Daneus) place where it reflect after the Floud. For from Noachus, (N) being changed into (B); Noah did not use any Mast or Sayle (as in oand it is the more probable, because it can ther Ships) and therefore did the Ark no o not be doubted but that Noah was the first therewise move, than the Hulk or body of a planter of the Vine after the Floud: and of Ship doth in a calm Sca. Also, because it is Noah (the first and antient Bacchus) were all not probable, that during these continual moved from the place where it was fashio-Gen. 8. 1. made a Wind to pass upon the Earth, and the Waters ceased. And therefore it may be gathered, that during the fall of the Waters, there was not any Storm or forcible wind at all, which could drive the Ark any great distance from the place where it was first by the Waters lifted us. This is also the more probable, if that antient opinion be true, as it is very likely, that the Ark had fundum the Waves for the better speed.

CHAP. VII.

This kind of Vessel the Hebrews call Thebet, and the Greeks Larnax, for fo they termed Deucalions Ship: and some say, that the Hill Parnassus, to which in eight days he arrived, was first called Larnassus, and by the chang of (L) into (P) Parnassus; but Pausamias thinks that it took name of a Son of the Nymph Cleodora, called Parnassus, the Inventor of Auguration.

Pencerus finds the word (Parnassus) to ne Oracul. have no affinitie with the Greek, but thinks it derived from the Hebrew word Nahas, which fignifieth Auguration and Divination; Oracles, in the Leaf before cited.

Tosephus calls the Ark, Machina, by the ge-Sancluary, but Thebet such a Vessel, as swimmeth, and beareth it felf upon the Waters.

Lastly, this Ark of Noah differed from the fashion of a Ship, in this, that it had a Cover and Roofe, with a Crest in the middest thereof, and the fides declining like the Roof of an House; to the end, both to cast off the Waters, and that thereunder Noah the many Beafts, which filled the other rooms and parts of the Ark.

uncertain. The Hebrew word Gopher once, and in this place only used, is diverfly underfrood: and though the matter be of little importance, yet this difference there is, That the Geneva Translation calls it Pine-tree; the Rabbine, Cedar; the Seventy, square Timber; the Latine, fmooth Timber. Others will have it Cypress Trees, as dedicated to the dead, because Cypress is worn at Funerals. But out of doubt, if the word Gopher fignifie any special kind of Timber, Noah obeyed and down-right Rains, there were any the voice of God therein, If not, he was Winds at all, therefore was the Ark little not then curious as touching the kind or nature of the wood, having the promise of ned and fet together: for it is written, God God, and his Grace and mercy for his defence : For with Noah God promifed to efta- V. 18. De Civit. blish his covenant. Plinie affirmeth, that in 6.80. Egypt it was the use to build Ships of Cedar. which the worms eat not; and he avoweth. that he saw in Vtica, in the Temple of Apollo, Cedar beams, laid in the time of the foundation of the City, and that they were still found in his time, which was about 1188. years after: proving thereby, that this kind planum, A flat bottom, and not rayled in form of wood was not subject to putrifying or of a Ship, with a sharpness forward, to cut mouldring in a very long time. But in that it is easie to cut, light to carry, and of a sweet favour, lasting also better then any other wood, and because neer the place where the Ark rested, there are found great store of these Cedar trees, as also in all the Mountains of the East, besides those of Libanus; it is probable enough that the Ark might be of that wood: which hath, beside the other commodities, the greatest length of Timber, and therefore fittest to build Ships withal, Pererius conceiveth, that the Ark had divers forts of Timber, and that the bottom had of one fort, the deck and partition of another; all which may be true or false, if Gopher may or from Har or Parai, as in his Chapter of be taken for Timber in general. True it is, that Cedar will ferve for all parts of a Ship, as well for the Body, as for Masts and neral name of a huge Frame; and Epiphani- Yards. But Noah had most respect to the dius out of the Hebrew, Aron: but herein lieth rection received from God: to the length, the difference between Aron and Thebet, breadth, and height, and to the partitions of That Aren fignifieth properly the Ark of the the Ark; and to pitch it, and to divide it into Cabins; thereby to fever the clean Beafts from the unclean, and to preserve their several forts of Food; and that it might be capable of all kind of living creatures, according to the numbers by God appointed. All which when Noah had gathered together, he cast his confidence wholly on God; who by his Angels steered this Ship without a himself and his children might shelter, and Rudder, and directed it without the help of 6. 4. separate themselves from the noysomness of a Compass or the North star. The Pitch which Noah uled, is by some supposed to have been a kind of Bitumen, whereof there is great quan-Of what Wood the Ark was built, it is tity about the Vally of sodom and Gomorrah, Part now the dead Sea, or Afphaltes, and in the Region of Babylon, and in the West India: and herein it exceedeth other Pitch, that it melts not with the Sun, but by the Fire only, after the manner of hard Wax.

§. IX.

That the Ark was of Sufficient capacity.

He Ark, according to Gods commandement, had of length three hundred Cubites Cubits, fifty of breadth, and thirty deep or it was not needfull to take any kinds of God travelling in this world as a stranger, and not the Waters which God cursed; for of Man Jesus Christ did hang: for even the very thereth hereupon (as aforesaid) that so huge 1.5.6.27.

measure of the length, heighth and breadth, un- a Frame needed not. (wereth the shape of Mans body, in the truth whereof the coming of Christ was fore-told and fured, it hath been a disputed question among the Fathers, and others; and the diffences are in effect these: The first kind of Cubit (called the common) containeth one foot and a half, measured from the sharp of the elbow to the point of the middle finger. The second (the Palm-Cubit) which taketh those Beasts which are of mixt natures, eione handfull more than the common. The third is called Regius Cubitus, or the Perfian Cubit, which exceedeth the common Cubit | might be generated again by others: as the three inches. The fourth is the facred Cubit,

By what kind of Cubit the Ark was mea-which containeth the common or vulgar Cubit double, wanting but a quarter or fourth by Foxes and Wolves. And whereas by difpart.Lastly, there is a fifth Cubit, called Geometrical, which containeth fix common Cubits. But of all these forts, which were commonly measured by the vulgar Cubit, the alteration and diminution of mens statures hath made the difference. For as there is now a less proportion of bodies, so is the common Cubit from the fharp of the elbow to than it was in elder times.

Saint Augustine, considering the many sorts of Beafts and Birds which the Ark held, with their food and water, was sometime of opinion, that the Ark had proportion after the Geometrical Cubit, which containeth almost | dians, are now changed to Wolves, and befix of the common: For, measuring the Ark by the vulgar Cubit, it did not exceed the capacity of that Veffel built by Hiero of Syracuse, or the Ship of Ptolemy Philo-pater. But India is full of red feathers in the drowned S. Augustine (who at the first was led by Origen) changed his judgment as touching the bird and Thrush hath his feathers mixt with Geometrical Cubit; and found, upon bet- black and carnation in the North parts of ter confideration, that there needed not fo Virginia. The Dog-fill of England is the high: by which proportion, it had fix parts Fishes into the Ark, because they were kept of length to one of breadth, and ten times living (faith S. Augustine) in their own Elein length to one of depth; of which S. Au- mene. Non fuit necesse conservare in Arca que gustine: Proculdubio sigura est peregrinan- possent in aquis vivere, non solum mersa sicut tis in koc seculo Civitatis Dei. (hoc est) Eccle- Pisces, verum super-natantia, sicut multæ alithe que sit salva per lignum, in quo pependit tes: It was not needfull to conserve those crea-Mediator Dei & hominum, homo Jesus Chritture in the Ark, which could live in the Wafins : nam & mensura ipsa longitudinis, alti- ters; and not onely Fishes which can live untudinis. latitudinisque ejus significat corpus ku- der water, but also those Fowls which sit and manum, in cujus veritate ad homines pranun- swim on them. And again, Terra, non aqua, ciatus eft venturus, & venit, &c. Without maledicta; quia Adam non kujus, sed illius doubt (faith he) it is a Figure of the City of fructum vetitum comedit: It was the Earth, (that is) of the Church, Saved by the Tree, where the forbidden fruit of the Earth and not of (that is) of the Church, Javea by the cree, where- the Jornaden fruit of the Larin and not of upon the Mediator between God and Man, the the sea, did Adam eat. So, as S. Augustine ga- Chui.Dei,

And if we look with the eyes of judgment hereunto, we shall find nothing monstrous therein; although the imaginations of men, who (for the most part) have more of mischief and of ignorance, than of any reverend reason, found many impossibilities in this work of God. But it is manifest, and undoubtedly true, that many of the species, which now feem differing, and of feveral kinds, were not then in rerum natura. For ther they were not in that age, or else it was not needfull to preserve them, seeing they Mules, the Hyana's, and the like; the one begotten by Asses and Mares, and the other covering of strange Lands, wherein there are found divers Beafts and Birds, differing in colour or stature from those of these Northern parts; it may be supposed by a superficial confideration, that all those which were red and pied skins, or feathers, are differing from those that are less painted, and wear plain ruffet or black; they are much mifthe point of the middle finger, of less length taken that so think. And for mine own opinion, I find no difference, but onely in magnitude, between the Cat of Europe, and the

Ounce of India; and even those Dogs which are become wild in Hifpaniola, with which the Spaniards used to devour the naked Inand low Islands of Caribana; and the Black-gin to destroy the breed of their Cattel, and do also oftentimes tear asunder their own India. Children. The common Crow and Rook of huge a Body to preferve all forts of Crea-Shark of the South Ocean: For if colour or tures, by God appointed to be referved. For magnitude made a difference of species, Men, but some kind of strange Beasts: and the measure of Giantly stature; which meafo the Giants of the South America (hould | fure (doubtles) might give much the more be of another kind, than the people of capacity to the Ark 3 although it be also prothis part of the World. We also see it daily, bable, that as the Men were, so were the horses that the natures of Fruits are changed by whereon they rode, and all other Creatures transplantation, some to better, some to of a correspondent size. And yet, (as I take worfe, especially with the change of Climate. Crabs may be made good Fruit by often grafting; and the best Melons will hard to conceive, how all the diffine fleeies change in a year or two to common Cowtures, as they were by God created, or out those dimensions which the Ark had; allow-Ark after the measure of the common Cubit, was sufficiently capacious to contain of all, necessity, that those large bodies which were according to the number by God appointed: in the days of Noah, might have room sufficito the common Cubit, which had a foot and bit of length proportionable. a half of Giantly stature (and less allowance and 60. foot in depth.

Scripture, the stature of the Giants therein multiplied by the breadth, namely fifty Cubits, named may suffice. For if the Bed of Og, King and the product by the height of thirty Cubits, of Basan, had been nine Geometrical Cubits sheweth the whole Concavity to have been long, it had taken 54. Cubits of the common, 450000. Now, whereas the pofts, walls, and which make 80. foot : and Goliah, who had other partitions of Lodgings may feem to the length of fix Cubits and an handfull, have taken up a great part of the hollow: which makes nine foot and a handfull(a pro- the height of the roof, which (the perpendiportion credible) if these Cubits had been cular being one Cubit) contained 7500. cu-Geometrical, then had been 54. foot in pical Cubes was a sufficient recompence: If height, and upwards, which were monstrous therefore in a Ship of such greatness we seek and most incredible: for (according to this room for 89. distinct species of Beasts, or proportion) had the head of Goliah been (left any should be omitted) for 100. sevenine foot long, and farr weightier and big-ger then all David's body, who carried it them, and for the Birds, which in bigness are their Office. Wherefore I may conclude, taken by two of each kind, so that in all that the Cubit mentioned in the Scriptures there were in the Ark one and twenty great then were the Nigro's, which we call the was not the Geometrical, but the ordinary Black-Moors, non animalia rationalia, not Cubit of one foot and a half, according to it) though by this means there were not any whit the more room in the Ark, it were not of Animals, whose lives cannot be preserved cumers, by being fet in a barren foyl. There- in the Waters, might according to their prefore, taking the kinds precifely of all Crea- fent quantities be contained in a Veffel of of the Earth by his Ordinance produced; the ling to the Cubit one foot and a half of our now usual measure: whence it followeth of For if we adde but half a foot of measure ent in the Ark, which was measured by a Cu-

How the appointed number of Creatures we cannot give to the difference between to be faved. (that is, feven of the clean, two them and us) then did the Ark contain 600. of the unclean, with necessary food) might foot in length, and 100. foot in breadth, have place in the Ark, Butao hath very learnedly declared: the brief fumm of whole But first of all, to make it manifest that the Geometrical Cubit is not used in the of the Ark was three hundred Cubits, which no way answerable to them; and for meat to Again, if the Geometrical Cubit had been fustain them all. For there are three forts of used for a Measure in the Scripture, as many | Beasts, whose bodies are of a quantity best Commenters have observed, then had the known; the Beef, the Sheep, and the Wolf: Altar (appointed to contain five Cubits of to which the rest may be reduced, by saylength, five of breadth and three of height) ing, (according to Ariftotle) that one Elereached the length of 27. foot upright, phant is answerable to four Beeves, one Liand so must their Priests have ascended by on to two Wolves, and so of the rest. Of steps or Ladders to have performed their Beasts, some feed on vegetables, others on Sacrifices thereon, which was contrary to flesh. There are one and thirty kinds of the Gods Commandment, given in these words: greater fort, feeding on vegetables: of which Thou shalt not go up with steps unto mine Altar, number onely three are clean, according to that thy shame be not discovered thereon; and the Law of Moses, whereof seven of a kind therefore was the Altar but three common entred into the Ark, namely, three couples Cubits high, which make four foot, that for breed, and one odde one for facrifice: their Priests standing thereby might execute the other eight and twenty kinds were Beafts clean, and fix and fifty unclean, efti- Floud; and all Story, as well general as parmable for largness as ninety one Beeves; yet ticular, thereby may be the better underfor a supplement (lest perhaps any species stood. he omitted) let them be valued as an hundred and twenty Beeves. Of the leffer fort feeding on vegetables, were in the Ark fix and twenty kinds, estimable, with good allowance for supply, as fourscore Sheep. Of those which devour flesh were two and thirty kinds, answerable to threescore and four Wolves. All these two hundred and eighty Beafts might be kept in one ftory or room of the Ark, in their feveral Cabins; their meat in a second: the Birds and their provifion in a third, with place to spare for Noah and his Family, and all their necessaries.

5. X.

That the Ark rested upon part of the Hill Taurus (or Caucafus) between the East-Indies, and Scythia.

II. I.

A Præterition of some Questions less material: with a Note of the uje of this Question to find out the Metropolis of Nations.

Hat time Noah took to build the Ark, I leave to others to dispute: but he received the Commandment from God an hundred years before the Waters fell; and had therefore choice of time, and leifure fufficient. As for the number of Decks and Partitions, which Origen divides into four, Saint Augustine into three, I will not trouble the Reader with the controversie: or, whether those Creatures which sometimes rest on the Land, other times in the Waters, as the Crocodiles (now called Alegartos) the Sea-Cows, or Sea-Hories, were kept in the Ark, or no, I think it a needless curiosity; and yet to this faith Pererius, and others before him, that a Fish-pool might be made as well with-

||. II.

A Proposal of the common opinion, that the Ark refted upon some of the Hills of Ar-Nd first, for the true place where the

Ark rested after the Floud, and from what part of the World the Children of Noah travelled to their first settlement and plantation, I am resolved (without any prefumption) that therein the most Writers were utterly mistaken. And I am not led so to think out of any Humour, or newness of opinion, or fingularity; but do herein ground my self on the original and first truth, which is the word of God, and after that upon reafon, and the most probable circumstances thereon depending. For whereas it is written, That the Ark stayed upon one of the mountains of Ararat, which the Chaldean Paraphrast hath converted Kardu, meaning the hills Gordei, or Gordiei, in Armenia the greater (as the words Gordai, and Kardii, feem to be one and the same) of which opinion also the most of our Interpreters are: I find neither Scripture nor Reason which teacheth any fuch thing (towit) that it rested on that part of Ararat, which is in the greater Armenia. Nicolaus Damascenus calls this Mountain of Ararat, Baris; being the same Gen. 8.4. which the Chaldean nameth Kardu, to which Mountain the Frier Annius (citing this place out of Josephus) makes him find another adjoyning, called ocila, and to fay that the Ark (of which Moses the Law-giver of the Hebrews wrote) did first take ground on this Ocila. But I do not find any fuch Mountain in being, as this Ocila, neither is there any mention of it in the place of Josephus. Strain the Ark, as in Hiero his Ship of Syracuse. lix of that name; and Pliny finds a Martbo remembreth a Promontory in Arabia fee-Lastly, to consider or labour to disprove town so called in the same, which Ptolemy the foolery of the Hebrews, who suppose calls Ocilis, Pinetus Acyla, and Niger Zidon. that the Ark was lightened by a Carbuncle, But this Ocila of Damascenus, or rather of Anor had Windows of Crystal to receive in nins, seemeth to be one and a part of the Ari Light, and keep out Water, were but to re- menian Mountains. Berofus calleth those vive the buried vanities of former times. Mountains of Armenia Gordiei, and Curting But that which I feek most to satisfie my self | Cordei: Ptolemy Gordei and Gordiei: of and others in, is, In what part of the World which the Countrey next adjoyning is, by 17. the Ark rested after the Floud : because the this Nicolaus Damascenus, called Nymidda, true understanding of some of these places perhaps (as Becanus conjectures) for Milya-(as the feat of the terrestrial Paradise, and dd, or rather Minni: which word is used for the resting of the Ark) do onely and truly Armenia Minor. And the very word of Armenia Minor. teach the Worlds Plantation, and the beginning of Nations, before and after the Minni, and Aram: as if we should say Minni

CHAP. VII.

1.5. c. 12. Syria, Pliny witnesseth. Epiphanius placeth the Cardyes about these Mountains, whom others call Gordieni or Gordeni. The Mountains are feated apart from all other to the North of that Ledge of the Mountains called Taurus, or Niphates, in the Plains of Armenia the great, near the Lake Thospins: whence passage, the navigable River of Tygris offerthe River of Tygris floweth in 75. degrees of longitude, and 41. & 52. degrees of latitude. One of the Mountains, Gordiei (that which furmounteth the rest) Epiphanius calls Lubar, name (saith Junius) was of the event, because of Noahs coming down with his chilevent; feeing any Hill from whence on every fide we must descend, may thus be called: as Junius corrects the place in Josephus Anig I.t. Ao Cagis (Kubaris.) That the place is thus to be read, he conjectureth, because Joseph. 1.1. c.4. Age, receiving a habit of strength by time, and allowance without any further examination; although the name of Lubar might otherwise rightly be given, especially to that Mountain, by reason that the passage was more fair, up and down unto it, than to any of the rest adjoyning.

). III.

The first Argument against the common opinion.They that came to build Babel, would have come fooner, had they come from fo near a place as Armenia.

OUt there are many Arguments to per-I fwade me, that the Ark of Noah did not rest it self in any part of Armenia, and that the Mountain Ararat was not Baris, nor any one of the Gordiean Mountains.

For the first: It is agreed by all who follow Berosus, that it was in the year 130. or in the year 131. after the Floud, when Nimand Chaldea. If then the Ark had first found That the place of Philostratus in vita Apol-

Na. Hill. of Syria; for that Armenia also was a part of Land in Armenia, it is very unprobable, that Valley, could have spent so many years in so short a passage: seeing the Region of Mesopotamia was onely interjacent, which might by easie journeys have been past over in twenty days; and to haften and help which ed it self, which is every where transpassable by Boats of great burthen: fo as where the Defart on the one fide refifted their expedition, the River on the contrary fide ferved which in the Armenian fignifieth a place of to advance it; the River rifing out of the descent: but this out of Josephus. Which same Ledge of Mountains, or at the foot of posed to settle it self; Then, if the Nations dren. But this also I take to be a supposed which followed Nimred still doubted the furprise of a second Floud (according to the opinions of the ancient Hebrews) it soundeth ill to the ear of reason, that they would have fpent many years in that low and overflown Valley of Mesopotamia, so called, of the mafays, the place is called Anceamour (as it were ny Rivers which imbroider or compass it: the descent or coming down) and Epiphanius for the effects witnessed their affections, and lib. 1. contr. Heref. calls it Afont, which word the works which they undertook, their unin the Armeuian and Egyptian Tongue fignibelief; being no fooner arrived in Shimar, fieth Descent, of Lubar, which is to descend; but they began to provide themselves of a whence also Lubra is a Synagogue, because it defence (by creeting Babel) against any was commonly built on some high place: future or feared Inundation. Now, at Babel whereof also the Latine Delubrum may seem it was, that Nimrod began his Kingdom, the to be derived; and AUs 6. 9. they that be- first known City of the World, sounded aflonged to the Synagogue of the Egyptians are ter the Floud, about 131. years, or (as others called Libertini, for Lubra tenn. Yet this suppose) ten years later: though (for my opinion hath been embraced from Age to felf.) I rather think that they undertook that work in two respects; first, to make themfelves famous, To get us a name (faith the Text:) Secondly, thereby to usurp dominion for the manual factors. over the rest.

| IV.,

The second Argument; That the Eastern People were most ancient in populosity, and in all humane glory.

Or a fecond Argument: The civility, magnificence, and multitude of people (wherein the East parts of the World first abounded) hath more weight than any thing which hath been, or can be faid for Armenia, and for Noah's taking Land there. And that this is true, the use of Printing and Artillery (among many other things which the East had) may easily perswade us, that those Sunrifing Nations were the most ancient. The certainty of this report, that the East-Indians (time out of mind) have had Guns and Ordrod came into the Valley of Shinar, which nance of battery, confirmed by the Portugali Valley was afterward call d Babylonia, Chulb, and others, make us now to understand, lonii Tianei, l. 2. c. 14. is no fable, though pingari) Venetus maketh this report: Incole written on Fillars of Stone (as before remem- doms of the World. bred) long before the Floud. But from the Eastern world it was that John Guthenberg a Germane, brought the device of Printing: by whom Conradus being instructed brought the practice thereof to Rome: and after that Nicolaus Gerson a Frenchman, bettered both the Letters and Invention. And notwith standing that this Mystery was then supposed to be but newly born, the Chinois or Phanicians; and also the Art of Printing, knowledg, or any Letters among them.

other nations but falvages in respect of them-

And to add strength to this argument, the conquest and story of Alex. Macedon may justly be called to witness, who found more Cities and fumptuofity in that little King-East India, then in all his other travails and undertakings. For in Alexander's time, far to the West as Rome. Alexander esteeming of Italy but as a barbarous Country, and of Rome as of a Village. But it was Babylon that stood in his eye, and the same of the as the Sun-rising, and hear Paulus Venetus what he reporteth of the uttermost Angle the West. For the farther East (to this day) expressed in fabulous words when he saith, religioni, literis & sapientia sunt additissimi. that the wife men, which dwell between & veritatis indagatores acerrini; nihil illis Haphafis and Ganges, use not themselves to go frequentius oratione, quam (more nostro) saforthinto Battel: but that they drive away cris in delubris exercent: unum cognoscunt their Enemics with Thunder and Lightning Principem, unum Deum adorant: The Island fent from Jupiter. By which means there it ders are exceedingly addicted to religion, letis faid, that Hercules Ægyptius and Bacchus, ters, and philosophy, and most diligent searchjoyning their forces, were defeated there; ers out of truth: there is nothing among them and that this Hercules there cast away his more frequent then prayer, which they use in golden Shield. For the invention of Let- their Churches, after the manner of Christians; ters was ignorantly ascribed to Cadmus, be- They acknowledg one King, and worship one God. cause he brought them first into Greece: of The antiquity, magnificence, civility, riches. which the people (then rude and favage) fumptuous buildings, and policie in governhad reason to give him the honour, from ment, is reported to be such by those who whom they received the benefit. But it is have been imployed in those parts, as it true, that Letters are no less antient then seth seemeth to exceed (in those formerly named, or Henoch were: for they are faid to have and diversother particulars) all other King-

1. V.

The third Argument, from the wonderful refistance which Semiramis found in the East Indies.

Dut for a third argument, and also of a treble strength to the rest, I lay the invahad Letters long before either the Egyptians fion of Semiramis before the indifferent and advised Reader: who may consider in what when as the Greeks had neither any civil Age she lived, and how soon after the Worlds new birth she gathered her Army (as Dio-And, that this is true, both the Portugals dorus Siculus out of Ctesias reporteth) of and spaniards have witneffed, who about more then three millions to invade India, an hundred years fince discovered those to which he adjoyned also 500000. Horse; Kingdoms, and do now enjoy their rich and 100000. Waggons: whereof if we betradestherein: for the Chinois account all lieve but a third part, it shall suffice to prove that India was the first planted and peopled Country after the Floud. Now as touching the time wherein the lived: All Historians confent that the was the Wife of Ninus, and the most approved Writers agree, that Ninus was the Son of Belus, and Belus of Nimrod, dom of Porus, which lay fide by fide to the that Nimrod was the Son of Chuh, Cufb of Cham, and Cham of Noah. And at fuch time as Nimrod came to Shinaar, he was then a learning and greatness had not travailed so great Nation, as by the building of the City and Tower of Babel may appear; and being then so multiplied and increased, the two descents cast between Nimrod and Semiramis, brought forth in that time those multi-East pierced his ears. And if we look as far tudes, whereof her Army was composed. Let us then see with whom she encountred and Hand thereof, we shall find that those even with a multitude, rather exceeding, in that War with this her powerful Army: Nations have fent out, and not received; then equalling her own, conducted by Stanlent knowledg, and not borrowed it from robates King of India beyond Indus; of the more civil; the farther West, the more siculus; Staurobates coastis majoribus, quam whose multitudes this is the witness of Diod. Salvage. And of the Isle of Japan (now Zi- que erant Semiramidis, copiis: Staurobates

CHAP. VII.

Semiramis. If then these numbers of Indians had been increased but by a Colonie fent out from shinaar (and that also after Babel was built, which no doubt took some time in the performance) this increase in the East, and this Army of Staurobates must have been made of stone, or somewhat else by miracle. For as the numbers which Semiramis gathered might easily grow up in that time, from so great a Troop as Nimrod brought with him into Babylonia (as shall be demonstrated hereafter in the Story of Israel) so could not any such time, by any multiplication natural, produce so many bodies of men as were in the Indian Army victorious over Semiramis, if the Colonies fent thither had been to late as Babel overturned, and the confusion of Languages. For if we allow 65. years time after the Floud, before Nimrod was born: of which, thirty years to Cush ere he begat seba, after whom he had Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabtecha: and then thirty years to Raamah, ere he begat Gen. 10.7. Sheba and Dedan, both which were born before Nimrod: and five years to his five elder Brothers, which make fixty five, and then twice thirty years for two Generations more, as for Nimrod, Sheba, and Dedan with others, to beget their Sons; and that a third Generation might grow up, which makes in all an hundred twenty five years; there will then remain fix years to have been spent in travailing from the East, ere they arrived in Shinaar, in the year after the Floud 121. And so the followers of Nimrod might be of fufficient multitude. But as for those which make him to have arrived at Shinaar in the year 101. and the Confusion to have been at Pelegs birth, these men do all by miracle: they beget whole Nations without the help of time; and build Nimrods Tower in the Ayr; and not on those low and marish grounds (which require found foundations) in the Plains of Shinaar. For except that huge Tower were built in a day, there could be no confusion in that year 101. or at Pelegs birth. And therefore it is far more probable, that Nimrod usurped Regal authority in the 131. year after the Floud (according to Berofus) and that the Work of Babel lasted fourty years (according to Glycas) Hominibus in ea perficienda totis 40. annis incassum laborantibus; Men labouring in vain 40. years to finish it. By which account it falls out that it was 170. years after the Floud, ere a Colonie was fent into East India; which granted, (the one being the main Body, and the other but a Troop taken thence) it can hard-gathering together greater Troops then those of exceeded Semiramis in numbers: who begathered the most of Nations into one

||. VI.

The fourth Argument from divers considerations in the person of Noah.

Ourthly, it is no way probable, that No-ab, who knew the world before the Floud, and had lived therein the long time of 600. years, was all that space 130. years after the Floud without any certain habitation: No, it will fall out, and better agree with reason, that Nimrod was but the conductor of those people, by Noah destined and appointed to fill and inhabit that middle part of the earth and the Western World; (which Travails Noah put over to young and able bodies) and that Noah himself, then covered with many years, planted himself in the same place which God had affigned him; which was, where he first came down out of the Ark from the waters: for it is written, that after Noah came down out of the Ark, he planted a Vineyard, and became a Husbandman, whose business was to dress and manure the Earth; and not to range over so many parts of the world, as from Armenia into Arabia fælix, where he should (if the Tradition be found) have left certain Colonies: thence into Africa towards Triton: then into Spain where they fay he fetled other companies, and built Cities after the names of Noela and Noegla his Sons Wives: from thence into Italy, where they fay he found his Son Cham the Saturn of Egipt, who had corrupted the people and fubjects of Gomer in his absence: with whom Noah (as they make the story) had patience for three years; but then finding no amendment, they fay he banish'd him out of Italy. These be but the fancies of Berosus Annianus, a plain imitation of the Grecian fables. For let every reasonable man conceive, what it was to travail far in fuch a Forrest as the World was, when after so great a rotting of the Earth by the Floud, the same lay wast and over-grown for 130. or 140. years, and wherein there could hardly be found either part or passage through which men were able to creep for Woods, Bushes, and Bryers, that in those years were grown up.

And there are so many reasons, proving that Noah never came into the Valley of shinaar, as we need not suspect his passage into Italy or Spain: For Noah who was Father ly be believed that Staurobates could have of all those Nations, a man reverenced both for his Authority, Knowledg, Experience | ther forgotten or neglected, had he not (in unbelieving prefumptuos work of Babel, Rather by his presence and prevalent perswaover his children and people. Certainly, Noah knew right well, that the former destruction of man-kind was by themselves purchased through cruelty and disobedience; and that to distrust God, and to raise up building against his Almighty power was as much as in them lay, a provocation of God to lay upon them the same, if not a more sharp affliction. Wherefore, there is no probability, that ever he came fo far West as Babylonia; but rather, that he fent those numbers which came into shinaar (being the greatest troop, because they had the greatest part of the World to plant) under Nimrod, orthose upon whom he usurped. Nauclerus, and Calestinus, take the testimony of Methowere three Leaders of the people after their increase (to wit) Nimrod, Suphene, and Jodan, of which Nimrod commanded the iffues of Cham, Jottan of sem, and suphene of Japhet. This opinion I cannot judge of, although I will not doubt, but that so great a work as the Worlds Plantation, could not be effected without order and conduction.

Of the Sons of Sem: Jostan, Havilah, and Ophir, are especially noted to have dwelt in joyning to Indus, and held also a part of Chaldea for a time: for Abraham inhabited Or, till he was thence called by God; and whether they were of the Sons of Jostan, or of all the rest a certain number (Cham and his iffue onely excepted) that Noah kept Plantation I shall speak at large in the Chapter following.

Now, another reason which moves me to believe that Noah stayed in the East far away from all those that came into Shinaar, is, that Moses doth not in any word make mention of Noah in all the Story of the Hebrews, or among any of those Nations which contended with them. And Noah being the Father of all man-kind, and the chosenservant that the Ark of Noah stood on the Mountain's of God, was too principal a Person, to be ei- of Armenia, he beginneth with the antiquity and Piety, would never have permitted his respect of his age and wearisome experience children and iffues to have undertaken that of the World) withdrawn himself, and rested a-part with his best Beloved, giving himself to the service and contemplation of God fions he would have bound their hands from and heavenly things, after he had directed fo vain labours, and by the authority which his children to their deftined portions. For he received even from God himself, he would he landed in a warm and fertile soil, where have held them in that awfull subjection, as, he planted his Vineyard, and dress the Earth; whatsoever they had vainly conceived or after which, and his thanksgiving to God feared, yet they durft not have disobeyed the by facrifice, he is not remembred in the Scripersonal commandment of him, who in the ptures, because he was so farr away from beginning had a kind of Regal authority those Nations of which Moses wrote: which were the Hebrews chiefly, and their enemies and borderers.

| VII.

Of the lenflest opinion of Annius the Commentor upon Berofus: who finds divers places where the Ark rested; as the Caspian and Gordinan Hills, which are three bundred miles asunder; and also some places of Scythia.

T remaineth now that we examine the Arguments and Authorities of Frier Annius, who in his Commentaries upon Berofus and others, laboureth marvelloully to prove that dius Bilhop of Tyre for currant, that there the Ark of Noah rested upon the Armenian Mountains called Caspii; which Mountains separate Armenia from the upper Media, and do equally belong to both. And because all his Authors speak of the Mountains of Gordiei, he hath no other shift to unite these opinions, but by uniting those far-distant Mountains together. To effect which, he hath found no other invention, than to charge those men with errour, which have carefully over-seen, Printed, and Published Assa. 3. the Edf-India. The rest of Sem's issues had also the Regions of Persia, and the other adtomatical together dissevered. For that last Edition of Mercators fets these Hills five degrees(which makes three hundred English miles) afunder. And certainly, if we look into those more ancient Copies of Villanovamis, and others, we shall find nothing in them to help Annius withall: for in those the Mountains Caspin with himfelf, it cannot be known. Of which | fland seven degrees to the East of the Gordiai, which makes 420. miles. And for those Authors by whose authority Annius strengthneth himself, Diodorus whom he so much followeth, giveth this judgment upon them Diod Le 3. in the like dispute. Aberrarunt verd omnes, non negligentià, sed regnorum situs ignorantià; They have all erred (faith he) not through negligence, but through ignorance of the situation of Kingdoms. But for an induction to prove citeth Marcus Portius Cato, who avoweth ginneth in that place with these words: Fathat 250, years before Ninus, the Earth was bulantur Scythæ, The Scythians Fable: and overflown with Waters, Et in Scythia saga his Interpreter in the table of that work, renatum mortale genus; And that in Scythia giveth this Title to that very Chapter; Serthe flock of mortal men was renewed. The same tharum origo & successive, fabula; The original Author alfo teacheth, that the Umbri before and juccess of the Scythians a Fable. And (inremembred (who were so called, because saved from Deucalions Floud) were the Sons of lince Ptolemy doth directly delineate Scythia the Galii, a Nation of the Scythians. Ex his venije Janum cum Dyrim, & Gallis progenito- of longitude: and the Persians (saith Herodoribus Umbrorum; From these Scythians, he | tus) call all the Scythians, Saca; which Pliny faith that Janus came with Dyrim, and with | confirms: for in respect that these Saca (faith the Gallitle progenitours of the Umbri: And Scythis tribuitur; Certainly, the prime Antiquity of Off-spring is alway given to the Scythians. And herein truly I agree with Annius, Tartaria, and by some Writers Sarmatia, Asiwhich Annius laboureth, is to prove that precifely fet down. these ancient Scythians (meaning the Ne-Berof.l.1. Pul. Ala. the addition of Saga altogether in the repe- speech is at this time called Gasiaria; and the Gon, 11. 2. Which crected the Tower of Babel in Shinaar | mouth of Rha. or Babylonia.

94 Cato de

falshood in citing this place. For Diodorus, menia can be no part of scythia; and to

of the Septhians: and to prove the same he | a most approved and diligent Authour, bedeed) there needs no great disproof hereof, Saga. or Saca, and fets them in 130. degrees Pliny) are the Scythians next to the Persians. again, Equidem principatus originis semper therefore they gave all the rest that name. La. Now, that any Nation in Armenia can neighbour the Persians, there is no man believeth. But this supposed Scythia Araxea in Armenia that those Regions called Scythia, and now lieth in 78. degrees of longitude (that is) 42. degrees distant from the sace; and the atica, were among the first peopled: and Countrey about Araxes Ptolemy calleth Colthey held the greatest part of Asia under thene, and Soducene, and Sacapene, without Tribute till Ninus Time. Also Pling called any mention of Scythia at all: and yet all the Umbri which long fince inhabited Italy, those which are, or were reputed Scythians Gens antiquissima, a most ancient Nation, who either within Imans, or without, to the numdescended of these Scythians. Now, that ber of 100. several Nations, are by Ptolemy Table

But, to come to those latter Authours, phews of Noah) did first inhabit that Region | whereof some have written, others have seen of the Mountains, on which the Ark refted; a great part of those North-East Regions, and confessing that this great Ship was and searched their Antiquities with great digrounded in Armenia, he feigneth a Nation ligence: First, Marius Niger boundeth Scyof Scythians called Araxea, taking name of thia within Imaus, in this manner: (for Scythe Mountain Ararat, near the River of A- thia without these Mountains, is also beyond raxes. And because his Author Cato helpeth our purpose) Scythia inter Imaum montemea him in part (to wit, That in Scythia man- eft, que proprio vocabillo Gassaria hoc tempore kind was restored after the great Floud 250. | dicitur : ab Occasiu Sarmatia Asiatica: ab Orienyears before Ninus) and in part utterly de- | teImao Monte: à Septentrione terra cognita: à stroyeth his conceit of Armenia, by adding | Meridie Saccis, Sogdianis, Margianis, usque the word Saga; as, In Scythia Saga rena- oftia Oxa amnis in Hyrcanum mare exeuntis; tum mortale genus; In Scythia Saga, mankind parte ipsius maris hinc usq; ad Rha suminis ostia was restored : he therefore in the Prowne of terminatur: Scythia within the Mountain Imahis Commentary upon Berosus, leaveth out us, is that part of the World which in their own tition of Cato his words, and writes, homines fame is bounded on the West-side by Sarmatia Ain Scythia falvatos. For Scythia Saga, or Sa- fiatica, (or of Asia:) on the East, by the Imaan ca, is undoubtedly under the Mountains of Mountains: on the North, by unknown Lands: Parapinifus; on which, or near which it on the south, by the Saccæ (which are the Sais most probable that the Ark first took | ce) the Sogdiani, and the Margiani, to the ground: and from those East parts (accord- mouth of Oxus, falling into the Hyrcan Sea, ing to Moses) came all those companies and by a part of the same Sea as farr as the glasses

Now, if Niger sets all Sarmatia Asiatica But now, the best authority which Annius to the West of Scythia, then Sarmatia (qua emiliante to the West of Scythia, then Sarmatia (qua emiliante to the West of Scythia, then Sarmatia (qua emiliante to the West of Scythia, then Sarmatia (qua emiliante to the West of Scythia, then Sarmatia (qua emiliante to the West of Scythia, then Sarmatia (qua emiliante to the West of Scythia, then Sarmatia (qua emiliante to the West of Scythia) hath, is out of Diodorus: where he hath magna sane Regio est, & que innumeras natio- 41. read that the Scythians were originally Ar- nes completitur, Which is a great Region, commenians, taking name à Scytha Rege eo- prehending innumerable nations, faith Niger) rum, from Scytha their King. But (in a word) much of it being between scythia and Arwe may see his vanity, or rather (indeed) his menia, doth sufficiently warrant us, that Ar-

denir make it more plain, he diflevereth Sarmatia | being part of that Scythia which Piolemy calit felf from any part of Armenia, by the Re- leth Scythia intra Imaum monten: Scythia

CHAP. VII. CHAP. VII.

Words: Constate am essential in his de-dia, them, in cited by Vincentius in his de-constant a partibus Orientis (mutatis sedibus) fifth) in the year 1307. published.

called Imanomesero, in the great Wood Oke- then the Scythians of Europe? nitzkilies or Jepiphanolies Volga, which Ptolemy calls Rha, and the Tartars call Edel, rifeth out of a Lake called Fronow, in the great Wood Vodkonzki: from which Lake the two other famous Rivers flow of Bory-Sthenes (now Neyper) and Dhuina or Dividna. And this learned Polonian doth in this fort bound the European Sarmatia. In Sarmatia of Europe are the Regions of Russians, Lithuanians, Muscovians, and those adjoyning, bounded on the West by the River of Vissa, the Name perchance mis-printed Vissa for Vistula, a River which parts Germania and Sarmatia: and for the East-border he nameth the firm of any part of Armenia, by the Kelington gions of Colchis, theria, and Albania, which middle he leaveth on the right hand of Sarmatia, which is and yet makes Sarmatia but the West bound of Sephia.

Mathibas Miskon sturber affirmeth, that the Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of Armenia among the Tarkarian or Sephian (which Frier Annins would make the first of years before his own time: these be his feription of Scythia) make any mention of paulo plus abhine trecentis annis Alia Sarma-Armenia; neither doth Haytonus, an Armeni- tiam ingressam: It is manifest (saith he,speakan born of the bloud of those Kings (though ing of the scythian Nation) that this is a late afterwards a Monk) ever acknowledg planted Nation, come from the coasts of the himself for a Tartarian, or of the Scythian East: from whence they entred into Asia, & gat Races descended: though he writ that story new seats a little more then 300. years since: at large, gathered by Nicolaus Salcuni, and For (indeed) before that time the Goths or (by the commandement of Pope Clement the Pouloci inhabited Sarmatia Asiatica, And this Matthias lived in the year 1511. and Neither doth Matthias a Michon (a Ca- this his Discourse of Sarmatia was Printed non of Cracovia in Polonia) a Sarmatian born, at Augusta in the year 1506. as Bucholand that travailed a great part of Sarmatia zerns in his Chronologie witnesseth. Now Asiatica, find Armenia any way within the these Scythians (saith he) came from the East; compals of Tartaria, Scythia, or Sarmatia; for in the East it was, that the Ark of Noah and vet no man (whose Travails are extant) rested, and the scytha Sacra were those peohath observed so much of those Regions as | ple which lived at the North foot of those he hath don: proving and disproving many | Mountains, of Taurus or Ararat, where they things, heretofore subject to dispute. And encounter or begin to mix themselves with among others he burieth that antient and re- the great Imaus. And were there no other ceived opinion, That out of the Mountains, | testimony then the general description of the Riphai, and Hyperborei in Scythia, fpring the | Earth now extant, and the witness of Ptolemy. Rivers of Tanais or Don, Volga or Edel; pro- it is plain, that between all parts of Armenia, ving by unanswerable experience, that there and scythia, there are not only those three are no such Mountains in rerum natura; Regions of Colchis, Iberia, and Albania, but and (indeed) the Heads and Fountains of the Caspian Sea: on the East shore of which those famous Rivers are now by the Trade | Sea, but not on the West, or on that part of Muscovia known to every Merchant, and which any way toucheth Armenia, there are that they arise out of Lakes, low, wooddy, (indeed) a Nation of Scythians (called Ariaca) and marish grounds. The River of Tanais | between Jaxartus and Jastus; but what are or Don, ariseth to the South of the City Tulla, these scythians to any Ariaca, or Scythia Arasome twenty English miles, out of a Lake | xea, which Annius placeth in Armenia, more

| VIII.

The fifth Argument, The Vine must grow naturally neer the place where the Arke

O this if we add the confideration of this part of the Text, That Noah plan- cen. 9. 10. ted a Vineyard, we shall find that the fruit of the Vine or Raysin did not grow naturally in that part of Armenia, where this resting of the Arke was supposed: for if the Vine Tanais, or Dan. Sarmatia Afiatica he cutteth brought from other Countries thither, it is from Europe by the same River of Tanais, not probable that it grew naturally in Armeand the Capian Sea, to with hold it from ma, being a far colder Country. For Tyrfreeching farther East: this Asian Sarmatia rhenns first brought Vines into France, and not far to feek out the Vine. For the Planta- suppose exceeded all other) is the opinion tion thereof is remembred, before there was taken, That the Ark first sate thereon. any counsel how to dispose of the World agiving to God; and wherefoever the Arke From whence it doth no where appear, that he travailed far: for the Scriptures teach us, that he was a Husband-man, and not a wanderer.

neer unto the Senones, where they contiby Saturn from elfe-where into Italy.

||. IX.

An answer to an objection out of the words of the Text: The Lord scattered them from thence upon the face of the whole earth.

Nd that all the children of Noah came A together into shinaar, it doth not appear, faving that it may be inferred out of these words (from thence) because it is written: So that the Lord scattered them [from thence | upon all the Earth; which hath no other sense, but that the Lord scattered them (to wit) those that built this Tower: for those were from thence dispersed into all the Regions of the North and South, and to the Westward. And by these words of Sybilla (as they be converted) it feemeth that all came not together into shinaar; for they have this limitation: Quidam corum turrem ædificarunt altissimam, quasi per eam Cælum esent ascensuri: Certain of them built a most high Tower, as if they meant thereby to have scaled the Heavens.

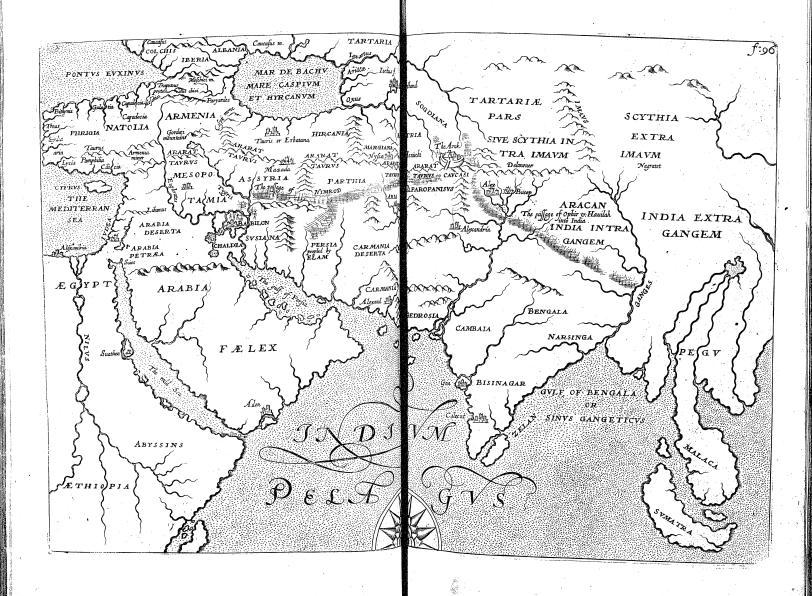

||. X.

An answer to the objection of the name of Ararat, taken for Armenia: and the heighth of the Hills there.

Dary to see and consider what part of of Berosus differs far from the words of that Saturnus into Latium: yea at fuch times as Scripture, and what reason may be found Brennus and the Gauls invaded Italy, there out, to make it true or probable, that the were few or no Vines in France. For (faith Ark of Noah was forfaken by the waters on Plutareb in the life of Camillus) the Gaules rethe Mountains of Armenia. For the Text mained between the Pyrenai and the Alpes, hath only these words: The Ark rested on (or neer unto the senones, where they drunk Wine, faith the Marginal Note of the Geneva: the on nued a long time, until they drunk Wine, faith the Marginal Note of the Geneva: the on nued a long time, until they drunk Wine, faith the Marginal Note of the Geneva: the one of the chaldent Paraphraft calls it Kardu: of which nued a long time, time they out of Haly; Chaldean Paraphraft calls it Kardu; of which, to and after they tasted thereof, they hasted to the highest hath the name of Inbar, saith E. nas, inhabite that Country, which brought forth piphanius. Now this Ararat (which the sepfuch pleasant Fruit: so as it appeareth, that tuagint do not convert at all, but keep the the Plant of the Vine was not natural in same word) is taken to be a Mountain of Ar-France, but from Italy brought thither; as menia; because Armenia it self had antiently that name: fo as first out of the name, Now it is manifest, that Noah travailed and secondly out of the heighth (which they

But these suppositions have no foundatimong his children: and the first thing he on: for neither is Ararat of Armenia alone, did, was, to till the ground, and to plant a neither is any part, or any of those Moundary Vine-yard, after the Sacrifice and Thankf- tains of equal stature to many other Mountains of the World; and yet it doth not folrested, there did the Vine grow naturally. low, that the Ark found the highest Mountain of all other to rest on: for the Plains were also uncovered before Noah came out of the Ark. Now, if there were any agreement among Writers of this Ararat, and that they did not differ altogether therein, we might give more credit to the conceit. For in the Books of the sybils it is written, that the Mountains of Ararat are in Phrygia, upon which it was supposed that the Ark stayed after the Floud. And the better to particularize the place and feat of these Mountains, and to prove them in Phrygia and not Armenia; they are placed where the City of Cælenes was afterward built. Likewise in the same description she maketh mention of Marfyas, a River which runneth through part of Phrygia and afterward joynethit felf with the River Meander, which is far from the Gordiean Mountain in Armenia. We may also find a great mistaking in Josephus (though out of Berofus, who is in effect the Father of this opinion) that Josephus sets Ararat between Armenia and Parthia, toward Adiabene, and affirmeth withall, that in the Province of Caron (by others Kairos and Arnos, so called by reason that the waters have from thence no descent, nor issue out) the people vaunt that they had in those days referved some pieces of Noahs Ark. But Parthia toucheth no where upon Armenia; for Armenia bordereth Adiabene, a Province of Asyria: so that all Media and a part of Asyria is between Parthia and Armenia. Now whereas the discovery of the Mountains Cordiei was first borrowed out of Berosus by Jo-DUt before I conclude this part, it is neces- sephus; yet the Text which Josephus citeth out by Josephus, hath these words: Fertur & navi- Ptolemy calleth Torgodiaion) are the highest gii bujus pars in Armenia apud montem Cordiaorum superesse, & quosdam Bitumen inde abrasum secum reportare, quo vice amuleti loci hujus homines uti solent: (which is) It is reported allo that a part of this ship is yet remaining in Armenia upon the Cordican Mountains; and that divers do scrape from it the Bitumen or Pitch, and carrying it with them, they use it in stead of an amulet. But Annius his Edition of the Fragment of Berofus uleth these words: Nam elevata ab aquis in Gordia montis vertice quievit, cujus adhuc dicitur aliqua pars esse, & komines ex illa Bitumen tollere quo maxime utuntur ad expiationem: For the whole Arke being lifted up by the waters, refted on the top of the Gordiean Mountaines, of which it is reported that some parts remain, and that men do carry thence of the Bitumen to purge by Sacrifice therewith: fo as in these two Texts

Mountains in 39. and a halfe : from the Northen Georgians, who amidst all the strength hath nothing to the Westward of it for of the greatest Infidels of Persua and Turkie, 1000: Leagues together but the Ocean Sea, do fill remain christians. Concerning the o-yet doth it not enjoy the Sun's company at Berofus, which wandereth up and down in ther suppositions, that the Mountains of Gorthese days, set out by Annius. For Berosus; cited diei, otherwise Baris, Kardu or Lubar (which of the World, the same is absolutely false.

J. XI.

Of Caucasus, and divers far higher hills than the Armenian. Or the best cosmographers, with other,

that have feen the Mountains of Armenia find them far inferiour, and under-fet to divers other Mountains even in that part of the World, and else where: as the Mountain Athor between Macedon and Thrace, which Ptolemy calls Olympus, now called Lacas, (faith castaldus) is far surmounting any Mountain that ever hath been feen in Armenia: for it casteth shade three hundred furlongs, which is seven and thirty miles and upwards: of which Plutarch; Athos adum- Plut. Ninnf. (besides the difference of words) the name brat latera Lemnia bovis: Athos shadoweth is diverly written. The antient Berofus the Cow of Lemnos. Also the Mount of Olymwrites Cordiei with a (C) ; and the Fragment pus in The said to be of that height, as Gordiei with a (G): the one that the Bitu- | neither the Winds, Clouds, or Rain overtop men isused for apreservative against Poyson it. Again, the Mountain of Antandrus in or Inchantment; the other, in Sacrifice. And Mysta, not far from Ida, whence the River if it be faid that they agree in the general, seamandrus floweth, which runneth through yet it is reported by neither from any certain | Troy; is also of a far more admiration than aknowledg, nor from any approved Author: ny in Armenia, and may be seen from Confor one of them, uleth the word (fertur) the | stantinople. There are also in Mauritania other (dicitur); the one, that so it is reported, neer the Sea, the samous Mountains of Atlar, the other, that so it is said; and both but of which Herodotus: Extat in boc mari Mons by hear-fay, and therefore of no authority cui nomen Atlas, ita sublimis esse dicitur ut ad nor credit. For common bruit is so insamous illins verticem oculi mortalium pervenire non an Hiltorian, as wise men neither report af- possint: Oponthis Coast there is a Mountain ter it, nor give credit to any thing they re- called Atlas, whose heighth is said to be such, as the eye of no mortal man can discern the top Furthermore, these Mountains which Pto-thereof. And if we may believe Aristotle, leng cals Gordiei, are not those Mountaines then are all these inseriour to Cancasus, which which himself giveth to Armenia, but he he maketh the most notorious both for calleth the Mountains of Armenia, Moschiei. breadth and height: Caucasus Mons omnium These be his own words: Montes Armenia maximus, qui astienm ad ortum sunt, acumine nominantur ii, qui Moschici appellantur, qui atq, latitudine, cujus juga à Sole radiantur protenduntur usque ad superjacentem partem usq; ad conticinium ab ortu: & iterum ab Ponti Cappadocum; & Mons qui Paryardes occasse: Cancasus saith Aristotle is the greatdicitur: The Mountains of Armenia are they est Mountain both for breadth and height of all co which are called Moschici, stretched along to those in the North-east, whose tops are lightned a 13. the higher part of Pontus of the Cappadocians: by the Sun-beams (ufg; ad conticinium) which alfo the Hill which is called Paryardes: which is, faith Macrobius, between the first crowing Mountains Pliny calleth Pariedri, and both after mid-night and the break of day: Others which ly to the North of Gordiei or Baris, affirm, that the top of this Mountain holds in 43. and 44. and a half; and the Gordinati the Sun-beams when it is dark in the Valley; thermost of which did the Georgians take Mountain of the World known, is that of but I cannot believe either, for the highest their names, who were first Gordians, and Tenerife in the Canaria: which although it any fuch late hours. Besides these Mountains which Aristotle calleth Caucasi, are those which separate Colchis from Iberia; though (indeed) Caucajus doth divide both Colchis, Iberia, and Albania from Sarmatia: for he acknowledgeth that the River of Phasis 11feth in the same Mountain, which himself calleth Caucasus, and that Phasis springeth from those Hills which funder Colchis from Iberia, falling afterward into Euxinus: which River (it is manifest) yieldeth it self to the Sea, two degrees to the North of Trapezus (now Trabefunda) howfoever Mercator bring it from Paryardes.

N. XII.

Of divers incongruities if in this Story we fhould take Ararat for Armenia.

CO as it doth first appear, that there is no certainty what Mountain Ararat was: for the Books of the sybils fet it in Phrygia, and Berofus in Armenia: and as for Berofus authority, those men have great want of proofs that borrow from thence.

Secondly, that Baris was the highest Hill, and therefore most likely that the Arke grounded thereon, the affertion and suppofition have equal credit: for there are many Hills which exceed all those of Armenia; and if they did not, yet it doth not follow on the highest.

called indifferently: and therefore we may any Hills of Armenia. For those of Cauca-Fourthly, the Authors themselves do not agree in what Region the Mountains Gordiei stand: for Ptolemy distinguisheth the Mountains of Armenia from the Gordiean, and calleth those of Armenia, Moschici and Paryardes, as aforesaid. Now Paryardes is feated near the middle of Armenia, out of which on the West-side riseth Euphrates, and out of the East-fide, Araxis: and the Mounof the Georgians) from Armenia.

IL XIII.

is no marvail that the same Ledg of Hills running from Armenia to India, should keep the same name all along: and even in India be called Ararat.

Aftly, we must blow up this Mountain Ararat it felf, or else we must dig it down, and carry it out of Armenia, or find it elsewhere, and in a warmer Country, and (withal) fet it East from shinaar ; or else we thall wound the Truth it felf with the weapons of our own vain imaginations.

Therefore to make the mistaking open to every eye, we must understand, that Ararat (named by Moses) is not any one Hill, so called, no more then any one Hill among those Mountains which divide Italy from France, is called the Alps: or any one among those which part France from Spain is the Pyrenian; But as these, being continuations of many Hills, keep one name in divers Countries, fo all that long Ledg of Mountains, which Pliny calleth by one name Taurus, and Ptolemy both hid Taurus, Niphates, Coatras, Coronus, Sariphi, tim until they encounter and cross the Mountains of the great Imaus, are of one general name, and are called the Mountains of Ararat or Armenia, because from thence or thereabout they feem to arise. So all these Mountains of Hyrcania, Armenia, Coraxis, Caspii, Moschici, Amazonici, Heniochi, Scythici, (thus diversly (as is before written) that the Ark should sit called by Pliny and others) Ptolemy calls by one name Caucasus, lying between the Seas Thirdly, it cannot be proved that there is Caspium and Euximus: as all those Mounany such Hill in Armenia, or in rerum natura, tains which cut asunder America, even from as Baris: for Baris (faith Hierom) fignifieth the new Kingdom of Granado, to the streight high Towers; and so may all high Hills be of Magellan, are by one name called Andes. And as these Mountains of Ararat run East better give the name of Baris to the Hills of and West, so do those marvailous Mountains Cancassis (out of which Indus riseth) then to of Imans stretch themselves North and South; and being of like extent well-neer, fus in the East, are undoubtedly the highest are called by the name of Imaus, even as Pliny called these former Hills Taurus, and Mofes the Hills of Ararat. The reason of feveral names given by Ptolemie, was, thereby the better to distinguish the great Regions and Kingdoms, which these great Mountains bound and diffever; as Armenia, Mesopotamia, Asyria, Media, Susiana, Perfia, Parthia , Caramania , Aria, Margiana, Bactria, Sogdiana, and Paropanisus: having all these Kingdoms, either on the North tains Moschici are those Hills which disjoun or South side of them. For all the Mountains Colchis, Iberia, and Albania (now the Country of Asia (both the less and the greater) have three general names, (to wit) Taurus, Imaus, and Caucasus: and they receive other titles, as they fever and divide particular Places and Regions. For these Mountains which Of the contrary situation of Armenia, to funder Cilicia from the rest of Asia the less, on the place noted in the Text; and that it the North-fide, are called Taurns; and those Mountains which part it from Comagena (a | and the Mountain Nyfens, (so called of Bacand on her East-side the Mountains are sometimes known by the name of Taurus, (as in Ptolemie's three Tables of Asia) and somethat uncertain appellation fo long as they bound Armenia from Mesopotamia: and after the River of Tygris cutteth them afunder, they then take the name of Niphates altogether, untill they separate Asyria and Media; but then they call themselves Coatras, though between the upper and nether Media, they do not appear, but altogether discontinue. For at Mazada in Media they are not found, but run through the Eastern Media by pieces: in the middle of which Region they call themselves Orontes, and towards the East whereof the River of Bagradus rifeth, which divideth the ancient Persan from Caramania:

The fruitfulm the South botto: by the name of coronus, they give to the Parthians and Hyrcanians their proper Counto the Mountains of sariphi, out of which riseth the River Margus, afterward yielding her self to Oxus (now Abia:) and drawing now near their ways end, they first make themselves the South border of Bactria, and are then honoured with the Title of Paropanisus; and lastly, of Caucasia, even where the famous River of Indus, with his principal onely are properly called Caucasi (faith Ptolemie) that is, between Paropanisus and Imaw: and improperly, between the two Seas of Caspium and Pontus.

. XIV.

Of the best Vine naturally growing on the South side of the Mountain Caucasi, and toward the East-Indies: and of other excellencies of the soil.

Ow, in this part of the World it is,

Province of Syria) are called Amanus: the chus Nyjeus, or Noah) are found: and on these Mountains called Taurus, running East and highest Mountains of that part of the World West, as Imans doth North and South. did Goropius Eccanus conceive that the Ark Through Taurus, the River of Euphrates of Noah grounded after the Floud; of all his forceth her pallage, leaving the name of conjectures the most probable, and by best Amanus to the Mountains on her West-bank, reason approved. In his Indo-scytkia he hath many good Arguments, though mixt with other fantastical opinions of this subject And as the same Becams also noteth, that as in times Niphates (as in the fourth) retaining this part of the World are found the best Vines: fo it is as true, that in the same Line, and in 34, 35, and 36. degrees of Septentrional Latitude, are the most delicate Wines of the World, namely, in Judea, Candia, and other parts of Greece: and likewise in this Region of Margiana: and under these Mountains Strabo affirmeth, that the most excellent Vines of the World are found; the clusters of Grapes containing two Cubits of length: and it is the more probable, because this place agreeth in Climate with that part of Palestina, where the searchers of the Land, part Coronus; out of the Southern part by Moses direction, found bunches of equal

The fruitfulness of this place (to wit) on 24. the South bottom of these Hills, Curtius witnesseth. For in Margiana, near the Mountains of Meros, did Alexander feast himself and his tries. This done, they change themselves in- Army ten days rogether, finding the most delicate Wine of all other.

I. XV.

The Conclusion, with a brief repeating of divers chief points.

And therefore to conclude this opinion of Ararat, it is true, that those Moun-Nd therefore to conclude this opinion companions, Hydaspis and Zaredrus, spring of Ararat, it is true, that those Mounforth and take beginning. And here do tains do also traverse Armenia: yea, and Ararat, it is true, that those Mounforth and take beginning. these Mountains build themselves exceeding menia it self sometime is known by the name high, to equal the strong Hills called Imans of Ararat. But as Pliny giveth to this Ledge of scythia, which encounter each other in of high Hills, even from Cilicia to Parapo-35, 36, and 37. degrees of Latitude, and in | nifus and Cancasus, the name of Taurus: and 140. of Longitude: of the which the West | as the Hills of France and Germany are called parts are now called Delanguer, and the rest the Alps: and all between France and Spain Nagracot; and these Mountains in this place the Pyrenes: and in America the continuation of Hills for 3000 miles together, the Andes: fo was Ararat the general name which Moses gave them; the diversity of appellations no otherwise growing, than by their dividing and bordering divers Regions, and divers Countreys. For in the like case do we call the Sea, which entreth by Gibraltar, the Mediterrane and in-land Sea; and yet where it washeth the Coasts of Carthage, and over against it, it is called Tyrrhenum: N^{Ow}, in this part of the World it is, where the Mountain and River Janus, and Asia, Ageum: between Sestus and Asyon N 2 between Italy and Greece, Ionium: from Ve-appear to that Judge winer cannot crite, even Jo Joseph and these travels were precisely set down to the Word of Truth, which in this place is and these travels were precisely set down to be taken and followed according to the plain sence: seeing it can admit neither diftinction, nor other construction than the words bear literally, because they are used from Hiernsalem: the way from Bethel to Eto the very same plain purpose of a description, and the making of a true and precise difference of places. Surely, where the sence is plain (and being fo understood, it bringeth with it no subsequent inconvenience or contrariety) we ought to be wary, how we fancie to our felves any new or strange exposition; And (withall) to resolve our selves, that every word (as aforefaid) hath his weight in Gods Bock. And therefore we must respect and reverence the testimonies of the Scriptures throughout, in such fort as Saint Augustine hath taught us, touching the Gospel of Christ Jesus (which is) Nequis aliter accipiat (quod narrantibus Discipulis Christi) in Evangelio legerit, quam si ipsam manum Dei,quam in proprio corpore gestabat, conspexerit; That no man otherwise take or un-

Gen. 10. the presence of God, he addeth; And Cain who also speak by hear-say, and by report, Gen. 4. 16. Afterwards removing thence unto a Mountain naar lyeth West from the place where the Gen. 1. 8. Laving Bethel on the Weft-fide, and Hai on the therefore it first found ground in the East, dus, Hellestont: and afterward Pontus, Pro- went forth journeying towards the South: also aus, Heuespont: and auterward tomas, to when Ezekiel prophecieth of Gog and Marantis, and Bosphorus. And as in these, so is when Ezekiel prophecieth of Gog and Marantis, and Bosphorus. the Ocean to the North-east part of Scotland gog, he shewesh that these Nations of Togorcalled Dencaledonycum: and on this fide, the ma were of the North-quarters: and of the Brittain Sea: to the East, the Germane and Queen of Saba it is written, that she came from the South to vifit Solomon : And the Mante For a final end of this Question, we must Mags, (or Wisemen) came out of the East to of 41.

appeal to that Judge which cannot erre, even fer presents unto Christ. And that all Regions, Men ters of the World, it is most manifest: for Eden was due East from Judea; Saba South Tubalines, and Magogians inhabited the Regions directly North from Palestina, and so of the rest. But Armenia answereth not to this description of Shinaar by Moses. For to come out of Armenia, and to arrive in that Vallev of Babylonia, is not a journeying from the East, nor so near unto the East as the North: for Armenia is to the West of the North it it felf; and we must not say of Moses (whose hands the holy Ghost directed) that he erred toto cœlo, and that he knew not East from West. For the body of Armenia standethin fourty three degrees Septentrional, and the North part thereof in fourty five; and those Gordiean Mountains, whereon it was suppofed that the Ark rested, stand in fourty one. But Babylonia, and the Valley of Shinaar are dryland that which be readeth in the Coffel situated in thirty five; and for the Longitude (the Disciples of Christ having written it)than (which maketh the difference between East if he had seen the very hand of the Lord, which he have in his own body, setting it down.

and West) the Gordinan Mountains stand in 75. degrees, and the Valley of shinaar in 79. The words then of Moles, which end this and 80. And therefore Armenia lieth from Dispute, are these: And as they went from the Shinaar North-west, 95. degrees from the East they found a Playn in the Land of Shinaar, East; and if Armenia had been but North, and there they abode: which proveth with- yet it had differed from the East one whole out controversie, that Nimrod, and all with quarter of the Compass. But Gregory, and him, came from the East into Shinaar; and Hierome warn us, In Scripturis ne minima therefore the Ark of Noah rested and took differentia omitti debet : nam singuli sermonts, land to the East-ward thereof. For we must Sillaba, apices, & puncta in divina Scriptura remember, that in all places wherefoever plena funt fensibus; In the Scriptures the least Moses maketh a difference of Countreys, he difference may not be omitted: for every speech, always precifely nameth toward what quar- Isilable, note, or accent, and point in divine ter of the World the same were feated : as Scriptures are replenished with their meanings. where he teacheth the plantation of Jostan, And therefore feeing Moles teacheth us that he nameth sephar, a Mountain in the East: the children of Noah came from the East, we where he remembreth Cains departure from may not believe Writers (of little authority) dwelt in the Land of Nod, towards the East-side | Ut fertur, & ut dicitur, as Berosus and Nicoof Eden: And when he describeth the Tents lans Damascenus, determining herein with and Habitations of Abraham, after he de- out any examination of the Text, at all adparted from sechem, he useth these words; venture. But this is infallibly true, that shi-East-ward from Bethel, he pitched his Tents: Ark of Noah rested after the Floud; and East: and afterward in the ninth Verse of the from whence came the first knowledg of all fame Chapter, it is written; and Abraham things. The East parts were first civil, which had Noah himself for an instructor: the planted the Vine, where he tilled the and directly East from Shinaar in the same ground and lived thereon. Placuit vero Nodegree of 35. are the greatest Grapes, and acho agriculture studism, in qua tractanda the best Wine. The great Armies also ipse omnium peritissimus ese dicitur: ob camwhich overtopped in number those Millions | que rem sua ipsus lingua Ish-Adamath (hoc est) of Semiramis, prove, that those parts were telluris our appellatur celebratisque est, The finent: for my felf I build on his words, who knowledg and order of which it is faid that in plain terms hath told us, That the Sons of Noah excelled all men: and therefore was he Noah came out of the East into Shinaar, and called in his own language, a man exercised in there they abode. And therefore did the the earth. Which also sheweth, that he was first Planted. And whereas the other opini- dy of Husbandry pleased Noah (faith the exon hath neither Scripture nor Reason suffici- cellent learned man Arias Montanus) in the Ark rest on those Eastern Mountains, called no wanderer; and that he troubled not himby one general name Taurus, and by Moses self with the contentions beginning again in the Mountains of Ararat, and not on those the World, and among men, but stayed in his Mountains of the North-west, as Berosus first destined places, and in that part of the World feigned, whom most part of the Writers have | where he was first delivered out of the Prifollowed therein. It was, I say, in the plen- son of the Ark, whereinto God had committiful warm East where Noah rested, where ted him, to preserve him and mankind.

CHAP. VIII.

Of the first planting of Nations after the Floud; and of the Sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japhet, by whom the Earth was re-peopled.

6. I.

Whether Shem and Ham were elder then Japhet.

ted this Scripture of Genesis the 10. v. 21. in of Noab's, life, and in the year of shem's life these words: Unto Shem also the Father of all the sons of Heber, and elder brother of Japhet, were children born. But Junius, agreeing with the septuagint, placeth the same words in this manner: To Shem also the Father of all der, he had then been an hundred years old the sons of Heber, and brother of Japher the at the Floud, and in the fix hundreth year eldes son, were children born : So the trans- of Noal's life, and not two years after. polition of the word (elder) made this difference. For if the word (elder) had followed after Japhet, as it is in the vulgar Traflation placed before it, then had it been as plain for Japhet, as it is by these Translations bim (to mit) Ham; of necessity the first place

F these Sons of Noah, Which was I tyed to first and last in bloud, but to the elthe eldest, there is a question dest in piety, yet the arguments are stronger made. St. Augustine esteemed for Japher then for shem. And where the Shem for the eldest, Ham for the | Scriptures are plainly understood without fecond, and Japhet for the any danger or inconvenience, it feemeth youngest: and herein the opinions of Wri- strange why any man of judgment should tersare divers. But this we find every where make valuation of conjectural arguments. in the Scriptures, and especially in Moles, that or mens opinions. For it appeareth that Nothere was never any respect given to the el- ab in the five hundreth year of his life, begat destinyears, but in virtue; as by the exam- the first of his three Sons, shem, Ham, and ples of Henoch, Abraham, Jacob, and David, Japhet : and in the fix hundreth year (to wit) 600. 11. is made manifest. In a few words, this is the the hundreth year following, came the geground of the controversie; The Latine neral Floud; two years after which, Shem Translation, and so the Geneva, hath conver- begat Arphaxad, which was in the year 602. one hundred: so as shem was but an hundred years old, two years after the Floud: and Noah begat his first born being 500. years old; and therefore were shem the el-Which seeing the Scriptures before remem- Gen. 9. bred hath denied him, and that it is also " written: Then Noah amoke from his wine, for obem. Now (the matter being otherwise doth belong to Japhet, This younger for to indifferent) feeing Gods bleffings are not converted by the Vulgar and Geneva, Junibut St. Chrysoftom takes it otherwise, and finds Cham to be the middle or second brother, and Japket the youngest son of all: which cham for his disobedience and the contempt of his Father (whose nakedness he derided) was dif-inherited, and loft the preeminency of his birth, as Esau and Ruben did. Pererius conceiveth that Ham was called the younger in respect of shem the eldest, but avoweth withal, that the Hebrew hath not that precise difference of younger and youngest, because it wanteth the comparative degree. It is true that shem himfelt was always named in the first place; yet whereas in the first Verse of the tenth Chapter of Genesis, shem is accounted before Japket, in the second Verse Moses leaveth to begin with the iffue by shem, and reciteth the children of Japhet first. So the first place was given to shem for his election and benediction, and for this weighty respect, that the Hebrew Nation, Abraham, the Prophets, David, and Christ our Saviour were descended of him. And therefore, whether we shall follow the Vulgar Pagninus, and the Geneva, who agree in this conversion, Shem Frater Japhet major; or with the Septuagint, Junius and Tremelius, Shem Fratris Japhet majoris; or with Pererius, Shem Frater Japhet ille magnus: inferring that shem was the great and famous brother of Japhet, let the Reader judg. But for ought that I have seen to the contrary, it appeareth to me that Japhet was the eldest. For where Pererius qualifieth the frength of the former argument, That Shem's Cicero, the antientest was the son of Ather and age at the time of the Floud did not agree with the eldership (with a supposition that the Scriptures took no account of smaller numbers) I do not find in the Scriptures any Shem was an hundred years old, and begat Arwere always precifely accounted.

The first Book of the first Part

6. II.

Of divers things that in all reason are to be presumed; touching the first planting of the World; as that all Histories must yield to Moses: that the World was not planted all The at once, nor without great direction: and that known great Lords of the first Ages were of the issue of Ham.

OUt let us go unto the Worlds plantation D after the floud, which being rightly unus turns it films minimus, His youngest son: derstood, we shall find that many Nations Ancestors and Fathers, which never saw or approched the bounds of their Countries, and of whom they are by no way or branch descended. For it is plain in the Scriptures how the fons and iffues of Noah were diffributed, and what Regions were first planted by them, from whence by degrees the reft of the world was also peopled. And if any prophane Author may receive allowance herein, the same must be with this caution. that they take their beginning where the Scriptures end. For fo far as the story of Nations is therein handled, we must know, that both the truth and antiquity of the Books of God find no companions equal, either in age or authority. All record, memory, and testimony of antiquity whatsoever, which hath come to the knowledg of men, the same hath been borrowed thence, and therefore later than it, as all careful observers of time have noted: among which, thus writeth Eusebius in the Proæme of his Chronology: Moses is found more antient than all those whom the Grecians make most antient, as Homer, Hesiod, and the Trojan War; and far before Hercules, Musaus, Linus, Chiron, Orpheus, Castor, Pollux, Æsculapius, Bacchus, Mercurius, and Apollo, and the rest of the Gods of the Nations, their Ceremonies, or holy Rites, or Prophets: and before all the deeds of Jupiter, whom the Greeks have seated in the top and highest Turret of their Divinity.

For of the three Jupiters remembred by whose three sons begotten on Proserpina, were multi born at Athens, of which Cecrops was the first King: and in the end of Cecrops time did Moses bring the children of Israel out of Egypt: fuch neglect at all: for it is written, that Eduxit Moles populum Dei ex Egypto noviffmo tempore Cecropis Atheniensis Regis Moses phaxad two years after the floud; and again brought the children of Ifrael out of Egypt in in the 12. Verle: so Shela lived after be be- the last days of Cecrops King of the Athenigat Ebar, four hundred and three years, &c. ans, faith S. Augustine: and yet was not Co point to as the number of two years, of three years, crops the Founder of that City it self, but The-wall of five years, and afterward of two years, | few long after him. But because the truth hereof is diverfly proved, and by many learned Authors, I will not cut afunder the purpose in hand, by alledging many authorities in a needless question, but leave it to the proper place.

The Sons of Riphath, Gomer were, Togorma. Gomer, Magog, Madai, Sons of 7a-2 Javan, c Elifba, phet Meshach, The Sons of) Tarshis, Kittim, and (Javan were, and (Dodonim.

the Scriptures themselves, and after them, 130. year after the great Inundation, and by our own barren and cold ground, inform our felves thereby, what wonderful Defarts, what impassable fastness of woods, reeds, briers, and rotten grass; what lakes and standing pools, and what marishes, fens, & bogs, all the face of the Earth (excepting the Mountains) was pestered withall. For, if in this our Climate (where the dead and destroying Winter depressent all vegetative and growing Nature, for one half of the year in effect) yet in twenty or thirty years, these our grounds would all over-grow and be covered (according to the nature thereof) either with woods, or with other offensive thickets and bushments:much more did all forts of plants, reeds, and trees, prosper in the most fruitfull Valleys, and in the Climate of a long and warm Summer, and having withall, the ffart of 130, years to raise themselves without controlement.

This being confidered, it will appear, that all these people which came into shinaar, themselves into the Regions adjoyning to the faid Valley of shinaar, which contained the best part of Mesopotamia, Babylonia, and Chaldea; and from the borders thereof in time they were propagated, some of them towards the South, others towards the West and North. And although there were allotted to shem many Regions, both East and West from shinaar, with the Dominion of Palastina, which the Canaanites first posfest; yet could he not enjoy the Lot of his

First, we are to consider, that the World | degrees. For we find that Abraham, the after the Floud was not planted by imagi- true successiour of shem, dwelt in chaldea. nation, neither had the Children of Noah at Ur; and from thence (called by God) wings to fly from Shinaar to the uttermost he rested at Charran in Mesopotamia: from horder of Europe, Africa, and Asia, in haste, whence after the death of Thare he travelbut that these Children were directed by a led to sichem in Palestina: and yet there wife Father, who knew those parts of the had passed between shem and Abraham World before the Floud, to which he dif- (reckoning neither of themselves) seven Deposed his children after it, and sent them not scents, before Abraham moved out of chalas discoverers, or at all-adventure, but affign- | dea; where, and in Babylonia, all those peoed and allotted to every Son and their iffues, ple, by Nimrod commanded, inhabited for their proper parts. And not to hearken to many years, and whence Nimrod went out fabulous Authours, who have no other end into Afgria, and founded Ninevels. Indeed. than to flatter Princes (as Virgil did Augustus | the great Masters of Nations (as far as we can in the fiction of Eneas) or else to glorifie know) were in that Age in the iffues of Ham; their own nations; Let us build herein upon | the bleffing of God given by Noah to Shens and Japhet taking less effect, untill divers upon Reason and Nature. First therefore we | years were consumed; and untill the time must call to mind, and consider, what manner arrived, which by the wisdom of God was of face the Earth every where had in the appointed. For of Chus, Mizraim, and Canaan, came the People and Princes, which held comparing those fruitfullest Valleys with the great Kingdoms of Babylonia, Syria, and Egypt for many Descents together.

§. III.

of the isses of the Gentiles in Japhets Portion: of Berolus his too fpeedy feating Gomer the son of Japhet in Italy; and another of Japhets sons, Tubal in Spain: and of the Antiquity of Longingue Navigation.

O begin therefore (where Mofes beginneth) with the Sons of Tapheth. among whom the Isles of the Gentiles were divided: which division, as well to Japhets Sons, as to the rest which came into Shinaar, was (if the division were made at Phalegs birth) in the year of the World 1757. or 1758 and (by that account) in the years after the Floud one hundred and one; of which question else-where.

The habitations proper to the Sons of 7aphet were the Isles of the Gentiles, which inand over whom Nimrod, either by order or clude all Europe, with all the Isles adjoynstrength, took the Dominion, did, after the ing, and compassing it about: Europe being confusion of Languages, and at such time as also taken for an Island, both interpect that they grew to be a mighty People, disperse the Sea Hellespont and Ageum, Bosphorus, and Euxinus cut it off from the great Continent of Alia, as also because Europe it self is (in effect) furrounded with water, faving that it is fastned to Asia by the North; for it hath these Seas before named to the East, the Mediter rane to the South and South-west, the Ocean to the West, and Brittish, Germane, and Baltick Sea, with that of Glaciale to the North. North-east, and North-west. Besides, it hath about it all the Cyclades, or Isles lying between Greece and the leffer Afia, and the Inheritance on the fudden, but by time and | Ifles of Rhodes, Coprus, Crete, or Candia, Si-

04

This partition and portion of Japheth, with nilhed before it fell, and before they left the adjacent. the part which he held in Asia, and the North, work. They also began this building upon a which was also very great, answereth to ground, the most oppressed with waters of Ges 9:17 that bleffing of God by Noah Dilatet Deus Ja- all the world: as by the great ruine which pheth; Let God fread abroad (or increase the these waters forcibly over-bearing and over-Posterity of) Tapheth, and let him dwell in the Tents of Shem. For though Junius here wieth Emperours, is made manifest 3 approved also the word alliciat, and not dilates: and the by the Prophet Jeremie, speaking of Babylen Geneva, persuadeat; yet the Septuagint have in these words: Thou that dwellest upon many dilatet, or amplificet; and fuch was the bleffing given to our Fathers, which God promiled to Abraham and his feed for ever. And a raised building on a marish ground: and to the dwelling in the Tents or Tabernacles of which Glycas upon Genefis giveth fourty shem was a blefling by God to the Posterity years. For it seemeth that the Tower was of Japheth: noting not onely an enlargement of Territories, but that thereby they should ing afterward written; So the Lord scattered be made participant of Gods Church. But to them from thence upon all the Earth, and they come to Japhets Sons, of whom Gomer is the left to build the City. Out of which place it eldeft. This Gomer (if we may believe Berofus and Annius, whose authority the greatest then named) that they very near had pernumber of all our late Writers have followed) did in the tenth year of Nimrods Reign, depart from Babylonia, & planted Italy: which also Functius confirmeth in these words, Anno decimo Nimrodi, &c. In the tenth year of that till fuch time as this confusion seized Nimrods Reign, Gomerus Gallus planted a them (whereupon the Tower was thrown Colony in that Land afterward called Italy: and in the twelfth year of the same Nimrods selves: for from thence the Lord scattered Reign, Tubal feated himself in Austuria in them upon all the Earth, (that was) when they Spain (now called Biscay) which was in the 140. and in the 142. years after the Floud, according to Berofus. But this opinion is very came with Nimrod into Shinaar. Let us therebuilding of fuch a City and Tower required, their work above fifteen Cubits higher than the former wants supposed) be erected in cilia, Corfica, Sardinia, Malta, the Isles of the highest Mountain, otherwise they could Brittanie, and Zeland, with their young ones not assure themselves from the sear of a second Inundation:a great part whereof was fiflowing made in the time of the fucceeding waters. It cannot be doubted but that there needed a substantial foundation for so high near finished when God overthrew it: it bemay be gathered (because the Tower is not formed the work of their supposed defence, which was the Tower: and that afterward they went on with the City adjoyning, wherein they inhabited. It is also to be noted, down) these Nations did not disperse themperceived not one anothers speech. Now, to 64.16 think that this work, in the newness of the World, (wanting all instruments and materidiculous: For before the confusion of rials) could be performed in ten years; and Tongues, the Children of Noah did not fepa- that Tubal and Gomer in the same year, could rate themselves, at least so many of them as creep through 3000 miles of Desart, with Women, Children, and Cattel: Let those fore confider with reason, what time the light believers, that neither tye themselves to the Scripture, nor to reason, approveit, where there was no prepared matter, nor for I do not. And if the Ark of Noah was any ready means to perform such a work as 100. years in building, or but near such a Nimrod had erected (and as Functius himself time, (and then) when the World had stood out of his Authour Berofus witneffeth) ad al- 1556. years; it were more than foolishness, titudinem & magnitudinem Montium; To the and madness it self, to think that such a work height and magnitude of the Mountains. Sure as this could be performed in ten; when the that both this City and Tower was almost World (from the Floud to the arrival at builded, the Scriptures witness: but the Lord | Babel, and beginning of this building there) came down to feethe City and Tower which the had but 131. years, and whereof they had sons of men had builded. Let us then but spent some part in travelling from the East. allot a time sufficient for the making of Again, if all Asia set to their helping hands my Brick to fuch a Work, of the greatest heighth in the building of the Temple of Diana, and (and therefore of circuit and foundation an- yet they confumed in that Work 400. years swerable) that ever was. For where the uni- (or be it but half that time) and in such an verfal Floud covered the highest Mountains Age as when the World flourished in all fifteen Cubits; Let us build us a City and Tower forts of Artificers, and with abundant plenty (faith Nimrod) whose top may reach unto the of materials and carriages: This Work of Heaven: meaning, that they would raise the Tower of Babel could hardly (with all those few years remembred. And for con- of their Cattel: who had Flocks of Sheep, chifon, let all men of judgment weigh with and great Droves and Herds of their own, 1380. leagues, or of miles 4140. And therefore if Nimrod took divers years to find shimaar, which was but 2160. miles: or (fuppoling that the Ark rested in Armenia) little above 400. miles: there is no cause to the contrary, but to allow as many years to Gostood of most part of the world else, it is unmight come by Sea, and so save this great travel through Defarts by Land. But we never read of any Navigation in those days, nor long after. Surely, he that knoweth what it is to imbarque so great a People, as we may them, will not eafily believe that there were any Vessels in those days to transport Armies, and (withall) their Cattel, by whose milk they lived, and fed their children: For milk and fruit were the banquetting dishes of our Fore-Fathers. And in the eldest times, even the Kings and Fathers of Nations va-

themselves how impossible it was for a Na- and their own Shepherds and Herdsmen. tion or Family of men, with their Wives, and Now, if Tubal had past by Sea from any part Children, and Cattel, to travel 3000. miles of Palastina, Syria, or silicia, he might have through Woods, Bogs, and Defarts, without made good choice within the Streights, and any Guide or Conductor; and we shall find not have overgone Granado, Valentia, and it rather a work of 100. years than of 100. other Provinces in that Tract; past the days. For in the West Indies, of which the streights of Gibralter; disdained all Andaluspaniards have the experience, in those lia and Portngal, with all those goodly Ports places where they found neither path nor and Countreys; and have fought out the guide, they have not entred the Countrey Iron, Woody, and barren Countrey of the ten miles in ten years. And if Nimrods people | World (called Biscay) by a long and danfrent many years by the account before re- gerous Navigation. But before the journey membred in passing from the East India, or of the Argonauta, there were scarce any Vesthe higher part thereof, which standeth in sels that durst cross the Seasin that part of 115, degrees of Longitude, untill they came the World: and yet that which Jason had into Shinaar, which lieth in 79. degrees (the | (if the tale be true) was but a Galley, and a distance between those places containing 36. poor one (God knows) and perchance, such degrees, which makes 720. leagues, which is as they use this day in Ireland: which al-2160 miles) and did all the way keep the though it carried but four and fifty paffen-Mountains and hard ground; then the dif- | gers, yet it was far greater than any of the ference between Babylon and Bifcay is much former times: Eratenim antea parvarum na-Diod. simore: for the body of Bifcay lyeth in ten de- vicularum usus: For in former times they used cal. 1.4 c. grees, and Babylon, or Shinaar, (as aforesaid) very small vessels. I deny not but that the 4. solis. in 79. fo the length of way from Shinaar to Tyrians gave themselves of old to far-off Na-Austuria, or Biscar, is 69. degrees, which make vigations, whence Tibullus ascribed the invention of Ships to them:

> Prima ratem ventis credere docta Tyros. Tyrus knew first how Ships might use leg. 7. the Wind.

And for those Boats called Longa naves, mer and Tubal to travel 3000. miles, to Coun- or Gallies, Pliny faith, that Agefas ascribeth piod. Sigries less known unto them by far, than the the device to Paralus: and Philostephanus, to est. t. t. Land of Shinaar was to Nimrod. For Para- Jason: Ctesias, to Samyras; and Saphanus, to Plin. 1.7. dise was known to Noah before the Floud : Semiramis: Archimachus, to Ageon: to which and so was the Region of Eden by Moses af- invention the Erythrai are said to have adterward remembred; but what he under- ded certain numbers of Oars: and then Ami-Thorid. nocles the Corinthian to have increased them: known. And therefore did Annius ill advise the Carthaginians afterwards to have himself to plant Gomer in Italy, and Tubal in brought them to four Banks: the Quinque Spain, in the tenth and twelfth of Nimrods Remi first to have been used by Nesichthon Reign: shall the Earth be brought forth in one the Salaminian, with which Veffels, in those day, or shall a Nation be born at once? But it parts of the World, the Romans served may be objected, that the Sons of Japheth themselves in the Punick War. But these be, perhaps, but the partialities of Writers, or their ignorance. For there are that as constantly cast the devising of these Gallies on Sesostris, though Semiramis used them in the justly suppose those Conductors carried with them. So it is said, that Danaus was the first spide de Enfet de Propies de Conductors carried with passage of her Army over Indus in Abrahams Plin. 1.7. brought a Ship into Greece; and yet the Sa-prap. Emothracians challenge the invention: and vang. c. i. yet Tertullian (on the contrary) gives it to Minerva: others, to Neptune; Thucydides, to Ten. de C the Corinthians. And so ignorant were the people of those Ages, as the Egyptians used hed themselves by the Herds and numbers devised by King Erithrus: and in the time of to coast the shores of the Red-Sea upon raffs; fmall twigs, and covered over with leather: hope I may be excused, if I differ altogether of which kind I have feen at the Dingle in from them in many particulars. Certainly, of which and elfe-where. Naves ex corro eirthat great Learned man of this latter Age, cumsula in Oceano Britannico (laith Textor:) Arias Montanus, was also in some things of which Lucan the Poet:

Primum cana salix, madefacta vimine parvam Texitur in puppim, casoque induta juvenco, Vectoris patiens tumidum supernatat amnem. Sic Venetus stagnante Pado, fusoque Britannus Navigat Oceano.

The moistned Ofyer of the hoary Willow Is woven first into a little Boat: (billow Then cloath'd in Bullocks hide, upon the Of a proud River, lightly doth it float Under the Waterman: So on the Lakes of over-fwelling Poe Sails the Venetian: and the Britain fo On th'out-spread Ocean.

And although it cannot be denied, when Noah, by Gods inspiration, was instructed in fo many particulars concerning the ark, that Prophet Ezechiel chiefly, who in the 38. and then many things concerning Navigation were first revealed; yet it appears that there was much difference between the Ark of together with the Magogians : of which Gog Noah, and fuch Ships as were for any long Navigation. Yea, ancient Stories shew, that it was long after these times, ere any durst preand Cattel; as also common reason can tell us, that even now, when this Art is come to her perfection, fuch Voyages are very trouble-Ship, or use of Ships, fit for any long navigatiof Navigation would not have been dead livery from Captivity. for fo many hundred years after. Leaving therefore the fabulous to their Fables, and and Necessity: and to the rest, neither probability, nor possibility.

s. IV.

of Gog and Magog, Tubal, and Meshech, seated first about Asia the Less; out of Ezechiel, Chap. 38. 39.

Ow, although many learned and reverend men have formed (I know not the Magogiams, or Culosyrians, next border-the Romans, the Britans had a kind of Boat whereby led) a Plantation of the World, (with which they croft the Seas) made of which also hath been and is received; yet I much miftaken: and for Josephus, as he hath many good things, and is a Guide to many errours withall; so was he in the Plantation of the World very gross and fabulous; whereby both Ensebins, Hierosolymitanus, Epiphanius, and others, that have taken his testimonies for currant, have been by him far miss-led. But the better to conceive what Regions of the World Gomer the Son of 7apheth possest, as also Tubal, it is needfull to begin with Magog: because the Scriptures take most knowledge of Gog and Magog: which two names have troubled many Commentators, faith Matth. Beroaldus, who hath laboured herein with great diligence, and whom (of all that ever I read) I find most judicious in the examination of this Plantation. He takes authority from the 39. Chapters directeth us, what Nations the Gomerians, Tubalines, and Togormians were, was Prince, or chief Conductor, in their Attempts against Ifrael. For besides the portions of Europe, and the North-east parts of fume upon any long voyages to Sea, at least the greater Asia, which Japheths Issues pof with multitudes of Women, and Children, fest, all Asia the Less was peopled by them. And that those of the Issue of Japheth (whom Ezechiel speaks of) were feated hereabout, it may best appear, if we consider some and dangerous. So as it doth appear, the circumstances of the place, and the dethat there was not in that Age of Nimrod any pendency upon the former Prophecie in the 37. Chapter. For in that 37. Chapter Exe days on. For if Gomer and Tubal had passed them- chiel prophesieth of the uniting of the two was selves and their people by Sea; the exercise Kingdoms of Israel and Juda, after their de-

By which Prophecie of Ezechiel, it appeareth, that God purposed to gather together all men else to their fancies, who have cast his people, to give life to dead bones, and to Nations into Countreys far off, I know not rule them by one Prince. For to that purhow, I will follow herein the Relation of pose it is written; And David my Servant Moses and the Prophets: to which Truth Shall be King over them, and they shall have one there is joyned both Nature, Reason, Policie, Sheepherd, (that is) they shall be united as they were in Davids time. Hereupon in the 38. Chapter, Exechiel prophesieth against those Nations, which should seek to impeach this Union, and disturb the people of Israel, whom God purposed to receive to grace, and promifed to reftore. And so in the same Chapter are those Nations coupled together, which infested the Ifraelites after their return, and fought to subject them : all which were the Subjects or Allies of Gog, Prince of

Magog not for any one person, but for a Na- the Jews. tion: with which agreeth this observation of Now, that Magog is found in Coloffia, ing Palastina, or the holy Land, followed the Turks from the Scythians, esteemed Maalso by the rest of the Nations of Asia the gogians of Gog. Many take Gog for the proper less, which lay North from Judea. The name of a Man: others, of a Region: others, words of Exechiel are these: Son of man, set for a Nation inhabiting a Region, as Junius, the face against Gog, and against the Land of who sayes that Gog is the name of a Nation. Magog, the chief Princes of Methech (or Mo- denominated from him whom the Greeks foch) and Tubal: and afterward; Behold, I Stories call Gyges: who informer time havcome against the chief Prince of Methech and ing slain Candanles the Lydian, gave his own Tubal: and in the lixth Verse; Gomer and name to that Nation, thence after called Thoat: and in the that the House of Togorma of Gygades: and thereof also the Gygean Lake; the North quarters. Herein Ezechiel having which Lake Strabo also findeth in Lydia (of 13. first delivered the purpose of his Prophecie, which Gyges was King) fortie Furlongs from teacheth what Nations they were that should Sardis. Plinie calleth it Gygeum fragnum, in vanity affayl Israel. He joyneth them Herodotus and Nicander set it about the Ritogether under their Prince Gog, and shew- vers of Hillus, and Manander; but the difeth that their habitations were on the North ference is not great. Marius Niger maketh quarters of Juda, and how seated and joyn-mention of this Gyges King of Lydia: who, ed together. Gog fignifieth in the Hebrem after he had subdued the Country about the (faith Saint Hierom) tellum or covering of a River Rhodins which runneth into the Helleboule: and Pintus upon Ezechiel affirmeth, font, called the Promontory Trapele after his that by Gog is meant Antichrift: for (faith own name Gyges. These Opinions do also he) Antichristus crit Diaboli tegumentum sub seem to strengthen that of Junius. For Suid cel. specie humana: That Antichrist shall be the Magog, saith he, is that part of Asia the less, covering of the Devil under humane form. which Halyattes obtained, and after him his He addeth, that Magog is as much to fay as Son Crafus; who (as Junius further notes) Cog: the Letter (M) being an Hebrew Pre- having mastered all those Regions as farr polition, and importeth as much as of, or, South as Libanus, in that Border built the Cifrom: to he taketh Magog for those people ty Gigarta, or Gogkarta (which in the Syrian which follow Antichrift. So far Fintus; at fignificth the City of Gog) feated in Caloffria, least in this not amiss, that he expoundeth whose People were the ancient Enemies of Beroaldus, Magog (faith he) in Hebrew is writ - Pliny affirmeth laying ; Colofyria habet Bamten Ham-Magog, which sheweth Magog to be byeen, que alio nomine Hierapolis vocatur: a Region or Nation: for the Letter (He) Spris verb, Magog; Coclosyria hathinit Bamwhich is used but for an Emphasis (which the byce, which in another name is called Hiero-Hebrews call Heliajedia) is never added to polis; but of the Syrians, Magog. He further proper names of men, but often to place. telleth us, that the monstrous Idol Aiergatis, So as Gog was Prince of that Nation (called called by the Greeks Derceto, was here woreither Magos, or, according to others, the people of Gog) also Prince of Messech (or ing, That the City had anciently another Mo(och) and of Tubal: as by the first Verse name, which he yet expresset not; forbearof the 29. Chapter is made manifest: Behold, I ing, perhaps, the word Magog, as sounding nocome against thee Gog the chief Prince of Me- thing elegantly in the Greek. But if we may shech and Tubal. This must needs be meant believe strabe, then was Edessa in Mesopota-Stables. by the Successors of selencus Nicanor, who mia, the same Bambyce or Hierapolis, where did not (as other conquering Nations) feek the same Idol was worshipped. Ortelius is to make the Jens their Tributaries only, but doubtfull whether one of these Authors did indeavoured by all means, and by all kind not mistake the place of this Bambyce, or Hieof violence, to extinguish the Religion it rapolis. It may well enough be, that the same felf (which the Hebrens profess'd) and the name and Religion was common to them acknowledging of one true God: and to both. Certain it is that both of them lay due force them to worship and serve the mortal North from Palastina, and were both subject and rotten gods of the Heathen 5 of which unto the Kings of the Race of selencus. Now, nothing remained but the very name, and I do not condemn the Opinion of Hermolaus dead Images. S. ambrofe and Islatore take Gog Barbarus following Josephus, but grant that; for the Nation of the Goths: belike, because perhaps, Magog might also be the Father of they invaded Europe, and facked Rome, and the Scythians; notwithstanding that in this many other places and cities thereabout. place, where Gog is made Prince of Magog, Hormolaus Barbarus out of Pomp. Mela derives the Nations of Calofria, and the North parts be propagated into scythia. Yet it is not to passed into Spain to search out the mines of that be denied, that the seythians in old times Region: having belike understood that it coming out of the North-east, wasted the was a Southerly Country, and Mountainous better part of Asia the less, and possess calo-Syria, where they built both scythopolis and Hierapolis, which the Syrians cail Magog. And that to this Magog Exechiel had reference, it is very plain: for this City Hierapolis or Magog frandeth due North from Judaa, according to the words of Exechiel, that from the North-quarters those Nations should come. For as the Kings of the South which infefted the Ifraclites were the Ptolemies, Kings of Egypt: fo those of the North were the Kings of Asia and Syria, the Successors of Selencus, the Successors of Alexander Macedon. Gulielmus Tyrius thinks that this Hierapolis is that Lib. A.cap. Rages, mentioned in the Story of Tobias. Pliny takes it not onely to have been called Bambyce, as we have faid, but also Edesja: not that by Euphrates; but another of the same name: now, the known name is Aleppo: for fo Bellonius expounds this Hierapolis, or Magog. This City had the Title of sacred, as the sacred re-people it anew. This appeared by the City, (for so the word Hierapolis fignifieth) Carthaginians of old, who were callly drawn yet was it a place of most detested Idolatry, to passover the Streights into that Countrey: and wherein was worshipped the Idol of the and after by the Moors who held Granado, Mermaid Atergates, or Atergitis, according and the South parts, eight hundred years, till to Pliny, which the Greeks call Derceto.

the third Verse of the thirty eight Chapter, not the Gomerians of France, nor the Tubalines of spain, but a people of the leffer Asia, and cologria: and therefore that the opinicted. But if Josephus refer himself to latter times, and think that fome Colonie of the Tubalines might from Iberia and Asia pass into spain (to wit) from that piece of Land between Colchis (or Mengrelia) and Albania, (most part possessed by the Georgians) then is his judgment of better allowance. For without any repugnancy of opinions, it may be granted, that in process of time these people might from their first habitation, pass into the Countries neer the Euxine Sea, and from thence in after-Ages into Spain.

adjoyning be meant by Magog: for by a lat- ing, that they were antiently called Thobelos, ter Plantation from these parts they might as of Tubal; from whence (faith Justine) they lybes, lived altogether by the exchange of Iron, and other Metals, as Apollonius witneffeth in these following Verses, telling how the Argonautes did visit them:

Hac gens tellurem rigido non vertit aratro, Sed ferri venas scindit sub montibus altis: Mercibus hec mutat, que vite alimenta mi-

The Calybes plough not their barren foil, But undermine high Hills for Iron Veins: Changing the purchase of their endless

For Merchandize, which their poor lives fustains.

But it is more probable, that Spain was first peopled by the Africans, who had ever fince an affection to return thither, and to the time of Ferdinand and Isabel. And either If then we confer the words of Ezechiel in of these opinions are more probable, than that in the twelfth year of Nimrods Reign, wherein he joyneth together Gog, Mespech Tubal past into Spain, and therein built Saint and Tubal; and withal remember that Hie- Qval: a poor Town, and a poor device, God rapolis was the City of Magog, which also is feated directly North from Judea: with shoch or Meshech, and Tubal Neighbours, and whom also Ezechiel coupleth Gomer, and all Gomer and logarma not farr off, or else we his bands of the North quarters; we may shall wrong Execbiel: for he called Gog the (as I conceive) fafely conclude, that thefe Leader or Prince of Meshech and Tubal, and Followers and Vastals of Gog (which were Northern Nations in respect of Judea) were And that Messech inhabited Asia, Funding (though he followed Berofus) confesseth, for these be his words: Mesacus, qui à Mose Mesech, priscos Mesios ab Adula monte usque ons of Berosus, Josephus, and whosoever esse ad Ponticam regionem posuit: hee regio position hath followed them therein, are to be rejeCappadocia dicta est, in quantus Mazica, oc. bæc est terra Magog principalis; Mesacus, whom Moses calleth Mesech, placed the ancient Mesians from the Mount Adulas, unto the Coasts of Pontus. This Region was afterward called Cappadocia, in which is the Town Mazica, &c. this is the principal Countrey of Magog. And this doth Annius also avow, and yet forgets that Gog was Prince both of Mefech and Tubal: and therefore that the one was a Nation of Spaniards, the other of Cappadecians, is very ridiculous; spain lying directly West, and not North from Judea. Al-Josephus makes mention of the Iberi, fay- fo Exechiel in the 27. Chapter, where he prophecieth phecieth of the destruction of Tyre, nameth | drawn at length into Asia the less, and occushall ride upon Horses, even a great multitude, and a mighty. Then, if any man believe that these troups came out of Spain over the Pyrenes, and first passed over a part of France, all Pontus, and Euxinus, to come into the lesier Asia, which is half the length or compass of the then known World; he may be called a ftrong Believer, but he shall never be justified thereby. But on the contrary, it is known that Seleucis was a Province neighbouring Palastina or Judaa, and that Hierapolis (or Magog) joyned unto it : whose Princes commanded all Syria, and Asia the less, (namely; the Seleucida) and held it, til Scipio Alaticus overthrew Antiochus the Great: after which yet they possess syria, till the time of Tigranes: and whether Melbech be in Cappadocia, or under Iberia, yet is it of the Tubalines, and one and the same Dominion.

Of Gomer the like may be faid. First, he feated himself with Togarma, not farr from Magog and Tubal, in the borders of Syria and Cilicia. Afterward he proceeded further into Asia the less; and in long tract of time his valiant Islue filled all Germany, rested long in France and Brittany, and polleffed the utmost borders of the Earth, accomplishing (as their Parents name, which is Otmost bordering. But when these borderers wanted fur-

Melech and Tubal jointly. And for a final pied those parts, which had formerly been proof, that these Nations were of a Northern held by their Progenitours. I say not that Neighbour Land (how far soever stretched) they claimed those Lands as theirs by De-Executed in the 38. Chapter makes them all scent; for likely it is, that they knew little Horsmen. Thou, and much people with thee all of their own Pedigree. Neither can any man therefore deny, that they were of old feated in Alia, because in late Ages they returned thither; unless he will think, that all those Nations which from far parts have Italy, Hungary, and Sarmatia, and imbarqued invaded and conquered the Land of Shiagain about the Hellespont, or else compassed naur, may by that Argument be proved not to have illued from thence at the first.

Now, concerning Samothes, for his excellent wisdom, sirnamed Dir, whom Annius makes the Brother of Gomer and Tubal (which Brother, Mofes never heard of, who spake his knowledge of fapheths Sons) they must find him in some old Poet: For Functius, a great Berosian, confesieth: Quis hic Sa- In Chren. mothes fuerit incertum eft; Who this Samothes was, it is uncertain; neither is there any color. proof that he was that fame Dis, whom Cafar Comment. faith the Gaules suppose to be their Ancestor; Figui part. yea, and Vignier confesseth with Functius: Mays on ne scayt qui il estoit; No man knows who he was.

§. V.

Against the fabulous Berosus his Fiction, That the Italian Janus was Noah.

Dut before I go on with Noah his Sons. I Dthink it is necessary to disprove the Ficti-Melantihon well notes) the fignification of on which Annius hath of Noah himself; an invention (indeed) very ridiculous, though warranted (as he hath wrested) by those ther place, wherein they might exonerate Authors of whom himself hath Commented : their swelling multitudes that were bounded as the Fragment of Berosus, Fabius, Pictor, in by the great Ocean, then did they return Cato, Lavinius and others. For Annius fecks upon the Nations occupying the Countreys, to perswaded us, that Noah surrough which they had formerly passed, was the same which founded Genna, with Vill. de sursons of the surrough which they had formerly passed in the surrough which they had some surrough with Vill. de sursons of the surrough which they had surrough with the surroug oppressing first their Neighbours, afterwards other Cities in Italy, wherein he lived 92. Can de the people more remote. Hereupon it was years, This to difprove, by Mofes filence, is a origen. (as the worthy Restorer of our Antiquities, sufficient argument to me, if there were no-last defined to M. William Cambden hath noted) that they thing else to disprove it. For, if he vouch-Gall. were called Cimbri, which in their old Lan- fafed to remember the building of Babel, guage doth fignifie Robbers; necessity in | Erec, Achad, Chalne and Nineve, by Nimrod, forcing them to spoil their Neighbours, to Noah was a man of too great mark to be forwhom in their original, they were as near gotten, with all the acts he did in 92. years, joyned, as afterwards in the feats which they But it were a needless labour for me to difpossessed. For that the Warlike Nations of prove the authority of that Berosus, on whom Germany were in elder Ages accustomed to Annins groundeth, seeing so many learned be beaten by the Gaules, the authority of Ce- men have fo demonstratively proved that far affirming it, is proof fufficient. But in Fragment to be counterfeit. Befides that times following, they pursued richer Conquefts, and more easie, though further difant, by which (to omit their other enterprises not here to be spoken of) they were cated to Antiochus the Succession of Selencus (1).

whereas Berofus handled onely the citate of the fall of Troy but 150, years (faith Eufebius) filled this Fragment with the business of all King: which also Saint Augustine and Justine the World. And if we may believe Eusebius better than Annius, then all the Kings of the Latines (before Aneas) consumed but 150. years: whereas no man hath doubted, but felves add thus much: That whereas some that from Noah to Aneas arrival into Italy, there past 1126. (after the least rate of the wife of this Janus, who instituted the holy Hebrew account) and (after Codoman) 1291. For fanus (who was the first of their Kings) lived at once with Ruth, who married Book Idolatrous and Heathenish Ceremonics) in the Worlds year (as some reckon) 2717. after the Floud 1064. and Noah died 350. years after the Floud : and so there past between Janus of Italy, and Noah furnamed Jamis 704 years. For Saturmis succeeded famus, Picus after Saturnus, Fannus after Picus, and Latinus followed Fannus: which Latinus lived at once with Tantanes the 27. King of Affria; with Pelagus of Peloponnesus; with contrary to that which he knew best pleasing Demophoon of Athens; and sampfon Judge of to God himfelf. Israel. Now, all these five Kings of the Latines having confumed but one hundred and fifty years, and the last of them in the time of Sampson: then reckoning upwards for one hundred and fifty years, and it reacheth Ruth, with whom Janns lived.

True it is, that the Greeks had their Janus 5

110

but this was not Noah: fo had they Ion the Son of Xuthus, the Son of Deucalion, from whom they draw the Iones, who were indeed the children of Javan, the fourth Son of Jaand to the pheth. For the vulgar Translation (where the therein I observe, that as both reason and 19. (tor us above 2000. years, and the English Speech blance of the Hebrew, Syrian, or Scythian, Nicanor: but Annius hath devised five Books, with the Grecian Janus which commanded wherewith he honoureth Berofus. And them, and planted them, and who preceded and possibility. And if this be not sufficient to disprove this vanity, I may out of them-Fire of the Vestal Virgins in Rome (the Latines and Romans taking from Janus all their Noah himself (who is faid by Moses to have malked with God, to be a just man, and whom God of all mankind made choice of) could be either ignorant of the true and only God, or so wicked and ungrateful, to set up or devise any Heathen, Salvage, or Idolatrous adoration, or have instituted any Ceremony,

That Gomer also and his Son Togorma of the Posterity of Japheth, were first seated about Asia the Lest: and that from thence they fired Westward into Europe, and Northward into Sarmatia.

O turn now to the Sons of Noah, and theWorldsPlantation after the Floud: Hebrew word is Javan) writes Greece, and the necessity taught them; so, when they mul-Septuagint, Hellas; which is the same. So had tiplied in great numbers, and dispersed themthey Medus the Son of Medea, whom they selves into the next Countreys bordering to make the Parent of the Medes, though they their first habitations, and from thence sent the phiral were descended of a farr more ancient Fa- forth Colonies elsewhere, it was in such manther (to wit) Madai the third Son of Japheth, ner, as that they might repair to each other, Lailly, we see by a true experience, that and keep intelligence by River: because the British Language hath remained among the Land was yet Defart, and overpress with Woods, Reeds, Boggs, and rotten Maever fince the invation of the Angles, and the rifhes. As when Nimrod feated in Babylonia, fame continuance have all Nations observed | Chush took the South part of Chaldea down among themselves, though with some cor- the River of Gehon, by which he might pass ruption and alteration. Therefore it is to and fro from Babylon to his own Plantatistrange, if either Noah (by them called Janus) on: those also, which were of the Race of had left in Italy his Grand-child Gomer after | Shem, inhabiting at Ur, or Orchoa, near the him, or Tubal in Spain, that no plain resem- Lakes of Chaldea, might by the same River get up to Babylon, and receive succour from (which no time could have quite extinguish- thence. All which Tract of Land upon Gelon ed) should have been found in the Langua- Southward, Moses, in the description of Pages of those Countreys. For which reasons radife, calleth the Land of chush because the we doubt not but these personal Planta- Dominion and Empire was then in the hands tions of Janus, Gomer, Tubal, &c. In Italy, of Nimrod a Chushite, by whom the children spain, or France, are meerly fabulous. Let of shem (which came into that Valley and the Italians, therefore content themselves stayed not in the East) were for a while op prest, till God afterward by the seed of I Abraham made them his own Nation and victorious. Havilah, the brother of Nimrod. and fon of Chush, took both Banks of Tygris. especially on the East side of the River: by and fro to Babel.

The Imperial seat of which Region of Haor Chusan, afterward Susa. Chush himself took the Banks of Gehon, and planted those Countries West-ward, and Southwest-ward to-Pul Alie wards Arabia the Stony, and the Defart, first Chusia.

> themselves Northward, and Westward, into to reason, that both Gomer, Magog, and Tubal,

The children of Tubal ranged as far as Iberia, to whom the Moschici were Neighbours, which others write Meshech. The Prophet Exechiel (coupling them together) calleth Gog the Prince of Meschech and Tubal. For which River his people might also pass to these Meschi (which Ptolemy calleth Moschi) inhabit Syracena a Province of Armenia, directly South from the Mountains Moschiei, in vilab or Susian, was antiently called chussan the Valley between the Mountains Moschier, and the Mountains Pariardes: out of whose North part springeth the River Phasis; from the East part Araxis; and from the West Euphrates: and of this Meschech are descenwhere Ptolemy placeth the City of chnsidia, ded also the Moscovians (faith Melanthon); and it may be, that in process of time some seba, and sheba, with the rest that planted of them inhabited those Regions also: For Arabia felix, had Tygris, to convey them Melbech (faith Melantthon) fignifieth exteninto the Persian gulf, which washeth the dens, enlarging or stretching forth. Togorma banks of Arabia fælix on the East side: so also at first did inhabit amongst his Parents as those sons of Cush might take Land down and Kindred: The Togormians were also the River as they pleased. Also the City of called Giblei, a people neighbouring the 81-Ninive was by Nimrod founded on the faid donians in Gabala, a Tetrarchy of Phanicia, River of Tygris, and from thence a Colonie the fame which Pliny calleth Gaben: from pass'd to Charran, standing also upon a navi- whence Solomon had his most excellent Magable branch of Euphrates. In like manner fons, which hewed stones for the Temple of 1 King 53 did Japheths sons settle themselves together, Jerusalem. Thence the Togormians stretch-18. and took their feats in Afia the less: from ed into the less Armenia, whose Kings were Jan.in whence they might indifferently stretch hence called Tigranes, and their Cities Tigra- Gen. 10. nokarta: of which Cities Tigranes, subdued verse 3. the next parts of Europe, called the Isles of by Lucullus the Roman, built one. Hierosothe Gentiles. And it seemeth very agreeable | lymitanus hath planted the Togormians in Barbary; forgetting the prophecy of Ezechiel fate down first of all in that part of Syria, against the Tyrians: They of the house of To- Judg. 171 to the North of Palestina and Phanicia: and gorma, brought to thy Faires, Horses, and horse-14 from thence Gomer, or his children, pass'd on men, and Mules; which could not well be into Asia the less, as those of Magog and Tu- driven over the whole length of the Medibal did; from whence the Tubalines spred terran Sea, but from the neighbour Countries themselves into Iberia: and the Magogians by land. But Josephus takes them for the more Northerly into Sarmatian. The first parents of the Phrygians; which I do not de-Gomerians, and first Planters in Asia the less, ny, but they might be, in the ensuing ages: held the Country of the Cymmerians (wit- and so might the Tubalines be of the Spaniness Herodotus) the same Region which was ards; but it was from Iberia, and many hunafterward by the Gallo-Greeks called Gala- dred years after the twelfth of Nimrod's tia, to whom Saint Paul wrote his Epistle so reign. The Jews conceive that the Turks intituled. This Nation of the Cymmerians came of those Togormians, because their Em-(whom the invincible Scythians afterwards peror is called Togor. The Chaldeans make dispersed, and forced from their first Plan- them the Fathers of the Germanes. But Latations) gave names to divers places, as to onicus affirms, that the Turks descended of the Mountains about Albania (called Cym- the Crim Tartar, which borders Muscovia, merini) and to the City of Cymmeris in Phry- But for these subderivations it were infinit to gia: also Bosphorus Cymmerius took appella- examine them. Only of the first and second tion from this Nation, in the out-let whereof was also a City of that name, called Cymmerian: which Pliny faith (militaking the ver; and therein to open the ignorance of place) had sometime the name of Cerberion; some, and the corruption of other fabulous but Cerberion was a Town in Campania, for Writers. And this we must Note, that those called of the unhealthful waters favouring grand-children of Noah which were of a of Brimftone, which Angufus caused to be more quiet, or (perchance) of less undercleanfed by letting in the water of the Lake standing, and had not therefore the leading of Colonies fent out, their proper habitations minion over the rest.

From Madai the third fon of Japheth, were the Medes. The Grecians bring them (as before) from Medus the fon of Medea.

6. VII.

Of Javan the fourth son of Japheth: and of Mesech of Aram, and Meshech of Japheth.

ed the Greek: and so the Latine and Greek much he had learned from themselves: Interpreters for Javan write Greece, as in which was also the opinion of Panfanias. Efay: Et mittam ex iis qui salouti suerint ad True it is, that the Greeks in after-times cast gentes, in mare, in Haliam, & Graciam: themselves into that part of Asia the Less, op-And I will fend those that escape of them to Na posite unto them, which they held for divers tions in the Sea, in Italy and in Greece. The years. And howfoever the Greeks vaunt Geneva here useth the word (Tarshift) for Tar-themselves to be Fathers of Nations, and the fus, a City in Cilicia, though Tarfis in many most antient; yet all approved Historians places be taken for the Sea. The Tigurine (not their own) deride and disprove their and the Geneva use the names Tubal and Ja- pride and vanity therein. For this dispute van, and not Haly and Greece: keeping the of Antiquity (among prophane Writers) fame Hebrew words. Of the Iones were the rested between the Seythians and the Egypi-Athenians, though themselves dream that ans, as Justine out of Trogus, in the Warbethey were Aborigines, or men without Antween Vexorus of Egypt, and I anais of Scylbia, ceftors, and growing (as it were) out of the witneffeth: which preceded far the reign foile it self: who abounding in people, sent of Ninus, and was long before the name of Colonies into Asia the leis, of whom came Greece was ever heard of. And it is also mathe Iones of those parts. Others derive the nifest, that in Cecrops time the Greeks were Athenians from Ion the son of Xuthus, the son all Salvages, without Law or Religion, liof Dencalion; but the antiquity of Javan ving like brute Beafts in all respects: and marrs the fashion of that supposition, who so | Cecrops (saith Saint Angustine) lived together [4,4] many years preceded Kuthus, Ion or Deucali- with Moses. on. Pausanias tels us that Xuthus stole out of Thessaly with all his Fathers treasure, and his Brothers portions, and arriving at Athens, he was graciously received by Eritheus, who the supposed Ancestors of the Athenians: nesus, ast Ionia; These Countries are not Pelonesus, and not Ionia.

Iones came out of Asia into Greece, which is dwell in the Tents of Kedar: which Junio contrary to the former opinion: That the converteth thus; Hei mihi quia peregrinor could be hardly known: only reason hath lones of Greece transporting certain compataught us, that they dwelt among the rest, nies into Asia the less, the name of Iones was and were covered with the fame of others, thereby therein retained. And though stra. who took on them the Conduction and Do- bo knew no more thereof than he learned of cture of Hecateus reasonable enough. For though it were to him unknown, yet fure I am that Asia the less had people before Greece had any: and that Javan did not flie from Babylonia into Greece, but took Asia the less in his passage; and from thence past over the necreft way, leaving his own name to some maritimate Province on that side, ashe did to that part of Greece fo called. But vet F Javan the fourth fon of Japheth came strabo himself believed, that Ionia took the name from Ion the son of Xuthus; for so Strabo himself believed, that Ionia took the

The fixth fon of Japheth was Meshech, whom the Septuagint call Mosech (a part of those Nations commanded by Gog the chief Prince of Melhech and Tubal.) But this we gave him his Daughter in marriage; of must remember, that between Mesch the son whom he received two fons, Ion and Acheus, of Aram, and Meshech (or Mosech) the son of Japheth, there is little difference in name, and (For Attica was called Ionia, faith Plutarch both by divers Interpreters diverfly written in the life of Thefew;) who, when he had Montanus, with the Vulgar, writeth Mefich, joyned Megara to Attica, erected a Pillar in the fon of Aram, Mes; the Geneva, Mali; that Isthmos or Strait, which fastneth Pelo- Junius, Mesch. But it may be gathered out ponnesus to the other part of Greece: wri- of the 120. Pfalm, that either Meshech the ting on that part which looketh towards fon of Japheth, was the parent of those peothe East, these words: Hac non funt Pelopon- ple, or gave the name to that Province wherein David hid himself: or else (which ponness, but of Ionia: and on the other side may rather seem) that it took name from which looketh towards the South, and into Mesch the son of Aram. For David beway! Peloponnesus, this: These parts are Pelopon- ing his exile (while he lived among a barbarous and irreligious People) wieth thele Strabo out of Hecatans affirmeth that the words: Wois me that I remain in Mesch, and took name from Meshech or Mesch both bor- witness antiquity. dering Judga, and like enough to be comtime of his perfecution: the same being a City on the Mountains of Sanir or Galaad. And yet Arias Montanus makes Mosoch the Father of the Muscovians: and herein also Melanchton runs with the tide of common opinion, and fets Melech in Mulcovia, though with some better advice of judgment; as. first seated in Cappadocia, and from thence travailing Northward: expounding the places of the 120. Pfalm, (Hei mihi quod exulo in Mesech) to signifie, Gentis ejus feritatem insignem esse; That the ferity of that Nation exceeded: which fierceness or brutality of the Muscovians, David never proved, or (perchance) never heard of. But the same ferity or cruelty which those Northern Muscovians had, may aswell be ascribed to the Arabians and Kedarens. For this Country took name of Kedar the second son of Ismael, of whom a people of equal fierceness to any of the world were begotten, both in those times and long after, even to this day (if the Arabians, Ismaelites, and Saracens, may be accounted one people:) the same being foreshewed by the speech of the Angel to Hagar, tam diu: habito tanquam Scenite Kedareni : hand against him. Now Arabia the Desart The Septuagint gives it this sence: Wo is me (saith Pliny) confronteth the Arabians Cochlei Pal, 120. because my habitation (or abode) is prolonged, on the East, and the Cedrai Southward, both who dwell with the Inhabitants of Kedar: which joyn together upon the Nabathai, So with which this of the Latine agreeth; Here it appeareth (as before) that Mesech, Tubal, mihi, quia incolatus meus prolongatus est, ha- Gomer, Togorma, and Magog, neighboured bitavi cum habitantibus Kedar: The Chalde- Canaan and Ifrael, and that Kedar also did an otherwise, and in these words: O memi- joyn to Mesech: all which were Regions of ferum, quia peregrinatus sum Asianis, habitavi Syria, or of Asia the Less, commanded by the cum taburnaculis Arabum; O wretch, that I successors of Selcuens, enemies of the re-estaam, for I have travailed among those of Asia: blishment of Israel and Juda. But (as I have Thave dwelt in the Tabernacles of the Arabi- already faid) it might well be, that long after ans. But howfoever or which foever con- the first Plantation the issue of Mesch (or version be taken for the best, yet all make Mosoch) might pass into Cappadocia, and mention of Kedar: which is a Province of thence into Hyrcania, and give names both Arabia Petraa; and the Chaldean putteth to Mazega in the one, and to the Mountains Alia in ftead of Mefech, but the Hebrew it felf Moschiei in the other, and from thence might hath Mesech. And if it be to be taken for a send people more Northerly into Muservia. Nation, (as it is most likely, because it an- and so all opinions saved. But all salvage Nafivers to Kedar, the name of a Nation) feeing tions over-grown and uncultivated, do (for Melch the fon of Aram, I Chron. 17. is called the most part) shew a late Plantation, even Messech, it is indifferent whether this Nation as civility, letters, and magnificent building.

JIZ

Tyras, the feventh fon of Japheth, which Mont. in manded by one Prince; for fo Ezechiel makes Montains reckons among the fons of Gomer; chr. Mesech and Tubal. But as for those that take was the Father of the Thracians, as all Au-Melech out of the word Mosock (given by the thors (worthy the examination) affirm. Toleseptuagint) to be the Muscovian: fure they phus was the first that determined hereof: presume much upon the affinity of names, as and because the Scriptures are altogether aforesaid. Sure I am that David never tra- silent, what part of the World Tyras peopled. velled fo far North (for to him Muscovin the conjectures are indifferent, and give no was utterly unknown) but about the border ground at all of dispute. It followeth now of Kedar (it may be) he was often in all the to speak of the Sons of Gomer, which were Ascanez, Riphath, and Togorma.

S. VIII.

of Ascanez and Riphath, the two elder sons of

A Scanez was the Father of those which the Greeks call Regini, (saith Josephus) but he gives no reason why. Eusebius makes Ascanez the Father of the Goths. The Jews in their Thargam make him the root of the Germane Nation; but their expositions are commonly very idle. Pliny findeth Ascania in Phrygia, neer the Rivers of Hilas and Cios Melanchton being of the fame opinion, that the Tuiscones were descen- Melanch in ded of the Afcanez : (for Tuiscones, faith he, car. lib. 1. is as much to fay, as of the Afcanez, prapofito articulo die Ascanes) and that the word fignifieth, a Religious Keeper of fire : it being anantient superstition to pray at the fire of Sacrifices, as afterwards at the Tombs of Martyrs. Not far from Phrygia was the Lake Gen.16; v.12: And he shall be a wilde man: his Ascania, known by that name in the Romans hand soall be against every man, and every mans time. And among the Kings which came to lis, faith Homer) like unto God: because he was beautifull and strong: for in the same manner doth Virgil grace Aneas, Os humeroque Deo similis; In face and body like one of therefore Mesopotamia being in elder times the gods: Virgil also remembreth such a Ri- but a Province of Syria, the Scriptures dif-Virg. Geor. ver, together with the Hills Gargara: as, Illas ducit amor trans Gargara, transque sonantem call it Aram-Padan. Then if these two Nati-Ascanium; Appetite leads them both over the ons were of the Armenians, and Ascanez mountains Gargara, and the rouring Ascanius. But this Pling maketh more plain in the description of Phrygia. For he placeth the City of Brillion upon the River Ascanius, which is Olympus, which lyeth farr within the Countries of Bithynia: and then from Prusia to Nicea are accounted 25. miles, in which way this Lake lieth, even between Prusia and Nicea. And so Junius (as I conceive him) takes them of Ascanez, to be the Inhabitants of Pontus and Bithynia, and those North parts | firm it either by Scriptures or Reason, I will of Asia. Stephanus de Urbibus makes it a City of Troas, built by Ascanius the Son of Æneas: faying, that there was another of that name in Mysia. Of Ascania a Lake of Bithynia, Ptolemy witnesseth: and Strabo giveth Ascania both a Lake, a River, and a Town in Mysia, near unto Cio; which also agreeth with Pliny. For Pliny findeth Prusia (before fpoken of) near cio, and calleth the Islands before Troy, Ascanes.

Ascanez the Son of Gomer, or of Ascanius the Son of Aneas, it might be questioned : sure it is, that Ascanius which brought succour to the Trojans, could not take his name from Eneas Son, who was then either exceeding young, or rather unborn: and it feemeth that the Countreys whence those succours therefore which deceive not, we may confidently determine. For of the Prophet Hieremy we shall learn of what Nation the Ascanez. were, whose words are these: Set up a Standard in the Land, blow the Trumpet among the Nations against her call up the Kings of Ararat, Minni, and Afcanez, against her, &c. meaning, against the Bobylonians. Ararat was Armenia the greater as most Interpreters consent, so called of the Mountains of Ararat which run Minni. For Minni was the ancient name filled all the Land between the Baltick and

Mom. Iliad, the fuccour of Troy, was Afcanius (Deo simi- (faith Junius and others before him:) and tained all that Tract from Enphrates to the Sea-coasts of Phanicia, and Palastina; and joyned with them (who altogether united under Cyrus and Darius, came to the spoil of the Babylonian Empire) we shall erre much to call Askenez Germany, or Almain: for we adjoyning to Myfia, and is near the border hear of no fwart Ruttiers at that fiege. But of the Trojan Empire: and the Lake Ascanez the Askenez were of those Nations which he directs us to find by the description of were either subject or allied to the Meder: Pruss, founded by Hannibal at the foot of of which if any of them came afterwarding to Phrygia, I know not: for the dispersion of Nations was in after-times without acount. But for the opinion of Eusebius, who makes them to be Goths; or that of Josephus, who calls them Rhegini; or of the Jews, who will have them to be Almains; when they con-think as they do.

Of Riphath, the second Son of Gomer, there is mention in the first of chronicles. Beroaldus and Pererius think that he wandered farr off from the rest of his Brothers, and therefore no memory of his Plantation. But I fee nothing to the contrary, but that he might feat himfelf with the rest of his Family: for there wanted no room or foil in those days for all the Sons and Grand-children of Now, whether these places took name of Noah. Therefore I take it to be well understood', that the Riphei were of Riphath, which the Greeks afterwards (according to Josephus) called the Paphlagones: and Riphei (faith Melancthon) fignifieth Giants. These people were very famous in the North parts, and in Sarmatia: the most of number and power among them Sarmataru gens maxima came, were not out of any part of Phrygia; or Heneti, The greatest number of the Sarmatians Affa, but farther off, and from the North were the Heneti; who spake the ancient Particles. Heneti, The greatest number of the Sarmatians parts of all Asia the less, which by Hieremy is lac. which being first called Riphei (for the called Asianez, by the figure Synechdoche, as love of some of their Leaders or Kings) Junius thinketh. Out of those testimonies changed their names, and became Heneti (a custom exceeding common in those times) and dwelt first in Paphlagonia; as Homer witnesseth, and so doth Apollonius in his Argonauticks: Now, when these Riphei (afterward Heneti) fought new Regions, they came and long the shores of Euxinus, and filled the North-part of Europe, containing Ruffia, Lituania, and Polonia. From thence thy croft thwart the Land, and peopled Illyria, defirous (faith Meland hon) of a warmer foil of through it: Minni, the leffer Armenia; Ar- Fruit and Wine. These Heneti, or Veneti, which menia being compounded of Aram and whom Melandhon taketh to be one people; com

Adriatick Sea: and to this day the name of to Tharfis, and brought thence Gold, Silver. the Gulf Venedicus is found in Ruffia. This Elephants teeth, &c. the Chaldean Paraphraft to me, that of Riphath, came the Riphei, afterward Heneti; and fo thinketh Arias Montanus, first feated in Paphlagonia, but in course of time, Lords of Sarmatia, and those other parts before remembred, chiefly between the Rivers of Viftula and Albis. The name (faith Melantthon) fignifieth wandering, or lived by White-meats and Fruits, as (indeed) all Nations did in the first Ages.

Of the third Son of Gomer, Togorma, I have spoken already; now therefore of 7avans children which were four:

Elifa, Tharfis, Cethim, Dodonim.

6. IX.

Of the four Sons of Javan: and of the double fignification of Tharlis, either for a proper Name, or for the Sea.

F Elifa, or Elipha, came the Æoles: called Hellenes, faith Montanus. Melancthon makes Elisa the Father of the Æoles in Asia both. And feeing the Greeks were descend-Moles and the Elei, took name of Elisa his eldest Son. Exechiel in the 27. Chap. speaking of Tyre, nameth the Isles of Elisa, Hyacinthus & purpura de insulis Elisæ facta sunt operimentum tuum : Blue Silk and purple, brought Chaldeans for Elifa, write Italia: but the Vulgar, the Tigurine, the Geneva, and Junius, keep the word Elifa: and fo I think they found afterward at Tyre it felf: and before Tharfis the second Son of Javan, inhabited Cilicia, of which Tharks is the Metropolis. Montanus, for Tharsis in Cilicia, understands Carthage in Africa; but (referving the re-

Nation, after they were possess of Lituania translates Tharfis (Africa,) But Solomons Ships and Polonia, diffurbed the Plantation of the were prepared in the Red-Sea at Efon-Ga-Rois and Hermonduris. Therefore it seemeth ber, in the Bay of Elana, near unto Madian, where Jethro (Moses Father-in-law.) inhabited; a Province of Arabia Petrea, Idumea, or of the Chastles; and they sailed to the higher part of the East-India. For it had been a strange Navigation to have spent three years in the pallage between Judea and Carthage, or any other part of Africa, wanderers, or Nomades: a people which which might have been failed in fix or ten days. And if so great riches might have been found within the bounds of the Mediterrane Sea, all the other neighbouring Princes would foon have entertained that Trade alfo. But this enterprise of Solomon is in this fort written of, in the first of Kings : Also King Solomon made a Navie of Ships in Eliou-Gaber, which is belide Elath, and the brink of the Red-Sea in the Land of Edom: and Hyram fent with the Navie his fervants, that were Mariners, and had knowledge of the Sea, with the servants of Solomon: and they came to Ophir, and fet from thence 420. Talents of gold, &c. But as the Nations about Pontus and of this Elisa, all the Greeks were thought no Sea in the World like unto their own, and doubted whether there were any other Sea but that onely (whereof it came, side: others of Elis in Peloponnesus; or of that Pontus was a word used for the Sea in general) so, because the Israelites and the Phaed in general of Javan, it is probable that nicians knew no other Sea than that of the Mediterrane in the beginning; and that the people of Tharfis had the greatest Ships, and were the first Navigators in those parts with fuch Veffels, they were therefore called men of the Sea: and the word Tharlis used often from the Isles of Elifa, was their covering. The for the Sea. And whereas it is faid that the Ships of Solomon went every three years to Tharfis, that phrase is not strange at all; for we use it ordinarily wheresoever we navimight do with reason. For there was not gate, (namely) that the Kings Ships are gone found any such Purple-Die in Haly in those to the Sea, or that they are set out every days, nor fince, that I can read of : but those year, or every three years to the Sea, and Ises of Elisa, were by a better conjecture therefore Tharsis was not therein named, eithe Illes of Greece; and the best Purple was ther for Carthage, Africa, or India, but used for the Sea it felf. But in this place, Tharfis is truthat, among the Cyclades, and on the Coast | ly taken for Tharfis, the chief City in Cilicia; foundedby Tharfis the second Son of Javan, or by his Successors in memory of their first Parent. To this City arrived Alexander Macedon, before he gave the first overthrow to Darius, and casting himself into the River spect due to so learned a man) he was much to bathe and wash his body, he fell into an mistaken in that conjecture. The Chaldean extreme Fever, and great danger of death: Paraphrisi puts Carthage for Tharsis, but it and in this City of Tharsis was S. Paul born. hath no authority nor warrant of reason Now, this agreeth with the reason and natural therein. So likewise, where it is written, that ture of a Plantation. For (Gomer and his the Ships of Solomon went every three years other Sons inhabiting Affa the less, and that pass over the Sea into Greece, took the edge of the same Coast, and first planted the Iones on that shore: gave the Islands between Asia on that more; gave the maines beleft Tharfis tors: the Hebrew (D) and the Hebrew (R) the lefs and Greece to Elifa, and left Tharfis tors: the Hebrew (D) upon the Sea-side in Cilicia; of whom that

City took name. whom were the Romans and Halians, faith in the Province of Moloffa. And as Cethim, Beroaldus, but I allow better of Melanthons opinion, who makes Cethim the Father of the Macedonians. Cethim is a voice plural (faith he) and fignifies percussores, though in that longst the Coast, and finding Peloponness in respect it may be meant by either. But it the possession of Elisa, he passed a little furfeemeth more probable, that the place of ther on the Westward, and planted in Epp-Isai. 23. (according to Melantihon) had relation to Alexander and the Macedonians: Hac calamitas ab Esai prædicta est, qui capite Dodonim himself.yet his posterity might give vicessimo tertio inquit, venturos esse eversores it that name in the memory of their first Pa-Tyri ex terra Cittim; This calamity (faith Melancthon) was foreshewed by Esai the Prophet. who in the three and twentieth Chapter pronounced, that the destroyers of Tyre were come children, and grand-children; not in all on of Cittim. And although the children of places by themselves, but by their successors Ifrael efteemed all men Islanders, which came many years after: every of their Families to them by Sea, and separate from the Continent (and so also Cittim might be taken for I- those memories, out of what branch themtaly, saith Beoraldus) yet we must take the first performance of the former Prophecic which | And because great Kingdoms were often by took effect by the destruction of the Tyrians by Alexander, who, after feven Moneths fiege, entred that proud City, and cut in pieces feven thousand principal Citizens; Îtrangled two thousand, and changed the freedom of or the names of their Ancestors, to Mounthirteen thousand others into bondage and tains and Rivers, as to things (after their flavery. Now, that Macedon was taken for | judgments) freelf from any alteration. Cethim, it doth appear plainly in the first of the Macchabees, in these words: After that his children in the edge and frontier of Asia Alexander the Macedonian, the son of Philip, went forth of the Land of Cethim, and flew Darius King of the Persians, and Medes. Josephus sets Cethim in the Isle of Cyprus, in which (faith he) there remaineth the City Citium, the Country of Zeno the Philosopher (witness Laertius;) which City Pintus upon Ezechiel affirmeth, that it stood in S. Hieroms time. So it may be that all the Islands in ancient times by the Hebrews were called the Islands of Cethim; and in that sence might Cyprus be so called also; and yet, because Tharfis was the very next Port to Cyprus, and directly over against it, it is also very probable, that Cethim dwelt by his brother Tharfis: and finding that Island too straight for his people, after they were increased, and that the rest of the Coasts, both in Asia and Greece, were inhabited by his Father and brothers, he fent Colonies over the Agean Sea, and inhabited Macedonia.

Dodonim the fourth Son of Javan, and the part of Syria adjoyning) Javan, who was to | youngest brether (by the mest opinions) sate Elifa, as he could. For Dodonim and Rhodanim are used indifferently by many Translafor the other, as all Hebricians affirm. There The third Son of Javan was Cethim, of is also found in Epirus the City of Dodona, when he wanted foil in Cyprus: so Dodonim (feated in a farr less Island) did of necessity fend his people farther off; and keeping arus. And though the City of Dodona was not then built (or perchance not fo ancient as rent, as it happened all the World over. For names were given to Cities, Mountains, Rivers, and Provinces, after the names of Noahs being defirous to retain among them, by felves were taken and grafted elfe-where. new Conquerers newly named, and the greatest Cities often fired and demolished, therefore those that hoped better to perpetuate their memories, gave their own names,

Thus then did Javan settle himself and the less, towards the Sea-shore: and afterward in Greece, and the Islands and neighbour Provinces thereof, as Japheth their Father had done in the body of the leffer Asia, together with Javans brethren, Gomer, Magog, Madai, Tubal, Mesech, and the rest, round about him. And in like fort did chift (the Son of Cham) people Babylonia, Chaldaa, and the borders thereof towards the West and South-west: and the Sons of chush (all but Nimred, who held Babylonia it felf) travelled Southward in Arabia falix, and South-westward into Arabia Petræa: the rest of his children holding the Regions adjoyning to Nimrod. Mizraim the brother of Chish in like manner took the way of Egypt: and his brother Canaan the Region of Palastina adjoyning. The Sons of Canaan had their portions in Canaan, of whom all those Nations came, which were afterward the Enemies both to the Hebrews, and to those of the Sons of Shem, which spread themselves to wards the West, and the borders of the Me- vainly led by his own invention. For Josediterrane Sea: of which I shall speak here- phus, presuming that Chush was Æthiopia, and which were four:

Chulb, Mizraim, Phut, and Canaan.

9. X.

That the feat of Chush the eldest son of Ham. was in Arabia, not in Æthiopia: and of firange Fables, and ill Translations of Scri ptures, grounded on the mistaking of this of Josephus bis Tale of an Æthiopes, Wife of Moses, grounded on the mistaking of the feat of Chush.

"Hat Ham was the Father of the Egyptians, it is made manifest in many Scriptures, as in the 105. Pfalm, verf. 51. Then Israel came to Egypt, and Jacob was a stranger in the Land of Ham: and in the 78. Pfalm. He slew all the first-born in Egypt, even the beginning of their strength, in the Tabernacles Thebaidai, called Cheramis (as it were the City of Ham) of which name Herodotus also dicovers an Island in the same Region. But because chush is the elder Son of Ham, it agreeth with order to speak first of him. Now, though I have already in the description of Paradise handled this question, and (I hope) proved that Chush could not be Æthiospeak for himself, I will add some farther hereof fets many things streight, which had otherwise very crooked constructions, and fenceless interpretations. Surely, howfoin failed, that chush could not be Æthiopia, but Arabia (to wit) both that Arabia called Petrea, and a part of Arabia the Happy and the Desart: which Regions Chush and the Chustes presently planted, after they left Babylonia to Nimrod, wherein they first sate down altogether. And there is nothing which so well cleareth the Controversie, as vers. 1. where Moses his Wife is called a Chufite; together with some places which speak of Nebuchodonozor's Conquests. For whereas Josephus and the septuagint in the place Numb. 12. vers. 1. as also else-where, underftand Chush for Ethiopia, we must give creappear that Josephus was grosly mistaken, or after. But first of the Sons of Cham or Ham; therefore that the Wife of Moses (which in Scripture, Numb. 12. vers. 1. is called a Woman of chigh) was a Woman of the Land of Æthiopia, feigneth that Tharbis the Daughter of the King of Æthiopia, fell in love with the person and fame of Moses, while he befieged Saba her Fathers City; and to the end, to obtain Moses for her Husband, she practifed to betray both her Parents, Countrey, and Friends, with the City it felf, and to deliver it into Moses hands: The Tale (if it be worth the reciting) lieth thus in Joje- Antiq.L.2. phus. And after he hath described the cap. 5. ftrength of the Æthiopian City Meroe, which he faith at length Chambyses called fo from the name of his Sifter (the old name being Saba) he goeth on in these words: Hic cum Moses residere exercitum otiosum ægrè ferret, hoste non audente manus conserere, tale quiddam accidit. Erat Æthiopum Regifilia nomine Tharbis, &c. which Tale hath this sence in English: When Moses was grieved that his Army lay idle, because the Enemy besieved durst not fally and come to handy-strokes, there happened this accident in the mean while: The Æof Ham. There is also found a great City in thiopian King bad a Daughter called Tharbis, who at some assaults given, beheld the person of Moses, and withall admired his valour. And knowing that Moses had not onely up-held and restored the falling estate of the Egyptians, but had also brought the conquering Athiopians to the very brink of subversion: these things working in her thoughts, together with her own affection, which daily increased, she made means pia: yet seeing it cometh now to his turn to to send unto him by one of her trustiest servants, to offer her self unto him, and become proof to the former. For, the manifestation | his Wife; which Moses on this condition entertained, that she should first deliver the City into his possession; whereupon she condescending, and Moses having taken oath to perform ever the septuagint and Josephus have here- this contract, both the one and the other were instantly performed.

||. II.

A Dispute against the Tale of Josephus.

This Tale (whereof Moses hath not a word) hath Josephus fashioned, and the true interpretation of the place, Num. 12. therein also utterly mistaken himself, in naming a City of Arabia for a City of Æthiopia: as he names Æthiopia it self to have been the Countrey of Moles his Wife, when (indeed) it was Arabia. For Saba is not in Æthiopia, but in Arabia, as both Strabo and dit to Moles himself herein; and then it will teach us, saying, that the Sabaans are Arabians, and not Æthiopians; except Josephus which came non the solution of solutions, were a Negro or Black-Moor. eth the greatest things by the simplest End. And though Damianus à Goes speak of certain means: so it pleased him from a Shepherd Letters to the King of Portugal from Prester to call Moses, and after him David, and by John, of the Abiffines: wherein that Æthiojours, or the many man and the Portugals, that Mofes fitting by a Well (as disconsolate, and pian King would perswade the Portugals, that he was descended of the Queen of Saba, and a stranger) defended the Daughters of Reof solomon; yet it doth no where appear in guel from the other Shepherds, and drew the Scriptures, that Solomon had any Son by them Water to water their Sheep: upon that great Princes: which had it been true, it which occasion (by God ordained) he was is likely that when sishac King of Egypt invaded Roboam, and fackt Hierusalem, his Brother (the Son of Saba and Solomon) who or Countreys. joyned upon Egypt, would both have impeached that enterprize, as also given aid and fuccour to Roboam against Jeroboam, who drew from him ten of the twelve Tribes to his own obedience. Neither is it any thing against our Opinion of Moses his Wife, to have been an Arabian, that the Scritures teach us, that Moses married the Daughter of Jethro, Priest of Midian or Madian: which standing on the North-coast of the Red-Sea, over against the body of Egypt, and near Eston-Gaber, where Solomon provided his Fleet for India, in the Region of But the passing of Moses through Arabia Edom, may well be reckoned as a part of Petrea (which joyneth to Madian) proveth Arabia, as the Red-Sea is called Sinus Arabicus. For Idumea joyneth to the Tribe of 7uda by the North; to Arabia Petraa, by the East; to the Mediterrane, by the West; and to the Red-Sea, by the South-east. And if we mark the way which Moses took when he lest Egypt, and conducted Israel thence, it will appear that he was no stranger in Arabia: in the border whereof, and in Arabia it felf, he had formerly lived fourty years; where it feemeth, that besides his carefull bringing up in Egypt, he was instructed by Jethro in the Egyptians learning. For Josephus confesseth, and S. Stephen confirmeth, that he was learned in all the Wildom of the Egyptians. But on the other fide, this Text makes to his own defire, and Gods Commandmuch against Josephus, where it is written in | ments. Exodus the second, Therefore Moses fled from (which was for betraying her Countrey and ing the same that joyneth to Arabia: So fare friends) neither had she the name of Tharbis, Chrysamensis.

118

can perswade us, that the Queen of saba, but of sippora, or Zippora: neither was she a can penwade us, that the Vistoria Negro, but a Madianites. And as God work-which came from the South to hear the Wistoria Negro, but a Madianites. married, and not for any betraying of Towns

From hence also came fethro to Moses at Rephidim, not far from Idumea, and finding the insupportable government of such a multitude, he advised him to distribute this weighty charge, and to make Governours and Judges of every Tribe and Family. And if Jethro had been an Æthiopian, it had been a farr progress for him to have passed through all Egipt with the Wife and Children of Moses, and to have found Moses in the border of Idnmea: the Ægyptians hating Moses, and all that favoured him. that Moses was well acquainted in those parts, in which the fecond time he wandered fourty years, and did by these late travels of his, feek to inftruct the Children of Ifrael in the knowledge of one true God, before he brought them to the Land of plenty and rest. For he found them nourished up with the milk of Idolatry, and obstinate in the Religion of the Heathen, and finding that those stiff Plants could not be bowed or declined, either by perswasion or by miracle, he ware them out in the Defarts, as God directed, and grafted their branches anew, that from those he might receive fruit, agreeable

Laftly, this Opinion of Josephus is con-Pharaoh, and dwelt in the Land of Madian or demned by Augustinus Chrysamensis, where Midian, and not in Æthiopia. And in the also he reprehendeth Apollinaris, who a third Chapter, it is as plain as words can express, in what Region Madian was, where it and Sephora: His own words have this beis written, When Moses kept the sheep of Je- | ginning : Mentitur etiam Apollinaris duas thro his Father-in-law, Priest of Madian, and uxores habuisse Mosen, &c. Apollinaris also drave the Flock to the Defart, and came to the leth, in affirming that Moles had two Wives: mountain of God in Horeb, Now, that Mount and who doth not perceive these things feigned Horeb is not in Æthiopia, every infant know- by them? for it is manifest, that the Wife of eth. And if we may believe Moses himself, Moses was Lephora, Daughter to the Priestor then was not the Wife of Moses purchased President of Madian: and that Madian canin that manner which Josephus reporteth not be taken for Ethiopia beyond Egypt; beI. III.

CHAP. VIII.

Chush ill expounded for Æthiopia, Ezechiel 29. 10.

Ow, as Chush is by the Septuagint converted Ethiopia, and the Wife of Mofes therefore called Athiopifia: fo in the conquest of Nebuchodonosor is Æthiopia written is manifest that Nebuchodonosor was never in of the person of this great Asyrian) I come upon thee and upon thy Rivers, and I will make from the Tower of Seveneh even to the borders of the Black-Moors: which last words should have been thus converted: From the Tower Seveneh, to the borders of the Chusites.or Arabians, between which two is fituated all Egipt. For to fay, from the borders of seveneh to the Ethiopians, hath no fence at all, seveneh it self being the border of Egypt, confronting and joyning to Æthiopia, or the Land of the Black-Moors. So as if Nebuchodonosors conquest had been but between Seveneh and the border of Æthiopia, it were as much to fay, and did express no other victory than the conquest of all that Land and Countrey, lying between Middlesex and Buckingham, where both the Countries joyn together; or all the North parts of England between Barwick and Scotland : for this hath the same sence with the former, if any man fought to express by these two bounds, the Conquest of England: Barwick being the North border of England, as Seveneh or Syena is the South bound of Egypt, seated in Thebaida, which toucheth Æthiopia. But by the words of Exechiel it appeareth, that Ne-Æthiopia, although the Septuagint, the Vulgar, the Geneva, and all other (in effect) have written Æthiopia for Chush.

Another place of Executed, Chap. 30. Vers. 9. in the like manner mistaken.

Nd as the former, so is this place of Exe-A chiel mistaken, by being in this sort converted: In die illa egredientur nuncii à facie mea in tricribus ad conterendam Æthiopiæ confidentiam: Which place is thus turned in English by the Geneveans: In that day shall their messengers go forth from me in ships to make the careles Moors afraid. Now, the Latine for (ships) hath the Greek word Trieres banks, and not ships. But that in this place the Translation should have been (as in the former) amended by using the word Chush, or Arabia, for Æthiopia, or the Black-Moors, every man may fee which meanly understandeth the Geography of the World, knowing, that to pass out of Egypt into Athiopia, there need no Gallies or Ships, no more than to pass out of Northampton into Leicesterfor Arabia. For by the words of Exechiel it Shire: Æthiopia being the conterminate Region with Egypt, and not divided so much Athiopia. Behold (faith Ezechiel, speaking as by a River. Therefore in this place of Ezechiel it was meant, that from Egypt Nebuchodonofor should send Gallies alongst the Coast of the Land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, the Red-Sea, by which an Army might be transported into Arabia the Happy and the stony (sparing the long wearisom march over all Egypt, and the Desart of Pharan) which Army might thereby surprise them unawares in their security and confidence. For when Nebuchodonosor was at Seveneh within a mile of Æthiopia, he needed neither Gally nor Ship to pals into it; being all one large and firm Land with Egypt, and no otherwise parted from it, than one In-land shire is parted from another: and if he had a fancy to have rowed up the River but for pleasure, he could not have done it; for the fall of Na lus (tumbling over high and steepy Mountains) called Catadupa Nili, were at hand.

Laftly, I have already observed, the Sons of every Father seated themselves as near together as possibly they could; Gomer and his Sons in Asia the less; Javan and his Sons in Greece, and the Islands adjoyning; shem in Persia and Eastward. So the sons and grandchildren of Chulh from the River of Gehon (their Fathers first seat) inhabited upon the fame, or upon some other contiguate unto it, as Nimrod and Havilah on the one fide, and buchodonosor never entred into any part of Saba, Sheba, and Sabtecha (with the rest) did on the other fide. And to conclude, in a word, the Hebrews had never acquaintance or fellowship, any war, treaty of peace, or other intelligence with the Æthiopian Black-Moors, as is already remembred in the Chapter of Paradife.

Aplace, Elay 18. v. 1. in like manner corrupted, by taking Chush for Æthiopia.

Nd as in these places before remembred. fo in divers others is the word Æthiopia put for Arabia, or Chush, which puts the Story (where it is so understood) quite out of fquare; one Kingdom thereby being taken for Triremes, which are Gallies of three Scripture, Mai. 18. Ve terra Cymbalorum alarum quæ est trans slumina Æthiopiæ; or, according to the septuagint, in these words: Va terrænavium alarum quæ est trans fluvios Æthiopia; We to the Land shadowing with fending Embassadors by Sea, even the Vessels of the Land. the transposition of Kingdoms: for hereby Æthiopia, and Æthiopia set next unto Judæa; when it is the Land of Chush and Arabia indeed that lieth between judaa and Egypt, and not Æthiopia, which is feated under the Equinoctial Line. And of this, Beroaldus alketh a material question (to wit) what Region that should be, of which the Prophet fpeaketh, and placeth it beyond the Rivers of Æthiopias Nam de ignota agi regione dici nequit; For it cannot be faid that he treateth of ledg of Nations far beyond it again, and beknown by the name of Bona esperanza.

120

||. V I.

That upon the like mistaking both Terrhaca in the story of Senacherib, and Zera in the Story of Asa, are unadvisedly made Æthiopians.

knowledge that Thirrhaca (which all the Inthe way to set on him, he began to withdraw For they were the Chaffites and Arabians, himfelf: and fearing to leave his Army in two parts, he fent threatning Messengers to Ezechia King of Juda. perswading him to fubmit himself: the Tenor whereof is set wings, which is beyond the Rivers of Arthropia, down in the second of Kings in these words: Reeds upon the waters. Væterræumbrojæ oræ; his Land out of the hands of the King of We to the Land of the shady coast, faith Junius, Ashur? Where is the god of Hamah, &c. By The former Translators understand it in this which proud Embassage, if he had obtained fence; That the waters are shadowed with entrance into Jernfalem, he then meant to the fails, which are fignificatively called the have united that great Army before Jerusawings of the ships; the other, that the coast | lem, commanded by Rabsekeb, with the other of the Sea was inadowed by the height of which lay before Pelusum, a great City upon the branch of Nilus next Arabia. For Sena-But to the purpole: That this Land here cherib had already mastered the most part of spoken of by the Prophet Isaiah, is Egypt, no all those Cities in Judea and Benjamin, with Interpreter hath doubted. For they were a third Army (which himself commanded) is the Egyptians that fent this Message to the being then at the siege of Lebna. But upon If aelites, which Isaiab repeateth, and by the the rumor of that Arabian Army led by former Translation, every man may see the King Thirrhakeh (whom Josephus calls to Tharfices) Rabsakeh hasted from the siege of Egypt is transported unto the other side of Hiernfalem, and found Senacherih departed from Lackie, and fet down before Lebna, which was afterwards called Eleuthoropolis, as some have supposed. But while he had ill fuccess at Pelusium, and feared Thirrhakeh, God himfelf, whom he least feared strook his Army before Hierusalem by the Angel of his power, fo as 158000. were found dead in the place, as in the life of Ezechias is hereafter more largely written. And that this Army of Thirrhakeh was from Arabia, Josephus an unknown Region. Now, if Athiopia it felf himfelf makes it plain. For he confessed in be under the Equinolial line, with whom the the tenth Book, the first Chapter of the Jens Jews had never any acquaintance, why Antiquities, that it was come to Senacheriha should any man dream that they had know- knowledge, that the Army which was a foot (both to relieve the Egyptians and the Jews) yond the Rivers of Æthiopia? except we marched towards him by the way of the Deshall impiously think that the Prophet spake | fart: Now, the Defart which lay indifferent jan he knew not what, or used an impertinent between Hierusalem and Pelusium, was that of discourse of those Nations, which were not | Pharan or Sur, which also toucheth on the discovered in 2000, years after, inhabiting as three Arabia's, to wit, the Stony, of which it is far South as the Cape of Good Hope, commonly | a part; the Defart, and the Happy; and by no other way indeed could the Arabians come on to succour either Pelusium or Hierusalem. But that there is any Defart between Pelusum and the South part of Egypt, hath never yet been heard of, or described by any Cosmographer or Historian. So then this descriptition of the second of Kings, Vers.9. hath the same mistaking as the rest. For here the word (Chush) is also translated Æthiopia; and Nd by this Translation is the Story of in this sence have all the Interpreters (but # A Senacherib utterly mistaken in the cause mins) expressed the beginning of the minh of his retrait. For Senacherib was first re- Verse : He heard also men say of Thirrhakeh pulled at Pelujum, at the very entrance of King of Ethiopia, &c. whereas it should Egypt from Judea: when having certain have been thus converted with Junius: And ens autem de Thirrakeh Rege Chushi; He heard tepreters called King of Æthiopia) was on also of Thirrhakeh King of the Chulhites whose Houses and Cities were next the fire, Isaiah: and this phrase is often else-where with an Army of a Million, and three thoufand Chariots. Indeed, how fuch an Army, and those Chariots should pass through all Egypt (the Kings of Egypt being mighty Kings) let all men that know how these Regions are feated, and how far distant, judge. For Princes do not eafily permit Armies of a Million to run through them; neither was there ever such strength of Black-Moors heard of in that part of the World, or elfewhere. Neither are these Æthiopians such Travellers or Conquerors; and yet is this King Zerah alfo called King of Æthiopia. But the word chush being first so converted for Æthiopia, the rest of the Interpreters (not looking into the feats of Kingdoms, or the possibilities of attempts, or invasions) followed one another in the former mistakings.

VII.

A farther Exposition of the place, Esai. 18. 1.

Oncerning these words in that eighfladow over the Red-Sea. But to make both reft of Noahr children, fort themselves. interpretations good, Pintus (upon Isaiah) affirmeth, that the word (sabal) doth fignifie both to shadow, and to gingle (which is) to make a kind of Cymbaline found: fo as the meaning of this place (faith Pintus) is this: Wo to thee, o Egypt, which dost promise to others safeguard, under the shadow of thy wings: which (indeed) seemeth to agree with the argument of the eighteenth Chapter of and upon whom the very smoak of Juda used, as in the 16. Psalm: Sub umbra alaflaming was blown, being their nearest rum tuarum protege me; Defend me under the Neighbours: and so were not the Æthiopi- shadow of thy wings. The Boats of Reed an Black-Moors under the Equinottial, whom spoken of are of two kinds; either of basketneither War nor Peace (which discovereth Willow covered with hides (as anciently in all Regions) ever found out, faith Pliny. For Erittain) or a Tree made hollow in the botthis King was no more King of Æthiopia than tome, and built up on both fides with Canes. Zerah was, who invaded Asa King of Juda, Of the one fort I have seen in Ireland, of the other in the Indies.

9. X I.

Of the Plantation and Antiquities of Egypt.

That Mizraim the chief Planter of Egypt : and the rest of the sons of Ham, were seated in order one by another.

He second Son of Ham was Mizrain; who (according to the place of a fecond brother) was fent somewhat farther off to inhabit. For chush first possest chaldea on the West side of Gehon chiefly: and from thence, as he increased in people, so he entred Arabia, and by time came to the border of the Red-Sea, and to the South-east side of Judea. Mizraim his brother (with Phut) past over into Africa. Mizraim held Egypt; and Phut (as a third brother) was thrust far ther off into Mauritania. Canaan took the teenth Chapter of Esay, Navium alarum, Sea-coast, and held the side of Palastina: Winged ships (to the septuagint turn it) or and these four brothers possest all that Tract Cymbalo alarum (according to the Latine) of Land, from Gehon in Chaldaa, as far to fails whiftling in the winds, or terræ umbrofæ the West as the Mediterrane Sea: compreore (after Junius) the Land of a shadowed hending all Arabia Deserta, and Petraa, all coast, or the Land shadowing with wings, as Canaan which embraceth Galilea, Samaria, our English Geneva hathit. The two first in- | and Judaa; with the two Egypts, whereof terpretations of the Septuagint and S. Hierom, the neather is bounded by Memphis on the have one sence in effect. For the sails are South, and by the Mediterrane Sea on the commonly called the wings of a Ship; North: and Thebaida (called the upper Eand we use to say ordinarily when our Ships gppt) stretcheth it self toward the South as sar fails flowly, that she wanteth wings (that is) as Syene, the border of the Ethiopians, or when her fails are either worn, or too narBlack-Moors. All the rest of the coast of Africa row: and we also use the same phrase of the Westward, Phut peopled; which brothers had wind whiftling in the fails. And it may be not any other Nation or Family that dwelt that the Egyptians imployed fo many of those between them. And in the fame manner did finall hips, as their fails were faid to give a all their Sons again, and all the Sons of the

II.

Of the time about which the name of Egypt began to be known : and of the Egyptians Lunary years, which made their Antiquites feem more fabulous.

His flourishing Kingdom possest by Mizraim, changed her ancient name

122

and became Egypt, at fuch time as Ægyptus (otherwise Ramesses, as some think) the son of Belus, chased thence his elder brother Danaus, shifting him into that part of Greece, now called Morea, by whom the Argives were made Danai, abandoning their proper names: which happened 877. years after the Floud, in the time of Josua, as Saint Angultine this manner: That the sixteenth Dynashy conjectureth out of Eusebius. But in Homers Odyjjes it appeareth that the Egyptians were ans times) had beginning with the general to called at the time of the Trojane Warr. And before this, Egypt was known by divers other fifteen reached the Creation, or foon other names, as Oceana, Aria, Ofiriana, &c. after it. To which conjecture of Mercator, And Manethon (whom Josephus citethin his Pererius maketh this answer; That therein first Book against Appion) numbreth all the Kings of Egypt after Mojes departure, who it for granted, that the beginning of the fixconfumed 393. years. By which other men teenth Dynasty was at once with the general conjecture, that the Egyptians took on them Floud: which Eugebius maketh 292, years af that name, 330. years after Josia, and about ter, and in the time of Abraham. Secondly, 1000. years after the Floud. But where Jo- Mercator maketh the beginning of the shep-Sephus in the same Book taketh Israel to be herds Dynastia (being in number 17.) in the those Hyesos, which he also calleth Pastores, or time of their first King, Salis, to have been Shepherds, which are faid to have reigned in the year of the World 1846. which Euge in Egypt 511. years: whom also he calleth brus findeth in the Worlds Age 2140. For the his Ancestors (meaning the Ancestors of the 16. Dynastia was begun but in the 292, year Jews) in this I am fure he was grolly de- after the Floud, as they account, and conticeived, or that he vainly boatted: for the mued 190 years. Thirdly, whereas Mercator Israelites had no such Dominion as Manethon faineth, nor abode in Egypt so long a time by Ensebius reckoneth many of them at less than many years.

Of the Egyptian Antiquities there are many fancies in Trogus, Herodotus, Plato, Diod. siculus, Mela, and others. For they affirm nethon affirmeth, That all these 15. Dynashiv (faith Pomp. Mela) that there had reigned in lasted but 162, years: and that the first of Egypt 330. Kings before Amasis, who was the 15. began but in the 131. year after the contemporary with Cyrus; and that they Floud: so as where Mercator makethall the had Memory and Story of 13000, years; and that the Stars had four times changed have been then in being at the time of the their course, and the Sun twice set in the East. These Riddles are also rife among the Athenians and Arcadians, who dare affirm, that they are more ancient than Jupiter and the Moon; whereof Ovid:

Ante Jovem genitum terras habuisse feruntur Arcades : & Luna gens prior illa fuit.

The Arcadians the Earth inhabited Ere yet the Moon did shine, or Jove was true; feeing it is certain that the Egyptians arrival into Babylonia) yet herein he ismore reckon their years by Moneths, which unadvifed. For he makes Egypt possets, and makes after that account not above 1000. a Government established in the very sufficient or 1100. years, whether we take their year of the arrival of Nimrod into Shinnan, Moneths or Lunary years to have been of the before all partition, or any expedition far first kind of 27. days and eight hours; or off, or near, in question: for, from theree otherwise 29. days and twelve hours; or af- (that is, from Eabel) did the Lord scatter ter any other of those five diversities of their them upon all the earth. Lunary years.

I. III.

Of certain vain affertions of the Antiquity of the Egyptians.

Erardus Adercator, in his Chronologie, rea-I foneth for the Egyptians Antiquity in (where Eusebius begins to reckon the Egypti-Floud: and that therefore the first of the Mercator was first deceiv'd, because he taketh maketh every Dynastia to endure 115. years, 100. years: for the 28. had but fix years, the 29. but 20. and the 30. but 18. years.

Now, Annius in his Supplement of Ma-15. to precede the Floud, and the 16. to Floud, Annius makes them all after it. But the contrariety of falshood cannot be hidden, though disguised. For Annius had forgotten his former Opinion and Affertion, that it was in the 131. year that Nimrod, with the Sons of Noah, came into the Valley of Shinaar: so he forgets the time which was confumed in the building of Babel: and that before the confusion of Speech there wasno dispersion, nor far-off plantation at all. And though he haftily conveyed Gomer into Itaby, and Tubal into Spain, in the tenth year of But for those 13000. years, it may well be Nimrods reign (which was ten years after his

H. IV.

Against Pererius: that it is not unlikely. but that Egypt was peopled within 200. years after the Creation; at least, that both it, and the most parts of the World were peopled before the Floud.

TILL whereas Pererius feeketh to overthrow this Antiquity of the Egyptians touching their Dynasties (which Eusebius doth not altogether destroy, but lessen) I do not find any great strength in this Opinion of Pererius (to wit) that it was either unlikely or impossible that Egypt should be peopled within 100. or 200. years after Adam, in the first Age. And whereas he supposeth that it was not inhabited at all before the general Floud, I do verily believe the contrary; and that not only of Egypt, but the better part of all the World was then peopled: Pererius his words are these: Quomodo enim primos mundi ducentos, vel etiam centum annos Adami proles adeò multiplicari potuit, ut ad Ægyptum usque habitandum & complendum propagata fit, &c. For how could the children of Adam be so multiplied in the first two hundred, or in the first hundred years of the World, and so propagated as to inhabit and fill Egypt? for allowing this (faith Pererius) we the Asyrians and other Nations.

herein, and that it is no point of our favingneedless, and dangerous contentions.

First therefore, for this Opinion, that Egypt is no reason why we should give a less increase to the Sons of Adam, than to the Sons of Noah. For their length of life, which exceeded those which came after the Floud may in some fort appear by this, that Caim, my was gathered) was full of people: yea, who (being fearfull that the death of Abel Arabia it felf (much part whereof is barren) would have been revenged on him) withdrew himself from the rest, which were afterward begotten, and dwelt in the Land of Nod, and there, by the help of his own iffues, built a City (called Enoch) after the name of his first-born. Now, if it be gathered that Nimrod came into the Valley of Shinaar with fo many multitudes as sufficed to build the City and Tower of Babel: and that to this increase there was given but 130. years by Berofus, and after the account of the Scriptures (reckoning, as it is commonly understood, by the birth of Arphaxad, Selah, Heber, and Phalegh) but one hundred and one year: I fee no cause to doubt, but that in the Infancie of the first Age, when the bodies of men were most perfect, even within 130. years the same (if not a greater) number might be increased; and so within 70. years after (that is, by fuch time as the World had stood 200. years) as well Asyria. Syria, and Egypt might be possess before the Floud, as they were within the same or less time after it. Neither doth it agree with the circumstance or true Story of the Babylonian and Asyrian Empire, that all those people, which we increased in the first 100. or 130. years after the Floud, came into Shinaar and Babylonia. For that ever Noah himself came out of the East, as there is no Scripture or must also confess, that there were then both Authority to prove it, so all probable conjecture and reason it self denies it. Again, Now, feeing that the Scriptures are filent those multitudes and powerfull numbers which semiramis (but the third from Nimbelief, it is lawfull for every man to be gui- | rod) found in India, confidered with her ded in this and the like questions by the best own Army of three millions (and she left not reason, circumstance, and likelihood; and all her Kingdoms empty) do well prove that herein, as in the rest, I protest that I do not if the World had such plenty of people in gainfay any mans opinion out of any cross- lo few years after the Floud, it might also be ing or cavelling humours: for I think it the as plentifully filled in like time before it: part of every christian, rather to reconcile | For after their own account, Ninus governed differences, where there is possibility of uni- Babylonia and Asyria but 292. years after on, than out of froward subtilty, and pre- the Floud of Noah. And these Troops of Sejudicate resolvedness, to maintain factions miramis were gathered out of all those Eastern Kingdoms, from Media to the Mediterrane Sea; when there had now past was not planted so soon after Adam, no, from the Floud to the time of this her invanot at all before the Floud, I fay, that there | fion fomewhat less or more than 360, years: for much more time the true Chronologie cannot allow; though I confess, that in respect of the strange greatness of semiramis Army; and the incredible multitudes gathered, this double and (after a few years) treble, is an is as short a time as can well be given. And if infallible proof of their strength and ability, but one half be true of that which is said, to beget many Children: and at that time, That her Army confifted of 1300000. Footthey observed no degrees of kindred, nor men, and 500000. Horse-men, it must needs confanguinity. And that there was a fpeedy be, that long before semiramic Reign, the increase of people, and in great numbers, it greatest part of Asia (whence her huge Armust long before this time of semiramis, have been plentifully peopled; when Ninus having a determination to make himself Master of all Nations, entred (notwitstanding) in league with the King thereof: whom therefore he either feared, or fought his affistance. And if Arabia were then so well replenished, I see no cause but Egypt might also be peopled. Now, if we may believe Trogus Pompeius (Epitomiz'd by Justine) Egypt was a most flourishing and magnificent Nation before Ninus was born. For these be his own words, speaking of Ninus: Fuere quidem temporibus antiquioribus Vexoris Rex Agypti, &c. But there were in times more ancient Vexoris King of Egypt, and Tanais King of the Scythians: of which the one invaded Pontus, the other Egypt. And how full by many thousands, the Earth, with all the of people all that part of the World was, the Conquests of Ninus witness, who subdued with no smal force the Armenians, the Medes, and afterward the Badrians; yea, all that whole body of Asia on this side India. For Diodorus out of Ctelias numbreth the Armies wherewith Ninus invaded Zoroafter, at 1700000. Foot-men, and 200000. Horf-men: and the Stories generally flew, that though Zoroasters Army was far short of this, yet it was greater than any that those parts of the World ever fince beheld. But to what end should I feek for foraign Authority? for no man doubteth, but that Egypt was poffest by Mizraim, the Son of Ham; and that it was an established Kingdom, filled with many Cities in Abrahams time, the Scriptures tell us. And fure, to prepare and cultive a defolate and overgrown ground, to beautifie it with many Cities, Laws, and Policies, cannot be esteemed a labour of a few days: and therefore it must be inhabited in a less time than 200, years after the Floud; and in the same time (if not in a shorter) before the Floud. For if so many millions of men were found within 300. years after the general Floud; so as not onely Babylon, and Afyria, Battria, Armenia, Media, Arabia, Egypt, Palestina, yea, the faroff Lybia on the one fide, and India on the other, and seythia (inferiour to neither) were all filled: into what small corners could then all those Nations be comprest, which 1656. years brought forth before the Floud? even necessity, which cannot be resisted, cast the abundance of mens bodies into all parts of the known World; especially, where Syria) and Egypt (which meighbourethis) death forbare the Father, and made no place for the Son, till he had beheld living Nations of his own body.

||. V.

Of some other Reasons against the Opinion of Pererius.

Or what a strange increase did the lone lives of the first Age make, when they continued 800. or 900. years? Surely we have reason to doubt, that the World could not contain them, rather than they were not foread over the World. For let us now reckon the date of our lives in the Ageof the World: wherein if one exceed 50. years, ten for one are cut off in that passage, and yet we find no want of people; nay, we know the multitude fuch, as if by Wars, or Pestilence they were not sometimes taken off What strange heaps then of Souls had the first Ages, who enjoyed 800. or 900. years, as aforesaid? These numbers, Isay, cannot be counted nor conceived. For it would come to the same reckoning in effect, as if all those which have been born in Brittain fince three or four hundred years before the Norman Conquest (faving such as by accident, or by violence were cut off) were now alive; and if to these there were added as many as by Polygamy might have been increased. For (to omit, that the Giants and mighty Ones of the first Age observed no Law of Matrimony) it is to be thought, that those Lovers of the World and of Pleasure, when they knew the long and liberal time which nature had given them, would not willingly or hastily present themselves to any danger which they could fly from, or eschew. For what humane argument hath better perswafion to make men careless of life, and fearless of death, than the little time which keeps them afunder, and that short time also accompanied with fo many pains and dileases, which this envious old Age of the World mingleth together, and loweth with the feeds of Mankind?

Now, if that Berofus or Annius may bealledged for sufficient Authours, whom Pertrim himself in this question citeth, thenisit by them affirmed, and by Josephus confirm ed, that the City of Enoch was feated near Libanus in Syria: and if other parts of Syria were peopled in Cains time, I fee no caule why Palastina (wich is also a Province of could be left desolate both all the life time of Cain, and all those times between his death and the Floud, which were by ellimation 700. or 800, years. And fure, though this fragment of Berofus with Annius, it Comment be very ridiculous in many places | This confequence, quo fignificatur, &c. feemyet all things in Berofus are not to be rejectuniversal Word: and though that phrase (of all the World) be often used in the Scrithe Acts, That there were dwelling at Hierufalem Jews, men that feared God of every Nation under Heaven: yet by the words which follow in Berofus, it is plain, that his words and fence were the fame: for he addeth. from the Suns rifing to the Suns fetting; which cannot be taken for any small part thereof. Again, we may fafely conjecture, that Noah did not part and proportion the World among his Sons at adventure or left them as Discoverers, but directed them to those Regions which he formerly knew had been inhabited. And it cannot be denied that the Earth was more passable and easie to travel over before the Floud than after it. For Pefon of mud and flime, which the water left upon the Earth) was uninhabited 200 years after Ogges Floud; whereby we may gather, that there was no great pleafure in paffing into farr Countreys, after the general Deluge, when the Earthday (as it were) incopfed for 100. or 120. years together. And therefore was the face thereof in all conjecture more beautifull, and less cumberfome to walk over, in the first Age, than af-

4. Courts of Emersts of Emerica

Of the words of Moles, Gen. 10. Verf. ult. whereupon Pererius grounded his Opi-ter the general overflowing.

Afily, whereas Pererius draws this Argument out of the laft Werfe of the tenth of Genesis; And out of these more the Nations divided after the Floud : Quo significatur talem divisionem non fuissorante dellainme 9 By

(the ancient Copies being corrupted or loft) eth to me very weak: The Text it felf rather teacheth the contrary: For out of these (faith ed. Therefore S. Hierome, for fuch Authours Moses) were the Nations divided in the Earth gives a good rule: Bona corum eligamus, after the Floud; inferring, that before the vitemus contraria; Let us choose what is Floud the Nations were divided out of good in them, and reject the reft. And cer- others, though after the Floud out of these tainly, in the very beginning of the first onely. But whatsoever sence may be gather-Book, Berofus agreeth (in effect) with Moses, ed from this place, yet it can no way be touching the general Floud: and in that drawn to the times before the Floud, or to first Part Berosus affirmeth, that those mighty any plantation or division in that Age: for if men and Giants which inhabited Enoch, com- there were none else among whom the Earth manded over all Nations, and subjected the could be divided after the Floud, but Noahs Sons, wherein doth that necessary division controul the planting of the World before ptures for a part thereof; as in the second of it? And whereas it is alledged that the confusion of speech was the cause of this disperfion; it is true, that it was fo for that prefent; but if Babel had never been built, nor any confusion of Languages at all, yet increase of people and time would have enforced a farther-off and general plantation: as Bero-Jus fays well, that when man-kind were ex- Lib. 3: ceedingly multiplied, Ad comparandas novas sedes necessitas compellebat. They were driven by necessity to seek new Habitations, For we find (as it is before faid) that within 300. years after the Floud, there were gathered together into two Armies such multitudes, as the Valley about Babylon could not have fustained those numbers, with their increase, rerius himself confesseth, that Attica (by rea- for any long time; all Asia, the Greater and the Leffer; all Scythia, Arabia, Palastina, and Egypt with Greece, and the Islands thereof; Mauritania, and Lybia, being also at that time fully peopled. And if we believe Berofus, then not onely those parts of the World, but (within 140. years after the Floud) Spain, Italy, and France were also planted: much more then may we think, that within 1656. years before the Floud, in the time of the chief strength of mankind, they were replenished with people, And certainly, seeing all the World was overflown, there were people in all the World which offended.

> Sate reginal to the control of PETTE CHE CHEN GENERAL SERVICE

_กรับออส) (ครั้งได้

A Conclusion, resulting of that which is most Tikely, touching the Egyptian Antiqui-ties with somewhat of Phut (another Son of Ham) which peopled Lybia.

Herefore for the Antiquity of the Egytians, as I do not agree with Mercator, nor which it appeareth (faith Pereries) than there judge wath the Volgar; which give too much was no such division before the Floud which credition the Egyptium Antiquities: so I do he also feekerh to confirm our of the eleventh | not think the report of their Antiquites fo of Genesis, because the division of Tongnes fabulous, as either Peterius or other men conwas the cause of the dispersion of the people, ceive it. But I rather incline to this, that

200. or 300. years more or less after Adam, two hundred miles. It also appeareth in the there might remain unto the Sons of Mizraim thirtieth Chapter of Ezechiel, that Phut, Chuff, fome Monuments in Pillars or Altars (of and Lud were contermini, and affociates Stone or Metal) of their former Kings or Go- with the Egyptians. vernours: which the Egyptians having added to the List and Roll of their Kings after the Floud, in fucceding time (out of the vanity of glory, or by fome corruption in their Priests) something beyond the truth might be inferted. And that the memory of antiquity was in such fort preserved, Berosus affirmeth it of the Chaldeans, and fo doth Epigenes. For they both write, that the use of Letters, and the Art of Astronomy was known to the Babylonians 3634. years before Alexanders Conquelt: and this report Annius findeth to agree, and reach to the time of Enoch, who was born 1034. years before the Floud, and wrote of the Worlds destruction, both by Water and Fire; as alfo of Christ his coming in judgment, as Saint Jude hath witnessed. But leaving these Antiquities to other mens judgments, and every man to his own reason, I will conclude this Plantation of Egypt. It is agreed by all, that it was peopled by Mizraim, and that it took the name of Egypt from Egyptus, the Son of Belus, as aforesaid. Being divided into two Regions, that part from Memphis, or Nicopolis, to the Mediterrane Sea, was called the Inferiour Leypt; furnamed also Delta: because the feveral branches of Nilus breaking afunder from one body of the River, gave it the form of the Greek Letter Delta which is the form of a Triangle. That branch, which ran toward the North-east, and embraced the Scanext unto the Defarts of Sur and Pharau, had on it the City of Pelulium, where Senacherib was repulfed: The other branch, which yielded it self to the Salt-water towards the North-east, is beautified by that famous City of Alexandria: The upper part of Egypt is bounded between Memphis and Syene near Athiopia, and had the name of Thebaida, of the ancient City of Thebes; which (according to Homer) was adorned with 100. Gates: and therefore called Civitas centum portarum; and by the Greeks, Diospolis; in the Scriptures No-hamon, which fignifieth multitudes of In-Jos. 1.1. habitants, exceeding belief. Josephus calls June c. 7. Egypt, Mersin of Mizrain: and Herodotus affirms that it had once the name of Thebais.

Phut, the third Son of Ham, took the next portion of Land to his Brother Mizraim, and inhabited Lybia: whose people were anciently called Phutei (saith Josephus) and Pliny mentioneth the River Phut in Mauritania: which River from the Mountain Atlas (known to the Inhabitants by the name of Fgppt being peopled before the Floud, and | Dyrit) he maketh to be distant the space of

§. XII.

Of the eleven sons of Canaan, the fourth son of Ham.

| I.

Of the bounds of the Land of Canaan : with the names of his eleven Sons.

Anaan (the fourth Son of Ham) possess all that Region, called by the Romans Palæstina ; in the Scriptures Galilea, Samaria, and Judea; in the latter times known by the name of the Holy Land and Jurie: the limits whereof are precifely fet down by Moses, Genefis the tenth, Then the border of the Canaanites was from Zidon as thou goeft to Gerar until Azzah, and as thou goest unto Sodom and Gomorrah, and Adma, and Zeboim, even unto Lasha. Now, howsoever these words of the Hebrew Text (as thou goest) be converted, Moses meaning was, that Gerar was the South bound of Canaan, and Zidon the North; Sodom and Gomorrah the East, and the other Cities named, flood on the Frontiers thereof. For Gerar standeth in a right line from Gaza in the way of Egypt, the uttermost Territory of Canaan Southward: and this was properly the Land of

Now, the Sons of Canaan which possest this Countrey, and inhabited some part of the borders thereof were in number eleven.

- I. Zidon. Heth, or Chethus.
- Jebusi, or Jebusaus.
- Emori, or Emoreus, or Amoreus.
- Girgeshi, or Girgiseus. Hevi, or Chiveus.
- Arki, or Harkeus. Seni, or Sinaus.

ห่องระบบ โดยเรีย

- Arvadi, or Arvadaus.
- 10. Zemari, or Samareus, or Tzemareus,
- II. Hamathi, or Hamatheun, or Chamatheus. in to this Qualificatur ta Qf which the most renowned were the Hethites, Gergesites, Amorites, Hevites, Jehnfiter, and Perizzites & which Perizzites were descended of Zemari, or Samareus, or from fome of his.

| II.

CHAP. VIII.

of the Portions of Zidon and Heth.

Idon the first-born of Canaan, built the famous City of Zidon in Phanicia, which Asser: for Asser, Zabulon, and Nepthali had a great part of the ancient Phanicia distributed among them; but the Afferites could never obtain Zidon it felf.

The fecond Son of Canaan was Heth, or Cethus: of whom came the Hethites, or Hittites, one of those seven principal Nations (Commanders of Canuan) appointed by God to be rooted out; namely, the Gercm.10.19 gelites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hevites, and the Jebufites. The Hittites inhabited about Berlabe, and towards Hebron, near the Torrent Befor, and about Gerar, which Mofes maketh the uttermost limit of Canaan, having the Defart of Pharan to the South: for about Bersabe (otherwise Puteus juramenti) four miles from Gaza, dwelt Heth and his Posteritv, as far to the North-east as Hebron, and Mamre, and of Ephraim the Hittite, did Awhich Nation Rebecca bewailed her felf to Isaac, faying, That she was weary of her life for the Daughters of Heth. The Giants Anakim were of these Hittites, a strong and fierce Nation, whose entertainment by the Kings of Ifrael against them the Syrians greatly fear-King. 1. 6. ed : as in the seventh of the Kings ; Ifrael hath hired against us the Kings of the Hittites.

| III.

Of the Jebusites and Amorites.

Ebusans, the third Son of Canaan, of whom came the Jebusites, and whose principal feat was Jebus (afterward Hierusalem) were their City and the Countrey near it, till fuch the Commandments of God. time as David by Gods affiftance recovered both : yet were not the Jebulites extinguished, but were Tributaries to Solomon.

Amoreus was the fourth Son of Canaan, of whom the Amorites took name, who inhabited that Land to the East of Jordan below the Sea of Galilee, having Arnon and the Mountains of Galaad on the East, and Jordan on the West: of whom og (King of Basan) and sihon (overthrown by Moses)

The Amorites had also many other habitations dispersed within the bounds of ca-

losyria, or Syria Libanica. They had also their being in the Mountains of Juda, and in Idumea, near the Metropolis thereof, called Dent, 1. Duma. And hereof it came that all the Ca-Numb. 13? naanites were sometimes called Amorites: as in Genesis the fifteenth: For the wickedness afterward fell in partition to the Tribe of of the Amorites is not yet full. And that this was also a powerfull Nation, we find in the Amos 2; Prophet Amos: Tet destroyed I the Amorite, before them, whose heighth was like the heighth of a Cedar, and he was strong as the Oak.

| IV.

of the Gergesites, Hevites and Harkites.

The fift Son of Canaan was Gergefins, or Gergesion (otherwise Girgasi) who inhabited on the East-side of the Lake of Tiberias, or the Sea of Galilee, where Ptolemy fets the City Gerasa, which Josephus calls Gesera, in the Territory of Decapolis. Here it was that Christ dispossessed the possessed with devils; and the Gergesites desired him to depart their Coasts, because their Swine, filled with the evil Spirits, drowned themselves in the Sea of Galilee : Gergeseus also built Beritus (sometime braham buy the Field of Sarahs burial. Of Geris) afterward Fælix Julia, three miles from the River Adonis in Phanicia: in which the Romans held a Garrison: and to which Augustus gave many large priviledges.

Hevens the fixth Son, and Father of the Hevites, inhabited under Libanus near Emath. These Hevites howsoever the Caphthorim expelled a good part of them (as in Denteronomie the second is remembred) yet many of them remained all the Warr of Josua, and afterward to the time of Solomon. For God was not pleafed utterly to root out thefe Nations but they were fometimes made Tributaries to the Ifraelites, and at other times ferved (in their falling away from the true worthip of God) to afflict them: for as it is written, Judges the third: They remained to also a valiant and stubborn Nation, and held prove Israel by them, whether they would obey

> The feventh Son was Araceus, or Harkis who between the foot of Libanus and the Mediterrane Sea (over against Tripolis) built the City of Archas, Arce, or Arca, afterwards of Sini and Arvadi.

||. V.

Ineus the eighth Son, Hierosolymitanus Ifets at Caparorfa, which Ptolemy finds in Judga, not farr from Jebus; to the South name as behind Libanus, in the edge of ce-thereof; faith Junius. But it is more proand Pliny, Symirus: Brockard, Sycon (called which he built, after the name of Shemar, Lord Synochis) near Arca. Pererius thinks that Sineus inhabited the Defarts of Sinai, or thereabout; but hereof there is no other certainty than the report of Brochard, who took view of all these places, affirming, that Sineus built Sinochis, as Zidon built Zidon. There is also another Nation of Cini, written with the letter C. (otherwise Kenai) who defcended of Hobab the Son of Raguel the Madianite, who affifted the Israelites in their conduction through the wilderness of Pharan. But the Cinki were admitted among the Ifraelites, and had a portion of Land with the Nephtalims, beside their inhabitations with Judg. 4. the Amalekites: against these Cinci, Balaam prophefied, that they should be destroyed by the Assyrians.

CHAP. VIII.

The ninth Son was Aradeus, or Arvadeus, who in the Itle of Aradus, built the City Arades: opposite against which Island, on the Main of Phanicia, they founded another City of that name, which for opposition was mathi, of Hamath (faith Beroaldus:) of which afterwards called Antaradus. To this City came Saint Peter (faith Clement) and in this nounced Emath, whereof Hamatheus was Isle preached the Gospel, and founded a Church in honour of our Lady: but we find no fuch work of his in the Alls of the Apostles. Both these two were very famous, and places of skilfull Sea-men: whom Ezechiel remembreth in his Prophecies against the Tyrians: The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad were thy Mariners.

> ||. V I. of Zemari.

F Samareus, or Zemari, the tenth Son, there are divers Opinions. Some think that he inhabited in Calosyria at Edessa, and founded Samaraim, which in Josua is placed mia, in the Tribe of Nephtali; it is manifest, in the Tribe of Benjamin. There is also Sa- that Epiphania, which standeth to the North marajim(of the same Orthography) upon the of Emesa, hath all the Province of Landi-Mountain of Ephraim (faith Beroaldus) men- cea between it and any part of the Land Berould in tioned in the second of Chron. c. 13. v. 4. divided. And if Libanon it self were not which the Latine converteth amis (faith he) shared among the Tribes, then could not by Semeron. The Hierosolymitan Paraphrast. makes Samareus (of whom were the Perizzites) the Parent of the Emissani, which Pliny tween Epiphania and any part of the Holy calls the Hemisseni, in Calosyria; and it may be that it was their first habitation, and that not be a part of Nephtali, as in the thirteenth they afterwards inhabited those other places of Josua is directly proved. For Josua countbefore remembred. But that they founded Samaria, both the Hebrew Orthography. and this place in the first of Kings (speaking of Omri) disproveth: And he bought the Mountain Samaria, or Shemeron, of one Shebable, that sineus founded sin, which Saint | mar, for two Talents of Silver, and built in the Hierome calls Sim: Ptolemy, Simyra: Mela, Mountain; and called the name of the City of the Mountain, Samaria. But of all these places I shall speak more at large in the Conquest of the Holy Land, by the children of Ifrael. Of whomfoever the Samaritans were descended, sure I am, that they were ever a perfidious Nation, and base : for as long as the state of the Jews stood up, they always called themselves Jems: when it suffered, or fank, they then utterly denied to be of that Nation or Family; for at such time as they were returned from their first captivity, they became a mixt Nation; partly of the Colonies of the Assyrians, and partly of the Naturals.

VII. of Hamathi.

He last of Canaans Sons was Hamatheus, or (according to the Hebrew) Ha-(the aspiration taken away) the same is propresent. Josephus, and Saint Hierome confound Emath with Antioch: not that Antioch which standeth on the River Orontes, on the frontier of Comagena, between the Mountain Cassius, and the Province of Pieria, and Selencis, of which Saint Peter was Bishop, and in which Saint Luke and Ignatius were born; but Antioch, furnamed Epiphania, as Beroaldus supposeth, which standeth between Apamea and Emefa in Cassiotis. Yet indeed, Emath cannot be taken for either: for both that Antioch upon Orontes, and that which neighboureth Emesa, are farther off seated from Canaan, than ever any of those Nations straggled. And whereas S. Hierom setteth Emath, which he confoundeth with Epipha-Epiphania belong unto them: for both the Provinces, Laodicea, and Libanica, are be-Land: and therefore Emath fo taken, could ing the Lands that remained unpossest, reckoneth all Mount Libanon towards the Sunrifing, from Baalgad under Mount Hermon, until we come to Hamath. And this reason (among others) is used that Emath was not in Nephtalim, or any way belonging to the Hebrew, schin. sebathe eldest Son of Chush. 15 the prefents of Tohn King of Emath, and ma, posses d both the shores of Arabia feelix. Kings. Where is the God of Hamath?

§. XIII.

of the Sons of Chush (excepting Nimrod, of whom hereafter.)

The	Sheba	And the Sons Skeba, and Sons	Havila,	(011
of	Sabt a,	And the Sons Skeba,
Chush	Kaama,	of Raama were, and Dedan,
were,	Niem I	Cours,

| I.

That most of the sons of Chush were seated in Arabia the Happy: and of the Sabaans that robbed Job: and of the Queen that came to Solomon.

Eba or Saba was the eldest fon of Chush, the eldest Son of Ham; to make a difference between Him and his Nephew Sheba, children of Israel: because David accepted Regma his brother, and sheba the Son of Reg-(therewithal) conditions of peace: which Saba took that part towards the Red-Sea, he would not have done, if that Territory as neerest his Father Chush, and the Land of had ever belonged to the children of Ifrael, the Chustes: Regma and Sheba the East coast but would have recovered it without com- of the same Arabia, which looketh into the position, and by strong hand, as he did the Gulfe of Persta; of which Pling: Sabai, Arabum rest. But this Argument (as I take it) hatin populi, propter thura clarissimi, ad utraque mano great weight: For if the promise which ria porrellis gentibus habitant; The Sabeans, God made, be considered, as it is written in people of Arabia, famous for their Frankin-Deuteronomy, then might Emath be compre- cense, extending their Nations, dwell along hended, though seated altogether without both the Seas (to wit) the Persian, and the Athe bounds of the Land promised, according rabian or Red-Sea. This Country was afterto the description of Moses and Josua: for E- wards called Arabia, à populi mixtione, saith math is indeed fituated on the other fide of Postellus. To this agreeth Ptolemy, who the Mountain of Hermon, which joyneth to Libanus; and is otherwise called Iturea. or Red-Sea, and the City Rhegama towards But whereas Hamath is named in Josua 19. v. the Persian; with whom also we may leave 25. and written in the Latine conversion E- Sabta: for so much Montanns gathereth out math, therein (saith Beroaldus) was S. Hierom of Ptolemy, because he remembreth a Natimilfaken. Emath or Iturea is that over the on (called Stabet) near the Perlan Sea; and Mountains, and the City in Nephtalim should Majjabathae which descended of them. But bewritten Hamath: and so the Septuagint Montanus hath sent Regma, or (as he calls (understanding the difference) write it Am- him) Rhama, into Carmania, for which I see math and not Emath, the same which indeed no reason. Josephus, who only attended his belongeth to the Nephtalims, seated on the own fancies, hath banished Saba or Sebato Southfide of Libanus, to the East of Assedim : the border of Ethiopia. But Beroaldus which City S. Hierom writes Emath; Jose thinks it strange, that the Sabai, which stole phus, Hamah; others, Ematkin, or Amatheos, away Job's Cattel, should run through all and the people Amathein; of which (as I Egypt, and all Arabia Petrea, and find out take it) Rabsakeh vaunteth in the second of job in Iraconitis, between Palassina and Calosyria, 1200. miles off. Now, as this conjecture was more than ridiculous, so do I think, that neither the Sabai on the Red-Sea, nor those towards the Persian Sea, could by any means execute the stealth upon 706, which foever Beroaldus shall take for nearest. But these were the Sabai of Arabia the Desart. where Guilandinus Melchior affirmeth, out of his own experience, that the City Saba is feated: the same which Ptolemy calls Save, now Semiscasae: and from this Saba in Arabia the Defart, came those Magi or Wife-men, which worthipped christ, faith Melchior, whose words are these: The Magi came neither out of Mesopotamia (as Chrysostom, Hierom, and Ambrose supposed) nor out of Arabia the Happy, as many wife-men do believe, but out of Sabain Arabia the Defart: which City, when my felf was there, was (as I judged it) called Semiscasac. And to approve this Opinion of Guilandinus, it appeareth that these Sabai were neighbours to Job, and lay fit to invade and rob him. For both the other Nations (as well those on the Persian Sea, as those the Son of his Brother Raama or Regma (or on the Red Sea) are so dif-joyned with large Ragma after Montanus) his name is written Defarts, as there is no pollibility for strangers with a fingle (8) samech, and sheba the Son to pass them, especially with any numbers of Regma, with an (s) afperat, which is the of Cattel, both in respect of the Mountains, of dentur, nec aves, imb nec arbores, nec gramen the great City of Saba; and the Nation adaliquod sed non nish montes saxosi, altissimi, asper- joining, Sabai; and to the South thereof rimi; Where there are found neither men, nor any pasture or grass, but onely sharp, and high, his brothers and nephews which were seated flony, and craggie mountains. Beroaldus and on the East side of Arabia, Hawilah by the Pererius conceive, that the Queen of Saba. bei, on the East side of Arabia felix; but the the City of Raama, or Rhegma, set neer the which came to visit solomon, was of the sacontrary seemes more probable, and that she River of Lar towards the mouth of the Perwas Queen of Saba towards the Red Sea; for | fian Sea, which ftood in Ptolemy's time. solomon at that time commanding all that part of Arabia Petrea, betwixt Idumea and the Red Sea, as far down as Midian, or Madian, and Ezion Gaber; and this Queen of Saba, which inhabited the West part of Arabia Falix, being his neighbour, might, without any far travel, enter his Territories, free from all danger of surprise by any other Prince or Nation.

130

But, to avoid tediousness, it is manifest that his Sons, Sheba and Dedan, and Sabteca, were West Athiopia, it is strange that Exaction all the possessor of Arabia the Happy, and the should couple Sheba, and Kaamah, and Dedan Defart: onely Havilah and Nimrod dwelt to- together; Dedan in the 15.Verfe, and Sheha gether on the East fide of Chush, who held and Raamah in 22. Verse, to be the Merchants . Arabia Petrea. Now, for Sabta, there is found of Tyre, if Dedan had dwelt in West Ethiof his Name, the City of Sbbatha, or Sabota opia, which is diftant from Raamah and She in the same Arabia: of which both Pling ba (the habitation of his father and brother) Pol. isk. and Ptolemy; who withall nameth Sabotale, above four thousand miles. Befides which, within the walls whereof there was some- the Merchandise that the Dedanites brought times found fixty Temples. Executel joineth to Tyre doth not make them naked Black the Father and the Son together, The Mer- Moors. For they of Dedan (faith Exechiel) chants of Sheba and Raama were thy Merchants. And that they were the Eustern Ara- thy Chariots; and these Western Athiopian bians, their Merchandise witnesseth, former- never faw cloth, till the Portugals, seeking ly repeated in the Chapter of Paradise. For those Coasts, traded with them: the Mer-Josephus his fancies, that Saba was the Parent | chandife of the Countrey being Hides, Eleof the Ethiopians about Meroe, and Sabta of phants Teeth, some Gold and Amber, Civetthe Ethiopians Astabari, they be not worthy Cats, and Rice, but nothing at all of any any farther Answer then hath already been manufacture: and all these they exchanged given: especially seeing these Cities, pre- for Linnen, or Iron chiefly. ferving the memory of the names of saba. and of Sabta in Arabia, were yet remaining within the body of the Land, was known in Ptolemy's time, though in some letters onely by imagination: and, being under the changed. As also in the coasts adjoining, the burnt Zone, was held uninhabitable. And names of other of the brethren of the Family of Chulb, with little alterations, are preserved. In Arabia the Defart, is found the City of Sabe, or save (now semiscasae) with the City in the bottom of the Mediterrane Sea, were of Rhegana for Rhegma; and the Nation by a strange, or rather a foolish sancy. Now, to Ptolemy himself called Raabeni of Raamab. In put it out of dispute, that Dedan also dwelt Arabia the Happy, is found the City of Rhe- by the rest of the children of Chush, which gama, and Rabana; which also keepeth the feats they held by that name in the time of found of Rhegma, the City of Saptha, or Sap- Hieremy the Prophet; let us hear Hieremy tab, not far from the East-coast of Arabia: as his own words: Fly, je inhabitants of Dedan, the fands, and of the extreme want of water | out difference or alteration sabatha, and to in those parts: Ubi nec homines, nec bestia vi- the West of Sabatha towards the Red Sea, Red Sca, the Region of Sabe. To all these passage of Tygris was a neighbour, to whom he might pais by Boat, even unto Rhegma

[]. II.

Josephus his opinion of Dedan, one of the Ifue of Chush, to have been feated in the West Ethiopia, disproved out of Ezechiel and Hieremy.

Nd whereas Josephus (whom in this Saint Hierom followeth, as not curious here-Seba, or Saba, Sabia, Raama, or Regma, with in) fent Dedan the Son of Raamah into the were thy Merchants in precious cloaths for

But in those days, the West part of Africa, therefore, that the Negroes of the West Ethiopia, which inhabite about Serra Liona, of Niger, could either pass by Sea or Land to Tyre, also the Metropolis and chief City in the bo- for I have brought the destruction of Estim was a Neighbour to the Idumeans: and Idu- ther is it here to be omitted, that Pintus mea is a Province of Arabia Petrea : and Debourhood of Dedan and the Idumaans, is alout of it, and will make it desolate from Teman; and they of Dedan shall fall by the sword.

6. XIII.

of the ishe of Mizraim: and of the place of Hieremie, Chap. 9. Verse 7.

A Fter Chuft, it followeth to fpeak of Miz-Thetermi-Augustine) were plural, to fignifie the Natifrom on which came of them. Luam, the elder have son of Mizraim, was the Father of the Lybibersas eim, dispersed themselves into all the Regions adjoining. Among the Sons of Shem, there is his; and either Opinion may be true. also Lud; but he is differenced from Lud the Son of Mizraim by the fingular number : the Nations are often confounded, notwithstanding the apparent difference both of Names and Nations. For, that Ludim the Son of Mizraim was the Parent of the Lybifrom Mizraim his Father, appeareth by the Prophet Hieremie, who joined them in this fort together: Come up ye Horses, and rage ye Chariots, and let the valiant men come forth, the Black-moores, and the Lybians which bear the shield: for those Nations affisted the Egyptians, being of one Parent descended. And in Ezechiel, Phut and Lud are joined together. Æthiopia (or Chush) faith Ezechiel, c. 30. v. 3. and Phut and Lud, and all the common people, and the men of the Land that are in league, shall fall with them by the sword: which is as much to fay, as the Sons of Chush (which were the Chusites) the Sons of Mizraim (which were the Egyptians) and the Lybians (defcended of his Son Lud) with other the Inhabitants of Egypt and Africa, shall fall together. Hierosolymitanus finds also in Africa a Nation of the Lidyans. And I believe it: because Hieremie joineth the Libyans and Lydians together in the place before remembred. But Libya in Africa is by the Hebrews called Ludim (faith Arias Montanus) though 2 Chron. 12. 3. they feem to be called Lubim, or Lubei, a name fomewhat neer the word Lybies, and by which it may seem that the (upon the thirtieth of Ezechiel) understanddan, which dwelt on the North part of Ara- eth that which is spoken in the third Verse bia Felix, joined in that part to Petraa, the feat of his Grand-father Chush; which neighfor his for he will have this threatning to be meant against the people of Lyda, a City (saith he) fo confirmed by Ezechiel: I will fretch out my between Egypt and Palaftina, which opinion 10 Collision Edom, and destroy Man and Beast I could not missible, if the City of Lyda were fo feated. But Lyda (which should be written Lydda, with a double d, and is the same City which was afterward Diofpolio, in which S. Peter cured Enens of the Palley) standeth neer the Torrent Gass, not farr from Joppe the Port of Hierusalem. Yet it is not imposfible but that this City might have Lnd for the Founder: For there are many Cities of one name, founded in all the Regions of the A raim's Sons, whose names (faith Saint World, and farr asunder; as after the names of Alexander, Selencus, and Antiochus, many ons which came of them. Ludim, the elder Cities called Alexandria, Seleucia and Antiochia: fo of divers others. S. Hierome maketh Lehabim to be the Father of Libya, who was the third Son of Mizraim : and so doth Postel-

The rest of Mizraim's Sons have no proper Countreys given them in the Scriptures, Son of shem being written Lud; the Son of faving Cashim and Caphtorim, of whom Mizraim, Ludim: and yet these Names and came the Philistims, whom the Scriptures call Peleset.

These Casinhim inhabited Cassiotis, a Region lying in the enterance of Egypt from Palestina, in which the Lake Sirbonis, and ans in Africa, and that he was seated not far the Mountain Cassius are found, not far from whence Pompey was buried.

Caphtorim feated near Cassubim in that Tract of Egypt called Sethrotis, not far from Pelusium. Strabo calls it Sethrotis; Stephanus and Pliny, Sethroitis, of the City Sethron: which Ortelius takes to be the same which Ptolemy calls Hercules parva. Of the Casluhim and Caphtorim came the Philistims, which are called by the Septuagint Allophyli (which is) Alienigenæ, Strangers, or of a strange kindred. These Philistims inhabited the South part of the Holy Land towards Egypt, of whom Palestina took name. For the Hebrews (saith Isidore) do not use the letter (p) but infteed of it (ph.) Their principal Cities were Gaza, Afcalon, Azotus, Geth, and Accaron: and the people of them called Gasei, Ascalonita, Azotii, Gethai, and Accaronita: Isidore affirms that Ascalon was first called Philistim; and of that City the Countrey adjoining. But where Isidore had it, I know not.

The first known King of the Philistims was that Abimelech, who had a liking to Abrahams wife; with whom Abraham made a covenant and league. This Abimelech dwelt indeed at this time in Gerar; but it is writtruer writing is, not Libres, but Lybies. Neidy of the South part of Arabia, called with- on him. Hereby it appeareth, that Dedit in regard that this or some antienter Abime- be ambiguous, as well as he doth Cyrene: lech governed the Common-wealth greatly taking it here not for Cyrene in Africa but to his glory, the rest of his successors called for a place in Media. For it is written in the the Affrians carried away the inhabitants of same of the Affrians carried away the inhabitants of same of the Affrians carried away the inhabitants of same of the Affrians carried away the inhabitants of same of the Affrians carried away the inhabitants of same of the Affrians carried away the inhabitants of same of the Affriance of the Affricance of t the Mediterran Sea to the Northward, from Damajeus into Kir: and so Josephus seems to the Caute of ringrims Concern to Cagaren 1 a ing this Cyrene, Media Superior: for it was the lessina, or Stratons Tower) which was the Lagina, on our anous tower) which was the manner and policy of the Affyrians to trans-River of Egypt. The Anakims or strong Gyants were of these Philistims: and Goliah named. They had sometimes five Kings, saith called Syro-Media: because the Syrians by Lyranus. They mastered the Israelites at se- the Asyrians were therein captived. veral times above 150. years, and kept them Tributaries, till they were weakened by sampson and samuel; but in the end, this yoke was taken off by David, and laid on themselves. It is Objected, that because these Cities and the Countries adjoyning, were held by the Sons of Mizraim, therefore did the Ifraelites disposses the Sons of Mizrain, and not of Canaan, by forcing those places.

To this faith Pererius, that although the Palæstines or Philistims held it in the time of Josua, yet at the time of the Promise it was possessed by the Canaanites; as in the second of Deuteronomy. The Hevites dwelt in the Villages unto Gaza. And what marvel, if (the Canaanites being the greater part) the denomination were from them? For that the Philistims were of Caphtor, and so of Mizraim, and not of Canaan, befides Mofes, the Hier : 47. Prophet Jeremy witnesseth: The Lord will destroy the Philistims: the remnant of the iffire of Caphtor: and in like manner in the and Story of the Hebrews: (For of Sem was Amos 9 ninth of Amos, the Philistims are faid to be the reliques of Caphtorim: Have not I brought up Israel out of the Land of Egypt, and the Philistims from Caphtor, and Aram from Kir? fo I read this place with divers of the learned. For whereas the Vulgar hath, and Palastinos de Cappadocia, & Syros de Cyrene, this conversion Beroaldus condemneth; where Caphtor is taken for Cappadocia, and Cyrene for Kir. For Cyrene is a City directly West from Egypt, between Ptolomais or Barce and Apollonia; but Kir in Asia under the Assprians: Junius hath it Kir, and not Cyrene; and so hath the Geneva. But Pere-Of which bable if he mean Cappadocia in Palefina, and and to whom Ophir and Havilah the Sonsof not that Cappadocia by the Sea Pontus in the

3-Stupon these words: Wherefore Isaac went to Abime-Istina, it is not certainly known. And sure in these words ... more space many this manner he may expound Cappadocia to lech King of the Philiftims unto Gerar. Now this manner he may expound Cappadocia to second of Kings, that Teglatphalasser King of con did the Samaritans or Israelites, and other Nations. And hereof it came that Kir was

> 6. XV. of the iffue of Sem.

| I. of Elam, Affur, Arphaxad, and Lud.

It remaineth lastly to speak of the Sons of sem, who are thefe:

- I. Alam, or Elam,
- 2. Afhur, 3. Arphaxad.
- 4. Lud, and
- 5. Aram.

He posterity of sem, Moses recounteth after the rest: because from them he proceedeth in order with the Genealogie Abraham descended.)

Of these five Sons, the Scriptures remember the length of the life of Arphaxad only, and only the Children of him and Aram; the rest are barely spoken of by rehersal of their names, faving that it may be gathered, that Assur (who was supposed to found Ninive) was also said to be the Father of the Affyrians, whose issues, and the issues of cham, instantly contended for the Empire of the East: which sometimes the Afgrians, some times the Babylonians obtained, according to the virtue of their Princes. This is the common opinion, which also teacheth usthat rius calls Caphtorim Cappadocia, according all the East parts of the World were pco to the Vulgar translation, to which he is pled by Affur, Elam, and Lud (faving India) bound : and yet it is not altogether impro- which I believe Noah himself first inhabited Jostan afterward repaired: Hi filii Sem ab North of Afathe Lefs. For whether they in Euphrate fluvio partem Afiæ ufque ad Oceanum habited Setbreites , or Cappadocia of Pale Indicum tennerunt ; Thefe sons of Sem (faith (St. Hierom) held all those Regions from Eu- the Chustes, because he established the first phrates to the Indian Ocean.

Of Elam came the Elamites, remembred, Li. 1.7 Acts 2. v. 9. and the Princes of Persia; which name then began to be out of use and lost, when the Persians became Masters of Babypeople apart. But Susa (which the Scriptures hereafter. call Sulan) in Elam was the Kings feat of Perco 8 v 2 sia (witness Daniel) And I saw (faith he) in a Vision, and when I saw it, I was in the palace of the common opinion, taken from Josephus Sulan, which is in the Province of Elam. This and Saint Hierom; but I fee not by what rea-Pol Afe City is embraced by the River Enleus (acpm. 8.1. cording to Ptolemy) in Daniel, Ulai: and feated in the border of Suliana.

Ashur (asmost Historians believe) the second Son of Sem, was Father of the Affrians, who disdaining the pride of Nimred, parted from Babel, and built Ninive, of equal beauty and magnitude with Babylon, or exceeding it. But we shall in due place disprove that opinion. Every mans hand hath been in this Story, and therefore I shall not need herein to speak much: for the Asyrians fo often invaded and spoiled the Israelites,

But howfoever Herodotus and D. Siculus extend this Empire, and honour this Nation with ample Dominion; yet was not the state of the Affrians of any fuch power, after fuch Greeks Mesopotamia simply. time as Sardanapalus lost the Empire. For these vaunts of Senacherib in Esay the 37. whom my Fathers have destroyed: as Gozan, Aramenians and Arameans. and Haran, and Reseph, and the children of Eden which were at Telassar? Where is the King of Hamath, and the King of Arphad, and of Eden: sephar, and others of this fort.

Empire: from whom the most memorable ftory of the World taketh beginning.

Of Arphaxad came the Chaldeans, faith Saint Hierom and Josephus; but it must be those Chaldeans about Ur: For the Sons of lonia: the East Monarchy being established Cham possess the rest. It is true that he was in them. Some prophane Writers distinguish the Father of the Hebrews: For Arphaxad Elam from Persia, and make the Elamites a begat shela, and shela, Heber, of whom

And that Lud, the fourth Son of shem, gave name to the Lydians in Alia the less, is fon he was moved to ftraggle thither from his friends.

| II.

Of Aram, and his Sons.

A Ram the first and last Son of shem was the Parent of the Syrians: of which Damascus was head. Their name was chang- Efty 7. 8. ed from Aram or Aramites by Syrus (faith Eusebius out of Josephus) which Syrus lived Euseb. p. before Moses was born; the same which o- 10. c. destroyed their Cities, and led them Cap- thers call the Son of Apollo. Mesopotamia tives, as both in Divine and Humane letters also, being but a Province of Syria, had the there is large, and often mention of this name of Aram Naharajim, which is as much to fay, as, syria duorum fluviorum; syria compassed with two Rivers, (to wit) Tygris and Euphrates. The Scriptures call it Mesopotamia, Syria, and Padan Aram: and the Arise and get thee to Padan Aram (faith Isa- Gen. 18. Senacherib, who was one of the powerfullest ac to facob) to the house of Bethuelthy Mothers 2 fee Princes among them, had yet the Mountain Father, and thence take thee a wife. Strabo 10 allo Taurus for the utmost of his Dominion to- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Deut. 3, 4 wards the North-east, and Syria bounded ram, or Aramea, as these his own words conhim towards the West, notwithstanding verted witness: Quos nos Syros vocamus, ip-19. f Syri Aramenios & Arameos vocant; Those Pfal 59. Have the Gods of the Nations delivered them which we call Syrians (faith he) themselves call Snab. 1. 1.

Against this opinion, that Aram the Son of Sem was the Father and Denominator of the Syrians in general; (and not only of those the King of the City Sepharuaim, Hena and in Syria Inter-Amnis, which is Mesopotamia). lvah? All these were indeed but petty Kings | some read, Genes. 22. 21. Kemuel, the Father of Cities, and small Countries, as Haran in of the Syrians: where others out of the ori-Mesopotamia: Reseph in Palmyrena: Hamath ginal read Kemuel, the Son of Aram. Nei or Emath in Iturea, under Libanus: the Isle ther is it any inconvenience for us to understand the word (Aram) here, not for the Yea, Nebuchadonozor, who was most pow- Nation, but for the name of some one of erful before the conquest of Egypt, had but note; the rather, because in the History of Chaldea, Mesepotamia, and Syria, with Pale- Abraham and Isaac (which was in time long fina, and Phamicia, parts thereof. But in before Kemnels Posterity could be famous) this question of Assur, I will speak my opini- we find Mesopotamia called Aram; and that on freely when I come to Nimrod, whose with an addition, sometimes with Naharajim Plantation I have omitted among the rest of and sometimes of Padan, to distinguish it also was called Aram. For whereas Junius thinks, in his Notes upon Gen. 25. 20. that Padan-Aram ought to be restrained to some part of Mesopotamia (to wit) to that part which Ptolemy calls Ancobaritis (so called from the River Chaboras, which, dividing it, runneth into Euphrates) the promiseuous use of Padan Aram and Aram Naharajim (which latter appellation questionless comprehends the whole Mesopotamia) may seem to resute this Opinion: especially seeing the signification of this appellation agreeth with the whole Region. For it fignifieth as much as the yoak of Syria, which name agreeth with this Region: because the two Rivers (as it were) yoaked together go along it. The Reliques of the name Padan appear in the name of two Cities, in Ptolemy, called Aphadana (as Junius hath well noted) the one upon Chaboras, the other upon Euphrates.

fee in the fecond

134

The Sons of Aramwere, Sether, and Mesch, or Mes.

in trad.

Uz, or Hus, inhabited about Damascus, and built that City, saith Josephus and Saint Hierom. But Tostatus mistaking this Opinion, both in them and in Lyra, who also followeth Josephus, affirmeth, that Abraham's Steward. Eliezer, was the Founder thereof; though it were likely that Hus, the eldest Son of Aram, dwelt neer unto his Father, who inhabited the same, adjoining to Arabia the Desart, and to Batanea, or Traconitie; whereof the Prophet Hieremy: Rejoyce and be glad, O Lam. chap: daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the Land 4. v. 21. of Hus. Hus therefore is seated beyond fordan, in the East Region of Traconitis adjoining to Basan, having Batanea Gaulonitis, and the Mountain Seir to the East, Edrai to the South, Damascus North, and Jordan West: having in it many Cities and People, as may also be gathered out of Hieremy: And all forts of people, and all the Kings of the Land of Hus. In this Region dwelt Job, descended of Hus, the Son of Nabor, the Brother of Abraham (faith S. Hierom) and married Dina the Daughter of Jacob, faith Philo.

Hul, the second Son of Aram, S. Hierom makes the Father of the Armenians; and Genot where to set him) I do not disprove, time was the Earth divided.

from another Aram, which (as it feems) then | though I fee no reason why Gether should leave the fellowship of his own Brethren, and dwell among strangers in Asia the less. Junius gives Hul (whom he writes Chul) the Defart of Palmyrena, as far as Euphrates, where Ptolemy fetteth the City of cholle.

Gether (faith Josephus) founded the Bactrians: but Josephus gave all Noah's children feathers, to carry them far away in all halt. For mine own Opinion, I always keep the rule of Neighbourhood, and think with Junius (to wit) That Gether feated himself neer his Brothers in the Body of Syria, and in the Province of Calliotis, and Selencis, where Ptolemy placeth Gindarus, and the Nation by Pliny called Gindareni.

Junius also giveth to Mes, or Mesch the North part of Syria, between Cilicia and Me-Sopotamia, neer the Mountain Masius. The certainty of those Plantations can no otherwise be known than by this probability, that Aram the Father (of whom that great Region took name) planted his Sons in the same Land about him: for he wanted no scope of Territory for himself and them; neither then when the World was newly planted, nor in many hundred years after: and therefore there is no reason to cast them in the Desart parts of the World, so far asunder. And as necessity and policy held them together for a while; fo ambition (which began together with Angels and Men) inhabiting the hearts of their children, set them asunder. For although these Sons of Aram, and the Sons of the rest of Noab's children, kept the body of syria. For Hus was a Region of themselves within the bounds of some one large Kingdom; yet therein every one also fought a Province apart, and to themselves; giving to the Cities, therein built, their own names, thereby to leave their memory to their Posterity: the use of letters being then rare, and known to few.

In this fort did the pride of the Spaniards in America cast them into so many Provinces: every one emulating and disdaining the greatness of other, as they are thereby to this day subject to invasion, expulsion, and destruction: so as (Nova Hispania and Peru excepted, because those Countreys are unaccessible to strangers) an easie force wil cast them out of all the rest.

Mes, the fourth Son, is made the Parent of the Maonians: of whom fomthing hath been spoken already. Arphaxad, the third Son of ther, the third son, Parent to the Acarranians, Shem, begat Shelah, and Heber. Heber had confirm two Sons, Phaleg and Jostan: and in Phaleg's sati | III.

Of the division of the Earth in the time of Phaleg, one of the Sons of Heber, of the issue of Sem.

The many People which at the division ready remembred out of Ctessas) against Zo-(at Phaleg's birth) were then living and the through Plantation of all the East part of the World (at his death) hath made a doubt, whether the Earth were divided at not hapned before the death of Phaleg, there either. The Hebrews (faith Pererius out of had needed no division at that time at all. Sedar Holam, one of their Chronicles) affirm For some of them were so ill satisfied with that this partition hapned at the death of their portions, as they fought to be mafters Phaleg: and Phaleg was born in the year after of all, and greater Armies were there never the Floud 101. and lived in all 239. years, which numbers added, make 340. And wherefore in this Opinion there is little aptherefore was it fo many years after the Floud, ere the children of Noah fevered themselves. But to this Opinion of the Hebrews, and the doubt they make, how in fo few years as 101. (the time of Phaleg's birth) the Earth: It was never meant that the so many people could be increased, Pererius Earth could be filled every where at the vegives this Answer, That if 70 persons of the Family of Jacob increased to 600000. fighting men in 215. years (besides women, children and impotent persons) how much more is it likely, that fo foon after the Floud the children of Noah might, in a shorter time, bring forth many multitudes, having stantly upon the confusion of Languages, received the bleffing of God, Increase and multiply, and fill the Earth? What strength on; and so neither at the birth nor death of this Answer hath, let others judge : for the | Phaleg : for Phaleg was born in the year 101. children of Ifrael were 70. and had 215. years after the Floud, which was the year that time: and the Sons of Noah were but three, Nimrod came into Shinaar, or ten years after and had but 101. yeares of time, to the birth | he arrived, faith Berofus.

Johl I. as Josephus and S. Augustine, who reason in the name had been given him at the time of Minguit, this manner. If the division were at Phaleg's this consusion and partition: to this Objethis manner. If the divition were at Protegs of this community and partition, the change of the case, death (which happened in the year, which the case is commonly held to be the 48. of Abraham, Asyrians, 80. years before this division (as changed, it is most probable. to. in Assirians, 80. years before this division (as for this, this division is placed by the Hebrews, Hie-Pharms the King thereof, with his Wife and feven Children; vanquished all those Regions between Nilus and Tanais, the Egyptians, Phanicians, the Kingdoms of Syria, and all the Nations of Persia, to the Hyrcanian Sea. For the number which followed Ninus (alroafter and others: and Zoroafter on the other side, who made resistance with 400000 prove it sufficiently, that if the division had gathered than by Ninus and Semiramis : pearance of the truth.

But for that conceit, that if the division had been made at the birth of Phaleg, there were not then fufficient numbers born to fill ry instant, but by times and degrees. And furely, what soever mens Opinions have been herein, yet it is certain, that the division of Tongues and of Men must go neer together with the ceasing of the work at Babel: and that the enterprise of Babel was left off inwhere followed the execution of the divisi-

Now, if it be objected, That Phaleg (the Others conceive that Phaleg took that Etymologie of whose name signifieth Divisiname after the division, in memory thereof: on must have lived without a name, except but was, bymore likely, computation 12. years the Scriptures; for Jacob was called Israel before his birth) then was the divition 38. after he had wrestled with the Angel; Abrayears after Ninus, who governed 52. years: ham was first Abram; and Edom, Esau; and in the 43. year of whose Reign Abraham was that Phaleg being a principal man in this diborn. But when Ninus began to rule the vision, had his first name upon this accident

And lastly, whereas the Hebrews, Saint rom and Chrisostom) then was the Earth so Hierom, and Chrysostom, account Heber for peopled in all the East and Northern parts, a great Prophet, if that by giving his Son as greater numbers have not been found at the name Phaleg, he foretold the division any time fince. For Ninus, affociating to him- which followed: to this I fay, I do not find felf Arians King of Arabia, a People who at that Heber deserved any such honour, if he that time (faith Diodorus Siculus) plurimum had thereupon so called his Son: for diviopibus atque armis prastabant, Exceeded both sion and dispersion followeth increase of in riches and bodies of men, subdued many people of necessity; and this Prophecy Cities in Armenia; received Barzanis into (if any fuch had been) might also have grace; then invaded Media, and crucified reference to the divition, which after thing either curious or monstrous.

11. III. of

The first Book of the first Part of the sons of Joctan, the other son of Heber.

N. IV.

[I. Elmodad. 2. Saleph, or Salep, or Sheleph. 2. saleph, or satep, or sateph.
3. Afamath, or Chatzar.
4. Jare, or Jaraah, or Jerath.
5. Hadoram.
6. Uzal, or Uxal.
7. Dicklach, or Dicla.
8. Obal, or Ebal, or Hobal.
9. Abimael.
9. 10. Sheba, or Seba. 11.Ophir, or Opir. 12. Havilah, or Chavila, and 13.Jobab.

Lithofe Sons of Jolian (according to A Saint Hierom) dwelled in the East parts or heads of Indus.

But the certain places of those thirteen Sons cannot be gathered out of the Scriptures, the words of Moses being general: Gen. to 30. And their dwelling was from Mesha as thou goest unto Separ a Mount in the East. Of all | ther East. these thirteen Sons, there were only three memorable, (to wit) sheba, Ophir, and Havilab. Concerning whose names, to avoid confusion, it is to be observed, that among the Sons of Chulb, two of them had also the names of Sheba and Havilah. Abraham had by his wife Ketura. But Sebathe Son of Chuft, have left in Arabia falix; and Havilah the the Father of the Sabaans in Persia: of which Nations Dionysius de Orbis situ maketh mention; Primum Sabæi; post hos sunt Passanear these the Tasci. And whereas it is writ-Gen. 15. 6. ten: But unto the Sons of the Concubines | the Temple. which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and wards fell amongst the Hebrews themselves | Hereupon it is supposed, that this Saba the But if we give a reasonable time to the Son of Abraham wandered into Persia: for Building of the Tower and City of Babel, in Persia was accounted the furthermost Eastwhich time many people (by reason and by Country in respect of Judea; which also which time many people by reason and by demonstrative proof) might be increased: Ovid setteth under the Sun-rising. Yet see-Mag. and that upon the fall thereof the confution ing the rest of Abraham's Sons seated themand division followed (whereupon Phaleg selves on the borders of Judga: Irather took name) then in this opinion there is no-choose to leave Saba the Son of Abraham in City of that name.

But Saba, the Son of Jostan, the Son of Heber (as I conceive) inhabited India it self. For Dionysius Afer in his Periegesis (or description of the World) which he wrote in Greek with Verse, among the Regions of India findeth outs Verle, among the Regions of Indian indetti and a Nation called the Sabei. Taxilis hos inter medios habitatque Sabæus; In the middest of and these dwell the Sabai, and the Taxili, saith of Ophir one of Joctan's Sons, and of Peru, and of that voyage of Solomon.

||. V.

Phir also was an inhabitant of the East India, and (as St. Hierom understands it) in one of the Islands plentiful with Gold. which are now known by the name of Molucca. Josephus understands Ophir to be one of those great head-lands in India, which by Cophe or Choos, which is one of the branches a general name are called Chersoness, or Perious; Callecut and Malacon. Pererius takes it rightly for an Island, as St. Hierom doth, but he sets it at the head-land of Malacca. But Ophir is found among the Moluccas far-

Arias Montanus, out of the second of Chronicles, the third Chapter and fixth Verse, gathers that Ophir was Peru in America, looking into the West Ocean, commonly called Mare del Sur, or the South Sea; by others, Mare pacificum. The words, in the fecond of also a third Saba, or Sheba, his Grand-child the Chronicles, are these: And be over-layed the house with precious stones for beauty; and and Sheha the Son of Rhegma his Nephew we the gold was gold of Parvaim. Junius takes this gold to be the gold of Havilah, remem-Son of Chush upon Tygris. Saba the Grand-bred by Moses in the description of Paradise: child of Abraham was (as some have thought) And the gold of that Land is good: finding a gin Town in Characene, a Province of Sustana, Phil called Barbatia; so called (as he thinks) by " corruption for Parvaim: from whence those gardæ; prope vero hos funt Tafci: The first Kings subjected by David, brought this are Sabaans, after their be Paffægarde; and gold, with which they presented him ; and which David preserved for the inriching of

But this fancy of Peru hath deceived mafent them away from Isac his Son (while he ny men, before Montanus, and Pleffis, who yet lived) Eastward to the East-Country: also took Ophir for Peru. And that this Quewhich Atabaliba commanded (a Prince of firmed to be. magnificence, riches, and dominion inferior to none) some of the Spaniards, utterly ignorant of that language, demanding by fignes (as they could) the name of the Country, and pointing with their hand athwart a the name of Peru, which hath continued eassured me; which also Acosta the Fesuite in his natural and moral History of the Indies confirmeth. And whereas Montanus also findeth, that a part of the Indies (called Juyou? For when the spaniards ask'd the name of that place (no man conceiving their meaning) one of the Salvages answered Judiscovered, pointed to the Hills afar off, to have guided him. one of the people answered, Paria, which is as much to fay, as, high Hills or Mountains. ed to the Strait of Magellan, from eight dethe name of Paria.

flion may be a subject of no further dispute; the name of that felf place which the Sea it is very true that there is no Region in the encompassed, they answered, Caeri, which World of that name: fure I am, that at least, fignifieth an Island. And in this manner have America hath none, no not any City, Village many places, newly discovered, been entior Mountain fo called. But when Francis tuled, of which Peru is one. And therefore Pilarro first discovered those Lands to the we must leave Ophir among the Moluccas, South of Panama, arriving in that Region whereabout such an Island is credibly af-of the History of the World.

Now, although there may be found Gold in Arabia it felf (towards Persia) in Havidah, now Susiana, and all alongst that East Indian shore; yet the greatest plenty is taken up at the Philippines, certain Illands planted River, or Torrent, or Brook that ran by, the by the Spaniards, from the East India. And Indians answered Peru, which was either the by the length of the passage which solomons name of that Brook, or of Water in general. Ships made from the Red-Sea (which was The spaniards thereupon conceiving that three years in going and coming) it feemeth the people had rightly understood them, set they went to the uttermost East, as the Moit down in the Diurnal of their enterprise, luccas or Philippines. Indeed these that now and so in the first description made, and sent | go from Portugal, or from hence, finish that over to charles the Emperor, all that West | navigation in two years, and sometimes less: part of America to the South of Panama, had and Solomon's Ships went not above a tenth part of this our course from hence. But we ver fince, as divers spaniards in the Indies must consider, that they evermore kept the coast, and crept by the shores, which made the way exceeding long. For before the use of the compass was known, it was impossible to navigate a-thwart the Ocean; catan) took that name of Jostan, who as he and therefore solomon's Ships could not find supposeth navigated from the utmost East of | Peru in America. Neither was it needfull India to America: it is most true, that Juca- for the Spaniards themselves (had it not tan is nothing else in the language of that been for the plenty of Gold in the East In-Country, but [What is that?] or [What say | dia Islands, farr above the Mines of any one place of America) to fail every year to the West part of America thither, and there to have strongly planted, and inhabited the catan (which is) What ask you, or What Jay | richeft of those Islands: wherein they built you? The like happened touching Paria, a City called Manilia. Solomon therefore a Mountainous Country on the South fide of needed not to have gone farther off than Trinidado, and Margarita: for when the Ophir in the East, to have sped worse: nei-Spaniards inquiring (as all men do) the ther could he navigate from the East to the names of those new Regions which they West in those days, whereas he had no coast

Toftatus also gathereth a fantastical Opinion out of Rabanus, who makes Ophir to be For at Paria begins that marvellous ledg of a Countrey, whose mountains of Gold are Mountains, which from thence are continu- kept by Griffins: which mountains Solinus affirmed to be in Scythia Aliatica, in these grees of North latitude to the 52. of South: words: Nam cum Auro & Gemmis affluant, and so haththat Country ever fince retained Griphes tenent universa, alites ferocissima, Arimaspi cum his dimicant, &c. For where-The same happened among the English, as these Countreys abound in Gold and rich which I fent under Sir Richard Greenevile to Stones, the Griffins defend the one and the inhabit Virginia. For when some of my other: a kind of Fowl, the fiercest of all other; people asked the name of that Country, one with which Griffins a Nation of people, called of the Salvages answered, Wingandacon, Arimaspi, make Warr. These Arimaspi are said which is as much to fay, as, Ton wear good to have been men with one eye onely, like cloaths, or gay cloaths. The same happened unto the Cyclops of sicilia : of which Cyclops, to the spaniard in alking the name of the Herodotus, and Ariftens make mention: and Island Trinidado: for a Spaniard demanding so doth Lucan in his third Book: and Valerius on) I believe none of them. And for these ophir past into the Islands adjoining. And Arimaspi, I take it that this name signifying one-eyed, was first given them, by reason that took name of Havilah the Son of Jostan: but one fight in the middle to ferve both eyes; and not that they had by nature any fuch defect. But solinus borroweth these things out of Pliny, who fpeaks of fuch a Nation in the extreme North, at a place called Gisolitron, or Shur, which is before Egypt. But, that sant we the Cave of the North-east wind. For the rest, as all Fables were commonly grounded hath suspected. For an end we may conupon some true Stories, or other things done: so might these tales of the Griffins receive this moral: That if those men, which fight at the first feated by their Brethren about against so many dangerous passages for Gold, the Hill Massus, or Mesh, Gen. 10.30. (to wit) or other riches of this World, had their perfect fenses, and were not deprived of half length, either themselves, or their issues retheir eye-fight (at least of the eye of right moved into the East-India, leaving the other reason and understanding) they would content themselves with a quiet and moderate estate; and not suject themselves to famine, corrupt air, violent heat and cold, and to all forts of miserable diseases. And though this Fable be feigned in this place, yet, if such a tale were told of some other places of the World, where wilde Beafts or Serpents defend mountains of Gold, it might be avowed. For there are in many places of the World, especially in America, many high and impasfable mountains, which are very rich, and full of Gold, inhabited onely with Tygers, Lions, and other ravenous and cruel Beafts: unto which if any man ascend (except his strength be very great) he shall be sure to find the fame warr which the Arimaspi make against the Griffins: not that the one or other had any themselves or their young ones, they grow inraged and adventurous. In like fort it may be faid that the Alegartos (which the Egyptians call the Crocodyles) defend those Pearls which lie in the Lakes of the In-land: for many times the poor Indians are eaten up by them, when they dive for the Pearl. And though the Alegartos know not the Pearl yet they find favour in the flesh and bloud of the Indians, whom they devour.

Flaceus:

Flaccus

||. V I.

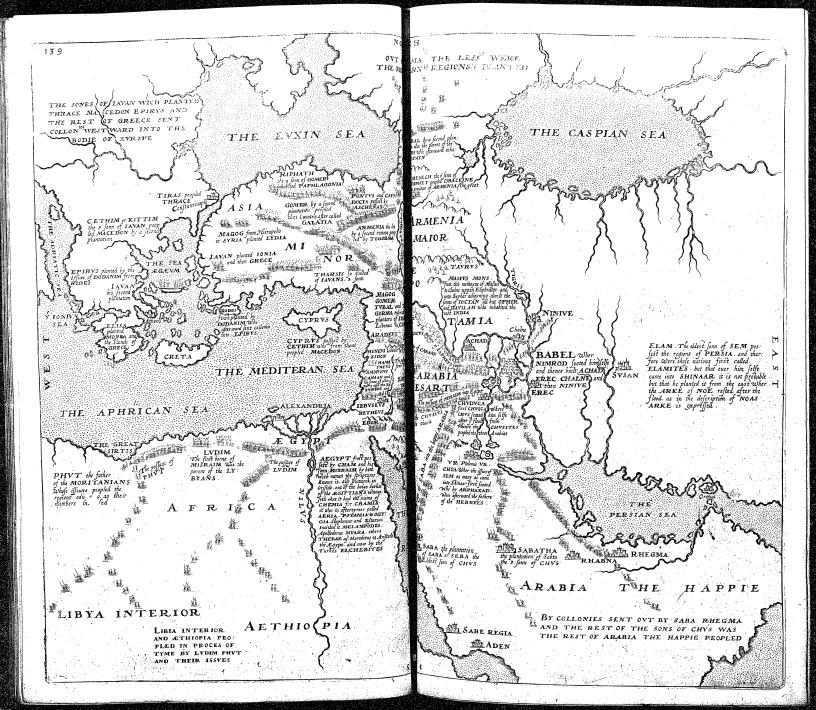

of Havilah the Son of Joctan, who also passed into the East-Indies : and of Mesha and Sepher named in the bordering of the families of Joctan: with a Conclusion of this Difcourse touching the plantation of the World.

F Havilah the Son of Jostan, there is nothing else to be said, but that the gene-

Flaccus: and D. Siculus, in the Story of Ale- ral Opinion is, that he also inhabited in the raccus, and b. cremms, in the conjunction of the continent, from which xander Macedon, But (for mine own Opinimeant by Havilah in the East-India, which Havilah which Pifon compasseth, was so called of Havilah, the Son of Chus, as is formerly proved by this place of Scripture: & aul smote clude, that of the thirteen Sons of Jostan, these three, Saba, Havilah, and Ophir; though Families of Jostan, to fill the Countreys of their first plantations, which the Scripture defines to have been from Mesh unto sephar. And although S. Hierome take Mesh to bea Region of the East-India, and Sephar a Mountain of the fame (which Mountain, Montanus would have to be the Andes in America) those fancies are farr beyond my understanding. For, the word (East) in the Scriptures, where it hath reference to Judea, is never farther extended than into Persia. But Mesch is that part of the Mountain of Masins in the North of Mesopotamia, out of which the River Chaboras springeth, which runneth by Charran: and in the same Region we also find for sephar (remembred by Moses) Sipphara by Ptolemy, standing to the East of the Mountain Masius; from whence, fense of the Gold, or feek to defend that me- Jost an having many Sons, some of them tal, but being disquieted, or made afraid of might pass into India, hearing of the beauty and riches thereof. But this was in process

The other fashion of Planting I understand not, being grounded but upon mens imaginations, contrary to reason and possibility. And that this Mountain in the East was no farther off than in those Regions before remembred, it appeareth by many places of the Scripture where the same phrase is used: as in Numbers 23. Balac the King of Moab 10/11. hath brought me from Aram, out of the Monttain of the East; which was from the East part of Mesopotamia. For Balac brought Balaam out of Mesopotamia (witness this place of Deuteronomy:) Because they hired Balaam the son of Beor, of Pethor in Aram Naha con rajim, to curse thee: for Aram Naharajim was soft Syria fluviorum, which is Mesopotamia, as

This plantation of the World after the

Floud doth best agree (as to me it seems) | darkest forgetfulness ought to have buthese later Times) have, by their many Vo- Medes, Hibernian, Cappadocians, Phrygians, statues and Trophies to those, whom the Founders and true Parents.

with all the places of Scripture compared ried, and covered over for evermore. And together. And these be the reports of rea- although the length and dissolving nature of fon and probable conjecture; the guides time hath worn out or changed the names which I have followed herein, and which and memory of the Worlds first Planters af-Thave chosen to go after; making no valu- ter the Floud (I mean the greatest number, ation of the opinions of men, conducted by and most part of them) yet all the footsteps their own fancies, be they ancient or mo- of Antiquity (as appears by that which hath dern. Neither have I any end herein, pri- been spoken) are not quite worn out, nor vate or publick, other than the discovery of over-grown: for Babylon hath to this day the truth. For as the partiality of man to himself found of Babel; Phanicia hath Zidon, to which hath difguifed all things: fo the factious and City the eldeft Son of Canaan gave name; fo hireling Historians of all Ages (especially of hath Cilicia, Tharsis; and the Armenians, himes of untrue reports, left Honour with- the Syrians, Idumaans, Libyans, Moors, and out a Monument, and Virtue without Memo- other Nations, have preferred from the ry: and (in stead thereof) have erected death of forgetfulness some signs of their first of the proceeding from the first Covernment under the eldest of the Families to be Regal and from Regal absolute, to Regal tempered with Laws.

CHAP. IX.

Of the Beginning and Establishment of Government.

§. Ï.

"I followeth now, to intreat how the the chief Magistrates, as they were, so they are then as Kings, and the eldest of Families as | Councel by the name of Senate. Princes. Hereof it came, that the word | But, though these reasons may well be bers, God commanded Moses to gather toge them the eldest Sons. And from thence did Then the Assembly believed them as those that proper power. The kinds of this seignourie; God hath given thee the Office of an Elder. De- Ship: The correlative of the one is the Submosthenes useth the same word for the Ma- ject; of the other, the Slave. Ad Casarens giltrate among the Grecians. Cicero in Cato (faith he) potestas omnium pertinet; ad singiveth two other reasons for this appellati- gulos proprietas 3. Casar hath power over all,

World began to receive Rule and called, Eldermen: And again, Ratio & pru-Government, which (while it had dentia nife effent in senibus, non summum Conscarcity of people) under-went no cilium Majores nostri appellassent Senatum; if other Dominon than Paternity and reason and advisement were not in old men; Eldership. For the Fathers of Nations were our Ancestours had never called the highest (Elder) was always used, both for the Ma-given, yet we doubt not, but in this name of gistrate, and for those of Age and Gravity: (Elders) for Governours, or Counsellours of the same bearing one fignification almost in State, there is a sign that the first Governours all Languages. For, in the Eleventh of Num- were the Fathers of Families; and under ther 70. of the Elders of the people, and the French, Italian, and Spaniard, take the Governours over them: the Hebrew bearing word (signor) and out of it (seignourie) for the same sence which the Latine word Senes, Lordship and Dominion: signifying (accordor Seniores doth. So it is written in Susanna, ing to Loyseau) puissance in propriety, or were the Elders and Judges of the people. And Seneca makes two: The one; Potestas aut so in the words of those false Judges and imperium, Power or command: the other, Winefes to Daniel, Shew it unto us, feeing Proprietas aut dominum; Propriety or maferon: And Lacedamonios qui amplissimum and every man propriety in his own: And Magiftratum gerunt, ut sunt, sic etiam appelagain, Casar omnia imperio possidet, singuli dolantur, Senes; Among the Lacedamonians, minio; Casar holdeth all in his power, and nature but the immortal) made both the wife and foolish understand at once, that far more miserable than that of beasts, and that a general floud of confusion would a

(by interchange of times) more mighty than themselves: the feeble fell under the forequal harms. Infomuch, that the licentious that first kindled this light in the minds of disorder (which seemed to promise a liberty upon the first acquaintance) proved, upon a better trial, no less perillous than un-fecond time over-flow them, did they not,

by a general obedience to Order and Dominion, prevent it. For the mighty, who trustindurable bondage.

These Arguments, by Necessity propounwhich approved, Sovereign power, bethought it self of certain equal rules, in except it were given thee from above. which Dominion (in the beginning boundless) might also difeern her own limits. For that the World hath been governed from before the invention of Laws, private affections in supream Rulers made their own fancies both their Treasurers and Hangmen; measuring by this Yard, and weighing in this Ballance, both good and evil.

For as wisedom in Eldership preceded the rule of Kings; fo the will of Kings forelegibus tenebatur: arbitria principum prole- And lastly, by a Justice civil, begottenby every man possessition. But as men and gibus erant; The people were not governed by vice began abundantly to increase: so obe- any other laws than the wills of Princes. Hereof vice began abundancy to increase to be dience (the fruit of natural reverence, which it followed, that when Kings left to be but from excellent feed feldome ripeneth) good, neither did those men's Virtues value being exceedingly over-shadowed with them which were not fancied by their Kings, pride, and ill examples, utterly withered nor those men's Vices deforme them that prince, and in examples, access, while the following and fell away. And the foft weapons of Pa-were. Amor interdum nimis videt, interdum ternal persivasions (after man-kind beganto nihil videt 3. Love secs one while too much, anoneglect and forget the Original and first ther while flark nothing. Hence it came to giver of life) became in all over-weak, ei-palle, that after a few years (for direction ther to refift the first inclination of evil, or and restraint of Royal power) Laws wereeafter (when it became habitual) to conftrain thablished: and that Government which had it. So that now, when the hearts of men this mixture of equality (holding in an even were onely guided and freered by their Ballance supreme power and common right) own fancies, and toftto and fro on the temore acquired the title of Regal: the other peffuous Seas of the World, while Wifdom (which had it not) was known for Tyranniwas severed from power, and strength from cal: the one, God. established in favour of charity: Necessity (which bindeth every his people; the other he permitted for their

In the infancy of this Regal authority, wine and rooms undertained at older, that the effact of reasonable men would become Princes as they were chosen for their virtues great deal of moderation. And therefore faith Fabius Pictor) Principes, quia justi erant, Deuts 🕉 religionibus dediti, jure habiti Dii 🔗 ditti, 🎮 Princes because they were just and religious, part ed in their own strengths, found others again were rightly accounted and called Gods.

And though (speaking humanely) the beginning of Empire may be ascribed toReacible; and the equal from equal received fon and Necessity; yet it was God himself live and be preserved without a Ruler and Conductor: God himself by his eternal providence having ordained Kings; and the Law of Nature, Leaders, and Rulers overoded, and by Reason maintained and con- thers. For the very Bees have their Prince; firmed, perswaded all Nations which the the Deer their Leaders; and Cranes (by Heavens cover, to subject themselves to a order imposed) watch for their own safety. Malter, and to Magistracy in some degree. The most High beareth rule over the Kingdom; but Under which Government, as the change of Men; and appointeth over it whomspeed (which brought with it less evil, than the he pleaseth. By me (faith Wisedom, ipoken rat former mischies) was generally pleasing: by the Son of God) Kings reign; By men fo time (making all men wife that observe it) Princes rule. And it is God (saith Daniel) part found some imperfection and corrosive in that setteth up Kings, and taketh away Kings. this cure. And therefore the same Necessia- And that this power is given from God, ty which invented, and the same Reason Christ himself witnesseth, speaking to Pilats, Thou couldest have no power at all against me,

It was therefore by a threefold Justice the beginning (to wit) by a Justice natural; by which the Parents and Elders of Families governed their Children, and Nephewes, and Families; in which government the Obedience was called natural Piety: Againe, by a Justice divine, drawn from the Laws and Ordinances of God; and the Or went the inventions of Laws. Populus nullis bedience hereunto was called Conference:

both the former; and the Obedience to this we call Duty. That by these three, those of ment of the people) called Democratia, to the eldest times were commanded, and that the rule in general was Paternal, it is most evident: for Adam, being Lord over his own Children, instructed them in the service of God his Creator; as we read, Cain and Abel brought Oblations before God, as they had been taught by their Parent, the Father of Mankind.

6. II.

of the three commendable forts of Government, with their opposites: and of the degrees of humane society.

Hat other Policy was exercised, or State sounded, after such time as mankinde was greatly multiplied before the Floud, it cannot be certainly known, though it feem by probable conjecture, that the fame was not without Kings in that first Age: it being possible that many Princes of the Egyptians (remembred among their antiquities) were before the general Floud; and very likely, that the cruel Oppressions in that Age proceeded from fome Tyranny in Rule, than the Paternal.

Berofus ascribeth the rule of the World in unfitly. those days to the Gyants of Libanus, who mastered (saith he) all Nations from the Sunrifing to the Sun-fet. But in the fecond Age of the World, and after fuch times as the rule of Eldership failed, three several forts of Government were in feveral times divers natures of Places and People.

The first, the most ancient, most general, the people with righteous judgment.

ruling by Laws, called Aristocracy, or Optimatum potestas; to which Oligarchia (or the particular faction and usurpation of a few great-ones) is opposed: as the Decem vini, or Trium viri, and the like

The third is a State popular, (or Governwhich is opposed ochlocratia, or the turbulent unjust ruling of the confused multitude, feditiously swaying the State, contrary to their own Laws and Ordinances. These three kinds of Government are briefly exprest by Tholosanus; unius, paucorum, & multorum; Of one, of few, of many.

Now as touching the beginning and order of Policy fince the second increase of mankind, the same grew in this fort: First of all, every Father, or eldest of the Family, gave Laws to his own iffues, and to the people from him and them increased. These, as they were multiplied into many housholds (man by nature loving fociety) joyned their Cottages together in one common Field or Village, which the Latins call Vicus; of the Greek ours, which fignifies a House; or of the word (Via) because it hath divers waies and paths leading to it. And as the first House grew into a Village, fo the Village into that which is called Pagus (being a fociety of divers Villages) so called of the Greeks myn which fignifieth a Fountain: because many people (having their habitations not far afunder) drank of one Spring or Stream of Government, or from some rougher form of Water. To this word the English Hundreds, or (as some think) Shires, answereth not

But as men and impiety began to gather strength, and as emulation and pride, between the Race of the one and the other, daily increased: so both to defend themselves from out-rage, and to preserve such goods as they had gathered, they began to established among men, according to the joyn and set together divers of their Villages, invironing them first with Banks and Ditches, and afterwards with Walls: which, and most approved, was the Government of | being so compassed, were then called Oppida; one, ruling by just Laws, called Monarchy: either ab opponendo se hostibus, Because walls to which Tyranny is opposed, being also a were opposed against Enemies; or ab opibus, fole and absolute Rule, exercised according because thither they gathered their riches for to the will of the Commander, without re- fafety and defence: as also they were called spect or observation of the Laws of God, or | Trbes, ab orbe; because when they were to Men. For a lawful Prince or Magistrare build a City, they made a Circle with a (faith Aristotle) is the Keeper of Right and Plough (faith Varro) therewith measuring Equity: and of this condition ought every and compaffing the ground which they went Magistrate to be, according to the rule of to inclose or fortifie. And although Orbs Gods word: Judges and Officers shalt thou and Civitas be often confounded, yet the make thee in thy Cities: And these shall judg difference was antiently in this, that Orbs fignified no other than the very walls and The fecond Government, is of divers buildings, and Civitas was taken for the Ciprincipal Persons established by Order, and tizens, inhabiting therein: so called of Civis, and that, ab eo quad multitudo coivit, of comming together. But all inhabitants within these walls are not properly Citizens, but only fuch as are called Free men; who bearing proportionably the charge of the City, may by turns become Officers and Magistrates thereof: the rest go under the name of Subjects, though Citizens by the same general name of Subjects are also known. For every Citizen is a Subject, but some Citizen (as the chief Magistrate, if he be to be tearmed one of the Citizens) is no Subject; but of this we need not stand to in-Magistro, from a Master, and the word (Master) from the Adverb Magis (as also Magisteria, Precepts of Art) or else from the Greek word (Megistos) and so the Greeks call them Megistanes, whom the Latines call Magnates, or Magistratus.

140

142

The Office and Duty of every Magistrate, Ethio. 5. Aristotle hath written in few words. A Magistrate or Prince (faith he) is the keeper of right and equity; but the same is best taught by Saint Paul, who expresses both the cause efficient, and final, (that is) by whom Magistrates and Princes are ordained, together Rom 13.4. With their Duties and Office. A Magistrate is the Minister of God for thy wealth; but if thou do evil, fear: for he beareth not the sword for nought. For he is the Minister of God, to take vengeance on him that doth evil. He also Ver. 1.2. teacheth in the same place ; That every Soule ought to be subject to the higher powers, because they are by God ordained, and that mhosoever resisteth that power, resisteth God, the giver and fountain thereof: and shall not only be therefore subject to the judgment and condemnation of Man, but of God : For ye must be subject (saith he) not because of wrath only. but also for conscience sake.

Hierem.

Gods punishments, upon those that have refifted Authority, by God ordained and e- by Magistrates; sometimes by the People stablished. Neither ought any Subject themselves. therefore to refift the power of Kings, because they may be taxed with injustice or cruelty: for it pleafeth God fometimes to punish his people by a tyrannous hand: and the Commandement of obedience is without distinction. The Prophets and Christ himself subjected themselves to the power of payed Tribute for himself and Peter. Hiere-17.0 27 to pray for them and for the peace of Baby- and effects whereof were as yet but poten-Paul) that ye make Supplications and Prayers much more for Christian Kings and Magistrates. And so much did Saint Chrysoftom. in his Homily to the people, prefer Monarchical Government, as he rather commended the rule of Kings (though Tyrants) than that not every Subject a Citizen: perhaps also they should be wanting: Prestat Regem tyrannous King, than no King: to which also Tacitus subscribeth: Prastat (faith Tacitus in ounce. The word (Magistrate) is taken à the first of his History) sub malo principe ese, than none at all. And be they good Kings (which is generally presupposed) then is there no liberty more fafe, than to ferve them: Neque enim libertas tutior ulla est (faith Claudian) quam Domino servire bono; Noliberty (faith he) more safe for us than to be servants to the virtuous. And certainly, howfoever it may be disputed, yet it is safer to live under one Tyrant, than under 100000. Tyrants: under a wife man that is cruel, than under the foolish and barbarous cruelty of the multitude. For as Agesilaus answered a Citizen of sparta, that desired an alteration of Government, That kind of rule which a man would disdain in his own house, were very unfit to govern great Regions by. Laftly, as many Fathers erect many Cotages for their many Children: and as (for the reason before remembred) many Housholds joyned themselves together, and made Villages; many Villages made Cities: fo when these Cities and Citizens joyned together, and established Laws by consent, associating themselves under one Governour, and Government; they, so joyned, were The examples are not to be numbred of called a Common-Wealth: the same being fometimes governed by Kings; fometimes

§. III.

Of the good Government of the first Kings.

Ow this first Age after the Floud, and after such time as the people were in-Magiftracy. Chrift commanded that all due creafed, and Families became ftrong, and they to Cefar should be given unto him: and he dispersed into several parts of the world, was by antient Historians called Golden: my commanded the Ifraelites (even those Ambition and Covetousness being as then that were Captives under Heathen Kings) but green, and newly grownup, the feeds lon. So Abraham prayed for Abimelech; tial, and in the blowth and bud. For while and Jacob bleffed the King of Egypt: And it the Law of Nature was the rule of mans life, is acceptable in the fight of our Saviour (faith they then fought for no larger Territory than themselves could compass and manure: for Kings, and for all that are in authority: they erected no other magnificent Buildings than sufficient to defend them from cold and and if for fuch Kings as were Idolatrous, tempest: they cared for no other delicacy | Solomon: Say not then, Why is it that the former Eccles 1. of fare, or curiofity of dyet, than to mainrain life: nor for any other apparel, than to inquire wifely of this thing: to which purpose cover them from the Cold, the Rain and the then truly be cast upon those elder times: time than to another (I mean to one limited time and none else) it may be doubted. For good and Golden Kings make good and Golden Ages: and all times have brought might be called the Golden Age; fo may the beginning of all Princes times be truly called Golden. For be it that men affect honour, it is then best purchased; or if honour affect men, it is then that good defervings have commonly the least impediments: and if ever Liberality overflow her banks and bounds, the same is then best warranted under the Sun whose means are answerable all things by their own respects, do no sooner find their appetites unanswered, but they out in the Reign of every King, so doth it is rooted in the will or dispositions of men. in the life of every man, if his daies be many: for our younger years are our Golden Age; which being eaten up by time, we praise those seasons which our youth accompanied: and (indeed) the grievous alterations in our selves, and the pains and diseases which never part from us but at the grave, make the times feem so differing and displeafing: especially the quality of man's nature being also such, as it adoreth and extolleth the present state how just soever: Fit humane malignitatis vitio, ut semper vetera in laude, prasentia in fastidio sint; It comes to pass (faith Tacitus) by the vice of our malignity, that we alwaies extol the time past, and hold the present fastidious: For it is one of the errors of wayward Age: Quod fint laudato-

daies were better then these ? For thou doest not Seneca; Majores nostri questi sunt & nos querimur,posteri querentur,eversos esse mores, regnare And fure if we understand by that Age nequitiam, in deterius res hominum & in omne. (which was called Golden) the antient fim- nefaslabi: Our ancestors have complained we do plicity of our Fore-fathers, this name may complain, our Children will complain, that good manners are gone, that wickedness doth reign, but if it be taken otherwise, then, whether and all things grow worse and worse, and fall the same may be attributed more to any one into allevil. These are usually the Discourfes of Age and Misfortune. But hereof what can we add to this of Arnobius ? Novares lib. 2. quandoque vetus fiet, & vetus temperibus; quibus capit nova fuit & repentina. Whatfoforth of both forts. And as the infancy of ever is new, in time shall be made old: and Empiry (when Princes played their Prizes, the antientest things when they took beginning and did then only woo men to obedience) were also new and sodain. Wherefore not to stand in much admiration of these first times, which the discontentment of present times have made Golden, this we may fet down for certain, That as it was the virtue of the first Kings, which (after God) gave them Crowns: fo the love of their people thereby purchafed, held the same Crowns on their heads. And as God gave the obedience of Subjects both by policy and example. But Age and to Princes: fo (relatively) he gave the Time, do not only harden and shrink the care and justice of Kings to the Subjects; openest and most Jovial hearts, but the ex- having respect, not only to the Kings themperience which it bringeth with it, layeth felves, but even to the meanest of his Crea-Princes torn estates before their eyes, and tures: Nunquam particulari bono servit omne wifa.6.72 (withal) perswadeth them to compassionate | bonum: The infinite goodness of God doth not atthemselves. And although there be no Kings | tend any one only: for he that made the small and great, careth for all alike: and it is the unto other mens defires: yet fuch as value care which Kings have of all theirs, which makes them beloved of all theirs; and by a general love it is, that Princes hold a general complain of alteration, and account the obedience: For, Potestas humana radicatur times injurious and Iron. And as this falleth in voluntatibus hominum: All humane power

5. I V.

Of the beginning of Nobility: and of the vain vaunt thereof without virtue.

A Nd with this Supreme Rule and Kingly authority, began also other degrees and differences among Subjects. For Princes made election of others by the same Rule, the passages of the former, and condemneth by which themselves were chosen; unto whom they gave place, truft, and power, From which imployments and Offices fprung Verus Med those Titles, and those degrees of Honour, bilia non which have continued from Age to Age, to nascitur these daies. But this Nobility, or difference fed fit. from the vulgar, was not in the beginning given to the Succession of Bloud, but to res temporis acti; That they are praisers of Succession of Virtue, as hereaster may be fore-paffed times, forgetting this advice of proved. Though at length it was sufficient be known for the Sons of such Fathers: and natural, then is the personal and acquired fo there needed then no endeavour of well- Nobility, by many degrees, to be preferred: doing at all, or any contention for them to excell, upon whom glory or worldly Nobili-Descent, may light upon such a one, as in his ty necessarily descended. Yet hereof had own nature is a true Villain. There is also Nobility denomination in the beginning, a third Nobility, which he calleth Nobility That fuch as excelled others in virtue, were in Parchment, bought with Silver or Favour. fo called: Hinc didus Nobilis, quast virtute and these be indeed but Honours of affectipre aliis notabilis. But after such time as the on, which Kings, with the change of their deferved Honour of the Father was given in Fancies, with they knew well how to wipe reward to his Posterity, Saint Jerom judged off again. But surely, if we had as much of the Succession in this manner: Nihil alind fense of our degenerating in worthiness, as video in Nobilitate appetendum, nisi quod Norant men worship in stead of christ, our Lady, and other Saints: men in whom there remain but the dregs and Vices of antient Vir-Weeds. For what is found praise-worthy and not to honour. in those waters, which had their beginning out of pure Fountains, if in all the rest of ter of Nobility) call the Race and Linage cunning of his Creatour. but the matter of Nobility: the form (which gives life and perfect being) he maketh to be Virtue, and Quality, profitable to the Common-weal. For he istruly and entirely Noble, who maketh a fingular profession of which is both natural by Descent, and also

for those whose Parents were advanced, to | Personal; yet if Virtue be wanting to the we have of vanity in deriving our felves of biles quadam necessitate confiringantur, ne ab such and such Parents, we should rather antiquorum probitate degenerent; Isee no other know such Nobility (without Virtue) to be thing to be affected in Nobility, than that Noble- shame and dishonour, than Nobleness and men are by a kind of necessity bound, not to deglory to vaunt thereof. What calamity is men are vy a since of necessary connections, wanting (faith Bernard) to him that is born make generate from the virtue of their Ancestors, wanting (faith Bernard) to him that is born make For if Nobility be Virtus & antique divitie; in sin, of a Potsbare body and barren mind? FOUR INCOMING DE VITING COMMINGER OF ACCORDING TO THE FATHER) Dele Equals Virtue and antient riches, then to exceed in For (according to the fame Father) Dele Equals all those things which are extra hominem, as fucum fugacis honoris hujus, o male coronate riches, power, glory, and the like, do no o- nitorem gloria, Gre. Wipe away the painting therwise define Nobility, than the word of this secting honour, and the glittering of the (animal) alone doth define a reasonable man. ill-crowned glory, that then thou mayeft conf-Or if honour (according to L. Vives) be a derthy felf nakedly: for thou camel naked witnessof virtue and well-doing: and No- out of thy Mothers wombe. Camest thou thence bility (after Plutarch) the continuance of with thy Mytre, or glistering with Jewels, or Virtue in a Race or Linage: then are those garnified with Silks, or adorned with Feathers, in whom Virtue is extinguished, but like un- or finffed with Gold? If thou scatter and blow to Painted and Printed Papers, which igno- away all these by thy consideration, as certain morning clouds, which do or will foon pass over, thou shalt meet with a naked, and poor, and wretched, and miserable man, and blushing, tue: Flowers, and Herbs, which by change because he is naked, and weeping, because he h of foile and want of manuring are turned to born, and repining, because he is born to labour,

For, as touching the matter of all men, there is no difference between it and dust: their course they run foule, filthy, and de- which if thou dost not believe (faith St. Chry closs filed? Ex terra fertili producitur aliquando (ostom) look into the Seputchres and Monne has 1 Cicuta venenosa, exterra sterili pretiosum Au-ments of thy Ancestors, and they shall easily pro-dient run; Out of finitful ground ariseth sometimes swade thee by their own example, that thou at mena possening Henbane, and out of barren soyle pre- dust and dirt: So that if man seem more noble s. cious Gold. For as all things confift of mat- and beautiful than dust, this proceedeth not ter and form, fo doth Charron (in his Chap- from the divertity of his Nature, but from the

> For true Nobility standeth in the Trade 1861 Of virtuous life; not in the fleshly Line: For bloud is brute, but Gentry is Divine.

And howfoever the cuftom of the World publike Virtue, ferving his Prince and Country, and being defcended of Parents and Anceftors that have done the like. And alwice as any King) reprehendent the fame in though that Nobility, which the same Au- his fellow-Princes: There is an evil (faith he) to the control of the thor calleth personal (the same which our that I have seen under the Sun, as an errour felves acquire by our Virtue and well de- that proceedeth from the face of him that fervings) cannot be ballanced with that ruleth: Folly is set in great excellency.

$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_$\psi_

CHAP. X.

Of Nimrod, Belus, and Ninus: and of memorable things about those times.

§. I.

That Nimrod was the first after the Floud that reigned like a Sovereign Lord: and that his beginning seemeth to have been of just authority.

fes from the rest (according to the builders of Babel. S. Angustine) in one of these two respects: The same is also confirmed by divers Hickher for his eminency, and because he was storians, that Nimrod, Suphne, and Jostan, the first of fame, and took on him to com- were the Captains and Leaders of all those mand others: or elfe in that he was begotten, which came from the East. And though by Chulb, after is other children were also Sem came not himself so farr as Shinaar (his become Fathers; and of a later time than lot being cast on the East parts) yet from some of his Grand-children and Nephews. his Son's Nephew Heber, the name and Na-and many later Writers call tyrannical: the thence into Canaan, fame beginning in Babel (which is) confusiaffirming therein, that Nimrod was a mighty tongue. Hunter against God: Sic ergo intelligendus We know that Goropius Becanus followthe Lord found, that Noah himself, or any of the Sons rity, than violence of usurpation. of his own body, came with this troop into

He first of all that reigned as Babylon: no mention at all being made of Sovereign Lord, after the Noah (the years of his life excepted) in the Floud, was Nimrod, the Son succeeding Story of the Hebrews; nor that of chulb, distinguished by Mo- Sem was in this disobedient troop, or among

Howsoever, seeing Moses in express words, tion of the Hebrews (according to the gecalleth Nimrod the Son of Chush, other mens nerall opinion) took beginning, who inhaconjectures to the contrary, ought to have bited the Southermost parts of chaldea, about the City of Ur; from whence Abra-This Empiry of Nimrod, both the Fathers, ham was by God called into Charran, and

And because those of the Race of sem on. But it seemeth to me, that Melanethon which came into Chaldea, were no partners conceived not amis hereof: the same ex- in the unbelieving work of the Tower: position being also made by the Authour of therefore (as many of the Fathers conjethat Work, called Onomasticum Theologicum, cture) did they retain the first and most anwho affirms that Nimrod was therefore cal- cient language, which the Fathers of the first led Amarus Dominator, A bitter, or severe Age had left to Noab; and Noab to Sem and Governour, because his form of Rule seemed, his ssues: In familia Heber remansst bac linat first, farr more terrible than Paternal au- gua; In the family of Heber this language rethority. And therefore is he in this respect mained (saith Saint Augustine out of Epiphaalso called A mighty Hunter: because he nim) and this Language Abraham used; took and destroyed both beasts and thieves. yea, it was anciently, and before the Floud, But S. Augustine understands it otherwise, the general speech and therefore first called and converts the word (ante) by (contra) (faith Calestinus) lingua humana: the humane est Gigas ille, Venator contra Dominum; So is ing Theodoret, Rabbi Moses, Ægyptius, Vergara, that Giant to be understood, a Hunter against and others, is of another opinion; but how soever we determine of this point, we may with But how soever this word (A mighty Hun- good probability resolve, that none of the ter) be understood; yet it rather appeareth, godly seed of sem were the chief Leaders of that as Nimrod had the command of all those this presumptuous multitude. And seeing it which went with him from the East into shinaar: 10, this charge was rather given him, appointed for this charge, we may imagine than by him usurped. For it no where is that Nimrod rather had it by just autho-

144

CHAP. X.

146

That Nimrod, Belus, and Ninus were three distinct Persons.

 $B_{\text{others},\ \text{make many Nimrods}}^{\textit{Enzo}}$, and out of him Nauclerus, with confounds him with Belus, and so doth Saint Hierom upon Ose; and these words of Saint Augustine seem to make him of the same Opinion: Ibi autem Ninus reanabat post mortem patris sui Beli, qui primus illic regnaverat 65. annos; There did Ninus reign after the death of fall from his obedience, whom he reof his father Belus, who governed in Babylon | covered again by strong hand; which was fixty five years. But it could not be unknown to Saint Augustine, that Nimrod was the Establisher of that Empire: Moses being plain and direct therein. For the beginning of Nimrods Kingdom (faith he) was Babel, Erec, Accad, and Chalne, in the Land of Shinaar; wherefore Nimrod was the first King of Babel. And certainly, it best agreeth with reason, that Ninus was the third, and not one with Nimrod, as Mercator (led by clement) supposed: for in Ninus his time, the World was marvellously replenished. And if S. Augustine had undoubtedly taken Belus for Nimrod, he would have given him the name which the Scriptures give him, rather than have borrowed any thing out of prophane Authours. And for those words of S. Augustine (qui primus illic regnaverat; Who was the first that reigned there) supposed to be meant by Belus: those words do not disprove that Nimrod was the Founder of the Babylonian Empire. For although Julius Casar overthrew the liberty of the Romane Common-wealth, making himself perpetual Dictator; yet Augustus was the first established Emperour, and the first that reigned abfolutely by foveraign Authority over the Romans, as an Emperour.

both agreeing in time: for it was about 200. years after the Floud (as they account) that proves it not. For, so Edward the third, and erected to his hand. his Grand-child, Richard the fecond, were Kings both in one year: the one died; the other in the same year was crowned King.

Belus were one) is farr more probable than gint calls Archard; and Epiphanius, Arphal; that of Mercator; who makes Ninus and Junius takes it to be Nisibis in Mesopotamia:

Nimrod to be the same. For, it is plain, that the beginning of Nimrod's Kingdom was Babel, and the Towns adjoining: but the first, and most famous work of Ninus, was the City of Ninive.

Now, whereas D. Siculus affirmeth, that Ninus overcame and supprest the Babylonians, the same rather proveth the contrary. than that Ninus and Nimrod were one Perfon. For Ninus established the seat of his Empire at Ninive in Asyria, whence the Babilonians might (perchance) in disdain thereeasie: Babylon being not walled till Semiramis time.

—Dicitur altam Coctilibus muris cinxisse Semiramis Urbem. Semiramis with walls of Brick, the City did inclose.

Further, where it is alledged, that as the Scriptures call Nimrod mighty; so Justine hath the same of Ninus, which is one of Mercator's Arguments; it may be answered, that such an addition might have been given to many other Kings as well. For, if we may believe Justine; then were Vexoris King of Egypt, and Tanais of Scythia, mighty Kingsbefore Ninus was born. And if we may compare the words of Moses (touching Nimrod) with the undertakings of Ninus, there will be found great difference between them.

For whereas Mercator conceiveth, that it was too early, for any that lived about the time of the confusion of Languages, to have invaded and mastered those Cities so farr removed from Babel, namely, Erech, Accad, and and Chalne: which work he therefore ascribeth to Ninus, as a man of the greatest undertaking; and consequently would have The like may be faid of Nimrod, that he Nimrod to have been long after the time, in first brake the rule of Eldership and Pater- which we suppose he slourished; and both nity, laying the foundation of foveraign those names of Nimrod and Ninus to belong rule, as Cefar did; and yet Belus was the to one Person, to wit, to Ninus: to these first, who peaceably, and with general al- things to make some answer. First, I do not lowance, exercised such a power. Pererius is find that supposition true, That ever Nimof opinion, that Belus and Nimrod were the rod invaded any of these Cities; but that he same, because many things are said of them, founded them, and built them from the ground, being the first after the Floud, that conducted the children of Noah into those Belus reigned; but fuch agreement of times parts: and therefore had nothing built or Befides, whereas these Cities, in many mens opinions, are found to stand farr away from Babylon, I find no reason to bring me to that And yet the opinion (that Nimrod and belief. The City of Accad, which the Septuafor the Region thereabout, the Cosmogra-tinue in our opinion, That Nimrod, Belus, and phers (faith he) call Accabene for Accadene. Ninus, were diffined and successive Kings. Others understand Nilibis and Ninive, to be one City: fo do Strabe and Stephanus confound it with Charran, but all miftaken. For Nilibis, Accad, and Charran, are diffinet places. Though I cannot deny Accedene to be a Region of Mesopotamia, the same which Arias Montanus, cut of S. Hierom, calls Achad: and to do the Hebrews also call Nisibis, which feemeth to be the cause of this mistaking. As for the City of Eree, which the septuagint call touching the beginning of that great State orech; S. Augustine, Oreg; and Pagninus, Erec; of Babylon and Assyria: a controversie weathis place Junius understands for Aracca in risomly disputed without any direct proof, sustana: but there is also a City in Camagena, conclusion, or certainty. But to me(of whom, called Arace; and indeed, likelihood of name where the Scriptures are filent, the voice is no certain proof, without the affiltance of of reason hath the best hearing) the Interother circumstances.

Concerning the third City(called Chalne) fome take it for Calinifis: of which Am. Mercellinus. S. Hierom takes it for Seleucia; Hierosolymitanus, for Cteliphon: others do think For in this fort he converteth the Hebren it to be the Agrani upon Euphrates, destroyed and razed by the Fersians. But let Moses be the Moderator and Judge of this Dispute, who teacheth us directly that these Cities are not feated in fo diverfe and diftant Regions, for these be his words : And the beginning of bis Kingdom (speaking of Nimrod) was Babel, Erec. Accad, and Chalne in the Land of Shinaar: fo as in the Valley of Shinaar, or Bafour made but one Babylon, than that they were Cities farr removed, aud in feveral Provinces, did not the Prophet Amos precifely distinguish Chalne from Babylon. Co you (faith Amos) to Chalne, and from thence go you to Hamath, and then to Gath of the Phi-Shinaar was here named, not that all these For fire I am, that in the beginning of Nimany City-at all to be found in Egypt: Babylon of Egypt being all one with the great City of Cairo, which was built long after, not the ancient City, but not for ancient as Babylon upon Euphrates. Now, that Chalme is fittiate in the valley of shinaar, it hath been formerly proved in the Chapter of Faradise. So

6. III.

That Nimrod, not Affur, built Ninive; and that it is probable, out of Elay 23. 12. that Affur built Ur of the Chaldees.

Ow, as of Nimrod; so are the Opinions of Writers different touching Affir, and pretation of Junius is most agreeable; who, besides all necessary consequence, doth not dif-join the sence of the Scriptures therein, nor confuse the understanding thereof. Text : Erat enim principium Regni eius Babel, & Erec, & Accad, & Chalne, in terra Shinaaris: e terra hac processit in Astyriam, ubi ædificavit Niniven (which is) For the beginning of his Kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Chalne, in the Land of Shinaar : and he went forth of this Land into Assyria, and built Ninive. So as Junius takes Affur in this place, not for any Person, belonia, or Chalden (being all one) we must but for the Region of Affria; the Land befind them. And therefore I could (tather ing so called in Molectime, and before it. For of the two) think, with Viterbienfir, that these certainly, the other construction (where the word Affur is taken for Affur the Son of shem) doth not answer the order which Mafes obferveth through all the Books of Genesis, but is quite contrary unto it. For in the beginfiling of the tenth Chapter, he fetteth down the Sons of Noah, in these words: Now these listims. The Geneva Translation, favouring are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, the former Opinion, to fet these Cities out of Ham, and Japheth, unto whom sons were born shinaar, hath a marginal note expressing that after the Flund: then it followeth immediately; The Sons of Japheth were Gomer, cities were therein feated, but to distinguish &c. fo as Japheth is last named among Babylon of Chalda, from Babylon in Egypt: Noah's Sons, be he eldeft or youngest, bebut I find little substance in that conceit: cause he was first to be spoken of: with whom (having last named him) he prorod's Empire, there was no fuch Babylon, nor ceeds and fets down his Islue, and then the Iffue of his Sons: first the Mue of Gomer, Tupbeth's eldeft Son 3 and then speaks of Thoun and his Sons of for of the fell of farrfrom the place where flood memphis that Family he is filent. Anon after, he numbereth the Sons of Ham, of Which Chufb was the eldest and then the Sons of chill and Mizrain; and afterwards of Candan; leaving shem for the laft, because he would not difas for any argument that may be brought to Join the Story of the Hebrer Bur after he the contrary, from the remote fituation of beginneth with sheet, he continueth from these three Cities from Babylon, we may con- thence by Arghanad, Shela; and Heber, thers of that Nation. But to have brought place with Comeftor, or Comeftor with in one of the Son of shem, in the middle of him, agreeing in substance with that Transthe Generations of Ham, had been against lation of Junius: to which words of Moses order; neither would Moses have past over he giveth this sence: De hac terra Assyriofo sleightly the erection of the Asyrian Em- rum pullulavit imperium, qui ex nomine Nipire in one of the Sons of shem, if he had had ni, Beli filii, Ninum condiderunt, urbem ma. any such meaning: it being the Story of gnam, &c. Out of this Land grew the Emshem's Sons which he most attended. For pire of the Assyrians, who built Ninus the he nameth Nimrod apart, after the rest of the great City, so named of Ninus the Son of Be-Sons of Chulb, because he founded the Eaby- lus. On the contrary, Calvin object eth this lonian and Affrian Empire: and in the ele- place of Esay: Behold the Land of the Chaldaventh Chapter, he returns to speak of the ans, this was no People, Assur founded it by 13.18 building of Babel in particular, having formerly named it in the tenth Chapter, with those other Cities which Nimrod founded in hath a greater diversity in the Translation Shinaar. And as he did in the tenth Chapter, fo also in the eleventh he maketh no report of shem, till such time as he had finished so much of Nimrod as he meant to touch: and feemeth hereby to inferr, that because Affin then he beginneth with the Islue of shem, which he continueth to Abraham and Ifrael. And of Junius opinion touching Assur, was Calvin: to which I conceive P. Comeftor, in historia scholastica, gave an entrance, who, after he had delivered this place in some other sence, he useth these words: Vel intelligendum non est de Assur, filio Sem, &c. sed Affur (id eft, Regnum Affyriorum) inde egref-Sum est, quod tempore Sarug proavi Abrahami factum est; (which is) Or else it is not to be understood of Assur the son of Sem, Oc. but Assur (that is, the Kingdom of the Assyrians) came from thence (videlicet, from Babylon) or was made out of it: which happened in the time of Sarug the great Grand-father of Abraham. After which he reconcileth the difference in this fort: If you take the ancient Belus (meaning Nimrod) to be the first Ercder thereof, it is true, Quantum ad initium; Respecting the beginning; but others con-Torniel.

CHAP. X.

unto Abraham, and so to Jacob, and the Fa- cient and Learned Writer, understands this there is no one place in the Scriptures, that and Understanding; insomuch as Michael de Palatio upon Esay (though in all esseven ry diligent) passeth it over. But Calvin founded the State of the Chaldeans, therefore also Assur, rather than Nimred, established the Asyrian Empire, and built Nineve: contrary to the former translation of Junius, and to his own Opinion. Now, out of the Vulgar (called Hierom's Translation) it may be gathered, that Assur both founded and ruined this Estate or City of the Chaldeans, by Esay remembred: unto which City, People, or State, he plainly telleth the Tyrians, that they cannot trust or hope for relief thence. Or rather it may be taken, that the Prophet maketh this City of Chaldaa, and that Estate, an example unto those Phanicians, whom in this place he fore-telleth of their ruine: which City of Chaldea, being of strength, and carefully defended, was (notwithstanding) by the Asyrians utterly wasted and destroyed: whereby he giveth them knowledge, and ctor of the Affrian Empire, or the first Foun-fore-telleth them, that their own City of Tyre (invincible, as themselves thought) should alfo foon after be overturned by the same Alfceive that it had beginning from Ninus, vians: as (indeed) it was by Nebuchodonfor. which is also true, Quantum ad Regni amplia. And these be the words after Hierom: Ecc tianem; Regarding the inlargement of the Emterra Chaldworum, talis populus non fuit, Af pire. To this I may add the opinion of Epi- fur fundavit eam, in captivitatem traduce phanius confurmed by Cedrenus, who takes runt robultos ejus, suffoderunt domos ejus, po-Affur tobe the Son of Nimrod: and so doth sucrunt eam in ruinam (which is) Behold the Methodius, and Viterbienste, Saint Hierom, and Land of the Chaldwans, Such a People there Cyrillus, and now lattly, Torniellus: who were not (or, this was no People, after the Ge-(laith he) took upon him that name of Affur neva) Affur (or the Affyrians) founded it, after he had beaten the Afgrians, as Scipio they carried away their frong men captions they did of Africanue, after his Conquest in Afri- undermined their Houses, and ruined their Cica: and that Affur was a common name to ty. The Septuagint, express it but in a part the Kings of Aspria, as it appeareth by ma- of another Verle, in these words: Et interny Scripturcs, as Pfal. 81. Efay 10. Ofc. 5. Sec. ra Chaldworum, & hae defolata eft ab Allye But to help the matter, he makes Nimrod of rils, quoman murus oins corrnit, making the the race of shem, and the Son of Irari. But fence perfect by the preceding verfe, which Rabanus Maurus, who was Archbishop of altogether may be thus understood: If thouse Mentz, in the year of Chrift 854. an an over to Chittim (which is Macedon, or Greece) neither in the Land of the Chaldwans, for this is made desolate by the Affyrians, because their Vatablus convert it thus: Ecce terra Chasdiim, ifie populus non erat illic olim; nam Affur fun-davit eam navibus, erexerunt arces illius; contriverunt ades ejus, posuit eam in ruinam: which may be thus Englished: Behold the Land of the Chaldwans, this People was not barbour for Ships, they erected the Towers thereandruinated it. Junius, in the place of Ships, fets the word (pro Barbaris) that is, for the Barbarians: and the Geneva, by the Barbarians. But this is undoubted, that the Prophet the Chapter) did therein affure the Tyrians of their future destruction, which (accordingly) fell on them: wherein (for the more terrour) he maketh choice to note the calamities of those places, Cities, and Regions, by Tyrians was maintained; as by the Cilicians from Tharfis, from the Macedonians, and City Ur, or Urchoa in Chaldea, where the body or chief stream of Euphrates (even that xime barbaros. stream which runneth through Babylon and Otris, which now falleth into Tygris) had his noted, the Arabians (that descended from So then Vr of the Chaldees was a Port Town, and one of those Cities which had Intelligence, trade, and exchange with the Tyrians: for it stood by the great Lakes of chaldea, passage is now stopt up. Ejus cursum vetustas abolevit (faith Niger.) And Pliny: Locusubi worn away the channel of Euphrates: the place

yet thou shalt not rest (speaking to the Tyrians) the City of the Chaldees, whose calamities Esay here noteth for terrour of the Tyrians, to be the City anciently called Ur; and by He walls fell together to the ground. Pagninus and cateus, Camerina; by Ptolemy, Orchoa; and by the Greeks, Chaldaopolis, the City of Chaldaa: which the Sons of Shem, until Abrahams time. inhabited. And whereas, in all the Translations, it is said, that Assur both founded it and ruined it: it may be understood, that Assur the Founder was the Son of shem; and Affur once therein inhabiting: for Assur built it a the destroyers were the Assyrians, by whom those that inhabited Vir of Chaldea, were at of; and again brake down the houses thereof, length oppressed and brought to ruine: which thing God fore-feeing, commanded Abraham thence to Carran, and fo into Canaan. And if the Hebrew word by Vatablus and Pagninus converted (by Ships) do bear Elay (as may be gathered by all the sence of that sence, the same may be the better approved, because it was a Port Town: and the River so farr up as this City of Ur was in ancient time navigable, as both by Pling and Niger appeareth. And if the word (for the Barbarians) or (by the Barbarians) be alwhose trade the state and greatness of the so in the Hebrew Text, it is no less manifest; that the most barbarous Arabians of the Defart were and are the confronting, and next other Grecians, under the name of Cittim; al- People of all other unto it. For Chaldeais so by the Egyptians, the Chaldwans, and the now called Arachaldar, which signifieth Derest. For Tyre was then the Mart Town of fart Lands, because it joineth to that part of the World most renowned. And (as it appears | Arabia so called: and Cicero (calling those in our Discourse of Paradise) not the least Arabians by the name of Itureans) addeth, part of her chief merchandize came in by the that they are, of all other People, the most Salvage; calling them, Homines omnium ma-

So as this place of Esay, which breedeth some doubt in Calvin, proveth in nothing passage into the Persian Gulf: though now it the contrary Opinion, nor in any part be stopped up. For, as we have heretofore | weakneth the former Translation of Junius, nor the Interpretation of Comestor and Rasheba and Raamah) dwelling on the East | banus. For though other men have not conbanks of the Persian Gulf, trading with the ceived for any thing that I have read) that Tyrians (asthole of Eden, Charran, and Chalne | Affur is in this place diversly taken (as for the did) transported their merchandize by the Son of shem, when he is spoken of as a Builmouth of T_{jgris} , that is, from T_{eredon} ; and of $|\det \operatorname{of} \mathcal{V}_r|$; and when as a Destroyer thereof; Emphrates, that is, from Ur, or Orchoa: and then for the Affgrian Nation) yet certainly and then by Babylon, and thence by River the evidence of the truth, and agreement of and over Land, they conveyed it into spria, circumstances seem to enforce it. And so this and so to Tyre; as they do this day to Aleppo. Founding of the City of the Chaldees by Affar (into which the most of the Posterity of shem that came into shinaar, and were separate for the Idolatry of the Chustes and Nimrodians, retired themselves) hath nothing in through we that part of Euphrates ran, which it to prove the same Affar built Nineve, or that the fame Affar was all one with Ninus Euphratis oftim full, flumen fullum, Time hath Son of shem, both an Idolater, and the Son except we will make Afur, who was the where the month thereof man, wa may of fall first notorious lacrificer to Idols; and the first of Belus. For (out of doubt) Ninus was the water. There things being thus, certainly (not that fet up a Statue of Image to be honour without good probability) we may expound ed as God. Now, if Affir must be of that

CHAP. X

150 must be, if he founded Ninive, then all those which feek to give him the honour thereof, do him by a thousand parts more injury, by taking from him his true Parent with Nimus; then what became of him? materials, and with other impediments) were feure, and not like to be the Founder of ed by his Suceffours in many years after: to Certainly, he was very unworthy, and obfuch an Empire, and fuch a City, if no man whose undertakings time had given so great pulfion thence, and how he loft that Empire and patterns of his beginning, so great adhave vouchsafed to leave to Posterity his exagain, or quitted it to Ninus: whose acts and conquests are so largely written, and (according to my apprehension) farr differing from truth. It will therefore be found best agreeing to Scripture and to Reason, and best agreeing with the Story of that Age written by prophane Authours, that Nimrod founded Babel, Erech, and Accad, and Chalne, the first works and beginnings of his Empire, according to Moses; and that these works being finished within the Valley of Shinaar, he looked farther abroad, and set in hand the work of Ninus, lying neer unto the same stream that Babel and Chalne did: which work his Grand-child Ninus afterward amplified and finished, as Semiramis (this Ninus his wife) did Babylon. Hence it came to pass, that as Semiramis was counted the Foundress of the City which she onely finished: so also Ninus of Ninive: Quam quidam Babylonem potuit instaurare; She might repair or renew Babylon, faith S. Augustine. For fo did Nebuchodonosor vaunt himself to be the Founder of Babylon also, because he built up again some part of the wall, over-born by the fury of the River: which work of his stood till Alexander's time, whereupon he Dan 4, 27. vaunted thus: Is not this great Babel which I have built?...

of the Acts of Nimrod and Belus, as farr as now they are known.

Ult to return to the Story, it is plain in Mofes, that Nimrod (whom Philo interpreteth transfugium, and Julius Africanus furnamed Saturne) was the establisher of the the Babylonian Monarchy, of whom there is no other thing written, than that his Empire in the beginning confifted of those four Cities before remembred; Babel, Erech, Acpropagated his Empire into Affria, and in them, held the power which they possess

Race, and not of the Family of Shem, as he Albria built four more Cities (to wit) Ninive, he spent much time in building Babel it self, and those adjoining; and that his travels were many ere he came into Shinaar: that work of Babel (fuch as it was) with the other three Cities, and the large foundation of Nimake the Founder of Ninive (and so the Son nive, and the other Cities of Asspria which vancement and encouragement: in whose time (faith Glycas) all these Nations were called Meropes, à sermonis linguarum terraque divisione; By reason that the earth and the speech were then divided.

Belus, or Bel, or Jupiter Belus, succeeded Nimrod, after he had reigned 114. years; of whose acts and undertakings there is little written. For it is thought that he spent much of his time in disburdening the low Lands of Babylon, and drying and making firm ground of all those great Fens and overflown Marishes which adjoined unto it. For any of his Warrs or Conquests there is no report, other than of his begun enterprise against Sabatius King of Armenia, and those parts of Scythia, which Berofus calls Scythia Saga, whose Son and Successour Barzanes became subject and Tributary to Ninus, that followed the Warr to effect, which was by his Father Belus begun.

6. V.

That we are not to marvel how so many Kingdoms could be erected about these times! and of Vexoris of Egypt, and Tanais of Scythia.

Hat so many Kingdoms were erected in all those Eastern parts of the World fo foon after Nimrod (as by the Story of Ninus is made manifest) the causes were three fold (namely) Opportunity, Example, and Necessity. For Opportunity, being a Princels liberal and powerfull, bestoweth on her fust Entertainers many times more benefits, than either Fortune can, or Wisdom ought; by whose presence alone the understanding minds of men receive all those helps and fupplies, which they either want or with for: fo as every Leader of a troop (after the division of Tongues, and dispersion of People) finding these fair offers made unto and governed by discretion all those People, whom they conducted to their deflined places. For, it cannot be conceived, that when the Earth was first divided, mankind ftraggled abroad like Beafts in a Defart; but that by agreement they disposed themselves; and undertook to inhabite all the known parts of the World, and by difinct Families and Nations: otherwise, those remote Regions from Babylon and Shinaar, which had Kings, and were Peopled in Ninus himfelf. his time, would not have been possest in many hundreds of years after, as then they travelled farr off (order being the true Pastrength, secure themselves against forcible rians have conceived. violence; nor those which sought after any fame in quiet, or rule and order their own. Ministers and Attendants.

That these causes had wrought these ef-Ninus (the Son of Belus) made it apparent; for he found every where Kings and Mo-him in the Warrs.

But Nimrod (his Grand-father) had no took on him Soveraignty and fole comfeems to me, righty accounted by the Judicommon account,

6. VI:

Of the name of Belus, and other names affines

Hence this fecond King and Successor of Nimrod had the name of Bell, or Belus, question hath been made; for it seemeth rather a name imposed, or (of addition) given by Ninus, than affumed by Belus

Cyrillus against Julian calls the Fathen of Ninus, Arbelus, affirming that he was the first were; neither did those that were sent, and of all men that caused himself to be called a god: which were it so, then might the name rent of prosperous success) undertake so of Belus be thence derived. But Bel, as madifficult enterprises without a Conductor or ny Writers have observed, signifieth the Sun Commander. Secondly, the example of in the Chaldean Tongue; and therefore did Nimrod, with whom it succeeded well, Ninus and Semiramis give that name to their ftrengthened every humour that aspired. Father, that he might be honoured as the Thirdly, Necessity resolved all men by the Sun, which the Babylonians worshipped as arguments of common miseries, that with a god. And as this Title was assumed in afout a Commander and Magistrate, neither ter-times by divers others of the Chaldean could those that were laborious, and of Princes and Babylonian Satrapa: so was it honest dispositions, enjoy the harvest of their | used (in imitation) by the chief of the Carown Travels; nor those which were of little | thaginians and other Nations, as some Histo-

To this Bel, or Belus, pertain (as in affinity) proportion of greatness, either possess the those voices of Baal, Baalim, Belphegor, Beelphagor, Belfebub, and Beelfephon. Those that that are learned in the Hebrew and Chaldaan, convert the word Baal by the Latine, fects, the undertakings and Conquests of Princeps militia, Chief in the Warr; though Daniel was fo called (faith suidas) Ob honorem explicationis arcanarum rerum; In Hier. in narchies, what way foever his Ambition led honor of his expounding fecrets. Saint Hierom Ofe. c. 2. makes Bel, Beel, and Baal, to have the same fignification: and faith, that the Idol of Bacompanion King, to us known, when he first | bylon was so called, which Ninus in memory of his Father fet up to be worshipped: to mandment of all those the Children of which, that he might add the more honour Noah, which came from the East into Baby- and reverence, he made it a Sanctuary and Lyr. in lonia: though in his life-time others also refuge for all offenders. Hence (faith Ly-Septem. raised themselves to the same estate; of ranus) came Idolatry, and the first use of salom. which hereafter. Belus (his Son and Suc- Images into the World Indore doth interpret 16d. 1.8: cessour) found Sabatius King of Armenia and Bel by Vetus, old, or ancient; adding, that c. 11. Scythia, sufficiently powerfull to resist his at- as among the Assyrians it is taken for Saturn, tempts; which Sabatius I take to be the same, and the Sun: so, in the Punick or Carthawhich Justine calls Tanais; and should con- ginian Language, it signifieth God . Glycas jecture, that Mizraim had been his Vexoris, makes it an Affyrian name properly; and were it not that I vehemently suspect some Tosephus a Tyrian. He also affirmeth, that the errour (as Justine placeth him) in the time of Idol which the Moabites worshipped (by that Vexoris, who by many circumstances them erected on the Mountain Phegor, or Peor, and called Baal) is the same which clous and Learned Reineccius, all one with the Latines call Priapus, the god of Gar-Hieron. in the great sefostris, that lived certain Ages dens; which also was the Opinion of Saint ofe c. 4. after Ninus. This Belus, the second King of Hierom. But, that the word Bel, or Beel, & 9. Babylan, reigned 65. years, according to the was as much to fay, as God, appeareth by the word Beelzebub, the Idol of Accaron. For Bel, or Beel foundeth (God) and Sebub (Flics or Hornets) by which name (notwithstanding) the Jews express the Prince of Devils. But the Prophet Ofe teacheth us the propher fignification of this word from the voice of God himself; And at that day (faith the Lord) thou Shalt call me Ishi, and Shalt call me no more Baalim: for I will take away the name of Baalim out of their mouths. For, although the name of Baal, or Bahal, be justly to be used towards God; yet in respect that the same was given to Idols, God hath hated it, and forbad it. And the using of the word Bel among the Chaldmans for the Sun, was not, because it properly fignifieth the Sun, but because the Sun there was worshipped as God: as a also the Fire was; tanquam solis particula. As for the words compounded (before remembred) as Belphegor, and Belsephon; Belsephon is expounded out of Facius; Dominus specula, vel custodia: The Lord of the Watch-tower. or of the Guard: the other word noteth the Idol, and the place wherein it was worshipped. It is written Belpeor, or Baalpeor: and Peor (they fay) is as much as Denudavit; and therefore the word joined, expresseth a naked Image. Some there are that call this Belus, the Son of Saturn: for first of all men that was ever honoured by their it was used among the Ancients, to name subjects with title of Deity 5 (or with the name the Father Saturn, the Son Jupiter, and the of God) the Afgrians therefore, and the bor-Grand-child Hercules. Saturni dicuntur faaquit.l.1. miliarum Nobilium, Regumque qui urbes con-& Junones; Hercules vero nepotes corum fortilfimi. The ancientest of Noble Families and dit Suidas. Kings which founded Cities, are called Saturns; their first-born, Jupiters and Junoes; their valiant Nephems, Hercules. But this Belus (faith L. Vives) was famous by reafon of his Warlike Son, Ninus, who caused his Father to be worshipped as a God by the name of Jupiter Babylonius, whom the Egyptians (transported by Dreams of their Antiquities) make one of theirs, For Neptune (say they) upon Lybia the Daughter of Epaphus, begat this Jupiter Belus, who was Father to Egyptus. They add, that this Belus, carrying a Colony to the River of Euphrates, there built a City, in which he ordained Priests after the Egyptian manner. rather some other Belus, of whom the Egyptians so much vaunted.

6. VII.

of the worshipping of Images, begun from Belus in Babel.

A S for the Babylonians Belw, he was the most ancient Belus, and the Inventor of Astronomy, if Pliny say true: from whence the Egyptians might borrow both the name and doctrine. Some part of the Temple, in which his statue or Image was honoured as a God, the same Author affirmeth, that it did remain in his time.

Of the Sepulchre of Belus, Srabo writeth Of the Sepulcine of Beling, there are Gar13.6 File 18. dens, where they say the ruines of Belus his Tomb, which Xerxes brake up, are yet remaining. It was a square Fyramis made of Brick, a furlong high, and on every side it had a furlong in breadth. It appears by Cyril against Julian, L. 1.08 that he obtained divine worship yet living: Julia for fo he writes of him (calling him Arbelm.) Arbelus vir superbus & arrogans primus hominum dicitur à subditis Deitatis nomen accepisse : Perseverårunt igitur Assyrii, & sinitimæ illis gentes sacrificantes ei. Arbelus, a man very proud and arrogant, is accounted to be the dering Nations have persevered, sacrificing to him. Even Arius also, whom Suidas calls Thudiderunt schissimi; primogeniti corum Joves ras, who succeeded next after Ninus, was made an Idol-God among them, if we cre-

After Ninus (that is, after Ninias) Thuras reigned (faith Suidas) whom they called after the name of the Planet Mars; a man of sharp and sierce disposition, who bidding battel to Caucasis, of the stock of Japheth, slew him. The Assignment worthipped him for their God, and called him Baal, that is) Mars; thus far Suidas. Neither is it unlikely but that any among Idolatrous Nations were Deified in their life-times, or foon after: though I deny not, but that the most of their Images and Statue were first erected without divine worship, onely in memory of the glorious acts of Benefactors, as Glycas rightly conceiveth; and so afterward the Devil crept But, were there any Belus the Son of Epa- into those wooden and brazen carcasses, phus and Isis, or of Neptune and Lybia, or when Posterity had lost the memory of their (with Englishus) of Teglomus, who after the first invention. Hereof Islave speaketh in death of Apis married Iss (Cecrops then this manner: 2nos autem Pagani Deos Afreigning in Athens) the same was not this runt, homines fuerunt, & pro uningcujugue vi-Balylonian Belus of whom we speak, but ta meritis vel magnificentia, coli apud sos post mortem cœperunt : sed (Damonibus persuaden tibus) quos illi pro sua memoria honoraverunt, minores Deos existimârunt : ad ista vero mi gis excolenda accesserunt Poetarum figmenta; firmed to be gods: and every one for his merits they continue for ever. or magnificence, began after his death to be hoperstitious.

rowed of the Heathen. The like faith S. Augustine against Adimantus. Et verentur (faith Lactantius) ne Religio vana fit, fi nihil videant anod adorent; They fear their Religion would be vain, should they not see what they

And (out of doubt) the Scholemen shift this fearfull cultom very strangely. For feeing the very workmanship is forbidden, how can the heart of a wife Christian satisfy it self with the diffinction of Doulia, and Hyperdoulia, which can imply nothing but some difference of worthipping of those Images afmany places forbidden, and curfed the practicers thereof. Yet this doctrine of the Devil was fo strongly and subtilly rooted, as neither express the Commandment of God himfelf, Thou shalt not make any graven Image, nor all the threatning of Moses and the Prophets after him, could remove, weed it, or by fear, or by any perswasions lead the hearts of men fromit. For, where shall we find words of greater weight, or plainer instruction than these? Take therefore good heed to your selves (for ye saw no Image in the day that the Lord Pake unto you in Horeb, out of the midst of the fire) that ye corrupt not your selves, and make you a graven Image, or representation of any Figure, whether it be the likeness of Male or Fe-

And, besides the express Commandment, Thou shalt make thee no graven Image, and the prohibition of many Scriptures; fo it is written in the Book of Wisdom, That, the invention of Idols was the beginning of Whoredom: and the finding of them the corruption of life; for

They were men (laith he) whom the Pagans af- | they were not from the beginning, neither shall

And whereas the Scholemen affirm, that youred of his own: But, at length (the De- the Prophets spake against the Worshipping vils persuading) they accounted them lesser of the Heathen Idols, it is manifest, that Moses gods, whose memories they honoured: and the spake of Images of the living God, and not Fillions of the Poets made the Opinions (con- of Baal, and the rest of that nature, For you cerning the honour of the dead) much more su- Saw no Image (faith Moses) that day that the Lord pake unto you in Horeb. Surely it was And, that the worthipping of Images was excellently faid of Bafil; Noli aliquam in illo brought in by the Pagans, and Heathen Nati- formam imaginari, ne circumscribas eum menons it is not Isidore alone that witnesseth; but | te tua: Do not imagine any form to be in God. Greeory: Gentilitas (faith he) inventrix & left thou limit or circumscribe him in thy mind caput oft Imaginum; Gentilism is the inventres too. Now, if the great Basil thought it a preand ground of Images: and Ambrose; Gentes | sumption unlawfull to represent a pattern of lignum adorant, tanquam imaginem Dei; The | the infinite God to our own thoughts and Gentiles adore wood, as it were the Image of minds, how farr do those men prefume that . God. Eusebius also affirmeth as much, and cal- put him under the greasse Pencil of a Painleth the worshipping of images, a custom bor- ter, or the rusty Axe or other Instrument of a Carpenter or Carver?

For as this dishonour to the infinite and incomprehensible God, began in Babel: fo did the Devil transport and spread this invention into all the Regions adjoining, and into Egypt and Greece.

The Romans, for a while, refisted the erection of these Idols and Images, refusing to fet them in their Temples for 170 years; obferving the Law of Numa, who thought it impiety to refemble things most beautifull, by things most base. But, Tarquinius Priscus afterwards prevailing, and following the vaniter they are made? And it is of all things ty of the Grecians (a Nation of all others unthe most strange, why religious and learned | der the Sun most deluded by Satan) set up men should strain their wits to defend the the Images of their gods; which (as S. Au- Aug. de use of those things, which the Scriptures have gustine witnesseth) that learned Varro both civil. 1.4. not only no where warranted, but expressly in bewailed, and utterly condemned: and c. 31. which Seneca thus derideth; Simulachra deorum venerantur, illis supplicant, genu posito illa adorant; & cum hac suspiciant, fabros, qui illa fecere, contemnunt; The Images of the gods are worshipped, those they pray unto with bended knees those they adore; and while they so greatly admire them, they contemn the Handicraftsmen that made them : which also sedulius the Poet in this fort scoffed at:

> Heu miseri qui vana colunt qui corde sinistro Religiosa sibi sculpunt simulachra, suumque Factorem fugiunt & qua fecere verentur! Quis furor est? que tanta animos dementia ludit ?

Ut volucrem, turpemque bovem, torvumque Draconem.

Semi-hominemque-canem supplex homo pronus adoret.

Ah wretched they that worship vanities, And confecrate dumb Idols in their heart, Who their own Maker (God on high) despise, And fear the work of their own hands & art !

CHAP.

Снар. Х.

154

Half-dog-half-man on knees for aid im-

And though this device was barbarous, and of fruitfull in after-times, breeding an infinite first, and many years practifed by Heathen | multitude of gods, that they were forced to Nations onely, till the Jews were corrupted distinguish them into degrees and orders; in Egypt, yet it is not Seneca alone that laugheth to scorn the ignorant stupidity of his Nation: but Justin Martyr remembreth how the Sybils inveighed against Images: and Hospinian, how Sophocles taught, that it was pernicious to the fouls of men to erect and adore those bables. Strabo and Herodotus witness, that the Persians did not erect or set up any Statue of their Gods. Lycurgus never taught it the Lacedamonians, but thought it impiety to represent immortal natures by mortal Fi- more like to their Idols, did Epimenides Cregures Eulebius also witnesseth, in his Sixth tensis (by what good Angel moved I know Book, de praparatione Evangelica, that it was not) erect in the Atherian Fields, Altars to forbidden by a Law in gerica, or among the the unknown God, which stood with the Brackmans in India, that Images should be same title and dedication, even to the times worshipped. The same do Tacitus and Crinitus report of the antient Germans. Many whom these Altars belonged, and opened other Authours might be remainbred that cheir eyes which were capable of grace, that witness the disdain which the Heathen themfelves had of this childish Idolatry: of which Hospinian hath written at large in his Tract. de origine imaginum. And it was truly faid, Devil had so many years led and missled Omnia mala exempla bonis initiis orta funt, them. And it sufficed not that the multitude All ill examples have sprung from good begin- of these gods was so great in general, or that nings. The Heathen, at first, made these Statue and Images, but in memory of such re- ticular and singular care of them, as Jupiter markable men, as had deserved best of their in Crete, Isis in Egypt, in Athens, Minerva, in Countries and common-wealths: Effigies hominum (faith Pliny) non folebant exprimi, nifi aliqua illustri causa perpetuitatem merentium : Men are not wont to make Pictures, but of men which merited for some notable cause to be perpetually remembred. And though of the more antient Papifts, some have borrowed of the Gentiles (as appears in Lactantius) that defence for Images: That Simulachra are pro elementis literarum, ut per ea discerent homines Deum invisibilem cognoscere: Images say they. (and so before them the Heathen said) are in stead of Letters, whereby men might learn to know the invilible God: in which understandthem than pictures indeed; yet as that of Baalor Bel, fet up in memory of Belus the Babylonian, became afterward the most reverenced Idol of the world, by which so many Nations (and they which were appropriate to God himself) were misled and cast away: so those very stocks and stones, and painted canwhich have understanding, judge ye what I sign

What fury? what great madness doth vafes (called the pictures of chrift, our Lady, and others) were by thousands of ignorant Mens minds? that man should ugly shapes people, not onely adored, but esteemed to have life, motion, and understanding. On Of Birds, or Bulls, or Dragons, or the vile these stocks we call (faith the Book of Wisdom) when we pass through the raging waves, on these focks more rotten than the ship that carries us,

This Heathen invention of Images became as Dii consentes, seu majorum gentium, selecti, Patritii insigniores dii medii: Counselling gods, or gods of the mightiest Nobility, select gods, Patrian gods of mark, and Common gods (which the Romans called Medioxum) dii infimi, and terrestrial Heroes, and multitudes of other gods, of which S. Augustine hath made large mention, in his Book, de Civitate Dei. But Line (faith Lactantius) among all those miserable fouls, and rotten bodies, worshipped by men of S. Paul: who made them first know to they might discern the difference betwixt that light which lighteneth every man, and the obscure and stinking mist wherein the every Nation had fome one which took par-Samos, Juno, in Paphos, Venus, and fo of all other parts; but every City, and almost every Family, had a god apart. For as it is written in the fecond of Kings, the men of Babel and made Succoth Benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, and the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvaims burnt their children in the fire to Adramelech. All which, how plainly hath the Prophet Esay derided? (4) Men cut down Trees, rind them, burn a part of them, make ready their meat, and warm them-Selves by the fire thereof, and of the residue he maketh a god; an Idol, and prayeth unto it: but ing, perhaps, they no otherwise esteemed God hath shut their eyes from fight, and their heart from understanding. It is therefore safest for a Christian, to believe the Commandments of God, to direct against Idolatry, to believe the Prophets, and to believe S. Paul, who speaketh thus plainly and feelingly, My beloved flie from Idolatry; I fleak as unto them of the Warrs of Ninus: and lastly of his Warr against Zoroaster.

6. VIII.

that piece of Berofus, fet out and commented in the Conquest thereof. upon by Annius, hath many good things in it, defects of the Fragment; proving directly, had any possession therein. that it cannot be the same Berosus which lived in Alexander's time, cited by Athenaus of the Medes, whom it is faid that he overwithout his errours.

lately published.

of judgment, I will pass over the acts of this third Affyrian, in as few words as I can express them. S. Augustine affirms, that Ninus mastered all Asia, India excepted. Others sav that he wan it all, fave India, Bactria, and U Nto this Belia succeeded Ninus, the first that commanded the exercise of I-companion of his Conquests, with whom he dolatry, the first that injuriously invaded his entred into a streight league of amity, be-Neighbour Princes, and the first that, with- cause he commanded many people, and was out shame or fear, committed Adultery in his kinsman, and a Chusite, and the neerest publick. But, as of Belus there is no certain Prince confronting Babylonia. His first entermemory (as touching particulars) fo of this prize was upon Syria, which he might eafily Ninus (whose Story is gathered out of pro- subdue, both because he invaded it on the fane Authors) I find nothing so warrantable, studden, and because it lay next him: and but that the same may be disputed, and in also because the Arabians and their King the greatest part doubted. For, although Aricus (which bordered Syria) affisted him

The King of Armenia, Barzanes, he forced and giveth great light (as Chrytaus noteth) to acknowledge him, and to aid him in his to the understanding of Diodorus Siculus, Warr against Zoroaster: for from Armenia. Dion, Halicarnasseus, and others: yet, Lodo- he bent himself that way toward the East; views Vives, B. Rhenanus, and others after but, that ever he commanded the leffer Alia, them, have laid open the imperfection and I do not believe, for none of his Succeffors

His third Warr was against Pharnus, King

and Josephus: and whose Statue the Atheni- threw, and cruelly murthered with his seven and Josephus: and whose Statue the Athenithrew, and cruelly murthered with his seven children, though others affirm, that they short, it is from him Children, though others affirm, that they short, it is sometimes the state of chiefly, that many have gathered the fuccef- all died in one battel against him. Whether fion of the Babylonian and Assyrian Princes, he invaded Zoroaster before the building or even from Nimrod, to the eighteenth King amplifying of Nimive, or after, it is uncer-Ascatades, and to the times of Josua. For of tain. It is said, that he made two Expediti-Metasthenes an Historian, of the Race of the tions into Bactria: and, that finding little Persian Priests, there are found but certain or ill success in the first, he returned, and set Papers; or some few lines of the chaldean the work of Ninive forward: and then a seand Affrian Monarchies; but he afterwards, conditione entred Ballria with 1700000 in the collection of the Persian Kings, is not | Foot, and 200000 Horse, and 100000 fix hundred Chariots: being encountred by Zo-Ctesias, or Cnidus (a City joining to Hali- roaster with four hundred thousand. But carnasseus) who lived together with Cyrus | Ninus prevailing, and Zoroaster being slain, he the younger, and with Artaxerxes Mnemon, entred farther into the Countrey, and be- Ang. de gathered his History out of the Persian Re- | fieged the chief City thereof, called Bactra, Civil Dei. cords, and reacheth as farr upwards as Ninus or Bactrion (faith Stephanus) which by a and Semiramis: and, though in the Story of passage found, and an assault given by Semi-Cyrus the younger, Xenophon approveth him ramis (the Wife of Menon) he entred and in some things, and Athenaus, Paulanias, and possest. Upon this occasion Ninus both ad-Tertullian cite him; yet so base and apparent miring her judgment and valour, together 70 lb are his flatteries of the Times and Princes with her person and external beauty, sancied with whom he lived, and so incredible are her so strongly, as (neglecting all Princely rethe numbers which he finds in the Armies of spects) he took her from her Husband, whose Ninus, and especially of Semiramis; as what- eyes he threatned to thrust out, if he refused foever his reports were times have confumed to confent. He thererefore yielding to the his Works, faving some very few excerptions passion of love in Ninus, and to the passion of forrow in himfelf, by the strong perswasions And therefore in things uncertain, feeing of shame and hishonour, cast himself headalong discourse cannot be pleasing to men long into the Water, and died.

CHAP.

CHAP. XI.

Of Zoroaster, supposed to have been the chief Authour of Magick Arts: and of the divers kinds of Magick.

6. I.

That Zoroaster was not Cham, nor the first inventer of Astrologie, or of Magick: and that there were divers great Magicians of this name.

ther of Chur, the Grand-father of Nimrod, For Abraham, who had not any acquaintance whose Son was Belus, the Father of Ninus. It with Zoroaster (as Josephus reporteth) was no may be that Vincentius had heard of that less learned herein than any other in that age, Book which was called scripture Cham, de- if he exceeded not all menthen living: difvifed by some wicked Knave, and so enti-fering from the wisdom of after-times in this, tuled; of which sixtus senensis hath made that he knew, and acknowledged, the true Abbas gave the invention of Magick to Cham getting Gods infinite, differfed, and universal the Son of Noah: fo did Comeftor in his Scho-power) admired the Instruments, and did laftical History; which Art (faith he) with attribute proper strength to the things them the seven Liberal Sciences he writ in four- selves (from which the effects were sensible) teen Pillars: seven of which were made which belonged to that wisdom, Whichbeof Brass, to resist the defacing by the Wa-ing one, and remaining in it self, can do all ters of the Floud; and seven of Brick, things, and reneweth all. against the injury of fire. There was also ano- Now, whether this Zoroaster (overthrown ther devised Discourse, which went under by Ninus) were the same which was so excelthe title of Prophetia Cham. Cassianus out of lent a Naturalist, it is doubted. For Zoroaster Serenus hath somewhat like this of Comestor. the Magician, Ctesias calls Oxyartes, whom These be Callianus words: Cham (filius Pliny finds of a later time. And if Zoroaster Noah) qui superstitionibus istis & sacrilegis were taken away by a Spirit (being inthe fuit artibus infectus. sciens nullum se posses super midst of his Disciples) as some Authourste his memorialem libra in Arcam prorfus inferre, port, then Zoroafter, flain by Ninus, was not in qua crat cum patre justo, &c. Cham the the Magician: which is also the opinion of (the Son of Noah) who was infected with these Scaliger. Superstitions and Sacrilegious Arts, knowing Again, Josephus, and Cedrenus affirm, that sale that be could not bring any Book or memorial seth first found out the Planets, or wanding of that nature into the Ark, wherein he was to Stars, and other motions of the Heavens; for Ark remain with his godly Father, caused the Pre- if this Art had been invented by Zorousset, and kard Stone.

ther children weep; which presaged the of knowledge, and leave it by writing to great knowledge which afterward he at-Posterity. tained unto; being taken for the Inventer | But of this Zoroafter, there is much dispute of natural Magick and other Arts; for the and noles jangling about the word and Art

Oroafter, King of the Battrians, Vin-Minerals, or their Sympathetical, or Antipacentius supposeth to be Cham the thetical workings; of which, I know not Son of Noah: a fancy of little pro- what King of chaldaa is also made the Invenbability. For Cham was the Pa-ter I rather think that these knowledges were ternal Ancestour of Nimes, the Fa- far more ancient, and left by Noab to his Sons. cause, and giver of life and virtue to Nature, It is reported by Cassianus, that Serenus and all natural things; whereas others (for

cepts and Rules thereof to be graven in Metal, he could not have attained to any fuch excellency therein, in his own life-time; but Saint Augustine noteth that Zoroaster was being a man(as it seemeth) of fingular judg faid to have laught at his birth, when all o-ment, he might add fornewhat to this kind Corrupter, faith Pliny and Justine. But I do of Magick. Arnobius remembreth four, to not think that Zoroafter invented the do- whom the name of Zoroafter, or Zoroafter Grine of the Horoscopes, or Nativities: or first was given: which by Hermodorus and Dinost found out the nature of Herbs, Stones, and feemeth to be but a cognomen, or name of art, and was as much to fay, as Aftrorum cultor. dom by his grace, found the Art, after long The first, Arnobius calleth the Battrian, which study and labour, altogether ridiculous. may be the same that Ninus overthrew: the fecond, a Chaldean, and the Astronomer of by is exprest such a one as is altogether con-Ninus: the third was Zoroaster Pamphylius, who lived in the time of cyrus, and his familiar: the fourth, Zoroaster Armenius, the Nephew of Hostianes, which followed Xerxes into Greece: between whom and Cyrus, there past threescore and eighteen years. Suidas remembreth a fifth, called Personnedus sapiens: and Plato speaketh of Zoroaster the Son of Oromasdes; which Picus Mirandula God by nature; sometimes of him that is in confirmeth.

CHAP. XI.

Zoroaster was, it is doubted. Pliny and Laertius make him a Persian. Gemistheus, or Pletho, Ficinus and Steuchins, make him a Chaldean. But by those Books of one Zoroafter, found by the Author of them was a Chaldaan by Nation, though the word (chaldean) was as oftengiven to the learned Priefts peculiarly, as for any diffinguishment of Nations. Forphyrius makes the Chaldai and Magi divers; Picus, the same. But that this Zoroafter was a chaldean both by Nation and Profession, it appeareth by his Books, which (faith Picus) Zoroastris & Melchior magorum oracula.

§. II.

Of the name of Magia; and that it was anciently far divers from Conjuring and Witch-

Ow, for Magick it felf; which Art (faith Mirandula) Pauci intelligunt, multi reprehendunt; Few understand, and many reprecondemn and hate the things they understand not: I think it not amis (leaving Ninus for a while) to speak somewhat thereof.

It is true, that many men abhorr the very name and word (Magos) because of simon Magus, who being indeed, not Magus, but goes (that is) familiar with evil Spirits,usurp-Witchery, are fart differing Arts, whereof Devu is a party. Devu is a part Mero (faith Pliny) who had the most excellent Magicians of the East, sent him by Tyri-

Magus is a Persian word primitively, where- Plus in versant in things Divine. And (as Plato affirmeth) the Art of Magick is the Art of worshipping God. To which effect Apollonius in his Epiftles expounding the word (μάνΦ) faith that the Persians called their gods payes: whence he addeth, that Magus is either 6 relacious Seds, or Secandins Seas (that is) that Magus is a name sometimes of him that is a the service of God: in which latter sence it Now, of what Nation the first and chief is taken, Mat. 2. v. 1. And this is the first and highest kind : which Piccolominie calleth divine Magick : and these did the Latines new- Piccol. de ly entitle Sapientes, or Wisemen : For the fear Defin. ly entitle Sapientes, or Wijemen: For ine jear Prov. 1.7, and worship of God is the beginning of know! John Hug: Picus Mirandula, it appeareth plainly, that ledge. These Wisemen the Greeks call Philo Linschon. fophers: the Indians, Branchmans; which name they fomewhat neerly retain to this day, calling their Priefts Bramines; among the Egyptians they were tearmed Priests, with the Hebrews they were called Cabalifts, Prophets, Scribes, and Pharifees: amongst the Babylonians they were differenced by the name of Chaldeans: and among the Perfians. were written in the Chaldean Tongue; and | Magicians: of whom Arnobius (speaking of the Comment in the same Language. Now, Hostanes, one of the ancient Magicians) In offavid that the Magi and they were not differing it useth these words: Et verum Deum merita Felicis com may be judged by the name of those Books majestate prosequitur, Angelos ministros Det, Arnobio of Zoroaster, which in an Epistle of Mirandula Sed veri ejus venerationi novit assistere. Idem 1.360. to Ficinus, he faith to be intituled, Patris Ezre damonas prodit terrenos, vagos, humanitatis inimicos; Softenes (for fo M.Felix called him, not Hostanes) ascribeth the due Majesty to the true God, and acknowledgeth that his Angels are ministers and mellengers which attend the Worship of the true God. He also hath delivered that there are Devilsearthly, and wandering,

His Majesty also, in his first Book of Demonologie, ch. 3. acknowledgeth, that in the Perfian Tongue the word (Magus) imports as much a contemplator of divine and heavenhend; Et sicut Canes ignotos semper allatrant; ly science; but unjustly so called; because the As Dogs bark at those they know not: so they | Chaldwans were ignorant of the true Divinity. And it is also right which His Majesty avoweth, that under the name of Magick, all other unlawfull Arts are comprehended, and yet doth His Majefty diftinguish it from Necromancy, Witchcraft, and the reft: of all which he hath written largely, and most learnedly. For the Magick which His Majeed that Title. For Magick, Conjuring, and fly condemneth, is of that kind whereof the L. 2. 1. Witchery, are farr differing Arts, whereof Devil is a party. Daniel in his second Chap. Magi, Malefier, and Chalder. Arioli the old Latine Translation calleth Sophistas: Vatadates King of Armenia, who held that King- blus and Pagninus Generalizeds, or Phylicos, or and enemies to man-kind.

Vatablus) Naturalifts: Nempe sunt Magi apud he instructed the Egyptians in Arithmetick Babaros, quod Philosophi apud Græcos (scilicet) divinarum humanarumque rerum scientiam unto them knew none of these sciences. profitentes; For the Magi are the same with the Barbarians, as the Philosophers are with the Grecians (that is) men that profess the knowledge of things both divine and humane. The Greek and the English call them Inchanters; Junius, Magicians; Castalion, Conjecturers: in Egyptios Sacerdotes Astrologiam & divina the Syrian, they are all four by one name called Sapientes Babylonis; The Wisemen of lexander Polyhistor) and Eupolemon affirm, the Septuagint, Magicians.

The third kind are Malefici or Venefici; in Hierom, Pagnin, and the Septuagint, Witches, cerers, as in English.

That Witches are also rightly so called Venefici, or Poisoners; and that indeed there is a kind of Malefici, which, without any Art latentes; Virtues hidden in the center of the of Magick or Necromancie, use the help of center, according to the Chymists. Of this fort the Devil to do mischief, His Majesty confirmeth in the first Chapter of his second Book: fpeaking also in the fifth Chapter of these, in elder-times, and who better undertheir practice, to mix the powder of dead | stood the power of Nature, and how to apbodies with other things by the Devil prepared; and at other times to make Pictures were Zoroafter before spoken of: Apollonius the Devil by other means bringeth to pass.

who took upon them to foretell all things to the Babylonians, Budda: the Thracians had come, as well natural ashumane, and their Zamolxis: the Hyperboreans (as is supposed) events: and this they vaunted to perform by the influences of the Stars, by them observed, The Magick, which these men profest, is thus and understood.

made odious the very name of Magick, crept into the inferiour degrees.

those lower Elements.

knew the Creator by the contemplation of the gathered and translated.

Philosophers, or (according to the note of creature. Josephus reporteth of Abraham, that and Astronomie who before Abraham's coming

And so doth Archangelus de Burge, in defence of Mirandula against Garsias: Alexander & Eupolemon dicunt, quòd Abraham sanctitate & supientia omnium præstantissimus. Chaldaos primum, deinde Phoenices, demum docuerit; Alexander (faith he, meaning Athat Abraham, the holiest and wifest of men, The second fort Vatablus, Pagnin, Junius, did first teach the Chaldwans, then the Pheniand our English, call Astrologers; Hierom and cians; lastly, the Egyptian Priests, Astrologie, and divine Knowledge.

The third kind of Magick containeth the See upon his Conwhole Philosophy of Nature; not the brab- ment, is or Poisoners: in Junius, Prastigiatores, or Sor- blings of the Aristotelians, but that which so the bringeth to light the inmost virtues, and tivil. No. draweth them out of Nature's hidden bofome to humane use: Virtutes in centro centri were Albertus, Arnoldus de villa nova, Kaymond, Bacon, and many others: and before ply things that work to things that fuffer, of Wax, or Clay, or otherwise (as it were Tyanaus, remembred by S. Hierom to Pauli-Sacramentaliter) to effect those things which | nus; in some mens Opinion, Numa Pompilius among the Romans: among the Indians, The-The fourth, all Translators call Chaldwans: | spian: among the Egyptians, Hermes: among Abbaris: and the Italians, Petrus Aponensis. defined: Magia est connexio à viro sapien-Such were, and to this day partly (if not | te agentium per naturam cum patientibus, sibi altogether) are, the corruptions, which have | congruenter respondentibus, ut inde opera prodeant non fine corum fine admiratione qui cauhaving chiefly fought (as is the manner of all | fam ignorant: Magick is the connexion of na-Impostures) to counterfeit the highest and tural agents and patients answerable each to omost noble part of it, yet so as they have also ther, wrought by a wife man, to the bringing forth of such effects as are wonderfull to those that A second kind of Magick, was that part of know not their causes. In all these three kinds, Astrologie, which had respect to sowing and which other men divide into sour, it seemeth planting, and all kinds of Agriculture and that Zoroafter was exceedingly learned; espe- . Tail Husbandry: which was a knowledge of the cially in the first and highest. For in his Omotions and influences of the Starrs into racles he confesseth God to be the Creator of Tital He of the Universal: he believeth of the * Tri- nat spin Philo Judeus goeth farther, affirming that | nity, which he could not investigate by any option by this part of Magick, or Afrologie, together natural knowledge: he fpeaketh of Angels, perfect and of Paradife: approve the immortality parts. heavenly bodies, Abraham found out the knowledge of the true God, while he lived in Chaldea: Qui contemplatione creaturarum Charity of the Magi: which Oracles of his prints fand clyc cognorit Creatorem (faith Jo. Damascen) Who Ffellus, Ficinus, Patritius, and others, have the Creator by the contemplation of the state of the contemplation of the con

Of this Zoroafter, Euseb. in the Theologie of the | disciplinam scientianque percepisset: The Mari word for word. God the first incorruptible everlasting unbegotten without parts most like himlearned justice without teaching, perfect, wife by nature, the onely inventer thereof.

men into five orders (to wit) Chascedim, or Chaldeans: Asaphim, or Magicians: Chartuor Diviners.

Chascedim were those which had the name the heavens: whom Philo, in the life of Abraham describeth.

Asaphim were in the old Latine translation Hierom, Magicians: Qui de omnium tam divinarum quam humanarum rerum causis Fhilo-Sophati funt : Who discoursed of the causes of all the first: but Laertins ascribeth the invention of this Art to Zoroastres the Persian.

(faith S. Augustine, Pliny, and Justine) of anofrom his Ancesters.

His Majesties Book of Damonologia.

which divine from the intrails of Beasts slain for facrifices: or by Gazarim, others understand Augures, who divine by the flying, singing, or feeding of Birds.

By this distinction, we may perceive the difference between those wise men which Persica, ut in populo Dei Levita, studiisque vera phanicians, uling Zoroafter's own words : Hac (faith he) were the chief Ministers of the Perad verbum scribit (faith Eusebius) Deus primus fian Religion, as the Levites among Gods people. incorruptibilium, sempiternus, ingenitus, expers and they were given to the studies of true Phipartium, sibi-ipsi simillimus, bonorum omnium losophy: neither could any be King of the Perauriga, munera non expectans, optimus, pruden- fians, who had not first been exercised in the mytillimus, pater juris, fine doctrina justitiam per- steries and knowledge of the Magi. Sixtus Sedoffw, natura perfect us, Sapiens, Sacra natura nensis, in the defence of Origen against Polyunicus inventor, &c. Thus writeth Zoroaster, chronius and Theophilus, hath two kinds of Magick his own words are thefe : Et ne quem moveant pramissa Polychronii & Theophili Bibl. 1.6. felf, the guide of all good, expecting no reward, testimonia, sciendum est duplicem esse Magiam; fol. 424. the best, the wifest, the father of right, having alteram ubique ab Origine damnatam qua per fædera cum dæmonibus inita, aut vere, aut apparenter operatur; alteram ab Origine landa-Sixtus Senensis, speaking of the wisdom of tam, que ad practicen naturalis Philosophia perthe Chaldeans, doth distinguish those wise tinet, docens admirabiles res operari ex applicatione mutua naturalium virtutum ad invicem agentium ac patientium; That the testimomim (which he translates Ariolie, or Sophifts) | nies of Theophilus and Polychronius (faith Mechasphim, or Malesici, or Venesici, Wiches, or he) may not move any man, it is to be under-Poisoners; and Gazarim, Augures, or Aruspices, stood that Magick is of two sorts, the one every where condemned by Origen; which worketh (whether truly or seemingly) by covenants made of Chaldeans, which were Astronomers: Hi | with devils; the other commended by Origen, colorum motus diligentissime spectarunt; These which appertaineth to the practick part of nadid most diligently contemplate the motions of tural Philosophy, teaching to work admirable things by the mutual application of natural virtues, agent and suffering reciprocally.

This Partition Hierom doth embrace in the called Philosophers: of the Septuagint, and of first of his Commentaries upon Daniel, where confidering of the difference which Daniel makes between these four kinds of wise Men formerly remembred, he useth this distinctithings, as well divine as humane: of whom on: Quos nos hariolos; cateri imansis, (ideft) Origen makes Balaam (the Son of Beor) to be incantatores interpetati sunt, videntur mihi esse qui verbis rem peragunt; Magi, qui de singulis philosophantur; Malefici, qui sanguine Chartumim, or Inchanters, the Disciples utuntur, & victimis, & sape contigunt corpora mortuorum: porro in Chaldais Genethliacos ther Zoroastres: who corrupted the admi- significari puto, quos vulgo Mathematicos vorable wisdom of the Magi, which he received cant. Consuetudo autem communis Magos pro maleficis accipit, qui aliter habentur apud gen-Mechasphim, or Venefici, or Witches, are tem suam, eo quod sint Philosophi Chaldworum: those which we have spoken already out of dad artis hujus scientiam, Reges quoq & Principes eiusdem gentis omnia faciunt : unde & in Gazarim, or Aruspices (after S. Hierom) nativitate domini Salvatoris, ipsi primum ortum ejus intellexerunt, & venientes sanctam Bethlehem, adoraverunt puerum, stella desuper oftendente; They, whom we call Sorcerers, and others interpret Inchanters, feem to me, such as perform things by words; Magicians, such as handle every thing philosophically; Witches, the Kings of Babylon entertained; and that that use bloud and sacrifices, and often lay the name and profession of the Magi among hands on the body of the dead : further, among the antient Perstans was most honest. For as the Chaldwans, I take them to be signified by Peucer truly observeth, Praerant religioni the name of Conjecturers upon nativities, whom the vulgar call Mathematicians. But common Philosophia diditi erant: nec quisquam Rex custom taka Magicians for Witches, who are Perfarumpoterat esse, qui non antea Magorum otherwise reputed in their own Nation: for do, according to the knowledge of this Art: by the ignorant. Among these works is natural whence, at the nativity of the Lord our Savi- Magick, which men call very improperly, Neour, they first of all understood kie birth, and cromancy. our, ency just of an unactified and worthing the Mirandula in his Apologie goeth further: falte coming unto holy Bethlehem, did worthing the Mirandula in his Apologie goeth further: Child: the starr from above shewing him unto For by understanding (faith he) the uttermost them. By this therefore it appeareth, that activity of natural agents we are affifted to there is great difference between the do- know the Divinity of Christ for otherwise (to trine of a Magician, and the abuse of the use his own words) Ignoratis terminis potenword. For though some Writers affirm, that tia & virtutis verum naturalium, stat nos du-Magus hodie dicitur, qui ex fædere facto uti- bitare illa eadem opera, quæ fecit Christus, posse tur diaboli opera ad rem quamcunque; That sieri per media naturalia; The terms or limits of he is called a Magician now-a-days who having natural power and virtue not understood, we entred league with the Devil, ujeth his help to must needs doubt, whether those very works any matter: yet (as our Saviour faid of Di- which Christ did, may not be done by natural vorce) it was not so from the beginning. means: after which he goeth on in this sort: For the Art of Magick is of the wildom of Ideo non haretice, non superstitiose dixi, sed Nature; other Arts which undergo that title, verissime & Catholice per talem Magiam adjuwere invented by the fallhood, fubrilty, and vari nos in cognoscenda divinitate Christi: envie of the Devil. In the latter, there is no Therefore I said not heretically, not superstitiother doctrine, than the use of certain cere- onfly, but moji truly and Catholickly, that by such monics, Per malam fidem; By an evil faith in Magick we are furthered in knowing the Divithe former, no other ill, than the investigati- nity of Christ. And seeing the Jews and others, on of those virtues and hidden properties the enemies of Christian Religion, do impuwhich God hath given to his creatures, and dently and impioufly object, that those Mihow fitly to apply things that work, to things racles which Christ wrought, were not above that fuffer, And though by the Jens those expansion but by the exquisite knowledge cellent Magicians, Philosophers, and Dreines, thereof performed: Mirandula, a man for his which came to worthip our Saviour Christ, Pantet. Magos pro malescies accipit; Common custom which Christ did, and which (as himself witsapientem sonat, & Sacerdotem? O thou fear- to filence. Mar Ficin full one (faith Ficinus) why doubtest thou to use the name of Magus, a name gratious in the Gospel, which doth not signifie a Witch, or a Conjurer, but a wife man and a Prieft? For what brought this flander to that Study and Profession, but onely idle Ignorance, the Parent of causless admiration? Causa fuit mirificentia quorundam operum, qua (re vera) opera naturalia sunt : veruntamen quia procuratione

they are the Philosophers of the Chaldwans: yea, or how soever fitting the natures to their work-King and princes of that Nation do all that they ing they were thought the works of the devils

The first Book of the first Part years, fuller of knowledge than any that this were tearmed Meckaschephim, or Mecasphim; latter Age hath brought forth, might with yet had they no other reason than common good reason avow, that the uttermost of custom therein. Conflictude autem communia Nature's works being known, the works (faith S. Hierom understandeth is itches under netteth) no man could do, do manifestly testithe name of Magicians: And antiquity (faith fie of themseives, that they were performed Peter Martyr) by the word (Magi) under- by that hand which held Nature herein but flood good and wife men. Quid igitur expancicis as a Pencii, and by a power infinitely Su-Magi nomen for midologe nomen Evangeliogra- preme and Divine; and thereby those that tiofum, quod non maleficum & veneficum, sed were faithless, were either converted, or put

6. III.

That the good knowledge in the antient Magick is not to be condemned: though the Devil here, as in other kinds, hath sought to obtrude evil things, under the name and colour of good things.

CEeing therefore it is confessed by all of vel commiscentium, vel aliter ad operandum understanding, that a Magician (accordexpedientium facta funt, opera demonu crede- ing to the Persian word) is no other than, Dibantur ab ignorantibus hec. De operibus hujuf-vinorum Cultor, o Interpres : A studious Obsermodi est Magia naturalis, quam Necromantiam ver and Expounder of Divine things: and the multi improprie vocant, The marvellousness of Art of it self (I mean the Art of Natural Masome works, which (indeed) are natural, bath gick) no other, Quam naturalis Philosophia been the cause of this slander: but because these absolute consummatio; than the absolute per-Gal. Pails works have been done by procurement of devils, fellion of natural Philosophy: Certainly then,it ende Legs, joining the natures together, or mingling them, | proceeds from ignorance, and no way forteth without difference and distinction, to con- the Sea-birds for sake the shores, and slie into found lawfull and praise-worthy knowledge the Land, that commonly some great storm with that impious, and (to use S. Pauls words) | followeth; that the high flying of the Kite with those beggerly rudiments, which the Devil | and the Swallow, betoken fair weather; that hath shuffled, and by them bewitcheth and the crying of Crows, and bating of Ducks. befooleth graceless men. For if we condemn foreshew Rain: for they feel the air moistned natural Magick, or the wisdom of Nature, because the Devil (who knows more than any man) doth also teach Witches and Poisoners | her appointed times, and the Turtle, and the the harmfull parts of Herbs, Drugs, Minerals, and Excrements: then may we, by the same rule, condemn the Phylician, and the Art of on the rest of Gods creatures, long time abu-Healing. For the Devil also in the Oracles of sed the Heathen, by teaching them to ob-Amphiaraus, Amphilochus, Trophonius, and the ferve the flying of Fowls, and thereby to like, taught men in Dreams, what Herbs and | judge of good or ill success in the Warr: Drugs were proper for such and such Diseafes. Now, no man of judgment is ignorant, that the Devil from the beginning hath fought to thrust himself into the same employment among the Ministers and Servants of God, changing himself for that purpose into an Angel of Light. He hath led men to Idolatry as a Doctrine of Religion; he hath thrust in his Prophets among those of the true God; he hath corrupted the Art of Astrologie, by giving a divine power to the Stars, teaching men to esteem them as gods, and not as instruments. And (as Bunting obnames, which (had they not influences and virtues different) needed not : He counteth the number of the Stars, and calleth them by their names. But, into the good and profitable knowledge of the celestial influences, the Devil ceaseth not to shuffle in his Superstitivirtues of Nature hath he fastened his do-with wife and learned men, promifere, and both the wife and the simple observe when in their quils And it is written in Hieremy the Prophet, Even the Stork in the air knoweth Crane, and the Swallow, Hereupon, this enemy of Man-kind, working upon these as upand (withall) to look into their entrails for the same as if God had written the secrets of unsearchable providence in the Livers and Bowels of Birds and Beafts. Again, because it pleafed God fometimes by Dreams, not only to warn and teach his Prophets and Apostles, but Heathen Princes also ; as Abimelech to re- Gen. 12. store Sara to Abraham: because he admonish- v, 17. ed Joseph, and by a Dream informed Jacob, Laban, Pharao, Solomon, Paul, Anamas, the Magi of the East, and others. For as it is remembred in Job: In Dreams and Visions of the night, when seep falleth upon men, &c. then Job 33.17. screeth) it is true, that judicial Astrologie is God openeth the ears, that he might cause man corrupted with many superstitions: but the to return from his enterprise; therefore, I abuse of the thing takes not away the say, doth the Devil also practife his Divinati-Art, confidering that heavenly bodies (as ons by dreams, or (after Parifiensis) divinitation of Parifiers. even general experience sheweth) have and imitationes, his mock-divinity. This in the deleg. 24. exercise their operation upon the inferiour. end grew so common, as Aristides compiled en. For the Sun and the Starr of Mars do drie; an Ephemerides of his own Dreams: Mithrithe Moon doth moisten, and govern the dates of those of his concubines. Yea, the Ro-Tides of the Sea. Again, the Planets, as they muns, finding the inconvenience hereof, behave several and proper names, so have they cause all Dreams (without distinction of codes de feveral and proper virtues: the Stars do also cases) were drawn to Divination, forbad the malesic or differ in beauty, and in magnitude; and to all same by a Law, as by the words of prohibi-Mathemati the Stars hath God given also their proper tion (aut narrandis somnits occultam aliquam accepta, artem divinandi) it may appear. Likewise by the Law of God, in Deuteronomy, Chap. 13. seducing Dreamers were ordered to be flain. Yet it is to be contemned, not that Marcus Antonius was tolda remedy in his Dream for two grievous diseases that opprest him; nor ons: and so to the knowledge of the secret that of Alexander Macedon for the cure of Ptolemie's poisoned wound; nor that which ctime of characters, Numbers, and Incanta- Saint, Angustine reporteth of a Millanoise, Aug. de tions; and taught men to believe in the whole Son (the Father dead) being de monuis de monuis de ftrength of Words and Letters (which with manded a debt already paid, was told by genda, out Faith in God, are but Ink or common his Father in a Dream, where the Acquitbreath) thereby either to equal his own tance lay to discharge it: not that of Asywith the All-powerfull Word of God, or ages of his Daughter, and many others of to diminish the glory of God's creating like nature. Of the reason of all which, for Word, by whom are all things, making that Moreover, he was never ignorant; that

alian in its absorbab

6. IV.

CHAP. XI.

Deut. 13.

That Daniel's misliking Nebuchodonosor's condemning of the Magicians, doth not justifie all their practices.

nations as the Heathens commonly used, were to be condemned in them, who took on them very many and strange Revelations; how came it to pass, that Daniel both there was no man knowing God among the condemned the hafty fentence of Nebuchodo- Elders, that therefore forbare to offer Sacrinofor against the Magicians of Chaldaa, and in fice to the God of all power, because the Dea fort forbad it? especially considering that fuch kind of people God himself commanded tobe flain. To this divers answers may be given. First, it seemeth that Daniel had respect to those chaldeans, because they acknowledged that the Dream of the King, which himself had forgotten, could not be known to any man by any Art, either Natural or Diabolical: For there is none other (faid the Chaldeans)that can declare it before the King, except the Gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh: and herein they confessed the power of the Ever-living God.

Secondly, it may be conjectured (and that upon good reason) that among so many learned men, some of them did not exercise themselves in any evil or unlawfull Arts, but were meerly Magicians and Naturalists: and therefore when the King commanded to kill help and comfort of Man-kind: neither can all, Daniel perswaded the contrary, and called it a hasty judgment, which proceeded | such men as are fallen from God, make other with fury without examination. And that men reject the observations of Dreams; so fome of those mens studies and professions farr as with a good Faith and a Religious were lawfull, it may be gathered by Daniel's | caution they may make use of them. instruction: for himself had been taught by them, and was called chief of the Inchan- Fowls (as figns of good or evil fuccess) hath ters: of which some were tearmed sooth- no reference at all to the crying of Crows of distinct professions.

of their practice and profession.

6. V.

The abuse of things which may be found in all kinds is not to condemn the right ufe of them.

Otwithstanding this mixture every where, of good with evil, of falfhood DUt it may be objected, that if such Divi- with truth, of corruption with cleanness and purity: The good, The truth, The purity in every kind may well be embraced: As in the ancient worthipping of God by Sacrifice, vil, in the Image of Baal, Aftaroth, Chemoth, Jupiter, Apollo, and the like, was so adored.

Neither did the abuse of Astrologie terrifie Abraham (if we may believe the most ancient down and religious Historians) from observing the 3 1/4 motions and natures of heavenly bodies; neither can it dehort wife and learned men in these days from attributing those virtues, influences, and inclinations to the Starrs and other lights of Heaven, which God hath given to those his glorious creatures.

The Sympathetical, and Anipathetical working of Herbs, Plants, Stones, Minerals, with their other utmost virtues, sometimes taught by the Devil, and applied by his Ministers to harmfull and uncharitable ends.can never terrifie the honest and learned Physician or Magician from the using of them to the the illusions, whereby the Devil betrayeth

Lastly, the prohibition to mark flying of Sayers, others Aftrologians, others Chaldwans, against Rain, or to any observation not suothers Magi, or Wife-men: and therefore perstitious, and whereof a reason or cause so. may be given. For if we confound Arts with Thirdly, Daniel misliked and forbad the the abuse of them, we shall not onely conexecution of that judgment, because it was demn all honest Trades and enterchange unjust. For howsoever those men might de- amongst men (for there are that deceive in ferve punishment for the practice of unlaw- all Professions) but we shall in a short time full Arts (though not unlawfull according bury in forgetfulness all excellent knowledg to the law of that State) yet herein they were and all learning, or obscure and cover it altogether guiltless. For it exceeded humane over with a most scornfull and beggarly power to pierce the King's thought, which ignorance : and (as Pliny teacheth) we the Devil himself could not know. So then, in should shew our selves, Ingratos erga eos, qui Daniel's dislike, and hindring of the execu- labore curaque lucem nobis aperuerunt in has tion of sentence of death pronounced against luce: Unthankfull towards those, who with the Magicians, there is no absolute justifying pains and care have discovered unto us light in this light.

Indeed, not only these natural knowledges are condemned by those that are ignorant; but the Mathematicks also, and Professors thereof: though those that are excellently the (em. learned, judge of it in this fort: In speculo ways attending the cogitations of their ser-the (ch. hatbematico verum illud, quod in omni scibili vants and vasials, do no way need any such quaritur, elucet; non modò remota similitu- inforcement. dine, sed fulgida quadam propinquitate; In lede; not in an obscuring, but in a neer and manifest representation.

6. VI.

of the divers kinds of unlawfull Magick.

T is true, that there are many Arts, if we may fo call them, which are covered with the name Magick: and efteemed abufively to be as branches of that Tree, on whole root they never grew. The first of these hath the name of Necromancy or Goetia; and of this again there are divers kinds. The one whom the Devil himself gives answer in flead of those that seem to appear. For certainit is, that the immortal fouls of men do not inhabit the dust and dead bodies, but they give motion and understanding to the living: death being nothing elfe but a fepathe foul is not to be found in the Graves.

A second practice of those men, who pay Tribute, or are in league with Satan, is that of hope to learn what they lift. These men are fo distract, as they believe, that by terrible words they make the Devil to tremble; that (as they suppose) insconce themselves against that great Monster. Doubtless, they forget that the Devil is not terrified from doing ill, Gods feat, that he made no scruple to tempt himself, that he can draw the Devil out of Hell, and terrific with a Phrase: whereas in There is also another, are besides the aforevery truth, the obedience which the Devils seem to use, is but thereby to possess themraise them up; as His Majesty in his Book aforenamed hath excellently raught: That the Divels obedience is onely, secundum quid, scilicet ex pacto; respective, that is, upon bargain.

I cannot tell what they can do upon those simple and ignorant Devils, which inhabit

Or, it may be that these Conjurers dealt the Glass of the Mathematicks, that Truth doth altogether with Cardans mortal Devils, folfine, which is fought in every kind of know- lowing the opinion of Rabbi Avornathan and of Porphirius, who taught that these kind of Divels lived not above a thousand years: which Plutarch in his Treatife de Oraculorunt defectu confirmeth, making example of the great God Pan. For were it true that the Divels were in awe of wicked men or could be compelled by them, then would they alway fear those words and threats, by which at other times they are willingly mastered. But the Familiar of Simon Magus, when he had lifted him up in the air, caft him headlong out of his claws, when he was fure he should perish with the fall. If this, perhaps, Eufeb. hift. were done by S. Peter's Prayers (of which cap. 16. is an Invocation at the Graves of the dead, to S. Peter no where vaunteth) yet the fame pranks at other times, upon his own accord, the Devil played with Theodotus; who transported (as Simon Magus was supposed to have been) had the fame mortall fall that he had. The like fuccess had Budas, a principal Pillar of the Manichaan Herefie as Socrates in ration of the body and foul: and therefore his Ecclefiaftical History witnesseth: and for a manfest proof hereof, we see it every day, that the Devil leaves all Witches and Sorcerers at the Gallows, for whom at other conjuring, or raising up Devils, of whom they times he maketh himself a Pegasus, to convey them in hafte to places far diftant, or at least makes them so think : For those that re- : Theff. .. ceived not the truth (faith S. Paul) God shall being once impaled in a Circle (a Circle | fend them strong illusions: Of these their suppowhich cannot keep out a Mouse) they therein | fed transportations (yet agreeing with their confessions) His Majesty in the 2d Book, & the 4th Chap, of the Demonologie, hath confirmed by unanswerable reasons, that they are meerand all that is contrary to God and goodness, ly illusive. Another fort there are, who take no, not by the fearfull Word of the Almigh- on them to include spirits in Glasses & Cryty: and that he feared not to offer to fit in stales; of whom Cusanus: Fatui sunt Incantatores, qui in ungue & vitro volunt (piritum inour Saviour Christ, whom himself called the cludere, quia spiritus non clauditur corpore: Son of God. So, forgetting these proud parts They are foolish Inchanters, which will shut up of his, an unworthy wretch, will yet resolve their spirits within their nails, or in Glas: for

mentioned, which they call Theurgia, or White Magick; a pretended conference with good selves of the bodies and souls of those which | Spirits or Angels, whom by Sacrifice and Invocation they draw out of Heaven and communicate withall. But the administring Spirits of God, as they require not any kind of adoration due unto their Creator; fo, feeing they are most free Spirits, there is no man fo abfurd to think (except the Devil have corlamblicus imagination; but fure I am, the reft rupted his understanding) that they can be are apt enough to come uncalled; and al-

by threats. Wherefore let the Profesiours thereof cover themselves how they please by a professed purity of life, by the ministery of Infants, by fafting and abitinence in general; yet all those that tamper with immaterial fubftances, and abstract natures, either by Sacrifice, Vow, or Inforcement, or men of evil faith, and in the power of Satan. For good gods: that we do not give to the Devil any Spirits or Angels cannot be conftrained; and other dominion than he hath (not speak of the rest are Devils, which willingly obey.

Other forts there are of wicked Divinaticalled Hydromantia: by the air, called Mataotechnia, and the like.

The last, and (indeed) the worst of all other, is Fascination or Witcheraft: the Practicers whereof are no less envious and cruel, revengeful and bloudy, than the Devil him elf. And these accursed creatures, having fold their fouls to the Devil, work two ways; either by the Devil immediately, or by the Art of poisoning. The difference between Necromancers and Witches, His Majesty hath excelfort) command; the other obey the Devil.

the same exceeded the Art of Falconry, yet was it no more to be admired then Mahoand thrust his Bill therein to find his breakfast: Mahomet perswading the rude and he did his Horse.

Dens, or killing of them in the holes by Inchantments (which the Marsians, a people of Italy, practifed: Colubros difrumpit Marfia cantu: inchanting Marsia makes the Snakes to burst.) That it hath been used, it appears, Pfal. 58.6. though I doubt not, but that many Impostures may be in this kind, and even by natural causes it may be done. For, there are doth more easily betray the other faculties many fumes that will either draw them out, or destroy them; as womens hair burnt, and abused by vain apprehensions. the like. So many things may be laid in the entrance of their holes that will allure them: and therein I find no other Magick or In- as they feemed : not made Magica artis ludichantments than to draw out a Mouse with brio, which indeed agreeth not with the Art, a piece of tofted Cheefe.

6. VII.

Of divers ways by which the Devil seemeth to mork his monders.

QUI to the end that we may not dote with D the Manichees, who make two powers of his ability, when he is the Minister of Gods vengcance as when Egypt, according to Daons; as by fire, called Pyromantia: by water, vid, was destroyed by evil Angels) he otherwife worketh but three ways. The first is by moving the cogitation and affections of men: The fecond, by the exquisite knowledge of Nature: and the third by deceit, illusion. and false semblance. And, that they cannot work what they would, G. Parifiensis giveth three causes: the first, a natural impotency: the second, their own reason disswading them from daring overmuch, or indeed (and that which is the onely certain cause) the great mercy of the Creator, Tenens Sidner lently taught in a word: that the one (in a eos ligatas (faith the same Author) velut im h h manissimas belluas. S. Augustine was of opi-There is another kind of petty Witchery (it | nion, that the Frogs which Pharaob's Sorit be not altogether deceit) which they call cerers produced, were not natural, but that charming of Beafts and Birds, of which Pytha- the Devil (by betraying of their fenses that goras was accused, because an Eagle lighted looked on) made them appear to be such, Elian 1.6 on his shoulder in the Olympian fields. But if For, as Varius observeth, those Frogs of the Inchanters were not found corrupted as those of Moses were, which might argue met's Dove, which he had used to feed with that they were not creatures indeed. Here-Wheat out of his ear: which Dove, when it of, faith Saint Augustine: Nec Sane Demones was hungry, lighted on Mahomet's shoulder, naturas creant, sed que à Deo create sunt commutant ut videantur esse quod non sunt: The Devils create not any creatures, but so change those simple Arabians, that it was the Holy Ghost that are created by God, as they feem to be that that gave him advice. And certainly, if Banks which they be not: of which in the 83. Question had lived in elder times, he would have he giveth the reason. Damon quibusclan nebushamed all the Inchanters of the World: for lis implet omnes meatus intelligentia, per quos wholoever was most famous among them, aperire lumen rationis radius mentis soles (that Main could never master or instruct any Beast as is) The Devil fills with certain clouds all passages of of the understanding, by which the beam of the stems For the drawing of Serpents out of their | mind is wont to open the light of reason.

And, as Tertullian in his Book de Anima rightly conceiveth, if the Devil can possess himself of the eyes of our minds, and blind them, it is not hard for him to dazel those of the body. For (out of doubt) by the same way that God passeth out, the Devil entreth in, beginning with the fantasie, by which he of the foul : for the fantasie is most apt to be opinion: though I am not perswaded that dit, he evermore answereth by Riddles: as 27, 66, S. Augustine doth believe that of Diomedes. And this opinion of Thomas, G. Parisiensis, a man very learned also, confirmeth. For, speaking of natural Magick, he useth these words: De hujusmodi autem operibus, & subita generatio ranarum, & pediculorum, & vermium, aliorumq; animalium quorundam: in quibus omnihus sola natura operatur, verum adhibitis adjutoris ipfa seminanatura confortant & accuunt, ita ut opus generationis tantum accelerent, ut and Lice, and Worms, and some other creatures hidden things. is: in all which, Nature alone worketh; but by means strengthening the feeds of Nature, and quickning them; in such wife, that they so hasten the work of generation, that it seemeth to the ignorant, not to be the work of Nature, which usually worketh more leifurely, but they think it done by the powers of Devils. But they who are learned in these Arts, marvel not at such working, but glorifie the Creator. Now, by these two ways the Devils do most frequently work (to wit)by knowing the uttermost of nature, and by illusion: for there is no incomprehensible or unsearchable power, but of God onely.

Aquinas, on the contrary, held, that those Frogs were not imaginary, but such indeed but (according to Thomas) Per aptam 6 ido.

For, shall we fay, he causeth sometimes thunders, lightnings, & tempests; and can infect the air, as well as move it or compress it; who knows not that these things are also natural? Or, may it be objected that he foretelleth things before they happen, which exceedeth nature, and is no illusion. It is true, that he sometimes doth it; but how? In elder that inhabite the earth: if he should not an eternal and second death.

neam agentium & patientium applicationem: | fometimes, yea, if he should not very often- Diabolus By an apt and fit applying of agents and patients. times ghels rightly of things to come (where haber re-And this I take to be more probable. For God pleaseth not to give impediment) it rum usum Moses could not be deceived by that sleight were very strange. For we see, that wise and qua res of false semblance; and S. Augustine in ano- learned men do oftentimes by comparing bet momenther case like unto this (to wit) of the turn- like causes, conceive rightly of like effects be- tim quovis ing of Diomedes his companions into Birds, fore they happen: and yet, where the Devil Megalio. per activa cum passivis, inclineth rather to this doubteth, and would willingly keep his cre- Anima,

> Croefus Halym penetrans magnam subvertit opum vim: If Crass over Halys go,

Great Kingdoms he shall overthrow.

Which answer may be taken either way either for the overthrow of his own Kingdom, or of his Enemies. And thus farr we grant the Devil may proceed in Predictions, which otherwise belong to God only, as it is eis qui hoc nesciunt non opus natura videatur in Esay: Shew the things that are to come here-(qua tardius talia efficere consuevit) sed poten- after, that we may know that we are Gods : shew tia Demonum, &c. to which he addeth: Qui us at all times, and certainly what is to come. autem in his doct i sunt, talia non mirantur, sed Solius enim divinæ intelligentiæ est, occulta Guis Parisso solem Creatorem in his glorificant: In such nosse & revelure; It is onely proper to Gods un-ensisted les works (faith he) the sudden generation of Frogs derstanding and wisdom to know and reveal

§. VIII.

That none was ever raised from the dead by the power of the Devil: and that it was not the true Samuel which appeared to Saul.

"O conclude, It may be objected, that the Devil hath raised from the dead: and that others by his power have done the like, as in the example given of Samuel, raifed by the Witch of Endor; which, were it true, then might it indeed be affirmed, that some of the Devil's acts exceeded all the powers of Nature, false semblance, and other illusions. Justin Martyr was sometime of the opi- Just Mart. nion, that it was Samuel indeed; and fo was incollog. Ambrose, Lyra, and Burgensis; from which Au- cum Trythorities those men borrow strength which resp. ad Ora fo believe. But Martyr changed his opinion ; tho. quaft. and fo did S. Augustine, who at first seemed to Ambr. in Ageshe stole his knowledge out of the Pre- be indifferent: For, in his Questions upon the Luc. 4.1. dictions of the Prophets: and foresteld the death of Saul, at fuch time as he was in his own possession and power to dispose of And peared and these behis words essewhere to simple. hethat hath lived from the infancy of the the same effect: In requie sunt anima piorum ve civit. world to this day, and observed the success a corpore separata, impiorum autem panas lu-Dei.1.131 of every counsel: he that by reason of his unt, donec istarum ad vitam eternam, illarum cap. 80 swift motions can inform himself of all pla- verd ad æternam mortem quæ secunda dicitur, ces, and preparations : he that is of counsel | corpora reviviscant ; The souls of the godly sepawith all those that study and practise subver- rated from their bodies, are at rest, but those of fion and destruction: he that is Prince of the the wicked suffer punishment, till the bodies of air, and can thence better judge, than those the just rise to eternal life, and of the wicked to and others, believed firmly, and taught it: from the promifes of the Scriptures, and Top. Mer. that the fouls of men, being once separate from Gods just and mercifull nature, and for from their bodies, did not wander on the contrary to all divine reason, as S. Angustine 4.75. Iron then bodies, and debemus (faith Cyril) in fine. quum à corporibus santsorum anima abierint, ted) might rightly tearm it a detestable opi-trail de quum à corporibus santsorum anima abierint, ted) might rightly tearm it a detestable opi-trail de quum à corporibus santsorum anima abierint, ted) might rightly tearm it a detestable opi-trail de quum à corporibus santsorum anima abierint, ted) might rightly tearm it a detestable opi-trail de quum à corporibus santsorum anima abierint, ted) might rightly tearm it a detestable opi-rail de quum à corporibus santsorum anima abierint, ted) might rightly tearm it a detestable opi-rail de quum à corporibus santsorum anima abierint, ted) might rightly tearm it a detestable opi-rail de quim à corporibus santsorum anima abierint, ted) might rightly tearm it a detestable opi-rail de quim à corporibus santsorum anima abierint, ted) might rightly tearm it a detestable opi-rail de quim à corporibus santsorum anima abierint, ted) might rightly tearm it a detestable opi-rail de quim à corporibus santsorum anima abierint, ted) might rightly tearm it a detestable opi-rail de quim a description anima abierint de quim a detestable opi-table de quim a description anima a description anima a detestable opi-rail de quim a description anima a detestable opi-rail de quim a description anima tanquam in manus chariffimi patris bonitati nion so to think. For, if God had so absodivine commendari; We must believe, when lutely forfaken Saul, that he refused to anthe souls of kely men are departed from their swer him, either by Dreams, by Vrim, or by 4.13. The joins of cory men are arrested to the divine his Prophets: it were fortifile to conceive, christing, bodies, that they be commended to the divine Goodness, as into the hands of a most dear Fa- that he would permit the Devil, or a wicked in igne aterno; alterum in regno aterno; The body, that gave answer and advice. one in eternal fire; the other in Gods eternal Kingdom. And though it be written in Jure from the dead by the power of God; think the first support of the dead by the power of God; think the from the dead by the power of God; think the first support of the first support of God; Pontificio, that many there are who believe, those Devils which Saint Angustine calleth folia. that the dead have again appeared to the Ludificatores animantium shi subjectorum; living; yet the Gloß upon the same Text Mockers of their own vassals, calting before finds it ridiculous: Credunt, & male, quia their eyes a semblance of humane bodies, funt Phantasmata (saith the Glos) They believe, and framing sounds to their ears, like the and they believe amis, because they be but Phan- voices of men, do also perswade their talmes, or apparitions. For, whereas any fuch graceless and accursed attendants, that should be drawn up again by a Devil.

Lucil. in

And

166 fin. Athanas.

of the contrary opinion build upon that by Lucretius: place of the 26. of Ecclesiasticus (a Book not numbred among the Canonical Scriptures, as S. Augustine himself in this Treatise, if it be his, De cura pro mortuis agenda, confesseth) yet Syracides, following the literal sence and phrase of the Scriptures, proveth nothing at

And (befides S. Augustine) Justin Martyr, | perswade, that the souls (yea, even of just Aug de Helarius, Tertullian, Athanasus, Chrysofton, men) were in his power; yet so farr is it or whofoever wrote that Book before cither. If then they be in Heaven, the power Witch, to raife a Prophet from the dead in the state of the Devil cannot fretch so high: if in Hell, saul's respect; it being also contrary to his in the or the Devit cannot recently in From Hell there divine Law, to ask counsel of the dead: as 34 Ab inferno nulla oft redemptio, From Hell there is no redemption. For, there are but two habitations after death: Unum (faith Augustine) was the Devil, and not the Soul of a dead witer > voice hath been heard, faying, I am the Soul themselves both possess, and have power of fuch a one: Hec oratio à fraude atque de- over, the fouls of men. Eludit Diabolus aciem ceptione diabolica est; That speech is framed tum spectantium, tum etiam cogitantium, saith by the fraud and deception of the Devil, faith L. Vives; The Devil beguileth the fense both Chrysoftom. Likewise of the same, saith Ter- of the beholders, and of those that so imagine. tullian : Absit ut animam cujussibet sancti, These then are the bounds of the Devil's nedum Propheta, à damonio credamus extra-power, whom, if we will not fear, we must Ham; God forbid that we should think that the fear to fin. For, when he is not the instru-Soul of any holy man, much less of a Prophet, ment of God's vengeance, he can touch no man that makes not himself his voluntary It is true, that the Seriptures call that ap- vassal : Potest ad malum invitare, non potest parition, Samuel; so do they the wooden trahere, faith S. Augustine; He can allure, but Images, Cherubims: and falle brazen gods he cannot enforce to evil. Such as think otherare gods, and the like. And whereas these wise, may go into the number remembred

> > Nam veluti pueri trepidant, atque omnia

In tenebris metuunt: sic nos in luce ti-all: For, though the Devil would willingly We fear by light, as children in the dark.

na at reals self-conductor of Harrison, vlandanis

. Ale 1 ft 1 de molton

CHAP. XII.

of the memorable buildings of Ninus, and of his Wife Semiramis, and of other her Acts.

§. I.

of the magnificent building of Ninive by Ninus: and of Babylon by Semiramis.

Ut to come back to Ninus, the amplifier and finisher of Ninive: whether he performed it before or after the overthrow of Zoroafter, it is uncertain. As for the City it felf, it is agreed by all profane Writers, and by the Scriptures, that it exceeded all other those Regions between it and the Meditermod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 440. fladia, or furlongs;
mod 1.. it had in compass 44 these walls were garnished with 1500. Towers, which gave exceeding beauty to the nature of those times.

fame, and gave it a wall, and called it after any truth. his own name.

deed, in the first Age, when Princes were mocharge the earth of Woods, Briars, Bush- difference. ments, and Waters, to make it more habitable

Of the end of Ninus; and the beginning of Semiramis Reign.

This she did after the death of her hufband Ninus; who, after he had mastered Bactria, and subjected unto his Empire all right, and had fuch a breadth, as three Cha- left the world in the year thereof 2019. after riots might pass on the Rampire in front: he had reigned 25 years. Plutarch reporteth, that Semiramis defired her hufband Ninus, that he would grant unto her the absolute the rest, and strength, no less admirable for soveraign power for one day. Diod. Siculus, out of Atheneus, and others, speaks of five But this City (built in the Plains of Algeria. days. In which time (moved either with deand on the banks of Tygris, and in the region fire of Rule, or licentious liberty, or with the of Eden) was founded long before Ninus memory of her husband Menon, who perishtime; and (as antient Historians report, and ed for her) she caused Ninus her husband to more lately, Nanclerus) had the name of be flain. But this feemeth rather a fcandal campfor, at fuch time as Ninus amplified the cast on her by the Greeks, than that it had

Howfoever Ninus came to his end, Semi-For the works of Babylon and Nanove De Halls gun by Nimrod in Chalden, and in Alfgria, Ni Rule of the Affgrian Empire: of which Ni-For these works of Babylon and Ninive be- ramis took on her, after his death, the sole mus and semiramis made perfect. Ninus fi- nus was faid to be the first Monarch, because nished Ninive, Semiramis Babylon: wherein he changed his seat from Babylon in Chalden, Alian.lib. the fought to exceed her husband by far. In- to Ninive in Asyria. Justine reports, that Se- 7. ex Dimiramis (the better to invest her self, and in one. derate, they neither thought how to invade her beginning without murmure or offence others, nor feared to be invaded : labouring to take on her so great a charge) presented to build Towns and Villages, for the use of her self to the people in person of her Son themselves and their people, without either Ninias, or Zameis, who bare her external Walls or Towers; and how they might dif- form and proportion without any fensible

This report I take also to be seigned, for and fertile. But semiramis living in that which many arguments might be made. But Age, when Ambition was strong in youth: as she ruled long, so she performed all those and purpofing to follow the Conquest which memorable Acts which are written of her by her huband had undertaken, gave that the name of semiramis, and subscribed that beauty and strength to Babylon, which it Letter which she sent to the King of India (her last challenge and undertaken conquest) by her own name. And were it true that her Son Ninias had fuch a frature at his fathers death, as that Semiramis (who was held the Empire from him 42. years after by onely appeared: the head thereof by the any fuch fubrilty (for fo long the reigned after the death of her husband:) but it may be true, that Ninias, or Zameis (being wholly given to his pleasures, as it is written of him) was well pleased with his mothers prosperous government and undertakings.

6. III.

Of Semiramis Parentage and Education, and Metamorphosis of her Mother.

Some Writers (of which Plutarch is one) make this famous woman to have been of base Parentage, calling her after the name of her Country, a Syrian. Berosus calls her after the name of her City wherein she was born, Semiramis Aftalonitis, of Ascalon, the antient City and Metropolis of the Philistims. Others the report thereof to the envious and lying report her to be the Daughter of Derceta, Grecians. For delicacy & ease do more often a Curtizan of Ascalon, exceeding beautifull. accompany licentiousness in men and wo-Others say, that this Derceta or Dercetie, the men, than labour and hazzard do. And if mother of Semiramis, was sometimes a Re- the one half be true which is reported of this cluse, and had profest a holy and a religious Lady, then there never lived any Prince or life ; to whom there was a Temple dedica- Princess more worthy of Fame than Semirated, leated on the bank of a Lake adjoining mis was, both for the works she did at Babyto Ascalon; and afterward falling in love lon, and elsewhere, and for the Warrs she with a goodly young man, the was by him made with glorious fucces: all but her last made with child, which (for fear of extreme | enterprise of India, from whence both strapunishment) she conveyed away, and caused | bo and Arianus report, that she never rethe same to be hidden among the high turned; and that of all her most powerful Reeds which grew on the banks of the Lake: in which (while the child was left to the mercy of wilde Beafts) the same was fed by certain Birds, which used to feed upon, or neer those Waters. But I take this tale to be like that of Lupa the Harlot that fostered Romulus. For some one or other adjoining to this Lake, had the charge and fosteridge thereby hope the better to cover her disho-

very personable) could be taken for him; blus, Pagninus, and Junius, write it by Dagon yet it is very unlikely that she could have onely, which fignifieth a Fish, and so it

For my felf, I rather think, that this Dagon of the Philistims, was an Idol representing Triton, one of those imaginary Sea-gods under Neptune. For this City being maritimate (as all those of the Philistims were, and fo were the best of Phanicia) used all their devotions to Neptune, and the rest of the petty gods which attended him.

6. I V.

Of her Expedition into India, and death after discomsiture: with a note of the improbability of her vices.

PUt for her Pedigree, I leave it to Assyrian DHeralds; and for her vicious life, I alcribe Army, there survived but onely twenty persons; the rest, being either drowned in the River of Indus, dead of the Famine, or flain by the Sword of Staurobates. But, as the multitude which went out are more than reason hath numbred; fo were those that returned, less than could have escaped of such an Army, as consisted of this child, who being perchance but fome of four Millions and upwards. For these base and obscure creature, the mother might numbers, which she levied by her Lievte nant Dercetaus (faith Suidas) did confift of nour and breach of Vow; notwithstanding Foot-men three Millions; of Horse men one which, the was cast from the top, of her Million; of Chariots, armed with hooks on Temple into the Lake adjoining, and (as the each fide, one hundred thousand; of those Poets have feigned) changed by Venus into which fought upon Camels as many; of Caa Fish, all but her face, which still held mels for burthen, two hundred thousand; of the same beauty and humane shape. It is raw Hides for all uses, three hundred thouthought, that from this Derceta, the invention fand; of Gallies with brazen heads, three of that Idol of the Philistims (called Dagon) thousand, by which she might transport over was taken: for it is true, that Dagen had a Indus at once, three hundred thouland foul-Mans face, and a Fifthes body; into whose diers: which Gallies were furnished with Temple when the Ark of God was brought, Syrians, Phenicians, Cilicians, and men of the Idol fell twice to the ground: and at the Cyprus. The incredible and impossible numbered S. I. fecond fall there remained only the trunk of bers, which no one place of the earth was Dagon, the head being broken off: For fo able to nourifh (had every Man and Beaft S. Hierom hath converted that place. Vata- but fed on grass) are taken from the Authority of Ctessas whom Diodorus followeth. But | ther, upon the top whereof the Chaldwan thing of certainty, but from Xerxes Expedinary clouds. tioninto Greece and afterwards; whole Ar- By beholding the ruines of this Tower, the number.

it came, that the Babylonians gave a Dove in their Enfigns.

6. V.

Of the Temple of Belus built by Semiramis; and of the Pyramides of Egypt.

Tower; and so eight in all, one above ano- steps.

as the one may be taxed with many frivo- Priests made the Observation of the Starrs; lous reports: fo Diodorus himself hath no- because this Tower over-topped the ordi-my (though the same was farr inferiour to have many Travellers been deceived; who that of Semiramis) yet it had weight enough suppose that they have seen a part of Nimto over-load the belief of any reasonable rod's Tower, when it was but the foundaman. For all Authours confent, that Xerxes tion of this Temple of Bel (except this of Bel transported into Greece, an army of 1700000. were founded on that of Nimrod.) There and gathered together (therein to pass the were burnt in this Temple, one hundred Hellesport) three thousand Gallies, as Herothousand talents of Frankincense every dotus out of the feveral Provinces whence year (faith Herodotus.) This Temple did those Gallies were taken, hath collected Nebuchodonosor adorn with the spoils of Hierusalem, and of the Temple of Solomon: all But of what multitude foever the Army which veffels and ornaments Cyrus re-deliof Semiramis confifted, the same being bro- vered. This Temple Xerxes evened with the ken, and overthrown by Staurobates, upon foil; which Alexander is faid to have rethe banks of Indus, Canticum cantavit ex- paired, by the persuasions of the Chaldaans. tremunt; She fang her last song; and (as An- I deny not that it might have been in his detiquity hath feigned) was changed by the fire so to do; but he enjoyed but a few years gods into a Dove (the Bird of Venus) whence after Babylon taken, and therefore could not perform any fuch work. The Egyptians proclin (faith Proclus) inhabiting a low and level Times ground, and given to the same superstition of lib. 1. the Stars that the Chaldaans were erected in imitation, and for the same service and use. the Pyramides by Memphis, which were conspicus undique navigantibus, faith Pliny. Of these Pyramides, Bellonius, a carefull obser-A Mong all her other memorable and more ver of Rarities (who being in Egypt, mount-than magnificent works (befides the ed by steps to the top of the highest) wall of the City of Babylon) was the Temple maketh this report : Le meilleur archer qui Bellon. 1.1; of Bel, erected in the middle of this City, servit a sa sommite, & tirant une fleche in invironed with a wall carried foursquare of It air, a peine pouroit l'envoyer hors de sa base great heighth and beauty, having on each q'elle ne se tombast sur les degrez; The best graven. In the Core of the square, she raised ramides, and shooting an arrow from thence a Tower of a furlong high, which is half a into the air, as farr as he can, with creat difquarter of a mile; and upon it again (taking ficulty shall be able so to force the same, but a Basis of a less circuit) she set a second that it will fall upon some of the degrees or Finis Libri primi.

All Marie Branch Branch

CHAP.

THE

FIRST PART

ISTORY

WORLD:

Intreating of the TIMES, from the Birth of Abraham, to the Destruction of Solomon's Temple.

THE SECOND BOOK.

CHAP. I.

Of the Time of the Birth of Abraham: and the use of this Question, for the ordering of the Story of the Assyrian Empire.

6. I.

Of some of the Successours of Semiramis: with a brief transition to the Question, about the time of the Birth of Abraham.

Diodorus, Justine, Orosius, and all other ap- Xerxes, or Balanius. For, otherwise, if we proved Writers. For Ninias being esteemed seek to prove things certain by the uncerfor the Chaldean Priefts, his Afronomers:
nor by Arius his fuccessour, whom Suidas calleth Thuras; but that he reduced again want assurance. the Badirians and Caspians, revolted (as it feemeth) in Ninias his time: nor of Aralins, the fuccessour of Arius; but that he added frian Kings reigned, as also for other good

Fter the death of Semi-| Stone, and some Engines for the Warr: I ramis, Ninias, or Zameis, will, for this present, pass them over, and a fucceeded her in the while follow Abraham, whose ways are war-Empire, on whom Be- rantable (till we meet these Asyrians again rosus Annianus bestows in this Story) by whom, and by whose ifthe conquest of Bactria, sues, we shall best give date to the Kings and the overthrow of of Babylon: Abraham living at once with Zoroaster; contrary to Ninus, Ninias, Semiramis, Arius, Aralius, and no man of Warr at all, but altogether fe- tain, and judge of those times, which the minine, and subjected to ease and delicacy, Scriptures set us down without errour, by there is no probability in that opinion. Now, the reigns of the Algrian Princes; we shall because there was nothing performed by but patch up the Story at adventure, and this Ninias of any moment, other than that leave it in the same confusion, in which, to out of jealousie he every year changed his this day, it hath remained. For, where the Provincial Governours, and built Colleges Scriptures do not help us, Mirum non of in fumptuosity, invented Jewels of Gold and causes, we must first assure the time of Acluded.

Archilothus de temporibus (as we find him regard of Nahor and Haran. in Annews) makes but 250, years from the ther, the year 292.

Now, fince I do here enter into that never refolved Question, and Labyrinth of times, it behoveth me to give Reason for my own Opinion: and with fo much the greater care and circumspection, because I made a father at 100 years. walk afide, and in a way apart from the multitude; yet not alone, and without companions, though the fewer in number: with whom I rather choose to endure the wounds of those darts, which Envie casteth at Novelty, than to go on fafely and fleepily in the easie ways of ancient miftakings: feeing to be learned in many errours, or to be ignorant in all things, hath little diversity.

6. II.

A Proposal of Reasons or Arguments, that are brought to prove Abraham was born in the year 292. after the Floud, and not in selves; first, on these words of the Scripture: So Terah tived 70. years, and begat Abraham, gainst all that can be said to the contrary. Nahor, and Haran: Secondly, upon the Opinion of Josephus, Saint Augustine, Beda, Isidore, and many of the ancient Hebrews before them: Authorities (while they are flightly looked over) feeming of great brakam's Eirth, and in what year the fame | bred, the later Chronologers gather these arhappened after the Floud. Now, fince all agree that the three and fourtieth year of Ninus, was the birth-year of Abraham; by Nahor, and Haran: and that Abraham beproving directly out of the Scriptures, in ling the first named, Abraham being the worwhat year after the Floud, the birth of A- thieft, Abraham being the Son of the Probraham happened, we shall thereby set all mise, ought in this respect to be counted the the rest in square and order. But of this eldest Son of Terah, and so necessarily born time there is much jangling between those in the seventieth year of his life. Secondly, Chronologers, which follow the Hebrew ac- it was of Abraham that Moses had respect in count, and others: the most part making whom the Church of God was continued. 292. or 293. years; others 352. years be- who was heir of the Bleffing; and not of tween Abraham's Birth and the Floud: a Nahor and Haran: for the scope of this matter often disputed, but never con- Chapter, was to set down the Genealogie of Christ, from Adam to Abraham, without all

It is thirdly objected, that if Abraham Floud to Ninus: then feeing that Abraham were not the eldest Son, then there can be wasborn in the three and fourtieth year of no certainty of his age, and so are all future Ninus, according to Eusebius and Saint Autimes made doubtfull. For it cannot then be gustine, it followeth, by the addition of those proved, that Abraham was born more astwo numbers, that the year of Abraham's furedly in the 130. year of Terah his age, Birth, was in the year after the Floud 293. than in the 131, 132, &c. Moles having no or, as the most part of all Chronologers ga- where set down precisely that Abrahami went into Canaan that very year, in which his father died.

> Fourthly, it is thought improbable, that Terah begat Abraham at 130. years: feeing Abraham himself thought it a wonder to be

§. III.

The Answer to the Objections proposed, shewing that Abraham made but one journey out of Mesopotamia into Canaan; and it, after his fathers death.

O answer all which Objections, it is very easie, the way being prepared thereto by divers learned Divines long fince, and to which I will adde fomewhat of mine own, according to the small talent which God hath given me. Now, for as much as the state of the Question cannot well be scanned, unless the time of Abraham's journy into Canaan be first considered of; before I descend unto the particular examination of these Argu-Those who seek to prove this account ments, I will make bold with order and meof 292, years, between the general thod fo far, as to fearch into a strange tradi-floud and Abraham's Birth, ground themground for this Opinion, and a bulwark a-

But it is conceived, that Abraham made two journeys into Canaan: the later after his fathers death, the former prefently upon his calling; which he performed without delay, not staying for his fathers death at Haran: From the place of Scripture last remem- Epistle to the Hebrews, where it is written, a conjecture drawn from a place in the

CHAP. I.

Heb. 11. 8. By faith Abraham (when he was called) obeyed manded him to offer him up to himself for God to go out into a place which be should after- facrifice; all which discomforts he patiently mardreceive for inheritance: and he went out, and constantly underwent. not knowing whither he went. This Supposition (if it be granted) ferves very well to uphold the opinion that can ill ftand without it. Let us therefore see whether we may give credit to the Supposition it felf. Surely, that Abraham first departed Charrangor Haran, after the death of Terab his Father, the same is proved, without the admission of any diffinction by these words of Saint AEST.4. Stephen: And after his father was dead, God brought him into this land, where ye now dwell, that was, out of Haran into Canaan. Against ing, as aforesaid, 300. miles in length, let evewhich place, so direct and plain, what force ry reasonable man judge. For, if he travelled hath any mans fancy or supposition, perswading, that Alraham made two journeys into miles from Or to Haran; and from Haran Canaan; one before Terahs death, and anotwice into Canaan. But were there no other ther after: no fuch thing being found in Scri- argument to disprove this fancy; the manptures, nor any circumstance, probability or ner of Abrahams departing from Haran reason to induce it? For, if any man out of hath more proof (that he had not animum this place before alleged can pick any argu-revertendi, not any thought of looking back ment, proving, or affording any strong pre- ward) than any mans bare conjecture, behe fumption, that Abraham past into Canaan, and of what antiquity or authority soever. For then returned unto Haran, from whence he thus it is written of him, Then Abraham took Guar departed a second time: then I think it rea- Sara his wife, and Lot his brothers Son, and all fon that he be believed in the rest. But, that their substance that they possest, and the souls he performed the Commandment of God af- that they had gotten in Haran: and they deter his Fathers death, caving Or & Haran for parted to go to the land of Canaan, and to the Canaan, it is as true as the Scriptures them- land of Canaan they came. Now, if Abraham felves are true. For after his Father was dead brought all with him that was dear unto (faith Martyr stephen) God brought him into him; his wife and kinsmen, and his, and their this Land. And as Beza noteth, if Abraham made a double journey into Canaan, then must it be inferred, that Moses omitted the one, and Stephen afterwards remembred the other: and whence had Stephen, faith Beza, the knowledge of Abrahams coming into Canaan, but out of Mofes ? For, if Stephen had spoken any thing of those times, differadversaries, too great an occasion both of fcandalizing himfelf, and the Gospel of christ. Indeed, we shall find small reason to make us both in Keligion and Nation. think, that Abraham passed and re-passed those ways, more often than he was enforced turn to Haran, as I will not enquire of them, fo to do, if we consider, that he had no that without warrant from the Scriptures other guide or comforter in this long and have fent him back thither, about the time wearifom journey, than the strength of his of his fathers death: so they, perhaps, if they faith in Gods promifes: In which, if any were urged, could fay little elle, than that he had more cause than ever man had to fall were not maintainable. One thing in good thing would have brought him to despair, into it. For he came into a Region of ftrong reason they should do well to make plain, if and stubborn Nations: a Nation of valiant it be not over-troublesome. They say, that and resolved Idolaters. He was besieged Abraham was in Haran at his father's death, with famine at his first arrival, and driven to or some time after, being then, by their acflie into Egypt for relief. His wife was old, and he had no Son to inherit the Promife, then did it happen, that he left quite undone

Secondly, let us consider the ways themselves, which Abraham had to pass over; the length whereof was 300. English miles; and through Countreys of which he had no manner of experience. He was to transport himfelf over the great River of Euphrates, to travel through the dangerous & barren Desarts of Palmyrena, and to climb over the great and high mountains of Libanus, Hermon, or Gilead: and whether these were easie walks for Abraham to march twice over, containit twice; then was his journey in all, 1800. goods: it is not probable that he meant to walk it back again for his pleasure, in fo warm, dangerous, and barren a Countrey as that was: or, if he could have been thereto moved, it is more likely, that he would have then returned, when he was yet unfettled, and prest with extreme famine at his first arrival. For had his father been then alive, he ing from Moses, he had offered the Jens, his might have hoped from him to receive more affured comfort and relief, than among the Egyptians, to whom he was a meer stranger,

What the cause might be of Abraham's rewithout such a second voyage, their opinion count, 135. years old, or a little more. How And when God had given him Maac, he com- the business, which, as we read, was within four or five years after that time, his greatest, Hebrews. When Hezechias was visited with 60. 14 Or (as may feem) his onely care? Did not he an honourable Embaffie from Babel, it feems 1King. 10. bind with a very folemn oath, his principal that he conceived great pleasure in his mind, fervant, in whom he reposed most consi- and thought it a piece of his prosperity; but his business when he was there, or that some- stances do (to my understanding) both what happened, which no man can devise; strongly and necessarily conclude. 64 14. What might be the reason, that Abraham's 3636,000 man, in doing his Masters errand, was fain to ham is but an imagination; and that imaginalay open the whole Story of his Masters proto him a Son in her old age? If Abraham him-

dence, to travel into those parts, and seek the Prophecy which thereupon he heard by out a Wife for Isaac his Son? and doth it not Esay, made him to know, that the counsel of appear by all circumftances, that neither he God was not agreeable to fuch thoughts; nor his fervant were fo well acquainted in which more plainly appeared in a following Melopotamia, that they could particularly generation, when by the Waters of Babylon Pfal. 137. delign any one woman, as a fit match for they fat down and wept. Concerning Egypt 1 King 14. Isaac? Surely, if Abraham had been there in we read, that sefac and Neco, Kings of Egypt, 2King.13. person so lately, as within four or five years brought calamity upon Israel: also that their v. 29. before, he would not have forgotten a mat- confidence in the Egyptian fuccours, was the ter of fuch importance; but would have cause of their destruction. Where they were trufted his own judgment, in choosing a wo- forbidden to return into Egypt, I do not reman, fit for her piety, virtue, and other de-member nor can readily find; but it is found firable qualities, to be linked in marriage in Denteronomy, that God had faid, They v. 16. with his onely Son, who was then five and fhould no more return that may; which is thirty years old; before which age, most of given, as the reason, why their King might the Patriarchs after the Floud had begotten not cause the people to return to Egypt, for children; rather than have left all at ran- the multiplying of his Horses. Whether the dom to the confideration of a fervant, that Lord had laid any fuch injunction upon Aneither knew any, nor was known of any, in braham of not returning to Mesopotamia, I that Countrey. But, let it be supposed (if it cannot say; many things do argue it promay be believed) that either Abraham forgot bably: That he never returned, all circum-

But, because this double passage of Abrations of men are rather valuable among chilsperity, telling it as news, that Sarah had born | dren, than that they can perswade those of judgment or understanding: I take it sufficifelf,a more certain Author, had so lately been ent, that S. stephen hath directly taught us, among them, would not all this have been an that Abraham left Haran, his father being idle tale? It were needless to stand long up- dead. And for the rest, when they shew any on a thing so evident. Whether it were law- one Scripture to prove it, I will believe as full for Abraham to have returned back to they do. For all the travels of Abraham are Haran, would, perhaps, be a question hardly precisely set down in the Scriptures: as first answerable; considering how averse he was from Ur, or Camerina in Chaldea to Haran, or from permitting his fon to be carried thither, Charran: and then from Haran (after his faeven though a Wife of his own kinred could there death) to sichem; from Sichem he renot have been obtained without his personal moved to a mountain between Bethel and presence. Jacob indeed was sent thither by Haie: thence into Egypt; from Egypt he rehis Parents, to take a Wife of his own linage; turned thither again, where Lot and he partnot without Gods especial approbation, by ed, because their flocks and heards of Cattel whose bleffing he prospered in that journey; were more then could be fed in that part; yet he lived there as a servant; suffered many from thence the second time he removed to injuries; and finally, was driven to convey | Mamre, neer Hebron: and thence, having purhimself from thence by flight. For although it | fued Amraphel, and rescued Lot, he after inhabe not a sentence written, yet out of all writ- bited at Gerar, in the border of Idumea unten Examples it may be observed, that God der Abimelee: and after, neer unto it at Beralloweth not in his servants any desire of re- sabe, at which time he was ready to offer up turning to the place, from whence he hath his Son Isaac on the mountain Moriah. But taken, and transplanted them. That brieffay- this fiction of his retreat to Haran, or Charing, Remember Lot's Wife, contains much mat- ran, appeareth not in any one Story, either ter. Let us consider Mesopotamia, from whence divine or humane. Now, if it may be sup-Abraham was taken, and Egypt, out of which posed, that Abraham had made any former the whole Nation of the Ifraelites were deli- journey into Canaan, as Levita his Cabala vered: we shall find, that no bleffing iffued hath feined, it should in reason be therewithfrom either of them, to the Posterity of the all be believed, that he would in those his first travels have provided himself of some certain feat, or place of abiding: and not have come a second time with his Wife, kinfmen, family, goods, and Cattel, not knowing whereon to rest himself. But Abraham, when he came from Charran, passed through the North part of Canaan, thence to Sichem, and the plain of Moriah; where, finding no place to inhabit, he departed thence to Bethel, and Haie: and fo from Nation to Nation, to discover and find out some fit habitation: from whence again, as it is written in Genesis the eleventh, He went forth, going and journeying towards the South: and always unfettled. By reason of which wandering to and fro, some say, the Egyptians gave him and his the name of Hebrai.

Further, to prove that he had not formerat his first entrance into Canaan, God ap-I give this Land, shewing it him, as unto a therefore Sarah langhed, &c. stranger therein, and as a Land to him unknown. For, Abraham, without any other Sarah after the manner of momen, it appeareth provident care for himself, believed in the that the wonder was wrought on her, and not Word of the living God: neither fending on Abraham. For Abraham by his second wife before, nor comming first to discover it; but | Keturah, had many Sons after Sarahs death, being arrived, he received a fecond Pro- as Zimron, Jockshan, Medan, Ishbak, and mise from God, that he would give those shuah: and the eldest of these was born 37. Countreys unto him and his feed to inhabite and inherite.

Laftly, what should move any man to think, that Moses would have omitted any such they say, may be gathered from this supposed and flort? as when he moved from Sichem, and feated between Haie and Bethel, the di-Chapters; which Age lasted 1656.years: but he bestoweth on the Story of Abraham, fourteen Chapters, beginning with his Birth in thers at the same age, and seven years after. the cleventh, and ending with his Death in the five & twentieth; and this time endured but 175. years. It hath therefore no face of truth, that Mofes forgot or neglected any thing concerning Abraham's travels or other actions: or that he would fet down those fmall removes of five miles and omit those of three hundred. For fuch a journey in going and coming would have ministred some varicty of matter, or accident, worthy the inferting and adding to Abraham's Story.

§. IV.

The Answer to another of the Objections proposed, shewing, that it was not unlikely that Terah should beget Abraham in his hundred and thirtieth year.

CHAP.

7 Ow, touching the Objection, where it is faid, that it was very unlikey that Terab should beget Abraham in his hundred and thirtieth year, feeing Abraham himself thought it a wonder to have a Son at an hundred; this is hardly worth the answering, This wonder is indeed mif-caft, and miftaken: Abraham having respect onely to sarab his Wife, when he spake of their many years. For, when the Angel faid unto Abraham in his Tent door at Mamre; Loc, Saly beeen in the Countrey, we may note, rah thy Wife shall have a Son, it followeth in that ere he came into Bethel and Haie, and the next Verse, Now, Abraham and Sarah were old, and stricken in age, and it ceased to peared unto him, faying, Unto thy feed will be with Sarah after the manner of women:

So then, in that it is faid it ceased to be with years after Isaac; and the youngest 40. years after. What strangeness then, that Terah, being 130 years old, should beget Abraham, will double journey of Abraham's, seeing he set- despair of Abraham at 100. years? For Sarah teth down all his passages elsewhere, long | died in the year of the world 2145, and Isaac was born in the year 2109, and Abraham did not marry Keturah till Sarah was buried. Soif stance being but 20 miles: and when he moved thence to the Valley of Mamre, being there remaineth 36. And therefore if Abra ion is but 24. miles; and when he left Mamre, and ham begat 5. sons 36. years after this supposed her fat down at Gerar, being less than fix miles; wonder, and when Abraham was 137. years cinal No, Moses past over all the times of the first old; it is not strange, that his father Terab his same Age with the greater brevity, to hasten him should beget Abraham at 130. And if Book, period to the Story of Abraham: shutting up all be- obed, and Jesse, who lived so many years and Gen tween the Creation and the Floud in fix Ages after Abraham, begat Sons at 100. years, or neer it, it cannot be marvelled at, that Terah begat Abraham at 130. and Abraham 0-

6. V.

The Answer to two more of the Objections: Shew ing that we may have certainty of Abrahams age from the Scripture, though we make not Abraham the eldest son : and that there was great cause, why in the Story of Abraham his two brethren should be respected.

T follows now, to speak something to the Objection, which brings Ahrahams age altogether together in doubt, except we allow him to the fifter of Lot, Abraham married. Nahor alknowledge.

out of the Church, but to Abraham onely, a fign that they had the knowledge of him. with whom God established the Covenant, Nahor and Haran. For the succession of Gods Church is not witneffed by Abraham alone, but by the iffues of Nahor and Haran, were they Idolaters, or otherwise. For Na-Rebecca, the mother of Ifrael; and Haran was the Parent of Lot, Sarah, and Milcah; and Sarah was mother to Isaac, and Grandmother to Jacob : Milcah alfo, the wife of Nahor, and mother of Bethuel, was Jacobs great Grandmother; and the age of sarah, the Daughter of Haran, is especially noted, in that it pleased God to give her a Son at 90. years, and when by nature she could not have conceived. And therefore, though it were not in regard of themselves, yet, because both Nahor and Abraham married the Daughters of their brother Haran; and because Isaac married Rebecca the grand-child of Nahor; and Jacob, Lea, and Rachel, the Daughters of Laban, the grandchild also of Nahor; is was not superfluous in Moses to give light of those mens times and ages. And though sometime they worshipped strange gods, as it is, Jos. 24. 2. yet I fee no cause to think, that they still continued Idolaters. For they believed and obeyed the calling of Abraham, leaving their natural Countrey and City of Ur in Chaldea, as Abraham did, and removed thence all, except Haran, who died before his father Terah, ere they left Chaldea; but Lot, his Son, be the eldest Son of Terah, and born when so, who remained at Charran, gave his Sons Terah was 70. years old. For Abraham's age daughters to Isaac, & Jacob, his own kinfmen: being made uncertain, all fucceding times he himself having also married in his own are thereby without any perfect rule or Family; not thinking it pleafing unto God, to mix themselves with strangers and Idola-But this Proposition, That we cannot be ters. And that these men at length believed certain of Abraham hisage, unless we make in the God of Abraham, it can no way be him the eldest Son, is false. For it is plain in doubted. For, when Laban had seen the serthe Scriptures, that when Terah was 205. vant of Abraham standing at the Well beside which was the year of his death; then was Charran, he invited him to his Fathers house Abraham 75. And if you ask, how I can judge in this maner, Come in, thou bleffed of Jehovah, Gen. 16. of times, either preceding or succeeding, by &c. And when this servant of Abraham's deknowing that Abraham departed Haran manded an answer as touching Rebecca, then at that age: I answer, That S. Stephen hath answered Laban and Bethuel, and said. This told us, that Abraham's departure followed thing is proceeded of Jehovah: meaning, that Gen. 24; the death of his father Terah; and Terah died it was the will of the true God it should be 50. at 205, so as the 75, year of Abraham was the so, wherein he acknowledged Gods provi-205, year of Terah; which known, there can dence. Likewise in the following verse, it is be no errour in the account of times fuc- written; Take, go, that Jhe may be thy Masters ceeding. Now, to come to the Objection, sons wife, even as Jehovah hath said. This where it is faid, That Moses had no respect their often using of the name of Jehovah, unto Nahor and Haran, because they were which is the proper name of the true God, is Now, although it be the opinion of Chryand of whom Christ descended according to follow, and some late Writers, as Cajetan, Olethe flesh, &c. I answer, that Moses, for many after, Musculus, Calvin, Mercer, and others, great and necessary causes had respect of that Laban was an Idolater, because he retained certain Idols, or houshold-gods, which Rachel stole from him; yet, that he believed in the true God, it cannot be denied. For he acknowledgeth the God of bor was the father of Bethuel, and Bethuel of Abraham and of Nahor, and he called Abrahams fervant, bleffed of Jehovah, as aforefaid. So as, for my felf, I dare not avow, that these men were out of the Church, who, fure I am, were not out of the Faith.

6. VI.

That the naming of Abraham first of the three brethren, Gen. 11. v. 26. doth not prove that he was the eldest; together with divers reafons, proving that Abraham was not the eldelt son of Terah.

O the main Objection; which I anfwer last, because it seemeth of most ftrength, by which, those that strive to shorten the times, endeavour to prove that Abraham was the eldest Son of Terah, and born in the 70. year of Terah's life; grounding themselves first and chiefly on this place of the Scripture; And Terah lived seventy years, Gen. 11. 26 and begat Abraham, Nahor, and Haran: To this I fay that although Abraham in this verse be first named, yet the same is no proof at all that he was the eldest and first-born Son of Terah. For it is no necessary consequent, that followed Abraham into Canaan; and Sarab, the first named in Scriptures was therefore for seth was not the first-born of Adam; nor years. It was from the valley of Mamre in Ca-

CHAP.

formerly remembred. But it is written of Noah: Noah was 500. years old, and Noah begat Shem, Ham, and at70. years old, then must Abraham have been Japhet: shewing, that at the 500, year of his 135, years when he first set his foot in Canan, age, he began to beget the first of those three feeing Terah must be dead ere he parted, and uggang. Sons. For, according to S. Augustine, speaking for 70. added to 135. make 205. the true age spens generally, Nec attendendus est in his order national of Terahawhich is contrastic to the spensor of the spenso tivitatis, sed significatio futura dignitatis: in of Scripture before remembred." For heenqua excelluit Abraham: The order of nativity tred at 75 he referred Lot at 83 he had Ijmael is not here to be rest sted, but the signification of at 86. he had Isaac at 100. proved by the the future dignity; in which Abraham was pre- former places. ferred. And therefore, as in the order of the Sons of Noah, so is it here; where it is said, of Terah, and born in the 70. year of his age: That Terah lived 70. years, and begat Abra- then had Terah lived till Isaac had been 35. ham, Nahor, and Haran: For it was late ere years old, and Ismael 49. both which must Terah began to beget Sons, himself being be- then have been born in Mejopotamia, and gotten by his father Nahor, at 29, as other his therein fostered to that age: unless we Ancestors were at 30. The like also hapned should either deny credit to S. Stephen, who to Noah; for whereas Adam begat Seth at faith, that Abraham departed from Melopola-133. Enosh Kenan at 90. Kenan Mahalaleel mia after his fathers death: or else believe at 70. Mahalaleel Jared at 60. Noah was yet the interpretation of Daniel Angelocrator, 500. years old when he began to beget the who in his Cronologia antoptica, faith it was first of his three Sons, as aforesaid. And Saint about his fathers death; because the Greek Augustine, in the place before cited, rather in- word une may be translated by the Latine clineth to the Opinion, that Abraham was the | fub, as well as by poft: which, though elswhere youngest of Terah's Sons, than otherwise: it may be, yet cannot be so in this place. though for his excellency he was worthily For it were most improperly spoken, to say, named first. His own words are these: Fieri that those things were done about Teralis enim ut potuit posterior sit generatus Abraham: death, which were 60. years before. Wheresed merito excellentia, qua in Scripturis valde fore, supposing Abraham to have been born commendatur, prior fuerit nominatus. It might in the 70. year of Terab; we must give those be, faith he, that Abraham was begotten later; times and places of birth to Abraham's chilbut wasfirst named in regard of his excellenty, dren, which no Authority will warrant; For for which in Scripture he is much commended. Abraham had no children in Ur of Chaldes, So as the naming first or last, proveth nothing nor in Haran, nor in ten years after his arrival who was fuft or laft born; either in those iffues of Noah, or in these of Terah: Neither which Abraham left Haran, was the year of hath God any respect of the eldest in nature, the World, 2083. and the year of Ishmaels astouching his election or spiritual bleffing; for Moles nameth first the children of the promife, and the eldest and first in Gods favour. Pietas ergo, vel ipsa potius electio divina, que comitem secum trabit pietaten, & Dei timore, primas partes dat Semo in liberis Noa, Abrahamo in liberis Thare: Piety, faith he, or rather divine election, which doth evermore draw with it, or after it, Piety, and the fear of God, gave place and precedency to Sem among those of Thare. For the rest, it is manifest, that Abraham entred Canaan in the 75. year of his age. And 6cm 12. 4. it was in Canaan that Hagar bare him Ismael, naan at 75. if Terah had begotten him at 70.

among the children of Noah, and to Abraham eldess in bloud and birth; neither doth it when Abraham had lived 86, years. It was at engen in monad and do no make especial Gerar(the south border of Caman) that sarab on a choice of the first Sons in nature and time: bare Isaac, when Abraham had confumed 100 Isaac of Abraham; nor Jacob of Isaac; nor naan that Abraham rose out, when he rescued Juda and Joseph of Jacob; nor David the Lot, & overthrew Amraphel; and he had then eldest of Jesse; nor solomon of David; asis but the age of 83, years; and it is as manifest, that he parted from Haran after his father Alline Terah was dead. But, if Terah begat Abraham Gmu

Moreover, if Abraham were the eldest Son into Canaan. For the year of Terah's death,in birth was the Worlds year, 2094. which maketh ten years difference. And that IJaac was born in Canaan, and was to be offered upon the mountain Moriah therein, 39. miles from Bersabe, where Abraham then inhabited : and that three Angels first of all appear'd to Abraham in the vally of Mamre, no man doubteth.

And therefore it cannot be, that any of Abrahams Sons were born in Mesopotamia; nor while Terah lived; nor in less than ten years after Terah's death; and then consequently was not Abraham the eldest Son of Terah, nor born in the 70. year of Terah's age,

Thirdly, whereas Abraham came into Ca-en then had Terab lived but 145. for 70. and tus de tribus filis Thare, tamen nominatur 70. year of Terah.

was 100. and Sarah 90. years old.

ing that Haran was born but one year after | before it is faid of Sem. Abraham, and Sarah within ten years as old as Abraham, then of necessity must Haran beget her, when he had lived but nine years; which were too ridiculous to imagine.

And that Iscah was Sarah Rab. Solomon affirmeth; both names, faith he, bearing the fame fignification; and names of principality. Again, to what end was the word Isah of Tilbeah inserted in this place, if Sarah were not meant thereby? For, to speak of any thing superfluous, it is not used in Gods Book: and if Iscab had not belonged to the Story, it had been but an idle name, to no purpose

Now, if it had been true (as those of the contrary opinion affirm) that Moses had no respect of Nahor and Haran, who were notwithstanding the Parents of Bethuel and Rebecca, the mother of Ifrael, and of Christ: place, were she not Sarah, but otherwise an idle name, of whom there is nothing else first or last?

The age also of Lot disproveth the eldership of Abraham; for Lot was called an old man, when Abraham was but 83. years old: And if Lot were of a greater age than Abrabam, and Haran were father to Lot, Sarah, and Milcah; Abraham marrying one of Haran's Daughters, and Nahor the other, Sarah also being within ten years as old as Abraham; it may appear to every reasonable man (not obstinate and prejudicate) that Haran was the eldest Son of Terah, and not Abraham; who also died first, and before his father left Ur in Chaldaa. Also Lyra reasoneth against this opinion of Abraham's eldership, upon the same place of Genesis; drawing arguments from the age of Sarah, who was but ten years younger than Abraham himself. Lyrahis words are these: Si igitur Haran fuit junior ipso Abraham, sequitur quòd non habebat decem annos quando genuit Saram: imò nec octo, &c. and afterward, & ided melius videtur dicendum, quod Abraham fuit ultimo na-

75, make 145. which must also have been the primo, propter ejus dignitatem: & ponendus full age of Terah; but Terah lived 205. years, erat caput stirpis & generationis sequentis: & and therefore was not Abraham born in the quia primo fatta est ei repromissio expressa de Christo, sicut supra dictum est de Sem, &c. If Fourthly, the ages of Lot and Sarah therefore (faith Lyra) Haran was younger than make it manifest, that Haran was the elder, if Abraham himself, it followeth, that he was not not the eldest brother of Abraham; for Sa- ten years old when he begat Sarah: And thererab, or Iscah, wanted but ten years of Abra- fore it seemeth better to be said, that Abraham ham's age: Isac being born when Abraham was the last born of the three Sons of Thare. nevertheless, he is named first for his dignity, It followeth then, that if Abraham had been both because he was to be ordained head of the the elder brother of Haran, Haran must have | stock and generation following, and because the begotten Sarah at nine years old: for grant- Promise of Christ was first made unto him, as

§. VII.

A Conclusion of this Dispute, noting the Authours on both fides; with an Admonition, that they which shorten the times, make all antient Stories the more unprobable.

T therefore agreeth with the Scriptures, with Nature, Time, and Reason, that Haran was the eldest Son of Terah, and not Abraham: and that Abraham was born in the 130. year of Terak's life, and not in the 70. year. For Abraham departing Charran after Terah died, according to S. Stephen, and that Att. 7.4. journey by Abraham performed, when he was 75. years old; these two numbers added, make 205. years, the full age of Terah: feeing that when Terah died, then Abraham enwhat regard then had Moses of Iscab in this tred Canaan. For my self, I have no other Gen, 12. 45 end herein, than to manifest the Worlds story. I reverence the judgments of the Fathers: but I know they were mistaken in particulars. Saint Angustine was doubtfull, and coud not determine this controversie. For, whatfoever is borrowed out of his fixteenth Book de Civitate Dei, cap. 15. the same may be answered out of himself in his five and twentieth Question upon Genesis. But S. Augustine herein followed fosephus and Isidor; and Beda followed S. Augustine. And it was out of a foolish pride and vanity, that the Hebrews and Josephus sought to make Abraham the first born: as if God had had respect to the eldest in nature. So did Josephus, together with Nicholas Damascenus (thinking thereby to glorifie the Jewish Nation) make Abraham a King, entitling Sarah by the name of Queen Sarah; and faid, that Abraham was followed with 318. Captains, of which every one had an infinite multitude under him; trecentos & octodecim præfectos habuit, quorum singulis infinita multitudo parebat. And that Pharaoh invading him with a great Army, took from him his Wife Sarah: Such Fables argue that Josephus is not to be believed, but with ment to our felves, which of those two acdiscreet reservations.

179

than 292, years from the Floud to Abraham, is upheld by many of the Hebrews. But how should we value the opinion of such chrono-World; and not the truth of Histories to ap- ties, and monsters, in the Story of the World prove the times by. Let us then make judg- | and Man-kind.

counts give the best reputation to the Story This account of times, allowing no more of the Scriptures; teaching the Worlds new plantation, and the continuance of Gods Church: either that of Josephus, and those which follow him, who makes but 292, years. logers, as take Amraphel for Nimrods Surely, or thereabouts, between the Floud and Birth if their judgment in such matters were wor- of Abraham: or this other account, which thy to be regarded, it would have apeared make 352 years between the one and the in fetting down the fuccession of the Persian other: the one making Abraham to be the Kings under whom they lived, whose Hittory first-born of Thare, in the 70, year of his life; was not fo far remote in time, as these Anti- the other a younger Son of Thare, and born quities, nor wanting the light of many good | when he had lived 130, years. And, if we Writers. Yet grolly have they erred there- look over all, and do not halfily fatisfie our in, and so familiar are their mistakings in all understanding with the first things offered. things of like nature, that we feldom find and thereby being fatiated do flothfully and their opinion rehearfed without the confu- drowfily fit down; we shall find it more atation treading on the heels of it. They of greeable, rather to allow the reckening of the Roman Religion, are also generally on the Septuagint, who, according to some Edithe fame fide; it being a thing usual among tions, make it above 1072, years between the them', to maintain whatfoever they have Floud and Abraham's Birth; than to take abeen formerly known to hold and believe. way any part of those 352. years given. For, Contrariwife, of the more antient, Theodoret, if we advitedly confider the state and contiand some following him; of later times, Be- mance of the World, such as it was in Abraroaldus, Fencer, Calvin, Junius, Beza, Brough- ham's time, yea, before Abraham was born. ton, Doct Gibbons, and Moore, with divers of we shall find, that it were very ill done the Protestants, hold Abraham to have been of us, by following opinion without the born in the 130, year of his father Terah, guide of reason, to pare the times over-From these (as in a case not concerning any deeply between Abraham and the Floud: point in Religion) divers of the same Reli- | because in cutting them too neer the quick, gion, and those, nevertheless, good Authours, the reputation of the whole Story might, as Bucholeerus, Chitraus, Functius and others, perchance, bleed thereby, were not the are very averle herein, especially Josephus | testimony of the Scriptures supreme, so as Scaliger with his Sethus Calvifius, proclaim- no objection can approach it: and that ing Beroaldus an arch-herctick in Chronology, we did not follow withall this Precept of and condemning this opinion of his as poi- S. Augustine, That wheresoever any one sonous. Contratiwise, Augustinus Torniellus, place in the Scriptures may be conceiva Priest of the Congregation of S. Paul, a ju- ed disagreeing to the whole, the same is, dicious, diligent, and free Writer, whose An- | by ignorance of interpretation, mil-undernals are newly set forth, very earnestly de- stood. For, in Abraham's time, all the then fends the opinion, which I have already de- known parts of the World were peopled: all livered; not alleging Beroaldus, nor any Pro- | Regions and Countries had their Kings Egypt testant Writer, as being, perhaps, unwilling had many magnificent Cities; and so had to owe thanks to Hereticks. For my felf, I do Palastina, and all the bordering Countries, neither mislike the contrary opinion, because vea, all that part of the World besides, as far commonly those of the Romish Religion la- as India; and those not built with sticks, but bour to uphold it; nor favour this later ac- of hewn ftone, and defended with walls and count of times, because many notable men of rampires; which magnificence needed a Pathe Protestant Writers have approved it; but rent of more antiquity, than those other men for the truth it felf. To strengthen which, have supposed. And therefore, where the after all these former reasons, and testimo- Scriptures are plainest, and best agreeing nies of Scripture, I will add thus much more with reason and nature, to what end should to the rest. First, it is apparent to all men of we labour to beget doubts and scruples, or judgment, that the best approved Histori- draw all things into wonders and marvels? ans, divine, and prophane, labour to investi- giving also strength thereby to common cagate the truth of times, thereby to approve villers, and to those mens apish brains, who the Stories, and fore-past actions of the onely bend their wits to find impossibili§. VIII.

A computation of the times of the Affyrians. and others, grounded upon the times noted in the story of Abraham.

N this fort therefore, for the reasons before alleged, I conclude, that from the getriben, neral Floud, to the birth of Abraham, 352. for the state of t were spent from the Floud to the 43. year of of Chus, the Son of Cham. Ninus: in which 43. year of Ninus, Abraham was born; which hapned in the year of the World, 2009.

give one part as well to the increase of those cessour. people which came into Shinaar, as to those semiramis governed the Empire of Baby-Oi the that slayed in the East, to wit, 30. years to lonia and Asyria 42. years, and died in the chw. cre he begat Seba; of which, though 52. year complete of Abraham's life. chin, ere he begat Seba; of which, though 52. year complete of Abraham's life. the Scriptures are filent, yet, because those of the same time had that age when they begat their first Sons, we may the more safely give the like allowance to thefe. For Eber begat Peleg at 34. Peleg Regu at 30. Regu Serug at 32. Now, after Seba, Chus begat Havilah, Sabta, Raama and Sabtecha: and Raama begat Sheba and Dedan, before Nimrod was born, as it in. Dei. appeareth, Gen. 10. which S. Augustine approveth. Giving then 30. years more to Rafive elder brothers of Nimrod, it may be gathered, that 65, years were confumed ere had that age before any of his Sons were begotten, it may be gathered by example and comparison: for Peleg the fourth from Noah, of his life.

Let us then allow 60. years more after the birth of Nimrod, for two other generations to was done by hands, and not by miracle: because it displeased God. These two numbers of 65 and 60 make 125. The rest of the time of 131. (in which year they arrived in Shinaar, whereof there are fix years remaining) we may give them for their travels from the eifaluse East; because they were pestered with womige men, children and cattel: and as fome ancient witconii. Writers have conceived, and Becanus of later on times, they kept always the mountain fides, That Amraphel, one of the four Kings whom for fear of a second floud. Now, if we take usub this number of 131.out of 352.there remains 221.0f which number, Berofus bestoweth 65. no paire 221.01 winten number, bei 1911. Selling on Belus, and 42. on Ninus before Abraham imperate born: both which, S. Augustine approveth: which two numbers taken again out of 221.

the Floud to Abraham's birth; which number of 114. necessity bestoweth on Nimrod.

And if it be objected that this time given to Nimrod is over-long; fure, if we compare the age of Nimrod with the rest of the same descent from Noah, it will rather appear over fhort. For Nimrod, by this account, lived in all but 179. years, whereof he reigned 112. whereas Sale, who was the Son of Arphaxad, the Son of sem, lived 403. years: and of the fame age of the World was Nimrod the Son

Now, after Abraham was born, Ninus reigned 9. years, which added to 43. Now, of this time of 352. years, we must Ninus dieth, and leaveth Semiramis his Suc-

Ninias, or Zameis succeeded Semiramis, Floud, and ruled 38. years; in the fecond year of 2019 mun whose reign, Abraham left Mesopotamia.

When Abraham was 85. years old, he re-dil. 2083. feued his Nephew Lot, and overthrew by furprise Amraphel, King of Shinaar, or Babylonia. Ninias reigned 38. years, and Abraham came into Canaan but 23. years after semiramis died: which was the 75. year of his age; so that Amraphel may feem to have ama ere he begat Sheba, and five years to the been this Ninias, the Son of Ninus, and Semiramis, whose 23. years, as aforesaid, being the 75. year of Abraham, he and his fellow-kings Nimrod himself was born; and that Raama might have received this overthrow in the 85. year of Abraham, and the 33. year of his own reign: after which he reigned five years, which make in all 38. But the truth is, that as Raama was, begat Reu in the same year the reasons to the contrary, urging that this Amraphel could not be Ninias, are not easily answered. Howbeit, for the times of the Asyrian Kings that they are to be ordered as we be brought forth, or else we shall hardly find have set down, according to the times noted people to build Babel; for fure we are, that it by Moses in the Story of Abraham, it is most certain; unless we will either derogate from the truth of Moses his computation, which were impiety, or account the whole History of Ninus and Semiramis to be but a fiction; which were to condemn all antient Historians for Fablers.

6. IX.

Abraham overthrew, Gen. 14. may probably be thought to have been Ninias the Son of Ninus.

A Nd now, touching this Amraphel, whom Moles makes King of Shinaar, or Babylothere remaineth 114. years of the 352. from nia, in the 85. year of Abraham's life, that is, 180 in the 33. year of the reign of Ninias Zameis the King of the Affgrians, the Son of Ninus and Semiramis, it is hard to affirm what he was, and how he could be at this time King of Babylonia: Ninias Zameis then reigning there. To this doubt, the answer which first offereth it felf as most probable, is that which hath been already noted, that this Ninias, or Zameis, was no other than our Amraphel; who invaded Traconitis, or Basan, and of the Nations. For Ellassar, Aquila, and Hieoverthew those five Kings of Pentapolis, or rom, write Pontus: so Toftatus thinketh that the Valley of Siddim. For the Scriptures tell it should be Hellespont: which opinion Pereus, that Amraphel was King of Shinaar, which rim favoureth. But this is onely to defend is Babylonia; and the times before accounted the Latine translation. For as Pontus, fo is make him to be the successor of Ninus and se- Hellespont farr distant, and out of the way to miramis: and it falleth out with the 85. year | fend any Armies into Arabia Petraa, or into of Abraham's life, wherein he rescu'd Lot, slew Idumea; which Countries these four Kings chedorlaomer, and overthrew the rest. True chiefly invaded: Besides that, it is certain, it is, that this Amraphel was not at this time that the Affyrians (when they were greatest) the greatest Monarch; for Chedorlaomer com- had never any dominion in Asia the less. For manded in chief, though Amraphel be first at such time as the Assyrians seared the invanamed by Moses in the first Verse of the fourteenth Chapter of Genesis. For the Kings of into Asia the less as Commanders; but used the Valley of Siddim, or of Pentapolis, or all the art they had, to invite Crasus to their the five Cities, were the vaffals of chedorla- affiftance; perswading him, that nothing xing omer, and not of Amraphel; as it is written, could be more dangerous for himself, and Twelve years were they subject to Chedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled, cess of the Medes against the Assyrians. But and in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer, and the Kings that were with him; and Kings (faith the Text) made warr with Berg, therefore was Chedorlaomer the principal in Kingdom of Sodom, Birsha King of Gomora, this enterprise, who was then King of Elam ramis, whom he succeeded, he should not at that time of any great power; and therefour Kings (as it is manifest that he was: Persia. For these little Kings of Sodome, Gomora,&c. were his vassals, and not Amraphel's) yet this makes not the conjecture less probable, but | Pompey against Casar; yet these same exthat this Amraphel might be Ninias. For it amples, without like occasions and circummay be, that the great and potent Empire stances, do neither lead nor teach. For of Afyria had now (as we shall shew more there was no cause to fear the greatness of plainly in that which followeth) received these petty Kings, or of the other Couna down-right fall at the time of this Warr: tries: But the eyes of the World were fixed though not long before it commanded all on Cafar; and his undertakings and intents the Kingdoms between India and the Phanician Sea; to wit, in the times of Ninus and than fearfull: But the whole Countrey by

§. X.

Of Arioch, another of the four Kings, and that Ellas, whereof he is faid to have been King, lies between Coclosyria and Arabia Petraa.

Ow, the two other Kings joined with Amraphel and Chedorlaomer, were Arioch and Tidal; the one King of Ellasjar, the other fion of the Medes and Persians, they sent not the other Kings of those parts, than the fucexamine the enterprise, what it was. These can Shinab King of Admath, and Shemebar King which is Persia: Now, Persia being seated of Zeboim, and the King of Bela, which is over Tygris, and to the East of Amraphel's Zoar. All which five Kings had not so much Countrey; and the other two Kings, which ground as Middlefex; being fuch a kind of were companions with Amraphel, being feat- Reguli, as Josua found in the Land long afed to the West of Shinaar, or Babylo- ter: namely, Lords of Cities and small Tenia: Amraphel, who held Babylonia it ritories adjoining; of which Canaan had felf, feemeth at this time to have had three and thirty, all flain or hanged by no great scope or large Dominion. For, Josua. Neither can the other Countries, had Amraphel been so great a Prince as which in the Text they are said also to prophane Historians make Ninus or Semi- have invaded, be imagined to have been have needed the affiftance of three or four fore to call in Kings from Pontus, or Hel-Kings for this Expedition. But though che- leftont, had manifelted a great impotence dolaomer were the first and greatest of those and weakness in the Kings of Babylon and

> And though it be alleged for an Example, that divers Kings farr off, came to affift were to all other Princes, no less doubtfull these sour Kings mastered in their passage, was afterward given to the half Tribe of any at that time.

word Ellassar, being doubtfull to give it a wrong interpretation. And Pererius himfelf remembreth other opinions farr more probable than this of Pontus, or Hellespont: yet he dares not avow his liking of them, because the Latine Translation hath it otherwise. For Stephanus de Orbibus, a Gracian (a.i. ii. time of S. Paul, who was fought to be betrayed by the Lievetenant of Aretas, comdidreft; so do they in this place retain the manding in Damascus. They were Princes, for the most part, confederate and depend- in the Land, howsoever they might be afing upon the Allprian Empire. It is true terwards mixt; which I know not. But there that we find in Daniel; that in the time of are many petty Kingdoms adjoining to Pho Nebuchodonofor, one Arioch was General of nicia and Palessina; as Palmyrena, Batahis Army, and the principal Commander nea, Laodicene, Apamena, Chalcidive, Caf under him, who was a King of Kings: which foris, Chalibonitis, and all these do also makes it plain, that Arioch here fpoken of, join themselves to Mespotamia on the the Son of that Arioch, Confederate of Ni- North, and to Arabia on the Eaft: And nus, was no King of Pontus, nor of Scythia, Regions farr removed from the Affirians and Babylonians. The name also of bablest conjectures

Manasse, Gad, and Reuben; a narrow Val- Arioch, who commanded under Nebuckolev of ground, lying between Jordan and donosor, is mentioned in Judith, by the name the Mountains of seir; inclosed by the Ri- of King of the Elymeans; who are a Nativer of Arnon on the South fide, and by Ly- on of Persians, bordering Assyria, accordbanus on the North, confifting of two small ing to Stephanus, though Pluny sets it be-Provinces of Traconitis, or Basan, and the tween the Sea-coast and Media: and if Region of the Moabites; a conquest farr un- any brother of the Arabian Kings, or other valuable, and little answering to the power of that House (known by the name of Ariof the Assirian Empire, if the same had re- us, Arioch, Areta, or Aretas) had the Gomained in any comparable estate with the vernment of that Persian Province, called times of Nimus and Semiramis, who fub- Elymais (as it feemeth they had, by the iected all the great Kings of that part of the places of Daniel and Judith) yet the same World, without the affiltance of any of the was in Nebuchodonofor's time. But this A Kings of Hellespont, or any other part of rioch here spoken of, may with more rea-Asia the less. But as the Vulgar, and Aquila, son be taken for the King of Arabia, the Son convert Ellassar by Pontus: So Symmachus of Arius, the Confederate of Ninus, whose makes Arioch, a King of the Scythians, a Sons held league, as their fathers did, be-King indeed, as farr fetched to join with ing the next bordering Prince of all on the Allyrians in this Warr, as the World had that fide towards the West unto Babylonia, and Chaldea; and in amity with them The Septuagint do not change the word from the beginning, and of their own House of Ellaffar at all, but as they keep the word and Bloud; which Diod. Siculus also con-Diod, Siculus Ararat, on the Mountains whereof the Ark firmeth.

§. X I.

of Tidal, another of the four Kings.

He fourth King by Abraham overthrown, was Tidal, King of the Nas Cosmographer, findeth the City of Ellas in tions. The Hebrew writes it Gojim, which the border of Calosyria: and Saint Hieram Vatablus takes to be a proper name: Lyra calleth Ellas the City of Arioch, as in truth of mixt People; Calvin of Runnagates it was. Now, although the same be seated by Stephanus in Calospria, yet it standeth bo, finds that Galilaa was inhabited by die fol. 523, on the border of Arabia, of which Arioch vers Nations, which were a mixt People: was King; who formerly joined with Ninus namely, of Egyptians, Arabians, and Phoein all his Conquests, being of the same Fa- nicians. Nam tales sunt qui Galilæam hamily, and descended from Cham and Chus: bitant; Such are the Inhabitants of Galile, after whom the name of Arius was by the faith Strabo; and therefore was Tidal cal-Hebrew written Arioch; and afterward a- led King of these Nations, as they suppose. gain Arctas; as in the Machabees: the Kings | And so it may be; but the authority of strabo of Arabia holding that name even to the is nothing in this Queltion. For Galilea was not Peopled at this time, as it was in General & the time of Strabo. For, when Abraham came into Canaan, the Canaanite was then that these Nations gathered themselves together under Tidal, I take to be the pro-

g. XII.

s. XII.

That Chedorlaomer, the chief of the four kings. was not of Aliyria, but of Persia; and that the Assyrian Empire at this time was much impaired.

Aftly, whereas it is conceived that che-L derlaomer was the Afgrian Emperor, and rience of that most miserable and detested that Amraphel was but a Satrape, Viceroy, or condition of living in flavery; no long de-Provincial Governour of Babylonia, and that fcent having as yet invested the Allyrian with the other Kings named, were such also, I can- a right; nor any other title being for him prenot agree with Pererius in this. For Moses was tended, than a strong hand; the foolish and too well acquainted with the names of Affur effeminate Son of a tyrannous and hated faand Shinaar, to call the Affyrian a King of ther, could very ill hold fo many great Prin-Elam: those Kings being in the Scriptures ces and Nations his vassals, with a powerless

Kings ware on their heads.

Babylonian Empire stood in any greatness at sures before greatness, as he neither endeathe time of this invasion; and my reasons are voured to gain what he could not govern, these: First, example and experience teach | nor to keep what he could not without conus, that those things which are set up hastily, tentious peril enjoy. or forced violently, do not long last. Alexander became Lord of all Asia, on this side of Story of Amraphel, delivered by Moses, by Indus, in a time of so short a life, as it lasted | which we find that Amraphel King of Shinaar not to over-look what it felf had brought forth. His fortunes were violent, but not than either his superiour, or equal; maken perpetual. For his Empire died at once with feem probable, that the Empire of Ninus and himself: all whose chief Commanders became Kings after him. Tamberlain conquer- and restrained again to Babylonia. ed Asia and India, with a storm-like, and terof his Victories perished with him, if not

Ninus, being the first whom the madness of boundless dominion transported, invaded his neighbour Princes, and became victorious over them: a man violent, infolent and cruel. Semiramis taking the opportunity, places therein, with buildings un-exampled. wounds and wrongs, by their continual purchase their former liberty. fmart, put the Patient in mind how to cure the one, and revenge the other: so those Kings adjoining (whose subjection and cala- Ninias, or Amraphel, invaded the Bactrians, the more grievous) could not fleep, when the advantage was offered by fuch a fuccessour. For, In regno Babylonico bic parum resplenduit: This king thined little (faith Nauclerus of Ninias) in the Babylonian Kingdom. And like. ly it is, that the necks of mortal men, having been never before galled with the yoak of forein dominion, nor having ever had expeevermore called by the name of chaldea, mastering, and a mind less industrious than Shinaar, Babylonia, or Affyria; but never by his father and mother had used before him. Elam: and Chedorlaomer, or Kedarlaomer was And he that was fo much given over to licenfo called of Kidor, from Cidarim, which in tious idleness, as to suffer his mother to reign the Hebrew fignifieth Regale: for fo Q. Curti- 42. years, and thereof the greatest part calleth the garment which the Persian after he came to mans estate: witnessed thereby to the World, that he fo much pre-Neither do I believe, that the Affyrian, or | ferred ease before honour, and bodily plea-

> These considerations being joined to the was rather an inferiour to the King of Perfia, Semiramis was at that time broken afunder,

For conclusion, I will add these two argurible fuccess: but to prevalent fury, God hath ments confirming the former: First, that at adjoined a short life; and whatsoever things such time as it pleased God to impose that Nature her self worketh in haste, she taketh great travel upon Abraham, from Ur in Chalthe least care of their continuance. The fruit | dea to Charran, and then to Canaan, a passage of 700 miles, or little less, with women, children, and carriages; the Countries through which he wandred were then fettled, and in peace. For it was the 23. year of Ninias, when Abraham obeying the voice of God, took this great journey in hand: in which time of 23. years after the death of Semiramis, the Smalls and being more proud, adventurous, and neighbour Princes had recovered their liambitious than her Paramour; enlarged the berty and former estates. For Semiramis Ar-Babylonian Empire, and beautified many my of four millions, with her felf, utterly confumed in India, and all her armies and engins But her Son, having changed Nature and of war, at the same time lost, gave an occasion and Condition with his Mother, proved no and opportunity even to the poorest souls less feminine than she was masculine. And as and weakest hearted of the World, to re-

Secondly, it is affirmed by the best and antientest Historians, that Arius the Son of mities incident, were but new, and therefore and Caspians, and again subjected them:

which needed not, if they had not been re- laomer, if he were King of Perfia alone, should which includes a large of the Winis and state of the World, as pass through fo great a part of the World, as that while Ninias or Amraphel ruled, the Af-Moses, as before remembred.

s. XIII.

That it is not unprobable that the four kings had no dominion in the Countries named, but that they had elsewhere with their Colonies planted themselves; and so retained the names of the Countries whence they came: which if so, we need not Jay, that Amraphel was Ninias, nor trouble our selves with many other difficulties.

fellows, were Lords of those Regions, whereunto they are, or feem intituled; doth al-

the countries of Afgria Chaldea, Mesopotamia, or Ealaneus, otherwise Xerxes, reduce the rest Syria, and past of Arabia, and Canaan, to subrevolted, to their former obedience. Of due those five Towns, whose very names whom it is faid, that he conquered from Egypt how they should come to his ear, being difto India; and therefore was called Xerxes, joined by fo many great Naions of different ideft, victor & triumphator, A conqueror and Languages, a wife man could hardly conriumpher; which undertakings had been no jecture. And if all the Countries bordering other than the effects of madness, had not Persia together with the Balylonian himself, those Countries freed themselves from the realthe Kingdom of Ellasar and that of Tidal. Babylonian subjection. Now, if we shall make fo far off removed were become his depenany doubt thereof, that is, of the conquest of dences; what reason can we find that might Arms and Xerxes; both which lived after Ni- have induced him to hearken after Sodom nus and Ninias, we may as well think the rest and Gomorrab? and when he should have of Ninus and Semiramis to be but feined; fought the establishment of his new gotten but if we grant this conquest, then it is true, Empire, by rooting out the Posterity of Ninus (as Ninus had dealt by Pharnus of Media, firian Empire was torn alunder, according and Zoroafter of Battria) then to employ the to that which had been gathered out of forces of Amraphel, and those other Kings, against five petty Towns, leaving Tyrus and Sidon, and the great City Damasco, with many other places of much importance, and far neerer unto him, unsubdued? Now, as these doubts, which may be alleged against the first conquest of the vale of siddim, are excceding vehement: so are the objections to be made against his conquest of these five Cities, when they had revolted, as forcible; yea, and more, as being grounded upon the Text it felf. For first what madness had it been in that fmall Province, to rebel against fo powerfull a Monarch? Or if it were for that He consent of all Writers, whose works they dwelling far from him, hoped rather to have come to my perusal, agreeing as be forgotten, than that he should come or they do, that these four Kings, Amraphel send to reclaim them; was it not more than of Shinaar, Chedorlaomer of Elam, and their | madness in them, when his terrible Army approached, still to entertain hope of evalion; yea, to make resistance (being themselves a most inforce us to think, that the history must | dissolute, and therefore unwarlike people) so be understood, as I have delivered. But, if against the power of all the Nations between in this place, as often elsewhere in the Scri- Euphrates, yea, between themselves and the ptures, the names of Countries may be fet for River Indus? Likewife, on the part of Che-People of those Lands, or if (as Hierom hath | dorlaomer, we should find no great wisdom, it) Chedorlaomer was King of the Elamites, as | if he, knowing the weakness of this People, Tidal was faid to be of the Nations, that is, of had raised such a world of men against People, either wanting a fixed habitation, them: whom by any Lievtenant, with small or gathered out of fundry Regions; then forces, he might have subdued. For the permay we otherwise conceive of this History: petual inheritance of that little Countrey, removing thereby some difficulties, which was not sufficient to countervail one Months men, perhaps, have been unwilling to find, chargesof fo huge an Army. How fmall then because they could not find how to resolve must his valour have been, who with so them. For, as it had been a ftrange conje-mighty preparations effected no more than thure, to think that Arioch was drawn to after the walting of that Valley, wherein he left fift the Perfan against the Sodomite, as far as the Cities standing, taking no one of them from Powers, where it is very unlikely that but returned well contented with a few pri-Chedor Loner was known, and almost impossible, that the vale of siddim should have though he had broken their Army in the been once named: fo in true estimation, it is still Now, the Scriptures do not of this ina thing of great improbability, that Chedor- valion (hippofed fo great) make any fearfull matter, but the power equally matcht, faying they were four Kings of his Ancestors being by his sloth decayed, equany materie, aying the place be literally against five; yea, if the place be literally expounded, we shall find that Abraham slew constants or if this do not satisfie, we all these Kings; of which great flaughter no may say that Annaphel was an under king, or History makes mention: Neither will the Satrapa of Shinaar, under Ninias; who may reign of Ninias, who lived four or five years be supposed to have had his Imperial seat longer, permit that he should have died so in his fathers City, Ninive; and to have prefoon; neither would Histories have forgot-ferred it before Shinaar and Babylon the Citen the manner of his death, if he had so ty of his mother, whom he hated as an usurstrangely perished in Syria. Whereby it appears, that these four Kings were not the in a case not concerning any mans Salvation. fame that they are commonly thought; nor their forces to great as opinion hath made them. It may therefore well be true, that thele Kings were such as many others, who in that age carried the same title; Lords and Commanders every one of his own company, which he carried forth as a Colony, feeking place where to fettle himself and them, as was the usual manner of those times.

184

Neither is it improbable, that Chedorlaomer leading a troup of Persians, Amraphel fome people out of Shinaar, and Tidal others gathered out of fundry places, might confort action, or being a worthy mans Son, was together, and make the weakest of the Countrey which lay about them, to pay them tribute. Whosoever will consider the beginning of the first Book of Thucydides, with the manner of discoveries, conquests and plantations, in the infancy of Greece; or the manner of the Saracens invading Africa and Spain, with almost as many Kings as several Armies; or the proceedings of the Spaniards in their new discoveries, passages, and conquests in the West-Indies; may easily perceive, that it was neither unufual for the he find any that shall seem better than leaders of Colonies to receive title from the these. But of what countries or people so people whom they conducted; nor to make ever these four were Kings, this Expedition aliances together, and break them again, di- is the onely publick action that we know of sturbing sometimes one the other, sometimes | performed by Abraham. And as for other helping in pursuit of a conquest. That Amraphel and his affociates were such manner Sons, and of his Nephews, Esau and Jacob, as of Commanders, it may feem the more like- they are registred by Moses, because it is not ly, by the flothfull quality of Nimies then our purpole, either to ftand upon things gereigning in Afgria; whose unmanlike temper | nerally known to all Christians, nortore was such, as might well give occasion to such | peat what hath been else-where already undertaking spirits, as wanted the employ- spoken, nor to prevent our selves in things ments whereunto they were accustomed in that may hereafter in due place be rememthe reign of semiramis, rather to feek ad- bred, we pass them here in silence. And beventures abroad than to remain at home unregarded, whilst others, more unworthy than rity, there is much mention of Egypt: by themselves, were advanced. If the conthis place, make this conjecture disagreeable to the Text, to the authority whereof all humane reason must subscribe, then we may hold our felves to the former conjecture, matter; but compose the two Armies as Amraphel was Ninias; and that the power per of his right. But, if it were possible that and wherein therefore none hath cared to take great pains, all might erre; then can I think that the opinion, that those four Kings were Leaders of Colonies, fent out of the Countries named in the Text, and not Kings of the Countries themselves, is most confonant, both to the condition of those times, and to the Scripture. And hereto add, that Chedorlaomer feems rather called a Persian King, than King of Persia: And that Arioch (whose Kingdom undoubtedly was between Syria and Arabia) having been a man of very well pleased to give passage and affistance to these Captains or petty Kings. These, and such like things here to urge, were but with circumstances to adorn a supposition, which either may stand without them, or if it must fall, is unworthy to have cost bestowed upon it; especially considering, that it is not my intent to employ any more time in making it good, but to leave it wholly to the Reader's pleasure, to follow any of these opinions, or any other, if things belonging to this Story, and of his cause in the Story of Abraham and his Postewhich it appears, that even in the time of fent of the whole stream of Writers upon Abraham, it was a settled and flourishing Kingdom; it will not be amiss in the next place to speak somewhat of the Antiquities and first Kings thereof.

CHAP. II.

Of the Kings of Egypt, from the first Peopling of it after the Floud, to the time of the delivery of the Israelites from thence.

6. I.

A Brief of the names and times of the first Kings of Egypt; with a note of the causes of difficulty in resolving of the truth in these points.

dom, till fuch time as Ifrael departed Egypt, are shewn in the Table following.

An. Mundi.	An. dil.	4
1847.	191.	Cham.
2008.	352.	Ofiris.
2269.	613.	Typhon 7
		Hercules.
2276.	620.	Orus.
2391.	735•	Sefostris the great.
2424.	768.	Sesostris the blind.
2438.	782.	Bustris, or Osiris the second.
2476.	820.	Acenchere, or Thermutis, or Meris.
2488.	832.	Rathoris, or Athoris.
2497.	841.	Chencres drowned in the
ļ	1	Red Sea.

Augustine, a man of exceeding great judgefought into all Antiquities, and had read Herodotus, Diodorus, and such others. the Books of Varro, which now are loft, yet omitted the fuccession of the Egyptian kings, which he would not have done, if they had not been more uncertain than the sicyonians, whom he remembreth, than whom doubtless they were more glorious. One great occasion of this obscurity in the Egyptian Story, war the ambition of the Priests; who, to magnifie their Antiquities, filled the Records (which were in their hands) with

Oon after the confusion at Babel (as the names of many Kings that never reigned. it feems) Cham, with many of his if- What ground they had for these reports of fue and followers (having doubtless supposed Kings, it shall appear anon. Sure it known the fertility of Egypt before is, That the magnificent Works, and royal the Floud) came thither and took buildings in Egypt, fuch as are never found possession of the Countrey; in which they but in States that have greatly flourished, built many Cities; and began the Kingdom witness that their Princes were of marvelous one hundred ninety one years after the De-greatness, and that the reports of the Priests luge. The antient Governours of this King- were not altogether falle. A second cause of our ignorance in the Egyptian History, was the too much credulity of fome good Authours, who believing the manifold and contrary reports of fundry Egyptians, and publishing in their own names such as pleased them best, have confirmed them, and, as it were, inforced them upon us by their Authority. A third and general cause of more than Egyptian darkness in all antient Histories, is the Edition of many Authors, by John Annius, of whom (if to the censures of fundry very learned, I may add mine) I think thus; that Annius having feen some fragments of those Writers, and added unto them what he would, may be credited, as an avoucher of true Histories, where approved Writers confirm him; but otherwise is to be deemed fabulous. Hereupon it cometh to pass, that the account of Authours, either in the The Table, and especially the Chronologie, Chronologie, or Genealogie of the Egyptian is to be confirmed by probabilities and con-Kings, runs three altogether different ways. jectures, because in such obscurity, manisest The Christian Writers, such as are antient, and restless truth cannot be found. For Saint for the most part, follow Eusebius: Many late Writers follow the Edition of Annius ment, and incomparable diligence, who had his Authours; The profane Histories follow

§. I I.

That by the account of the Egyptian Dynasties, and otherwise, it appears that Cham's reign in Egypt began in the year after the Floud, 191.

Oreconcile these, or gather out of them the times of the antient Kings about many leafings, and recounted unto strangers whom is most controversie, the best mean is by help of the Dynasties; of whose conti- And to this summ of 191. years, if we add nuance, there is little or no disagreement. the 161. years of the 15. first Dynasties, as The account of the Dynasties (besides the they are numbred in common account, we authority of approved Authors) hath this shall fall right with the year of Abraham's good ground, that it agreeth for the most birth, which was An. Dil. 352. And hereto part, if not altogether, with the Histories of omitting many other reasons, which might the Apprians, Trojans, Italians, &c. and others. be brought to prove that these first Dynaffies The beginning of the 16. Dynastie, is joined must needs have been very short, and not by general consent, with 43. year of Ninus; in which Abraham was born. The twelve first Dynasties lasted each of them seven years, under the twelve which were call'd the greater gods: fo that all the years of their continuance were 84. The 13. Dynastie endured 14. years; the fourteenth, 26. the fifteenth, 37. These three last, are said to have been under the three younger gods. So the fifteen first Dynasties lasted 161. years. As I do not therefore believe that the continuance of number of the long-lived generations bethese Dynasties, was such as hath been mentioned, because Annius in such wise limits out their time: fo I cannot reject the account upon this onely reason, that Annius hath it fo; confidering, that both hitherto, it hath passed as current, and is greatly strengthened by many good reasons. For, whereas Eusebius placeth the beginning of the fixteenth trie erect fuch form of Policy, as had been Dynastie, in the year of Abraham's birth, as used in the same ere the Deluge; but such aforesaid, the reckoning is easily cast; by as the disposition of the people, the authoriwhich the summ of 161. years, which, ac- ty and power of the Conductor, together cording to our account, were spent in the with many other circumstances, did induce fifteen former, being subducted out of the fumm of 352. years, which were between the Floud and Abrabam's birth, shew that the beginning of the first Dynastie, which was the beginning of Chams reign in Egypt, was in the year 191. As also by other probabilities the fame may appear: For it is generally agreed, that the multitude of man-kind which came into Shinaar, arrived at Babel, Anno à Diluvio 131. In building the Tower were confumed 40.years, as Glycas recordeth; whose report I have elswhere confirmed with divers probabilities. That Cham was long in paffing with not certainly be warranted. For in relitutihis company, their Wives, Children, Cattel, ons of decayed Antiquities, it is more case and Substance through all Syria then deso- to deny than to affirm. But this may be said, late, and full of Boggs, Forests, and Bryers partly upon good circumstance, partly up-(which the Deluge, and want of culture, in on the furest proof, That it was the manner one hundred seventy one years had brought of the Egyptian Kings, to put the Governupon it) no reasonable man will doubt. To ment of the Country into the hands of some this his passage therefore, and the seating of trusty Counsellor, onely reserving the Sove himself in Egypt, we allow twenty years; and raignty to themselves, as the old Kings of these summs being added together, to wit, France were wont to the Masters of the Pa one hundred thirty one years after the lace, and as the Turk doth to the chief Vifer, Floud, before they arrive at Babel, fourty | This is confirmed, first, by the number of years for their stay there, and twenty for the Dynasties, whereof many are under Cham, Cham's passage into Egypt, and settling there, and more than one under Ofiris, or Mires aim; make up the summ of 191. years; at which and must therefore have been successions, containing in the whole funim of their feveral times above 161. years; Let it suffice. that had they lasted longer, then either must Egypt have been peopled as foon as Babel after the Floud, or the Dynasties (as Mercator thinks) must have been before the Floud. That the arival at Babel, was many years before the plantation of Egypt after the Floud, enough hath been faid to prove; and that the Dynasties were not before the Floud the tween Adam and the Floud, which was less than the number of the Dynasties, may sufficiently witness. Or, if we will think, that one life might (perhaps) be divided into many Dynasties, then may this have been as well after the Floud, as before; considering that the Sons of Noah did not in every Counor enforce them to.

186

6. III.

That these Dynasties were not divers Families of Kings, but rather Successions of Regents, oft-times many under one King.

He short continuance of the Dynasties, doth shew that they were not several races of kings, as the vaunting Egyptians were wont to stile them. What they were, it cantime we find that Cham began his reign in not of Kings, but rather of Counfellours, Egypt, in the beginning of the first Dynastie. and Regents. Secondly, by custom of such Philistim, in his dealing with Abraham and Isaac about confederation, did nothing without Phicol. Captain of his Hoft; though in taking Abraham's Wife, and in his private carriage, not be the son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul is his Almer the Captain of the Hoft. Yea, David punish him in regard of his greatness, which was such, as was feared even of Hadad the Scriptures: therefore likely, both by his will To. Land of Egypt. William Archbishop of Tyre, the Crown had passed by election, then about the year of our Lord, should Pharaoh's children hereby, either while who have been intralled amongst the rest of the large, affirms have been intralled amongst the rest of the 10.00 to that the like, or very same, form of Govern-people, to the next successor: or enjoying subjects unto the Caliphe; who residing in a the antient King. most magnificent Palace in Cairo, did commit the charge, not onely of civil Government, but the power of making Warr and Peace, with the whole Office and Authority royal, into the soldans hands. He that shall read in William of Tyre, the state of the Caliphe, or Meulene Edhadech, with the form of the antient Pharaoh, ruling by a Lievtenant, inferiour in Wisdom.

importance; and royal managing of the State | Cham; for this Saturnus Ægyptius was Cham:

Princes borderers to Egypt, as are mentioned | had passed, whilest that the King himself. in the Scriptures, of whom Abimelech the intending his quiet, had given his Office to another. How frangers have mistaken in this kind, the example already cited of Joseph's brethren, doth sufficiently witness. The reports of Priests do appear in Diodohe followed his own pleasure. Likewise of rus, and Herodotus; each of whom, citing Abimelech, the Son of Gideon, it was faid: L their relations, as good Authority, lay; Diodorus and Sefostris was the nineteenth King Officer? Also Ishbosheth, the Son of Saul, feared after Menas; Herodotus, that he was the 332. after Menas; which could not have been if himself hating Joab for his cruelty, did not Menas had been Adam. Therefore we may well conclude, That the Dynasties were not fo many Races of Kings, but fuccessions of Edomite, living then in Egypt. Thirdly, this Regents, appointed by the Kings of somany is confirmed by the temper and disposition stundry Linages or forts of men. Now, by of Cham, who was lewd, as appears by the whatfoever means a Dynastie, or Regencie continued; whether in one Family, as beown idleness and pleasure, to have laid the ing made an hereditary Office; or in one burthen of the Government upon others; order of men, as held by faction: fure it is; and upon jealousie, the companion of un- that was the Kings gift and free choice, that worthiness, to have changed his Lievtenants | gave the Office. But the Crown royal always often. Above all other proofs is the advance- passed by descent, and not by election; ment of Joseph by Pharaoh. For Pharaoh said which (besides consent of Authours) the to Joseph; Onely in the Kings Throne will I be Scriptures also prove. For whereas Joseph above thee : behold, I have fet thee over all the bought all the Land of Egypt for Pharaoh, if ment by Viceroys, was in his time practifed in their fathers Land, though not his Estate. Egypt, having there been in use (as he be- have been more mighty than the King: as lieved) ever fince the time of Joseph. He Land-lords of all Egypt, and the King him plainly shews, that the soldans of Egypt were self their Tenant. Likewise we find in not Lords of the Countrey, however they Exod. 12. that God smote the first-born of have been so deem'd; but that they acknow- Pharaoh, that was to sit on his Throne. And ledg'd and humbly performed the duty of in Efay, it is said of Pharaoh, I am the son of E/a. 19.

s. IV.

of Cham, and his son Mizraim, or Ofiris.

T Hat the fuccession of Kings began, and continued in such wife as the Table hath Pla 78 st sheweth from Cham to Chencres, now it fol- 105. 23. his Court, shall plainly behold the Image of loweth to shew. Egypt is called in the Scri- 27. pture the Land of Ham. That this name is 106, 18, as great in authority as Joseph was, though far | not given to it, because the Posterity of Cham did reign there, but for that himfelf To think that many names of fuch Re- | did first plant it, we may gather by many gents, or Lievtenants, as Joseph was, have crept circumstances. For I think it is no where into the List of the Egyptian Kings, were no found, that the Countries of Chush, Put, or Castrange imagination. For Joseph's brethren naan, as well as Egypt, were called the Land call him, The man that is Lord of the Land, of Ham. Further, it is found in Diodorus and the Lord of the Countrie; befides, it is not | Siculus, that Ofiris calleth himself the eldest unlikely, that the vain-glorious Egyptian Son of Cham, faying, Mihi pater Saturnus L. I. Priests would as easily report him a King to deorum omnium junior: also, Sum Saturni siliposterity, as ignorant men & strangers deem us antiquior germen ex pulchro & generoso orhim such, under whose hand all dispatches of | tum; which must needs be understood of

as it is faid, that on the Monument of Ninus was an Inscription, wherin Cham was called Saturnus Egyptius. Likewise the Temple of of the time when Osiris reign ended; and that Hammon, not farr from Egypt, doth testifie, that Ham refided in those parts: And S. Hierom, in quastionibus Hebraicis, faith, that the Egyptians themselves did in his days, call their Countrey Ham; as in four several places in the Psalms this Countrey is called the Land of Cham. And Ortelius, noting out of Plutarch in Ofiride, that in the facrifices of the Egyptians this Countrey of Egypt was called Chemia, expounds it for Chamia, ut puto (faith he) à Chamo Noes filio, to which also he addeth out of Isidore Agyptum usque hodie Ægyptiorum lingua Kam vocari; that Egypt ended his Egyptian Wars, left the Kingdom unto this day in the tongue of the Egyptians is to Orus. Thus farr Berofus, or Authours folcalled Kam. For the beginning and con- lowing Berosus. That Orus, last of all the tinuance of Cham's reign, the same reasons gods (as they were stilled) held the Kingmay suffice to be alleged, which I have alry of Osiris, Orus, and Sesostris. Resneccius in ty in this case, affirmeth that Egypt is now called by the naturals in their own language, Mezre. Neither do I see cause of doubt whereign at the birth of Abraham, when the Dynaltie of the Thebæi began, it appeareth, first, by the authority of Eusebins, who avoucheth as much; next, by Diodorus, who faith, that he inhabited Thebes; which habitation Dynastie, I can well believe; affenting so farr to Reineccius, who thinks the Dynasties were named onely, according to the feveral feats of the Kings.

§. V.

Jacob came into Egypt in the time of Orus the Son of Ofiris.

THe death of Ofris, when it was, none can certainly affirm. The onely conjecture that I know is made thus: Lehabim the Son of Mizraim, called Hercules Lybius, made war in Italy, to revenge his fathers death on the affociates of Typhon, in the 41. year of Baleus King of Assyria; before which year he had made many great wars in Egypt, Phanicia, Tygris, Phrygia, Crete, Lybia, & Spain; and having dom of Isis, Diodorus Siculus plainly faith. Did in ready given in proof of the time spent in and Plutarch as much, to which all Histories Plus like the 15. first Dynasties: Neither is it strange, agree. Krentzhemius hereupon inferrs, that 160 e that the reign of Cham should last so long six years may be allowed to the Wars, which as 161. years; considering that sem lived Hercules made in so many countries, after the 600, Arphachshad and Shelah each above Egyptian Wars were ended: so should the 400. But strange it had been, it one saltis death of Ofiris have been the 24. of Baleus, created by Manetho. had in those long-lived when himself had reigned 297. years. I think generations reigned there 19. years, and that Krentzhemius was a greater Scholar with Baon, Apachnas, Apochis, and others of than Souldier. For furely, in those days, when the same brood, obscured the same and glo-commerce was not such as now, but all Navigation made by coasting, a farr longer time Histor. Julia, placeth Mizraim next, other- would have been required, to the subduing wife calledoffris, according to Diodorus; who, of so many Countries. An allowance of more faith he, was the Son of Hammon: Krentzhe- time, though it would alter his computation, mine faith, that Mizraim and Ofiris, are words yet would it well agree with his intent; of neer affinity and found in the Hebrew which was (doubtless) to find the truth. If tongue. Howfoever it be, we know that according to his account the death of Ofiris Mizraim the Son of Cham, was Lord of had been the 34. of Baleus, then must Ifrael Egypt, and Reineccius, citing good authori- have come into Egypt but 7. years before the death of Ofiris; and have lived there in the reign of Typhon: A thing not eafily believed. For it was the same King who advanced for ther Ofiris were the same with Mizraim. It is feph, bad him send for his father, and gave him more necessary, and hard to shew manifest- leave to go into Canaan, to the performance ly, how long Mizraim, or Ofiris, reigned. For of his fathers Funeral; as may eafily be gawhereas the year of his death is no where thered out of the Book of Genesis. Whereas precifely fet down, we must be fain to fol- therefore the reign of Ofiris cannot be exlow probabilities. That he is not vainly faid tended by any possible allowance in account by Annius his Berosus, to have begun his of times, beyond the 7. year of Israel's coming into Egypt, we must needs cut off 23. years from that number, which Krentzhemius conjectures his reign to have continued; namely, feven which he should have lived after Jacob's coming into Egypt; nine, in which Joof Osiris there, that it might be cause of that sept had there flourished, ere his fathers coming; and other feven in which Typhon and Hercules had reigned after the death of Osiris, yet before Joseph's advancement.

Neither will this disagree with the time of Hercules Lybius his Wars. For the War which well give not only fix years, as Krentzhemius | able to the holy Text. doth, but 23. more to fo many Wars, in fo many, and so farr distant countries, as are named before; yea, by this proportion, we may attribute unto Orus the 13. years, which paffed between the time of Joseph's being fold into Egypt, unto his advancement, confidering that Potiphar, who bought him and whose daughter he may feem to have married, continued all that while chief Steward unto Pharaoh; a thing not likely to have been, if so violent alterations had hapned the whilest in Egypt, needs have brought in. If citing some fragment of a lost old Authour, I should conginning of his reign, made his chief Steward; at which time, buying Joseph, and finding his estate into Joseph's hands, than unto any of his Egyptian followers (many of whom he had found either falf-hearted, or weak and unlucky in the troubleforn days of Typhon) I know not what could be objected against this. Perhaps, I might proceed further, and fay, That when the faying of Joseph pleased Pharaob, and all his fervants; then Potiphar. Priest of On, being chief Officer to Pharaoh. did acknowledg in Joseph the antient graces of God, and his injurious imprisonment: whereupon he gave him his Daughter to Wife; and being old, refigned his Office of regard of Potiphar, did favour the Priefts, when he bought the Lands of all other not unlike the Friarly book of Asenath, Potiphar's Daughter; but, unto fuch as confider that God works usually by means; and that Potiphar was the Steward of that King, under whom Jacob died ; it would feem a matter more probable, had it an Author of fuf-Wars of Hercules, in which, by this reckoning, he should have spent 42. years after he left Egypt, ere he began in Italy, it is a circumstance which (the length of his Italian Wars consiered, and his former enterprises and atchievments proportioned to them) doth not against us, yet could it not so weaken our supposition, as these probabilities collected out of the indisputable truth of Scripture do confirm it. Nevertheless, I freely grant, that all these proofs are no other, than such as

Hercules made in Italy, is faid to have indured | agreeing, nor to be reconciled in fuch obscuten years: After which proportion, we may rity, otherwise than by likelihoods, answer-

§. VI.

Of Typhon, Hercules, Ægyptus, Orus, and the two Sefostres, successively reigning after Mizraim; and of divers Errors about the former Seloftres.

Oncerning the reign of Typhon, and of Hercules I find none that precifely doth define how long either of them continued. as the tyrannous usurpation of Typhon must Daniel Angelocrator giveth three years to Typhon, omitting Hercules. But he is fo peremptory without proof, as if his own word fidently say, that Potiphar, for his faithfulness were sufficient authority, in many points veto Orus the Son of Osiris, was by him, in the be- ry questionable; alleging no witness, but as it were, saying, Teste me roso; yet herein we may think him to speak probably, for as much as him a just man, and one under whose hand the leaned Krentzhemius affirmeth, that Herall things did prosper, he rather committed cules did very soon undertake his fathers revenge; and was not long in performing it: and that leaving Egypt to his brother he followed other Warrs in the same quarrel, as hath been shewed before. True it is, that I cannot collect (as Krentzhemius doth) out of Berosus, that Hercules reigned after Typhon; yet, feeing Aventinus, a follower of Berofus, hath it fo, I will also believe it. That in the reign of Typhon and Hercules, 7. years were fpent, howfoever divided between them, I gather out of Krentzhemius onely, who placeth the beginning of Orus feven years after the death of Ofiris; forgetting to chief Steward unto him, who afterward, in | fet down his reasons, which in a matter so probable, I think he wanted not. Now, whereas he alloweth 90. years of the 18. Dynastie Egyptians. This might appear to some a tale to Osiris, Typhon, Hercules, and Orus; it seems that the reign of Orus lasted 115. years. From the death of Orns, to the departure of Ifrael out of Egypt, there passed 122. years by our account; who (according to Beroaldus and others) think that Abraham was born in the 130. year of Terah, and thereupon reckon ficient credit to avouch it. Concerning the thus: From the end of the Floud to the birth of Abraham 75

From that Svocation of Abraham time to the departure out of Egypt which fumm divers other ways may be collected. Since therefore to the departure out make against us, but for us: or, if it were of Fgypt, there do remain (as is aforesaid) onely 122. years from the death of Orus; we are now to confider, how many of them are to be allowed uno selostris, or sesonchosis, who is placed next unto orws, by authority of the Scholiastes Apollonii not without good may be gathered out of Authours, not well probability. For this great King or Conquerour, have over-run a great part of Alia; to have built a fleet of Ships on the Red Sea: and so to have entred into India: likewise with another fleet on the middle Earth Seas, to have passed into Europe, and subdued many Nations. This is he (as Reineccius judgeth) whom Justine, erring in account of his time, callerh Vexoris; For Justine placeth Vexoris in Ages before Ninus; whereby it would follow that that many Nations had acknowledged his selftris, if he were Vexoris, was more antient power, and submitted themseves to his will then was Ofiris (otherwise Mizraim) a thing altogether unlikely. Certain it is, that after the departure of Israel out of Egypt, no one Pharaoh came into the land of Canaan (which lieth in the way from Egypt into Asia) till the father-in-law of Solomon, Pharaoh Vanhres. took Gerar, and gave it to his Daughter (as we may read more at large in the holy Hiftory of the Bible) after which time, Sefac oppressed Rehoboam, and Necho sought passage through the Land of Ifrael, when he made his Expedition against the Chaldeans. Of King Vaphres, and Necho, it is out of question, that neither of them was the great King Scfoftris. Of Sefac, it is doubted by some, for as much as rodotus attributes to his affaulting the River he came into Judea with a great Army. Reineccius propounding the doubt, leaveth it having likewisc heard, yet reports as a fable, undecided; unless it be sufficient proof of saying, that perhaps he took the disease nahis own opinion, that he himself placeth sefostris next to Orus, following the Scoliastes Apollonii. But further answer may be made, to shew that they were not one. For, as Justine witnesseth, sefostris, otherwise Vexoris, made War on people far removed, abstaining from his neighbours. Sefac came up purposely a- firis began not untill these 14. years at least gainst Hiernfalem. Sesoftris, as Diodorns wit- were expired, the very account of time from nesseth, had but 24000. Horse, Sesac had the first Ensiris, to the departure of Israel out 60000. Sesostris had 8020. Chariots, Sesac of Egypt, plainly shews, being almost general 1200. Sefostris made his Expedition for no ly agreed upon, to have been 75. years. That private purpose, but to get a great name : se- none came between sesoftris the second, and Jac, as most agree, had no other purpose than Busiris, or Orns the second, it stands onely up to succour feroboam, and give him counte- on probabilities, which are these: After senance in his new reign; whom he had fa- foftris had reigned fome while, he fell blind; voured even against solomon: therefore after certain years, he recovered his fight, as Sesostris must needs have reigned whilest 15- is said, which may have been true, but is rael abode in Egypt.

CHAP. II.

Menis, was next to Orus, because those Histo- on a woman, or washing his eyes with her rians affirm that he reigned next after the water, who had onely known her own hufgods; it moveth me nothing. For Ofiris did band, he got his fight again. As the time of fucceed those fifteen gods; namely, the twelve greater, and three leffer; himfelf also (as the learned Reineccius noteth) being called Menas. Which name, as also Menaus, and Menis, were titles of Dignity; though miftaken by fome, as proper names. Krentzhemins doth very probably gather, that Menus was Mercurius Ter-maximus, the Hebrew querour, is by many Histories recorded to word Meni fignifying an Arithmetician; attributed to Ofiris, who was a great Conqueror, Philosopher, and Benefactor to mankind, by giving good Laws, and teaching profitable Arts. In prowess and great undertakings, sefoftris was no whit inferiour to ofris . For he fought victory not for gain, but honour onely; and being well contented, ner to their liberty, returned into Egypt. Soon upon his return, he was endangered by a great Treason, the house in which he was, being by his own brother purpofely fired; which nevertheles, he is faid to have estap'd, and to have reigned in all 20. years; after web time, he chose rather to die than to live; because he fell blind. Both Herodotus and Diodorus affirm, that Sefofiris left a Son, whose name was Pheron, or Pherones; who afterwards took the name of Sesostris, but was nothing like to his father in glory; for he shortly fell blind. The cause of his blindnes, He-Nilus with a Javelin; which tale Diodorus turally from his father. How long this man reigned, it is no where expressed; yet, for as much as Orus the fecond (otherwise Busins) who succeeded him, began 14. years after that this sefoftris had been King, it must needsbe that this reigned 14. years at least. That Eumore like to have been a Fable; surely the Whereas Krentzhemins collecteth out of manner of his recovery, as it is fet down, is Herodotus, and Diodorus, that one Menas, or very fabulous; namely, that by looking up his reign, before his blindness, and whenhe was well again (if ever he were) may have taken up a good part of 14. years: so his works, which were great, do much more strongly argue, that his reign was not very fhort. His works are largely fet down by Herodotus and Diodorus; a part of which may feem to have been the finishing of that which his father had begun, about the chan- | blindness of sefostris the second, how great nels and fluces of Nilus; whom, I think, the power of the Regents or Vice-roys in Egypt his eye-fight and his peoples love; whom his father had very bufily employed in excessive labour about it.

6. VII.

of Busiris, the first oppressor of the Israelites; and of his successour, Queen Thermutis that took up Moles out of the Water.

And herein (if I may presume to conjecture) Business, who was afterwards King, is like to have dealt with him, as Feroboam did with the Son of Solomon. For that Busiris works, it well appeared by the drudgery ployed by the great Sefostris, as Feroboam was by solomon, in the overfight of those bufinefles, he had good opportunity to work his greatness with the King by industry; and afterward with the people, by incensing them against their new King, as Jeroboam works from the Egyptians to the Israelites: was very plaufible; who (as appears in Exodus) were nothing flack in fulfilling the Busiris, was the King that first oppressed Ifrael, and made the Edict of drowning the Hebrew children, which (faith Cedrenus) last-Busiris sacrificing strangers. It is also a comnew Family, Reineccius doth shew; who alfo thinks him an Author of the bloudy Edict. Nevertheless, true it is, that Busiris, according to all mens computation, began his reign five years after the birth of Moses; before whose birth it is most manifest, that the Law was made, and much more, that the perfecution began; which Bunting thinks to have

he rather frighted (as his father had done) was; and how great confidence the King did he ratio in them. feeing Joseph ruled with fuch and Javelins; and by his diligent over-fight full power, that he bought all Egypt, and of that work, was like enough to lose both all the Egyptians for bread; giving at the fame time, the best of the Land to his own father and brethen for nothing; feeing also that when the Egyptians cried out upon Pharaoh for bread, Pharaoh faid to all the Egre ptians, Go to Joseph, what he faith to you, do ye. If to a stranger born, lately fetcht out of prifon, a King well able to have governed himfelf, would give such trust, and soveraign authority; it is not unlikely that a blind Prince should do it to a man of especial reputation. For God often prospers, not onely the good (fuch as Joseph was) but wicked men also, as his instruments against the day of wrath. Therefore, perhaps, the King did (as himself was much addicted to magnificent many have done)refign his Kingdom to him. though his reign was not accounted to have wherewith he wearied the children of Ifrael | begun till the death of sefoftris. But whein his buildings: If therefore he were em- ther Businis did usurp the Kingdom, or protection of the Land by violence; or whether the blind King refigned it, keeping the Title ; or whether Busiris were onely Regent whilest the King lived, and afterwards (as is acknowledged by all)King himfelf; it might well be faid that Pharaoh's Daughter took did. For what the multitude will endure at | up Moses, and that Pharaoh vexed Israel; one Princes hands, they will not at anothers; feeing he both at that time was King in efunless he have either an equal spirit, or a fect, and shorty after, King in deed and title furer foundation. If moreover he fought to both. It were not abfurd for us to fay, that derive all the pain and labour of publick the blind King Sefoftris the second oppressed Ifrael: But, for as much as it may feem that the he surely did that to his own people which wicked Tyrant shewed his evil nature, even when he first arose; I think it more likely, that Busiris did it, using at first the power of Kings cruelty. Now, that Orus the second, or a King, and shortly after the stile. Thus of the 122. years which passed between the beginning of Sefostris his reign, and the departure of Ifrael out of Egypt, 47. being spent; ed ten Moneths: it is a common opinion of the 75. which remain, are to be accounted to many great and most learned Writers; who Businis, or Orus the second, and his children. also think that hereupon grew the Fable of Busins himself reigned 30. years, according to Eusebius; whom very many judicious Aumon interpretation of that place, Exed. 1. | thours herein approve. After him his daughthat the King who knew not Joseph, was a ter, who took Moses out of the Water, is said, King of a new Family. That Bustris was of a | by all that I have read, to have reigned 12. years. Her name was Thermutis Pharis, or Muthis, according to Cedrenus: Eusebius calls her Acencris; and out of Artabanus his History, Meris: Joseph calls her both Acenchre, and Thermutis. Epiphanius in Panario, faith that she was honoured afterward of the Egyptians, by the name of Thermutis the Daughter of Amenoph, the Son of Pharaoh. lasted 87. yesrs, ere the departure out of Of this last title question might be made, and Egppt. Let us therefore confider, besides the much spoken; for the Scriptures call her not rodotus, Diodorus, and the antient Historians, Julia. name the Son of Sefostris, Pheron. Perhaps his name was Pharaoh Amenophis; and his Daughter by the Fgaptians called rather the Neece or Grand-child, than the Daughter of Pharaoh because of the glory of Sefostris and the dif-reputation of his Son. If so, and if that Busiris, or Orus the second, marrying her, pretended any title by her, then is our con- Agyptus or Ramesses, Danaus or Armeus, exjecture strengthened, and then was she both Daughter, Grand-child, and Wife unto Pharaoh; and furviving him, Queen of the Land, 12. years. But if the were Daughter of Orus the second, and lifter of Athoris, or Rathoris, as many think, to whose conjecture I will not oppose mine, then may it seem, that either her brethren were degenerate, or too young to rule, when her father died.

§. VIII.

Of the two brethren of Queen Thermutis; and what King it was, under whom Moses was born; and who it was that perifhed in the

CHe had two brethren; the one was Ra- Armens and Ramesses, was equally distant thoris, or Athoris, who succeeded her; from Business, or Orus the second, with Cherres the other Telegonus, who is onely named by the Grand-child of Chencres. And that the Eusebius; but his linage and off-spring de- Posterity of Telegonus did marry very young, feribed by Reineceius. Rathoris, after his it appears by the Hiltory of these two brefifters death, reigned nine years; after whom thren, Danaus and Egyptus; of whom the Chencres, thought to be his Son, reigned ten former had fifty Daughters, the latter years and then perished in the Red Sea. Du- lifty Sons; perhaps, or rather questionless, ring the reign of Chencres, Enfebius faith, by divers women; yet furely they began to that Telegonus begat Fpaphus upon Io; of | beget children in their first youth: Howsowhich History elsewhere he reporteth other- ever it were, the general consent of Writers wife. After the death of Chencres (whom is, that Armeus, or Danaus, did succeed Cherreigned 8. years; and then Cherres 15. This Ramesses followed, who reigned 68. years. descent seems from Father to Son. In the This Ramesses, or Agyptus, is that Armess

Pharaoh's Son's Daughter, but Pharaoh's Armais: these two Kings are by Eusebins and Daughter. Amenophis indeed, is set next be- others, accounted as one, and his reign said fore Buffris, or Orus the second, by Eusebius to have been five years. His name is called and others; but whether he were a King, or Armeus, otherwise Danaus; and his Pedionely a Regent, I cannot conjecture. For He- gree thus described by Remercius in Histor.

> Telegonus : Epaphus: Lybia, who had Agenor, Belus, and Busiris.

who gave name to the Country, having expell'd his brother Danaus, reigned, and begat Lynceus, married to Hypermine-pelled by his brother Ægyptus, after he had reigned five years, became King of Argos in Greece: was father to Hrpermnestra,

How it might come to pass, that the Nephews Sons of Epaphus should have occupied the Kingdom after Cherres, it is hard to fay; confidering that Epaphus himfelf is reported by Eusebius, to have been born in the time of Chencres. But for as much as the History of Epaphus his birth, is diverfly related by Eusebius, it may suffice, that Belus the father of Danaus and Egyptus, otherwise called fome call Acencheres, but all, or most do stile res; and (according to Ensebins, and good 3εόμαχ®, a fighter against God) Acherres Authours approving him)reigned five years. 11. year of Cherres, it is faid by Eusebius, that miamum, or Armesesmiamus, under whom, in Epaphus reigning in the lower part of Egypt, the opinion of Mercator, and of Bunting that built Memphis. This is an argument of that follows Mercator, Moses was born; and the which otherwise was not unlikely; viz. That cruel Edict made of drowning the Hebrew Egypt was greatly brought out of order by children. The length of his reign feems to the plagues which God had laid upon it, and me the chief, if not the only ground of Merthe destruction of her King and Army in the cator's opinion. For, whereas the Lord said Red Sea; else could it not have had two to Moses, Go, return to Egypt, for they are all reigning in it at once; the latter of whom, dead which went about to kill thee: Mercator or his Posterity, seems to have taken all from hereupon conceives, that it was one and the Cherres, the Grand-child of Cheneres. For fame King under whom Moses was born, and whereas Armais is faid to have reigned four under whom he flew the Egyptian at the 40. years after Cherres; and Armesis one after year of his age; and fled into the wildernefs, and there abode for fear: all which Learning and Industry; and one to whom dox, than a common Errour, he placeth other Writers agree, that Chencres was King, an Age 112. or 113 years, more antient children, than of one King alone. Thirdly, than others left him in : and so continuing S. Cyril in his first Book against Julian the the Catalogue of his Successours from The- Apostate, saith, that Dardanus built Dardania, of each mans reign, than is the difference be- Egypt. Atter Ramesses, Amenophis reigned tween Manetho and Eusebius, he finds Moses 19. years; who is thought by Mercator, and born under Armesesmiamum, and Israel deli- peremptorily by Bunting pronounced, to be very name of Alisfragmuthofis feems to him which our Opinion being alread laid open rates, of which name one was thought to enfuing to their own times (which a Chronohave flourished, either as a King, or a logical Table shall lay open) and here to which the Mild fragmuthofis to Phragmuthofis, or Phararates, the change is not the standard with the confideragreat. Mercator was a man of excellent lightly over-pass.

circumstances could agree with none, but the World is bound for his many notable this Raniesses, who reigned so long; where- Works: yet my aftent herein is with-held fore, desir ous rather to hold a true Para- from him by these Reasons. First, I see all one Alisfragmuthosis (whose name is found in the Lift of Egyptian Kings, but the time uncertain wherein he reigned) in better be understood of Ensiris, and all his moss (whom Eusebius calls Amasis) down- when Moses was 120. years old, which was wards, with no other variation of the length this Armesesmiamum, being then King of vered in the days of his Son Amenophis. The the King that perished in the Red Sea; of with little alteration to found like Phara- I think it most expedient to referr the Kings wise Man, about the time of Isaac. For (faith speak of that great deliverance of Israel out

CHAP. III. Of the delivery of Israel out of Egypt.

Of the time of Moses Birth, and how long the Israelites were oppressed in Egypt.

time of Moses his Birth, who in Egypt. very near as many, as the men that have writ- King ruled Argos. ten of that Argument.

Moses lived in the time of Semiramis : But, tient, proving it by many arguments. if he did mean the first semiramis, it was but | Fifthly, he setteth down the testimony of rerum natura.

Rue it is, that the History it | Appion, taken from Ptolemy, a Priest of Menfelf is generally and well des, who faith, that Moses was born while known; yet concerning the Inachus did rule the Argives, and Amelies was the excellent and famous The third Opinion is taken out of Pole-Instrument of this, and other great Works mon, in his Greek History, the first Book; of the Highest, the different opinions are that Moses was born while Apis the third

A fourth is borrowed from Tatianus Affy-L. Vives, in his Annotations upon S. An- rius, who, though he cite some Authorities, gustine, cites very many of their conjectures: that Moses lived after the Trojan war, is himas that of Porphyrie out of Sanchoniato, that felf of opinion, that Mofes was farr more ana fond conceit; for befides that the same is Numinius the Philosopher, who took Mucontrary to all Stories, divine and humane; few and Moses to be one; confirming the while that Semiramis lived, the commanded same out of Artapanas, who confesset that Spria, and all the parts the parts thereof ab- Moses was called Minsaus by the Grecians; folutely; neither were the Ammoniter, or and who farther delivereth, that he was ad-Modbites, or Edomites, while she ruled, in opted by Chenephis, or Thermutis, the Daughter of Egypt; the same which Eupolemus cal-A second Opinion he remembreth out of leth Meris; others (as Rabanus Maurus) Thermothes:

Thermothes. Eufebius also affirmeth, that by | ginning some eight or nine years before the Eupolemus, in his first Book, de Bono, Moses, birth of Moses, and fifty four years, or rather vir Deo conjunctifimus, is called Museus more, after Joseph; between whose death. Judeorum. Eusebius, in his Chronologie, finds and the birth of Moses, there were consumed Enfeb. de that Moles was born while Amenophis ruled fixty four years, some of which time, and prop. E. Egypt. The antient Manethon calls that Pha- eighty years after, they lived in great ferviraph, which lived at Moses birth, Thumosis, tude and misery. For, as it is written in Exo-End or Throofis: the same, perchance, which Ap- dus: They set task-masters over them, to keep pion the Grammarian will have to be Amo- them under with burthens; and they built the fis, and elle-where Amenophis, the father Cities. Pithom and Rameles, &c. And by cruof Sethofis: to whom Lyfimachus, and Cor- elty, they canfed the children of Ifrael to ferve. neliu; Tacitus, gave the name of Eocchoris. and made them weary of their lives, by fore To me it feems most probable, that while labour in Clay and Brick, and in all work of the Saphrus, called also spherus, or Iphereus, go- field, with all manner of bondage. All which laid verned Affyria; Orthopolis, Sicyonia; and upon them by a maftering power, and ftrong Criasus the Argives; that then (sesostris the hand, they endured to the time by the wifsecond ruling in Egypt) Moses was born. dome of God appointed; even from fifty For, if we believe Saint Augustine, it was four years, or not much more, after the about the end of Cecrops time, that Moses death of Joseph, who left the World when when it had lasted 2370, to the eightiest and the when it had lasted 2370, to the eightiest and the whole the state of 2460, and 2370 when the state of 2460 whe Angl. 10. gypto populum Dei novissimo tempore Cecro- year of Moses, and untill he wrought his civii. Dei pis Atheniensium Regis; Moses (saith he) led miracles in the field of Zoan, which he of Cecrops time, King of the Athenians. In wards the end thereof, according to Codothis fort therefore is the time of Moses birth, | man, or after our account, 2513. And beand of his departure out of Egppt best pro- cause those things which we deliver of Eved Saint Augustine affirms (as before re- gypt, may the better be understood, I think membred) that Moses was born, Saphrus it necessary to speak a few words of the governing Affyria; and that he left Egypt | principal place therein named in this Difabout the end of Cecrops time. Now, Sa- course. phrus ruled twenty years; his fuccessour Mamelus thirty years; Sparetus after him fourty years: in whose fourth year Cecrops began to govern in Attica: Ascatades followed sparetus, and held the Empire one and fourty years. So as Moses being born while Saphrus ruled Affyria; Orthopolis Sicyonia, and Criasus Argos (for these three Kings lived at once at his birth, faith Saint the fourty years of sparetus, these make se- same, wherein Hieremy the Prophet was stoventy one, with which there were wasted ned to death, for preaching against the Ethree years of Cecrops his fifty years: then gyptian and Jewish Idolatry. take nine years out of the reign of Ascatades, Zoan, or Taplines, was, in Moses time, the who was sparetus successor, those nine years Metropolis of the lower Egypt, in which their added to feventy one, make eighty, at which | Fharaohs then commonly refided; and not age Moses lest Egypt; and add these nine unlikely to be the same City, where Abra-Cecrops his fifty, and so it falleth right with read Astronomy in Heliopolis, or On, to Pho-S. Augustine's words, affirming, that towards retates King of Egypt. Alex. Polyhistor, out of people of Ifrael out of Egypt.

the people of God out of Egypt, about the end performed in the Worlds age 2514. to 254

§. II.

Of divers Cities and Places in Egypt, mentioned in this Story, or elfe-where in the Scriptures.

His City, which the Hebrews call Zoan, was built feven years after Hebron. E-Augustine, as Cecrops did when he departed zekiel calleth it Taphnes, and so doth Hiere-Egypt) it will follow that the birth of Moses | my, the Septuagint, Tanais, Josephus Protaidin, Hand was in the nineteenth year of the Affyrian after the name of an Egyptian Queen; An- 14 Saphrus; for take one yeare remaining of tonius gives it the name of Thank; Hightwenty (for so long saphrus reigned) to pus, Thamna; and William Tyrius, Tapius, It 7112 which add the thirty years of Mamelus, and adjoyneth to the Land of Gosen, and is the years to the three years of Cecrops formerly ham in his time found him. But Enfebius out fpent, there will remain but four years of of Artapanus affirmeth, that Abraham did the end of Cecrops his time, Moses led the Enpolemus, hath it otherwise, saying, that A bruham instructed the Egyptian Priests, and Now, the time in which the Hebrews were not the King; both which authorities Est oppressed in Egypt, seemeth to have had be- febius citeth. The Septuagint and the Vulgar Cities of that name; the one on the fronier anticipation, because it was so called in of the lower Egypt, toward the South, the the future. other fomewhat lower on the Eafter-most branch of Nilus, falling into the Sea at Pe- write it) is the same which the Hebrews call 17. lufum. And it may be, that Heliopolis, to Pibefeth. the South of the River Trojan, was the same which Vatablus and our English call Aven. on of Egypt.

bred by Esay and Exechiel, the same which Hosea the Prophet calleth Moph; which later name it took from a Mountain adjoining, fo called; which Mountain Herodotus remembreth. And this is that great City, which was called Memphis; and so the Septuagint write it. It is known to the Arabians by the name of Mazar. The Chaldwans name it Alchabyr ; and Tudalensis Mizraim.

Pelusum, which Vatablus, Pagnin, Junius, Lear, and our English, write Sin; the Septuagint they decreased not in numbers: in so much olim dieta est Pelusium; Belbeis that in times on of the Devil, resolved to slaughter all past was called Pelusium.

Blade Edition, for Zoan, write Heliopolis. Pagnin, The City of No, the Septuagint call Diof Faceto 30. Tatablus, Junius, and our English call it polis. Of which name there are two or three 15, 16. on; and Ptolemie, Onium. There are two in Egypt. Hierom converts it Alexandria, by Enhaftus (for fo Hierome and Zeigler do Egel, 32.

To make the Story more perceivable, I have added a Description of the Land of Of the latter it is, that the Scriptures Gofen, in which the Ifralites inhabited; with take certain knowledge; the same which those Cities and places so often remembred Pomp. Alela and Plinie call Solis oppidum; in the Scripture: as of Taphnes, or Zoan, He-Trius in the Holy Warr, Malbee; the Arabi- liopolis, or Bethfemes, Balfephon, Succoth, " ans, Babalbeth; and Simeon Sethi, Fons Solis. and the reft; together with Mofes paffage Of this Heliopolis, or On, was Potiphar Pricft, through the Defaits of Arabia the Stony. or Prince, whose Daughter Joseph married. For all Story, without the knowledge of the In the Territory adjoining, Jacob inhabited, places wherein the actions were performed. while he lived in Egypt. In the confines of as it wanteth a great part of the pleafure, this City, Onias, the High Priest of the Jens, fo it no way enricheth the knowledge and built a Temple, dedicated to the Eternal understanding of the Reader; neither doth God; not much inferiour to that of Hieru- any thing ferve to retain, what we read, falem (Ptolemy Philopater, then governing in in our memories, fo well as these Pictures Egypt) which stood in the time of Vestulian, and Descriptions do. In which respect I 333, years after the foundation by Onias, am driven to digress in many places, and whom Josephus fallly reporteth herein, to to interpole some such Discourse, otherwise have fulfilled a Prophecie of Esar, Chap. 19. feeming impertment; taking for my autho-In die illa erit Altare Domini in medio terræ rity, after many others more antient, that Egypti; Inthat day feall the Altar of the Lord great learned man, Arias Montanus; who. be in the midft of the Land of Egypt. Antio- in his Preface to the Story of the Holy Land, chus Epiphanes, at the time of the building hath these words : Si enim absque locorum tyrannizing over the Jews, gave the occa- observatione res gesta narrentur, aut sine Tofion for the erecting of this Temple in Egypt. pographia cognitione Historia legantur, adea Lastly, there it was that our Saviour Christ conjust atque perturbata crunt omnia, ut ex Jesus remained, while Joseph and the Virgin iis nihil non obscurum, nihil non difficile eli-Mary feared the violence of Herod: near ci possit; If narration (faith he) be made of which (faith Brochard) the Fountain is fill those things which are performed, without the found, called Jefus Well, whole streams do observation of the places wherein they were afterward water the Gardens of Balfamum, done; or if Histories be read without Topograno where elle found in Egypt. And here- phical knowledge; all things mill appear fo inof fee more in Brochard, in his Descripti- tricate and confused, as we shall thereby understand nothing but obscurely, nor draw thence There is also in that City of Noph, remem- any knowledge, but with the greatest difficulty.

s. III.

Of the cruelty against the Israelites young children in Egypt; and of Moses his preservation and Education.

DUt to return to the Story it felf. It appeareth that not with standing the labour and flavery which the Ifraelites endured, yet call sais; and Montanus, Lebna; is not the as Pharaoh, confidering the danger of difsame with Damiata, as Gul. Tyrius witnesseth. contented poverty, and the able bodies In the time of Baldwin the third, Pelulium of an oppressed multitude, how perislous was called Belbeis. Belbeis (faith Tyrius) que they might be to his estate, by suggestithe male children of the Hebrews, as foon as for Sephora and Thura, women the most famous and expert amongst them, Que precrant (faith Comestor) multitudini obstetricum, who had command given them over all by the hands of the dearly beloved daughter Mid-wives; by whom (as it feemeth) he gave order to all the rest for the execution of his | Minister of Gods marvellous works taken Edict. For, to have called all the Mid-wives of Egipt together, had been a strange Parliament. Now, whether these two before named) were of the Hebrews, or of the Egyptians, it is diverfly disputed. S. Augustine calls them Hebrews, because it is written Exodus 1. The King of Egypt commanded the Mid-wives of the Hebrew momen, &c. But Josephus, Abulengs, and Pererius believe them to be Egyptians. Whosoever they were, when it pleased God to frustrate the execution of that secret murther, to the end the World might witness both the wickedness of the Egyptians, and the just cause, thereby made manifest, of his future indignation and revenge: Pharaoh finding these Women filled with piety, and the fear of God, commanded others of his people to execute his former intent; and publickly, or howfoever, to ram his father had named him Joachim. In destroy all the male Hebrew children born his youth he was carefully bred, by the care, within his Dominions.

B b 2

had of the multitudes of the Hebrews, the and instructed: Quem regio more educavit, greatest part of whom be might have prafestis ei sapientibus Ægyptiorum Magiaffured, by affording them the justice stris, à quibus erudiretur, saith Basil; unto the rest he might have employed, or sent over him wife Masters of the Egyptians for his away, at his pleasure; Josephus giveth an- instructors. Thereby (say Josephus and Philo) other cause of his rage against them, namely, he became excellently learned in all the do-That it was prophetically delivered him by | ctrine of the Egyptians; which also the Maran Egyptian Priest, that among the Hebrews tyr Stephen in the seventh of the Acts conthere should be born a child, who growing sirmeth; And Moses was learned in all the to mans estate, should becom a plague and terror to his whole Nation. To prevent Sapience, such as it was, or at least so much which (and prefuming that he could refift | thereof as Six. Senensis hath gathered, we the Ordinance of God, by a mean, contrary to the Laws of Heaven and of Nature) he stretched out his bloudy and merciless hand to the execution of his former intent. The fame prevention Herod long after practifed, when fearing the spiritual Kingdom of Christ, as if it should have been temporal, he caused all the male children at that time born, to be flaughtered. And that Pharaoh had some kind of foreknowledg of the future fucces, it may be gathered by his own words, in the tenth Verse of the fifth of Exodus: Come, let us work wifely with them, lest they multiply; and it come to pass, that if there be Warr, the said the plant out of Artapa-Exod. 5.10 they join themselves also unto our enemies, and mus, tell us of ten years Warr that he made fight against us, and get them out of the Land, But we fee, and time hath told it us from

they should be born. To which end he sent | dom of the worldly men, when forgetting the Lord of all power, they rely on the inventions of their own most feeble, and altogether darkened, understanding. For even of this Tyrant, was that great Prophet and out of Nilus, being thereinto turned off, in an Ark of Reeds, a fucking and powerless Infant. And this Princess having beheld the child his form and beauty, though but yet in the blouth, so pierced her compassion, as she did not onely preserve it, and cause it to be fostered; but commanded that it should be esteemed as her own, and with equal care to. the Son of a King nourished. And for memory that it was her deed, she called the child Mofes, as it were, extractus, or ereptus, taken out, to wit, out of the Water; or after Tolephus and Glycas, Moy, a voice expressing smell Water, and Hifes, as much as to fay, as that which is drawn out of Water, or thence taken. Clemens Alexandrinus was of opinion, that Moles was circumcifed before he was put into the Ark of Reeds, and that Amand at the charge of Pharaohs Daughter and Now, besides the doubts, which Pharaoh | by men of the most understanding, taught which every King oweth to his vassals, and whom she gave Princely education, appointing the which every King oweth to his vassals, and wildom of the Egyptians. Which Wildom or have added, between the death of Mofes, and the reign of Josua.

§. IV.

of Moses his flying out of Egypt; and the opinions of certain antient Historians of his war in Æthiopia; and of his marriage there: Philo his judgment of his Pastoral life; and that of Pererius of the Books of Genesis and Job.

X 7 Hen Mofes was grown to mans estate, against the Æthiopians; of the besieging of Seba, afterward, by Cambyfes, called Meroe; the beginning, how God derideth the wif- and how he recovered the City by the fa-that Warr, Tharbis resisting his return into Egypt, Mofes, most skilful in Astronomy, caused two Images to be engraven in two precious Stones, whereof the one increased memory; the other caused forgetfulness: These he set in two Rings; whereof he gave the one, to wit, that of oblivion, to his Wife Tharbis, referving the other of memory for himfelf; which Ring of forgetfulness, after the had a while worn, the began to neglect the love the bare her Hufband: and fo Mofes, without danger, returned into Egypt. But leaving these fancies to the Authours of them: It is true, that about the fourtieth year of Moles age, when he beheld an Egyptian offering violence to one of the the oppressed Hebrews, moved by compassion, in respect of his brother, and stirred up by disdain against the other, in the contention he flew the Egyptian. Soon after which fact, finding a disposition in some of his own Nation to accuse him, for whose defence, he had thus greatly endangreatest things by the weakest worldly for their honour. means) to make the watering of a few sheep, and the affifting of the Daughter of Raguel the Madianite, an occasion whereby to provide him a Wife of one of those, and a father-in-law, that fed him, and sustained him in a Countrey nearest Egypt, fittest to return from; necessary to be known, because interjacent between Egypt and Judaa, through which he was to lead the Ifraelites; and of God, which shineth most, covered him the Land of rest, and plenty, promised. over, and appeared unto him, not finding Beafts onely.

In that part of Arabia near Madian, he confumed 40. years; and though (as Philo vour of Tharbis, a Daughter of Ethiopia, others in that Pastoral knowledge; yet in whom he took to Wife. So hath Comeftor a that folitary Defart, he enjoyed himself: pretty tale of Moses, how after the end of and being separate from the preass of the world, and the troublesome affairs thereof; he gave himself to contemplation, and to make perfect in himself all those knowledges, whereof his younger years had gathered the grounds and principles: the fame Authour also judging that his Pastoral life did excellently prepare him for the execution of the Principality, which he afterward obtained. Est enim (faith Plato) ars Pastora. lis, quase praludium ad regnum, hoc est, adregimen hominum, gregis mansuetissimi. Quemadmodum bellicosa ingenia præexercent se in venationibus, experientia in feris, quod postea in militia, & bello perfectura sunt; brutis præbentibus materiam exercitii, tam belli quam pacis tempore. At verà prafectura mansueti pecoris, habet quiddam simile cum regno in subditis; ideoque Reges cognominantur Pastores populorum, non contumeliæ, sed honoris gratia; The art of keeping Sheep is as it were, an introductory exercise unto a Kingdom, namely, the rules over men, the most gentle flock: Even as gered his own life: by the ordinance and warlike natures do before-hand exercise themadvice of God, whose chosen servant he was, felves in hunting, practifing on wild beasts those he fled into Arabia Petraa, the next border- things which after they will accomplish in waring Countrey to Egypt; where wandering fare: those brute beasts affording matter whereall alone, as a man left and forfaken, in a into train themselves both in time of war and place unknown unto him, as among a Nation of peace. But the government of gentle cattel, of barbarous strangers; and who in future hath a kind of resemblance unto a Kingly rule times, were the irreconcileable enemies of over fubjects; therefore Kings are filled sheepthe Hebrews : it pleased God (working the herds of the people, not in way of reproach, but

That Moses, in the time of his abode at Madian, wrote the Book of 70b, as Pererius supposeth, I cannot judge of it, because it is thought, that Job was at that time living. Neither dare I subscribe to Pererins opinion, Perer 18 That Moses, while he lived in that part of e.g. Exod. Arabia, wrote the Book of Genesis; although I cannot deny the reason of Pererius coniecture, That by the example of Jobs patience wherein God held him, till the occasion he might strengthen the oppressed Hebrews: which God presented best served. And lastly, and by the promises of God to Abraham, Isawhere the glory of the world shined least, ac, and Jacob, put them in assurance of their amidst mountainous Desarts, there the glory delivery from the Egyptian slavery, and of

Of his calling back into Egypt by the Anhimasa Kings Son, or an adopted child of gel of God, and the marvels and wonders great Pharaoh's Daughter, but as a meek and which he performed, thereby to perswade humble Shepherd, fitting at a mountains Pharaoh, that he was the messenger of the foot, a keeper and commander of those poor | most High, the particulars are written in the first fourteen Chapters of Exodis; and therefore to treat of all the particulars therein contained, it were needless. But for the first, in the Story of Mofer life observeth) he did it is to be noted, that when Mofer defired to not neglect the care of those flocks, committed to his charge, but that he excelled all make him known, and by whom he was fent a

198

he received from God fo much, as man could force) frood upon no condition; whereas comprehend of his infinite and ever-being before, he first yielded but to the departure Nature. Out of which he delivered him in of the men; then of the men, women, and the first part of his Answer, a name to be confidered of by the wifelt; and in his fecond, now content for the prefent, that the Ifraelits to be understood by all. For, there is no-should not onely depart with all their own, thing that is, or hath being of it felf, but the but with a part of the Silver, Gold, and Eternal: which truly is, which is above all, | Jewels of his own people: of which (the which is immutable. The bodies of men are fear being past) he suddenly repented him, changed every moment; their substance as his pursuit after them proved. For, when wasteth, and isrepaired by nutriment; ne- every one of the Hebrews had (according ver continuing at one stay, nor being the to direction from Moses received) slain a fame fo long as while one may fay, Now. Lamb, without fpot or blemish, for the Past Likewise, whatsoever is consumed in the over (a Sacrament of the most clean and unlongest continuance of time, the same, in spotted Saviour) and with the bloud thereevery shortest piece of time suffereth decay; of coloured the post and lintern of the neither doth any thing abide in one state. doors; the Angel of God in the night smote Una est Dei, & sola natura que vere est: id every first-born of Egypt, from the Sonof enim quod substiti non habet aliunde, sed suum the King, to that of the Beggar and Slave: est. Cetera que creata sunt, ctiams videntur the children of the Israelites excepted. At este, non sunt, quia aliquando non fuerunt. 6. potest rursum non esse, quod non fuit; It is the one and onely nature of God, which truly is: for he hath his being of himself, and not from any thing without kim. Other things that are imitate this colouring with bloud, which the created, although they seem to be, yet they are not; for sometimes they were not; and that which bath not been, may again want being. And with this, in respect of the divine Nature, the faving of Zeno Eleates excellently agreeth: Tota rerum natura umbra est, aut inanis, aut fallax; The whole nature of things is but a shadow, either empty or deceitfull: in comparison of whom (saith Esay) all Nations are nothing, less than nothing, and meer vanity.

· Of the ten Plagues wherewith the Egyptians were strucken, the first was by changing the Rivers into bloud; God punishing them by those waters, into which their forefathers had thrown, and in which they had drowned, the innocent children of the Hebrews. To which this place of the Revelation may be fitly applied: And I heard the Angel of the water fay, Lord, thou art just, which art, and which wast; and holy, because thou hast judged these things; for they shed the bloud of thy Saints and Prophets, and therefore hast thou given them bloud to drink. Flies, or stinging Wasps; by the death of Philistims. But because these people were their Cattel; by leprous Scabs; by Hail and very ftrong, and a warlike Nation, and (in Fire; by Grashoppers; by Darkness; after all probability) of his Allies, he suspected which, Pharaoh forbad Moses his presence: that Moses meant to find some other out-leg moved the hardened heart of the unbelieving King, no longer than the pain and there, because the Countrey was exceeding peril lafted; till fuch time as his own first- mountainous, and of hard access, and that born, and the first-born of all his Nation Moses was peftered with multitudes of Wo perished. He then, while he feared his own men, Children, and Cattel, he thought it which terrible judgment of God, Pharaoh being more than ever amazed, yielded, as before is faid, to their departure. The Egyptians (faith Epiphanius) did, in after-times, Israelites used after the Passover; ascribing an exceeding virtue to the Red Colour: and therefore they did not onely mark their Sheep and Cattel, but their Trees bearing Fruit, to preserve them from lightning, and other harms.

6. V.

of Pharaoh's pursuit of the Israelites; and of their passage towards the Red Sea, so fare as Succoth.

Ow, when the people were removed, and on their way (his heart being hardned by God) he bethought him as well of the honour loft, as of the shame remaining after so many Calamities and Plagues, in suffering them to depart with the spoils of his people, and in despight of himself. And having before this time great Companies of Souldiers in readiness, he consulted with himself, what way the Israelites were liketo take. He knew that the shortest and fairest The rest of the Plagues by Froggs, Lice, passage was through the Countrey of the to wit, through the Defart of Etham; and life (a time wherein we remember God per- impossible for the Ifraelites to escape him

ture, or to destroy them in Gosen; and reit is written in the first of Exodus, he doubted two things, either that the Hebrews might join themselves to his enemies within the Land; or, being so multiplied, as they were, might leave his fervice, and get themselves departure; perchance fore-running his inwith a world of Women and Children, was a march witnessing the dread of a powerfull Enemy at hand. Now, as Moses well knew that he went out with a mighty hand, and that God guided his understanding in all his enterprizes; to he lay not still in the ditch, crying for help, but using the understanding which God had given him, he left nothing unperformed becoming a wife man, and a valiant and skilfull Conductor; as by all his actions and counsels, from this day to his death, well appeared.

When Moses perceived that Pharaoh was enraged against him, and commanded him them and other Nations, in ordering the acnot to dare to come thenceforth into his count of time.

that way. In the mean while, having ga- | presence: after that he had warned thrack Endited the together all the Chariots of E- of the Passover, he appointed a general Afgypt, and fix hundred of his own, and Cap- fembly, or Rendez-vous of all the Hebreis tains over them; he determined to fet up- at Rameses, in the Territory of Gosen; a The Territory on them in the plains of Golen, which way City standing indifferent to receive from tory of Golen was foever they turned themselves. For it was all parts of the Countrey, the dispersed afterward the antient manner to fight in those Chariots, Hebrews; and gave commandment, that called Rearmed with broad and sharp hooks on both sides, in fashion like the Mowers Sythe. every Family should bring with them such the name story and pattern of this ciameters in fashion like the Mowers Sythe. Which kind of fight in Chariots, but not staying to make it into Bread; knowing to peaceth in hooked, the Britains used against the Ro- then that Pharaoh was on foot, and on his Gen. 47.00 mans, while they made the Warr for the way towards them. Which done, and haways 33.

Sand of this Land Of this Army of ving confidenced the great frequency of place [2004.]. conquest of this Land. Of this Army of ving considered the great strength of Pha-Pharaoh, Josephus affirmeth, that it confist- raoh's Horse-men and Chariots, of which ed of 30000. Horse, and 20000. Foot; kind of defence Moses was utterly junprowhich, were it true, then it cannot be vided (though, as it is written, the Ifradoubted, but that Pharaoh intended long elites went up armed) he marched from before to affail the Hebrews at their depar- Rameses East-ward, towards the Desarts of Etham, and encamped at Succoth; which fuled them passage, till such time as he had he performed on the fifteenth day of the prepared an Army to fet on them. For, as Moneth Abib; which Moneth, from that time forward, they were commanded to account as the first Moneth of the year. Whether in former times they had been accustomed to begin their year in some other Moneth, following the manner of the Egythence at their pleasure. But the plagues ptians, and were now re-called by Moses to Exod. 13: which God grieved him withall, enforced the rule of their fore-fathers, it is uncer-16. him, at this time, to give an affent to their tain. Certain it is, that they had, and retained another beginning of their Politick tent. But were it otherwise, and Josephus year, which was not now abrogated, but partial in this affair, yet, by the words of rather, by some solemnities thereunto anthe Text it appeareth, that he gathered all nexed, was confirmed, and still continued the Chariots of Egypt, which could not be in use. Wherefore in referring things done. days march, ere Pharaeh was at his heels; and yet the last day, he went on 16 miles; that distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the plant distinction of the Sacred and the Political transfer of the Political tr which in so hot a Countrey, and to drive tick year is not to be neglected. Concerntheir Cattel and Sheep with them, peftered ing the number of days in every Moneth, and the whole form of their year, like enough it is, that Mofes himself in fourty years space, did sufficiently instruct the Priests, to whose care the ordering thereof (as common opinion holds) was given in trust; but that any rule of framing their Kalendar was made publick, before the captivity of Babylon, I do not find. Now, because time and motion begin together, it will not, I think, be any great breach of order, to shew here, at their first setting forth, what was the form of the Hebrew year; with the difference between

200

Of the Solary and Lunary years; and how they are reconciled; with the form of the Hebrew year, and their manner of inter-

The Hebrew Moneths are thus named. The First Moneth, Nifan, or Abib. 1. March. 2. April. II. far, or Tiar, Zio, or Zin. 3. May. III. Sivan, or Sinan, or Siban. 4. June. IV. Tamuz. 5. July. V. Ab. 6. August. VI. Ehul. VII. Tifri, or Ethavin, or Ethanim. 7. September.

VIII. Marchefuan, or Mechafuan, or 8. October.
Au. 1. c. 4. Bul, or with Josephus, Morfonane. 9. November. IX. Chislen, or Casten. 10. December. X. Tebeth, or Thobeth.

11. Запиату. XI. sebeth, or sabath. 12. February. XII. Adar, and Ve Adar.

7 E Adar, was an intercalary Moneth, added fome years unto the other twelve, to make the Solary and Lunary year agree; which (befides the general inconvenience that would otherwise have risen, by casting the Moneths of Summer into the Winter feason, to the great confusion of all account) was more necessarily to be regarded of the Hebrews, because of the divine Precept. For God appointed especial fection. Yet, as making an estimate at ran-Feasts to be celebrated precisely in such a dom, the Athenians held the year to contain Moneth of the year, and withall on a fet day, both of the Moon, and of the Moneth: as the Feast of the First-fruits, the new Moons, three hundred and fixty days filled up the and the like; which could not have so been Grecian year (besides many collateral kept, if either the day of the Moon had fallen in some other part of the Moneth, or the Moneth it felf been found far distant from his place in the feafon of the year.

Other Nations, the better to observe their Solemnities withe due time, and to ascertain By this account, neither did any certain age all reckonings and remembrances (which of the Moon begin or end their Monthlis; is the principal commodity of time that is, neither could their Moneths continue many the measure of endurance) were driven in like manner to make their years unequal, beshifted by little and little from Winterto by adding fometimes, and fometimes abating Summer, and from Summer to Winter, as one or more days, as the errour committed the days forgotten to be inferted line the in foregoing years required. The errour Almanack by men, but not forgotten by the grew at first, by not knowing what number superiour bodies in their courses, thouldon of days made up a compleat year. For cupy their own rooms in their due turns though by the continual course of the Sun, Now, because the solemnity of the Olympian causing Summer and Winter duly to succeed games was to be held at the full Moon, and each other, it is plain enough, even to the withall, on the fifteenth day of the Month most savage of all people, when a year hath Hecatombeon (which answereth in a manner passed over them; yet the necessity of or- to our fune) they were carefull to take dinary occurrences, that are to be numbred order, that this Moneth might ever begin by a thorter tally, makes this long measure with the new Moon; which they effected by of whole years infufficient for the smaller fort of more daily affairs. Therefore men ob-on of the Moon, by which they divided the the year into twelve parts, subdividing the Moneth into 29. days and nights, and those again into their quarters and hours. But as the marks of time are fenfibly and eafily dif- 10 61 cerned; fo the exact calculation of it is very intricate, and worketh much perplexity in the understanding. Twelve revolutions of the Moon, containing less time by 11.days, or thereabout, than the yearly course of the Sun through the Zodiak, in the space of fixteen years, every Moneth was found in the quite contrary part of the year, to that wherein it was placed at the first. This caused them to add some days to the year, making it to confift of twelve Moneths, and as many days more, as they thought would make the courses of the Sun and Moon to agree. But herein were committed many new errours. For neither did the Sun determine his yearly revolution by any fet number of whole days; neither did the Moon change always at one hour; but the very minutes and leffer fractions were to be observed by him, that would feek to reduce their motions (which motions also were not still alike) into any certain rule.

Here lay much Wisdom, and deep Art, which could not foon be brought to perthee hundred and fixty days; wherein most of the Greeks concurred with them. That proofs) it is manifest by that which Pliny di- !!! rectly affirmeth, telling of the Statues, erect ed in the honour of Demetrius Phalerem, which were (faith he) 360. whilest as yet the year exceeded not that number of days. years in their own places; but must heeds adding some two days to the last Moneth of every year; those games being held once in ferved the Monethly conspicuous revoluti- four years. This intercalation sufficed not had they not fought to keep all upright, by intercalating in each other Olympiad, that is, each eighth year, one whole Moneth, which they called the second Posideon, or December; taught them to make one Month of 29, days, the whole year. Thus, with much labour, they kept their year, as near as they could, unto the high way of the Planets; but thefe marks, which they observed, were found at length to be deceitfull guides. For it was not pollible fo to fashion this eighth years intercalation, that it should not deceive them in 11.hours and 18.minutes at the least, or some ways in 34.hours and 10.miuutes, or 36. and 41. minutes; which differences, would in iew Ages, have bred much confusion. The first that introduced a good method, 'likely to continue, was Meton the Athenian, who not regarding the Olympiads, and the eighth years intercalation, devised a Cycle of 19. years, wherein the Moon, having 235. times run out her circuit, met with the Sun in the same place, & on the same day of the year; as in the 19. year before past she had done. This invention of Meton, was entertained with great applause, and passing from Greece to Rome, was there inferted into the Kalendar perceiv'd, was veryapparent in a few of those Cycles; the new Moons anticipating in one Cycle 7. hours, and some minutes, of the precise rule. Therefore Calippus devised a new

to make the matter even; which caused examining the courses of those heavenly bothem fomtimes to omit one day in the fourth dies, reduced the year unto the form which year, which was the second of the Moneth is now in use with us, containing 365, days Bedromion (agreeing nearly with our Au- and 6 hours, which hours in four years, make entilometimes not to omit it, or (which is all | up one whole day, that is intercalated eveone) to insert another for it in their fourth ry fourth year, the 24. of February. The cor-Lunary year, accounting by the Moon, after rection of the Julian year by Pope Gregory a manner that was not vulgar. All this not- the 13. Anno Dom. 1582. is not as yet enterwithstanding, their Moneth of June would tained by general consent; it was indeed every year have grown colder and colder, but as a Note added unto the Work of Cafar; yet a Note of great importance. For whereas it was observed, that the Sun, which at the time of the Nicene Council, An. Dom. 234. entred the Aquinochial on the 21. day of which was the device of Harpalus, who also March, was in the year 1583. ten days sooner found, in that time Pope Gregory strook out another of 30. days & so successively through of the Kalendar ten days, sollowing the 4. of October; fo that in stead of the fifth day, was written the fifteenth; by which means the movable Feasts depending on the Sun's entrance into Aries, were again celebrated in fuch time, as at the Nicene Council they had been. And the better to prevent the like alterations, it was by the Council of Trent ordained, that from thence forward, in every hundred year, the Leap-day should be omitted, excepting still the fourth hundred; because the Sun doth not in his yearly course take up full fix hours above the 365. days; but faileth so may minutes, as in 400. years make about three whole days.

But the Cycle of 29. years, which the Hebrems used, was such as neither did need any nice curiofity of hours, minutes, and other lesser fractions to help it; neither did in fumming up the days of the whole year, neglect the days of the Moon, confounding one Month with another For with them it fel out fo, that always the Kalends, or first day of the in Golden Letters, being called, The Golden | Moneth, was at the new Moon; and because Number, which name it retaineth unto this that day was Festival, they were very careday. Hereby were avoided the great and full, as well to observe the short year of the uncertain intercalations that formerly had Moon, passing through all the 12. Signs in been used ; for by the intercalation of seven one Moneth, as that longer of the Sun, which Months, in the 19 years, all was so even, that is needfully regarded in greater accounts. no sensible difference could be found. Yet | First, therefore they gave it to Nisan, their that error which in one year could not be first Moneth, which is about our March, or April, 30. days; to Jar, their fecond Moneth 29. days; and fo fucceffively 30. to one, 29. to another. Hereby it came to pass, that every two Moneths of theirs contain'd somewhat e-Cyck, containing four of Metons, that is to venly two revolutions of the Moon, allowing lay, 76. years; and afterwards, Hipparchus, a 29. days 12 hours, and odd minutes, from. noble afrologer, framed another, containing change to change. The spare minutes were four of Calippus his Periods, each of them bestowed among the superfluous, or Epace finding some errour in the former Observa- days swhich made up seven Moneths in 19. tions, which they diligently corrected. The years 5 to fix of which feven were commonlast reformation of the Kalendar, was that ly given 30, days, to one of them 29 days, which Julius Cefar made, who, by advice of or otherwife, as was found requifite. Their the best Mathematicians, then to be found, common year, (as appeareth by the several days of each Moneth) contained 354. days, which fail of the year, wherein the Sun finisheth his course, 11. whole days, with some fractions of time. But these days, and other broken pieces, howfoever they were neglected in one year, yet in the Cycle of 19. years, were so disposed of by convenient intercalations, that still at the end of the Cycle, it, 19. years before.

Heb. lib. 3. of the Hebrew year, with the manner of their intercalations. Sigonius tells us, that every fecond year, they did add a Moneth of 22. days; every fourth year a Moneth of 23. in regard of 11. days and a half wanting in 12. Moons, to fulfill a year of the Sun. But herein Sigonius was very much deceived. For the Moon doth never finish her course in 22. or 23. days; and therefore to have added fo many days to the end of the year, had been the way to change the fashion of all the Moneths in the years following, which could not have begun, as they ought, with the new Moon. Genebrard faith, that every third year, chron. 1.2. or second year, as need required, they did intercalate one Moneth, adding it at the years end unto the other 12. This I believe to have been true; but in which of the years the intercalation was (if it be worthy of confideration) me thinks they do not probably deliver, who keep all farr from evenness, untill the very last of the 19. years. For (to omit fuch as erre grofly) fome there are who fay, that after three years, when besides the days fpent in 36. courses of the Moon, 33. days are left remaining, that is, 11. days of each | he forbare to enter Arabia, being then in year; then did the Hebrews add a Moneth of | fight thereof, it feemeth to proceed from 30. days; keeping three days, asit were, in | three respects: the first two, natural; the pluffage unto the next account. The like, third, divine. For, Pharaoh being then at fay they, was done at the end of the fixth | hand, and having received intelligence of year; at which time, besides the intercalary | the way which Moses took, perswaded him-Moneth, remained fix days, namely, three fur- | felf, that the numbers which Moses led, conyears, besides the three formerly reserved. Moneth of 29. days, that being intercalated at the end of the Cycle, makes all even.

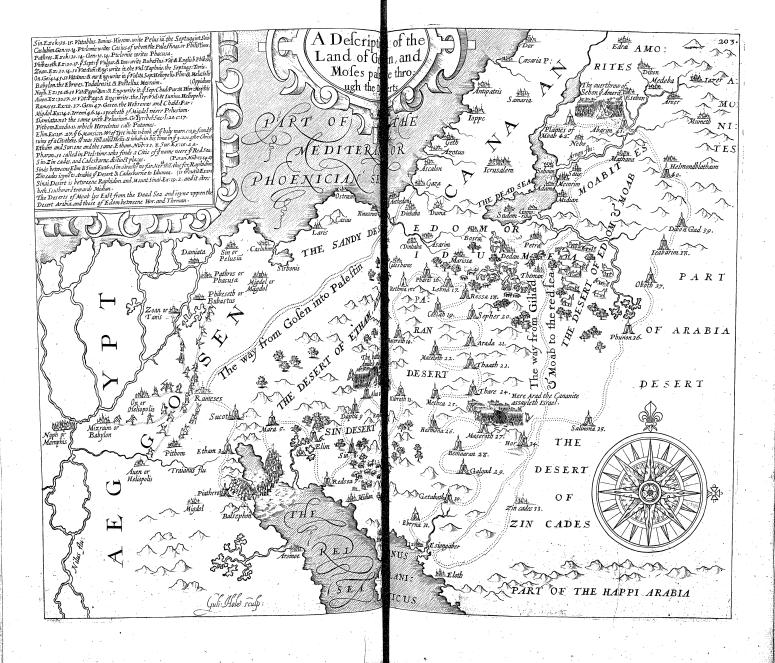

Whether this were the practice, I can neither affirm nor deny; yet furely it must needs have bred a great confusion, if in the 18

voidable. Wherefore I preferr the common opinion, which prevents fuch diflocation of the Moneths, by fetting down a more convenient way of intercalation in the 8. year. For the 6. days remaining after the two former intercalations made in the third and fixth years, added unto the 22. days, arifing out of the Epacts of the 7. and 8. years, do fitly ferve both the Sun and Moon were found on the to make up a Moneth, with the borrowing fame day of the year, Moneth, and week, yea, of one day or two from the year following; commonly on the same hour of the day, and this borrowing of two days is so far where they had been at the beginning of from causing any disorder, that indeed it helps to make the year enfuing vary the less Divers have diverily fet down the form from the proper feason of every Moneth. This may fuffice to be spoken of the Hebrew Moneths and years, by which they guided their accounts.

6. VII.

Of the passage of Israel from Succoth towards the Red Sea; and of the divers mays leading out of Egypt.

Rom Succeth, in the morning following, Moses led the Israelites towards the Defart of Etham, to recover the Mountainfoot, by the edge of that Wilderness, though he intended nothing less than to go out of that way, of all other the nearest. But being asfured of the multitude of Horse-men and armed Chariots that followed him, he kept himself from being encompassed, by keeping the rough and mountainous ground on his left hand. At Etham he refted but one night, and then he reflected back from the entrance thereof, and marched away directly towards the South; the distance betweenit and Succoth being about eight miles. That mounting that Month, and the Epall of three | fifting of above a Million, if not of two Millions of Souls (for it is written, Exed. the 12. Thus they go on to the 18. year; at which Great multitudes of fundry forts of people went time they have 18. days in hand: all which, out with them) could not possibly pass over with the Epact of the 19. year, make up a those Defart and high Mountains with 6 great multitudes of Women, Children, and Cattel, but that at the very entrance of that suffer fastness he should have overtaken them, and have destroyed the greatest number of them. For his these his own words, They are tangled in the year every Moneth were removed from his own place by the diffance of 48. days, that is, half a quarter of a year and many state is, half a quarter of a year and many state. is, half a quarter of a year and more; which turning another way, did frustrate. Secondinconvenience, by fuch a reckoning, was una ly, Mofer by offering to enter Arabia that Mountain foot on the left hand, they were strength and multitudes. better fecured from the over-bearing violence both of Horse and Chariots. Thirdly, Moles confidence in the All-powerfull God was such, by whose Spirit, onely wise, he was of their passage over the Red Sea; and of the directed, as he rather made choice to leave the glory of his deliverance and victory to Almighty God than either by an escape the next way, or by the strength of his multimarched with a double pace from Etham towhich Orofins calleth Climax: on the top compounded, is as much to fay, as, Dominus fecula, five custodia; Lord of the watchtower. For the Egyptians believed, or at least made their slaves believe, that if any of them offered to escape that way into Arabia. them to return to their Lords and Mafters. For the Egyptians had gods for all turns. Egyptii din facundi; The Egyptians were fruitfull in gods, faith S. Hierom. But Moses, who encamped at the foot of this Mountain with a million of Souls, or, as others conceive, with two millions, found this Lord of the Watchtower afleep, or out of countenance.

Now, these two passages, leading out of Egypt into Arabia upon the firm Land, Moses refused, as well that of Pelusium and Casiotis, the fairest and shortest of all other in respect of Judea, as the other by Etham, from which he reflected, for the reasons before remembred, and took the way by the Valley of Pihacheroth, between the Mountains, which made a streight entrance towards the Sea. After whom Pharaoh made fo great speed with his Horse-men and Chariots, as he gave they of him, even at the very brink and wash | turned to his force, that is, the Sea, moved by of the Sea; in so much as the Hebrews being the power of God, ran back towards the terrified with Pharaoh's sudden approach, Land with unresistible sury and swiftness; began to despair, and to mutiny, at that time and overwhelmed the whole Army of Phawhen it behooved them most to have taken raoh, so as not one escaped. For, it is writ-way, drew Pharaoh toward the East-side of Moses charge, that themselves foresaw those the Land of Gosen, or Rameses: from whence perils in which they were wrapped. And (missing Moses there) his pursuit after him fear, Which, faith the Book of Wisdom, is the with his Chariots was more difficult, by rea- betraying of those succours which reason offerfon of the roughness of the way; and how- eth, made them both despair in God's former chap. 17. foever, yet while the Hebrews kept the Promifes, and to be forgetfull of their own

6. VIII.

Red Sea it felf.

But Moses, who feared nothing but God himself, perswaded them to be consident tude, confishing of 600000 men, to cast the in his goodness, who hath never abandoned fuccels upon his own understanding, wife those, that assuredly trusted in him; using conduction, or valour. The third day he this comfortable and refolved speech: Fear Exodits. not, &c. for the Egyptians whom we have feen 13. wards the Valley of Pihacheroth, fixteen miles this day, ye shall never see them again. The Lord distant; and sate down between two ledges Shall fight for you. After which, Moses called of Mountains adjoining to the Red Sea, to on God for succour, received encouragewit, the Mountains of Etham on the North, ment, and commandment to go on, in these Exad, 14; and Baalzephon towards the South; the same | words; Wherefore cryest thou unto me? Speak 16, unto the children of Israel that they go forward: whereof there stood a Temple, dedicated to and lift thou up thy Rod, and firetch out thy Baal. And, as Phagins noteth, the word so | hand upon the Sea, and divide it, and let the children of Israel go on dry ground through the midst of the Sea. Moses obeying the voice of God, in the dark of the night, finding the fands uncovered, past on towards the other fide and coast of Arabia; two parts of the this Idol would both arrest them, and force | night being spent ere he entred the Foord, which it pleafed God by a forcible Eastern Wind, and by Moses Rod, to prepare.

Pharaoh followed him even at the heels, finding the fame dry ground which Moles trod on. Therefore, ss it is written: The Angel of God which went before the Hoft of Ifrael, removed, and went behind them; also the Pillar of the cloud went from before them, and stood behind Josus 24. them; which is, that it pleased God therein, eitherby his immediate power, or by the miniftry of his Angel to interpose his defence between the Hebrews and their Enemies; to the end that the Egyptians might hereby be blinded, in such fort, as they could not purfue Ifrael with any harmfull speed. But in the morning-watch, Moses seized the other bank of Arabia fide; and Pharaoh (as the dawn of the day began to enlighten the obscure air) finding a beginning of the Sea's return, hastthe Hebrems no time at all to rest them after ed himself towards his own Coast: But Mofo long a march; but got fight of them, and less firetched forth his hand, and the Sea re- 27. courage for their own defence; laying it to ten, that God took off their Chariot wheels, that is, when the waters began to cover the | where with Illands, but afterwards it extendfands, the Egyptians being strucken with fear of death, ran one athwart another, and mif- it runneth up between Arabia the Happy, and fing the path by which they had past on after the Hebrews, their wheels stuck fast in the mud and quick-fands, and could not be drawn out; the Sea coming against them with supernatural violence.

Lyranus, upon Exod. 14. and others, following the Opinions or old Traditions of wards Sues, and where Moses past, is called the Hebrews, conceived, that after Moses had Heropolites, of the City Hero, sometime Troy, by the power of God divided the Red Sea, and that the children of Israel were fearfull to enter it, Aminadab, Prince, or Leader of | it was called Hero, many years. The Arabians the Tribe of Judah, first made the adventure; and that therefore was that Tribe, ever after, honoured above the rest, according to the Prophecie of Jacob, Gen. 49.8. Thy fathers Sons shall bow down unto thee. But Hierome upon Hosea 11. condemns this Opinion, And though it be true, that Judah had the first place in all their miracles in the Desart, and, as we now call it, led the Van-guard (whereupon it may be inferred, that he also led the way through the Red Sea) yet, that Moles himself was the Conducter of Israel at that time, it is generally received. For, it is written in the 77. Pfalm; Thou didst lead thy people, like sheep, by the hand of Moses and

The Hebrews have also another fancie, that the Red Sea was divided into twelve parts, and that every Tribe past over in a path apart, because it is written in the 135. Psalm, according to the vulgar: Divisit Mare Rubrum in divisiones; He divided the Red Sea in divisions. Also that the bottom of the Sea became a green Field, or Pasture. But Origen, Epiphanius, Abulensis, and Genebrard, favouring this conceit, had forgotten to confider, | for the King of Portugal, that this Sea was lo that there were not twelve Pillars, nor twelve Armies of the Egyptians. It is written, Plalm 77. v. 16. Thy way is in the Sea : not thy ways: and in the last Book of Wisdom, vers.7. In the Red Sea there was a way.

Now, this Sea, through which Moles past, and in which Pharaoh, otherwise called Chencres, perished, in the 16. year of his reign, is colour, as other Seas are. It entreth at a narin breadth, and the same also filled every waters. Thirdly, those Portugals report, and eth it self 58. leagues from coast to coast and Arabia Petraa on one fide, and Athiopia and Egypt on the other, as farr as Sues, the uttermost end and indraught of that Sea; where the Turk now keeps his fleet of Gallies. The Colmographers commonly give it the name of the Arabian Gulf; but the North part toand of later times Sues. Pliny calls it Cambifu, W. by which name it was known faith he before an call this Sea towards the North, Apocopa, Eccant, and Eant. Artemidorus writes it Æleniticum; King Juba, Laniticum; others more properly, Elaniticum, of the Port and City Elana, The which the Septuagint call Elath; Ptolemy, Ela- 8, (6) na : Pliny Lana ; Josephus, Ilana; and Marius Niger, Aila: there is also Ilalah in Asyria, to which Salmanasser carried the Israelites captive, 2 King. 8.11. which Ilalah in Affria. the Septuagint call Elaa; and in the first of Chro.5. Ala. But, as for the Red Sea, on the parts thereof, thus diverfly named, the Moors, and Arabians (Vaffals to the Turk) know it by no other appellation, than the Gulf of Meca, after the name of Mahomet's Town Mecca. The Greeks write it the Sea Erythraum, of a King called Erythras, or Erythraus : and because Erythros in the Greek fignifieth Red; hence it is, that, being denominated of this Erythraus, sind the Son of Perseus and Andromeda, it took the name of the Red Sea, as Q. Curtius conjectureth; which Arianus and Strabo confirm. But it feems to me, by the view of a Discovery of that Sea, in the year 1544, performed by Stephen Gama, Viceroy of the East-India called from a reflection of a redness, both from the banks, cliffs, and fands of many Islands, and part of the Continent bordering it. For, I find by the report of Castro, a principal Commander under Gama (which Difcourse I gave Mr. Richard Hacluit to publish) that there is an Island called Dalagua, sometime Leques, containing in length, 25. leagues, commonly known by the name of the Red | and 12. in breadth; the earth, fands, and Sea, though the same differ nothing at all in cliffs, of which Island, being of a redifficonatural colour from other Waters. But, as lour, serve for a foil to the waters about it; Philostratus in his third Book noteth, and our to make it seem altogether of the same cofelves know by experience, it is of a bluish lour Secondly, the same Castro reporteth, that from 24.degrees of Septentrional latitude,to row strait, between Arabia the Happy, and 27. (which make in length of Coast 180. Athiopia, or the Land of the Abylins: the miles, lying, as it doth, Northerly & Souther mouth of the indraught from the Cape, ly) all the cliffs, and banks are of red earth, which Ptolemy calleth Poffodium, to the other or stone, which by reflection of the Sun-Land of Æthiopia, hath not above fix leagues | beams, give a kind of redish lustre to the

we know it by many testimonies, that there in hatred of the Hebrews, have objected that are found in the bottom of this Sea, towards the shore, great abundance of red stones, on which the greatest store of Corral grows, which is carried into most parts of Europe, and elfewhere. There are also on the Islands those, growing under water, may also be a cause of such a colour. Of these appearances fands, earth, and cliffs, I suppose that it first many places it feemeth to be fuch; which Johannes Barros in his fecond Decade, eighth Book, and first Chapter, confirmeth.

The breadth of this Sea, from Elana, or Ezion-Gaber adjoining, now Toro, called by the antient Cosmographers, Sinus Elaniticus, which washeth the banks of Madian, or Midian, is for 16. or 17. leagues together, along Toro to Sues, and the end of this Sea, it is in that pursuit. length about 28. leagues, of which, the first afterward, the Lands, both from Egypt and Arabia, thrust themselves into the Sea, and strengthen it so fast, as for 6. miles together. it is not above 3. miles over 5 from thence, upward the Land on Egypt fide, falleth away, and makes a kind of Bay, or Cove, for some 10. miles together, after which, the Land grows upon the Sea again, and so binds it into the very end thereof, at 4. miles breadth, or there about, in which Tract it was that Mofes past it over though others would have it to be over against Elana, or Tero, but without judgment; for from Rameses to Pihacheroth, and Baalzephon, there is not above 30. miles interjacent, or 35. miles at most which Moses past over in three days; and between the Land of Egypt, opposite to Elana, or Toro, the distance is above 80. miles. For Rameses, to which City Moses came (being the Metropolis of Gosen) when he left Pharaoh at Zoan, and took his last leave, standeth in 30. degrees 5. minutes of Septentrional latitude; and Migdol, or the Valley of Pibacheroth, at the foot nine and twenty and a half, which make a difference of five and thirty Enlish miles, the way lying,in effect, North and South.

6. IX.

That the passage through the Red Sea was miraculous, and not a low ebb.

"He Egyptians, and of them the Mem-A phites, and other Heathen Writers, who, do rather prove the miracle, than that there-

Moses past over the Red Sea at a low ebb,upon a great Spring-tyde, and that Pharaoh, conducted more by furythan discretion, purfued him so farr, as before he could recover the coast of Egypt, he was overtaken by the of this Sea, many red Trees, faith strabo, and floud, and therein perished; did not well confider the nature of this place, with other circumstances.For, not to borrow strength from of redness by the shadow of these stones, that part of the Scriptures, which makes it plain, that the Waters were divided, and that took the name of the Red Sea, because in so God wrought this miracle by an Easterly Wind, and by the hand and rod of Moles (which authority to men that believe not therein, perswadeth nothing) I say, that by the same natural reason unto which they fastened themselves, it is made manifest, that had there bin no other working power from above, or affiftance given from God himself to Moses and the children of Ifrael, Northward toward Sues, some 3. leagues, or than ordinary, and casual, then could not 9. English miles over, and from this Port of Pharaoh and all his Army have perished in

205

For wherefoever there is any ebbing of 26, have 9, miles breadth, as aforefaid, and the Sea in any gulf, or indraught, there do the waters fall away from the Land and run downwards toward the Ocean, leaving all that part towards the Land, as far as the Sea can ebb, or fall off, to the dry land. Now, Moses entring the Sea at Migdol under Baalzephon (if he had taken the advantage and opportunity of the tide) must have left all that end of the Red Sea towards Sues, on his left hand, dry and uncovered. For if a paffage were made by falling away of the water 10. or 12. miles farther into the Sea than Sues. and between it and where Moses past, who entred the same so far below it and towards the body of the same Sea; it followeth then, that if all that part of the Sleev, or Strait, had been by the ebb of a Spring-tide discovered. when Pharaoh found the floud increasing, he needed not to have returned by the same way toward Egypt fide, but might have gone on in his return before the tide, on his right hand; and so taken ground again at the end of the Sea, at Sues it felf, "or elsewhere. But the Scriptures do truly witness the conof the Mountain Climax, or Baalzephon, in trary, that is, That the Sea did not fall away from the Land, as naturally it doth, but that Mofes past on between two Seas, and that the waters were divided. Otherwise, Pharaoh, by any return of waters, could not have perifhed, as he did; and therefore the effects of that great Armies destruction, prove the cause to have bin a power above nature, and the miraculous work of God himfelf. Again. those words of the Scriptures, that God cansed the Sea to return back by a strong East-wind, by was caused an ebb more than ordinary; more, there is no man of judgment, that can for that Sea did not lie East and West, but, in think, that Pharaoh and the Egaptians, who effect, North and South. And it must have then excelled all Nations in the observatibeen a West and North west wind, that must one of heavenly motions, could be ignorant have driven those waters away through of the fluxes and refluxes of the Sea, in his their proper Channels, and to the Southeast into the Sca. But the East-wind blew athwart the Sea and cut it afunder: fo as one part fell back towards the South and main body thereof, the other part remained toward sues, and the North. Which being unknown to Pharaoh; while he was checkt by that Sea, which used in times before to ebb hand only; which then falleth most heavily away, the floud prest him, and over-whelm'd on all men, when, looking through no other him. Thirdly, feeing Josephus avoweth, that | spectacle but their own prosperity, they least ted the chase and pursuit of Israel. Further- of I leave every man to his own belief.

own Countrey, on his own coast, and in his own most traded and frequented Ports and Havens; and wherein his people having had so many hundreds of years experience of the tides, he could not be caught, as he was, through ignorance, nor by any fore-known or natural accident, but by God's powerfull Moses was not onely of excellent judgment, discernit coming, and least fear it. Lastly, if generally, but also, so great a Captain, as he the Army of the Egyptians had been overover-threw the Ethiopians in battels, being taken by the ordinary return of the floud, imployed by Pharaoh, and wan divers Cities, before they could recover their own coast; feeming impregnable: it were barbarous to their bodies drowned would have been carcondemn him of this großness, and distracti- ried with the floud, which runneth up to on: that rather then he would have endu- sues, and to the end of that Sea, and not red the hardness of a Mountainous passage have been cast a-shore on the coast of Araat hand (had not God commanded to take | bia, where Moses landed, to wit, upon the that way, and fore-told him of the honour Sea-bank over against Baalzephon, on Arabia which he would there win upon Pharaoh) he side; where it was that the Israelites saw would have trusted to the advantage of an their dead bodies, and not at the end of the ebbing water. For he knew not the contra- Red Sea, to which place the ordinary floud ry, but that Pharaoh might have found him, would have carried them; Which floud and prest him, as well when it flowed, as doth not any where cross the Channel, and when it ebbed, as it seemeth he did. For run athwart it, as it must have done from Ethe people, beholding Pharaoh's approach, gypt fide to Arabia, to have cast the bodies cried out against Moses, and despaired alto- there; but it keeps the natural course together of their safety; and when Moses prayed wards the end of that Sea; and to which unto God for help, he was answered by God; their carkasses should have been carried, if Wherefore crieft thou unto me? Speak unto the the work had not been supernatural and michildren of Israel, that they go forward, and raculous. Apollonius, in the lives of the Falift thou up thy Rod, and stretch out thy hand thers, affirmeth, that those of the Egyptians upon the Sea, and divide it: which proves which stayed in the country, did not follow that there was not at that time of Pharaoh's Pharaoh in the pursuit of Ifrael, did ever after approach any ebb at all, but that God did honor those beasts, birds, plantsor other creadisperse and cut through the weight of wa- tures, about which they were busied at the ters, by a strong East-wind, whereby the time of Pharaoh's destruction; as he that was fands discovered themselves between the then labouring in his Garden, made a god Sea on the left hand toward sues, from of that Plant or Root about which he was whence the Watersmoved not, and the Sea occupied, and so of the rest. But how those which was towards the South on the right | multitudes of gods were erected among hand, so that the Waters were a wall unto them, a more probable reason shall be given them on the right hand, and on the left hand, else-where. Orosius, in his first Book and that is, the Waters so desended them on both tenth Chapter against the Pagans, tells us, fides, as the Egyptians could onely follow that in his time, who lived some 400. years them in the same path, not that the Waters after Christ, the prints of Pharaoh's Chariot ftood upright as walls do, as some of the wheels were to be seen at a low water, on Schole-men have fancied. For had Pharaoh the Egyptian fands; and though they were and the Egyptians perceived any such build- sometime defaced by wind and weather, yet ings in the Sea, they would foon have quit- foon after they appeared again. But hereof the journeying of the Israelites from the Red Sea, to the place where the Law was given them; with a discourse of Laws.

CHAP. IV.

9. I.

A transition, by way of recapitulation of some things touching Chronologie; with a continuation of the Story, untill the Amalekites met with the Israelites.

hinto Midian, when he had lived tourty years, tains in this like in the year of the World, 2474. and two years after was Caleb born. He returned by rims after him, and laftly, Ptolemy the fecond, heaven to core an amptificial River, thereby by the celebration of the Passover; & in the dead trees, he rested divers days. of the night of the same day, were all the first | Whether this Helim were the name of a bly at Rameses, and marched to Succoth.

Ut to go on with the Story of If- taking the branches of a Tree, growing near rael in this fort I collect the times. a Lake of bitter water, and calling the same Moles was born in the year of the thereinto, made the same sweet: a plain type World, 2434. Suphrus then go- and figure of our Saviour; who, upon the verning Afgria; Orthopolis, Sycio- Tree of the Cross, changed the bitterness of nia, or Peloponnesus; Criosus, the Argives; everlasting death, into the sweetness of eter-Orm, Egypt; and Deucalion, Thessaly. He fled anal life. Pliny remembers these bitter Founinto Midian, when he had lived fourty years, tains in his fixth Book, 29. Chapter. From the commandment and ordinance of God began to cut an artificial River, thereby by into Egypt, and wrought his miracles in the Boats and small Shipping to Trade and Nafields of Zoan, in the year, 2514. the last vigate the Red Sea, from the great Cities Moneth of the year. On the 14. day of the upon Nilus. From Marab he removed to first Hebrew Moneth Abib, or the 15. of that Elim, the fixth Mansion, a march of eight Exod, 15. Moneth, beginning the day (as they) at Sun-miles: where finding twelve Fountains of fetting in the year of the World, 2514. was fiweet water, and threefcore and ten Palm- Numb. 33.

born flain through Egypt, or in all those parts Town or City in Moses time, I cannot affirm. where the Hebrews inhabited not. The 15. And yet the scarcity of waters in that Reday of the first Month of the Hebrews, called gion was such, as Helim, which had twelve Abib, being about the beginning of the year Fountains, could hardly be left unpeopled. of the World, 2514. Moses, with the children William, Archbishop of Tyre, in his History william of Israel removed from the general Assem- of the Holy Warr, found at Helim, the ruines Tyre, Liti, of a great and antient City. And at fuch cap. 16. And departing thence, they made their time as Baldwine the first past that way into third flation at Etham; and journeying from Egypt. Ingressus (saith he) Helim Civitatem Etham, they encamped in the Valley of Pi- antiquissiman, populo Israelitico aliquando fabacheroth, or Miedol, under the Mountain miliarem; ad quem cum pervenisset, loci illius Baalzephon; and in the same night, after incola, Regis adventu pracognito, naviculam midnight, they past the Red Sea; Pharaoh ingredientes, in Mare vicinum se contulerunt; and his Army perishing in their return, about Entring Helim, a very antient City, well known the first dawn of the day. Moses having re- Sometime to the people of Israel; whither, when covered the banks of Arabia, gave thanks he came, the Inhabitants, forewarned of the unto God for the delivery of Ifrael; and Kings approach, took Boat, and shifted themmaking no stay on that coast, entred the De- selves into the Sea lying near them. From Elim farts of Arabia Petrea, called Sur. But find- he returned again towards the South, and ing no water in that passage, he encamped at sat down by the banks of the Red Sea; the Marah, in the Defart of Etham, which in seventh Mansion. For it seemeth, that he had Exod. 15. 22. is called Sur, 25. miles from knowledge of Amalech, who repaired to rethe Sea; where the children of Ifrael, prest fist his passage through part of Arabia. And with extreme thirst, murmured against Moses, who had not as yet trained the Hethe second time; first, at Pharaoba approach at Pibacheroth, and now in Arabia. But Moses the minds of the rest, who encountring with to their quiet flavery, than either to entitude of People and Cattel) thought it most dure the wants and perils which every for their advantage to fet upon them at Ruway accompanied them in that passage, or phidim, where the want of water, and all or at this time to undertake or fustain so dan- therthings needfull for the life of man, engerous an enemy; he therefore made stay feebled them. On the other side, Moses perat this Manfion, untill the fifteenth of this fecond Moneth, called Zim, or Jiar; and made Jua, to draw out a sufficient number of the the eighth Mansion in the Defart of Zin; where the children of Ifrael mutinied against Moses the third time, having want of food. In the 16. Chapter of Exodus, Moses omitteth this retreat from Elim to the Red Sea. but in the collection of every feveral encamping in the 33. of Numbers it is fet down.

206

CHAP.

Here it pleafed God to fend fo many flights of Quails, as the Countrey about their encamping was covered with them. The morning following, it also rained Manna, being the 16. of their Moneth, which served them in stead of bread. For nowwas the store confumed which the people carried with hath dulled, being beaten, and despaired in Exad. 16. them out of Egypt. And though they had great numbers of Cattel and Sheep among them, yet it feemeth, that they durst not feed themselves with many of those; but referved them, both for the Milk to relieve the Children withall, and for Breed to store themselves when they came to the Land promifed.

made two removes of 20. miles; the one to Daphca, the other to Alus, distant from Raphidim fix miles. Here, being again prest with want of Water, they murmured the Jethro courage and affurance, he then refourth time, and repented them of their departure from Egypt, where they rather contented themselves to be fed and beaten after the manner of Beafts, than to fuffer a cafual, rael, being himself unable to give order in and fometime necessary want, and to under- all causes and controversies, among so many dergo the hazzards and travels which every thousands of people, full of discontentment manly mind feeks after, for the love of God, and private controversie. and their own freedoms. But Moses, with the fame Rod which he divided the Sea withall, in the fight of the Elders of Israel, brought waters out of the Rock, wherewith the whole multitude were fatisfied.

§. II.

of the Amalekites, Madianites, and Kenites, upon occasion of the battel with the Amalekites, and Jethro's coming; who, being a Kenite, was Prieft of Madian.

his approach, and gheffed that he meant to am, speaking of the Kenites: Strong is thy lead the children of Ifrael through their dwelling place, and thou hast put thy nest in the Countrey (which being barren of it felf, rock, And that Saul spared this Nation, he the least misery, were more apt to return (would be utterly wasted by so great a mulceiving their resolutions, gave charge to 70. ablest Hebrews, to encounter Amalech, Be- End tween whom and Ifrael the victory remained doubtfull, for the most part of the day; the Hebrews and the Amalekites contending with equal hopes and repulles for many hours. And had not the strength of Moses Prayers to God been of farr greater force, and more prevalent than all refistance & attempt made by the bodies of men; that valiant and warlike Nation had greatly endangered the whole enterprise. For those bodies which are unacquainted with scarcity of food, and those minds whom a servile education their first attempts, will hardly, or never, be brought again to hazzard themselves.

After this Victory, Jethro repaired to Mofes, bringing with him Mofes his Wife, and his two Sons, which either Jethro forbare to conduct, or Moses to receive, till he had by this overthrow of Amalech the better assured himself of that part of Arabia. For it is written From hence towards Raphidim, they in Exod. 18. 1. When Jethro, the Priest of Madian, Moses Father-in-law, heard all that God had done for Moses, &c. of which, the last deed to wit the overthrow of Amalech gave paired to his Son-in-law, Moles, at Sinai; where among other things he advised Moles to appoint Judges, and other Officers over If-

This Jethro, although he dwelt amongst the Madianites, yet he was by Nation a Kenite, as in the fourth of Judges, Vers. 11, 17. it is manifest: where it is written, Now Heber theKenite, which was of the children of Hobab, to wit, the Son of Jethro, the Father-in-law of Moses, was departed from the Kenites, and chatter pitched his Tents untill the Plain of Zaanaim, or which is by Kedesh. Likewise, in the first of Samuel, Saul commanded the Kenites to depart from among the Amalekites, lest he should destroy them with the Amalekites. North For the Kenites inhabited the mountains of 18. Nd while Moses encamped in this place, Sin Kadesh ; and the Amalekites dwelt in ism the Amalekites, who had knowledg of the Plains, according to the faying of Bala-14-15

all the children of Ifrael, when they came up of the issues of Madian, one of the fix Sons which Abraham begat on Kethura: and might also take that name of Kenites from Kethura, of whom they descended by the mother, who (as it feemeth) kept the knowledge of the true God among them, which they received from their Parent Abraham, For Moses, when he fled out of Egypt into Madian, and married the Daughter of Jethro, would not (had he found them Idolaters) have made Jethro's Daughter the mother of his children. And although the Kenites are named amongst those Nations, which God promised, that the seed of Abraham should root out, and inherit their lands; yet it cannot be meant by these, who are descended from Abraham himself: but by some other Nation, bearing the same name; and in all likelihood of the race of Chus. For in the fifteenth of Genefis, verf. 19. these Keniter, or Chuster, are listed with the Of the time when the Law was given; with di-Hittites and Perizzites, with the Amorites, Canaanites, Gergesttes, and Jebusites, which were indeed afterwards rooted out. But thele Kenites descended from Abraham, had separated themselves from among the rest, which were altogether Idolatrous. For, as it is before remembred, Heber the Kenite, which was of the children of Hobab, was departed from the Kenites; that is to fay, from those Kenites of Canaan, and inhabited in Zaanaim, which is by Kedesh, or Cadesh. Again, Moses nameth that Nation rather, because they were more antient, than by anticipation.

And as of the Kenites, fo we may confider of the Madianites, parted by Moses into five Tribes. For some of them were corrupted, and Heathens; as those of Madian by the River Zared, afterwards destroyed by Moses. But the Madianites, neer the the Desarts. But the Madianites in Moab, and to the North of the Metropolis of Arabia, giveth for cause, that they shewed mercy to those of Madian, of whom Jethro was Priest. and the other Cities in Moab were the from Egypt. For these Kenites were a Nation same, yet the contrary is more probable. For of the Madianites, and the Madianites were Moses would not have sent 12000. Ifraelites, as far back as the Red Sea, from the Plains of Moab, to have destroyed that Madian, where his Wives kinred inhabited; feeing himfelf coming with 600000. able men, was encountred by Amalech in that paffage. Neither could Moses forget the length of the way through those discomfortable Desarts, wherein himself and Israel had wandered fourty years.

And though it may be doubted, whether that way.

That Jethro, or Jothor, Raguel, or Revel, and Hobab, were but one person, the Scriptures teach us. For the Vulgar, and Septuagint, which call him Raguel, and our English, Rovel, Exod. 2.18. cals him Jethro, or Jothor, Exod. 3.1. and 4.18. & 18.1. & 6.9, 10, 12. & in Numb. 10.29. Hobab. Others take Jethro and Hobab to be the same, but not Raguel.

6. III.

vers commendations of the invention of

THe rest of the Moneths of this year 2515. were spentin the Desart of sinai, neer the mountain of Sinai, or Horeb, the twelfth Manfion. Eusebius thought that Sinai and Horeb were distinct Mountains: Hierom, to be but one, of a double name. And so it appeareth by many Scriptures. For, in Exod. 3. 1. it is called Horeb: and in Exodus 24.19. it is written Sinai. In the 106. Pfalm, verf. 19. Hoof the Kenites, before Midian, or any of is called, Galatians 4. vers. 24. And again, reb: in Exodus 19. 11. Sinai. And fo it Abraham's other Sons were born; which he Deut. 4. 10. and 15. and Deut. 5. 2. Horeb. did (referring my self to better judgment) And so it is in the first of Kings 8.6. and the fecond of Chronicles 5. 10. and in Malachie 4.4. Finally, in Ecclefiafticus, 48.7. they are named as one. Which heardest (faith Ecclesiasticus) the rebuke of the Lord in Sinai, and in Horeb the judgment of the vengeance. Somewhat they are diffioined at the top, by the report of Peter Belonius; who, in the year 1588. banks of the Red Sea, where Moses married de Fumet of France, and travelled to the top his Wife Zippora, and with whom he left her both of Sinai and Horeb: Sinai being by and his children, till after the overthrow of farr the higer hill. From the fide of Horely Amalech, seem likewise not to have been (saith he) there falleth a very fair Spring of corrupted. For these Madianites, with the Water into the Valley adjoining: where he Kenites, affisted Ifrael, and guided them in found two Monasteries of Christian Marronites, containing some hundred Religious called Petræa, were by Ifrael rooted out, Gardens, delicate Fruits, and excellent when those adjoying to the Red Sea were Wine. These (faith the same Authour) give Fa Bell. entertainment to all strangers, which pass cap. 62.

D d

CHAP. IV.

probable: First, because he encamped there- to all Posterity for men of no less vertue, about almost a year, and drew no water, and no less liberally beneficial to their as in other places, by miracle: Secondly, Countreys, than the greatest and most probecause it is written, Exod. 32.20. that when sperous Conquerors that ever governed Moses had broken the golden Calf to pow-them. The Israelites, the Lacedemonians, der, which Aaron fet up in his absence, and the Athenians, received their Laws from he cast the powder thereof into the water, one; as the Israelites, from Moses; the Laceand made the children of Ifrael to drink damonians, from Lycurgus; the Athenians, year; and he arrived about the five and chies and Estates. fourtieth day after the egreffion; the Law being given the fiftieth day.

At this Mansion all was done, which is written from the beginning of the 29. Chapter of Exodus, to the end of that Book; all of the name and meaning of the words, Law in Leviticus; and all in Numbers, to the 10. Chapter. Whereof (because there is no Story nor other Passage) I will omit the repetition, and in place thereof speak somewhat of the Law, and the kinds and use thereof: an indifferent sence used. For, if we conwherby, if the Reader find the Story any way fider it at large, it may be understood dif-joyned, he may turn over a few leaves, for any rule prescribing a necessary mean, and, omitting this, find the continuation order, and method, for the attaining of thereof. We must first consider, that as there an end. And so the Rules of Grammar, can be neither foundation, building, nor or other Arts, are called Laws. Or, it continuance of any Common-wealth, with- is taken for any private Ordinance of Suout the rule, level, and iquare of Laws: fo periours or Inferiours: for the commandit pleased God to give thereby unto Moses ments of Tyrants, which they cause to be the powerfullest man (his miraculous grace observed by force, for their Decrees do excepted) to govern that multitude which also usurp that Title, according to the gehe conducted 5 to make them victorious in neral acceptation of the word Law: of their passage, and to establish them assured- which Esay, Wounto them that decree wicked is the most fixed Director of the Sea-man wife, the word is used for the tumultuato his defired Port: so is the Law of God ry resolutions of the People. For such conthe Guide and Conductor of all in general ffitutions doth Aristotle also call Laws, the rule of all his creatures; the Law hu- that is made tumultuously. So as all Ordimane, depending on both these, the guard nances, either good or evil, are called by of Kings, Magistrates, and vertuous Men; the name of Laws. yea, the very spirit, and the very sinews of The word Law is also taken for the moral every Estate in the World, by which they habit of our mind, which doth (asit were) live and move: the Law, to wit, a just Law, command our thoughts, words, and actions: being resembled to an Heart without affe- framing and fashioning them according to ction, to an Eye without lust, and to a Mind it felf, as to their pattern and plat-form without passion; a Treasurer, which keep- And thus the Law of the slesh, which the Dieth for every man what he hath, and diftri- vines call legem fomitis, is to be under buteth to every man what he ought to have. I flood. For every law is a kind of pattern of This benefit the Antient, though barbarous, that which is done according unto it in

Now, that there was fome such Torrent | of gods: and the rest, that made either adof water neer Sinai, in Mojes time, it is very ditions, or corrections, were commended from Solon; the Romans, fometime from On this mountain, the Law by the Angel their first Kings, from their Decem viri, from of God was given to Alofes, where he stayed their Senators, from their Lawyers, and a whole year, wanting some ten or twelve from the people themselves: other from the days: for he removed not till the twentieth Prince, Nobility, and People; as in Engday of the second Moneth of the second land, France, and in other Christian Monar-

6. IV.

and Right.

"He word Lex, or Law, is not always taken alike, but is diverfly, and in ly in their conquest. For, as the North Starr | Decrees, and write grievous things. Like 49 to the haven of eternal life: the Law of though evil and infufficient: Mala lex eft, pair, let Nature, from God his eternal Law deduced, qua tumultarie posita est; It is an evil Law op h effectmed to highly, that among them, those which sence, as elsewhere, this moral habit on which were taken for the first makers of or disposition of the heart, is called the me Laws were honoured as gods, or, as the Sons frame, or figmentum of the heart: fo in S. Paul to the Romans it is called a Law; But I fee another law in my members, rebelling against teaching, because every man is thereby the law of my mind, and leading me captive unto the law of sin. Again, the nature and inhowing led (a) laws, so farr as they agree with the the power of the Law is the power of God:

giens. Lion, to be fierce or valiant. Also private contracts among Merchants, The reign of the Law, is the reign of God. min em and other Tradef-men, do often put on the mane of laws. But law, commonly and prothe table perly, is taken for a right rule, prescribing a funt sequenda, of qua sugienda; Law is the in to de Portina necessary mean, for the good of a Common- rule of life, commanding what to follow, and h son wealth, or Civil Community. The rest, to what to shun: or, Lex est omnium divinarum shand with, the commandments of Tyrants, &c. &c. humanarum rerum Regina; Law is the general which have not the common good for their Queen, or Princess of things both humane and between conductions that leaves and the conduction of the conducti ment not jult, S. Augustine doth not allow for laws, derstanding of the prudent; and the rule of iniqua hominum constituta, quæ nec jura dicenda nec put and a funt : The unjust constitutions of men, which are neither to be tearmed nor All E. thought laws. For, faith Aristotle, Legalia justa 1 5.15 funt factiva, & conservativa fælicitatis; Just laws are the workers and preservers of happines: because by them we are directed ad vitam quietam, to a quiet life, according to Cicero: Yea, to life everlasting, according to Plato, is God, and his worthip: Finis legis Deus whence in the Scripture it is called also a and men permit. yoak, and a band: as confregerunt jugum, diruperunt vincula; they have broken the yoak, Testamentum in mortuis ratum est.

The Hebrews call the Law Thorah, of taught his duty both to God and Men. The Greeks call it Nomos, of distributing, because clinations of all creatures, are sometime cal- it distributesh to every man his own due; form reason of the Law eternal; as the law of a Justice being an attribute proper unto God himself. Imperium legis, imperium Dei eft;

Law in general is thus defined by the Philosophers; Lex est vitæ regula, præcipiens què howsoever established: for he calls them right and wrong. For, as a right line is called, Index sui, & curvi, the demonstrance of it felf, and of the crooked; fo is the Law, the judge and measure of right and wrong.

M. Hooker calls the Law a directive rule to goodness of operation; and though Law, as touching the substance & essence, confists in understanding: Concludit tamen actum voluntatis; Tet it comprehends the act of our will. The word Jus is also diversly taken as somethe Scriptures. For the end of the Law, faith time for the matter of the Law, and for common right: fometime for the Law it felf; & cultus ejus. Lex, or the Law, is so called as Jus civile, or Jus gentium. Isidore distinby the Latines, à legendo, or, à ligando, of | guisheth the two general words Jus and Fus; reading, or binding: Leges quia lette & ad | whereof Jus, saith he, hath reference to men, populum lata, saith Varro; For, after Laws Fas to God. Fas lex divina, Jus lex humana. 19d. Elyah were written and published, all men might | To go over another man's field, is permitted read them, and behold in them whereto they | by Gods Law, not by Man's; and therefore were bound. The other Etymologie, a ligando, in a thing out of controversie, Virgil used is no less agreeable with the nature of a Law: | both these words: as Fas & jura simunt, God

The word Jus, or Right, is derived or taken from the old Sustantive Noun jussia,a they have broken the bands. And in the second | bidding or commandment: or, perhaps, from Psalm, Dirumpamus vincula eorum, & projici- the Greek zws, which is the name of Jupiamus à nobis funes ipsorum; Let us break their ter, or of the Latine Genitive case Jovis; bands asunder, and let us cast away their cords because, as the Scripture speaks, the judg-Dem.1.17 ment is God's. For, as it is certain that jus- 19.6. The Covenant it is called, because of the | jurandum came of Jovis-jurandum (for so we conditional promises of God; and because find it written in Nonius out of the antient, of God's people's voluntary fubmission of in which sence the Scripture calls it juramen- Exod. 22. themselves unto it: for which word the se- tum Jehova) so also we may say, that Jus came 11. pluagint, and the Epifile to the Hebrews, use of Jovis, quia Jovis est; because as God is the the word Dabhan, a Testament, or last Will: Authour, and Pattern, and Maintainer of which name it hath, because it is not other- right, so also in his Vicegerents, the Magiwife effectual for our falvation, but in respect of the death of the Testator; for with of right. Of this Jus, the just are denominated the state of the death of the Testator; for with of right. out the death of the Testator, the Testa- nated, Justus à jure, and Justitia à justo; The ment is of no force, as Heb. 9. 17. it is faid, Right gives name to the Righteons; and Justice takes her name from the Just.

overy kind hath a proper and peculiar rible confusion.

definition, it agreeth with order, first to divide and diftinguish them. I mean, those of the definition of Laws, and of the Law forts of Laws from whence all other particulars are drawn: leaving the individuals Ut, because Laws are manifold, and that of humane laws to their infinite and hor.

The writ- The Law of Moses, ten is al-so double. The Gospel. Eternal or uncreated. Written. Natural, Divine, National, or which hath (As the Doctrine and Religi-Internal. two parts. Laws positive, Unwritten.) on of the Patriarchs before Laws imposed or imposed, ex-) the written Law of Mofes, or of additiplicating, and which fome call Cabala. on, commonperfecting the ly called posi-Which Cicero in his fe- (Ecclefiafti-Law of Nature, tive. 2 Humane, phichis alcond Book of Invention) cal, and are donble: Calleth Jus Legitimum, divided into the fo twofold. Unwritten As the Laws of Custom and Use.

mas. Lex aterna eft aternus divina sapientia Law, and a fit Princes to command and forbid, conceptus, secundum quod ordinatur ad guber- is the right reason of the most high God. This nationem rerum ab ipso præcognitarum; The eternal Law (if we consider it in God, or as eternal Law is the eternal conceit of God's God) is always one and the same; the nature Wisdom, as it is referred to the government of of God being most simple: but as it is refer-Th. 9.36. things foreknown by himself. Or, Lex aterna red to divers objects, fo the reason of man est summa atque eternaratio divine sapientie: finds it divers and manifold. It also fecmeth quaterus res omnes ad destinatos fines ita diri- one law in respect of things necessary, as the git, ut illis juxta conditionem ipsarum modum motions of the heavens, stability of the aliquem necessitatis adferat; It is high and earth, Oc. but it appeareth otherwise to eternal reason of divine sapience: a: it direct- things contingent: another law to men, aneth all things in such fort to their proper ends, other to other creatures, having life, and to imposing a kind of necessity, according to their all those that be inanimate. feveral natures, or conditions. Now, the difference lies in this: That as the same divine ed, as by the counsel and providence of understanding directs all these to their pro- God: from this Law, all laws are derived, as per ends; so it is called Providence: but, as from the rule universal, and thereto reit imposeth a necessity, according to the ferred, as the operation of the second to the nature of all things which it directs, fo it is first. called a Law.

ledge, when in his Book of Laws, he wrote in more largely: as well every creature, to their this manner: Erat ratio perfecta, rerum natura, proper and natural ends, as it doth Manto & ad rette faciendum impellens & à diletto his supernatural: but the divine Law to a avocans: que non tum incipit lex esse cum supernatural end onely: the natural law is scripta est, sed tum orta est. Orta autem simul est thence derived, but an effect of the eternal: cum mente divina: quamobrem lex vera atque asit were a stream from the fountain. princeps, apta ad jubendum & ad vetandum, ratio est recta summi Jovis; That perfect rea- thence drawn: in that it hath the form of fon and nature of things, incouraging or impel- right reason; from which if it differ, it is then ling to rightfull actions, and calling us back impositio iniqua, a wicked imposition; and onefrom evil, did not (faith he) then begin to be | ly borroweth the name of a law. a law when it was written, but when it had be-

The Law Eternal is thus defined by Tho- | divine understanding, and therefore a true

By this eternal Law, all things are direct-

The eternal, and the divine Law, differ The C Of this eternal Law, Cicero took know- only in confideration; the eternal directing in

The Law humane or temporal is also

To this eternal Law all things are fubing. Being and beginning it had together with jected, as well Angels and Men, as all other creatures, creatures, or things created; whether necef- the time of the Pædagogie of God's people, inanimate.

16.148. Director: as Praise him all ye his Angels:praise him Sun and Moon, all bright Starrs: Heavens shall not pass: Praise ye the Lord from the earth te Dragons and all Deeps; fire and bail, fnow and vapours, stormy winds which execute his word: mountains and hills, fruitfull trees, and all Cedars; Beafts and all Cattel, &c. Now, as the reasonable creatures are by this eternal Lawbound, by the glory and felicity proposed unto them (beatitude being both the attractive, and the end) fo all other natural things and creatures have in themselves, and in their own natures, an obedience formal to it, without any proper intention, known cause, or end proposed. For Beasts are led by sense, and natural instinct: thinks without life by their created form, or formal appetites, as that which is heavie to fall downward; things light to mount upward, &c. and fire to hear what soever is apposed. This kind of working, the Aristotelians ascribe to common nature; others to fate; a difference least of his creatures, in heaven and in earth.

who have thence-from, either reason, sense, vegetation, or appetitions, to conduct them: lo is the object and matter of the Law, the whole creature. For, according to S. Ausuftine,Lex æterna eft qua justum est, ut omnia lint ordinatissima; The Law eternal is that, whereby it is just, that all things should be dis-Posed in the best and goodliest order.

Lastly, it is disputed, whether the eternal law be immutable, yea or no? But the resolution is, that it changeth not; for which S. Augustine useth a sufficient argument in his first Book of Free-will, the fixth Chapter. For the law of Moses, which had a time prefixed, fary or contingent, natural or moral, and hu- or Introduction to Christ, should be expired; mane. For the Law eternal runneth through which time of expiration, some think our all the universal, and therefore it is the Law Saviour noted to be come, when on the Cross also of things which are simple, natural and he said, Consummatum est. But I rather think John 18. these words of our Saviour to have no other Pfal. 69, Hence it is, that all things created are figuification, than that now the Prophecie of commanded to praise God their Creator and their giving him Vinegar to drink was fulfilled. For fo S. John expounds it, when he faith, v.28. That Christ feeing all (other) things to be of heavens, for he hath established them for ever fulfilled, Ut consummaretur Scriptura, That the and ever. He hath made an ordinance which | Scripture in this also might be fulfilled, faid, I thirst: though I deny not, but at the same time also the date of the Law was expired, to wit, of the law ceremonial, and of fo much of the judicial, as appertained peculiarly to the Jews, and agreeth not with the Law of the New Testament and Gospel of Christ. For the immutable Law of God, though prescribing things mutable, is not therfore changed in it felf; but the things prescribed change according to this eternal ordinance, of which the Wifdom of Solomon, and being one, she can do all things, and remaining in her felf, reneweth all.

6. VI.

Of the Law of Nature.

F the Law of Nature, as it is taken in Aug is general, I find no definition among the Ep ad Hil. used in tearms only; it being no other than | School-men; only as it is considered in Man, 89. 00 in God's general providence: for, as it is truly it is called The impression of divine Light, and Evang. faid of God, that he is omnia super omnia: fo | a participation of the eternal Law in the rea- 49. are all things which appear in themselves sonable creature. Lex Naturalis est impression thence derived, there-under subjected, divini liminis in nobis, & participatio Legis thence-from by his eternal Law and provi- aterna in rationali creatura. Ulpian defines The dejusdence directed, even from the greatest to the the natural Law to be the same which Nature just 1. bath taught all living creatures: Jus naturale ii. 1. The Schoolmen are very curious and eft quod Natura omnia animalia docuit: and ample in the consideration of these laws: and he afterward addeth, Justified non humani in discourse of the profit, and of the matter, generis proprium, sed omnium animalium que and object of the eternal Law. But, as the terra marique nascuntur, avium quoque comprofit is manifest in the good of all creatures, | mune oft; The Law of Nature is not proper to man alone, but the same is common to all living creatures, as well Birds, as to those the Land and Sea produceth. But this definition is not general, but of the natural Law in things

The Law of Nature in general, Itake to be that disposition, instinct, and formal quality, which God in his eternal Providence hath given and imprinted in the nature of every creature, animate, and inanimate. And as it is divinum lumen in men inlightning our formal reason; so is it more than sense in Beafts; and more than vegetation in Plants. For it is not fense alone in Beasts, which was cternally by God ordained to last untill teacheth them, at first sight, and without experience

CHAP. IV.

214 mies of their lives: seeing that Bulls and drvine light; the other, the did ate, or sen and yet the Hare and Deer feedeth by the exercise of Justice and uprightness: and not one, and flieth from the other, yea, though to offer or perform any thing toward others, by them never feen before, and that as foon | fave that which we would be content flould as they fall from their Dams. Neither is it be offered or performed toward our felves. fense, which hath taught other Beasts to pro- For, such is the Law of Nature to the Mind, vide for Winter, Birds to build their Ness as the Eye is to the Body; and that which, or quiet seasons: or the Birds of India, to is, the observation of those things which lead make their Nests on the smallest twigs which us thereby to our last end; which is eternal hang over Rivers, and not on any other part life; though of themselves not sufficient of the Tree, or elsewhere, to save their Eggs and young ones from the Monkies, and other Beafts, whose weight such a twig will not bear, and which would fear to fall into the not taken for the law, is, as aforesaid, the Water. The instances in this kind are ex- impression of God's divine light in men, and ceeding many which may be given. Neither a participation of the law increated and is it out of the vegetable or growing nature eternal. For without any law written, the of Plants, that some Trees, as the female of right reason and understanding, which God Palmitto, will not bear any fruit, except the hath given us, are abilities within our felves. male grow in fight. But this they do by that | fufficient to give us knowledge of the good Law, which the infinite and unsearchable and evil, which by our gratitude to God Wisdom of God had in all eternity provi- and distribution of right to men, or by the ded for them, and for every nature created. | contrary, we prepare and purchase for our suprafett, of Nature incorrupt, which S. Augustine purelt reason; in whose highest Turrets, the supragett. calleth the Law of Reason, but by a nature quiet of Conscience hath made her resting loco. ad blinded and corrupted, that the Germans place and habitation; In arce altissima ratio ROW, 7.23 did antiently allow of theft: and that other nie quies habitat. Therefore the Gentilus was permitted to men to use one another's for a witness of those effects: and the repre-Theod.1.9. Wife, and to the women, to choose them bate their thoughts to accuse them. de termidis others besides their Hulband, to beget them | And it is most true, that whosoever is not a affel. Gra- with child: which Law in those parts hath law unto himself (while he hopeth to abuse against nature and right reason.

that these Laws some men avow to be natural: except it be of this corrupt nature, as the World, sed flos ille, dum loquimur, are files (among others) to pay guile with guile : to Those flowers wither while we discourse of their become faithless among the faithless: to colours, or are in gathering them. That we struction: that Injury is not done to him our selves, and become fearfull Witnesses of fear, and the like. For taking the definition pher Pythagoras teach in this golden, Pre-perience or instruction, to flie from the ene- Aquinas (the one calling it The impression of week mies of their nives. Recting the more fearfull tence of pradique reason) the same can teach men Hories appear unto the leaft kind of Doggs; us, or incline us to no other thing, than to the land thind of Doggs; and terrible, than the leaft kind of Doggs; are greatered by the land unrightness and a price of buffice and unrightness and a high or low, according to the tempestuous according to David, sheweth us good, that the without faith and grace. Now, that which is truly and properly the law of Nature, where the corruption is In Man this Law is double, corrupt, and in- felves. For when the Gentiles (faith S. Paul) frank corrupt: corrupt, where the reason of Man which have not the law, do by nature these hath made its self subject, and a Vassal to things contained in the law: they having not Passions, and Affections Brutal: and incor- the law, are a law unto themselves. Now, to rupt, where time and custom hath bred in love God, by whom we are, and to do the Men a new nature, which also, as is aforesaid, same right unto all men, which we defire is a kind of Law. For it was not by the Law | should be done unto us, is an effect of the Nations were by Law constrain'd to become (saith S. Panl) which show the effects of the law best Idolaters; that by the Laws of Lycurgus it written in their hearts, have their consciences lasted long, and is not forgotten to this day. the World by the advantage of hypocrise) The Scythians, and the People of both In- worketh nothing elfe, but the betraying of dies, hold it lawfull to bury with them the his own Soul, by crafty unrighteousness, purbest beloved Wives: as also they have many chasing eternal perdition. For it helpethus other cultoms remembred by G. Valentia, not to hide our corrupt hearts from the World's eye, feeing from him, who is an in-And I know not from what authority it is, | finite eye, we cannot hide them : fome Gar. lands we may gather in this May-game of provide for our felves by another man's de- should therefore inhabit and dwell within that is willing; to deftroy those whom we our fecret evils, did that reverend Philosoof natural laws, either out of S. Angustine, or cept: Nil turpe committas, neque coram alin, neque tecum; maxime omnium verere teipsum; (as that good is to be followed, and evil Commit nothing foul or dishonest, saith he, eschewed) and demonstrable, which is evineither to be known to others, nor to thine own dently proved out of higher and more uniheart: but above all men, reverence thine own versal propositions. Again, as it answereth Conscience. And this may be a Precept of the natural appetite, prescribing things to Nature and right Reason; by which law, be defired as good, or to be avoided as evil men, and all creatures, and bodies, are in- (as of the first, to desire to live, and to satisfied to satisfie to live and to s clined to those operations, which are answer- fie hunger, &c. and of the second, to eschew able to their own form; as Fire to give heat. pains, forrow, and death) in this confidera-Now, as the reasonable mind is the form of tion they divide it, according to the divers Tho. 4.96. Man, so is he aptly moved to those things kinds of appetites that are in us. For in art. 1. first creation.

18 618, which they obey. He made a decree for the is a Being, Ens or Res; so he doth defire and confusion.

By this natural Law, or law of humane not well, fin lieth at thy door.

Volume of this Subject.

monstrable, or needing no demonstration place (saith Valentia) Just is not to be taken which his proper form presenteth unto him; every man there are three sorts of appeto wit, that which right Reason offereth; tites, which answer the three degrees of and the Acts of right Reason, are the acts of natural Law. The first is, to be that which we Vertue; and in the breach of the rules of are; in which is comprehended the defire, this Reason, is a man least excusable: as being both to live, and to preserve our being and a reasonable creature. For all else, both sen- life, as also the desire of issue, with care to fitive, growing, and inanimate, obey the provide for them: for the Father, after his Law which God imposed on them at their death, lives in his children; and therefore the defire of life comprehends the defire of The Earth performeth her office, accord- children. And to these appetites are referred ing to the Law of God in nature: for it the first indemonstrable laws of Nature, for bringeth forth the bud of the Herb, which the most part. For it needs no proof, that feedeth feed, &c. and the Beast, which liveth | all creatures should desire to be, to live, and thereon. He gave a law to the Seas, and to be defended, and to live in their iffue, commanded them to keep their bounds; when they cannot in themselves. And as Man Rain, and a way for the Lightning of the good, and shun evil. For it is common to all Thunders. He caused the Sun to move, and things, to desire things agreeable to their to give light, and to serve for signs, and for own natures, which is, to desire their own feasons. Were these as rebellious as Man, for good. And so is good defined by Aristotle, whose sake they were created, or did they to be that which all desire. Which definionce break the Law of their natures and tion Basil upon the 44. Psalm approveth: forms; the whole World would then perish, Recte quidem bonum desinierunt, quod omnia and all return to their first Chaos, darkness, expetunt; Rightly have some men defined good, Ethic I. 12 or goodness to be that which all things desire.

The second kind of appetite, is of those Reason, did Cain perceive his own wicked- things which appertain unto us, as we have ness and offence, in the murther of Abel: for sense. Whence, by the law of Nature, we henot onely feared the displeasure of God, defire the delights of every sense; but with but the revenge of men; it being written in such moderation, as may neither glut us with his reason, that whatsoever he performed to- satiety, nor hurt us with excess. For, as Sense wards others, the same by others might be it self is for the preservation of life and bedone unto him again. And that this judg- | ing ; so is it meet, even by the law of Nature, ment of well and evil doing, was put into that the sensitive appetite should not carry our natures by God, and his eternal Law, be- us to the destruction, either of our life or forethe Law written, Moses in the person of being. And although (seeing both these God witnesseth, Gen. 4. If thou do well, kinds of appetites are in Beasts) we may fall thou not be accepted? and if thou do well fay, that Nature hath given divers laws unto them: In which sense the Civilians de-The School-men are large also in this Que- fine natural Right, or fus naturale, to be the flion of the natural Law; the same being same which Nature hath raught all living opened amply by Reinerius, Antonius, and creatures: Yet the School men admit not, Valentia. But it is not my purpose to write a that the instincts of Beast's can properly be called a law, but onely a fus, or Right, But this Law which Thomas Aquinas cal- which is the matter, and aim of every law. leth An act of Reason taken properly; and not | For so they distinguish it; where Ulpian afa habit, as it is an evident natural judgment firmeth, that Jus naturale is that, which Naof practick reason; they divide into indevet where Ulpian also distinguisheth the as by this law, all men are born Lords of the right belonging to living creatures in gene- Earth, yet it well alloweth inequality of porral, from the right belonging to men, calling the one. Jus Natura, the other Jus Gentium: the Divines understand the law of by permitting and commanding that all men Nature more largely, that is, for all evident shall enjoy the fruits of their labours to dictates, precepts, or biddings of divine reafon, both in Bealts and Men; and restrain the law of Nations to a kind of humane right.

The third appetite is of those things which appertain properly to Man, as he is a living creature reasonable: as well with relation to God, and to our Neighbour, as for our selves: and the laws of this appetite are the commandments of our Religion.

branches and divisions of this law of Nature answering the division of matter, which it prescribeth, and as manifold, as the moral actions are which it commandeth or forbiddeth; yet is the law of Nature but one law, according to Aquinas: first, because it hath one fountain or root in the natural or motive faculty, which is but one, stirring up to good, and declining the contrary: fecondly, because all is contained in that general natural precept, That good is to be followed, and ill avoided: and thirdly, because all the parts are reduced to one and the same last end.

That this law of Nature binds all creatures, it is manifest; and chiefly Man; because he is endued with reason: in whom as reason groweth, so this band of observer or Ascades governed the Assyrians, Marathus that ing the law of Nature increaseth; Post- the Sycionians, Triopus the Argives, Cecrops quam ratio ad perfectium venit, tune fit quod | Attica, and Acherres Egypt: to wit, after the scriptum est, Adveniente mandato, peccatum revixit; When reason grew to perfection, then it seemes, was the first written law which the came to pals, which was written by S. Paul, Nom 1.18. When the commandment came, fin revived. Neither is it a small warrant for this law of invented by the Gracians; no, not in Homer's Nature, when those that break the same, are time, who lived after the fall of Troy 80. years faid by S. Paul, To be delivered over into a reprobate fense (or mind) to do those things which Rom 1. 15, are not convenient : And again, that their consciences bear witness, and their thoughts accuse it might remain a lasting Book of his ex-L. 21 Fid. mascene; Homines facti sunt mali, declinando be without excuse, the slight defences of ouho & 30. in id quod contra naturam est; Men (saith he) ignorance being taken from them. are made evil, by declining unto that which is contrary to Nature: And S. Augustine, Omne vi-

therefore contrary unto it.

for a law, but for the matter of the law. And exceptions in some particulars. For, wheretions, according to unequal merit: by taking from the evil, and giving to the good; and themselves: according to the rules of Justice and Equity.

And though the law of Nature command, that all things be restored which are lest in truft, yet in some cases, this her law she suffereth to be broken: as to deny a mad man his weapons, and the like, which he left in keeping while he was fober. But the Universal principles can no more be changed, Now, although there are many other than the decrees of God are alterable: who. according to S. Paul, abideth faithfull, and tin cannot deny himself.

s. VII.

of the written Law of God.

Fter the Eternal, and Natural, the law Positive or imposed is the next in order, which law, being nothing but an addition, or rather an explication of the former, hath two kinds; Divine, and Humane. Again, the Divine positive law is double; the Old, and New: The Old was given unto Moses in Mount Sinai, or Horeb, at fuch time as the World had stood 2513, whole years: and in promise to Abraham, 430 years. And this, it World received. For the very word Nomos, fignifying a law, was not then, nor long after, at least; and Troy it felf was cast down 335. years, after Mofes led Ifrael out of Egypt. This law, it pleased God to engrave in Stone, that them. For though this law of Nature stretch | pressed Will in the Church: and that the not to every particular; as to command fast- Priests and People might have whereof to ing, and the like; yet it commandeth in ge- | meditate, till the coming of Christ: and that neral all good, and whatsoever is agreeable so these Children of Israel, though bred to right and reason. And therefore said Da- among an Idolatrous People in Egypt, might

The reason known to us, why this law was not written before, is, that when the People tium natura nocet, ac per hoc contra naturam were few, and their lives long, the Elders of eft; Every vice doth wrong to nature, and is Families might eafily, without any written law,instruct their own Children; and yet,as Neither yet are the rules of this law they increased, so doubtless they had, besides of Nature so streight, but that they suffer the law of Nature many precepts from God, feeming necessary, and hinder common procalled undefiled.

not first conceived in the mind.

Thirdly, it leadeth us to the knowledg of truth, which by reason of diversity of Opinion, and difference of peculiar laws among fundry Nations, we cannot be affured of; but the Law of GOD bindeth all men, and is without errour; and therefore also said David, That the testimony of the Law of God is faithful; giving wisdom to children;

9. VIII. malbata

Of the unwritten Law of God, given to the Tatriarchs by Tradition.

left altogether to the law of Reason and Nature, it doth not appear. For the Patriarchs of the first Age received many Precepts from Also the law of honouring and reverence. Gen 34.15 Gm. 38.16

before the law written. But now at length, for God himself, and whatsoever was first imas much as the law of Nature did not define posed by Adam, the same was observed by all kinds of good, and evil; nor condemn | Seth, who instructed Enos; from whom it every fin in particular: nor fufficiently ter- descended to Noah, Sem, Abraham Isaac, Jarifie the consciences of offenders; nor so ex- cob, Joseph, and Moses. Yea, many particular pound divine Worship, as for those after- commandments afterward written, were ages was required, who gave every day less formerly imposed and delivered over by authority than other to the natural law; In tradition; which kind of teaching the Tems these respects it was necessary, that the law afterward called Cabala, or Receptio; Preshould be written, and set before the eyes of cepts received from the mouth of their all men; which before, they might, but Priefts and Elders; to which the Jews after would not read in their own consciences. The | the law written, added the interpretation school-men, and the Fathers before them, in- of fecret Mysteries, reserved in the bosoms large the causes and necessity, why the law of their Priests, and unlawful to be uttered to was written; whereof these are the chiefest. the People. But the true Cabala was not to The first, for restraining of sin, directly be concealed from any; as being indeed the grounded upon this place of David, The law divine Law revealed to the Patriarchs, and of the Lord is undefiled, converting Souls: The | from them delivered to the Posterity, when testimonies of the Lord are faithful, giving mif- as yet it was unwritten. The commanddom to children. For the humane law, faith | ments which God gave unto Adam in the be-S. Angustine, meeteth not with all offences, ginning, were, that he should impose names either by way of prohibition or punishment; to all Beasts, according to their natures; to feeing thereby it might take away fomthing | whose perfection of understanding, they were fufficiently known. For, finding the fit; but the divine law written, forbiddeth reason of his own name Adam, or Adamah, every evil, and therefore, by David, it is Earth, or red clay, he gave other names fignificant, not only to Beafts, but to his Children Secondly, it ferveth for the direction of and Nephews, which afterward his iffines our minds. For the laws of men can onely imitated; as the name of seth tignifieth, as take knowledg of outward actions, but not fome take it, one that was laid for the of internal motions, or of our disposition and ground or foundation of the Church, or rawill: and yet it is required, that we be no ther one given in recompence for Abel that . The less clean in the one, than in the other. And was flain; and Enosh fignifieth Man, or mile-common therefore were the words converting our rable, &c. Further, God commanded Adam is cam jer-Sonlis, added by David: wherein are all our to till the Ground, and to live by the labour rest but outward acts first generated, according to thereof: God also gave him the choice of not dethe Cabalifts. Actiones hominum nulla effent, all fruits, but the forbidden; and in Adam frog the miss privis in mente dicerentur; The actions of also was Marriage first instituted, all men earth; and men save at all more when the proceeding the proposed delite as better being appropriate as the same as men (lay they) would be none at all, were they | thence-after being commanded to co-habit not this with their Wives, rather than with their Fa- Prepoliti-

ther or Mother. That murther and cruelty was also for the same bidden, both before the Law written, and which it before the Flood it felf, it is manifest. God hath, achimself making it appear, that it was one of cording to the greatest causes of the destruction of Man- gen. 4 1. kind by the general Flood. For God faid 11em 44.4. unto Noah, An end of all Flesh is come before & Dent. me; for the Earth is filled with cruelty through especially, them : and behold, I will defiroy them * from feeing the Earth. That offence therefore, for which words are all perished, could not be unknown to all but a rethat perished: God's Mercy and Justice in petition of that terposing between the untaught and Re-which is Ow, that in all this long tract of Time, between the Creation and the written to Noah, after the Waters were dried up in minimal. Law, the World and People of God were from the Earth: Whole fleddeth Man's Blood, superficial by Man Shall his Blood be shed; for in the I- Gen 9. 6. mage of God hath He made Man.

Father's curse : as, Cursed be Canaan, a servant Prophets, and in the Psalms. of servants shall be be unto his brethren. Again, we find that the unnatural fin of the istaken for the Law Moral, Ceremonial, and dultery and Ravishment, was before the Law the Law. no less detested than the rest, as appeareth by that revenge taken for Dina's forcing: and by the judgment which Juda gave against Tamar, That she should be burnt; and by the repentance of Pharaoh and Abimelech, against whom this sentence was pronounced, Thou art but dead, because of the woman which thou hast taken; for she is a man's Wife. To these we may add the ordinance of Sacrifice, of distinction of clean and unclean Beasts, of Circumcifion, of the brother to raise up feed to his brother that left a Widow childless, and divers other conflitutions, partly Christ's coming it fignifieth the whole policy Moral, and partly Ceremonial, which being delivered before the written Law were after by it confirmed. So that this Divine Law imposed, of which the Law of Moses containeth that which is called, The Old Testament, may be faid, not only to have been written in the hearts of men, before it was engraven in stone, but also in substance to have been given in Precept to the Patriarchs. For, as by the Figure Metonymia, for Interest, Au-S. Paul witnesseth of himself, I knew not sin, but by the Law, fo ever the Law naturally preceded, and went before offences, or the force of sin and death, the enforcements though written after offences committed. It of concupifcence, &c. is true, that all the creatures of God were directed by some kind of unwritten Law; the Angels intuitively; Men, by reason; is thus defined. The law is a doctrine, which Beafts by fense and instinct, without difcourse; Plants by their vegetative powers; and things Inanimate, by their necessary motions, without fense or perception.

6. IX.

Of the Moral, Judicial, and Ceremonial Law, with a note prefixed how the Scripture speaketh not alway in one sence, when it nameth the Law of Moses.

is taken for all doctrin which doth prescribe ultimus humane vite sinis the divine Law (a) and restrain; so the Law, called the Law of they) is the decree of God, prescribing unto Moses in particular, is taken by S. Paul di- men a necessary mean, whereby they may apily verily : as sometime for the Old Testament; as, attain supernatural beatitude, which is the Rom 3 19 Now we know, that what soever the Law saith, it end of man's life. faith to them which are under the Law.

the Prophets and Plalms, it is there taken for part commandeth this or that good to be the five Books of Moses. For so S, Luke hath done, and this or that evil to be avoided, in ing our Parents, was observed among the diffinguished them; as, All must be fulfilled faithful, and the contrary punished by the which are written of me in the Law, in the

When it is opposed to the Gospel, then it sodomite was punished in the highest de-gree, as with fire from Heaven. The sin of A-man is justified by Faith, without the works of tangle

When it is opposed to Grace, it significth the declaration of Gods wrath, and our guilt of condemnation; or the extremity of the Law, and Summum Jus: as, For ye are not un- Galti der the law, but under grace.

When it is opposed to the Truth, namely, where the Ceremonies or Signs are taken for the things fignified; as the Sacrifice for Chrift, and the like; then it fignifieth but shadows and figures; as, The law was given by Moles, Janus but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

Lastly, when it is opposed to the time of of the Jews Common-wealth; as, Before Faith came, we were kept under the law, &c. Or the Laws law of the Order and Institution of the Aaronical Priesthood; as, All the Prophets & the law, Hills, or the Priests, prophesied unto John. And if the Priefthood be changed, the Law also, to wit, of the Priesthood, must needs be changed.

The word (Law) is sometime also taken thority, and Empire, or for constraining 2006 force; as, The law of the Spirit of life, the law &m

But the Written Law of Moses, or the law of the Old Testament, of which we now speak, was first put into the minds of men by God, and afterwards written by Moses, or by him repeated, commanding Holiness and Justice, promiting eternal life conditionally, that is, to the observers of the Law, and threatning Death to those which break the Law in the least. For according to S. James, Whosever James Shall keep the whole, and fail in one point, it is. guilty of all. The definition used by the Schole-men, in which, both the Old and New Law are comprehended, is thus given: Lex divina est divinum decretum, hominibus pra-Ow, as the word (Law) in general, as is | scribens modum necessarium, ut apte percentre aforesaid, hath divers significations, and possint ad supernaturalem beatitudinem, quaest

The Law of Moses hath three parts: Mo-When it is opposed, or differenced from ral, Ceremonial, and Judicial. The Moral particular; as also it declareth, for whose retaineth still. For these things also are treateth of vertue and goodness; the Cere- other. monial of divine fervice, and of holines; (for external worship, and the order of hailowing our felves unto God, is called Cereal; good, or honest to the Moral. The Judi- a farr less degree of necessity. cial part is touching the government of the Common-wealth of the Jews, in which many things must needs be proper to that estate, as fuch as were instituted either in respect of place or persons.

things, Sacraments, and Observances. To Sacrifices belong Beafts, and the Fruits of the earth; to holy things the Tabernacle, Temple, Vessels, Altars, and the like; to Sacraments, Circumcifion, the Paffover, and fuch like. For Observances, they confifted either in prohibition of certain meats, as not to eat the bloud and fat of Beafts; or in some other outward things, as in washings, purifyings, anointings, and attire, as not to wear mix'd prohibiteth other unnatural and unproper nine points. commixtion; as, Thou shalt not yoak together in a Plough, an Ox and an Af, or cast mingled feed in one field. It also exhorteth to natural compassion, and forbiddeth cruelty, even to Beafts, Birds, and Plants, whereby the like, to the Ceremonial Law. Neither is there any of these three parts of the law of Moses, but it hath as yet in fome respect the same power which it had before the coming of christ. For the Moral charity one towards another; which for ever remonial, and Judicial. final be required at our hands. Therein al-creatures of God might be destroyed without any profit to man. For fo some referr these Precepts, Thou shalt not kill the Bird fitting on her Nest, nor beat down the Buds of the Tree, nor muzzle the labouring Ox, and the fake it is to be done; as, Do this, for I am the commanded in both Testaments to be ob-Lord; whereas the law of Nature commands ferved: though principally for fear of God ir but in general. Again, the Moral law en- in the one, and for the love of God in the

The Ceremonial also lived in the things which it fore-fignified. For the fladow is not destroyed, but perfected, when the bomony) and the Judicial teacheth the particu- dy it self is represented to us. Besides, it lar government, fit for the Common-wealth still liveth, in that it giveth both instruction of the Jews, and prescribeth orders for justice and testimony of Christ, and in that it giveth and equity. And therefore was it faid of direction to the Church, for some Ceremo-S. Paul, The Commandment is just, holy, and nies and Types of holy signification, which cood: just, or justice being referred to the are still expedient; although in a farr fewer Judicial: holy, or holiness to the Ceremoni- number than before Christ's coming, and in

> Lastly, the Judicial liveth in Substance, and concerning the end, and the natural and universal equity thereof.

But the Moral faileth in the point of justification, the Ceremonial as touching the use The Ceremonial is divided into four parts, and external observation (because christ according to the four kinds of things of himself is come, of whom the Ceremonies which it speaketh, to wit, Sacrifice, holy were figns and shadows) and the Judicial is taken away, as far forth as it was peculiar to the Jews Common-weal and Policy.

6. X.

A Proposal of nine other points to be consider-ed, with a touch of the five first.

S for that which remaineth in general confideration of the divine Written Garments of Linnen and Woollen: as also it Law, it may in effect be reduced into these

- 1. The dignity and worth of the Law.
- 2. The Majesty of the Law giver.
- 3. The property and peculiarity of the People receiving it.
- 4. The conveniency of the time in which it was given.
- 5. The efficacy and power thereof. 6. The difference and agreement of the - Old and New Testament.
- 7. The end and use of the Law. 8. The sence and understanding of the
- 9. The durance and continuance thereof.
- The dignity of the Law is sufficiently liveth still, and is not abrogated or taken proved by S. Paul, in these words: Wherefore away; faving in the ability of justifying or the Law is haly, and the Commandment is holy, condemning; for therein are we command- and just, and good: which three attributes ed to love and worship God: and to use are referred, as aforesaid, to the Moral, Ce-
- foare we in particular directed, show this proved in all his creatures, who, as he hath ought to be done; which power of direct- given all things their lives and beings, so he ing by special Rules and Precepts of life, it only gave the Law, who could onely give falvation of Mankind; but he gave it not to by Works, the new by Grace; but in the thing Moses immediately, but by the ministery of it felf, or object and remote end, they Angels, as it is faid: And the Law was ordain- agree; which is, mans happiness and falvation. Gal. 3 19. ed by Angels, in the hand of a Mediator: And

220

People receiving the Law, is in three re- which the new taketh witness. Yet the new fpects. First, in that they were prepared. Se- is of more excellency, in that it doth more condly, in that they were a Nation apart and lively express, and openly and directly delidiffevered. Thirdly, in that they were the Children of the Promise made to Abraham. Prepared they were, because they had the knowledg of one God, when all other Nations were Idolaters. A Nation apart and fe- Law, though greatly extolled by the Fravered they were, because of God's choice | phets, and delivered with wonderfull miand election Children of the Promife they racles, yet was it constituted in a policy were, for the Promise was made by God unto Abraham and his feed; not unto his feeds, mife of an everlasting Kingdom, and thereas to Esan and Jacob, but to his seed, as to sore called in the Apocalyps, a Testament and Jacob or Ifrael fingularly, of whom Chrift. Gospel for ever during. Now, to Abraham and his feed was the Pro. mise made; he saith not, to the seeds, as speaking of many, but, to thy feed, as of one, which

4. The conveniency of the time, in which it was given, is noted by S. Augustine; that it because the first and chief part thereol, is was about the middle time, between the the glad tidings of our Redemption: the Law of Nature and Grace: the Law of Nature continued from Adam to Moses: the Law written in the commandments received | are plentiful Interpreters thereof: The word by Moses in the Worlds year, 2514. continued to the Baptism of John; from which time, | prosperous message, or (as Homer usedit) began the Law of Grace, which shall conti- the reward given to the Messenger bring conveniency are formerly given.

to, or fign of our Justification; but not by it glad tidings in general, as in Esay 52. 21.7 felf fufficient, but as a figure of chrift in cere concerning peace. Secondly, by an excelmonies, and a preparation to righteousness in lency it is restrained, to fignifie that most moral precepts. For through the Passion of joyful message of Salvation, as in Luke 2.10. Christ were fins forgiven, who taketh away whence also by figure it is taken for the the fins of the World: and therefore S. Fant | History of Christ; and so we understand the calleth the Rudiments of the Law, beggarly four Gospels. and weak; beggarly, as containing no Grace, weak, as not able to forgive and justifie. The the Doctrine of Christ, as I Cor. 9. 14. and bloud of Goats and Bulls, and the Ashes of an |2 Cor. 8. 18. Heifer could onely cleanfe the body; but they were figures of Christ's bloud, which ken I think, as they are divided in Volumes) doth cleanse the inward Soul. For if the Law is by Daneus comprised in these four. could justifie, then Christ died in vain.

Of the fixth Point, to wit of the difference and agreement of the old and new Testament.

name, and in the mean and way pro- are of God, and therefore both one Tella-He old and new Testament differ in the end and reward promifed, to wit, the posed for attaining to salvation; as the old

The old Testament, or Law, or Letter, or in the Acts, He gave the Law by the Ordinance the Witness of Gods Will, was called the old, because it preceded the new Testament; 3. The Propriety and Peculiarity of the which is an explication of the old: from neate, the ways of our redemption. It is also called the old, to shew that in part it wasto be abrogated : In that he faith, the New Tella. ment, he hath abrogated the Old. For the old perishable; but the new was given in a pro-

The old Testament is called the Law, because the first and chief part is of the Lawos Mofes, of which the Prophets and Pfalms are Commentaries, explicating that Law.

The new Testament is called the Gospel, other Books, as the Epistles, or Letters of the Apostles, and the Atts or Story of the Apostles, Evangelien, fignifying a joyful, happy, and nue to the worlds end. Other reasons for the ing joyful news. It is also sometime taken for a facrifice, offered after victory, or other 5. The fifth confideration is of the effica- pleafing fuccess, as by Xenophon. In the Scicy of this Law, the same being a disposition prures it hath three fignifications. First, for

Lastly, for the preaching and divulging

The agreement of both Testaments (ta-In their Author.

In the substance of the Covenant, or things promised. In the foundation, to wit, Christ. In the Effects, that is, in Righteonfiels and Justification.

In the Author they agree, because both ment and will of God in fubstance of do- troduction (for to those which acknowledge aterna promitti ; Few (saith he) do understand

1th deci-gustine, Omnino pauci veterem legem intellioil. Dei, gunt, non attendentes per promissa terrena, the old law; not attending that by things earthn Sophon. ly, eternal are promised. And S. Hierom; Noluit 1.3. v. 9. Deus pascere Judæos more pecorum corporalibus donis opibusque, ut Judai somniant; God would not feed the lews as beafts with corpowords, Ego sum Deus tuus ; 🔗 ero vobis in Despect of the suture; to wit, the safety of their things of this Law. Souls. For as God created both Body and better part uncared for, which liveth ever. called the foundation of the law laid by the duty to God and Men. Apostles and Prophets; in whom all the profood which we eat in our Sacraments.

knowledg of our fin and mifery, which is full tempest, threatning eternal death. taught us by the law, maketh way, and, as it

ctrine. For as there was ever one Church, so their fin and mifery, God sheweth his merwas there one Covenant and Adoption, and cy and falvation) may be faid to agree with one Doctrine. As the old law doth point at the Gospel in the effect. For otherwise, if we chrift, so doth the new Law teach chrift; the sever the law from subordination to the old proposing him as to come, the new as al- Gospel, the effects are very different; the ready come; one and the same thing being one sheweth the way of righteousness by promised in both; both tending to one and works, the other by faith; the law woundthe same end, even the salvation of our Souls; eth, the Gospel healeth; the Law terrifieth, which, according to S. Peter, is the end of our the Gospel allureth; Moses accuseth, Christ Faith. For although it be said, that Moses did defendeth; Moses condemneth, Christ parpromise by observing the law, an earthly doneth. The old restrained the hand, the Hamilat kingdom, a land flowing with Milk and Ho- new, the mind. Data eft lex que non fanaret Rem. ney, the propagation of children, and other (faith S. Augustine) sed que agrotantes probaworldly bleffings; yet all these were but fi- | ret; The law was given, not to help, but to disgures to teach, and pledges to affure the Fa- | cover sickness: and S. Chrysoftom; Data est lex, thers of those spiritual bleffings by Christ; ut se homo inveniret; non ut morbus sanarefor by the earthly, he raised their minds to tur, sed ut medicus quareretur; The law was thehope of heavenly. And the Fathers, not- given, that man might find and know his own withstanding these worldly goods, did yet imperfection; not that his disease was thereby acknowledg themselves strangers, and pil- holpen, but that he might then seek out the Phygrims, expecting the heavenly Hierusalem; sician. For Christ came to fave the World, according to this place of the Hebrews; All which the Law had condemned. And as these died in faith, and received not the pro- Moses was but a Servant, and Christ a Son; so mises, but saw them afar off, and believed them; the greatest benefit was reserved to be confessing that they were strangers and pilgrims brought, as by the worthiest person, saith Heb. 7. on the earth. To which purpose also S. Au- | Cyril; for this law made nothing persect, but was an introduction of a better hope.

6. XII.

Of the rest of the points proposed.

THe seventh Consideration is of the end, and use of the Law; which is to bring ral gifts and riches, as themselves dream. And us to Christ; for finding no righteousness in this may be gathered out of God's own our own works, we must seek it in some other. But this is the last, and remote, and um; Iam thy God, and I will be your God. For utmost end; the next and proper end of the the words, I wil be your God, prove that it was Law, is to prescribe righteousness, and to exnot for the present, or for perishable things, act absolute and perfect obedience to God. that God gave them this promife, but in re-

The fecond end of the Law, is to render Soul, so hath he of his goodness, not left the us inexcusable before God; who knowing fo perfect a Law, do not keep it; the Law The agreement between the old and new requiring a perfect and entire, not a broken Testament in substance, inferrs also the or half obedience; but both inward and agreement in foundation. For Christ is outward righteousness, and performance of

The the third and chief end of the law, miles of God in the old and new, are affured: is, as hath been faid, to fend us to Christ, and the Fathers having eaten the same spiritual his Grace, being in our selves condemned and loft. For the law was delivered with The agreement in effects, is, in that the thunder, and with a most violent and fear-

The fourth end of the law was to defign, were, serveth in subordination to the Gospel, and preserve, the place of the Church and the proper effects wereof are mercy and sal- true People of God; and to hold men in vation; to which the law ferving as an in- one Discipline, and aw, till the coming of chrift; after whom the Church was to be ments, and his Ordinances, and his Laws, that differfed over the whole World.

CHAP. IV.

end and use of the Ceremorial law, is to mandata; If thou wilt enter into life, keep the 69 confirm the truth of Christ, and the new Teflament. The use of the Judicial, to teach us mandatum ejus vita eterna est; I know that his natural equity and right, whereto we must Commandment is life everlasting. And if this conform our felves.

ral, we are taught the worthip and fervice of but a lyar, that professeth to love God, and God; by the spiritual, the figures and mysti- neglecteth to observe the word of his Will.

cal fore-speakings of christ.

pter shall from of Christ: before which time, and while excepted) yet, if we rightly consider the from Ju- Christ taught in the World, both the old and merciful care which God had of his people do, nor a the new were in force. But after that the in those his Commandments, we shall find in the law given the new were in forced when the Alternation of the Alte true facrifice was offered upon the Altar of our felves, how we borrow liberty, and rathe Cross, then the Jewiff facrifices and ce- ther let slip our affections, and voluntarily remonies, which were Types and Figures of loosen them from the chains of obedience, Christ (Christ being the Body of those sha- to which the Word of God, and Divine Readows) cealed to bind the conscience any son hath sastened them, than that we areeslonger; the mysterie of our Redemption cusable by those difficulties and impossibilibeing now by Christ, and in him, finished. In ties, which our mind (greedy of liberty) protoken whereof the veil of the Temple rent pofeth to it felf. For, this is the love of God, afunder; noting that the ceremonial veils that we keep his Commandments, and his and shadows were now to be removed, not Commandments are not grievous, 1 Joh.5. 12. that the moral law of the Commandments and if we examine every Precept apart, and was hereby abolished, or weakned at all; then weigh them each after other, in the otherwise than that it had not power to con- | ballance of our consciences, it is not hard for demn according to the Jewish doctrine, as a- any man to judg, by what easie persuasions, forefaid. For the observing of the law was by we steal away from our own power, asunchrist himself severely commanded; our love | willing to use it against our pleasing desires. towards God being thereby to be witneffed. And herein David to much rejoiced, as he preferred the observation of the law before all that the World could yield. In via testimoniorum tuorum delectatus sum, sicut in s John 5. omnibus divitiis; I have been delighted in thy law as in all manner of riches : And again, The law of thy mouth is good for me above thoufands of gold and filver. This is the love of God (faith S. John) that we keep his commandment. T acknowledg, ferve, and love one God. And that there is no excuse for the neglect Now, whereby are we entited to the breach of the things commanded in the law, God of this Precept? feeing every reasonable himself in Deuteronomy witnesseth. This Com- man may conceive and know, that an Infinite Deta. 30.
11,12,13. mandment (faith he) which I command thee power cannot be divided into many infinithis day, is not hid from thee, neither is it farr ties; and that it is of necessity, that by this off. It is not in heaven, that thou houldest fay, Almighty Unity, all things have been caused, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it and are continued. And if brute Bealtshad us, and cause us to hear it, that we may do it? this knowledg of their Creator, and how in Neither is it beyond the Sea, that thou shouldest his Providence he hath also provided for fay Who Shall go over the Sea for us, and bring every of them, Which giveth to Beafts their it us? &c. but the word is very near unto thee, food, &c. there is no doubt, but they would plant even in thy mouth, and in thy heart for to do it. also serve and love him onely. Behold (faith Mofes) I have fet before thee this day life and death, good and evil, in that I com- Idolatry, and worship of Images; the making mand thee this day, to love the Lord thy God, whereof, out of doubt, was not the invention to walk in his ways, and to keep his Command- of an ill intent in the beginning, feeing this thou mayft live, &c. Neither is it said in vain These be the ends of the Moral Law. The in S. Matthew: Si vis advitamingredi, serva (es. Commandments; and in S. John, Scio quia be the charity of God, or of Men towards The sence and understanding of the law God, as S. John hath taught, to wit, that we is double, literal, and spiritual; by the lite- keep his Commandments; certainly, heis with all his Power. And, though I confessit Lastly, for the durance or continuance of not in mans ability, without the special grace Gen. 49.10. Laftly, for the durance of continuance of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulfil the law (Chrift only asman of God, to fulf

6. XIII.

Of the several Commandments of the Decalogue; and that the difficulty is not inrespect of the Commandments, but by our de-

Or by the first, we are commanded to

The fecond Precept is the forbidding of

of is generally true; Omnia mala exempla bonis Parents, with whom we are one and the initiis ortasunt; Allill examples did spring and same, is a gratitude which Nature it self hath fion was to keep the memory of men famous gave us life and being, have begotten us, and himself thereby. For what reasonable man, if them violence, was made death. he be not for faken of God, will call on those blind, deaf, dumb, and dead stocks, more that is, Thou shalt not do the acts following worthless than the most worthless of those, the affections of hatred. For the Law of that having life and reason, implore their God, and after it, our own laws, and, in effect, help, which have neither; yea, of more vile the law of all Nations, have made difference price and baser, than the basest of Beasts, who between slaughter casual, and furious. Afhave sense and estimation? For what do we feel to enim tha (faith Bracton) imponit nomen thereby (faith the Wisdom of Solomon) but operi tuo; It is the affection and will that call to the weak for help, pray to the dead for makes the work fuch as it is. And certainly, life require aid of him that hath no experience, who loever cannot for bear to commit Murallilance in our journeys of him that cannot go, ther, hath neither the grace of God, nor any and success in our affairs of him that bath no use of his own will. power? And whether the Idolater, or the Block to which he prayeth, be more fenflefs, David maketh a doubt. For (faith he) they all the rest that trust in them.

is neither perfuaded by worldly pleasure, accounted a burthen, to forbear the difflo-pleasure, nor worldly profit; the two greatest in nour and injury, which we offer to others by gindus P4chanters of mortal men. No, we are no way fuch a violation, feeing Marriage is permit-radifum. allured to this horrible disdain of God, un- ted by the Laws of God and men, to all that Devil brought up among men, without all fire, and fire to flame. fubtilty of argument, or cunning persuasion, tions of the World do not use it.

the Stranger may be refreshed.

arise from good beginnings. For their first ere- taught us towards them, who, after God, for their vertue; until (faith Lastantius) the born us, cherified us in our weak and help-Devil crept into them, and (having blotted less infancy, and bestowed on us the harvest out the first intent) working in weak and and profit of their labours and cares. Thereignorant Souls, changed the nature of the fore, in the Temporal and Judicial Ordione, and the reason of the other, to serve nances, cursing of Parents, or the offering

The next is, That thou shalt not Murther,

The third of the fecond Table, commands us from Adultery. Now, if the prefervation of Virginity have been possible for thouthat make them are like unto them, and so are fands of Men and Women, who in all Ages have mastered their fleshly desires, and have The branch of the third Commandment, returned chafte to their Grave: It cannot be Neptie re-less the hate of good men, and Gods curse, be affect it. And there is no man living, whom accounted an advantage. For, as our cor- the defire of beauty and form hath so conruptest nature gives us nothing towards it, strained, but he might with ease forbear the so can it satisfie no one appetite, except ever- prosecution of this ill, did not himself give lasting forrow, and Hell dwell in our defire. fuck to this Infant, and nourish warmth, till And therefore this strange custom hath the it grow to strong hear, heat till it turn to

The fourth of the fecond Table, is, That taking thereby the greatest and most scorn- we shall not steal. And, if that kind of vioful advantage over us. For flaughter satis- lent robbery had been used in Moses time, fieth hatred, Theft gives satisfaction to need, which many Ruffians practise now a-days in Adultery to lust, Oppression to covetous- England, and, to the dishonour of our Natinels; but this contemptuous offence of blaf- on, more in England, than in any Region of phemy, and the irreverent abuse of God's the World among Christians; out of doubt, name, as it giveth no help to any of our he would have censured them by death, and worldly affections, so the most salvage Na- not by restitution, though quadruple. For, I speak not of the poor and miserable Souls, The fourth Commandment, to keep the whom hunger and extreme necessity infor-Sabbath day holy, hath neither pain, burthen, ceth; but of those detested Thieves, who, nor inconvenience. For it giveth rest to the to maintain themselves Lord-like, assault, labourer, and consolation to their Masters. rob, and wound the Merchant, Artificer, and And, that this law was imposed on man for labouring man; or break by violence into his benefit, Moses teacheth in the reason of other mens houses, and spend in Bravery, the law i as in Exod. 23.12. And in the seventh | Drunkenness and upon Harlots, in one day, day thou shalt rest, that thine Ox, and thine what other men have sometime laboured As may rest, and the son of thy Maid, and for, all their lives; impoverishing whole Families, and taking the bread and food from The first of the second Table, to honor our the mouths of their children. And that this would foon appear, if Princes would refolve, but for a few years, to pardon none. For, it is the hope of life, and argument of sparing the first offence, that incourageth these Hellhounds. And if every man prefume to be pardoned once, there is no State or Commonwealth, but these men would in a short time impovérish or destroy it.

Commandment

CHAP. IV.

from which, if men could not forbear, all furety of effate and life were taken away. fer the same death or punishment, which he fought by falfhood to lay on his brother.

The last of the ten Commandments, forbiddeth us to covet any thing, which belongeth to another man either the bodies of even those which we resist and bridle) are the r wives for concupifcence, or their goods here forbidden. For though he that bridled for delire of gain. And this Precept feemeth his evil defires, be much better than he that the hardest for men to observe; so esteemed | yieldeth unto them; yet, such a man acby reason of our frail affections; and yet, if cording to the Heathen Philosopher, is not we judg hercof rightly, it may be doubted, worthy the name of a vertuous man. For whether it extend to all our inconfiderate | Ariftotle himfelf makes Continentia, not to fancies, and vain thoughts. For, although it be vertue, but only a degree unto it; confebe not case to master all our sudden pas- sing, that though the Continent man do well fions, yet we may refrain and hinder the in bridling his evil affections, yet he dothnor growing, and farther increase, if we please all, seeing he ought not so much as to have to intend our firength, and feek for grace. them at all. Neither is it much more, that How the word Covering, reacheth to all true Divinity delivereth touching this matthose, it is to be considered. For, Concupiter: For, as he saith, that in the Continent feentra, according to some, En efficientus ha- man the having of these evil desires, though bendi appetitus ; An unbredlea, or unrestrain- he resist them, is the cause that he cannot ed appetite of having: And, as touching such be called a vertuous man: fo we, that the an appetite, we cannot excuse our selves by having of them is a fin. Onely in this weekany our natural frailty, or unadvised error; cel him here; that we are able out of Divi-But, as I suppose, the word concupiscence is nity, to give the true reason of this doctrine; more largely taken, either for a determi- which is, that every one finneth, that doth nate and unbridled evil intent, or for some not love God with his whole heart and afurging inclination thercunto. All the que- fection: whence it followeth, that the evil flion is of the later fort; which is, Allus defires of the Continent man; that is, of him imperfeelus, id est, non deliberatus ratione, que est principium proprium actus boni aut vitioli: Such passions, or inclinations are imperfeet alls, that is, not deliberated upon by reafon, which is the proper Principle of a good or vicions action. And fure, it may feem, that fo make us know, that by our faithful endealong as we refift fuch motions, they harm us not: as they fay, Quamdin refragamur, with nessour love toward himselfs we may not nocent: nocent autem cum cas dominari per- fafely give liberty to our vanities, by calling mittimus; As long as we give no affent unto back upon God (who is Justice it self) that them, it is thought by some, that they hurt us he hath given us Precepts altogether be not; and that then onely they hurt, when we youd our power, and Commandments in fuffer them to bear fivry. But these men, as possible for us to keep. For, as he is accurred it feems, make nothing forbidden in the (faith Saint Hierom) that avows that the tenth Precept, but what hath been forbid- Law is in all things possible to be observed: den in the other: for in every Command- fo he hath made this addition: Maledian Commandment might eafily be observed, it ment, not onely the outward act, but also the inward affent unto evil, though it break not out into act, is forbidden; therefore. that we may know the difference between this Commandment and the rest, the distinction of defires is to be held; that some are with affent, and unbridled; others bridled. and without affent. For, even so the Moral Philosopher can tell us that the continent man The fifth Commandment of this fecond hath evil defires, but without affent (for Table, is, the prohibition of falle witnes: they are bridled by the ftrength of right reason) as on the other side, the Incontinent hath good defires but restrained and sun-And so much did God detest a false witness, pressed by contrary passions. The evil deand a falle accuser, especially, in matters lires, when they are accompanied with as criminal, that the Law ordained him to fuffent, are in every Commandment forbidden, together with the outward act : and therefore if we will have any thing proper to this Commandment, we must needs say, that the evil desires of the continent man (that is, which bridleth them, must needs be sin: seeing such desires, though bridled, are a pulling away of a part of our heart and affection from God.

Seeing therefore it hath pleased God, to vours to keep his Commandments, we witqui dicit impossibilia Deum pracepisse; Accursed us see the inconveniences in this life, which (in themselves, and not through our fault) these Laws. impossible. Nowas the places are many which command us to keep the Law; fo is our weakness also in the Scriptures laid before us, and therefore it is thus fafely to be underfood, that we should without evasion, or without betraying of our felves, do our faithful endeavours to observe them : which if we do unfeignedly, no doubt, but God will accept our defires therein. For that there is no man just, David witnesseth : Enter net into judgment with thy servant, for in thy sight, no sless that liveth shall be justified. And in the first of Kings, There is no man that sinneth not; And again, Who can fay, I have made my heart clean? But, feeing there is no fin grievous without deliberation; let every man's bringeth therewith this disadvantage, and ill conscience judg him, whether he give way willingly, or restrain himself in all that he can, yea, or no? For when a King gives to his subject a commandment upon pain of loss of his love, to perform some service: if the subject neglecting the same feek to satisfie his Soveraign with shifting excuses, out of doubt fuch a Prince will take himself to be derided therein.

§. XIV.

If there were not any Religion, nor Judgment to come, yet the Decalogue were most necessary to be observed.

Nd if we confider advisedly, and so-A berly, of the Moral Law, or ten Commandments, which God by the hand of Moses gave unto his People, it will appear, that fuch was his merciful Providence in the choice of them, as, were there neither pain nor profit adjoyned to the observing, or not observing of them; were there no divine power at all, nor any Religion among men; yet, if we did not for our own fakes strive to observe these Laws, all Society of men, and all endeavours, all happiness and contentment in this life would be taken away, and every State and Common-weal in the World fall a bleffing: to the end that the innocent cy of State, and neceffity, hath made it death. might be defended, that every man might is he that faith, that God hath comanded things would follow by the breach and neglect of

As first, what would the issue be, if we acknowledged many gods? would not a farr greater hatred, warr, and bloud-shed follow, than that which the difference of Ceremony, and diversity of interpretation, hath already brought into the World, even among those Nations which acknowledge one God, and one Christ?

And what could it profit mankind to pray to Idols, and Images of Gold, Metal, dead Stones, and rotten Wood, whence nothing can be hoped, but the loss of time, and an impoffibility to receive thence-from, either help or comfort?

The breach of the third Commandment to man, that who oever taketh the Name of God in vain, shall not at any time benefit himself by calling God to witness for him. when he may justly use his Holy Name.

The observing the Sabbath Holy, giveth rest to Men and Beasts, and Nature her self requireth intermission from labour.

If we despise our Parents, who have given us being, we thereby teach our children, to fcorn and neglect us, when our aged years require comfort and help at their hands.

If Murther were not forbidden, and feverely punished, the race of mankind would be extinguished; and whosoever would take the liberty to destroy others, giveth liberty to others to destroy himself.

If Adultery were lawful, and permitted, no man could fay unto himfelf; This is my Son: there would be no inheritance proper, no honour descend to Posterity, no endeavour by vertue and undertaking to raife Families; murthers and poisonings between Man and Wife would be daily committed; and every man subject to most filthy and unclean Diseases.

If Stealth and violent Rapine were fuffered, all mankind would shortly after perish, or live as the Salvages, by Roots and Acorns. For no man laboureth but to enjoy the fruits thereof. And fuch is the mifto the ground and dissolve. Therefore these chief of Robbery, as where Moses for lesser Laws were not imposed as a burthen, but as crimes, appointed restitution fourfold, poli-

To permit false Witnesses, is to take all enjoy the fruits of his own travel, that right | mens lives and estates from them by corrumight be done to all men, from all men: ption; the wicked would swear against the that by Justice, Order, and Peace, we might vertuous; the waster against the wealthy; live the lives of reasonable men, and not of the idle Beggar and Loyterer, against the Beafts; of free-men, and not of flaves; of careful and painful Labourer; all trial of civil men, and not of Salvages. And hereof making our humane reason onely Judg, let banished out of the World.

The

other men, bringeth no other profit than a Nonfirmatur trable temporis, quod de jure ab diffraction of mind, with an inward vexation; for while we covet what appertains to grounded upon good right, is not made good by others, we neglect our own: our appetites continuance of time. And (faith Ulpian) quad with are therein fed with vain and fruitles hopes, ab initio viciosum est, non potest traclu tempofo long as we do but covet; and if we do at poris convolescere; Course of time amends not tain to the delire of the one, or the other, to that which was naught from the first beginning. wit, the Wives, or goods of our neighbours; For these two desences are necessary in all we can look for no other, but that our felves laws of cuftom; the one, that it be not reshall also, either by theft or by strong hand, pugnant to the law Divine, and Natural; the be deprived of our own.

The second Book of the first Part

them, but rules and directions for the ge- which is againft the law, had its beginning neral and particular good of all living? from evil deeds, and therefore not without Surely, for our own good, and not in respect the former considerations to be allowed. And of himself, did the most merciful and provi- it is true, that all customs of this nature, were dent God ordain them; without the obser- but tollerated for a time, by the law-maker, vation of which, the vertues of heavenly though they have been fince continued; bebodies, the fertility of the earth, with all cause posterity is not bound to examine by the bleflings given us in this life, would be what cause their Ancestors were thereto unto us altogether unprofitable, and of no moved. For, Non fufficit fimplex toleratio. And use. For we should remain but in the state it is in this fort over-ruled in the law; Per poof brute Beafts, if not in a farr more unhap- | pulum consueinelo contra legem induci non popy condition.

§. X V.

Of humane law, written, and unwritten.

"Umane law, of which now it followeth to speak, is first divided into two (viz.) Written, and unwritten. The unwritten confifts of usage, approved by time; which Isidore calls Mores; and he defines Mores to be which humane actions are ruled and direct-Consuetudines vetustate probate; to be cufloms approved by antiquity, or unwritten lanes, the advisement of wife men, and the reftraint Now cuftom differeth from use, as the cause from the effect; in that custom is by use and ignorantly. Isidore calls the law, a Continuicontinuance established into a law, but yet on written, agreeing with Religion, sutest

tures, containing innumerable particulars; All that flands with reason. the first are written customs, received and Lastly, and more precisely, it is thus defined on exercifed by Nations, as the cultons of Eur-Humane law is a righteous decree, agreeing 74. gundy and Normandy, the antient general cu- with the law natural and eternal; made by any from of England, and the customs of Castile, the rational discourse of those, that exercises and other Provinces.

in particular Places, Cities, Hundreds, and ought to be a righteous decree, S. Augustine Mannors. The general or National cuftoms teacheth, faying, Mihi lex effe non videtur que are some written, others unwritten.

dom written, but witneffed by testimony of except it agree with the law natural and the inhabitance. The custom of the Dnichie eternal. For there is no law just and legitof Cornvall, comprehending also the Stanna- mate (saith S. Angustine) which the Law In Reg. 19 of Devon, as touching Tinn, and Tinn causes makers have not derived from the eternal are written in Devon, but not in Cornwall. Nibil justum atque legitimum est, quod non ab tal But howsoever, use and time hath made aterna lege sibi komines derivaverunt. these customs as laws, yet ought every cu-

The covering of that which belongs to | stom to be rationabilis, as well as prescripta. other, that the cause and reason bestrong, Wherein then appeareth the burthen of proving a right birth, and necessary conti-Gods Commandments, if there be nothing in mance; it being manifeft, that every cuftom test, nisi de voluntate illius qui novam legem & novam constitutionem statuere potest, qui solus princeps eft; The people cannot bring in a new custom against law, save by his will, who hath power to make a new law and ordinance, which is only the Prince.

Humane law, generally taken, to wit, humane law written, is by some defined to be the decree or doom of practick reason; by ed. Papinian calls the law a common precept, of offences committed, either willingly or there, where the law is defective, faith Islave. for government and common profit; And And of cultoms there are two general na- more largely, Omne id quod ratione conflit;

publick authority; prescribing necessary The second are these petty customs, used observances to the subject. That every iaw justa non fuerit; It seems to be no law at all to The particular or petty customs are sel- | me, which is not just; and just it cannot be,

Secondly, it ought to be constituted by discourse of reason, whereby it is distin- Nations do not agree in or easily assent unto taken and deduced.

especially answering these four conditions in that is, the Civil Law. the former definition. First, as it is drawn | The law now commonly called the Civil out of the law of Nature; fo every particu- Law, had its birth in Rome; and was first writsome principle or rule of the natural.

of Nations, and the Civil.

principles of the Scriptures, and other divine | The difference antiently between Laws and the Natural, sometime of the Humane.

guilhed from the law natural, to wit, the na- because they depend on particular circumtural, demonstrable, or needing no demon- stances, which are divers, and do not fit all stration, from whence the law humane is Estates. Hereof Ulpian, Juscivile neque in token and deduced.

Thirdly, that it ought to be made by an interest it in aque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, I file omnia ci servit: itaque cum aliquid addimus ci servit: itaque cum aliquid authorifedMagistracy, it cannot be doubted, | vel detrahimus juri communi, jus proprium, jur. he the government of what kind foever. id ift, Civili efficients; The civil Law (faith he) For it falleth otherwise under the title of doth neither wholly differ from the law of Nathose decrees called Violentia, or iniqua con- ture and Nations, nor yet in all points obey it: litutiones; Violences, or wicked constitutions. therefore, when we add ought to, or take from Of humane law there are four properties, the law that is common, we make a law proper,

lar of the humane law may be refolved into ten by the Decem-viri, 303. years after the foundation of the City. It was compounded Secondly, it is to be confidered as it is re- as well out of the Athenian and other Greciferredunto, and doth respect, the common an laws, as out of the antient Roman customs and laws Regal. The Regal laws were de-Thirdly, it is to be made by publick au- vised by the first Kings, and called Leges Regia.or Papyriana, because they were gather-Fourthly, concerning the matter of the ed by Papyrius, Tarquin then raigning. For, Dion. Had. law, it prescribeth and directeth all humane though so many of the former laws as mainactions. And so is the law as large and divers, tained Kingly authority, were abolished as all humane actions are divers, which may with the name; yet those of Servius Tullius, fall under it. For according to Thomas. Alia for commerce and contracts, and all that lex Julia de Adulteriis, alia Cornelii de Sicari- appertained to Religion and common Utiis; The law of Julian against Adultery, is one the lity, were continued, and were a part of the Cornelian against Ruffians, is another. Now, laws of the twelve Tables. To these laws c. Signon. the humane law generally taken is in respect of the twelve Tables, were added (as the of Pownof these considerations, divided into the law times gave occasion) those made by the Se-penius. nate, called Senatus-consulta: those of the

The law of Nations is taken less or more common people, called Plebei-scita, those of properly; less properly for every law which the Lawyers, called Responsa-prudentum; is not of it felf, but from other higher prin- and the Edicts of the Annual Magistrate; ciples deduced : and so it seemeth that Olpi- which Edicts being first gathered and interan understands it: for he defineth Jus Genti- preted by Julian, and presented to Adrian um, or the law of Nations, to be that which is the Emperor, they were by him confirmed, only common amongst men, as Religion, and and made perpetual laws, and the Volume the Worship of God; which is not in the ve- styled, Edictum perpetuum; as those and the ry nature of this law of Nations; but from the like collections of Justinian afterward were.

Revelations. But the law of Nations proper- Edicts, which the French call Reglements, ly taken, is that dictate, or fentence, which is consisted in this, that laws are the Constitudrawn from a very probable, though not tions made or confirmed by Soveraign Aufrom an evident principle, yet so probable, thority (be the soveraignty in the People, in that all Nations do affect unto the conclusi- a few, or in one) and are withall general and on, as that the free passage of Ambassadors be permanent: but an Edict (which is but granted between enemies, &c. which Nati- Jusjum Magistratus, unless by authority it be onal law, according to divers acceptations, made a Law) hath end with the officer, who and divers confiderations had of the humane made the same, saith Varro. Qui plurimum law, may be sometime taken for a Species of Edicto tribuunt, legem annuam esse dicunt; They who ascribe the most to an Edict, say that Juscivile, or the civil Law, is not the same it is a law for one year: Though Midore doth in all Common-wealths, but in divers Estates also express by the word Constitutions or it is also divers and peculiar, and this law is Edicts, those Ordinances called Acts of not so immediately derived from the law of Prerogatives; as, Constitutio, vel Edictum est Nature, as the law of Nations is: For, it is quod Rex, vel Imperator constituit, vel edipartly deduced out of fuch principles, as all cit; An Ordinance or Edict is that which

a King

228

Lastly, the humane Law is divided into the isby the antient custom of England, that the Secular, and into the Ecclesiafical, or Canon. eldest Sons should inherit without partition. The Secular commanding temporal good, to In Germany, France, and elsewhere otherwit, the Peace and tranquility of the Com- wife, and by partition. In Ireland, it is the mon-weal; the Ecclesiafical, the spiritual custom of all Lands (that have not been good, and right government of the Ecclefire refigned into the Kings hands) that the elaftical Common-wealth, or Church: Illud na- deft of the House shall enjoy the Inheriture legem, hoc divinam spettat; That respett-tance during his own life; and so the eth the law of Nature, this the Law of Good. Second and third eldest (if there be so ma-And so may Jus Civile be taken two ways; ny brothers) before the Heir in linealde-First, as diftinguished from the law of Nari- scent; this is called the custom of Tanifry. ons, as in the first division: Secondly, as it is For example, if a Lord of Land have four the same with the Secular, and diverse from Sons, and the eldest of those four have also the Ecclesiastical. But this division of the a Son, the three brothers of the eldest Son School-men is obscure. For although the Ci- shall, after the death of their brother, envilbe the same with the Secular, as the Civil joy their Fathers Lands before the grandis a law, yet the Secular is more general, and child: the custom being grounded upon comprehendeth both the Civil, and all other the reason of necessity. For the Iris in forlaws not Ecclesiastical. For of Secular laws in mer times, having always lived in a subuse among Christian Princes, and in Christian divided civil Warr, not onely the greatest Common-weals, there are three kinds; the against the greatest, but every Baron and Civil, which hath every where a voice, and Gentleman one against another, were enis in all Christian Estates (England excepted) forc'd to leave successors of age and abimost powerful; the laws of England, called lity, to defend their own Territories. Now, Common, and the laws of cuftom, or Provin- as in Normandy, Eurgundy, and other Procial. In Spain, befieles the law Civil, they vinces of France, there are certain peculiar have the customs of Castil, and other Pro- and petty Customs, besides the great and we praise, approve, and by our Kingly Authority approbation of the People confirmed. confirm. The Common Law of England is other fmall Courts. approved by the Kings thereof from Age comprehends in two; to wit, obligation, to Age: as that custom by which no man and instigation: the former binds us by fear, shall be taken, imprisoned, disseised, nor to avoid vice; the later encourageth with otherwise destroy d, but he must first be put hope, to follow vertue. For, according to to answer by the Law of the Land, was con-

a King or Emperour doth ordain, or proclaim. firmed by the Statute of Magna Charta. It vinces. In France, belides the Civil, the general cultom of the Land, so are there in customs of Burgundy, Bloys, Berri, Nivernois, England, and in every part thereof. But the and Lodunois, &c. Tous liez situes & assis en greatest bulk of our Laws, as I take it, are Lodunois, feront governez selon les costumes du the Acts of Parliament; Laws propounded dit pays; All places lying within the precinits and approved by the three Estates of the of Lodunois, Stall be governed according to the Realm, and confirmed by the King, to the customs of that place. There are also in France obedience of which, all men are therefore the customs of Normandy, and these of two bound, because they are Ads of choice, and kinds; General, and Local; and all purged and felf-defire. Leges nulla alia cansa nos tenent, reformed by divers Acts of the three Estates. quam quod judicio populi recepte sunt; The The Charters of confirmation of these and Laws do therefore bind the Subject, because wife tient cultons, before and fince their refor- they are received by the judgment of the Sub in mation have these words: Nos autem Regi- jest. Tum demum humana leges habent vim Again frum prædictum, usus laudabiles, & consue- suam, cum fuerint non modò institute, sed tudines antiquas, &c. laudamus, approbamus, etiam firmate approbatione communitatis, Il case of authoritate Regia confirmamus, The Regifier aforesaid laudable use and antient costs. fler aforefaid, laudable use, and antient customs, when they shall not onely be devised, but by the state of the state of Isidore fastneth these properties to every also compounded of the antient cultoms of christian Law, that the same be honest, that the same, and of certain Maxims by those it be possible, that it be according to Nacustoms of the Realm approved. Upon ture, and according to the custom of the which customs also are grounded those Countrey; also for the time and place, con-Courts of Record, of the Chancery, Kings venient, profitable, and manifest; and with Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer, with out respect of private profit, that it be witten for the general good. He also gives These antient customs of England have been four effects of the Law, which Modellins tricem, commendatricemque virtutum: It be- lex facit ut ipfe fit Rex; Rightfully ought the or binding us to the observation of things that doth make Kings, commanded, or forbidden, is an effect commonto all laws; and it is two-fold: the one to the humane law, he is therein miltaken. constraineth us by fear of our consciences, For Kings are made by God, and laws dithe other by fear of external punishment. vine; and by humane laws onely, declared These two effects the Law performeth, by to be Kings. As for the places remembred coactive and Directive.

end of the Law, to make men vertuous. For compt of their actions to God onely. laws being fuch as they ought to be, do both by prescribing and forbidding, urge us to onely have I sinned; therefore the Prince Plates well-doing; laying before us the good and the evil by the one and the other purchased. And this power affirmative commanding are those into which the law is divided, as touching the matter: and in which David comprehendeth the whole body and subflance thereof: faying Declina à malo, & fac bonum, Decline from evil and do good.

6. X V I.

That onely the Prince is exempt from humane laws, and in what fort.

?Ow, whether the power of the humane Law be without exception of any perought to be subject, but not to that which constraineth. For, as touching violence, or punishments, no man is bound to give a prejudicial judgment against himself; and, if much less have inferiours over their superiours, from whom they receive their authority and strength.

And speaking of the supreme power of Laws, simply then is the Prince so much above the laws as the Soul and Body united, is above a dead and sensies Carkais. For by necessity of compulsion, but the Prince only by the King is truly called, Jus vivum, & lex his own will, and regard of the common good. animata: An animate, and living law. But of Braston out of Justinian; Merito debet hooveth the Law to be a mender of Vices, and a King to attribute that to the law, which the law commender of Vertue. The part obligatory, first attributeth to the King; for it is the law

But whereas Bracton ascribeth this power the exercise of those two powers, to wit, by the Divines and Lawyers, which inferra kind of obligation of Princes, they teach no The second of these two effects remem- other thing therein, than the bond of conbred by Modestinus, is Instigation, or incou- science, and profit arising from the examples ragement to Vertue, as Ariftotle makes it the of vertuous Princes, who are to give an ac-Tibi foli peccavi, faith David; against thee cannot be faid to be subject to the law; Leg. Princeps non subjicitur legi. For seeing, according to the school-men, the law humane, good, and power negative forbidding evil, is but quoddam organum, & instrumentum potestatis gubernativa: non videtur posse eius obligatio ad cum se extendere, ad quem ipsa vis potestatis humana non pertinet; sed vis potestatis humanæ non se extendit ad gubernatorem in quo illa residet. Ereo, neque lex condita per talem potestatem obligare potest ipsum conditorem. Omnis enim potentia activa, est principium transmutandi aliud; Seeing bumane law (fay they) is but a kind of organ, or instrument of the power that governeth, it feems that it cannot extend it felf to bind any one whom no humane power can controll or lay hold of : but the Governour himself, in whom fon, it is doubtfully disputed among those | the governing power doth reside, is a person that that have written of this subject, as well cannot by himself, or by his own power, be con-Divines as Lawyers; and namely, whether | trolled. And therefore the law which is made Soveraign Princes be compellable; yea, or by such a power, cannot bind the Law-maker no? But whereas there are two powers of himself: for every active ability, is a cause or the Law, as aforesaid; the one Directive, the principle of alteration in another body, not in other Coadive: to the power Directive they | the body in which it felf refides. And feeing Princes have power to deliver others from the obligation of the law; Ergo, etiam potest Greg. Vaipsemet Princeps, sive Legislator sua se voluntate lensia de pro libito ab obligatione legis liberare; There-Leg. equals have not any power over each other, fore also may a Prince, or Law-maker, at his own will and pleasure, deliver himself from the bond of the Law. Therefore in the rules of the Law it is thus concluded: Subditi tenentur leges observare necessitate coactionis. Princeps

Now, concerning the politick laws, given this is true, that by giving authority to laws, by Moses to the Nation of the Israelites, Princes both add greatness to themselves, whether they ought to be a President, from and conserve it; and therefore was it said which no civil Institutions of other People should presume to digress, I will not pre-Rex tribuere legi quod lex attribuit ei : nam sume to determine, but leave it as a questi-vero sola voluntate sua, & intuitu boni communis; The subjects are bound to fulfill the Law

CHAP. V.

may be bold to affirm, That we ought not to meetly Ecclefiastical, and therefore the Jes feem wifer than God himfelf, who hath told us, that there are no laws forighteous, as those which it pleased him to give to his Elect that prepareth his whole heart to seek the People to be governed by. True it is, that all Nations have their feveral qualities, wherein they differ, even from their next borderers, no less than in their peculiar Languages; which disagreeable conditions to govern aptly, one and the fame law very hardly were able. The Roman civil laws Moses do partly bind and partly are let free. did indeed contain in order a great part of They do not hold affirmatively, that we are the then known World, without any notable inconvenience, after such time as once now, which was inflicted then; but negait was received and become familiar; yet tively they do hold, that now the punishwas not the administration of it alike in all parts, but yielded much unto the natural ed, where sentence of death is given by customs of the fundry people which it governed. For, whether it be through a long | Chrift the Prince of peace, that is, of Clemen-1/6.5 continued persuasion; or (as Astrologers more willingly grant) fome influence of Moses law, and mitigate the punishment of the Heavens; or, peradventure, some tem- death, but they cannot add unto it, to make per of the foil and climate, affording mat- the burthen more heavie: for to shew more ter of provocation to vice (as plenty make rigour than Mofes, becometh not the Gofpel. the Sybarites luxurious; want, and opportunity to fteal, makes the Arabians to be gument, which hath been the subject of ma-Thiever) very hard it were to forbid by ny learned discourses, neither will I take law, an offence to common with any people, upon me, to speak any thing definitively in a as it wanted a name, whereby to be diftinguilhed from just and honest. By such rigour was the Kingdom of Congo unhappily diverted from the Christian Religion, which it willingly at the first imbraced, but after, that the defence of it hath always been vewith great fury rejected, because plurality of Wives was denied unto them, I know not how necessarily, but more conscientioully than feafonably. In fuch cases, methinks it were not amils to confider, that science of a Judg may rest, with equal saif to the Israelites, rather in regard of their sentence upon doubts arising out of any law natural disposition (for they were hardon for fuch men to decide, whose protes the rigour of Moses law required; even as fions give them greater ability. Thus much 1 the good King Hezekiah did, in a matter capable of dispensation, praying for the people; The good Lord be mercifull unto him, Lord God, the God of his Fathers, though he be not cleanfed according to the purification of the Sanctuary; which Prayer the Lord heard and granted.

To this effect it is well observed by Mr. Doctor Willet, that the moral Judicials of tied to the same severity of punishment ment of death should not be adjudg-Moles; Christian Magistrates ruling under cy and Mercy, may abate of the severity of

But I will not wander in this copious arcase which dependeth still in some controversie among worthy Divines. Thus much (as in honour of the Judicial law, or rather of him that gave it) I may well and truly fay, ry plaufible. And furely, howfoever they be not accepted (neither were it expedient) as a general and onely law; yet shall we hardly find any other ground, wheron the conthe high God himself permitted some thing saction in making interpretation, or giving besides it. Hereof, perhaps, that Judg could hearted) than because they were consonant have been witness, of whom Fortesiae, that unto the antient Rules of the first perfection. notable Bulwark of our laws, doth speak, So, where even the general nature of man complaining of a judgment given against a doth condemn (as many things it doth) for Gentlewoman at Salisbury, who being accuwicked and unjust; there may the law, sed by her own man, without any other given by Mose, worthly be deemed the proof, for murthering her Husband, was most exact reformer of the evil, which for- thereupon condemned, and burnt to allies: ceth man, as near as may be, to the will the man who accused her, within a year afand pleasure of his Maker. But where nater, being convict for the same offence, conture or custom hath entertained a vicious, fest that his Mistris was altogether innocent yet not intolerable habit, with fo long and of that cruel fact, whose terrible deathhe then (though over-late) grievoufly lament poling it would feem as uncourth, as it were ed; but this Judg, faith the same Author, to walk naked in England, or to wear the Sapius ipfe mihi fassus oft, quod nunquamin cost English fashion of apparel in Turkie; there vita sua animum ejus de bac facto ipje purga may be a wise and upright Law-giver, ret; He himself often confessed unto me; that without prefumption, omit fomewhat that be should never, during his life, be able to clear his conscience of that fact. Wherefore, that fear is the beginning of Wisdom. To which acknowledgment which other Sciences yield purpose, well faith Saint Augustine, Condiunto the Metaphylicks, that from thence are tor legum temporalium fi vir bonus eft, drawn Propositions, able to prove the prin- sapiens, illam ipsam consult aternam, de qua ceptes of Sciences, which out of the Scien-ces themselves cannot be proved, may just of temporal Laws, if he be good and wife, ly be granted by all other politick institu-doth therein consult the Law eternal, to detions, to that of Moses; and so much the termine of which, there is no power given to more justly, by how much the subject of the any soul. And as well Prince Edward, in Metaphysicks which is, Ens quatenus Ens; Forteseue his Discourse, Nemo potest melius, Being as it is being; is infinitely inferiour ant alind fundamentum ponere, quam positi to the Ens Entium; The Being of beings, the Dominus; No man can lay a better, or another onely good, the fountain of Truth, whose foundation, than the Lord hath laid.

CHAP. V.

The Story of the Israelites from the receiving of the Law, to the death of Moses.

Of the numbring and disposing of the Host of Israel, for their marches through the Wilderness with a note of the reverence given to the Worship of God, in this ordering of their troups.

from God, and pub- of greatest dignity. LORD, such Princes and Leaders, as in camped on the South-side of the Tabernacle. Worth and Reputation were in every The third Army marched under the Stan-Tribe most eminent. The number of the dard of Ephraim, to whom were joyned the of three whole Tribes.

The first of these containing 186400. able the Tribe of Judab were 74600. fighting men, led by Naasson; in Islachar, 54400. led by Nathaniel; in Zabulon 57400 led by Eliab. ezer; Asper 41500. under Pagiel; Nepktali All these marched under the Standard of the 53400. under Abira. Tribe of Judah, who held the Vaunt-guard, and was the first that moved and march.

Tribes, there were ordained Captains over Tribes, there were ordained Captains over

Hen Moses had re-|general encamping on the East-side of the ceived the Law Army, which was held the first place, and lished it among the The second Battalion or Army, called in People, and finished the Scriptures, the host of Reuben, had joynthe Tabernacle of the Ark, and Santhuary; cd unto it Simeon and Gad, in number, he mustred all the Tribes and Families of 151450. All which marched under the Stan-Ifrael; and having seen what number of Men dard of Reuben. In the Tribe of Reuben were ht to bear Arms, were found in every Tribe, 46500. under Elizar; in Simeon, 59300. from twenty years of age upwards; he ap- under shelumiel; in Gad, 45650. under Eliapointed unto them, by direction from the Japh: These had the second place, and en-whole Army was 603550, able men for the Regiment of Manasse and Benjamin; who Warrs, besides Women and Children; also, joyned together, made in number 108100. besides the strangers which followed them able men. These marched in the third out of Egypt. This great Army was divided place, encamping on the West quarter of the by Moses into four gross and mighty Battali- Tabernacle. Ephraim had 40500. under Elilions, each of which contained the strength shama; Manasse 32200. under Gamliel; Benjamin 35400. under Abidam.

The fourth and last Army, or Squadron, Men, confifted of three Regiments, which of the general Army, containing 157600. may well, in respect of their number, be cal- able men, marched under the Standard of led Armies; as containing the three whole Dan; to whom were joyned the two Tribes Tribes of Judah, Isachar and Zabulon. In of Nephtali and Asher. And these had the ed, being lodged and quartered at their Thousands, over Hundreds, over Fifties, and

CHAP. V.

and infurrection against Moses; Numb. 16. verse 1. and 2. For there arose up against Moses 250. Captains of the Assembly, famous and between him and the Tabernacle, in in the Congregation, and men of renown; of number 86cc. The third Company were of which number were Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. Which three principal Mutineers, with manded, in number 6200. and these were those 250. Captains that followed them, lodged on the North-side, within the Army were not any of the Princes of the Tribes or of Dan. On the East-fide, and next within general Colonels before spoken of, as by those Tribes and Forces which Judah led, their names, Numb. 1. is made manifest.

of the Land of Promife, and other things of the People; under whom, as the chief of all more consequence, long after following; but the other Levitical Families, was Eleazar, even in forting them under their feveral the fon of Aaron, his successor in the high Standards in the Wilderness it was observed. Priest-hood. For Judah had the precedency, and the greatest Army, which also was wholly compounded of the Sons of Leah, Jacob's Wife. Tabernacle being always fet in the middle Reuben having loft his birth-right, followed and center thereof. The reverend care in the second place, accompanied with his which Mases the Prophet, and chosen servant brother Simeon, who had under-gone his of God, had in all that belonged even to Fathers curse; and with Gad, the Son of his the outward and least parts of the Taber-Mothers Hand-maid. Joseph, who, in tempo- nacle, Ark, and Sanctuary, witnessed well ral bleflings, had the prerogative of the first- the inward and most humble zeal born toborn, a double portion, was accompted as wards God himself. The industry used in two Tribes, and divided into two Regi- the framing thereof, and every, and the least ments; the younger (according to Jacob's part thereof; the curious workmanship prophecy) taking place before the elder, he thereon bestowed; the exceeding charge was affifted by Benjamin, his best beloved and expence in the provisions; the dutiful brother, the other fon of Rachel. To Dan, the observance in the laying up, and preserving eldest son of Jacob's Concubines, was given the holy Vessels; the solemn removing therethe leading of the fourth Army, according to Jacob's prophecy. He had with him under his Standard, none of the children of Leah, or Rackel, but only the fons of the Hand-maids.

the Tabernacle, or portable Temple of the Congregation carried, furrounded by the Levites. Near unto which, as the Heathens of these four powerful Armies which guardwere dedicated to the fervice and attendance thereof: of which, 8580. had the peculiar charge, according to their feveral ofare written in the third and fourth of Numbers. And as the Armies of the People obferved the former order in their incampings: Army, and Standard of Ephraim, over whom pear to the simple multitude, no less variable over Tens; as it may appear by that mutiny | Eliasaph commanded, in number, 7,500. The Family of Cobath on the South-fide, guided by Elizaphan, within the Army of Reuben. the Family of Merari over whom Zuriel comdid Moses and Aaron lodge, and their chil-The bleffing which Israel gave to his dren, who were the first and immediate children, took place not only in the division Commanders, both of Ceremonies, and of

This was the order of the Army of Ifrael, and of their encamping and marching; the of; the vigilant attendance thereon, and the provident defence of the same, which all Ages have in some degree imitated, is now so forgotten and cast away in this super-fine In the middle of these four Armies, was Age, by those of the Family, by the Anabaytift, Brownist, and other Sectaries, as all colt and care bestowed and had of the Church, wherein God is to be ferved and worshipand Pagans could not approach, by reason | ped, is accompted a kind of Popery, and as proceeding from an Idolatrous disposition; ed the same; so was it death for any of the insomuch as time would soon bring to pass children of Ifrael to come near it, who were (if it were not refifted) that God would be not of the Levites, to whom the charge was turned out of Churches into Barns, and from committed. So facred was the movable thence again into the Fields, and Mountains, Temple of God, and with such reverence and under the Hedges, and the offices of guarded and transported, as 22000. persons the Ministery (robbed of all dignity and re-(pect) be as contemptible as those places; all Order, Discipline, and Church-government, left to newness of Opinion, and mens fancies; fices and functions; the particulars whereof yea, and foon after, as many kinds of Religions would spring up, as there are Parish Churches within England; every contentious and ignorant person clothing his fancy fo did the Lewites quarter themselves, as in with the Spirit of God, and his imagination an inner square, on every side of the Taber- with the gift of Revelation; infomuch, as nacle; the Gesturites on the West, within the when the Truth, which is but one, shall apthan contrary to it felf, the Faith of men will | Cups, to 120. shekels of gold; which makes him to becom a Lutheran; Si me adjungo sed quid sequar, non habeo: If I adjoin my self

6. II.

The offerings of the twelve Princes: the Paßover of the second year: the departing of Jethro.

Ow, when Moses had taken order for all things necessary, provided for the fervice of God, written the laws, numbred his Army, and divided them into the battels and troups before remembred, and appointed them Leaders of all forts; The twelve Princes of Commanders of the Tribes, brought their offerings before the Lord, to wit, fix covered Chariots, and twelve Oxen to draw them, therein to transport, as they marched, the parts of the Tabernacle, with all that belonged thereunto, the Sanctuary excepted, which for reverence was carried upon the shoulders of the Sons of Korah, to whom the charge was committed; and the Chariots, in which was conveyed the other parts of the Tabernacles and Vessels thereto belonging, were delivered to the Levites for that service, namely, to the fons of Gershan and Merari.

Besides these Chariots, each of these Commanders, Princes, or Heads of Tribes, offerthe hemotopic friends of frinces, offer-bosonic ded unto God, and for his fervice in the lighth Temple, a Charger of fine Silver, weighing four 130. flekels; a filver Bowl of 70. flekels, 2500 after the flekel of the Sanctuary; and an offering friends after the flekel of the flekels, which the third they performed at the same time when the strength Altar was dedicated unto God by Aaron; and before they marched from Sinai towards their conquest, besides the Beasts wards their conquest, besides the Beasts they which they offered for facrifice, according maded, to the law Gremonial, the weight of all the law flower Chargers, and twelve silver flower flow Bowls, amounted unto 2400, means of means, ver; and the weight of gold in the Incenfe-Bowls, amounted unto 2400. shekels of sil-

Some yet; and the weight of government stele is but half as the state of silver is about ?. Groats, the common stele is but half as the state of the bous to prove that the common, and the Sanctuary Sittle were all one, 9,5. Namb. 10, 11. Exid. ult. 34. Nam. 9. 17.

foon after die away by degrees, and all Re- of shekels of silver, 1200. every shekel of ligion be held in scorn and contempt. Which gold valuing ten of filver, so that the whole distraction gave a great Prince of Germany of gold and filver which they offered at this cause of this Answer to those that persuaded time, was about four hundred and twenty pound sterling. This done, Moses, as in all nobis, tunc condemnor ab aliis: si me aliis ad- the rest, by the Spirit of God conducted, jungo, à volis condemnor; quid fugiam video, gave order for the celebrating of the Puliover, which they performed on the fourto you, I am condemned by others; If I joyn teenth day of the second Moneth of the sewith others, I am condemned by you: what I could year; and on the twentieth day of the should avoid I see, but I see not what I should same, the cloud was lifted up from above the Tabernacle, as a fign of going forward; Moses beginning his march with this invocation to God: Rise up, Lord, and let thine enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee; flie before thee. Then all the people of Ifrael removed from their encamping at the foot of the Mountain Sinai, towards Paran, the Army, or great fquadron of Juda, led by Naalbon, taking the Vaunt-guard, followed by Nathaniel and Eliah. Leaders of the Tribes of Islachar and Zabulon; after whom the rest marched, as in the Figure express'd. And because the passage through so many Desarts and Mountains, was exceeding difficult: Mofes leaving nothing un-forethought, which might serve for the advancement of his enterprise, he instantly intreated his Father-in. law, whom, in the tenth of Numbers, he calleth Hobab, to accompany them in their journey towards Canaan; promiting him fuch part and profit of the enterprife, as God should bestow on them; for this man, as he was of great understrnding and judgment (as appeared by the counsel he gave to Moses for the appointing of Judges over the People) so was he a perfect guide in all those parts, himself inhabiting on the frontier thereof, at Midian or Madian: and (as it feemeth) a man of great years and experience; for he was then the Priest or Prince of Madian, when Mofes fled first out of Egypt, and married his Daughter, which was 42: years before this request made. And though Moses himself had lived 40. years in these parts of Arabia, through which he was now to travel; yet the better to affure his paffage, and so great a multitude of fouls, which could not be so few as a Million, it was necesfary to use many guides, and many conductors. To this request of Moser, it may feem by the places, Exod. 18. 27. and Numb. 10.30. that Jethro, otherwise called Hobab, yielded Judie 1; not; for it is evident, that he went back 1. Alo from Moses into his own Countrey. But be- 1 Sam. 15. cause it appeareth by other places of Scri- 6. And prure, that the Posterity of this Hobab was 15. mingled with the Israelites, it is most likely 1 chron.; that this his return to his own Countrey, was Jer. 33.

rather

take his leave of his own Country, by fetting things in order, than to abide there.

6. III.

The Voyage from Horeb to Kades; the Mutinies by the way; and the cause of their turning back to the Red Sea.

Fter this dismission of Hobab, Israel be-A gan to march towards the defarts of Paran; and after three days wandring, they fate down at the sepulchres of lust, afterward called Tabeera, or Incensio; by reason that God multitude (Jossa and Caleb excepted) who confumed with fire those Mutineers and Murmurers, which rose up in this remove, which hapned about the 23.day of the same Moneth. And from this 23 day of the second Moneth of the second year, they rested, and fed themselves with Quails (which it pleased God by a Sea-wind to cast upon them) to the 24 day of the third Moneth; to wit, all the they threatned to stone these encourages Moneth of Sinan, or June; whereof furfeiting, there died great numbers; from whence desperate in themselves, or betrayers of the Numb. 11. in the following Moneth, called Thamus, anand 13. Iwering to our July, they went on to Hazeroth, where Miriam the fifter of Moses was these wicked purposes, and interposing the ftricken with the leprofie, which continued fear of his bright glory between the unadupon her seven days, after whose recovery Israel removed toward the border of Idumea, and encamped at Rithma, near Kades Barnea, from whence Moses sent the twelve discoverers into the Territory of Canaan, both to inform themselves of the fertility and ftrength of the Countrey; as also to take knowledg of the ways, passages, rivers, fords and Mountains. For Arad King of the Canaanites, surprized divers companies of the Israelites, by lying in ambush near those ways, wrath of God was turned against Israel; whose ingratitude and rebellion after his so many benefits, fo many remissions, so many miracles wrought, was fuch, as they efteemed their deliverance from the Egyptian slavery, his feeding them, and conducting them through that great and terrible Wilderness (for fo Moses calleth it) with the Victory which he gave them against the powerful Amalekites, to be no other than the effects of his hatred, thinking that he led them on, and preserved them, but to bring them, their Wives and Children to be flaughtered, and given for a prey and spoile to the Amorites, or Canaanites. For, it was reported unto them by the searchers of the Land, that the Cities of their enemies were walled and miles, which have never been frustrate.

rather to fetch away his Family, and to defended with many ftrong Towers and Castles, that many of the people were Giantlike (for they confess'd that they faw the Sons of Anac there) who were men of fearful stature, and so far over-topped the Ifraelites, as they appeared to them and to themselves, but as Grashoppers in their respect. Now, as this mutiny exceeded all the rest, wherein they both accused God, and consulted to choose them a Captain (or as they call it now aday, an Eletto) to carry them back again into Egypt; so did God punish the same in a greater measure, than any of the former. For he extinguished every Soul of the whole being confident in Gods promises, persuaded the people to enter Canaan, being then near it; and at the mountain foot of Idumaa, which is but narrow; laying before them the fertility thereof, and affuring them of Victory. But as men whom the paffion of fear had ry. But as men whom the pathotrof leaf had bereaved both of reason and common sense, 10, to death; accompting them as men either lives, goods, and children of all their brethren, to their enemies; but God resisted vised fury of the multitude, and the innocency & conftancy of his fervants, preferved them thereby from their violence; threatning an entire destruction of the whole Na- North tion, by fending among them a confuming 21. and merciles Pestilence. For this was the tenth insurrection and rebellion, which they had made, fince God delivered them from the flavery of the Egyptians. But Moses (the mildest or meekest of all men) prayed unto God to remember his infinite mercies; allegthrough which the discoverers and searchers ing, that this so severe a judgment, how deof the Land had formerly palt. Now, after | fervedly foever inflicted, would increase the the return of the discoverers of Kades, the pride of the heathen Nations, and give them occasion to vaunt, that the God of Ifrael failing in power to perform his promises, suffered them to perish in these barren and fruit less Desarts. Yet, as God is no less just than merciful, as God is flow to anger, fo is his wrath a confuming fire; the same being once kindled by the violent breath of man's ingratitude: and therefore, as with a hand less heavie than hoped for, he scourged this iniquity; so by the measure of his glory (evermore jealous of neglect and derifion) he fuffered not the wicked to pass unpunished;referving his compassion for the innocent; whom, because they participated not with the offences of their Fathers, he was pleased to preserve, and in them to perform his pro-

6. IV.

Of their unwillingness to return; with the punishment thereof, and of divers accidents in the return.

them, after they had so often plaid and offer to enter the Land, contrary again Sun and Moon in after-times, it is proved e.g. v. 4. to the advice of Moses; who assured them out of fundry other places. that God was not among them; and that the Ark of his Covenant should not move,

Now, after the broken Companies were 33.3. returned to the Camp at Cades, Moses, accord- Hier. 19. but by his direction, who could not err; ing to the commandment received from v.13,8c. and that the Enemies fword, which God God, departed towards the South from had hitherto bended, and rebated, was whence he came to recover the shoars of the now left no less sharp than death; and in Red Sea. And so from Cades, or Rithma, he fordan, there were confumed eight and thirty years; and the whole number of the 600. and odd thousand, which came out of Egypt (Moses, Josua, and Caleb excepted) were dead in the Wilderness, the stubborn and careless generations were wholly worn out, Ow, when Moses had revealed the purposes of God to the People, and children; which were increased to 600000. made them know his heavie displeasure and more. For, besides the double fault. towards them, they began to bewail them- both of refusing to enter the Land upon the felves, though over-late; the times of grace return of their discoverers, and the presumand mens repentance, having also their ap- ption then to attempt it, when they were pointment. And then when God had left countermanded: it seemeth that they had them to themselves, and was no more among committed that horrible Idolatry of worflipping Moloch, and the Host of Heaven. Amoss. dallied with his merciful fufferings, they For, although Mofes doth not mention it, yet Jan, 42. would needs amend their former disobe- Amos doth, and so doth the Martyr Stephen 5 1 King. 17. dience by a fecond contempt, and make as also that the Israelites worshipped the 16.8 cap.

the hands of the Amalekites and Cana- removed to Remmonparez, so called of abunanites, no less cruel. But as men from dance of Pomegranates there found, and diwhom God hath with-drawn his Grace, do vided among them. From whence he went always follow those counsels which carry on to Libnah, taking that name of the them to their own destructions: so the He- Frankincense there found. From Libnah he Numb. 33. brews, after they had forsaken the oppor- crossed the Valley, and sate down at Ressa. tunity by God and their Conductors offer- near the foot of the Mountain. And after he ed: and might then have entred Judaa had rested there, he bended towards the before their Enemies were prepared and West, and encamped at Ceelata; where one of joyned; did afterward, contrary to Gods the Hebrews, for gathering broken wood on Commandment, undertake the enterprise the sabbath, was stoned to death. After of themselves, and ran head-long, and with- which, Moses always keeping the Valley, beout advice, into the Mountains of Idumea. tween two great legdes of Mountains (those There the Canaanites and the Amalekites which bound the Defart of sin, and those being joyned, and attending their advan- of Pharan) crofs of the same from Ceelata, and tage, set on them, brake them, and of their marched Eastward to the Mountain of Sanumbers flaughtered the greatest part: and | pher, or sepher; this making the twentieth following their victory and perfute, con- Mansion. From thence he passed on to Hafumed them all the way of their flight, rada; then to Maceloth; and then to Thahah, even unto Hormah: the Amalekites, in re- and so to Thara, or Thare; the four and twenvenge of their former loss, and overthrow tieth Mansion. Where Moses rested, the peoat Raphidim: the Canaanites, to prevent ple began that infolent and dangerous mutitheir diplantation and destruction threat- ny of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram; who for ned. Of which powerful affembly of those their contempt of God and his Ministers, two Nations (affifted in all likelihood with were some of them swallowed up alive, and the neighbour Kings, joined together for by the earth, opening her mouth, devoured; their common (afety) it pleased God to others, even two hundred and fifty which forewarn Moses, and to direct him another offered Incense with Korah, were consumed way, than that formerly intended. For he with fire from Heaven; and 14700. of commanded him to return by those pain- their party, which murmured against Moses, ful pallages of the Defarts, through which stricken dead with a sudden petitlence: one they had formerly travelled, till they found of the greatest marvels and judgments of the banks of the Red Sea again; in which God that hath been shewed in all the time retreat, before they came back to pass over of Moses his Government, or before. For

thority, were fuddenly fwallowed up alive the hot and thirfty fand, before they can into the Earth, with their Families and recover the banks of the Red Sea. goods; even while they fought to overthrow the Order, Discipline, and Power of ney towards the Red Sea, and encamped at the Church, and to make all men alike there- Hebrona, & from thence to Essangeaber; which in, rebellioully contending against the High | City in Josephus time, had the name of Be-Priest and Magistrate, to whom God had renice; and in Hierons, Fssia. From thence, committed the government both of his keeping the Sea, and Eloth on his right hand, Church, and Common-weal of his People. he turned towards the North, as he wasby And the better to assure the people, and out God commanded; Essengaber being the farof his great mercy to confirm them, it pleatheft place towards the South-East, that Decide towards the South-East, the Sou feth him in this place also to approve by mi- Moser travelled in that passage. racle the former election of his fervant Aaron, by the 12. Rods given by the Heads of Eloth and Madian, were not at this time in the 12.Tribes; of which Moles received one the possession of the Kings of Edom. For it is of every Head, and Prince of his Tribe: aid, That the Lord spake unto Moses and Aathe Tribe written, and Aaron's on that of Le- this time in the South border of Idumes. vi, it pleased God, that the Rod of Aaron re- And if Estiongaber, and the other places near ceived, by his power, a vegetable spirit, and the Red sea, had at this present been subhaving lain in the Tabernacle of the Congre- ject unto the Idumaans, Moses would also gation before the Ark one night, had on it have demanded a free paffage through both Buds, Blossoms, and ripe Almonds.

to Methra; and thence to Esmona; and thence And they arose out of Midian, and came to Pato Moseroth (or Masurit, after S. Hierom) ran, and took men with them; which were and from Moleroth to Benejacan; and so to those Companies that followed young Adad Gadgad, which Hierom calleth Gadgada; of Idumaa into Egypt, when he fled from Jothence to Jetabata, the Corrieth Mansion; ab. Likewise it is said of solomon, that he where, from certain fountains of water ga- made a Navie of Ships in Estongaber, besides thered in one, Adricomius maketh a River, Eloth, in the Land of Edom. which falleth into the Red Sea, between Madian, and Assongaber.

Now, although it be very probable, that at Aliongaber, where Solomon furnished his of Moses arrival at Zin Kades: and of the Fleet for the East-India, there was store of Herod.1.3. fresh water; and though Herodotus maketh mention of a great River in Arabia the Stony, which he calleth Corys, from whence (faith The North, and pitched in the Wildams) he) the Inhabitants convey water in Pipes of Zin, which is Kadesh; or in Beroth, of the of Leather to other places, by which device children of Jacan; where they fate downin the King of Arabia relieved the Army of the first Moneth of the fourtieth year, after Cambyfes; yet is Adrichomius greatly de- they left Egypt. For, at the next Mansion, ceived, as many times he is, in finding these Aaron died in the first day of the fifth Springs at Gadgad, or Jetabata, being the Moneth of the fourtieth year; the nine and nine and twentieth, or thirtieth Mansion. For thirtieth year taking end at Essengaber. And it was at Punon, that those Springs are spoken at this City of Cades (for so it was thought of, which in Deuteronomy the tenth, and the to be) or near it, died Miriam, or Mary, and seventh Verse, is also called Jetabata, or Moses sister, whose Sepulcher was to be seen Jotbath, a Land of running waters, and in S. Hieroms time, as himself avoweth. From which by all probability fall into the River hence, ere they departed to the Mountain Zared, the next adjoyning. And that these Hor, all the people murmured most violent Springs should fall into the Red Sea at Af- | ly against Moses, by reason of the scarcity of ongaber, or Eloth, I cannot believe, for the water. For neither the punishments by fire way thither is very long. And this I find in from Heaven; by being devoured and fival Belonius, that there are divers Torrents of lowed up by the Earth; by the fudden freshwater in those sandy parts of Arabia; Pestilence, which often seized them; not among fo great a multitude, those lay-men, which though they continue their course who would have usurped Ecclesiastical aufor a few miles, yet they are drunk up by

From Jetabata, Moses directed his jour-

It feemeth that Esiongaber, or Asiongaber. which, being all withered and dried Wands, ron in the Mount Hor, near the coast of the main and on every Rod the name of the Prince of Land of Edon; so as the Mount Hor was at 13 them. It is true, that in the future the Idu-From Tharah, the whole Army removed | means obtained those places: for it is said; accidents while that they abode there.

6. V.

mured, repined, and rebelled, repenting perceive. them of their changed estates, and casting and neither trusted his promises, nor feared of God are without beginning; fo his mercies being without end, he commanded Mofer to ftrike a Rock adjoyning, with his Rod. and the waters issued out in a great abundance, with which both themselves and their cattel were fatisfied. Nevertheless, because promifed, whereto perchance their worldly defires might invite them. But it pleafed him to end the travels of Aaron at the Mountian Hor, being the next, and the four and thirtieth Station. At which Mountain Hor. Aaron was despoiled of the garments of his Priest-hood, and the same put on Eleazar his Son, as God hath commanded. Which done. Moses and Eleazar descended the Mountain; but God received Aaron on the top thereof, and he was no more feen.

CHAP. V.

any miracle formerly shewing, either the are: Whereof the West part Moses calleth love or wrath of God, could prevail with Mosera, and the East part Horeb. By the West this Nation any longer, than while they were | part Moses encamped, as he past towards the full fed and fatisfied in every of their ap- Red-Sea on his left hand; by the East part, petites; but in flead of feeking for help and as he went back again North-wards towards relief at Gods hands, when they suffered Moab, as in the description of Moses his pashunger, thirst, or any other want, they mur- fage through Arabia, the Reader may

Now, it was from Cades, before they came ungratefully on Moses all their misadven- to Hor, because Hor belonged to Edom, that tures; yea, though they well knew that Moses sent messengers to the Prince of Idutheir own fathers had left their bodies in mea, praying him that he might pass with the Defarts, and they were now entred into the people of Ifrael through his Territory the fourtieth year, wherein all their miferies into the Land of Canaan, which bordered it. were to take end. And being, as it were, in For it was the nearest way of all other from fight of the Land promised, they again as ob- the City of Kadesh, where Moses then enfinately tempted God as in former times, camped; whereas otherwise, taking his journey by the Rivers of Zared, Arnon and his indignation. But as the will and purposes | Jordan, he might have run into many hazards in the passage of those Rivers, the far way about, and the many powerful Kings, which commanded in those Regions. Now. the better to persuade the Prince of Idumaa hereunto, Moses remembred him, that he was of the fame Race and Family with 1/-God perceived a kind of diffidence both in rael; calling him by the name of Brother, be-Mofes and Aaron at this place; therefore he cause both the Edomites and Israelites were permitted neither of them to enter the Land | the Sons of one father, to wit, Isaac; inferring thereby, that he had more reason to favour and respect them, than he had to affist the Canaanites; against whom, Esau his Ancestor had made Warr, and driven out the Horites (who were of their antient Races defeended of Cham) out of the Region of seir, calling it by his own name, Edom, or Idumea. He also making a short repetition of Gods bleffings beftow'd on them, & of his purpofes; and promifes affured Edom, or the King thereof that he would no way offend his people, Of this Mountain called Hor, otherwise or waste his Countrey, but that he would re-Mosera, as in Deut. 10. vers. 6. those Horites strain his Army within the bounds of the took name, which the Idumeans had former- Common, and Kings high ways, paying moly vanquished. Some there are which make ney for whatsoever he used, yea, even for the Mosera, which was the seven and twentieth water, which themselves or their cattel Mansion; and Mosera, which they write should drink. For Moses was commanded by Moseroth, for difference, which was the four God, not to provoke the children of Esan. Dent. 2. 4. and thirtieth Mansion, and is also called Hor, But the King of Idumaa knowing the to be two distinct places; because Moses in strength of his own Countrey, the same bepassing from Cadesbarne towards Estongaber, ing near Canaan, rampir'd with high and encamped at Mosera, after he departed from sharp mountains; and withall suspecting, as Hesmona, and before he came to Benjaacan. a natural wise man, that 600000. strangers And this Mosera, which is also called Hor, he being once entred his Countrey, it would came unto after he had left Cades, where rest in their wills to give him law, resolvedly Miriam, Moses sister, died; the first being the refused them passage, and delivered this an- Numb. 20. feven and twentieth, and the fecond being fiver to the Messengers: That, if they at-20, 21. the four and thirtieth Mansion. But for Hor, tempted to enter that way, he would take which is also called Mosera, it should have them for enemies, and refift them by all posbeen written, Hor juxta Mosera; Hor near sible means. And not knowing whether such Mosera; for it is but one root of a Mountain, a denial might satisfie or exasperate, he gadivided into divers tops, as sinai and Horeb thered the strength of his Countrey together, and shewed himself prepared to de- which, without direction from God by Mofend their passage. For, as it is written, fes, would have entred Canaan from Cades Numb. 10. Then Edom came out against him (to wit, Mo-(es) with much people, and with a mighty ber of that Army were of the Canaanites, bepower. Whereupon Moses understanding, that the end of his enterprise was not the conquest of seir, or Idumea, and that the Land promised, was that of Canaan: like unto himfelf, who was of natural understanding the greatest of any man, and the skilfullest man of Warr that the World had, he refused to adventure the Army of Israel Moses was returned from the Red Sea, and against a Nation, which being overcome, in his way towards Canaan, and that the gave but a passage to invade others; and South part of Canaan was first to be invawhich, by reason of the seat of their mountainous Countrey, could not but have endangered, or (at least) greatly enfeebled the strength of Israel, and rendred them less able, if not altogether powerless, to have conquered the rest.

6. VI.

Of their compassing Idumaa, and travelling to Arnon, the border of Moab.

E therefore leaving the way of *Idn-*mea, turned himself towards the East, and marched towards the Defarts of Moab. Which, when Arad the King of the Canaanites understood, and that Moses had blanched the way of Idumea; and knowing that it was Canaan, and not Edom, which Ifrael aimed at, he thought it fafest, rather to find his enemies in his neighbours Countrey, than to be found by them in his own; which he might have done with a farr greater hope of victory, had Mojes been enforced first to have made his way by the Sword through Idumea, and thereby, though victorious, greatly have lessened his numbers. But although it fell out otherwise than Arad hoped for, yet, being resolved to make trial, what courage the Ifraelites brought with them out of Egypt, before they came nearer his own home; leading the strength of his Nation to the edge of the Defart, he fet upon fome part of the Army; which, for the multitude occupied a great space, and for the many herds of cattel that they drave with them, could not encamp fo near together, but that fome quarter or other was evermore fubject to surprise. By which advantage, and in that his attempts were then perchance unexpected, he flew some few of the Israelites, and carried with him many prisoners.

Now, it is very probable, that it was this Canaanite, or his Predecessor, which joyned his forces with the Amalekites, and gave an overthrow to those mutinous Ifraelites, and fourteenth Verse, nameth this Arad by barne. For it feemeth, that the greatest numcause in the first of Deuteronomy 44. the A. morites are named alone, without the Amalekites, and are faid to have beaten the Ifraelites at that time. And this Arad, if he were the same that had a victory over Ifrael, near Cadesbarne; or if it were his Predeceffor that then prevailed; this man finding that ded, and in danger of being conquered, not knowing of Moses purpose to pais Moab, determined, while he was yet in the Defart, to try the quarrel. And whereas it followeth in the third Verse of the twelfth Chapter of Numbers, that the Ifraelites utterly destroyed the Canaanites, and their Cities, they are much mistaken that think, that this destruction was presently performed by the Israelites. But it is to be understood, to have been done in the future, to wit, in the time of Josua. For had Moses at this time entred Canaan in the perfute of Arad, he would not have fallen back again into the Defarts of Zin and Moab, and have fetch'd a wearisome and needless compass, by the Rivers of Zared and Arnon.

Neither is their conjecture to be valued at any thing, which affirm, that Arad did not inhabit any part of Canaan it felf, butthat his Territory lay without it, and near to the Mountain Hor. For Hor and Zin Cades were the South borders of Edom, and not of Cana- North an. And it was in the South of the Land of 40. Canaan, that Arad dwelt; which South part of Canaan, was the North part of Edom.

Again, Horma (for fo farr the Ifraelites,after their victory, persued the Canaanites) is seated in the South of Judea. There is also a City of that name in Simeon. But there is no fuch place to the South of Edom. And were there no other argument, but the mutiny which followed presently after the repetition of this Victory, it were enough to prove, that the same was obtained in the suture, and in Josua histime, and not at the instant of Arads affault. For, had the Ifraelites at this time fack'd the Cities of Arad, they would not the next day have complained for want of Water and Bread. For where there are great Cities, there is also Water and Bread. But it was in the time of Jossa, that the Israelites took their revenge, and after they had pass'd Jordan; Josua thengoverning them, who in the twelfth Chapter the name of his City fo called; and with him, they kept the way to Diblathaim, one of the the King of Horma; to which place the Ifra- Cities of Moab; which Hieremy the Prophet, elites persued the Canaanites. And he named Chap. 48. Verf. 22. calleth the Honge of Diblathem amongst those Kings, which he van- thaim, the same which afterward was dequished, and put to death.

again by their beholding an artificial Serpent, by his commandment fet up.

From the Mount Hor, Mofes leaving the orway from Galaad, Traconitis, and the Countreys of Moab, to the Red Sea, that is, to Esiongaber, Eloth, and Midian; which way, as it lay North and South, so Ifrael, to shun the border of Edom, and to take the utmost East part of Moab, cross'd the common way towards the East, and then they turned again towards the North, as before.

From Phunon he went to Oboth, where he entred the Territory of Moab, adjoyning to the Land of Suph, a Countrey bordering stroyed among the rest by Nebuchadnezzar. Now, after this affault, and surprize by From thence they came to the River Arnon; Arad, Moses finding that all entrance on that and encamped in the Mountains of Abarim; fide was defended, he led the people East- though in the 22. of Numbers, Moses doth not ward to compais Idumea, and the Dead Sea, remember Helmondiblathaim, but speaketh and to make his entrance by Arnon and the of his remove from the River of Zared, Plains of Moab, at that time in the possession immediately to the other side of Arnon; of the Amorites. But the Ifraelites, to whom calling Arnon the border of Moab, bethe very name of a Desart was terrible, be- tween them and the Amorites; speaking as gan again to rebel against their Leader; till he found the state of the Countrey at that God by a multitude of fiery Serpents (that is, time. For Arnon was not antiently the borby the biting of Serpents, whose Venom der of Moab, but was lately conquered from inflamed them, and burnt them as fire) made the Moabites, by Sehon, King of the Amorites; them know their error, and afterward, even from the Predecessor of Balac Peor according to his plentiful grace, cured them then raigning. From Diblathaim, Moles fent messengers to Sehon, King of the Amorites, to defire a passage through his Countrey; which, though he knew would be denyed dinary way which lyeth between the Red him, yet he defired to give a reason to the Sea and Cologria, encamped at Zalmona; and neighbour Nations of the Warr he underthence he removed to Phunon, where he took. And though Edom had refused him crected the Brazen Serpent; making these as sehon did, yet he had no warrant from journies by the edg of Idumea, but without God to enforce him. Moses also in sending it. For Phunon was sometime a principal City messengers to Sehon, observed the same preof the Edomites. Now, where it is written in cept which he left to his Posterity and Suc-Numb.21.4. That from Mount Hor they depart- cellors, for a law of the Warr; namely, in ed by the way of the Red Sea, which grieved Deut. 20. 10. in these words; When thou the people, it was not thereby meant, that the | comest neer unto a City to fight against it, thou If aelites turned back towards the Red Sea 3 fast offer it peace; which if it do accept of and neither did they march (according to Fonsca) per viam qua habet à latere mare rubrum; therein be tributaries unto thee, and serve thee; By the way that sided the Red Sea, but indeed but if it refuse, &c. thou shalt smite all the they cross d; and went athwart the common | males thereof with the edg of the sword. Which ordinance all Commanders of armies have observed to this day, or ought to have done.

§. VII.

Of the Book of the battels of the Lord, mentioned in this Story, and of other Books menti oned in Scripture, which are left.

Ow, concerning the Warr between If Numb. 213 rael and Sehon, Moses seemeth to referr on the Dead Sea; and from thence to Abarim, a great part of this Story to that Book, enthe eight and thirtieth Mansion, that is, tituled, Liber bellorum Domini; The book of where the Mountains so called take be- Gods battels: and therefore passeth over ginning, and are as yet but small Mountures many encounters, and other things memorof Hills, on the East border of Moab; from able, with greater brevity in this place. His thence they recovered Dibon Gad, or the words, after the Geneva Translation, are River of Zared, which rifeth in the Moun-these: Wherefore it shall be spoken in the book tains of drabia, and runneth towards the of the battels of the Lord, what things he did Dead Sea, not farr from Petra the Metro- in the Red Sea, and in the Rivers of Arnon. polis thereof, being the nine and thirtieth The Vulgar Copy differeth not in fende from Station. And having pas'd that River, this: But the Greek Septuagint vary. For they lodged at Dibon Gad, and from thence the Greek writes it to this effect; For the

240 it is faid in the book: The Warr of the Lord of Formation, which others bestow on Rab. hath burnt (or inflamed) 200b, and the brooks of bi Achiba, is no where found. The Books Sumb. 1. Arnon Junius for the Red Sea, which is in the remembred by Josua, Chap. 10. Vers. 13, and Or the Gountier Genevian and Vulgar Edition, names the Re-Gountey General and a Country bordering the Dead called the Book of Jafter, or Jufforum, is fee more, Sea towards the Eaft, as he conjectureth. also lost; wherein the say of the Sun and say, 19 feet. 4. || 2. The Text, he readeth thus. Ideire's diei solet and of the in recensione bellora Jehovæ, contra Vahebum in Regione Suph; & contra summa, slumina rael had avenged themselves of their enethe word Arnonis; Therefore is it spoken in repeating of chap. 18. the battels of Jehovah, against Vaheb in the Countrey of Suph, and against the Rivers, the Rivers of Arnon. In which words he understands, that amongst the Warrs which the Lord disposed for the good of the Ifraelites, there was in those times a famous memory written, according unto the fixty and ninth in the mouth of most men, concerning the Pfalm, Verf. 28. where it is said; Let them fuccession of the Edomites) that these King- Theodoretus, that is was a Commentary upon doms were elective, and not fuccessive. Josua, by an unknown Author. And as Junius in this Translation undertations, doubt whether in this place any spe- Hierom conceives, that the Prophet E/ay was cial Book be meant; and if any, whether the Author. it be not a prediction of Wars in future ages,

> Heathen Magistrates. For the Books of Henoch, howsoever they have been in later and others. ages corrupted, and therefore now suspe-Eted, are remembred in an Epiftle of Thad-dans, and cited by origen, mest de xão, and by That work also of the Patriarch Abraham, corded, and how they flood still till if Precept of teaching the Children of 7nda, to exercise their Bows against their Enemies. Some think this to be the Book of eternal Predestination, in which the just are Warr of Schon against Vaheb, the King of the be put out of the book of Life, neither let Moabites, and of his winning the Country them be written with the Righteous. Hierom near Arnon, out of the possession of the Mo- thinks that David by this Book, understood abites. For this Vaheb was the immediate those of Samuel; Rabbi Solomon, that the Predecessor of Ealac, who lived with Mo-Books of the Law are thereby meant, in fer; though it be written that this Ea- which the acts of the just Abraham, of Jaar, and lac was the Son of Zippor, and not of Jacob, and Mojes are written. Others, that Vabeb. For, it seems (as it is plain in the it is was the Book of Exodus. Others, as

The Book of chozai, concerning Mar Maria ftandeth no special Book of the battels of nasse, remembred in the second of Chron. min the Lord: so others, as Vatablus in his Anno- Chap. 33. v. 18, and 19. Of this Book, also lost, red

The fame mischance came as well to to be waged in these places, and to be writ- the Story of Solomon, written by Abia Siten in the book of Judges. Syracides, cap. 46. lonites, who met with Jeroboam, and foretold tells us plainly, that those battels of the Lord him of his obtaining the Kingdom of Ifred were fought by Josus, Who was there (faith | from the Son of Solomon: As to the Book he) before him like to hims for he fought the of Nathan the Prophet, and to those of Jeeds battels of the Lord. But seeing the Histories the Seer, remembred in the second of Chron. of the Scripture elsewhere often pals over | Chap. 9. Verf. 29. With these have the Books matters of great weight in few words, refer- of shemaiah and of Iddo, remembred in the ring the Reader to other books written of second of Chron. Chap. 12. Vers. 15, perished; the same matter at large; therefore it seem- and that of Jehn the Son of Hanani, of the eth probable, that such a book as this there acts of Jehosaphat, cited in the second of was; wherein the several victories by Ifrael Chron. Chap. 2c. Vers. 34. Also that Book obtained, and also victories of other Kings, of Solomon, which the Hebrems write Haftimaking way for the good of the Ifraelites, rim, of 5000. Verses, of which, that part were particularly and largely written. And called Canticum Canticorum, onely remainthat the same should now be wanting, it is eth, 1 Kings 4. 32, and with this, divers others not strange, seeing so many other Volumes, of Solomon's works have perished, as his filled with divine discourse, have perished Book of the natures of Trees Plants, Bealts, in the long race of time, or have been de- Fishes, &c. 1 Kings 4. 33. With the reftremembred by Origen, Josephus, Hierom, Co stroyed by the ignorant and malicious drenus, Ciccus Asculanus, Picus Mirandula,

Of these, and other Books many were confumed with the same fire, wherewith Nebuchadnezzar burnt the Temple of Hit rusalem. But let us return thither where we left, s. VIII. 6. VIII.

When Moses had past Arnon, he incamped on the other side thereof at Abarim, opposite to the City of Nibo; leaving the City of Midian on the left hand, and attempting nothing upon the Meabites on that fide. For Moab did at this time inhabite Due 1. 9, on the South-fide of Arnon, having loft all his anticut and best Territory, which was now in the possession of Schonthe Amorite. For Mofes was commanded by God not to molest Mondy, neither to provoke them to battel, God having given that Land to the children of Lot; the same which was antiently possess by the Eminus, who were men of great stature, and comparable to those Giants called Anakims, or the fons of Anac.

Ammonites, because they likewise were descended of Lot: who had expelled from thence those Giants, which the Ammonites called Zamzummims. For it seemeth that all that part, especially to the East of Jordan, even to the Defart of Arabia, as well on the been Giants in the Land of the Moabites, cal-

Now Mofes having past Arnon, and being was given to Renben, and unto Gad. incamped at Abarim; and having (as before). fent to sehon, as he had done to Edom, to pray a paliage through his Countrey, was denied it. For sekon being made proud by of Moles his sparing the iffue of Lot; and of his former conquest upon Vakeb the Moabite: the Giants in these parts; and of Schon | Which Nation the Amorites effected but as firangers and uturpers, (themselves being of the fons of Candan, and the Moabiles of Lot) refuled to grant Ifrael any entrance that way; and withal, prepared to encounter Moles with as much speed as he could, because Moses incamped in the Countrey of his new conquests, to wit, the Plains of Atoab, the two and fortieth and last Mansion: which Moses wasted with the multitude of his people and cattel. Towards him therefore hafling himself, they encountred each other at Jahaz: where Sehon with his children and people were broken and discomsited, and the victory to purfued by Mofes, as few or none of the Amorites escaped. He also flaughtered all the Women and Children of the Amorites, which he found in Effebon, and all the other Cities, Villages, or Fields; they be-God also commanded Mojes to spare the ing of the race of Canaan, as those of Basan allo were, and descended of Emoreus, or Amoreus: for Moses calleth the Basanites also Amorites. And although Ifrael might now have taken a ready way and passage into 7udea, being at this time, and after this victory, at the banks of Jordan: yet he knew it to West, as on the East-side of the Mountains of | be perillous to leave so great a part of that Gilead, was inhabited by Giants. And in the Nation of the Amorites on his back, as inhaplantation of the Land promifed, the Ifrae- bited all the Region of Basan, or Traconitis: lites did not at any time pass those Mountains and therefore he led on his Army to invade to the East of Basan, but left their Country og, a person of exceeding strength and stato them, as in the description following is ture, and the only man of mark remaining of made manifest. We find also, that as there the antient Giants of those parts, and who at were many Giants both before and after that time had 60 Cities walled and defenthe floud: fo these Nations, which arriently ced: lying between the Mountain of Herinhabited both the border of Canaan, and mon (which Mountain, faith Moses, the Sidothe Land it felf, had among them many Fa- nians call Shirion, and the Amorites, Shenir) milies of Giant-like men. For the Andrims and the River of Jordan. And it befell unto dwelt in Hebron, which sometimes was called the King of Boson (who attended Moses the City of Arbab, which Arbab in Josua is coming at Edrer) as it did unto seban: for called the father of the Anakims; and the he and his sons perished, and all his Cities greatest man of the Anakims. There had also were taken and possest. After this, Moses with-drawing himself back again to the led Emims: and their chief City was Aroer | Mountains of Abarim, left the prosecution or Ar, mear the River of Arnon. To the Giants of that war unto Jair the fon of Manage: of the Rephaims, the Ammonites gave the who conquering the East parts of Basan, to name of Zamzummins; which were of the wit, the Kingdom of Argab, even unto the fame antient Canaanites: and their chief Ci- Nations of the Geffini and Machati, 60. walkty was Rabba, afterward Philadelphia. They led Cities, called the fame after his own were also called Zuzams, which is as much to name Haooth Jair: of all which conquests fay, as Viri robufti, horrendique Giganter; afterward the half Tribe of Manafie policit Strong men, and fearful Giants, who inhabited other Cities of Ham, or Hom, in the fame part that belonged to Selson the Amorite, Province, and not far to the North of Aroer. with the Mountains of Gilead adjoyning

5. IX.

6. IX.

Of the troubles about the Madianites, and of Moses his death.

The fecond Book of the first Part

Fter these victories, and while Ifrael so-Journed in the valley of Moab, the Madianites and Monbites (over both which Nations it feemeth that Balac King of the Moabites then commanded in chief) fought, according to the advice of Balaam, both by alluring the Hebrews to the love of their daughters, and by perfuading them to honour and serve their Idols, to divide them both in Love and Religion among themfelves: thereby the better both to defend their own interest against them, as also to of og. and Sehon King of the Amorites, in the beat them out of Moab, and the Countries repetition and expolition of the Law, (oran adjoyning. The Israelites as they had ever iteration of the Law, according to Saint An John been enclined, so were they now easily pergustine) using both arguments, prayers, and density pergustine. fuaded to these evil courses, and thereby drew on themselvs the plague of pestilence, No. 15.1. fides which punishment of God, the most of all-powerful God: He blessed the twelve the offenders among the Hebrews, were by his commandment put to the Sword, or other violent deaths: after this, when that Phineas the fon of Eleazar had pierced the bodies of Zimri, a Prince of the Simeonites, together with cosbi, a Daughter of one of the chief of the Midianites, the Plague ceawas the love and kindness of his all-powerin profecuting of Zimri (who being a chief God from the labours and forrows of this hand for his fake.

In this valley it was that Moses caused the people to be numbred the third time: and there remained of able men fit to bear arms Nu. 16 31. 601730. of which, as his last enterprise, he appointed 12000, to be chosen out, to invade the Cities of Midian, who, together with the Moabites, practifed with Balaam to curse Ifrael: and after that, fought to allure them (as before remembred) from the worflip of the true God, to the fervice of Beth-Peor: and to the rest of their barbarous Idolatry. Over which Companies of 12000. 18. 31. 8. Moses gave the charge to Phineas the son of Eleazar the high Priest: who slew the five Princes of the Midianites, which were, or had lately been, the vaffals of sehon, as appeareth by Josuah. These five Princes of the Midianites Ilain by Eleazar, were at this as had not yet used the company of men, but those they faved, and dispers'd them among the children of Ifract to ferve them.

And Moses having now lived 120. years, making both his own weakness of body Dog known to the people, and his unability to travel: and also that he was forewarned of his end by the Spirit of God, from whom he received a new commandment to ascend the Mountains of Abarim, and thereon to render up his life: He hastned to settlethe government in Josua, whom he persuaded with most lively arguments to prosecute the conquest begun, affuring him of Gods favour and affiftance therein. And so having fpent these his latter days after the conquest peated unto them; thereby to confirm them in knowledg, love, fear, and service of the ral and most comfortable bleffings: praising ton it the greatness and goodness of him, unto whom in his prayers he commended them: He also commanded the Priests to lay up the Design Book of the Law, by the fide of the Ark of God, The last that he indited, was that Profed, and Gods wrath was appealed. For fuch | phetical Song, beginning: Hearken je Hetvens, and I will speak, and let the Earth hear fulness, respecting the ardent zeal of Phineas the words of my month: and being called by among the Hebrews, become an Idolater) as life, unto that Rest which never afterward he forgave the reft of Ifrael, and flayed his hath difquiet, he was buried in the Land of Moab, over against Beth-Peor: but no man knoweth of his Sepulcher to this day; which happened in the year of the World,2554

6. X.

Observations out of the Story of Moses, how God disposeth both the smallest occasions, and the greatest resistances, to the effecting of his purpose.

Ow let us a little, for instruction, look back to the occasions of fundry of the great events, which have been mentioned in this Story of the life of Moses, for (excepting Gods miracles, his promife, and fore-choice of this people) he wrought in all things elle by the medium of mens affections, and natiral appetites. And so we shall find that the wit, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Rera, the fear which Pharaoh had of the increase of the co.13.11. Dukes of sehon, faith Josiah. He slew also the Hebrews, multiplyed by God to exceeding men, male-children, and women: faving fuch great numbers, was the next natural call of the forrows and loss, which befel himself, of that place; and Jethro's Daughters; an: the contention between the Sherherds gotten.

and the Egyptian Nation: which numbers made him known to their Father; who not when he fought by cruel and ungodly poli- onely entertained him, but married him cies to cut off and leffen, as when he com- to one of those Sifters: and in that Solitary manded all the male children of the Hebrews life of keeping of his Father-in-Law's sheep, to be flain, God (whose providence can- far from the preass of the World, contenting not be relifted, nor his purpoles prevented himself (though bred as a Kings Son) with by all the foolish and salvage craft of mortal the Lot of a poor Heards-man, God found men) moved compatition in the heart of Pha- him out in that Defart wherein he first sufferrash's own daughter, to preserve that child, ed him to live many years, the better to which afterward became the most wife, and know the waies and passages through which of all men the most gentle and mild, the most he purposed that he should conduct his excellently learned in all Divine and Hu-people, toward the Land promised: and mane knowledge, to be the conductor and therein appearing unto him, he made him deliverer of his oppressed brethren, and know his will and divine pleasure for his rethe overthrow of Pharaoh, and all the flow-turn into Egypt. The like may be faid of er of his Nation; even then, when he fought all things elfe, which Moles afterward by by the strength of his men of War, of his God's direction performed in the Story of Horse, and Chariots, to tread them under, Ifrael before remembred. There is not and bury them in the dust. The grief which therefore the smallest accident, which may Moses conceived of the injuries, and of the seem unto men as falling out by chance, and violence offered to one of the Hebrews in of no consequence, but that the same is cauhis own presence, moved him to take re- sed by God to effect somewhat else by: venge of the Egyptian that offered it: the in- yea, and oftentimes to effect things of the greature of one of his own Nation, by directing him to discover the saughter of lently, or in many years after, when the the Egyptian, moved him to fly into Madi- occasions are either not considered, or for-

CHAP. VI.

Of the Nations with whom the Israelites had dealing after their coming out of Egypt; and of the Men of renown in other Nations, about the times of Moses and Josua; with the sum of the History of Josua.

How the Nations with whom the Ifraclites were to have War, were divers waies, as it were prepared to be their Enemies.

Egypt, had to do, either in the Wilderlong before-hand, by the disposing providence of God, as it were, prepared for enmity: partly in respect that they were most of them of the issue of Canaan, or at least of Ham; and the rest (as the Edomites, Moabites, Ammonites, and Israelites) were mingled with them by mutual marriages: whereas the Ifraelites still continued strangers, and separate from them: and so part-

Nlike manner, if we look to the qua- 1 ries or enmities, and partly by reason of dility of the Nations, with whom the versity in Religion, were these Nations, as Israelites, after their coming out of | it were, prepared to be enemies to the Israelites: and to to ferve for such purposes as nefs, or atterward, we shall find them | God had reserved them for. To make these things more manifelt, we must understand that this part of syria, bounded by the mountains of Libanus, and Zidon on the North, by the same mountains continued as far as the Springs of Arnon on the East: by the way of Feypt, and the Red Sea, on the South: and by the Mediterran Sea on the West: was inhabited and peopled by two Nations, the one foringing from the fons of ly in this respect, and partly by antient inju- Cham, the other from sem: but those of H h 2

244

ch.p. 10.

about it at a few of his kinred. The other for the great- fed him both to promife and perform it. For son of Ma- est part, were the Canaanites, the antient core, and Lords and potteriors of those Territorics, habited, in effect, all that Tract of Land Bas his Booders by process of time divided into several Far between Havilah upon Tygris, and Sur which themselves were of eminent stature and strength, as the Petrea. Yet howsoever the strength of in the Est were of eminent stature and strength, as the fide of for Anakims, Zamzummims, or Zuzei, Emims, das, about Horites, and others. These (as men most from Abraham, were great; it is not unlikewherethey valiant and able commonly do) did inha- ly, but that some reason which moved them which Job ans, Jebufites, Amorites, Hevites, Hetites, and all Princes and States do not wilingly permit dweit as one of the others, who took name after the fons of Ca- any stranger or powerful Nation to enter one or the maan, and after whom the Countrey in getheir Territories. Wherefore, though all liftee of maan, and after whom the Countrey in getheir Territories. Hus, the neral was still called, friend was mily, and ffrangers in that Country, especiis called a many and triangers and this was fome cause more frong than themselves, whether they that the Canaanites did not affect them, or indure them, no more than the Philiftims the care of their own prefervation, to joyn did, who descended also of Cham by Mizraim. For though Abraham himself, being a they did it nothing so maliciously and reftranger, was highly efteemed and honoured among them; especially by the Amorites inhabiting the West part of Jordan: yet now even they which descended from Abrabam, or from his kinred, abode and multiplied in those parts, were alienated in affeftrangers and intruders: making more ac-Ex. 17.16. old pedigree from Abraham.

True it is, that these Nations descended Dem. 11.5, of Abraham, or of his kinred, who had linked themselves, and marched with the Canaanites and others, had so far possest themthey began to be equal in strength to the Deat. 11.5. For the Ifraclites were forbidden to pro- and more stirred up to enmity against Ifra-Ex.17.16. whereas contrariwife Amalek was curfed, and descended from Abraham's kinred, we may endless war decreed against him: but here note, how in the beginning, between the of more elsewhere, Chap. 8. 5.3. Of Ismael's Authours of their Pedigrees, God permit-

Sem, were but as strangers therein for a long | eldest fon Naboth sprung the Arabians of time, and came thither, in effect, but with Petrea, called Nabatheti. Now even as Abra-In termed, a one Family, to wit, that of Abraham, and ham befought God to blefs Ifmael, fo it pleaof him those twelve Princes came, which in Gaz. milies and Names: whereof some of them is the West part of the Desart of Arabia bite the utter borders and Mountains of not to favour the entrance of the Ifraelites their Countries: the reft were the Zidoni- into Canaan, was in respect of fear: because these Families before named, were not so As for the Hebrews which descended of united in and among themselves, but that Elba, his Shem by Alraham, they were of another Fa-they had their jealousies of each other, and contended for dominion : yet fearing a third stood apart or united, they were taught by themselves together against Ifrael: though folvedly as the Canaanites did. For the Edumans onely denied the Hebrews a palfage, which the Moabites durst not deny: because their Country lay more open; and because themselves had lately been beaten out of the richest part of their Dominions, ctions from the Ifraelites, as holding them by the Amorites: and as for the Ammenites their Country lay altogether out of theway, count of their alliance with the Canaanites, and the strength of sehon and og, Kings of and the rest of the issue of Cham, with whom the Amorites, was interjacent: and besides they dayly contracted affinity, than of their that, the border of the Ammonites was strong by reason of the mountains which divided it from Bafan. Again, that which moved the Mails Moabites in their own reason not much to interrupt Ifrael, in the conquest of sehon the Amorite, and of og his confederate, was, felves of the borders of those Regions, as that the Moabites might hope, after such a time as the Amorites were beaten by Moses, bordering Canaanites, if not Superiour. For that themselves might recover again their of Lot came those two great families of the own inheritance: to wit, the Vallies and Aloabites, and Ammonites: of Efan the Idn. Plains lying between the mountains of And means: of Madian the Madianites: of 15- bia and Jordan: But as foon as sebon was mael the eldeft fon of Abraham, came the je lain, and that the King of Moab, Balac, permaelites, with whom are joyned, as of the ceived that Mojes allotted that Valley to the same Nation, the Amalekites 5 whom though Tribes of Gad and Reuben he began to prathe more common opinion thinketh to have the with Balaam against Ifrael, and by the been a Tribe of Edom, because Esan had a daughters of Midian, as aforelaid, to allure grand-child of that name, yet manifest reathem to Idolatry: and thus at the length fon convinceth it to have been otherwife. the Moabites, by special occasion, were more voke the Edomites, or do them any wrong; el. And as for divers of the rest that were ted some enmities to be, as it were, presages of future quarrels, which in the posterity might be the easier incenfed by the memory of old grudges: and withall, by fome difdain from the elder in nature to the youn-For the Ismaelites being descended from the eldeft fon of Abraham, and the Edomites from the eldest fon of Isaac, Jacob, those Princes which were descended of the elder Houses, being natural men, might scorn to give place, much less to subject themselvs to their inferiours, as they took it: and for a more aggravation, the iffues of Efan, Princes of Idumea, might keep in record, that their Parent was bought out of his birth-

[68.37. Hght by Was deceived of his Father's blefling of Cham by Canaan, as the Hittites, Jebuinto Seir or Idumea.

his Mother and to his Wife: and Amalec Maternal line descended of the Canaanites. held their Paternal name chiefly inhabited. For Efau took two wives of that Nation: one of them was Adath, the daughter of Elon , grand-child of Zibeon, the Hevite, Lord of Seir, before the same was conquered by Efan, and called after his name, Edom, or Edumea.

of the Ismaelites, Amalekites, Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, &c. were in process of time corrupted, and drawn from the knowledg derness in the edge of Edumaa. and worship of God, and became Idolaters, Jethro was Priest, or Prince, or both, wor- the Amorites. thipped the true and ever-living God.

6. II.

Of the Kings of the Canaanites and Madianites, mentioned in the antient Wars of the Ifraelites.

F the Kings of the Canaanites, descended of cham (for Melchizedek may being but a fecond fon, of a fecond brother; be thought to be of a better Pedigree) we find four named by Moses: and one and thirty remembred by Jojua, though few of these named, otherwise than by the Cities over which they commanded: to which each of them had a small Territory adjoyning, and no other Dominion. These Canaanites in a general confideration are to be 602 17. right by Jacob's taking his advantage, and understood for all those Nations, descended allo by him : and that Jacob, after reconci- fites, Amorites, Gergesites, Hevites, &c. and liation, came not unto him as he promised, to here we understand this name in speaking of the Kings of the Canaanites: and fo also So also in the posterity of Ismael, it might we call the Country of their habitation the remain as a feed or pretence of enmity, that holy Land, or the Land of promise: for God their fore-father was by the inftigation of hath appointed that the feven principle Fa-Sara, cast out into the Defart, with his mo-milies should be rooted out, and that his ther Hagar; and had therein perished, but own people should inherit their Lands and that it pleased God by his Angel to relieve Cities. But if we consider of the name them. Ismael also had an Egyptian both to and Nation in particular, then is their proper habitation bounded by Jordan, on the was also an Horite by his Mother: which East, and by the Mediterran Sea on the West: Horites were of the antient Canaanites. The in which narrow Country, and in the choif-Edumeans also, or Edomites, were by their est places thereof, those Canaanites which

The first King of these Nations, named in Gen 34. the Scriptures, was Hamor or Hemer, of the the Hittite; and the other Aholibamah, the Hevites, whom Simeon and Levi flew, together with his Son Sichem, in revenge of their fifters ravishment.

Arad was the second King which the Scriptures have remembred, who had that part Laftly it appeareth that all those Families of Canaan towards the South, neighbouring Numar. 1. Edom and the dead Sea; the same which surprised Israel, as they encamped in the Wil-

The third named was Sehon King of Effeinfected and seduced by the conversation bon, who before Moses arrival had beaten the of those people among whom they dwelt, Moabites out of the West part of Arabia Pe- Nu. 114. and by those wives of the Canaanites which trea, or Nabathea, and thrust them over Arthey had married: onely a few of the Ke- non into the Defarts, the same whom Moses nites and those Madianites, which inhabi- overthrew in the plains of Moab: at which ted on the edge of the Red Sea, whereof time he took Effebon, and all the Cities of > Prefently after which victory, Og was also ub.4. c.5. flain by Ifrael, who commanded the North part of that Valley between the Mountains Nu. 21,35; Traconi, or Galaad, and Jordan, who was alfo a King of the Amorites.

The fifth was Adonizedck King of the Jebusites, and of Hierusalem, with whom Josua nameth four other Kings.

Hoham.

Jef. 113

Hobart King of Hebron. Piram. King of Jarmuth. Japia, King of Laches : and Deber, King of Eglaa, who were all Amo-John to rifes overthrown in bactel; and hanged by Joseph ant. Josua. After this overthrow Josua nameth Jabin, King of Hazor, and Jobab, King of Madon: whom he aifo flaughtered, and took his Cities: and this falem. Jabin scemed to have some dominion over Jos. 11. 1. The rest; for it is said in the Text, For Hazor before times was the head of all those Kingdoms. After these Adonibezek that notorious Tyrant is named: who confest that he had eut off the thumbs of the hands and feet of feventy Kings, inforcing them to gather crumbs under his Table: who, after Juda and Simeon had used the same execution upon himfelf, acknowledged it to be a just revenge of God: this King was carried to Hierufalem where he died.

by Jolia. For at such time as he employed Reg. 14.7. where it is also called Joktheel. sifara against Israel, whom he opprest twenty years after the death of Ehad, he inhabired Hazor. This Jabin, Barac (encouraged by Debora) overthrew; and his Captain Sifara had by fael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, a nail driven into his head while he Pful. 23. flept in her Tent: Jabin himself perishing afterward in that war. I have spoken ellewhere more at large. This description of their Territories. Tethro, if he were not the fame with Hobab, must be his father: and this Hobab had seven daughters. He guided Moses in the Wilderness, and became one of the Israelites: of him descended the Kenites, so called of his father Raguels furname, of which Kenites kites, he knowing the good affection of the number than of the rest (for they were mul-Kenites to Ifrael, gave them warning to fefrong feats, and lived in the mountains of yet the Amalekites, who together with the the Diebre. the Defarts.

was Heber, which had peace with Jabin the fecond, even now remembred.

The Kings of the Canaanites, and Madianites, and the Amalekites, as many as I find named, were thefe:

1. Homer the Hevite of Sichem 2. Arad of the South parts

2. Sehon of Effebon

4. Og of Basan

The second Book of the first Part

5. Adonizedek the Jebusite, King of Hieru.

6. Hoham of Hebron

7. Piram of Jarmuth

8. Japia of Lachis 9. Debir of Eglon

10. Jabin of Hazor 11. Fobab of Modon.

12. Adonibezek of Bezek, and 13. Jabin the second King of Hazar.

Of the Madianites these: * Evi or Evis.

Rekam or Recem, who built Petra the Me-field an opolis of Putron Good Ville tropolis of Petrea, so called by the Greek: single and by Efay, cap. 16. v. 1. and Selah, which is stead who as it seemeth had rebuilt Hazor, burnt as much as Petra: and so also it is called 2 of the is Zur Hur and. and the 1100). Which le Reba * Oreb led against Zeb Zebah Zalmunna.

After the death of Barac, Judge of Ifrael, wet the The Madianites had also their Kings at the four last named of these Madianite Kings im his times, but commonly mixt with the Moa- vexed Ifrael feven years: till they being put interbites: and they held a corner of Land in to flight by Gideon, two of them, to wit, 0- down Nabathea: to the South-East of the Dead reb and Zeb, were taken and flain by the E. dought sea. They descended from Madian Abra- phraimites, at the passage of fordan, as in the assumption hams son, by Cethura. Raguel surnamed Ge- 6.7. and 8. of Judges it is written at large. thegleus or Jethres, faith Josephus, called Je- Afterward in the pursuit of the rest, Gideon thro in Exedus, Kenis in the first of Judges, the himself laid hands upon Zebah and Salmans, fon of Dashan, the grand-child of Jexanie, or Zalmanna, and executed them, being prior Joksham, the great grand-child of Abra- foners; in which expedition of Gideon there ham by Cethuca, was Priest or Prince of the perished 120000. of the Madianites and their Madienites by the Red Sea : whose Daugh- | confederates. Of the Idumaans, Moabites, ter or Neece, Moses married, and of whom, and Ammonites, I will speak hereafter in the

Of the Amalekites and Ismaelites.

F the Kings of the Amalekites and Isma-Felites, I find few that are named; and At fuch time as Saul invaded the Amale- though of the Ismaelites there were more in tiplied into a greater Nation, according unparate themselves: and yet the Kenites had to the promise of God made unto Abraham just Midianites were numbered among them, of Agag, as the Egyptians the name of Pharaoh when Saul governed Ifrael. For Saul pur- as names of Honour. fued them from Sur unto Havilah, to wit, o-That the twelve Princes which came of 15- were vanquished. mael, were content to leave those barren that joyned with them (for fo feem the Amalekites to have been, and fo were the Madianites:)themselves taking possession of a betwas very fruitful, though adjoyning to the Shur. Defart in which Mofes wandred, afterward called Nabathea: the same which neighboureth Judea on the East-side. They also peothe people were in after-times called Napathei (B) changed into (P.)

Kedar, the second of Ismaels sons, gave his own name to the East-part of Basan, or Batanea, which was afterward possest by Manasse, to much thereof as lay within the mountains Traconi, or Gilead. Which Nation Lampridius calleth Kedarens, and Pliny, Cedreans.

Abbeel fat down in the Defart Arabia, near the Mountains which divide it from the Happy: and gave name to the Adubens, which Ptolomy calleth Agubens.

Mibsam was the Parent of the Masamancuses, near the Mountain Zamath, in the same Arabia the Happy.

The Raabens were of Milhma: who joynwhere Ptolomy setteth Zagmais.

meth fometimes stood.

patheans in the same Happy Arabia.

Thema is seated.

Of Jetur the Itureans, or Camathens: of whom Tohu was King in Davids time.

Of Naphri, the Nubeian Arabians, inhabiting Syria Zoba: over whom Adadezer commanded, while David ruled Ifrael.

worshiped the Fire with the Babylonians.

were more renowned in Moses time than the to theirs, and the antient Syrians, Adad to rest of the Ismaelites. So also were they theirs, and the Arabian Nabatheans, Aretas,

The Amalekites were the first that fought Exod. 17. ver a great part of Arabia Petraa, and the with Moses after he past the Red Sea: when Defart. The reason to me seemeth to be this: of all times they flourished most, and yet

Afterward they joyned with the Canaan-Defarts of Arabia Petraa, called Sur, Paran, ites, and beat the Ifraelites near Cadesbarne, Num. 14. and sin, to the issue of Abraham by Cethura, After the government of Othoniel, they joyned them with the Moabites: after Barac, with the Madianites, and invaded Israel. God commanded that as foon as Ifrael had reft, ter foil in Arabia the Happy, and about the they should root out the name of the Ama-Mountains of Galaad in Arabia Petraa: For lekites: which Saul executed in part, when Nabaioth the eldest of those twelve Princes he wasted them from the border of Egypt, to planted that part of Arabia Petraa; which the border of Chaldea: from Havilah to

In Davids time they took Siklag in Sime- 1 Sam, 30, on: but David followed them, and surprised them, recovering his prisoners and spoils. pled a Province in Arabia the Happy, whereof And yet, after David became King, they again vexed him, but to their own loss.

In Ezekias time, as many of them as joyn- 2 sans 8:1 ed to Edumaa, were wasted and displanted 12. by the children of Simeon.

s. IV.

Of the instauration of Civility in Europe about these times, and of Prometheus and Atlas.

Here lived at this time, and in the same age together with Moses, many men exceeding famous as well in bodily strength as in all forts of learning. And as the World was but even now enriched with the writed to the Orchens, near the Arabian gulf, ten Law of the living God, fo did Art and Civility (bred and fostered far off in the Of Duma were the Dumaans, between the East, and in Egypt) begin at this time to dis-Adubens and Raabens: where the City Du- cover a passage into Europe, and into those parts of Greece, neighbouring Alia and Ju-Of Massa the Massari, and of Hadar, or daa. For if Pelasgus, besides his bodily Chadar, the Athrita, who bordered the Na- strength, was chosen King of Arcadia, because he taught those people to erect them Thema begat the Themaneans, among the simple Cottages, to defend them from rain Arabian Mountains, where also the City of and storm: and learned them withal to make a kind of Meale, and bread of Acorns, who before lived, for the most part, by Herbs and Roots: we may thereby judge how poor and wretched those times were, and how falfly those Nations have vaunted of those their antiquities, accompanied not on-Cadma, the last and twelfth of Ijmaels sons, ly with civil learning, but with all other was the Ancestor of the Cadmonaans: who kindes of knowledg. And it was in this age were afterward called Afite, because they of the World, as both Eusebius and S. Augu-Aug. 183 fine have observed, that Prometheus flourish- vit, Dei. The Amalekites gave their Kings the name | ed : Quem propterea ferunt de luto formasse perhibetur; Of whom it is reported, that he World long after them. Besides these sons of formed men out of clay, because he mas an ex. Japenus, Ffculus finds two other, to wit, ocellent teacher of mildom: and to the ophrajius ceanus and Hefterus, who being famous in To have reference 12 wife inventions: and B- las of Lybia, or Marritania, there were ocesson. It made report that by the fealing of Ju-thers which bare the same name: but of the in Prost. school february schools affirmeth, That by the stealing of Juvind. Julian and the brother of Prometheus, it let the knowledg of Lyhan, and the brother of Prometheus, it let 8. lib. Piters fire was meant, that the knowledg of Lyhan, and the brother of Prometheus, it let the fire and other large that the fire Mountains which cook is 18. deci- Prometheus reached to the Stars, and other was that those Mountains which cross Afri-Stone, and Clay: meaning, that before his the fon of Neptune. birth and being, those people among whom Cicero in the fifth of his Tusculan questions on of Prometheus, being bound on the top express divine knowledg. Nee vero Atlas fuf-Lad Viva mum afcer dife Cancafum, ut jereno colo quam faftened to Cancafus, nor Cepheus with his be might in a clear skie differn a far off the ous fables. tings and rifings of the Stars: though Dio hers diverfly.

> Of this mans knowledg Æschylus gives this estimony.

248

Ast agebant omnia Ot fors ferebat: donoe ipse-erperi Signorum obitus, ortugue qui mortalibus Sunt utiles : & multitudinem artium His repperi: componere inde literas ; Mairemque Musarum auxi cgo Memoriam Perutilem cundis. Oc.

first found out how Stars did set and rise: A profitable art to mortal men: And others of like use I did devise: As letters to compose in learned wife I first did teach: and first did amplifie The Mother of the Muses, Memorie.

Africanus makes Promethens far more an-Aug. 1.18. tient, and but 94. years after Ogyges. Porphy-6.3. dec. rius fayes, that he lived at once with Ina- facius Tzetzes, a curious fearcher of antiquivii. Dei, chus, who lived with Ifanc.

be faid, that they were born before Moses his Philosophy. dayes, and therefore are by others efteemed of a more anrient date: yet the advantage of their long lives gave them a part of other homines, quia obtimus supientia doctor fuisce ages among men, which came into the expounded the invention of fire afcribed to the West, gave name to the Evening, and Prometheus, Ad inventa sapientic pertinere; so to the Evening Star. Also besides this Atcelefrial bodies. Again, it is written of him, ca, to the South of Marocco, Sus, and Hea, that he had the art fo to use this fire, as there- with the Sea adjoyning, took name, which by he gave life to the Images of Wood, memory Plato in Critias bestowes on Allar, he lived, had nothing else worthy of men, affirmeth, that all things written of Promebut external form and figure. By that ficti- theus and Atlas, were but by those namesto of the Hill Caucasus, his entrails the while tincre calum, nec Prometheus affixus Caucaso, devoured by an Eagle, was meanr the inward nec stellatus Cepheus cum uxore tradereur. care and reffless defire he had to investigate nist divina cognitio nomen corum ad errorem the Natures, Motions, and Influences of hea- fabula traduciffet; Neither should Atlas be venly bodies; for fo it is said: Ideo altiffi- laid to bear up heaven, nor Prometheus to be longiffine aftra fienorum obitus & ortus feeta- wife to be stellified, unless their divine knowrety That he ascended Cancains so the end that ledg had raifed upon their names these errone-

Orpheus fometimes express'd Time by Prodorus siculus expounds it otherwife, and metheus, fometime he rook him for saturn; as, Rhea conjux alme Prometheu. But that the Story of Prometheus was not altogether a fiction, and that he lived about this time, the most approved Historians and Antiqua- Lik. 18 ries, and among them Eusebius and S. Augu- cap 8 4 fine have not doubted : For the great judge divinition ment which Atlas had in Astronomy, faith S. Augustine, were his daughters called by the names of constellations, Pleiades and Hyades. Others attribute unto him the finding out of the Moons course, of which Archas the fon of Orchomenus challengeth the invention. But Fortune govern'd all their works, till Of this Areas, Areadia in Peloponnesus took name; and therefore did the Arcadians vaunt that they were more antient than the Moor: Et Luna gens prior illa fuit: which full. is to be understood, faith Natalis Comes, before there had been any observation of the Meons course: or of her working in inferiour bodies. And though there be that befrow the finding out thereof upon Endymion: others (as Xenagoras) on Typhon: yet Ities, gave it Atlas of Libya: who, befides his There lived also at once with Moles, that gifts of mind, was a man of unequalled and famous Atlas, brother to Prometheus, both incomparable strength: from whom Ibales being the fons of Japetus, of whom though it the Milestan, as it is said, had the ground of

§. V.

of Deucalion and Phaeton.

Nd in this age of the World, and while And in this age of the World, and while Moses yet lived, Deucalion reigned in Thefaly, Crotopus then ruling the Argives. This Deucalion was the fon of Promotheus. faith Herodotus, Apollonius, Hesiodus, and Hesiodus gave him Pandora for mother ; the rest Clymene : Homer in the fifteenth of his Odysses, makes Deucalion the fon of Minos: but he must needs have meant some other Dencalion; for else who either Ulyses was mistaken, or Homer, who for Unifer, after his return from Troy, feigned himself to be the brother of Idomeneus, who was fon to this later Deucalion, the fon of Minos: but this Minos lived but one age before Troy was taken: (for Idomeneus ferved in that war) and this Deucalion the fon of Prometheus, who lived at once with Moses, was long before. In the first Deucalion's time happened that great inundation in Thessaly: by which in effect every foul in those parts perished, but Deucalion, Pyrrha his wife, and some few others. It is affirmed, that at the time of this Deucalion, and Pyrrha his wife, whom God spared, were both of them esteemed to be lovers of Vertue, of Justice, and of Religi-Of whom ovid:

Non illo melior quisquam, nec amantior aqui Vir fuit : aut illa reverentior ulla dearum.

No man was Better, nor more just than hee: Nor any woman godlier than fliee.

Itis also affirmed, that Prometheus foretold his fon Deucalion of this over-flowing, and advised him to provide for his safety: who hereupon prepared himself a kind of Vessel, which Incian in his Dialogue of Timon calls Cibotium; and others Larnax; And because to these circumstances, they afterhould verily think that Story had been but Taantus, Sanconiatho, who lived about the an imitation of Noah's flood devised by the the war of Troy, gives the invention of let-

Greeks, did not the time so much differ, and S. Augustine with others of the Fathers and Aug. de reverent Writers approve this Story of Den-118 (10) calion. Among other his children, Deucali- ex Eufeb o on had these two of note; Hellen, of whom wind Greece had first the name of Hellas; and Melantho, on whom Neptune is faid to have begot Delphus, which gave name to Delphos, fo renowned among the Heathen for the Qracle of Apollo therein founded.

And that which was no less strange and marvellous than this flood, was that great burning and conflagration which about this time also happened under Phaeton; not only in Ethiopia, but in Istria, a Region in Italy, and about Cuma, and the Mountains of Vesuvius: of both which the Greeks, after their manner, have invented many strange fables;

6. VI.

Of Hermes Trismegistus.

PUt of all other which this age brought forth among the Heathen, Mercurius was the most famous and renowned; the same which was also called Trismegistus, or Ter Maximus; and of the Greeks, Hermes.

Many there were of this name; and how flood in Theffaly, those people exceeded in to distinguish, and set them in their own all kind of wickedness and villany: and as times, both S. Augustine and Lastantius find the impiety of men is the forcible attractive it difficult. For that Mercury which was of Gods vengeance, to did all that Nation efteemed the god of Theeves, the God of for their foul fins perish by waters: as in the Wrestlers, of Merchants, and Sea-men, and time of Noah, the corruption and cruelty of the god of Eloquence (though all by one all mandkind drew on them that general name confounded) was not the same with destruction by the flood universal. Onely that Mercury, of whose many works some fragments are now extant.

Cicero, Clemens Alexandrinus, Arnobius, and certain of the Greeks reckon five Mercuries. Of which, two were famous in Egipt, and there worshipped; one, the for of Nilus, whose name the Egyptians seared to utter, as the Jews did Tetragrammaton; the other that Mercury, which flew Argus in Greece, and flying into Egypt, is faid to have delivered literature to the Egyptians, and to have given them laws. But Piodorus affirm-Lud. Pions eth, that Orpheus, and others after him, out of cibrought learning and letters out of Egypt tero in Aug into Greece: which Plato also confirmeth , 18 c. 264 faying; That letters were not found out by that Mercury which flew Argus, but by that antient Mercury otherwise Thever; whom Philo Byblins writeth Taantus ; the Egyptians, ward add the fending out of the Dove, to Thorth; the Alexandrians, Thot, and the difcover the waters fall and decrease, I Greeks, (as before) Hermes. And to this

250

ters. But S. Augustine making two Mercu- on a pillar crected on the Tomb of Isis. Lod. ##66 . ries, which were both Egyptians, calls neither c. 6 de of them the fon of Nilus, nor acknowledg-Prop from eth either of them to have flain Argus. For he finds this Mercury the flayer of Argus, to the grand-child of that Atlas, which lived while Moles was yet young. And yet L.Vives upon S. Augustine seems to understand them to be the fame with those, whom Cicero, Alexandrinus, and the reft have remembred. But that conjecture of theirs, that any Grecian Mercury brought letters into Fgpt, hath no ground. For it is manifest, (if there be any truth in prophane antiquity) that all the knowledg which the Greeks had, was transported out of Egypt or Phanieta, and not out of Greece, nor by any Grecian into Egypt. For they all confess, that Cadmus brought letters first into Baotia, either out of Fgypt, or out of Phanicia: it being true, that between Mercurius, that lived at once with Asofes and Cadmus, there were these descents cast; Crotopus King of the Argives, with whom Moles lived, and in whose time about his tenth year Moses died 5 after Crotopus, Sthenelus, who reigned eleven years; after him Danaus hfty years; after him Linceus: in whole time, and after rather resolve, that these works which are him in the time of Atinos King of Crete, this Cadmus arrived in Bwotia. And therefore it cannot be true that any Mercurius about Moses his time, flying out of Greece for the flaughter of Argus, brought literature out of Greece into Egypt. Neither did either of those two Mercuries of Egypt, whom Saint Augustine remembreth, the one the grandfather, the other the Nephew or grandchild, come out of Greece. Eupolemus and Artapanus note, that Mofes found out letters, and taught the use of them to the Jews: of whom the Phanicians their neighbours received them; and the Greeks of the Phanicians by Cadmus. But this invention was also ascribed to Moses, for the reason before remembred; that is, because the Jews and the Phanicians had them first from him. For every Nation gave unto those menthe honour of first Inventors, from whom they received the profit. Ficinus makes that Mercury, upon part of whole works he commenteth, to have been four descents after Atofes; which he hath out of Virgil, who cals Atlas, that lived with Moses, the maternal grand-father of the first famous Mercury, whom others, as Diodorus, call the Counseller and Instructer of that renowned Isis, wife, of Offris. But Ficinus giveth no reason for From in his opinion herein. But that the elder Mer-Praf. Pre-mand Mer. cury instructed Isis, Diodorus Siculus affirm-curi trif-eth, and that such an Inscription was found megis.

Vives upon the fix and twentieth Chapter of the eighth Book of Saint Augustine, de Civitate Dei, conceiveth, that this Atercury, whose works are extant, was not the first which was entituled Ter Maximus, but his Nephew or Grand-child, * Sanchoniaton, an ancient. 00: Phanician, who lived thortly after Mofes in hath other fancies of this Mercury ; affirming the fancies that he was the Scribe of Saturn, and called by the Phanicians, Taautus, and by the E. 45 gyptians, Thoot, or Thoyt. It may be, that the many years which he is faid to have lived, the to wit, three hundred years, gave occasion de to some Writers to find him in one time, and to to others in other times. But by those who have collected the grounds of the Egyptian Philosophy and Divinity, he is found more antient than Moses: because the Inventor of the Egyptian Wisdom, wherein it is said, that Mofes was excellently learned. It is true, that although this Mercury or Hermes doth in his Divinity differ in many particulars from the Scriptures, especially in the approving of Images , which Moses of all things most detested : yet whosoever shall read him with an even judgment, will now extant, were by the Greeks and Egyptian Priests corrupted, and those sooleries inferted, then that ever they were by the hand of Hermes written, or by his heart and spirit devised. For there is no man of understanding, and mafter of his own wits, that hath affirmed in one and the fame Tract, those things which are directly contrary indo-Ctrine, and in nature : For out of doubt (Mofer excepted) there was never any man of those elder times that hath attributed more, and in a stile more reverend and divine unto Almighty God, than he hath done. And therefore if those his two Treatises now among us; the one converted by Apuleius, the other by that learned Ficinus, had been found in all things like themselves: I think we it had not been perillous to have thought with Eupolemus, that this Hermes was Moses himself; and that the Egyptian Theologic hereafter written, was devised by the first, and more antient Mercury, which others have thought to have been Joseph, the son of Jacob: whom, after the exposition of Tharaoh's dreams, they called Saphanetphane, which is as much to fay, as Absconditorumrepertor; A finder out of hidden things. But these are overventurous opinions. For what this man was, it is known to God. Envy and aged time hath partly defaced, and partly worn out the certain knowledg of him: of whom, whosoever he were, Last antius wilt-tmentes, in quibus Majestatem summi ac sincularis Dei afferit, iifdemque nominibus appelat, quibus nos, Deum & Patrem ; He hath written many Books belonging to, or expressing the knowledg of divine things, in which he affirmeth the Majesty of the most High, and one God, calling him by the same names of God and Father, which we do. The same Father also feareth not to number him among the Sybils and Prophets. And so contrary are these his acknowledgments to those Idolatrous fictions of the Egyptians and Grecians: as for my felf I am perfuaded, that whatfoever is found in him contrary thereunto was bycorruption inserted. For thus much himself confelleth: Deus omnium Dominus, & Pater fons & vita, potentia & lux, & mens & spiritus: 6 omnia in ipfo & fub ipfo funt. Verbum enim ex cius esse prodiens, perfectissimum exiftens, & generator, & opifex, Oc. God (fai h he) the Lord and Father of all things, the fountain and life, and power, and light, and mind, and spirit: and all things are in him. and under him. For his Word out of himleit proceeding, most perfect, and generative, and operative, falling upon fruitful nature, made it also fruitful and producing. And he was therefore (faith Suydas) called Ter Maximus, quia de Trinitate loguutus est, in Trinitate unum esse Deum asserens; Because he spake of the Trinity, affirming that there is one God in Trinity. Hie ruinam (faith Ficinus) previdit prisce Religionis, his ortum nove fidei, hic adventum Christi, hic futurum judicium resurrectionem saculi, beatorum gloriam, supplicia peccatorum; This Mercury forefam ing, the ruine of the old or superstitious Religion, and the birth of the new faith, and of the of Jannes and Jambres, and some other that coming of Christ, the future judgment, the resurrection, the glory of the bleffed, and the torment or affliction of the wicked or damned.

To this I will onely add his two last speeches reported by Calcidius the Platonist, and by Volteran out of Surdas. Hactenus, fili, pulsus à patria, vixi percerinus & exul, nune incolumis repeto. Cumque post paulum à vobis corporeis vinculis absolutus discessero, videtote ne me quasi mortuum lugeatis: nam ad illam optimam beatamque Civitatem regredior, ad quam universi cives mortis conditione venturi sunt. Ibi namque solus Deus est sum-11664 eth in this fort : Hic Cripfit libros, & quidem in a short time) by being loosed from these multos, ad cognitionem divinarum rerum per- bonds of flesh and blood, depart from you, see that you do not bewail me as a man dead; for I do but return to that best and blessed City, to which all her Citizens (by the condition of death) shall repair. Therein is the onely God, the most high and chief Prince, who filleth or feedeth his citizens with sweetness more than marvellous: in regard whereof, this being which others call a life, is rather to be accounted a death than a life. The other, and that which feemeth to be his last, is thus converted by others, agreeing in fense, but not in words: with Suydas: O colum, magni Dei sapiens opus, teque Ó vox Patris quam ille primam emilit, quando universum constituit mundum, adjuro per unigenitum ejus Verbum. & Spiritum, cunct a comprehendentem, Miferemini mei : I adjure thee O heaven, thou wife work of the great God, and thee O voyce of the Father, which he first uttered, when he framed the whole World, by his onely begotten Word, and Spirit, comprehending all things, Have mercy upon me.

But Suydas hath his invocation in these words: Obtestor te calum, magni Dei sapiens opus, obtestor te vocem Patris, quam loquntus est primum cum omnem mundum sirmavit, obtestor te per unigenitam Sermonem omnia continentem, propitius, propitius esto; I beseech thee O heaven, wife work of the great God, I befeech thee O voice of the Father, which he Spake first when he established all the world. I befeech thee by the onely begotten Word containing all things, be favourable, be favourable.

§. VII.

lived about those times.

Here were also in this age both Asculapins, which after his death became the god of the Phylicians, being the brother of Mercurius, as Vives thinks in his Commen- L. Vives in tary upon Augustine, de Civitate Dei, lib. 8.1.8 Aug. and also those two notorious Sorcerers, Jan- c. 10. nes and fambres, who in that impious art excelled all that ever had been heard of to this day: and yet Moses himself doth not charge them with any familiarity with Divels, or ill Spirits: words indeed that felmus Princeps, qui cives suos replet suavitate dom came out of his mouth : however by mirifica: ad quam hac, quam multi vitam ex- the Septuagint they are called sophifta, or istimant, mors est potius dicenda quam vita; Venesici, and Incantatores; Sophists, Poy-Hitherto, O fon, being driven from my coun- foners, and Inchanters: by Hierome, Sapientes, try, I have lived a stranger and banished man: & malesici; Wise men, and evil doers and but now I am repaired homeward again in safe- so by Vatablus, who also useth the word Ma-17. And when I shall after a few days (or gi. The Greek it self seems to attribute somewhat of what they did to natural Magick: | us inflictute the like games to Minerva: Er : 11. calling them corporats, workers by drugs. The Concean, Sorcerers and Inchanters: Junius, Supicetes, Prafrigiatores. & Magi. Magician and Wife men here by him are taken in one sence: and Prestigiators are such as dazel menseyes, and make them feem to fee what they fee not : as false colours, and false thapes. But as fome vertues and tome vices are so nicesly distinguished, and so resembling each other as they are often confounded; and the one taken for the other (Religion and Superfition having one face and countenance) fo did the works and working of Moles, and of Pharao's Sorcerers appear in outward thew, and to the beholders famous in Planicia; nor that Hercules, acof common capacities, to be one and the fame art and gift of knowledg. For the Divel changeth himself into an Angel of light: fit, non Thebanum Herculem, sed Egypinm ad and imitateth in all he can the water and workings of the most High. And yet, on the contrary, every work which furmounteth the wildom of most men, is not to be condemned, as performed by the help or ministery of ill Spirits. For the properties and powers which God hath given to natural things, are fuch, as where he also bestoweth the knowledg to understand their hidden and best vertues, many things by them are brought to pass, which seem altogether impossible, and above nature or art: which two speculations of works of nature, and of miracle, the Cabalifts difting withed by thefe names ; Opus de Berclub, & opus de mercana: the one they call, Sapientiam natura; The Wisdom of nature: the other, Saprentiam divinitatis; The Wildom of divinity : the one Jacob practifed in breeding the pied Lambs in Mejopotamia; the other Mofes exercised in his miracles wrought in Fgpt, having received from God the knowledg of the one in the highest perfection, to wir, the knowledg of nature : of the other fo far as it pleafed God to proportion him, both which he used to his glory that gave them: assuming to bimfelf nothing at all, either in the leaft or most. Also S. Augustine noteth, that from the time that Miofes left Egypt, to the death of Jolhua, divers other famous men lived in the World, who, after their deaths, for their eminent vertues, and inventions, were numbred among the gods: as Dionyfins, otherwife Liber Pater, who taught the Greciansthe use of the Vine in Attica? at which time also there were inflituted Musical plays to Apollo Delphicus: thereby to regain his favour, who brought barrenness and scarcity upon that part of Greece because they resisted not the attempts of Danaus, who spoiled his Temple, and fet it on fire: fo did Erithoni-wherein the Victor was rewarded with a present of orl, in memory of her that first preft it out of the Olive.

In this age also Xanthus ravished Europa, and begat on her Radamanthus, Sarpedon and Minos, which three are also given to Juniter by other Historians. To these Saint Augustine addeth Hercules; the same to be to whom the twelve labours are afcribed, native of Tyrinthia a City of Peloponnesus: (or as others fay, onely nurfed and brought up there) who came into Italy, and destroyed many Monsters there; being neither that Hercules, which Eusebius furnameth Delphin. cording to Philofiratus, which came to Gades, whom he calleth an Egyptian: Manifestum Philip Gades pervenisse, & ibi finem statuisse terre (faith Phinofiratus ;) It is manifest, that it was the Egytian Hercules, and not the Theban, which travelled as far as the straights of Gades, and there determined the bounds of the earth. In this time also while Moses wandered in the Defarts, Dardamis built Dar-

But whofoever they were, or how worthy soever they were that lived in the Dayes and Age of Mofes, there was never any man, that was no more than Man, by whom it pleased God to work greater things; whom he favoured more, to whom (according to the appearing of an infinite God) he so often appeared; never any man more familiar and conversant with Angels; never any more learned both in Divine and Humane knowledge; never a greater Prophet in Ifrael. He was the first that received and delivered the Law of God entire; the first that left to posterity by letters, the truth and power of one infinite God; his creating out of nothing the World Universal, and all the creatures therein; that taught the detellation of Idolatry, and the punishment, vengeance, and eradication, which followed.

Syracides calleth Moses the beloved of God and men, whose remembrance is bless sym ed. He made him (faith the fame Author) 14. like to the glorious Saints, and magnified him by the fear of his enemies, made him glorious in the fight of Kings, shewed him his glory, canf. ed him to hear his voyce, sandified him with faithfulness and meckness, and chose him out of all men.

He is remembred among prophane Authors; as by Clearchus the Peripatetick: by Megastenes, and Numenius the Pythagorian. The long lives which the Patriarchs enjoy riens, Acufilans, Ephorus, and Alexander the without any figure at allaherein. Hiltorian, confirm. The universal flood which greeing with the books of Miefes. Eupolemon vine, and Moral. writeth the very fame of Abraham, which In the Mathematical part, which is diffin-Caldeans was invented. Is justitia pietateque in bounding out their proper Lands and sua (faith Eusebius out of the same Author) Territories, when their fields and limits, by fic Deo gratus fuit, ut divino pracepto in Phat the inundations of Nilus, were yearly overniciam venerit, ibique habitaverit; For his flown and confounded, fo as no man could suffice and piety he was so pleasing unto God, know what in right belonged unto him. as by his commandment be came into Phani- For the second part, to wit, Aftronomy, cia, and dwelt there. Likewise Diodorus Si- the site of the Countrey being a level and culus in his second Book and fifth Chapter, spacious Plain, free and clear from the speaketh reverently of Moses: There are clouds, yielded them delight with ease, in many other among prophane Authors, which observing and contemplating the risings, faldo confirm the books of Moses, as Eusebius lings, and motions of the Stars. hath gathered in the ninth of his Preparation Stiarum & pecorum imagines Deo tribucrunt : their Kings, and good Men. Hemque Afros & Gracos, qui diis hominum The Natural part of this Wisdom, which figuram affinxerunt: id vero solum esse Deum, handleth the principles, causes, elements, of bealts and cattel: Also that the Africans proper souls, &c. and Greeks greatly erred in giving unto their gods the shapes of men's whereas that onely is called Theology, teacheth and believe that ed before the flood, remembred by Moses, side) a morthy Temple and place of prayer was Efficus, Hieronymus, Zegptius, Hecatous, Ela- to be creeded unto him, and he to be worshipped

Now concerning the Egyptian wildom, God revealed unto Moses, Eerosus, Nicolaus for which the Martyr Stephen commended Asia, 133. Damascenus, and others, have testified. The Moses, saying, That Moses was learned in all building of the Tower of Babel, and confu- the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty fion of tongues, Abydenus, Estieus, and Sy- in his works and words; the same is correbilla have approved. Berefits also honoureth sted (how truly I know not) by Diodorus, Abraham. Hecataus wrote a book of him. Diogenes, Laertius, Iamblicus, Philo Judans, Damascenus before cited, speaketh of abra- and Ensebius Casarienses, and divided into hams passage from Damaseus into Canaan, a- four parts, viz. Mathematical, Natural, Di-

Moles did. For beginning with the building guilh'd into Geometry, Aftronomy, Arithmeof Babel, and the overthrow thereof by di- tick, and Almick, the antient Egyptians exvine power, he faith that Abraham, born in ceed all others. For Geometry which is by the tenth generation, in the City called Carinterpretation, Measuring of grounds, was merins, or Vrien, excelled all men in wif- uleful unto them: because it confisting of dom: and by whom the Afrology of the infallible principles, directed them certainly Arithmetick also, which is the knowledge to the Gospel, Chapter the third and sourth, of numbers, they studied; because without to whom I refer the Reader. Lastly, I can- it, in Geometry and Astronomy, nothing can not but for some things in it commend this be demonstrated or concluded. But of Munotable testimony of Strabo, who writeth of fick they made no other account, nor desired Moses in these words: Moses enim affirmavit, farther knowledg, than seemed to them sufdocebatque Egyptios non reste sentire, qui be- ficient to serve and magnifie their gods, quod nos, & terram, & mare continet, quod and operations of natural things, differs litcolum, & mundum, & rerum omnium natu- tle from Peripatetical Philosophy; teaching, ram appellamus: cujus profecto imaginom ne- that Materia prima is the beginning of all mo sana mentis, alichjus earum rerum, qua things; that of it all mixt bodies, and living penes nos funt, similem audeat effingere. Pro- creatures have their being; that Heaven is inde(omni simulachrorum effictione repudiața) round like a Globe; that all Stars have a dignum ei Templum ac Delubrum constituen- certain fovent heat, and temperate influendum, ac fine aliqua figura colendum: Moses ces, whereby all things grow and are produaffirmed and taught, that the Egyptians thought ced; that rains proceed and be from mutaamis, which attributed unto God the images tions in the air; that the Planets have their

God indeed, which containeth both us, the the world had a beginning, and shall perish; earth and sea, which we call heaven, the world, that men had, their first original in Egypt; and the nature of all things, whose image, doubt- partly by means of the temperatures of that les, no mise man will dare to fashion out unto Country, where neither Winter with cold, the likeness of those things, which are amongs nor Summer with hear, are offensive; and us. That therefore (all desifing of Idols caft no partly through the fertility that Nilus giveth and hath transmigration from body to body . That God is one the Father and Prince of all gods, and that from this God, other gods are, as the Sun and Moon, whom they worthipped by the names of Ofiris and Ifis, and erected to them Temples, Statues, and divers Images, because the true similatudes of thians are thought to have been delighted the gods is not known; that many of the gods have been in the estate of mortal men. and after death, for their virtues and benefits bestowed on mankind, have been Deified; that those beasts, whose Images and Forms Kingdom, unless he would acknowledge the Kings did carry in their Arms, when they obtained victory, were adored for gods: because under those Ensigns they prevailed over their enemies. Moreover the Egyptian Divines had a peculiar kind of writing, myflical, and feeret, wherein the highest points was to be concealed from the vulgar fort, were obscured.

254

forts, viz. Epiftolar, which is used in writing his men did hasten away, as a Bird through common Epistles; Sacerdotal, which is pe- the aire, or creep into holes as a Mouse, or culiar to their Priests; and Sacred, which run into the waters which they had passed as Sacred containeth Scripture of two kinds: a Frog, they should not escape his arms, but the one proper, which is expressed by letters either be slain, or, being made Captives, till Alphabetical in obscure and figurative his grounds. The same History is with little words; as for example, where it is written: difference reported by Herodotus. The this by the Hornet participateth the beauty of the Hawke; which is read thus: The Moon doth by the Sun borrow part of Laws, which (according to Laertins) Marthe light of God: because Light is an Image curius Trismegistus, or Ter Maximus devised: of Divine beauty; the other lymbolical, or by fignatures, which is threefold, viz. Imitative, Tropical, and Ænygmatical: Imitative, which designeth things by characters, like to the thingsfignified, as by a Circle the Sun; and by the Horns of the Moon, the Moon it felf: Tropical or transferent, which applys the divers forms and figures of natural bodies or creatures, to fignifie the dignities, fortunes, conditions, virtues, vices, affections, and actions of their gods, and of men. So with the Egyptian Divines, the Image of an Hawke fignifieth God, the figure of the Hornet fignifieth the Sun, the picture of the Bird Ibis fignifieth the Moon: by the form of a Man, Prudence, and Skilfulness: by a Lion, Fortitude: by a Horse, Liberty: by a Crocodile, Impudency: by a Fish, Harred is to be understood: Ænigmatical is a composition, or mixture of Images or Similitudes: in which sence, the monstrous Image of a Lions body having a Manshead, was graven on their Temples and Altars, to fignific that and obscure. So the Image of the Sun set on ten in that Tongue. Clemens Alexandrians data in those places. That the foul is immortal, the head of a Crocodile, (which liveth as well in the Waters, as on Land) expresseth, that the Sun nourisheth Meteors in the Air, aswell from the Waters, as from the Earth. So a Scepter, at the top whereof is made an Eye, and an Ear, fignifieth God, Hearing, Seeing, and governing all things. The Seywith this kind of writing. For Pherecides 87rius reporteth, That when Darius fending letters, threatned Idanthura, King of the Seythians, with ruine and destruction of his subjection: Idanthura returned to him a Mouse, a Frog, a Bird, a Dart, and a Ploughshare: which Orontopagas, Tribune of the Souldiers, interpreted to fignifie, that by the Mouse, their dwellings: by the Frog, their waters: by the Bird, their air: by the Dart, of their Religion and worship of God, which their weapons: by the Plough, their Lands were fignified to be ready to be delivered to Darius, as their Soveraign Lord. But Xy-Clemens distributeth the whole sum of phodres made another construction, viz. that this later Egoptian learning into three feveral the King meant, That except Darius with

The fourth and last part, which is Moral and Politick, doth contain especially the who in his Books or Dialogues of Pimander and Asclepius, hath written so many things of God, worthy of admiration; aswell (faith Sixtus Senensis of the Trinity, and of the coming of Christ, as of the last and fearfull day of Judgment : that (as faith the same Author, the opinion being also antient) he is not onely to be accounted a Philosopher, but a Prophet of things to come.

Iamblicus in his Books of Mysteries of the Egyptians, taking two very antient Historians for their Authors, to wit, selencus and Menatus, affirmeth, that this Mercury was not only the Inventor of the Egyptian Philofophy, but of all other learning, called the Wisdom of the Egyptians, before remembred: and that he wrote of that subject 36525. Books or Pages. Of which there were numbred, of Fiery Spirits, one hundred Books; of Aereal Spirits as many, and of Spirits Celestial a thousand; which because they were out of the Egyptians language converted by certain learned Philosophers into natural Greek, they feemed to have been first writwriteth, that among the Books of Hermes, to | Moses) to march in the head of the rest, and, wit, of the Wiscom of the Egyptians, there as we call it in this age, to lead in the Vauntwere extant in his time 36. Of Phylick, fix guard, which through all the Defarts of A-Books; of the orders of Priests, ten; and of rabia, from the Mount Sinai to this place. Astrology, four.

6. VIII.

A Brief of the History of Josua; and of the space between him and Othoniel: and of the remainders of the Canaanites; with a note of some Contemporaries to Josua: and of the breach of Faith.

Fter the death of Moses, and in the one selves from the fixth day to the ninth; and Aand fortieth year of the Egression, in on the tenth day of the first moneth Nisan;

18 18 define dates with the reign of Amyntas, the tieth year in the Defarts should be circumtion. Del. eighteenth King in Affyria; with Corax the cifed, which ceremony to that day had been ver, which he was to passover. Which dif- full by circumcision to distinguish them from coverers being faved, and fent back by Ra- other Nations, at fuch times as they lived by hab, a woman of ill fame, because she kept a themselves, and a-part from all Nations. Tavern or Victualling-house, made Josua know, that the inhabitants of Jerico, and the children of Ifrael celebrated the Passodown his Army to the banks of the River yet full ripe, and eat thereof.

And as Moses began to distribute those Canaan with dry feet.

those of the Tribe of Juda had performed. For these Tribes being already provided of their habitations, and Country, and Cities of the Amorites by the help of the rest, conquered for them: it agreed with justice and equality, that Renben, Gad, and the half of Manaffe should also affist their brethren in the obtaining of their parts, as yet in their enemies possession. On the banks of Jordan they refted them-the first moneth called Nisan, or March, Josua, or March, they pas'd over to the other side, the son of Nun, of the Tribe of Ephraim, be taking with them twelve stones from the dry ing filled with the Spirit of wildom, took on ground in the midft of the River: which, him the government of Ifrael: God giving for a memory of that miracle by God him comfort, and encouraging him to pais wrought, they set up at Gigal, on the Eastthe River of Jordan, and to polless and di- fide of the city of Jerico, where they incam- Fof 419. vide among the Ifraelites, the land promised. ped the first night. At which place Josua gave The beginning of Josua's rule, Saint Augu- commandment, that all born in the last for- 16.5.21 fixteenth King in Sicyonia, when Danaus go- omitted. Of the neglect whereof S. Augustine Aug 4.3. verned the Argives; and Erichhonius, Athens. giveth for cause, The peoples contempt of in J. Joha imitating in all things his Predecef- their Superiours. Thomas excuseth it in this Thompast, for, fent over Jordan certain discoverers to fort; That the Israelites knew not the cer-3, quest 70. view the feat and strength of Jerico, the next tain time of their removing from one place art. 4 ad. 3. City unto him on the other fide of the Ri- to another: Damascen, That it was not need-

On the fourteenth day of the same moneth, those of the Country about it, hearing of the | ver now the third time; first, at their leavapproach of Ifraei, had lost courage. Where- ing Egypt; secondly, at Mount Sinai; and upon the day after the return of the Spies, now at Gilgal. After which, being defirous Jol. 5. 10. which was the fixth day of the one and for- to taste of the fruits of the Country, and hatieth year after the Egression, Josua removed ving, as it were, surfetted on Manna, they from sittim in the plains of Moab, and drew parched of the Corn of the Land, being not put themselves in order to follow the Ark of Regions beyond Jordan, to wit, the Lands God, when the Levites took it up, and moved of the Amorites, which Og of Basan, and Sehon towards the River, giving them withal this held, so did Josua perform the rest; and afforcible encouragement, That they should ter a view and partition made of the Territhereby affure themselves of his favour and tories, he gave to each Tribe his portion by presence, who is Lord of all the world, when lot. But this partition and distribution was the River of Jordan should be cut off and not done at once, but at three several times; divided, and the waters coming from above first, by Moses to Gad, Reuben, and the half Jos. 143. should stand still in a heap, whereby those Tribe of Manasse, of the Lands over Jordan; below towards the Dead Sea wanting sup- secondly, by Josua, to the Tribe of Juda, Eply, they might pass over into the Land of phraim, and the other half Tribe of Manase, about the fifth year of his government; He also commanded Réillen, Gad, and the proved in the 14. of felia. v. 10. and a third half Tribe of Manasse, to prepare themselves division was made to the other seven Tribes (according to their Covenant made with at Shilo, where Josus seated the Tabernacle of Jos. 18. the Congregation.

The victories of Josia against the Kings rites, which attempted Gibeon by surprise. down in his own books, as I shall not need to | Gilgal, and set on them early the next day; lengthen this part by their repetition. In when he overthrew Jabin and his confedewhose Story I chiefly note these particulars. rates. After which, making the best profit First.how in the beginning of the war, those of his victory, he assaulted the great City little kings, or reguli of the Canaanites, had of Hazor. not so much understanding, as to unite themselves together against the Israelites; but according to the custom of these estates, as the stay of the River fordan at the Springs, from whose Governours God hath taken a- fo as the Army of Ifrael past it with a dry Min way all wisdom and foresight, they left those foot; the fall of Jerico by the sound of the count way all wisdom and forefight, they left those of their own Nation, which were next the invaders, to themselvs, and to their own defences; hoping that the fire kindled fomewhat Gibeon, wherby more of them perished than far off, might again have been quenched, ere by the fword of Ifrael: again, the arrest of it could spread it self so far as their own the Sun in the sirmament, whereby the day Territories and Cities. But after fuch time was so much the more lightened, as the Israas Jerico and Ai were entred, and the Kings, lites had time to execute all those which fied People, and Cities confumed; five of those after the overthrow: a wonder of wonders, 31 Kings (all which at length perished in and a work only proper to the all-powerthat war) joyned themselves together, first still God. attempting the Gibeonites, who had rendred themselves to Josua. Onely five (the rest Josua and the Gibeonites, the Doctrine of looking on to the fucces) namely, the King keeping Faith is so plainly and excellently of the Jebusties, in Jebus, or Hierusalem, the taught, as it taketh away all evasion, it ad-Kings of Hebron, Jarmoth, Lachis, and Eglon, mitteth no intrusion, nor leaveth open any addrest themselves for resistance: whose hole or out-let at all to that cunning persistance. Army being by Jofua surprized and broken, diou nes, and horrible deceit of this latter themselves despairing to escape by flight, and hopeless of mercy by submission, creeping into a Cave under ground, were thence by Josua drawn forth and hanged. In the profecution of which victory he also took Makkedath, and Libnah, and Lachis. To the relief whereof Horam King of Gezar haften-Jos. 10. ed, and perithed. After which Josua poffest himself of Fglon, Hebron, and Debir, destroying the Cities with their Princes.

In the end, and when the South Countries were possest, the Cities thereof conquered, and their Kings and People made duft: the rest of the Canaanites, guided by the of Merom, he used such diligence, as he came ties of their inheritance. on them unawares; and obtaining absolute victory over them, he profecuted the same to the utmost effect. And besides the slaughhad it. For first, the commandment which ter of the defendants, he entred their Civies, he received from God to root out this Natiof which he burnt Hazor onely, referving on among the rest, preceded by far the peace the rest for Israel to inhabit and enjoy.

felf a skilful man of War, for that in those fword, and have fack'd their Cities, if there antient times he used the stratagem of an beany evasion from a promise made, where ambush in taking of Ai; and in that he broke of the living God is called to witness. For it of the Canaanites, are so particularly set For he marched all night from his Camp at Man

Thirdly, the miracles which God wrought during this war, were exceeding admirable Horns; the snowers of Hale-stones, which fell upon the Amorites in their flight from

Fourthly, out of the passage between age, called Equivocation. For, notwithftan- 70/91 ding that these Gibeonites were a people of the Hevites, expresly and by name, by the commandment of God to be rooted out, and notwithstanding that they were liars, and deceivers, and counterfeits, and that they did over-reach, and as it were, deride Jossa, and the Princes of Israel, by feigning to be sent as Embassadours from a far Country, in which travel their cloths were worn, their bread mouldie, which they avowed to have been warm for newness when they first set out; their barrels and bottles of wine broken; their shoos patch'd: and their sacks over-late counsels of necessity, united them- rent and ragged: Yet Josta having sworn sales of an Army: which Jabin, King of Hazor, durft not, though urged by the multitude practifed and gathered together, by Josua of the people, to lay violent hands on them; discovered, as the same rested neer the Lake but he spared both their lives, and the Ci-

Now if ever man had warrant to break which he had granted them. Secondly,he Secondly, I note, that Josia shewed him- might justly have put these men to the the Armies of the first five Kings of the Amo- was not to the Gibeonites he gave peace, because he knew them to be a people hated of publick faith. For though it were 400 years a league with them. But it was to a strange of the Gibeonites: yet God, who forgat not people that he gave faith, and to a Nation what the Predecessors and Fore-fathers of which came from far, who hearing of the Saul and the Ifraelites had sworn in his Name. wonders which the God of Ifrael had done affiited the whole Nation with a confuming written in the same place, That the Israelites help of a ridiculous distinction, or by a mouth of the Lord. Fourthly, these men who reserve in silence a contrary intent: the life were known Idolaters, and served those of man, the estates of men, the faith of Sub-Puppets of the Heathen, men of an apithRe- jects to Kings, of Servants to their Masters. ligion, as all Worshippers of Images are, of Vassals to their Lords, of Wives to their could not challenge the witness of the true Husbands, and of Children to their Parents. God, in whom they believed not. I fay and of all trials of right, will not onely be therefore, that if ever man might have fer- made uncertain, but all the chains whereby ved himself by any evasion or distinction, free-men are tied in the world, be torn a-Josua might justly have done it. For he need- funder. It is by oath (when Kings and ed not in this case the help of Aquivocation Armies cannot pass) that we enter into the or Mental Refervation. For what he sware, Cities of our enemies, and into their Armies: he sware in good Faith; but he sware no- it is by oath that wars take end, which weathing, nor made any promise at all to the Gi-pons cannot end. And what is it, or ought beonites. And yet, to the end that the faith- it to be, that makes an oath thus powerful, less subtilty of man should borrow nothing but this; That he that sweareth by the Name in the future from his example, who knowing of God, doth affure others that his words well that the promises he made in the Name are true, as the Lord of all the World is true, of God, were made to the living God, and whom he calleth for a Witness, and in whose not to the dying man, he held them firm and presence he that taketh the oath hath proinviolable, notwithstanding that they, to mised? I am not ignorant of their poor ewhom he had fworn it, were worshippers of vasions, which play with the severity of Gods Commandments in this kind: But this in-For it is not, as faithless men take it, that deed is the best answer, That he breaks no he which sweareth to a Man, to a Society, faith, that hath none to break. For whoto a State, or to a King, and fweareth by the foever hath faith and the fear of God, dares

God. He told them, that if they were of after Josua, that Saul, even out of devotion the Hevites, it was not in his power to make flaughtered some of those people descended in Egypt and over Jordan, fought for peace famine; and could not be appealed, till feand protection from his people. Thirdly, the ven of Sauls fons were delivered to the Giaccord, which Israel made with these crafty beonites grieved, and by them hanged up. Canaanites, was without warrant. For it is And certainly, if it be permitted by the accepted their tale, that is, believed what God-mocking equivocation, to swear one they had faid, and counselled not with the thing by the Name of the living God, and to the Devil.

Name of the living Lord, and in his presence, not do it. That this promise (if it be broken) is broness of the Covenant made?

The Christians in the Holy Land, when they ken to a Man, to a Society, to a State, or to a were at the greatest, and had brought the Prince; but the Promise in the Name of Caliph of Egypt to pay them tribute, did not God made, is broken to God. It is God onely loofe it again, but were soon after beathat we therein neglect: we therein profess ten out of the Holy Land it self: by reason that we fear him not, and that we fet him at (faith William of Tyre, a reverend Bishop naught, and defie him. If he that without which wrote that Story) that Almerick the refervation of Honour, giveth a lie in the fiftieth King after Godfrey brake faith with presence of the King, or of his Superiour, the Caliph Elhadech, and his Vicegerent. The doth, in point of Honour, give the lie to the King himfelf, or to his Superiour; how by Almerick, drew in the Turk Syracon to much more doth he break Faith with God, their aid : whose Nephew seladine, after he that giveth Faith in the presence of God, had made Egypt his own, beat the Christians Promiseth in his Name, and makes him a wit- out of the Holy Land; neither would the wooden Cross (the very Cross, say they, Out of doubt, it is a fearfull thing for a that Christ died on) give them victory o-Son to break the Promife, Will, or Deed of ver Seladine, when they brought it into the the Father; for a State, or Kingdom, to field as their last refuge, seeing they had forbreak those Contracts which have been sworn themselves in his Name that was crumade in former times, and confirmed by cified thereon. And if it be a direction from

Plate 6. the Holy Ghoft, That he that freaketh lies, busties defend above four hundred years, e-wrighting four busties and that the month which ven till David's time. 258 uttereth them , flageth the foul : how much more perillous is it (if any peril be greater years, eighteen of which he governed Ifrael, than to destroy the soul) to swear a lie? It was Eugenius the Pope, that persuaded, or rather commanded the King of Hungary after his great victory over Amurath the Turk, and when the faid King had compelled him to peace, the most advantagious that ever bi the Authors of the Hebrem Chronologie was made for the Christians, to break his Faith, and to provoke the Turk to renew twenty: Maimonius cited by Maffins, fourthe war. And though the faid King was teen: Joannes Lucidus, seventeen: Sajeafar stronger in the field than ever; yet he mus, ten: Ensebius giveth him seven and loft the battel with 30000. Christians, and his twenty: and so doth S. Augustine: Melanown life. But I will stay my hand: For thon, two and thirty: Codoman, five and this first volume will not hold the repetition of Gods judgments upon faith-breakers, be it against Infidels, Turks, or Christians of unto the building of the Temple, it is necesdivers Religions. Lamentable it is, that the taking of oaths now-a-dayes, is rather made of them; as finding the reft supplyed othera matter of custom, than of conscience.

God to leave so many Cities of the Canaanites unconquered by Ifrael, to scourge and afflict them, by fore-feeing their Idolatry, and, as it is faid in the Scriptures, To be thorns of errour, fuch as have inferted years be-Total in their eyes to prove them, and to teach them tween Josua and Othoniel, of whom Eusebing Judg 1. to make War. For these Cities hereafter finds eight years, to which Arins Montanus Ballon and Cities hereafter finds eight years, to which Arins Montanus Ballon and Cities hereafter finds eight years, to which Arins Montanus Ballon and Cities hereafter finds eight years, to which Arins Montanus Ballon and Cities hereafter finds eight years, to which Arins Montanus Ballon and Cities hereafter finds eight years, to which Arins Montanus Ballon and Cities hereafter finds eight years, to which Arins Montanus Ballon and Cities hereafter finds eight years, to which Arins Montanus Ballon and Cities hereafter finds eight years, to which Arins Montanus Ballon and Cities hereafter finds eight years, to which Arins Montanus Ballon and Cities hereafter finds eight years, to which Arins Montanus Ballon and Cities hereafter finds eight years, to which Arins Montanus Ballon and Cities hereafter finds eight years, and the cities hereafter finds eight years, to which Arins Montanus Ballon and Cities hereafter finds eight years, and the cities hereafter finds eight years and the cities hereafter finds eight years. named did not onely remain in the Canaanites possession all the time of Josua; but soon after hisdeath the children of Dan were beaten out of the plain Countries, and enforc'd to inhabit the Mountains, and places doman, twenty; and Nicephorus no less than of hardest access. And those of Juda were three and thirty: whereas following the fure not able to be mafters of their own Vallies; because as it is written in the Judges, The Judg 1.34 Canaanites had Chariots of Iron. And those principal Cities which stood on the Sea-side, adjoyning unto Juda, were still held by the remainder of the Anakims, or Philistims: as Joining Azzah, Gath, Afdod; out of one of which 1 Sam. 17. Cities came Goliath, remembred in Samuel. Neither did the children of Manasse over Jordan expel the Geshurites, nor the Maachathites; which inhabited the North parts of Basan, afterward Traconitis.

Nor the Nepthalims possess themselves of Bethshemish, nor of Bethanah; but they inforc'd those Canaanites to pay them tribute. Jof. 13.13 Neither did Asher expel the Zidonians, nor Judg. 1.31 those of Acho, or Acon, Athlab, Achzib, Heblah,

No more could Zabulon enjoy Kitron, and Jos. 16.10. Nahalol, but received tribute from them. Alfo the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among the Ephraims: and among the children of Ma-Jud. 2.17. held Bethshean, Taacnah, Dor, Ibleam, and tituled Liber Justorum, remembred by Jud. nasse, on the West of Jordan, the Canaanites Megaddo; yea Hiernsalem it self did the Je- sua himself; and others, that it was the work and then changed this life for a better. The time of his rule is not expressed in the Scriptures, which caufeth divers to conjecture diversly of the continuance. Josephus gives him five and twenty years : Seder Ollan Rabeight and twenty; and Maffins fix and twenty. But whereas there passed 480. years from the delivery of Ifrael out of Egypt, fary that we allow to Josua onely eighteen wife, which to me feems the most likely, and, It is also very remarkable, That it pleased as I think, a well approved opinion and a

The same necessity of retaining precisely 480. years from the departure out of Egypt unto the building of the Temple convinceth adhereth 5 and for which he giveth his rea-na fon in his four and twentieth and last Chapters upon Josua: Bunting reckonsit nine years: Bucolzer and Reusner but one; codirection of these 480. years, there can be no void years found between Josua and 0 thoniel, unless they be taken out of those eighteen ascribed unto Josua by the account already specified. The praises and acts of Josua are briefly written in the fix and fortieth Chapter of Ecclesiastious, where among many other things it is faid of him, Who was there before him like to him, for he fought the battels of the Lord?

That he wrote the book called by this name, it was the opinion of Arries Montanus, because it is said in the last Chapter, verse 26. And Joiua wrote thefe words in the book of the Law of God: which seemethrather to have been meant by the covenant which Jo-Gra made with Ifrael in Sichem, where they Aphike, & Rebeb, nor inforc'd them to tribute. all promifed to ferve and obey the Lord: which promife Josua caused to be written in the book of the Law: and of this opinion were Cajetan and Abulensis: Theodoret doth likewise conceive, that the book of Josus was collected out of an antient Volume, in-

Som to of Samuel: for whereas Montanus groundeth his opinion upon these words of the 26 16.5. 14, Verse, And Josua wrote these words, Oc. this place hath nothing in it to prove it: for when the people had answered Josua; The Lord our God will me serve, and his voyce will me obey, it followeth that Josua made a covenant the book of the Law of God.

us in Attica, who taught that Nation to yoke beafts together, thereby to till the ground with more eafe and fpeed: And about the fame time the fifty Daughters of Danaus (as it is faid) flew the fifty fons of Egyptus, all but Lynceus, who succeeded Danaus, if the tale be true. There lived also with Josua, Phonix, and Cadmus, and neer the end of lofua's tife, Inpiter is faid to have ravilled Europa the daughter of Planix Cafterward married to Afterius King of Creta) and begat on her Minos, Radamanthus, are! Sarpedon. But S. Augustine reports this ravishment to be 1%. 18 6 committed by Xanthus, and yet they are more to De civ. commonly taken for the Sons of Japiter, But home with the people, and wrote the same in it may be doubted whether Minos was fa- 04/16. ther to Dencalion, and Dencalion to Idome-nom. Ujad. There lived at once with Josua, Erielhoni- neus, who was an old man at the war of Troy. and Sarpedon was in person a young or frreng man at the fame Trojan war. And fo doth Neftor reckon up in the Councel of the Greeks, Thefens and Perithens for men of Antiquity and of Ages past: Minos being yet more antient than any of these. Eu: hereof elfewhere.

CHAP. VII.

Of the Tribes of Israel that were planted in the borders of Phoenicia, with fundry Stories depending upon those places.

6. I.

The Proeme to the description of the whole Land of Canaan; with an Exposition of the name of Syria.

to follow that of Josua, after whom the Common-wealth of the Jews was governed by Kings, of which fo many of them as ruled the ten Tribes, shall be remembred when we come to the description of Samaria: but because the Land of Canaan, and the borders thereof, were the Stages and Theaters, whereon the greatest part of the Story past, with that which followeth, hath been acted, I think it very pertinent (for the better understanding of both) to make a Geographical description of those Regions: that all things therein performed by the places known, may the better be understood, and conceived. To which purpose (besides the addition of the neighbour Countries) I have bestowed on every Tribe his proper portion: and do shew what Cities and Places of strength were by the Jews obtained: and what numbers it pleased God to leave unconquered; by whom he might correct and scourge them, when ungrateful for his many graces, they at fundry times forgat or neglected the Lord of all power, and adored those deaf and now called the Holy Land.

K. k.

He Story of the Judges ought | dead Idols of the Heathen. Divina bonitas (faith Augustine) ideo maxime irascitur in hoc feculo, ne irascatur in futuro : & misenicorditer temporalem adhibet severitatem ne æternam juste inferat ultionem. The divine goodness is especially therefore angry in this world, that it may not be angry in the world to come, and doth mercifully use temporal severity, that it may not justly bring upon us eternal ven.

To the Cities herein described, I have added a fhort Story of the beginnings and ends of divers Kingdoms and Common-weals: and to help my felf herein, I have perused divers of the best Authors upon this subject: among whom, because I find so great disagreement in many particulars, I have rather in fuch cases adventured to follow mine own reason, than to borrow any one of their old

And because Canaan, with Palestina of the Philistims, and the Lands of Og and Schon Kings of Bafan, and the Arabian Amorites; were but fmall Provinces of Syria: it shall be necessary, first to divide and bound the general, and so to descend to this particular, 260 Proi. Afic.

K k 2

imbraced all those Regions from the Euxine mon name to all those of Noah's Sons, who Sea, to the Red Sea: and therefore were the Cappadocians, which look into Pontus, called Leucosyrians, or white Syrians. But taking transfens, or transmittens of going, or passing et Lencograms of winte of the coast of Cilicia, over. And because the children of Abraham which is the North border, unto Idumea, had for a long time no certain abiding: towards the South, Tigris towards the Suntherefore, as he thinks, they were by the rifing, and the Mediterran Sea Westward: it then containeth besides Babylonia, Chaldaa, Arabia the Defart, and Arabia Petræa, that Region also which the Greeks call Mesopotamia, the Hebrews Syria, of the two Rivers, to wit, Tigris and Euphrates, for fo Aran Nago along in it as it were in a yoke.

ria Cava, because it lay in that fruitfull Val- of them belong to Phenicia. ley between the Mountains of Lybanus, and Antilybanus, in which the famous Cities of and Palastina (both which the River of Antioch, Laodicea, Apamea, with many o- Jordan boundeth; faving that Phenicia thers, were feated. Then Damascena, or sy- stretcheth a little more Easterly towards ria Lybanica, taking name of the City Da- Damascus) that part also of the East of formascus, and the Mountains of Lybanus, the | dan, and within the Mountains of Hermon, Hered in time. Then Phanicia, and the people Syra- | fest by the Amorites, as for that they were Pelim Dia phanicies: and lastly, Syria Palastina bor- conquered and enjoyed by the Israelites; dering Egypt: of which Ptolomy maketh Jula giveth the name of Syrea Judea.

6. II.

Of the bounds of the Land of Canaan, and of the promises touching this Land.

stretcheth from behind Lybanus to the great from Zidon, as thou comest to Gerar untill Az-Defarts between Idumea and Egypt: bound- zab (which is Gaza) and this was the length ed by the Mid-land sea on the West, and of the Countrie North and South: then it the Mountains of Hermon, Galaad, and Arnon followeth in the Text; And as thou goeff untowards the East: the same Hills which to Sodom and Gomorab, and Admab, and Smallio. Strabo calleth Traconi, or Traconita, and Ptolemie, Hippus. The name of Canaun it had from Canaan the Son of Cham: Et lingua ap-Called Canaan, faith Montanus: and after Hebrea of the Hologony who had a feel for it is therein written; All the place in the form of the Hologony who had a feel for it is therein written; Hebrea of the Hebrews: who took name from whereon the foal of your feet shall tread, pall Heber, the Son of Sale, according to Saint be jours: jour coast shall be from the Wilder

Syria, now Soria, according to the largest Angustine. But Arias Montanus not so well description, and as it was antiently taken, allowing of this derivation, makes it a compast over Euphrates towards the West Sea. For the word Heber, faith he, is as much as Egyptians called Hebrai, as it were paffengers, which is also the opinion of c. sigonius. and of Eusebius long before them both. It had also the name of Judea from Juda; and Every then afterwards intituled the Holy Land, be. 63. cause therein our Saviour Christ was Born, harajin is expounded: also Padan Aram; and Buried. Now this part of Syria wasathat is, Jugum Syria, because the two Rivers gain divided into four; namely, into Edom, (otherwise Seir, or Edumaa) Galilee, Sama. Edessa, sometime Rages, now Rage, was the ria, and Judea. Galilee is double, the su-Metropolis of this Region of Syria. In Syria periour called Gentium, and the inseriour: taken largely, there were many small Pro- and that Calilec and Judaa are distinguishvinces, as Cwlospria, which the Latins call Sy- ed, it is plain in the Evangelists, though both Latin

Now besides these Provinces of Phanicia, Regal feat of the Adades, the first Kings of Gilead, and Arnon, otherwise Traconi, sell to Syria. Adjoyning to it was the Province of the possession of half Manasse, Gad, and Ru-Sophene, or Syria Soba, Choba, or Zobal: over ben, and therefore are accounted a part of which Adadezer commanded in Solomon's | Canaan also: as well because antiently poswhich Eastermost parts are again divided Prol. Afa daa also a part : and to that Province which into Bafan, or Batanea, into Gilead, Mood, Midian, Ammon, and the Territories of the Moses calleth Seir and Edom, Pomponius Me-Machati, Gessuri, Argobe, Hus. They are known to the later Cosmographers by the name of Arabia in general: and by the names of Traconitis, Pieria Batanea, &c. of which I will speak in their proper places.

But where Moses describeth the Land of Canaan in the tenth of Genesis, he makethno mention of the later Provinces, which fell to Manasse, Gad, and Reuben, for these be his But that Land which was antiently Calmanaffe, Gad, and Reuben, for these believed naan, taketh a part of Phænicia, and words: Then the border of the Canaanites was Seboiim, even unto Lasha: by which words Moses seteth down the breadth, to wit, from the Dead Sea to the Mediterran. But in pellata fuit Canaan; The language was also Deuteronomy it seemeth to be far more large: nels, and from Libanon, and from the River to possess it. Also that you may prolong your Perah, unto the uttermost Sea. Now for the daies in the Land which the Lord sware unto length of the Countrie North and South, your fathers, &c. this discription agreeth with the former:on-the great Sea Westward. menter menter that he per in gentes amicitium receptas. For Dardanum, who accused S. Hierome, that he diddin David did not at any time enter so far to the overthrew the reputation of the Jews Story, banning thereof, to wit, as long as the heavens possest, but were onely granted by divine promise.

The like condition was also annexed to ly Libanon is put for Zidon; and the Wilder- the enjoying of the Land conquered, and nels for Gerar and Azza, which make no the possession thereof, so long as the heavens difference: but for the breadth and extent were above the earth. For if ye keep dili- Dem. 12. East and West, if Perah be taken for Euphra- gently, saith he, all these commandments, which tes: then the Land promised stretcheth it I command you to do, that is, to love the Lord felf both over Arabia Petræa, and the Defart, your God, &c. then will the Lord cast out all as far as the border of Babylon: which the these Nations before you, and ye shall possess Thraelites never possest; nor at any time did great Nations, and mightier than you. And so much as invade or attempt. And there- here, though it be manifest, that by reason fore Vadianus doth conceive, that by the of the breach of Gods Commandments, and River Perah was meant Jordan, and not Eu- their falling away from the worship of his his apprates: taking light from this place of Jo- all powerfull Majestie, to the Idolatry of the (ua: Behold, I have divided unto you by lot Heathen, the conditional promises of God these Nations, that remain to be an inheritance were absolutely void, as depending upon according to your Tribes: from Jordan with obedience unperformed: yet I cannot mifall the Nations that I have destroyed, even unto like that exposition of Melanthon: For, faith he, Oftendit promissionem præcipuam non And though it be true, that David greatly effe de hoc politico Regno; He sheweth that his enlarged the Territory of the Holy Land: chief promise is not of a civil Kingdom. To yet as Vadianus well noteth, if Perah in the which agrees that answer which S. Hierome former place be taken for Euphrates, then made to a certain Heretick in his Epistle ad East as Assyria, or Babylonia. Neither doth and brought the truth thereof in question: the not possessing of all these Countries give by drawing it altogether into an Allegorie. advantage to those that would make any ir- and ad illam duntaxat viventium terram que religious cavill, as touching the promise of in calis est; (that is) Onely to that land of God to the Ifraclites unperformed: For when the living which is in heaven. Quoniam total both their Kings, Magistrates, and People, Judaorum Regio adeo angusta sit ambitu, ut fell from his worship and service, it pleased vix longitudinem habeat 160, milliarium, lahim not onely to inclose them within that titudinem vero 40. Oin his etiam regiones. Territory, which was for so many people ex- loca, urbes, & oppida sunt plurima, nunquane ceeding narrow; but therein and elsewhere à Judais occupata, sed tantum divina pollicito subject them unto those Idolatrous Nati- tatione promissa; Because the whole Countrey ons, whose false and foolish gods themselves of the Jews is so narrow in compass, that it also served and obeyed. And sure the pro- scarce hath 160. miles in length, and 40. miles mile by which the Hebrews claimed the in- in breadth, and in these are countries, places. heritance of Canaan, and the lasting enjoy- cities, and many towns, which the Jews never were above the earth, was tied to those con- In like manner the same Father speaketh upditions, both in the Verses preceeding, and on Esay, touching the bleffings promised subsequent; which the Israelites never per- unto Hierusalem, where he hath these words: Sap 14 14 formed. And therefore they could not hope De quo discimus Hierusalem nequaquam in Pafor other than all mankind could or can ex- lestine regione petendam, qua totius Provinpect; who knew that all forts of comforts cia, deterrina eft: & faxofis montibus affefrom the merciful goodness of God looked ratur, & penuriam patitur sitis: ita ut calefor, as well in this life as after it, are no lon- stibus utatur pluviis, & raritatem fontium ciger to be attended, then while we persevere | sternarum extructione soletur : sed in Dei main his love, service, and obedience. So in nibus, ad quam dicitur, festinaverunt structothe eighth Verse of the eleventh of Deutero- res tui; From whence, saith he, we learn, that nomy, the keeping of Gods Commandments Hierusalem is not to be sought in that region of was a condition joyned to the prosperity of Palestina, which is the worst of the whole Pro-Ifrael. For therein it is written; Therefore vince, and ragged with craggie mountains, Shall ye keep all the Commandements which I and suffereth the penury of thirst: so as it precommand you this day: that ye may be strong, servethrain water, and supplieth the scarsity of and go in, and possess the Land, whither ye go Wells by building of cisterns; but this Hieru-falson is in Gods hands, to which it is faid, Thy evilders have bastened: to far St. Hierome; where also to prevent mistaking, he thus ex. roundeth himself: Neque Loc dico in suggillationem terræ Judææ, ut kæreticus 8900phanta mentitur: aut quo auferam hiftoriæ veritatem, que fundamentum est intelligentia spiritualis: fed ut decutiam supercilium sudaorusu, qui Synagogæ angultias latitudini Ecclesse proferent: Si enim occidentem tantum sequentur literam, & non spiritum vivisicantem, oftendant terram promissionis lacte & melle manantem; Neither (saith he) say I this to diferace the land of Judaa, as the heretical Sycophant doth belie me: or to take away the spiritual understanding: but to beat down the Church: For if they follow only the killing letter, and not the quickening spirit, let them shero which is made the East-bound, should be tation and conquest of Ifrael,

And now for a more particular description of this Holy Land. because Asher, Nephtalim, and Zabulon held the Northermost part, and were feated in Phanicia, I will begin with these three, taking Asher for the first: admonifithe Reader touching the names of the later do think fit.

6. III.

THE TRIBE OF ASHER.

||. I.

The bounds of the Tribe of Asher.

He Asherites descended of Asher the fon of Jacob by Zelpha, the hand-maid of Lea, were-increased while they abode in Egypt, to the number of 41500, and odd perfons, all men above twenty years of age, and able to bear arms, at the time when they truth of the history, which is the foundation of were mustered by Moses at Mount Sinai : all which number perishing in the Desarts, there pride of the Jews, which enlarge the firaits of remained of their iffues, besides women and the Synogogue farther than the breadth of the children, 53400. bodies fit for the wars: which past the river of Arnon into the Plains of Moab, and after the conquest of Canaan, the Land of promife, itoming with Milk and had for their portion that part of Phanicia, from Zidon and the fields of Libanus, unto By this it may also be gathered, howfoe- Ptolomais Acon alongst the Sea-coast, conver it be unlikely (feeing the West-bound training thirty English miles, or thereabout: in the place, Deut. 11. 24 had his truth in and from the Mid-land Sea to the East borthe litteral sense, that Empkrates or Perath, der some twelve miles: though Antoninus Antin makes it some what larger. This part of cataken only in a spiritual sense) yet never- naan was very fruitful, abounding in Wine, theless that Hierom's opinion inclineth to Oyl, and Wheat, befides the Balfamum, with this, as if this Perath were not to be under- other pleasant and profitable commodities: stood for Euphrates, and that the promise it according to that Prophecy, After pinguis felf was never to large: much less the plan- panis: Concerning Affer, his bread shall be fat: And he shall give pleasures for a King. Guan of which Tribe yet before I spake, I must He first City seated on the North border of the Territory of Affer, was Ziplaces in this, and the other Tribes to be don, which Josua calleth the great Zidon, mentioned, that he remember that many both for strength and magnitude. The names, by reason of the divers fancies of Greeks and Q. Curtius make Agenor the four-Translators, are diversly expressed, so that der thereof: and Justine derives the name Justin to the unskilfull they may feem divers, when from the abundance of fish found on those they are one and the same: the reason of shores: whereof it hath been called Zidona. this diversity (as by those learned in the But that it was far more antient, Moses, Josha, Grand Hebrew I am taught) is, partly because the and Josephus witness, the same being found. antient Editions of the Hebrew want vowels, ed by Zidon the eldeft of Canaan's fons: and the old Translators imagined other vowels fo strong it was in Josua's time, as neither than now the Hebrem Editions have; and did himself attempt it, neither could the Afpartly, because the Antient expressed or o- lerites, or any of their successours master it: mitted divers consonants, otherwise than but it continued all the time of the Judges and Kings, even unto the coming of Christ, Elast a City interchangeably governed, by their got is own Princes or other Magistrates: though o'3' according to the warnings and threats of the Prophets, Esay, Hieremie, Ezechiel, and Zacharie, it was often afflicted, both by the enemies Sword, and by the Pestilence, rest of the Canaanites) worshippers of Baal The form Map and Description of the Holy Land.

> | II. of Zidon.

thereof, being by time consumed and lost. this their multiplying of their Baals and A-It feemeth to be more antient than Tyre; | foreths, may be diverfly understood: either which was also built by the Zidonians. For | in respect of the diversity of the forms of the 6. Zuch. as * Strabo noteth, Homer speaking of Zidon, Images, or of the worship in divers places, 91. Herod, neglecteth the memory of Tyre, because it or of the stories depending upon them: was but a member of Zidon; and a City sub- which (as fables use to be) were doubtless philipping building of the Temple. For as it flourish-bit majin ed in all forts of learning, so did it in all other whom is Mechanical Arts or Trades: the Prophet have been the wife of Adonis: as also Maamuch Zachary calling them the wife Zidonians. The crob. 2. Saturn. cap. 21. fayes, that Adonis was numberfit City was both by nature and art exceeding with great veneration commonly worshipmagaration, having a Castle or Citadell on the ped of the Assyrians: and Hierome upon ments North-fide, franding upon an unaccetitole the received the Idolatrous women are noted to bewail) the Idolatrous women are noted to bewail) to the name of Adon's among the Syrians. So Miles Rock, and compatied by the Sea, which are the Rock, and compatied by the Sea, which are the Rock and compatied by the Sea, which are the Rock and the Rock beside and defended by the Knights of the Dutch that in the working of Affarnews were Order: and another Cafele it hath on the where South-fide by the Port of Egypt, which the threath of the war, it is Colonies befide that of Tyre, into places remote: as unto Thebes, and sephyra, Cities of the more. The sum of Thebes, and sephyra, Cities of the more war, it is considered to the more than the the mourning for Official the form of the mourning for Official the form of the mourning for Official the form of the form Mediterran Sea, neer Ptolomais, or Acon: with the Grecians, Venus loss of Adonis. And to this agreeth that which Plutarch hath, de suches matter of those cleer Glasses which they rocters make at Murana: of which St. Hierom and is called Ammuz: which word may feem to be the same with Ezekiels Thammuz. But the first of the same with Ezekiels Thammuz. But the same with Ezekiels Thammuz. But the same with Ezekiels Thammuz. denling vitrariis officinis nobilit; Zidon a famnis howfoever these Zidonians were thus anti-dothers Class-maker, or a skilful worker in Glass-howses they were more apt to receive the Dostrine Zidon is feated on the very wash of the and Astaroth: which Idols though common of Astoreth Phonician Sea, which is a part of the Medi- to the other of the iffue of Canaan (as Pineda to fement terran or Mid-land Sea. It hath to the North gathers out of 1 Sam. 31.10. and Judg. 10.6.) to have 1/26/30/8 the City of Berythus, and the River Leontis: yet especially and peculiarly were accountheen a heep-for heen and to the South Sarepta, or Sarphat, which ed the gods of the Zidonians: as appears

1 Dea 7.13. standeth between it and Tyre: the distance Reg. 11. 5. in the story of Solomons Idolatry: the word between which two great and famous Cities, where Aftaroth is called the god of the Zido in the plus to wit, Zidon and Tyre, is 14. thousand paces, nians: and 1 Reg. 16. 33. in the story of A- ber signifaith Seiglerus: but Vadianus makes it two chab, the chief worthipper of Baal, where it fieth theep hundred furlongs, and so doth Weiffinburie is said, that he marrying Jezabel the daugh may conin his description of the holy Land, and ter of the King of the Zidonians, worthipped arm Auboth from Strabo: which two hundred fur- their Baal. Divers Baals and divers Afta- guflines longs make five and twenty miles. This roths in their Idolatries they acknowledged: that Adifference of distance as well between these as it appears by the plural names of Baalim, state was two known Cities, as all the rest, make it or and estarts, 1 sam. 12. 10. and essemble the forever the name Astaroth, as I am informed other hand one of the Hole I and by a skillful Hebritian, is plural; the singu-piter Ham-What Kings it had till Agenors time there | lar being Aftoreth: whence Judg. 2. 13. the mon was a is no memory: the story which Zeno the Septuagint read inargenous ruis assignate. They Ram. Philosopher, who was a Zidonian, wrote morshipped the Astarties. The occasion of

It feems ject to the Kings thereof: though tebe true in divers Cities divers. Augustine quest. 19. that in after-times it contended with Zidon in Judg. thinks Baal and Aftarte to be Jupiter for Primacy, and became far more renown- and Juno. For the Carthaginians (which ed, opulent, and strong: From Zidon had were Tyrians) call Juno by such a name as Solomon and Zorobabel their principal work- Aftarte, Tully, lib. 3. de Nat. Dearum, making men, both in Timber and Stone, for the divers Goddesses of the name of Venus, exbuilding of the Temple. For as it flourish- pounds the fourth to be Aftarte: whom he Mechanical Arts or Trades: the Prophet have been the wife of Adonis: as also Mamote: as unto Thebes, and Sephyra, Cities of place of Ezekiel not without good probabi-'A Partie.

of our Saviour in Matthew and Luke: Woe Ma it is be to thee Corazin, &c. for if the great works which were done in thee, had been done in Tyrus and Zidon, they had repented long agone, eth neer the River Phyllin, in Bythinia. &c. but I fay unto you, it shall be easier for Tyrus and Zidon, at the day of judgment, than

adl. seer. 636. it fell into the hands of the Saracens, Holy Land, and took Port at Joppa, it was abeing given to Eustace Gremer, a Noble man of that Country. And again in the year the Turk, and hath the name of Zai.

6. III.

Of Sarcpta, with a brief History of Tyre in the same Coast.

tween it and the River called Naar, or Fons hortorum Libani (of which more hereafter) | Kings. standing in the way towards Tyre, a City vencer it: of which Sidonius:

Vina mihi non funt Gazetica, Chia, Falerna, Quaque Sareptano palmite misa bibas.

Saphet, faith Toftellus.

Not far from Sarepta was scituate that the World. fometime famous City of Tyre, whose fleets of the Cospel of Christ after his Ascension , antiqua fuit, Tyrii tenuere Coloni, Carthago. than the Jens: who had been taught by And Carthage was therefore called Punica Auges and the Prophets fo many years, where- quasi Phanicum, a Colony of the Phanicians. In Spain they founded Gades, now Caliz. In Italy, Nola: in Asia the less Dromos Achillis, Plints which City the Scholiast of Apollonius place-

It had antiently the name of Zor, or Tzor: and so it is written in Josua the 19. taking name from the scituation; because built on It received a Christian Bishop with the la high Rock, sharp at one end. The Latines, first: who was afterward of the Diocess of a sit seems, knew it by the name of Sarra; collingly Tyre. But in the year of our Redemption for Virgil calleth the purple of Tyre, Oftrum Sarranum, by which name Juvenal and siand continued in their possession till Bald- lins remember it. The Zidonians built it wirns the first, then King of Hierufalem: in upon a high hill, whereof many ruins remain the year 1111. by the help of the Danes and to this day; the place being still known by Norwaies, who came with a Fleet to vifit the the name of the antient Tyre: and because it was a Colony of the Zidonians, the Prophet gain recovered, the commandment thereof Esay calleth it the Daughter of Zidon; which Trogus also confirmeth, though Berosus by Con. affinity of name makes Thiras the fon of Ja-1250, it was re-edified and strengthened by pher to be the Parent thereof: and though Lodomick the French King: while he spent no doubt it was very antient (for so much four year in the War of the Holy Land. Last- the Prophet Esay also witnesseth, Is not this Sign. Fo ly, in the year 1289, it was reconquered by jour glorious Citie, whose antiquity is of anti-CALS, fallar. the saracens: and is now in policifion of ent days?) yet that Thiras the son of Japhet fet himself in the bosom of the Canaanites who built Zidon, and peopled all that Region, I fee nothing to persuade me.

But that new Tyre in after-times fo re- Mills nowned, feemeth to be the work of Agenor: can like and of this opinion was Curtius: and Jose Eagle in phus and Eusebius make this City elder than Token Solomon's Temple 240 years : Cedrenus 361. 18 mil Arepta, or after the Hebrew, Sarphath, is the next City Southward from Zidon, begenor, gave it her name: but of Agenor I will speak more at large in the story of their

For ftrength and for the commodity of ry famous for the excellent Wine growing the harbour, and the better to receive Trade from all places, it was in this new erection founded in an Island 700. paces from the Continent; and therefore Ezekiel placeth Enthall it in the middest of the Seas, as some read, 17. or as others, in the inner-most part of the Sea, util. I have no wine of Gaza, nor Falerna wine, whence he called it feituate at the entry of Nor any for the drinking of Sarepta's vine. the Sea, as also the same Prophet calleth it, the Mart of the people for many Isles: and Esty, 160 This City had also a Bishop, of the Dio- a Mart of the Nations: and so proud, weal- 11 cess of Tyre: after it came to the saracens thy, and magnificent was this City, as the and Turks, as the rest: and is now called Prophet Esay calleth the Merchants thereof Princes, and their Chapmen the Nobles of

It excelled both in learning, and in manuof thips commanded, and gave the law over facture: especially in the making and dyall the Mediterran Sea, and the borders ing of Purple, and Scarlet-cloth: which, thereof: during which time of greatness faith Julius Pollux, was first found out by Herand power, the Tyrians crected Vtica, Leptis, cules Dog, who passing along the Sea-coast, Firgil. Lt. and Carthage in Africa, of which Virgil. Orbs and eating of the Fish Conchilis or Purpura, putting all to the Sword that refifted ; after and demolished. those slaves which had formerly slain all shoulder made bare, saith Ezekiel, who with Riches, and power of Government to them- destruction of this proud place. In the end, felves. This victory of Alexander over the and after 13. years fiege or more, the Tyri-Johan, Tyrians, Josephus remembreth: and how Sa

Jakili naballat revolved from Paris, and 1980. ii. naballat revolted from Darius, and came to bring over-late the predictions and threatthe last satrapa or Provincial Governour, convenient number of ships, abandoned their which Darius feated in Samaria: the same City, transporting with themselvs the ablest who having married his Daughter to Ma- of all that remained: and with their wives, nasse, brother to Jaddas the high Priest of children, and portable riches, sayled thence cruelty of Alexander, it was attempted by upon Saint Hierom noteth, that God leaveth

3 and with a Gentile: but while Alexander a work of his own) to make Nabuchodonous called Sanabula, died.

the hair of his lips became of that colour. It Salmanasser the Asserian King : when the worshipped the Idols that Zidon did: sa- growing pride of the Asprians, after that ving that Hercules became their Patron in they had conquered the ten Tribes, with after-times. For Alexander Macedon, when the rest of Syria, became envious of the beauthe Tyrians presented him with a Crown of ty, riches, and power of that city. He besseggold, and other gifts, defiring to remain his ed it both on the Land-side, and with threefriends and allies, answered them, that he score ships of war held the Port : to the end had vowed a facrifice to Hercules, the Defenthat neither any victuals nor any supply of dor of their City, and the Ancestor of the men might enter it: but the Tyrians with lib.9.6.14. Macedonian Kings: and must therefore enter twelve sail scattered that sleet, and took 500. it. Whereupon they fent him word, that prisoners of the Asyrians: notwithstanding, Hercules his Temple was in the Mountain of the Assirian continued his resolution, and old Tyre: where he might perform that ce- lay before it by his Lievtenants five years, remony. But this availed not: for Alexander but with ill success. And this siege Menanwas not so superstitious, as ambitious; he de- der Ephesius, cited by Josephus, made report Et come fired to enter the Town, which being de- of in his Chronicles, as he found the Story a- And Training of the Story and Training of the Story a- And Training of the Story and Training of the Stor nied, he, as one whom no peril could fear, mong the Annals of the Tyrians (which the de Bell. nor labour weary, gathered together as ma- faid Menander converted into Greek) adding Sar. 13.14. ny ships as he could, and brought from Liba- that Eluleus, whom Tyrius called Heliseus, 116, 6.15. ous fo great a number of Cedars, & so many was then King of Tyre, having governed the weighty stones from the old City of Tyre same six and twenty years. Soon after this adjoyning, as notwithstanding that his ma-repulse of salmanasser; and about 200. years terials were often washt away with the before the victory of Alexander, Nabuchodostrength of the Sea and the Tides, yet he ne- no for, at such time as he destroyed Hierusalem ver refted, till he had made a foot-passage with the Temple, came before this City: who from the Continent to the Island: and ha- indeed gave to Alexander the example of ving once approached their walls, he over-that despairful work, of joyning it to the topt them with Turrets of wood, and other Continent. For Nabuchodonofor had formerframes: from whence (having filled the bo- ly done it: though by the diligence of the dy of force with the violent moving spirit Citizens, and the strength of the Sea, the same of resolution) he became Lord thereof, cawsey and passage was again broken down, which, he caused 2000. more to be hung up | Against Nabuchodonosor, for many years, in a rank all alongst the Sea-shore: which the Tyrians defended themselves: for so execution upon cold bloud he performed long did those Babylonians continue before (assome Authors affirm) upon the issues of it, As every head was made bald, and every 154.2.8cs their Masters, taking their Wives, Children, the Prophet Esay had manifestly foretold the Alexander with 8000. Souldiers: who was nings of Gods Prophets, having prepared a Hierusalem, obtained of Alexander, that a into Cyprus, Carthage, and other Maritimate Temple might be built on the Mountain Ga- Cities of their Tributaties, or Confederates: rizim over Samaria: that the forces of the loas the Babylonians finding nothing therein, Jews being divided, Alexander might the either to satisfie so many labours and perils, better hold them in obedience. The honour or any person upon whom to avenge themof which Priesthood he bestowed on his son selves for the loss of so many bodies in that in law Manasse, whom the Jews oppugned , War: It pleased God in recompence therefor that he had married out of their Tribes, of (who strengthened this resolution, as in befieged Gaza, Sanaballat, whom Guil. Tyri- for victorious over the Egyptians: and gave Eq. 19.19 him that Kingdom and the spoil thereof, as Long before this desolation of Tyre by the it were, in wages for his Army. Wherewarded: who though they cannot hope by any laudable worldly action, to attain unto that eternal happiness reserved for his servants and Saints: yet fuch is the boundless goodness of God, as he often repayeth them with many worldly gifts and temporal bless-

266

Now of this enterprise of Nabuchodonofor's against Tyre, prophane Historians have not been filent. For both Diocles, and Philostratus (as josephus citeth them) the one in his second Book, the other in his Phanician Histories remember it.

After these two great Vastations by the Kings of Babylon and Macedon, this City of Tyre, repaired and recovered it felf again: and continued in great glory about 300. years, even to the coming of our Saviour Christ: and after him flourished in the Christian Faith neer 600. years: the Archbishop their Bishops and Suffragans: namely Caipha, Guil. Tyr. otherwise Porphiria, Acon, or Ptolomais, Sarepta, Zidon, Cafarea Philippi, Berytus. Byblus, Botrys, Tripolis, Ortholia, Archis, Aradus, Anbeautiful Region of Phanicia and Palestina, fubjected to the cruel and faithles Saracen: his fon in law Alexander, which called himunder the burthen and yoke of whose tyranny it suffered, with the other Palestine

Cities, 488. years. Baldwine King of Hierusalem; but in vain: yet in the year 1124. by Guaremonde, Patrithe second, with the affiltance of the Veneti- Story ensuing: and, by like reason, about ans, and their fleet of Gallies, it was again the same time was the aforesaid Alexander erusalem, and so it remained 165. years.

Finally, in the year 1189. Saladine having first taken Hierusalem, removed his whole thered by Zabdiel the Arabian: to whom he Army, and fate down before Tyre: drawing fled for fuccour: and his head prefented his fleet of Ships and Gallies from Alexandria into the Port, this City as then onely | ed not the glory of his victory and treason remaining in the Christian power.

The Citizens finding themselves reduced | death. into great famine, and many other miferies, not the good deeds of the Heathen unre- | the lamentable accident of following the Christians enemies over a River unfoordable perished by the weight of his armour therein) was brought and interred in the Cathedral Church of Tyre, neer unto that glorious Sepulchre of Origen, garnished and graven with guilt pillers of Marble, 940. years before therein buried : but in the year 1289, the Saracens again attempted it, and carriedit, and it now remaineth subject to the

||. IV.

Of Ptolomais or Acon.

He third City alongst the coast of the Sea, which the Afferites could not obtain, on the South bound of Affer was Acho. which was the antient name thereof after whereof gave place to none but to the Patriarch of Hierufalem onely, who within his firm, that it took name from Acon the broown Dioceis had fourteen great Cities, with ther of Ptolomie. Pliny calleth it Ace: and int otherwise the Colony of claudius. It had also the name of coth, or cod, and by Zeiglerus it is called Hactipos.

But lastly, it was intituled Ptolomais, aftaradus, (or Tortofa) and Maraclea. But in ter the name of one of the Egyptian Ptolomies, Prisad the year 636. it was with the rest of that which City also, as it is I Mac. 11. another m. of the Ptolomies, infideliously wrested from felf the fon of Antiochus Epiphanes: the same Alexander having married Cleopatra, daughter of the faid Ptolomie, not long before. In the year 1112, it was attempted by Therein also was Jonathan Machabaus treacheroufly furprifed and flain, as it is I Mac. 12. 1 Mail 48. by the perfidiousness of Tryphon, whomion arch of Hierusalem, Vicegerent to Baldwine Soon after Antiochus pursued, as it is in the recovered, and subjected to the Kings of Hi- in the war against Demetrius, one of the soms of Antiochus the great, with whom Ptolomy joyned, overthrown and treacherouflymurunto his father in law Ptolomie : who enjoy it above three daies, for God struck him by

For the beauty and strength of this City, they at once with certain rafters of timber, this Alexander made it his regal feat; two fiered, burnt, and brake the Saracens fleet, | parts of the same being invironed by the Sea, and fallyed out resolvedly upon his Army, and the Port, for safety and capacity, not flew so great numbers of them; and follow- inferiour to any other in all that Tract. This ed their victory with fuch fury, as that the City is diftant from Hierusalem fome four Saracens forfaking their Trenches and Tents, and thirty miles: four miles to the North removed in great disorder and dishonour. from the Mountain Carmel, and as much to Two years after which victory the body of the South from Castrum Lamberti: from Tyre, that famous Frederick Barbarossa (who by Antorius maketh it two and thirty Italian see miles. In the middest of the City there was place, which by the Inhabitants is called Capa Tower of great strength, sometime the padocia, not far from Berytus, men say that 6. 79. thops feat of the Dioces of Tyre, after it be Patric. Navigationum I.1.6.3 and Bridenbach to family the family of the Dioces of Tyre after it be Patric. Navigationum I.1.6.3 and Bridenbach to family of the Patric Company of the Patric Blocky called of the Christians in those parts) it time called Asser, was afterward called the as forced and taken by Haomarus the Sara- Valley of Saint George. If this authority suf-In the year 1104, it was regained by fice not, we may rather make the Story allee din. Baldwine the first, by the help of the Gallies gorical, figuring the victory of christ, than was given in recompence. Again, in the ned by Am. Marcellinus. year of our Lord God, one thousand one hundred fourscore and seven, Saladine King of Egypt and Syria, became Lord thereof. In the year of Christ, one thousand one hundred ninety and one, by Richard King of England, and Philip King of France, it was repossessed and redelivered to the Christians. dified, and it is now Turkifl.

||. V.

of the Castle of Saint George.

East, is a Castle of St. George seated, in leave every man to his own belief: yet I and chap. 10. ver. 6. and it defended it self cannot but think, that if the Kings of Engmin See land had not some probable record of that Ptolomais, Alab, Helbah, and Aphek did. his memorable act, among many others: it non longé à Beryto, memorant inclytum Christi Aphek. Militem D. Georgium, Regis filiam ab immanissimo Dracone asservasse: eamque mactata dalium, first called Schandalium of Schander, bestia parenti restituisse. In cujus rei memoriam which we call Alexander, for Alexander Ma-Ecclesia postmodum fuit adificata; In this cedon built it when he besieged Tyre: and

Temple of Bel-zebub; and therefore called the famous Knight of Christ, Saint George, did the Castle of Flies, on the top whereof there rescue the Kings daughter from a huge Dragon: was mantained a perpetual light like unto and having killed the beaft, delivered the Virthat called Pharus in Egypt: to give com- gin to her Parent. In memory of which deed a fort in the night to those ships which came Church was after built there: Thus far Adricoof Genea: to whom a third of the revenue except of George the Arrian Bishop, mentio-

||. V I.

Of Acziba, Sandalium, and others.

Laftly, in the year 1291. it was by the fury Between Ptolomais and Tyre alongst the of the Saraceus besieged with an Army of Bea-coast, was the strong City of Acziba, 150000 entered, fack d, and utterly demo- or Achazib, which S. Hierome called Achziph lished : though in some fort afterward ree- and Josephus Ecdippos, Plinie Ecdippa, one of those which defended it self against the Asferites. Belforreft finds Acziba and Sandalium, or the Castle of Alexander to be one, but I know not from whence he had it.

The twelve Searchers of the Land which Moses sent from Cadesbarn, travelled as far Locistebr. to the North as Roob, or Rechob, in the Tribe Jof Bell. Tive miles from Ptolomais towards the Of Affer, which Rechob, as also Berothe, which full 1. by Ezechiel, cap.47.ver. 16. is placed in these Plin. 15. which he was born: the Valley adjoyning North borders, belonging in Davids time to 6.19. bearing the same name. And though for the the King Hadarhezer, as it may be gathered credit of Saint Georges killing the Dragon, I out of the second of Samuel, chap. 8. ver. 8. against the Afferites, as Zidon, Tyre, Achziph.

This Aphek it was, whose wall falling was strange that the Order full of Honour, down, slew seven and twenty thousand of which Edward the third founded, and which Benhadads Souldiers, after that a hundred his Succeffors royally have continued, thousand had been slaughtered by the Israeshould have born his name, seeing the World lites, under the conduct of Ahab. Here Juhins had not that scarcity of Saints in those finds that the Philistims encamped a little daies, as that the English were driven to make | before the battel at Gilbon , though in his fuch an erection upon a fable, or person seig- note upon the first of samuel the 9. & r. he ned. The place is described by Adricomius takes Aphek there mentioned (at which batin his description of Affer, to have been in tel the Ark Wastaken) to have been in Juda. the fields of Libanus, between the River Of which Jos. 15. and 53. & in the fecond of I King. 10 Adonis, and Zidon: his own words are these: Kings 13.17. he reads, Fortiter, for, in Aphel. 29. Hoc loco qui ab incolis Cappadocia appellatur, Where others covert it, Perentiens Syros in 1 Sam, 19:

The next place alongst the coast is San-he undertook the recovery of Tyre.

Not much above a mile from this Castle. there ariseth that most plentiful Spring of water, which & slomon remembreth, called the Well of living Water: trom whence not only all the fields and plains about Tyre are made fruitful by large pipes hence drawn: but the fame Spring, which hath not above abow-shot of ground to travel till it recover the Sea, driveth fix great Mills in that fhort pallage, faith Brochard.

Within the Land, and to the East of Acziba, and Sandalium, standeth Hosa: and beyoud it, under the Mountains of Tyre, the City of Achfaph, or Azab, or after S. Hierome, Acifap, a City of great ftrength, whose King, amongst the rest, was flain by Josua, at the waters of Merom.

W. VII.

Of Thoron Gifcala, and some other places.

Urther into the Land, towards Jordan, was seated the Castle of Thoron, which Hugo de Sancto Abdemare built on the Eastermost hills of Tyre, in the year 1107. thereby to restrain the excursions of the Saracens, while they held Tyre against the Christians: the place adjoyning being very fruitful, and exceeding pleasant. From this Castle the Lords of Thoron, famous in the story of the these parts. Wars for the recovery of the Holy Land, derive their names, and take their Nobility. It had in it a curious Chappel, dedicated to the bleffed Virgin, in which Humfrey of Thoron, Constable to Baldwine the 3. King of Hierufalem, lieth buried: There were five Castles a mean estate gathering together four hunbesides this within the Territory of Asser: dred Thieves, greatly troubled all the upper whereof four are feated almost of equal di- Galilee, at such time as the Romans attempfrance from each other: to wit, Caftrum, Lamperti, Montfort, Indin (or Saron) Castrum Regium and Belfort: the first neer the Sea under the hills of Saron, the next three, to wit, Indin, Montfort, and Regium, stand more within the Land, and belonged to the Brotherhood and fellowship of the Tentonici, or themselves, and gave succour to other Chrithe best part of the upper Galilee) the chief first fortress was for beauty and strength called Belfort, feated in the high ground upon the River Naar, neer the City Rama: of | Cities of Cana Major, and * Cades (or Cades).

fet it on a point of Land which extendeth | which in this Tribe Jof. 19.29. for which the tet it on a point of Land Mexiba and Tyre: Vulgar reads Horma: making the article a making the Actiba and Tyre: which Caftle Baldwine the first rebuilt and part of the word, and mistaking the vowels. which cattle saturate the first 1157, when from the fiege of this Caftle of Belfort, the stand fortified; in the year of chrift 1157, when great Saladine King of Syria and Egypt, Was 40 by the Christians Army raised, and with great loss and dishonour repulsed.

To the East of Belfort, is the strong City of Alab (or Achlab) which S. Hierome calleth chalab, one of those that defended themfelves against Affer as Roob (or Rechob) not far thence did.

Towards the South from Roob they place Gabala (which Herod furnamed the Ascalo- Tolan nite rebuilt) making it of the Territory of anily Chabol, Quod Syrorum lingua dispicere signi- out. ficat (faith Weishenburg) fo called, because Hiram of Tyre was ill pleased with those twenty Cities, feated hereabout, which 80lomon presented unto him in recompence of those provisions sent him for the building of the Temple. Others think this Chabol (or Ca- Journe, bul) containing a circuit of those twenty Cities given to Hiram, to have been without the compass of the Holy Land, though bordering After on the North fide: as it is faid, 1 Reg. 9.11. That they were in Regione limitie: that is, in limite Regionie, in the bor. der of the Countrey: for as it was not lawful, fay they, to give to strangers any part of 15min the possessions allotted to the Israelites: howfoever, that after Hiram had refused them, they were peopled by the Israelites, it appears, 2 Chron. 8.14. And it feems they were conquered by David from the Syri Rechobea, whose City Roob, or Rechob, was in Almost of equal distance from the Castle of Thoron, they place the Cities of Giscala, and Gadara: of which Gadara is rather to be placed over Hordan: Giscala was made famous by John the fon of Levi, who from ted the conquest of Judea: by whose practice Josephus, who then commanded in the can upper Galilee, was greatly indangered: whereof himself hath written at large, in his fecond Book of those Wars. This John betraying, in all he could, the City of Giscala (whereof he was native) to the Roman Dutch Knights (by which they defended State: and finding a refistance in the City, see gave opportunity, during the contention, to stians at such time as the Saracens possess the Tyrians and Gadarims, to surprize it: who at the same time forc't it, and burnt it Manh of which Order was in Ptolomais Achon. The to the ground: but being by Josephus all ment thority rebuilt, it was afterward rendred to 13 Titus by composition. They finde also the of the first was that syro-phanician, whose neth into it from the North-side, Naar, and Neer the other, they say, it was that Jonathas | city adjoyning of the same name: for Eleuties, within the Tribe of Affer, divers others: as on the South border, and near the Sea, which lon: on the North fide joyning to Syro-Mig. 27. phanicia, is the City of Hethalon, or Chethlon, the utmost of the Holy Land that way: under which towards the Sea, is Chali, and then others, on which no ftory dependeth; and therefore I will not pefter the description schrot.

§. VIII.

Of the Rivers and Mountains of Asser.

He Rivers to the North of Affer, are the water make falt thereof, as at Nantwitch, city Junior.

The Manuscripe which bound Affer at taketh since the state of th Adonis, afterward Canis, to which age both viewed and described the Holy being still a part of Libanus, as the Prophet this Para-Land) calleth the main River Fons hortor um Libani: and one of the streams which run-

Daughter Christ delivered of the evil spirit. another from the South-west, chabul: of the Machabeus overthrew the Army of Deme-therwit eannot be. There is also another Riwer described by Adrichome, named Jepthael, Smithel is which I find in no other Author, and for our either which I find in no other Author, and for our either which I find in no other Author, and for our either which I find in no other Author, and for our either the control of the control o which he citeth fof. 19. but the word a Ghe, for a Valwhich is added there to Jepthael, is not taken River but Medall, or Mifbeall: within the Land (a) Befafor a River, but for a Valley: and for a Valthis word
(b) Retherage and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on leve the Market to Company and Retherage francing on the Market to Company and Retherage francing the property of the Vulgar, the Genera, and Arias Monta-waya vale the South border between After and Zabn- nw turn it. There is also found in After the ley, as in River of Belus, remembred by Josephus and Gehinnon and ond selles. Tacitus, which is also called Pagidas, saith manim. * Pliny: out of the fands of this River are Joseph.l.z. made the best Glass which constitute the Till Bell Jud.

made the best Glass, which sometimes the Zi-c.3. (c) Enoch, supposed to be built by Cain, and donians practised: and now the Venetians at 1.5.6.19

Amend of his son Fnoch. but without proba la folice. Murana, Arias Montanus makes Belus to be a 19. vi. 6 bit without probabrach, a line formerly proved. There are branch of Chedumin, which it cannot be: for it is called branch of Chedumin, which it cannot be: for it is called the containing the co Belus is known to flow from out the Lake Sichor, of which mon, of which Jos. 19. 28. where also we Cendevia, as all Cosmographers, both Ancient name maread of Nehrel, Rama, Alamelee, and Beron: and Modern, and the later Travellers into by under the later travellers into b the Cities of Aleath, or Cheleath, Habdon, and those parts witness. It is true that the River of the fream Rechob, and Misheal, which we have already Chison taketh water from Chedumim, but not 70s. 13 3. mentioned, were by the Afferites given to in that fathion which Montanus that deferit head on the Louise. Of others held by the Canasa had in paths doth in find the Secondary in the Canasa had in paths and the Canasa had been also and the Canasa had been the Levites. Of others held by the Canaa- bed it: neither doth it find the Sea at Ptolo-Pera of mites, mention is made, Judg. 1. 30. to which mais Acon, according to Montanus but far-Arabia, out of Josua we may add Ebron, Amhad, and ther to the South between Caiphas and Site to the Lake caminum, witness Zeigler, Adrichomius, and Sirbonis,

Besides these Rivers there are divers fa-trom the mous Springs and Fountains, as that of living promifed waters adjoyning to Tyre: and Maserephot, wherea. or after S. Hierome, Maserephotmain, whose boutthey Well filled by the flood of the Sea adjoyn-place Rhiing (they fay) the Inhabitants by feething for which

The Mountains which bound Affer on the chorin that Zeigler joyneth Lycus; Ptolomy, Leontis: both North, are those of Anti-libanus, which with place of which fall into the Sea neer Berytus: which Libanus bound Calofyria: two great ledges of howferer River of Leontis, Montanus draws neer unto Hills, which from the Sea of Phanicia and whether Zidon: finding his head notwithstanding Syria, extend themselves far into the Land this sichor, where Ptolomy doth, between Zidon and Tyre. Eaftward, 400. stadia, or furlongs, according bea River to Strabo: for that length he giveth to the or a City, bani, which Adrichome out of Brochard intituleth Eleutherus: for which he also citeth inclose: but Pliny gives them 1500. lurlongs name is Pliny, and the first of Machabees the eleventh in length from the West (where they begin foundboth the Chapters, but resident of these authorities at Theirstendam on Des freier and Their formation of the feet authorities at Theirstendam on Des freier and Their foundation in the Man. Chapter; but neither of those authorities at Theipsophon, or Dei facies, near Tripolis to North Some prove Elenthers to be in Affer: for this Rithe Mountains of Arabia beyond Damases : bound of where Anti-Libanus turneth towards the Holy The not far from Balanea, witness Ptolomy: and South. These ledges where they begin to 19.06 and therefore Pinetus callethit Valania, and Po- part Traconitis and Basan, from the Defart in the Basum, r. 1 south Mellus, Velana; which River boundeth Phe- Arabia, are called Hermon: which Moses al-bound nicia on the North-side: to which Strabo al- so nameth Sion, the Phanicians, Syrion; and Jos. 13. 3; fo agreeth butthis principal River of Affer for Arias Montanus calleth Gabatus. Chriftian Mountain apart, but a continuation of Hills: may calleth Gabatus. Chriftian Mountain apart, but a continuation of Hills: more a which running farther Southerly, is in the bove in the feature of the fea Peter Laiestan (which Laiestan in this our Scriptures called Galaad, or Gilead: the same the second

> Str. b. l. 10. Plin. l. 5. c. 20. Deut. 4. 48. Strab. l. 10. Pto. Afid. lab. 4. Sueion, Nig. pag. 503.

Hieremy

bani: noting, that this Galaad is the highest East and South-East by Jordan. of those Hills of Libanus. Strabo knows pinion.

They take the name of Libanus from their white tops, because (according to Tacitus) the highest of them are covered with snow all the Summer: the Hebrew word Libanos, (faith Weiffenburg) fignifieth whiteness. Others call them by that name of the Frankincence which those Trees yeild: because saldrone is also the Greek word for that Niger out of Aphrodifeus affirmeth, that on Libanus there falleth a kind of honey name Stephanus also findeth a city in Thrace, dew, which is by the Sun congealed into and Glycas in Phrygia. hard Sugar, which the Inhabitants call Sac-Saccarum.

the neighbour Regions, are, Chryforrhous, Agrippa, and Bernice the Queen commanded, middle Jordan, Eleutherus, Leontes, Lycus, Adonis, Fons hortorum Libani, and others.

The rest of the Mountains of Asser, are those Hills above Tyre, and the Hills of Samiles distant.

THE TRIBE OF NEPHTALIM.

Of the bounds of Nephtalim, and of Heliopolis, and Abila.

He next portion of the Land of Canaan bordering Asher, was the upper Galilee: the greatest part whereof fell to the lot of Nephtalim, the fon of Jacob by Billa, joyning, as far South as the Sca of Galilee, adad; and after a while by Teglatphalafar.

Hieremy proveth: Galand in mihi caput Li- bounded on the West by Asher, and on the contry

On the North-side of Libanus, and ad-Theod, of thole Hills of Livanns. Straw Moon joyning to this Territory of Nephtalim, did harmonic of Traconitae; and Piolomy joyning to this Territory of Nephtalim, did harmonic of Traconitae; and Piolomy joyning to the Cor Emerite (or Emerite) also inhabit in the state of the Ameritae (or Emerite) also inhabit in the state of the Ameritae (or Emeritae) also inhabit in the state of the by Hippus. Arius Montanus calleth these the Amorites (or Emorites) also inhabit, in 3.33, Mountains bordering Asser 5. Libanus, for which Tract, and under Libanus, was the ci-Mountains bordering Affer; Livanus, 101 Winca I racional under Library, 101 Ministration by of Heliopolis: which the heighth of the Ministration o graphers, but he giveth no reason of his o- Monntains adjoyning shadowed from the lost. Sun the better part of the day. Postellus calls Enfish, it Balbec ; Niger, Marbech; and Leonclavins, Demont

Of this name of Heliopolis, there are two f. ug. great cities in Egypt: the first called On, by the Hebrews, and the Chaldean Paraphraft: otherwise Bethsemes, or after the Latines, 80lis oppidum or Domus Solis ; The City of the Sun: into which, faith Ulpian, Severus the Roman Emperour fent a Colony: the other Gestelius nameth Dealmarach : and of this

There is also in the same Valley adjoynchar, from whence came the Latine word ing to Nephtalim, Chalcis, and Abila. Chalcis of whom the region towards Palmyrena hath The Rivers which Libamus bestoweth on the name of Chalcidica, over which Herod

Abila also gave name to the region ad-phris, joyning, of which Lyfanius the fon of Herod children the elder, became Tetrarch or Governour: and and whereof Ptolomy gave it the addition of Ly- in Rules, ron, both exceeding fruitful: but those are Janii, and called it Abila Lyfanii. Volaterran Hamil but of a low stature, compared with Libanus: names it Aphila, of which he notes, that one allower for from Nebo, or the Mountain of Abarim in Diogenes, a famous Sophifter was native, who are Reuben, Majes beheld Libanus threescore by Volaterran is intituled Apuleius, not Abile-Food us. After that this city of Abila or Aphila, had John received the Christian Faith, Priscillinus be- (cents) in came the Bishop thereof: flain afterward the art by our Brittish Maximus at Trever. For di-Ralard Stinction of this city (if it be not the same, as all which it may be thought to be the fame) it is to be indut remembred, that in the Tribe of a Manaffe, loss: a joyning upon the bounds of the Tribe of wenn Nephtalim, there is another city of the same and the name, faving that it is written with an (E) for worms an (I) and called Abela, remembred in the 20 the sum as (I) and called Abela, remembred in the 20 to 15 form. chapter of the fecond of Samuel. The fame thinks of Josephus calls Abelmachea, and Hierome, Beth. cip, at macha. In the place of Samuel, for diffinitis subsets on fake, it is written Abel Beth-Mahaca, (for ner of belike it was the Town of Mahaca the wife boolded belike it was the Town of Mahaca the wife the pabode in Fgppt, were increased to the number of 53400. persons, able men to bear arms, numbred at Mount Sinai: all which leaving their bodies in the Desarts, there entred the Holy Land of their sons, 45400, besides Insants, Women, and Children, under twenty years of age. The Land of Nephtalim took beginning on the North part, from the Fountains of Jordam, and the Hill of Libanus adtermination of Jordam, and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam, and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam, and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam, and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam, and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam, and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam, and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam, and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam and the Hill of Libanus additional management of Jordam and Libanus additional manage tains of Jordan, and the Hill of Libanus adterward taken by the King of Danafous, Ben-1

therefore no marvel that many Towns (with of Dan (being straitned in their Territory fome addition for distinction sake) were under Juda) invaded and mastered; and thus called: for even of bewailing, many gave it the name of their own Parent Dan: And A and so doutless * Abel-Mifraim, Gen. 50. 11. at which place Abraham surprised Chedorlaohang and yet Junius in his notes upon Num. 33. mer and his confederates, and followed his thinks that Abel-Sittim was so called ra- victory as far as Sobah, formerly remembred 1983. (to wit, in the Land of Moab) and so perhaps Sophena. And after the possession of the Dapurfued them.

| II.

Of Hazor.

IN the Tribe of Nephtalim was that famous (or after the Chaldean Paraphrast, Haszor) Judgleec by Josephus, Asora; by Junius, * Chatzor: that it was either a free city, of the alliance which Laicstan names Hesron; the Regal 10 Act of City, and Metropolis of Canaan: feated in the subject unto the Kings thereof; for it is min, fee West part of Nephtalim, towards Asher. In this written Judg. 18. And there was none to help, Verse 18. follows in city was that great Rendevous and Affemthis place; bly of those four and twenty Kings against this Tribe Josua: who being all overthrown, Ilain, and onphin feattered this their powerful city was by 70s, called fua taken and burnt to dust. But in process ywe read of time the same being re-built by the Cana-19.27. anites, a second King Labin, 137. years after the death of this first Ial in, invaded the Israelites: and being ordained of God to punish their Idolatry, he prevailed against fenburg: but he had read it in a corrupt cothem and held them in a miferable fervitude 20. years; till Debora the Prophetess overour for threw Sifera, Iabins Lievtenant, and his Ar-In Fig. 47 my, near the Mountain Tabor. This city So-Mo in lomon restored at such time as he also reedified Gezar, burnt by Pharao of Egypt, this city was by him amplified and fortified; with Megiddo, Bethoron, and other cities; and both to give memory to his own name, but about 260, years after, it fell into the hands of Teglatphalafar King of the Affyrians. by the names of tegraphanapa same of the state of the sta Joseph Jis. There is another city of this name in the Jocatha. Territory of Benjamin, seated on the confines at lilly of Assalon, called the new Hazor, saith d Hieling, a rome.

Indicated the new Hazor of the sea of the

I. III. Of Cafarea Philippi:

in the Territory of Nephtalim, that re- garment with a conftant Faith: who after- 6.25.

The word Abel may be expounded, either nowned city of Lais, or Laisich, as Junius "Judg 18.17 to fignifie bewailing, or a plain ground; and writes it, or Leschen; which city the children 19/19-47. places took name; as Bochim, Judg. 2. 4. and by that name it is written in Genes. 14. 15th 6.18 47 ther by reason of the plain ground there, in the division of Syria, otherwise called Abel-Meholah in the Tribe of Ephraim: the nites, it had the joynt name of Leschem-Dan. Town of Elisha the Prophet: also Abel-Vi- Weissenburg writes it Lacis, the Geneva, Laiss; nearum of the Ammonites, whither Jephta Josephus, Dana, Benjamin, Balina; Breiden- Judg. 18. bach, Belena: but the now Inhabitants know it by the name of Belina to this day: witness Neubrigensts, Tyrius, Volaterranus, Brochard the Monk, and Postellus: who also taketh this city to be the same, which in Matth. 15.39. in the Vulgar is called Magedan, for which the Greek Text hath Magdala in that place, and in S. Mark, speaking of the same City of Jabin, in Josua's time called Afor, story, Dalmanutha. At such time as the children of Dan obtained this place, it seemeth and confederacy of the Zidonians, or elfe because Lais was far from Zidon: and they had no business with other men: for it was above thirty English miles from the Mediter- Plin. 1. 5.

ran Sea, and from Zidon. In after-times when these regions became fubject to the state of Rome, it had the name of Paneas, from a Fountain adjoyning fo called: and therefore Ptolomy calls it Cafarea Heg. L.I. c. Pania. Hegesippus calls it Parnium, faith Weif- 35. py; for in Hegelippus, fet out by Badius, it is written Paneum without an (R): and at such time as Philip the fon of the elder Herod, brother to Herod, Tetrarch of Galilee, became Governour of Traconitis, fometime Balan: and to flatter Tyberius Cafar, he called it * Cesarea Philippi: and so it became the Mie- ther Casatropolis, and head city of Traconitis, and one ria (or caof the first cities of Decapolis. And being by led Cafe-Agrippa in the fucceeding age greatly a- rea Palelidorned; by him in honour of Nero, it was na: fee hereafter called Neronia or Neroniada. But as nothing in the for remained with that Emperour, but the me- mer part of mory of his impiety : foin S. Hieroms time Of Diocethe Citizens remembred their former Pane- faring fee as and so re-called it, with the Territory adjoyning by the ancient name. Of this City Eufeb. hift. was that woman whom Christ healed of a Excles 1. 78 Here was also on the border, and with bloody issue, by touching the hem of his viceph 1.6.

Stured,

that the first Spring of Jordan

Fountain

al≉, from whence To and Dan receive their wa-

be cast in pure Copper: the one represent- Jbadow of death, upon them bath the light shined. dered and feattered, to the great admiration mens houses. of the people at that time living. The truth tieth Chapter.

that Philip fields belonging to this City it was that Cologria, all Palestina, and Indea. the 1e truck cast S. Feter acknowledged Christ to be the Son North cast from cafe. fame fortune with the rest, for it was after led Amana, faith Stephanus, or as I ghess, Amores, which taken and re-taken by the Saracens, and na rather, because it was the chief City of chaffe be- Christians: under Fulch the fourth King of the Ammonites, known by the name of Rabing carried II. The conditions the death of College Libbert Park I will dishible convict this land Hiernfalem, and after the death of Godfrey bab, before Ptolo. Philadelphus gave it this la-Parison or them again it was recovered. Laftly, now it memory of his Nurse, who died therein, an-Don, whereby is remaineth with all that part of the World ciently known by the name of Bethsan; for fubjected to the Turk. is conje-

||. IV.

Of Capernaum, and the Cities of Decapolis.

ward, as the was a woman of great wealth taught the doctrine of our falvation: accorand ability, being mindful of Gods goodness, ding to that notable Prophecy of Estay o. and no less grateful for the same, as Eusebins The people that walked in darkness have seen a and Nicephorus report, caused two Statues to great light: they that dwelt in the Land of the ing Christ as wear as it could be moulded: the Capbernaum was seated on Iordan, even other made like her felf, kneeling at his feet, where it entreth into the Sea of Galilee, in an and holding up her hands towards him. excellent and rich foil: of whose destruction These she mounted upon two great Bases Christ himself prophesied in these words, or Pedelials of the same metal, which she pla- And thou Caphernaum which art lifted up unced by a Fountain near her own house: to heaven, shalt be brought down to hell, Sec. both which (faith Eusebius) remained in their which shewed the pride and greatness of first perfection, even to his own time: which that City: for it was one of the principal himself had seen, who lived in the reign of Cities of Decapolis, and the Metropolis of Ga. Constantine the Great. But in the year after like. And although there were some marks Christ 363, that Monster Julian Apostata, of this Cities magnificence in Saint Hieroms caused that worthy Monument to be cast time, as himself confesseth; it being then down and defaced: fetting up the like of a reasonable Burge or Town: yet those his own in the same place: which Image of that have since, and long since seen it, as his was with fire from Heaven broken into Brochard, Breidenbech, and Saliniae affirm, fitters: the head, body, and other parts fun- that it then confifted but of fix poor Fisher-

The Region of ten principal Cities, called of this accident is also confirmed by Sozo- Decapolitana, or Decapolis, is in this descriptimenus Salaminius, in his fifth Book and twen- on often mentioned, and in S. Matthew, Mark Model. and Luke also remembred; but I find no a Make This City built by the Danites, was near greement between the Cosmographers, what Lake the joyning together of those two Rivers, proper limits it had: and so Pliny himself which arising from the springs of Jor and consessed to the North by the Moun. a Tolephus Dan, the two a apparent Fountains of Jordan, others, bounds it on the North by the Moun 4,518. in dissoork in a foil exceeding fruitful and pleafant: for, tain cassus in cassos: and endethit to the thinks o dessen as it is written, Judges 18. it is a place which if vacch as it is written, Judges 18. it is a place which for it is a doth ment nothing that is in the world. In the feription it imbraceth Phanicia, a part of years,

Pliny also makes it large, and for theten lighter, the file into of God: whereupon it was answered, The es Cities of which it taketh name, he numbreth unally a Founcial Petrus, & Inter this four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: This four of the fituated towards Arabia: This fituated towards Ar ale, diffant City received the Christian faith, it was ho- to wit, first these three, Damascus, Opotos, Ra emit. 130 fladia poured with a Bishops feat: and it ran the phana, then Philadelphia (which was first cal-Plants ground, of Bullion, the King of Damaseus wrested it ter and new name.) Then Scythopolis, some-was calluf from the Christians; and shortly after by time Nisa, built (asis said) by Baccus, in the fixth he fetteth Gadara (not that Gadara in Calofyria, which was also called Antioch and Selensia: but it is Gadara in Basan, which Pliny in this place meaneth, feated on an high hill, near the River of Hieromaix. This Capernaum, and the Cities of Decapolis.

River Orteline takes to be the River Jabo: (19) which bounded Gad and Manafe over Jor within this dam: but he mistaketh its for Hieromaix falleth for miles.

Tribe. Caphernaum is not the least. (5) Tribe, Caphernaum is not the leaft: fo into the Sea of Galike, between Hippor and reining the property of the often remembred by the Evangelifts. This Gerafa, whereas Jaboe entreth the same Sea pills between Ephron and Phannel. For the seventh of three years: who for that time was a Citizen he nameth * Hippos, or Hippion, a City so call fame in the same of the same thereof, in which he first preached and led of a Colony of Horsmen there garrison'd Colon by Herod, on the East-side of the Galilean, The Country of Iura, faith he, containeth gion took name, is better gathered out of nes, which b Hierom upon Amos calls Antio- b So Hie-Brochard, Breidenbach, and Saligniac, which chia, with Hummath or Hamath the lefter in Comment make them to be thefe; Cofarea Philippi, and Phenicia, and Nephtalim, which he calleth on Amos Afor, before remembred, Cedes, Nephtalin, Epiphania: for this Hammath, or in our Transfeliwers sepbet, Corazán, Capharnaum, Bethfaida, Jotalation Hamath, (and not that which is commention English miles.

Of Hamath.

DUt to look back again towards Libanus, Dthere is feated neer the foot thereof the h Stp. City of * Hammath or Chammath, of which (asthey fay) the Country adjoyning taketh name : the same which Josephus calleth Amathitis, and Amathensis : a Jacobus Zeigler, Itureæa. Ituræa Regio tenet borealia tribus Nepthali, per montem Libanum usque Trachones.

th, cap. 21. ver. 32. Chammath-Dor, in the fielt of Chron. cap 6 ver. 7:

sea, described hereafter in the Tribe of Ma- the North parts of the Tribe of Nepthali, nalie over Jordan. For the eighth Pella, which along the Mount Libanus to Trachones. But is also called Butis, and Berenice, seated in herein following Strabe, who calls Trachonithe South border of the Region over Jor- tis Ituraa, he mistakes the scat of this Redan, called Perea. For the ninth Gelafa, which gion: and fo doth Mercator. For indeed were Josephus takes to be Gerasa: and Gerasa is Ituraa (which Hegesippus calls Feraa, and G. found in Colosgra by Josephus, Hegesuppus, and Tyrius, Baccur) the same with Traconitis, yet stephanus: but by Ptolomy (whom I rather Traconitis it felf is far more to the East than follow) in Phanicia. The tenth and last, Hammath in Nephtalim: for Traconitis lieth Pliny nameth Canatha, and so doth Suctionius between Cafarea Philippi, and the Mountains and Stephanus, which Volaterran calls Gama-Trachones: which the Hebrews call Gilead: la, but Hegesippus rightly Camala, a City in and this Hammath or Chammath is seated the Region of Basan over Jordan, so called, under Casarea, towards the Sea West-ward. because those two Hills on which it is sea- And it seemeth that this mistaking grew by ted, have the shape of a Camel. But the Col- confounding Emath or Hamath the great in lection of these ten Cities, whereof this Re- Calosyria, beyond the Mountains Tracho-

pata, Tiberias, and Scythopolis, or Bethfan. For monly called Emath, which a Chron 8.3. is fer of Hamab all other Authors disagree herein, and give far from the North border of Canaan in Syria as it seems no reason for their opinion. One place of the Soba) is remembred in Numb. 34.8. & Num. 13, for diffin Evangelift S. Mathem makes it manifest, that 22. & in Ezek 47.16. in the first of which pla-diention the other this Region called Decapolitana, was all that ces it bordereth the Land of promife, these in nepto-Traft between Zidon, and the Sea of Galilee. being the words: From Mount Hor you fhall thatim, For thus it is written: And he departed again point (that is, direct or draw a line) untill it had berge from the coasts of Tyrus and Zidon, and came come to Hamath: In the second place thus: aldes, reunto the Sea of Galilee, through the middest of So they went up, and searched out the Land seeing the coasts of Decapolis: so that it was boun-from the Wilderness of Sin, unto Rehob to go to rather tol. ded by Damascus and Libanus on the North: Hamath: Then in Ezekiel; The West part also lows the by the Phanician Sea, between Zidon and Shall be the great Sea from the border, till a of zeight Ptolomais on the West: by the Hils of Gelbo | man come over against Hamath: that is, the above and Bethfan on the South: and by the Moun- coast of the Sea shall be the West border mentioned as in tains Tracones, otherwise Hermon, Sanir, and from the Southermost part of the Holy Land, deed it Galaad, on the East: which is from East to till you come directly over against Hamath cannot West the whole breadth of the Holy Land : Northward : from whence if a line be drawn justified and from the North to the South, neer the to the Sea, it will touch the walls of Zidon; that either fame distance, which may be each way forty which is the Northwest corner of the Holy ther of Land. Now that this Hamath, or Hammath, thefe is eiwhich Mofes also made the confine of the ther Anticebia or Holy Land, is that of Nephthalim, both the Epiphmia reference which it hath to the West Sea, and howbeit the City of d Rehob adjoyning, prove it: the fame City

Johna 19 35. is called Chammath, and placed in Nephthalim, was also called Chimath (whence the word Hamath and Emath, were trained) may be gathered, partly because the other Hamath, 2 Clron. 8.3. for diffinition on game-company occame to concertamenta, coron, a. 5, not outstoccom is called chambit felda, as this fois it may feem by foi, 1.3.3, by as chamath. Dor, and chanath fulde, as we have noted, 2 Rg, 24, Secondly because Manders 1, 8, and allo Excel 47, 10. chamath in the North lide of the Holy Land is placed too user the West corner, to be that chamath fights: for in the line which should make the North border which begins at the great Sea, they make Mofes to name never a place Eafl-ward along all the breadth of the Holy Land until we come to Hermon(for lothey expound Mount Hor. Num. 34.7.) and beyond Hermon East-ward in this North fide, they make him to name divers Towns , first Chamath , then Tfeda, inter they make min to halve users towns, intercomment that it is interpreted in the Zipfron, and laftly, chalfy-home, a thing moft unlikely: feeing if said had little or nothing Batt-ward beyond Herman. Therefore we must need to spound for to the one of the Hills need to show and for the form of the Hills need to show the said of the thing was a they are named, to lie in order on the North fide of After, Nephbalium. many, A first 14. Chamman Load, a sufmain reach it, whereas as they are named to lie in order on the North fide of After, Nephthalim, a finite reach it, whereas as they are named to lie in order on the North fide of After, Nephthalim, and the diffinition there is added [in Ifnel] to note, that it was and Mansifis: and in like manner thole in Reckiel, first, Chelon, there is added high the After the Afte ten Tibes : the other Chamath, being in Syria Soba. a Zeigler in v Of which John 1933. d Which Rebob, or Rechob, in Jol 19:28, is placed in After towards Zidon, in the confines of Nephibalim.

in the A-

pare give

thur is namong the Hagavens, against country

Jerohoam

as their thers had done in the time after his

the coun-

of the fore-famed a-rabia's.

and beyond the fore-named Mountains, it was called Epiphania. which inclose all those Lands which Ifrael is also called Iturea, witness stella and name Amathe, and to the Greeks by Epiphania. and teer Laiestan; and not that in Nephthalim, where tacharm & Jonathas Macchabaus attended the Army ther tables of the Of Demetrius, who fled from him, and remo-Hayland ved by night,

For though Traconitis be comprehended within Hurea (and therefore it is faid to be sintima Galilea Gentium) yet it hath beginning over the Mountains Traconis, and fo it doth pro- firercheth into the Plains of the Territory of Imrea; whence Philip the brother of He-, rod was Tetrach, or President, both of Ituraa and Trachonitis: both which are over fordan towards the East. But Chemath in Nephtalim, is on the West side of ford an towards where if fue feeled the Mediterran Sea.

The Country Huraa was fo called of Jethur, one of the fons of Ismael; it is placed in the bounds of Calofyria, and Arabia * the Alfo the The people Iturai were valiant and warplace of the 1 Chr. 5.19 confirms it, Firgil:

Iturgos Taxi torquentur in arcus.

Of Eugh the Itureans bows were made.

whom the Reubenites This City Chamath, or Hamath in Nephtamade war, lim, feems to have been as ancient as the oand whose ther in Iturea, both built by Amatheus the therein. eleventh fon of Canaan. Whether in the time letinthe of David, this, or the other had Toku bred, many other ftrong Cities in Nephthafilver, and brafs.

ery is pla-But it feemeth that David in fuch great fuccels would not have had peace with Toa Of the bu, if he had been King of any place in Nephlarger pro-talim, and therefore it is probable that he mile ex-prest, Deut. Tuled in Tfoba: which City Solomon after his .7 where Fathers death made himself Master of, as a part of the lands (ain the larger and conditional promise allotted by God to the children of Ifrael. bounds:

But this Hammath of Nephtalim, in the See chap 7 end, and after divers mutations and changes, other Hamath, or Emath (being far removed, been faid, possessed by Antiochus Epiphanes.

While S. Hierome lived, it remained a City ever had possession of) is that Emath, which well peopled, known to the Syrians by the

§. VI.

Of Reblatha & Rama, and divers other Towns.

N the border of Hamath or Emath, towards Jordan, standeth the City Reblatha, or Ribla, watered from the fountain Daphnis: which falleth into the Lake of Meron. Hereunto was Zedekias brought prisoner.after his furprize in the fields of Jericho: & delivered to Nebuchodonofor : who to be aven- Hirrow (1 ged of Zedekia's infidelity, beyond the pro-ther. portion of piety, first caused the Princes his sate un children to be flain in his presence; and to the end that this miferable spectacle might be the last that ever he should behold in this world, and so the most remembred. he commanded both his eyes presently to be like men, and excellent Archers: Of whom thrust out: & binding him in Iron chains, he was led a flave to Babylon, in which state he ended his life. Of which feldom exampled calamity, though not in express words, Jeremy the Prophet foretold him in Hierufalem not long before: But Ezekiel thus directly speaking in the person of God; I will bring him to Babel, to the Land of the Chaldaans, yet shall be not see it, though he shall die

There are, besides these before rememfor King, it is not certain; for Hamath or lim, as that which is called (a) Cedes; there with Emath beyond the Mountains, and Hammath are two other of the same name, one in (b) If 19310 in Nepktalim, were both neighbours to Da- [achar, another in Juda, of which Jof 15-23 in majors: of whose subjugation Tolur rejoy- and therefore to distinguish it, it is known here in Juda of which Jof 15-23 in Juda of which Juda of which Jof 15-23 in Juda of which Juda of ced, because Hadadeser, whom the Damasceni by the addition of (c) Nephtalim, as Ind.4. It 46 came to help, was his enemy. This Tohu fea- is feated on a high hill, whence Jof 20.7. Ke-6.71. ring the firength and prosperity of David, desh in Galilea in monte Nephtali: Josephus which of the relating of his approach towards his Terri calls it Cedefis, and in S. Hieromes time it was called to tory, bought his peace with many rich pre- called cidiffus. Belforest greatly mistakes this size to where fents, and with many ancient veffels of gold, Cedes, and confounds it with Cades in the Come Defart of Pharan.

After the King thereof, among other of the Galilet Canaanites, perished by the hand of Josua, it Chase was made a City of refuge, and given to the 1 Mg 1 Levites. Herein was Barac born; who over-19: threw the Army of the second Jabin of Hazor, at the Mount Tabor. It was sometime polfest by Teglatphalasser, when he wasted all Nephtalim: afterward by the Romans, and numbred for one of the ten Cities of the Decapolitan Region: When it had imbraced the Christian faith, it was honoured with a Bi-Hieron de both of name and fortune, being, as it hath hops feat, but in time it fell with the rest into the power of the Saracens and Turks, and by led the upper Galilee, or Galilee of the Genthem it was demolished.

CHAP. VII.

Rama of Nephtalim, seated Northward neer that City after him. Sephet, this is to be noted, that there are () To the North of Berotha of Nephtalim Nephtalims.

(d)or Kiriathajim, a City of the Levites, not reth, the same Lake which is also called the far from the Mountain out of which the Sea of Tiberius. In the body of the Land they fprings of Capharnaum arise, called Mons place Galgala to the South border: of which This was he called and ordained to be his Apostles or parts) and out of the same place of Josia, Galgelesor

Exek, feeing it is in that Galilee which is cal-ther of the one nor of the other. day not but there was another Kirinhajim in Realess, of ready, that it is also Kiria thajim. In the place, t Reg. d. it is which also die a man another Kirinhajim in Realess, of ready, that it is also Kiria thajim. In the place, t Reg. d. it is which also die a man and the same of the called which it is also kiria thajim as it evident.

tiles. The same Adrichomius placeth the Re-From Cedes some four Italian miles to- gion of Berim neer Abela (of which Abela, or wards the South-west, standeth Sephet, other- Abel-Beth Mahacah, we have spoken alreawise Zephet, which was also one of the ten De- dy) this he doth upon a conjecture touching capolitan Cities: a place exceeding strong, the place, 2 Sam 20. 14. where some read and for many years the inexpugnable For- Abel & Bethmahacah, & omnia loca Berim: tres of the Christians, and afterward of the but the better reading is, & omnes Berin. Saracens; for from hence they conquered all that is, with all the Berai: for Shebah being of the neighbour Cities of those Regions, both Benjamin (in which Tribe also there is a City In-land and Maritimate, neer it. Touching called Berotha, or Beeroth) drew the men of divers places of this name in Palestine, all sci-standeth Sebarim under Libanus, remembred Across tuate on hils: and therefore called Rama by Ezek, 47. and Arofeth gentium, neer the Ind. 4: Rama Hebreis excellum; Ramath with the Waters of Merom, or Samochonitis, the City 1971 in (hama received) Habrews is high.) Also that from this Rama, Jos. of Sisara, Lieutenant of the Army of the se- Jos 1937; 19.36 they read Arama, making the Article cond Jabin: from whence not far off, towards 1 Reg. 15. (which it hath in the Hebrem, as being a name) the Sea of Galilee, is Edrai, or Edrebi, a ftrong 2 Reg. 15. of divers Towns) to be a part of the word: City: besides many others, whereof I sind no 29. whence casting away the aspiration, they particular story of importance: as ser in min a whence calting away the appracion, they particular they particular they read Arema. From Sephet towards the West, Joseph for the first of their senced Cities: they place * Bethsemes, of which fof 19.38. med for the first of their fenced Cities: which defended it felf against Nephtalim, whence they make two Cities, Assedim and Jud.1.23. but paid them tribute. On the o- ser. Then Adama, which they call Edama: ther fide of Sephet, towards the East, was Be- also Hion, which they call Abion, of which in thanath, who also kept their Citie from the the books of Kings. Then the strong City of Cinnereth, after called Gennezareth, whence Mar, 6.53. Adjoyning to which standeth Carthan, we read of the Land and Lake of Genneza. Lake 5. I.

thrifti, a place by our Saviour often frequen- * 1 Mac. 9.2. also divers others, named Jos. place of ted: availo then when calling his Disciples 19.as Venca, or Chukkok Horem and Azanoth be Mactogether, he made choice of twelve, which tabor (which they place towards the East cours no he called and ordained to be his apolities of parts) and out of the latter place, and (k) Raccath; Gigal, in Messengers: of which place, or the acts there- Jerzon, Lakkum Jepnael, Heleb, and (k) Raccath; Nephali, in done, there is often mention in the (e) E- which two last they place neer Casarea Phi-but may lippi: To these they add out of Joshua, Nekeb, well be Adjoyning to these are Magdalel, a place and Adami: for which two Junius readeth flood of of strength, (f) and Mefaloth, of which we Fossa Adamei, making it no Town, but a Gilgal in of Irrength, (f) and Mejaioth, of which we rega naamar, making it no town, but a read, that it was forced by Bacchides in the Ditch cast by some of Adameth, as it seems; Benjamins or in Ma. time of the (g) Macchabees: also (according or at least the custody of which March or suffice. to Adrichamius) one of the two Berotha's of Limit belonging to the Town. To these out k This Nephtalim. For Adrichomius maketh two of of Num. 34. 10, they add Sephana, which I Recent this name in this Tailed (1) and the Recent this name in this Tailed (1) and the Recent this name in this Tailed (1) and the Recent this name in this Tailed (1) and the Recent this name in this Tailed (1) and the Recent this name in this Tailed (1) and the Recent this name in th this name in this Tribe, (h) one neer Chamath Sam. 3c. 21. feems to be called Sipmoth. As Justin in the North border, of which Ezek, 47.6. a for Tichon and Helon, whereof the former that it is nother (upon a weak conjecture out of Jo-they fetch out of Ezek, 47.16. and the latter the fame (sph.ant. 1.5. c.2.) he therefore placeth in this out of Jos. 19.33. it may appear by Junius his with con-Journal 1.5. c.2.) he therefore placeth in this out of 10.19.33. It may appear by Junius his tradiner the waters of Merom; because the Translation, that neither are to be taken for their of their Kings that joyned with Jabin against Josua, Cities: for the former he readeth Mediana, being which incamped at the waters of Merom, Jos. and for the later Quercetum. The City of made of the other 11.5, are by Josephus said to have encamped (1) Nephthalim, which they make the native by readat the City Berotha in Galilee, not far from place of Tobic, and Naajon neer unto it, they polition Cedeja juperiour, which is also in Galilee: all fetch out of the Vulgar Translation, Teb 7.7. of which which may be true of that Berotha of which but in the Greek Text there is no fign, nei- Karthen

1943, 9. • Sand, 3. Math. 10. Add 11. Math. 5.67. f 76(1.9.38)
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
3. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
4. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
4. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
4. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
4. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
4. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
4. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
4. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
4. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
4. h. Beathen Piolomo in fire Arabie deferee 7 finite and materials
4. h. Beath

THE

b /o/.2.

d The

the Tribe of Aßer.

fof 22.2. Nathaniel is faid to nius reads

Cannites,

(Luke 6.)

he think. eth to be ded by Zelotes.

19 13. Vatablus

joyns it

Simon

which word

6. V.

THE TRIBE OF ZABULON.

F Zabulon, or Zebulon, another of the Jons of Jacob by Leasthere were mustered at Mount Sinai, 57400. able men, besides women, children, and aged unable persons: all which dying in the Defarts, there entred the Holy Land of their issues 65000 fit to bear arms: who inhabited that part of Canaan, from Asher to the River Chison South-ward, and from the Sea of Galilee to the Mediteran East and West.

be of Cana ded it felf against Zabulon. Then Bersabe, but in Nephtalim. which standeth in the partition of the upper and nether Galilee, fortified by Josephus aby Josua.

e The Hevites: then Noa, or rather Neha, of which Jos. (for which 19. 13. Then Dothan, or Dothain, where Jorians, struck them all blind.

expounds, que gyrai: Tunius the Levites. The last of the Cities on the two thousand prisoners. North border of Zabulon is Bethfaida, one of others, received the same Curse of threatned miseries.as. Wo be unto thee Bethsaida. Oc.

Alongst the West border of Galilee, towards the South from Bethfaida, was the strong Castle of Magdalum, the habitation of Mary Magdalen, not long fince standing,

And beyond it the strong and high seated City of Jotapata, fortified by Josephus in the Roman war: but in the end, after a long fiege, furprifed by Vespatian, who flaughtered many thousand of the Citizens, and held 1200. prisoners, whereof Josephus the Historian was one.

The last and greatest of the Cities on that Sea, and the Lake of Genezzareth, within . The The Cities within this Tribe which border Afber, are Sicaminum on the Sea shore; of afterward the Galilean Sea allo changed Chinish which logeph. Ant. 13.c. 19. Debbaset, of which name, and was called the Sea of the City Ti-ted best * Jos. 12. 10, 19. 11. Jekonam, or Jockneham (whose King berias, so named in the honour of Tiberins lakeline 21. "This does not be seen and the City was given Cafar; it was one of the ten Cities, and the towning to the Levites:) and Gaba, after called the Metropolis of the Region Decapolitan, and India City of Horsemen, of a Regiment there gar- the greatest and last of the lower Galilee, True to rison'd by Herod. Then the City which bea- From hence our Saviour called Matthew Persun, bel. 22. e Judg. 12. reth the name of Zabulon, or the city of men, from the Toll or Custom-house, to be an A Benshit. exceeding ancient and magnificent, (b) burnt postle; and neer unto it raised the daughter coder, to the ground by Cestius, Lietvenant of the of Jairus from death: it was built (as Josephus and the Ganalis in Roman Army, Adricomius makes it the birth- reports) by Herod the Tetrach, the brother add in City of (c) Elon Judge of Ifrael, because he is of Philip, in the beginning of the raign of Ti-mind, called Zabulonita: not marking that in the berius Cafar, in the most fruitful part of Ga foreign fame place, he is faid to be buried at Ajalon. lilee; but in a ground full of sepulchres; Quamenton To the East of this City of Zabulon is Ca- juxta nostras leges (faith he) ad septem dies im Lakeni in calilee, teth, of which Jos. 19. 15. on the border of purus habeatur, qui in talibus locis habitet; Commy, Asher: and beyond it the lesser (d) Cana of Whereas by our law he should be seven daies hall here doubted Galilee, where Christ converted water into held as unclean, who inhabited in such a place: the wine: the native City of Nathaniel, and, as it by which words, and by the whole place of 1834. is thought of Simon Zelotes. Beyond it begin Josephus it appears, that this Tiberius is not Mat. 10.4 the Mountains of Zabulon: and then the City (as some have thought) the same as the old Ministra of Cethron (in Zeigler, Ghiltron) which defen- Cinnereth, which was feated, not in Zabulon, 24,

Neer unto this Tiberias, at Emaus, there were hot baths, where Vespatian the Empegainst the Romans. Not far from hence stand- rour encamped against Tiberias. More into eth Shimron of Meron, whose King was flain the Land toward the South-west, is Bethulia, feated on a very high hill, and of great Then Damna, or Dimna, a City of the Le- strength, famous by the story of Helefernes and Judith, such as it is. Neer which standeth Bethleem of Zabulon: and adjoyning unto it the vulgar feph found his brethren feeding their flocks: Capharath, fortified by Josephus against the man then, fol. the same wherein Elizeas, besieged by the Sy- Romans: and Japha, an exceeding strong place afterward forced by Titus: who in the Beyond it, towards the East, they imagine | entrance, and afterward in fury slew 15000 (e) Amthar, or Amathar: then Remmon of of the Citizens; and carried away above 11

On the South fide are the Cities of Cantha Than word going before the ten Cities of Decapolis, ficituate on the in, a read, Galilean Sea, and watered by the springs of in his own life, then Jasse, according to Adri upon Rimme. Capharnaum, the native City of the Apostles, chomius (of which fos. 19112.) for he thinks 1911 Peter, Andrew, and Philip. Herein Christ did that it is not that Japha of which we spake with Mu 8.11 many miracles, but these people being no but now out of Josephus. Jideala, of which Markt. 6. Lake 4.10 less incredulous than the Capharnaims, and Jos. 15. Hierome calls it Jadela: under it the Westward, Legio, (afterward a Bishops seat) | leth into the Sea of Galilee by Magdalum: sephorum according to Brochard: which af Jordanis parvus, which runneth from the called Diocafarea, the city of Joachim and in the bounds of Zabulon: it endeth in the Anna, the Parents of the Virgin Mary ; it was Sea of Galilee. signam called by Herod the Tetrarch, and by him, as Josephus speaks, made the head and defence of Galilee: in another place he faith, Urbium Galilearum maxime Sephoris & Tiberias. This Sephoris greatly vexed Vefpasian ere he wanit. Herod Antipas, when he made it the Regal feat of the nether Galilee, and furrounded it with a strong wall, called it Autocalled Zathet.

the city of Mary the Mother of Christ; in Land 64300. which he himself was conceived: it standeth the uttermost of Zabulon.

renowned, by the apparition of Moses and mainder for slaves and bond-men. Elias: and by the Transfiguration of Christ Chappel.

and the City Belina, in ancient times exceed- and the third is a branch of a river rifing out ing strong, remembred Judith 7.3. other- of the Fountains of Caphernaum, which salwife Chelma. Between Legio and Nazeret is leth also into the same Sea, and near Magdathe City Saffa, or Saffra, the birth-city of lum; which Torrent they call Dotham, from See Lassas and Lohn: Then the name of the city from which it reflect, has in mendia, Zebedaus, Alphaus, James and John: Then the name of the city, from which it passeth oneties sephoris, or Sephora, according to Josephus: Eastward to Bethsaida, and so joyning with 79,19.14. terward, faith Hegessippus, and Hierome, was Valley of Jephthael, which Josua reckoneth

> 6. VI. THE TRIBE OF ISSACHAR.

He next adjoyning Territory to Zabu-I lon, to the South and Southwest, was Islachar, who inhabited a part of the nether cratorida, which is as much to fay as Imperial, Galilee, within Jordan: of whom there were faith Josephus; and it is now but a Castle increased in Egypt, as appeared by their musters at mount Sinai, 54400. able and war-To the South-west of this sephoris, or Dio- like men, who leaving their bodies with the colarea, was that bleffed place of Nazareth, rest in the Defarts, there entred the Holy

The first city of this Tribe near the Sea of between Mount Tabor, and the Mediterran Galilee, was Tarichea, diftant from Tiberias Tarichea in Sea. In this city he abode chiefly four and eight English miles, or somewhat more; a sunon. twenty years, and was therefore called a city wherein the Jews (by the practice of a Nazarite, as the Christians afterward were for certain mutinous upstart, John the son of Lemany years. It was erected into an Archbi- vi)took arms against Josephus the Historian. shoprick in the following age. Near unto it then Governour of both Galilees. This city are the cities Buria (afterward well defended was first taken by Cassius, and 3000. Jews against the Turks) and Nahalal, of which Iof. | carried thence captive; and afterward with 19. 15. and Iudg. 1.30. where it is called Na- great difficulty by Vespasian, who entred it halol: and Iof. 21. 35. where it is a city of the by the Sea fide, having first beaten the Jews Leviter; near the Sea, adjoyning to the in a Sea-fight upon the Lake or Sea of Ga-River of Chison is Sarid, noted in Issua for lilee: he put to the sword all sorts of people, and of all ages; faving that his fury being In this Territory of Zabulon there are di- quenched with the Rivers of blood running vers small Mountains: but Tabor is the most through every street, he reserved the re-

Next to Tarichea is placed Cession, or Ci- Fos 11.18. in the presence of Peter, James, and John . Spion of the Levites, and then Islachar, remem-vehich unto whom Mofes and Elias appeared; in bred in the first of Kings, c.4.v. 17. then Abes, is called memory whereof, on the top of the Moun- or Ebets, 10f. 19.20. and Remeth, of which Kedel. tain, the Empress Helen built a sumptuous 10f. 19. 21. otherwise Ramoth, 1 Chron. 6.37. Josua 19. or Iarmuth, 10s.21.19. this also was a city of I Sam. 3.19. In the chief River of Zabulon is Chifon, the Levites, from whose Territory the Moun- Kings which rifing out of Tabor, runneth with one tains of Gilboe take beginning and range 20.26. stream Eastward to the Sea of Galilee, and themselves to the Mediterran sea, and to two places with another stream Westward into the wards the West as far as the City of Iezrael, Junius great Sea. This River of chison where it rifeth, and so far as it runneth Southward, is Bethpheses, or Bethpasses, according to Zeigler, ser, accordcalled chedumim, or Cadumim: and for mine and Enadda, or Hen-chadda, near which Saul ing to Jol. own opinion, I take it to be the same which slew himself: under those, Aphec, or Apheca, the first he Ptolomy calleth chorfeus: though others di- which Adrichomius placeth in Ifachar: be-placeth in 1914. flinguish them, and set Chorseus by Casaria tween which and Suna, he saith, that the out of Palestine. There is a second Torrent or Brook Philistins incamped against Israel, and after Jos. 15. that rifeth in the Hills of Bethulia, and fal- ward against Saul: a Land thirsty of blood, for herein also, saith he, the Syrians with two and thirty Reguli affifting Benhadad, incountered Achab, and were overthrown and flaughtered: to whom the King of Ifrael made a most memorable answer, when Benhadad vaunted before the victory: which E King. 10. Was, Tell Benhadad, Let not him that girdeth his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off: meaning, that glory followed after victory, but ought not to precede it. In the year following, in the fields, as they fay, adjoyning to this city, was the same vain-glorious Syrian utterly broken and discomsited by Achab: and 100000. footmen of the Aramites, or Syrians, flain: before which overthrow the fervants and counsellors of Benhadad (in derision of the God of Israel) told him, That the Gods of Israel were Gods of the Mountains: and therefore if they fought with them in the Plains, they should overcome them.

Under Aphec towards the Sea, they fet the city of Eldrelon, in the Plains of Galilee; called also the great field of Esdrelon, and 73. Tof. 11.19. Cafaloth, of which I Mac. 9.2. Anem, or Hen-Gannim, of the Levites, and Scelima, or Shabatsima, the West border of Islachar, of which Iof. 19.22. From hence ranging the Sea coast, there is found the Castle of Pilgrims:a strong Castle, invironed with the Sea, sometime the storehouse and Magazine of the christians, and built by the Earl of Saint Giles, or Tolouse.

> From the Castle of Pilgrims, the Sea maketh a great Bay towards the North, and the farthermost shore beginneth Mount Carmel, not far from the River chifon, where Elijah affembled all the Prophets and Priests of Baal, and prayed King Achab, and the people assembled, to make trial whether the God of Israel, or the Idol of Baal were to be worshipped, by laying a facrifice without fire on the Altar: which done, the Priests of Baal prayed, and cut their own flesh after their manner, but the fire kindled not, while Elijab in derision told them, that their God mas either in pursuit of his enemies, not at leisure, or perchance asleep, &c. but at the prayer of Elijah the fire kindled, notwithstanding that he had caused the people to cast many vesfels of water thereon: by which miracle the people incensed, flew all those Idolaters on the banks of Chifon adjoyning.

At the foot of this Mountain to the North, standeth Caiphas, built, as they say, by Caiphas the high Priest. It is also known by the as they were numbred at Mount Sinai name of Porsina, and Porphyria, sometime a 32200. able men: all which being consumed from the Sea-coast towards Tiberias, by the banks of chison, there are found the city of Hapharaim, or Aphraim, and the Castles of Mezra and Saba: of which Brochard and Breidenbach: and then Naim on the River Chison: a beautiful city while it stood, in the Gates whereof Christ raised from death the Like, widows onely fon.

Then Seon or Shion, named Iof. 19. between the two Hills of Hermon, in Ifachar: beyond it standeth Endor, famous by reason of the Inchantress that undertook to raiseup the body of Samuel at the instigation of Saul.

Beyond it stands Anaharath and Rabbith. named Iof. 19. v. 19,20. Then Dabarath, as it is named, Iof. 21. 28. or Dobratha, as it is named. 1 Chron. 6.71. This city (which stretcheth it felf over chifon) was a city of refuge belonging to the Levites.

Next to Dabarath is Arbela fituate, near the Caves of those two Theeves which so greatly molested Galilee in Herods time, It joyneth on one side to the Mountain of Isa-Maggeddo: in the border whereof are the char, or Hermon, and on the other to the ruines of Aphec to be seen, saith Brochard, and Valley of Jesrael: which Valley continueth it Company 1 chron. 6. Breidenbach. After these are the cities of self from Bethsan, or Scythopolis, the East bor Magnat der of Ifachar, even to the Mediterran Sea: 1 Met. 11 49, not two parts whereof are inclosed by the Moun-Holde tains of Gilboe on the South, and by Hermon for Hart and the River chifen on the North. In these I Man. 5. *Plains Gideon overthrew the Midianites, 13.09 and herein, they think, Saul fought against 15an, 1 the Philistims, Achab against the Syrians, and 1 King 10 the Tartars against the Saracens.

6. VII. THE HALF OF THE TRIBE OF MANASSE.

||. I. Of the bounds of this half Tribe: and of Soythopolis, Salem, Therfa, and others.

He next Tribe which joyneth it felf to Ifachar towards the South, is the half of Manasse, on the West side of Jordan. Manasjes was the first begotten of Joseph, the eleventh fon of Jacob. His mother was an Egyptian the daughter of Putiphar Priest and Prince of Heliopolis: which Manaffes, with his brother Ephraim, the grand-children of Jacob, were by adoption numbred amongst the fons of Jacob, and made up the number of the twelve Patriarchs.

Of Manasse there were increased in Egipt, Suffragane Bishops seat. Returning again in the Desarts, there entred of their issues, 52700. bearing arms. The Territory which of Scripture, Gen. 13. 18. do not confirm, by the Greeks.

strained the Jews to fight against their own it hath no probability. Nation and kinred, by whose hands when ligion flourished in those parts, an Archbi- lomy past by the Villages of the Jews, he fliop, who had nine other Bishops of his slew all their women, and caused the young Dioces, numbred by Tyrius, in his 14. Book | children to be sod in great Caldrons, that the and 12. Chapter: but the same was after rest of the Iens might thereby think that the ward translated to Nazareth. The later tra- Egyptians were grown to be men-eaters, and vellers in those parts affirm, that there is strike them with the greater terror. daily taken out among the rubble and the poor and desolate Village.

From Beth-san keeping the way by Jorwhich City the ancient Rabbines, faith Hierome, do not find to be the same with Hierufalem: there being in the time of Hierome hanged, and their City given to the Levites, derate of and fince, a town of that name, near Scythofell on this one half of Manafe, was bounded where the Vulgar readeth transvitque in by Jordan on the East, and Dora upon the Salem urbem Sichemorum (for which others mediterran Sea on the West, Jest act on the read venit incolumis ad Civitatem Sechemum, North, and Machmata is the South border. making the word shalem not to be a proper The first and principal City which stood name, but an adjective) yet the place John in this Territory was Bethfan, fometime Nyfa, 3. 13. where it is faid, that John was baptifaith Pliny, built by Liber Pater, in honour zing in Enon near Salem, may fomewhat of his Nurse there buried, of the same name, strengthen this opinion, and yet it is not unwhich solinus confirms. Afterward when the likely that this salem of which S. John speaksephians invaded Afta the less, and piere't eth, is but contracted of Shahalim, of which into the South, to the uttermost of Cwlessia, in the Tribe of Benjamin, 1 Sam. 9.4. This they built this City a-new, and very magni- word Junius maketh to be the plural of ficent: and it had thereupon the name of Shuhal: of which we read, I Sam 13.17. for senhopolis, or the City of senthians, given as for that which is added out of Cantieles 6.12. of Shulammitis, as if it had been as Thele barbarous Northern people con-much as a Woman of this Salem near Anon-

Not far from thence where they place This City they had obtained victory, they themselves Salem, they find Bezeeth the City of Adonibe Bezeth, by fet on the Jers which served them, and slew zee, Josephus calls it Bala: here it was that Judg 1.3? them all, stephanus makes it the utmost to- Saul allembled the strength of Israel and cometh to wards the South of Culospria: and Strabo Juda, to the number of 330000. when he have been in Juda. joyns it to Galilee. It is scatted between Jor- meant to relieve Jabesh Gilead, against Naash Josephant. dan and the Hills of Gilboe, in aulone ad the Ammonite: who would give them no o-66.5 montes acrabitena, faith Zeigler. But I find it in ther conditions of peace, than to suffer their the East part of the Valley of Jefrael near right eyes to be thrust out. Near Bezech is Jordan: after that Jordan strengtheneth it the City of Bethbera, or rather Beth-bara, of felf again into a River, leaving the Sea, or which Judg. 7.24 in the story of Gideon : and Lake Genezareth. Notwithstanding Monta- then Ephra, or Hopbra, wherein Gideon inhanus describes it far to the West, and towards | bited: in the border whereof stood an Althe Mediterran Sea, near Endor, contrary to tar confecrated to Baal, which he pulled Stella, Laicstan, Adrichome, and all other the down and defaced; and near it that stone, best Authors. This City was the greatest of on which Abimelech the Bastard slew his 70. all those of Decapolis: but the children of brothers; a Heathenish cruelty, practised by Manaffe could not expel the Inhabitants the Turk to this day: and not far hence, bethereof: and therefore called it Sane, an tween the Village of Afophon and Jordan, enemy, or Beth-san, the house of an enemy. Ptolomeus Lathurus overthrew Alexander Fol. 1.13.e. Over the walls of this Beth-fan the Phili- King of the Jews, and flaughtered, as Josephus 11. and fins hung the body of saul, and his fons numbereth them, 3000, but according to flain at Gilboe. It had, while the Christian re- Timagenes 50000. after which victory, as Pto-

Towards the West and on the border of . This A. ruines of that City, goodly pillers, and other Islachar, they place the Cities of *Aner of per Junian picces of excellent Marble, which wirness the Levites, and Abel Mebola, which Junius, 1 che forth the stately buildings, and magnificence Judg.7.22. placeth in Ephraim: it was the ha-makes to which it had in elder times, but it is now a bitation of Helifans the Prophet, numbred with Tabaamong those places, I Reg. 4.12. which were nac, of dun, they find an ancient City called salem, which City the ancient Rabbing. They will be salem, which City the ancient Rabbing. They will be salem, whose charge also Tabanac belonged, a place Hierone of great strength, which at the first refisted names it Josua, though their King was afterward the Confe-

In the body of this Territory of Manaffe, Gen. 1417; polis before remembred, which if the place but somewhat nearer Jordan than to the Me- 30, 12-17

diterran Sea, were three great Cities, to wit, he had flain Joram, he was wounded with Therfa, whose King was one of these that Jo- the shot of an arrow, of which wound he ditheir Regal feat, till fuch time as Samaria calls this City of Gaber, Gur. was built. From hence the wife of Jeroboam Estate went to Achia to enquire of her fons health: good King Josias was flain by Necko King of who knowing her, though the were difguifed, told her of her fons death. which name there are both in Egypt and whom Josius thought to resist in his passage. Greece, of great fame: in the affault of the It was afterward called Maximianoplin. Tower of this Town, whereinto the Citizens retired, the Bastard Abimelec was wounded by a weighty story, thrown by a woman tures; whose King was slain among the rest 1910a. over the wall, who despairing of his recovery, commanded his Page to flay him out- long time against Mianasse. The River which right, because it should not be said that he passeth by the Town, may perhaps be the Judge 3, perished by the stroke of a woman. But o-

280

Eufeb in

Neapelis. The third is Acrabata, of which the Territhe ten Toparchies, or governments in Judas) Her Mac, for which Hierome, I Mac.5. reads Arabathena: but in the Greek it is Acrabatine: Isidore gest Territories of all Palastine belonging to | make a great confluence of waters in this wars, c. 11. 25, 28. and elsewhere.

Toparchy, was, that the first was taken for a Province, and the other for a City with some leffer Territory adjoyning; and a Terrarch is the fame with Prajes in Latine, and Prefident in English, being commonly the fourth part of a Kingdom; and thereof io called. Pliny nameth seventeen Tetrarchies in Syria: Kingdom of Ireland to this day, Lemfter, Vilter. Connath, and Munfter.

To the South-west of Acrabata they place the Cities of Balaam, or Bilbam, and Getbremmon of the Levites: but Junius out of Jos. 21. 25.and 1 Chron.6.70. gathers that these two are but one; and that Jibleham, Jof. 16. 11. is another name of the fame City.

Then is Jezael a Regal City, fet at the foot of the Mountains of Gilboe, towards the South-west: herein Jezabel, by a false accusation, caused Naboth to be stoned, to the end the might possess his Vineyard adjoyning to of Cesaria Palastina, and some other Towns. the City, which Naboth refuled to fell, because it was his inheritance from his father.

Joram also was cast unburied into the same field: for which his mother Jezabel murthered Naboth.

which they call Gaber: in whose ascent as and toward Egypt, between this City and for flow: which the Kings of Ifrael used for ed at Maggeddo adjoyning. The Scripture

Then Adadremmon, near unto which the Egypt in a war unadvisedly undertaken, For Necho marched towards Affria against the The second was Thebes near Samaria, of King thereof, by the commandment of God:

A neighbour City to Adadremmon was by Josua: yet they defended their City for a fame which Ptolomy calleth Chorfeus: and nor thers for this City in Ephraim near Sichem, or that of which we have spoken in Zabulon, For because this name is not found in the Scriptures, many of those that have described the tory adjoyning is called Acrabatena, (one of Holy Land, delineate no fuch River. Moore only fets it down in his Geography of the twelve Tribes: but the River which paffeth by Maggeddo. he understandeth to be but a calls it Agrabat. This City had one of the lar- | branch, falling thereinto. Laicftan and Schrot the Governour thereof. Josephus remembreth place, agreeable to this Scripture in the fifth it often, as in his fecond book of the Jews of Judges: Then fought the Kings of Canaanin Tanaac by the waters of Maggeddo. But thele The difference between a Tetrarchy and a Authors, and with them Stella, give it no other name than the Torrent fo called.

But seeing that ancient Cosmographers stretch out the bounds of Phanicia even to sebafte, or Samaria; and Strabo far beyond it suddit on the Sea-coast: And Josephus calls Cafaria Toppes Palastina, a City of Phanicia: yea, Laurentin (13) Corvinus extendeth Phænicia as far as Geza: the Holy Land had four, and so hath the seeing also Ptolomy sets down Chorseus for the partition of Phanicia and Judaa, this river running East and West parallel with Samaria: it is very probable that this Torrent called Maggeddo, after the name of the City which it watereth, is the same which Ptolomy in his fourth Table of Asia, calleth Chorseus. The later travellers of the Holy Land call Maggeddo Subimbre at this day.

| II.

From Maggeddo toward the West, and near the Mediterran Sea, was that glorions City of Casaria Palastina: first, the Tower of Straton: the same which Pliny calls Apollo-Toward the Sea from Jezael is the City nia: though Ptolomy fets Apollonia elsewhere, Ahaziah King of Juda fled from Jehu, when Joppe, to which Vespasian gave the name of Flavia Colonia. It was by Herod re-built, who Naphoth Dor, as fome read, Jof. 1. 2. fo called eth belief, I have added Josephus own words spoken already. of this work, which are thefe: Hane locorum Into this City, for the strength thereof, Try-13. in commoditatem correcturus, cerculum por phon fled from Antiochus the fon of Deineprofundum, prograndia saxa demisit: quorum horse: the same persidious villain that repleraque pedum quinquaginta longitudinis, ceived 200. talents for the ranfom of Jonalatitudinis verò octodecim, altitudine novem- than Macchabæus (whom he had taken by pedali: fuerunt quædam etiam majora, mino- treachery) and then flew him: and after him ra alias; To mend this inconvenience of place flew his own Master, usurping for a while the (faith Josephus) he compast in a Bay wherein Kingdom of Syria. It had also a Bishops feat a great Fleet might well ride: and let down of the Diocess of Cesaria. great flones twenty fadome deep: whereof some From Cesaria towards the South, they Gal Tyr.de to death, faith Josephus.

To the North of Cesaria standeth Bora, or therein laboured to exceed all the works in (faith Adrichomius) because it joyneth to that part of the world. For befides the edi-the Sea, whose King was flain by Josius. But fices, which he reared within the Walls, of Junius, for in Naphoth Dor, reads in traditions cut and polith't marbles, the Theater and Am- Dor: and so the Vulgar, in regionibus Dor. phitheater, from whence he might look over although 1 Reg. 4.11. for the like speech in the Seas far away, with the high and stately the Hebrew it readeth omnis Nephath Dor: Towers and Gates: he forced a Harborow of The Septuagint in the place of Josua call it great capacity, being in former times but an Nephith-Dor, and in the other of the Kings, open Bay: and the wind blowing from the Nepha-Dor: but the true name by other Sea, the Merchants haunting that Port, had places (as Jos. 12.23. Judg. 1.27.) may feem no other hope, but in the strength of their to be Dor. It was a strong and powerful Cables and Anchors. This work he per- City, and the fourth in account of those formed with such charge and labour, as the twelve Principalities, or Sitarchies, which like of that hath not been found in any Solomon erected. Junius upon Macc. 15. 11. Kingdom, nor in any age: which, because the placeth this between the Hill Carmel, and Materials were fetcht from far, and the the mouth of the river Cherseus: for so some weight of the stones was such, as it exceed- name the river Chorseus, of which we have

tus circumduxit, quantum putaret magna classi trius, where he was by the same Antiochus Mu. 1.13, recipiende sufficere: & in viginti ulnarum besieged with 12000. foot-men, and 8000.

were fffty foot long, eighteen foot broad, and place the Cities of Caphernaum, Gabe, and bell fact, nine foot thick: and some bigger, some lesser. Galgal: for besides that Capharnaum famous l. 10. c. 6. To this he added an arm or cawfie of two in the Evangelists, they find in these parts near hundred foot long, to break the waves: the the West Sca, another of the same name. Of rest he strengthened with a stone wall, with Gabe, Hierome in locis Hebraicis. The samous divers stately Towers thereon builded : of Galgal, or Gilgal, was in Benjamin : but this which the most magnificent he called Drusus, Gilgal, they say, it was whose King was slain after the name of Drusus the son in law of by Josua.

Casar: in whose honour he intituled the City Then Antipatris, so called of Herod, in hoit self, casaria of Palastine: all which he per- nour of his Father; but in the time of the formed in twelve years time. It was the first Macchabees, it was called Capharsalama: in of the Eastern Cities that received a Bishop: the fields whereof Judas Macchabaus over-Mac. 17:31 afterward erected into an Archbishoprick, threw a part of the Army of Nicanor, Lievtean Army drawn into Judeaby a traiterous Jew, called Alcimus: who S. Hierome nameth Theophilus, Eusebius, contended for the Priest-hood, first under Acacius, Euzorus, and Galasius, to have been Bacchides, and then under Nicanor. To this Bilhops thereof. In this City was Gornelius was Saint Paul carried prisoner from Hieruthe Centurion baptised by Saint Peter: and salem, conducted by 470. souldiers, to defend herein dwelt Philip the Apostle. S. Paul was him from the sury of the Jews. In afterherein two years prisoner, under the President times the Army of Godfrey of Bullion at-Felix, unto the time and government of Por-tempted it in vain: yet was it taken by cius Festus: by whom making his appeal, he was sent to Cesar. Here, when Herod Agrippa with a Bishops seat, but it is now a poor was passing on to celebrate the Quinquenna- Village, called Ashr, saith Brochard. Near lia, taking delight to be called a god by his unto this City the Prophet Jonas was flatterers, he was stricken with an Angel unthree dayes preserved in the body of a Whale.

Into the Land, from Antipatris and Cafaried with them the Books of Moses. Neer the Spirit of Prophecy also.

ria standeth Narbata, whereof the Territory unto it is the Mountain of Abdia, the Stetaheth name; which Cestius the Roman wa- ward of King Achab; wherein he hid an hunfted with fire and fword, because the Jews dred Prophets, and fed them: after which which dwelt at Cafaria fled thence, and car- he himself is faid to have obtained from God

CHAP. VIII.

Of the Kingdom of Phænicia.

§. I.

The bounds and chief Cities, and Founders, and Name of this Kingdom: and of the invention of Letters ascribed to them.

to the South part of Anti-libanus; I have in it these famous Maritimate Cities (belides therefore gathered a brief of those Kings all those of the Islands) to wit, Aradus, Orwhich have governed therein: at least to thosia, Tripolis, Botrys, Byblus, Berytus, Sidon. many of them as time (which devoureth all Tyre, Ptolomais (or Acon) Dora, and Calaria things) hath left to polierity: and that the Palestina: and by reason of the many Ports rest perished, it is not strange: seeing so and goodly Sea-towns, it anciently commany Volumes of excellent learning in fo manded the Trades of the Eastern world: long a race and revolution, and in so many and they were absolute Kings of the Medichanges of Estates, and Conquest of Heathen verran Sea. Princes have been torn, cast away, or otherwife confumed.

the South parts, are very uncertain: but all people were called Zidonians; the same Cosmographers do in effect agree, that it takes I state continuing even unto Josua's time. For beginning from the North, where that part till then, it is probable that there was but of syria, which is called Caliotis, ends: most one King of all that Region; afterward calof them bounding it by Orthofia, to the North led Phanicia: which Procopius also confirmof Tripolis, Ptolomy makes it a little larger, as eth in his fecond Book of Vandals mars. But Prol. 4.14b, reaching from the River Eleuthern: that falls in process of time the City of Tyre adjoyninto the Sea at the Island of Aradus, some- ing, became the more magnificent : yet, acwhat to the North of Orthofia, and stretching cording to the Prophet, it was but a daugh terran Sea, as far as the River of Chorleus; peopled. which scems to be that which the Jews call But after the death of Moses, and while Plin.1.5. the Torrent, or River of Maggeddo. Pliny ex- Josua vet governed Israel, Agenor an Egyptian tends it further, and comprehends Joppe of Thebes, or a Phanician bred in Egypt, came within it: Corvinus and Budaus, Joppe and thence with his fons Cadmus, Phenix, Cyrus, Gaza. Phenicia apud prifeos appellata (faith and Cilix, (fay Cedrenus and Curtius) and Budaus) que nunc Palastina Syria dicitur; It built and possest the Cities of Tyre and Tir was called Phanicia of old (faith he) which don: to wit, the new Tyrus, and brought into now is called Palastina of Syria.

Phanicia all the Sea-fide of Judaa, and Pale: Cadmus in his pursuit after his fifter Europa,

Ecause these five Tribes, of Affer, | Egypt. On the contrary, Diodorus Sienlus fol-Nephtalim, Zabulon, Islachar, and the deth it up in Cwlofyria, which he boundeth half of Manaffe, Possest the better not. But for my felf, I take a middle course. part of that ancient Kingdom of and like best of Ptolomies description, who Phanicia, to wit, of fo much as lay was feldom deceived in his own art. It had

The ancient Regal Seat of those Princes was Zidon, built by Zidon the first son of Ca-The limits of this Kingdom, as touching naan: and the people then subject to that from thence alongst the coast of the Mediter of Zidon, and by them first built, and story

Phanicia (fo called after the name of his fe-Strab. 1.16. Strabo comprehends in this Country of cond fon) the use of Letters : which also fina, even unto Pelusium, the first Port of taught the Grecians. For Taurus King of Crete, when he surprised Tyre, had stola her thence: that, and by the slaughter of so many of the eth in these Verses.

Hic Regina gravem gemmis auroque popoleit, Implevita; mero pateram: quam Belus & omnes and Confederates. A Belo foliti.

To flow with wine. This Belus us'd of old, And all of Belus Line.

at once with Josua. Now that Agenor retur- in Asia. ned about the same time into the Territory of Zidon, I cannot doubt: neither doldeny, sis out of Jesephus, who conceives that Tyre

he by Nation an Egyptian, yet it is very like- necessary. ly that either he came to fave his own Ter- The Ethiopians affirm that Atlas, Orion, Orritory; or otherwise to defend the coast of pheus, Linus, Hercules, Prometheus, Cadmus, of which the Poets devised the fable of Ju- male children at the same time, could not piters transformation into a Bull, by whom hinder the Hebrews from invading Canaan that ficalth was also supposed to be made. by land: which also they knew had so many Tomponius Sabinus makes Belus the first King powerful Nations to defend it : the Defarts of Phanicia; and finds Cadmus his Successor, inter-jacent, and the strong Edomites, Moawhom he calleth his grand-child: and it bites, Amorites, and Ammonites their bordefeemeth that Belns was the father of Agenor, rers: yet Egypt having such Vessels or Ships, and not Neptune: because the successours of or Gallies, as were then in use, did not in Dido held that name alwaies in reverence, all probability neglect to garrifon the Seamaking it a part of their own, as Afdrubal, coast, or assist Agenor with such forces as they Hannibal: whose memory Virgil also touch- had to spare ; and which they might perform with the greater facility, in that the Philistims, which held the shores of Canaan next adjoyning unto them, were their Friends

Now, as it appeareth by the course of the story, those Cities of Phanicia, which Agenor The Queen anon commands the weighty was faid to have built (that is, to have fortified and defended against Josua, and against chap. 19. (Weighty with precious stones and massie the Tribes after him, as Zidon, Sor, or Tyre, 19, by Josua called the strong City Accho, afterward Ptolomais, Achzib, and Dor) were all that Phænicia had in those daies.

That the Kings of Phanicia were mighty; Whether this Belus were father or grand- especially by Sea, it appears, first by their father to Agenor, the matter is not great. But defence against Ifrael: secondly, by this, that it seems to me by comparing of times, that David and Solomon could not master them, Belus was Ancestor to these Phanicians, and but were glad of their alliance: thirdly, that preceded Agenor. For were Belus, or Jupiter one of their Cities, though they were then Relus, the fon of Neptune by Lybia the daugh- but Reguli, defended it folf 13. years against ter of Epaphus, or were he the son of Thele- a King of Kings, Nebuchadonosor: and that gonus, according to Eusebius; yet it is agreed Alexander the great (who being made vithat Cecrops then ruled in Attica: and in the Ctorious by the providence of God, seemed end of Cecrops time, faith Saint Augustine, unresistable) spent more time in the recovery Moses left Egypt: Agenors succession living of Tyre, than in the conquest of all the Cities but that he gave that Region the name of was founded by Tyrus the son of Japhet. And Phenicia, in honour of his son. But instead for the Region it self, though Califtenes deof the building of Tyre and Zidon, it is pro rive it, ab arbore dailylorum; and the Greeks bable that he repaired and fortified both: from the word Phonos, of flaughter, because and therefore was called a Founder, as Sethe Phenicians flew all that came on their miramis and Nebuchodonofor were of Babylon. coasts; yet for my self, I take it that Phanix For be it true, that Agenor was of the same the son of Agenor gave it that name. But that Nation, and brought up in Egypt: where he either Agenor in Phanicia, or Cadmus his for learnt the use of Letters (Egypt flourished in in Greece, were the Inventors of Letters, it all kind of learning in Moser time) or were is ridiculous: and therefore the dispute un-

Canaan from the Israelites: who were by and others, had from them the first light of Moses led out of Egypt, to the great loss and all those Arts, Sciences, and civil Policies, dishonour of that Nation: and by Joshua which they afterwards profest, and taught conducted over Jordan, to conquer and posothers: and that Pythagoras himself was insoft the Control of the less the Canaanites Land. For though the E- structed by the Lybians: to wit, from the Spitians, by reason of the loss which they received by the hand of God in the Red Sea, those which inhabited neerer the out-let of and by the ten plagues cast on them before Nilus, as they say, borrowed their Divinity then barbarous, received Civility. Again, when it was first discovered, there was found the Ebenicians challenge this invention of written Books after the manner of those Letters and of Learning: acknowledging no- Hieroglyphicks, anciently used by the Egyptithing from the Egyptians at all; neither do ans, and other Nations: and so had those they allow that Agenor and his fons were Africans; whence Lucan, Luca. 15. Phoenices primi (fama si creditur) aust Mansuram rudibus vocem signare figuris.

> Phanicians fielt (if fame may credit have) In rude Characters dar'd our words to grave.

And that Cadmus was the fon of Agenor, and was a Phenician, and not an Egyptian, it appeareth by that answer made by Zeno; when he in a kind of reproach was called a Stranger, and not a Phonician.

Athen t. Si patria oft Phoenix quid tum? nam Cadmus Dipxof.

Phoenix 5 cui debet Gracia docta libros.

If a Phanician born I am, what then? Cadmus was so: to whom Greece owes The Books of learned men.

Joseph.

ancient: and from the Records and Chronicles of Tyre, Josephus the Historian confirms | governed Phanicia. a great part of his Antiquities. The Thracians flourished among them: when Atlas lived of Tyre of Edom &c. as of several Kings. in Mauritania: Nilus and Vulean in Egypt: and Ochus in Phanicia. Yea, some of the that incredible Army wherewith he invaded French do not blush to maintain, that the Greece, Tetramnestus ruled that part of Phaancient Gaules taught the Greeks the use of nicia about Tyre and Ziden: who commands Letters, and other Sciences. And do not we ed, as some Writers affirm, Xerxer Fleet, or raancient as those Gaules, and that they fent himself brought to his aid : for at this time it their fons hither to be by them instructed in feemeth, that the Phanicians were Tributaall kind of learning?

Lastly, whereas others bestow this invention on Moses, the same hath no probability were subjected by Nabuchodonosor; of whose at all; for he lived at fuch time as Learning and Arts flourished most, both in Egypt and Affyria, and he himself was brought up in all the learning of the Egyptians, from his in-

But true it is, that Letters were invented by those excellent Spirits of the first age, and before the general Flood: either by Seth or Enos, or by whom elfe God knows; from whom all wisdom and understanding hath proceeded. And as the fante infinite God is present with all his Creatures, so hath he given the same invention to divers Nations: whereof the one hath not had commerce and Philosophy: and from them the Greeks, other knowledges: for even in Mexico. Americans a kind of Heraldry; and their Princes differing in Arms and Scutchions, like unto those used by the Kings and Nobility of other Nations, Jura naturalia communia, Juju & generalia &c. Natural laws are common. and general.

6. II.

of the Kings of Tyre.

T)Ut whatfoever remaineth of the Story Dand Kings of Phanicia (the books of Zeno, Sachoniatho, Mnaseas, and others of that Nation, being no where found) the fame is to be gathered out of the Scriptures, Tolephus and Theophilus Antiochenus.

Agenor lived at once with Josua, to whom fucceeded Phanix, of whom that part of Canaan, and so far towards the North as Aradus, took the name of Phanicia: what King Our of doubt the Phanicians were very succeeded Phanix it doth not appear; but at fuch time as the Grecians befieged Troy Phasis

In Hieremies time, and while Jehojakim again subscribe to none of these reports: ruled in Juda, the Tyrians had a King apart: but affirm constantly, that the great Zamolxis for Hieremy speaketh of the Kings of Zidon, Cant

In Xerxes time, and when he prepared know that our Bardes and Druides are as ther, as I suppose, those 200. Gallies, which ries to the Perfian: for being broken into Reguli, and petty Kings in Hieremies time, they conquests in the Chapter before remembred, Hieremie prophesied.

Tennes, though not immediately, succeed: ed Tetramnestus, remembred by D. Siculus in his 14. Book.

Strato, his successor, and King of Zidon, Alexander Macedon threw out, because of his dependency upon Darius, and that his Predecessors had served the East Empire against the Grecians. But divers Kings, of whom there is no memory, came between Tennes and strato. For there were confumed 130. years and somewhat more, between Xerxes and Alexander Macedon. And this man was with the other; as well in this as in many by Alexander effected the more unworthy of restitution, because (saith Curtius) he ra- Tyrians; but these Authors, though they ther submitted himself by the instigation of both pretend to write out of Menander Ehis subjects (who foresaw their utter ruine phessus, do in no sort agree in the times of by refiftance) than that he had any disposi- their reigns, nor in other particulars, tion thereunto, or bare any good affection towards the Macedonians.

Of this Strato, Atheneus out of Theopompus ted certain games and prizes for women- Princes of the Tyrians. dancers, and fingers, whom he to this end beheld the most beautiful and lively among and delights. Of the strange accident about David complaineth, Pfal.83. the death of one Strato King of these coasts, her own body, and died.

though otherwise a wise man, and exceeding ans. Hiram lived 53. years.

Popular or Aristocratical: and by times and Josephus. turns subjected to the Emperours of the East, Abdastartus the eldest son of Baleastartus, Tribe of Affer.

the Historian, as is said, had many things years. wherewith he garnished his Antiquities from Aftartus brother to Abdastartus, recovered the Tyrian Chronicles: and out of Josephus the Kingdom from this Usurper, and reigned and Theophilus Antiochenus, there may be ga- 12. years.

Abibalus is the first King of the Tyrians, that Josephus and Theophilus remember, whom Theophilus calls Abemalus : the same perreporteth, that he was a man of ill living, chance that the fon of Sirach mentioneth in and most voluptuous; also that he appoin- his forty and fixth Chapter, speaking of the co.46:

To this Abibalus, Suron succeeded, if he be Prap. E. chiefly invited, and affembled: that having not one and the fame with Abibalus, David was land the fame with Abibalus, David was land the fame with Abibalus and the fame with Abibalus (saith Eusebius out of Eupolemus) constrained them, he might recover them for his own use this Suron to pay him Tribute, of whom also

Hiram succeeded Suron, whom Josephus small. S. Hierome and others make mention: who calls Irom, and Theophilus sometime Hieronigas Join, having heard that the Persians were neer mus, sometimes Hieromus, but Tatian and Zohim with an Army too weighty for his naras, Chiram. He entred into a league with ftrength, and finding that he was to hope for David, and fent him Cedars, with Masons and little grace, because of his falling away from Carpenters, to perform his buildings in Hiethat Empire, and his adhearing to the Egyp- | rusalem, after he had beaten thence the Jebutians, he determining to kill himself, but fain- fites. The same was he that so greatly affished ting in the execution, his wife being present, solomon: whom he not only furnished with wrested the Sword out of his hand, and slew | Cedars, and other Materials towards the raihim: which done, she also therewith pierced sing of the Temple, and with great sums of money, but also he joyned with him in his After Alexander was possess of Zidon, and enterprize of the East India, and of Ophir: the other Strato driven thence, he gave the and furnished Solomon with Marriners and Kingdom to Hephastion to dispose of: who Pilots: the Tyrians being of all Nations the having received great entertainment of one most excellent Navigators: and lent him 120 of the Citizens, in whose house he lodged, talents of gold. Of this Hiram there is not 2 Sam, 5. offered to recompence him therewith; and onely mention in divers places of Scripture, 2 Sam. 2, 5 willingly offered to establish him therein: but in Josephus in his Antiquities the 7. and Kin. 1. but this Citizen, no less vertuous than rich, 8. Chap. 2.& 3. in Theophilus his third book, 1 Chro. 14. desired Hephastion that this honour might in Tatianus his Oration against the Greeks : 2 cbr. 2.3, be conferred on some one of the blood and and in Sonaras, Tome the first. This Prince 9. race of their ancient Kings: and presented seemeth to be very mighty and magnificent, unto him Balonymus, whom Curtius calls Ab- he despised the 20. Towns which Solomon dolominus, Juline, Abdolomius, and Plutarch, offered him : he defended himself against Alynomus: who at the very hour that he was that victorious King David: and gave his called to this regal Estate, was with his own daughter in marriage to solomon, called the hands working in his Garden, fetting herbs Zidonian: for whose sake he was contented and roots, for his relief and sustenance: to worship Astaroth, the Idol of the Phanici-

Baleastartus, whom Theoph Antiochenus cal- I Kin. II. These were the ancient Kings of Zidon: leth Bazorus, succeeded Hiram King of Tyre Theophys. whose estate being afterwards changed into and Zidon; and reigned 7. years, according to there remaineth no further memory of them, governed 9. yeares, and lived but 2c. years, than that which is formerly delivered in the according to Josephus: but after Theophilus he reigned 12. years, and lived 54. who be-The Kings of Tyre, who they were before ing flain by the four fons of his own Nurle, Samuels time, it doth not appear: Josephus the eldest of them held the Kingdom 12.

thered a descent of some twenty Kings of the Aftarimus, or Atharimus, after Theophilus, a Joseph 36 third Theophilus, a brother to the three former Kings, flew A- years together, ere he prevailed. starimus, and reigned 8. moneths, and lived 50. years.

9. years, and lived in all 54.

fon to the third brother Aftarimus, who was | divers Judges, succeeding each other: Fifth the chief Priest of the Goddess Astarta, which by Ecnibalus, then by Chelbis, Abarus the was a dignity next unto the King, revenged Priest, Mittonus, and Gerastus, who held it athe death of his father, and flaughtered his mong them some 7. years, and odd moneths: Joseph 3: Uncle Phelles: and reigned 32. years; the after whom Balatorus commanded therein Though 12. Game which in the first of Kings changes in a seeking for the first of Kings changes in a seeking for the first of Kings changes in a seeking for the first of Kings changes in the first of Kings changes in the first of Kings changes in the first of the f fame which in the first of Kings, chap. 16. is as a King for one year: after him Merbalus called Ethbaal, whose daughter Jezebel Achab sent from Babylon, 4. years: after him Irom.

Badezor, or Fazor, the son of Ithobalus, or reign Cyrus began to govern Persia. Ethbaal, brother to Jezebel, succeeded his Father, and reigned 6: years, and lived in Mettimus succeeded Badezor, and reigned Theoph. 26. josph. but 9. years (faith Josephus) he had two fons, Theoph 9. Pygmalion and Earca, and two daughters, habiting along the Red Sca, mere the Fro-

Elifa and Anna. Premalion reigned after Mettimus his Father 40. years, and lived 56. In the seventh year of whose reign, Elisa sailed into Africa, and built Carthage, 143. years and 8. moneths after the Temple of Solomon: which by our furname of Solomon. but in vain.

large in his 28. Chapter; out of whom it sea, in which there were three Islands, called third brother, followed Aftartus, and ruled | was gathered, that this Prince died, or was flain in that long fiege of Nabuchodonofor: Phelles the fourth son of Baleastartus, and who surrounded and attempted Tyre 12.

Baal followed Ethobales, and reigned to vears a tributary, perchance, to Nabuchodono. Ithobalus (or Juthobalus, in Theophilus) for: for after his death, it was governed by fent thence also, 20. years. In the 17. of whose genitors of the Tyrians, and that the Tyrians from them received and brought into Phanicia the knowledge of the true God.

6. III.

F the great mutations of this Kingdom and State of the Tyrians, mixed with a accompt was 289. years after Troy was ta- discourse of divers other Nations, there is ken, and 143. before Rome: and therefore one Bozius that hath written a Tract at that fiction by Virgil of Aneas and Dido must large, intituled, Derninis Gentium. And albe far out of square. For Pygmalion, covetous though the great and many alterations of Sicheus hisriches, who had married his found in this and other Cities, yea, in all fifter Elifa, flew him traiteroufly as he ac- things under heaven, have proceeded from companied him in hunting : or if we believe his ordinance, who onely is unchangeable, Justine and Virgil, at the Altar: whereupon and the same for ever; yet whereas the said Virgill, ... Elisa fearing to be dispoiled of her husbands | Bozins, inforcing here-hence, that the prospetreasure, fled by Sea into Africa, as afore- rity and ruine of the Tyrians were fruits of faid: whom when Pygmalion prepared to their embracing or forfaking the true Relipurfue, he was by his mothers tears, and by gion; to prove this his affertion, supposeth threats from the Oracle arrested. Barca ac- the Tyrians to have been Edumeans, descencompanied his fifter, and affifted her, in the ded from Esan, Jacobs brother: first, it can erection of Carthage: and from him sprang hardly be believed, that Tyre, when it flouthat noble Family of the Barca in Africa, of rished most in her ancient glory, was in any which race descended many samous Cap- fort truly devout and religious. But to this suit, of tains, and the great Hannibal. Servius inter- end(besides the proof which the Scriptures, s. c.) prets this name of Dido by Virago, because of give of Hirams good affection when solowon her man-like acts: others from Jedidia, a built the Temple) he brings many conjectural arguments; whereof the strongest is their Eluleus succeeded Pygmalion, and reigned pedigree and descent : it being likely inchis 36. years: the same that overthrew the opinion, that the posterity of Esau received Fleet of Salmanasser, in the Port of Tyre: from him by Tradition the Religion of Anotwithstanding which he continued his braham and Isaac. That the Tyrians were fiege before it on the Land fide five years, Edumeans, he endeavours to shew, partly by weak reasons, painfully strained from some After Eluleus, Ethobales governed the Ty- affinity of names, which are arguments of rians, who vaunted himself to be as wife as more delight than weight: partly by autho-Daniel: and that he knew all fecrets (faith rity. For Strabo, Herodotus, Pliny, and others, Exekiel) of whom the Prophet writeth at witness, that the Tyrians came from the Red

Torns, Aradus, and Sidon: which very names Such the City of Bildad the Sukite; as both males of Edom: neither was it for their de- Egypt. votion to God, and good affection to Ifrael, that the Edomites were so ill intreated. It ble soever, are needless in so manifest a case. Joyning to Hus, the country of Job: and to Idolaters, and of the curled feed of Canaan,

(as he thinketh) were afterwards given to such Chorographers who best knew those the Cities of Phanicia. Confidering there- parts, do plainly flew, and the holy Text fore that all the coast of the Red Sea, was maketh manifest. For Job is said to have ex-(in his opinion) under the Edumeans: as ceeded in riches, and Solomon in wisdom; Elah and Estongabar; or under the Amale- all the people of the East; not the Inhabikites, who descended of Amales the Nephew tants of Mount Seir, which lay due South of Elan, whose chief City was Madian, so from Palestina. True it is, that Eliphase the called of Madian the son of Abraham by son of Esan had a son called Teman: but that Celbura, whose posterity did people it: the fathers were wont in those dayes to take consequence appears good (as he takes it) name of their sons, I no where find. And that the Tyrians originally were Edomites: Ismael also had a son called Thema: of whom differing little or nothing in Religion from it is not unlike, that Theman in the East had thechildren of Ifrael. Hereunto he adds, the name: for as much as in the 7. Chapter that Cadmus and his Companions brought of the Book of Judges, the Midianites Ananot into Greece the worship of Astartis, the lekites, and all they of the East are called Idol of the Sidonians. That the Parents of Ismaelites. And he that well confiders how Thales and Pherecydes being Phanicians, great and strong a Nation Amalec was, which themselves differed much in their Philoso-durst give battel to the Host of Is ael, wherephy from the Idolatrous customs of the in were 600000, able men, will hardly be-Greeks. That in Teman, a Town of the Edu-lieve that such a people were descended means, was an University, wherein, as may from one of Esan his grand-childrer For how appear by Eliphas the Temanite, who dispu- powerful and numberless must the forces of ted with Job, Religion was fincerely taught. all-Edom have been: if one Tribe of them, Such is the discourse of Bozius, who la- yea, one Family of a Tribe had been so bouring to prove one Paradox by another, great? furely Mount Seir and all the Regideserves in both very little credit. For nei- ons adjoyning could not have held them. ther doth it follow, that if the Tyrians were But we no where find that Edom had to do Edumeans, they were then of the true Reli- with Amalec, or affifted the Amalekites, when gion, or well affected to God and his people: Sanl went to root them out. For Amalec is neither is it true that they were Edumeans no where in Scripture named as a Tribe of at all. In what Religion Fian brought up his Edom: but a Nation of it felf, if diffinct children, it is no where found written; but from the Ismaelites. The like may be faid of that himself was a profane man, and disa-, Midian, that the Founder thereof being son vowed by God, the Scriptures in plain terms to Abraham by Cethura, doubtless was no express. That his Posterity were Idolaters | Edomite. And thus much in general for all the is directly proved in the 25. Chapter of the | Seigniory of the Red Sea coast, which Fozins fecond Book of Chronicles. That the Edo- | imagines the Edumans to have held: if the mites were perpetual enemies to the house Edomites in after-times held some places, as of Ifrael, fave only when David and some of Elan and Estongabar on the Red Sea shore, his race, Kings of Juda, held them in Subje- yet in Moses time, which was long after the ction, who knows not? or who is ignorant building of Tyre, they held them not. For of Davids unfriendly behaviour amongst Moses himself saith, that Israel did compass them, when first they were subdued? surely, all the borders of Edom: within which liit was not any argument of Kinred or Alli- mits had Midian stood, Moses must needs ance between Tyrus and Mount Seir, that have known it: because he had sojourned Hiram held fuch good correspondence with long in that Country: and there had left David; even then when Joah flew all the his wife and children, when he went into feemeth that the piety and ancient wisdom For in the 83. Pfalm, Edom, Amalec, and Tyre, of Eliphaz the Themanite was then forgotten, are named as diffinct Nations: yea the Tyriand the Edumeans punished, for being such ans and sydonians being one people, as all as David in his own dayes found them. Al- good Authors shew, and Bozius himself conthough indeed the City of Teman whence fesseth, were Canaanites, as appears, Gen. 10. Eliphaz came to reason with Job, is not that 15. and 19. appointed by God to have been in Edumea, but another of the same name, destroyed, and their Lands given to the lying East from the Sea of Galilee, and ad-children of Asser, Jos. 29 because they were not Confirsto Ifrsel, nor profesiors of the than the Greeks, and being very ambitious he not Continue to History and Proposition of the fame Religion. For though Hiram laid, Bleffed be God that hath fem King Davida mife fin: we cannot infer that he was of Davids Religion. The Turk hath faid as much of thriftian Princes, his confederates. Certain the had any. Thales and Pherecydes are but the first three fines of the had any. Thales and Pherecydes are but the first three firs it is, that the Sydonians then worshipped fingle examples: Every falvage Nation Aftaroth; and drew Solomon also to the hath some wisdom excelleth the Vulgar.

Whereas Hiram aided Solomon in build- wisdom of these men express any true know. ing the Temple, he did it for his own ends, ledge of the true God. Onely they made receiving therefore of Solomon great pro- no good mention of the Gods of Greece: vision of Corn and Oyl, and the offer of whom being newly come thither, they knew twenty Towns and Villages in Galilee. And not. It is no good argument to fay, that if we rightly consider things, it will appear Cadmus and Thales being Tyrians, are not that Hiram in all points dealt Merchant-like known to have taught Idolatry, therefore with Solomon. He allowed him Timber, with the Tyrians were not Idolaters. But this is which Libanus was, and yet is over pefter- of force, That Carthage, Utica, Leptis, Cadiz. ed being otherwise apt to yeild filks: as the and all Colonies of the Tyrians (of which I Andarine Silks which come from thence, and think, the Islands before mentioned in the other good Commodities. For Corn and Red Sea to have been, for they traded in all Oyl, which he wanted, he gave that which Seas) were Idolaters, even from their full behe could well spare to Solomon. Also Gold ginnings: therefore the Tyrians who plantfor Land: wherein solomon was the wifer; ed them, and to whom they had reference, who having got the Gold first, gave to Hi- were so likewise. ram the worst Villages that he had : with which the Tyrian was ill pleafed. But it was on-wards is acknowledged by Bozius, who a necessary policy which inforced Tyrus to would have us think them to have been hold league with Ifrael. For David had fub- formerly a strange kind of devout Edomite. dued Moab, Ammon, Edom, the Aramites, In which fancie he is to peremptory, thathe and a great part of Arabia, even to Euphra- fileth men of contrary opinion, Impios potes: thorow which Countries the Tyrians liticos, as if it were implety to think, that were wont to carry and re-carry their Wares God (who even among the Heathen, which on Camels, to their Fleets on the Red Sea, have not known his Name, doth favour Verand back again to Tyrus: fo that Solomon tue and hate Vice) hath often rewarded being Lord of all the Countries through moral honesty, with temporal happiness.

therefore glad to share with the Tyrians in Romans, and all those Nations of the Gentheir adventures. Yet Solomon, as Lord of the tiles, did then prosper most, when they drew Sea-towns which his Father had taken from nearest unto the true Religion: what may the Philiftims, might have greatly diffressed be said of the foul Idolatry which grew in the Tyrians, and perhaps have brought them | Rome as fast as Rome it felf grew: and was even into subjection. Which Hiram know- enlarged with some new superstition, almost ing, was glad (and no marvel) that solomon upon every new victory? How few great rather meant, as a man of peace, to imploy his Fathers Treasure in magnificent Works, vowed not either a Temple to some new than in pursuing the conquest of all Syria. god, or some new honour to one of their old Therefore he willingly aided him, and fent | gods? yea, what one Nation, fave onely him cunning workmen, to increase his de- that of the Jews, was subdued by them, light in goodly Buildings, Imageries, and instruments of pleasure.

their Trade.

examples are very weak. For what the Religion of Cadmus was, I think, no man knows.

even of civil people. Neither did the moral

This their Idolatry from Solomons time which they were to pass, could have cut off Doubtless, this doctrine of Bozius would cir Trade.
But the Ifraelites were no Sca-men, and than with Cyril. For if the Affyrians, Greek, battels did the Romans win, in which they whose Gods they did not afterward entertain in their City? Onely the true God, As these passages between solomon and which was the God of the Jews, they reject Hiram, are no strong arguments of piety in cd, upbraiding the Jews with him, as if he the Tyrians: so those other proofs which were unworthy of the Roman Majesty: shall Bozius frames negatively upon particular we hereupon enforce the lewd and foolish conclusion which Heathen Writers used against the Christians in the Primitive Church: It feems to me, that having more cunning That fuch Idolatry had caused the City of Rome to flourish, and that the decay of those in their own brains any strange Chimera's of the dreams of others, or vainly fashioned Hypocrite.

ahominations did also bring with it the de- Divinity, condemn all such in the pride of cay of the Empire? It might well be thought their zeal, as Atheifts and Infidels, that are fo.if prosperity were a sign or essect of true not transported with the like intemperate Religion. Such is the blind zeal of Bozins, ignorance. Great pity it is, that fuch mad who writing against those whom he fallly dogs are oftentimes incouraged by those, terms impious, gives strength to such as are who having the command of many tongues. impious indeed. But such indiscretion is when they themselves cannot touch a man infinally found among men of his humour; in open and generous opposition, will wound who having once either foolishly embraced him secretly by the malicious vertue of an

CHAP. IX.

Of the Tribe of Ephraim, and of the Kings of the ten Tribes, whose head was Ephraim.

6. I.

of the memorable places in the Tribe of Ephraim.

when they left Egypt were in number 45000. cian Monks. all which dying in the Defarts, (Josua excepted) there entred the Holy Land of their fate down on the West side of Jordan; between Manasse and Benjamin: who bounded with which he seduced the Israelites. Ephraim by the North and South; as for-

The first and chief City which Ephraim had, was Samaria, the Metropolis of the Kingthereof, and feated on the top of the Mountain somron, which overlooketh all the bottom, and as far as the Sea-coast. It was afterward called sebaste, or Augusta, in honour of August. Casar. This City is often remembred in the Scriptures: and magnificent it was in the first building; for as Brochard observeth, the ruines which yet remain, and which Brochard found greater than those of Hierusalem, tell those that behold them, what it was when it stood upright: for to this day there are found great store of goodly Marble pillars, with other hewen and carved frone in great abundance, among the rubble.

Aving now past over Phe-, It was beaten to the ground by the sons nicia, we come to the next of Hircanus the high Priest: restored and Territory adjoyning, which is built by the first Herod the son of Antipater: that of Ephraim: sometimes who to flatter Casar called it Sebaste. Heretaken per excellentiam, for the in were the Prophets Helifaus and Abdias whole Kingdom of the ten Tribes. Ephraim | buried : and fo was John Baptift. It now hath was the second son of Joseph, whose issues nothing but a few Cottages filled with Gre-

Near Samaria towards the South, is the hill of Bethel, and a Town of that name : on children grown to be able men, 32500. who the top of which mountain feroboam erected one of his golden calves to be worshipped:

In fight of this Mountain of Bethel, was sichar. Joh. dan, and the Mediterran Sea, did by the East that ancient City of Sichem; after the restauted and West.

The Co.

The Co. lasa: It was destroyed by simeon and Levi, and 1. in revenge of the ravishment of their fifter dom of Ifrael, built by Amris or Homri King Dina; and after that by Abimelec evened with the foil. Jeroboam raised it up again: and the Damascens a third time cast it down.

Under Sichem toward the Sea standeth Judg.11.15 Pharaton or Pirhathon, on the Mountain A-2 King. 136 malec, the City of Abdon Judge of Ifrael. And under it Bethoron of the Levites, built as it is faid by Sara, the daughter of Ephraim. Near to this City Judas Macchabaus overthrew Seron and Lysias, Lievtenants to Antiochus. This City had Solomon formerly repaired and fortified.

Betweeen Bethoron and the Sea, standeth Toliz.18; Samir, of which Jos. 10. and Saron, whose King was flain by Josua: it is also mentioned Alls 9.35. and of this Saron the Valley ta-fee more

Book.ch 7

far as Joppe, faith Adrichome: though indeed him: as fearing least he would give attempt to wit, between Cafarea and Joppa, but that the Christians, who else might have rescued also between the Mountain Tabor and the him: yet he addeth, that his ashes, with the Sea of Galilee: for fo S. Hierome upon the afhes of two others, were therefore cast into five and thirtieth Chapter of Esay, interprets the Sea, lest if their Reliques had been gathe word Saron: and so doth the same Fa- thered up, Churches should be built for ther in his Commentaries upon Abdia, read them, as for others. But for my part, I rather Saron for Affaron: understanding thereby a think that it was not Georgius, whose name Plaine neer Lidda: which Lidda in his time lives in the right honourable order of our was called Diospolis, or the City of Jupiter, Knights of the Garter, but rather another one of the Toparchies of Judea, the fift in whom Tyrius abovecited witnesseth to have dignity (or the third after Pliny) where S. been buried at Lidda or Diospolis. The same libanus to Joppe, Sarona. This Joppe was burnt | while the Christians inhabited the Holy Land. to the ground by the Romans, those Ravens it had a Bishop Suffragan. and spoilers of all Estates, disturbers of Common-weales, usurpers of other Princes King- matha of the Levites, or Aramathia: aftermost and savage barbarous Nations.

beheaded, and buried: in whose honour and bulon, which they say, adjoyneth to sephomemory Justinian the Emperor caused a fair ris; a fourth, which they make the same Church to be built over his Tembe; these with silo; and a fifth, which is this Rama, in be Tyrius his words: Relicia à dextris locis the hills of Ephraim, called Rama-Sophim, Of this maritimis Antipatride, & Joppe, per late pa- where Samuel lived, and wherein he is bu-St George tentem planitiem Elutheriam pertranseuntes, ried. Lieldam quæ est Diospolis, ubi & egregii Martyris Georgii usque hoslie Sepulchrum oftenditur, pervenerunt, ejus Ecclesiam quum ad hono-Joppe, passing over the great open Plain of E- lisha, findeth it in Benjamin. lutheria, came to Lidda, which is Diespolis: the Roman, High and mighty Justinian, had keth name. commanded to be built, with great earnestness and present devotion, &c. Thus far Tyrius : by Hebrew, Thimnath-Serach: one also of the an uprore of the people, and his after caft which City and Territory Ifrael gave unto into the Sea, as Ammianus Marcellinus re- their Leader Josua; who also amplified it ports. And yet also it may be, that this Geor- with buildings, neer which he was buried.

keth name, which beginning at Cafarea Pa- of Genius, How long shall this Sepulchre stands lesting, extendeth it self alongst the coast as occasioned the uprore of the people against the name Sarona is not particularly given to overthrow that beautiful Temple. This to this Valley, but to every fruitful plain Re- also Marcellinus reports; who though he fav gion; for not onely this Valley is so called, that this Georgius was also deadly hated of Alls E. Like 13. Peter (non sua, sed Christi virtute) cured Æ- also is confirmed by Vitriac. S. Hierome affirms Sagara neas. Niger calls all that Region from Anti- that it was sometime called Tigrida, and 64,

CHAP. IX

CHAP. IX.

Neer to Lidda or Diaspolis standeth Radoms; who with no other respect led than ward Rama, and Ramula, the native City of Swinter to amplifie their own glory, troubled the Joseph, which buried the body of Christ. There Toked whole world: and themselves, after murde- are many places which bear this name of being whole world: ring one another, became a prey to the Rama; one they fet in the Tribe of Judaneer (1911) Theena in the way of Hebron; another in In Diaspolis (faith Wil. of Tyre) was S. George | Nephtalim, not far from Sephet; a third in Za-

From hence to the North alongst the coast are Helon, or Ajalon of the Levites, of which 1 Chron. 6. Apollonia, of which fofephus in his rem cjusdem Martyris, pius & orthodoxus Antiquities, and in the wars of the Jews. Also Princeps Romanorum, Augustus Justinianus Balfalifa for which Junius, 2 Reg.4.42. reads Augustus Justinianus multo studio & devotione prompta edificari planities Shalista) they place hereabout in the proceedings. They having less (Sich the) and this Title of Title of the praceperat, &c. They having left (faith he) on this Tribe of Ephraim; but Junius upon I. the right hand, the Sea Towns, Antipatris and Sam. 6. where we read of the Land of Sha-

On the other fide of the Mountains of where the sumptuous Tomb of the samous Martyr S. George is at this day shewed; whose chies, or Cities of government, the second in Church when the godly and orthodox Prince of dignity, of which the Country about itta-

Then Thamnath-farah, or according to the whose testimony we may conjecture that ten Toparchies or Presidencies of Judea, which full this S. George was not that Arrian Bishop of they call Thamnitica, a goodly City, and similar Alexandria 5 but rather some better Christi-an: for this of Alexandria was slain there in phraim50n the North of the Hill called Gass; 1/40* gius was a better Christian than he is com- His Sepulchre remained in S. Hieroms time, many Like of the monly thought: for his words of the Temple and over it the Sun engraven, in memory of him the that greatest of wonders which God 16.24. * the Hill of Gahas, Judg. 2.9. the Hill Also the wrought in Josua's time.

thousand Jews overthrew the Army of Ni- City of Samuel, Canor, Lievtenant of Syria; neer to Gaser, or The great plenty of fruitful Vines upon Arrow was Gezer, which Josua took, and hung their the sides of the Mountains, was the occasion buried.

many years, till the Philistims got it.

Scriptures. It flandeth in the common way Dok: which they make to be the fame with this pronow called Byra.

prophefied; and neer it Ephron, one of those his father-in-law. Cities which Abijah recovered from Jerobofindes it in the Tribe of Juda; as Jos. 15. we Chetzron, ver 25.

lee King adding that for the building thereof the fultained her life. with other Cities, Solomon raised a Tribute upon the people. But it feems that Mello, or Millo is a common name of a strong Fort or Cittadel: and fo Junius, for domus Millo, reads incola munitionis, and for Solomo edificavit Millo, he reads ædificabat munitionem, angust place. And without doubt the Millo which talogue of the Kings of Juda: of whom Solomon built, cannot be that of sichem, but hereafter. another in Hierusalem.

best relab then governing Ifrael, with divers boam the fon of Nebat, an Ephratbite, of Zereof Tfalmon, or Salmon, Judg. 9.48. the Hills of hill of In the places adjoyning flandeth Adarsa, the Region of Tuph, or Tophim, Judg. 9, 5. where gor Adsfu; where Judas Muchabaus with three where Rama-Tophim flood, which was the leaver the King; a City of the Leviles. It was after- that Jucob in the spirit of prophecy, Gen.49 And the ward taken by Pharaoh of Egypt; the pco- 22 compared Josephs two branches, Ephraim two tops pleall flain, and the City razed; solomon re- and Manaffe, to the branches of a fruitful of Hills, Little ir Vine planted by the Well fide, and spreading where the To the East of this place is the Frontier City her (a) Daughter branches along the Wall: bleffings, and Hebd, which Allegory also Ezek 22. in his Lamen wheet the thi, whence David had part of his Prætorian tation for Ephraim (that is, for the ten Tribes, curlings Solidiers, under the charge of Benaia. Then whose head was Ephraim) prosecutes: as allowers to the high and famous Mountain and City of in his Lamantains for Tude to Educate treadto the that high and famous Mountain and City of in his Lamentation for Juda, he followeth people: of silo, whereon the Ark of God was kept fo the other Allegory of Jacob, Gen. 49.9. com-which paring Juda to a Lion. Upon the top of one 27. & 76. To this they joyn the City of Muchmas, or of the highest of these Hills of Ephrain, 8 Michines: in which Jonathan Machabaus in- which overlooketh all the Plains on both 41t fearhabited, a place often remembred in the fides of Jordan, they find the Castle called Jacob in from Samuria towards Hierusalem: and is Dagon of which Josep. 1. bell. Jud. 2. in which rather u-Castle as it is I Mac. 16. Ptolomy most traite- feth the Then the Village of Naioth where Saul roully at a banquet, flew Simon Machabaus word

Among the Rivers of this Tribe of Ephra-ches, theream; after the great overthrow given him. im, they name Gaas, remembred in the fecond more Then Kimbt saim, of the Levites, of which Just of Samuel, c.23. v. 30. where though Junius plainly 21.22. which Junius thinks to be the fame read, Hiddai ex una vallium Gabafi: yet the colonies with Johnsham, of which I Chro. 6.28, As for Vulgar and Vatablus read Giddai, of the ri-which Abfaloms Baalafor, which they find hereabout, ver of Gaas. Also in this Tribe they place the in the Junius reads it, in the Plain of Chatzor; and river of Carith, by which the Prophet Elias phrase are abode during the great drought: where he called read of two Chatzors in that Tribe; one neer was (b) fed with the Ravens: and after that of the Me-Redesh, ver. 23. and the other the same as the River was dried up, he travelled (by the tropolis: Spirit of God guided) towards sidon: where as in Jo-In this Tribe also they find the City of he was relieved by the poor widdow of Za-elsewhere Mello; whose Citizens, they say, joyned with repta, whose dead son he revived and increa-often the Sichemites in making the Bastard Abime- sed her pittance of Meal and Oil: whereby 17.6.

6. II.

Of the Kings af the ten Tribes, from Jeroboam to Achab.

and so the Septuagint read it wire assess in that place And mission track it will be septuagint read it wire assess in that

Touching the acts of the Kings of the ten The other Cities of mark in Ephraim, are Tribes, but briefly, beginning after the divi-Taphnach, whose King was slain by Josua; and sion from Juda and Benjamin, now it follow-Janoach, or Janoah, spoiled by Teglatphalasfar: eth to speak. The first of these Kings Jeroothers, but of no great fame. The Mounda, who being a man of strength and coutains of Ephraim sometime signifie the grea- rage, was by solomon made overseer of the tell part of the Land of the lons of Joseph, on buildings of the Munition in Hiernfalem, for the West of Jordan: several parts whereof as much as belonged to the charge of the are the Hill of Samrom, or Samaria, 1 Reg. Tribes of Ephraim and Manasse: and so many which time, as he went to Hierusalem, he entified Rama against Juda, to restrain their extwelve tribes. After this, fearing that those the mean while Afa carried away the matethings might come to Solomons knowledge, rials, with which Baasha intended to fortifie he fled into Egypt to Shifhak, whom Eusebins Rama: but being an Idolater, he was threatcalleth Ofochores, whose Daughter he mar- ned by Jehn the Prophet, that it should benot the same) did likewise entertain Adad afterward came to pass: He ruled sourand the Edumean, when he was carried young twenty years, and died. into Egypt from the fury of David, and his Captain Joab; which Adad the King of a feast at his Palace of Thersa, was in his cups Egypt married to his Wives fifter Taphnes; flain by Zambris, after he had reigned two using both him and Jeroboam as instruments years: and in him the prophesie of Jehn was to shake the Kingdom of Judea, that him- fulfilled. felf might the calilier spoilit, as he did: for the City of Hierufalem, and carried thence revenge of the Kings murder, fet upon Zamall the treasure of David and Solomon, and bris, or Zimri, and inclosed him in Therfa, and all the spoils which David took from Ada- inforc't him to burn himself. dezor of soba, with the prefents of Tohu, King value.

became Lord of the ten Tribes: and though Idolater no less impious than the rest: and he were permitted by God to govern the therefore subjected to Tabremmon King of Israelites, and from a mean man exalted to Syria, the father of Benhadad, according to that State: yet preferring the policies of the | Eusebins, Nicephorus, and Zonaras: but how world before the fervice and honour of God this should stand, I do not well conceive; see-(as fearing that if the Tribes under his rule ing Benhadad the fon of Tabremmon was in-Sacrifices, they might be drawn from him King of Ifrael, the father of Ela, who foreby degrees) he creded two golden Calves, went Ambris. This Ambris reigned twelve one in Dan, and another in Bethel, for the years, fix in Thersa, and fix in Samaria, and left people to worship (an imitation of the E- two children, Achab and Athalia. fut chap gyptian Apis, faith S. Ambrose, or rather of Epifie to Aarons Calf in Horeb:) further he made election of his Priefts out of the basest and unlearned people. This King made his chief Seat and Palace at Sichem: He despised the Of Achab and his Successors, with the captivity warning of the Judean Prophet, whom Jofeplus calleth Adon, and Glycas Joel: his hand thereafter withered, and was again restored: but continuing in his Idolatry, and hardened, upon occasion that the Prophet return- borrowed of the Egyptians: but he married ing, was flain by a Lion; Ahijah makes him Jezabel the Zidonian: and as Jeroboam folknow that God purposed to root out his lowed the Religion of his Egyptian Wise:

King, 11 He was afterward overthrown by Abia an Altar and a Grove to Baal in Samaria. King of Juda, and died after he had gover- He suffered Jezabel to kill the Prophets of his reign, together with all the race of Jero- led in the trial of the facrifice, and killed the reigned in his flead: fo Nadab lived King but of Jezabel.

of them as wrought in those works. During of Juda: he seated himself in Therfa: and for countered the Prophet Akijah: who made cursions. Hereupon Afa entertained Benhadad him know that he was by God destined to of Damaseus against him, who invaded Nepbe King of Ifrael, and to command ten of the thalim, and destroyed many places therein: ried: the Predecellor of which shifbak (if fall his race, as it did to Jeroboam: which

To Baasha succeeded Ela his son, who at Zambris succeeded Ela, and assumed the in the fifth year of Rehoboam, Shifhak fack't name of a King feven daies; but Ambris in Ambris or Homri succeeded Ela, and transof Hamath, which were of an inestimable serred the Regal seat from Thersa to 84-1 1941 maria: which be bought of shemer, built, This Jeroboam after the death of Solomon and fortified it. This Ambris was also an Should repair to Hierusalem to do their usual vited by Asa King of Juda, to assail Baasha I King of the ten Tribes.

6. III.

Chab or Ahab succeeded Omri, who not onely upheld the Idolatry of Jeroboam, fo did Achab of his Zidonian : and erected ned two and twenty years; whom Nadab the most high God. God sent famine on the his fon fucceeded : who in the fecond year of land of Ifrael, Achab met Elias : Elias prevaiboam, was flain, and rooted out by Baafba, who false Prophets; and afterward flieth for fear Benhadad not long after besieged Samarian Baasha the son of Ahijah, the third King & taken by Aehab, was by him set at liberty: after the partition, made war with Asa King for which, the Prophet (whom Glycas calleth cheas had foretold him.

state phet meeteth the Messenger on the way:

Simonians, of Simon Magus.

Afterward Benbadad King of Aram, or

Jamash that dead Idol, asked the Messenger, if there

Jamash that dead Idol, asked the Messenger, if there

Jamash that the Benbadad King of Aram, or Jamash that the Benba fronter were not a God in Ifrael? Ochozias fendeth did discover to the King of Ifrael whatsoecond year of his reign.

Foram, the brother of Ochozias by Jezabel, were diffolved, that he would offer him in Abab. facrifice to his gods. Whereupon the King Jebu, who reigned after Jeboram, deftroy-of Edom belought those of Juda and Israel ed not onely the race of his fore-goers, but

After this the King of Aram fent to Jo-

Michaes) reproveth him: afterward he cau- my of the Leprofie. The answer of Foram fed Naboth by a falfe accusation to be stoned. was, Am I God to kill, and to give life, that he Then joyning with Josuphat in the war for doth fend to heal a man of his Leprose : adthe recovery of Ramoth, he was flain, as Mi-ding, that the Aramite fought but matter of quarrel against him. Elisha hearing there-He had three fons named in the Scrip- of, willed the King to fend Naaman to him; ture, Ochozias, Joram, and Joas: besides fe- promising that he should know that there venty other fons by fundry wives and con- was a Prophet in Ifrael: and fo Naaman was healed by washing himself seven times in Ochozias succeeded his father Achab. The Jordan. Elisha resused the gifts of Naaman; Moabites fell from his obedience: he bruised but his servant Gehazi accepted a part therehimself by a fall: and sent for counsel to of: from whence the sellers of spiritual Beelzebub the god of Acharon, Eliah the Pro- gifts are called Gehazites, as the buyers are which were the description with each 50. fouldiers, to ver the Aramite consulted in his secretest bring Eliah unto him, both which with their counsel fent a troop of horse to take Elisha: Attendants were confumed with fire. The all whom Elisha struck blind, and brought third Captain belought mercy at Eliah's them captives into Samaria: foram then alkhands, and he spared him, and went with him ed leave of the Prophet to slay them, Elisha to the King, avowing it to the King that he forbade him to harm them: but caused them must then die; which came to pass in the se- to be fed, and sent back to their own Prince in fafety.

The King of Aram, notwithstanding these succeeded: He allured Josaphat King of benefits, did again attempt Samaria, and Juda, and the King of Edom to affilt him a- brought the Citizens to extream famine. gainst the Moabites, who refused to pay him foram imputeth the cause thereof to the the tribute of 20000. sheep. The three Kings Prophet Elisha. Elisha by prayer caused a wanted water for themselves and their hor- noise of Chariots and Armour to found in fesinthe Defarts. The Prophet Elisha cau- the air, whereby the Aramites affrighted, fled feth the ditches to flow. The Moabites are away, and left the fiege. An act of great adoverthrown: their King flieth to Kirhara- miration, as the same is written in the second 1 King! 7. feth, and being befieged, according to fome of Kings. After this, when Azael obtained Expositors, burnt his son on the walls as a the Kingdom of Syria by the death of his facrifice, whereat the three Kings, moved Mafter, foram entring upon his frontier, took with compassion, returned and left Moab, Ramoth-Gilead: in which war he received wasting and spoiling that Region. Others, divers wounds, and returned to fezreel to as it feems with better reason, understand be cured. But whilest he lay there, Jehn (who the Text to speak of the son of the King of commanding the Army of Joram in Gilead; Edom, whom they suppose in this irruption was anointed King by one of the children of to have been taken prisoner by the Moa- the Prophets sent by Elisha) surprised and bites, and that the King of Moab shewed him slew both him and all that belonged unto over the walls, threatning, unless the fiege him, rooting out the whole posterity of to break off the fiege for the fafety of his also their religion; for which he received a fon: which when the other Kings refused promise from God, That his feed should octo yield unto, and that Moab, according to cupy the Throne unto the fourth generatihis former threatning, had burnt the King on. Yet he upheld the Idolatry of Jeroboam, of Edoms fon upon the Rampire, that all for which he was plagued with grievous the Affailants might discern it, the King war, wherein he was beaten by Hazael the of Edom being by this sad spectacle inra- Aramite, who spoiled all the Countries to ged, forfook the party of the other Kings, the East of Jordan: in which war he was for want of whole affiftance the fiege was flain, faith Cedrenus; whereof the Scriptures are filent. Jehn reigned 28. years.

Joachaz, or Jehoachaz the fon of Jehu fucram, to heal Naaman the Captain of his Ar- ceeded his father, whom Azael and his son a Ring 13? Benhadad

CHAP. X.

Benhadad often invaded, and in the end lub- rael, and vvon Jion, Abel-Bethmaacab, Jano. 17. years.

294

After Joachaz, Joas his son governed Israel, who when he repaired to Elisha the Prophet as he lay on his death-bed, the Prophet therewith ingaged the Affgrian, who first promifed him three victories over the Ara- | suppressed that Monarchy of Syria and Da. mites: and first commanded him to lay his hand on his bow, and Elista covered the of the great Asyrian, was the utter ruine of Kings hands with his, and bad him open the window Westward (which was toward Damascus) and then shoot an arrow make the war, whereupon he entred Hiern- and with the people Catanei bounding upfalem and facked it with the Temple. This on Syria, and with those of Sepharvajim whose time also the Prophet Elisha exchan- on Euphrates, of whose conquest Senacheged this life for a better.

one and forty years.

of Jehn, flain by Shallum his yaffal, who shallum held the Kingdom but one moneth, being flaughtered by Menahem of the Ga-

Menahem, who took revenge of Shallum. used great cruelty to those that did not acknowledge him: ripping the bellies of those that were vvith child. This Menahem beten thousand talents of silver, which he exacted by a Tribute of fifty shekels from every man of wealth in Ifrael. Menahem 20verned twenty years.

Pekahiah, or Phaceia, or after Zonaras, in his place. In this Pekah's time, Phulaser, or King of Ifrael. Tiglat-Phylasser invaded the Kingdom of Isiceed, leaving him onely 50, horse, 20, cha- ach, Kedesh, Hazor, and Gilead, vvith all the riots, and ICCCC. foot: and, as it is writ- Cities of Galilee, carrying them captives inten in the Scriptures, he made them like to Afgria: he was drawn in by Achaz King dust beaten into powder. Joachaz reigned of Judea; against Pekah and Rezin, the last of the Adades. For Achas being wasted by Pe. kah of Ifrael, and by Rezin of Damaseus, did a third time borrow the Church-riches, and mascus, and then of Israel: and this inviting both States, of Ifrael, and of Judaa, Pekah reigned 20. years.

s Kings

Then Hoshea, or Osea, who slew Pekah, bethence out. He again willed him to beat came the vasial of Salmanasser; but hoping the ground with his arrows, who smote it to shake off the Asyrian yoak, he sought aid thrice, and ceased: The Prophet then told from So, or Sua, or Sebicus King of Egypt: him, that he should have smitten five or six which being known to the Assirian, he cash times, and then he should have had so many him into prison, besieged Samaria, and mavictories over the Aramites as he gave stered it : carried the ten Idolatrous Tribes strokes. And so it succeeded with Joas, who into Nineve in Affyria, and into Rages in overthrew the Aramites in three battels, and Media, and into other Eastern Regions, and recovered the Cities and Territory from there dispersed them: and re-planted 84-Benhadad the fon of Azael, which his father maria with divers Nations, and chiefly 2 Kingt 14 Joachaz had loft. He also overthrew Ama- with the Cuthæ (inhabiting about Cutha, a zia King of Juda, who provoked him to River in Persia, or rather in Arabia Deserta) Joas reigned fixteen years, and died; in (a people of sephar in Mesopopotamia uprib vaunteth) also with those of Ava, which Jeroboam the third from Jehn, followed were of the ancient Avins, who inhabited Joas his father, an Idolater, as his predeces- the Land of the Philistims in Abrahams time, fors; but he recovered all the rest of the dwelling near unto Gaza, whom the capblands belonging to Israel from Hamath which torims rooted out: and at this time they is near Libanus, to the dead Sea, and reigned were of Arabia the Defart, called Havei, willing to return to their ancient feats, Zacharias the fifth and last of the house To these he added those of chamath, or Ituraa, the ancient enemies of the Ifraelites, reigned in his flead, governed fix moneths. and sometime the Vassals of the Adads of Damaleus, which to often afflicted them. And thus did this Assirian advise himself better than the Romans did. For after Titus and Vespasian had wasted the Cities of Judea and Hierusalem, they carried the people away captive: but left no others in their places, but a very few fimple labourers, being invaded by Phul, bought his peace with fides their own thin Garrisons, which soon decayed; and thereby they gave that dangerous entrance to the Arabians and Saracens, who never could be driven thence again to this day.

And this transmigration, plantation, and Phacesta succeeded, and after he had ruled displantation, happened in the year of the two years, he was slain by Phaca, or Pekah world, 3292. the fixth year of Ezekiah King the Commander of his Army, who reigned of Juda: and the ninth of Hofea the last

A Catalogue of the Kings of the ten TRIBES. 10. Jehn [28 Years
	i.
II. Joachay
1. Jeroboam 22 Years. 12. Joas 16 Years
2. Nadab 2 Years. 13. Jeroboam AI Years
2. Baalba 24 Years. 14. Zacharias - 6 Mone
Ela 20 Years. 15. shallum Reigned 1 Money
5. Zambris Reigned 7 Dayes. 16. Menahem 10 Years	ui.
6. Omri 11 Years. 17. Pakahia 2 Years
7. Achab 22 Years. 18. Phaca 20 Years	•
9. Joram 12 Years. Whose time Writer	about

CHAP. X.

Of the memorable places of Dan, Simeon, Juda, Reuben, Gad, and the other half of Manasse.

of Dan, whereof Joppe, Gath, Accaron, Azotus, and other Towns.

62700. fighting men, all which leaving their speaks of it indifferently. bodies with the rest in the Desarts, there entred the Holy Land of their sons 66400. Judas Macchabeus burnt the rest of the 3y-debas are thers on that coast, because it was the Port such a place there was.

meda was fastned with chains: and from unto Goliath.

Y Ow following the coast of the thence delivered from the Sea monster by Mediterran Sea, that portion of Perseus. This fable (for so I take it) is con-Land affigned to the Tribe of firmed by Josephus, Solinus, and Pliny. Mar-Lib. 3 1.19 Dan, joyneth to Ephraim, where cus Scaurus during his office of Ædileship, debul gud of I spake last: of which Family showed the bones of this Monster to the Selice 47. ly there were numbred at Mount Sinai people of Rome. S. Hierome upon Jonas cap. 9.

bearing arms. The first famous City in this rian Fleet: the fire and flame whereof was Tribe on the Sea-coast was Joppe, or Japho, seen at Hierusalem, 240. furlongs off. It had as in the 19. of Josua: one of the most anci- sometime a Bishops seat, faith Will. of Tyre; ent of the world, and the most famous of o- but there is no fign of it at this time, that of Hierusalem. From hence Jonas imbarked After Jamnia is the City of Geth, or Gath, himself when he fled from the service of sometime Anthedon, saith Voluteran. And God towards Tharfis in Cilicia. In the time fo Montanus feems to understand it. For he F. 144. of the Macchabees this City received many lets it next to Egypt, of all the Philistim, Cichanges : and while Judas Macchabaus go- ties, and in the place of Anthedon. But Volaverned the Jews the Syrians that were garri- teran gives neither reason nor authority for fon'd in Joppe, having their Fleet in the Port, his opinion; for Ptolomy fets Anthedon far invited 200. principal Citizens aboard them, to the South of Joppe: and Geth was the first and cast them all into the Sea: which Judas and not the last (beginning from the North) revenged by firing their Fleet, and putting of all the great Cities of the Philistims : and the companies which fought to escape to the about fixteen miles from Joppe: where S. Hierome in his time found a great Village It was twice taken by the Romans, and of the same name. It was sometime the haby Ceffins the Lievtenant utterly burnt and bitation and Seminary of the Anakims, strong tilerom, in ruined. But in the year of Christ, 1250, and Giant-like men, whom Josia could not Michean. Lodowick the French King gave it new Wals expel, nor the Danites after him, nor any and Towers: It is now the Turks, and called of the Ifraelites, till Davids time: who flew Juffa. There are certain Rocks in that Goliath, as his Captains did divers others Port, whereunto it is reported, that Andro- not much inferiour in strength and stature

Roboant

Ozias the fon of Amazia destroyed it again. Sea-Towns within the Tribe of Dan. it was also laid waste by Azael King of Syria. Fulls the fourth King of Hiernfalem, built a Eastward from Azotus, and beyond the Cafile in the same place out of the old ruines. Fountain of Æthiopia, wherein Philip the A-Whether this Geth was the same that Will, of postle baptized the Eunuch, are Tforah, or Lie ... G. Tyre in the Holy war calls Ibiilin, I much Sarxa, and Esthaol, and between them Castra doubt: the errour growing by taking Geth Danis neer Hebron: though this place where adjoyning to this City (as is thought) was tween Dan and Juda. the Ark of God brought by a yoak of two Kine, turned loose by the Philistims: and belonging to the Danites, they find Gedor, or the Bethsemites presuming to look therein, as it is I Mac. 15. Cedron, which Cendebaus 1 Sam 6. of the people fifty thousand, by the ordi- the Jews, and neer which himself was by the 16. or nance of God. After which flaughter, and Macchabees overthrown. or ra-the great lamentation of the people, it was the City is called the great * Abel, faith S. Hierome. Be- chabees: and wherein they were buried, on nedictus Theologus findes three other Cities of whose Sepulchre the seven Marble Pillars, this name; one in (a) Nephtalim: another which were erected of that heighth, as they the field in Juda: and another in Machar. Hierome ferved for a mark to the Sea-men, remained findes a fifth in Benjamin.

Philitims Accaron effereth it felf, sometime one of the Aik, the five Salrapies, or Governments of the Phili- thiarim, that is, the City of the woods: feat- & today change firms. S. Hierome makes it the same with Ce-ed in the border of Juda, Eenjamin, and Dan, Budhan, being ea firms. S. Hierome makes it the same with Ce-ed in the border of Juda, Eenjamin, and Dan, Budhan, being each firms. being a Junia. O. Herome mances the fame with Apolic wherein the Ark of God remained twenty 7,143 Ebin, or lonia: It was one of these that defended it yeers in the house of Aminadab: till such Sun. 6. Abox, tonia. It was one of information and It time as David carried it thence to Hiernfa-16m, which fig. felf against the Danites and Idumeans. It misself a worshipped Beel-zebnb, the god of Hornets lem. Of this place (as they say) was Zacharias Man. which fig. King of Ifrael fent to enquire of his health: | flain between the Temple and the Altarallo Mag. 12 nifieth mouning. whose messengers Eliah meeting by the way, a See in caused them to return with a forrowful an-Neph c 7 fwer to their Master. This City is rememfett 4. | 6. bred in many places of Scripture.

Christianus Schrot placeth Azotus next to Ceth, and then Accaron or Ekron. This Azomerichus, tus or Asdod, was also an habitation of the Athe father nakims, whom Josua (b) failed to destroy, of Pharas though he once possess their City. Herein which Senacherib took, Ezekias reigning in 29. yees stood a sumptuous Temple, dedicated to the Juda. together, (c) Idol Dagon: the same Idol whith fell Jer. 15. twice to the ground of it felf, after the Ark fee in Josua c. 19. from the ver. 41. where also 20 freaks of God was by the Philistims carried into it is added that the Danites portion was too of the refit their Temple: and in the second fall, it was little for their number of Families: and Albdod, to utterly broken and defaced. Neer it was that therefore that they invaded Leshem, and inwit, the famous (d) Judas Macchabaus flain by Bacpart ha- chides and Alcimus the Lievtenants of Demeving reit trius. Afterward it was taken by Jonathas: led Cafarea Philippi, as before, and made the filed im and the relt of the Citizens being put to the Metropolis of Inraa, and Trachonitis: of Metropolis c 1 Sam sword, all that fled into the Temple of Da- which coasts this Philip was Tetrach: but of 4 Mac gon, were with their Idol therein confumed this City see more in Nephtalim. In this Tribe 9. 1 Mace, with fire: neer which also he overthrew there are no Mountains of fame. 10. fof. Apollonius.

25. or Bishops seat while Christianity flourished in da: and passing by Modin, falleth into the cap. 18. 2. those parts. But in S. Hieroms time it was yet Sea by Sachrona. The other hath the name

Reboam the fon of solomon rebuilt Geth : | a fair Village. And this was the last of the

The Cities which are within the Land Samplon was born, may feem by the words, Not far from Geth or Galb standeth Beth- Judg. 18. 12. to be in the Tribe of Judah, as scenes, or the house of the Sun. In the fields the other also were bordering Towns be-

After these within the bounds of Juda but the Bethjemites preluming to look that the Lievtenant of Antiochus fortified against there were slain of the Elders seventy, and the Lievtenant of Antiochus fortified against the Lievtenant of Antiochus fortified against

Then Modin the Native City of the Macmany hundreds of yeers after their first settione the Reciping the Sca-coast, the strong City of ting up, as Brochard and Breidenbach witness

There are besides these the City of Caria-ninhin Urias, whom Joachim King of Hiernfalem 13. M flaughtered, as we find in Jeremy. Many o ther places which they place in this Tribe, 19. rather, as I take it, upon presumption than warrant, I omit: as that of Caspin taken with great flaughter by Judas Macchabeus: and Lechis, whose King was flain by Josua, in which also Amaziah was slain: The same

Of other Cities belonging to this Tribe, habited it: which City, after amplified by Philip, the brother of Herod Antipas, was cal-

It hath two Rivers or Torrents: the Nor-Gabinius the Roman rebuilt it. It had a ther-most riseth out of the Mountains of Juand of sorek or sored, whose banks are plentiful, times it had a Bishop, and after that, when it whom samplen loved.

THE TRIBE OF SIMEON.

Jucob by Lea, there were increased of that as he did Azotus and Gaza. Family while they abode in Egypt, as they Next to Ascalon stood Gaza, or Gazera, first City adjoyning to Dan, was Ascalon.

te of Hymeneus: and that Ascalus being imploy- Caleb: but the strength of the Anakims put Nicolaus in his History, saith Volatteran.

Diodorus Siculus in his third Book remem- of the Defart. breth a Lake neer Ascaion, wherein there Alexander Janeus King of the Jews surpri-Tibullus the Poet:

Alba Palæstino sanéta Columba Syro.

It was one of the chiefest and strongest Gazara. Cities of the Philistims. It bred many learned ·men (faith Volatteran, as Antiachus, Sosus, Cygrus, who wrote the story of Bithynia.

of Vines which have no feeds or stones : the was by the Saladine defaced, Richard King wine they yield is red, of excellent colour, of England, while he made war in the Holy tafte, and favour, &c. In this Valley of Sorek, Land, gave it a new Wall and many buildto called from the River, inhabited Dalila ings. Ejus murus cum Saladinus diruisset, Ri-Adido in chardus Anglorum Rex instauravit, faith Adri-ment chomaus.

In Davids time it was one of the most renowned Cities of the Philistims: for he nameth Gath and Ascalon onely, when he lamen. teth the death of saul and Jonathan : not He Tribe of Simeon takes up the rest speaking of the other three. Tell it not in 2 Sanit. of the Sea-coast of Canaan, to the bor- Gath, nor publish it not in the streets of Ascalon: der of Egypt: who being the second son of It is now called Scalone. Gabinius restored it were numbred at Mount Sinai, 59300. able which the Hebrews call Hazza, the Syrians, Amen, all which ending their lives in the De- zan, of Azonus (as they say) the son of Hercufirts, there entred the Land of Promife of les. Other profane writers affirm, that it was their issues 22200. bearing arms, who were built by Jupiter. Pomp. Mela gives the builin part mixed with Juda, and in part seve- ding thereof to Cambyses the Persian; because red, inhabiting a small Territory on the Sea- belike he re-built it, and Gaza in the Perssan the coast, belonging to Edumaa, of which the tongue is as much to say, as Treasure. This Gaza was the first of the five Satrapies of the Vol. 1.13 The Reguli, or petty Kings thereof, were Philistims, and the South bound of the land called Ascalonitæ: of which Volatteran out of of Canaan towards Egypt. But this City was Xanthus, in the Hiltory of the Lydians, re- far more ancient than Cambyfes, as it is proved ports, that Tantalus and Ascalus were the sons by many Scriptures. It was once taken by ed by Aciamus King of the Lydians, with an him from it. At fuch time as Alexander Ma- Supp. de Army in Syria, falling in love with a young cedon invaded the Empire of Persia, it recei-16.16 with Woman of that Country, built this City, and ved a Garrison for Darins: in despight i King 6: and called it after his own name: The same hath whereof it was by the Macedonians after a continued of the same hath whereof it was by the Macedonians after a continued of the same hath whereof it was by the Macedonians after a continued of the same hath whereof it was by the Macedonians after a continued of the same hath whereof it was by the Macedonians after a continued of the same hath whereof it was by the Macedonians after a continued of the same hath whereof it was by the Macedonians after a continued of the same hath whereof it was by the Macedonians after a continued of the same hath whereof it was by the Macedonians after a continued of the same hath whereof it was by the Macedonians after a continued of the same hath whereof it was by the Macedonians after a continued of the same hath whereof it was by the Macedonians after a continued of the same hath whereof it was by the Macedonians after a continued of the same hath whereof it was by the same hat where hat wher long siege demolished, and was called Gaza ant. 19.

hath been a Temple dedicated to Derceto, fed it, and slew five hundred Senators in the the Goddels of the Syrians; having the face Temple of Apollo, which fled thither for Sanof a Woman, and the body of a Fish: who, as ctuary: but this Gaza was not set up in the I have faid before in the ftory of Ninus, was fame place again, to wit, on the foundations the mother of Semiramis, feigned to be cast which Alexander Macedon had overturned, into this Lake, and fed and relieved by but somewhat neerer the Sea side: though Doves. And therefore was the Dove wor- the other was but two mile off. It was a shipped both in Babylonia and Syria, of which Town of great account in the time of the Machabees, and gave many wounds to the Tews, till it was forst by Simon: of which he made so great account, as that he purpofed to refide therein himself, and in his ab-The white Dove is for holy held in Syria sence left John his Son and Successiour to be Governour. In Brochard his time it was still a goodly Ciey, and known by the name of Broch Hist.

At the very out-let of the River of Befor, frandeth Majoma the Port of Gaza: to which nus, Dorotheus the Historian, and Artemido- the priviledge of a City was given by the great Constantine, and the place called Con-In Ascalon, as some say, was that wicked stance, after the name of the Emperours Sone Herod born, that feeking after our Saviour, But Julian the Apoflata foon after favouring his min. caused all the Male-children of two years the Gazeans, made it subject unto them, and 6.4, No. old and under to be slain. In the Christian commanded it to be called Gaza maritima biscopei by Herod, and called Agrippias, after the name we have Eltholad. Chatzar-Sufa, so named of Agrippa, the favorite of Augustus.

298

the great Antiochus: and beyond it Rhinoan 19,24. cura, whose Torrent is known in the Scriptures by the name of * the Torrent of Egypt still 14,0°C. the Septuagint converted it Rinocura: to difference it, Ef. 27. 12. giving the name of the City to the Torrent that watereth it. Pliny the tream calls it Rhinocolura: and Josephus Rhinocorura: (a) Epiphanius reports it as a Tradition, See in of that at this place the world was divided by lot, between the three Sons of Noah.

Within the Land, and upon the River of gent. (a) Exiph placeth between Kadesh and Shur, Gen. 20.1. That it was neer to the Wilderness of Beerweful Ma. Mebab, it appears Gen. 20.31. and therefore Accorate. no marvel that as elsewhere Beer-fieba, fo long there. While the Christians held the Ger to 19 fometime Gerar, be made the South bound Holy Land, they laboured much to ftrength-vered the prev.

City of Letters, the University, as they fay, | places. or Academy of old Palastine. In Saint Hierom's Hebron was called Urbs Arbahi. For even Shichar, as is noted in Affer. hence also were these Giants expelled. It was taken chiefly by Othoniel, incouraged by Ca-Jof. 11.11 lebs promise of his Daughter in marriage : but that Josua and the Hoast of Israel were at the furprise, it appears fol. 10. 39. This City Fof.21.15. is named among those which out of simeon and Juda were given to the Levites. And hence it feems they attribute it the Tribe of Simeon, but of less fame, as Ha- the Land of Canaan 76500. bearing arms. Ajin, of which Jos. 19.7. which also Jos. 21.16. greeable to the greatness of this number is reckoned for one of the Cities of the Le- was the greatest Territory given, called af vites, given out of the portion of Juda and terward Judaa: within the bounds whereof "And also simeon, (for which Junius thinks Hasham is were the portions allotted to Dan and Simter and in to this Tribe.

On the other fide of Befor standeth Anthe- Josua these two are distinguished) also Tho. don, defaced by Alexander Janneus, restored lad, so named 1 Chro. 4.29 for which Jos. 1901. Tof. 19.5 for which Jof. 15. we have Chatzar. Then Raphia, where Philopater overthrew Gadda, both names agreeing in fignification: for Gadda is Turma, and Sufa Equitatus.

In the same places of Josua and of the Chronicles, Chorma is named, which they think to be the same with that of which Num. 14.45. to which the Amalekites and Canaanites purfued the Ifraelites: But that Chorma cannot be in Simeon, nor within the Mountains of Edumea. For Ifrael fled not that way: but back again to the Camp, which lay to the South of Edumaa, in the Defart.

The same places also name Beersheba in the mate Befor they place Gerar: which the Scripture this Tribe: fo called of the Oath between Abraham and Abimelec : neer unto which Hagar wandered with her fon Ifmael. It was alfo called the City of Isaac, because he dwelt of Canaan. It was of old a distinct Kingdom on this place, standing on the border of the from the Philistim Satrapies: the Kings by Arabian Defart, and in the South bound of one common name were called Abimelechs; Canaan. It hath now the name of Gibelin. S. Hierome faith that afterwards it was called | The other Cities of Simeon which are named Regio salutaris, the healthy Country: so that it in the places of Josua, and of the Chronicles was no marvel that Abraham and sfaac lived above noted, because they help us nothing much in those parts. Of King Afa's conquest in story, I omit them. In the time of Ezekia of the Cities about Gerar, see 2 Chron. 14.14. King of Juda, certain of this Tribe being More within the Land was Siceleg, or Tig- ftrengthened in his own Territories, passed lak, which was burnt by the Amalekites, to * Gedor, as it is I Chron. 4. 39. (the same lines) when David in his flying from Saul to the place which Jos. 15.36. is called Gedera and the last Philistims had left his carriages there, but Gederothaima) which at that time was inha-David followed them over the River of Be- bited by the iffue of Cham: where they featfor, and put them to the flaughter, and reco- ed themselves: as also five hundred others of year this Tribe, destroyed the Reliques of Anales this Charles Next Dabir sometime Cariath-Sepher, a in the Mountains of Edom, and dwelt in their Course

The Mountains within this Tribe are few, and time, it feems, it had the name of Daema: and that of sampson the chiefest: unto which Jos. 15. 49. it is called Urbs Sanna: from the he carried the Gate-post of Gaza. The Riname, as it feems, of some of the Anakims, as vers are, Befor, and the Torrent of Egypt, called

6. III.

THE TRIBE OF JUDA.

F Juda, the fourth fon of Jacob by Lea, there were multiplied in Egypt 74600. all which (Caleb excepted) perished in the Besides these, there are many others in Desarts. And of their sons there entred named 1 Chron. 6.59. though * in the place of on included. And many Cities named in those Tribes, did first, as they say, belong un beaten and put to flight: As following the Soveraignty over them: as Succoth, Carta- time he recovered. thinim, Lachis, Bethsemes, Tsiglag, Beersheba, Not far from Jether standeth Jarmith. and others. The multitude of people within whose King was slain by Josua, and the City this small Province (if it be meted by that overturned. Next unto it is Maresa the Naground given to this Tribe only) were in- tive City of the Prophet Michae: between credible, if the witnesse of the Scriptures had it and Odolla, Judas Macchabaus overthrew numbred the people, they were found five mas of filver to be offered for facrifice. hundred thousand fighting men.

the Ifraelites, the fons of Keni, the Kinfmen by S. Hierome. of Moles, obtained a possession in that Terlites, dwelt between Madian and Amalek.

sist and the South, Ascensus Scorpionis, or Acrab- four Patriarchs, Adam, Abraham, Isaac, and Frontier Towns.

Hatsmon, of no great fame.

Turning now from Idumea towards the man 15. also Carioth, by Jos. 15.25. called Keri- expelled: to whom it was in part given, to with whence Judas the Traitor was called wit, the Villages adjoying, and the reft to the best of carioth, as it were a man of Carioth. Then the Levites. It had a Bishop in the Christian boam re-edified. Beyond these, towards the Helen the mother of Constantine. which North border, and towards Elutberopolis, is Not far hence they find Eleutberopolis or the City of Jethar, or Jathir, belonging to the free City, remembred often by Saint a called Jethira: and inhabited altogether fociated with the other four Kings of the Amuto, and Laum, octografied the Arabiwere by Josua utterly overthrown. From were by Josua utterly overthrown. From to the Children of Juda: who had a kind of victory as far as Gerar, which at the same not warranted the report. For when David

Gorgias, and fent thence ten thouland Drag. 2 Macris; and the people they were found five mat of filter to be offered for faviling.

35.

Odolla, or Hadullam it felf, was an ancient Gen. 38, 1. The Cities of Juda were many. But I will and magnificent City, taken by Josua, and Josus. remember the chiefelt of them: beginning the King thereof flain. Jonathan Macchabe- 1 Sam. 23.1 with Arad, or Horma, which standeth in the us beautified it greatly. Then Ceila, or Keila, entrance of Judea from Idumea: whose King afterward Echela, where David sometime first surprized the Israelites as they passed by hid himself: and which afterward he delithe border of Canaan towards Moab, and vered from the affaults of the Philistims: took from them some spoyls, and many prineer which the Prophet Abacuc was buried: 16 foners: who being afterward overthrown by whose monument remained, and was feen

Neer it is Hebron, sometime called the Ciritory: who before the coming of the Israe- ty of Arbah, for which the Vulgar hath Cariatharbe: the reason of this name they give as Following this Frontier towards Idumea if it fignified the City of four: because the bim is placed: the next to Arad: so called Jacob, were therein buried, but of Adam it because of Scorpions, which are said to be in is but supposed: and it is plain by the plathat place: from which name of Acrabbim, ces, Jos. 14. 14. and 15. 13. and 20. 11. that Hierome thinks that the name of the Topar- Arbah here doth not fignifie four, but that it chie, called Acrabathena, was denominated: was the name of the Father of the Giants, of which we have spoken in Manasses. On called Anakim, whose son asit seems Anak the South fide also of Judga they place the was: and Achiman, Shelhai, and Talmai, Cities of Jagur, Dimona, Adada, Cedes, Ashna, (whom Caleb expelled , Jos. 15.) were the Jethnam, and Assor, or Chatsor, most of them sons of Anak, Num. 13.23. The name of Anak fignifieth Torquem, a chain worn for or-And then Ziph: of which there are two nament; and it feems that this Anak, inplaces so called: one besides this in the bo-riched by the spoils which himself and his dy of Juda, of which the Defart and Forrest father got, wore a chain of gold, and so got adjoyning took name: where David hid this name: and leaving the cufrome to his himself from saul. After these are the Cities posterity, left also the name: so that in Laof Efron, Adar, Karkab, and Ascemona, or time the name of Anakim may not amiss be expounded by Torquati.

The City Hebron was one of the ancien-North, we find the Cities of Danna, Shemah, test Cities of Canaan, built seven yeers before Aman , the other Afor, or Chatfor, Behaloth, Tfoan, or Tanis, in Egypt: and it was the head and the two sochoes: of all which fee Jof, and chief City of the Anakims, whom Caleb Hetham, the abode of sampson, which Reho times, and a magnificent Temple built by the Levites. In Saint Hierom's time it was Hierome, Then Eglon, whole King Dabir af with christians: neer unto this City was morites, to wit, of Hierysalem, Hebron, Jarthat remarkable battel fought between Afa muth, and Lachis, belieging the Gibeonites, ans, who brought into the field a Million of hence the next City of fame was Emaio, affighting men : and was notwithstanding terward Nicopolis, one of the Cities of Go-of this City, Judus Macchabans (after he had like lamps of fire in the eyes of the Jens, formerly beaten both apollonius and Seron) The City of * Bezek was also neer unto Beth. Sea gave a third overthrow to Gorgias , Lievte- leem, which Adoni-Fezee commanded ; who Meet 1.3 an earthquake, faith Enfebius. In the Christi- Toes, and made them gather bread under

CHAP. X.

of Cafarea of Palestine.

are the Cities of Nahama, Bethdagon, and The rest of the Cities in this part (most of Gader, or Gedera, or Gederothaima, of which, them of no great estimation) we may pass Also 1 and of Gederoth, * Jof. 15, 36, and 41. Then the state of the bedin great strength in the Valley of (a) Terebinth, exceeding beautiful and strong. And to tale or The neutrine as the Fulour readeth. I Sam. wards the Dead Sea and adjoining to the the Tille 5 Turpentine, as the Vulgar readeth, t Sam. wards the Dead Sea, and adjoyning to the a Jonus 17. 2. whence (as it feems) they feat it neer for it I'd unto Soco and unto Lebna of the Levites. let review. rusalem: And next unto this standeth Ma- one another, when they had purposed to keers the ceda, which Josua utterly dis-peopled.

Bethfor: one of the strongest and most for so strange a deliverance. fought for places in all Juda. It is seated on a it was by Simon exceedingly fortified a- a little one: when as the old name was Be-19/100 gainst the Sycien Kings.

38.16. Of this City was Abessan, or Ibsan balsamum: the most part of all which Trees Judge of Ifrael after Jephtah, famous for the Cleopatra Queen of Egypt fent for out of Juthirty fons and thirty daughters begotten daa, and Herod, who either feared or loved by him. Elimelee was also a Bethlemite, who Anthony her Husband, caused them to be of whom David. It had also the honour to of the Presidencies thereof. be the native City of our Saviour Jesus | The rest of the Cities are many in the In- 1801 Christ; and therefore shall the memory land, and among them Jest not that thereof never end.

com. saper. of the same name : and therefore was this of City of Achinoan, the wife of David, the mo-Mauch . 1. Our Saviour called Bethleem Juda.

deth Theeua, the City of Amos the Prophet: loms Lievtenant, and the Commander of his 76) and to this place adjoyning is the City of Army. But this feemeth to be an errour vernment or Frasidencies of Judas. In fight the glorious guilt shields of Antiochus shined had during his reign tortur'd 70. Kings, by Join In the yeer 1301, it was overturned by cutting off the joynts of their Fingers and an times it had a Bishops seat of the Diocess his Table; but at length the same end befell himself by the sons of Juda, after they and From Emans toward the West Sea, there had taken him prisoner.

as is above the five Kings before named, a City of mounting thereunto with 200. Marble fleps, 36 in to Terebin. bath it revolted from the subjection of the Jews phat, the Jews stood and lookt on the Most sting, bath it revolted from the subjection of the Jews while for am the fon of Josaphat ruled in Hie- bites, Ammonites, and Edomites, massacring 16 km joyn against Juda: neer which place is the On the other fide of Emans towards the Valley of bleffing, where the Jews the fourth reamog in Falt standeth Bethfur, otherwise Bethfora, and day after, solemnly came and blessed God-

Now the Cities of Juda which border the . Chur high Hill; and therefore called Bethfur (the Dead Sea, are thefe; Aduran beautified by 'Sm boule on the Book, or of firength.) It was for- Roboan : and Tobar, which the Vulgar caltified by Robonza, and afterward by Judas leth * Segor: so called, because Lot in his pray risku Macchabaus Lylias forc't it : and Antiochus er for it, urged that it was but a little one : Grand Mac.t. 6. Entapor by famine Jonathas regained it : and whence it was called Tohar, which fignifich cook lah, as it is Gen. 14.2. In the Romans time it Harden, Beshleem is the next unto it within fix miles had a Garrison, and was called (as they say) only of Hierufalem, otherwise Lebem: fometime Pannier: in Hierom's time, Balexona. Then then the Ephrata; which name, they say, it had of Engaddi, or Hen-gaddi, first Asasonthamar: class Calebs wife, when as it is to called by Mofes neer unto which are the Gardens of Ballabefore Caleb was famous in those parts, Gen. mum, the best that the world had called ope it with his wife Naomi fojourned in Moab du- rooted up, and presented unto her: which ring the famine of Juda in the time of the she re-planted neer Heliopolis in Egypt. This Judges, with whom Ruth the daughter-in-law of Naomi returned to Eethleem: and Amorites thence expelled. It was one of the Ga. W married Booz, of whom Obed, of whom Ishai, most remarkable Cities of Judaa; and one which was the City of Naboth, of which al-Hieron. in In Zabulon of Galilee there was also a City ready; but another of the same name; the ther of that Ammon whom Abfalom flew :al-America. From Bethleem some sour or sive mile stan- so, as some think, the City of Amasa, Abserta 1. Mix. 6. Belbzacaria, in the way between Bethfura grounded upon the neerness of the words 16 and Hierusalem: on whose Hils adjoyning, Israel and Jestael: and because the 2 Sam. 17.

25. Amasa's father is called an Israelite, who, est Son of Abraham, the Ismaelites: and by on, though otherwise an Ismaelite.

Taphna, and these part Juda from Dan and places adjoyning. simeon. Of others which stand single, there Esan and his sons held Idumea, which is that of Hebron, at the foot whereof was bounded Canaan on the South, Ismael took that Oak of Mamre, where the three An- from the South-east part of the Dead Sea; gelsappeared to Abraham; which Saint Hie- stretching his possession over all Arabia Perome calleth a Fir-tree, and faith, That it trea, and a part of Arabia the Defart, as far Hierm. in flood till the time of Constantine the young-lm. Heb. as the River of Tygris, from Sur to Havilah. or greef er. There is also that Mountain called collis Achille, on the South of Ziph: on the top Dead Sea, leaving a part to Midian, and paf-M.14 whereof the great Herod, inclosing the old fing over Arnon, inhabited the Plains beand called Massada', garnished it with twenty seven high and strong Towers: and therein left Armour and Furniture for an of Arnon, and possess the Tract from Rabba, ble strength.

for their unnatural fins.

THE TRIBE OF REUBEN. and his Borderers.

from Sehon King of Hesbon.

Mount Sinai 46000, who dying with the was prepared for the Ammonites. rest in the Desarts, there remained to pos- Now where it is written, that Arnon was or Edom, the Idumeans: by Ismael, the eld-name was Balar, the son of Zippor. And it in the first of the Chron. 2. 17. is called an Ketura, his last wife, the Midianites. And Ismaelite: indeed the Hebrew Orthography again, by Lot, Abraham's brothers fon, those theweth that Amaja's father is not faid to be two valiant Nations of the Moabites and of the City Jefrael, but an Ifraelite in Religi- Ammonites: all which being but strangers in the Land of Canaan (formerly possess by In this Tribe there were many high Hils the Canaanites; and by the Families of and Mountains: as those of Engaddi upon them descended) these issues and alliance the Dead Sea: and the Mountains of Juda, of Abraham, all but Jacob, whose children which begin to rife by Emans, and end neer were bred in Egypt, inhabited the frontier

201

Moab took the rest of the coast of the Castle, crected by Jonathan Macchabaus, tween Jordan and the Hils of Abarim, or Arnon, as far North as Effebon, or Chesbon. Ammon fate down on the North-east fide hundred thousand men; being, as it seem- afterward Philadelphia, both within the 705.13. eth a place unaccessable, and of incompara- Mountains of Gilhead, and without them as far forth as Aroer, though in Moles time he In the Valley afterward called the Dead had nothing left him in all that Valley: for Sea., or the Lake Affbaltitis, this Country the Amorites had thrust him over the River had four Cities, Adama, Sodom, Seboim, and of Jaboc, as they had done Moab over Arnon, Nam. 11. Gomorra, destroyed with fire from Heaven As these Nations compassed fundry parts of 14 Canaan, fo the border between the River of Jaboc and Damascus, was held by the Amorites themselves, with other mixt Nations: all which Territory on the East fide of Fordan, and on the East side of the Dead Sea, was granted by Moses to the Tribes of Ren- Gen. 14. ben, Gad, and half Manaffe; whereof that part which Moab had, was first possess by the Emims, a Nation of Giants weakned and bro-The feats and bounds of Midian, Moab, and ken by Chedorlaomer, after repulsed by the Ammon, part whereof the Reubenites wan Moabites, as before remembred. That which the Ammonites held, was the Territory and ancient possession of the Zamzummims, or Nthe other fide of the Dead Sea, Ren- Zutai, who were also beaten at the same the eldest of Jacobs sons inhabited: time by Chederlaomer, Amraphel, and the of whose children there were numbred at rest: and by them an easie way of conquest fess the Land promised 43700, bearing arms. the border of Moab, the same is to be under-But before we speak of these, or the rest that stood according to the time when Moses inhabited the East side of Jordan, some- wrote. For then had sehon or his Ancestor thing of their borderers: to wit, Midian, beaten the Moabites out of the plain Coun-Moab, and Ammon, whose Land in our Writties, between Abarim and Jordan, and driters are confusedly described, and not easily ven them from Hesbon over Arnon; and this distinguished. And first we are to remember, hapned not long before Moses arrival upon that out of Abraham's kindred came mighty that border, when Vaheb governed the Mo-Families: as by IJaac and Jacob the Nation abites. For he that ruled Moab when Moses called Israel, and afterward Jews: by Esau, past Arnon, was not the son of Vaheb, but his

CHAP. X.

may be that those Kings were elective, as the Edumeans anciently were.

Now, all that part of Moab, between Arnon and Jordan, as far North as Esebon, was inhabited by Reuben. And when Ifrael arrived there out of Egypt, it was in the possesfion of sehon, of the race of Canaan by Amorens: and therefore did Jephtah the Judge of Ifrael justly defend the regaining of those Countries against the claim of the Ammo-(faith Jeplitah) had 300. years time to recover them, and did not : whence he inferreth, that they ought not to claim them now.

And left any should marvel why the Ammonites in tephtalis time should make claim to these Countries: whereas Moses in the place Num. 21.v.26. rather accounts them to have been the ancient possession of the Moabites, than of the Ammonites: it is to be noted, that Deut. 3. 11. when it is faid that the Itors got from the Ammonites, as much of Sekons was from the Moabites. they had also possessions over Jaboc, which via, the mother of Tiberius Casar. at length the Gadites possest, as in the thirit appears.

Of the memorable places of the Reubenites.

He chief Cities belonging to Reuben were these, Kedemoth, for which the High Vulgar, without any flew of warrant, readeth Jethson. The Vulgar or Hierome followed the Septuagint, those two Verses, 36, and nites: because (as he alledged) Moses found 37. in Fos. 22. being wanting in the old Hethem in the possession of the Amorites, and | brew Copies, and the Septuagint read Kednot in the hands of Moab, or Ammon : who | Son for Kedmoth , which Kedson by writing flipt into ethfon.

This City which they gave to the Levites, Deman imparts her name to the Defart adjoyning: html, html from whence Moses sent his Embassage to marginal Sehon. In the same place of Josua, where this Deal. 3 Kedemoth is mentioned the Vulgar for Betfer when & villa ejus, reads Bosor in Solitudine Misor, ste ken Without any ground from the Hebrew Miles, fig. whence Adrichomius makes a Town called nilying Misor, in the border between Renben and which is Iron bed of the was to be seen at Rabbath, the Gad. Farther from Kedemoth, near the Dead was to chief City of the Ammonites, it is also fignifi- Sea (for the Country between being Moun- Int. ed, that much of the Land of og, which the tainous, hath few Cities) they place two wines Ifraelites portefied, was by him or his Ance- Towns of note, Lafa or Lefbafb, of which Ge- 69.00 nesis 10.ver.19. The Greeks call it Callirhoe quel High near which there is a Hill from whence there were Jol 13.25 And as the Canasanite Nations were feated floweth Springs both of hot and cold, bitter falls, flowering flowering and fweet water; all which foon after the first on the control of the first flowering and fweet water; all which foon after the first on the control of the first flowering James to diffinguish them; so also were the sons of rising, being joyned in one stream; do make traction of sine seems and James and Jam Hammon, why Ammon commanded in chief, in Jeph-der, when he was desperate of all other help, 6.15. this place tab's time; for fometime the one Nation, repaired, but in vain. Others fay, that these of Josa is sometime the other of all those borderers Springs arise out of the Hills of Machaeuri. have been acquired the Soveraignty: and again, that in this Tribe. The like fountains are found given to one part of the Land which Gad held, name- in the Pyrenyes, and in Peru, called the Baths the Gadines, ly, within the Mountains of Galaad, or Gile- of the Inga's, or Kings. The other Town is had, and as far South as Aroer, belonged to Macharus, the next between Lafa and Joithe Am- the Ammonites. And therefore taking advan- dan: of all that part of the world the strongmonites by tage of the time, they then fought how to est In-land City and Castle, standing upona the place, recover it again. Yet at fuch time as Moses Mountain every way unaccessible. It was Deni. 1.11 overthrew Schon at Jahaz, the Ammonites first fortified by Alexander January who as well og, had lost to the Amorites all that part of their made it a frontier against the Arabrans but as School possession which lay about Aroer, and be it was demolished by Gabinius in the war had gotten tween it and Jaboc: Sebon and Og, two with Ariftobulus, laith Josephus, It was thither pour Kings of the Amorites, having displanted (faith Josephus) that Herod sent John Baptift, 19, 100 both Meab and Ammon of all within the and wherein he was flain : his Army foot af com. Mountains. For it is written in Numb. 21.24. ter being utterly overthrown by Aretas King Hirink that Ifrael conquered the Land of Sehon of Arabia, and himself after this murthernefrom Arnon unto Jaboc, even unto the chil- ver prospering. Not far from Machorus was dren of Ammon: so as at this time the River Bosor, or Bozra, a town of refuge, and belongof Jaboc was the South bound of Ammon ing to the Levites, and near it Livius upon within the Mountains, when as anciently Jordan, which Herod built in honour of Li-

To the North of Livias is Setim . or Sit-Nam. 15 teenth Chapter of Josua, verse twenty five, tim: where the children of Israel imbraced the daughters of Midian or Moab; and where Phineas pierced the body of Zimri and Cof Num. 33.49. (that some call Abel-sathaim, and and Junius, vallem Cedrorum: expounding bernacle was made. it not for any particular place in Canaan:but for the Church, in which the just being pla- they place the Cities Nebo, Baal-Meon, Sibma, ced, grow as the cedars, Pfal. 92. 13.

which even now we spake. as in this place of Deuteronomy there is no chief place of whose worship seems to have the Region of Suph, or Suphah: which doubt- brought Balaam to curie the Ifraelites less was about these plains of Moab towards the Dead Sea: where the Country being full of reeds, was therefore thus called: as also the Red Sea was called Mare Suph, for like

The place in these large plains of Moab where Moses made those divine exhortations, some say was Bethabara, where John of note over Arnon, which adjoyned to 1,84m. 15, July 1.13, Where Mojes made thole divine exhortation of the state of t Moham led Beth-bara. Josephus fayes it was where aft the City of Phalti: to whom Saul gave his hi with his spear, bringing due vengeance Bel-fathim) which is reckoned by Moles in upon them when they were in the midst of that place of Numbers for the 42, and last their fin; and from hence Fosica sent the dif- place of the Israelites incamping in the time May coverers to view Jericho, staying here until of Moses: This place is also called Sittim : Num. 15.1. he went over Jordan. As for the Torrent se- which word if we should interpret, we Exo. 15.10 tim, which in this place Adrickomius dreams should rather bring it from Cedars than of, reading feel 3. 18. irrigabit torrentem Se- from Thorns, with Adrichomius and others. tim: The Vulgar hath torrentem spinarum: It was the wood of which the Ark of the Ta-

Toward the East of these plains of Moab, and Hesbon the chief City of sehon, and El-The plain Country hereabout, by Moses halel, and Kiriathaima the seat of the Gi-Nam 11 37 called, The plains of Moab, where he expoun- ants Emim. Of the two first of these Moses Gen. 14.5. ded the book of Deuteronomy to the people feems to give a note that the names were to Num. 31. a little before his death, is in the beginning be changed, because they tasted of the Moaa little before his dearn, is in the beginning of the fame book precifely bounded by Mo-bites * Idolatry. For Nebo (in flead of which, * Exod. 13. fes. On the South it had the great Defart of Junius, Efa. 46. 1. reads Deus vaticinus) was deorum ali-Paran, where they had long wandred. On the name of their Idol-Oracle, and Baal-me-enorum ne the East it had Chatferoth, and Dizahab (of on is the habitation of Baal. Of the same Idol ne auditum which two, the former is that Gazorus, of was the Hill Nebo in these parts denomina- in ore two. which Ptolomy in Palestina: the later was a ted: from whose top, which the common Plat. 164. Tract belonging to the Nabashei in Arabia Translators call Phalgah, Moses before his puntas som That belonging to the savanors in An again the fame Petrea, where was * Mezabab, of which, Gen. death faw all the land of Canaan beyond womine to ait feems 36.39.) by the Geographers called Medava. Jordan. In which from Junius doth not take min labit. with and Medaba. On the West it had Jordan, and Phasgah, or Pisgah for any proper name: but Hose 2.17. maked on the North it had Laban (in Junius editi-india, on, by the fault of the Print, Lamban, Deut, also Vatablus in some places, as Num. 21. 20. bilineses. wanter we united the 1.1.) the same which the Geographers call where he noteth, that some call Piscab that so re spint plan of Libias: and some consound it with Livias, of top which looketh to Jericho, and Hair as it what name they gled looketh to Moab, which opinion may be for Nels it Also on the same North side towards the somewhat strengthened by the name of a dothner which also confines of Calofyria, it had Theophel: wherethe mass of about sometime Pella of Cwlosyria stood: Ashdoth-Pigga, which is as much as decursus it seems | Paida | which was in the Region of Decapolis; and | Pigætto wit, where the waters did run down they make | as Stephanus faith, was sometime called Ru. from Piga In the same place of Local mell some as Stephanus faith, was sometime called Bu- from Piga. In the same place of Josua there is time Easi. B demaile, the It is also noted in Moses to be over against also named Beth-Peor, as belonging to Reu- as Esta 15, 2 notional of the Hill Peor: from whence and tome or near unto Suph, for which the Vulgar ben: fo called from the Hill Peor: from whence time Bull-Magga hath the Red Sea, as also Num. 2.14. it transla- also Baal the Idol was called Baal-Peor; meon, Esoy 1/16.1. teth the word Suphah in like manner: where- which, they fay, was the same as Priapus: the addition of any word in the Hebrew to fig- been Bamoth-Bahal, of which also Jos. 13. in nifie the Sea: and yet the Scripture, when the Cities of Reuben: for which, Num. 22.41. this word is so to be taken, useth the additi- they read, the high places of Baal (for so the on of Mara, thereby to diffinguish it from word fignifieth) to which place Balaak first baptized, which in the story of Gideon is cal-Renben: amongst which they place Gallim, sti. ter the City Abila stood, near Jordan, in a daughter Michel from David: but Junius Place set with Palm-trees: which sure was thinks this Town to be in Benjamin: gathe same as Abel-sittim in the plains of Moah, thering so much out of Esa. 10. 29. where it

Of divers places bordering Reuben, belonging to Midian, Moab, or Edom.

305

With better reason perhaps out of Num. 21. impregnable, he was content, by the persuahad left the Well, called Beer: Then Debla- of the Arabians in the valley called Salinathaim, which the Prophet Hieremy threatneth | rum) wan also this City. S. Hierome findes with the rest of the Cities of Moab.

chief City of the Madianites in Moah: but the Kingdom of Hiernfalem, it had a Latine nites there were two Nations of which these exceeding overthrow by a Regiment of which Moses encamped in the 38. station. twelve thousand Israelites, sent by Moses out Adrichomius describeth the waters of Memof the Plains of Moab: at fuch time as Ifrael rim, or rather Nemrim, in his Map of Reuben. rest destroyed. The other Madianites, over | which it seems Adrichomius writ Nemrim) whom Jethro was Prince or Prieft, forgat not refresh the plains of Moab: and the confluthe God of Abraham their Ancestor; but ence of those waters of Nimra are in the relieved and affifted the Ifraelites in their | Tribe of Gad. Save also cannot be found in painful travels through the Defarts: and this place, that is, to the South of Arnon, and were in all that passage their guides. In the under Midian. For after Abraham returned Elay 16.1. South border of Moab adjoyning to Edom, from the pursuit of the Affyrian and Persian Kings 14 and sometime reckoned as the chief City of Princes, the King of Sodom met him in the Edom, there is that Petra, which in the Scrip- Valley of Save, or Saveh, which is the Kings first and strongest City: the same perhaps Dale, could not be in these parts. which Pliny and Strabo call Nabatken, whence also the Province adjoyning took name: which name feems to have been taken at first from Nabajoth, the son of Abraham by Kethura. For Nabathen is no where underflood for all Arabia Petrea (at least where it is not mil understood) but it is that Province which neighboureth Judea. For Pharan ins. chron. 5. habited by Ismael, whose people Ptolomy calleth Pharanites, in stead of Ismaelites, and all those Territories of the Culites, Madianites, Amalekites, Ismaelites, Edomites, or Idumeans, the Lands of Moab, Ammon, Hus, Sin, and of cg King of Basan, were parts of Arabia Petrea: though it be also true, that some part of Arabia the Defart belonged to the Ama-Scriptures in the first of Chronicles the fifth.

calls Hagarens of Hagar.

is named among the Cities of Benjamin. Roman Army, and finding the place in shew 19. we may fay that Mathana and Nahaliel fion of Antipater, to take a composition of were in those confines of Renben: through money, and to quit it. Yet Amasian King of which places the Ifraelites past after they Juda (after he had slaughtered ten thouland Ruth the Moabite to be natural of this City. Madian also is found in these parts, the In the mean time, when the Christians held not that Midian, or Madian by the Red Sea, Bishop, having before been under the Greek Will To. wherein Jethro inhabited. For of the Madia- Church. It is feated not far from Hor, where 30, id. Aaron died, and on the other fide towards New 11 of Moab became Idolaters, and received an the North is the River of Zared, or Zered, by Druzij began to accompany their Daughters: their not far hence, and between Zared and Arfive Kings with Balaam the Soothsayer, were non: and so he doth the Valley of Save: but 1961,31 then flain, and their Regal City with the the waters of Nimra, or Beth-Nimra (for House, tures is called selah, which is as much as ru- | Dale, where Absolom set up his Monument, as some pes, or petra. It was also called Jotheel, as it feems, not far from Hierufalem. And at the forthe his appears by the place, 2 Kings 14. It was fame time Melchisedec King of Salem also en- brew, the built (faith Josephus) by Recem, one of those countred him. But Abraham coming from relations five Kings of the Madianites: flain as before the North, and Melchifedee inhabiting, either and fails is faid : after whom it was called Recem. neer Bethfan, otherwise Scythopolic, in the half the sline Now, they say, it is called Crac, and Mozera. Tribe of Manasse, or in Hierusalem (both pla adding The Soldans of Egypt, for the exceeding cesslying to the West of Jordan) could not be 31 firingth thereof, kept therein all their trea-forces of Egypt and Arabia: of which it is the fore Save, which was also called the King ii had

||. IV.

Of the Dead Sea.

Ow because the Sea of sodom, or the of Mosty Dead Sea, called also the Lake of Apphal called the titis, and the Salt fea (in diffinction from the both Moth Sea of Tiberias, which was fresh water) also neally as also was as also we the sea of the Wilderness, or rather the sea have col * of the Plains, is often remembred in the labinite Scriptures, and in this story also, therefore I is, in the think it not impertinent to speak somewhat plains, thereof. For it is like unto the Caspian sea, bullet 1 which hath no out-let, or disburthening. The Mar. 9.11 lekites, and Ismaelites: all which Nations the length of this Lake Josephus makes 180. fur-whence longs (which make 22 miles and a half of minimum) ours) and about 150. in bredth, which make gins 10 This City Petra, Scaurus befieged with the 18. of our miles, and somewhat more. makes it a great deal less: but those that of Num. v. 14. nameth Vaheb, which seems to born up by the water. At one time of the of the Princes of Midian. year cafteth it up titumen: the art of ga- After these times the Kings of the Moabites

CHAP. X.

CHAP. X

ness having nothing within them, but moulder | Clay-workers to the King there. into ashes: Thus far Tacitus. And it is found Then we find Eglon King of Moab, who Judges gi it, who were not onely unskilfull in fwiming, lieved him; knowing that Saul fought his life, but had their hands also bound behind them, yet notwithstanding they were carried on the face of the waters, and could not fink.

Of the Kings of Moab, much of whose Countrey within Arnon Reuben poffeft.

Figure 1 the Kings of Moab, whose Countrey (within Arnon) Reuben possess (though Moabites, whose name liveth, was Mesha, who have of late years feen this fea, did account be the Ancestor or Predecessor of Balac, the (faith a Weissenburg) eight Dutch miles fon of Zippor: which Balas fent for Balaam Name at (which is two and thirty of ours) in length: to curse Israel. For fearing to contend with 19624. and two and a half of theirs (which is ten Moses by arms, by the examples of schon, and of ours) in breadth. Of this Lake or Sea, Ta- Og, he hoped by the help of Balaams curfings citus maketh this report: Lacus oft in immenso or inchantments, to take from them all ambitu, specie maris, sapore corruptior, gravi- strength and courage, and to cast on them tate odoris accolis pestifer: neque vento im- some pestilent diseases. And though Balaam pollitur, neque pisces aut suitas aquis volucres at the first, moved by the spirit of God blest patitur, incertum unde superjecta ut solido Ifrael, contrary to the hope and desire of feruntur, periti, imperitique nandi perinde at- Moab: yet being desirous in some sort to tolluntur, &c. That it is very great, and (as fatisfie him, and to do him fervice, he advised it were) a fea of a corrupt tafte: of smell in- Moab to fend Madianitish women among the fedions, and pestilent to the borderers: it is Israelites: hoping by them, as by sit instruneither moved nor raised by the winde, nor ments of milchief, to draw them to the Idolaindureth fift to live in it, or fowl to swim in it. try of the Heathen, but in the end, he receiv-Those things that are cast into it, and the un- ed the reward of his falling from God, and of skilfull of fiviming, as well as the skilfull, are his evil counfell, and was flain among the rest thering which, Experience (the finder are not named: faving that we find in of other things) hath also taught. It is used the first of Chronicles the fourth, that Jokim, in the trimming of thips, and the like busi- and the men of Chozeba, and Foulb, and Sareph, all being of the iffue of Fuda, some-And then of the Land, he speaketh in this time had the Dominion in Moab: but as it is fort : The fields not far from this Lake, which written in the same Verse, These also are versas mere sometime fruitfull, and adorned with great | antient things: to wit, as some expound it, cities, were burnt with lightning; of which the particulars of these mens governments thereines remain, the ground looking with a are no where extant or remaining, or as osad face, as having lost her fruitfulness; for thers, have prins fuere, these Families of Juda whatsoever doth either grow, or is set thereon, were once thus famous: but now their postebe it fruits or flowers, when they come to ripe- rity choose rather to abide in Babylon, and be by experience, that those Pomegranates, and with the help of Ammon and Amalee masterother Apples or Oranges, which do still ed Israel, and commanded them 18 years: grow on the banks of this curfed Lake, do which Eglon, Ehud flew in his own house, and look fair, and are of good colour on the out- afterward 1000. of his Nation. What name fide, but being cut, have nothing but dust the King of Moab had unto whom David within. Of the Bitumen which this Lake cast- fled fearing Saul, it doth not appear: or 1 Sam 22. eth up, it was by the Greeks called Asphaltitis. whether it were the same against whom Saul Vespassan desirous to be satisfied of these re- made war, it is not manifest, for neither are ports, went of purpose to see this Lake, and named. But in respect that this Moabite was caused certain Captives to be cast into an enemy to Saul, he received David, and re- 1 Saun. 14.

> After this, David himself entred the Region of Moab, but not likely in the same 25am. 8. Kings time: for he llaughtered two parts of the people, and made the third part tributary: whereupon it was faid of David, Moab 1 chro. 18, is my wash-pot, over Edom will I cast my (hooe: meaning, that he would reduce them to fuch an abjection, and appoint them for base services; and that he would tread down the Idumeans.

not taken from Moab, but from sehon the falling from Juda, (perhaps in remembrance Amorite) few are known. Junius in the 21. of the severity of David) fastened himself makes ante reason of this name

feems to

Efsyts.

to the Kings of Ifrael, and and tribute to A- City, which in divers places is faid to be hab, 100000. Lambs, and 200000. Rams with within, and in the middle of the River of the wooll: who revolting again from Wrael Arnon (and to diffinguished from Harober, and Idumaa: and being by these three Kings Same Junius proveth out of Numbers, ch. 21. is ellewhere shewed. There is also mention divers streams, where or among which Har made of the Mochites without the Kings is scated: And the same is confirmed by the name; when that Nation, affilted by the place of Jos. 13. ver. 25. where Haroker is phat: and by reason of some private quarrels Rabbab, as it seems, cannot be the Rabbab of among themselves, the Moabites and Am- the Ammonites (for they seat not Harober fo as Jehoshaphat had a notorious victory o- Moah, which they make to be Ar, or Har; and hundred and odd years.

the bordering places of Ammon.

"He Territory adjoyning to Reuben, is S. Hieroms time the greatest part of this 45.

The chief City of Gad was Aroer, which quakes. they make to be the same with Ar . or Rabrober, which doubtless belonged to the Ga- this City among the rest of Moab, both Elay dites (as Numb. 32.34 it is faid that they built and Hieremy prophefied, that it should perilly it) was indeed seated neer Har of the Moa- and the Lakes about it run with the blood bites, but divers from it. For that Har was of the Inhabitants. It was a great Village never possest by Moses, it is plain Deutero- neer Arnon in S Hierom's time. nomy 2.9. where God forbidding Moses to Keeping the banks of Arnon, one of the touch it, faith he hath given Har for an in- next Cities of fame to Aroer, was Bethnimafter the death of Abab, was invaded by Je-after the death of Abab, was invaded by Je-borum, with whom joyned the Kings of Juda bank of Arnon) is Har of the Moabites, the prest and broken, he fled to Kir-hareseth, as v.15. where Arnon is said to be divided into Ammonites and Idumeans, invaded Jehosha- faid to be seated before Rabbah : which monites fet upon the Idumans, and flaugh- neer it, nor in fight of it) and therefore by tered them: and then one against another, Rabbab here, we must understand Rabbab of ver them all, without either blood or wound. fo we must needs distinguish it from Harober. Also in the time of Hieremy the Prophet, And as for Har, (which also gave the name beau there was a King of Most which is not na- to the coast adjoyning it feems it continued one med, which was after Melbs of Mosh many in the possession of the Moshites, after they have descents; for Melbs lived with Jeboram, and had once expelled the Giant-like people was descents: for negra fived with personal, and bade one affective weakned by Chedorlaomer this Mashite in Zedekia's time fourteen Kings called Emins, first weakned by Chedorlaomer thing of Inda coming between, who wasted three and his Associates: but Harober by the enter-bee change of times inffered many ancient chan-point ges, as being won from the Meabites by Se-theCity bon, and from him by the Ifraelites, and from the them, as it seems in the story of Jephta by the them, as it seems in the story of Jephta by the them, as it seems in the story of Jephta by the them, as it seems in the story of Jephta by the them, as it seems in the story of Jephta by the them, as it seems in the story of Jephta by the them, as it seems in the story of Jephta by the them, as it seems in the story of Jephta by the them, as it seems in the story of Jephta by the them, as it seems in the story of Jephta by th by the Ifraelites under the conduct of Jephia, this is that of Gad: whereof all that part City perished by an earth-quake, as also Zour, Man. which joyned to the Mountains, was some- in which Lot saved himself in the destruction Himself which fortice to the Montains, was time in the possession of the Ammonites, as far to the South as Aroer. Of the children of a was therefore called Vitula confirmant, pair and the south as Aroer. Gad, the seventh son of Jacob by Zelpha, the because as a wanton tumbling heiser, she was to mit. Must. 131. hand-maid of Leathere parted out of Egypt, thrice overthrown with earth-quakes: for the full faith. and died in the Defarts, 45550, and of their which cause also Hierome seems to think that fons there entred the Land promised, this Zoar was called Salissa, or Bal-Salissa, asif upon 45000. bearing Arms: for the half Tribe of Baal had been a remainder of the old name wheels Manasse, the River of Jaboc divided them : Balah, or Belah, (of which Gen. 14.2. and Sa make from Reuben, the Cities of Hesbon, Elbele, and lifta, which hath a fignification of the ternary shall number, had alluded to the three earth coming Brochard takes Harober to be Petra, but the list bath Moab, the great or commanding Moab. erroneously, as before it is noted; feeing that with the man described in the second of But the learned Junius attending diligently Petra was in the South border of Month adto those words of Moses, Deut. 2.36. Ab Ha- joyning to Edom, whereas Harober is in the white robero, que est in ripa suminis Arnon, & ci- North-East border. Between Haroher and esponding vitate ipfa qua est in flumine: Where the City Jordan they seat Dibon, which is attributed to below in the River is distinguished from the City upon the Gadites, because they are said to have a multithe bank of the River, as also in like manner, built it, Num. 32.34. though Jos. 13.w.17. it is a few (Jose 12. v. 2. and c. 13.9.) thinketh that Ha- faid that Moses gave it to the Reubenites. Of heritance to the fons of Lot. Now that this rab, of which Esay prophesied, That the war elast

n 48 ters thereof should be dried up: and all the vale | cording to Josephus, sometime Bataramptha) 190131 in this Tribe, Adrichomius placeth Jogbeha Perea, beyond Jordan, which Regio Perea, which he spake before, ver. 34.35, 36. there- same as Bethsaida. Upon the Sea of Galilee, near to Julias in tipe that part of Manafe which was in the East of Peraa, (that is, in the Region over Jordan) 30fpb de the part in For whereas he supposed his to be the same based with Nob which Saul destroyed of this we like the same which Nob which Saul destroyed of this we like the same which Nob which Saul destroyed of this we like the same which Nob which Saul destroyed of this we like the same which Nob which Saul destroyed of this we like the same which Nob which Saul destroyed of this we like the same which Nob which Saul destroyed of this we like the same which is as much as domes 1.7.6.8. which figures (a) in the Tribe of Benjamin. for fafeguard in the time of War with the And as for that Karkor, where Zebah and Zal- Romans, came with many others into Hiehand munnah rested themselves in their slight from rusalem, and was there besieged. Fosephus marched in the place noted, reports a lamentable Hiwith Kir-chares, of which Esay 15. and 2 Reg. upon enfuing.

the Tribe of Gad.

nimra, is said to have been built by the Ga- for Men or Cattel, Moses, Gen. 33.17. wit-(b) Joj the Betaramptha, of which (b) Jojephus after turn from Mejopotamia built in that place: as Exodo 2.39 where the start from the start intuite that there is mention in (c) Josephus) or from on like reason called succeth: because there heuasa Beth-Remphan (of which Remphan, an Idol they set up their first Tabernacles or Tents: mage of those Countries, we read, Alls 7. 43. and which they used after for forty years in Lev. 15.43. Language of those Countries, we read, Acts 7, 43. and which they used after the wind after the wind and which they will define in the Wilderness. In remembrance wherelanguage Rephan, I Mac. 37.) of this question it were of the Feast of Succeits, or Tabernacles, was hard to resolve. But touching Julias (ac- instituted.

of Moab withered. Not far from Bethnimrah the same Josephus placeth in the Region of and Nobach, or Nobe: of both which we read as the Greek word fignifieth, is no more than in the story of Gideon: and that Jogbeha was Regio ulterior, the Country beyond the River; in Gad, built by the Gadites, it appears, Num- and therefore they which labour to fet bers 32. 35. and therefore Nobach also must down the bounds of this Perea, take more needs be in these parts; but whether in Gad pains than needs. Fourteen Villages this Juor Manasse it is not certain: only that it was lias had belonging unto it, according to Joanciently called Kenath, Moses witnesseth. Sephus. He makes it to have been built by Nobach also (faith he) went and took Kenath Herod Antipus, and named Julius, in honour with her Towns, and called it Nobach of his of the adoption of Livia Augustus his wife, own name, where because the Verses prece- into the Julian Family: by which adoption 706 and 18. dent speak of the Manassites, and because it she was called Julia. Another Julias, he saith 3.0 Bel. is not likely that Mofes would have severed was built by Philip the brother of Herod, in Judg. 28. this feat of the Gadites from the rest, of the lower Gaulanitis, which, he saith, is the through this Nobach and Jogbeha, though story; how for hunger she eat her own fome place it in Gad, and make it the fame child, with other tragicall accidents here-

(1) (blap 12 3. 25. yet there can be no certainty that it Of succoth (which we faid Jos. 13. is placed was in Gad: and if it be the same with Kir- with Ben-haran, in the Valley of the King- Judg 8.56 chares, it is certain, that it was still a princi- dom of sehon) it is plain by the story of Gipal City held by the Moabites, and not in deon that it is near unto Jordan: where it is faid, that as he was past Jordan with his In the body of this Tribe of Gad they three hundred, weary in the pursuit of Zebah place Hataroth: of which name the Scripture and Zalmunnah, he requested relief of the witneffeth that two Cities were builded by men of succeth: who denying him and that the Gadites; the former fimply called Ha- with contempt, in Gideons return were by taroth, the later Hatroth-Sophan: for which him tortured, as it seems under a threshing- 2 5am, 135 later the vulgar makes two Cities, Roth and Car or Tribulum, between which and their 31. Shophan: the name Hataroth, is as much as flesh he put Thorns to teare their flesh as they were prest and trod under the Tribulum In the Valley of the Kingdom of Sehon, and after which fort also David used some together with Bethnimra of which we have of the Ammonites, though not with Thorns, spoken, Jos. 13.27. nameth Beth-haram and but with Iron teeth of the Tribulum. As succoth: the former, Numb. 32.36. (where for the name of succoth, which fignifieth fuch it is called Beth-haram) together with Beth- Tabernacles as were made in hafte, either dites, which (perhaps the rather, because in nesseth that the original of the name was Joha it is called Beth-haram) some take to from such harbours, which Jacob in his retaramptha were corrupted from Beth-haram, children of Ifrael, as they came from Raor from Betb-Aramatha (of which Arama- meses in Egypt, had their first Station, was up-

Other

CHAP. X.

r Chron.

308

bon, and Jahzer, all of them by the Gadites house of Saul. given to the Levites, of which Jahzer, as Chesbon, or Hesbon was a chief City of Sehon, Gilead, we read often in the Scripture, for whence Num. 32.1. his Country is called the the recovering of which, King Achab loft his Land of Jahzer. It was taken by Moses, ha- life. Junius thinks that Ramatha Miffia, of ving first sent spies to view it. In the first of which Jos 13. 26. was this Ramoth in Gilead. the Chronicles it is made part of Gilead. In Concerning the place where Laban and Jalatter times (as it may be gathered by the cob sware one to the other, as it was called Prophecy of Esay touching Moab) it was Gilead, which is as much as a witnessing heap, possessed by the Moabites: to which place of because of the heap of stones which Laban Efsy, also Hieremy in a like prophecy alludes. and his fons left for a monument; so also Elay 6.8. 775 and hirem. 48. It was at length regained (but as it feems that it was called Mitspah, which fignifieth from the Ammonites) by Judas Macchabeus: over-looking (because there they called as it is 1 Mac. 5. 8. where Junius out of Jo- God to over-see, and be witness to their Cofephus, reads, Jahzer, though the Greek hath venant) it is plain by the place, Gen. 31. 49. Gazer, For Gazer, or Gezer (as he gathereth That in these parts there was not onely a out of Jos. 16. 3. and 8. and Jud. 1. 29.) was Town, but likewise a Region called Mitsia, far from these Countries of sehon, seated in it appears Jos. 11. 3. where we read of the the West border of Ephraim, not possessed Chrvites under Hermon, in the Country of the place of Josua, and 1 Chron. 6.81. it should from Tob (whither his brethren had driven be said to have been given to the Levites by him) dwelt in the Town of Mitspa, who the Gadites, seeing Jos. 13. 17. it is reckoned doubtless was of the Tribe of Manase, and chomius, and such as little trouble themselves may feem that they do not well, which place with such scruples, finding Cashon, I Mac. 5. this Town of Mitspa rather in Gad than in 36. among the Cities of Gilead, taken by Manasse. By Judas Macchabaus this Town of Judas Macchabaus, makes two Cities of one: Mitspa (whether in Gad or in Manasse) was and that of Reuben distinct from it: but the it slain: for it was then posses of the Ammobetter reconciliation is, That it being a bor- nites. dering City, between Gad and Reuben, was their part to the Levites, for so also it ieems Penuel, which name fignifieth Locum faciei that in like reason Dibon is said in one place Dei; A place where the face of God was sen: built by the Gadites, and in another given to fo called for memory of the Angels appear-Reuben, as before is noted. Of Machanaiim, ing to Jacob, and wrestling with him there: which word fignifieth a double Army, we read Gen. 32. 2. that it was therefore so called, because the Angels of God in that place turn he overthrew their Tower, and slew the met Jacob in manner of another Hoast or chief Aldermen thereof. To these places of Shepherds, at the time of our Saviours birth : stained King David, during Absaloms rebelli-

Other four Cities of Gad are named, Josua thereof, Abner choic for the feat of Ishbolleth. 21.38. Ramosh in Gilead, Machanaiim, Chef-during the war between David and the

Of the fourth Town, which was Ramoth in by the Ifraelites, until Solomons time, for Mitspa, *the Town of Mitspa, as it seems Ochu whom the King of Egypt wan it from the Ca-whom the King of Egypt wan it from the Ca-mannite, and gave it him as a Dowry with his following, being not in the Hill Country, but the first it in the Valley. But seeing that Jephia the Tribed Of Chesbon it may be marvelled that in Judge of Ifrael, who after he came home Injust. for a principal City of the Reubenites: Adri- thence at first expelled by his brethren, it fallist as if this Casbon had been the Chesbon of Gad, utterly spoiled and burnt, and the Males of 1 Mas 18

Between Succoth (of which we have spocommon to both, and that the Gadites gave ken) and the River Jaboc, was that Peniel, or Gastell the churlishness of which City, in refusing to Jul. 8.1 relieve Gideon, was the cause that in his recompany, to joyn with his for his defence : the Gadites, they add Rogelim, the City of as also Luke 2. 13. we read of a multitude of that great and faithful subject Barzillai, as it 33. the Hoast of Heaven, which appeared to the seems, not far from Nahanaima, where he suand so unto the godly King Ofwald of Nor- on. To these they add the Town of Gaddi, peat 18 thumberland, when he was foon after to joyn Arnon, and Alimis, of which Gaddi, being in This battel with the Pagan Penda of middle-Eng- Hebrew no more than Gaddita, is ignorantly land, Beda reports, that the like comfort ap- made the name of a place. Arnon also no peared: whence the field where the Battel where appears to be the name of a Town, was fought, in the North parts of England, is but still of a River. Alimis Adrichomius called Heaven-field. In this City of Machanai- frames of in Antiques, I Mac. 5.26. fo that the im, David abode during the rebellion of name should rather be Alema, but Junius out Absalom: and the same, for the strength of Josephus reads Malla, for this in Alimb;

the thewed touching the Millo of the Seche undertaking men, to wit, og and Schon, both June 1 lieuwe and scann, both and the to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites) he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes this Malle to be Milfia Moa-din mites he takes the milfia Moa-din mites he takes the mites he takes the milfia Moa-d Mageth which Adrichomius finds in this Tribe Lot over the Mountains, and into the Dethe lost one is of Gad, it is that Mahacath, which Moses farts. And as the Kings or Captains of Persia and Assire Kings or Captains of Persia
and Assire Kings or Captains of Persia
and Assire Kings or Captains of Persia
and Assire Kings or Captains of Persia
and Assire Kings or Captains of Persia hen for a forthe lounds of this Tribe. So also made way for Ammon, Moab, and Edom; fo interior Dathema, of which I Mac. 5. 10. (which Ju- by that great conquest which Moses had owithout nius takes to be (b) Rithma, of which Num. ver those two Amorites, Og and Schon, did milianing 33.18. a place of strength in the Territory the Moabites and Ammonites take opportuin ano of the Ammonites) and in like manner Min-nity to look back again into those Plains; reference they be attributed to the Gadites, or to their naffites, for fook the worship of the living minist of white street of the Book of Judges, the former of were sometime their Masters, sometime their swording them in the South border, and the other of Tributaries, as they pleased or displeased from the Gadites. But the chief City of the vertue of their Commanders. and Affair Ammonites was nearer, and not far from the In this City of Rabba, was the Iron bed miletok, formetimes Rabbath, as Deut. 3. 11. but more of breadth. The City was taken in Davids often Rabba. It is supposed to be that * Phila-ingulaten depiction which Protony finds in Cologyria. Hie-but the rapping and Califfred in Archivi I was concurred. inte the rome and Califtus, in Arabia. It was conquer- affault thereof Vrias was shot to death, hams, one of ed by Og from the Ammonites: but, as it seems, ving been, by direction from David, appointmaineth seat of the Ammonites, but of old it was the and wherein David so displeased God, as his being polifilien of the Zamzammim: which is as a start and wherein David to dippealed God, as his being polifilien of the Zamzammim: which is as a start, and wickedness infamous. The same were wighty and rich Crown of Gold, which the start also called Raphaim of whom was 03, which the Kings of Ammon wore: or which, as the recovered much of their which the Amon wore: and called recovered much of that which the Ammo- some expound it, was used to be put on the number had got from his Ancestors: who hathe Horims in Seir had been) were after- Metropolitan Bishop, and under him twelve Belsfar is. ward the easier conquered by the Ammo- others. internation and disposite the man for the most second of the second of the man for the most second of the mo red with covered the best part of all the Valley, be- Mountains do, which neighbour and bound whence it blance tween the Mountains and Jordan. For this divers Countries: for from the South part, as appears, the shift Cin. that Treand understanding Malle to be put for Mil-, ancient inheritance : but having these two lo and to be as much as Munitio (as we have Kings of one kinred, and both valiant and nith, and Abel vincarum, though by some and when the Reubenites, Gadites, and Maborders, yet they are found farther off. For God, and became floathful and licentious; of the two last we read in Jephta's pursuit of they taking the advantage, invaded them, the Ammonites: seated, as it seems by that and cast them out of their possessions: and them in the East border, both far removed God: and according to the wisdom and often Rabba. It is supposed to be that * Phila- time, and the Inhabitants slain with great senever possest by the Ifraelites, after the over- ed to be imployed in the leading of an afthrow of Og, but left to the Ammonites: fault, where he could not escape: wherein whereupon at length it became the Regal also many of the best of the Army perished: ving been first beaten by the Asyrians, and is 60. pound weight, after the common tatheir affiftants (as the Emims in Moab, and lent. In the time of Christians it had a wal. Tro.

nites, as the Emims were by Moab, and the The mountains which are described with-Horims by the Idumeans. Yet did the races in this Tribe, and that of Manasse, with a part of Emoreus, of whom these Giants were de- of Reuben, are those that Ptolomy calleth the feended, contend with the Conquerors for hills of Hippus, a City of Calofyria: and Stra-Strable. their ancient inheritance: and as Sehon of bo, * Trachones: the same which continue * Texton you was also master of Rabba, or Philadelphia: Iar Northwalls as appeared to the of Og, they are called Galaad, or Gilead, from so, in the babbase other of these two Moses and Israel, found thence Northward they are known by the parts was other of these two Moses and Israel. Og was also master of Rabba, or Philadelphia: far Northwards as Astaroth, the chief City chomies reall those Cities and Countries which were name of Hermon, for so Moses calleth them: the hill-The but of given to Reuben, Gad, and the half Tribe of The Sidonians name them Shirion, but the country Manasse. So that though it were 450. years Amorites, Shenir, others, Seir: of which name Deut. 3. 9. since that these Zamzummims, or Raphaims, all those hills also were called, which part were expelled, yet they did not forget their Judan and Iduman: and lastly, they are called them all one, calling the high Mountains of ject to Adadezer, and from the Reguli of Re-Galaad, the head of Libanus.

CHAP. X.

non, falleth into jordan.

Of the Ammonites part of whose Territories the Gadites wan from Og, the King of Basan.

His Tribe of Gad possest half the Country of the Ammonites, who together with the Moabites, held that part of Arabia Petraa called Nabathea, as well within as without the Mountains of Gilead: though at this time when the Gadites wan it, it was in the policition of Sehon and Og, Amorites: and therefore Moses did not expel the Ammonites, but the Amorites, who had thrust the iffices of Lot over the Mountains Trachones, or Gilead, as before. After the death of Othomiel the first Judge of Ifrael, the Ammonites joyned with the Moabites against the Hebrems, and to continued long. Jephta Judge with them again.

confederate of David, having friended him much more ground than the country of Kent, relating th in Saul's time, though Josephus thinks that this Bafan, or, after the Septuagint, Bafanitio of the 2 Sam. 10.

David fent to congratulate his establishment, and to confirm the former friendship which he had with his father, he most contemptuoufly and proudly cut off the Ambaffadours garments to the knees, and shaved the half of their beards. But afterward not withstand-

Birroma Libanus, for fo the Prophet Hiereny makes ing the aids received from the Aramites fishhob, and Maacab, and from Iftob, yet all those Minter These Mountains are very fruitful, and Arabians, together with the Ammonites, were of the full of good pastures, and have many Trees overturned: their chief City of Rabba, after missis which yeild Ballamum, and many other me- Philadelphia, was taken; the Crown which find he which yello ballamm, and many other meighed atalent of gold, was fet on David's dictionable drugs. The Rivers of this Tribe weighed atalent of gold, was fet on David's dictionable drugs. are the waters of Nimrah, and Dibon, and the head; all fuch as were prisoners, David exe. Ill., In River Jahoe: others do also fancy another cuted with strange severity; for with saws there's River, which rifing out of the Rocks of Ar- and harrows he tare them in pieces, and call were a the rest into lime-kills. Josaphat governing to and in the rest into lime-kills. Juda, they affifted the Moabites their neigh- North bours against him, and perished together, bounder Ofias made them Tributaries, and they were Normalian again by Jotham inforc't to continue that tri of which bute, and to increase it, to wit, a hundred to tribe of lents of filver, ten thousand measures of Alla. wheat, and ten thousand of barley: which Him. to. the Ammonites continued two years.

The fifth King of the Ammonites, of whole class, name we read, was Baalis the confederate land of Zedekia: after whose taking by Nabuchodonofor, Baalis fent Ismael, of the blood of the Kings of Juda, to flay Gedaliah, who served Nabuchodonosor.

§. VII. of the other half of Manasse.

"He rest of the Land of Gilead, and of teniory of Ifract had a great conquest over one of the Kingdom of Og in Basan, with the to Mandy land of Hus and Argob, or Trachonitis (where wheth In the time of Samuel they were at peace in also were part of the small Territories of mills ver Batania, Gaulonitis, Geffuri, Machati, and eduit Afterward we find that cruel King of the Auranitis) was given to the half Tribeoffoned Ammonites, called Nahas, who belieging Ja- Manasse over Jordan; of which those three the harts bes Gilead, gave them no other conditions later Provinces defended themselves against limite 1 Sam. 11. but the pulling out of their right eyes. The them for many ages. But Batania Ptolomy control reason why he tendred so hard a compositi- setteth farther off, and to the North East, as is the on, was (besides this desire to bring shame up- a skirt of Arabia the Desart: and all those 16.1.2 on Ifract) because those Gileadites using to other Provinces before named with Petragania carry a Target on their left arms, which and Iturea, he nameth but as part of Cessify this could not but fludow their left eyes, should ria; as far South as Rabba, or Philadelphia; the bab by losing their right, be utterly disabled to likewise all the rest which belonged to Gada, of what the could be sound to the same of th defend themselves: but Saul came to their and Reuben, saving the Land near the Dead their rescue, and delivered them from that dan. Sea, he makes a part of Arabia Petrea: for similar ger. This Nahas, as it may feem, became the many of these small Kingdoms take not and the many of these small Kingdoms take not and the many of these small Kingdoms take not and the many of these small Kingdoms take not and the many of these small kingdoms take not and the many of these small kingdoms take not and the many of these small kingdoms take not and the many of these small kingdoms take not and the many of these small kingdoms take not and the many of these small kingdoms take not and the many of these small kingdoms take not and the many of these small kingdoms take not and the many of these small kingdoms take not and the many of these small kingdoms take not and the many of these small kingdoms take not and the many of these small kingdoms take not and the many of these small kingdoms take not and the many of these small kingdoms take not and the many of the many of the small kingdoms take not and the many of the small kingdoms take not and the many of the small kingdoms take not and the many of the small kingdoms take not and the many of the small kingdoms take not and the many of the small kingdoms take not an analysis of the small kingdoms take not an Nahas was flain in the battel, when Saul rai- stretcheth it self from the River of Jaboc to relief fed the fiege of Jaber, when same rate there were the first and Geffirer: and from the galacter there were there king of the large of t there were three Kings of the Moabites of Mountains to Jordan, a Region exceeding the ribid fertile; by reason whereof it abounded in annual Hanun succeeded Nahas: to whom when all sorts of Cattel. It had also the goodliest and life in the same for the goodliest and life in the goodliest woods of all that part of the world: espe-diation cially of oaks, which bare mast (of which the sainty of 1 Chr. 5, 10. whence it appears, that it was part of Itures, of which c.7. [c.R.4.] 5. & 6. (a) So they call them of Medicath, of wi jich Medicath, of wi jich Medicath, of with the form what hath been fooken toward the end of the fifth Paragraph this Chanter (see the control of the fifth Paragraph). this Chapter, see the 1 Mue. 5. 86. and Deut. 3. 14. and 39, 13.5

Prophet Zacharias; Howle, O ye oaks of Ba-1

Andrewite times (c) Butis, otherwise Berenice, by Seleu- chief City of Selon, in the Tribe of Reuben, name, it led Pella, after the name of that Pella in Ma- Manaffes, and a City in Gad which he calleth ngod. See cedon: in which both Philip the Father, and Cashon, of which we have admonished the port in Reader heretofore. Of Gamala (fo called, the hounds his Son, Alexander the great, were born. It Reader heretofore. Of Gamala (fo called, keeds in was taken, and in part demolifhed by Alexbecause the Hill on which it stood, was in fashion like the back of a Cammel) which mader Janneus, King of the Jews, because it sashion like the back of a Cammel) which in Mass taken by (d) Judas Macchabaus: where he fet book of the Jewish war: where he describes M 12. on fire the (e) Temple of their Idols: toge- the place by nature to be almost invincible: 11 Ma. 5. the strong City of (f) Ephron neer Jordan: ther very memorable accidents: and how which refusing to yeeld passage to (g) Judas at length, after the coming of Titus when it delivered by Saul, as is (i) elsewhere menti- hid themselves. oned. In memory whereof these Citizens (k) recovered, embalmed and buried the as much East from Tiberias (which is on the Ittm10 thopolis. (1) Gaddara, or Gadara, is next to names to the Hils that compass the Plains in Emath, or Amathus the third, Hierico and Se- borderers. phora in Galilee, the fourth and fifth. The Ci-Mys. terrible (n) revenge of Herod, they flew had the name of Adar, or Adara. Not far ning themselves.

To the East of Gadara they place Sebei han) and by reason hereof they bred so ma- (o) in which, Jos. ant. 5.13. saith. Jephil.a was of Mil. ny fwine, as (b) 2000. in one herd were car- buried: whence others reading with the pain Gileried headlong into the Sea, by the unclean Vulgar, Jud. 12. 7. Sepultus eft in Civitate Ma had, the cifoirits which Chrift had cast out of one of the Gilehad, (for in una Civitatum Gilehad) ima-u; see in Gadarens. It had in it 60. Cities walled and gine Gilehad to be the name of a City, and the Tibe defenced: all which, after og and his sons to be the same with Sebei. In like manner of Gad. were flain, Jair, descended of Manasse, con-following the Vulgar, 1 Macc. 5. 26. where ouered, and called the Country after his it readeth Casphor for Chesbon; the same Aown name, Avoth Jair, or the Cities of Jair. drichomius imagineth it to be ampla & firma The principal Cities of this half Tribe(for Gilehaditarum Civitas: fo of one City Hes-I will omit the rest) are these, Pella, some- bon, or Chesbon, which they call Essebon, the cus King of Syria, it is said to have been cal- he imagineth two more: This Casphor in refused to obey the Jews laws: but it was re- Josephus placeth not far from Gaddra, in the paired by Pompey, and annexed to the Go- lower Gaulanitis over against Tarichea, vernment of Syria. It is now but a Village, which is on the West side of the Saa or Lake faith Niger. Carnaim, by the River of Jaboc, of Tiberias, fee this Josephus in the fourth contest ther with all those that fled thereunto for and in the story of the siege, shewes how Sanctuary; and neer it they place the Castle Vespasian with much danger of his own perof Carnion, of which 2 Macc. 12. 22. Then fon, entring it, was at first repulsed, with o-Macchabaus, was forced by him by affault, was taken, many leaping down the rocks and taken and burnt with great flaughter. | with their wives and children, to the num-Jabes Gilead, or Jabesus, was another of the ber of five thousand, thus perished: besides Cities of this half Tribe, which being befieg- four thousand slain by the Romans : so that ed by Nahas (h) King of the Ammonites, was none escaped, save only two women that

About four miles West from Gadara, and bodies of saul and his fons: which hung de- other fide of the Lake) Josephus placeth Hipspightfully over the walls of Bethsan, or Scy- pus, or Hippene, whence Ptolomy gives the be named, seated by Pliny on a Hill neer the which it standeth: so that it may seem to River Hieromiace, which River Ortelius have been of no small note. It is seated far feems to think to be Jaboc. At the foot of from the hill Country: on the East of the the Hill there foring forth also hot baths, as Lake, as also Pliny noteth, lib. 5. cap. 15. It at Macharus. Alexander Jannaus after ten was restored by Pompey: after by Augustus monethssiege, wan it, and subverted it. Pon- added to Herod's Tetrarchy: it was wasted Muspey restored it: and Gabinius (m) made it by the Jews, in the beginning of their re- 10.16.1. one of the five Courts of Justice in Palestine. bellion: when by many massacres of their Jud. L. 2. Hiernfalem being the first, Gadara the second, Nation, they were inraged against their 19.

The next City of note, but of more anci- Of anotizens impatiently bearing the tyranny of ent same, is Edrebi, or Edrai, wherein og ther Edre Herod, surnamed Ascalonita, accused him to King of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses and the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses and the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses and the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses and the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses and the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses and the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses and the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses and the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses and the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses and the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses and the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses and the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses are the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses are the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses are the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses are the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses are the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses are the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses are the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses are the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses are the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses are the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses are the state of Easan chiefly abode, when Moses are the state of Easan chiefly about the state of Easan chiefly abode, when the state of Easan chiefly about t Julius Casar of many crimes: but perceiving Israel invaded him: and neer unto this his 37 Denus, that they could not prevail, and that Herod Regal City, it was that he lost the battel and her 10/10 was highly to the battel and her 10/10 was highly to the battel and her 10/10 was highly the same and her 10/ was highly favoured of Cefar, fearing the his life. It stood in S. Hierom's time: and 13.31. themselves: some by strangling, others by from these Towns neer Jordan, in this Valleaping over high Towers, others by drow- ley, stood Gerassa, or Gergessa, inhabited by Mass 28, that Chrift coming from the other fide maim, whence I Mac. 5, 26, it is called fin-Saviour a fign from Heaven: the same place, sheth one from the other. or fome adjoyning to it, which S. Mark cal- Not far from Afteroth, Adricomins out of means Broch time of Decapolis. Brochard makes both these pla-Of this ces to be one; and finds it to be Phiale, the of Judith, and there are that of this City to par in Nesh. 1 Tourisain or Jorgan, according to Josephin and the Sepulchre of Job is yet to be feen, Just this Phiale is too far from the Sea of Galiin 3. Mair. lee, and frem Bethfaida, to be either Magdala faith Breidenbach.

two fifties. Julias, not that which was built by Herod, but not hereabout, than any way help Adricothe other by Philip, which boundeth the Re- mins. For that they fpeak of Scenite Cedare-Woe be unto thee Corazim.

5000. people with the five barley loaves and Mark 6. or Dalmanutha. For as it appears by the cient time was Afteroth: fometime peopled get fome knowledge of him, than by any delay with the Giants Raphaim: and therefore prefumptions founded upon him, infer what the Company of the Countrey adjoyning called the Land of his Countrey was, and build unto hima City of the Georgefiles, descended of the fifth son of Giants, of whose race was og King of Eafan, co. 11, Canaun. Of these Gergesties we read, Mat. 8. In Geness this City is called Asserbs of Carof the Lake of Tiberias , landed in their ply Carnaim, as Jof. 13. 21. it is called After of the Lake of Timeria, same and the roth, without the addition of Carnaim. The coasts: where casting the Devils out of the roth, without the addition of Carnaim. The coans: where carong the Devissance word word Carnaim figurifieth a pair of Horns, Sente per fif. fled, he permitted them to enter into word Carnaim figurifieth a pair of Horns, July the herd of Hoggs: in which flory, for Ger- v hich agree well with the name of their Idol gestes, or Gergesms, S. Luke and S. Marke Afteroth, which was the image of a sheep, as have Gaderens: not as if these were all one it is elsewhere noted, that Asteroth in Deute-(for Gergessa, or Gerassa is a diffinet Town in ronomy fignifieth sheep. Others, from the these parts from Gadara) but the bounds ambiguity of the Hebrew take Karnaim to being confounded, and the Cities neigh- have been the name of the people which inbours either might well be named in this sto- habited this City: and expound it heroes bours, either might well be named in this ito-ry. This City received many changes and ca-lamities: of which Josephus hath often men-like men as appears by comparing the words. tion. For befides other adventures, it was like men, as appears by comparing the words paided taken by L. Annius, Lievtenant to Vespasian : Deut. 3.11. Og. ex residuo gigantum, with the limin and 1000. of the ablest young men put to words fof. 13. 12. 0g ex reliquiis Rapheorum: that the fword, and the City burnt. In the yeer but if the Karnaim (or Carnajim) were thele who 1120.it was rebuilt by Baldwine King of Da-Raphei, the word would not have been in the Name mafeus: and in the same year recovered by the dual number: neither would Moses in unclass Taldmine de Eurge King of Jerufalem : and by the places of Genefis have faid the Raphai in W an Endangue de Eurgo King of Jernjaiem: and by the places of Georgia have hid the Karnaim, but either the Ra-Village of Magedan, or, after the Syriack, phai in Afternh of the Raphai, or some other steam winage or magedan, of all the dadda, where way fittest for perspicuity: for this naming out the Pharifees and Saddneses defired of our of both thus in the same clause, distinguing the same clause, distinguing the same clause, distinguing the same clause, distinguing the same clause and saddness defined of our of both thus in the same clause, distinguing the same clause and saddness defined of our of both thus in the same clause, distinguing the same clause and saddness defined of our of both thus in the same clause, distinguing the same clause and saddness defined of our of both thus in the same clause.

leth Dalmanutha. By the circumstances of Brochard and Breidenhachius placeth Cedar belongs which ftory it appears that this coast lay be- in the way out of Syria into Galilee , four occase tween the Lake of Tiberias and the Country miles from Corazin. This City (faith he) is to the b

Now concerning the Texts which he ci- 1 (at ftory, not far hence, towards the North, was teth, it is fo that the Greek hath Galaad in the Defart of Bethfaida, where Christ filled stead of the word Cedar, which the Vulgar doth use in that place of Judith, and joyneth Carmel and Galilee. The Canticles and the On the North of this Bethfaida, they place 120. Pfalm do rather prove that Cedarwas gion Trackonitis towards the South. It was m, it is apparent, and as evident by the place fometime a Village, and not long after the in the Cantieles, that they were de colores, birth of Chrift, it was compassed with a wall much more than any under the Climates of by Philip the Tetrach of Turea and Trachot the Land of Canaan: whence Junius out of nitis: and after the name of Julia, the wife Lampridius and Pliny placeth them in Arabia of Tiberias, called julias, as hath been further spoken in the Tribe of Gad: where it Sepulchre of Job, it is certain that the draw spire spire, 18 was noted that josephus makes this Julias to bians and Saracens (holding those places of the same as Bethsaida. Upon the East side fain many things to abuse the Christians, and cashing the same that the same than the sam of the fame Lake of Tiberias flands Corozat to get mony. Further, it may well be alimim, or Corazim, of which Chrift in Matthews ed, that many (if not all) the historical Grant cumstances of Job are so obscure, that we And But the principal City of all these in an influence of Job are to obscure; seek to 1,124 seek to 1,1 by conjecture.

and Gregorie, with Athanafius , Hippolitus , as Hor where Aaron died. treneus, Eusebius Emissenus, Apollinaris, Eu- Now for this Hus, which gave the name to

CHAP. X.

CHAP.X

is called Hus was thus feated, it may in part be ga- other Nations named between) where Hus diamits thered out of the place of fer. 25.20. where is spoken of, there Euz is also named. Neithen they he reckons the Hufbites among the promif- ther doth it hinder our conjecture, that in unditin cuous borders of the Israelites, whom he the place of Job 32. Elibu the Buzite is said the sound to be of the Family of Ram: (which Junius not, io. turbam, because their bounds were not only expounds to be as much as of the Family of distinguish, but readeth, Filia Edom que Nachor, is called a Syrian. habitas in terra Hus; Daughter of Edom which As for the other three of Jobs friends (of See Sixus of Hus to be in Idumea. For it is very pro- been of Jobs own Country.

Of Job himself, whether he was the same like that the Amorites, who had beaten Tobab remembred in the 36. of Genefis, both Ammon and Moab, did also drive the descended from Esan King also of Idu- Edomites out of those parts, who thence-formaa, though Rupertus, Lyranus, Oleaster, ward scated themselves to the South of Iuand Bellarmine are of another opinion. data, bordering the Defart Paran, and stretchvet Saint Ambrose, Augustine, Chrysostome, ed their habitations over the Desarts as far

flachins, and other cited by S. Hierome in his a part of the Land of Trachonitis, whether 126. Epist to Evagrius, take him for the same, it were Hus the son of Aram, as Junius thinks The Land of Huts or Hus, wherein Job in his note upon Gen. 10. 23. or rather Hus dwelt is from the Greek Ous, which the Sep- the fon of Nachor, Abrahams brother, the tuagint use for the word Huts, translated by question is doubtful. For my part I rather enthe Vulgar sometimes Hus, as Job 1.1. some-cline to think, that it was Hus the son of Natime Austris, as Hierem 25.20. This Land is chor: partly because these Families of Aram placed by Junius between Palæstine and Car- seem long before to have been lost; and partlogria, belides Chamatha (or Hamatha) under ly because in Job 32.2. Eliku the fourth of whence Palmyrene, in the Countrey called by Ptolomy Jobs friends, which feems to be of Jobs own the Sep-Trachonitis, or Bathana, the bounds of which Country, is called a Euzite, of Euz the bro-him ex re-Countries are confounded with Bafan in this ther of Hus, the fon of Nachor: as also fer. gine Austadothers half Tribe of Manaffes. And that this Land of 25, in the same continuation (though some side. joyned but confounded, and their Seignio- Aram) for that by his Aram we are not to ries mingled one with the other . but of this understand Aram the son of Sem, Junius him. place the words of Hieremy, Lam.4. 21. spea- felf maketh it plain, both in his annotation king of the same Prophecy, of which he upon the beginning of his book, where he speaketh in the 25. Chapter, must needs be saith, that one of Jobs friends (which must expounded, as Junius reads them, distin-needs be this Elihu) was of the posterity of guilling the Land of Hus from Edom: O filia Nachor (as also in this place he confelleth so Edomi, O que habitas in terra Hutzi; O daugh- much exprelly) and in as much as he readeth ter of Edom,0 thou which dwellest in the Land not è Familia Aram, or Ram, but è Fimilia Syof Hus. Now because the Vulgar doth not so riæ; like as elsewhere Laban, who sprung of dwellest in the land of Hus: Hence, as it whom by this note of Elibu his being of the Senensia. feems, some of the learned have thought that Syrian Family, or of the Family of Nachor) it Job was an Edomite, as we have faid, and is implyed that they were of other kindreds, King of Edom, which if they understand by as also by the Septuagints addition, that this it Idumaa, or Edom, fo called in Moles time, Elibu was of the Land of Hus, or Austris, it is they are greatly mastaken, making this Land implyed that they thought only Elibu to have bable that Efan, when he first parted from Ja- Franciscus Brochard the Monk, in his decob, did not seat himself in Edom, or Seir, scription of the Holy Land in the journy from which lieth on the South border of Judea, Acon Eastward, findeth suetha, and Theman but inhabited Seir far to the East of Jordan, on the East of the Sea of Galilee: both very and held part of those Mountains, other-near to the Land of Hus: whereof the one wife called Galaad, and Hermon, which by may feem to have denominated Bildad the corruption the Sidonians call Shirion, and Shuchite; the other Eliphaz the Themanite: the Amorites, Shenir, for Seir; and from this two of the three friends of Job, of the his habitation did Esau incounter Jacob, when which Job 2. 11. But Junius thinks that the he returned out of Mesopotamia, who passed Shuchites were inhabitants of Arabia the Deby the very border of Fsan his abiding. It fart, descended of shnach the son of Abraham is true, that at such time as Moses wandered and Ketura: of whom Gen. 25. 2. perhaps, in the Defarts, that the posterity of Esan in saith he, the same whom Pling calls Saccai. habited Seir to the South of Judea: for it is So also he thinketh the Themanites, of whom

CHAP. XI.

Eliphaz was, to have been of Arabia the De- both Gaulanitis Superior and inferior, oft in fart: and Eliphaz himself to have been of the posterity of Theman the son of Eliphaz, which was the fon of Efan. And fo also Nahamah. whence Tophar the third of Job's friends (which in this place of Job. 2 11. are mentioned) is by the same learned Expositor, thought either to be named of Thinnah by transposition of letters (which Thimnah, Gen. 36.40. is named among the fons of Efau, that gave denomination to the places where they were feated) or elfe to be the fame Nahamah. which Jos. 15. 41. is reckoned for a City of Juda in the border, as he thinks, of Edom. And yet I deny not but that near the Land of Hus, in Basan, as it seems, in the Tribe of Manaffes, there is a Region which (at least) in later times was called suitis, or of some like name. For this is evident by the Histo-Debel far. ry of Will. Tyrius, which reports of a Fort in

214

lib. 22. 6. this Region of Suita, or Suites (as he cals it 15. 5 11. diverfly) of exceeding great strength and use for the retaining of the whole Country: which, in the time of Baldwine the second King of Hierusalem, was with great digging through rocks recovered by the Christians; having not long before been loft, to the great disadvantage of the Country, while it was in the hands of the Saracens. The fituation of this Fort is by Tyrius described to be from the West; of which three Chieswe fixteen miles from the City Tiberias, on the read, Ezek, 47. 15. with which also agrees East of Jordan: by Adrichomius four miles the place, Num. 34. 8. where for Chauram be-

Other Cities of this part of Manasses nathera, Mitspa of Gilead, and Kenath, which bacath, or Macati, which were likewise borafter the coming of the Ifraelites was called derers to Manafjes towards the North-Eaft) Nobach. Of Nobach or Kenath, and Mitspa of are unknown: only that Gessur was of might, Joseph ven to the Levites, and Golan made one of the whom he had the most beautiful, but wicked enters the Lake Tiberias at Corazin.

Foscphus. Beheshthera is accounted the chief City of Basan by some, but the Writers corrupting the name into Bozra, it is confound. ed with Betfer, or Bozra of Renben, and with Bozra of Edom. Argob is oft named for a Region in this Tract, and hence Hierome hatle Arga, a name of a City placed by some about the waters of Alerom (as they are called by Josua) which make the Lake Samachonitis, as Jojephus cals it. This Lake, being as it were in the midft between Cafarea Philippi and Tiberias, through which, as through the Lake of Tiberias, fordan runneth, boundeth part of this half Tribe on the West. When the fnow of Libanus melteth, it is very large, faith Brochard: otherwise more contract, leaving the marish ground on both sides, for Lions and other wilde beafts, which harbour in the shrubs that plentifully grow there.

Adjoyning to this Lake in this Country of Manaffes, Josephus names two places of strength, fortified by himself in the beginning of the Jews rebellion: Selencia the one. and seeane the other. In the North fide of this half Tribe of Manasse, and in the North-East, the Scripture nameth divers bordering places towards Damafeus, as Tfedad, Chauram and Chatfar-Henan lying in a line drawn North-ward from the place where Jordan tween Ifedad, and Chatfar-Henan, Ziphronis named. From this Chauram is the name of Auranitis Regio in Josephus and Tyrius, whose med in the Scripture, are these: Golan, Gehesh- | bounds (as also the bounds of Gessiar and Ma-Gilead, we have spoken by occasion among it appears in that David married Mahaca the 1 Com the Cities of Gad. The other two were gi- daughter of Thalmay King of Gessur: by " Demo. 4 43. Cities of refuge: from which Golan we have and unfortunate Abfalom.

CHAP. XI. The History of the Syrians, the chief Borderers of the Israelites that dwelt on the East of Jordan.

of the City of Damascus, and the divers Fortunes thereof.

House of pleasure; and is not only remem- that it was founded by Damaseus the son

Amaseus of all other in this bor | bred in many places of Scripture, but by der, and of that part of the the best Historians and Cosmographers. The world, was the most famous, Hebrews, faith Josephus, think it to have been excelling in beauty, antiquity, built by Hus the fon of Aram: of which of the pinion S. Hierome upon Efay feemeth to be: called the City of joy or gladness, and the though in his Hebrew questions he affirmeth, athing ve- Romanes, in the year of our redemption 626, dezer King of Sophena (otherwise Syria Soba, the enterprize. or Zoba) Razon or Rezon, with the remain- In the year 1262, Halon the Tartar incomder of that broken Army, invaded Damasee- past it, and having formerly taken the King, Riccal nd, and possest Damascus it self, and became brought him under the Wals, and threatned an enemy to Solomon all his life.

Edomite, who flying into Egypt from David the King was torn afunder before them, and and Joab, when they flew all the males in in fine the City taken, Agab the fon of Halone Edom, was there entertained, and married was by his father made King thereof. Taphnes the King of Egypts Wives fifter: of In the year 1400. Tamberlain Emperour Herold 1.6 Chrysorrhous, the golden River. Junius takes gypt, they again surprized Damascus. Lastly, mails, It a very strong Cattle, built as it leems by lamberiam commanding them to enter the mandit to the numbers, after it became Christian: Church, he burnt them and it to the numbers. 36.10. the Lillies being found cut in many Marbles ber of 30000. and did so demolishit, as on that Citadel. Against this City the Pro-1 Weg 16 Damascens, Teglatphalasser, invited by Achaz After this, it was restored and re-possess by upon that place, five years after the Prophetions. cy. In time it was restored by the Macedonians, and the Ptolomies; but long after, when Syria fell into the hands of the Romanes, it was taken by Metellus, and Lollius. In the Of the first Kings of Damascus, and of the time of the Christians it had an Archbishop : Saint Hierome living, as he affirmeth upon the far 17-10 Landikely, feeing the City was formerly and in the year 1147. Comrad the third, Em- Onuplering known by that name, as appears by Abra- perour of Rome, Lewis King of France, Balds in chron. known by that hairs, as appeared of Da-wine the third King of Hierusalem, Henry will. Try. maleo. David was the first that subjected it Duke of Austria, brother to Conrad, Frede-bell Jur. to the Kingdom of Juda, after the overthrow rick Earbaroffa afterward Emperour, Theode-116.17, c.t. of Adadezer their King; but in Solomon's rick Earl of Flaunders, and other Princes af- 23.4.5. time, Rezon recovered it again, though he sembled at Ptolomais Acon, on the sea-coast. had no title at all or right to that Principa- determined to recover Damaseus: but belity: but David having overthrown Hada- ing betrayed by the Syrians, they failed of extreme torture unto him, except the Citi-The next King of Damascus was Adad the zens sendred the place: but they refusing it, whom Taphnes in Egypt was so called. This of the Parthians, invaded that Region, and " 4" Adad returning again, became an enemy to befieged the City with an Army of 1200000. solomon all his life, and (as some Wri- (if the number be not mistaken.) He entred ters affirm) invaded Damaseus, and thrust it, and put all to the sword, filling the ditch Rezon thence-out. In the Line of Adad that with his prisoners; those that retired into Kingdom continued nine descents (as here-the Castle, which seemed a place impregnaafter may be shewed in the Catalogue of ble, he overtopped with another Castle adthose Kings of Syria) to whom the Affyrians, joyning: he forbare the demolishing of the and then the Grecians succeeded. This City City in respect of the beauty of the Church. was exceeding strong, compassed with wa- garnished with forty Gates, or sumptuous ters from the Rivers of Abanah, and Pharpar: Porches. It had within it 9000. Lanterns of whereof one of them, prophane Writers call Gold and Silver: but while he invaded Eit for Adonis. The Country adjoyning is ve- in his return after three moneths fiege, he ry fruitful of excellent Wines and Wheats, forc't it: the Mahometans prostrating themand all manner of excellent fruits. It had in felves with their Priests, desired mercy. But it a very strong Castle, built as it seems by Tamberlain commanding them to enter the phetis Amos, Efay, Jeremy, and Zacharias, pro-phetical that it should be taken, burnt, de-as a Trophee of his victory, he raised three molished, and made a heap of stones. In the Towers with great art, builded with the time of the last Rezon, and tenth King of the heads of those whom he had slaughtered. King of Juda, carried away the naturals of the Soldane of Egypt with a Garrison of Mam-Damaseus into the East: leaving of his own malukes: And in the year 1517. Selimus Em-Nation to inhabit it. After that it was utter- perour of the Turks wrested it out of the ly ruined by the Babylonians, faith Hierome hands of the Egyptians: in whose possession upon Esay: which thing was performed by it now remaineth inhabited with Mahome-Salmanasser, according to Junius in his note tans and Christians of all neighbouring Na-growing up of their power.

Alls, it was the Metropolis of the Saracens: being taken by Haomer their King from the

CHAP. XI.

find no relation of their Kings, or Common-those Adads of Syria Zoba, and Damascus. wealth till Davids time. For it stood with- Some account Rezon, others Adad of Iduzon, or Rezon of Danafetts, Adadezer of 83- For Adad-ezer, Een-adad, El-adad werethe 1508.14 ria, Zoba, and Tohu of Chamath. But it feem-3082, eth, that Damafeus was one of the Cities fub- Ben, and Eli adjoyned. And that Adadezer

314

affirmeth, the leader of those succours, which | 22000. Aramites out of the Territory of were levied and fent to Hadad-Hezer from Damaseus: as out of his proper Dominions: Damascus, had the name of Adad: who was for had the Damascens had a King apart, it is in that battel flain with 22000. Aramites of probable that the Scriptures would have Damascus: whereof, as of the overthrow of given us his name: Thirdly, because spria Adadezer, Rezon the Commander of his Ar- Zoba, of the most of which Adadezer was E King is Tobu King of Chamath, or Ituraa, hearing greatest part of Arabia Petraa, according that his neighbour and enemy Adadezer was to Niger. Who foever was the first, whether ly Land, and to the West of Damaseus, the to be referred to Hadad of Idumaa, lately Tyrians and Zidonians inhabited: but they returned out of Fgypt: to wit, 23. years for the most part were in league and peace after he was carried thither. with the Judeans and Ifraelites. But to re- The third King of Damaseus, and of Zobah turn to the Kings of Syria, I mean of Syria both, was Hezion; to Hezion succeded The Iturea; to which I may add Geshur, because King of Juda the son of Abiam, the son of Roit is so accounted in the second of sam, 15. boam, the fon of solomon, being vexed and inas joyning in the Territory to Damascus (for vaded by Baasha, the succession of Nadab, the the fon of Eliezer Abraham's steward, we nor of our later Writers, who was the first of

out the bounds of Canaan: and therefore mea: of whom it is written in the first of neglected by Moses, Josua, and the Judges, Kings, that David having invaded that Reas impertinent to that Story. But were it to gion, and left Joab there to destroy all the that it had some Reguli, or petty Kings over male children thereof: Adad of the Kings it, as all the Cities of those parts had, yet seed fled into Fgppt; and was there married none of them became famous for ought that to Taphnes the Queens fifter, as before; who is left to writing, till fuch time as David o- hearing of David's death, and of the death verthrew Adadezer Prince of Sophena, or of his Captain Joah (whom indeed all the Syria Zoba: the same Nation which Pliny bordering Nations seared) he turned again: calleth Nubai, inhabiting between Batania and, as Bunting thinketh, this Adad didexand Embrates. Now the better to under- pel Rezon out of Damaseus, and was the first fland the story of those Syrian Princes, of the Syrian Kings. To me it seemeth other 1 Sans whom soon after the Kings of Damaseus made wife. For, as I take it, Adadezer, the son of on. their vaffals, the Reader may inform himfelf, Rehob, whom Saul invaded, was the Foun-That on the North-East parts of the Holy der of that Principallity: and the first of Land, there were three chief Principallities, Adads, who forfaking his fathers name, as he whereof the Kings or Commanders greatly grew powerful, took upon him the file of vexed or diffurbed the State or Common- Adad, the great god of the Affrians, faith wealth of Ifrael, namely, Damascus, or Aram, Macrobins, which fignified Oneness of Unity. Sophena, or Syria Zoba, and Chamath, or I also find a City called Adada, in the same Chamath Zoba; of which these were the part of Syria: of which whether these Prin-Princes in David's and Solomon's times: Ra- cestook the name, or gave it, I am ignorant. ject to Adadezer when David invaded him, was of greatest power, it appeareth first, bethough when saul made war against Zoba, cause it is against him, that David undertook Damascus was not named. And as Josephus the war: Secondly, because he levied my, taking advantage, made himself King King, was an exceeding large Territory, platter of Damascus, Adadezer, and Adad of Damas- and contained of Arabia the Defart as far as is. cus being both flain. About the fame time to Euphrates, according to Pliny: and the utterly overthrown, fendeth for peace to Adadezer, or Adad of Iduman, Rezon was David, and presenteth him with rich gifts: the second: Who was an enemy to Israel all I King ! but in dolo, faith S. Hierome; it was craftily the dayes of Solomon. Besides the evilthat done of him. Now to the North of the Ho- Adad did, the evil that Hadad did, feemeth as it is taken in the Scriptures, containing bremmum, or Tabrimmum ; to him Benhadid, 1500 Damascena, Soba or Zoba, and Chamath, or as is proved in the first of Kings: For Ala 15.1 syria at large is far greater, of which Palafon of Jeroboam, fent to Benhadab the foil of flina it self is but a Province, as I have noted in the beginning of this Tract:) It is not a greed among the Historians of former times, (while Baasha fought to fortifie Rama against (while Baasha fought to fortifie Rama against

Asa: thereby to block him up, that he tier Town, and of great importance. Now

18615. Benhadad which invaded Baasha, at the re- in Damasens. The Syrians also boasted much taken prisoner, was rather the son of Benha- their wars with the Israelites. 1 to at Samaria, by a fally of 700. If raelites: the which was found in the treasures of the Lord, i Reg. 156 should not enter into any of the territories three years after (for so long the league lastof Israel) who according to the defire of Asa, ed) Ramoth not being delivered, Achab inhaving received his presents, willingly in- vaded Gilead, and besieged the City, being vaded the Country of Nephtalim, and took affifted by Josaphat. The Aramites came to Kinge, divers Cities, and sooyls thence: Asa in the succour and fight: in which Achab is wound- 3227. mean while carrying away all the Materials, ed, and dieth that night. After this, Ben-3232. which Baasha had brought to fortifie Rama hadad sendeth the Commander of his forces, withal, and converted them to his own use. called Naaman, to Joran the son of Achab This Benhadads Father Tabrenmon was in to be healed of the leprofie, and though Elileague with Asa: and so was his Father He- zeus had healed him, yet he picked a quarzion: for Asa requireth the continuance of rell against Joram: and when Joram, by Eli- 2 Kin 5. that friendship from Benhadad, his son: zens his intelligence had escaped his plot, Kin.6. though it seemeth that the gold and silver he sent men and Chariots to take the Profent him out of the Temple, was the most phet, as is aforesaid. After Benhadad besieged forcible argument. And that this Tabremmon Samaria again, and being terrified thence invaded Ifrael, before the enterprize of his from Heaven, he departed home, and fickfon Benhadad, it is conjectured. For Benhadad neth, and fendeth Azael with great gifts to 2 Km. 7. when he was prisoner with Achab, spake as Elizeus, to know his estate if he might live. 3234. followeth: The Cities which my father took Azael returning, smothereth him. Zonaras and Amoi. from thy father, I will reftore, and thou shalt Cedrenus call this Benhadad Adar, and the son get 18.6.8 make streets or Keepers of the borders for thee in of Adar : Amos and Hieremy mention the Damascus: as my Father did in Samaria. And Towers of Benhadad. Josephus writeth that herein there ariseth a great doubt (if the Benhadad and his successiour Azael were worargument it felf were of much importance) shipped for Gods by the Syrians to his time, because Tabremmon was father indeed to for the sumptuous Temples which they built quest of Asa: But this Benhadad that twice en- of their antiquity, ignorant, saith he, that tred upon Achab, and was the second time scarce yet 1100. years are compleat since dad, the first of that name, the confederate of | Hazael or Azael, the first King of the race Asa and Abiam, as before, than the son of Ta- of the Adads of Damascus, was annointed by bremmon. For between the invalion of Benha- | Elisha, or Elizeus, when he was sent by Benhadad the first, in Baasha's time, and the siege dad to the Prophet, to know whether Benhaof Samaria, and the overthrow of Benhadad | dad fhould recover his prefent fickness: He by Achab, there past 49 years, as may be ga- waged war with Joram, who received divers thered out of the reigns of the Kings of If wounds at the encounter at Ramoth in Girael. So that if we allow 30. years of age to lead: from whence returning to be cured at Benhadad, when he invaded Baasha, and after Jesreel, he and the King of Juda, Ahaziah or that 49. years ere he was taken by Achab, Ochozias, are flain by Jehu, as before is faid. which make eighty lacking one it is unlikely After the death of Joram, Azael continued that Benhadad at such an age should make war against Jehn, and wasted Gilead, and all war. Besides all this, the first Benhadad came those portions of Gad, Reuben, and Manasse, 188, 12. with no such pomp; but the second Benha- over Jordan. He then invaded Juda, and dad vaunteth, that he was followed with took Gath; but by gifts from Joss he was a-32. Kings: and therefore I refolve, that Benha- verted from attempting Hierusalem: for he dad the fon of Tebremmon invaded Baasha presented him all the hallowed things which and Omri; and Benhadad the second invaded Jehosaphat, Jehosam, and Ahaziah his fathers, 1 Reg. 12 Achab, at whose hands this Benhadad re- Kings of Juda, had dedicated, and which ceived two notorious overthrows: the first he himself had dedicated; and all the gold fecond at Aphee, where, with the like num- and in the Kings house. This was the fecond ber in effect, the Israelites slaughtered time that the Temple was spoiled to please 200000. of the Aramites; besides 27000. the Adads of Damaseus. For Asa did present which were crush't by the fall of the wall of Benhadad with those treasures, when he in-Aphec. And this Benhadad, Achab again set- vited him to war upon Baasha King of Israels teth at liberty: to whom he rendreth those And notwithstanding this composition be-Towns that his father had taken from the tween Joss and Azael, yet a part of his Army Predecession of Achab, but being returned, spoiled the other Provinces of Judaa, and iReg. 13) he refuled to render Ramoth Gilead, a fron Illaughtered many principal persons. Lastly, 7.

Azael

brought him to that extremity, as he left him bnt fifty Horse-men, ten Chariots, and ten thousand Foot-men of all his people.

6. III.

Of the later Kings, and decay and overthrow of their power.

Hazael, reigned in Damascus: who fought And that there was a second Hazael which against Israel with ill success: for Joas King of Ifrael, the fon of the unhappy Joachaz, as he was foretold by Elisha the Prophet, beat and compounded the war with Joas, made Benhadad in three several battels: and he the Expedition thirty years, and perchance loft all those Cities to Ifrael, which his father more, after the first Hazael which stiffed his Hazael had taken violently from Joachaz.

of whom the Stories are loft, onely Nicholaus Damascenus cited by Josephus, makes ple was not yet repaired, after which (and mention of them: and in one of these Kings how long we know not) it is said that Hazael times it was that Jeroboam the second, the son took Geth, and turned his face towards Jeof Joas, recovered Damascus it self to Ju- rusalem. It is also some proof that Hazael that da, faith the Geneva, but better in Junius, took Geth, was not the same with Hazael that Otque recuperabat Damascum, & Chamatham murdered Benhadad, because he could not Tehuda pro Ifracie; that is, And how he recovered for Ifrael, Damascus and Chamatha of Judæa; for these Cities sometimes conquered by David, did of right belong to the Tribe To this Hazael (be he the first or second) suc-

And it is likely, that this conquest upon the Adads was performed: the first of these three Adads then living of whom there is no Story. For when as Tehoas the King of the ten Tribes had thrice overcome the Syrians in the time of Benhadad the son of Hazael, his defence Teglatphalasser. and had recovered the Cities which Hazael had won from Ifrael; and so left his King- Rezin the last, Nicolaus Damascenus finds dom to his fon Foroboam the second; it seemeth that this Jeroboam without delay, and having nothing else left for him to enter-prize, instantly followed his fathers good fortune, and invaded Damaseus.

Zonaras, Raason the tenth Adad , making league with Pekah, or Phacas King of Ifrael, aa great number of prisoners. After this they Joint 9 vain. Then Adad alone invadeth Elath, and beating out the Jews, maketh it a Colony of Syrians. Wherefore Achab brought Teglatphalassar against Razin, who took him and beheaded him, and won Damascus: with whom ended the line of the Adads, and the Kingdom of Damascus: the Assyrians beco-

Azael vexed Joahaz the fon of Jehu, and Adads, as they reigned in order are thus rec-

- 1 Adadezer the fon of Rehob.
- 2 Rezin the fon of Eliadad, or Razin.
- 2 Hezion.
- 4 Tabremmon.
- 5 Benhadad, who invaded Baasha.
- 6 Benhadad the second taken prisoner by 7 Hagael, whom Elisha foretold with tears A Fter Hazael, Benhadad the second, or of his advancement; the same who over-rather the third of that name, the son of threw Joram King of Ifrael at Ramoth Gilead. preceded Benhadad the third, it is not improbable, because that Hazael which took Geth. mafter Benhadad, and had flain Joram the fon After this Benhadad the fon of Hazael, there of Achab King of Ifrael. For Joss began to fucceeded three others by the same name, reign in the 7. year of Jehn King of Israel; and after he had reigned 22. years, the Temat that time be of good years, being asit feemeth, the fecond person in the Kingdom, and Commander of Benhadads men of war.

> 8 Benhadad, the third, whom Joash King of Ifrael thrice overthrew.

> 9 Resin, or Rezin, the last, who joyned with Pekah King of Ifrael, against Juda, at which time Achaz King of Juda waged for

> Now between Benhadad the third, and three other Kings of the Adads, which make twelve in all.

For the rest of the Princes of Syria, which were but Reguli, as those of Emath, and Elastic Geffur, we find that Tohu was King of Emath, Razin, or Rezin, after Josephus, Rases; after or Camath, in Davids time, to whom he sent his son Joram with presents, after Dawids victory against Adadezer. Also senachegainst Achaz King of Juda; both carry away rib speaketh of a King of Emath, but names him not.

§. IV.

Of Other leffer Kingdoms of the Syrians, which being brought under the Assyrians, never recovered themselves again.

F Gessur we find two Kings named; to wit, Talmai, and his Father Ammibur: ming masters both of that and Israel. These to Talmai, whose Daughter David married, it was that Absalom fled, who was his mater- carried it (as is before remembred) and of Ifrael, and against Rezin the last King of dissolved, Achaz yet living. Damascus: which Teglath first invaded Da- Lastly, the Kingdom of Juda it self, being massena, and the Region of soba, and took attempted by senacherib, the son of salma-Damaseus it self, and did put to death Rezin nasser, in vain, and preserved for the time the last, carrying the Inhabitants captive. by God miraculously, was at length utterly tred the borders thereof (Menahem govern- rael and Samaria: the destruction of Ifand strong Prince, was content to take the 200. years. composition of a thousand talents of the Then Alexander Macedon took this among King of Ifrael for that present time. But his other Provinces of the Persian Empire, and fon Teglath following the purpose of his fa- his successors the selucide reigned therein. ther Belochus, and finding so excellent an till it became subject unto the power of the occasion, as the war begun between Israel Romans, from whom it was wrested long afand Judah, Pekah commanding in the one, ter by the Saracens, and remaineth now in and Achazin the other, his neighbour Rezin possession of the Turk, as shall be shewed in being also wrapt in that war, and wasted due place. Thus much of the Nations bordein strength thereby, did willingly accept the ring upon the Ifraelites, with whom they had offer of Achaz King of Juda, his imprest and most to do, both in war and peace, being the entertainment. So, first attempting Damas onely people, whose History in those ancient nal Grandfather. Of the Kings of Sephena, then with great ease possest himself of the or Syria, Soba, or Cwlosyria, there are two Cities of Nephtalim; leading with him a great named, Rehob, or Rechob, the Father of Ada- part of the people captive. And his fon Saldezer, and Adadezer himself; and it is plain manasser, whom Ptolemy called Nabonasser, that after his death the feat of the Kings of after the revolt of Hofea, forced Samaria, Soba was transferred to Damascus, a City and rent that Kingdom afunder. So as the better fitting their greatness. After Rezin line and race of Ninus in Sardanapalus, became Lord of both Principalities. And whom Belochus supplanted the race and Motherace of these Kings of Syria (which be- narchy of the Syrian Adads in Rezin, whom came so potent, and joyned Soba, Damas-Teglath slaughtered; the Kingdom of Israel cus, Emath, and the Defart of Arabia, with in Hofea, whom Salmanaffer overturned; hapother Provinces into one, under Rezin the pened near about a time: that of Ninus in second of the Adads) as it began with Da- the daies of Belochus, and the other two in vid, so it ended at once with the Kingdom the daies of Teglatphalasser, and Salmanasser of Ifrael. For Ahaz King of Juda waged the his fon. For Sardanapalus perished, Olia ru-Assyrian Teglatphalassar against Pekah King ling Juda; and the other two Kingdoms were

This was the second time that the Assiriant overturned. Hierusalem and the Temple attempted Israel. For first Phul Belochus en-burnt 132. years after the captivity of Ising If rae] who ftop the enterprife of Phul Parel being in the ninth year of Hofea: that of with a thousand talents of silver: for this Juda in the eleventh of Zedechia. Now the Phul Belochus, whose pedigree we will ex- Emperours of Affyria and Babylon held also amine hereafter, being scarce warm, as yet, in the Kingdom of Syria, from the eighth year his seat at Babylon, which he, with the help of Salmanasser; to the last of Baltassar, whom of his companion Arbaces, had wrested from Herodotus calleth Labynius: in all about 3603. Sardanapalus: having besides this King of 200 years. After these the Persians from Cyrus 3811. Syria in his way, who seemed to be a great to Darius their last King, held Syria about cus, which lay in his path towards Ifrael, he times carried an afford face of Truth.

CHAP. XII. Of the Tribe of Benjamin, and of Hierusalem.

Of divers memorable places in the Tribe of Benjamin, whereof Hiericho, Gilgal, Mitspa, Bethel; Rama, Gobah, and Gibha.

at Mount Sinia 35000.able bodies: all which side Jordan, between Juda and Ephraim: The

F the Tribe of Benjamin, the twelfth perishing in the Desarts, there entred the and youngest son of Jacob, whom he Holy Land of their issues 45600. fit to bear had by Rachel, there were mustered Arms: and these had their Territory on this Cities within this Tribe nearest Jordan, are which he came yearly to give judgement to the return out of Captivity, as is mentioned, land of the Philislims. Nebem. 11. 35. and Efd. 2. 35. where Adri-Simon Macchabæus.

a new City Passcover.

Tribe had noted, that both it, and Mitspa of Benjamin is Jerem. 41. (of which also we read oft in the Scripture)

Lod, Hadid, and Ono: of which, Lod and Ono the Ifraelites; of which two, Gilgal (as is faid) were built by shemed a Benjamite: they were was near Jordan on the East fide of this Tribe all three re-inhabited with Benjamites, after and Mitspa near the West Sea, towards the

The third place, which is named with chomius reading Lod, Hadid, Ono, makes be- these two, whither also Samuel used yearly fides Hadid in Nehemia, a City called Lod- to come, is b Bethel: which also was feated in b Town Mar. 1.38 hadid: This Hadid or Chadid was rebuilt by this Tribe of Benjamin. But to return to Gil in the gal, which was the first place where the Ark Bridge Samaring or Tsemarain, named of Tsemary resided, after they past over Fordan (from 1946). one of the fons of Canaan, was another of whence it was carried to Silo, and thence to finish their Cities: and further into the Land stand- Kiriath-Jeharim, and at length to Hierufa-intense eth Tericho, one of the Toparchies and the lem) here in Gilgal it was that Josua pitched which 1 Kingris. last of Juda, seated in a most fruitful Valley, up the 12. Stones, which were taken out of market adorned with many Palm-trees: and there- the channel of Jordan, when it was dry, that the other fore elsewhere called the City of Palms. From the Israelites might pass over it: by which (minist) the time of Josua, who utterly destroyed it, Story, as it is set down Jos. 4. it appears, that by the the time of Joha, who divers dectroyed a, sorry, as it is become Jos. 4, nappears, fing the fame day that they palled over Jordan, lingual they lodged at Gilgal. At the same Gilgal, to the some foundation of it, in the loss of Abiram'his eldes fon, and built the gates of it in the loss that Samuel hewed Agag the King of the same of the same of the same as expected as coordinate the same of his youngest fon Segub: according to the amalekites in pieces. And as for Mitspa, whit was the curse of Josua: in which and other respects, there samuel came yearly to give judgment, where the curse of Josua: there also years to give juaganess, wheat the Hossia allower often the greatest meetings of the Levine shading and the held: as that for the revenge of the Levine shading the held: as that for the revenge of the Levine shading the held: as that for the revenge of the Levine shading the held: as that for the revenge of the Levine shading the the South Betharaba, of which fof c.15. and c. gathered the Jews (when Hierusalem was mention) monits cal. 18. Then that Gilgal of which there is so much posself by the Heathen) as it is I Mac. 3.47. In and its led Hale mention in the Scripture, where Install the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the state of the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In the Heathen as it is I Mac. 3.47. In mention in the Scripture, where Josua first which place this reason of their meeting is their ate of the fruits of the land, circumcifed all added ? Quia locus orationi fuerat Mitha an diduto confusion, it is to be remembred, that the their guar The reason of the name, or rather a me- Scriptures mention four places of this name whether morable application of the Etymology of this Mitspa of Juda, of which Jos. 18. (c) Mit-mental name (for it seems by the place, Deut. 11.30. spa of Gilead, of which we have spoken al- week, B that the name was known before the com- ready in the Tribe of Gad. Mitspa of the smith ing of the Israelites into Canaan) is noted 30s Moabites, where David for a while held him. 11.44 5.9.0b devolutionem probri Ægyptiaci, be- felf, commending his Parents to the King of there is in cause their fore-skins (the people being there Moab, 1 Sam, 22.3, and lastly, this chief Mit calle to circumcifed) were tumbled down the Hill: spa of the Benjamites. And as in this place expound which from thence was called Collis prapu- the chief meetings were held both before therether tiorum. This Gilgal was also called Geli-Hierusalem was recovered from the Jebuster, dualso loth, as appears by comparing the places, Jos. and also in the time of the Macchabees (as guide: 15.7 and 18. 17. for it was in the borders we have faid) when Hiernfalem was held by dough of Jordan, of which Jos 22.13, and Geliloth the wicked under Antiochus, so also in the also ut fignifieth borders. It flood (though in some time of Hieremy, after the destruction of the it into distance) directly Eastward, over against the Temple by the Chaldees, Gedaliah whom Na-phre wheesthe two Hills Garazim and Hebal: upon the one buchodonofor left in Jewry, as Governour or Mit White of which the bleffings, and on the other the ver those that were left in the land, held his 15 mm. It curfings were to be read to the people, both abiding in this place: until(to the great hurt) to the great hurt) to the great hurt. being the Mountains of Ephraim. Further, of the Jews) he was slain by the treason of noods for the situation of this Gilgal, it is to be Ismael, one of the royal blood of Juda, as it than the were feated about the midft of the length of the land of Canaan: for which reason (a) Sa muel chose these quaters, North, West, and sails, to which he solution will be these quaters. North, West, and sails, to which he solution muel chose these two places, to either of Missing or Missing and others out of the winters of Missing or Missing

Neer unto this Milifia, the Scripture men-Ephraim, 1 Sam. 25. I. which more often is the third place where Samuel held his chief thea, Matt. 27.57. was denominated. meetings for the ministring of Justice, that Of a fourth Rama we read, 2 Reg. 8. 29. one of the of Bethel, 2 Reg. 23, whence those coasts The third City Gibba, which was the Cischel.

lon; these three have no warrant in the ced neer Beth-aven, upon the East of Bethel, an Appellative significant states for Scripture. Of Rama in the Tribe of Affer, as if feems, we have testimony, 30/19. 29, and of another in Nephstahim, 30/19. 36. of a third Rama, where Samuel dwelt in Mount tioneth Bethear, after called Aben-Hezer, called (g) Ramatha, and I Sam. I. I. Rama (g) Of that is, the Stone of help: where Samuel thaim Tjophim: for which the Septuagint that in the Junta Samuel thair Tjophim: pitched up the Pillar or Stone, for a Trophey have Aramathaim-forbim, taking the Article detailed affixed in the beginning, for a part of the the place Touching Bethel, which (as it feems) was word, v hence they think Joseph of Arama-34, when it was anciently called Lnz, and how it was which is Ramoth in Gilead. The first, which thee Pretaken by the illue of Joseph (though it beins most often mentioned, is Ranno of Benja-which Delonged to the portion of Eenjamin, as it is min, feated, as we faid, pear Bethel the ut-mining Nebem. 11. 31. and 30f. 18. 22.) and how termost South-border of the Kingdom of yeels to another City called Luz (d) near adjoyning the ten Tribes: for which cause Baasha in out of the (6) 15 m. to it, was built by the man of the City which the time of Afa King of Juda, fortified it, to country of thewed the entrance to the Spies, as it is hinder those that did fly from him to Afa. this lying Jud. 1. and of the occasion of the name from Of this Rama, or Ramatha, I should rather towad Jacob's vision: and how Jereboam, by ere- think Joseph was, that buried Christ: be-the Estito fting one of his calves here, of Bethel (which cause it was nearer to Hiernfalem, and after and tydds fignifieth the house of God) made it (e) Beth-the Captivity belonged to judga, as it ap-to-god the Well, algument the house of Vanity, Hof. 4. 15. pears, Efd. 2. 26. wherein that it is joyned the Wet, and Appe and 10. 5. as also other memorable things of with Geha, it is plain that he speaketh of that rems (of district this place, they are fo well known out of Rama with whose fromes (after Baasha had which erea new the Histories of the Scripture, that we may ccased to build it) As (asit is 1 Heg. 25.22.) we fresk) built Gebah adjoyning to it: both being lying in the mid-The Territory of Betbel, which at the in Benjamin. And as Rama was the South defiber fust belonged to the Kingdomof the ten border of the ten Tribes, so was Gehab the tween the and a mit belonged to the great victory | North-border of the ringuous of Julia A fixth lightles. Tribes, from the time of the great victory | North-border of the ringuous of Julia A fixth lightless from the great victory | North-border of the ringuous of Julia A fixth lightly of Abba against ferobaam, of which 2 Chron, whence 2 Reg. 23. 8. we reade that Joffab Ramai to through all his Kingdom, even from Geobale, George Machael Great Machael George (Reg. 1988). Tribes, from the time of the great victory North-border of the Kingdom of Juda two other. form them, and adjoyned to through an instangaom, even from them, and adjoyned to through all its Anglom of Juda: and so it continued, which was the North-border, to Eeer-sheba; in the as appears by the Story of Joss : which which was the South-border, destroyed the Tibe of 1 Macc. 11. 34. are called Apherama, which ty of Saul (the wickedness of which City in which for Greek word fignifieth as much as A thing the time of the Judges had almost utterly called Rataken away, to wit, from the ten Tribes. It rooted out this Tribe) Adrichomius con-mothe was one of the three Seigniories, or Perfer founds with Gebah, making one of two (as South, and otherwise which Demetring in his Foiftle manning than more independent of two (as South, and otherwise and doubt, distinction). Unres which Demetrius in his Epiftle mentio-they are evidently diffinguished, Efsy. 10. Babelub neth, as added by him to the Dition of the 27.) of which word (b) Gibba, in another ber. Jems, out of the Samaritan Country. A part from Gibbath, he imagineth Gibbaath, ano-in conofit, as appears 2 Chron. 13. 19. was Hephra- ther City in this Tribe, making two of one fination. vin, which Jos. 18. 23. is called Hophram, be- The vicinity of this City allo to Rama of Goren-Not far from this Bethel, in this Tribe, we Levite vvith his Wife, not able to reach to the cofe. find three other Cities, often mentioned in Rama, took up his lodging at Gibba. By whence the Scriptures, Rama, Gidha, and Geba. Of that place of 1 Sam. 22.6. it feems that the Palgar the name Rama, (f) it is noted already, in there was in this Gibba some Tower or Cit. Surface Separation. fa. the description of Ephraim, that there were tadel called Rama: where Junius reads in read for many Towns fo called , because of their excesso, for in Rama: but it may be that 14 33: high fituation. But whereas they find out the name of the Kings Palace in this Ci-Rama in the Tribe of Juda (as it feems, be-ty, was Rama: as it feems that in Rama for which cause Matt. 2. it appears that it bordered of Samuel, the name of the chief place hath cellist Retblehem) and also out of Brochard and where Samuel with the Colledge of Prophets Philips Freidenbach make Silo to have been called abode, was Najoth. The great City of Hai (for this Rama and Call abode). Rama, and find yet another Rama in Zabu- overthrown by Josua, which Jos. 2. is pla- word is

322

Jos. 28. In solitudinem, in tumulum perpe- an and Persian Kingsot Captains, when Lot tunn. Another City of chief note is recko- was made prisoner) standeth by the River ned Jos. 18. 25. In this Tribe was Gibbon, the of Jordan, in the half Tribe of Manasse borned chief City of the Hevites: whose cunning to dering Zabulon, which was also called Salem, bind the Ifraelites by oath to fave their lives, and by the Greeks solima. is fet down, Jos. 9. whence they were reckoned among the * Neshinei, or Proselites, and ever built) was a principal City in Josus his word New were bound to certain publick services in time: yet not so renowned as Hazor the thinim, or were sound to God: which oath of faving Metropolis (in those dayes and before) of all seasons is as much these Gebeonites, broken in part after by the Canaanites. Adonizedek (whom Josta statis in the Canaanites). as deti (at these depender), blocked in Jat a famine, sie was then King of Hierufalem. That it were a Saul, was by God punished by a famine, sie was the language of the Salustra trie manifed. Deo dati) 2 Sam. 21. 1. This Gibeon, or Gibbon with or as James Almon and Jebah (of both which we have for how long foever they held it before Mo-Almon and jebah (or both which we have jest time, they were Masters and Lords therepounds in spoken) and with Hanothoth the natal place for time, they were Masters and Lords therefore in all the lines of almost 400. Years after him: even till delimit; of Hieremy the Prophet, were said $10.21.28. 1 Chro 9 2 to be given to the Levites by the Benjamites. and in Ef. Near to this Hanothoth was Nob, as appears, 1 Reg. 2.26. where Abiathar the Priest, which was of Nob before it was destroyed by Saul, reckoned in the Tribe of Benjamin, Neh. 9. 31. and though in the time of saul the refiding place of the Ark was at Kireath-jeharim : yet by the lamentable tragedy of bloud-shed, which saul raised in this place (as it is set down 1 Sam. 21. and 22.) in the it an exceeding great increase of circuit; Tabernacle was there for a time.

where also he nameth Gallim, and Migrom salem, which the Greeks call Hierosolium. in this Tribe. In Asiemas Saul had his Camp, After David's time Solomon amplified, beau-1. Sam. 13. 2. (when he left Gibba to Jona- tified and strengthened it exceedingly. For any here in Benjamin, which they make the could not any where in the world be examnatal place of Saint Paul, whence (they say) pled: and besides, that it had 150000. In when it was taken by the Romans, he failed habitants, the women and childrennot acwith his parents to Tharfis, of this I find no counted. The ditch had 60. foot depth, cut good warrant. Other places of less importout of the very rock: and 250, foot of tance I omit, and come to the City of Hie- breadth: whereof the like hath feldome rusalem, and the Princes and Governours of been heard of, either fince or before. this City: A great part whereof was in the After the death of solomon, and that the Tribe of Benjamin, whence Jos. 18. 28. it is Kingdom of the Jews was cut afunder, shi named among the Cities of Benjamin.

rufalem.

Founder thereof in Abraham's time. But, wall thrown down by Joss King of final; was in this Tribe, as is proved, Neb. 7, 10.30. * according to others, that City out of Sein though it be not named by Jos. c. 18. for it which Melchisedee encountred Abraham (in half of hal was burned by him and laid defolate, as it is his return from the overthrow of the Affri manga Hierusalem (whensoever, or by whomso-David wan it: and therefore in all likelihood, it was by the Jebnsei (the childrenof Jebusans the son of Canaan) built; after whom it was called Jebus. And so much did is fent to his grounds at Hanothoth. It is that Nation rely on the strength of the place, 158,4 as when David attempted it, they bragged that their lame, and blind, and impotent people should defend it.

CHAP. XII

David, after he had by Gods affistance possest it, and turned out the Jebusites, gave judgement of Junius, it is proved that the strengthened it with a Citadel or Castle: and beautified it with many Palaces, and o-Micmas also in this Tribe, Nehem. 9.31. ther buildings: changing the name from Jewas a place of fame , of which Esay. 10. 28. buffalem, the City of the Jebufites, to Hierathan) and there also was Jonathan Maccha- besides the work of the Temple, which was Jonathan beus his abode, 1 Macc. 9.73. Of Giscala in no less admirable than renowned among all to the Galilee ofephus makes often mention, but of Nations, the Palaces, Gates, and Wals, 1.16

Shac King of Egypt, and his Predecessor, having bred up for that purpose Adad the Idumean, scient and feroboam solomon's servant; and both married to Egyptians: the State by the one of divers memorable things concerning Hie- disturbed, by the other broken: Shishac first invaded the Territory of Juda, entred Hiera. falem, and fack't it, and became Masternot A T what time Hierufalem was built only of the riches of Solomon, but of all (which afterward became the Princess those spoyls which David had gotten from of all Cities) it doth not appear. Some there Adadezer, Tohn, the Ammonites, and other are who imagine that Melchifedee was the Nations. It was again fack't, and a part of the verned Juda.

ing 15 the fon of Achaz, by the vaunts made by E- red, might well feem forgotten in the reign taking no warning by these Gods gentle cor- they had been in the dayes of Solomon. rections and afflictions, but perfilting in all kind of impiety, filling the City even to the mouth with innocent bloud, God raifed up that great Babylonian King Nebuchodonofor, Of the destruction of Hierusalem by the Rose as his fcourge and revenger, who making this glorious City and Temple, with all the Palaces therein, and the Wals and Towers which embraced them, even and level with the duft, carried away the spoyls with his death and ascension, it so continued afield, Hierusalem an heap of stones, and rub- with a Romane Army, and became Lord on that defiled foil.

not med. to the Prophecy of Daniel, and the Jews by An extreme famine, with the civil diffension, the E the first; then by Antiochus Epiphanes: and dred thousand souls: and the City was so traler pey it was taken long after, but not deftroyof that which Pompey spared.

rings to repair the Temple of solomon. The over became victorious. wrong done by Ptolomaus Lagi to the second while Amasia the twelfth King thereof go- on Ptolomaus Philadelphus. The mischief wrought by Antiochus Epiphanes and his fol-Not long after, Achas the fifteenth King lowers, was amended partly by the great of Inda impoverished the Temple, and pre- offerings which were fent to Hierusalem out fented Teglatphalaffer with the treasures of other Nations. Finally, all the loffes, thereof. And Manaffes the fon of Ezekiah, which either the City or Temple had endumelon of Herad, of the Embassadors of Merodach, lost of Herad, that usurping and wicked, but MT.C.100 the remain, and the very bottom of their magnificent King, who amplified the City, solla. treasures. It was again spoyled by the Baby- new built the Temple, and with many sumlonians, Joakim then reigning. But this un- pruous works did fo adorn them, that he grateful, Idolatrous and rebellious Nation, left them far more stately and glorious than

§. III.

N this flourishing estate it was at the coming of our Saviour Chirft Jesus: and after the Princes and people, and crusht them bout fourty years. But then did Titus the with the heavy yoak of bondage and fervi- Romane, being stirred up by God to be the tudefull seventy years, insomuch as Sion was revenger of Christ his death, and to punish not only become as a torn and plowed-up the Jews sinful ingratitude, incompasse it ble, the Mountain of the Temple as a grove, thereof. He began the fiege at fuch time as or wood of thorns and briars, but (as Hie- the Jews from all parts were come up to rome speaketh) even the birds of the Ayre the celebration of the Passeover: so as the formed to flie over it, or the beafts to tread | City was then filled with many hundreds of thousands of all forts: and no manner of Then 70. years being expired, according provision or store for any such multitudes. the grace of Cyrus returned: the Temple opprest them within the Wals; a forcible was again built, though with interruption enemy affailed them without. The Idumaand difficulty enough: and the City meanly ans also, who lay in wait for the destruction inhabited, and without Wals or other de- of the Jews Kingdom, thrust themselves into fences, for some 60. and odd years, till Ne- | the City, of purpose to betray it: who alhemia by the favour of Artaxerxes re-built so burnt the Temple, when Nabuchodonosor them. Then again was the Temple and Citook it. And to be short, there perished , E/d. 4. ty spoyled by Bagos, or Vagos, the Liev-of all forts, from the first besieging, to the 15-th to the tenant of Artaxerxes: after by * Ptolomeus consummation of the victory, eleven hunagain by Apollonius his Lievtenant. By Pom- beaten down and demolished, as those which came afterward to fee the defolation ed, nor robbed, though Crassus in his Part thereof, could hardly believe that there thian expedition took as much as he could had been any such place or habitation. Only the three Herodian Towers, (works most But the damages which it sustained by the magnificent, and overtopping the rest) violence of facrilegious Tyrants, were com- were spared, as well for lodgings for the monly recompenced by the industry or Romane Garrisons, as that thereby their vibounty of good Princes, the voluntary con- ctory might be the more notorious and fatribution of the people, and the liberality of mous: for by those buildings of strength strangers. Before the captivity, the people and state remaining, after ages might judge of the Land, through the exhortation of what the rest were; and their honour be godly Kings, made many and large offe- the greater and more shining, that there-

After this, such Jews as were scattered here Temple, was requited by the bounty of his and there in Judea, and other Provinces, flood Mount Calvary, and the Sepulchre of and brought to ashes. christ, and excluding of the rest the greatest portion, he again made it a City of great capacity, and called it after his own name, Ælia Capitolia. In the gate toward Bethel, he caused a Sow to be cut in Marble, and set it Of the vain and malicious reports of Heathen in the front thereof, which he did in despight of the Jews Nation: making an Edict, that they should not from thence-forth ever enter into the City, neither should they dare place over-topping it.

fo it continued 500. years.

held it 400. and odd years.

that fed thereon.

began again to inhabit some part of the Ci- hath in effect lost all her fertility and fruitty; and by degrees to re-build it, and fulness; witness the many hundreds of thouftrengthen it as they could, being then at fands which it fed in the dayes of the Kings peace, and Tributaries to the Roman State: of Juda and Ifrael: it being at this time all but after 65. years, when they again offered over, in effect, exceeding frony and barren. to revolt and rebel, Elius Adrianus the Em- It also pleased God, not onely to consume perour flaughtered many thousands of them, with fire from Heaven the Cities of the 86and overturned those three Herodian Tow- domites; but the very soil it self hath felt. ers, with all the rest, making it good which and doth feel the hand of God to this day, Christ himself had foretold; That there should God would not spare the beasts that benot stand one stone upon another of that un-longed to Amalec, no not any small number grateful City. Afterward, when his fury was of them to be facrificed to himfelf: neither appealed, and the prophecy accomplished, was it enough that Achan himself was stoned, he took one part without the Wall, wherein but that his moveables were fo confumed

6. IV.

Writers, touching the ancient Jews.

F the original of the Jews, prophane Writers have conceived diverfly and fo much as to behold it from any other high injuriously. Quintilian speaks infamously of them, and of their Leader; who (faith he) But the Christian Religion flourishing in gathered together a pernicious Nation. csil. Typ.

But the Christian Rengion household by all Diodore and Strabo make them Egyptians, bell far. Palaftina, it was inhabited at length by all Older of the third while the governed Footi 1.14.6.12. Nations, and especially by Christians; and Others affirm, that while Ilis governed Egypt, the people were so increased, as Jerosolymus It was afterward in the 636. year after and Judas led thence a great multitude of Osuphrius Christ, taken by the Egyptian Saracens, who that Nation, with whom they planted the neighbour Regions: which might be meant In the year 1099, it was regained by God- by Moses and Aaron: for the name of Mofrey of Buillon, by affault, with an exceeding fer was accidental, because he was taken flaughter of the Saracens; which Godfrey, up and faved out of the waters. But juwhen he was elected King thereof, refused to fline, of all other most malicious, doth Mal 18.25.18. be crowned with a Crown of Gold, because derive the Jews from the Syrian Kings; of Christ, for whom he fought, was therein whom, Damascus, saith he, was the first: and crowned with thorns. After this recovery, to him succeeded Abraham, Moses, and If it remained under the Successiours of God- rael. He again supposeth (somewhat confrey fourfcore and eight years: till in the year | trary to himself) that Israel had ten sons, 1197. it was regained by Saladine of Egypt: among whom he divided the land of Juda; and lastly, in the year 1517. in the time of so called of Judas his eldest, who had the selim, the Turks cast out the Egyptians, who greatest portion. The youngest of the sons of now hold it, and call it Cuzumbarec, or the Ifrael he calleth Joseph: who being brought Holy City. Neither was it Jerusalem alone up in Egypt, became learned in Magical that had so often times been beaten down Arts, and in the interpretation of Dreams, and made desolate, but all the great Cities and figns prodigious; and this Joseph (faith of the World have with their Inhabitants, in he) was father to Moses: who with the rest, feveral times and ages, suffered the same by reason of their foul diseases, and lest shipwrack. And it hath been Gods just will, they should infect others, were banished Eto the end others might take warning, if gypt. Further, he telleth how these menthus they would not onely to punish the impiety banished, when in the Desarts they suffered of men, by famine, by the fword, by fire, and extream thirst and famine, and therein found by flavery; but he hath revenged himself relief the seventh day, for this cause ever afof the very places they possest; of the wals ter observed the seventh day, and kept it and buildings, yea, of the foil and the beafts Holy; making it a law among themselves, which afterward became a branch of their For, even that land, sometime called holy, Religion. He addeth also, that they might not

f:325 Agubeni The desert Arabia Arabia the Stonie Saccæa Agræi Saue or Saba from when the Sabeaus spoyled lob Alsadamus mons The contry of y Amonites Tome & Nabatha Paimerina tyme Zamzuminis nowphiladerphia he mountains of Arnon Mountaines of Ara: Stonie Emuth or Iturization Theshe of Elias & Tobit The mountains Soiner Emath or Iturization & Color Rath Moabites somtime Emims arom Bad

Hermon

Herm Gallon Bathanea, & & Gallaad Syria da masci 1 PHOENICIAN SYRIAN OR MEDITERAN marry out of their own Tribes, lest disco-siciently answered. For that the Hebrens first parents of the Tems.

demonians challenged kinred of the He- tude not long after, under Nabuchodonofor. brems: but they did it as descended of Aas touching the Jews and their originals, jo- these times. fephus against Appion, and Tertullian have suf-

vering their uncleanness, they might also be were the children of Arphaxad and Heber, no expelled by other Nations, as they were by man doubteth: and fo Chaldeans originally, the Egyptians. These and the like fables hath taking name either of Heber, the son of Sale, or else (saith Montanus) of wandring, as is Cornelius Tacitus doth as grolly belie before remembred. And therefore doth ste-Calab fes. them, in affirming, that in the inmost Oratory phanus, the Greek Grammarian, derive the of their Temple, they had the golden head Hebrews, or Jews, from Arabon; having miof an Als, which they adored. But herein Ta- staken the name of Abraham, who was the citus forgetteth himself, having in the fifth son of Heber, in the fixth descent. Their ancibook of his own History truly confessed of cat names were first changed by the two the Tems, that they worshipped one onely grand-children of Abram: for after Jacob, God: and thought it most prophane to re- otherwise Israel, the chief part were called present the Deity by any material figure, by Ifrael, another part after Esau or Edom, Edothe shape of a man, or any other creature: mites; at length the remnant of Jacob, beand they had therefore in their Temples no | ing most of the Tribe of Juda, honoured the Image or Representation, no not so much as name of Judas, the son of Jacob, and became in any City by them inhabited. Somewhat Judeans, or Jews: as also for a time in the like this bath Alexander Polyhistor, in Stepha- name of Ephraim the son of Joseph, the chief inut; who also makes Judas with Idumea, the of the Patriarchs of the ten Tribes, the rest of the ten Tribes were comprehended: but Claudius Iolaus draws them from Judaus, were first rooted out when the Kingdom of whose parents were Sparton and Thebis; Israel fell. The Judaus continued their whence it came, that the Spartans or Lace- names, though they suffered the same servi-

The government which this Nation unbraham, saith Josephus. Some of these reports | der-went, was first paternal: which continufeem to have been gathered out of divine ed till they ferved the Egyptians. They were letters, though wrested and perverted, ac- secondly ruled by their Captains and Leafetters, though wretter and perverted, according to the cuftom of the Heathen. For fohave they obscured and altered the Story of the Creation, of Paradise, of the Flood; and given new names to the children of A-had saul for the first: Of whom, and his dam in the first age, to Noah and his sons in Successours, before we intreat, we are first the second: and so to Abraham, Isaac, and Ja- to speak of their government under Judges, cob, Moses, and the rest of the Fathers, and after the death of Josua: with somewhat of Leaders of the Hebrews: all which feignings, the things of Fame in other Nations about

CHAP. XIII.

Of the memorable things that happened in the World, from the death of Josua, to the War of Troy: which was about the time of Jephtha.

Of the Inter-regnum after Josua's death: and of Othoniel.

7 Hen Josua was now dead, who ance of simeon) they became victorious ty over the people, and ordered that nibezek prisoner: the greatest and cruellest Common-weal: it pleased God to direct Commander, both of the Canaanites and Personal Commander, both of the Canaanites the Tribe of Juda (in whom the King riziter. This tyrants cruelty, as elfewhere dom was afterward established) to under- hath been signified, they returned in the same with the advice of the 70. Elders, In the first attempt which they made, they and the high Priest, held authori- not onely slew ten thousand, but made Adotake the War against the Canaanites, over kind upon his own head: and so by the torwhom (with Gods favour, and the affifton no management and acknowledge Gods judgments fed him to have compaffion on his people, against himself. matter and possess during this Inter-regnum ed his brethren from oppression, and infor-(or as some think, before the death of Josia) ced the Aramites to return into their own the Cities of Azelus, Askelon, Ekron, and Hie- Defarts, and into Melopotamia adjoyning: rufalem, which they burnt, and the Jebulites after which the Ifraelites had peace fourty after re-edified. They took also the Cities of years, during all the time of Othoniels golet down in express words that any one per- Caleb, for as much as in the book of Judges, fon commanded in chief over the people, as he is twice called Othoniel, the fon of Cenaz, Mofes and Josia did: yet it seemeth that Calebs younger brother. Others do rather Caleb was of greatest authority among them: interpret those words [Calebs younger broand that he, with the advice of Phinees, dither] as if they signified the meanest of his rected and ordered their wars. For if any kinred. Indeed it is not likely that Calebr think that they proceeded without a Chief, Daughter should marry with her own Unthe good fuccels which followed their uncle; yet it follows not therefore that Othowas Calcheven while Jofina governed, as ap-kinred. Wherefore we may better think that of God) it gave him the greatest reputation lawful, but commendable to marry with his among them, and may be esteemed the se- Cousin German Calebs Daughter. cond cause of his preferment and election Judg 1.19 cause they had Chariots of Iron.) The rest of and the best Writers are of opinion, that be-Judget, s. the house of eleph recovered Fethel, or Luz, of the Levites Wife. For it is written, that in I de 1.30 from the Hillies, lo did the Amerites recover those dayes there was no King in Ifrael, but (before no otherwife known unto him but But after they had felt the fmart of Gods (perme no tomerwise magination) made him displeasure against them eight years, it pleaand to raise up othoniel to be their Judge The Tribes of Inda and Simeon did also and Leader: who by God affifted, deliver-Indas. Hebron, Debir, or Kiriathsepher, and Zephath, vernment. This Othoriel is thought by Tofia 2600. afterwards Horma. And although it be not tus, to have been the younger brother of 2642 dertakings, witnesseth the contrary. And it niel should have been the meanest of the pears, Jos. 10. 39. that propounded the at- he was the Nephew of Caleb, (as some learntempt of Debir, to the rest of the Captains: ed men expound it) and as the very words for the performance of which enterprife, he of Scripture feem to enforce. For Caleb was promited his daughter Achfah: which he perthe fon of Jephunneth, and Othoniel the fon formed to Othoniel his younger brother af- of Cenas, Calebs younger brother; that is, he ter the conquest: whose behaviour in that was not brother to Caleb, but his younger fervice was fuch, as (next unto the ordinance brothers fon; to whom it was not onely

CHAP. XIII.

How long it was from the death of Josua, for their first Judge soon after. But while to the government of Othoniel, it cannot be those of $\int\!\! u da$ made war with their border- found: but it seems to have been no short ers, from whom they onely recovered the time. For many wars were made in that space mountainous Countries (for they could not against the people of the Land. Laiß was drive out the Inhabitants of the Vallies, be- then taken (as is thought) by the Danies; the Tribes fought also to enlarge and esta-tween the times of Josua and othoniel, that bill their own Territories. In which war civil war brake out between the Eenjamite Jan they laboured with variable facees: for as the house of selve recovered Sethel or I was of the Lorito. With East in the selve recovered Sethel or I was of the Lorito. With East in the selve in the sel from Dan all the plain Countries, and forc't every man did that which was good in his them to fave themselves in the Mountains. own eyes And as Inda led the people against And now the Ifraclites, unmindful of Gods the Canaanites, during the Inter-regium, fo benefits, and how often he had miraculoufly was he commanded to do against Benjamin, a-fore-time defended them, and made them even by the Lord God, whose direction they victorious over their enemies (the Elders craved, as wanting a Judge to appoint what being also consumed, who better advised should be done; which sheweth it to have them in the Inter-regnum) did not only joyn been when Josua was dead, and before the themselves in marriage with the Heathen government of othoriel, especially consider-Nations: but (that which was more dete-ing, that all other times wherein they wantstable) they served the Idols of Baal, and A- ed Governours, were spent under such opfleroth, with other the dead gods of the Ca- preffion of strangers, as would have given naanites and Amorites. And therefore did them no leave to have attempted fuch a cithe Lord God, whom they had provoked vil war, if their power had been as great, as with their Idolatry, deliver them into the it was in the managing of this action, where hands of the Aramites of Melopotamia, whom in they fo weakened the body of their Chufban Rifbathaim at that time commanded. ftate, by effusion of blood, that in many ages they could not bring into the field fuch ticulars; to examine all which would renumbers as formerly they had mustered against their bordering enemies.

§. II.

of the memorable things of this age in other Nations: and of the difficulty in the computation of times.

Here lived in this age of Othoniel, Pandon.or Pandareus, according to Homer, the fifth King of Athens; who began to rule in the twentieth year of Othoniel, and governed forty years. He was father to Erichew: his daughters were Progne and Philomela, so greatly mentioned in fables.

Cadmus also about this time obtained Thebest of whose daughter Semele was born Dionylius or Liber Pater: under whom Linus the Musician lived. In his time also the Cities of Melus, Paphus, and Tharfus were built.

Ida and Dactylus flourished in this age, who are faid to have found out the use of 60. 4112 Iron: but Genesis hath taught us the contrary, and that Tubalcain long before which the indisputable authority of holy wrought cunningly both in Iron and Brass. Scripture hath summed up, as in that of Awrought cunningly both in Iron and Brais,

"plant" Not long after this time, Amphion and Zethus braham's birth; and after in the times of the hard gers find in Ehnds time. But S. Angultine times from the egreffion to the building of later gers find in Ehnds time. But S. Angultine times from the egreffion to the building of

solomor's Temple, in the Persian Empire, the solomon's Temple, in the Perfain Empire, the few the detail and in what not? Where-devised among the Greeian and other that Nations, during the government of the latest account of times may suffer examine the solomon's Temple, in the Perfain Empire, the feventy Weeks, and in what not? Where-solomon's Nations, during the government of the Judges, begins with Triptolemus, of whose pa- mination, the arguments are opposite, and rentage there is as little agreement. Vives contentions are such, as for ought that I see. upon the thirteenth Chapter of S. Augustine men have fought by so many wayes to uncode Civit. Dei, and the eighteenth book, hath ver the Sun, that the days thereby are made gathered all the opinions of this mans pro- | more dark, and the clouds more condenfed geny, where he that defires his pedigree than before: I can therefore give no other may find it. Lactantius and Eusebius make warrant, than other men have done in these him native of Attica: and the son of Elensius computations: and therefore that such and King of Eleusina: which Eleusius by careful | such Kings and Kingdoms took beginning in industry had fed the people of that Territo- this or that year, I avow it no otherwise than ry in the time of a great famine. This, when as a borrowed knowledge, or at least as a upon the like occasion Triptolemus could not private opinion: which I submit to better perform, fearing the fury of the people, he judgments. Nam in prises rebus veritas non fled thence by Sea in a kind of Galley or ad unquem quærenda; In ancient things we long Boat, which carried in her Prow a gra- are not to require an exact narration of the ven or carved Serpent; who because he truth, sayes Diodore. made exceeding great speed to return and to relieve his people with Corn from fome neighbour Nation: it was feigned by the Poets, that his Coach was carried by Serpents of Ehuds time, and of Proferpina, Orithya, through the air.

Whether the times of these Kings, which lived together with Othonicl, and after him, with the rest of the Judges and Kings of Ifrael and Juda, be precifely fet down, I canquire the whole time of a long life; and therefore I defire to be excused, if in these comparisons I erre with others of better judgment. For whether Eusebius and all that follow him, or his opposites (who make themfelves fo conversant with these ancient Kings; and with the very year when they began to rule) have hit the mark of time, of all other the farthest off and most defaced. I cannot but greatly doubt. First, because the Authors themselves, from whom the ancientest Chronologers have borrowed light, had nothing for the warrant of their own works, but conjecture. Secondly, because their own disagreement and contention in those elder dayes, with that of our own age among the labourers in times, is fuch, as no man among them hath yet so edified any mans understanding fave his own; but that he is greatly diffracted, after what pattern to erect his

This disagreement is found not onely in the reigns of Heathen Kings and Princes; but even in the computation of those times

§. III.

Tereus, Tantalus, Tytius, Admetus, and others that lived about these times.

Fter the death of Othoniel, when Ifrael fell back to their former Idolatry, God not avow; for the Chronologers, both of the incouraged Moab to invade and suppress former and latter times, differ in many par- them: to perform which, he joyned the forces of Ammon, and Amalec unto his own, known to Fyrithens, with whom Hercules and and to (as all kind of mifery readily find- Thefeus joyned themfelves, they agreed toeth out those whom God hath abandoned, gether to recover her: but Pluto, or Orene or for a time with-drawn his help from, (whom others call Aidonius) had (as they thereby to make them feel the difference fay) a very huge Dog, which fastened on Pr. between his grace and his displeasure) these rithous, and tare him in pieces, and had also Heathen neighbouring Nations had an eatie worried Thefens, but that Hercules speedily conquest over Israel, whom God himself ex- rescued him, and by strength took and maposed to those perils, within which they stered the Dog Cerberus: whereof grey were so speedily folded up. In this miserable the sable of Hercules his delivering These estate they continued full eighteen years out of Hell. But Zezes, as I take it, hathwriteunder Eglon King of the Moabites and his ten this story somewhat more according to confederates. Yet, as the mercies of God are the truth. For Thefeus and Pyrithous, faith he. infinite, he turned not his ears from their attempted to steal Proserpina Daughter to crying repentance: but raifed up Ehud the Aidonius, King of the Moloffians, who had fon of Gerato deliver them: by which weak Ceres to Wife, the mother of Proferping: man, though maimed in his right hand, yet Proferpma being a general name also for all confident in the justness of his quarrel, and fair women. This purpose of theirs being fearing that the Israelites were too sew in known to Aidonius, Theseus and Parithons numbers to contend with the Head of those were both taken; and because Prithous valiant Nations he refolved to attempt upon was the principal in this confpiracy, and the person of Felon, whom if he could but Thesens drawn on by a kind of affection or extinguish, he attimed simfelf of the follow- inforcement, the one was given for food to ing victory: especially giving his Nation Aidonius his great Dog Cerberus, the other no time to re-effeblish their government, or held prifoner, till Herenles, by the infligation to choose a King to command and direct of Eurischeus, delivered him by strong hand. them in the Wars. According to which refo- The Moloffi, which Stephanus writes with a lution. Ehnd went on as an Embatraciour to lingle (8, were a people of Epirus, inhabiting Eglon, loaden with prefents from the Ifrae-near the Mountains of Pindus: of which lites, as to appeale him, and obtaining pri- Moustains Ceta is one of the most famous. vate access, upon the pretence of some te- where Hercules burnt himself. The River of cret to be revealed, he pierc't his body with Acheron (which the Poets describe to be in a Poniard, made of purpose with a double Hell) riseth out of the same Hills. There is edge: and shutting the doors of his closet another Nation of the Molossi in Thessall: but upon him, escaped.

It may feem, that being confident of his Plutarch in his Greek questions. good friccess, he had prepared the strength The rape of Orithya, the daughter of Eof Israel in readiness. For suddenly after his rythem, King of Athens, taken away by Bomen: whereof not any one escaped. After Athens. In this time also Tereus ravished Phiterm expired in the Worlds year 2601.

lech her hufband, and with her two fons, tra- | died in the mid-way : all which her brovelled into Moab, and so the story of Ruth ther-in-laws merciless behaviour towards is to be referred to this time. About the be- her, Philomela expressed by her needle upon ginning of the fourfeore years which are gi- cloath, and fent unto Progne. In revenge ven to Ebud, it was that Orcus King of the whereof, Progne caused her onely fon Hysto Molossians, otherwise Pluto, stole Proserpina, be cut in pieces, and set before Tercus her as the walked to gather flowers in the fields hufband, fo dreft as it appeared to be some of Hipponium in Sicilia: or (according to other ordinary food: of which when he Paufanias) by the River Cephifus, which elfe- had eaten his fill, she caused his head, hands where he calleth Chemer, if he mean not two and feet, to be presented unto him; and these are neighbours to the Cassiopei, saith

return, he did re-pass Jordan, and invading reas of Thrace, is referred to the time of Ehud. the Territory of Moal, overthrew their Ar- The Poets ascribe this rape to the Northmy, confifting of 10000, able and ftrong wind, because Thrace is situate North from which victory, and that Samgar his Successor | lomela, of which the fable was devised of her had miraculously flain 600. Philistims with conversion into a Nightingale. For Terens an Ox goad: the Land and People of Ifrael having married her fifter Progne, conducting lived in peace unto the end of fourfcore | Philomela from Athens to fee her fifter, foryears from the death of Othoniel, which ced her in her passage, and withall cut out her tongue, that the might not complain; In the dayes of Ebud, Naomi, with Elime- perswading Progne his Wife, that Philomela distinct Rivers. This stealth being made then fled away with such speed towards ritory of Athens. By which, as also by the name Daulis, where these things are suppofed to have been done (whence also Philomela is called Daulias ales) it appears that now called Thracia, or in Odrysa, (as the Country in Greece not far from Attica, a City whereof is called Daulia, was in Panthis Tereus was King: whence Pandion, to have amity with his neighbours, made him faith Thucydides, that Pandion King of Athens made that alliance with a neighbour King, from vyhom he might have fuccour, rather than vvith any Tereus, that should have held the Kingdom of Odryse, vihich vias greatly distant from thence. The occasion that the Poets chose a Swallow for Progne to be turned into, may feem to have been, partly because, as Pausanias sayes, Daulide nec nidificant, nec habitant in tota circum regione Hirundines; as if a Swallow, remembring the wrong that was there done to her, and her fifter, did for ever after hate that place.

Near this time Melampus (who is faid to have understood the voices of Birds and Beafts) flourished, being also esteemed for an excellent Physician. He restored to their former health the Daughters of Præ-Pull: two King of the Argives, who (as the Poets by II) please) were made mad by Juno: and thinking themselves to be Kine, fled into the Woods, fearing to be constrained to the Plough: for in those Countries where the ground was light, they did use often to plough with Kine.

In the feven and fortieth year of Ehud, Tros began to reign in Dardania, and gave it his own name; about which time Phemone the chief Priest of Apollo in Delphos, devised the Heroical Verse,

Of the same date was Tantalus, King of Lydia: whom Eusebius makes King of Phrywere anciently Meones. Of Tantalus was devised the fable that some Poets have apmap. Ends. plied to the paffion of love; and some to the $i_{1,2_{RC}}$, coverous that dare not injoy his riches. Euill, s. febius calls this Tantalus the fon of Jupiter,

Athens, where her Father Pandion yet lived, | by the Nimph Pleta: Diaconus and Didymus as the Poets feigned, that she was turned in Zezes, give him another mother. He was into a Swallow. The place where it was faid to be the fon of Jupiter, as some will performed, Strabo finds to be Danlis, in have it; because he had that Planet in his Phocis: and the Tomb of Tereus, Paufanias afcendent, betckening Wifdom and Riches. hath built near the Rocks Mergi, in the Ter- It is faid, that when he made a feast to the gods, having nothing more precious, he caufed his own fon to be flain and dreft to the banquet: of whom Ceres ate part of one of the shoulders; whereby was signified, that it is true, which Theucydides notes by way those men which seek after Divine knowof digression in his Peloponnessan War, That ledge, preser nothing on earth before it: no this Tereus was not King in that which is not the care of their own children, of all else the most dearest. And where it was devised, Poets call him Odrysius) but that Phocis a that he had alwayes Water and Fruit offered to his lips, and yet suffered the torment of hunger and thirst, it was meant thereby, dions time inhabited by Thracians of which that though he abounded (by reason of his riches) in all delicacy of the world, yet his mind being otherwise, and to higher defires his fon-in-law: as it is good to believe, transported he enjoyed no pleasure at all by the rest. Of whom ovid:

Quarit aquas in aquis, & poma fugacia cap-

Tantalus, hoc illi garrula lingua dedit.

Here Tantalus in water feeks for water, and doth miss.

The fleeting fruit he catcheth at: His long tongue brought him this.

This punishment, they say, was inflicted upon him, for that he discovered the secrets of the gods: that is, because he taught wifdom and vertue to mortal men: which story Cornelius Gallus hath elegantly exprest in Verse. Others expound this table otherwise, and fay, That Tantalus, though he excelled in riches, yet being thirsty of more abundance, was never fatisfied. Of whom Horace against covetoulnels.

Tantalus à labiis sitiens fugientia captat Flumina; quid rides ? mutato nomine de te Fabula narratur.

The thirsting Tantalus doth catch at streams that from him flee. Why laughest thou? the name but chang'd, the tale is told of thee.

Others conceive, where it is feigned of Tantalus, that he gave the Nectar and Ambrosia of the gods, to vain and unworthy men, giarand also of that part of which the people that he was therefore by them in that force punished. Of which Natalis out of Pindarus :

> Immortalitatem quod furatus, Coetaneis convivis. Neclar Ambrosiamque dedit,

Because

Because that stealing immortality, He did both Nectar and Ambrolia give To guests of his own age, to make them

330

Whereby it was meant, that the fecrets of Divinity ought not to be imparted to the unpure Vulgar. For asthe cleanest meats in a foul fromack, are therein corrupted, so the most high and reserved mysteries are often perverted by an unclean and defiled mind. To you it is given (faith Christ in Mark) done in Parables. So it is faid of him, that be was still eaten in Hell by birds, and yet still expounded all things to his Disciples apart. And lived, and had his flesh renewed. Most 4.14 therefore doth Gregory Nazianzene infer Greg in upon a place of S. Paul: Quod fi Paulo li-ora de upon a place of S. Paul: Quod fi Paulo li-ora de upon a place of S. Paul: Quod fi Paulo li-Ora de reile efferi ea, quorum iph cognitionem calum a Herd-man, and afterward, for his excellent medife de tertium & usque ad illud progressio suppedita- wit, was by him advanced; but having Dos. 2 vit, fortage de Deo, nobis aliquid amplius con- flain Hyacinthus, he croft the Hellespont, and enysteria, que it a reciperet ut Sus tubam & fi- which faith: dem graculus, & unquenta Scarabaus : quare flentium indixit discipulis nè vulge divinorum arcana patefacerent, que meditando facilius quem loquendo apprehendantur; To jet an AS to a Harpor to learn mysteries : which he would handle as a Swine doth a Trumpet, or a Jay a Viol, or Scarabies, and unclean flies soveraign ointment. Wherefore he commanded filence to his Disciples , that they should not disclose divine mysteries to the common fort, which are caster learned by meditation than by babling. certain Hieroglyphick letters, to the end that witness, saith Pausanias. their secrets might be hidden from the Vulgar : and that they might bestow the more | find it) in the dayes of Deborah, lived Persemeanings.

of Aod, or Ehud, with him it is also said, that dusa, the Daughter and Successor of Phorens, therefore called the son of the earth. Pausa- head, were turned into stones. nias speaking of the grave of this Giant, af- | Cecrops, the second of that name, and 7, of a furlong. But Tibullus hath a louder lie of his stature out of Homer:

Porrect úsque novem Tytius per jugera terra. Affiduas atro viscere pascit aves.

CHAP. XIII.

Nine furlongs stretcht lies Tytins, who for his wicked deeds, The hungry Birds with his renewing liver daily feeds.

This Strabo doth thus expound; That Apollo killing this cruel and wicked Tyrant Mak 4. 11 to know the mystery of the Kingdom of God, of Panopea, a City in Phoen, it was seigned by but unto them that are without, all things be the Poets, to the terrour of others, That he

Admetus, King of Thessaly, lived also in this flaret; If Paul might have uttered the things, fled into Phrygia: where, together with the knowledge whereof the third Heavens, and Neptune, he was entertained by Laonedon, his going thither, did bring unto him, perad- and got his bread by working in brick, for venture we might know somewhat more of God. building of the walls of Troy, not by making Pythagoras, aith Revelin, thought it not the the bricks leap into their places by playing part of a wife man, Asino lyram exponere, aut on his Harp: according to him in Ovid, > Ilion aspicies, sirmataque turribus altis Mania, Apollinea struct a canore lyra.

Strong Ilion thou shalt see with walls and towers high, Built with the harp of wife Apollo's Harmony,

Thus the Poets: but others, that he laboured with his hands, as hired in this work. And therefore did the Egyptians communi- And that he also laboured at the building of cate their mysteries among their Priests in the Labyrinth in Greece, all the Megariens pagia

In these dayes also of Ehnd, or (as some time in the contemplation of their covered us, the fon of Jupiter and Danae, by whose Souldiers (as they failed out of Peloponnefus, But to proceed with the contemporaries to feek their adventure on Africa fide) Me-Tytius lived, whom Apollo flew, because he being weakly accompanied as she hunted, fought to force his mother Latona. Enphori-on both ir thus, that Tating was taken to the Lake Tritan was surprised and flain. Lated on hath it thus, that Tytins was the fon of whose beauty, when Perseus beheld, he can ship Elara, the Daughter of Orehomenus; which fed her head to be imbalmed, and carried with Elara being beloved of Jupiter, to avoid Juinto Greece: the beauty whereof was fuch, putting the seventies he hid blane in the control into Greece: the beauty whereof was fuch, putting the seventies he hid blane in the control into Greece: no's reverge, he hid Elara in the earth, where and so much admired, and the beholders to the was delivered of Tyrius: whose Mother aftonished which beheld it, as thereof grew and diminest therein no wished has many the Court of the court of the was delivered of Tyrius: whose Mother aftonished which beheld it, as thereof grew and the Court of the was delivered of Tyrius: whose Mother aftonished which beheld it, as thereof grew and the court of the was delivered of Tyrius: whose Mother aftonished which beheld it, as thereof grew and the was delivered of Tyrius: whose Mother aftonished which beheld it, as thereof grew and the was delivered of Tyrius: whose Mother aftonished which beheld it, as thereof grew and the was delivered of Tyrius: whose Mother aftonished which beheld it, as thereof grew and the was delivered of Tyrius: whose Mother aftonished which beheld it, as thereof grew and the was delivered of Tyrius: whose Mother aftonished which beheld it, as thereof grew and the was delivered of Tyrius and the was delivered of Tyrius: whose Mother aftonished which beheld it, as thereof grew and the was delivered of Tyrius and th dying, and himself therein nourished, he was the fiction, That all that looked on Medica's firms, that his body occupied the third part King of Athens, and Acrifius the 13. or, after Eulebius, the 14. King of the Argives, began of Galley, of such swiftness, that it was calhy Antea, or Sthenobia, the wife of Pratus of for fo Virgil calleth one of the greatest ships neid. Ho. the Argives, to accompany her, but refuling of Aneas. it, the accused him to her husband, that he Ion also, from whom the Athenians (be-boll, offered to force her: whereupon Pretus ingignorant of the antiquity of their parent fent Bellerophon into Lycia, about some affairs Javan) derive their name of Iones, is said to of weight, between him and his fon-in-law have been about Ehnds time: Homer calls Tobates: giving secret order to Jobates to them Jaones, which hath a near resemblance dispatch him: but Jobates thinking it disho- to the word Javan. Perhaps it might be nourable to lay violent hands on him, im- fo that Ion himself took name from Javan: ploved him against Chimæra, a Monster vo- it being a custom observable in the Histomiting, or breathing fire. Now the gods (as ries of all times, to revive the ancient name the report is) pittying his innocency, sent of a fore-father, in some the principal of his him the winged Horse, Pegasus, sprung up of iffue. the blood of Medusa, formerly flain by the The invasion of India by Liber-Pater, is fouldiers of Perseus in Africa, to transport by some reported as done in this age: but Bellerophon overcame Chimera: and per-gypt, and the death of Josua. formed the other fervices given him in him: but being victorious also over all those, called Morea. he arrived to Fobates in fafety; whom Fobates for his eminent vertues honoured, first with one of his Daughters: and afterward with his Kingdom: after which he grew fo infolent, as he attempted to flie up to heaven upon his Pegasus: whose pride Jupiter disdaining, caused one of his stinging flies so to vex Pegasus, ashe cast off Bellerophon from expounded; as first by some, That it pleathat when he was exposed to extream haproud and prefumptuous in his glorious fortunes, he was again thrown down into the extremity of forrow, and ever-during mife-alfo their reigns, as it is faid, in the time of led the flying Horse: to whom the invention this Judge: of which the first ruled 40. of sayls (the wings of a thip) are also attrivears and the fecond 31. years. Also Belle- buted. Many other expositions are made of rophon lived in this age, being the fon of this tale by other Authors: but it is not un-Glancus, the son of Sifyphus: who inticed likely, that Chimera was the name of a ship, L.s. E.

CHAP. XIII.

him; a horse that none other could master S. Augustine makes him far more ancient : Lib. 18.c. erbridle but Minerva: upon which beast placing him between the coming out of E-deci. 1.18.

About the end of the 80. years, ascribed charge: which done, as he returned toward to Ehnd, and Samgar, Pelops flourished: who Lycia, the Lycians lay in ambush to have slain gave name to Peloponnesus in Greece, now

6. IV.

Of Deborah and her Contemporaries.

Fter Ifrael had lived in peace and plenty to the end of these 80. years, they ahis back, into the Valley of Cilicia, where gain began to forget the giver of all goodhe died blind; of which burthen Pegafus ness, and many of those being worn out, being discharged (as the fable goeth) flew which were witnesses of the former misery, back to heaven: and being fed in Jupiters and of Gods deliverance by Ehud; and afown stable, Aurora begg'd him of Inpiter to ter him by Samgar; the rest began to reride on before the Sun. This tale is diverfly turn to their former neglect of Gods commandments. For as Plenty and Peace are the feth God to relieve men in their innocent parents of idle security; so is security as fruitand undescrived adversity, and to cast down sul in begetting and bringing forth both those which are too high minded: accor- danger and subversion: of which, all estates ding to that which is faid of Bellerophon: in the world have tasted by interchange of times. Therefore when their fins were azard,or rather certain death, he found both deliverance and honour: but waxing over-zor, after the death of Ebnd, invaded the territory of Ifrael; and having in his fervice 900. iron Chariots besides the rest of his forces, he held them in subjection twenty years, ry. Secondly by others, That under the till it pleased God to raise up Deborah, the name of Chimera, was meant a cruel Pyrat | Prophetess, who incouraged Barac to levy a of the Lycians, whose ship had in her prow force out of Nepthalim, and Zabulon, to ina Lyon, a Goat in the mid-ship, and a Dra-counter the Canaanites. That the men of gon in the stearn, of which three beasts this Nepthalim were more forward than the rest Monster Chimara was said to be compound- in this action, it may seem to have proceeded ed, whom Bellerophon purfued with a kind partly from the authority that Barac had partly from their feeling of the common tations towards the Land; and the children grievance, which in them was more fentible of Dan, who neighboured the Sea, crept into than in others, because Hazor and Harofeth their ships for safety, shewing thereby that the chief holds of Fabin, were in Nepthalim. all were dispersed, and all in effect lost. She So in the dayes of Tepika the Gileadites took then curied the Inhabitants of Meroz, who the greatest care, because the Annuonites, dwelling near the place of the battel (bewith whom the War was, prefled most upon like fearing the success) came not out to afthem, as being their borderers. Now as it fift Ifrael, and then bleffeth Jael the wife of pleased God by the left hand of Ehud to Heber the Kenite, who nailed sifera in her deliver Is ael from the Moabites: and by the Tent: shewing the ancient affection of that counsel and courage of a woman, to free race to the Ifraelites. For though the Famithem from the yoak of Canaan, and to kill ly of Heber were inforced in that milerable the valiant Sifera by Jael the Kenites wife: time of subjection, to hold correspondency fo was it his will at other times, to work the with Jabin the Canaanite, yet when occasilike great things by the weakest means. For on offered them means, they witnessed their the mighty Affrian Nabuchodonofor, who was love and faith to their ancient Friends. Lasta King of Kings, and refiftless, he overthrew ly, she derideth the Mother of Siferawho by his own imaginations, the causers of his promised her Son the victory in her own brutish melancholy; and changed his match- hopes; and fancied to her felf, and descriless pride into the base humility of a Beast. bed the spoils both of Garments and Mai-And to approve that he is the Lord of all dens by him gotten. For conclusion, shedipower, he sometime punisheth by invisible recteth her praise and thanks to God onely ftrength, as when he flaughtered the Army victorious.

GHAP. XIII.

332

From the beginning of Jabins opprefion Fg yptians in Moles time: sometime by dead to the end of that peace, which Deborah and bodies, as when he drowned Pharaoh by the Barac purchased unto Ifrael, there passed 40. waves of the Sea; and the Canaanites by years. In which time the Kingdom of Argus, hail-stones in the time of Josha: sometimes which had continued 544. years, wastranby the ministery of men, as when he over-slated to Mycana: The translation of this threw the four Kings of the East, Chedorlao- Kingdom, Vives out of Pausanias writeth to mer, and his companions, by the houshold this effect: After Danaus, Lynceus succeedfervants of Abraham. He caused the Moa- ed in Argos, after whom the Children of Abites and Ammonites to fet upon their own bas the fon of Lynceus divided the Kingdom: confederate the Army of the Edomites; and of which Acrifius being eldest, held Argos it having flain them, to kill one another in the felf: Prætus his brother possest Ephyra, or speak unto Barac in these words: But this witness Pratus possession, saith Pausanias. Judg. 49. journey that thou takest, shall not be for thine honour, for the Lord flull fell Sifera into the that he should be slain by the son of his bands of a Woman. In which victory all the Daughter Danae: whereupon he caused her

God, and after the acknowledgement of all fon, or other worthy man, corrupted her his powerfulness, and great mercies, she Keepers with gold, and enjoyed her, of sheweth the weak estate whereinto Israel whom Persens was born; who when he grew was brought for their Idolatry by the Canaa- to mans estate, either by chance (faith Ctefnites, and other bordering Nations, in these as) or in shewing his grand-father the invenwords: Was there a shield or spear seen among tion of the discus, or leaden ball, slew him forty thousand of Israel? She also sheweth unwillingly. After this, Persens, to avoid the how the Ifraelites were severed and amazed, infamy of Patricide in Argos, changed King fome of them confined over fordan, and domes with his Uncle Pretus: and built durst not joyn themselves to the rest; as Mycana. This imprisonment of Danae, 300

the fourth of Judges.

among them, being of the fame Tribe; and kept the Sea-coast, and for fook their habi-

2 Chro 20. fight of Jekofaphat: and of the like to thefe a Corinth, and Tirynthos, and other Cities, with raining volume of examples may be gathered. And all the Territory towards the Sea: there be nullian to this effect did Deborah the Prophetess ing many Monuments in Tirynthos, which

Now Acrifius was foretold by an Oracle, strength of the Canaanite Jabin fell to the to be inclosed in a Tower, to the end that ground even to the last man : in the end of no man might accompany her. But the Lady which War it seemeth that Jabin himself a!- being exceeding fair, it is fained that Jupiter fo perished, as appeareth by the last Verse of turned himself into a golden shower: which falling into her lap, begat her with child: After all which, Deborah giveth thanks to the meaning whereof was, that some Kings those of Reuben in Gilead: that the Asperites phocles reporteth otherwise: and that she was inclosed in a brazen vault under the Kings Hall with her Nurse and Keepers. Upon this close custody Horace hath this witty observation:

> Inclusam Danaen turris abenea, Robustaque fores, & vigilum canum Triftes excubiæ munierant satis NocInrnis ab adulteris:

Si non Acrifium Virginis abditæ custodem pavidum, Jupiter & Venus Rififent, fore enim tutum iter & patens Converso in pretium Deo.

Aurem per medios ire satellites, Et perrumpere amat saxa, potentius Illu fulmineo.

The brazen tower with doors close barr'd. And watchful bandogs frightful guard, Kept safe the maidenhead

Of Danae from fecret love: Till smiling Venus, and vvise Jove Beguil'd her Fathers dread. For chang'd into a golden showre, The god into her lap did poure Himself, and took his pleasure. Through guards and ftony vvals to break, The thunder-bolt is far more weak, Than is a golden treasure.

The first Kings of the Argives were these.

Inachus the first King, who began to reign in the first year of Jacob, and the 61. of Ifaac: from which time, to the end of sthenelus, Castor misreckoneth 400. years. This Kingdom before the translation, Eufebius accounteth to have stood 544. years, others but at 417. Io was the daughter of this Inachus: vvhom the Egyptians called Iss.

> Phoroneus. Sthenelus, Apis, Danaus, Argus, Lynceus, Pirafus, Abas. Phorbas. Acrisus, Triopas, Pelops. Crotopus.

After the translation to Mycene, Mar. Scotus finds these Kings:

> Perfeus, Eurystheus, Sthenelus,

Atreus The fons of Pelops by Hippodamia: Atreus by Europe had Thyestes. \ Agamemnon and Menelaus.

Agamemnon. Ægyfthus, Oreftes,

Tifamenus. Penthilus and Cometes.

Of these Kings Mercator and Bunting leave out the two first, and the last, beginning with Eurystbeus: and ending with Penthilus. In Tifamenus time the Heraclide returned into Peloponesus: of which hereafter.

The Contemporaries of Barac and Debora, vvere Midas, vvho reigned in Phrygia: and Ilus, vvho built Ilium: vvith others mentioned in our Chronological Table, as Contemporaries vvith Debora.

of Gideon, and of Dædalus, Sphinx, Minos, and others that lived in this Age.

Debora and Barac being dead, the Midianites, affished by the Amalekites, infested Ifrael. For when, under a Judge, who had held them in the fear of the Lord, they had enjoyed any quiet or prosperity: The Judge was no fooner dead, than they turned to their former impious Idolatry. Therefore now the neighbouring Nations did fo mafter them in a short time (the hand of God being withheld from their defence) as to fave themselves, they crept into caves of the mountains, and other the like places of hardest access: their enemies possessing all the plains and fruitful vallies : and in har- Jud. 6. vest time, by themselves, and the multitude of their cattel destroying all that grew up: covering the fields as thick as grashhoppers: vyhich servitude lasted seven years.

Then the Lord by his Angel stirred up Gideon the fon of Joash, afterward called Jud. 6.0.5. Jerubbaal: vvhose fear and unvvillingness, and how it pleased God to hearten him in his enterprize, it is both largely and precifely fet down in the holy Scriptures: as also how it pleafed God by a few felect persons. namely 300. out of 32000. men, to make Jud. c. 6. them know that he onely wasthe Lord of or ?. Hosts. Each of these 300. by Gideons appointment carried a trumpet, and light in a pitcher instruments of more terrour than force, vvith vvhich he gave the great Army of their enemies an alarum: who hearing fo loud a noife, and feeing (at the crack of fo many pitchers broken) fo many lights about them, esteeming the Army of Israel to be infinite, and ftrucken with a fudden fear, they all fled vvithout a stroke stricken, and vvere flaughtered in great numbers: two of their Princes being made prisoners and na; which fled.

CHAP. XIII.

tions, and were not spoyled by them; or Histories. else they knowing that Zeba and Zalmunna In the end so much did the people revewere escaped with a great part of their Ar- rence Gideon in the present for his victory, my, might fear their revenge in the future. and there own deliverance, as they offered Secondly, it may be laid to the condition him the Soveraignty over them, and to and dispositions of these men: as it is not establish him in the Government; which he For there are multitudes of men, especially neither shall my childe reign over you, but the envy and maligne others, if they rerform any that they would beftow on him the golden praise-worthy actions, for the honour and car-rings which every man had gotten. For fafety of their own Country, though them- the Ismaelites, neighbours, and mixt with selves may be assured to bear a part of the the Midianites, used to wear them : the smart of contrary success. And such malici- weight of all which was a thousand and seous hearts can rather be contented that their ven hundred shekles of gold, which makes glory or good to either.

A place in Now Gideon, how or wherefoever it nen, belonging to the High Priest only, and A place in 190W G-732607, now of whereloever it nen, belonging to the Fight Friettom? self-and to me, belonging to the Fight Friettom? fet up the fame in his own City of Ophra or is thought fad 3.10. ry and hungry Souldiers, yet he followed Fphra, which drew Ifrael to Idolatry, the fame

flain. In his return the Ephramites began to the opportunity, and purfued his former quartel with Gideon, because he made war victory to the uttermost: and finding Zebah without their affiltance, being then greedy and Zalmunna in Karkor (tuspecting no furof glory, the victory being gotten: who ther attempt upon them) he again surprized (if Gideon had failed and fallen in the en- them, and flaughtered those 15000.remainterprize) would no doubt have held theming: having put to the fword in the former felves happy by being neglected. But Gide- attempt 120000. and withall he took Zebah on appealing them with a mild answer, fol- and Zalmunna prisoners: whom because lowed after the enemy, in which pursuit be- themselves had executed Gidion's brethren ing tyred with travel, and weary even with before at Tabor, he caused them both to be the flaughtering of his enemies, he defired flain: or (as it is written) at their own rerelief from the inhabitants of Succoth, to quest flew them with his own hands, his Son the end, that (his men being refreshed) he whom he first commanded to do it, resulting might over-take the other two Kings of the it; and in his return from the confummati-Midianites: which had faved themselves on of this marvellous victory, he took reby flight. For they were four Princes of venge of the Elders of succoth, and of the the Nations, which had invaded and wa- Citizens of Penuel: forgiving no offence ited Ifrael: to wit, Oreb and Seeb, which committed against him, either by strangers, were taken already, and Zebah and Zalmun- or by his brethren the Ifraelites. But such mercy as he shewed to others, his own chil-Gideon being denied by them of succoth, dren found foon after his death, according fought the like relief from the Inhabitants to that which hath been faid before. The of Penuel, who in like fort refused to succour debts of cruelty and mercy are never lest him. To both of these places he threatned unsatisfied: for as he slew the 70. Eldersof therefore the revenge, which in his return | Succoth, with great and unufual torments, fo from the profecution of the other two Prin- were his own 70. fons, all but one, murtheces, he performed: to vvit, that he vvould red by his own bastard Abimelec: The like tear the flesh of those of succoth with thorns | Analogy is observed by the Rabbines, in the and briars, and destroy the Inhabitants and greatest of the plagues which God brought City of Penuel. Novv vvhy the people of upon the Egyptians, who having caused the these two Cities should resuse relief to male children of the Hebrews to be slain, otheir brethren the Israelites, especially after thers of them to be cast into the River fo great a victory: if I may prefume to and drowned: God rewarded themeven make conjecture, it feems likely, first, that with the like measure, destroying their those Cities set over Jordan, and in the vvay own first born by his Angel, and drownof all invasions, to be made by the Moabites, ling Pharaoh and his Army in the Red Sea. Ammonites and Midianites, into Ifrael, had And hereof a world of examples might be either made their own peace with those Nat given both out of the Scriptures and other rare to find of the like humour in all ages. refused, answering; I mill not reign over 1011, July 813 of those which follow the war, that both Lord shall, &c. But he defired the people Prince and Country should suffer hazzard of ours 2380.li. if we follow the account of and want, than that fuch men as they mif- the shekle vulgar. And because he converlike, should be the authors or actors of any ted that gold into an Ephod; a garment of fugility or good to aither the state of the stat gold, blew filk, purple, fcarlet, and fine lifame was the destruction of Gideon and his house.

There was another kind of Ephod besides this of the High Priests, which the Levites used, and so did David when he danced before the Ark: and Samuel while he was yet young, which was made of linnen only.

death of Enrystheus, the Kingdom of Mycena was over-born and drowned. nage of Atrew died by the same sword.

In Gideon's time also those things were ly esteemed, having made for Minos a Laby- by Hercules his Scholar with his own Harp. geant, in those vicious times.

Junctam Pasiphaen Dicteo credite Tauro Vidimus, accepit fabula prisca fidem. Nec se miratur Cafar, longava vetustas Quicquid fama canit, donat arena tibi.

But concerning that which is reported of Now if any man demand how it was pof- Pasiphae, Servius makes a less unhonest confible for Gideon with 300. men to deftroy struction of it, thinking that Dadalus was of 130000. of their enemies, and afterward her counsel, and her Pandar for the entice-15000. which remained, we may remember, ling of a Secretary of Minos called Taurus. that although Gideon with 300. gave the first which fignifieth a Bull, who begat her with alarm, and put the Midianites in rout and childe; and that she being delivered of diforder; yet all the rest of the Army came two sons, the one resembling Taurus, the in to the flaughter, and pursuit: for it is other her husband Minos, it was feigned written; That the men of Ifrael being gathe- that the was delivered of the Monster Minored together out of Nephtaly, and out of Asher, taur, half a Man, and half a Buil. But this and out of Manasse, pursued after the Midia- practice being discovered, and Dadalus annites: for this Army Gideon left in Tents be- pointed to be flain, he fled out of Crete to hind him, when he went down to view the cocalus King of sicil: in which paffage he Army of his enemies, who with the noise of made such expedition, as it was seigned that his 300, trumpets came after him to the exe- he fashioned wings for himself and his son to transport them. For whereas Minos pursued There lived with Gideon, Agens, the fon him with boats which had oares only, Daof Pandion, who reigned in Athens: Euryst- dalus framed fails both for his own boat. hem King of Mycene: Atrews and Thyeftes and for his fons, by which he out-went those the fons of Pelops, who bare dominion over a that had him in chase. Upon which new ingreat part of Peloponnesus, and after the vention, Icarus bearing himself over-bolds fell into the hand of Atrews. This is that A- It is also written of Dedalus, that he made treus, who holding his brother in jealousie, Images that could move themselves, and as an attempter, both of his Wife and go, because he carved them with legs, arms, Crown, flew the children of Thyester, and and hands; whereas those that preceded causing their flesh to be drest, did therewith him, could only present the body and head feast their father. But this cruelty was not of those men, whom they carried to coununrevenged. For both Atreus and his fon terfeit, and yet the workmanship was e-Agamemnon was flain by a base son of Thye- steemed very rare. But Plutarch, who had ftes, yea the grand children, and all the li- feen some of those that were called the Images of Dædalus, found them exceeding rude.

With Gideon also flourished Linus the Howind. supposed to have been done, which are writ- Theban, the son of Apollo, and Terpsichore, Plat Paus. ten of Dædalus and Icarus. Dædalus, they who instructed Thamaris, Orphaus, and Her-1.9 fay, having flain his Nephew Attalus, fled to cules. He wrote of the Creation, of the Sun Minos, King of Crete, for fuccour; where and Moons course, and of the generation of for his excellent workmanship he was great- living Creatures, but in the end he was slain rinth, like unto that of Egypt. Afterward he Again, in this age those things spoken of Strab. 1.9. was faid to have framed an artificial Cow Sphinx, and Oedipus, are thought to have been for Passphace the Queen, that she, being in performed. This Sphinx being a great roblove with a fair Bull, might by putting her ber by fea and land, was by the Corinthians felf into the Cow, fatisfie her lust; a thing Army, led by Oedipus, overcome. But that no less unnatural than incredible, had not which was written of her propounding of that shameless Emperour Domitian exhibi- riddles, to those whom she mastered, was ted the like beaftly spectacle openly before meant by the rocky and unaccessible Mounthe people of Rome, in his Amphitheater; of tain near Thebes, which she defended; and by purpose, as may seem, to verifie the old Fa- Oedipus dissolving her probleme, his victory ble. For fo it appears by those Verses of over her. She was painted with wings, be-Martial, wherein the flattering Poet magni- cause exceeding swift, and with the body of fieth the abominable shew, as a goodly Pa- a Lion, for her cruelty. But that which Palaphatus reports of Sphinx, were more probable, bable, did not the time disprove it, for he | would take (supposing he were able) against calls her an Amazonite, and the wife of Cad- one of whom an Oracle should advise him to mus; who when by her help he had cast Dra- take heed? to which question when Ia. co out of Thebes (neglecting her) he marri- son had briefly answered, that he would fend ed the fifter of Draco, which sphinx taking in him to Colchos to fetch the golden Fleece, despightful part, with her own troop she held Pelias immediately commanded him to unthe Mountain by Thebes, from whence she dertake that service. Therefore Jason prepa. continued a sharp war upon the Thebans, till red for the voyage, having a ship built by by Oedipus overthrown. About this time did Argus the fon of Phryxus, by the counsel of Minos thrust his brother out of Crete, and Pallas: wherein he procured all the bravest held sharp war with the Megarians and Athe- men of Greece to fail with him: as Tuhis mians, because his fon Androgeus was flain the Master of the ship, Orpheus the famous by them. He possest himself of Megara, by Poet, Castor and Pollux the sons of Tyndarus. the treason of Scylla, daughter of Nisus the Telamon and Peleus sons of Eacus, and fa-King. He was long Master of the Sea, and thers of Ajax and Achilles, Hercules, Thesens. brought the Athenians to the tribute of deli- Zetes and Calais the two winged fons of Eq. vering him every year feven of their fons: reas, Amphiaraus the great Soothsayer, Me. which tribute Thefens released, as shall be leager of Calidon, that slew the great wild shewed, when I come to the time of the next Boar, Ascalaphus and Jalmenus, or Almenus, Judge Thola. In the end he was flain at the fons of Mars, who were afterwards at Arif. fol. Camerinus or Camicus in Sicilia, by Cocalus the last war of Troy, Laertes the father of Vthe King, while he pursued Dedalus: and was lyjjes, Atalanta a warlike Virgin, Idas and esteemed by some to be the first Law giver Lynceus the sons of Aphareus, who afterwards to those Islands.

CHAP. XIII.

Hercules, as the killing of Antous the Giant, selves: Lynceus by Pollux, Idas by Jupiter who was faid to have 60, and odd cubits of with lightning. length, which though Plutarch doth con- These and many other went with Jason in firm, reporting that there was fuch a body the ship Areo: in whose Prow was a table of found by Sertorius the Roman, in Lybia, where the Beech of Dodona, which could speak. Euleb. in Hercules flew Anteus: yet for my felf I think They arrived first at Lemnos; the women of it but a loud lie. That Anteus was of great which Island, having flain all the males, purstrength, and a cunning wrestler, Eusebins posing to lead an Amazonian life, were neaffirmeth: and because he cast so many men vertheless contented to take their pleasure to the ground, he was feigned to be the fon of the Argonauts. Hence they came to the of the earth. Pliny faith, that he inhabited Country about Cyzicus: where dwelt a peoune. de civil, Dei, near the Gardens Hosperisles in Mauritania. ple called Dolignes: over whom then reign-Lis. ct. St. Angustime affirms, that this Hercules was ed one Cyzicus, who entertained them in the Community of Lybia: and the Hydra al- friendly; but it so fell out, that looling fo which he overcame, Plato expoundeth to thence by night, they were driven by conbe a fubtle Sophister.

Of the Expedition of the Argonauts.

of which many fabulous discourses have been zed his funeral. Then departed they again, written, the fum of which is this:

mothers fide to Eson, who was Jasons far who went to feek Hylas the darling of Herdither, reigning in Jolcos a Town of Thessay, less that was ravished by the Nymphs. was warned by the Oracle of Apollo to take Polyphemus built a Town in Mysia called heed of him that wore but one shoe. This Cios, wherein he reigned. Hercules retur-Pelias afterward facrificing to Neptune, invited ned to Argos. From Mylia the Argonants fat-Jajon to him, who coming haltily, lost one led into Bythinia, which then was peopled thoe in palling over a brook: whereupon by the Bebryfer, the ancient Inhabitants of Pelias demanded of him what course he the Country, over whom Amycus the son in fight with Caftor and Pollux, flew Caftor, To this time are referred many deeds of and wounded Pollux, but were flain themtrary winds back into his Port, neither knowing that it was the same Haven, nor being known by the Doliones to be the same men: but rather taken for some of their bordering enemies: by which means they fell to blows, infomuch that the Argonauts flew the most part of the Doliones, together with their Bout the eleventh year of Gideon, was King Ozicus: which when by day-light they the famous expedition of the Argonauts perceived, with many tears they folemaiand arrived shortly in Mysia, where they lest Pelias the fon of Neptune, brother by the Hercules and Polyphemus the fon of Elates, er part of the victuals, did fo defile the them to Zetes. rest, that they could not be endured. When therefore the Argonauts craved his advice about this task, Medica the daughter of Aand direction for their voyage: You shall etes fell into a most vehement love of him. do well (quoth he) first of all to deliver so far forth, that being excellent in Magique, me from the Harpies, and then afterwards the came privily to him, promifing her help to ask my counsel. Whereupon they cau- if he would affure her of his marriage. To sed the table to be covered, and meat set this Jason agreed, and confirmed his promise on; vehich was no sooner set down, than by oath. Then gave she to him a medicine that presently in came the Harpies, and play- wherewith she bade him to anoint both ed their accustomed pranks : vyhen Zetes his body and his armour, which would preand Calais the vyinged young men faw this, ferve him from neir violence: further she they drew their fwords, and purfued them told him, that armed men would rife out of through the air: Some fay, that both the the ground, from the teeth which he should Harpies and the young men died of weariness sowe, and set upon him. To remedy in the fight, and pursuit. But Apollonius which inconvenience, she bade him throw faith, that the Harpies did covenant with the stones amongst them as soon as they came youths, to do no more harm to Phineus, and up thick, whereupon they would fall towere thereupon dismissed. For this good gether to blows, in such wise that he might turn, Phineus gave them informations of the easily flay them. Jajon followed her counway, and advertised them withall of the sel; whereto when the event had answerdangerous Rocks, called Symplegades, which ed, he again demanded the Fleece. But by force of windes running together, Æetes was fo far from approving fuch his dedid shut up the passage; wherefore he sire, that he devised how to destroy the Ar: willed them to put a Pigeon before them in gonauts, and burn their ship; which Medea the passage: and if that passed safe, then perceiving, went to Jason, and brought to adventure after her; if not, then by no him by night to the Fleece, which hung on means to hazzard themselves in vain. They an Oak in the Grove of Mars, where, they say did so, and perceiving that the Pigeon had it was kept by a Dragon that never slept. onely lost a piece of her tayle, they ob- This Dragon was by the Magick of Medica ferved the next opening of the Rocks, and cast into a sleep so taking away the then rowing with all their might, passed Golden Fleece, the went with Jason into

From thence forward (as the tale go-

of Neptune vvas then King. He being a wild Boar, also here Typhia dved: and An. firong man, compelled all strangers to fight cons undertook to steare the ship. So they with him at whorlbats, in which kind of passed by the River Thermodon, and Mount fight he had flain many, and vvas now Cancasus, and came to the River Phases, which himself slain by Pollux. The Bebryces in re- runs through the land of Colchos. When venge of his death flew all upon Pollux, but they were entred the haven, Jason went to his companions refeued him, with great Actes the King of Colchos, and told him the tlaughter of the people. They failed from Commandment of Pelias, and cause of his hence to Salmydesus a Town in Thrace coming, desiring him to deliver the golden (somewhat out of their vvay) wherein Phi- Fleece; which Æetes, as the Fable goeth, reus a South-sayer dwelt, vvho vvas blind, promised to do, if he alone would youk and vexed with the Harpies. The Harpies together two brazen hooft Bulls, and plowvere faid to be a kind of Birds vehich ing the ground with them, fowe Dragons had the faces of women, and foul long claws, teeth, which Minerva had given to him, very filthy creatures, which when the table being part of those which Cadmus did sowe was furnished for Phineus, came flying in, at Theles. These Bulls were great and sierce and devouring or carrying away the great- and breathed out fire: Vulcan had given Whilest Jason was in a great perplexity through safe, onely the end of their Poop the ship Argo; having with her, her brother Absyrtus.

Æetes understanding the practices of Meeth) the symplegades have frood still, for the dea, provided to pursue the ship, whom gods, fay they, had decreed that after the when Medea perceived to be at hand, she Paffageof a fhip, they should be fixed. Thence slew her brother, and cutting him in pieces, the Argonauti came to the Mariandyni, a she scattered his limbs in divers places; of people inhabited about the mouth of the ri- which Æeter finding some, was fain to seek Ver Parthenini, where Ligens the King en out the reft, and suffer his daughter to pass: tertained them courteoully, Here Idmon a the parts of his fon he buried in a place, Southlayer of their company was flain by a which thereupon he called Tomi; the Greek threatning that if they brought not back he saw the ship Argo pass by, he threw stones bout the Seas, and were come to the River by potions, which made him mad; others, Eridanus: which is Po in Italy.

336

and carried them they knew not whether; died: others there are that fay he vvas slain when they came to the Islands Absgrides, by Paan, who vvounded him vvith anarthere the ship Argo, (that there might want row in the heel. From hence the Argonaus no incredible thing in this Fable) spake to sailed to Egina, where they were sain to them and faid, that the anger of Jupiter fight for fresh vvater. And lastly, from Ægina should not cease, till they came to Aufonia, they failed by Eubea and Locais, home to and were cleaned by Circe, from the mur- Joleos, where they arrived, having spent four der of Absprtus. Now they thereupon fail. whole months in the expedition. ing between the coasts of Lybia and Gal-lia, and passing through the Sea of Sardi-fason, understand the mistery of the Philonia, and alongst the coasts of Herruria, came sophers stone, called the golden siecee, to to the Isle of Aea, wherein Circe dwelt, who vinich also, other super-line Coymifts draw cleanfed them. Thence they failed by the the twelve labours of Hercules, Suidas coast of the Sgrens, who sang to allure them thinks, that by the golden Fleece was meant into danger: but Orphens on the other fide a golden book of Parchment, which is of fang so well, that he franch them. Onely sheep-skin, and therefore called golden, be-Entes swam out unto them whom Venus ra- cause it vvas taught therein how other met-tween scylla and Carybdis, and the stragling which is most probable, is the opinion of Rocks, which feemed to cast out great store Dercilus, that the story of such a passage was of flames and smoak. But Thetis and the Ne- true, and that Jason with the rest went in reides, conveyed them fafe through at the deed to rob Colchos, to which they might are appointment of Juno. So they coasted si- rive by boat. For not far from Caucasus there cilie, where the Beeves of the Sun were, and are certain fleep falling torrents which touched at Coregra, the Island of the Phe- vvash down many grains of Gold, as in maaces, where King Alcinous reigned. Mean ny other parts of the World; and the peowhile the men of Colchor, that had been ple there inhabiting use to set many sleeces fent by Æles in quest of the ship Argo, of vvool in those descents of waters, in which hearing no news of it, and fearing his anger, the grains of gold remain, and the water if they fulfilled not his will, betook them- passed thorow, which strabo witnesseth to felves to new habitations: Some of them be true. The many rocks, straits, lands, and to the Pheaces, there found the thip Argo, and demanded Medea of Meinour whereto rifing out of the ground, the Dragon cast nauts departed thence, and after a while vels on the same In-land seas. came to Crete. In this Ifland Minos reigned, who had a man of brass given to him (as fome of the Fablers fay) by Vulcan. This man had one vein in his body reaching from the neck to the heel, the end whereof vvas closed up with a brazen naile; his name vvas word fignificth Division. Afterwards he sent Talus, his custome vvas to run thrice a day many of his subjects to feek the ship Argo, about the Island for the defence of it. When Medaa, they should suffer in her stead. In the at it, but Medaa with her Magick demean while the Argonauts were driven as froyed him. Some fay that the flew him that promising to make him immortal, she Jupiter, effended with the flaughter of drew out the naile that flopt his vein, by Abstract, vexed them with a great tempest, which means all his blood ran out, and he vished, and carried to Lylibeum in Sicily to tals might be transmuted. Others would fignifie by Jason, Wisdom, and Modera-Having past the Syrens, they came to tion, which overcomethall perils but that dwelt in the Mountains of Coregre, others in currents, in the passage between Greece and the Illands of Absorbides, and some coming the bottom of Pontus, are Poetically con-Aleinous made aniwer, that if its care not afleep, and the like. The man of braksthe Jasons wife, they should have ner; but if Syrens, Scylla and Charibdis, were other hazthe were already married, he would not zards and adventures which they fell into take her from her husband. Arete, the wife of in the Mediteran Sea, disguised, as the rest, by Alcinous, hearing this, married them:where- Orpheus, under Poetical morals : all which fore they of Colchos, not daring to return Homer afterward used (the man of brakexhome, stayed with the Pheaces, so the Argo- cepted) in the description of Vlysses his tra6. VII.

CHAP. XIII.

tus, cvc.

of their Idoll Baalberith, with which treathe good juice it had: the Bramble onely, ny; of all which none escaped but Jotham Cedars of Libanon. the youngest, who hid himself from his pre- Now (as it is an easie matter to call those fent fury: all which he executed on one men back whom rage without right led stone; a cruelty exceeding all that hath on Gaal the son of Ebed withdrew the Cibeen written of in any age. Such is humane tizens of Sechem from the Service of Abimeambition, a monster that neither feareth lech: who therefore after some assaults en-God (though all-powerfull, and whose re- tred the place, and mastered it; and in convenges are without date, and for everlast-clusion fired the Town, wherein their Idoll ing) neither hath it respect to nature, which Baalberith was worshipped, and put all the laboureth the preservation of every being : people of all sorts to the slaughter. Lastly, passions and affections, by which the souls and finding himself mortally bruised, he of men are tormented, are by their contra- commanded his own Page to pierce his body, ries often-times refifted or qualified. But thereby to avoid the dishonour of being flain ambition, which begetteth every vice, and is by so feeble a hand. it felf the child and darling of Satar, looketh onely towards the ends by it felf fet the Lapitha and Centaurs made war against on the contrary. It ascribeth the lamentable effects of like attempts, to the error or into the plains, those which had never seen Paper into the plains, those which had never seen Paper into the plains, those which had never seen and rather horsene before, thought them creatures in the plains. praiseth the adventure, than feareth the like compounded of men and horses; so did the success. It was the first sin that the World Mexicans, when Ferdinando Cortes the Spahad, and began in Angels: for which they | niard first invaded that Empire. were cast into Hell, without hope of re- After the death of Abimeleck, Tholo of demption. It was more ancient than man, Isfachar governed Ifrael 23. years, and after and therefore no part of his natural corruption. The punishment also preceded his creation, yet hath the Devil, which felt the fmart thereof, taught him to forget of Abimelech, Tholan, and Jair, and of the one as out of date, and to practife the the Lapytha, and of Thefeus, Hippoly- other, as befitting every age, and mans condition.

Jotham, the youngest of Gideons sons, Fter the death of Gideon, Abimclech his having escaped the present peril, sought by A base son, begotten on a Concubine of his best perswasions to alienate the Sechethe Sechemites, remembring what offers had mites from the affifting of this merciless Tybeen made to his father by the people, who rant, letting them know, that those which defired to make him and his their perpetual were vertuous, and whom reason and reli-Princes; and, as it feemeth, supposing (not- gion had taught the safe and happy estate withflanding his fathers religious modesty) of moderate subjection, had refused to rethat some of his brethren might take on ceive as unlawful, what othershad no powthem the Soveraignty, practifed with the In- er to give, without direction from the habitants of Sechem (of which his mother King of Kings: who from the beginning was native) to make election of himself; (as to his own peculiar people) had appointwho being easily moved with the glory, to ed them by whom and how to be governhave a King of their own, readily conde-ed. This he taught them by the Olive, which feended: and the better to enable Abime- contented it felf with its Fatness, the Figgelech, they borrowed seventy pieces of filver tree with its sweetness, and the Vine with fure he hired a company of loofe and def- who was most base, cut down all the rest, and perate vagabonds, to affift his first detesta- accepted the Soveraignty. He also fore-told ble enterprise, to wit, the slaughter of his them by a Prophetical spirit, what should befeventy brethren, the fons of Gideon, be- fall them in the end, and how a fire should gotten on his Wives, of which he had ma-come out of the Bramble, and confume the

but it rageth also against her, though gar- in the assault of the Castle or Tower of Tenished with beauty which never dieth, and | her, himself was wounded in the head with with love that hath no end. All other a stone thrown over the wall by a woman;

down, forgetting nothing (how fearfull the Thebans. These Nations were descended and inhumane soever) which may serve it ; of Apollo, and were the first in those parts remembring nothing, whatfoever justice, that devised to manage horses, to bridle and piety, right or religion can offer and alledge to sit them: insomuch, as when they first to be descended of Jair the son of Manasse, of his name Ægeum. Dent 3.14 who in Moles time conquered a great part | One of the first famous acts of Thesens, VVas of Gilead, and called the same after his the killing of scyron, who kept a passage beown name, Havoth Jair. For to this Jair there tween Megara and the Peloponnesian Ishmos. remained thirty of those Cities which his and threw all vyhom he mastered into the Ancestor had recovered from the Amorites | Sea, from the high Rocks. Asterward he did else written, it is an argument, that during sed by that art to kill others. He also rid all their times Ifrael lived without distur- the Country of Procrustes, vvho used to bance, and in peace.

CHAP. XIII.

to reign in Troy, who at fuch time as Hercn- of them to one, and part to the other bough, les facked Ilium, was carried away captive and by the fpringing up tare them afunder. with his fifter Hessiane into Greece, and being So did he root out Periphetes and other afterward redeemed for ransome, he re-built mischievous thieves and murtherers. He and greatly strengthened and adorned Troy; overthrew the Army of the Amazones, who and so far enlarged his Dominions, as he be- after many victories and vastations, entred came the supreme Lord in effect of all Asia the Territory of Atheus. Theseus having the less. He married Hecuba the Daughter of taken their Queen Hippolita prisoner, begat Ciffeus King of Thrace, and had in all (faith on her Hippolitus; with whom afterward Cicero) fifty fons, whereof feventeen by He- his mother-in-law Phedra, falling in love, cuba, of whom Paris was one; who attemp- and he refuling to abuse his fathers bed, ting to recover his Aunt Hesione, took Helena Pheedra perswaded Thesens, that his son offethe Wife of Menelaus, the cause of the war red to force her : after which it is seigned, which followed.

likewise to reign in the beginning of Jair: Neptune taking a time of advantage, sentout fome Writers call him the fon of Neptune his Sea-Calves, as Hippolitus passed by the and Æthra: but Plutarch in the Story of his Sca-shore, and so affrighted his horses, as castlife, finds him begotten by Ageus, of whom | ing the Coach over, he was (by being inthe Grecian Sea between it and Asia the less tangled therein) torn in pieces. Which mitook name. For when Minos had mastered serable and undeserved destiny, when Phathe Athenians, to far as he forc'd them to pay dra had heard of the strangled her self. After him seven of their sons every year for tri- which it is seigned, that Diana intreated #fbute, whom he inclosed within a Labyrinth, culapius to set Hippolitus his pieces together, to be devoured by the Monster Minotaur: and to restore him to life: which done, bebecause belike the sons of Taurus, which he cause he was chaste, she led him with her into begat on Paliphae the Queen, had the charge Italy, to accompany her in her hunting, and of them: among these seven Theseus thrust | field sports. himself, not doubting by his valour to deliver the rest, and to free the Countrey of that ther sought his life, thinking to escape by flavery occasioned for the death of Androge- Sea, was affronted thereat, and did receive as, Minos his fon.

affection, who was Minos daughter, he re-skilful Physician, or Chirurgion, healed aceived from her a bottom of thred, by which gain: after which he passed into Italy, where he conducted himself through all the croo- he lived with Diana, that is, the life of a ked and inextricable turnings of the Laby- Hunter, in which he most delighted. But of rinth, made in all like that of the City of those ancient prophane Stories Plutarch saith Crocodiles in Egypt; by means whereof ha- well, that as Cosmographers in their descripving flain Minotaur, he found a ready way to tions of the World, where they find many return. But vyhereas his father Agens had vast places whereof they know nothing, fill given order, that if he came back with vi- the same with strange Beasts, Birds, and Fish-Ctory and in fafety, he should use a white fail es, and with Mathematical lines; so do the in fign thereof, and not that mournful black Grecian Historians and Poets imbroder and fail under which they left the port of Athens: intermixe the Tales of ancient times, with a This instruction being either forgotten or world of fictions and fabulous discourses. neglected, Agens descrying the ship of Thesens True it is, that Thesens did many great him Jair the Gileadite 22. years, who feems | Rocks down into the Sea, afterward called

Of these Judges, because there is nothing the like to Cercyon, by vvrestling, vvho ubend down the strong limbs of two trees. When Jair judged Ifrael, Priamus began and fastned by cords such as he took, part that Theseus besought Neptune to revenge Thefens the tenth King of Athens, began this wrong of his fons by fome violent death.

It is probable that Hippolitus, when his famany wounds in forcing his passage and e-And having possess himself of Ariadnes scape; which wounds Asculapins, to wit, some vvith a black fail, did cast himself over the things in imitation of Hercules, whom he to live under, and in order, he was by the mefes, and afterwards Annemanes. beggarly, mutable, and ungrateful multitude, in the end banished. Some fay, per Oftracifinum, by the Law of Lots, or names written on shels, which was a device of his fifty years old, from Aphidna, which City caftor and Pollux overturned, when they followed after Thefeus to recover their fifter. dothovid, Non tamen ex facto fructum tulit | this objection : ille petitum, &c. The rape Eusebius finds in the first of fair, who governed Ifrael twenty two years, to whom fucceeded Jephta or Jepte, fix years, to whom Ibzan, who ruled fever years, and then Habdon eight years: in whose time was the fall of Troy. So, as if Thefeus had a child by her in the If all this World had no original, first of fair, (at which time we must count | But things have ever been as now they are: her no less than fifteen years old: for the Before the fiege of Thebes, or Troys last fall, women did not commonly begin fo young as they do now) the was then at least two and fifty years old at the destruction of Troy: mitting, not agree. Yet Eusebius and Bunting, with of greater Tribes: and no man thinking the Ag to ded Lavinium. But S. Augustine hath other- Glaucus vvas vvorth an hundred Beeves; and the Copper Armour of Diomedes vvorth one.

on; Muestheus, Athens; Tantanes, Assyria; one. Habdon, Ifrael; then Eneas arrived in Italy, ftory of Troy at hand.

the common account in the time of Thola. may well be thought that the rest were pro-

made his pattern, and was the first that ga- | held a great part of Peloponnesus. In Asspria, thered the Athenians, from being difper- during the government of these two peacefed in thin and ragged Villages : in recom- able Judges, Mitreus, and after him Tantanes pence whereof, and for deviling them Laws reigned. In Egypt, Amenophio, the fon of Ra-

§. VIII.

Of the war of Thebes, which was in this He stole Helen (as they fay) when she was

N this age was the War of Thebes, the most ancient that ever Greek Poet or Historian Eralistratus and Pausanias write, that Thesens vvrote of: Wherefore the Roman Poet Lubegot her with child at Argos, where the cretius, affirming (as the Epicures in this point erected a Temple to Lucina: but her age held truly against the Peripateticks) that the makes that Tale unlikely to be true, and so World had a beginning, urgeth them with > —Si nulla fuit genitalis origo Rerumque & mundi, semperque aterna fuere, Cur supra bellum Thebanum, & funera Troja, Non alias alii quoque res cecinere Poeta s

Why did no Poet fing some elder War?

It is true, that in these times Greece vvas and when she was stollen by Paris, eight very salvage, the Inhabitants being often and thirty: but herein the Chronologers do chaced from place to place, by the Captains Halicarnacesseus, do in effect consent, that the ground vyhereon he dwelt his own, longer City was entred and burnt in the first year than he could hold it by strong hand. Whereof Demoploon King of Athens, the Successions fore merchandize and other intercourse they four of Mnestheus, the Successiour of Theseus, used little; neither did they plant many feventeen daies before the Summer Tropick; trees, or fow more corn than vvas necessary and that about the eleventh of September | for their fustenance. Money they had little following, the Trojans croft the Hellespont or none; for it is thought that the name of into Thrace, and wintered there, and in the money was not heard of in Greece, when next spring that they navigated into Sicilia, Homer did vvrite, vvho measures the vawhere wintering the fecond year, the next lue of Gold and Brass: by the vvorth in Summer they arrived at Laurentum, and buil- cattel : faying, that the golden Armour of Roberries by land and fea vvere common transporting with him in twenty ships the re- and vvithout shame, and to steal horses or mainder of the Trojans: but the difference is kine was the usual exercise of their great not great; and hereof more at large in the men Their Towns vvere not many, vvhereof those that vvere vvalled vvere very few, and In Sicyonia, Phasius the two and twenti- not great. For Mycena the principal City in eth King, reigned eight years, beginning by Peloponnesus was a very little thing, and it His successions, Adrastus, who reigned four portionable: briefly, Greece was then in her years, and Polyphides, who reigned thirteen infancy, and though in some small Towns of are accounted to the time of jair; so is also that half Ille of Peloponnesia, the Inhabi-Minestheus King of Athens and Atrens, who tants might have enjoyed quietness within

HAP. XIII.

Athenians, because their Country was so bar- whom striving about their lodging, he fell ren, that none did care to take it from them: to blowes. Adrastus hearing the noise came vet that the Land in general was very rude, forth and took up the quarrel. At which it will eafily appear to fuch as confider what time perceiving in the shield of Tydeus a Thueidydes the greatest of their Historians Bore, in that of Polynices a Lion, he rehath written to this effect, in the Preface to membred an old Oracle by which he was his History. Wherefore, as in these later advised to give his two Daughters in martimes, idle chroniclers use when the want riage to a Lion and a Bore: and according-good matter, to fill whole Books with re-ly he did bestow his Daughter Argia upon ports of great Frosts, or dry Summers, and Tydeus, and Deipyle upon Polynices, proother such things which no man cares to missing to restore them both to their Counreade; so did they who spake of Greece in tries. To this purpose levying an Army, her beginnings, remember only the great and affembling as many valiant Captains as Flouds which were in the times of Ogyges and he could draw to follow him, he was de-Deucation: or elle rehearse Fables of men firous among others to carry Amphiaraus changed into Birds, of strange Monsters, of the fon of Oicleus a great Soothsayer, and adultery committed by their gods, and the a valiant man, along with him. But Ammighty men which they begat, without wri- phyaraus, who is faid to have fore-feenall ting ought that favoured of humanity be-fore the time of the war of Thebes: the brief tains should escape, fave only Adrassus, whereof is this.

having been cast forth when he was an In- at home. Polynices therefore dealt with fant, because an tracle sorecold what evil Eriphyle the Wife of Amphyaraus, offering should come to pass by him, did afterwards unto her a very fair Bracelet, upon conin a narrow passage, contending for the dition that she should cause her Husbandto way, flay his own Father, not knowing affift him. The Soothfayer knowing what either then or long after, vvho he vvas. should work his destiny, forbade his Wife Afterward he became King of Thebes, by to take any gift of Polynices. But the Bracemarriage of the Queen Jocasta, called by let was in her eye so precious a Jewel, that Homodyff. Homer, Epicaste: on whom, not knowing she could not refuse it. Therefore whereher to be his mother, he begat two fons, as a great controversie between Amphya-Eteocles and Polynices. But when in process rans and Adrastus, was by way of comproof time, finding out by good circumstan- mise put unto the decision of Eriphyle, either ces, who were his Parents, he understood of them being bound by solemn oath to the grievous murther and incest he had stand to her appointment: she ordered the committed, he tore out his own eyes for matter fo, as a Woman should that did love grief, and left the City. His Wife (and a Bracelet better than her Husband. He Mother) did hang her felf. Some fay, that now finding that it was far more easie to Oedipus having his eyes pulled out, vvas ex- foresee then avoid destiny, sought for such pelled Thebes, bitterly curfing his fons, be-comfort as revenge might afford him, cause they suffered their father to be cast giving in charge unto his sons, that when out of the Town, and aided him not, they came to full age, they should kill Howsoever it were, his two Sons made this their Mother, and make strong war upon agreement, that the one of them should the Thebanes. reign one year, and the other another year, Now had Adrastus assembled all his forand so by course rule interchangeably. ces, of which, the seven chief Leaders were But this appointment was ill observed. For himsels, Amphiaraus, Capaneus, and Hippowhen Polynices had after a years govern- medon (in stead of whom some name Mesiment refigned the Kingdom to his brother : fens) all Argives, with Polynices the Theban, or (according to others) when Etcocles Tydeus the Etolian, and Parthenopeus the had reigned the first year, he refused to Arcadian, son of Meleager and Atalanta. give over the rule to Polynices. Hereup-on Polynices fled unto Argos, where Adra-they met a Woman, whom they defired to flus the son of Talass then reigned, unto help them to some Water; she having a whose Palace coming by night, he was Childe in her arms, laid it down, and led the back-fide.

their parrow bounds; as likewise did the news, who was fled from Calydon: with did both utterly refuse to be one in that Oedipus the son of Laius King of Thebes, expedition, and perswaded others to stay driven to seek lodging in an out-house, on the Argives to a Spring: but ere she return ed, a Serpent had flain the Childe. This There he met with Tydeus the fon of Oe- Woman was Hypfipyle the Daughter of Thors the Lemnian, whom the would have faved manders unto them, took advice of Tirefies when the Woman of the Isle slew all the the Soothsayer, who promised Victory to Males by conspiracy, intending to lead an A- the Thebans, if Menacius the son of Creen, a mazonian life. For such her Piety the Lemnian principal man of the City, would vow him-Wives did fell her to Pyrats, and the Py- felf to be flain in honour of Mars the god of rate to Lycurgus Lord of the Countrey a- War. So full of malice and pride is the Dehout Nemea, whose young fon Opheltes, vil, and so envious at his Creators glory, or Archemorus she did nurse, and lost, as is that he not only challengeth honour due to fet down.

had gates) did compass the Town, Adrastus according, slew each other. quartered before the Gate Homoloides , Capaneus before the Ogygean, Tydeus before Crenis, Amphiarans at Proctis, Hippomedon at Anchais, Parthenopaus at Electa, and Polynices at Hyplifta. In the mean feason, Eteocles

thewed before. When upon the Childs God alone, as oblations and facrifice withal death she hid her self for fear of her Master, Divine worship, but commandeth us to Amphiaraus told her Sons where they should offer our selves and our children unto him. find her: and the Argives did both kill when he hath sufficiently clouded mens unthe Serpent which had flain the Child, and derstanding, and bewitched their Wils with in memory of the chance, did institute so- ignorance and blind devotion. And such lemn funeral games, called Nemaan, where abominable facrifice of men, maides, and in Adrustus wan the prize with his swift children hath he exacted of the syrians, horse Areon, Tydeus with the whorlbars, Am- Carthaginians, Gauls, Germans, Cyprians, Ephiaraus at running and quoiting, Polynices gyptians, and of many other, if not of all Naat wrestling, Parthenopeus at shooting, and tions, when through ignorance or sear they one Landocus in darting. This was the first were most filled with superstition. But as institution of the Nemean games, which con- they grew more wife, so did he wax less imtinued after famous in Greece for very many | pudent in cunning , though not less maliciages. There are, who think that they were ous in defiring the continuance of fuch barordained in honour of one opheltus a La- barous inhumanity. For King Diphilus in cedemonian. Some fay by Hercules, when Cyprus without advice of any Oracle, made he had flain the Nemaan Lion: but the com- the Idol of that Country rest contented with mon opinion agrees with that which is here an Oxe in stead of a man. Tiberius forbade humane facrifices in Africa, and crucified From Nemea the Argives marched on-wards, arrived at Citheron, whence Tydeus practifed them. Hercules taught the Lalians was by them fent Embassadour to Thebes, to to drown men of hay in stead of the living: require of Eteocles the performance of Covenants between him and Polynices. This these cruel offerings have been practised of message was nothing agreeable to Eteocles, late Ages: which, as it is a sufficient arguwho was throughly refolved to hold what ment that Satan's malice is only covered he had, as long as he could: which Tydens and hidden by this subtilty among civil peoperceiving, and intending partly to get ho.

ple: fo it may ferve as a probable conjecture of the barbarismes then raigning in Thebanes, he made many challenges, and ob- Greece. For Menacius, as foon as he undertained victory in all of them, not without stood that his death might purchase Victory much envy and malice of the people, who to his people, bestowed himself (as he laid fifty men in ambush to intercept him at thought) upon Mars, killing himself before his return to the army, of which fifty he flew the gates of the City. Then was a battel allbut one, whom he fent back to the City as fought, wherein the Argives prevailed so far a Reporter and Witness of his Valour. When at the first, that Capanius advancing laddars the Argives understood how resolved Eteo- to the Wals, got up upon the Rampart: cles was, they presented themselves before whence, when he fell, or was cast down, or the City, and encamped round about it. (as Writers wave it) was stricken down by Thebes is faid to have had at that time seven Jupiter with a thunder bolt, the Argives fled. gates, which belike stood not far asunder, Many on each part were sain in this battel, feeing that the Argives (who afterward which caused both fides to defire that Eteowhen they were very far ftronger, could | cles and Polynices might try out the quarrel fearce muster up more thousands than Thebes in single fight: whereto the two brethren

Another battel was fought after their death, wherein the fons of Aftacus behaved themselves very valiantly: Ismarus one of the fons flew, Hippomedon, which was one of the seven Princes: Parthenopaus being anohaving armed his men, and appointed Com- ther of the feven (who was faid to have been so fair, that none would hurt him when | Tutor to Laodamas) who though he did his face was bare) was flain by Amphidicus, valiantly in the battel, and flew Agialeus. his tace was bare) was hant by amputations, variating in the barter, and frew Agralem, cr, as fome fay, by Periclymenus the fon of Neptune: and the valiant Tydeus, by Mena-lippus vet ere Tydeus died, the head of Menalippus was brought unto him by Amphy-araus, which he cruelly tore open, and fwal-time they conveyed themselves with their Wilson and Children and Childr lowed up the brains. Upon which fact, it is Wives and Children away from thence by faid, that Pallas, who had brought from Ju- night, and so began to wander up and down. piter such remedy for his wounds, as should till at length they built the Town called have made him immortal, refused to bestow Estina. The Argives, when they perceived it upon him: whereby perhaps was meant that their enemies had quitted the Town, that his honour which might have continu- entring into it, facked it, threw down the ed immortal, did perish through the beastly Wals, and laid it waste; howbeit it is rerage that he shewed at his death.

comfitted, Adrastus and Amphyaraus fled: of the Citizens to return, did there reign over whom Amphyarans is faid to have been swal- them. That he saved the City from utter delowed quick into the earth, near to the Ri- struction, it is very likely; for he reigned ver Ismenus, together with his Chariot, and there, and led the Thebans to the War of fo loft out of mens fight, being peradven- Troy, which very shortly after ensued. ture overwhelmed with dead carkasses, or drowned in the River: and his body never found, nor greatly fought for. Adrastus escaped on his good horse Arion, and came to of Jephta, and how the three hundred years Athens; where fitting at an Altar, called the Altar of Mercy he made supplication for their aid to recover their bodies. For Creon having obtained the government of Thebes after the death of Etcocles, would not fuffer the bodies of the Argives to be buried : but caused Antigone, the only daughter then 1 whose time these things hapned in living of Oedipus, to be buried quick, because Greece, and during whose Government, and the had fought out and buried the body of that of Thola, Ifrael lived in peace and in orher brother Polynices, contrary to Creons der) they revolted again from the Law and Edict. The Athenians condescending to the Service of God, and became more wicked request of Adrastus, did send forth an Army and idolatrous than ever. For whereas in under the conduct of Thefens, which took the former times they worshipped Baal and Thebes, and restored the bodies of the Ar- Asteroth, they now became followers of all gives to fepulture: at which time Evadne the Heathen Nations adjoyning, and imbrathe Wife of Capaneus threw her self into the ced the Idols of the Aramites, of the Zidanifuneral fire, and was burnt willingly with ans, Moabites, and Ammonites: with those her Husband. But it little contented the of the Philistims. And as before it pleased fons of those Captains which were flain at God to correct them by the Aramites, by City: Wherefore ten year after, having terward by the Philistims. levied Forces, Egialeus the son of Adrastus, Now among the Israelites, those of Gilead Australia in the line life Diomedes of Tideus, Promachus of Partheno-peus, Sthenelus of Capaneus, Therfunder of Po-peus, Sthenelus of Capaneus, Therfunder of Po-tonics, and Envisedum of Marideau of manded to kill his own Mother.

encountred by Landamas the fon of Eteocles ry. And when he had disputed with Ammon ported by fome, that the Town was faved by The host of the Argives being wholly dif- Thirfander the son of Polynices, who causing which he speaketh of , Judg. 11. 28. are to be reconciled with the places, Acts 13.20. 1 Reg. 6.1. together with some other things touching Chronology about these times.

A Fter the death of Jair (near about Thebes, that any less revenge should be taken the Amalekites, and Midianites: so now he falon of their Fathers death, than the ruinc of the scourged them by the * Ammonites, and of the feeth Ignices, and Euripylus of Mecisteus, marched seek Jephta, whom they had formerly despt. interest thither under the conduct of Alemeon, the fed and cast from them, because he was base work fon of Amphiaraus: with whom also went born; but he (notwithfanding thole for single this brother Amphylotlus. Apollo premifed mer injuries) participating more of goddy form. Victory, if Alemeon were their Captain, compassion, than of devilish hatred and re-gangle whom afterward by another Oracle he com- venge, was content to lead the Gileadites to 11. the War, upon condition that they should When they came to the City, they were establish him their Governour after Victothen King of the Thebans (for Creon was only for the Land, disproved Ammon's right, and fortified the Title of Ifrael by many argu-the foundation of solomon's Temple, there of Gideon, 3. of Abimelech, 23. of Thola, and of the Tribe of Ephraim, either envious of their neighbour Princes, and therefore Jephta's victory, or otherwise making way knowing that to name three hundred years, to their future calamity, and to the most it was enough for prescription, he omitted grievous flavery that ever Ifrael fuffered, the rest. quarrelled with Jephta, that they were not called to the War, as before time they had was omitted.

be necessary upon the occasion of Jephta's account of the times, Jud. 11.28. (where he oright and possession of Gilead: the second quiet possession of the Countries in questiments, the same prevailing nothing, he be- were consumed 480. years. To the first, Began the war; and being strengthened by roaldus findeth Jephta's 300. years to be but God, overthrew them: and did not onely 266. years, to wit, 18. of Josus, 40. of Othobeat them out of the Plains, but forc't them niel,80. of Aod and Samgar,40. of Debora,40. over the industrial of the vineyards, Citics exprest heretofore in the description of the Holy Land. After which victory it is said, that an uncertain: Sie ut dicat annum agi proper principal property in the property of t he performed the vain vow which he made, trecentesimum, ex quo nullus litem ea de re moto facrifice the first living creature he in verit Israeli; So he speaketh (faith he) as countred, coming out of his house to meet meaning, that then it was about, or well-nigh the him; which happened to be his own daughter, and onely childe, who with all patience Countries, no man making question of their submitted her self, and onely defired two right. Codoman on the contrary finds more moneths time to bewail her Virginity on the years than Jephta named by 65, to wit, 365, Mountains of Gilead; because in her the whereof 71. were spent in Israels captivity, at iffuses of her Father ended: but the other feveral times, of which (as Codoman thinkopinion, that she was not offered, is more pro- eth, Jephta forbare to repeat the whole sum, bable, which Borhaus and others prove luffi- or any great part, left the Ammonites should have justly objected, that 71. of those years After these things the children of Israel, the Israelites were in captivity, and vasials to contested with Gideon. Jephta hereupon to be added to Beroaldus his 266. he addeth inforced to defend himself against their su- also 28, years more, and so maketh up the ry, in the incounter flew of them 42000. fum of 365. These 28, years he findeth which so weakened the body of the Land, out thus: twenty years he gives to the as the Philistims had an easie conquest of seniors between Josta and Othoniel: and them all not long after. Jephta, after he had where Beroaldus alloweth eighteen years to judged Israel in years, died: to whom suc- Josua his government, Codoman accounts ceeded Ibzan, who ruled seven years: after that his rule lasted 26. according to Johim Elon was their Judgeten years: in all fephus; whereas Saint Agustine and Eusebiwhich time Ifrael had peace. Eusebius finds us give him 27. Melanthon 32. The not Elon, whom he calleth Adon, for in the truth is, that this addition of 28. years, is septuagint, approved in his time, this Judge | far more doubtful than the other of 71. But though we admit not of this additi-Now before I go on with the rest, it shall on, yet by accounting of some part of the years of affliction (to wit 34. years of the 71.) if we add them to the 266. years fayes that Ifrael had then possess the East of Beroaldus, which reckoneth none of fide of Jordan 300. years) to speak somewhat these, we have the just number of 300. years, of the times of the Judges, and of the differ- Neither is it strange that Jephta should leave ing opinions among the Divines and Chro- out more than half of the years of afflinologers: there being found three places of ction: feeing, as it is already faid, the Am-Scriptures touching this point, seeming re- monites might except against the 71 years, Pugnant or disagreeing: the first is in this and say, that during these years, or at least dipute between Jephia and Ammon, for the a good part of them, the Ifraelites had no is that of S. Paul, Alls 13. the third is that on. Martin Luther is the author of a third which is in the first of Kings. Jephia here challengeth the possession of Gilead for 300. bred by Jephia, to be 306. which odd years, years: S. Paul giveth to the Judger, as it feems, faith he, Jephia omitteth. But because the from the end of Tofia to the last of Heli,450. years In the first of Kings it is taught, that from the departing of Ifrael out of Egypt, to do onely compound 266, therefore doth which Mofes fpent in the Defarts of Arabia lites had conquered Sehon and Og, the right Petraa; which forty years of Moses added of possession which they had, passed to Israel. to the number which Beroaldus indeth of and fo Jephta might fay, that they had pof-266. make indeed 306.

Luthers judgment herein: for in the dispute rest of the possession of the two Kings, Schon between Jephta and Ammon for the Land of and og, whose right the Ifraelites had by the Gilead, it is written in the person of Ammen, law of conquest. in these words: Because Israel took my Land, ginning of this account is to be referred to doth the better to approve the times from the time of the taking: which Jephta's answer the egression out of Egypt to the building of also confirmeth in these words: When Ifrael the Temple, which in the first of Kings 6. is Judg. 11. dwelt in Heshbon, and in her Towns, and in said to be 480. years. Aroer, and in her Towns, and in all the Cities | Now forasmuch as Saint Paul (as it seems) that are by the coast of Arnon 300. years: why finds 450. years from the death of Josuan did ye not then recover them in that space? to the last of Heli, and leaves but thirty years as this place speaks it directly, that Ifrael had for Saul and Samuel, who governed 40. for inhabited and dwelt in the Cities of Gilead David who ruled 40. and for Solomon who 200. years: and therefore to account the wore the Crown three whole years erethan victories and possessions.

Luther add to this number the whole time and Ammon thereof: fo that when the Ifraefeffed those Countries 300. years, reckoning But I see nothing in the Text to warrant 266. years of their own possession, and the

The second place disputed is this of Saint Render when they came up from Egypt , from Arnon Paul, Act. 13 that from the end of Josua, to the 14 of unto Jaboc . Oc. now therefore restore those beginning of Samuel, there past 450. years, and the Lands quietly; or in peace. So by this place And this place Luther understandeth also finds it is plain, that the time is not to be account- befides the letter (as I find his opinion cited closed) ed from Moses departure out of Fgypt: but by Functius Krentzhemius, and Beza) for I Bert intit from the time that the Land was possess. For have not read his Commentaries. For heacit is said, Quia cepit Ifrael terram meam, Behold counteth from the death of Moses, to the last the u. d Ifrael took my Land: and therefore the be- year of Heli, but 357. years: and this he 4ff. s.in.

times from the hopes or intents that Ifrael the foundation of the Temple was laid; had to possess it, it seemeth somewhat strain- therefore Luther takes it, that there was ered to me: for we do not use to reckon the rour in the Scribe, who wrote out this piece time of our conquests in France, from our of Scripture of Saint Paul: to wit, Then af-Princes intents or purposes, but from their termard he gave unto them Judges about 450. Allen years, unto the time of Samuel the Pro-Junius nevertheless likes the opinion of phet: the words [then afterward] being Luther, and fayes, that this time of 300. years clearly referred to the death, or after the hath reference, and is to take beginning from death of Josua, as shall be hereafter proved. the first of Tephta's narration: when he But where Saint Luke, rehearling the words makes a brief repetition of Moses whole of Saint Paul, wrote 350. years (faith Luther) journey: to wit, at the fixteenth Verse of the | the Scribe in the transcription being deceieleventh Chapter of Judges, in our translati- ved by the affinity of those two Greek on in these words: But when Israel came up words, whereof the one signifieth 300, and from Egypt, &c. and therefore Moses his 40. the other 400. wrote Tetracosiois, for Triacoyears (ashe thinks) are to be accounted, fiois; 400. years for 300. years; and 450.for which make the number of 305. years: and 350. This he feeketh to strengthen by manot onely the time in which Ifrael possest Gi- ny arguments: to which opinion Beza in his lead, according to the Text, and Jephra's own great annotations adhereth. A contrary words: of which I leave the judgment to o- judgment to this hath Codoman: where Luthers; to whom also I leave to judge, whe- ther and Beza begin at Moses death, he takes ther we may not begin the 480. years, from his account from the death of josta, and the deliverance out of Egypt to the Temple, from thence to the beginning of Samuel he even from the first departure out of Egypt, makes 430. years: to wit, of the Judges (not and yet find a more probable reconciliation reckoning sampsons, years) 319, and of years of Saint Pauls and Jephta's account with this of servitude and affliction under stranreckoning than any of those that as yet have gers, 111. The reason why he doth not receive been signified. For first touching Table been signified. For first, touching Jephia's kon Sampsons twenty years, is, because he three hundred years of possession of the East, thinks that they were part of the 40. Years, fide of Jordan, it is to be remembred, that in which the Philiftims are faid to have for a good while before the Wraelites posses oppressed. For it is plain, that due for a good while before the Wraelites posses of the state of t fed it, Sehon and Og had dispossessed Month ring all Sampfons time, they were Lordsover in Israel So then of the Judges, besides the III. doth evidently teach the contrary, though years of servitude, Codoman reckoneth it be received for true that there was viti-25 I have faid) 319. years, which two um feriptoris in the rest. For these be fums put together, make 430 years And Saint Pauls words: And about the time of whereas Saint Paul nameth 450, years, he forty years, God suffered their manners in the finds 20. years to make up Saint Paul's num- wilderness: and he destroyed seven Nations ber, to have been spent after the death of in the Land of Canaan, and divided their Tofia by the Seniors, before the Captivity Land to them by lot. Then afterward he gave of Cushan, or the election of Othoniel: unto them Judges about 450. years, unto the which 20. years added to 430. make 450. time of Samuel the Prophet. So as first in according to Saint Paul. To approve this the eighteenth verse he speaketh of Moles time of the Elders, he citeth two places of and of his years spent in the Wilderness, Scriptures, namely the 24. of Josua, and the then in the nineteenth verse he cometh fecond of Judges, in each of which places it unto the acts of Josus; which were, that is written, that Ifrael served the Lord all the he destroyed seven Nations in the Land of dages of Johna, and all the dayes of the Elders | Canaan, and divided their Land to them that over-lived Josua: so as to these times by lot. In the twentieth Verse it followof the Elders, Codoman giveth 20. years, eth, Then aftermard he gave them Judges a- Jof. 14.1; which make as before 450. according to bout 450. years, &c. and therefore to rec-Saint Paul. Neither would it breed any konfrom the death of Moses, is wide of Saint great difficulty in this opinion, if here al- Pauls meaning, fo far as my weak underio the 20. years of the Seniors between Jo- standing can pierce it. The onely inconvefua and othoniel should be denied. For they nience of any weight in opinion of Codomain which deny these years, and make Othoni- touching this place in the Ads, is, that it els 40. to begin presently upon the death of seems irreconcileable with the account, Hofina, as in the beginning of this reckoning, I Reg. 6.11. For if indeed there were spent they have 20. years less than Codoman, for 450. years between the end of Josia and the toward the end of it (when they reckon beginning of Samuel, certainly there must the years of affliction apart from the years needs be much more than 480. years beof the Judges) in the number of sampsons tween the beginning of the Israelites jouryears, and of the forty years of the Phili- neying from Egypt, and the foundation of flims oppressing the Israelites, they have 20. the Temple by Solomon. To this difficulty years more than Codoman. For they rec- Codoman answereth, that these 480. years, kon these 40, years of oppression all of them 1 Reg. 6.1. must begin to be reckoned, not in a-part from Sampsons 20. but Codoman, as the beginning, but in the ending of their is faid, makes Sampsons 20. to be the one journeying from Egypt, which he makes to be half of the forty of the Philistims oppressi- 25. years after the beginning of Othoniels ons; fo that if the 20. years of the Seniors government; from whence if we cast the be not allowed to Codoman, then he may years of the Judges, with the years of fervireckon (as the letter of the Text feems to tude (which fums, according to his account, inforce) that the Philistims in any Inter- of which we have already spoken, make 397. regnum, before Sampson judged Israel, vexed years) and so to these years add the 40. of the Israelites 40. years, besides the 20. while samuel, and saul, and the 40. of David, and Sampson was their Judge; and so the rec- the 2, of solomon, we shall have the just sum koning will come to 450, years between the of 480. years. Neither is it hard, faith he, that end of Josua, and the beginning of Samuel, the annus egressionis, 1 Kings 6. 1. should though we admit not of an Inter-regnum of be understood egressionis non incipientis, sed the seniors between Josua and Othoniel: For, finita, the year of their coming out of Egypt if the times of their affliction be summed, (for so it is in the original) or the year after they make III. years, to which if we add they came out of Egypt, may well be underthe years of the Judges, which are 339 we stood for the year after they were come out have the just sum of 450. And this com- thence, that is, after they had ended their putation either one way or other, may feem | wandring from thence. For so we find that to be much more probable, than theirs that things which were done forty years after correct the Text, although we should ad- they had set foot out of Egypt, are said to mit of their correction thereof, and read have been done in their going out of Egypt; with them 350. for 450. For whereas they as Pfal. 114. When Ifrael came out of Egypt, conceive that this time of 350. years, is to Jordan was driven back. And Deut. 4.45, begin immediately, or soon after the death | These are the testimonies which Moses spake of Moses: certainly the place of Saint Paul when they came out of Egypt. And thus far

CHAP. XIII

man, for the interpretation of the ab exitu, might indeed be properly faid to have been, to be as much as quum exivissent, or ab exitu when Israel came out of Egypt: like as we finite: for if Junius, Deut. 4.45. do well fay that King Edward the first was crowned read quum exivissent, for in exitu, as it seems when he came out of the Holy Land, for so that herein he doth well, why may not we all journies with their accidents commonly also, to avoid contradiction in the Scri- take name from the place either whence or pture, expound ab exitu to be, postquam exi- whither they tend. But I think that he can journeying should be said not to have had converting the proposition, when Jordan end until the 25. year after the victory of was turning back, Ifrael came out of Egont. Othoniel. To this Codoman answereth, that Indeed most unproper it were to give date then it had no end, till when all the Tribes unto actions commenced long after, from an had obtained their portions, which happen- expedition finished long before, namely, to ed not until this time: at which time the say, that King Edward at his arrival out of Danites at length seated themselves, as it is Palestina did win Scotland, or died at Carlile. July 18.1 declared, July 18. For doubtless to this How may we then believe that enterprize time the Expedition may most conveniently performed so many years after the division be referred. And thus without any great of the Land(which followed the conqueftat inconvenience to him appearing, doth Codo the journies end) should be said to have man reconcile the account of Jephta, and of been at the time of the departure out of E-Saint Paul, with that in the first of Kings, c. 6. gppt? Or who will not think it most strange, Now whereas it is faid, that the Expedition that the most notable account of time, ferof the Danites was when there was no King | ving as the onely guide for certain ages in in Ifrael: to this Codoman answereth, that it | facred Chronology, should not take name is not necessary that we should suppose that and beginning from that illustrious delive-Othoniel lived all those 40. years of rest, of rance out of Egypt, rehearled oftenby God which judg. 3.11. so that by the 25. year himself among the principal of his benefits after his victory, either he might have been to Israel, whereof the very day and moneth dead, or at least, as Gideon did, he might have are recorded in Scripture (as likewise are refused all Soveraignty, and so either way it the year and moneth wherein it expired) might truly be faid that at this time (to wit, and the form of the year upon that occasion the 25. year after Othoniels victory) there changed; but should have reference to the was no King in Ifrael. This opinion of Codo- furprizing of a Town by fix hundred men, man, if it vvere as consonant to other Chro- that robbed a Chappel by the way, and stole nologers, grounding their opinions on the from thence Idols to be their guides, as not plain Text, vvhere it is indisputable, as it is going to work in Gods Name? For this acin it felf round enough and coherent, might cident whereupon Codoman buildeth, hath perhaps be received as good: especially either no time given to it, or a time far diffeconfidering, that the speeches of S. Paul rent from that which he supposeth, and is have not otherwise found any interpretati- indeed rather by him placed in such a year, on, maintaining them as absolutely true, in because it best stood with his interpretation fuch manner as they found, and are fet down. fo to have it, than for any certainty or likeli-But feeing that he wanteth all help of autho- hood of the thing it felf. rity, we may justly suspect the supposition | Wherefore we may best agree with such whereupon his opinion is grounded; it be- as affirm, that the Apostle S. Paul did not ing fuch as the confent of many Authors herein labour to fet down the course of time would hardly fuffice to make very proba- exactly (a thing no way concerning his ble. For who hath told Codoman, that the purpose) but onely to shew that God, who conquest of Laish, by the Tribe of Dan, was had chosen Israel to be his people, delivered performed in the five and twentieth year of them out of bondage, and ruled them by Othoniel? Or what other probability hath Judges and Prophets unto the time of Saul, he than his own conjecture, to shew that did raise up our Lord Jesus Christ out of the Othonicl did fo renounce the office of a feed of David the King, in whole succession Judge after five and twenty years, that it the Crown was established, and promise might then be truly faid there was no King made of a Kingdom that fhould have no end. in If act, but every man did that which was Now in rehearing briefly thus much which good in his own every good in his own eyes?

it feems we may very well agree with codo- by Mofes, and the stopping of Jordan, they find no fuch phrase of speech in Scripture as The next point to be cleared, is how their limiteth a journey by an accident, or faithby tended as a Preface to the declaration fol-Now concerning the rehearfal of the Law lowing (wherein he fleweth Christ to have heen the true Messas) the Apostle was so (as well they might and ought) that purpreached) that he spake as it were at large the very moneth it self. of the 40. years confumed in the Wilder- Now (as commonly the first apprehensiascribing in the same place 40. years to the ground be strong enough to uphold a Parareign of saul: whereas it is manifest that dox, I leave it to the decision of the judicithose years yvere divided between saul and ous Reader. follow their example. The words of S. Paul not begin till the third of Ailon or Elon, yet having reference to a common opinion a- selves the rule holding not true in this War, mong the Scribes in those days that the III. Longa praparatio belli celerem affert victoriyears of servicude were to be reckoned a- am's. That a long preparation begets a speedy Judges; which account the Apostle would in the attempt; and Troy, as it seems, was not in this place stand to contradict, but ra- entred, fackt, and burnt in the third year of ther chose to speak as the vulgar, qualifying Habdon. it vvicha quali, where he faith, quali quadrinfour hundred and fifty years. But Codoman Italy. Habdon in the eighth year of his rule, being not thus contented would needs have died, after he had been the Father of 40: it be so indeed, and therefore dis-joyns the sons, and 30. grand-children. And whereas members to make the account even. In so it is supposed, that the 40. years of Israels doing he dasheth himself against a notable oppression by the Philistims (of which Judg.

far from labouring to make an exact calcula- posely and precisely doth cast up the years tion of times (the History being so well from the departure out of Egypt, unto the known and beleived of the Jews to whom he building of solomons Temple, not omitting ness, whereof no man doubted, faying, that ons are strongest) having already given God suffered their manners in the Wilder- faith to his own interpretation of S Paul, he ness about 40, years. In like manner he thinketh it more needful to find some new proceeded, faying, that from the division of exposition for that which is of it self most the Land unto the dayes of Samuel the Pro- plain, and to examine his own conjecture upphet, in whole time they required to have a on a place that is full of controversie. Thus King, there passed about 450. years. Nei- by expounding after a strange Method, that ther did be stand to tell them, that an hun- vvhich is manifest by that vvhich is obscure. dred and eleven years of bondage menti- he loseth himself in those vvayes vvherein oned in this middle while, were by exact before him never man vvalked. Surely if computation to be included within the 339. one should urge him to give reason of these years of the Judges: for this had been an new opinions, he must needs answer, that impertinent digreffion from the argument Othoniel could not govern above 25. years, which he had in hand. Wherefore it is not because then was the taking of Lailb; at a work so needful as laborious, to search which time there was no King in Ifrael; That out of this place that which the Apostle the Danites must needs have taken Laish at did not here intend to teach, when the fum that time, because else we could not reckon of 480, years is so expresly and purposely backwards from the foundation of the Temple to any action that might be termed Now that the voords of S. Paul (if there the coming of I/racl out of Egypt, vvithout be no fault in the copy through error of some excluding the years of servitude; And that Scribe) are not so curiously to be examined the years of servitude must needs be incluin matter of chronology, but must be taken, ded, for that otherwise he himself should as having reference to the memory and ap- have fpent his time vainly, in feeking to pleaprehension of the vulgar, it is evident by his fure S. Paul with an exposition. Whether this

Samuel, yea, that far the greater part of them And how to proceed in our story. To the vvere spent under the government of the time of Jephta are referred the death of Prophet, howfoever they are here included Herciles, the rape of Helen by Paris, and the in the reign of the King. As for those that provisions which her husband Menelaus, with so much cunning for sake the general reigning then in sparta, and his brother Aopinion, which it favoureth not such exposi- gamemnon King of Mycene, made for her retion as they bring out of a good mind, to covery. Others refer this rape of Helen to help where the need is not over-great; I the fourth year of Ibzan: from which time, had rather commend their diligence, than if the war of Troy (as they suppose) did were sufficiently justified by Beroaldies, as the Greeks had six years to prepare thempart from the 339, years ascribed to the victory: for the Greeks consumed ten years

Three years after Troy taken, which was gentio of quinquaginta, annie ; As it were in the fixt year of Habdon, Eneas arrived in War 6. Text; whereupon all Authors have builded, 13. v. I.) took beginning from the ninth don: I fee no reason for that opinion. For own deliverance, than against their own Ephraim had had little cause of quarrel a- brethren the Ifraelites? but Ammon being gainst Jephta, for not calling them to war overthrown, it seemed at that time, that they over fordan, if the Philistims had held them feared no other enemy. And therefore these in servitude in their own territories; and if 40 years must either be supplied elsewhere. Ephraim could have brought 42000. armed as in the time of Sampson, and afterward: men into the field, it is not likely that they or else they must be referred to the Interwere then opprest: and had it been true regnum between the death of Habdon, and that they were, who will doubt but that the deliverance of Ifrael by Sampfon, such as they would rather have fought against the it was.

year of Jair, and ended with the last of Hab- Philistims with so powerful an Army for their

CHAP. XIV. Of the War of Troy.

§. I.

of the Genealogic of the Kings of Troy, with a note touching the ancient Poets, how ther have observed historical truth.

He War at Troy, with other stories hereupon depending (because the ruine of this City, by most Chronologers is found in the time of Habdon Judge of Israel, whom in the last place I have mentioned.) I rather choose here to treat of in one entire narration, beginning with the lineal descent of their Princes, than to break the ftory into peices by rehearing a part in divers years, the diverlity of occurrents.

The History of the aucient Kings of Troy is uncertain, in regard both of their original, and of their continuance. It is commonly held that Teucer and Dardanus were the two Founders of that Kingdom. This. is the opinion of Virgil: which if he (as Reineccius thinks) took from Berofus, it is the more probable: if Annius borrowed it of him, then it refts upon the authority of Vir- furely good authority, that Tencer first gave gil, who faith thus:

Creta Jovis magni medio jacet insula Ponto: Mons Idaus ubi, & gentis cunabula nostra. Centum Urbes habitant magnas, uberrima regna:

Maximus unde Pater (fi ritè audita recordor)

Tenerus Rhæteas primum eft advectus ad

Optavitque locum regno. Nondum Ilium &

Pergameæ steterant: habitabant vallibus imis.

Hinc Mater cultrix Cybele, Corybaniaque æra, Idaumque nemus, 🦠

In the main Sea the Ile of Creete doth lie: Where Jove was born, thence is our pro-

There is a mount Ida: there in fruitful . Land

An hundred great and goodly Cities stand.

Thence (if I follow not mistaken fame) Teucer the eldest of our grand-fires came To the Rhætean shores: and reigned there, Ere vet fair Ilion was built, and ere The Towers of Troy: their dwelling place they fought In lowest Vales. Hence Cybels rites were brought: Hence Corybantian Cymbals did remove; And hence the name of our Idean grove.

Thus it feemeth by Virgil, who followed name to that Countrey, wherein he reigned ere Troy was built by Dardanus: of which Dardanus in the same book he speaks thus:

Est locus, Hesperiam Grait cognomine di-

Terra antiqua, potens armis atque ubere glebæ,

Oenotrii coluere viri; nunc fama minores Italiam dixisse, ducis de nomine gentem. He nobis proprie sedes : binc Dardanus ortus:

Jasiusque Pater, genus à quo principe nostrum.

Hesperia the Gracians call the place: An ancient fruitful Land, a warlike race, Oenotrians This feat belongs to us; hence Dardanus,

CHAP. XIV.

Atque equidem memini (fama est obscurior

Auruncos ita fere senes, hic ortus ad agris Dardanus Ideus Phrygie penetravit ad urbes, Threiciamque Samuni, que nunc Samothracia

Hine illum Coryti Tyrrhena ab sede profectum, Aurea nunc solio stellantis regia celi Accipit, &c.

Some old Aruncans, I remember well. (Though time have made the fame obscure) would tell

Of Dardanus, how born in Italy. From hence he into Phrygia did fije. And leaving Tuscaine (where he earst had place)

With Corytus did fail to Samothrace; But now inthronized he fits on high, In golden Palace of the starry Sky.

it is probable that he carefully fought, and ing.

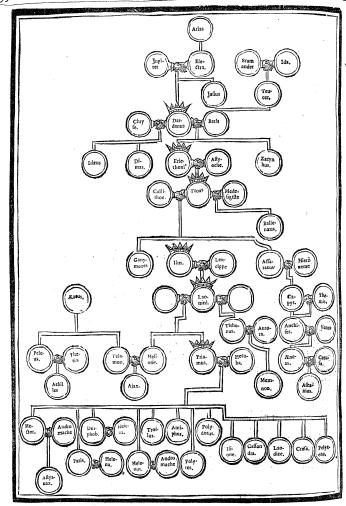

e domes of the Williams charge

Oenotrians held it: now the later progeny [in this did follow, feeing it no way concer-Gives it their Captains name, & calls it Italy; ned Augustus (whom other-whiles he did flatter) whether Teucer were of Crete or no. Hence came the Author of your stock, Jassus. Reineccius doth rather embrace the opinion of Diodorus, & others that think him a Phrygian, by which report he was the Son of Scamander and Ida, Lord of the Country, not founder of the City; and his Daughter or Neece Batia was the second wife of Dardanus founder of Troy. Reineccius further thinks that Atlas reigned in Samothracia, and gave his daughter Electra to Corytus, or Coritus: and that these were parents to Chryse, first wife to Dardanus. Virgil holds otherwife; and the common Tradition of Poets makes Dardanus the fon of Electra by Jupiter, which Electra was the daughter of Atlas. and wife to Coritus King of Hetruria to whom she bare Jasius. Annius out of his Berofus finds the name of Camboblascon, to whom he gives the addition of Corytus, as a Title of dignity, making him Father of Dardanus and Jalius; and further telling us very particularly of the faction between these Brethren, which grew to fuch a heat, that finally Dardanus killed his Brother, and therefore fled into samothrace. The obscu-But contrary to this, and so many Authors, rity of the History gives leave to Annius of approving and confurming it, Reineccius faying what he lift. I, that love not to ule thinks that these names, Troes, Teneri, & Thra-fuch liberty, will for bear to determine any ees, are derived from Tiras or Thiras the son thing herein. But if Dardanus were the Son of Japhet: and that the Dardanians, Mysians, of Jupiter, it must have been of some elder and Ascanians, mixt with the Trojans, were Jupiter than the Father of those that lived Germane Nations, descended from Ashkenaz, about the war of Troj. So it is likewise prothe son of Gomer: of whom the Country, bable that Atlas the Father of Electra was ra-Lake, and River of Ascanius in Asia took ther an Italian than an African, which also name. That Ashkenaz gave name to those is the opinion of Boccace. For (as hath often Devol 4. ! places and people, it is not unlikely: nei-been faid) there were many Jupiters, and is Botther is it unlikely, that the Ascanii, Dardani, many of almost every name of gods: but it gen. and many others, did in after-times pass into was the custome to ascribe to some one the Europe: that the name of Tencer came of Ty-acts of the reft, with all belonging to them.

1. The conjecture is formewhat hard. Con-Therefore I will not greatly trouble my felf cerning Tencer, whereas Halicarnasseus makes vith making any narrow search into these him an Athenian, I-find none that follow fabulous Antiquities, but fet down the Pedihim in the same opinion. Virgil(as is before gree according to the general same; allowshewed) reported him to be of Crete, whose ing to Tencer such Parents as Diodorus gives, authority is the more to be regarded, because because others giving him none, and carryhe had good means to find the truth, which ing the line of Dardanus in manner follow-

esti eksest Shiri iningb to principal of the new recommendation of the Trajan Kingdom, with the length of e- elsewhere done. And first for the destruction very Kings reign, I have chosen good Authors of Troy, which was of greater note than any to be my guides, that in a History, where- accident befalling that City whilst it stood, on depends the most ancient computation it is reckoned by Diodorus to be 780. years of times among the Greeks, I might not fol- more ancient then the beginning of the

Concerning the beginning & continuance | fent of Writers, and general paffage of things low incertainties, ill cohering with the con- ninty fourth Olympiad. Whereas therefore 272. did pass between the beginning of the | narration of the actions which were memothat is, 408 years event between the destru- the most renowned. aion of Troy, and the first institution of those games by Iphitus, if the authority of Diodorus vears after the fall of Troy, vvas 328. years before the first Olympiad.

Hereunto agrees the authority of Diony-Hill As fius Halicarnasseus, vvho placing the foundation of Rome in the first of the seventh Olympiad, that is, four and twenty years after the beginning of those games, accounts it 432. words makes the institution of the Olympiads by sphitus, vyhom he calleth Iphiclus, 480. years later than the destruction of Troy. The fum is eafily collected by necessary inference out of divers other places in the same book. Hereunto doth Eusebins, reckoning excluluci, "Wely agree, and Erasoftania (as is eneed by any deceds, done both before and made and like Clemens Alexandrinus) makes up out of many time. For it is true which Horace faith: m lib particulars, the fame total fum, vvanting, but one year, as reckoning likewife exclutively.

The other collections of divers Writers that are cited by Clemens in the same place, do neither cohere any vvay, nor depend upon any collateral History, by which they Many by valour have deferv'd renown may be verified.

The destruction of Troy being in the year before the Olympiads four hundred & eight: vve must seek the continuance of that from the beginning to the end, out of Eusebius, who leads us from Dardanus on-wards, through memorable accident in the due year.

no good form of a year; but rather to make doubtful.

Olympiads, and the first year of the 94. it is rable, and acknowledged by all Writers. manifest that the remainder of 780 years, whereof this destruction of Troy was one of

The first enterprise that was undertaken by general consent of all Greece, was the last be good proof, vvho elsewhere tels us, that war of Troy, which hath been famous even to the return of the Heraclida, vehich was 80. this day, for the numbers of Princes and valiant Commanders there affembled, the great battails fought with variable successthe long endurance of the fiege; the destruction of that great City; and the may Colonies planted in fundry countries, as well by the remainder of the Trojans, as by the victorious Greeks after their unfortunate return. All which later then the fall of Troy. Solinus in express things, with enumerable circumstances of especial note, have been delivered unto po-Iterity, by the excellent wits of many Writers, especially by the Poems of that great Homer, whose Verses have given immortality to the action, which might elfe perhaps have been buried in oblivion; among other wornetwork fively agree: and Eratosthenes (as is cited by thy deeds, done both before and fince that > Vixere fortes ante Agamemnona Multi, sed omnes illacrymabiles Urgentur, ignotiq; longa Nocte: carent quia vate sacro.

Ere Agamemnon; yet lie all opprest Under long night, unwept for, and unknown: For with no facred Poet were they bleft.

Yet fo it is, that whilft these Writers have with strange fables, or (to speak the best of the reigns of four Kings, by the space of two them) with Allegories far strained, gone ahundred and five and twenty years, and after | bout to enlarge the commendations of those of Priamus, with whom also at length it en- noble undertakers: they have both drawn ded. As for the time which passed under into suspition that great vertue which they Laomedon, we are fain to do as others have fought to adorn, and filled after-ages with done before us, and take it upon trust from almost as much ignorance of the History, as Annius his Authors; believing Manetho fo admiration of the persons. Wherefore it is much the rather, for that in his account of expedient that we feek for the knowledge of the former Kings reigns, and of Priamus, he such actions, in Histories; learning their quais found to agree with Eusebius, which may lities who did manage them, of Poets, in give us leave to think that Annius hath not | whose works are both profit and delight; herein corrupted him. But in this point we yet small profit to those which are delighted need not to be very scrupulous: for seeing otherwise: but such as can interpret their fathat no History or account of time depends | bles, or separate them from the naked truth, upon the reign of the former Kings, but only shall finde matter in Poems, not unworthy to upon the ruins of the City under Priamus, it be regarded of Historians. For those things may suffice that we are careful to place that excepted which are gathered out of Homer; there is very little, and not without much True it is, that some objections appearing disagreement of Authors, written of this weighty, may be alledged in maintenance of great war. All Writers consent with Homer, different computations, which with the an- that the rape of Helen by Paris the fon of fwers I purposely omit, as not willing to dis- Priamus, was the cause of taking Arms: but pute of those years, wherein the Greeks knew how he was hereunto emboldened, it is 6. II.

354

fides for the War.

people opposed to all the World; and that expedition. even then when as the Greeks had not yet one common name among themselves. O oath, or led by reputation and power of the rape of Helen was to procure the redelivery or desirous to partake of the profit and ho-

Greeks, as Herodotus discourseth; but all people were accustomed to steal Women and Cattel, if they could by ftrong hand or of the rape of Helen: and flrength of both power get them: and having stoln them. either to fell them away in fome far Country, or keep them to their own use, So did * Erodotus fetcheth the cause of this rape | Theseus and Pirythons attempt Proserpina; from very far; faying, That whereas the and so did Theseus (long before Paris) ravish phenecians had ravished Io, and carried her Helen. And these practices, as it appears in into Egpt, the Greek, to be revenged on the Thursdider, were so common, that none Barbarians, did first ravish Europa, whom they brought out of Phanicia into Creta, and pyracy, which was accounted a trade of life afterward Medea, whom they fetcht from no less lawful than merchandise: where-Colches, denying to restore her to her father, fore Tyndarens, the father of Helen, consitill fuch time as they might be fatisfied for dering the beauty of his daughter, and the the rape of Io. By these deeds of the Greeks, rape vihich Thesens had made, caused all Paris (as the same Herodotus affirms) was her Wooers, vvho vvere most of the prinemboldened to do the like; not fearing fuch cipal men in Greece, to bind themselves by revenge as enfued. But all this narration folemn oath, that if the vvere taken from her feems frivolous. For what had the King of husband, they should with all their might Colchos to do with the injury of the Phæni- help to recover her. This done, he gave free cians? Or how could the Greeks, as in re- choice of a husband to his daughter, who venge of Io, plead any quarrel against him, chose Menelaus brother to Agamemnon. So that never had heard the name of Phanici- the cause which drew the Greeks unto Troy ans? Thucydides, a writer of unquestionable in revenge of Helens rape, vvas partly the fincerity, maketh it plain, that the name of oath vyhich fo many Princes had made un-Barbarians was not used at all in Homers to her Father Tyndarens. Hereunto the great time, which was long after the War of Troy: power of Agamemnon was not a little helpand that the Greeks themselves were not ing for Agamemnon, besides his great Dothen called all by one name, Hellenes, as af minions in Peloponnesus, vvas Lord of many terwards. So that it were unreasonable to Islands: he was also rich in money, and therethink, that they should have fought revenge fore the Arcadians vvere vvell contented to upon all Nations, as barbarous, for the injury follow his pay, vvhom he embarked for Troy received by one: or that all people elfe in his own thips, which were more than any should have esteemed of the Greeks, as of a other of the Greek Princes brought to that

Thus did all Greece, either as bound by thers with more probability fay, that the two brethren, Agamemnon, and Menelaus; of Hesione, King Priamus his sister, taken for- nour in that great enterprise; take Arms amerly by Hercules, and given to Telamon. gainst the Trojans. The Greeks Fleet was This may have been true: for Telamon (as it (by Homers account) 1200. fayl, or therefeems) was a cruel man, feeing his own fon abouts: but the veffels were not great: for it Tencer durst not come in his fight, after the was not then the manner to build thips with war of Trog, but fled into Cyprus, onely be- decks; only they used (as Thucydides faith) cause his brother Ajax (which Teucer could small ships, meet for robbing on the Sea; not remedy) had flain himself. Yet, were it the least of which carried sifty men, the fo, that Hessone was ill entreated by Telamon, greatest 120. every man (except Captains) it was not therefore likely that Priamus her being both a Mariner and a Souldier. By brother would feek to take her from her, this proportion it appears that the Grecian husband, with whom fhe had lived about Army confifted of 100000. men or therethirty years, and to whom she had born chil- about. This was the greatest Army that dren which were to succeed in his Domini- ever was raised out of Greece : and the greaton. Whereupon I think that Paris had no ness of this Army doth well declare the regard either to the rape of Europa, Medaa, ftrength and power of Troy, which ten whole or Hesione, but was meerly incited by Fenns, years did fland out against such forces: yet that is, by his lust, to do that which in were the Trojans which inhabited the City, those daies was very common. For not only not the tenth part of this number, as Aga-Greeks from Barbarians, and Barbarians from memnon faid in the fecond of Homers Iliads; brought them fuccour. And Rhefus out of come about, and ferved for his Navigation. Thrace, and Memnon out of Affyria (though One great argument Herodotus brings to fome think out of Ethiopia) came to their confirm the faying of the Egyptian Priests; of the Grecians journey, and Embassage to Troy, and of Helena's being detained in Egypt, and of the facrificing of Iphigenia.

6. III.

W Herefore the Greeks, unwilling to ed Helen, and the goods were taken with her Trojans made hereunto it is uncertain, Herodotus from the report of the Egyptian Priests, from Paris before his return to Troy. The sum of his discourse is this.

Paris in his return with Helena, being driven by foul weather unto the coast of Egypt. was accused for the rape of Helen by some bondmen of his, that had taken Sanctuary. Proteus then King of Egypt, finding the accufation true by examination, detained Helen, and the goods taken with her, till her hufa stranger. When therefore the Greeks demanding Helen, had answer, that she was in the ruine of Troy. But when after the City taken, they perceived indeed she had not been there, they returned home, fending Methe whole Nation of Poets (except Euripides) more magnificent, and more graceful to their that they endured all by force, because it lay not in their power to deliver her. Yet in the fourth of his Odyffes, Homer speaks of Menebut their followers and aids were very ma- any Haven in the Greek Seas: whereas Meneny and strong. For all Phrygia, Lycia, Miffia, laus might have putinto any port in Greece, and the greatest part of Asia the less, took and there have remained with good enterpart with the Trojans. The Amazons also tainment, until such time as the Wind had

which is, that if Helen had been at Troy, it had been utter madness for Priamus to see so many miseries befall him, during the war, and so many of his fons flain for the pleasure of one, who neither was heir to the Kingdom (for Hectorwas elder) nor equal in vertue to many of the rest. Besides, it may seem that Lucian spake not more pleasantly then truly, when he faid that Helen, at the war of Troy, was alcome to tryal of arms, if things might most as old as Queen Hecuba, considering that be compounded by treaty, fent Menelaus and she had been ravished by Theseus the compa-Olysse Embassadours to Troy: who demand- nion of Hercules, who took Troy when Priamus was very young; and confidering further, that out of Menelans his house. What answer the she was fifter to Castor and Pollux (she and Pollux being faid by some to have been twins) who failed with the Argonauts, having Telamakes it very probable, that Helen was taken mon the father of Ajax in their company, before the time that Hesione was taken; on whom Telamon begat Ajax, that was a principal commander in the Trojan war. But whether it were fo that the Trojans could not, or would not reftore Helen, fo it was that the Embaffadours returned ill contented, and not verv well entreated, for there wanted not fome that advised to have them flain. The Greeks hercupon incensed, made all haste towards band should require them: dismissing Paris Troy:at which time Calchas (whom some say to without further punishment, because he was have been a Runagate Trojan, though no such thing be found in Homer) filled the Captains, and all the Hoast with many troublesome an-Egypt, they thought themselves deluded, and swers and divinations. For he would have Athereupon made the war, which ended with gamemnons daughter facrificed to appeafe Diana, whose anger he said, withstood their passage. Whether the young Lady were sacrifized, or vvhether (as some vvrite) the goddes nelaus to ask his wife of Proteus. Homer, and vvas contented with a Hind, it is not needful here to be disputed of Sure it is that the mavary from this History, thinking it a matter lice of the Devil, which vvaits for all opportunities, is never more importunate, then Poems, for the retaining of a fair Lady, than vvhere mens ignorance is most. Calchas also told the Greeks, that the taking of Troy vvas impossible, till some fatall impediments vvere removed : and that till ten years vvere past, laus his being in Egypt, before he returned the Town should hold out against them. All home to Sparta; which voyage it were not which not with standing, the Greeks proceeded easily believed that he made for pleasure, and in their enterprise, under the command of Aif he were driven thither by contrary Winds, gamemnon; who was accompanied with his much more may we think that Paris was Brother Menelates, Achilles the most valiant of likely to have been driven thither by foul all the Greeks, his friend Patroclus, and his Tu-Weather. For Paris immediately upon the tor Phwnix, Ajax and Tencer, the fons of Telarape committed, was enforced to fly, taking | mon; Idomeneus, and his companion Merifuch Winds as he could get, and rather en- ones; Neftor and his fons Antilochus and during any storm, than to commit himself to Thrasymides; Ulysses, Muestheus the son of Petreus. CHAP. XIV

Petreus. Captain of the Athenians; Dio- Priannus made, when the Greek Princes modes the son of Tydens, a man of singular came into the field, the tenth year, for he contage; the wife and learned Palamedes, knew none of them; and therefore fitting up-Ascalaphus, and Jalmenus, the sons of Mars, on an high tower (as Homer tels) he learnwho had failed with the Argonauts; Phi- ed their names of Helen: which though it is House lettetes also the son of Paan, who had the ar- like to be a siction, yet could it not at all have like, rows of Hercules, without which Calchas been supposed that he should be ignorant faid, that the City could not be taken, Ajax of them, if they had shewed themselves bethe fon of Oileus, Peneleus, Theas, Eumelus, fore the town fo many years together. Be-Tylandrus, Euripilus, Athamas, Sthenelus, tween these relations of Thucidides and Hero-Tlepolemus the fon of Hercules; Podalyrius, dicus, the difference is not much, the one and Machon, the sons of Esculapius; Epens, saying, that a few of the Greeks remained in who is faid to have made the wooden the Camp before Troy, whilest the rest made Horse, by which the town was taken; and purveyance by land and by sea: the others Protest ans, who first leapt on shore, neglecting that the whole army did spend the time in the Oracle that threatned death to him that wasting the Sea-coasts. Neither do the landed first.

6. IV.

of the Ads of the Gracians at the fiege.

tertainment, as might eafily perswade them that Summer, in which Troy was taken, great to think that the war would be more than | booties were brought into the Camp, and one years work. For in the first encounter, a great pestilence arose among the Greeks: they lost Protesilans, whom Heller flew, and which Homer faith, that Apollo sent in revenge many others, without any great harm done to of his Priests daughter, whom Agamemnon the Trojans: fave only that by their numbers | had refused to let go, for any ransome: but of men, they wan ground enough to incamp Heraclides interpreting the place, faith, that themselves in, as appeareth in Thucydides. by Apollo was meant the Sun, who raised The principal impediment which the Greeks pestilent Fogs, by which the army was infound, was want of victuals, which grew up- feeted, being lodged in a moorish piece of on them by reason of their multitude, and the ground. And it might well be that the camp finalness of their vessels, wherein they could was over-pestered with those, who had been not carry necessaries for such an Army. Here- labroad, and now were lodged all close toupon they were compelled to fend fome part | gether: having also grounded their ships of their men, to labour the ground in Cherro- within the fortifications. ness:others to rob upon the Sea for the relief About the same time arose much contenof the Camp. Thus was the war protracted tion between Agamemnon and Achilles anine whole years, and either nothing done, bout the booty, whereof Agamemnon, as Geor if any skirmishes were, yet could the town neral, having first chosen for his part a captive receive little loss by them, having equal woman, and Achilles in the second place chonumbers to maintain the field against such sen for himself another, then Ajax, Dlyses, and Greeks as continued the fiege, and a more fafe fo the rest of the chief Captains in order: retrait if the enemy got the better.

first year, till the tenth, there was no fighting her father Apollo's Priest, that so the pestilence at all, and Heraclide commends as very might cease, then did Agamemnon greatly credible, the report of Herodicus, that the rage, and ray, that he alone would not lose his Greeks did not lye before Troy the first nine part of the spoile, but would either take that years: but onely did bear up and down the which had been given to Achilles, or that Seas, exercising their men, and inriching which had fallen to Ajax, or to Ulyles. Here themselves, and so by wasting the enemies upon Achilles defied him, but was fain to sufcountry did block up the Town, unto which fer all patiently, as not able to hold his Conthey returned not untill the fatall time drew cubine by firong hand, nor to revenge her near when it should be subverted.

Poets greatly disagree from these authors:for they make report of many towns and Ilands walted, and the people carried into Captivity; in which actions Achilles was employed, whom the army could not well, nor would have spared, if any service of importance had been to be performed before the "Flese, and many other of less note, City. Howsoever it was, this is agreed by arriving at Troy, found such sharp en- general consent, that in the beginning of when the South-sayer Calchas had willed that Wherefore Ovid faith, That from the Agamemnons woman should be restored to losse otherwise than by refusing to fight, or This is confirmed by the enquiry which to fend forth his Captains. But the Greeks, encouraged by their Captains, prefented of theirs, which drave up and down the field. themselves before the City without him as they were directed by the Captains, who the Greeks was almost desperate.

Greeks with a fresh supply. Agamemnon, Di- death of Patroclus his dear friend. omades, Vlyses, and the rest of the Princes At this time Agamemnon reconciled him-by the fwiftness of their horses, presenting The Trojans were now relieved with themselves where need required, threw first great fuccours, all the neighbour Countries their Javelins, and then alighting, fought on having fent them aid: partly drawn to that foot, with swords and battle-axes, retiring War by their Commanders who affifted Pri- into the ranks of footmen, or elfe returning amus for money, wherewith he abounded to their Chariots when they found cause, when the War began (as appears by his and so began again with a new dart as they words in Hower, or for love of himselfand could get it, if their old were lost or broken. his fons, or hope of marriage with some of his Their arms defensive were helmets, breastmany and fair Daughters; partly also (as we plates, boots of brass, or other mettal, and may well ghesse) incited by the wrongsre-fhields commonly of leather plated over. ceived of the Greeks when they wasted the The offensive were swords and battel-axes Countries adjoyning unto Troy. So that at hand; and stones, arrows or darts when when Hellor issued out of the Town, he was they fought at any distance. The use of little inferiour to his enemies in numbers of their Chariots (befides the swiftness) was to men.or quality of their Leaders. The prin-keep them from weariness, whereto the cipal Captains in the Trojan Army, were leaders were much subject, because of their Hellor, Paris, Deiphobias, Helenus, and the o- armour, which the strongest and stoutest ther fons of Priamus : Antenor, and ware heaviest, also that from them they his fons, Polydamas, Sarpedon, Glaucus, Afins, might throw their Javelins downwards, with and the fons of Panthus, befides Rhefus, who the more violence. Of which Weapon! find was flain the first night of his arrival; Mem- not that any carried more than one or two non. Queen Penthesilea, and others who came into the field: wherefore they were often towards the end of the War. Between these driven to return to their tents for a new one and the Greeks were many battels fought: when the old was gone. Likewise of arthe greatest of which were, that at the tomb mours they had little change or none; eveof King Ilus upon the Plain: and another at ry man (fpeaking of the chief) carried his the very trenches of the Camp, wherein He- own compleat, of which if any piece were dor brake through the fortifications of the loft or broken, he was driven to repair it Greeks, and began to fire their ships; at with the like, if he had any fitting, taken which time Ajax, the fon of Telamon, with from fome Captain whom he had flain, and his brother Tencer, were in a manner the on-stripped; or else to borrow of them that ly men of note that remaining unwounded, had by fuch means gotten some to spare. made head against Hector, when the state of Whereas therefore Achilles had lost his armour which Hettor (as is faid before) had Another battel (for fo Antiquity cals it) taken from the body of Patroclus, he was or rather the same renewed, was fought by sain to await the making of new, ere he Patroclus, who having obtained leave, drew forth Achilles Troops, relieving the weary very defirous, that he might revenge the though fore wounded, yet were driven to felf unto Achilles, not only refloring his conput on armour, and with help of Patroclus, cubine Brises, but giving him very great repelled the Trojans very hardly. For in that gifts, and excusing former matters as well as fight Patroclus was lost, and his body, with he might. In the next battel Achilles did so much contention recovered by his friends, behave himself, that he did not only put the was brought back into the Camp: the armour Trojans to the worst, but also slew the valiof Achilles which he had put on, being torn ant Hedor, whom (if Homer may herein be from him by Hestor. It was the manner of believed) he chased three times about the those Wars, having slain a man, to strip him, Wals of Troy. But great question may be and hale away his body, not reftoring it made of Homer's truth in this narration. For vvithout ransome, if he vvere one of marke, it is not likely that Hellor would stay alone Of the vulgar little reckoning was made: without the City (as Homer doth report of for they fought all on foot, flightly armed, him) when all the Trojans were fled into it: and commonly followed the fuccess of their nor that he could leap over the Rivers of Captains; who rode not upon horses, but Xanthus and Simois, as he must have done in in Chariots, drawn by two or three horses, that flight: nor that the Trojans, perceiving which were guided by some trusty followers Hestor in such an extremity, would have for-

CHAP. XIV.

in. But this is reported only to grace Achil- must have perished for hunger, if they had les, who having (by what means foever) not by isluing forth unseasonably discovered flain the noble Hettor, did not only carry a- the invention. Whereas further it is faid. way his dead body, as the custome then was, that this Horse was so high and great, that it but boring holes in his feet, and thrusting could not be brought into the Town through leathern thongs into them, tyed him to his any of the gates, and that therefore the Tro-Chariot, and dragging him shamefully about jans were fain to pull down a part of their the field, felling the dead body to his father Wall to make way for it, through which Priamus for a very great ransome. But his breach the Greeks did afterwards enter; it cruelty and covetousness were not long unis hereby manifest, that the inclosing of so revenged; for he was shortly after slain many principal men was altogether needless. with an arrow by Paris, as Homer fayes in confidering that without their help there the Scean Gate; or as others, in the Tem- was way sufficient for the Army, so that the ple of Apollo, whither he came to have mar- furprifing of any gate by them was now to ried Polyxena the daughter of Priamus, with no purpose. whom he was too far in love, having flain John Paptifta Gramay in his History of Afo many of her brethren; and his body was fia, discourting of this War, faith that the ransomed (as Lycophron faith) at the felf-Greeks did both batter the Wals with a fame rate that Hedors was by him fold for. Wooden Engine, and were also let into the Not long after this, Penthesilea Queen of the City by Antenor, at the Scaan gate: the Amazons arrived at Troy, who after some Townsmen sleeping and drinking without proof given of her Valour, was flain by Pyr- fear or care, because the fleet of the Greeirhus the fon of Achilles.

of the taking of Troy, the wooden Horse, the the reliques of Troy.

by night, as all Writers agree: but whether ctory in most points to these two Authors, by the Treason of Eneas and Antenor; or without once taking notice of the oppositiby a wooden Horse, as the Poets, and com- on, which they having served in that War mon Fame (which followed the Poets) have made against the common report, had it not delivered, it is uncertain. Some write that been that either those books were even in upon one of the gates of Troy, called Scan, those times thought frivolous, or elseconwas the Image of a Horse, and that the Greeks tained no such repugnancy to the other Auentring by that gate, gave occasion to the thors as now is found in them. report, that the City was taken by an artifi- Also concerning the number of men slain cial Horse. It may well be that with some in this War, which Dares and Dyllis say to wooden Engine, which they called a Horie, have been above 600000. on the Trojan they either did batter the Wals as the Ro- fide, and more then 800000. of the Greeks, mans in after-times used to do with the it is a report meerly fabulous; for as much Ram: or scaled the Wals upon the sudden, as the whole Fleet of the Greeks was reckoand so took the City. As for the hiding of ned by Homer, who extelled their Army and men in the hollow body of a wooden Horse, deeds as much as he could, to be somewhat it had been a desperate adventure, and ser less than 1200. sail, and the Army therein ving to no purpose. For either the Trojans transported over the Greek seas, not much might have perceived the deceit, and slain above 100000. men, according to the rate all those Princes of Greece, that were inclo- formerly mentioned. But it is the common fed in it (which also by such as maintain this fashion of men to extol the deeds of their report they are faid to have thought upon:) Ancients: for which cause both Homer mag, or they might have left it a few dayes with nified the Captains of the Greeks that ferved out the City (for it was unlikely, that they in the War, and Virgil with others were as fhould the very first day both conclud eponthe bringing it into the Town, and break trojans and their City, from which the Roman bringing it into the Town, and break trojans and their City, from which the Roman bringing it into the Town, and break trojans and their City, from which the Roman bringing it into the Town, and break trojans and their City, from which the Roman bringing it is the trojans and their City, from which the Roman bringing it is the trojans and their City, from which the Roman bringing it is the trojans and their City, from which the Roman bringing it is the trojans and their City, from which the Roman bringing it is the trojans and their City, from which the Roman bringing it is the trojans and their City, from which the Roman bringing it is the trojans and their City, from which the Roman bringing it is the trojans and their City, from which the Roman bringing it is the trojans and their City, from which the Roman bringing it is the trojans and their City, from which the Roman bringing it is the trojans and their City, from which the Roman bringing it is the trojans and their City, from which the Roman bringing it is the trojans and their City is the trojans and the received bringing it is the re down their Wals upon the sudden to do it:) mans descended. Yea the Athenians long born to open some of their gates and let him by which means they who were shut into it.

ans had hoisted sail, and was gone the day before to the He of Tenedos, thereby to bring the Trojans into fecurity. That the City was betrayed, the Books of Dares and Dydis must prove, which whether we now have the Book of Dares and Dyctis, the Colonies of same that were by them written, it may be fuspected; for furely they who have made mention of these Writers in ancient times, Finally, after the death of many Worthy would not, as they did, have followed the Persons on each side, the City was taken reports of Homer and others quite contradiafter in the War which Xerxes the Persian agreeing. For (besides other quarrels a-King made against all Greece, did not for- rising upon the division of the booty, and bear to vaunt of the great cuming which the like occasions) at the time when they Almesteus the fon of Peteus had shewed in should have set fail, Agamemnon and his bromarshalling the Grecian Army before Troy: ther fell out, the one being desirous to dewhereupon, as if it had been a matter of part immediatly, the other to fray and permuch consequence, they were so proud, form some sacrifices to Minerva. Hereupon that they refused to yeeld unto Gelon King they fell to hot words, half the Fleet remainof almost all Sicily, the Admiralty of their ing with Agamemnon, the rest of them sailed Scas, notwithstanding that he promised to to the Isle of Tenedos; where when they arbring 200. good fighting ships, and 30000 rived, they could not agree among themmen for their defence.

parts of the World, which have striven to fore vexed with tempels: for Pallas (as bring their descent from some of the Princes Homer saith) would not be perswaded in that warred at Troy: all difficulties or un- hafte. likelihoods in fuch their Pedegree notwith- They who returned fafe were Neftor.and standing. But those Nations which indeed, Pyrrhus, whom Orestes afterwards slew: also the Country adjoyning, by Antenor: the non likewise returned home, but was forth-Chaonians planted in Epirus by Helenus, the with flain by his Wife, and by the Adulterer reigned over them about Troy.

6. VI.

returning from Troy.

on the Trojans. For Thucydides notes, that some of the Locrians were driven into Aby reason of their long abode at the siege, frick, others into Italy, all the East part they found many alterations when they re- whereof was called Magna Gracia, by reason turned : fo that many were driven by their of fo many Towns which the Greeks were borderers from their ancient feats: many driven to erect upon that Coast. Finally, it were expelled their Countries by faction: appears in Homer, that the Gracian Ladies, some were slain anon after their arrival: o- whose Husbands had been at the War of thers were debarred from the Soveraignty | Troy, were wont to call it, The place where among the people, by such as had stayed at the Greeks suffered misery, and the unlucky home. The cause of all which may seem City not to be mentioned. And thus much to have been the dispersion of the Army, for Troy, and those that warred there: the which, weakned much by the calamities of overthrow of which City, as hath been faid, that long War, was of little force to repel happened in the time of Habdon Judge of injuries, being divided into so many pieces Israel, whom Sampson, after a vacancy or felves, but some returned back to Agamem-The like vanity possessed many other Ci-non; others were dispersed, each holding ties of Greece, and many Nations in these his own course. But the whole Fleet was or in most probability, came of the Trojans, Idomeneus and Philottetes, who nevertheless were the Albanes in Italy; and from them the as Virgiltels, were driven foon after to feek Romans, brought into that Country by Ane- new feats: Idomeneus among the Salentines, as: the Venetians first seated in Padna, and and Philotletes at Petilia in Italy. Agamemfon of King Priamus. To which Hellani- Ægystus, who for a while afterusured his cus addeth, that the Posterity of Hellor did Kingdome. Menelaus wandring long upon assemble such of the Trojans as were left, and the Seas, came into Agypt, either with Helen, or (as may rather feem) to fetch her. Ulyffes, after ten years, having lost all his company, got home in poor estate, with much ado recovering the mastership of his own house. All the rest either perished by Of the distresses and dispersions of the Greeks the way, or were driven into exile, and fain to feek out new habitations.

Ajax the fon of Oileus was drowned : Ten-Oncerning the Greeks, they talted as cerfled into Cyprus; Diomedes to King Danmuch mifery as they had brought up- nus, who was Lord of the Japiges in Apulia; under several Commanders, not very well Inter-regnum for certain years, succeeded.

CHAP. XV. Of Sampson, Ely, and Samuel.

of Sampson.

these things I gather out of that Story. First, sear of their revenge; though he was no that the Angel of God forbad the Wife of looner loofened, but he gave them another Monoah the Mother of Sampson, to drink overthrow, and slew 1000. with the jaw-Wine or ftrong drink, or to eat any unclean bone of an Affe. meat after the was conceived with child; Laftly, being made blind, and a prifoner because those strong liquors hindered the by the treason of his Wife, he was content strength, and as it were wither and shrink to end his own life, to be avenged of his encthe child in the mothers womb. Though mies, when he pulled down the pillars of this were even the counsel of God himself, the house at the Feast whereto they sent for and delivered by his Angel, yet it feemeth Sampson, to deride him; till which time he that many Women of this age have not bare his affliction with patience: but it was read, or at least will not believe this pre- truly said of Seneca; Patientia sape lasavercept : the most part forbearing nor drinks, titur in furorem; Patience often wounded is nor meats, how ftrong or unclean foever, converted into fury: neither is it at any time filling themselves with all forts of Wines, and so much wounded by pain and loss, as by dewith artificial drinks far more forcible: by rifion and contumely. reason whereof so many wretched feeble bodies are born into the World, and the races of the able and strong men in effect decayed.

of God refused the facrifice which Manoah would have offered him, commanding him to prefent it unto the Lord: and therefore those that professe divination by the help of ceeded sampson, is written in the be-Angels, to whom also they facrifice, may af- ginning of Samuel; who foretold him of the furedly know that they are devils who ac- destruction of his house, for the wickedness cept thereof, and not good Angels, who re- of his fons, which he suppressed not, neither ceive no worship that is proper to God.

by his Wives, to wit, by their importunity buling the Sacrifice, and prophaning and poland deceitful tears: by the first he lost but a luting the holy places: though Levi Ben Quem nulla vis superare potuit, voluptas ever- forcing the woman by the sons of Eli, hatha Inpinousness overturned.

HE birth and acts of Sampson Juda, to befiege Sampson, in the rock or are written at large in the 13. mountain of Etam, using these Words: 14.15. and 16. of Judges; and Knowest not thou that the Philistims are Rulers therefore I shall not need to over us? &c. After which they bound him. make a repetition thereof. But and delivered him unto the Philiftims, for Secondly, it is to be noted, that the Angel of Eli, and of the Ark taken; and of Dagons fall, and the fending back of the Ark.

"He Story of Eli the Prieft, who fucdid he punish them according to their de-1 Sun in Thirdly, this Sampson was twice betrayed serts: whose sins were horrible, bothin a-" part of his goods; by the second his life. Gerson, to extenuate this filthy offence of tit: Whom no force could over-master, Vo- contrary opinion. In this time therefore it pleased God to cast the Israelites under the Fourthly, we may note, that he did not in fwords of the Philiftims; of whom there peall deliver Israel from the oppression of the rished in the first encounter 4000, and in the Philistims; though in some fort he revenged, second battel 30000. footmen; among and defended them: for notwithstanding whom the sons of Eli being slain, their father that he had shin 30, of them in his first at- (hearing the lamentable success) by falling tempt, burnt their Corn in harvest time, and from his chair, brake his neck. He was the given them a great overthrow instantly up- first that obtained the High-Priesthood of on it : yet so much did Ifrael fear the Phili- the stock of Ithamar the son of Aaron, bestims, as they affembled 3000. men out of fore whose time it continued successively in the race of Eleazar the eldest brother of men in their ears (to wit, the hearing of the Ithamar: for Aaron was the first, Eleazar the Gospel preached) how should it profit them by fecond, Phinees the fon of Eleazar the third, hanging it about their necks? For it was ner-The Bocci the fift, Ozi the fon of Bocci the fixt, the Cross, but the reverence of the Father, and then Eli, as Josephus and Lyranus out of that gave the one for a memory of his Codivers Hebrew Authors have conceived. In venant; and the Faith in his Son, which shed the race of Ithamar the Priesthood conti- his blood on the other for redemption, that cast out Abiathar, and established Sadock life or after it. and Achimaas and their fuccessors. The Ark tivity, &c.

1500 5.6. they did, they were then victorious. For af- | sent him into the world, that all the Oracles, to me as seemeth good in his eyes.

in Troy, the City should never be overturned: became speechless. fo did the Christians in the last fatal battel Now while the Philistims triumphed after

Abilize the fon of Phinees the fourth, his fon ther the wood of the Ark, nor the wood of nued after Eli, to the time of Salomon, who could or can profit them and us, either in this

The Philistims returning with the greatest of God which Ifrael brought into the field, victory and glory which ever they obtainwas in this battel taken by the Philistims. ed, carried the Arkof God with them to A-For as David witnesseth, God greatly abhor- zotus, and set it up in the house of Dagon red Ifrael, so that he forsook the habitation their Idol: but that night the Idol fell out of shilo: even the Tabernacle where he dwelt of his place, from above to the ground, and among men, and delivered his power into cap- lay under the Ark. The morning following they took it up, and fet it again in his Now as it pleased God at this time, that place. And it fell the second time, and the the Ark whereby himself was represented head brake from the body, and the hands should fall in the hands of the Heathen, for from the arms, shewing that it had nor powthe offences of the Priests and people: so did er nor understanding in the presence of he permit the Chaldeans to destroy the Tem- God; for the head fell off, which is the feat ple built by Salomon; the Romans to over- of reason and knowledge, and the hands throw the second Temple; and the Turks to (by which we execute strength) were sunoverthrow the Christian Churches in Asia dred from the arms. For God and the devil and Europe. And had not the Israelites put inhabit not in one house, nor in one heart. more confidence in the facrament, or repre- And if this Idol could not endure the reprefentation, which was the Ark, than in God fentation of the true God, it is not to be himself, they would have observed his Laws, marvelled, that at such time as it pleased him and ferved him onely: which whenfoever to cover his onely begotten with flesh, and ter the captivity they had no Ark at all, nor wherein the Devil derided and betrayed in the times of the Macchabees: and yet for | mortal men, lost power, speech and operatitheir piety it pleased God to make that Fa- on at the instant. For when that true light mily as victorious as any that guarded them- which never had beginning of brightness, felves by the fign in stead of the substance. brake through the clouds of a Virgins body, And that the Ark was not made to the end shining upon the earth which had been long to be carried into the field as an enfign, Da- obscured by Idolatry, all those foul and stinkvid witnessed when he fled from Absalon. ing vapours vanished. Plutarch rehearseth a For when the Priests would have carried memorable accident in that age concerning the Ark with him; he forbad it, and caused the death of the great god Pan, as he stileth it to be turned into the City, using these him; where (as ignorant of the true cause) he words: If I shall find favour in the eyes of the searcheth his brains for many reasons of so Lord he will bring me again: if not, let him do great an alteration: yet finds he none out but frivolous. For not only this old Devil did The Trojans believed that while their then die as he supposed, but all the rest, as Palladium or the image of Minerva was kept Apollo, Jupiter, Diana, and the whole rabble against Saladine carry into the field, as they this victory, God strook them with the were made believe, the very Cross whereon grievous disease of the Hemorrhoides, of Christ died; and yet they lost the battel, which they perished in great numbers. For it their bodies, and the wood. But Chrysoftome is written, that the Lord destroyed them. It was upon Saint Matthem (if that be his work) gi- therefore by general consent ordered, that veth a good judgment, speaking of those the Ark should be removed from Azotus to that wore a part of Saint John's Gofpel a-bout their necks, for an annulet or preferva-ties of the Philiftim; to prove, as it feemeth, tive: si tibi ea non prosunt in auribus, quomodo whether this disease were fallen on them by Proderunt in collo ? If those words do not prosit accident, or by the hand of God immediatly:

CHAP. XV

2 Sams 5.9. but when it was brought to Gath and re-1 ces of the Philiftims perceived, they returnceived by them, the plague was yet more ed to Ekron. After which, God spared not his grievous and mortal. For the hand of the own people the Bethshemites, in that they pre-Lord was against this City with a very great sumed to look in the Ark, And because they destruction, and he smote the men of the City knew God and his commandements, and had both small and great &c. And being not yet been taught accordingly; he strook them fatisfied, they of Gath fent the Ark to Ekron more grievously than he did the heathen: or Accaron, a third City of the Philiftims: for there perished of them fifty thousand and but they also soit the same smart, and crycd seventy. From hence the Ark was carried to out, that themselves and their people should Kiriath-jearim, and placed in the house of be flain thereby; For there was a destructi- Abinadab; where it is written that it remainon and death throughout all the City. In the ed twenty years in the charge of Eleazarhis end, by the advice of their Priests, the Prin- son, until David brought it to Hierusalem. ces of the Philiftims. did not onely refolve Now whereas it is faid, that in the mean vice by strong hand. Wherefore confessing | jearim. the power of the God of Ifrael to be almighty, and that their own Idols were subject thereunto, they agreed to offer a fin-offering, using these words; so ye shall give glory to the God of Ifrael, that he may take his hand from you, and from your gods, and from your feen his miracles by Daniel. wherefoever; much less when they were left among you.

to return the Ark, but to offer gifts unto the while the Ark was in Nob, Miffa, and Galga- & Ithe God of Ifracl, remembring the plague which last was the Tabernacle, which was at this !. had fallen on the Egyptians, when their time severed from the Ark, or at least, it this look hearts were hare not hold the people of God from their inheritance, and from his ferthefe places, and anon returned to Kiridh. inheritance.

of Samuel, and of his Government.

land. And what can be a more excellent Hese Tragedies overpast and ended, witnessing, than where an enemy doth approve our cause? according to Aristotle; he was yet a child, became now Judge and Pulchrum of testimonium, quo nostra probantur Governour of Israel. He was descended of ab bossibus. So did Pharao consess the living the samily of (b) Chore or Korach. For Levi Osta God, when he was plagued in Egypt: and had three sons; Gerson, Cheath, and Meran: 6.12. Nabuchadonofor and Darius, when they had Cheath had Amram and Izaar; of Amram came Mofes and Aaron; of Izaar, Chore; This counsel therefore of the Priests be- and of the family of Chore, Samuel. His faing imbraced and the golden Hamorrhoides, ther Eleana a Levite, was called an Ephraand the golden Mice prepared, they caused twan; not that the Levites had any proper (1) White two milch Kine to be chosen, such as had not inheritance, but because he was of (e) Mount Region been yoaked, and a new Cart or Carriage to Ephraim, like as Jesse, David's sather was call was difficult to the control of the control be framed: but they durst not drive or di- led an Ephrataan, because born at Ephrata, appeared rect it to any place certain, thereby to make or Bethleem. Hannah his mother being long Judits tryal whether it were indeed the hand of fruitles, obtained him of God by prayers difficult God that had strucken them. For if the Ark and tears: it being an exceeding shame to were of God were carried towards Bethsbemesh, the Jewish women to be called barren, in Robbits and interaction to be called barren, in Robbits and into the territory of Ifrael, then they respect of the bleffing of God, both to Abra- Booking should resolve that from God onely came have, that his feed should multiply as the the total the total should resolve that from God onely came have, that his feed should multiply as the total should resolve that from God onely came have, that his feed should multiply as the their late destruction. For the Philistims Stars of Heaven, and the fands of the Sea; Epine knew that the milch Kine which drew the as in the beginning to Adam, Increase and which Ark, could not be forced from their Calves, multiply, ocand in Denteronomy the feventh, in Jul. but that they would have followed them There shall be neither male nor female barren cassis

